

A Killer 1771

Chapter 1771: Li Tian came

While talking, not only scarlet blood came out of his mouth.

The great master Jiang Dashan not only shed tears at this moment, but also clung to the hand of the smiling Buddha: "No, no, it's impossible..."

"Father, you will not die, certainly not..."

But what about seeing the smiling Buddha? At this moment, a helpless smile appeared at the corner of his mouth, and a mouthful of blood came out of his mouth again, dyeing the clothes in front of him red.

"Dashan...I...I...I really can't do it..."

"However, before I die...I hope...I hope you can convey a word...to...to...our son."

"I...I...I..." After the smiling Buddha suddenly said three words, suddenly his body began to spasm violently, then his head tilted and died.

"Father! Lord Buddha..." Jiang Dashan couldn't help crying out in grief when he saw that the smiling Buddha died like this.

And the brothers next to him? They were also standing there with heartache, looking at the body of the smiling Buddha.

Unfortunately, the Laughing Buddha is dead.

The saddest thing is that his last sentence has not been said yet.

After seeing the smiling Buddha being killed by that Long Yin, Jiang Dashan seemed crazy.

"You bastard... killed the Buddha... I fought with you." Jiang Dashan rushed towards that Long Yin like crazy.

But seeing that his body hadn't reached Long Yin's side, he was suddenly hit by an inexplicable force on his chest. With a bang, his body was directly shocked and flew back, heavy. He fell to the ground and was difficult to get up.

"Hmph, you don't even want to leave here alive today."

"I want you to watch with your own eyes, I will kill you all one by one..." Long Yin said bloodthirstily like a demon.

Chen Qiaozhi, Tang Xiaolong and Xue Wuhen were filled with desperate anger in their hearts.

They know that they may really not live today, or they may really die here.

But even if it is dead, they have to do the final battle.

So they once again rushed towards that Long Yin.

They have to work hard.

The fierce battle began, Tang Xiaolong, Xue Wuhen, and Chen Qiaozhi and the others used all their skills and planned to work hard.

But how could they be that Long Yin's opponent?

Within a few rounds, Chen Qiaozhi was kicked out by that Long Yin and fell heavily to the ground.

And where is Tang Xiaolong over there? Long Yin's domineering palm was also slapped on the chest, and the whole person fell down as if falling apart.

Finally, Brigadier Wang, and Xue Wuhen...

Only the one-handed Situ Xuan was still fighting, but in the end Situ Xuan was also knocked to the ground by Long Yin.

All the brothers fell to the ground, everyone was pale, panting and lying there...

Darkness is coming, and they are only greeted by desperate death.

"It's time to kill."

A hellish hoarse voice came from that Long Yin's mouth.

Then he walked towards the brothers step by step, his body exuding infinite darkness seemed to have been possessed by the devil, with an indescribable fear.

"Which one of you wants to die first?" Long Yin smiled there, jokingly looking at the seriously injured brothers who fell on the ground.

The brothers were all seriously injured and fell to the ground, with fiery hatred in their eyes, but it didn't help.

"Even if you **** go to hell...I will curse you, curse you not to die well in the future." Tang Xiaolong endured the internal injury on his chest and roared.

Hearing Tang Xiaolong's curse, Long Yin suddenly turned his head and said coldly, "Well, since your mouth likes to talk more, then I will kill you first."

After speaking, he suddenly stretched out one hand, then spread his five fingers, grabbed it fiercely, and grabbed it towards Tang Xiaolong's Tianling Cap.

Vicious and deadly.

If this catch was really caught on Tang Xiaolong's Heavenly Spirit cover, Tang Xiaolong's head would surely be broken to death.

Looking at the thrilling scene before them, the brothers all exclaimed: "Little dragon..."

Tang Xiaolong closed his eyes in despair. He seemed to have seen his two feet have stepped into the gate of hell, waiting for death...the approach of death.

At the moment when Long Yin fiercely grabbed Tang Xiaolong's Tian Ling Gai.

Suddenly, there was only a roar in the darkness: "Long name... let go of my brother!"

With a sound like the sound of heaven, a shadow that looked like a meteor suddenly flashed out of the darkness, and struck towards the back of Long Yin.

The horrible palm strength carries a trace of gang wind, mighty and domineering.

Long Yin, who was going to kill Tang Xiaolong, suddenly saw a grinning smile at the corner of his mouth when he heard the sudden voice.

"He, finally came..."

After he said these words strangely in his mouth, his body suddenly rotated violently, and then his hands burst out suddenly, and he slapped his palm against the flying figure.

But after hearing a loud bang, a loud noise erupted from the palms of the two.

Then I saw two terrible qi trembling and colliding with each other... the whole space seemed to be trembling.

Then I saw a figure flying directly from the energy to Tang Xiaolong, whose eyes widened unbelievably, at a speed that could not be reached. Then he stretched out his hand and grabbed Tang Xiaolong's shoulder and swept back.

he came!

When he appeared, everyone stayed, all stunned.

Everyone couldn't believe it, and there was excitement...

"Little boss..."

"Big Brother..."

"Li Tian?"

"Young Master!!!"

The brothers called out his names one by one, but seeing that in the black hole, Li Tian stood motionless in front of the injured brothers, protecting them, like heaven and earth, no matter who it is at this moment, he can no longer hurt his brother. We are like.

"Sorry, I'm late..." Li Tian slowly turned his head around after hearing the shouts of the brothers, looking at the seriously injured brothers and said guiltily.

And brothers? Seeing Li Tian's sudden appearance, one by one was already excited and going crazy.

"God, I didn't dream, did you come, little boss?" Tang Xiaolong couldn't believe that the scene before him was a fact, and said in shock.

The other brothers also widened their eyes, looking at Li Tian in disbelief.

No one knows how Li Tian appeared here? Don't even know how he got into this dead kiln mine?

However, the environment in front of them couldn't tolerate too many questions from them at the moment, they just looked at Li Tian with eyes wide open.

"How are you? Are you all right?" Li Tian asked, looking at the dumbfounded brothers.

Chapter 1772: The hole is sealed

After hearing Li Tian's question, the brothers nodded silently.

"Okay, listen to me, take the seriously injured brother first and leave here...this **** bastard, give it to me." Li Tian suddenly turned around and looked at the Long Yin behind him.

"Little boss, but..." Tang Xiaolong seemed to want to say something.

But seeing Li Tian suddenly and decisively said: "Listen to me, you go first."

Following his commanding voice, Tang Xiaolong closed his mouth quickly.

But seeing Long Yin standing with his hands, a pair of enchanted eyes looked at Li Tian in front of him with a wicked smile.

"The kid surnamed Li, I always thought you were like a tortoise with a shrunken head, and never dared to show up again... I didn't expect you to finally come out." Long Yin looked at Li Tian with an evil sneer, exuding from him The evil aura that came out has completely filled the entire space.

Li Tian only felt that the death aura around him was getting more and more serious, and he couldn't help but lining up in his heart: This **** Long Yin, why hasn't he seen for a while, his evil spirit seems to have increased even more solemnly... and Li Tian can deeply feel that Long Yin's strength also seemed to become more and more terrifying.

"You bastard, you can't think that so many evil things are done by you!" Li Tian angrily looked at the Long Yin in front of him.

But seeing Long Yin suddenly laughed crazy, his voice was extremely unpleasant, and there was a tingling sensation in his ears.

"So what?"

"Hey, you will never know the thrill of slaughter."

Listening to Long Yin saying this in a perverted manner, Li Tian only felt that his whole body's blood was about to boil.

He hated the guy in front of him, and wished he died.

"You cruel bastard." Li Tian scolded.

But Long Yin didn't care at all, just sneered.

"You are almost dying, and you dare to insult me... Hey... I will let you die later without knowing how to die." Long Yinxie smiled to Li Tiandao.

