

A Killer 1811

Chapter 1811: Start investigation from the Bund

Where is this place? Li Tian guarded Anan in front of him and looked at him. Li Tian said with concern: "Don't worry, today, no matter what, I will take you out."

Anan's grateful eyes turned red, and he looked at Li Tiandao and said, "Thank you, thank you..."

While Li Tian and Anan were waiting, I saw loud conversations from the director's office over there, but they couldn't hear them clearly because of the distance.

If you listen carefully with your ears upright, the only sentence you can hear is: Is it so difficult for our North China Field Army to want you to be alone in the police station? Besides, he is still an innocent person, an innocent child, and a criminal suspect. I promise you that I will find a way for you to get it back as soon as possible. As for this innocent child, Director Zhou, I am here today. , I must take that child away... I want to see who dares to stop Lao Tzu today?

After the last roar came out, I only heard the door of the director's office slammed open, and then I saw the brigade commander Wang Zhen approaching Li Tian aggressively.

And behind him? Director Zhou stood there with extremely ugly expression.

After Brigadier Wang Zhen came over, he said to the dumbfounded policeman beside him: "Open the door for me and let go! I don't believe it today. I can't even take an innocent child out!"

The policeman is standing here with a face full of speech... dare not let anyone go! Do you know that Anan is now a suspect? What's more, their chief is still standing behind that.

Seeing the policeman not moving, Brigade Commander Wang Zhen was about to get angry again, but Director Zhou, who was looking ugly behind him, finally spoke.

"Xiao Yang, open the door... let the kid go!"

After the chief said something that week, the policeman named Xiao Yang was startled...

"What are you still stupefied? Let them go!" Director Zhou suddenly roared from behind, and Xiao Yang suddenly woke up, so he quickly took the key to open the door of the detention center.

And what about Chief Zhou? He blew his beard and stared, slammed the door of the office, and then sat alone in the office and lost his temper...

In this way, Anan was brought out smoothly.

Brigadier Wang Zhen finally lived up to Li Tian's expectations, and successfully left the police station with Li Tian and Na Anan.

After leaving the police station, they drove a taxi directly, and then walked towards the hotel where they were staying.

On the way, Brigadier Wang Zhen was silent all the way, not speaking much.

Li Tian also didn't talk because he was thinking about things in his mind, only Na Anan looked left and right.

"Shall we go there now?" In the end, it was Na Anan that broke the dull atmosphere.

After he asked, Li Tian said: "Go to the hotel..."

Anan: "Oh." With a cry.

"I'm sorry...I didn't help you take care of your friends." Anan suddenly lowered his head and said to Li Tiandao, his words were full of self-blame.

Li Tian knew that he was blaming himself because of the Duguxie and the ghost servants, and he said in a slight voice: "You can't blame you for this thing... if you want to blame, you can only blame me... I didn't have time to pick you up."

"Hey, I don't know where your two friends are now." Anan said again.

Li Tiandao: "They have been taken away.

"Ah? Captured? By whom? The police?" Anan asked suspiciously.

But seeing Li Tian in front of him shook his head: "No."

"Who is that? Who took them?" Anan asked again.

Li Tiandao: "I'll talk to you about this matter later, and I won't be able to tell you clearly for a while..."

After Anan heard Li Tian say this, he closed his mouth and stopped questioning too much.

Where is Li Tian? Instead, he turned his head and looked at the silent Brigadier Wang Zhen and said: "Brigadier Wang Zhen, please wait until you return to the hotel. You call my grandfather and tell them that I will not return to the North China Field Army for now. When things are done here, I will go back."

After Wang Zhen heard Li Tian say this, he lowered his head and responded in silence, and then did not speak.

The car drove fast along the way and soon reached the hotel where the brothers are currently staying.

After arriving at the hotel smoothly, Li Tian took Na Anan out of the car. After entering the hotel, the brothers saw the strange Anan brought back by Li Tian.

"Brother Tian, is that him?" Xue Wuhen on one side pointed to Anando in front of him and said.

Li Tian nodded.

"His name is Anan." Li Tian looked at the brothers.

The brothers on one side were all looking at Anan at this time, and Anan looked a little timid, standing on the side did not dare to speak too much.

What about Li Tian? After returning, I also told my brothers all what happened at the police station, as well as the recent actions of Duguxie and the ghost servant.

After hearing this, the brothers were all stunned.

"Brother Tian, you mean that Brother Ghost and Senior Dugu killed innocent people indiscriminately... and even the police have killed them? No way..." Xue Wuhen looked at Li Tiandao in disbelief.

Chen Qiaozhi on one side was also full of suspicion: "Li Tian, did you make a mistake? How could Senior Dugu and the ghost servants do such a thing?"

Li Tianding frowned and said: "There can be no mistake, it is indeed them who killed the police!"

"However, it was only because of the terrible poison that the two of them had lost their humanity." Li Tiandao.

"Poison? What kind of poison has this weird function?" the brothers on one side asked.

"The poison of the puppet is the poison of the puppet made by the * gate master." Li Tiandao.

After listening to this moment, the brothers were all stunned.

After a long time, I just listened to Xue Wuhen saying: "Brother Tian, what should I do now? Since Brother Ghost and Senior Dugu were poisoned, wouldn't it be dangerous?"

Li Tiandao: "For today's plan, we must first find those foreigners... and then we can rescue Duguxie and the ghost servants."

"Binjiang City is so big, I'm afraid it's not so easy to find those foreigners." Xue Wuhen said.

Li Tian nodded silently.

"Indeed, it is not easy to find those foreigners from the crowded city of Binjiang, but fortunately, those people are foreigners... Think about it, there will be more foreigners in Binjiang City. ?" Li Tian said suddenly very cleverly.

When the brothers thought about it, suddenly they only heard Chen Qiaozhi say: "It must be the Bund..."

"That's right. Since there are the most foreigners in the Bund, let's start from there! The appearance and characteristics of those foreigners are quite obvious. I believe that as long as they appear in that place, we will definitely be able to find relevant Their clues." Li Tiandao.

"Well, it's so decided."

Chapter 1812: I must want them to die!

After the brothers said so, everyone began to look for the mysterious gangsters.

The place they need to check first naturally starts with the Bund...Because the Bund is an international financial district, there are many people from different countries and people of different skin colors living there, but whether they can find it is another matter.

They decided to start searching separately in the afternoon. Among them, Tang Xiaolong was seriously injured, so he could not participate. Here Li Tian is with Wang Zhen, and over there Xue Wuhen is with Chen Qiaozhi. As for that Anan, stay.

After making this decision, they set off in the afternoon.

Before setting off, Li Tian suddenly took out something from his arms, and then took it out to everyone.

"Everyone, look at this thing..."

After Li Tian took it out, he was holding a weird cross on his neck in the middle of his palm.

When Li Tian suddenly took out this cross, the brothers couldn't help but stunned.

"Brother Tian, what is this? What's the use of looking at this?" Xue Wuhen asked inexplicably, and Chen Qiaozhi next to him also blinked at Li Tian with a puzzled face.

But seeing Li Tiandao said: "Don't underestimate this thing, this thing is what I left from the gang of foreigners."

It turned out that the cross was worn on the neck of the night fox Lolita before, but because of Li Tianyong's ten-jue sword qi, her cross was left behind. Later, because they fled too quickly, so there was no time to retrieve this weird cross, so Li Tian picked it up.

After Li Tian said so, the brothers were not only shocked.

Jesus cross? Christian?

"Brother Tian, what do you mean, those gangsters who attacked us are Christians?" Xue Wuhen said in front of him with his eyes wide open.

Li Tiandao said: "Yes."

