

A Killer 1451

Chapter 1451: Awesome family

Why do you say that the martial arts of the Situ family is the highest?

In fact, when the four major families were allocating status a few decades ago, the Situ family was originally the leader.

Overlord outside the Great Wall, talking about the Situ family.

But because the Situ family has extremely strict family rules, and there are not many people in the family, and the Situ family is far away from the Northwest Pass, the Situ family may not have a great reputation here in terms of seniority.

Ecstasy was once Situ Xiong's biological son and the father of the glamorous Situ Ningbing.

After entering the gate of hell, the Ecstasy has been reused by the master of the gate of hell. It is only because the martial arts of the Ecstasy is very high, higher than that of Ouyang Longyan, and higher than his martial arts.

One can imagine how strong Situ Xiong should be as his father.

But he said that after the **** gate master said so, the corner of his mouth sneered and said: "The northwestern big man outside the Great Wall is now here to take this muddy water... Hmph, it seems that this river and lake is getting more and more lively. Up."

"Report to the master that the traitorous ecstasy has not been caught yet. If the subordinates have not guessed wrong, he should have told the truth to the old Situ." He only listened to the black boy in front of him.

"Ecstasy?"

"Hmph, I thought he was good at martial arts back then, so I took him in. I didn't expect this food to eat inside and out, but now he betrayed me like that **** Long Yin, really **** it."

"Sooner or later, I will make them all regret and die." The master of the door of **** in front of him suddenly roared there.

"Master, now the Situ's family is also here...Are we still waiting?" Just listen to the black boy asking.

The **** gate master in front of him nodded slightly.

"It's not yet time for us to take action."

"I believe that with the strength of the Demon of Yin and Yang, this group of people cannot overcome him."

"Unless they put their hands together to deal with him..." the master of the gate of **** said slightly.

Hei Zai said: "In case they join forces... shall we do it?"

I saw that the master of the **** gate laughed strangely after hearing Hei Zai say this, and the voice echoed in the whole stone house for a long time. After he laughed out of it, he saw his weird saying : "Guess what..."

"Haha, the situation is changing. Now the characters on the rivers and lakes have come out, and a good show is about to start." As the **** gate master said so, he carried his hands on his back and walked towards the sky with a big smile.

The black boy who left the face who didn't know what was going on stayed there in confusion.

He didn't know what his master meant.

You know, most people on the rivers and lakes are now turning to Duguxie and the others. Moreover, there is also the commander-in-chief of the North China Field Army on Duguxie, Commander Mu Lao, plus the Northwest Overlord who is about to come to Guan, the Situ family. Wait...why, their master doesn't care at all?

Could it be that he already had a ten-percent certainty in his heart?

Great Northwest.

The land of the Frontier Fortress.

Because of the achievements of modernization, the road from the northwest to the pass has long been unimpeded, and there are even five international airports.

But because of geographical reasons and people's old conservative ideas, most people who don't know still think that people in the border areas are very poor.

A wide stone bridge driving across the Mota River is the only way to walk from the northwestern land.

The bridge spanning almost 5 kilometers across the Mota River in the Northwest.

On both sides of the Mosau River are endless hills of desert, yellow sand flying in the sky every year, and scorching sun.

If people in the Northwest want to enter the pass, in addition to flying by plane, they have to cross the bridge across the Mosau River.

But seeing the bridge on the Mota River at this moment, there are busy traffic, and there are a lot of vehicles coming and going, because here is the first fortress from outside the pass into the pass, so there are a lot of vehicles.

Large container trucks, as well as transport vehicles, cars, private cars, etc. come and go.

But at the moment, the most eye-catching thing on the Mota River Bridge is a row of black Mercedes-Benz S-class 500s coming from there.

Mercedes-Benz cars are not that unusual in the Northwest, but it would be very eye-catching if they came together like the eight all-Benz cars now. Among the eight black Mercedes-Benz cars is an elongated Lincoln... dazzling and overbearing,

But seeing these nine awesome Mercedes-Benz cars driving forward, all the passing cars avoided the roadway in front of them, because they seemed to know that these awesome cars had a huge background. of.

Some car owners even couldn't help but shove their heads out of the window glass and watched the nine all-in-one Mercedes-Benz screaming praises and saying, "Who is this? Such a pomp?"

"Apart from the Situ family, who can have such great strength." The car owners of passersby were talking there.

"Ah? It's the Situ family? No wonder, no wonder."

"It's still a big family."

Some car owners said with blushing eyes.

The influence of the Situ family in the northwest is absolutely second to none, not only because the Situ family is a very powerful family, but also because the Situ family also has three large coal mining companies in the northwest. The huge amount of funds is beyond ordinary people's imagination.

I saw this in the middle of the nine cars in the extended Lincoln car, driving a middle-aged, calm man in his 40s.

The man has short eyebrows, jet-black hair, shiny eyes, extremely high cheekbones, and two hands holding the steering wheel, with veins violent, turning the steering wheel steadily.

In the luxurious compartment at the back of the Lincoln, I saw a man in his 50s sitting.

A middle-aged man who looks graceful and luxurious, but has a wild body.

He was wearing a purple-brown Tibetan costume, with two broad hands relaxed on his legs, those tiger-like eyes staring coldly outside the car window, and a huge diamond ring on his right hand.

Judging from his figure and the outfit in front of him, this man is definitely an extremely confident man, because he can see it from his eyes.

And a man has a natural and wild aura, the first feeling the whole person gives is fierce and mighty.

"Master, we have arrived at Mota River." Suddenly a bright and resolute voice came from the man driving in front of him.

The man called the owner who was sitting behind in the extended Lincoln snorted slightly, then his eyes continued to close slightly, and he stopped talking.

Chapter 1452: To live to see people, to die to see corpses

"Master, do we really want to go to the Ouyang family?" Just listen to the questioning middle-aged man with short eyebrows in front of him.

The man in the back seated in the luxury car called the master gave a slight graciousness.

Then slightly raised the twin dragon eyes, and looked at the driver in front of him and said, "Why, do you have any objections?"

"Master, I didn't mean that. What I meant was that we have not been in contact with the other three families for many years. If we suddenly contact them now, I am afraid something is wrong."

After he finished speaking, the man later called the master said, "The Situ family is remote. I believe Ouyang and the Yuwen family should understand it."

"Master, there have been a lot of rumors on the rivers and lakes recently. Although our Situ family seldom takes care of things in Guan, this time it is said that there are big things."

"The big event? Isn't it the news about the birth of the demon decades ago?" The man called the master in front of him said slightly,

"Master, do we really want to be involved in this matter?" the driver who drove asked there.

As he asked, but seeing the master who was called the Situ family, his face changed a little, and he continued: "I don't want to be involved in their grievances. The reason why I got here this time is entirely because of me. That wicked man..."

When he said "Niezi", his face was very ugly.

After hearing the host's words in front of the crash, the corners of his mouth moved and then stopped talking.

Evil?

The evil son of the Patriarch of the Situ family? Who?

Ecstasy.

A man who was kicked out by the Situ family, a man who had a leg with his father's woman,

Of course, many of these grievances are right and wrong, and now there is no way to verify, but in the Situ family, anyone knows this scandal.

