

A Killer 1721

Chapter 1721: become free

Something is wrong, this is obviously the site of the gate of hell, but how can someone suddenly come to help yourself?

Could it be that the people who help oneself are the disciples of the gate of hell?

The more Li Tian thought about it, the more things went wrong.

As he thought this way in his mind, the other party's light pinching footsteps had quickly left him. In the darkness, only the sound of the body flying by, the death-like silence was restored instantly. .

Li Tian was holding the "white porcelain bottle" thrown in by the mysterious guy just now, completely stunned, as if everything that happened just now seemed to be a dream.

"This, this, is this antidote real or fake?"

"Could it be the people at the gate of * to harm yourself? The poison deliberately...? You know, I don't know anyone in the gate of hell... and all the people at the gate of * are their own enemies. How could anyone? Will you save yourself? Besides, the hoarse voice just now sounds so strange... Li Tian dare to swear that he has never heard such a voice in his life, so he is completely puzzled."

The more Li Tian thought about it, the more things went wrong.

Looking at the white porcelain bottle in his hand at the moment, I was depressed.

"But if the other party is from the gate of hell, would they harm themselves so mysteriously?"

"I can't move my body at all now, let alone my luck... If someone at the gate of * really wants to harm you, just open the iron gate and give yourself a knife. It may be over... How could it be so mysterious? Give yourself a bottle of poison? And it's so troublesome..."

After Li Tian thought about it this way, he pushed back his previous inference again.

According to Li Tian's thinking, doesn't it mean that the mysterious guy just now really came to save himself? And at this moment, the bottle of white thing in his hand, is it really the antidote to the "broken muscles"?

At this moment, Li Tian suddenly became entangled, because even he can't figure out whether the antidote in his hand is true or not? And the mysterious guy just now came to help himself? Still hurt yourself.

After thinking this way in Li Tian's mind, he suddenly made a decision.

He wants to try the antidote in his hand!

Because this is Li Tian's only hope at the moment...and also his only way.

At this moment, sinking into such a dark and narrow stone room, Li Tian really couldn't stay...Moreover, his acupuncture points were blocked all over. If he waited like this, he might still have difficulty waiting for the * gate master to return. Escape to death, so instead of just waiting to die, it's better to fight this time...

If this antidote is true, maybe he can escape.

With this idea, Li Tian made this bold decision. He was going to try the white porcelain bottle in his hand.

He slowly opened the white porcelain bottle in his hand and found a pill with a strange smell pouring out of it.

The pill said it was big or small, and it was held in Li Tian's hands, but the pill had a very strong smell.

Li Tian thought about it for a while, looked at the pill, and after a few seconds of contemplation, he swallowed it decisively.

As the weird pill suddenly entered Li Tian's body, Li Tian could only feel that the pill was surprisingly unpalatable, just like poison... Li Tian subconsciously meant that he had taken the poison stupidly. !

However, since he has eaten it, he has no choice but to bite the bullet and try it now.

Let's say that after Li Tian endured a bite of the extremely unpalatable pill, he began to think carefully about the words of the mysterious guy, "After taking this medicine, the whole body will be lucky for a week, and it will repeat itself. After three hours, the veins will naturally All unobstructed."

After recalling what the mysterious guy said in his mind, Li Tian not only frowned slightly, but in the dark, he began to move his body with difficulty, because his whole body was sealed with acupuncture points, so He moved extremely painfully, as if the bones all over his body were broken.

After finally holding back the painful pain, Li Tian let out a deep breath, his legs finally folded.

After hardly curling up his legs, he began to slowly place his hands on the position of his dantian "The whole body is lucky for a week!"

So he quickly started luck in the way the mysterious guy said.

Because Li Tian's whole body acupuncture veins are blocked...so it seems extremely difficult to lift the qi at this moment, and it seems that the true qi cannot be lifted at all...

But Li Tian had no other choice but to persist, bit by bit.

In the dark narrow stone room, Li Tian tried little by little to lift the little bit of true energy in his body... and then began to slowly walk around his body.

As the body's strength slowly wandered away, Li Tian only felt that the extremely unpalatable pill that he had swallowed in his mouth just now suddenly began to become hot... and there was a burning sensation in his stomach.

After suddenly feeling the pill exuding a hot sensation, Li Tian was stunned.

"What happened? Is it a reaction?"

As the pill started to get hotter and hotter, gradually the flow of heat quickly began to spread throughout his body...

After the heat spread to Li Tian's whole body, he felt his meridian acupoints begin to slowly burn like a fire.

There is a reaction!

Really reacted!

Then Li Tian felt that his whole body's true qi began to rise bit by bit from his dantian... and the zhenqi that could not be lifted could be lifted at this moment.

In this way, Li Tian sat quietly in the dark stone room, his whole body began to get lucky, and the true energy slowly followed the heat flow on his acupuncture points and meridians continuously, and every time it flowed to a point, Li Tian could feel the fiery sensation...but his body seemed to begin to gradually recover.

Really an antidote!

I didn't expect that the white porcelain bottle that the mysterious guy threw in was actually an antidote...

After Li Tian noticed it all at once, he became more calm and began to get lucky and his whole body.

An hour passed.

Two hours passed.

Three hours finally passed...

When it finally reached three hours, Li Tian suddenly spit out a thick white gas from his mouth, then he slid his body and jumped directly from the ground!

He is fine!

His whole body is unobstructed at this moment...

Chapter 1722: a child

Li Tian was completely free after all the meridians and blood collaterals all over his body were unblocked.

Now his skill has completely recovered, and all the bones and muscles suffered before have disappeared without a trace at this moment.

After Li Tian was free, he first moved his muscles and bones slowly, and then couldn't help thinking about who that mysterious guy was in his mind? Why help yourself?

Judging from Li Tian's current speculation, Li Tian feels that the other party must be a person in the gate of hell. Because of the site of the gate of hell, no one in the world can enter so easily, and he can accurately know that he has been in the gate The sect master's broken tendons... and he knew where he was being held, so Li Tian dared to conclude that he must be a figure at the gate of * to save himself.

But, as for who is in the gate of hell? How about saving yourself at the risk of being killed and betraying the gate of hell?

After Li Tian thought for a while, he stopped thinking about it, because he couldn't figure out the real reason even if he wanted to break his head.

No matter what, Li Tian was grateful to the person who saved him.

Now that Li Tian was free, he began to find a way to leave here.

He stretched out his hand and touched the surrounding ice-cold stone wall, and found that the stone wall was so thick that it would be impossible to break it with palm strength.

Then Li Tian began to look at the only stone gate. The stone gate was so heavy that it couldn't be opened at all. The only way to get out was the small square iron window above it.

After seeing this little iron window, Li Tian came up with a way in his mind.