Li Tian used words to delay time first, while looking at the surrounding situation.

He knew that it was completely stupid to fight this dragon to the death at this moment, so he must now delay as much as possible to let the brothers escape. Only after the brothers escape can he have a chance to escape.

I saw that the brothers in this meeting had stood up from the ground one by one... they were supporting each other, while Jiang Dashan was holding the body of the smiling Buddha...

Li Tian glanced at his brothers, not daring to be too distracted, and immediately turned his head to look at Long Yin in front of him.

"Long name, today, let's fight happily to see if it's you or me." As Li Tian roared all his life, he began to accumulate the energy of his whole body to reach his arms.

After hearing Li Tian's bold words, Long Yin not only smiled evilly: "Well, since you want to die, then I will fulfill you."

"come on."

There was a roar, but seeing that Long Yin took the lead in the shot, his body hadn't been seen clearly yet, and suddenly it flashed to Li Tian's face, completely instantaneous movement.

Li Tian had already noticed that, at this moment, he suddenly pushed his palm forward, and then cut the Long Yin's left wrist with his right palm.

Long Yin dodged, and at the same time slapped him fiercely.

A terrifying black breath erupted from his palm.

Li Tian didn't dare to fight hard against this **** Long Yin, and dodged his body upside down. Then he pinched the **** of his index finger and used Xuantian fingering.

The fast and unbelievable Xuantian fingering, swish and shoot at that Long Yin with strong energy.

Although Long Yin's skill was unparalleled, he could only step back in the face of this bullet-like Xuantian fingering.

Swishing Xuantian's fingers flew all over the sky, some were directly sunk in the air by Long Yin's splitting palm force, and some were evaded by Long Yin and shot on the wall... only hard. After being pricked by Xuan Zhijin in the stone wall of the day, a huge hole suddenly appeared.

The battle between the two can be described as a peerless battle.

But what about the brothers here? Seeing Li Tianyu fighting against that dragon, they all stood there and did not leave.

"Let's go, let's get out first." Just listen to Chen Qiaozhi's words in the overall situation.

Tang Xiaolong said, "But what about the little boss?"

"Don't we care about the little boss?"

Chen Qiaozhi said: "Li Tian did this to save us...If we don't leave, I'm afraid there will be no chance again... and we have failed Li Tian's actions."

"But... But... I can't worry about the little boss." Tang Xiaolong said stubbornly.

Chen Qiaozhi could only curse at this moment: "You idiot...Do you think you can help Li Tian right now if you stay? I tell you, if you stay, it will hurt him even more... and will harm Li Tian."

"So at this moment we only have to escape first...this is the real help to Li Tian."

After Chen Qiaozhi's helpless curse sounded, Tang Xiaolong finally woke up.

Yes, now is not the time to talk about loyalty to the liver.

It's time to escape. All of the brothers have suffered severe internal injuries at this moment. Li Tian can only stop the **** Long Yin first with his own strength, so that he can save the brothers, if they don't leave yet. If so, what Li Tian did was useless at all.

After the brothers understood this in their hearts, they could only watch Li Tian's back and mutter silently: Little boss, you must ensure safety...

Then they began to flee towards the tunnel.

However, he said that Long Yin, who was fighting with Li Tian, immediately saw his brothers escape while taking advantage of this time, his face changed drastically.

"Want to escape?"

"Today, none of you want to go out alive."

Following Long Yin's roar, he suddenly stopped paying attention to Li Tian in front of him, and chased the brothers horribly.

"Damn bastard, you come back to me."

Li Tian let out a roar, and the vast infuriating energy accumulated in his palms, he suddenly used his full strength to hit that Long Yin with a palm.

But seeing the abnormal Long Yin who wanted to chase his brothers, he didn't dare to take it carelessly when he felt a powerful attack from his back, and could only turn his head back at this moment.

The body flipped directly in the air, and then his palms straightly faced Li Tian in front of him.

With a bang, the two vast enthusiasm directly collided together.

When the mighty zhenqi collided, the stones on the surrounding stone walls rolled down one after another...One of the huge boulders suddenly collapsed from a height, and hit the tunnel exit with a bang. s position.

Chapter 1773: After all: Hell Road

I saw that the only tunnel exit was directly blocked by a boulder.

Looking at the huge boulder that was about to be blocked by the tunnel exit, Li Tian not only felt relieved in his heart.

Because only in this way, the brothers are truly out of danger.

But what about him? But he was trapped in this cave with this **** Long Yin.

"Damn it." Long Yin couldn't help roaring when he saw that the tunnel exit was blocked by huge rocks... He wanted to kill all Li Tian's brothers, but now? I can only watch Li Tian's brothers run away...

At this moment, he can only concentrate all his hatred on Li Tian.

"Boy, since you have something to save them... Then I will let you taste the true taste of death today." With Long Yin saying this, it can be seen that he is really furious.

The evil aura radiating from all over his body suddenly filled the sky, and those horrible pupils became more and more weird and terrifying in an instant.

Li Tian didn't know what martial arts this perverted Long Yin used, but he was carefully observing the surrounding area, because now the brothers have completely escaped the danger, and only himself is left...

And what about himself? The current strength of course can't compete with this abnormal Long Yin, so the best way at the moment is to find a way to escape here.

It was said that just after entering the tunnel, the brothers heard a loud rumbling noise from behind. Looking back, my goodness, the tunnel was suddenly blocked by the boulder falling from the top of the rock wall.

The brothers were stunned for a moment when they saw this scene.

"Little boss..." Suddenly Tang Xiaolong ran towards the tunnel behind like crazy.

Xue Wuhen and Situ Xuan here also ran over in panic.

"Blocked?"

"This **** tunnel was actually blocked..."

"Oh my God, how did that little boss come out? Isn't he going to be trapped alive in that cave?"

"Besides, there is that **** Long Yin?" The brothers couldn't help but feel confused when they thought about it in their hearts.

"What to do? How to do this?" Tang Xiaolong said anxiously.

He didn't care about his physical injuries, he kept shouting there...

Nearby Xue Wuhen, Situ Xuan and Jiang Dashan all showed sadness on their faces, and no one knew what to do.

I saw that brigade commander Wang Zhen, who was seriously wounded with blood on the corner of his mouth, spoke at this moment.

"Calm down, everyone...wait...wait...Let's climb out of this tunnel first...I will immediately send an army down to break the stone and rescue Li Tian." Wang Zhen said in a breathless voice.

After listening to the words of Brigadier Wang Zhen, the brothers suddenly realized.

"it is good!"

"Then let's go up quickly... Send the army down to rescue my elder brother." Xue Wuhen said suddenly.

So after the brothers made this decision, they hurriedly supported each other, and ran forward like crazy.

Now that they buy more time, it will be difficult for them to have too much hope of rescuing Li Tian.

Besides, when the brothers escaped, Li Tian was still fighting the **** Long Yin in the cave.

That Long Yin's skill is superb.

Li Tian also used the supreme Maha Wuliang.

When the invincible ten unique sword auras were used in Li Tian's hands, the whole cave was enveloped by his sharp sword aura.

Strips of invincible sword energy attacked that Long Yin like Feixu's sword flower.

Although Long Yin didn't know what Kung Fu Li Tian was using, he had deeply experienced the domineering power of Li Tian Shijue's sword spirit, so he didn't dare to be careless at all.

After Li Angel showed a set of Ten Jue Sword Qi, that Long Yin suddenly roared wildly, and the dark palm of his right palm, like a cloud piercing through the clouds, slammed into Li Tian's chest.

The vast palm power has completely swallowed Li Tian's sword energy.

Li Tian was shocked, his body retreated abruptly, and at the same time the sword energy on his body quickly reduced.

"The Devil's Hand!"

