

A Killer 140

Chapter 140: Save people

"In front of me, do you dare to say such a big thing?"

"Okay! I have Tang Zheng's lifetime to see how your little ruffian made me beg you." Tang Zheng also said angrily at the moment.

The two people's eyes met, and neither of them relaxed.

Li Tian and Tang Zheng looked at each other like a pair of enemies.

"Feifei, from now on, I will never see this poor boy again. If you dare to see him again, I will completely sever the father-daughter relationship with you." Tang Zheng in front of him said angrily, and froze there. Feifei walked outside the door.

Feifei was unwilling, and looked at Li Tian with tears, but what about Li Tian? But he stood there like dumbfounded, motionless.

Until Feifei was completely taken out by her father.

Standing inside the room, Xiao Zhou sighed helplessly, looked at Li Tian who was standing there like a wood, sighed softly, then turned his head and walked out.

In a blink of an eye, only Li Tian and Shen Feng were left in the room.

"Brother Tian." Shen Feng called Li Tian.

Only then did Li Tian slowly come back to the back looking at Tang Feifei, with a trace of unwillingness in his eyes.

He shook his head lightly, and then said in a casual way: "Let's go, go see Sister Xue."

After speaking, he turned and walked towards Xia Xue's room.

At this moment, Xia Xue was still in a semi-conscious state, still speaking vaguely inaudible words in her mouth. More importantly, Xia Xue's cheeks were flushed, as if she was drunk.

This can't help making Li Tian and Shen Feng stunned.

Of course they didn't know that Xia Xue had been given medicine by that * fat guy.

"What's wrong with Sister Xue?" Shen Feng asked, blinking.

Li Tian shook his head.

"I don't know, but I think it's better to take Sister Xue out of here first."

"Yeah, too."

Speaking of Li Tian, he picked up Xia Xue's delicate body on the bed. The moment he touched his body, Li Tian suddenly felt that Xia Xue's body was so hot, and he looked so heavy when he vented.

This made Li Tian stunned, but he walked outside quickly.

After hitting a car, the two returned to their original places.

After laying Xia Xue gently on the bed, Li Tian couldn't help frowning deeply.

"What's wrong, Brother Tian, why are you looking so ugly?" Shen Feng looked at Li Tian in surprise.

Li Tian glanced at Xia Xue on the bed, and suddenly said, "I think there is something wrong with Sister Xue. She was breathing heavily along the way, and her body was so hot and hot..."

"Really?" Shen Feng couldn't help but look at Xia Xue.

She was in a semi-comatose state on the bed, her mouth babbled, and at the same time, as the power of the medicine began to work, she began to feel hot and she began to take off her shirt.

Li Tian and Shen Feng who looked like this were immediately depressed.

How did that happen?

That Xia Xue's moaning and groaning sound was heard in the ears of the two elders, and they couldn't help but make their bodies feel hot.

She twisted her posture, and the two people who appeared perfectly and looked at the white skin were dumbfounded.

"Will Sister Xue be harmed by those bastards?" Shen Feng asked suddenly.

"What do you mean?" Li Tian frowned.

"I see Sister Xue's appearance, it seems that she has been taken medicine, a kind of spring medicine." Shen Feng said.

"Huh?" Li Tian suddenly felt depressed when Shen Feng said this.

aphrodisiac!

Of course Li Tian knows what medicine it is.

At this moment, looking at the appearance of Xia Xuejiao and the figure of the mature woman again, she couldn't help but froze: "What should I do?"

"Should...should..." Shen Feng said for a long time without saying it.

It's best to gritted his teeth and finally said: "You have to find a man."

After speaking, his face became awkward.

Of course Li Tian understood what Shen Feng meant, and was stunned right now.

"Is there any other way? Think of another way." Li Tian said in a panic.

He knew in his heart that if this kind of spring medicine is not given to a man in time, it is likely to stimulate the nerves and cause death. Xia Xue in front of him has already begun to attack. If he does not find someone, it is likely to be due to nerves. Too much excitement and death.

But Shen Feng shook his head.

"There is no other way to treat this kind of thing."

"Brother Tian, or you..." Shen Feng suddenly blinked at Li Tian and said.

Li Tian blushed immediately: "What are you talking about? There must be some other way."

"Really not!"

"Look at what Sister Xue looks like now..." Shen Feng pointed to Xia Xue on the bed and said.

I saw Xia Xuejiao's body trembling uncontrollably, and the heat of her whole body made her shaky, her face flushed like fire, and her mouth was still moaning and groaning, seemingly uncomfortable.

"Brother Tian, Sister Xue became like this because of us. If we don't save her, I really don't know what the result will be. And I think Sister Xue should like you very much, so I think you should be responsible for saving Xue. Sister." Shen Feng said.

This made Li Tian completely depressed there.

"Can he do this? Does he really want to sleep with Sister Xue? But what else can he do? Is there any other way?"

"If you don't save Sister Xue, it's likely that her life is really in danger!!" Shen Feng said again.

Li Tian on one side was stunned, his face was embarrassed and helpless, what should I do? How to do? Could it be...

So after a fierce ideological struggle, Li Tian finally nodded helplessly.

"Okay, I will save her."

"But...but..." Li Tian didn't know what to say about the following words.

Shen Feng smiled: "Brother Tian, hurry up and save Sister Xue, I will go out first."

After speaking, he ran out in a hurry.

Li Tian was left alone in the room in embarrassment.

Looking at Xia Xue on the bed, Li Tian told the truth that he was a little moved, after all, he was a man, a normal man.

Moreover, this is the first time I have seen such a scene in the middle of the past 20 years, and I can't help but my heart is pounding.

He closed the door gently and slowly approached the small bed.

Looking at Xia Xue on the bed, that ripe red apple face, plus the blush, made it even more like a little fairy.

The Jiao body became up and down with her gasping, the two slender legs were tightly taut, rubbing plumply on the small bed.

Li Tian looked at Xia Xue on the bed, couldn't help swallowing, and sighed softly: Sister Xue, I hope you don't blame me! !

For a young woman, Xia Xue is undoubtedly extremely attractive.

Li Tian, who is in puberty, is a * if he is not excited.

With half of it in his heart to save people, and half of it was the swelling Li Tian under his abdomen and walked towards Xia Xue regardless of everything.