He knew that the door of the stone room he was closed had a mechanism outside... If he could control the people outside and force him to open the mechanism, Li Tian would definitely be able to go out.

After thinking about it in this way, his bright eyes stared at the small square iron window without blinking.

It seems that this is the only way.

After Li Tian made up his mind secretly, he began to wait quietly.

Time goes by every minute...

Every day, the people at the gate of * would send someone to Li Tian to bring food... and the stuff in was stuffed in from the small iron window.

As time slowly passed, Li, who was sitting in the dark stone room, suddenly heard the sound of footsteps coming from a distance.

After the sound of footsteps came, Li Tian suddenly became excited, because he knew that the guy who delivered the food was here again.

I saw him carefully listening to the footsteps with a deep breath, the other side's footsteps seemed very heavy, and Li Tian knew that the other side was just a very ordinary character.

The footsteps, pedaling, pedaling, pedaling towards Li Tian's side.

Near, getting closer.

Finally... the person who delivered the food outside stopped, and had reached the outside of the stone room where Li Tianbei was being held.

Then, Li Tian heard the sound of the key, and after the sound of the key came, the man began to hold the key and stuffed it into the small square window.

Li Tian looked calmly at the small iron window in front of him, staring there without blinking.

But with a click, the lock was unlocked.

The moment the lock was unlocked, the other party suddenly opened the small iron window, and then stretched out his hand and started to stuff food into the stone room.

Just when he was holding a rough plate in his hand and stuffing Li Tian to eat, suddenly a ghost-like arm suddenly grabbed the wrist of the guy outside, and then buckled his five fingers directly on the other's life and death vein. .

Ah, a muffled scream came out of the opponent's mouth.

"Don't move, don't call, call again, your life will be gone right away." After Li Tian's cold voice suddenly came from the dark stone room, the guy outside him who was holding the vein of life and death suddenly Calm down... Although his body was still shaking with fear, he really didn't dare to yell anymore.

"I don't want to kill, and I have no grievances against you... I tell you now, I just want to leave here, if you don't want to die, open this stone room quickly..." Li Tian said coldly in the dark stone room. .

The guy outside, who was grasping the vein of life and death by him, paused at this moment, as if thinking...His body was trembling with fear, as if he was afraid of Li Tian.

"Okay... I... I let you go." A tender voice came.

After Li Tian heard this voice, he was not only startled: Why is the voice so immature? Is it a teenager?

But Li Tian didn't think too much. The only thing he had to do now was to leave here quickly.

After the other party agreed, he really slowly started to press the switch of the stone chamber.

As he pressed the switch of the stone chamber outside, the stone chamber suddenly opened after hearing a bang.

The moment the stone room opened, Li Tian jumped out directly like flying, and then he restrained the opponent with his hands very quickly, and his right hand directly pinched the opponent's neck.

"No...no...don't kill me."

The other party's immature voice called out again.

Li Tian looked up and saw that the guy who was restrained by himself was really only a teenager.

His face looked immature, but he was dressed in a black robe that was completely incompatible with his body, with a pale face, looking at Li Tian in fear.

Looking at the teenage child in front of him, Li Tian couldn't help being stunned slightly, and then he said in his heart: Why is there such a teenage child in the door of hell? what happened? Aren't the characters in the gate of * all the top masters? How could there be such a child watching here?

No wonder he escaped so easily. It turns out that he is really a "child," who does not seem to be an adult yet.

Looking at the immature child in front of him, Li Tian slowly put away his murderous intentions.

"Don't kill me...please...please...don't kill me." The "child" looked at Li Tian pleadingly with pleading and fearful eyes in his eyes.

Li Tian glanced at him, and then the one that was holding on to his neck slowly loosened.

"Who are you? Are you also from the gate of hell?" Li Tian asked coldly.

The "child" was full of fear at the moment, so scared that tears seemed to be streaming out, and quickly said: "I'm just...just...a guard here...they...they asked me to give it to you every day. rice."

After the "child" said so, Li Tian gave him a cold look.

"Okay, I believe you first and don't kill you!"

"But, if you dare to yell, I will definitely make you die miserably." Li Tian frightened the child.

Chapter 1723: I can help you

The current Li Tian just broke away from the control of the stone room. He now has to save the Duguxie and the ghost servant as soon as possible...If the guy in front of you will scream while Li Tian leaves, then It's really troublesome.

Inside the gate of hell, the master is like a cloud. It is probably impossible for him to escape safely by himself.

Li Tian was going to take the shot to knock this child out...because he was not going to kill him, but he couldn't keep him awake at this moment, because if this kid waited for him to leave before calling the disciple of hell, then himself His whereabouts were completely exposed, but when Li Tian was about to do so, the child suddenly asked.

"You...are you...are you a good person?" Suddenly the child asked a weird word in fear.

After the child asked such a weird question, Li Tian was taken aback, raised his eyes and looked at him in front of him. From his gaze, Li Tian seemed to see a trace of innocence.

But Li Tian still said coldly: "Why ask?"

"Because...because...I don't want to stay here, I don't want to stay here, the people here are all demons, none of them have humanity... If... If you can take me out of here... I must... I will thank you for sure." The child said with a trembling voice.

Listening to the kid saying this, Li Tian's heart suddenly shook, but his heart was in the dark that could not help: What happened? What the * is this * gate doing? Why is there such a teenage kid here... and this guy still says such things at this moment?

"Didn't you volunteer to join this * gate?" Li Tian Leng asked.

But seeing the child, his eyes turned red... The trembling voice was shaking his head vigorously.

"We...we were arrested..." the child sadly said.

"What? You were arrested?" Li Tian asked in shock.

The child nodded silently, a sense of fear filled his face.

"How could this be? Why did the people at the gate of * arrest these underage children? What are they doing in arresting these children?" Li Tian had all questions in his mind at this moment.

After Li Tian thought for a while, he then remembered what the "child" had just said.

"No, you just said that we, besides you, are there other children caught here?" Li Tianjing asked.

The child nodded quickly and said: "Yes, many, many..."

"Besides me, at least 20 other partners like me have been arrested here..." the boy said.

When Li Tian heard this, he was stunned.

"More than twenty children? So many?"

"Yep."

"Oh my God, is the gate of * crazy? Why do you want to catch these underage children?" Li Tian was shocked at that mumbled incredulous question.

But when the child heard Li Tian's muttering to himself, he replied: "Because... they want to train us... those people told us that let us become a tool for killing people."

"He also said that we have good roots and belong to martial arts training materials, so we have been trained since we were young, and when the time is right, we will be sent out to carry out killing missions. They said that we will be the next generation of terror at the gate of hell. Killer." The child said all about the sinister plan of the * gate.

After Li Tian listened, he was really shocked.

Too vicious, too evil.