In an instant, the entire space seemed to be frozen, and Li Tian in midair once again used the strange palm technique on the door of the Heavenly Book Pill Scroll, which never knew its name.

The palm technique has no name, no remarks, and some are just terrifying moves.

The devil's palm appears, and the world moves.

Following Li Tian's overbearing clutch, Long Yin had no intention of retreating. With a bang, his vast palm directly collided with Li Tian.

But hearing a bang, the stones on the surrounding stone walls rolled down like rain...The floating stone chips completely filled the whole cave.

And at this moment, the two figures suddenly separated...

Then I looked at Li Tian through the flying stone dust, his face was pale and ugly, and the corner of his mouth had no idea when he was shaken out of blood...

And what about the perverted Long Yin? Standing on the side with a sneer, looked at Li Tian evilly.

In this battle, Li Tian was not that Long Yin's opponent after all.

Even if Li Angel came out of the extreme clutches of the Heavenly Book Pill Scroll, it would be difficult to defeat the abnormal Long Yin in front of him. One can imagine how terrifying the strength of this Long Yin is.

"Boy, do you think you can really get out of here today?"

"Hmph, before dying, I want you to see and see the true strength of my Long Yin." As Long Yin said this, he suddenly laughed like crazy.

As he laughed wildly, he saw that his light blue hair like a flickering hair was shaken by the innocence of his whole body.

Then he crossed his hands on his chest, his evil eyes closed suddenly at this moment, and his mouth was squirming quickly, as if he was chanting a weird spell...

Li Tian looked at Long Yin in front of him, and said in his heart: It's really bad this time...

Seeing that Long Yin moved faster and faster with his lips, the surrounding air seemed to be completely frozen in an instant. Li Tian only felt a creepy sensation that he had never experienced before pouring out of his body. A deep fear came out of his heart.

"What kind of work does this demon use? Why is it so strange, so full of hell's fear?" Li Tian looked at Long Yin in front of him, and his heart was under the uncontrollable dark.

Then, at this moment, his two legs could not help but back two steps...

"Six reincarnations, **** is boundless!"

A roar from **** suddenly roared from that Long Yin's mouth.

The endless devilish energy quickly covered the whole body of Long Yin, his body seemed to change suddenly at this moment, as if he had become possessed by hell, and dense black lines suddenly appeared on his pale face. , Covering his face, and a strange red blood mole appeared on the forehead.

Then I looked at his body, oh my god, black liquid suddenly spread from all around his body...the black liquid was squirming around his body like it came from hell.

And it spread quickly towards Li Tian.

Li Tian was stunned when he saw such a weird effort.

He said in amazement: "Oh my God, what kind of effort is this?"

Before he could fully understand, suddenly Long Yin in front of him suddenly opened his eyes, his pupils became dead black, hideous and dazzling, and the black lines that crawled all over his face completely changed him. Became the shape of a devil.

"Smelly boy, take your life." A hoarse and rough voice roared from Long Yin's mouth.

My God, he even changed his voice completely.

This.....

This...is it the **** way among the six magic arts?

The darkness of death swallowed everything and melted into the endless hell.

I saw that with the roar of Long Yin, one of his hands suddenly grabbed Li Tian, and the black mucus erupting from the palm of his palm suddenly wrapped around Li Tian's body like a black snake.

Li Tian was shocked. He had never seen such a terrifying martial arts. He quickly backed away. Unfortunately, he hadn't waited for his body to recede quickly, and his feet were directly entangled by the spreading black liquid, and the black was as spiritual The mucus jumped directly along Li Tian's legs towards the body...

Chapter 1774: Escape

As the black liquid entangled his body completely, it crawled towards his body like a snake.

Li Tian was shocked and wanted to get rid of the control of the black liquid, but it was too late, and gradually saw the black weird thing directly entangled Li Tian's body.

When that thing directly and strangely entangled Li Tian's whole body, Li Tian only felt that his whole body was suddenly imprisoned...

Moreover, the thing seemed to be restrained, getting tighter and tighter, making Li Tian more and more suffocated.

That Long Yin, his hideous face covered with black silk laughed strangely at this moment.

"Fucky boy, go to hell."

Accompanied by his roar, his hand suddenly grabbed Li Tian's chest with five fingers.

At this moment, Li Tian's hands and feet were already entangled by the black weird thing, and he couldn't move at all...Under the shock, it was a pity that he wanted to avoid his body.

But seeing that Long Yin's five-finger monster grabbed Li Tian's chest suddenly, Li Tian only felt a heartache coming from his chest, and then only heard a bang, that Long Yin's palm was hard, Li Tian's body He flew out without a trace, and with a plop, he slammed into the cold stone wall.

Li Tian fell to the ground, his face pale, panting slowly, and at the same time a heart-piercing pain came from the place that Long Yin had just grabbed in his chest.

But his body was entangled alive by the black weird thing, which made him unable to move at all.

What should I do?

Could it be that I am here alive and dead today?

Li Tian kept turning his mind there.

But seeing that the deformed Long Yin was already walking towards him with a wicked smile.

He seemed to have completely fallen into the darkness. On that twisted face, black lines covered his face like hideous tree roots... hideous and terrifying.

No matter where his body goes, it will be directly swallowed by darkness, and corrosive black mucus spreads around his body.

Step by step towards Li Tian.

Li Tian saw this perverted Long Yin approaching him, only feeling that death was approaching him step by step.

Just when Li Tian was about to struggle, Suddenly Long Yin suddenly flew up and kicked on Li Tian's chest. With a wow, Li Tian's body was kicked into the air, and he fell heavily to the ground. A mouthful of blood spurted out of his mouth.

"Want to live? Please... please..." Long Yin laughed wildly there like crazy.

His distorted face was filled with endless hideousness.

Li Tian was kicked so that the ribs in his chest seemed to be completely broken, and the blood kept rolling in his body... The corners of his mouth were also covered with scarlet blood... The whole person was lying on the ground in pain, and he could be seen. Has been seriously injured.

"Please, I'll make you die more comfortable..." Long Yin looked at Li Tian like a demon and said with a sneer.

But seeing Li Tian vomiting blood in his mouth, lying on the ground was extremely uncomfortable.

But he still endured the tingling pain in his chest, and said in that anger and hardship: "You bastard..."

When Long Yin heard Li Tian's insulting exit, he suddenly said angrily: "Since you want to die, then I will fulfill you."

Following Long Yin's violent anger, his right hand suddenly accumulated a fatal palm strength, and he suddenly hit Li Tian's chest with a palm.

This palm is extremely powerful, if it really hits Li Tian's chest and heart, I am afraid he will be directly killed.

When this powerful palm hit Li Tian's chest hard, he never thought that Li Tian suddenly used the strength of his whole body to jump up at this knot, and at the same time he was bound by that. The hellish black line was also completely broken away... Then one of his hands suddenly escaped from his arms.

Flares!

Yes, it was the signal flare handed to him by the political commissar that week before entering the dead kiln mine.

The moment he took out the signal flare, he ignited the flare with a hiss, and then threw it towards that Long Yin.

When the signal flare was thrown at Long Yin, Long Yin roared, his body retreated, the signal flare banged in the air, and directly exploded...

The gloomy cave was suddenly brightened after the flare burst, and the white smoke from the explosion also instantly filled the cave.

And Li Tian was also at this critical juncture, gritting his teeth, and swept his body to the location of the blocked tunnel exit.

The last vast power of luck.

"The universe is one."

The supreme infuriating energy quickly poured into his arms, and then only heard a loud bang, and the two days' palms slammed against the hard rock that was blocking the tunnel exit.

It turned out that Li Tian wanted to use his internal force to smash the boulder at the exit of the tunnel!!!

Besides, with a loud bang, the hard rock burst open suddenly, and the broken stone powder burst out all of the sky.

