

A Killer 1841

Chapter 1841: Key of destiny

Li Tian next to her looked at her without disturbing her!

It took a long time before I heard Fairy Baihua suddenly say: "I know... I know!"

"Auntie Hua, what's the matter?" Li Tian looked at the shocked Baihua Fairy and asked quickly.

After Li Tian asked, the fairy Baihua said, "I know what the key is..."

"What key?" Li Tian asked quickly.

"Presumably that key is the old key that the eldest brother held when he came back... I remember that when the eldest brother came back from the Vatican, his expression was extremely solemn, and he paid special attention to the key in his hand... Said, that key is related to a big secret." Fairy Baihua said.

Listening to Fairy Baihua saying this, Li Tian almost understood that the Vatican's "Key of Destiny" seemed to have been stolen by his father back then!

But what secret is contained in the key of fate? Li Tian didn't know.

At this moment, Li Tian looked at the Baihua Fairy and not only asked, "Auntie Hua, in the years that followed, did my father tell you about the key?" Li Tian hopes to get some useful information from Baihua Fairy. Clues!

But seeing the fairy Baihua in front of him shook his head slightly.

"Since my eldest brother came back from the Vatican, he has rarely mentioned things there, so we didn't ask too much anymore!" Fairy Baihua said.

Listening to Fairy Baihua saying this, Li Tian was silent for a while, and after thinking about it carefully, he suddenly looked at Fairy Baihua and asked, "Auntie Hua, do you remember the look of the key?"

After Li Tian suddenly asked this, the fairy Baihua said embarrassingly: "I may...may not remember...after all, more than 20 years have passed!"

"However, that key is very weird. It is the same as the European key in the fifteenth century. If I can see that key, I believe that I should have some impression in my mind." Baihua Fairy murmured.

After Fairy Baihua said so, Li Tian said excitedly: "Auntie Hua still remembers the outline of the key, that's great!"

Fairy Baihua did not understand Li Tian's words, and not only stared at Li Tian...

"Tian'er...what's wrong?"

"Look at Auntie Hua!" As Li Tian said, he quickly took out a folded piece of paper from his pocket.

After taking out this folded paper, Bai Hua Fairy was not only startled! Looking at Li Tian wonderingly.

"What is this?" Fairy Baihua asked in a puzzled way.

But seeing Li Tian opening the folded paper, he said to Fairy Baihua in front of him: "Auntie Hua, after you read it, you will naturally understand."

As Li Tian said this, he had slowly opened the piece of paper, and then handed it to Fairy Baihua in front of him.

The Baihua Fairy felt that Li Tian was a little strange, so he raised his slender hand and took the piece of paper in a puzzled look, but saw that the piece of paper was torn off, and there were pictures and text on it, as well as unreadable text !

"This is?" Fairy Baihua looked at the piece of paper in wonder, and muttered.

"Auntie Hua, look at the second picture!" Li Tian reminded the fairy Baihua in front of him.

After Li Tian's reminder, the Baihua Fairy was taken aback, and then Meimou placed her betting on the second black and white illustration. Following Meimou's look, she saw the weird key...

"key?"

"This key..." Fairy Baihua suddenly recalled!

Then he pointed his finger at the picture on the piece of paper with excitement and said, "This is the key...this is the key that the eldest brother brought back back then!"

After Baihua Fairy said so excitedly, Li Tian finally did not waste all his efforts.

He happily said, "Auntie Hua, this key is the key of fate my father took away from the Vatican, right?"

"Yes, absolutely! I remember, I definitely remember." Fairy Baihua said.

"Great! It seems that everything is related to this weird key." Li Tiandao.

"Tian'er, where did you get this piece of paper?" Fairy Baihua looked at Li Tian and asked with a puzzled expression.

After she asked, Li Tian smiled slightly and said, "I tore it from a Bible."

what?

Fairy Baihua obviously didn't understand Li Tian's words.

Then Li Tian told the story about breaking into the church before, seeing the pictures of the stone walls on the church, and finally finding the old black Bible.

After saying it, Fairy Baihua finally understood what was going on!

"Now I finally understand why those Vatican foreigners have come to China... I also know why they are dealing with me, but there is one thing I don't quite understand now." Li Tian's eyes suddenly stared in his hands. That said on the folded paper.

Fairy Baihua looked at Li Tian and asked, "What's the matter?"

"What kind of key is this key? Why do those Christian gringos take this key so seriously? After so many years, they are so reluctant to find this key..." Li Heavenly.

Fairy Baihua thought for a while and said, "I don't know...but there are many messy canons in religion...presumably the key that the eldest brother took should be the holy thing they taught!"

Li Tian did not speak, and was silent for a while and said, "I think only by translating the Latin text on this piece of paper will I know what the key is for!"

Following Li Tian's words, Fairy Baihua also placed her beautiful eyes on the ancient Latin characters on the piece of paper.

"Auntie Hua, let me go to my grandfather... I asked him to help find a high-achieving student in the military area, and then help me translate the ancient Latin characters on this piece of paper." Li Tian said suddenly there.

Hearing what Li Tian said, the fairy Baihua nodded and said, "That's good!"

So just like that, Li Tian hurried to find his grandfather! He is now anxious to know the secret of that key in his heart, and also wants to know the weird secret of another picture on that piece of paper!

After Li Tian quickly found his grandfather, the two of them exchanged greetings for a while!