It turned out that Hell Gate caught these underage children just to nurture them and make them the main force of the next generation of Hell Gate.

There is no doubt that the gate of * lies in the evil gods back then, and most of the masters have already been lost during the mission for more than two decades...There are also some masters who are already very young because of the years, so * The gate is mainly for his own future plans, he must cultivate a new generation of masters...In this way, the gate of * can always maintain the posture of dominating the world.

After Li Tian listened, he finally understood the real reason why this * gate arrested these children.

Looking at the child in front of him, Li Tian's heart was full of compassion.

"Can you take me away... Can you take me out of here?"

"I don't want to stay here... I don't want to stay here... I want to go home..." The child was full of tears, looking at Li Tiandao at the moment.

Although Li Tian was moved in his heart, can he take him with him?

No, no!

Because Li Tian had to save Duguxie and the ghost servants.

Now that they are inside the gate of hell, they may be discovered at any time. If it were Li Tian himself, it would be better. Even if they find out, with the strength of Li Tian now, it is definitely not easy to get caught Things, but if you bring this child, it will be troublesome...A burden is absolutely not allowed in such a situation.

So Li Tian resolutely rejected the poor child.

"No, I can not."

"Because I have to save my friend, my brother... You will only add to my burden if you follow me. At that time, I will not only be able to save you, but will harm you." Li Tian told the truth.

The child said, "I am not afraid of death... I really don't want to stay here... Please, please take me out..."

Li Tian heard him begging, but there was really no other way, so he turned his head resolutely and stopped looking at the child.

"I...I...can help you save people...as long as you take me out." Just when Li Tian was about to leave decisively, the child suddenly said.

As the child said this, Li Tian's heart shook, and he turned his head abruptly.

Then a pair of eyes stared at the child in front of him tightly.

"what did you say?"

"You said you can help me save people?" Li Tian looked at the child and asked.

The child nodded vigorously and said, "I have been in the Necropolis for almost 3 years. Although I am not particularly familiar with this place, at least I am more familiar than you... If you want to save people If you do, I can help you... and also help you escape, as long as you can take me out of this place."

After the kid said that, Li Tian strode over, staring at him and said, "Really? Can you really help me?"

"En." The child said with firm eyes.

"Well, I believe you once. If you can really help me save people, I will take you out." Li Tiandao said.

Originally, Li Tian really didn't want to take this burden... but Li Tian was really not familiar with this place, let alone where the ghost servant and Duguxie were imprisoned, the only thing he knew was Duguxie and ghosts. The place where the servant is imprisoned has a huge stone wall, and there are pictures and texts on the huge stone wall. If the child next to him has not lied to himself, if he can really help himself, then look for Duguxie. The ghost servant's hope has increased by more than half...No matter what, it is still good. This is the ultimate reason Li Tian has to do it.

Chapter 1724: Master

After Li Tianxia decided, he was really ready to start bringing the "child" in front of him.

Just listen to the kid asking at this moment: "By the way, who is the person you are trying to save? Do you know where he is being held? And what exactly they look like? You may not know... Hell gate detention There are a lot of people in, if you don't say clearly, it's hard for me to help you."

As the kid asked this, Li Tian's heart shook and thought, it turns out that this  gate holds a lot of people. Fortunately for this "child" to help, if you don't have him, if you blindly search for it with your head covered, then I was in trouble, so I told him the appearance and characteristics of Duguxie and the ghost servant.

After telling the child, the child frowned for a moment.

"Grimace mask... and a man with one hand... I think about it..."

"Oh, yes, I get it!"

"Is it the felon brought back a few days ago? One of them is called...what...evil sword...?" the child said suddenly.

As the child said so, Li Tian suddenly became excited and said, "Yes, it is him."

"He is being held there now?" Li Tian asked quickly.

After Li Tian asked excitedly, the child said slightly: "They are locked in a closed room."

"Containment Chamber?"

"Yes, there is a place where our sect master often practiced and retreat...No one can go in and out casually..." The child said, his brows dignified, and a look of embarrassment appeared on his face.

"That place is very dangerous, very dangerous, because there are many people guarding it." The child murmured again.

Hearing what the child said, Li Tian hesitated and said, "Don't worry, even if it's Longtan Tiger's Den, I will save my brother."

"Take me." Just listen to Li Tiandao.

When the child heard Li Tian say this, he hesitated for a while, and finally nodded silently, and said: "Okay." Then he led Li Tian to walk out of this place slowly.

Li Tian heard the boy say that this place is indeed the nest of the gate of hell.

And the name is: Necropolis.

It belongs to an abandoned imperial tomb built underground. No one knows that this tomb is of that age. He only knows that the space inside is huge and there are many caves... and all the masters of the gate of * are hidden here.

Going ahead is a long and narrow stone wall passage.

Li Tian walked behind, and the kid in the black robe that didn't fit his body walked in front.

As he walked, the child whispered Li Tiandao in front and said: "Be careful, there are two people guarding the exit in front of you. I have seen the martial arts of those two people, very high..."

Listening to the boy's words, Li Tian smiled at him slightly and said, "Don't worry, just take me over, and leave the two to me."

The child gave Li Tian a dubious look, then nodded silently, and then walked forward with Li Tian behind him step by step.

As they moved forward more and more, they had reached the exit of the stone wall passage at this moment.

There is a very heavy stone gate, which is tightly closed, presumably this should be the only way out.

After the child arrived next to Shimen, he whispered to Li Tiandao: "Someone was guarding outside the door...two." He said while gestured to Li Tian with his hands there.

Li Tian nodded slightly, then motioned to him to open the heavy stone gate in front of him.

The child's face looked very cautious and nervous. After that slight sigh, he slowly began to place his hand on the button that touched the stone gate.

But Li Tian stood beside the stone gate with ease.

After the child calmed his breath, he finally pressed the switch button on the stone gate.

After he pressed it, the entire stone gate rang loudly, and then the huge stone gate suddenly rose up.

After the stone gate rose up, Li Tian flew out directly at a speed beyond lightning speed.

His fast naked eyes could barely see clearly. The child was completely amazed when he saw Li Tian rushing out at such a weird speed, his eyes widened and looked at the figure of Li Tiande unbelievably...

However, as soon as Li Tian flew out, he really found two * disciples wearing black robes standing at the door.

When one of them hadn't reacted at all, Li Tian accumulated energy and fingers, and then Xuantian * suddenly shot out like a howling bullet.

With a swish, a terrifying finger directly penetrated the neck of one of the other's disciples of hell...

The disciple of * clutched his pierced neck, and immediately made a hoarse voice from the inside of his throat... The whole neck was bloody, and his body fell into a pool of blood with a thump, and died.

When the other one saw Li Tian's figure, he didn't have time to scream and attacked with a palm.