What about Li Tian? After shaking the huge boulder directly with palm strength, his body sprinted and quickly swept towards the cave.

He endured the piercing pain in his chest and rushed forward.

Now he can only survive if he runs away, because at the moment, he is not that abnormal Long Yin opponent at all.

What's more, he doesn't know what terrible skill that Long Yin used just now... how could he die here for nothing?

Let's say that Li Tian ran wildly in the tunnel to escape, and the roar of Long Yin's angry voice came from behind.

"Damn... I'm going to kill you! I'm going to kill you."

Crazy voices came word by word from the tunnel behind.

Long Yin chased Li Tian like crazy.

He wants to kill Li Tian, he must kill.

In the dark tunnel, Li Tian ran in front, while the enchanted Long Yin behind was chasing there.

Li Tian ran away quickly, covering the scar on his chest with one hand...

I saw that Li Tian finally reached the outside of the tunnel, but the voice of Long Yin behind was getting closer.

Li Tian gritted his teeth abruptly, and then swept away from the position of the elevator...

After reaching the elevator, Li Tian directly pressed the button on it... With a bang, the entire elevator began to rise slowly.

In the dark tunnel, the enchanted Long Yin suddenly jumped out.

When those eyes full of endless darkness saw that Li Tian was about to take the elevator to escape, he yelled, and his whole body suddenly flew up...as if he was about to come and catch Li Tian

Li Tian was shocked and hurried to get his true energy, his palms suddenly pushed forward, the vast palm strength came out, and directly attacked Long Yin who was flying in the midair.

The palms slammed into each other violently in the air. After the collision, the huge energy made a rumbling, and then the entire elevator was shaken. What about Li Tian? He was also shocked by the vast infuriating qi, and his body retreated with a bang, hitting the iron fence of the elevator heavily...A mouthful of blood spurted out of his mouth.

But what about Long Yin?

Although he was in mid-air, although Li Tian was injured by a palm, he could only turn his body and fall from mid-air because he had no foothold.

Wailing

A roar from Long Yin roared wildly from that Long Yin's mouth.

His face covered with black scary lines became more and more ferocious, and the roaring voice was extremely ugly, like a demon roaring...watching Li Tian escape from his own hands.

Unfortunately, the elevator on which Li Tian was sitting slowly began to rise.

Standing in the elevator, Li Tian, with blood at the corner of his mouth, one hand on his badly injured chest, and his eyes unblinking at the enchanted Long Yin...No one knows what he is thinking at the moment. What's going on.

Li Tian finally survived this battle!

Not only survived but also saved his brothers.

Chapter 1775: Out

Outside the dead kiln mine, I saw a line of troops standing at the gate of the dead kiln mine, all ready to go.

In front of them was the extremely pale Brigade Commander Wang Zhen, and the brothers beside him stood there one by one.

I saw those soldiers who were fully armed, with automatic rifles in their hands.

"From now on, you guys will listen to me, immediately enter this dead kiln mine... rescue Li Tian!"

"I don't care what method you use, and no matter what method you use, I only want people, living people... Remember, you must save Li Tian alive to me, if you can't save it... you will be forever stay inside." Brigadier Wang Zhen ordered in the **** eyes.

The dozen or so soldiers who were all in the army all said, "Yes!"

"Go." Following the command from Brigade Commander Wang Zhen, the soldiers in front of him began to quickly enter the dead kiln mine.

The seriously injured Tang Xiaolong, Xue Wuhen and the seductive apostle Situ Xuan directly followed.

"Xiaolong, Wuhen... Are you still going in?" Political Commissar Zhou, who was on the side, gave the brothers an unbelievable look.

But seeing the pale brothers, although they said that they were all seriously injured, they didn't seem to mind at all. They smiled slightly at the political commissar Zhou behind, and then said, "Li Tian is us. The eldest brother... is our best eldest brother... how can we watch him in danger?"

Listening to the brothers saying this, the political commissar was suddenly embarrassed there that week.

The brigade commander Wang Zhen with blood on the corner of his mouth also walked towards Political Commissar Zhou.

"Lao Zhou, if I don't come out in half an hour after I went in... remember, raze this **** kiln mine to the ground."

As Brigadier Wang Zhen said so, the political commissar Zhou in front of him was stunned.

"Brigadier Commander, you, what do you mean?" Only the political commissar Zhou asked with an ugly face.

Brigadier Wang Zhen's face was extremely ugly, perhaps only he and his brothers knew the power of the demon he was going to deal with again at this moment.

If Li Tianzhen had been killed below, then Wang Zhen felt that even if he died, he would not let the **** devil leave the dead kiln mine alive, so he decided to raze this place to the ground.

"Don't ask, just listen to my orders." Wang Zhen wiped the bloodshot from the corner of his mouth and said.

"brigadier....."

Political Commissar Zhou seemed to want to say more, but saw Wang Zhen directly stopped him.

"Stop talking, this is a military order!"

As Wang Zhen said this again, the political commissar was completely taken aback that week.

I saw Wang Zhen bringing the dozens of heavily armed soldiers, and Tang Xiaolong, Situ Xuan, Xue Wuhen and other brothers in front of him began to set off again toward the dead kiln mine.

They regard death as home, and will save Li Tian no matter what.

Besides, when all of them entered the dead kiln mine in front of them, they suddenly found the sound of the elevator rumbling upwards.

"There is movement..."

"Someone is coming up from below." Tang Xiaolong said in shock.

"Oh my God, isn't the exit of that tunnel blocked by a big stone? Why would anyone come up from the elevator?" Xue Wuhen asked in horror, widening his eyes.

"Will it be...it won't be..." A word came out of Chen Qiaozhi's mouth in shock.

After he said that, the brothers looked at me and I looked at you one by one, and an ominous color appeared on everyone's face.

"The machine gunner prepared for me and looked at this exit stubbornly...Whoever dared to escape from here alive, they would shoot me.

"Suddenly, Wang Zhen gave an order.

Following his order, the soldier with the light machine gun immediately said, "Yes!"

Then he quickly found a favorable position and lay directly on the ground. Then the machine gun was placed there, and the black and cold muzzle was directly aimed at the exit of the elevator.

And all the soldiers over there, holding automatic rifles, all aimed at this exit!

"Did Brother Tian escape from below?" a word came out from Xue Wuhen's mouth.

After he asked this sentence, the brothers bowed their heads deeply and did not speak.

Because everyone thinks it's impossible!

You know, if Li Tian's strength is compared with that abnormal Long Yin, it is not a grade at all...How could Li Tian escape from inside alive?

Therefore, my brothers think that the person coming up from the elevator is definitely not Li Tian.

So they all stayed there with ugly faces, waiting...

As the lift began to rumbling up, the hearts of the brothers were beating faster and faster, staring at the exit of the lift intently.

One meter, two meters, five meters... ten meters!

Finally, it came up during the continuous ascent of the elevator.

As one end of the elevator came up, the machine gunner on that side was fully prepared, and the dark muzzle was coldly aimed at the exit of the elevator, and at the same time, the finger was already pressed on the trigger, ready to go. shot.

The soldiers holding guns on the other side are ready to fire one by one.

In the silent space, everyone opened their eyes and stared at the exit of the elevator, no one made a sound, no one spoke.

With a bang, just listen to the elevator finally rising.

Then a figure appeared inside the elevator.

He squatted uncomfortably in the elevator, his face was pale and bloodless, and he was covering his badly injured chest with one hand.

At the moment when Wang Zhengang was about to shout for shooting, he was stunned when he glanced at the figure he was familiar with.

"Is it Li Tian?"

"Brother God?"

"Little boss..."

In the exclamation of the brothers, the machine gunner finally did not fire, and the soldier on one side was obviously completely stunned.