Then Li Tian told his thoughts to Commander Mu. After hearing Li Tian's words, Commander Mu immediately said to the guards beside him: "Xiao Zhang, you go call Chief of Staff Lu and let him Hurry up and find some top students from Tsinghua University... Remember, find me more! Speed!"

After hearing the old commander say this, the guard stood up and said, "Yes!"

Then he ran down quickly!

Li Tian was so happy to see his grandfather so refreshed!

"Heaven, what is this piece of paper, is it so important?" Commander Mu asked curiously, looking at the piece of paper in Li Tian's hand.

But see Li Tiandao: "Grandpa, don't underestimate this paper! It is too important to me at the moment!"

"Moreover, there are some secrets about my father involved..." Li Tian said slowly!

After mentioning Cthulhu, the old Commander Mu didn't speak anymore... I saw the old Commander sighed slightly, and was silent for a while, then suddenly looked at Li Tiandao: "God, you really want your father to pay Have a mother?"

When Li Tian heard his grandfather say this, he couldn't help but nodded silently there!

"Actually...actually... the old man also thinks! I miss them too!" Commander Mu suddenly said in sorrow.

Looking at Mu Yunlong in his twilight years, Li Tian called out distressedly: "Grandpa..."

But seeing Commander Mu slightly turned around, his Long Jiong eyes were a little red... He blinked vigorously, and then said: "I am all to blame... I was too stubborn... it was me. Indirectly harmed them!" Commander Mu suddenly rebuked himself!

"Grandpa, how can you blame you for all this?"

"Don't blame yourself too much... okay?" Li Tian walked over and supported the old Commander Mu with concern.

But seeing Commander Mu deeply holding the snow-white hair in those hands, he was bitterly silent and stopped talking!

More than twenty years ago, Cthulhu combined with Commander Mu's most beloved daughter... This incident could have been said to be a happy thing, but I didn't expect it to end up unhappily! So that when the evil * and Mu Wanqiu were killed, the old commander of the North China Field Army didn't know... he only knew afterwards!

But what's the use if you know it? Everything is over... The evil * has disappeared, and his daughter is gone... Some people say that their evil * and his lover were killed and buried in the sea of fire. Others said that they had retired... Going to live a happy life... But what about the real result? As a result, Commander Mu lost the person he loved the most, and the person he cherished the most!

Chapter 1842: Translation notes

After a while, I saw a few men in military uniforms walking outside.

The headed one wore gold glasses and looked at the gentleman, carrying a man with the rank of two-bar and one-star second lieutenant on his shoulders. Behind him was two lanky soldiers who looked quite young, from the outside. Walked in.

"Commander-in-chief!" After they entered the commanding room of the commander-in-chief again, they stood there.

Commander Mu glanced at a few people, waved his hand slightly, and said to the soldier wearing glasses: "Chief of Staff Lu, come here... my grandson wants you to help!"

As Commander Mu said so, the man named Chief of Staff Lu saw Li Tian at this moment.

So he strode over and looked at Li Tian with a smile: "Hello! Is there anything I can help?"

Therefore, Li Tian was not polite. He directly took out the folded paper from his arms and handed it to Chief of Staff Lu in front of him, saying, "I want to trouble you to help me translate the Latin text on this paper!"

After Li Tian said this, the Chief of Staff Nalu reached out and took the paper that Li Tian handed over.

After opening it, Chief of Staff Lu glanced at the content on the piece of paper, and then said to a young man in military uniform behind him: "Xiao Zhou, come over and see how these words are translated..."

After he said it, the young soldier at the back quickly walked over.

This Xiao Zhou is a high-achieving student who graduated from Tsinghua University, specializing in European literature and history, so he has a good understanding of ancient Latin characters and ancient Roman characters. After getting the paper, he will read it.

Li Tian walked over, looked at the soldier named Xiao Zhou and asked, "What is written on this?"

Following Li Tianwen's exit, I saw that Xiao Zhou pointed to the piece of paper and said, "This should be torn from the religious bible of the Vatican..."

Li Tian laughed immediately when he heard this Xiao Zhou say.

"You guessed it right, I actually tore this paper from a Bible."

But Jian Xiao Zhou said: "No wonder, this is an ancient religious text."

Li Tian asked, "Tell me, please tell me, what do the words written on this mean?"

Just listen to that Xiao Zhou said: "The text above is a text explanation explaining the two patterns!"

"The first picture, the coffin that appeared on it, and the comment on it said: The home of the messenger of Satan. The following text reads: You have desecrated your sanctuary because of your many sins and unfair trade. Therefore, I make fire emanating from among you and burn you out, turning you into ashes on the ground in front of all those watching, making you fall into the nine heavens of hell, and hide your whole body in an icy coffin. May the heavenly Father blaspheme Your sin..."

After that Xiao Zhou said this, Li Tian was not only taken aback.

The messenger of Satan?

Although Li Tian is not very clear about the history of European religion, he knows the story of Satan!

Legend has it that the devil Satan is a dark fallen angel. He was beaten down to * by the heavenly Father because of his sins... and later became the devil of hell.

And listening to Xiao Zhou's explanation in the following text, Li Tian roughly understood one thing, that is, the coffin above this pattern should contain the messenger of "Satan".

After listening to what Xiao Zhou said, Li Tian not only frowned tightly, looked at the weird coffin, and couldn't help but lining up in his heart: Is this description true or false? Could it be that this coffin is really an evil devil?