"You may not have noticed just now. When I fought with them, I found that the strong foreign man also wore such a cross on his neck, and the white man who captured Duguxie and the ghost servant also wore such a cross. The same cross..."

After Li Tian said something, the brothers were shocked.

"Are the group of people dealing with us Christians?" Chen Qiaozhi asked in doubt.

Li Tiandao: "Christianity is one of the four major religions in the world. It is absolutely impossible to generalize, but I am sure that the people who attacked us must have some connection with the pope... So we must pay attention to the process when we find out. Are there any Christians in the surrounding area? There are some churches."

After Li Tian said this, the brothers all understood.

Say there: "Okay, we know."

"Well, that's good, let's go now." Li Tiandao said.

After Li Tian said this, they prepared to arrive at the Bund in Binjiang City.

After arriving outside, I took two taxis and started to drive towards the Bund in Binjiang City.

The Bund belongs to the economically prosperous area of Binjiang City, and there are many foreign-funded enterprises, so it is relatively prosperous. If you get to the Bund from here, you should be able to reach the Bund in less than half an hour. So the brothers got on the bus and went straight. Go to the Bund.

In a dark room, empty seats lined up in rows.

It looks like an old church, with a carved cross of  in the middle.

It's just that this church seems to have been abandoned for a long time. The facilities and objects inside it all present an ancient and decadent feeling. There is a thick layer of dust on the tables and the messy seats.

In such a weird and ancient church, I saw a priest standing motionless at the cross of  with the priest, holding a heavy Bible in his hands, watching him slightly.

Suddenly the sound of footsteps came from the side room.

Following the voice, he saw three figures appearing there at a glance.

The first is the white man Jace, the dead saint, the second is the woman of Italian descent, Rowling the night fox, and the third is the destruction tank: Long!

It's just that Long's ear is wrapped with a thick white sanding belt, and his endless anger can be felt on the entire burly body.

However, after they came, the priest standing in the center of the church suddenly turned his head slowly with the Bible in his hands, and then looked at the three without blinking.

A slight smile appeared on his face, then looked at the three of them and said: "You are here..."

The three of them responded in a low voice.

"How is the matter going?" The priest suddenly looked at the three and asked, while a smile appeared on his face.

Jace, the dead saint standing in the front, said at this moment: "People, have been caught!"

"Moreover, we also saw that Lee!" Jace said coldly.

When the priest heard the death saint Jace suddenly say this, he was quite shocked: "Li? Have you seen Li?"

The Death Saint Jace nodded coldly and said, "Yes."

"Then why didn't you catch that Li directly?" The priest looked at Jace and asked, looking puzzled.

Na Jess shook his head slowly: "No..."

The priest suddenly glanced at the three of them, then smiled weirdly and said, "I understand... It seems that the three of you are not Li's opponents, are they?"

With the priest at this time, the dead saint Jace said with a gloomy face: "Father Gammarelli, we said that we will catch Li, and we will do it if we get the key of destiny. Just rest assured... .."

"Really? But why am I becoming more and more worried..." Father Gammarelli sneered there.

Then Dan saw him slowly closing the bible in his hand, and then pointed to the ear of Destroyer Tank and said, "Long, you seem to be injured?"

There was a muffled snort in the burly bulging mouth, and the muscles all over his body rose from excessive anger.

"Hey, you are too careless!"

"I tell you, you underestimate the martial arts of China... Do you remember the evil  more than twenty years ago? He is the best example... The bishop did not take him to heart, and the demon actually broke through Entered our Holy Pope's land, and stole our Pope's most sacred object: the key of fate, and killed Cardinal Bill and Cardinal Rosta..."

"I'm telling you, this time there must be no more mistakes... Never let the Chinese people insult our Pope, do you understand?"

"I want them to die, one by one! I want to retrieve the holy artifacts of our pope!" The Father Gammarelli suddenly roared like a lunatic.

Chapter 1813: Find

In front of Jace, there were other Rowling and Long standing there, no one said a word, let alone a word.

After Father Gammarelli finished roaring, he finally took a long breath, then looked at the dead saint Jace and said: "You'd better contact the bishop and let him arrange the rest of the dead saints to come here. ...Or else all the responsibilities will be borne by you."

After Father Gammarelli said these words coldly, he suddenly picked up the Bible he had put on the table, and then robbed the door and left.

Inside the empty and decadent church, soon there were only three of their dead saints left.

Three people stood there coldly, motionless.

In the end, it was Rowling who spoke first: "What to do?" He looked at Jace before him.

But seeing Jace was silent for a while, beastly murderous intent exuded from the jewel-like eyes.

"Find Li, kill Li!" A simple six words suffocated coldly from his mouth.

Rowling said: "Okay!"

"You forgot, there are other masters nearby..." Suddenly a word came out of Long's mouth. The big man's voice was rude, exactly the same as his own, his hideous face was full of endless The anger was there to Jace and Rowling.

As Long suddenly said such a sentence, the beauty Rowling suddenly sneered: "Master?"

"I think you are so useless...that's why someone bit your ear off."

"What are you talking about?" Hearing Rowling's sudden words, Na Long exploded with anger, and the whole person stepped forward suddenly, a big hand like a giant grabbing towards Rowling.

And what about Rowling? Suddenly his crescent scimitar was exposed from the sleeve, and he was ready to shoot with a brush.

Just when Long and Rowling were about to fight, Jace, who was on the side, suddenly said angrily: "Stop it for me!"

After Jace's voice was uttered, Na Long abruptly retracted his hammer-like fist, staring at Rowling in front of him with destruction, and what about Rowling? Liu Mei glanced at the big man, sneered, and then slowly put away his head.

After they all stopped, I saw the dead saint Jace slowly put his eyes on Na Long, then looked at his ear wrapped in white gauze, and asked: "Are you sure you have been caught by a mysterious person Hurt?"

"Of course." Long roared angrily.

"Otherwise, I have to kill that * bastard." Long roared with wide eyes.

After Long said this, he saw that Jess raised his brows slightly. He knew Long's strength. In a * place like the American Inma Underground Free Fighting arena, Long's record of 105 victories and terrifying power to kill 73 people. He is quite clear.

He believes that few people can hurt this burly hunk with their fists, unless the opponent uses extremely powerful internal energy.

From this point of view, Long has indeed met a real-level master.

"It seems that this action is getting more and more interesting." Jace suddenly said coldly.

The long-faced anger roared there, "Find out that * mysterious bastard, I'm going to tear him up!"

"Huh, you were beaten to kneel on the ground, and you tore others to pieces?" Rowling sneered. She seemed to be unfriendly to the big guy beside her, and she always wanted to find fault with him.

"You..." Long heard Rowling's sarcasm again, and he almost jumped in anger.

But when I saw that Jace was there and said: "Well, you two will say one less thing to me..."

"This time, we must not make mistakes. Making mistakes is death. I believe all of you understand better than me!"

"The bishop has issued an order to get our holy artifacts before Christmas..." Jace the Dead Saint said suddenly.

Then he said again: "Lin, you have seen the true strength of Li...I hope you will never underestimate the enemy... If you commit another crime, die!"

When Rowling heard Jace say this, her pretty face turned pale in an instant, and said slightly, "Yes!"

"Long, you also remembered to me that you are never allowed to make that kind of low-level mistake again. The mysterious master you just said, I will find a way to deal with him. As for the other Li, there are others, leave it to you Two...I hope you find them as soon as possible and get rid of them." Jess said.

"Yes!" But seeing that Rowling and Long Zai said in unison.

"What about the two people who were caught? They seem to be very important to that Li..." Just listen to Rowling the night fox suddenly saying at this moment.

"Otherwise, we can use those two people to threaten Li!"