"Oh my god, it was the little boss who came up." Tang Xiaolong screamed and ran over like crazy.

Xue Wuhen and Chen Qiaozhi all ran over here.

After the elevator finally stopped in the rumble, the brothers hurried in one by one to help Li Tian.

But seeing that Li Tian was seriously injured, his face was pale, and his breathing seemed very difficult.

"Brother Heaven..."

"Little boss..."

"Li Tian, how are you doing?" The brothers looked at Li Tian with excitement and worry.

But seeing Li Tian's pale face without speaking, and after walking two steps with the help of his brothers, he suddenly vomited scarlet blood from his mouth.

"Little boss." Tang Xiaolong shouted in fear after seeing Li Tian vomiting blood.

Chen Qiaozhi on the other side looked at Li Tian and quickly said, "Quickly, help him get out of this place first... His injury is too serious." So the brothers supported Li Tian, who was seriously injured, and hurried toward the dead kiln. The outside of the mine rushed away.

Chapter 1776: Blow up dead kiln mines

But seeing Li Tian supported by his brothers, his face was as pale as dead gray.

As he walked forward, he could see the blood flowing from the corners of his mouth.

Looking at Li Tian who was injured like this, the brothers felt pain in their hearts, but no one of them could ask Li Tian now how he escaped the control of that **** Long Yin and how he got out of the tunnel. !

Just as Li Tian was being helped by his brothers to leave the dead kiln mine, suddenly there was a harsh roar from below the dead kiln mine. The sound was extremely unpleasant, like a devil in hell...

As the harsh sound came, all the brothers stayed there for a moment.

"What sound?" Tang Xiaolong suddenly asked where his horrified eyes were.

Everyone of my brothers also heard the terrifying shrill sound coming from under the elevator, and everyone was stunned in confusion...

Just when the brothers were all wondering, the badly wounded Li Tian suddenly said at this moment: "It's him... it's the demon of Long Yin."

what?

When Li Tian suddenly said this, the brothers became more and more confused.

Because the voice just now was too cautious... and it was completely the other two voices from the previous Long Yin's voice, so the brothers thought it was a little unlikely.

"That... that... how did the demon's voice suddenly change?" Tang Xiaolong questioned.

But after seeing Li Tian gasping for a breath, he said, "No... it's not that his voice has changed, it's that his whole person has changed..."

"Even I don't know what kind of horrible kung fu this demon has learned... The only thing I know is that after his change, his whole figure seems to come from the fallen dark hell."

After listening to Li Tian finished saying this, the brothers stood here unbelievably.

"Then what should I do now?" Xue Wuhen on one side suddenly asked.

As he asked, Li Tian slowly turned his pale face, and then looked at the position of the elevator at the moment... I saw that the position of the elevator gave people a gloomy feeling, just like the dragon. The Demon Head will come out at any time.

"The monster must be destroyed... the **** Long Yin."

"Blow up here." Suddenly, a sentence came out of Li Tian's mouth.

After he said this sentence, the brothers were taken aback for a moment, but then they understood one by one.

Just listen to where Tang Xiaolong is in front of you and say: "Okay, little boss, let's listen to you, blow up here... and blow up that **** devil alive."

"Yes! Brother Tian is right."

"Brigade Commander Wang, I'm afraid I will ask you this time... Ask your troops to prepare explosives as soon as possible." Just listen to the words of Chen Qiaozhi in front of Brigadier Wang Zhen over there.

Brigadier Wang Zhen actually wanted to use bombs to razor this **** place to the ground, but because Li Tian was trapped in the dead kiln mine before, he didn't use explosives.

Hearing what Li Tian said at this moment, he said directly: "Okay, let's blow up this place."

"Guardian." Wang Zhen shouted.

I saw two heavily armed guards standing next to him all of a sudden, saying, "Here."

"Get me ready to go out and prepare c4 explosives right away... The more the better, I will razor this **** kiln mine to the ground... I will make this place full of evil no longer exist." Wang Zhendao said.

After Wang Zhen said this, the guard immediately agreed, and then quickly ran outside.

After a while, he saw that the guard had entered the dead kiln with a powerful c4 explosive, and there were also 4 m24 blasting grenade.

After taking it in, I saw that Brigadier Wang Zhen said to Li Tiandao in front of him, "All are ready."

Tang Xiaolong took a look at the c4 explosives and the 4 m24 explosive grenade, and asked wonderingly: "Brigadier Wang, are these things okay? This tunnel is really deep...?"

The brothers are also not very clear about the power of the c4 explosives and the 4 m24 blasting grenade in front of them. They are all looking at the commander Wang in front of them.

But seeing Brigadier Wang Zhen, he did smile a little, and looked at the brothers and said, "Don't underestimate these things... It's true that these things in my hand are enough to blow up this dead kiln mine. It's overwhelming, I believe that as long as we throw this bomb in, that **** demon, even if it's a god, probably won't survive..."

Listening to Wang Zhen's swearing words, Tang Xiaolong blinked twice and glanced at the explosives in front of him, and then said, "What the **** are you waiting for...explode, kill that **** bastard."

Following Tang Xiaolong's words, the brothers on the other side shouted, "Yes, blow up here! Blow up that **** Long Yin."

Li Tian also nodded hard.

After making this decision, they prepared to drop bombs under the lift...

After Wang Zhen was about to drop the bomb, he began to ask the brothers to withdraw from the dead kiln mine. After all, the power of the c4 bomb was too powerful and the scope of the explosion was too wide.

The brothers obeyed Wang Zhen's instructions and retreated one by one. Li Tian also withdrew from the dead kiln mine with the help of the brothers.

But seeing the place outside, the political commissar had already prepared the evacuation plan that week.

Now they started to make most of the army evacuate slightly from the explosion area in front of them.

After they all evacuated, Wang Zhen took a few soldiers and began to drop explosives.

When the c4 explosive and the few m24 blasting grenades were thrown under the elevator, but seeing Wang Zhen, he ran out of the dead kiln mine with the two soldiers.

After they ran out of the dead kiln mine just now, they heard a loud bang, and the explosion suddenly burst.

The terrifying deterrence made the surrounding brothers' ears buzzed as if they were blown up.

As for Wang Zhen and the two soldiers who were not fast, they would probably be injured by the bomb's aftermath...

Immediately afterwards, the whole earth seemed to be shaken...the ground level trembled violently. At this moment, the entire dead kiln mine burst into flames and burst, and the location of the hole was directly bombarded by a powerful bomb. Open, the tongue of fire that jumped out of the inside jumped violently up to more than a foot high...

The brothers standing around looked at the dead kiln mine that was completely destroyed by the bomb, standing there in horror.

"Oh my god, the power of this bomb is so powerful..." Xue Wuhen muttered aside.

Tang Xiaolong in front of him also agreed and muttered: "Yeah... it's **** scary..."

"However, this dead kiln mine was finally destroyed...I believe that with such a powerful bomb, all the tunnels below will also be destroyed."

"That **** Long Yin, no matter how great his supernatural powers are, I'm afraid he won't even want to come out alive..." Chen Qiaozhi said on the side.

Although the brothers experienced a moment of life and death, at this moment, they all felt a sense of revenge in their hearts... They all felt that the perverted Dragon Yin would definitely be blown to death by the bomb, even if it could not be blown to death. Being buried alive, after all, the dead kiln mine has completely collapsed...

At this moment, only Li Tian stood there silently, looking at the place where the flames rose to heaven.

But seeing that the dead kiln mine has indeed been completely destroyed... the entire tunnel in the dead kiln mine may have also been blown up...

But I don't know why, there is no sense of happiness in Li Tian's eyes.

He just looked at the place of the dead kiln mine with a strange look...

Chapter 1777: Passed out

This battle finally came to an end when the dead kiln mine was blown up.