While Li Tian was puzzled, Xiao Zhou in front of him smiled at Li Tian and said: "There are more or less legendary stories in religion... Under normal circumstances, what is described in the Bible is false. Things, we don't need to struggle too much!"

When Li Tian heard him say this, he didn't make any excuses. He just smiled and pointed to the key in the second picture and said: "Tell me about the text notes on this key..."

Xiao Zhou said, "Okay!"

So I began to talk: "This second picture, the annotation above is: the key of destiny..."

After hearing Xiao Zhou's words "the key of destiny" suddenly, he immediately shook his heart!

It seems that my guess is not wrong at all. The key drawn in the second illustration above is really the key of fate!

After that Xiao Zhou said this, he only began to translate the following text: "Open the door of evil, let the endless demons return to the earth, and the souls will be charred. The root of the evil comes from the ancient forbidden curse. May the Father in heaven use flames. Burn this ominous key and throw it into the endless emptiness, otherwise, the devil will take advantage of the void and slaughter all beings!"

The little Monday finished the old Latin script on it one by one.

When he read this sentence, everyone standing around was not only stunned.

All of them were not only staring at Xiao Zhou who had their eyes widened there! What about Li Tian? It was even more shocked!

Of course he heard that Xiao Zhou's words carefully just now, and at the same time, his eyes widened and stared at the "Key of Destiny!" on the second illustration in front of him.

"Xiao Zhou, did you translate it right? Well, the key on the second picture is so weird?" After hearing Chief of Staff Na Lu came over, he asked Xiao Zhou with an unhappy expression.

But see Xiao Zhou: "Report to the Chief of Staff, my translation will not go wrong! This is how the ancient text is written."

Hearing what Xiao Zhou said, the Chief of Staff Lu in front of him was taken aback, and then said: "Those legendary things in Western countries are not easy to use in our country...what demons and angels are all shit... "

Li Tian knows what the Chief of Staff Nalu means! Not because of anything else, but because the key to fate in the text just now is so weird and terrible!

The above actually said that this key of fate is an ominous thing! And also said that this key can open the door of evil...resurrect the devil? real or fake?

For the soldiers in front of them, of course, they would not believe the stuff in the Bible, but what about Li Tian?

I saw that Li Tian didn't say a word at this moment, but stood there quietly, raised his eyes, looking at the second illustration on the torn piece of paper weirdly: the key of destiny!

"Chief of Staff Lu, go down!" Commander Mu, who had been silent for a while, suddenly said to Chief of Staff Lu who was in front of him.

After hearing the commander-in-chief in front of him say this, Chief of Staff Nalu said: Yes!

Then he left here with the two top students!

Chapter 1843: Practice begins

After the Chief of Staff Lu left with two senior students in front of him, Commander Mu slowly turned his eyes to look at Li Tian in front of him.

"God, do you believe the nonsense they said just now?"

When Li Tian heard his grandfather say this, he smiled slightly without answering.

"The things in the Bible can't stand scrutiny, most of them are wicked stuff...it can't be true!" Commander Mu said again.

Li Tian just spoke now, only to hear him slowly say: "But, grandpa, I always think this key is a bit weird!"

"Think about it, if this thing called the key of destiny is really ordinary... then how could the followers of the Vatican chase here to * their prisoner's key... and these two I haven't stopped for ten years!" Li Tiandao.

Listening to Li Tian's words, the old Commander Mu also paused slightly without making a sound. Obviously, the old Commander also felt very strange.

"Tian'er, do you believe the comment on this waste paper?" Commander Mu asked.

Li Tian thought for a while, looked at the torn-off piece of paper in his hand, and said, "I don't believe it yet! But I believe it won't be long before I will understand!"

Commander Mu didn't say much, he smiled slightly and said, "Okay! Anyway, you can handle this by yourself!"

"OK."

After Li Tian left the command room of the commander-in-chief, he was thinking of the weird annotations all the way!

He still remembered what the young soldier said in his mind!

The coffin above the first picture, the comment says: Inside is the messenger of Satan!

The key of destiny painted on the second pattern explains: It opens the door to the birth of the devil!

Thinking of this in his mind, Li Tian felt more and more weird!

However, no matter how he thinks about it now, he can't figure it out. What he wants to do now is the current thing, so after sorting out the thoughts in his mind, he went back to his brothers.

In the room, the brothers were all waiting for him. After seeing Li Tian come back, they all leaned forward and couldn't help asking, "Brother Tian, how is it? Did they translate the contents of the paper?"

As they asked, Li Tian told them the matter briefly. After speaking, the expressions of everyone in the brothers were quite depressed! I don't even believe that comment...

Just listen to Li Tian said to the brothers: "At present, no matter whether the comment is true or false, it is of little use to us... This matter, I hope everyone puts it aside! We now first Two things I did: First, cure the Duguxie and the ghost servant as soon as possible, and second, I want to start practicing now!"

Practice? When Li Tian said this, my brothers were taken aback!

Just listen to Li Tian's resolute gaze: "Yes! I think my brothers have already seen that our strength is too weak... we can't fight the * gate and the foreign countries that are in great danger. Guy, and...and that * named Long!"

The * named Long?

After Li Tian said this sentence all at once, the brothers were all startled.

"Dragon, Long Yin?"