"Master, Master Xuan, Situ Xuan has been so many years, do you still hate him?" The driver in front suddenly asked.

After the driver in front said so, but when he saw the man called the master, he suddenly furious and said: "Unfilial and rebellious, commit the crime and do it with courtesy..."

"Master, but Master Xuan has been wandering outside for so many years. When he drove him away from the family, he didn't leave him anything. I believe he should be very pitiful... I hope Master Xuan really caught Master Xuan. If you don't, you'll be lightened." The driver in front said bitterly.

"Evil son, broke the family rules, and lost the face of my Situ family. If I don't kill him personally, how can I convince everyone? From now on, don't talk about it." Just listen to the one who is called the master. The man said angrily. ,

After the driver in front heard what Patriarch Situ said, he closed his mouth tightly, and then stopped talking, because he knew that this was the pain in his master's heart, and it was his deepest pain in so many years. .

The car drove forward vigorously all the way, and they were about to enter the pass.

Ouyang family, since the explosion, the old mansion of the Ouyang family has been completely in ruins.

I saw that the dark night was like a night demon in the entire range of the Ouyang family's mansion. The Ouyang family was now desolate. As the night came, I could gradually hear the ghost cry of the cold wind.

After the Ouyang family went through a huge change, the entire family building is now empty, and the old ancestral hall at the end has been completely burnt to ruins by the fire.

Here is bleak and gloomy, with a weird and terrifying atmosphere everywhere.

According to the truth, this Ouyang family has been deserted after such a huge change, and there is absolutely no possibility of living, but in the middle of the night, a ghost-like figure suddenly appeared here. Within the ruins.

Look carefully to see how thin and delicate her figure is in the dark.

She walked helplessly among the entire Ouyang family, her eyes widened, and at the same time she called a person's name in that mouth.

In such a terrible night, in such a barren and abandoned building, how could a figure suddenly appear here?

Is it a man or a ghost?

If someone appeared in the ruins of the Ouyang family at this moment, he would have mistakenly thought that the figure was haunted by ghosts.

But if you take a closer look, you will definitely find that it turns out that she is a person, and she is also an extremely beautiful woman.

It's just that at the moment she looked so sad, so sad, as if her soul had been lost.

Through the faint light, it can be seen that her beautiful eyes are already red and swollen. It is obviously due to the transition of tears. Her people seem to be lost, and the beautiful eyes are dim, but the mouth is soft. Call his lover's name.

"Li Tian...Li Tian...Where are you?"

"You won't die... won't die... definitely not."

"You said you want to protect me... you want to protect me for the rest of your life? How could you just die like this?"

"You also said that you want to marry me as your wife... you want to marry me as your wife..."

With these sorrowful words in her mouth, her people are already crying.

Who is she:?

The faint starlight can clearly see her beautiful face, she is Situ Ningbing.

She is Li Tian's favorite woman.

Originally, after hearing the news of Li Tian's bad news that day, this Situ Ningbing completely collapsed. She did not believe that Li Tian would die. She absolutely didn't want to go ahead with this fact, so she left alone like crazy in the first place. The North China Field Army.

She was looking for, looking for Li Tian.

To see people in life, and to see corpses in death, this Situ Ningbing must see Li Tian in person.

So she came, she came to the place where Li Tian "died".

She heard from Li Tian's brothers that Li Tian entered the old mansion of the Ouyang family with the **** Long Yin, and then died together.

So now Situ Ningbing came to this old mansion of the Ouyang family alone, and she must find Li Tian.

The old mansion of the Ouyang family was completely in ruins after the violent explosion of the bomb and the raging fire.

After Situ Ningbing reached the ruins, she used her slender hands to pull in the ruins like crazy.

She is not afraid of the tingling of her hands, or that the stones will scratch her delicate hands. She is just scratching the ruins in front of her as if they are useless, while yelling from each side of her mouth: "Li Tian... Li Tian..."

Chapter 1453: Life and death

Within the dark and endless ruins, where can I hear a trace of echo?

The only thing I could hear was the whimpering sound from the cold wind, but Situ Ningbing did not give up, for the sake of her lover, she would never give up.

With her soft and slender hands, she painfully pulled the cold big stone in front of her eyes, and the wood that was blackened by the fire.

Her whole body is dirty, and her hands are completely broken, but she doesn't care at all. The only thing she cares about now is Li Tian, whether Li Tian is still alive.

"Li Tian, you won't die...you can't die..."

"Li Tian, come out, where are you?" Situ Ningbin's painful cry echoed throughout the dark ruins.

Her hands were holding the hard and blackened stones, her body was dirty and bruised,

She seemed to want to pull up all the stones buried under the ruins, and wanted to find Li Tian from the ruins.

Shouting while looking.

The voice of grief echoed for a long time throughout the ruins.

While Situ Ningbing was searching for Li Tian in this old mansion of the Ouyang family, "he" was lying motionless in the dark cave below the old mansion of the Ouyang family.

The whole body seemed to be dead, his face was pale and ugly, the corners of his mouth were completely dry and cracked, his hands and feet were swollen and showed a purple-blue necrotic feeling.

Li Tian.

Of course he was Li Tian who fell into the black hole of the old mansion of the Ouyang family.

Is he dead or alive?

Look carefully at his black face, he really seems to be dead.

After so many days without food and not much water to drink, his body has been completely overdrawn to the limit, and his body is completely damaged. Except for the upper body, his hands and feet seem to have completely lost what they should be. feel.

Is Li Tian really dead?

Next to him was still the maha's boundless truth.

However, when Li Tian, who was just as dead, was lying in the cold crypt, suddenly a clear and sorrowful cry seemed to come from above, and the voice faintly called: Li Heaven... Li Tian, where are you? "

When the voice of "her" was suddenly heard in his mind, Li Tian suddenly woke up from the dead silence.

"Ningbing...Ningbing." He suddenly became conscious, his dry and cracked lips squirmed slightly, and then the bloodshot eyes slowly opened at this moment...difficult look The dark cave.

"Her voice...I heard her voice..." Li Tian suddenly thought in his heart with infinite excitement with his blood-red eyes widened.

"Really? Did I really hear Ningbing's voice? Is she here?" Li Tian thought secretly in his heart.

But the cry just now was so misty, so far away, as if it were far away from Li Tian...

"Illusion?"

"I have hallucinations, right."

Suddenly, Li Tian was thinking about it in grief and said that his chapped lips could not allow him to open his mouth and yell. Besides, his body was suffering so much, there was still strength there to yell.

In this way, full of despair, Li Tianru lay in the black hole as if waiting for death...

What about the top?

Just above Li Tian's head, Situ Ningbing was still unwillingly dragging the stones in the ruins, still calling his favorite name in his mouth.

Finally, she didn't know how long she had pulled, her hands were all worn out, and scarlet blood stains leaked out of her palms, and Situ Ningbing, who was really hard to hold on, finally collapsed at this moment.

She never believed that Li Tian would die so easily, but at the moment when she was looking at the ruins full of eyes and the barren surroundings, her beautiful body could no longer withstand such a painful blow. With a plop, the whole beautiful body fell suddenly. Among the ruins.