As the brothers looked at the bombed dead kiln mine with happy faces one by one, Li Tian's expression became more and more ugly, and at the same time his breathing became weaker and weaker...

In the end, seeing his eyes go dark, the whole person fell directly to the ground without warning and passed out.

"Little boss..."

"My God."

In the shock of the brothers, they hurried to support Li Tian one by one.

But seeing Li Tian fainted completely, his face was as pale as white paper, and his body fell to the ground.

"Oh my God, what's wrong with Little Boss?" Tang Xiaolong almost jumped up worriedly and said. The brothers on one side also looked at Li Tian with worried eyes.

"You give me a little bit first." In the end, Chen Qiaozhi walked over quickly.

He slightly removed the clothes from Li Tian, but saw a purple-black bruise appeared on Li Tian's chest...

Terrible serious injury!

Looking at such an injured place, the brothers all had a sudden heartache.

"Li Tian was injured too badly..." Chen Qiaozhi sighed helplessly.

Xue Wuhen on one side quickly asked, "Will there be anything wrong with brother that day?"

"Yes, sick ghost, speak up quickly." Tang Xiaolong also urged there.

Li Tian fought the demon-headed Dragon Yin in the dead kiln mine for so long, and was so badly injured by that abnormal dragon, if it weren't for him to flee the dead kiln mine last, I'm afraid Li Tian would have already died.

But seeing Chen Qiaozhi glanced at the injury on Li Tian's chest and said: "At present, it seems that there should be nothing serious."

"Don't worry, Li Tian won't happen."

Hearing what Chen Qiaozhi said, the brothers were finally relieved.

"However, we'd better send Li Tian to the North China Field Army as soon as possible, and then let him cultivate and treat him well." Chen Qiaozhi added.

The brothers on one side all said hello there.

Here I saw that brigade commander Wang Zhen also quickly ordered his subordinates to drive over.

In this way, the dead kiln mine is over.

This dead kiln mine where a gas explosion occurred five years ago, this dead kiln mine full of strange and evil atmosphere was finally completely destroyed.

The fire was still burning there, and the whole land seemed to be burnt red.

It's just that no one knows whether that perverted Long Yin is dead.

North China Field Military Region.

At this moment, in a brightly lit room, the Baihua Fairy, Duanmuying, and Situ Ningbing and other beauties were sitting motionless.

They didn't speak much, but everyone's pretty faces carried a look of excitement and expectation.

During the period, the fairy Baihua stood up several times, and then blinked a pair of beautiful eyes to look at the doorway, as if waiting for something.

Suddenly at this moment, a woman in a military uniform appeared in the room.

Her appearance can be called a shameless flower, and the military uniform on her body has an indescribable charm.

This person is Li Tian's aunt: Mu Shuiyao.

Also the second daughter of the commander-in-chief of the North China Field Army.

After she walked in, she saw that Baihua Fairy, Situ Ningbing and others all smiled friendly at her.

"Tell everyone good news... Wang Zhen's army will be back soon."

"And Tian'er has returned safely." Mu Shuiyao said with a smile there.

It turned out that after Li Tian arrived at the dead kiln mine for the first time and met with Zhou's political commissar, Zhou's political commissar couldn't help feeling excited and quickly sent a telegram to the General Military Region. Here, Mu Shuiyao and Commander Mu Lao. As well as the women Li Tian loved, they were all stunned after hearing that Li Tian appeared there inexplicably... They would never have thought that Li Tian, who had been missing for so many days, would suddenly appear... Shocked and happy, so almost no one slept in the middle of the night, everyone was waiting for Li Tian

"It's great, great... As long as Tian'er comes back, it will be fine." Just listen to Fairy Baihua saying with joy.

On one side, Situ Ningbing, Duanmuying, and Ouyang had heard that there was nothing wrong with Li Tian, the original worry finally calmed down.

They are waiting now, waiting for Li Tian and Wang Zhen's army to come back.

Time passed by, every girl in the room was waiting there anxiously, they were all waiting to see Li Tian.

Finally at 1 o'clock in the morning, I heard the sound of the convoy rumbling from the outside military area.

As the sound of the car came, but Baihua Fairy was the first to say with excitement: "The car is back..."

"Did they come back from Tian'er?" As Fairy Baihua said so, the girls hurriedly listened.

Sure enough, at this moment, I heard the sound of the car fleet coming from outside, and the noise.

After hearing this, Muying said, "It should be Li Tian and the others."

"Go, go out and see Tian'er."

As Fairy Baihua said this for the first time, she rushed out first.

At this moment, Situ Ningbing, Duanmuying and Na Ouyang Shiqing and other beauties quickly drove out.

After they drove out, they saw Wang Zhen rushing back with the motorcade.

There were Tang Xiaolong who jumped out of the car and Xue Wuhen and other brothers in the middle.

It's just Li Tian, they haven't seen it yet.

After they ran over quickly, they saw that Baihua Fairy immediately grabbed Tang Xiaolong over there and asked, "What about Tian'er? Didn't you say that Tian'er is back? What about people?"

At this moment, seeing Situ Ningbing and Mu Shuiyao behind him also ran quickly, blinking beautiful eyes and looking at Tang Xiaolong in puzzlement.

After Baihua Fairy asked quickly, she saw Tang Xiaolong in front of her and said, "Little boss is inside..."

"It's just that he was seriously injured."

Tang Xiaolong said while pointing at one of the military Hummers.

When the Fairy Baihua in front of him heard that Li Tian was seriously injured, he couldn't help but slam in his heart.

"What? Tian'er was injured?"

Having said that, she quickly ran towards the military Hummer that Tang Xiaolong was pointing at, but saw that two soldiers there just came out quickly carrying a stretcher.

And who is lying on the stretcher at this moment? It was Li Tian who was unconscious.

"My God."

"Li Tian..."

The moment the girls saw Li Tian, all of them ran over.

It's a pity that Li Tian was in a coma and couldn't hear any of their voices.

Chapter 1778: The fury of the commander-in-chief

I saw all the beauties looking at Li Tian who was extremely worried, and no one knew what happened to Li Tian, let alone whether his injuries were serious or not.

"What happened to Li Tian?"

"How could Tian'er suffer such a serious injury?" They asked around Li Tian caringly over there, while questioning the brothers beside him.

But in the end, Chen Qiaozhi stepped forward and said, "Li Tian was injured because of saving us..."

"But everyone, please rest assured, he is not in any serious trouble at the moment, and now he needs to rest and recuperate quickly."

After Chen Qiaozhi said so, Fairy Baihua and others felt a sigh of relief.

"Senior Baihua, we are going to send Li Tianxian inside to cultivate..." Chen Qiaozhi said again.

Although the Baihua Fairy in front of him was very reluctant to leave Li Tian, but at this moment he could only nod his head. After all, Li Tian really needed a quick rest and recuperation.

After making this decision, the brothers hurriedly carried Li Tian towards the place inside, while the Baihua Fairy and Situ Ningbing and other girls followed closely.

Finally, Li Tian was arranged to rest.

The attending physician from the General Hospital of the Military Command was also invited over and looked at Li Tian's injuries. He said that Li Tiannai had suffered a serious heart injury... He needed infusion and recuperation, but as for the greater danger, there was no.

Everyone was looking at Li Tian who was unconscious, all of them were silent, and no one spoke.

When they were all visiting Li Tian in this room, suddenly a domineering roar came from outside.

"Where is my grandson?"

"What happened to him?" There was a worried, loving tone in his voice.

Accompanied by a few close guards, a burly old man with slightly mixed white hair came in.

He was wearing a military uniform and looked sturdy and mighty.

It is the commander-in-chief of the North China Field Military Region: Father Mu Yunlong, who is also Li Tian's pro-grandfather.