"Brother Tian, isn't that * perverted Long Yin already blown to death in the dead kiln mine? Why... why worry about him?" the brother on one side asked Li Tian, who was looking at him with a puzzled face. .

But seeing Li Tian looked extremely solemn, and slowly said, "Although the dead kiln mine did explode at the time, whether the demon was really dead, no one knows so far... ..Not to mention that you and I did not see his body. If anyone in this world can survive such an environment, I believe that person is a perverted Long Yin! So I am worried...I am worried that he is not dead !"

After Li Tian said this, my brothers all felt that this was true.

After listening to Li Tian's words, everyone said: "Well, then, if he really is not dead, what can he do?"

"Furthermore, that perverted Long Yin also practiced an extremely terrifying martial arts..."

After the brothers said this, Li Tian solemnly frowned and said, "That's why I have to start practicing today!"

After Li Tian said this, everyone fell silent!

Practice!

Starting today, Li Tian is ready to practice!

No one understands the situation better than in his heart! Li Tian can now say that except for his brothers and relatives, all outside are cold-blooded demon. They all want to die on their own, and they all want to be unable to survive in this world, no matter it is the gate of hell, Or the perverted Long Yin... or the Vatican who is now budding... These people hate themselves! Since these people all want to die by themselves, Li Tian will go against the sky. They must be shown to see who will die in the end!

After making this decision in his heart, Li Tian told the girls he loved and his brothers about his plan!

But seeing the room, Fairy Baihua, Situ Ningbing, Duanmuying, and Ouyang Shiqing heard Li Tian say this, everyone was silent.

In the end, Situ Ningbing spoke. She looked at Li Tiandao affectionately, "No matter what decision you make, I will support you!"

When Li Tian listened to his favorite Situ Ningbing, his heart was warm!

Ouyang Shiqing on the other side also glanced at Li Tian with Meimu's support, and Duanmuying did the same!

"Tian'er, since you want to practice... Then Aunt Hua can't say anything... I just hope you don't make yourself too tired! Okay?" Fairy Baihua looked at Li Tiandao distressedly.

Li Tian looked at Fairy Baihua and said, "Auntie Hua, please rest assured!"

Then he turned his head and looked at his brothers and said: "During this time, I may stay alone for a while, and you all stay in the North China Field Army safely... If you have any problems, please call Aunt Hua first. solve....."

Hearing what Li Tian said, all the brothers nodded there, saying, "Okay!"

"that's fine!"

"And Anan!" Li Tian suddenly focused his eyes on that Anan.

But seeing Anan standing there with round eyes open, looking at Li Tian.

"I heard, you want to be a soldier in my grandfather's army, don't you?" Li Tian asked suddenly.

Originally, after this Anan followed Li Tian to the North China Field Military Region, he imagined that he could be a soldier! Especially seeing all the soldiers here holding guns and heroic looks, I am even more envious, so he mentioned this to Li Tian before! But at that time, because Anan was a little young, Li Tian didn't agree much! Now Li Tian suddenly mentioned this matter...

But seeing Anan heard Li Tian say this, he blushed and nodded vigorously.

Li Tian smiled slightly and said, "Since you want to be a soldier... Then I promise you, I will notify Brigadier Wang Zhen and let you stay in his brigade..."

"Thank you, thank you!" Hearing that Li Tian actually agreed, Anan was naturally very excited!

Anan now has no father and no mother. He doesn't know anyone anymore except Li Tian, so being able to serve as a soldier and have a place here is a blessing for him!

After Li Tian arranged everything, he really began to plan to cultivate!

The place where he practiced was personally selected by Commander Mu, and it was the air defense base in the cave behind the North China Field Army! The air defense base was empty and huge, and it was guarded by the army outside. No one could enter. For Li Tian's retreat, it was undoubtedly the best thing! Therefore, when Li Tian heard that there was such a place, of course he was extremely happy!

After choosing a place, Li Tian bid farewell to his brothers and the women he loved one by one!

He doesn't know how long this training will take, or what he will look like after he has cultivated... But he knows that if he doesn't cultivate, he will never be able to fight the * gate master. There is that perverted Long Yin!

Chapter 1844: Invincible

The kung fu that Li Tian practiced was naturally the "Mah Wuliang" given to him by the old man Wuji. .

Although it is said that this "Blessed Moha" has been handed over to the silly man's practice before, but from the current state, Li Tian needs "Blessed Moha" to improve his skills!

Besides, although the silly man'er is a martial arts prodigy, he is not more suitable for this martial art than Li Tian. So far, the silly man'er has only reached the fifth level, but for him, who has a strong innate advantage, now he How terrible is it? I'm afraid no one knows.

What about Li Tian? Have reached the seventh level!

After Li Tian got Maha Wuliang, he went to the air-raid shelter behind the military area alone!

Originally, the brothers still had Situ Ningbing who loved him and others wanted to send him off, but he was refused by himself. He said that he wanted to come here to practice alone, and the brothers who could not help could only watch. Leave Li Tian!

Looking at the back of Li Tian away, a feeling of reluctance was born in everyone's heart!

"Brother Tian is cultivating this time, I don't know how long it will take... Hey!" Xue Wuhen sighed while looking at Li Tian's back!

Tang Xiaolong was also there looking at Li Tian's back and said, "Yes, I can't see the little boss, brothers think!"

"Don't be like a lady, I believe the son will definitely cultivate well soon." Na Jiang Dashan said with a grin.