Just when Situ Ningbing's delicate body suddenly fainted in the ruins, in the darkness, a black image from the left side flew over like lightning.

Then he arrived at Situ Ningbing, who had passed out in the ruins, at an incredible speed.

"Bing'er...Bing'er..." When the voice rushed to Situ Ningbing, he couldn't help but hurriedly helped Situ Ningbing up with heartache, shouting there with worry in his mouth.

he?

Ecstasy! ! Situ Ningbing's real brother.

It turned out that this ecstasy had been protecting his sister in secret in Situ Ningbing.

The ecstasy of this meeting just held Situ Ningbing tightly in his arms, then glanced at his pale-faced sister, and he murmured: Hey! Stupid sister.

Then he didn't say anything, picked up his unconscious sister, and finally took another look at the ruins of the Ouyang family before him. He swept away and left here.

After the ecstasy took Situ Ningbing away from the ruins of the old mansion of the Ouyang family, the barren mansion was once again plunged into misery.

And what about Li Tian who is trapped in the "cave"? But still there waiting for death foolishly.

He didn't expect that his favorite her just now would be close at hand, and Situ Ningbing was just above him.

But now everything is too late, because Situ Ningbing has completely left,

But he said that Li Tian has now completely entered the state of waiting for death. It has been almost 5 days. He has not eaten anything, only drank some water on the rock wall. He was about to die with serious injuries to his limbs. For him, it can be regarded as the limit.

He is almost desperate now. He could have relied on the third-layer body breaking art of the Boundless Maha to break through the limits of his body, but his helpless physical hunger made him die soon.

Now Li Tian is here waiting bit by bit for death.

Inside the dark cave, the surroundings were gloomy, but at this moment, I saw a black thing on the rock wall slowly creeping there, meanwhile, snaking towards Li Tian.

That thing is very long, and when you look closely, it turned out to be a snake.

A snake as thick as a thumb is slowly crawling towards Li Tian's body with its scarlet and ugly head, while the core in the snake's mouth is still hissing strangely.

Such a dark cave with such a black snake is actually not that unusual, but one of the most troublesome things at the moment is that Li Tian is still lying here, his body is completely immobile, seeing that A black snake crawled towards his body bit by bit... but Li Tian didn't see it at this moment.

Chapter 1454: Black snake help

When such a terrifying black snake was slowly crawling towards the dying Li Tian, Li Tian didn't notice it.

But after seeing the black snake crawling down from the top of the stone wall, it then began to slowly crawl towards Li Tian's body.

The core with the snake's head hissed and exuded a terrifying sound, and said that the black snake began to slowly climb up Li Tian's legs. When he touched Li Tian's legs, Li Tian felt it for no reason. A strange feeling of Bing Xin translucent came from the swollen legs.

This surprised Li Tian, who was waiting for death in the black hole with his eyes slightly closed, and said: What?

He opened his eyes abruptly, then rolled his eyeballs to look at his body carefully, and suddenly saw a black snake slowly crawling towards him. The scarlet and ugly head made Li Tian completely speechless.

snake?

It turned out to be a black cobra!

But when the black cobra felt that someone was looking at him, the core in his mouth hissed even more, and at the same time the extremely ugly head also flicked.

Li Tian is now completely depressed. He didn't have much hope of making a living, but now he has encountered a black snake again? Do you want this snake to **** yourself alive?

Li Tian was not afraid of death, he was just disgusting the black ferocious cobra in front of him.

At this moment, the black ferocious snake has crawled along Li Tian's body to the position of Li Tian's chest. From the cold body of the snake, I can feel the horror. The black cobra is slowly walking along Turning Li Tian's chest to Li Tian's neck crawling...

Li Tian felt like he was going crazy, he couldn't bear this disgusting creature crawling on him.

His body wanted to move, but the severe pain from that body made him unable to move at all. At this moment, he could only watch the black cobra slowly crawl to the position of his neck, and the snake head seemed To climb onto his face.

Seeing that the ferocious black cobra was slowly crawling along his neck towards Li Tian's mouth, Li Tian felt that his entire body was about to stand up.

Especially when I felt the cold temperature of the black snake, I felt disgusting and terrifying for no reason.

The hissing core was spit out beside Li Tian's nose, and the black curled body crawled towards Li Tian's face.

At this moment, Li Tian couldn't stand it anymore.

He forced his luck with the strength of his body, and then opened his mouth, biting at the head of the black cobra alive.

The black cobra never expected Li Tian, who was dying, to bite his head, and the whole snake body suddenly wrapped around Li Tian's neck.

Just when it wrapped around Li Tian's neck, Li Tian's mouth was already bleeding snake blood...The whole black head had been bitten off by Li Tian alive. The abilities of a person in a desperate state are endless

The black snake's head was bitten off, and the whole body fluttered, but it was also the end of the crossbow. In the end, the black snake entangled Li Tian's neck and struggling for a few times, and finally died. A black snake like a thumb was just like that Desperately bitten to death.

But seeing Li Tian spit out the black snake's head with a "pooh" bite, and the blood of the black snake was still in his mouth, he licked it lightly with his tongue.

The chapped lips felt a little after the snake blood was touched.

"Snake? Snake meat?"

Li Tian suddenly burst into a terrible and bold idea.

Li Tian is now on the verge of dying. He hasn't eaten anything for a long time. If he doesn't eat any more, he will be starved to death. But in this dark cave, where can there be anything to eat? ?

But now it was different. There was a black snake on his neck that was bitten to death alive.

In order to live, in order to survive, Li Tian must eat the snake meat in front of him alive.

After having such a bold idea in his mind, Li Tian made such a move.

He really wants to eat the body of the black snake raw because he has to live.

After making such a decision in his heart, Li Tian began to slowly hold the cold snake body with his mouth, and then began to chew bit by bit.

He didn't care about the smell of the snake body or whether the snake meat was delicious or not. He just closed his eyes and chewed bit by bit. The blood mixed with the smelly snake meat was swallowed into his stomach. .

A whole black snake was eaten about half by Li Tian.

Li Tian's mouth was stained with blood at this moment, and the other half of the snake body that hadn't been eaten hung around his neck. Such a terrifying appearance would be really terrifying if anyone saw him at this moment.

After eating more than half of the black snakes, Li Tian's stamina finally recovered. At the same time, because he drank the blood of the black cobra, his whole body slowly became angry at this moment.

After regaining a bit of physical strength, Li Tian began to concentrate on studying the third layer of Immeasurable Maha Maha next to his head.

Two days ago, Li Tian had already memorized all the mental methods of Maha Wuliang's third-layer body breaking art. All he had to do now was to give all the mental methods he had in his mind to the practice session.

Body Breaking Technique: It is the knack for reshaping veins, and it is a mantra to get rid of the shell.

Li Tian's mouth silently thought of the word tactics of the body breaking formula, and then slowly accumulated the supreme zhenqi in the whole body, and the zhenqi gradually passed through the acupoints of his body's qi sea and dantian vein, His whole body began to wander slowly, and as the true energy slowly flowed away, Li Tian could feel the tingling sensation of needles coming from his damaged body.

But he didn't give up, he endured, endured the tingling in his body and began to practice.