After hearing Rowling's words, Na Jace suddenly raised his cold eyes and glared at him.

"Should we do such a thing?"

"You remember, Li will die sooner or later! There is no thing under the world that the dead saint can't solve." Jace suddenly said coldly, with an invisible and unquestionable voice in his voice.

When Rowling and Long heard Jace say this, they didn't say much again.

The Bund.

There are many tall buildings, one taller than one building is standing here like a hideous monster. Foreigners can be seen walking back and forth everywhere on the street. Blacks, whites, Russians, Americans, Italians... and Japanese, as well as Koreans all gather in this Bund.

This is the most popular place for foreigners to gather, and it is also a place where they often work.

At this moment, two taxis stopped at the side of the road on a street in the Bund.

After getting off the car, they saw Li Tian, Wang Zhen, and Chen Qiaozhi and Xue Wuhen. The four of them got out of the car.

After walking down, the brothers took a look at the Bund in front of them. Apart from foreigners, all that was left were cafes, western restaurants, and large shopping malls.

"This is really a good place." Xue Wuhen, who only listened to one side, said while watching the surrounding environment.

Chen Qiaozhi next to him smiled slightly: "Gringo will enjoy it."

"Yes."

"Let's go." Li Tian led the way and said.

As he said, the brothers started to follow him to the front place one by one.

After arriving at the fork in the road, I just listened to Li Tian saying: "Let's start from here and find two ways... Remember, once there is a situation, don't act. After half an hour, we will meet here. ."

After Li Tian said this, Chen Qiaozhi and Xue Wuhen nodded.

"Don't forget, pay attention to the Christians wearing the cross." Li Tian told the brothers in front of him.

"Well, I see, then let's go from here." Chen Qiaozhi and Xue Wuhen said as they walked toward the side road, while Li Tian was leading the commander Wang Zhen Walk forward along the street on this side.

Chapter 1814: Go to the old church

Li Tian led Wang Zhen from this road to the Bund.

Along the way, you can see foreigners coming and going, some are at work, some are walking with their pet dogs, and some are sitting outdoors watching the scenery and chatting.

Looking at these foreigners, Li Tianxun thought: This kind of blind search is not the answer, he has to come up with some ideas.

After thinking about it, Li Tian said to Wang Zhendao beside him: "Brigadier Wang, how is your English?"

Following Li Tian's question, Wang Zhen froze for a moment, and said there, "It's OK...what's wrong?"

"That's good! Haha, I want you to help inquire about these foreigners, you can ask, see if there is any Christianity around, or what churches, etc., we have been looking for things like this, it is always not the way, so the most It's better to ask these foreigners.

After Li Tian said this, Wang Zhendao said, "Oh, that's okay... I can still communicate in simple English."

"Well, that's good, then let's find someone to ask." Li Tiandao.

After the two made a decision, they walked towards a tall residential building over there. In front of the residential building was a huge Western-style garden, where many foreigners were relaxing and chatting.

After Li Tian brought Wang Zhen in front of him to this side, he blinked his eyes and looked around, then Li Tian stared at a 50-year-old foreign man sitting alone on a bench and said, " Go, let's go and ask him."

As Li Tian said this, Wang Zhen in front of him said, "Okay."

Then the two walked towards the old foreign man sitting on the bench alone.

The old foreign man was wearing a pale white shirt, with curly blond hair on one end, and his face was white. He seemed to be an American, sitting leisurely there, with his eyes slightly closed, enjoying the scenery of nature.

With the arrival of Li Tian and Wang Zhen, but seeing Wang Zhen taking the lead, he smiled and said to the American old man with his eyes closed slightly: "excuseme!"

After Brigadier Wang Zhen said these words, the American old man slowly opened his eyes, and then politely smiled at Wang Zhen.

"Oh, hello."

"Canyouhelpme" Wang Zhen asked again in English.

"Yse, ofcourse." The old American smiled there.

Listening to Wang Zhen and the old American talking in English, Li Tian felt a little depressed. Although he knew some simple English, he was depressed if he knew more in-depth English, so he could only stand there at the moment. listen.

I saw that Brigadier Wang Zhen's English was really good. When he spoke English smoothly, Li Tian was not only envied by him, but what about the old American? He also seemed very enthusiastic and spoke to Wang Zhen there.

Finally, after the two had talked in English for almost a minute, Wang Zhen said to the old American man, "thank you very much."

The Yankee said: "iknow you regrateful, but that sallright, anytime."

Wang Zhen smiled slightly, then stretched out his hand and said to the old American: "byebye."

The old American also beckoned to Wang Zhen affectionately.

But after seeing it, Li Tian asked, "How did you ask?"

After Li Tian asked, Wang Zhen frowned slightly and said, then shook his head.

"The old man said that there are no churches here...and I haven't seen any Christians." Wang Zhen said.

After listening to Wang Zhen's words, Li Tian was not only disappointed: "Oh."

"Then look for it again... I believe I can find some clues."

After he said this, they began to walk towards the inside of the Bund again. They went all the way and asked people all the way. Li Tian didn't understand English very much, so when Wang Zhen asked, he could only stand on the side silently, he would not know the answer until Wang Zhen finished asking questions.

Unfortunately, after they asked 34 foreigners, they all said that there were no churches around, and no Christians...

Listening to the foreigners around him saying so, Li Tian and Brigadier Wang Zhen in front of them were suddenly depressed.

After the two of them wandered around here for a long time, they saw that Brigadier Wang Zhen looked at the time and said: "It's almost half an hour, let's go, let's go back to the place where we meet... Maybe Qiaozhi they found What clue is there."

After Brigadier Wang Zhen finished saying that, Li Tian in front of him could only nod his head, so the two returned back along the same path.

After they returned to the place where they met, they saw that Chen Qiaozhi and Xue Wuhen had not returned yet.

So the two are waiting here.

After waiting for about ten minutes, suddenly I saw the figure of Chen Qiaozhi and Xue Wuhen from a distance running quickly towards this side.

After Wang Zhen saw the two for the first time, he said: "Li Tian, Qiao Zhi and the others are back."

Following Wang Zhen's finger, he saw Chen Qiaozhi and Xue Wuhen.

At this moment, I saw the two people rushing towards this side quickly. After arriving, but seeing the two of them, they addressed Li Tian and said: "Brother Tian..."

"How is it, have you found any clues?" Li Tian looked at the two and asked.

But seeing Chen Qiaozhi and Xue Wuhen shook his head depressed first.

"The specific clues are not found..." Chen Qiaozhi.

Listening to them, Li Tian was not only a little disappointed, but when he was not only disappointed in his heart, then Chen Qiaozhi suddenly said there: "But we found a church in the front place... it's just that church. People around say it has been abandoned for many years..."

When Chen Qiaozhi suddenly said this, Li Tian suddenly became interested.

"Church?" Li Tianjing asked.

Chen Qiaozhi nodded slightly in front of him: "Yes."

"I heard from those around me that the church was closed more than 20 years ago... It is already deserted... and I have never seen any Christians go in." Chen Qiaozhi.

Li Tian drew his brows in deep contemplation.

Chen Qiaozhi and Xue Wuhen were all there looking at him: "Brother Tian, shall we go see that abandoned church?"

Listening to Xue Wuhen's question, Li Tian thought about it and said, "Go!"

"Since there is no clue, I have to go to the abandoned church to try my luck." Li Tiandao said.

After he said this, Chen Qiaozhi and Wang Zhen didn't have much opinion, so they both nodded.

Chapter 1815: Come here for nothing

"Where is the abandoned church?" Li Tian asked.

Chen Qiaozhi pointed to the front and said, "On the street in front."

"Let's go, let's go and see." As Li Tian said so, the brothers followed him to the front block.