Although he said so, there was a deep feeling of reluctance in his eyes.

In this way, Li Tian walked alone towards the air-raid shelter behind the North China Field Army!

The back mountain is not very far from the North China Field Military Command, but there is a barren wood in the middle, and the road is very rugged. After Li Tian walked through this barren wood alone, he saw the back mountain station from a distance. There were 67 soldiers standing there waiting for him.

Those 67 soldiers were soldiers guarding the air-raid shelters. They had already been notified of Li Tianlai's cultivation, so they were waiting for him there early.

After seeing them, Li Tian walked over quickly.

After coming over, the soldiers greeted him. After a brief greeting, Li Tian understood that these people were sent here by his grandfather to protect himself in meditation.

All of them are fully armed and physique. People will know at a glance that these soldiers are definitely skilled roles.

After speaking some words, one of the burly soldiers with thick eyebrows said to Li Tiandao, "This is an air-raid shelter!"

As he stretched out his hand, Li Tian saw the tall iron gate, which was inlaid on the back mountain, mighty and domineering, with the icon of the North China Field Army engraved on it.

After Li Tian took a look, he smiled slightly.

"Thank you..."

"You are welcome, this is what we should do." said the soldier

"You will cultivate here in the future... Leave the rest to us... We will absolutely guarantee your retreat." said the soldier.

After they finished speaking, Li Tian thanked them, and then prepared to enter the air-raid shelter.

After the soldier pressed the mechanism of the air-raid shelter, the heavy iron gate rumbly opened, and a huge cave appeared in front of Li Tian.

Li Tian glanced at it, but saw that there were rows of military fighters in the air-raid shelter, but these military fighters seemed to have not been used for a long time. They were stored in the air-raid shelter and covered with dust.

There is also a row of heavy armored vehicles on the left, and some thl long-range bombing missiles!

Looking at these advanced weapons, Li Tian not only frowned slightly, but he still walked slowly inside.

After arriving inside, I saw a semi-enclosed cave inside. The cave looked like a storage room, but it was completely abandoned now!

Li Tian felt that this place was good for his cultivation, so he decided to practice in this semi-enclosed cave!

After slowly putting the items he used on the ground, he let out a sigh of relief. First he blinked his eyes and glanced at the quiet surroundings... Then he slowly sat cross-legged. Above the stone.

To be honest, this air-raid shelter is indeed very good practice. Although there is no fragrance of birds and flowers, it is very quiet. It seems that you can hear the sound of heartbeat.

The most important state of Maha's immeasurable cultivation is: do not hate, do not think, do not desire, do not do. So calmness is the most important point.

After his eyes got acquainted with the surrounding situation for a while, Li Tian was about to start practicing!

I saw him slowly take out "Mah Boundless", then slowly spread out the Maha Boundless with his hands, and his eyes were placed on it.

Now his Maha Wuliang has cultivated to the seventh level...There are only the last two levels left, the eighth level: the only one, and the ninth level: gods and demons!

The last two levels, once heard from the old man Wuji, are extremely difficult when practicing, especially the last level: gods and demons!

If there is a mistake in the cultivation, the consequences will be unimaginable, and it is very likely to fall into the infernal hell, so there must be no slight mistake in Li Tian's practice!

At this moment, he saw his eyes slowly watching the words on the eighth layer. I am the only one!

This unique magical skill is the essence of Wuji old man's martial arts for more than three hundred years. The skill is supreme. Needless to say, it is of course harder to practice.

What's more, there is the last layer of this immeasurable Maha: gods and demons!

The old man Wuji once said that Maha Wuliang originally had only eight levels of mind. The ninth level was added by him in the years to come, and the kung fu above the gods and demons, to be honest, even the old man Wuji never learned, because the martial arts recorded above is not the martial arts of the old man Wuji at all, but the terrifying martial arts of the four demon men who guarded the top of the Tianshan Mountains and lived for several lifetimes...

But for Li Tian now, he doesn't need to struggle so much! He doesn't have to worry about whose martial arts is, as long as he can become stronger and become a martial arts capable of revenge, Li Tian will definitely learn it! And now Li Tian is about to begin to practice that: the eighth level of the immeasurable Maha is self-sovereign.

Following his eyes, he saw that densely packed formula appeared in his eyes.

"Only I am the world, so far!"

The eight eye-catching characters appeared in Li Tian's eyes like a ferocious dragon and snake! To be honest, Li Tian has practiced Maha Wuliang for the seventh level, but he has never felt so nervous in his heart.

Then he began to look at the eighth-layer mental mantra, which is so solemn, but he saw that the eighth-layer mental mantra is divided into three levels. The first layer is the Taiji Qi-gathering method, which makes a warm innocence. Dantian flowed to Zhensuo Rendu Chong's "Yin Qiaoku" of the Three Meridians, turning towards the "Weilv Pass". Then go up in two branches, go up through the "Roller Pass" on both sides of the fourteenth vertebra of the lumbar spine, pass through the shoulders, back, and neck to the "Yuzhen Pass". Going over the top of the head, divide into five ways and descend, and the whole body will be divided into two main and secondary branches. It is also in the dantian, enters the orifice and returns to the original. After this cycle for a week, the body will be filled with nectar and the qi in the dantian will be like cigarette Wandering around and leisurely, that is the "Tai Chi Gathering Qi" method. After practicing this exercise for one year, you can practice the next step.