Li Tian shook his backhand, then grabbed his right hand, grabbed the opponent's arm, twisted hard, and clicked, a crisp sound of broken bones came out, and at the same time, Li Tian had already covered the man's mouth with one hand. Then he twisted hard, and the man's neck was instantly broken by Li Tian.

In an instant, the two so-called "masters" at the door died unexplainably under Li Tian's hands.

The "child" standing on the side of Shimen looked at Li Tian with wide eyes at this moment in disbelief. There was a shock of light in his eyes, as if Li Tian's behavior just now completely stunned him.

"Oh my God, you, you, you are so amazing." The child looked at Li Tian with round eyes.

Li Tian didn't even glance at the two corpses on the ground, but directly said to the child: "Hurry up and take me to the confinement stone room..."

The child seemed to hear Li Tian say this, as if he had suddenly realized this meeting, nodded there quickly, and then led Li Tian to continue walking forward.

As he walked, the child not only looked back at the two dead corpses lying on the ground at the two * gates... a gloomy feeling came out of him.

"The place in front is the hall...This place used to be where the disciples gathered...but you can rest assured now. Under normal circumstances, there will be very few people here. Only when something big happens, the gate of Hell Only real masters will come here to discuss countermeasures." The child continued to preach to Li Tian while walking in front.

Li Tian didn't know if he heard his words, didn't speak, didn't say anything, just silently followed behind him, his face thoughtfully thinking about other things.

Chapter 1725: Dog hole

"By the way, I ask you, did the master of the gate of * leave here?" After a few minutes of pondering, Li Tian suddenly looked at the child in front and asked.

But the child turned his head curiously and looked at Li Tiandao: "Hey, how do you know our master has left the Necropolis?"

Li Tian did not answer his words, but was secretly happy: It seems that the * demon was indeed deceived by himself.

If he didn't guess wrong, he should really look for the dragon yin, the snipe and the clam fight, there must be a wound, those two * devil bastards, if they can kill one of them, it would be the best. .

Li Tian was thinking so secretly in his heart, while quickly walking forward.

Under the leadership of that child, Li Tian had already reached the front place very quickly at this moment.

When they arrived in the hall, they suddenly heard footsteps coming from ahead.

The child became frightened all of a sudden.

What about Li Tian? When he heard the sound of footsteps suddenly coming towards them, he made a swift action, shook his body, and flew towards the top of the rock wall, and then his whole body climbed on the top of the rock wall like a gecko. .

And that kid? After seeing Li Tian hiding in that position, I finally breathed a sigh of relief.

At this time, I really saw four oncoming disciples of hell.

The four people were in black robes, their complexions were cold, and their sharp cold eyes glanced at the "child" standing there with cold and terrifying eyes.

The child lowered his head silently, not daring to look squarely at those people, but fortunately, the four disciples of * did not doubt the child in front of him, but after a cold look at him, they turned to the other side. Go quickly to the place.

After the four people left, the child was finally relieved.

"Scared me to death." He murmured while patting his chest.

With a whirr, Li Tian flew down from above the stone wall.

Now Li Tian has fully realized that there are many people guarding the old nest fruit of the * gate...If you don't hurry to rescue the Duguxie and the ghost servants, wait in case they are found to escape. Trace, I'm afraid it was really troublesome at that time.

So after Li Tian flew down from the top of the stone wall, he quickly said to the child: "How far is it to reach the confined stone room...?"

"Quickly, after passing through the hall, walk about two hundred meters to reach the confinement stone room." He said.

Li Tiandao: "Okay, take me quickly."

The guy nodded, and quickly walked forward with Li Tian in front of him.

The hall of the Necropolis is indeed very desolate...Except for the disciples of the  disciples guarding the frontmost place, the hall of the huge stone room is almost empty.

Li Tian then followed the boy step by step, and soon they passed through the hall in front of them with ease.

After passing through the hall of the Necropolis, according to the child, he should be getting closer and closer to the confinement stone chamber.

"Is it right ahead?" Li Tian asked the boy with a low reputation at the moment.

The child nodded silently: "Just ahead."

"it is good."

"Let's go over." As Li Tian said so, he took the lead in rushing towards the front, and the child behind him hurriedly chased him.

After Li Tian arrived in front, he saw six disciples of  in black robes guarding the place in front...

And the place they guarded, if guessed right, should be the confined stone room, and it is also the place where Duguxie and ghost servants are held.

"Here?" Li Tian confirmed to the child behind in a very small voice.

The child breathed in and nodded.

Li Tian looked at the six disciples of  in front of the gate, not only frowned.

How to get in?

There are members of the gate of  guarding the gate, and one who is not careful will definitely be found... Moreover, even if Li Tian has great skills, it is impossible to kill six people at once, in case one of them suddenly If you yell, that would be bad.

After Li Tian thought this way, his brows wrinkled tightly.

what should I do? Li Tian couldn't stay there thinking.

Is it necessary to make a forcible investment? Li Tian was making the last struggle in his heart.

For the sake of Duguxie, for the ghost servants... even if they were discovered by the  disciples of hell, I must save them.

The moment Li Tian made up his mind, he was ready to rush into the confinement stone chamber in front of him, because now there is no other way besides rushing into it.

Just as Li Tian was about to forcefully break into this confined stone room, the child suddenly spoke: "You, what are you doing?"

"Don't you want to rush through... In that case, they will find out."

Li Tian said coldly: "How much do you think you can be so scrupulous? I have to rescue my brother...Even if this place is going to be bloodbathed today, I have to rescue the lone lonely and the two ghost servants." Li Tian was all over. Said murderously.

The child looked at Li Tian's terrifying eyes with a little timidity, and he couldn't help but stepped back.

In that whisper, "Actually...actually...there is a hidden path leading to this confinement chamber."

Li Tianzai suddenly heard that the kid said so, and immediately became depressed.

"What? There is a small road? Why didn't you say it earlier..." Li Tian was a little angry.

But I heard the boy say: "Because...because...that path is a dog hole...so...so..."

The child did not finish the following words, but Li Tian fully understood the meaning of the words that followed. Seeing the child's face full of sincerity, he said, "Well, I was wrong..."

"However, at the moment, I am mainly saving people, whether it is a dog hole or what kind of hole, as long as I can save people, I can do anything." Li Tiandao.

After the child heard Li Tian say this, he smiled slightly and said: "Okay, then I will take you to the dog hole, and we will go in from there..."

"Only I know that dog hole... so don't worry."

The child said with a smile.

So Li Tian followed the child to climb the so-called dog hole.

The child in front led the way, and Li Tian followed closely.

After they reached the "dog cave", they saw the so-called cave in the child's mouth.