To be honest, even he himself is not sure, what should he do if his body still cannot recover once he has practiced this body breaking technique? Li Tian didn't even dare to think about this idea. He couldn't even accept the fact that he was a useless person. He just tried his best to cultivate.

Li Tian has learned the true tactics of the immeasurable Maha: enlightenment, entry, the first two levels.

This third level of body breaking art is an excessive stage, and it is quite difficult to cultivate.

But Li Tian had nothing in mind, and he was thinking about cultivation at the moment, and Li Tian gradually reached a state of selflessness.

I saw Li Tian lying in the icy cave. A shining energy began to wander all over his body. That energy was like a serpentine snake, wandering through Li Tian's muscles and veins. As this strange energy wandered away, Li Tian's body began to tremble slightly, and at the same time his face gradually showed a state of pain.

Chapter 1455: Broken body

In this way, Li Tian began to concentrate on cultivation.

At the same time, there was a slight white gas surging from the top of Li Tian's head.

"The chance of movement and stillness lies in Yin and Yang, and it always belongs to God's Gathering. A Gathering of qi is a swelling of energy, refining the qi to the spirit, moving the momentum, and focusing on the spirit. The opening and closing are in order, the virtual and the real are clear. Not completely powerless..."

Li Tian's mouth was muttering the mind of the third-layer body breaking art of Maha Wuliang. With the thoughts in his mouth, he also began to comprehend this unique exercise.

Li Tian can feel the difficulty of the third level of cultivation, compared with the first level of his previous practice: Yin Qi, and the second level: entering the tactics, but he will never give up. In that desperate practice.

As his cultivation began, his body also slightly reacted slightly.

At the beginning, his body was unable to move continuously. Because the whole body was completely damaged, the lower part of Li Tian's body was completely numb. Now, as Li Tian's practice begins bit by bit, that really The breath also flows across his body, and he can faintly feel the sharp pain in his lower body.

When he felt the pain in the lower body part, Li Tian was not worried, but excited.

Because he knows that if his body really doesn't hurt and doesn't feel any, that's a real big trouble, but if it hurts, he knows that his body has begun to feel gradually.

With such exciting thoughts in his heart, Li Tian began to work harder and harder to practice the third level of the immeasurable maha.

Li Tian didn't know how long he had been cultivating, or whether it was useful for him to cultivate. He just closed his eyes tightly, and then repeated the mental formula of the Body Breaking Art in his mouth, and then he was really angry. It began to penetrate to his position of yin and yang, and then flowed away.

When he was hungry and thirsty, Li Tian ate the snake meat around his neck and drank the snake blood. Once he replenished his energy, he began to continue practicing.

I didn't know how long this kind of cultivation lasted. Finally, Li Tian felt that his body began to change.

As the zhenqi walked around his whole body, at first there was a tingling sensation from the damaged parts of his body, but now that tingling sensation has begun to dissipate slowly, and Li Tian's The lower body was able to move slightly, but his hands and feet were still unable to move.

"Broken the cocoon to rebirth, break the body to rebuild." This is the last formula of the body break.

Li Tian quietly closed his eyes when he saw the last form of the Body Breaking Technique, and now he began to practice the last form of the third layer of the Mahe Wuliang Body Breaking Technique.

Li Tian has completed all the previous mental methods, and the difference is only this last formula.

Li Tian could feel the changes that began to appear in his whole body, as if his body had been reconstructed. The only thing he was waiting for now was the final form of this body breaking art, because this final form was related to Li Tian's future and relationship. The fact that his hands and feet can be reborn is more related to Li Tian's fate.

"The former post governor, the qi is rolling, the two points in the well and the pool are vigorously followed. The breath is absorbed in the dantian, rushes to the gate of the life, guides the governor channel through the tail, straight from the spine to the mud pill, and the person is in the gum, chasing Xing Yuan, lead the pulse of Ren to the heavy building, and return to the sea of Qi..."

With the last mental mantra in his mouth thinking, Li Tian followed the mental mantra above to slowly reach her Ren Du Er Channel, and then began to luck to the Jingchi acupoint, where the vast invigorating Qi reached After Li Tian's Jingchi acupuncture point, he suddenly accumulated that breath in his dantian, and repeated this process three times in total.

When Li Tian began to practice the last pose of this body breaking art, a strange vigorous feeling slowly emerged around his body, and then his body's odd meridians and eight channels seemed to have a bright line passing through. In the same way, it flows to the acupoints all over his body, Shaoyin, Shaoyang...

After that strong air flow, the bones in Li Tian's two arms suddenly cracked and cracked.

It was precisely because of the sound of broken bones that Li Tian's face was almost distorted in pain.

He hurts, it hurts too much.

Accompanied by the cracking sound of the muscles and bones in the two arms, his two deformed hands began to tremble violently.

"What's the matter? Why did the bones of Li Tian's arms seem to be broken? Could it be that Li Tian practiced wrong?"

No, there is nothing wrong with Li Tian's practice, and the sound of his broken bones is also not wrong at all.

Body Breaking Jue: "Bro" means destruction.

It may be the truth that is said to be broken first and then plastic.

Only when Li Tian's damaged hands and legs are completely damaged, can he reshape his veins and gain a new life.

But is the pain of "broken body" just a joke? It was so painful that Li Tian's face was violently distorted, his body was also trembling violently, and there was a trace of painful cold sweat on his forehead.

Can Li Tian bear the pain of heart-eroding and cracking bones? Can you complete this last level by practicing?

"Qi is born from its source, and if the bones are reborn, it is the realm of great power cultivation..."

Repeatedly chanting the last words of the third layer of body-breaking tactics, Li Tian's body suddenly revealed his vitality, and the sound of his bones cracking was like a landslide.

"broken!!!"

A roar of anger came out of Li Tian's mouth, and suddenly he saw that Li Tian's originally crippled body, suddenly at the moment of this scream, the whole body flew up, and his body seemed to have an invisible shape. The strength is hanging in the air, and the purple swelling on both hands and feet at this moment is gone. Even the clothes on the body are torn by the strength just now... ..

Li Tian was naked, as if he was "new born", surrounded by golden light, and the transpiration above his head was really air...

He trained!

He finally cultivated into the third level of the immeasurable Maha: Body Breaking Art!

Broken and reborn.

Li Tian is now just like a new-born person. All his limbs have changed for the better. At the same time, an invisible aura radiates from his whole body. He stares at his recovered hands and feet in a dazed manner. Li Tian suddenly looked up to the sky and laughed.

"I'm fine... I'm recovered."

The loud laughter echoed for a long time throughout the black cave.

After the hands and feet were rebuilt and reborn in the Body Breaking Technique, it was undoubtedly something that made him extremely excited for Li Tian.

He came back alive, and he finally turned into good fortune once again.

"Damn Long Yin, **** Yin-Yang old demon...I want you to die, and I want you to die in the hands of my Li Tian." A roar with endless hostility erupted from Li Tian's mouth now. .

Chapter 1456: Ancient secret room

Who can imagine that a "new" madman is being born within the ruins of the Ouyang family?

He has learned the first three layers of Maha Wuliang created by the old man Wuji in the past two hundred years, and his badly damaged body is fully restored at this moment.