To put it plainly, this "Tai Chi Gathering Qi" is a method that penetrates the Yin and Yang to guide the true Qi of the whole body. If the cultivation is successful, the true Qi in Li Tian's body will have a qualitative increase. Although Li Tian has opened the profound door of life and death, and I have also learned the vast inner powers such as the unity of the universe and the universe, but they have never condensed these qi together. Now if I can practice the "Tai Chi Gathering Method", I will be able to gather all the internal forces I learned before. So as to reach the highest state of the unity of human and realm.

After Li Tian saw the formula of "Tai Chi Gathering Qi", he was not only depressed, he was depressed because of the last sentence: After practicing this exercise for one year, he can practice the next step!

"One year?" Li Tian suddenly hurt when he saw these two words!

Why does it take such a long time?

Of course he would not know how many years the old man Wuji, who took nearly three hundred years to comprehend this skill, spent cultivating this Taiji Qi gathering...

Regardless, Li Tian couldn't accept Tai Chi gathering Qi for one year!

He thought to himself that he would never stay in this place for a year...Because in that case, what would his brothers do? Situ Ningbing and Duanmuying, what about Ouyang Shiqing and the others?

Therefore, Li Tian will definitely not spend a year to practice, he must learn this Qi gathering method in the shortest time.

Finished talking about the first level: Tai Chi Gathering Qi, but the second level of this solo is: Heaven and Earth One Qi!

"Things are mixed into heaven and earth, and Taoism naturally moves on the contrary. The snowy waves transform into the universe by itself, and the emptiness is like a valley without cliffs and banks. The great achievement is like a lack of surplus and rushing, and all things turn into one. When you move, the work is like ten thousand ways. When this work is done, the world will shake and everything will rise and fall!"

This is the key to the formula of the world together!

Li Tian looked at the real qi of heaven and earth, and only felt that the blood in his body seemed to be surging rapidly. Although he has not yet practiced, he can still feel the domineering power of the formula. If he can cultivate it, wouldn't he be alone. The world?

After watching the first two layers, Li Tian finally put his eyes on the last layer!

The last layer is: the return of all laws!

There is no comment on the return of all laws: there is only one sentence: everything is empty, I am the universe!

When he saw these eight characters, Li Tian was completely stunned!

Crazy eight characters...arrogant eight characters!

Everything is empty, I am the universe!

After completing the eighth level of the Maha Wuliang cultivation, can it really be invincible between heaven and earth?

Li Tian doesn't know now.

He only knows that his blood has never boiled so much...as if there is a hot fire burning in his heart...

He wants to learn! To learn this solitaire!

Chapter 1845: Ouyang Zhengtian leaves

Li Tian started to sit still after watching this unique meritorious work!

He adjusted his breathing, and then allowed the whole person to reach a state of extreme relaxation. Only then did he begin to look at the first level of the solo: Tai Chi Gathering Qi!

"False Dao nourishes the form, the true way nourishes the spirit, those who pass this way can survive and die, the gods can fly, and can move mountains, and the shape is ashes. The sea of qi is full, the sea of qi is full, the mind is calm and calm, and the body will last forever, the gods change, haunt freely, the cliffs are thousands of miles away, and there is no obstacle to living."

After reading the mental method of Tai Chi Gathering Qi, Li Tian slowly gathered his hands in his dantian, and then guided that qi to flow slowly throughout his body!

It's a pity that this zhenqi can accumulate so well. Just after the first practice, Li Tian couldn't condense a trace of zhenqi, only felt that the complex qi flowing in his dantian collapsed and messed up, unable to condense at all!

Li Tian gave a sigh of real qi, and couldn't help thinking in his heart: It seems that this Taiji Qi Gathering Method is really quite difficult to practice... Hey, I really don't know when I can cultivate well!

After thinking about it for a while, Li Tianan calmed down and continued to practice!

No matter how long it takes to practice, no matter how difficult the road of cultivation is, Li Tian must learn the eighth level: I alone dominate!

Since Li Tian left the North China Field Army Military Region, the brothers have stayed in the Military Region.

They are also practicing every day to improve their strength.

And Situ Ningbing, Ouyang Shiqing, Duanmuying and others can only wait in the North China Field Army Military District, waiting for Li Tian to come out.

Time, day after day passed!

In a blink of an eye, a week has passed...

On this day, Ouyang Shiqing came to the accommodation room on the side of the military area alone. After she arrived, she saw that the space in the room was not very large, and there was a strong smell of Chinese medicine inside.

After Ouyang Shiqing came in, he saw Ouyang Zhengtian in front of him.

"Dad." Ouyang Shiqing, who came by, called out his father softly.

I saw that Ouyang Zhengtian no longer had the awesome demeanor of the previous generation of the Ouyang family's Patriarch, his hair was slightly messy, his mouth also had a beard tie, and his face looked much haggard.

"Poetry!" Ouyang Zhengtian said when he saw his daughter coming, and took a look at his daughter with his blood-red eyes.

"Dad, how is Grandpa?" Ouyang Shiqing asked with concern.

Look carefully, but there is a bed on the side of Ouyang Zhengtian. On the bed is the old man of the Ouyang family, Ouyang Wujiang!

Since the old man fought against the old Yin Yang demon and Long Yin, his four sons died three tragically, and they went crazy all of a sudden... they were in a half crazy and half crazy state from beginning to end.