In fact, the so-called "dog cave" is not a real dog cave, but an extremely small cave... The cave is extremely old, it seems like it was dug by a tomb robber in the past, it is dark and looks quite It's so deep, I really don't know how the child in front of me discovered such a dog hole.

Chapter 1726: Puppet Poison

"How did you know that this hole can go inside?" Li Tian asked suspiciously at the child while standing at the entrance of the hole.

Just listen to the child in front of me saying: "When I was arrested and came here three years ago...because I was often hungry, I once sneaked out to find something to eat, and I saw this dog hole. So I crawled in, but when I climbed in, I saw a man in black clothes practicing in it... His practice was extremely powerful, and the whole body was filled with black energy, and I couldn't tell. A sense of fear... Then I hurriedly crawled out of this dog hole. Later I learned that the man in black clothes was the master of our * gate."

After the child in front of him said so, Li Tian finally understood the reason.

After nodding, Li Tian said, "Okay, then let's get in quickly."

The child smiled and nodded, then bent down and crawled into the "dog hole" with great skill.

At this moment, Li Tian also bent his body closely and crawled inside.

As Li Tian crawled towards the inside, he saw that the hole was indeed extremely small and difficult to drill, and the air inside was extremely thin. The child in front got up quickly because of his small body, but Li Tian in the back It was a little bit depressed, but he still bite the bullet and crawled towards here little by little.

After climbing for about 45 minutes, I suddenly saw the light in front of the cave that was dark.

"Here, let's come in." The child in front said as he crawled forward quickly.

Li Tian hurriedly followed.

But seeing that the child had climbed to the place of light at this moment, and as soon as he jumped, he had already climbed up. After he climbed up, Li Tian here followed closely.

Finally, they really came in.

After crawling in, Li Tian recognized it at a glance, it really was this place.

Because he once again saw the huge stone wall, one stone wall was 45 meters high, and it was engraved with dense tadpoles.

After Li Tian found out that he had found the right place, he couldn't stop ecstatic.

But seeing that there is almost nothing in this confinement chamber except the empty messy boulders...Only the huge rock wall perseverance on that side is here.

Because this is the place where the master of the gate of * practises privately, under normal circumstances, without the command of the master of the gate of hell, it is impossible for anyone to enter here privately. Whoever enters will die, so at this moment, it is empty inside the confinement stone room. , There is not a disciple of the gate of hell.

After Li Tian came in, he hurried to the place.

Because he knew that Duguxie and ghost servants were being held here.

"Dugu, ghost servant.,

Li Tian sprinted toward this side while yelling there.

But seeing the ice-cold stone wall in front of this, I didn't see the shadow of Duguxie and the ghost servant.

Li Tian clearly remembered that that day, when the * gate master ordered his subordinates to press the mechanism, it was in the back position, so at this time, he turned his gaze to the back.

"Organization, where is it?" He said, searching for it while running over.

The child also walked over quickly at this moment, because he was at the gate of * for such a long time, so he was a little familiar with the secret tunnels inside the gate of hell.

After he ran over, he looked at the dark and icy wall in front of him, and suddenly his fingers touched a slightly raised stone wall on the left, as he reached out and touched, then pressed hard, there was a bang, only to hear a sudden sound in the back. The sound of Shek Pik opening.

Turning his head to take a look, he saw Duguxie exposed from one side of the dark room.

"Dugu." When Li Tian saw that the dark room was finally opened, he couldn't help but yelled excitedly, and then quickly ran toward the Duguxie.

And what about the kids over there? Then start looking for another organ button.

After a while he found the second switch button, and as he continued to press it with his hand, the ghost servants in the nearby area also emerged from the enclosed stone room.

However, in a blink of an eye, both people emerged from the enclosed stone wall. It turned out that there were dark rooms under this cold stone wall.

"Ghost servant."

Li Tian also saw the ghost servant on the other side at this time, not only screaming excitedly.

It's a pity that the current Duguxie and the ghost servants are all in a state of death, not moving at all, with their eyes closed tightly. No one knows whether they are dead or alive, and their bodies are full of blood.

When Li Tian saw the two of them in such a state, he couldn't help but feel a little bit inside.

"How could this be? What happened to the two of them?"

Li Tian thought this way in shock, and hurriedly touched the breath of the two of them. Fortunately, both of them were breathing...but their glasses were tightly closed, no matter what you call it or how it is. Move them, they seem to have no reaction at all.

"Dugu, ghost servant...what the * is going on with you? Wake up, I'm Li Tian." Li Tian looked at the two people who closed their eyes tightly and cried out worriedly.

But no matter how he yelled or yelled, the two of them seemed to be dead, and there was no sound.

When looking at these two dead people and ghost servants, Li Tian was suddenly depressed.

what should I do?

Now both of them are like dead people... Even if Li Tian has great abilities, he can't go out with such two bodies like dead people!

Moreover, they are deeply trapped in the old nest of the * gate. This old * gate master is like a cloud. If they are found, let alone saving people, I am afraid that Li Tian himself will not escape.

Looking at the Duguxie and the ghost servant who had died there at this moment, Li Tian was completely stunned.

He didn't know what to do... Now even he himself was completely at a loss.

When the child on the other side saw Duguxie and the ghost servant with such death-like faces, they not only frowned, and did not speak.

"Damn devil, what did he do to Duguxie and the ghost servant... Why are they two like dead people?" Li Tian couldn't help screaming in the stone chamber, his fists clucking. Boom boom joints can't help but rattle.

Just when Li Tian was angry and fell into a completely confused situation, a hoarse weird voice suddenly floated from the side.

"Among them is the poison of the puppets of the * gate master... I advise you not to save them in the end, because even if you save them, they will become the puppets of the * gate master in the future..."

Chapter 1727: I must save them

When the mysterious hoarse voice suddenly appeared in this room, Li Tian and the child were stunned for an instant.

"who are you?"

A burst of shouting came out directly from Li Tian's mouth, and then the whole body was murderously staring at the man in black who came out inexplicably from the stone chamber.

Look carefully. No one knows when he came in, let alone how he came in.

His face was deeply covered under the black robe, as if he didn't want to be seen his real face, and at the same time his figure was slightly taller, standing there mysteriously.

This huge stone room seems to be surrounded by extremely hard stone walls. How did this guy get in?

Looking at this guy who suddenly appeared, Li Tian was ready to do it right now.

But seeing the mysterious guy who came out suddenly gave a cold smile: "Unexpectedly, I just saved you... you don't know who I am..."

When this mysterious guy suddenly said this, Li Tian frowned immediately.

"It's him?"

"Could it be that this mysterious guy in a black robe gave himself the antidote... and also told himself how to get rid of the control of the broken hand?" Li Tian suddenly recalled his voice.

After suddenly remembering him in his mind, Li Tian was not only stunned.

