

A Killer 150

Chapter 150: track

After following the nurse into the ward on the side, Li Tian slowly took off his coat, and a shock appeared in the eyes of the nurse and him.

I saw five purple handprints on his chest.

Wasn't that the serious injury suffered by that K's palm on his chest? Unexpectedly, the injury was so severe!

The nurse girl looked at Li Tian's injury with an ugly expression; "Sir, what is this...what happened to you?"

Li Tian looked at the wound on his chest and thought for a long time before saying, "It's okay, it's just that I was injured by mistake."

The nurse saw that Li Tian was unwilling to say more, and was too embarrassed to ask too much, so he lowered his head and gave Li Tian medicine.

After taking the anti-inflammatories, Li Tian gratefully continued to return to the emergency room where Shen Feng was staying. Now he is 10,000 brothers who care about him.

Finally, after about an hour or two of work, the red light in the emergency room went out.

The door also opened.

A few doctors in white coats came out from inside.

Li Tian walked over immediately.

"Doctor, how is my brother?"

The doctor wearing a mask and a white lab coat slowly took off the mask, revealing a face with eyes, and said: "Fortunately, you came earlier. The patient is now out of danger. If you delay on the road again After a while, it may not be saved."

Hearing what the doctor said, Li Tianxuan's heart finally fell.

Looking at the doctor gratefully, he said, "Thank you so much for saving my brother.

The doctor shook his head: "This is what we should do."

"By the way, how could your friend suffer such a serious injury? The internal organs were almost shattered by external force, and the wound seemed to be injured by a sawtooth iron?" The doctor asked Li Tian in wonder.

Li Tian was shocked when he heard the doctor say so.

To be honest, he didn't expect that Shen Feng would be beaten like that by the monster with yellow hair? The internal organs were almost shattered, what a terrifying and rare force...

And the yellow-haired man shot with a weapon. I remember that when the yellow-haired man suddenly rushed towards Shen Feng, he didn't even see how his hand moved. Then Shen Feng was beaten out. Could it be there? At that moment, the yellow-haired man used the weapon, and then took it back? So fast?

Li Tian was completely shocked when he thought about this.

"Your friend is out of the dangerous period now, you can go in and see him." The doctor reminded Li Tian who was there, and then walked forward.

Only then did Li Tian react and hurriedly ran towards the ward.

In the ward filled with the smell of pungent medicine, I saw that Shen Feng was lying on the hospital bed with a pale face and no blood.

"Shen Feng." Li Tian walked over quickly, looking at Shen Feng on the hospital bed and said with concern.

Shen Feng in front of him blinked weak eyes and saw Li Tian, moving his lips with difficulty: "Brother Tian..."

"Don't talk, take a good rest first." Li Tiandao said.

Shen Feng moved slightly, and the muscles on his face were obviously trembling there.

"Brother Tian... That guy is a pervert... Too powerful... I have never seen a person shoot so fast... so incredible..." The moment Shen Feng remembered that K's shot made him scared.

"Well, I know." Li Tiandao said.

"But don't worry, one day our brothers will get back this hatred." Li Tian said fiercely.

Shen Feng smiled bitterly.

"I have to tell you something. You are now out of danger. There is nothing serious about it for the time being. I want you to stay in the hospital. I have to go and do something."

After Li Tian finished speaking, Shen Feng was taken aback for a moment, and blinked at Li Tian: "Are you going to deal with those people?"

Li Tian didn't want to tell him, but Shen Feng had already guessed it, so he had no choice but to say, "Yes."

"But don't worry, I will not fight them head-on. I also know that I am not their opponent at all. I just want to understand why these people suddenly come to Kyoto City." Li Tiandao said.

"What do you mean?" Shen Feng asked inexplicably.

Li Tian thought for a while and said, "I will tell you this thing bit by bit when I look back, and I won't be clear about it in a while."

"Now Brother Tian just wants you to recover well in the hospital and take care of your injuries." Li Tian said while holding Shen Feng's hand.

At this moment, Shen Feng's actions were a problem, so he nodded helplessly.

"Ok."

"Then you must also be careful, that group of people is really terrifying." Shen Feng said at last.

After saying goodbye to Shen Feng, Li Tian came to the front desk of the hospital and left the hospital after paying the hospitalization fee for almost two weeks.

After taking a taxi, he drove towards the Haocheng Hotel again.

In the taxi, Li Tian frowned as he felt the serious injury on his chest.

After arriving at the entrance of the Haocheng Hotel, Li Tian got off the taxi. Instead of directly entering the Haocheng Hotel, he took a look and walked towards the opposite side.

There happened to be a small supermarket on the opposite side. Li Tian bought a bread for 3 yuan and a bottle of mineral water in it. While eating there, he looked at the people coming out from the door of the luxury hotel.

He wants to follow, follow the mysterious people with the "swastika" pattern on their wrists.

Because only in this way can he know why these legendary (Qingsha) people come to Kyoto City? What are they doing?

The residents of Haocheng Hotel came out one after another, but they didn't see the Duan Mu Lei group coming out from there. This made Li Tian in front of him be puzzled, and his heart was secretly lined: Did the Duan Mu Lei and the others have already left. Haocheng Hotel?

After thinking about it, Li Tian felt a little surprised. At the moment of depression, suddenly his eyes swept the door of the Haocheng Hotel, and at a glance he saw that Duan Mu Lei and Fang Hai and his party came out of the Haocheng Hotel.

Duanmulei was the first to walk in front. When Duanmulei, who was beaten by Shen Feng and Li Tian, came out of the hotel with bruises on his face, he led the way like a pug. , The look of bowing and kneeling, Fang Hai and Duanmu Lei following him are almost exactly the same.

Li Tian also saw the blond K and the * lotus tattoo on his head.