Looking at his recovered hands and feet, Li Tian suddenly slapped a palm on the hard rock wall in front of him.

There was a loud bang, but seeing that the hard rock wall was hit by Li Tian's heavy palm, stone chips fell from above.

Li Tian looked at his hands, blood-red eyes filled with endless excitement.

The "resurrected" Li Tian was undoubtedly excited in his heart, but he missed his brothers more in his heart, and missed their lovers.

He didn't know when Tang Xiaolong and his brothers were telling Situ Ningbing and Duanmuying about their "bad news", and when they waited for the girls... what kind of sadness they felt in their hearts? They must be very sad, very sad...

Thinking of this, Li Tian sighed deeply, but the same deep hatred burned in his heart.

Hate, hate the **** Long Yin, hate the **** old demon of Yin and Yang!

Now that he is alive, what about Long Yin?

Is that **** Long Yin alive?

Li Tian couldn't help thinking about it in his mind.

At this moment, suddenly cold water droplets fell from the top of the rock wall, and then dripped on Li Tian's face.

When Li Tian was given a drop of the cold water, his mind suddenly brightened, and a pair of bloodshot eyes looked at the entire dark cave.

"Oh my God, it was this strange and mysterious cave that saved me... If it weren't for this cave, I would have been burned alive by the bomb and the fire."

It turned out that after Li Tian and Na Long Yin threw into the sea of fire together, that Long Yin exhausted the last strength of his body and immediately shook Li Tian, who was holding him tightly, away. It was precisely because of that Long Yin's powerful internal strength. It shook Li Tian directly below, and then the explosion sounded. The flying stones, wood and ruins all hit Li Tian, but unexpectedly, such a deep cave was exploded?

Li Tian only started to look at this weird cave really at this moment. At the same time, he couldn't help but secretly line up: Hey, what is going on in this cave? How could it be at the bottom of the old mansion of the Ouyang family? Could it be said that this is the ancient cave of the Ouyang family?

After thinking about it this way in his heart, Li Tian began to observe this mysterious cave slowly.

But seeing that the black cave is very deep and deep, and the place where he fell seems to be just the exit of the cave. Now, the mouth of the cave has been completely covered by the rocks and ruins above. If you go out of the place, it seems like an unlikely thing. After Li Tian thought this way in his heart, he slowly put away the volume of Maha Boundless Secret Art, and then stepped deep into the black cave. Walk around.

He wants to see in person what is going on in this mysterious cave? Who built it that year? And why was such a weird cave built under the old mansion of the Ouyang family?

So Li Tian slowly started to walk along the cave, looking at the cave environment as he walked.

But seeing that the stone walls in this cave were all excavated, it is obvious that this cave was not formed naturally, but was dug by people.

If so, then who built such a strange cave? And it was built at the bottom of the old mansion of the Ouyang family?

It's really weird.

As Li Tian walked forward step by step, Li Tian found that there were many ancient utensils left on the ground.

There are cups, and some tea utensils... but those utensils are buried under deep rocks.

When he saw these things, Li Tian couldn't help but frowned slightly, his heart lining secretly: This cave seems to have been inhabited by people, and this cave must have a long, long age.

Walking along the stone wall, Li Tian suddenly saw that there was still a torch in front, but the torch was marked with ancient spider webs.

Because of the darkness in the cave...the light was not very sufficient, when he saw the torch, Li Tian's heart suddenly brightened.

But another problem quickly emerged, only torches, no fire!

Just as Li Tian was wondering, he saw something left beside him: a fire sickle! The fire sickle is a convenient lighting and fire tool that is easy to carry. It was used to make fire during the feudal period. The fire sickle will produce sparks after collision.

When he saw this fire sickle, Li Tian still knew how to use it. All this is due to the poor life of Li Tian when he was a child in Liaocheng.

At this moment, Li Tian lighted the torch in front of him with a fire sickle. Although the torch was very old, once it was ignited, it was still burning, and this one burned. After that, the entire dark cave was immediately illuminated.

Therefore, Li Tian can use this bright light to carefully look at the cave in front of him.

Li Tian stuck the torch in a gap on the top of the stone wall, and then carefully observed the surroundings of the stone wall, but on the left, there were old furniture items left...Due to the age, the furniture was completely decayed and scattered. On the ground, Li Tian frowned and glanced at it, and then looked here.

But the place seen here seems to be a spiritual position placed.

Yes, it is indeed a spiritual position.

But seeing that there are more than a dozen spiritual positions in front of him, they are placed here one by one, and the fonts on the spiritual positions can still be seen clearly on them. The middle one is the most conspicuous, so Li Tian frowned curiously. Bending down to look, I saw a few large characters on the seal with dragon and phoenix dancing on it.

"Ling Gong Ouyang Jingming!"

When he saw Ouyang in amazement, Li Tian was taken aback: It seems that this is indeed the secret room of the Ouyang family.

Next to Ouyang Jingming's spiritual position are also placed in sequence: Madam Xue's position, Madam Jingyi's position... etc...

Taking a look at the spiritual position in front of him, Li Tian couldn't help thinking to himself: What age are these people? How come it's been so long... and why didn't the Ouyang family take out the spiritual position of the ancestor? How to throw it in this secret room?

wrong!

It seems that this secret room has not been in for a long time!

Could it be that this secret room has not even been known to the Ouyang family? Thinking of this in shock, Li Tian became excited.

Chapter 1457: Li Tian's decision

If this is the case, this secret room seems to have a long ancient history.

Thinking of this, Li Tian walked forward step by step.

As Li Tian was walking towards the front, Li Tian suddenly cried under his feet... He seemed to have kicked something like an iron stick, so Li Tian looked down, but saw a dark black object buried in his own. Under my feet, but because of the age of this secret room, the dust that fell from the top of the stone wall had already covered this thing.

Li Tian couldn't help his inner curiosity, so he bent down and pulled the dust underneath with his hand. After pulling off the dust, an iron tool appeared in Li Tian's eyes.

a knife!

A brilliant sword!

Li Tian was still quite excited when he saw such an ancient sword appear in this secret room.

Holding this extremely heavy knife in his hand, Li Tian stroked it. The blade was sharp, bright and eye-catching.

"Good knife!" Li Tian couldn't help sighing secretly.

At the same time, he was holding the knife with one hand, and murmured in his heart: This knife is really heavy. It is roughly estimated to weigh at least 3040 kilograms!

Who uses such a heavy knife?

Looking at this bright and sharp ancient knife, Li Tianshi took a few glances, but he didn't have much interest.

Because this knife was too heavy for Li Tian, and Li Tian didn't know how to play with knives, Li Tian could only throw away the big knife in front of him.

After losing the big knife in his hand, Li Tian continued to observe the situation in the entire cave.

The place in front seemed to be the end of the cave, and there was no way.

After taking a look, Li Tian became disappointed, secretly, what is the use of this secret room? Could it be because the older members of the Ouyang family were bored to play?

Except for a few spiritual positions and a heavy sword, there was nothing else!

Li Tian certainly did not know that this secret room has hundreds of years of ancient history, and this secret room was used by the people of the Ouyang family to escape...