"who are you?"

"And why did you save me..." Li Tian questioned at the moment.

For the weird man in black robe in front of him, Li Tian was absolutely sure that he didn't even know him.

And judging from the clothes of this mysterious guy, he is definitely a person in the gate of hell.

But why should the people in the gate of * save themselves? Li Tian really didn't understand. At this moment, his eyes were fixed on the mysterious guy, and his mind was constantly turning, guessing the identity of this guy.

I saw that the mysterious guy seemed to be slightly upset at Li Tian's question, and he not only gave a cold snort.

"I saved you... you didn't even have a word of thanks... but first began to question my identity... hey, if I knew I didn't save you at the time," the man said coldly.

When Li Tian heard this, he not only felt that he was a little too much, no matter what, the guy in front of him had indeed rescued him.

After thinking for a while, Li Tian said: "Well, I am indeed a little rude."

"No matter what, I have to say thank you."

When the man heard Li Tian say this, he laughed.

"Is this right..."

Li Tiandao: "But I really want to know, who are you? Why would you save me?"

The mysterious guy said: "Leave me alone."

"I'm just asking you, do you want to save your two friends now?" The mysterious guy in front of him said coldly, and suddenly pointed to the dead Duguxie and the ghost servant lying on the ground.

After the mysterious guy said so suddenly, Li Tian shook his heart.

So he said quickly: "I want to..."

"Yes? Then you have to listen to me."

"I want to know what happened to Dugu and Ghost Servant? Why did they become like this?" Li Tian asked suddenly.

The mysterious guy said: "Didn't I just say that...they are poisoned by puppets..."

"Puppet poison?" It was the first time that Li Tian heard such a weird "poison" and he was not only stunned.

After being stunned for about two seconds, Li Tian quickly asked, "The poison of the puppet? What is the poison of the puppet?"

"A puppet means being completely manipulated by others... And what about the puppet's poison? Once hit, apart from the * gate master's own antidote, no one in the world can cure this poison. And I tell you, this is not the terrible part of the poison of the puppet. The real terrible thing is that the poisoned person will be controlled by the poisoned person forever, controlling the mind and controlling everything in the body."

"To put it bluntly, if you save Duguxie and ghost servants now... then it will not help, because even if they wake up, they will be like fools, they will never know anyone again, and they will not remember anything. The only thing he knows is the command issued by the poisoner...what would he let them do, what would they do... let them die, they would die... let them live, they would live."

After hearing the mysterious person in front of him suddenly say this, Li Tian was there suddenly.

Oh my goodness, did he say true or false?

Is all this true? Will it really be like this?

With an extremely unbelievable look, Li Tian stared at the Duguxie and the ghost servant in front of him in amazement.

"How could this be?"

"How could this be? Will Duguxie and the ghost servants be controlled by that * * gate in the future?" Li Tian couldn't believe it.

The mysterious man glanced at Li Tian, and suddenly said, "So I suggest you don't plan to save them anymore...because even if you save them, you will only cause yourself more trouble. "

"No!" Li Tian decisively denied him after the mysterious man said so suddenly.

"How could I not save them? They are my best relatives, best friends...How can I not save them?" Li Tianxue said with red eyes.

The mysterious man smiled coldly: "But even if you save them, they will never know who you are... Maybe they will kill you."

When Li Tian heard him say this, his heart shook.

"I must save them, I must save..."

"And I swear that one day I will get the antidote... I will definitely get the antidote to remove the poison of the puppets on them."

After the mysterious man heard Li Tian's words so firmly, he sneered, and did not speak much.

While they were talking in the confinement stone room, they suddenly heard a little movement outside.

The movement was like footsteps...like running there.

Li Tian inside heard it and knew that it must be the guy at the gate of hell.

"If I'm not wrong, your whereabouts have been discovered by the people at the gate of hell...If you continue to procrastinate like this, don't even want to leave here alive even if you have three heads and six arms." The mysterious man in front of you was suddenly there. Tao said.

After he finished speaking, Li Tian also fully realized this. He had heard the sound of rapid footsteps coming from outside.

The child standing beside Li Tian was pale, obviously a little nervous and afraid, looking at Li Tian timidly.

"How to do?"

"What shall we do?" The child looked at Li Tiandao in fear, and while talking, he looked at the Duguxie and ghost servants lying on the ground like a dead body.

Chapter 1728: Escaped

But seeing Li Tian bent over and carried the unconscious Duguxie on the ground, and then tried to help the ghost servant with the other hand.

"I must save them... I must save them." Li Tian said decisively, with absolutely no doubt in his eyes.

The child and the mysterious guy around him frowned slightly when they saw Li Tian being so stubborn.

"Damn it!"

"Well, since you want to save, let's take the two puppets with them." The mysterious man said this suddenly, suddenly floated over, and then grabbed the fainted ghost servant, and then With the same on his back, it seems that this mysterious person really intends to help Li Tian.

When he saw this mysterious guy actually help him, Li Tian couldn't help being stunned, and inexplicably he had a few more favorable impressions for the mysterious guy.

"Go, let's go," said the kid, quickly preparing to go to the dog hole over there.

Just as the child was about to escape through the "dog hole", the mysterious man suddenly said coldly: "Don't go from there... If you go from there, you will definitely be found."

After he said this, the child was stunned for an instant, even Li Tian was not only stunned there at this moment.

Not from here? Where do you go? Is there a second exit in this stone room? Li Tian looked at the mysterious guy curiously.

"Follow me." A word suddenly came out of the mysterious guy's mouth.

As the mysterious man said so, Li Tian was not only taken aback.

Then he saw that the mysterious man swept in the opposite direction really fast.

When Li Tian saw it, he really seemed to know that there was another way out, so he stepped up and followed closely. The kid here saw Li Tian and the mysterious person walking towards there quickly. At this moment, he can only Followed.

But he said that the mysterious guy was extremely fast, and after arriving here, I saw that there was a huge stone wall that had been read... there was no way out.

When Li Tian was wondering how to get out, the mysterious man suddenly said, "Get out of the way."

As he called so, Li Tian and the child couldn't help but back away.

After the two of them retreated, the man was seen bending down and touching the cold ground with one hand.

After he reached out and touched one of the raised stones, there was a thud and saw that a hole about one meter in size appeared on the ground for no reason.

Is there really another outlet?

And it's here underground?

Looking at this dark hole about one meter, Li Tian increasingly doubted the identity of the mysterious person.

"Oh my God, who is this guy? How come you are so familiar with this Necropolis? And still trying to help yourself?"

Although Li Tian was thinking this way in his mind, he didn't care about so much at this moment. He was now thinking about quickly saving Duguxie and Gui servants.

"Jump in." Just listen to the mysterious humanity at the front.