Now the old man stared at a pair of godless eyes like that, staring at the ceiling firmly, no one knew what he was looking at... On his old face, there were more and more wrinkles, and his hair was even more gray. It makes people feel distressed, lying on that bed.

After Ouyang Shiqing asked, but saw Ouyang Zhengtian sigh deeply and said: "Your grandpa and his old man are still the same as before... sometimes sober, sometimes unconscious..."

After Ouyang Shiqing listened to it, tears of distress were about to fall!

"Shiqing, Dad called you over because I want to tell you something." Ouyang Zhengtian suddenly said to Ouyang Shiqing, who raised his bloodshot eyes and looked in front of him.

"Dad, you say..." Ouyang Shiqing said.

"Poetry, Dad has thought about it for a long time... Maybe we should leave the North China Field Army." A word suddenly came out of Ouyang Zhengtian's mouth.

When Ouyang Zhengtian suddenly said this, Ouyang Shiqing was stunned.

"Dad, you, you, are you leaving? Why?" Ouyang Shiqing said suddenly in disbelief.

I saw Ouyang Zhengtian sigh deeply and said: "Since our family's accident, we have been troubled by the North China Field Army... To be honest, we have been here long enough... Hey! So I want to go. , Let's go home..."

Home?

"Dad, but our house...has been destroyed..." Ouyang Shiqing said there.

Ouyang Zhengtian said: "It doesn't matter! Our Ouyang family is indeed almost destroyed... But our big family won't just fall down like this... I want to go back, and we must revive our Ouyang family."

Listening to Ouyang Zhengtian saying this, Ouyang Shiqing said, "But, what about Grandpa's illness?"

"It doesn't matter. After I go back and settle down, I will take your grandfather and his elders to see a doctor... Regardless of the ends of the world, I will do everything possible to cure your grandpa." Ouyang Zhengtian said.

After Ouyang Zhengtian finished saying this, Ouyang Shiqing stood there silently, her eyes slightly red!

She didn't know what else she should say, she knew in her heart that her father was a stubborn person!

Moreover, their Ouyang family has indeed stayed in the North China Field Army for a long, long time...Although this is Grandpa Li Tian's site, it is a bit embarrassing after all... So Ouyang Zhengtian chose to leave!

So in the end, Ouyang Shiqing decided to say: "Well, since Dad has made a decision, let's leave here first..."

"I'm going to tell Man'er, and then let's go!" Just listen to Ouyang Shiqing.

Listening to Ouyang Shiqing's words, Ouyang Zhengtian said immediately: "No, Shiqing, you and Man'er stay here!"

When Ouyang Shiqing heard this, he was taken aback for a moment and said, "Why?"

"Poetry, I know your friendship with Li Tian... and your heart! To be honest, you follow Li Tian, dad rest assured... Besides, there are Man'er, I can see that Man'er also likes Li Tian very much. ...If you can stay with Li Tian, Dad will be very relieved, so this time Dad will only take your grandfather away!" Ouyang Zhengtian said.

Listening to Ouyang Zhengtian saying this, Ouyang Shiqing not only said with red eyes, "Dad, but..."

But seeing Ouyang Zhengtian slightly shook his hand and said: "Silly boy! Listen to me... I will take your father back to our family first. After I set up the family, you and Man'er will come back again. Huh?"

After Ouyang Zhengtian said so, Ouyang Shiqing could only agree!

In fact, she is indeed a little inseparable from Li Tian now... She loves Li Tian, and can't live without him for a minute!

In this way, Ouyang Zhengtian took the crazy old man Ouyang to leave the North China Field Army.

When they left, the brothers and the North China Field Army discouraged them from leaving... Let them stay here, but Ouyang Zhengtian, who was stubborn and extremely face-conscious, chose to leave in the end!

In desperation, everyone had to send away Ouyang Zhengtian and the crazy old man.

Watching them leave, there is not only a slight sentiment in everyone's heart.

And Ouyang Shiqing stood there sadly with that silly man, watching his father and grandfather go away!

"Man'er, dad and grandpa are gone...now you and me are the only ones left here!" Ouyang Shiqing glanced at the silly man who was like a calf and said.

But what about silly men? The huge body stood there, staring at his eyes, without saying a word in his mouth, suddenly turned around, and walked into the distance with big strides like a cow. No one knows what the big guy is thinking. what.....

Chapter 1846: Go see her

"Miss, how long does it take Li Tian to practice before he can come out?" In the exquisite room, but seeing the girl Xiaohuan with a round face looking at Miss Duanmuying in front of her with blinking eyes.

Duanmuying, an eccentric lady with an angelic face.

At the moment, he shook his head depressedly with two slender arms squeezing his exquisite chin.

Muttering with cherry red lips, "How would I know..."

"Hey, the young lady thinks of him so, doesn't he know Li Tian?" The girl Xiaohuan said again.

Duanmuying said: "Hmph, how can I think of that unscrupulous..."

Xiaohuan not only smiled when her eldest lady said this, she knew that Duanmu Ying was duplicity.

"But miss, I think Li Tian is actually quite tired... You see that he always hurts himself to help others, for his brothers, for his relatives, he has never complained, such a man is actually quite brutal. Okay." The girl Xiaohuan said.

But seeing Duanmu Yingliu's eyebrows horizontally said: "Such a man is still good?"