But Li Tian didn't know much. After looking around, he wanted to sit down and rest for a while.

Whenever he found a place to sit, Li Tian began to silently think about the recent events.

Because he was in a trance in this black hole with no view of the sun, he didn't know how long he had been in this cave. Now that he calmed down, Li Tian couldn't help looking at his recovered hands. With feet, he couldn't help laughing.

"I'm resurrected..."

"Hey, brothers, if they see me alive, they should be very happy!"

Just as Li Tian was thinking like this, his two hands touched the stone wall behind. The moment he reached out and touched the stone wall behind, he felt as if something hard was resting on his back and twisted. With such a casual look, Li Tian saw how the thing was shining brightly.

Li Tian frowned and looked at it, and said to himself: What is it?

Under curiosity in his heart, Li Tian stretched out his hand, but saw that the golden gold appeared in Li Tian's eyes!

"Gold?" When he saw that the thing was gold in Li Tian's eyes, Li Tian suddenly let out light in his eyes.

Li Tian is not a greedy person, but this does not mean that he does not like gold.

Li Tian, who has never lived a rich life since childhood, is of course more interested in the inexplicable gold in front of him.

But seeing the golden bars in front of you, how can you keep Li Tian from getting excited?

Li Tian stretched out his hand so much, but saw a lot of golden gold bars all at once appeared in Li Tian's eyes!

Gosh! ! ! So many gold bars?

This gold bar was brought into this secret room along with the legacy of the Ouyang family when they were ransacked back in the past... Due to the age too long, all these gold bars today are buried under dust and stone debris. After being hit by mistake, Li Tian found out all of a sudden

When Li Tian saw so many gold bars appear in his eyes, Li Tian seemed to be dreaming.

So many gold bars? Why would you stay here?

And now Li Tian couldn't help the excitement in his heart, holding the heavy gold bar in his hand, completely stunned.

He had never seen such a large pile of gold bars before, never!

And now these gold bars are all placed in front of him, how much money should these gold bars have! Li Tian couldn't imagine it!

Sitting in the middle of a pile of gold bars, Li Tian was like an upstart, completely stupid.

Can't help but grin.

At the same time, there was an uncontrollable lining in his heart: "Unexpectedly, not only did he not die in the ruins of the Ouyang family, but he also picked up so many gold bars... It seems that God is really good enough for me."

Looking at these gold bars, Li Tian smiled, and then stopped looking at the thing.

He just sat quietly on the ground and rested.

"what should I do now?"

"My body has almost recovered... and it is obvious that the energy of the body is also increasing bit by bit... It seems that cultivating that maha is really powerful."

"Should I go out now? Go out to find the **** old Demon Yin and Yang to get revenge? Or go out and join the brothers quickly?" Li Tian thought, sitting there.

But after Li Tian's thoughts, Li Tian decided that he didn't plan to leave the dark cave first. ,

One, because he felt that his strength was not enough to deal with the old Yin and Yang demon and the abnormal Dragon Yin, even if he went out and found the two extremely damning demon heads, I am afraid it would be useless. Before, he was only able to escape and be beaten, so instead of doing that, it would be better to leave the mountain when he was able to resist the strength of the two monsters after practicing here. "

Second, this cave is empty and deserted, which is of great help to the cultivation of the Maha Boundless. When the Maha Boundless Secrets are practicing, one must be extremely quiet and empty. There is nothing in this cave. No, it is an extremely good place for Li Tian to practice...

So after Li Tian thought about it, he finally decided to stay in this dark cave.

He won't go out yet!

After making this decision, Li Tian slowly took out the Maha Boundless Keys he had cherished in his arms, but saw that the Maha Boundless Keys were densely packed in fonts.

Li Tian has already practiced the first three levels of Maha Boundless Keys, and now he is going to practice the fourth level.

But when he was looking at the fourth level of Maha Wuliang, he saw the sentence attached to the front: The first three levels of Maha Wuliang are for the use of excess body, and the last five levels are for the exercises. In the realm, practicing this magical skill, do not enter the magical way, if the magical way of Lun, heaven and earth will be punishable!

Chapter 1458: Ten Jue Sword Qi

"Heaven and earth will be punishable!"

Is it so serious? Li Tian Jingyi's eyes were in that Mahe Boundless Zhen Jue who was looking in front of him murmured. .

Then Li Tian took a closer look at the next few layers of secrets of Maha Boundless.

But what he sees next to cultivate is the fourth level of Mahe Wuliang: Ten Jue Sword Qi!

When he saw that the fourth level of this Mahe Wuliang was the Ten Jue Sword Qi, Li Tian was slightly startled, could it be a sword move?

Then the eyes carefully looked at the fourth layer of mental formulas, but saw that it said: Ten Jue Sword Qi, which is a Qi slave sword, even those who are self-sufficient can practice their inner skills!

When he saw this sentence, Li Tian said in a daze, "It seems that the fourth layer of the immeasurable Maha is really a sword art.

It's just that what kind of enslavement is with the Qi slave sword?

Look carefully at the text notes below, but see the above one by one: Ten Jue Jianqi, a total of three layers.

The first layer: Epee level!

The so-called epee is to fight with people holding the epee. Swordsmanship is originally about lightness and erraticness, but how can you achieve light swordsmanship if you hold an heavy sword? This requires that the practitioner must have strong internal strength to use the epee, otherwise, it will be self-defeating and will naturally be injured by the opponent.

The second layer: Wooden sword level!

The so-called wood, that is, ordinary flowers and trees, wood sword level? What does it mean?

It turns out that this second level means that if you can really reach the level of a wooden sword, you can use it as a sharp sword even if you hold a wooden stick or anything ordinary.

The third layer: no sword level.

The so-called no sword means that you no longer have a sword in your hand! Can he use swordsmanship without a sword in his hand? Yes, this effect is what the Promise Level wants. There is a sword in the heart, no sword in the hand, the sword is free to walk, and the sword is slaved by the Qi. This is the true essence of the Ten Jue Sword Qi.

After watching the three-layer sword technique realm of the Ten Jue Sword Qi, Li Tian could be said to have a clear heart.

In the past, his understanding of swordsmanship only existed on the surface, but now when he saw the immeasurable three-layer sword art of Maha, his mind was suddenly clear, and he finally understood what a real supreme sword is. Law.

He is about to concentrate on cultivating these ten tactics sword qi at this moment.

The first layer: Epee level!

When Li Tian saw the sword moves above this epee level, he muttered in his heart: epee? You must have a heavy sword in your hand to cultivate, but there is nothing in this black hole. Where can I go to find a heavy sword?

Just as Li Tian was wondering, his eyes were suddenly betting on the steel knife thrown over there.

The steel sword is extremely heavy. When he saw the steel sword, Li Tian was immediately happy.

He ran over and quickly picked up the heavy steel knife on the ground.

But seeing that the entire stainless steel sword does not weigh tens of kilograms, it is really a bit tired to hold it in one hand, but Li Tian is very happy at the moment, because he finally found something to practice the epee.

Although this thing is a steel sword, not the so-called epee, but Li Tian cultivates moves, and he does not necessarily have to find an epee, so Li Tian began to use that heavy stainless steel. The broad sword practiced.