When Commander Mu arrived, the brigade commander Wang Zhen and Zhou political commissar who were standing around immediately saluted.

"commander....."

Commander Mu didn't even look at the two of them, and walked straight towards the place here.

"Dad." Mu Shuiyao was not only slightly surprised when he saw Commander Mu actually walk in.

And what about Commander Mu? But he just put his gaze on the face of his unconscious grandson.

"God... my good grandson..."

"This...this...what the **** is going on?" Commander Mu said in pain when he grabbed the unconscious Li Tian's palm.

"Commander Mu, Li Tian is currently in a coma because of a serious injury," said Chen Qiaozhi on one side.

"How could this be? How could this be?"

"Who? That **** made my grandson look like this?"

Commander Mu roared like an angry tiger and said that with so many people in the house, no one dared to speak.

"Wang Zhen, get out of here." A roar came out directly from Commander Mu's mouth.

When Commander Mu suddenly yelled out, Wang Zhen quickly stood up with a pale face.

"commander."

"You bastard... How come my grandson just appeared, so how come he was wounded like this? You are a brigade commander with so many soldiers under your hand, don't you even look at my grandson?"

"I think you, the brigade commander, are just doing nothing... I will get rid of you immediately!"

Following the roar of Commander Mu, Wang Zhen's face was pale, and he stood there and trembled slightly, but he didn't refute anything...

Just said: "Commander, I protect Li Tian against disadvantage, and I am willing to be punished."

"I punish you lightly. I angered the old man. I will shoot you directly." Commander Mu said with red eyes.

When he roared out, I saw that he seemed to be a little bad, and his burly body swayed slightly, as if it was going to fall.

"Commander..." Brigadier Wang Zhen on one side saw Commander Mu's body trembling, and shouted anxiously.

Everyone couldn't help but look at the old commander who was already grizzled.

Looking at Commander Mu at this moment, Mu Shuiyao quickly walked forward...

"Dad, don't be angry... Your health was not good for this period of time, please, don't be angry." She looked at her father worriedly.

But I saw Commander Mu took a deep breath and said: "I, me, how can I not be angry!!!"

"My grandson is always born to death...Every time it is scarred, and the last time I almost lost my life... I, Mu Yunlong, has lived for most of my life, just such a grandson, I, I..."

Hearing what Commander Mu said, everyone bowed their heads in shame.

Yes, every time Li Tian suffers, it is because of my brothers and because of them.

As Li Tian's best brothers, not only did they not help Li Tian very much, but they also hurt Li Tian many times. How could this not make them feel uncomfortable.

But seeing the brothers bowed their heads heartache one by one, without speaking.

"Dad, there is nothing serious about Tian'er... Just now the attending doctor of the military region has come to check and said that Tian'er just has a heart injury... After a period of rest, it should get better right away." Mu Shuiyao persuaded. Mu Yunlong said to one side.

When Commander Mu heard what his daughter said, he looked at Li Tian, who was lying on the hospital bed with a pale face, and touched Li Tian's hand with a heartache.

Then he stood up suddenly.

"Wang Zhen, Zhou Bo, you two come in for me!" With the roar of old commander Mu, the brigade commander Wang Zhen and the political commissar Zhou in front of him said with an ugly face, "Yes!" He followed Commander Mu and walked quickly towards the command battalion on the other side.

The brothers and everyone here can only watch, Brigade Commander Wang Zhen and Political Commissar Zhou are taken away, but they can't do anything.

However, after the commander-in-chief led Wang Zhen and political commissar Zhou into the command camp, the two of them bowed their heads deeply like children who had done something wrong, not daring to say a word.

Commander Mu sat in the middle position with a look of anger and gave them a fierce look.

"Zhou Bo, let me ask you... Am I asking you to protect my grandson desperately?" The old Commander Mu said angrily.

That week, the political commissar was asked by Commander Mu so ugly, and he couldn't help saying: "Yes, Commander-in-Chief..."

"Then you bastard, how can you still hurt Tian'er?" Commander Mu shouted angrily.

Political Commissar Zhou had something to say, but he could only secretly admit that he was unlucky and bow his head there!

"Commander-in-chief, this matter has nothing to do with Zhou's political commissar. It's all because I protect Li Tian from a disadvantage." Brigadier Wang Zhen loyally took up all the responsibilities there.

Chapter 1779: Scold

But just after Brigade Commander Wang Zhen said so, Commander Mu immediately pointed the finger at him.

"Wang Zhen, I haven't said about you yet...you don't want to be a hero with me!"

"You, the brigade commander, are simply a trash... Why are my grandsons injured every time? But you are always intact?" Commander Mu said angrily.

After Wang Zhen heard what the Commander-in-Chief said, he felt extremely ashamed in his heart.

I only heard that the political commissar finally summoned up the courage to say that week:

"Commander-in-chief, in fact, we don't want Li Tian to suffer a slight injury... But, Li Tian, Li Tian is so kind... His heart is so good... ..He is always desperate to help everyone...help us..."

"To be honest, if Li Tian didn't come to help me in the dead kiln mine this time, Brigadier Wang Zhen and the group of people, it is estimated that all this time will be killed in the dead kiln mine, and all of this is Li Tian finally appeared at a critical juncture to save them... Our lives were given by Li Tian, and he sacrificed his life to save us, so if the commander-in-chief wants to punish us, we will say nothing, after all. Li Tian, who was killed by us, was injured, and the commander who was hurt by us worries you."

After political commissar Zhou suddenly said so, Commander Mu was taken aback slightly.

At the moment, his angry heart calmed down slightly.

"My dear, my good grandson... what a fool!"

"Why would he choose to risk his life to save you guys' lives? Hey..."

"Guys like you... a little use can't help my good grandson, and it almost hurts him every time, I, I, I, I really want to shoot you all one by one."

The words of Old Commander Mu are very poisonous, although they are ugly, they are true.

After listening, Brigadier Wang Zhen and Political Commissar Zhou also bowed their heads in embarrassment.

Commander Mu was really telling the truth. After all, every time Li Tian was not injured because of himself, every time it was because of his brothers, or because of them in front of him. Of course, Commander Mu, who had only one grandson, was angry in his heart. Endless.

But when he was angry, Mu Yunlong remembered the proud things his grandson had done, and to be honest, he was a little bit happy in his heart.

Because such a talent deserves to be his grandson of Mu Yunlong.

After Mu Yunlong comforted himself a little bit in his heart, he calmed down his anger.

Looking at Wang Zhen, the brigade commander asked, "Wang Zhen, let me ask you, what happened in the dead kiln mine?"

"And how did my grandson get hurt?"

After Commander Mu finally started to talk about what happened in the dead kiln mine, Wang Zhen told him all about the dead kiln mine.

They said how they entered the dead kiln mine, and at the same time they told the whole story about the monsters in the dead kiln mine, and finally said about the perverted and perverted Dragon Yin.

After Wang Zhenyi told all the things about the dead kiln mine, Commander Mu looked gloomy and ugly.

To be honest, he was also quite shocked in his heart. He never expected that so many things would happen in this dead kiln mine.

After Commander Mu thought for a while, he said, "Then you mean that Tian'er was killed by that guy whose surname is Long?"

"Yes, Commander-in-Chief."

"That demon is also the hateful guy who harmed you before." Wang Zhen said.

Commander Mu recalled in his mind the last massacre incident halfway through. To be honest, Mu Yunlong spent so many years in his life, but only once did Commander Mu feel frightened.

But he didn't expect that **** was not dead yet.

Hearing Wang Zhen's words, Commander Mu's face became more and more ugly.

"It's that hateful guy again... it's him again..."

"Commander-in-chief, that demon is a terrifying character in the gates of **** on the rivers and lakes. He has always had a huge hatred with Li Tian. This time, we don't know how things would happen to meet that in the dead kiln Demon." Wang Zhen said.