There are all kinds of foreigners along the way, as well as restaurants and cafes.

After arriving at the street in front, Chen Qiaozhi said, "It's right at the corner ahead."

Having said that, they continued to walk towards the front place.

After reaching the front corner, I saw an old church indeed appeared in the sight of the brothers.

The tall churches are exactly the same as the buildings in Rome, except that the bricks on them are already darkened, and many weeds grow in the surrounding areas because they are too old.

The heavy wooden door was tightly nailed with boards and nails, as if no one had been in this church for a long time.

After the brothers arrived in front of the church, everyone blinked their eyes and looked at the old and dilapidated church in front of them...Looking at the thick and nailed door.

"The door here is sealed." Xue Wuhen said slightly in his mouth, looking at the door of the church in front of him.

"Yes." Chen Qiaozhi said aside.

"It seems that this old church has indeed been abandoned for a long time...There shouldn't be anyone in it." He continued to mutter to that person.

Brigadier Wang Zhen also took a look at the ancient church in front of him and said to Li Tian, "Li Tian, do you want to go in?"

Li Tian stood at the door hesitating.

Judging from the current state, this ancient church really shouldn't have anyone going in, because the heavy door was nailed to death by wooden boards, and there was no trace of opening the door at all.

So after Li Tian thought about it, he had a plan to not enter.

Just as he was about to do so, suddenly there was a flutter above the ancient church, and a group of dark crows screamed and flew up.

Looking at the group of crows flying out strangely from the ancient church, the brothers were all watching in surprise.

"I think we should go in and take a look." Just like that, a sentence came out of Li Tian's mouth.

When Li Tian suddenly said this, the brothers were all taken aback, blinking at him.

"Really going to this ancient church?" Wang Zhenzai looked at Li Tiandao suspiciously.

But seeing Li Tian nodded silently, he fixed his eyes on the ancient church in front of him and said, "I subconsciously feel that this ancient church seems a bit weird... so let's go in and take a look."

"Okay." After Li Tian said that, then Brigadier Wang Zhen didn't say much.

Anyway, they don't have a clue right now. Since they finally have some clues, they'd better seize it.

So after Li Tian decided to enter this ancient church, the brothers also agreed.

I saw Xue Wuhen walk quickly to the gate of the ancient church, and then stretched out his hand to push the heavy gate hard, but it was a pity that the heavy gate didn't move... plus the nails on it. With wooden boards, the entire gate could not be opened at all.

"What a solid door!" Xue Wuhen muttered while looking at the heavy door in front of him.

Li Tian also walked over at this time, and then reached out his hand and tried to push the door, and found that it was indeed closed very tightly, and ordinary strength could not open the door.

Looking at the church door in front of him, Li Tian finally said, "Everyone, let me."

After Li Tian said this, the brothers all took a step back subconsciously, and then all stared at him with blinking eyes.

I saw Li Tian slowly accumulating zhenqi, piercing both arms, and the vigorous qi emerging from his body quickly filled his arms, then he shouted, his palms exploded out.

The immense palm strength slammed into the door of the ancient church fiercely.

But after hearing a bang, with a thunderous tremor, the huge and heavy door was suddenly smashed by Li Tian's domineering palm... There was a big hole as high as a person in the middle!

Looking at Li Tian's overbearing power, the brothers were slightly stunned.

And what about the huge door of the church? I was finally knocked out of a hole as tall as a person.

A breath of decadent years emerged from inside.

Then Li Tian slowly put his palms away, then blinked his eyes to look into the church from the hole in the door, and saw that the whole dilapidated church was gloomy, dark inside, and looked at everything. not sure.....

"Let's go, let's go in." As Li Tian said so, he was the first to walk from the hole to the church.

And the brothers all followed in at this time.

After entering, I saw that the church has a huge space, surrounded by messy seats...Those seats are all mottled and rusted...Lonely placed here like abandoned.

The surrounding tables and chairs are covered with layers of heavy dust, and the ancient walls are covered with layers of spider webs, which makes people feel sick.

In the most central part of the church, only a carved and vivid cross of * was placed in the middle.

Standing in the middle of the church, Li Tian stared at the cross of * without blinking. For some reason, an extremely strange feeling suddenly rose in his heart.

The brothers next to him were also looking around, looking at the empty church.

But he said that after Li Tian looked at the cross of * for a while, his mind seemed to be a little rippling, which made him almost fascinated, but fortunately he quickly closed his eyes in time, and then shook his head severely...No Dare to see that weird cross again.

Then he began to observe the situation around the church.

"It seems that no one has been here for many years..." Na Xue Wuhen said, pinching his nose.

Because this church was too old, layers of dust rose up after Li Tian and the others came in... and got into their breathing channels.

"En, yes." Chen Qiaozhi also muttered over there.

Wang Zhen glanced at the surrounding environment and said: "I think we have come here for nothing... this church has nothing at all."

Just as the three of them were talking, they saw Li Tian squatting on the ground alone in the front place, watching carefully as if he had found some clue.

Chapter 1816 Someone here

Seeing Li Tian squatting in the front position alone, the brothers were not only taken aback, but followed.

"Brother Tian, what are you looking at?" Xue Wuhen asked in surprise as he walked over.

Xue Wuhen and Chen Qiaozhi in front of him also followed at this moment.

"Stop...Don't go forward!" When Li Tian saw that Xue Wuhen was approaching, he not only said loudly.

After he yelled out so suddenly, Xue Wuhen was startled, and the steps that stepped out abruptly seemed to be frozen, and stopped in the air, looking at Li Tian with a whole face full of doubts. .

"Brother Tian...what's the matter?" But seeing Xue Wuhen tilting his legs, neither walking nor retreating, the whole person stood there stupidly and asked.

Chen Qiaozhi and Brigadier Wang Zhen also thought Li Tian was a little strange.

But what about Li Tian? The whole person stared at the ground, and saw that there were layers of dust on the ground... and through the dust, if you look closely, you can see looming footprints appearing on the ground.

"Someone has been here...someone must have been." Li Tian suddenly became excited and said there.

After Li Tian suddenly said this, Xue Wuhen, Chen Qiaozhi and Brigadier Wang Zhen were all startled, and they hurried over in disbelief.

"Someone has been here? Impossible..." Chen Qiaozhi muttered there, and he had already walked over.

Then Brigadier Wang Zhen also walked quickly toward this side, saying: "How is it possible? The door outside has not been opened at all...how can anyone come in?"

Just when the brothers didn't believe it very much, Li Tian suddenly pointed his finger at the looming footprints on the ground and said, "Come and see..."

As he said, then Chen Qiaozhi and Brigadier Wang Zhen were taken aback, then they all walked over, and then bent down to take a closer look. After they observed carefully, they really saw looming footprints appearing in this church. inside.

And the footprints were obviously rubbed by someone... Obviously someone deliberately erased these footprints, but after all, they were discovered by the careful Li Tian.

After Chen Qiaozhi and Brigadier Wang Zhen really saw the footprints, the two were suddenly depressed.

"Really there are footprints?" the two of them said with wide-eyed eyes.

Li Tian drew his brows and looked at the footprints and said: "Look at this footprint... There is definitely more than one person, there are definitely more than 3 people. You see the size of the footprints are different... So I'm sure it must have appeared in a short time three people."

After Li Tian said this, both Chen Qiaozhi and Brigadier Wang Zhen nodded in agreement.

"Yes, Li Tian's analysis is not bad at all..."

"It's just that these footprints seem to have been erased! Does the other party know that we will check here?" Chen Qiaozhi thought to himself.

Li Tiandao: "It should be."