The first sword move above this epee level is called: Changhong Guanri.

Sword Jue: Pick up the tip of the sword, then slash the opponent evilly, turn the sword from the other end of the hand, and then pierce it straight. When the opponent avoids this move, the left leg is slightly bowed forward, and then the horizontal sword is hugged on the chest...

Looking at the sword art above, Li Tian slowly began to practice with the extremely heavy "stainless steel broadsword" in his hand.

With such a heavy object in his hand, it was extremely difficult to cultivate this sword art. Li Tian, who had just practiced for a while, only felt a tingling pain in his right arm.

No way, this heavy sword is really too heavy.

But Li Tian didn't give up because of this, he had to cultivate and he had to make himself stronger.

So he endured the pain in his arm and slowly waved the heavy knife in his hand.

At the beginning, Li Tian was really not used to it.

This epee level is really difficult to practice. His speed and sword moves simply do not meet the real requirements of Ten Jue Sword Qi. Until Li Tian practiced over and over again, he did not care about tiredness and the pain from his arm. After cultivating there, he finally didn't know how long it took, his hands felt much better.

At the same time, Li Tian could also use the sword moves above the epee level almost lightly.

Inside the dark cave, but seeing Li Tian holding the heavy "steel sword" in his hand, practicing supreme swordsmanship.

While Li Tian was cultivating in the dark cave, there was a figure sitting motionless beside a soft bed in an ordinary hotel in Jinghai City.

He seems to be guarding a person.

I looked carefully, but I saw that there was indeed a person guarding beside him, a woman with a pretty face like a fairy, but the woman's face was pale and weak, and she was still there with her eyes closed and falling asleep. .

Looking at the beautiful and drowsy woman, he couldn't help sighing deeply: "Hey, silly girl...why do you abuse yourself like this?"

"People are mortal, especially on the road of rivers and lakes." He murmured in that mouth.

he is?

Look carefully at the face of this sighing man, he turned out to be the ecstasy!

And lying on the bed next to him was his sister: Situ Ningbing.

It turns out that when Situ Ningbing was overwhelmed and unconscious in the old mansion of the Ouyang family that night, it was an ecstasy who rescued his sister.

Now he put his sister safely in an ordinary hotel, and then took good care of Situ Ningbing.

It has been almost a day since he was rescued, and Situ Ningbing was still not awake. As a brother, he was of course very worried.

I don't know how long time has passed, and finally Situ Ningbing, who was lying in a coma on the hospital bed, started to react slightly.

Her delicate body suddenly trembled in a coma... Then she cried out in panic, "Don't... Li Tian... Don't..."

"Don't leave me...don't die..."

She screamed with cold sweat all over her face like a nightmare.

Looking at the appearance of his sister, the ecstasy hurriedly yelled slightly:

"Ningbing...Ningbing...I am your brother, I am your brother."

"Ah... Li Tian, don't die... Don't die!"

Suddenly, Situ Ningbing sat up straight from the bed like crazy, and shouted with two slender hands in the skirt of the seducer who held her in front of her tightly. Her face and forehead were all cold. Extreme sweat.

Chapter 1459: Grief

"Ningbing, Ningbing, I am the elder brother..." The ecstasy called his sister there.

Situ Ningbing's beautiful eyes were wide, with cold sweat on his face, and the elder brother who looked in front of him in horror, ecstasy.

"Brother, is it...you?" Situ Ningbing finally woke up, looking at the ecstasy in front of him unbelievably and said.

But seeing Ecstasy gently raised his arm and wiped the cold sweat on Situ Ningbing's face.

"You...you... why are you here?" Situ Ningbing looked at him and asked suspiciously.

The ecstasy smiled faintly and looked at Situ Ningbing and said, "How can I feel relieved to get you?"

"Since Li Tian's accident, I know that you must be sad...so this secretly protects you along the way... I never thought that you silly girl really came here."

Situ Ningbing suddenly felt sad when he heard the Evil Envoy talk about "Li Tian".

Her eyes reddened instantly, and there was despair in her eyes.

"Brother, Li Tian won't die...he's definitely not going to die, I'm looking for him, I must find him..." Situ Ningbing said suddenly, and at the same time, he said as if he was about to get off the bed in front of him.

The ecstasy saw that his sister was going to find Li Tian, and immediately grabbed her, and then the ecstasy looked at her helplessly and said, "Ningbing...I know that Li Tian's affairs have hit you very hard. Big...but, but...he really is dead."

"No...no...he won't die, he won't die! He said that he wants to protect me forever, he can't die, he can't die." Situ Ningbing suddenly yelled there crazy.

Ecstasy pressed her mad sister tightly, and persuaded her bitterly: "Ningbing, you have to accept the facts.

"Li Tian is dead, Li Tian is no longer there."

"He and that Long Yin have all jumped into the sea of fire... it is impossible to live anymore." Ecstasy said there.

"You lie to me... lie to me... Li Tian will never die."

Situ Ningbing didn't believe in the fact that Li Tian died.

Looking at his sorrowful sister, the ecstasy sighed helplessly, looked at her and said: "Well, since you believe he is still alive, then tell me where is he now? Since he is still alive, he Why not come to you?"

Listening to the ecstasy, Situ Ningbing stayed there in pain, and the tears on her face fell drop by drop, sad.

"Ning Bing, my brother knows that Li Tian is a good person and that you love him very much, but the facts have been formed. He is dead. I hope you must cheer up."

But how could this fact be accepted by Situ Ningbing?

She loves him so much!

But now Li Tian is "dead"...he will never be seen again in the world...

For Situ Ningbing, how dare to accept this fact! ! !

I saw Situ Ningbing sitting on the bed in grief, holding his legs in his hands, and silly, the despair in his eyes made people feel pity for them.

She didn't speak, she didn't even move, as if the world before her had nothing to do with her.

"Ning Bing... Ning Bing..." The Ecstatic Envoy looked at his younger sister, and shouted worriedly there.

But what about Situ Ningbing? But as if he hadn't heard, he still kept that posture motionless, and the whole person seemed completely dumb.

"Ning Bing, brother knows that you feel uncomfortable and that you feel uncomfortable... Hey, take a good rest first, and brother will always be by your side to accompany you."

The ecstasy looked at his sister, and he was extremely worried, but he had no choice but to sigh deeply, then walked to the side and sat there to guard his sister.

Jinghai City outside is busy, and the bustling city remains the same.

But there is a sad person in this hotel.

I saw in the downtown area of Jinghai City, but suddenly there were a few powerful vehicles. They said that these vehicles were powerful, not only because the owner of the car was extremely rich, but also that the style looked at the entire Jinghai City. I am afraid that few people can match it.

There are a total of nine cars. The four front and rear are all black Mercedes-Benz S-classes, and the only one in the middle is a black extended Lincoln, domineering and mighty.

These cars are extremely eye-catching wherever they go, and of course they are also extremely eye-catching when they appear in Jinghai City.

When the vehicles coming and going on both sides of the streets of Jinghai City saw such a mighty convoy passing by, their eyes were full of envy, and even more people couldn't help talking there.

"Hey, who is that person? So handsome?"