After Wang Zhen said so, the old Commander Mu tightly clenched his fists, his cold eyes staring fiercely, as if he wished that Long Yin would be slashed.

"What about the last? What about that **** guy?" Only Commander Mu suddenly asked.

Wang Zhen said, "Finally, I ordered people to blow up the dead kiln mine... If nothing else, the demon should be blown up alive, even if it can't be blown, he will be trapped under the ground."

"Asshole, I don't want it, I want a real answer. Tell me, is that **** guy dead or not?" Commander Mu said angrily.

Wang Zhen thought for a moment, and said, "It's dead..."

After he said this, the old commander Mu was satisfied.

"Well, finally you did a useful thing." Mu Yunlong said.

Brigadier Wang Zhen felt ashamed...

"Wang Zhen, let me ask you again, what about the missing children? What's the matter with them? The central government has continuously urged children to disappear. What did you do?" Suddenly, the old commander Mu asked again. Say.

Following Commander Mu's question, then Brigadier Wang Zhen told the whole story about the poor missing children.

"Those innocent children...presumably...presumably...have all been killed." Wang Zhen said in pain.

"what?"

"So many innocent children, all dead?" At this moment, even Commander Mu was not only shocked there.

But Brigadier Wang Zhen nodded silently.

"Yes, Commander..."

"When we went in, the tunnel was filled with a pile of human bones of a child... and we saw the corpse of a child thrown in by the demon... Hey!" Wang Zhen said with emotion.

After Wang Zhen talked about the deaths of the innocent children, Commander Mu did not speak for a long time.

As long as he thought of the deaths of the dozen or so children in his heart, he couldn't help feeling uncomfortable.

After Commander Mu was finally silent for a long time, he slightly waved his hand at the brigade commander Wang Zhen and the political commissar of that week and said: "Okay, go down, I want to be alone."

With the words of Commander Mu, then Brigadier Wang Zhen and Political Commissar Zhou did not dare to speak too much, they could only silently nod their heads, and then quickly retreated.

In the command camp at the moment, only Commander Mu was left sitting there...

His face was depressed and uncomfortable, no one knew what he was thinking about, let alone what the old commander was worried about.

Chapter 1780: Terrible nightmare

In Li Tian's ward, all the brothers were standing there at the moment.

In addition to the brothers, there is Fairy Baihua, Situ Ningbing and others are also taking care of Li Tian.

But seeing that Li Tian closed his eyes tightly, his face was pale, and the infusion was still on the arm of one hand.

Just now, Chen Qiaozhi, Tang Xiaolong and other brothers also told Baihua Fairy and Situ Ningbing about the dead kiln mine.

After they listened, their hearts were fluctuating.

They didn't expect that Li Tian was so severely injured because he met the extremely abnormal Long Yin.

But fortunately, they finally heard the **** Long Yin being trapped alive in the dead kiln mine.

"By the way, Xiaolong, did Tian'er tell you about the ghost servants when he was with you?" Baihua Fairy asked suddenly at this moment.

Because Li Tian disappeared at that time with the ghost servant.

But now Li Tian came back safe and sound, but he didn't see the ghost servant, so the fairy Baihua couldn't help asking.

After Baihua Fairy asked, Tang Xiaolong shook his head depressedly and said, "The little boss didn't mention anything about my master."

When Baihua Fairy heard Tang Xiaolong say this, her brows wrinkled slightly.

At the same time, my heart was in that uncontrollable shadow: Where is the fourth brother? How is he? Why is he not with Li Tian?

After thinking this way in her heart, Fairy Baihua knew that at present, it seemed that all of this could only be known after Li Tian himself became sober.

So the brothers are now waiting in front of Li Tian's hospital bed.

However, Li Tian, who is now in a coma, closed his eyes tightly, completely unaware of personnel, and no one knows whether he can hear the conversations of his brothers and the women he loves at this moment.

Darkness enveloped Li Tian like a thick fog. The moment he opened his eyes, his eyes saw a strange situation. He saw the blood and fire in the front place, and saw a man in front of him. Holding a long sword in the raging fire, those masked masters are fighting...the masked masters are so many, all around the man in the raging fire, that man is not afraid of everything like a god, he just tight A tight hand was holding the baby child in his arms, and the other hand was killing the masked masters who rushed towards him... At the moment when he saw that man's back, Li Tian felt inexplicable. The pain started, and then he wanted to yell, yell, and help the tall man at the same time... But no matter how he yelled, how he ran, it was of no avail... as if they were in two worlds. In the end, the fire swallowed the man with the sword. After the fire swallowed the man, Li Tianqing couldn't help crying, as if the man had an extremely close relationship with him. At the moment he shed tears, the moment before his eyes The picture suddenly changed again... it became an extremely terrifying picture. In the picture, he was in a tomb... The tomb had an indescribable gloomy feeling, I saw it in the cemetery. He saw many nameless tombs, buried there one by one, with no names on the tombstones, and nothing else... and Li Tian was in them. Just when he was stunned how he could be here, suddenly his eyes saw one of the tombs that read: Tang Xiaolong's Tomb... When he saw the tomb of his best brother in amazement, Li Tian suddenly felt a little in his heart. For a moment: How could this be? How could Xiaolong die? Just as he was screaming in horror, he suddenly saw other tombs around him, the tomb of Duguxie, the tomb of the ghost servant, and the curtain of Xue Wuhen... Looking around, all the tombs that were originally unknown at this moment The brothers' names are written on it! Li Tian collapsed suddenly, looking at those tombs unimaginably: My brothers... how could they die? How could they be buried here...no, no, impossible...impossible...my brothers won't die...definitely won't die..."

"What's wrong with Tian'er? Why do you think Tian'er's face is so ugly?" The Baihua Fairy stared at Li Tian, who was turbulent and restless, and said in shock.

At the same time, other people not only looked at Li Tian in surprise at this moment, everyone's face was worried.

But seeing Li Tian in a coma in front of him was short of breath, and his body was constantly commotion, and a lot of cold sweat broke out on him.

"Li Tian seems to have a nightmare." Chen Qiaozhi on one side couldn't help but say when he saw Li Tian's appearance.

"Have a nightmare?" When the people next to them heard it, they were all stunned there.

Chen Qiaozhi said: "Yes."

"Look, Li Tian still has a fever now. It is normal to have nightmares. I believe it will be fine after a while."

After Chen Qiaozhi finished saying this, they were all relieved one by one.

I saw Li Tian struggling on the bed with his eyes closed for a while, and after a while, his body finally returned to a calm state...At the same time, the sweat on his body gradually decreased. It seems that just now, Li Tian should indeed be having a nightmare.

The brothers now can only slowly wait for Li Tian to wake up.

Binjiang City, in a small hotel.

But I saw that Anan sat in the small room with a sad look.

Now Li Tian hasn't come back all day and night. As the only teenager who only knows Li Tian, Anan is of course afraid and worried in his heart.

When Li Tian was about to leave, he gave Anan some money. Although it was not much, it was enough for Anan's living security for the past few days. At the same time, he also said that he was going to the dead kiln mine himself.

Anan knew that Li Tian was going to find someone, and he was going to find his grandpa.

But Li Tian said that after he found his grandfather, he would come back soon, but now that day and night have passed, why didn't Li Tian come?

Anan sat alone in the small empty room thinking.

"Will he care about himself?" Anan's young heart thought slightly.

"No, he shouldn't, he is not that kind of person, besides, there are his two unconscious friends here, how could he leave himself? How could he leave his two friends?" Anan side Thinking like this in my heart, while looking at the bed over there, there were two deadly ghost servants and Duguxie lying there.

"But, why didn't he come back all day and night? Did something happen?" Anan thought in his heart again.