"But there are only these few footprints in front of me... The footprints in front have been completely erased... How can I find this?" Chen Qiaozhi in front of him looked depressed at Li Tiandao.

Apart from the footprints in this church, Li Tian has indeed not found any other particularly important clues, so he is not only depressed now.

After being depressed for a while, I saw Li Tian stand up and look around at the ancient church in front of him.

Brothers are also looking at Li Tian at this moment... don't know what to do at this moment.

I saw Li Tian looking around the church... This ancient church is gloomy and gives people a very strange feeling, especially the huge cross of * in the front, and the * on it is wide open. Looking at the brothers.

After Li Tian watched for a while, he only heard him suddenly say: "There is definitely a secret road in this church!"

"Everyone now starts to search this church carefully...I believe that we will find that secret tunnel."

Secret road?

After Li Tian suddenly said such an inexplicable remark, the brothers were not only taken aback, no one had a direct reaction.

"Brother Tian, what secret way, why didn't we understand?" Xue Wuhen asked suspiciously.

But listen to Li Tiandao: "Think about it carefully, does this church only have one gate..."

"Yes." Xue Wuhen said in front of him.

"But just now you saw that the door of the ancient church hasn't been opened at all... And there are human footprints here for no reason... If anyone enters and exits the church through the door, there is definitely still The other road leads to the outside...so I'm sure this other road is definitely still in this church."

After Li Tian's explanation, the brothers suddenly woke up.

Li Tian's guess is not bad. There is only one door in this church at the moment, and it is still a door that has never been opened. It is enough to prove that people who enter this church must have come in from another road. And now, Li Tian still has What the brothers are looking for is the second door to enter this ancient church.

After they all understood, they all said: "Tiange is really smart..."

"Then let's quickly look for it and see where there are exits in this church."

As the brothers said so, they began to search in this ancient church.

From front to back, from left to right, they searched bit by bit...

Apart from the abandoned rusty tables and chairs, there was basically nothing in this old church. After searching them, they did not find a second way.

So they continued to search again, this time they almost conducted a carpet search, and they barely let off every inch of the floor of the entire church.

But after searching it again, there was still nothing.

This time, the brothers were all disappointed. I didn't expect each brother to be exhausted enough, but the result was still in vain.

"No? How could there be no second exit?" Xue Wuhen said depressedly while panting.

Then Chen Qiaozhi waved his hand to express helplessness, Wang Zhen was almost like him!

The entire church in front of me was almost completely turned over, but unfortunately there was no second way.

When everyone could hardly find the second exit, they were all disappointed. Only Li Tian was looking around with bright eyes!

He had to find the second exit, because he was sure that there was definitely a second exit in this church, but the brothers had not found it yet.

After he looked around for a while, he suddenly put his eyes on the cross carved with Jesus. After seeing the cross at a glance, Li Tian suddenly felt a lot more open.

Chapter 1817: Quirky mural

Then he took strange steps and walked step by step toward the cross of * in the middle of the ancient church. .

After he walked over in this way, the brothers all looked at him in wonder, and no one knew what he was doing right now.

I saw that after Li Tian walked to the cross of Jesus, he slowly stretched out his hand, and then touched the cross of * in front of him. The surface of the cross of * was carved in plaster, and the carvings were gleaming.

Just after Li Tian stretched out his hand to touch the cross of Jesus, the cross of * moved unexpectedly!

This movement shocked Li Tian. Li Tian stepped back quickly and stared at the cross in front of him with wide-eyed eyes. The brothers were also completely stunned and looked at this side dumbfounded.

As the cross slowly moved to the left, suddenly a deep secret door appeared in the brothers' eyes.

At this moment, the brothers were shocked one by one. They never expected that the second exit would be behind the cross of Jesus... It is indeed incredible, and it is indeed not something ordinary people can find.

"I finally found you." Li Tian said excitedly with a smile on his face.

All the brothers over there ran over excitedly at this time.

"Hey, I didn't expect there to be a secret door here!"

"Brother Tian, how did you discover this secret door? It's really strange..." Xue Wuhen's eyes on the other side were full of worship for Li Tian.

But what about Li Tian? It just smiled faintly.

Then he looked at the hidden door in front of him and said to the brothers: "Now we will enter this hidden path. As for what is in this hidden path, no one of us knows now... But I hope that after we go in, everyone will be careful....."

After Li Tian told the brothers like this, the brothers nodded one by one and said, "Thank you, Brother Tian."

"Well, let's go in this secret tunnel now."

Under Li Tian's leadership, they began to prepare to enter this secret tunnel.

No one knows where this dark tunnel leads to, let alone what secrets there is in this dark tunnel. For Li Tian and the brothers now, they can only take one step and count one step...slowly reveal this layer. The answer to the layer.

As Li Tian was about to lead his brothers into this dark tunnel, he saw that the hole of the dark tunnel was not very big, only about one meter, so Li Tian and his brothers could only bend their bodies and enter this dark tunnel step by step.

After entering, I found that the underpass had a stone ladder, and the position of the stone ladder was leading down, as if the underpass was deep underground.

After all the brothers entered the secret path, the cross of * outside automatically slammed shut.

After closing, the brothers were all startled.

"Why, why is the cross door behind closed?" Xue Wuhen cursed there.

The brothers were also taken aback by this strange behavior...No one knows why the cross door outside suddenly closed automatically.

But at this moment, Xue Wuhen suddenly retreated, trying to push open the cross gate, but he pushed hard a few times and found that the stone gate was not moving at all and couldn't push it open.

"It's grass, the cross door behind it won't open, Brother Tian." Only Xue Wuhen said depressedly.

At this time, the brothers all cast their eyes on Li Tian's face.

Li Tian's face was also full of solemnity.

After thinking about it, I only heard him say: "It seems that there is no turning back...Now, we can only bite the bullet and go forward step by step."

After he said so, the brothers also discovered this grim fact.

Now everyone is looking at the passage ahead, and there is not only a strange shadow on everyone's heart.

In the end, Li Tian said more freely and easily: "Let's go...There must be an exit here."

After he finished speaking, he walked forward one by one, and the brothers followed him one by one.

I saw that this passage was surrounded by hard stone walls. Judging from the construction of this stone wall, it has been at least several decades. I really don't know why this weird Christian church built such a mysterious passage here.

The more you go forward, the more you can feel a decadent breath...

Moreover, this passage was winding and winding, and after a while, the brothers couldn't figure out their minds, so they could only walk and wander around.

Suddenly a faint light appeared in the front place... The light was not the sun's light, nor was it any other light, but the light of a dim electric lamp.

When he saw the light, Li Tian subconsciously signaled the brothers to be careful...because he felt like someone in front of him.

After the brothers discovered this situation, everyone looked at the place in front of them with silent eyes, and started walking forward with very light steps. They wanted to see what was in front of them.

As Li Tian walked over lightly step by step, I saw that the place in front was a dark room...In the middle of this dark room there was a dim light bulb wrapped in iron mesh...

There was no one in the room except some old furniture.

After seeing this weird situation, Li Tian was not only taken aback for a moment, but he said to himself: Since the lights are on here, why is there no one?

After thinking this in his mind, he has entered this dark room.

There are a lot of old furniture in the weird darkroom...These things are 19th century objects, at least decades ago...They were placed in a mess.

Just when the brothers thought this dark room was extremely strange, Li Tian suddenly discovered that the walls of this dark room were covered with strange murals...

After seeing those weird murals, Li Tian shook his heart.

"What does this mural mean?" Li Tian muttered while looking at the murals on the wall.

But seeing that there are colorful and weird murals on the four walls, the murals are vivid, including Christians and some weird fighting scenes...

At this time, the brothers also noticed the weird murals all around, and couldn't help but blink at them one by one.