"do not know....."

"Looking at the license plate number, it seems that you are not from Jinghai City!!!"

"Yes, it's the license plate number of the Northwest..."

"What kind of character in the Northwest? So awesome? So rich? Don't they all say that the Northwest is full of wind and sand, and it is like the old society..." One of the drivers couldn't help but laughed.

"Fart, have you ever been to the Northwest? Now the Great Northwest is awesome... The coal mine owners there are worth more than tens of millions, and some even exceed several hundred million!"

"My grass, really?"

"Nonsense, don't you know the style of others..."

The people on the left and right sides in front of them were all talking about it.

What they said is not bad. The nine luxury cars that are driving into Jinghai City are indeed not Jinghai City cars, because the license plate number is indeed the license plate number of the Northwest Region: x32001.

But who is said to come to Jinghai City with such a big style?

Situ family!

The Situ family, one of the four major families outside the customs.

But seeing the extended Lincoln car in the middle, after the master of the Situ family entered the center of Jinghai City, he slightly raised his sharp eyes, and then glanced at the tall buildings outside. Muttered: "Jinghai City..."

"The old man hasn't entered the barrier for more than 20 years...Unexpectedly, this change is quite fast." He muttered there.

After the man driving steadily in front heard what the master said, he smiled slightly and said:

"Master, it is said that the Ouyang family was born in Jinghai City...for so many years, I don't know that old man Ouyang How is the old man?"

"That old guy's spirit is so good! Sitting in Guanzhong, the family business is thriving, and the children and grandchildren are full...Happy!"

When the master of the Situ family was saying the words "children and grandchildren", a strange change appeared on his face.

The crash of the car in front seemed to feel the sudden change of the master, and he closed his mouth and said nothing.

Chapter 1460: Shock

But seeing that Patriarch Situ, who was sitting at the back, didn't say a word, he just looked out the window with those cold eyes. .

The mighty vehicles were driving forward, and the direction it was going was obviously the territory of the Ouyang family.

How could they go to the Ouyang family?

"Zhao Kuo, how long will it take to get to the Ouyang family?" Patriarch Situ who was sitting behind the Lincoln car suddenly asked.

The man named Zhao Kuo clearly drove, and at this moment said slightly, "There are still more than ten minutes."

"Oh."

"Are you ready for the gifts?" Patriarch Situ said again.

"It's all ready." Zhao Kuo said in front of that.

"I haven't entered the customs for so many years, I really don't know what happened to those old things." Patriarch Situ said one last sentence, and stopped talking.

I saw the mighty motorcade driving along the central avenue of Jinghai City towards the front.

"It's almost here, Master, the Central Avenue in the past should be the Ouyang family." Only Zhao Kuo in front said with a smile.

Patriarch Situ behind with a faint sigh of kindness, and waited quietly at this moment.

Finally, after their motorcade turned over the Central Avenue, they arrived in front of the mansion of the Ouyang family.

When their vehicles stopped in front of the Ouyang family's mansion one by one, the place where they saw the entire Ouyang family's gate was empty.

The front place was the electronic gate guarded by security guards, but there was no security guarding there at the moment... The entire Ouyang family seemed desolate and abandoned.

After seeing such a situation, I saw people in the front car had gotten off.

A few men in suits, and a thin 50-year-old old man with dazzling eyes and a navy blue dress, not very eye-catching, but the most eye-catching is holding a hand tightly in front of the old man's chest. Knife, a shiny golden knife.

That fine knife is like the life of the old man, the knife is in the person.

The blade is sharp and striking, exuding a cold breath.

Anyone close to the old man can feel the terrible sword air.

But seeing the old man holding the knife coldly sweeping the desolate Ouyang family in front of him, he frowned slightly, and then quickly ran towards the extended Lincoln sedan.

After arriving next to the extended Lincoln sedan, he stretched out a thin hand and gently tapped the black window glass, but saw the window glass slowly fall.

"Master, there seems to be something wrong with the Ouyang family, there is no one at the gate." A word came out of the old man holding the knife.

When the words of the old man holding the knife came out, the Patriarch Situ suddenly frowned and didn't say anything. Instead, he pushed the car door and walked out.

Only after he walked out can he see his burly and tall figure.

The old man holding the knife behind him closely followed him within three steps.

But seeing that Patriarch Situ, who had stepped out of the car, walked towards the main entrance of the Ouyang family. After he reached the main entrance of the Ouyang family, he really saw that the entrance was empty, even the guards. nothing.

"What's going on? What happened to the Ouyang family?" Patriarch Situ suddenly muttered to himself.

In his impression, the Ouyang family is not what it is now.

Old man Ouyang has always been an old man who pays attention to pomp, but now, the whole Ouyang house looks deserted...what's the matter?

Of course, the Situ family who came from the Great Northwest didn't know the major events that had happened recently in Guan, and of course they didn't know the death of the Ouyang family...

After looking at the deserted Ouyang family in front of him, the Patriarch Situ rushed and waved slightly: "You two come here..."

Following his exit, two men in black suits over there quickly walked over.

"master."

"Go around to find out what happened to the Ouyang family? How could there be no one!" Patriarch Situ said.

After Patriarch Situ gave such instructions, the two subordinates said, "Yes."

Then the two quickly went to the place next to the Ouyang family to inquire...

And Patriarch Situ led other people to look at the entire barren Ouyang family.

"Master, it seems that something big has happened to the Ouyang family... You see, it is strange that there is no one in the Ouyang family inside or outside," said Zhao Kuoze next to it.

Patriarch Situ frowned and glanced at the situation in front of him, and snorted in his mouth.

"There shouldn't be any major issues."

"After all, such a huge family... Even if something goes wrong, it's impossible for Lao Ouyang to even want his old base." Patriarch Situ said.

Just as they were talking, they saw that the two subordinates who were inquiring had already walked over quickly.

"Master, we figured it out." The two hands that walked over said ugly underneath.

"What's going on?" Patriarch Situ asked when he went up.

I just listened to the subordinates in front of me hurriedly saying: "Return to the master, Ouyang family seems to have indeed happened. People around said that the Ouyang family suffered an explosion and massacre a few days ago. Many of them The members of the family were killed...a pile of corpses was left, and a large number of members of the Ouyang family also left. The current Ouyang family has completely turned into a desolate land without anyone."

When he heard the news, Patriarch Situ was stunned.

"How could this be?"

"Does the Ouyang family have suffered disasters?" Patriarch Situ said in shock.

The old man holding the knife in his arms did not say a word, and Zhao Kuo's eyes beside him also had a very strange expression.

"Did they tell you what kind of attack the Ouyang family suffered?" Patriarch Situ asked again suddenly.

I saw the two men shook their heads there.

The Patriarch Situ looked ugly at the moment, looking at the entire deserted Ouyang family, he kept thinking in his mind: What happened to the Ouyang family? How could you suffer such a catastrophe suddenly?

Although it has not been in contact with the other three major families in Guan for more than 20 years, the Situ family knows that the power of the Ouyang family can never be defeated by others so easily, but now? The Ouyang family really seems to be over.

From this point of view, dealing with the characters of the Ouyang family is definitely a very powerful character.