After he finished speaking, he was the first to jump towards the dark hole.

After he quickly jumped in, Li Tian also hurriedly followed in with Duguxie behind his back, and the child followed in.

I saw that after Li Tian jumped down, he found that the underground was actually a stone wall passage. This passage was extremely deep, and no one knew where it led to.

As Li Tian followed the mysterious person in front of him closely, he could hear the messy footsteps from above.

Li Tian was stunned, and his heart secretly said: Could this be the way to the earth? Are the footsteps above all disciples at the gate of hell?

"Remember, don't say anything, be quiet... Now we are at the bottom of the Necropolis, if it is discovered by other masters at the gate of hell, it will be troublesome."

When Li Tian was thinking about it, the mysterious man suddenly turned his head and said to the child at the end.

Li Tian and the child could only nod silently, and then immediately followed this strange mysterious person to the front.

Inside the Necropolis, but the disciples who saw the gate of * have indeed discovered Li Tian's escape, and also found their bodies.

At this moment, they searched everywhere with gloomy expressions.

Rows of * disciples wearing black robes were chasing Li Tian and the others like zombies.

"Search me, you must search them out for me." A sharp, angry voice came from the Necropolis.

It was an ugly woman in a black robe who was talking, with a mole on her chin and an extremely ugly face.

"Damn it, how did they escape?"

"After hitting the master's broken tendon hand, how did that * kid escape?" The woman cried out strangely in the Necropolis, her eyes exuding endless anger.

"They must still be in the Palace of the Necropolis... Give me the order to block all exits... Definitely not let that * kid escape."

In the Necro Palace above, the disciples of Hell were searching nervously, but they never thought that Li Tian would escape from the most underground position.

But Li Tian doesn't know how long this underground passage is, let alone where the mysterious guy in front will take them... But now he has no way to question, except for running with him. Besides, he couldn't think of anything else. What's more, he also brought two Duguxie like the "dead man" and ghost servants.

While escaping unconsciously, Li Tian felt that he had run for almost 20 minutes.

Finally, when he was anxious, the mysterious man in front suddenly turned his head and said to them, "It's almost the exit."

Li Tiandao asked, "Can I get out of that Necro Palace?"

"Nonsense." The mysterious man replied coldly.

Then he continued to move forward quickly along the passage.

Li Tian followed him closely like that.

After walking for about 56 minutes, I finally saw a faint light coming from the front.

"Here, I finally escaped." The mysterious man in a black robe said with joy suddenly.

Li Tian also saw the light in front of him, and at this moment an unprecedented sense of excitement was born in his heart.

Then they quickly rushed towards the bright spot, and saw that the end of the passage was covered with dense weeds. After they arrived here quickly, after smashing the dense weeds, they came oncoming. The fresh air rushed into their nostrils, and then, a new world appeared in Li Tian's eyes.

Surrounded by mountains, surrounded by dense grass and trees...

They really escaped.

Escaped from the place of the Necropolis.

Chapter 1729: The words of the mysterious man

Looking at the surrounding green mountains and the dense trees, Li Tian and the child stayed there with excitement.

"Come out, and finally escaped." He only heard the child smile and say excitedly.

While talking, he quickly took off the black robe he was wearing, as if he didn't like the dress of * gate.

What about Li Tian? It was also full of excitement and excitement. After slowly placing the Duguxie on the ground, he turned to the mysterious guy over there and said, "Thank you, thank you for saving me again." Li Tian said sincerely.

Although he still doesn't know who this guy in front of him is? In the end, why did you want to save them, but no matter what, Li Tian was very grateful.

After Li Tian said this, he saw the mysterious guy slowly put the ghost servant aside, and then he looked at the barren mountain in front of him and said: "This is the location of the back mountain of the Necropolis... In the event of an accident, the master of the gate of * will never find you."

After the mysterious guy said so, Li Tian not only looked at him carefully.

To be honest, in Li Tian's mind, he has become more and more curious about the identity of the mysterious guy in front of him.

And why did this mysterious guy save himself?

"Can I ask you a question?" Li Tian suddenly raised his eyes and looked at the mysterious guy.

The mysterious guy turned his back to him, and didn't let him see his real face.

"Problem?" The mysterious guy said with a sneer, suddenly hoarse.

His voice definitely didn't look like it was pretended, let alone said it deliberately, but an ancient hoarse feeling.

"Aren't you still asking who I am?" The mysterious guy said with a sudden laugh.

When Li Tian heard him say that, he not only said, "Yes."

"I just want to know your name... Then I will repay your kindness in the future." Li Tian said sincerely.

Who knew that the mysterious guy suddenly said coldly, "No need..."

"I save you but I don't want to see you die there in vain." The mysterious guy said coldly.

As if his identity did not want to be known by outsiders, if anyone wanted to ask his identity, he would be very angry.

After hearing that mysterious guy stubbornly say this, Li Tian thought for a while and said, "Well, since you don't want to tell your identity, then I'm not reluctant... this time you saved me and me My dear brothers...If the place where Li Tian is useful in the future, Li Tian will naturally help you." Li Tian stood there and said awe-inspiringly.

The mysterious guy ignored Li Tian at the moment, just turned his back.

A cool cold wind blew from a distance, and a cold feeling appeared on the body.

"By the way, I have to remind you of something." The mysterious man suddenly said to Li Tiandao.

Listening to the weird mysterious man suddenly uttering such a weird word, Li Tian was not only taken aback, frowned at the mysterious man and asked, "What's the matter?"

"Do you think your biggest enemy right now is the gate of hell?" the mysterious guy suddenly asked.

After the mysterious guy suddenly asked this, Li Tian's heart chuckled, and his heart lined up: What is this guy asking? How could he suddenly ask this question?

"What do you ask this for?" Li Tian said without understanding.

But the mysterious guy said sharply, "I only ask you, is it or not?"

Li Tianyi was taken aback, after thinking about it, "Yes!"

"The gate of * is indeed my biggest enemy right now."

"I'm telling you... you are wrong, your real enemy has a very special organization besides the gate of hell..." the man said sharply.

When Li Tian heard this, he was stunned.

For the first time, he heard someone say such words to him.

"Who? What other organization?"

"How could I not know?" Li Tian asked in surprise.

But seeing that mysterious guy smiled coldly: "If you know... what do you want me to do?"

"I'm telling you, although the gate of * is indeed your greatest enemy, you still don't know what terrible person was the main messenger behind the gate of hell."

"What? There are people behind the * gate? You mean, there are people who killed my father back then?" Li Tian was completely shocked when he suddenly heard the mysterious guy in front of him suddenly say this.

"Yes."

"And those people are people you can't afford to provoke...including the master of the gate of hell, he dare not provoke them easily." The mysterious guy in front of him said.