But the place on the far left should be the beginning of the mural, on which some foreign words that are not understood at all are written: $\eta\tau\rho\alpha\pi\alpha\rho\beta\alpha\sigma\eta$.

Li Tian and the brothers around him certainly don't know these foreign words, so they don't understand what the words mean.

In fact, the word $\eta\tau\rho\alpha\pi\alpha\rho\beta\alpha\sigma\eta$ is Greek, but Li Tian and his brothers don't understand it. The annotation of this word is: failure and shame

Chapter 1818: Coffin and key

Having said that, at this moment, I carefully looked at the murals one by one, and I saw that from the left, a person was painted on the mural, standing there with a sword in his hand, and then looking down. , I saw some Christians wearing crosses and black clothes gradually appeared on the mural...

After Li Tian saw such a weird mural, Li Tian didn't know why, and he suddenly shook his heart, especially when he saw the man with a sword on the mural, his heartbeat was jumping suddenly. So fast, as if he knew the man with the sword on the mural.

Then look at the mural below, and you can gradually see that the Christians on the screen are beating and killing the man with the sword...

The vividly painted murals are truly extremely realistic, and you can even see the scenes of the tragic deaths of Christians...

"These pictures are so weird!" Xue Wuhen on one side said with eyes wide open.

And here, Chen Qiaozhi and Brigadier Wang Zhen still seem to be dumbfounded, looking at the realistic murals in front of them.

What about Li Tian? At this moment, the more I look at the mural, the more weird he feels. At this moment, he has seen a series of killings of the man with the sword on the mural, and finally the gang of Christians are defeated...

Later, when I went to the other wall, I saw that the picture on the other wall was a scene from a foreign place. There were buildings in ancient Rome, and there were many Christians. If Li Tian had been to the pole in Europe If you are a small pope country, you must know that the place painted on this mural is the country known as the country in the city: the Vatican! It is also the biggest birthplace of Christianity... There are countless Christians there... There is also the religious pope who stands on the top of the world's top four popes

On the mural, I saw that the man with the sword actually broke into the Vatican... and also started a * killing.

In the last place of the mural, the man with the sword went to the basement of a holy church, and then it was displayed on the mural. There was a coffin on the underground church, and the surroundings were filled with Christian believers, just like these people They are all guarding the coffin...

On the screen, the man with the sword did not rush to the innermost place, and of course he did not find the huge coffin. He just reached the outside... and then it seemed to have stolen something, the shape of which was taken seriously from the mural. Go and see, it's like a key. After getting the key, he left the holy place of the church...

On the last wall, the man with the sword disappeared...It was painted with Christian believers...From the mural, Li Tian could feel that the anxiety in the expressions of those Christians was like that The key stolen by the sword man seemed extremely crucial to the pope as a whole.

The mural until here, all behind it becomes a blank...

However, Li Tian and his brothers were all stunned after seeing such strange murals with their own eyes.

"This, this, what ghosts are painted on this mural? Why can't I understand any of them?" Xue Wuhen said over there with a depressed expression.

Chen Qiaozhi seemed to have seen some clues, but as for what was going on, he didn't know exactly what was going on, not to mention Brigadier Wang Zhen, who was standing there at the moment in confusion, expressing strangeness.

Only Li Tian stared at the man with the sword on the mural with his unblinking eyes... as if he was fascinated.

"Brother Tian..." Xue Wuhen couldn't help crying while looking at Li Tian in a daze.

It's a pity that Li Tian seemed to be fascinated, completely as if he hadn't heard.

"Brother Tian..." Xue Wuhen, who couldn't help it, increased her voice and shouted Li Tian there.

Only then did Li Tian wake up suddenly.

"Brother Tian, what are you looking at?" Xue Wuhen couldn't help asking curiously as he looked at Li Tian who was fascinated.

But seeing Li Tian staring tightly at the man holding the sword on the mural, he couldn't help but said, "This person...this person...I seem to...like to know him!"

what?

When Li Tian said such a sentence, Xue Wuhen and the brothers around him suddenly screamed.

"No, Brother Tian, the ghosts of these mural paintings are messy... You said... You know that person?" Xue Wuhen couldn't believe Li Tian's words, and said depressed.

Then Chen Qiaozhi and Wang Zhen also expressed their curiosity, looking at Li Tian there.

But seeing that Li Tian didn't mean to be joking at all, on the contrary, his expression was extremely serious and said: "What I said is true."

"I have a feeling that this man with the sword... I definitely know him... and I'm sure I definitely have a relationship with him."

After Li Tian said these words so solemnly, the brothers were speechless. They blinked and looked at the murals in front of them. Although they didn't see it very clearly, they didn't dare to speak any more.

Only after Li Tian had seen the mural for a long time, he slowly retracted his eyes.

Although he didn't know what was painted on the mural, he could feel that the mural seemed to record some ancient deeds. As for what the deeds were, now Li Tian's head is still confused. .

After experiencing the strange murals in this dark room, the brothers are ready to leave this strange dark room.

When they were about to leave, Xue Wuhen suddenly kicked, as if he had hit something. At this moment, not only did he look down, but saw a heavy black book cover falling to the ground.

Xue Wuhen felt strange, so she slowly picked up the heavy book, and after a closer look, it turned out to be a Bible.

Hearing the movement of Xue Wuhen behind him, Li Tian not only turned his head to look, he saw the Bible in Xue Wuhen's hand at a glance.

"Wuhen, what then?" Li Tian asked.

But Jian Xue Wuhen said: "It's a Christian Bible!"

"Show me a look." Li Tian stretched out his hand and said.

Xue Wuhen then handed the heavy bible he picked up to Li Tian in front of him.

After Li Tian took the heavy bible, he patted it slightly for fear of the dust on it, and then opened it slowly. The text on it was written in ancient Latin, so Li Tian could not understand... . . .

However, in this Bible, there is a folded sheet in the middle, as if someone had made a symbol specially.

After Li Tian found out about this situation, he was not only taken aback, and then opened to the folded place to look at it. With his eyes, he saw that the folded place was also a series of Latin characters. There is also a black and white illustration next to it.

There are two paintings on the black and white illustrations. One of them is a weird coffin. On top of the coffin is a lone crow, looking strange and gloomy.

In another painting, it is a key. The shape of the key is very special, like the old European key in the 17th century.

After seeing these two paintings, Li Tian was not only stunned. How could this thing in the Bible resemble the mural on the wall?

Especially this coffin, and this key...

After Li Tian thought this way in his mind, he quickly ran to the wall over there with the Bible in his hand, and then carefully compared and looked at it carefully.

After Li Tian's careful comparison, Li Tian was shocked to discover that the original coffin painted on the wall was the one that appeared in the Bible. The only difference was that the coffin on the top of the Bible stood alone. The crow... and there is no... on the wall

After discovering this situation, Li Tian's heart trembled.

He was thinking carefully about the coffin on the screen and what the relationship between that key was...

It's a pity that no matter how Li Tian thinks with his brain, he will never want to understand. The most depressing thing is that Li Tian can't understand the Latin text at all, so Li Tian can't understand the annotations on the Bible at all.

After seeing Li Tian's expression, the brothers next to him not only felt that Li Tian's behavior was a bit strange, but they didn't bother Li Tian.

But he said that after Li Tian thought about it, he suddenly grabbed the Bible in his hand, and then tore off the page with the coffin and the key with a "hiss" sound.

The brothers felt even more strange when they saw Li Tian tear off a piece of paper from the Bible for no reason.

Xue Wuhen, who couldn't help but doubt, finally opened her mouth and couldn't help but looked at Li Tian and asked, "Brother Tian...what are you doing?"

But seeing that Li Tian did not answer his words immediately, but folded the torn page of paper, and then slowly put it into his pocket.

The brothers were all shocked by Li Tian's weird behavior. No one knew what Li Tian was doing...

After Li Tian saved the piece of paper to himself, he smiled slightly: "Okay, let's go!"

Chen Qiaozhi, Xue Wuhen frowned and looked at him...

"Why look at me with this look?" Li Tianxiao said to the brothers.

But seeing them both shook their heads and said, "We just... think... Brother Tian, you are a little weird."

Li Tian laughed haha.

"I believe you will understand what I am doing now."

"Forget it, let's not mention these things for now, let's find out as soon as possible." Li Tiandao.

After Li Tian said this, the brothers didn't say too much. They followed him there and started to walk forward step by step.

And Li Tian also recovered from the weird state just now, and at this moment led the brothers to walk along this secret path step by step.

Chapter 1819: Waiting for the cafe

After Li Tian and his brothers left this weird dark room, they continued to move along the passage in front of them.

But the more you walk forward, the narrower the passage, and you can only allow another person to move forward at this moment.

Li Tian took the lead and walked ahead alone.

After walking a few meters, Li Tian suddenly seemed to hear something in his ears.

At the moment when he heard the movement, Li Tian turned his head and said to the brothers behind him: "Shhh, there seems to be movement in front."

As he said, the brothers were all cautiously there at the moment, and then looked intently towards the place ahead, while Li Tian was also listening carefully.

After listening, I really heard a sound coming from the front place. The sound seemed to be artificial, but now because of the distance, Li Tian couldn't hear it very clearly.

After Li Tian confirmed that there was indeed movement in front of him, he instructed the brothers to start moving forward step by step.

The brothers followed him carefully one by one, and then slowly started to move forward.

After Li Tian took the brothers step by step forward, he suddenly didn't know why, the sound like a police siren suddenly rang dripping.

The sudden sound of the alarm made Li Tian and the brothers almost startled.

Take a closer look, it turns out that there is a defense system in this passage, and the sound of Didi Di was just because Li Tian and the others had touched the wireless electronic device, so it exploded in an instant.

After the alarm sounded for an instant, the sound of running quickly came from the place in front. It was obvious that Li Tian and the others had already been felt by the other party.

With the sound of the opponent's footsteps running fast, Li Tian couldn't care much at the moment, and said: "Chasing!"

Then he started chasing quickly along this passage. He must chase the mysterious person in front, because only by chasing, can there be clues to find out the whereabouts of the Duguxie and the ghost servant, and the gang who dealt with them. Gringo.

After madly chasing, the brothers behind him also followed Li Tian closely.

I saw Li Tian chasing lifelessly, but the passage in front of him seemed to be very long, and the sound of footsteps in front of him became farther and farther away.

When Li Tian was worried, suddenly the sound of footsteps in front seemed to open a door. He only heard a bang, and then the person disappeared. Li Tian was taken aback, speeding up his pace and chasing forward, and was shocked to see the place in front really There is a door.

Then he chased the door that appeared inexplicably, and after reaching the door, he slammed it open.

After pushing away in shock, he seemed to have entered a warehouse.

And the brothers all chased in at this time. When everyone came in and saw that this was a warehouse, they were not only stunned.

"Where is this place?" the brothers asked in surprise.

"do not know."

"Where is the man who ran wild just now?"

"It must have escaped from here."

"Go out and take a look."

There is only one door in the front of the warehouse, so if the person in the passage just now wants to escape, he must have escaped from here, so the brothers also speeded up their pace at the moment to reach this door, and then pushed it open. .

After pushing away, a scene of horror appeared in the eyes of the brothers.

Cafe?

They are actually in an elegant western-style coffee shop?

And they suddenly emerged from the center of the cafe!

But at this moment, I saw that the coffee shop was full of many gringos who were staring at them in surprise... No one knows what happened to them? How come out of here suddenly?

Li Tian and his brothers? It was even more shocked there.

They didn't know that after opening the door, it turned out to be a coffee shop? It was beyond their expectations.

"Why... why did you get to the coffee shop?" One of Chen Qiao was dumbfounded, and he blinked his eyes in disbelief.

Brigadier Wang Zhen and Xue Wuhen next to him are even more needless to say. The two of them are also completely depressed. With a dull look on the surrounding foreigners who are staring at them...

"This...this...what the * is going on?"

Amidst the surprises of the brothers, only Li Tian remained calm.

He knows that he is very likely to be tricked. From the current state, the place where the old church leads should be here, and the person who ran away just now must be in this cafe... It's just that Li Tianbu I just know who it is.

The current Li Tian looked around, hoping to find the suspicious traces and the guy, but as his eyes looked around, there were some golden hair all around, and the white-skinned foreign guy stared there. Looking at them with big eyes, he couldn't tell who was the one who just ran away at the moment.

After they appeared for dozens of seconds, two waiters suddenly walked over from the cafe.

"Excuse me, sir, what do you do?" The waiter who walked over with two security guards behind him looked at Li Tian and his brothers with bad eyes.

Li Tian didn't respond to the waiter, still staring at the surroundings with a pair of eyes, hoping to find a clue.

The waiter in the restaurant saw that Li Tian didn't speak at all, and was a little angry at the moment: "Hey, sir, I'm talking to you..."

The waiter said, pushing Li Tian with one hand.

It's a pity that just when his fingers were about to touch Li Tian's body, Li Tian's left hand suddenly grabbed his wrist on one side of his body, and then threw the waiter to the ground with a beautiful shoulder over his shoulder!

And the two security guards who were behind the waiter, after seeing that Li Tian put each other on the ground as soon as he took a shot, they were also slightly stunned, standing there not daring to step forward, and the waiter who fell on the ground? He was holding his arm and screaming in pain.

The foreigners around looked at Li Tian with strange eyes, some even pointed at Li Tian and the brothers were talking about it.

Looking at the situation in front of him, Chen Qiaozhi suddenly said to Li Tiandao next to him: "Li Tian, let's leave here..."

Li Tian looked ugly, and after looking around, he nodded helplessly.

In the end, Li Tian led his brothers out of the cafe in front of the strange eyes of the foreigners around him.

"My deed, why did we get here? Brother Tian, look, isn't this the back block of the old church?" After Xue Wuhen walked out in front of him, he saw the church in the front place where they had just entered... ..

Of course, Li Tian and his brothers also saw the church.

"Unexpectedly, the exit of this church leads to here."

"Yeah, it's weird."

"His grandma, I didn't expect to let that guy escape like this...it's a pity." Xue Wuhen next to her said depressedly.

After Xue Wuhen said this, Li Tian slowly turned his head, his eyes were fixed on the cafe that just came out in front of him and suddenly said, "No, that person is definitely still there. Inside this cafe."

"what?"

Xue Wuhen was not only shocked when Li Tian said this.

"I'm sure, he hasn't gone far, definitely in this cafe, but I don't know who he is." Li Tiandao.

The brothers thought for a while and looked at Li Tiandao: "That day, what should I do now, brother?"

Li Tian thought for a while and said, "Wait... I hope we can judge that person from among the people who came out of the cafe."

After Li Tian said this, the brothers did not say too much, so they chose to wait!

Waiting for someone to come out of this cafe.

Chapter 1820: Forcing him

After Li Tian and his brothers left the coffee shop just now, they were sitting in the corner on the left side of the coffee shop. A man wearing black clothes slowly picked up the coffee he had just ordered and swayed there. , There was an extremely strange look in his eyes.

There is still a cross hanging from his neck, and the whole person is sitting motionless there.

This person is the Father Gammarelli.

While he was sitting quietly, he suddenly stretched out his hand and beckoned to a foreign waiter in the cafe.