When hearing this mysterious guy suddenly say such a huge thing, Li Tian was completely shocked there.

true or false?

My God, is there someone else who killed my father back then?

This mysterious guy mentioned an organization just now?

After thinking about this in his mind, Li Tian suddenly asked with excitement: "Tell me, who else? Who else killed my father?"

The mysterious guy said coldly: "They are an organization in Western countries."

"Western countries?" Li Tianyi was shocked there.

He never knew about these things... He didn't even know what kind of person his father had offended and lived, but no matter what, the father hated the son. Since someone has killed his father, then no matter who he is. ? No matter how powerful the opponent is, Li Tian will avenge himself, personally.

"What organization are they?" Li Tian asked again.

I saw that mysterious guy said: "I can only tell you so much... you will know the rest of the matter immediately."

When Li Tian heard this mysterious guy suddenly say such a sentence, he was taken aback: "Why?"

"Because the organization from the Western countries has come to China now..."

"If I guess right, they will surface soon."

After listening to the mysterious guy saying this, Li Tian only felt a cloud in his mind. He never thought that his father Cthulhu would offend so many people back then... Even people in Western countries want it. In his father's life, could it be said that besides the gate of hell, other foreign organizations really participated in the murder of his father? Li Tian hated the more he thought about it.

"Boy, I suggest you be careful in the future...because if those people really come to the country, they will definitely come for you." The mysterious guy suddenly sneered in the dark.

Chapter 1730: How can you escape?

Listening to this guy's weird words, Li Tian didn't know that he should believe him at this moment? Shouldn't you believe it?

Because Li Tian has never mentioned to him about his father's connection with foreign countries, the only thing he knows is that his father was killed by the gate of * back then! !

After the mysterious guy's words at this moment, Li Tian was completely confused.

I saw that when Li Tian was at a loss, the mysterious guy suddenly said, "I have said everything."

"Hurry up...Although this place is the back mountain of the Necropolis...but there are many masters at the gates of hell, and there are many tracking masters among them...I advise you to escape here as soon as possible, so as not to recur. The guy said suddenly there.

After speaking, he suddenly turned and walked towards another place, as if preparing to leave.

Li Tianyi saw that the man seemed to be leaving, and hurriedly said, "Hey, did you leave like this?"

The man suddenly stopped, looked back at Li Tian, and sneered: "I won't go, why should I follow you?"

This sentence made Li Tian a little depressed, and he suddenly discovered that the question he asked was indeed stupid enough.

"Let me ask you one last question. Excuse me, are you from the gate of hell?" Li Tian looked at the man's back and suddenly asked.

But when Li Tian asked so, the mysterious guy in front suddenly laughed wildly.

Then his body flashed and swept toward the deep mountains and forests at a very fast speed.

Looking at the mysterious guy who was far away, Li Tian was completely stunned.

He muttered to himself: Who is that guy? What kind of identity is it? And Li Tian doesn't know why he always feels that the person is exuding a rotten and weird aura...

Why did he tell himself what was just now? And how did he know so many things back then... And just now he mentioned a strange organization in a Western country?

Really?

When Li Tian was thinking like this, he suddenly heard the child next to him looking up at Li Tiandao with a childish face and saying, "Thank you...Thank you for taking me out of that * place."

Li Tian was brought back to reality by the child's words. He turned his head and glanced at the child in front of him, then smiled faintly.

"Don't thank me... Actually, according to the truth, I have to thank you, thank you for helping me in the gate of hell." Li Tiandao.

The child scratched his head and smiled, showing a mouthful of white teeth.

"It's time to go." Li Tian said, looking at the surrounding deserted mountains.

This place is indeed still in a dangerous area. Although the gate of * has not found them yet, don't forget that Li Tian is still carrying two dead men and a child who is completely incompetent... If you don't leave, if someone at the gate of * finds out your whereabouts, it will really fall short, so now Li Tian must leave.

After he finished speaking, the kid next to him also nodded quickly.

Then the child assisted Li Tian to hold the ghost servant like a dead man, and Li Tian carried the Duguxie on his back, and the two of them walked away from the mountain step by step.

The place where the Necropolis was built is extremely desolate, surrounded by barren mountains. To be honest, even Li Tian himself doesn't know where he is.

He just carried the Duguxie on his back, as well as the children around him, step by step towards the far road.

As he walked, Li Tian asked the child, "By the way, do you know the mysterious guy just now?"

"You have stayed in the gate of * for almost 3 years. Have you seen that guy?"

To be honest, so far, Li Tian has been extremely suspicious of that mysterious guy, because he really can't think of any reason, that mysterious guy will help himself.

And if Li Tian is not wrong, that person is definitely from the gate of hell...because his clothes and his familiarity with the gate of * are enough to explain this.

But how could a guy in the gate of * betray their master for no reason? And will help yourself?

Li Tian couldn't understand.

Following Li Tian's question, the child shook his head depressedly.

"I haven't seen it."

"I just... After being caught, I will be ashamed of training every day... Practice fighting and killing skills... Then I was assigned to take care of the secret room."

After the kid said so, Li Tian frowned.

It seems that for a while, I want to know what the identity of that mysterious guy is, which is simply impossible.

After thinking like this in his mind, he shook his head fiercely, forget it, don't think too much, whoever he is? Anyway, I have rescued Duguxie and the ghost servant...

After Li Tian thought this way, he took the child in front of him and suddenly walked towards the far road.

Necropolis.

The * gate master who searched almost every corner of the entire Necropolis didn't find any traces of Li Tian and the Duguxie and the ghost servant.

In the hall of the Necropolis, dozens of * gate masters wearing black robes stayed in the hall one by one, standing there with cold faces.

"Trash, a bunch of trash, let the * kid run away in broad daylight... and even the two puppets captured by the master were rescued." I saw the face in the middle. The woman with moles roared and roared.

Her harsh words came into everyone's ears, and none of the doormen of * in black robes spoke.

"Damn, how did you let them run?"

"Impossible...impossible."

"The gate of the * gate is tightly closed... how could that * kid escape? What's more, our * gate is so heavily guarded... even if he can escape, the Duguxie and the ghost servant are both dead. Puppet... how could he bring those two people out alive? Could he still plug in his wings and fly to the sky?" The ugly woman in front of her was going crazy, as if she could not accept the fact that Li Tian had escaped. .

"Sister, didn't that * kid hit our master's broken tendon hand? And he was locked in the stone room, how could he escape for no reason? Could it be that his broken tendon hand was untied by himself?" Another low-bodied woman beside the ugly woman said, this woman's name is Lan'er, the woman who appeared in Binjiang City before.

After she finished speaking, the woman called the eldest sister also had an extremely ugly face.

"how could I know?"

"Damn it, how can you escape?"