The waiter was the one who was beaten by Li Tian just now. Seeing Father Gammarelli beckoning at him at the moment, he walked over quickly.

After coming over, I saw Father Gammarelli whispering a few words in his ear.

After he said it, the waiter nodded slowly, saying in English: "Yes, yes!"

The priest Gammarelli smiled at him, then said: "thankyou!"

Then the waiter walked slowly towards the outside of the cafe.

After the waiter walked out of the coffee shop, his eyes swept around, as if looking at something...

"Brother Tian, look, that waiter..." Suddenly Xue Wuhen said, pointing to the waiter at the entrance of the cafe across the street.

Then Li Tian turned his head suddenly when he saw the waiter, he quickly exclaimed: "Quickly, hide yourself...Don't be seen by him."

As Li Tian exclaimed, Xue Wuhen and Chen Qiaozhi in front of them quickly found a place to hide, and then carefully looked at the waiter there...

"Brother Tian, what is that guy doing?" Xue Wuhen asked suspiciously.

But seeing Li Tiandao said: "If I'm right, he must have come out to find us."

"Looking for us? What do you mean? Why did he look for us?" Xue Wuhen didn't understand what Li Tian meant for a while.

Li Tian didn't speak any more, but stared at the waiter with his bright eyes.

But he said that the waiter was looking around for a long time, which was considered relieved, and then slowly walked into the coffee shop.

After he walked in, he saw Brigadier Wang Zhen and asked: "Li Tian, what does the waiter mean when he comes out? Why don't I understand?"

But I heard Li Tian explain there, "There must be someone let him out! And that person is definitely the person we are looking for! I believe that guy also guessed that we will wait for him outside this cafe. So first send a waiter out to check the situation..."

After Li Tian said this, the brothers suddenly realized that this is the case! No wonder after the waiter of the cafe came out, the eyes on the left and right were watching...

"Who the * is that?" Xue Wuhen looked at Li Tiandao.

"He will come out soon, soon." After Li Tian said this, a smile appeared on the corner of his mouth, with a confident look.

But he said that after the waiter quickly walked into the coffee shop, then he quickly walked towards the priest Gammarelli.

After reaching the Father Gammarelli, he said in fluent English: "The guys outside have gone..."

Father Gammarelli heard the waiter say this, a slight smile appeared at the corner of his mouth, then reached out his hand to pat the waiter's shoulder, smiled and said, "Thank you, trouble you... May God bless you!"

After Father Gammarelli said this, he stood up from his seat all of a sudden, then looked around and walked towards the outside of the cafe.

Pushing open the door of the cafe, Father Gammarelli glanced around carefully and found that there was no suspicious person, then slowly wrapped his black coat and walked slowly towards the crowd. go with.

"Brother Tian, come out, someone has really come out." Xue Wuhen screamed excitedly when he saw Father Gammarelli walking out of the cafe.

Li Tian had already observed it, and said at this moment: "I saw it."

"Is this guy secretly saying in the ancient church just now?" Wang Zhen looked at Li Tian suspiciously and asked.

Li Tian confirmed: "One hundred percent yes."

"Go, follow him." Li Tian said directly at the moment.

After Li Tian finished saying this, all the brothers quickly walked towards the street, and then followed the priest Gammarelli closely.

I saw Father Gammarelli walking forward step by step, and did not notice Li Tian and his brothers behind him.

And brothers? They didn't startle the snake, they just followed the foreigner closely, they wanted to know where the * foreigner was going.

I saw that after the priest Gammarelli walked out of a block, he suddenly seemed to feel something, and suddenly stopped there. This situation made Li Tian and the brothers who followed him startled, and he quickly stopped. Then he pretended to be a stranger there to cover.

Father Gammarelli stopped for about 34 seconds, then suddenly wrapped his coat again, and then walked forward again.

It's just that this time his footsteps speeded up significantly.

When Li Tian and his brothers saw that Father Gammarelli speeded up and walked away, they all secretly said: It seems that the other party is already alert.

"Wuhen, Qiao Zhi, it seems that this person has already found our tracks... They must not be allowed to escape like this!"

"You two walk from here, blocking his way... Wang Zhen and I walk from here, and follow him closely. Remember, you must not let him escape, even if you use hard means, you must stop him. Take it for me."

After Li Tian finished saying this, Xue Wuhen and Chen Qiaozhi nodded quickly.

"Understood, Brother Tian." Then the two stopped at a very fast speed from a shortcut around the bend.

However, Li Tian and Wang Zhen quickly chased after Father Gammarelli.

Father Gammarelli clearly knew that, at this moment, his pace was getting faster and faster, and he walked forward like flying.

After reaching the place in front, the priest Gammarelli suddenly turned around and walked towards an empty block.

And this block happened to be the area where Li Tian had expected him to go. At this moment, Chen Qiaozhi and Xue Wuhen had already stood at one end of the block on the other side, waiting for Father Gammarelli.

After Father Gammarelli suddenly turned around and reached this block, his face became ugly, because he had seen Chen Qiaozhi and Xue Wuhen standing in front of him... blocking his way.

At this time later, Li Tian and Brigadier Wang Zhen also rushed over at this moment, behind him.

Outflanking, the priest Gammarelli finally had nowhere to go.

He slowly slowed down, raised his jewel-like blue eyes and glanced at Chen Qiaozhi and Xue Wuhen in front of him, and then slightly turned his head and glanced at Li Tian and Brigadier Wang Zhen behind him, suddenly. Stop there.

After he stopped, Li Tian behind him also stopped when he reached a distance of 34 meters from his body.

Everyone is looking at this Father Gammarelli right now.

Suddenly, it was the priest Gammarelli who spoke first. He looked at Xue Wuhen Chen Qiaozhi in front, and Li Tian and Wang Zhen in the back. Suddenly, he spoke a large number of English words, and his expression appeared Very surprised and weird.

Listening to his English speaking, Li Tian certainly couldn't understand.

At this moment, Li Tian can only ask Brigadier Wang Zhen: "Brigadier Wang, what is this foreigner talking about?"

Just listened to Wang Zhen's mouth with a sneer: "This foreigner is asking, why are we following him? Are we going to rob his money?"

But after seeing Li Tian listened, he said coldly: "Tell this foreigner, don't pretend to be garlic in front of me! Let him show his true colors!"

Hearing what Li Tian said, the commander Wang Zhen translated it in English to Father Gammarelli.

After Brigadier Wang Zhen translated Li Tian's words in English, Father Gammarelli's expression became slightly ugly.

But still pretending to be innocent there and saying a lot of things in English.

"This dead foreigner doesn't admit it... He said he was doing business in Binjiang City... and said, did we admit the wrong person?" Wang Zhen translated the words of Father Gammarelli to Li Tian.

After Li Tian heard Brigadier Wang Zhen's translation, a sneer suddenly appeared at the corner of his mouth: "He doesn't admit it? Then I will force him to admit it!"

As Li Tian finished speaking, he saw his body suddenly flew towards Father Gammarelli like a lunge, one hand was like a dragon detective hand, grabbing directly to the face of Father Gammarelli, and the other hand was Directly hitting Father Gammarelli's chest, the speed of his shot was amazing, and it was simply dizzying!

But he said that with Li Tian's rapid explosion, Father Gammarelli first showed a shocked and scared expression, his expression was as if he was really just an ordinary person...

But what about Li Tian? There was no intention of closing his hands. Both hands hit the priest Gammarelli straight. Just when Li Tian's hands were about to hit the priest Gammarelli, the ordinary breath of Father Gammarelli was at this moment. It suddenly changed, becoming cold and gloomy, and even his jewel-like blue eyes became insidious.