"Huh, smelly Li Tian is busy with other things all day long...there is time to miss me...I am so angry!" Duanmu Ying became more and more angry.

"Miss, Li Tian misses you too!" The girl Xiaohuan suddenly said.

Duanmuying immediately said excitedly: "How do you know?"

Girl Xiaohuan smiled and said, "I can see it."

"See it?" Listening to her own girl's words, Duan Kiyang looked at Xiaohuan suspiciously.

"Ghost girl, how did you see it? Tell me..." Duanmuying said to the girl Xiaohuan there.

But seeing Xiaohuan blinking with big bright eyes said: "Miss, in fact, every time Li Tian looks at you, the eyes are full of deep love... Maybe sometimes he doesn't say it, but I can still see. Come out! His eyes are so gentle and loving when looking at you."

When Duanmu Ying heard it, her delicate and flawless face turned red at this moment...

"Really? Really?" Duanmuying asked excitedly.

The little girl said, "Of course it is true!"

"Miss, there is a saying that the authorities are obsessed with the bystanders. Maybe this is the truth. Anyway, Xiaohuan can see that Li Tian loves you, Miss!" Xiaohuan said.

Listening to what the little girl said, that Duan Kiyong's whole person felt full of vitality, and her heart was beating with excitement like a bunny in her arms!

She loves Li Tian deeply and has been in love since the earliest time!

Although Li Tian did not stay by her side for a long time, nor did she laugh and play with her, but her heart has not changed from beginning to end, she has always loved him deeply!

So much so that later Situ Ningbing appeared, as well as the appearance of beautiful women such as Ouyang Shiqing... At that time Duanmuying became jealous! I was so jealous that I would kill Li Tian...and then take it for himself!

However, when she saw what Situ Ningbing and Ouyang Shiqing had done for selflessness, and the sincere love between them, Duanmuying suddenly understood that love can be tolerated when it does! It can be tolerated!

Now for Miss Duanmuying, her only hope is that Li Tian can love her more and be with her!

When Duanmuying was talking with the girl Xiaohuan, she heard the soft knock on the door of the room.

Duanmuying and the girl Xiaohuan were all startled.

"Who?" Duanmuying cried!

I just heard a pleasant voice outside: "It's me!"

The voice was slightly cold, but it sounded so pleasing to the ear. The voice knew that it was from Situ Ningbing.

"She's here?" After Duanmuying heard Situ Ningbing's voice, Liu frowned slightly.

I saw that girl Xiaohuan hurriedly said, "Miss, I'll open the door..."

After speaking, he quickly ran over to the door of the room, and then gently opened the door.

As the door opened, I saw that the slim Situ Ningbing was indeed standing outside!

Her beauty surprised the world, and it was completely different from Duanmu Ying!

If Duanmu Ying is a beautiful fairy, then Situ Ningbing is absolutely beautiful like an angel!

After Situ Ningbing came in, Duan Muying walked over, blinking a pair of beautiful eyes and looked at Situ Ningbing and said: "You are here... Is there something to do with me?"

But seeing that Situ Ningbing didn't speak, he walked in gently, and then sat on the side.

Duan Muying blinked her eyes suspiciously at Situ Ningbing, wondering why Situ Ningbing came to find herself.

Suddenly, Situ Ningbing spoke.

"Do you remember Tang Feifei?" Situ Ningbing suddenly said to Duanmu Ying.

When Duanmuying heard it, she was stunned.

Don Feifei? Of course she remembered that she had a big quarrel with Tang Feifei over Li Tian last time!

No, after talking about Tang Feifei, Duanmuying in front of her said: "I know, what's the matter? Why are you talking about her suddenly?"

"Is she still living in the military area north of the North China Field Army?" Situ Ningbing asked.

That Duan Muying said: "Yes!"

It turns out that Tang Feifei has been living in the northern part of the North China Field Military Region since seeing Li Tian!

But because she was not very familiar with Li Tian's brothers, and she was not very familiar with women like Situ Ningbing, so she stayed there alone!

During this period of time, Li Tian didn't have time to be with her because of revenge. I really don't know what happened to that lonely Tang Feifei!

After hearing what Duanmuying said, I saw that Situ Ningbing looked at Duanmuying and said, "I think we are a bit too cold to her...Hey!"

"Lost?" Duanmuying asked in surprise.

"Why do you leave her in the cold... We are not very familiar with her!" Miss Duanmuying said with a temper.

"It doesn't matter if you are unfamiliar! Think about it, she stayed alone in the northern military area, without relatives and no reason, plus she didn't have a friend around her...how much, how pitiful!" Situ Ningbing said.

Duan Muying thought for a while, feeling strange in her heart, and looked at Situ Ningbing and said, "Then what do you mean?"

"Let's go, let's go see her! I hope we can stay with her more no matter what, and don't let her stay here alone...after all...after all...everyone is a woman." Situ Ningbing said.

Listening to what Situ Ningbing said, Mu Yingliu frowned: "Are we really going to see her?"

"Ah, what's the matter?" Situ Ningbing looked at the somewhat reluctant Duanmu Ying.

But seeing Duanmuying hesitating for a while, she said slowly: "Okay, then I will listen to you!"

So just like that, the two of them planned to go to the northern area of the North China Field Army to see Tang Feifei.

Chapter 1847: Move to us

Tang Feifei lived in the northernmost part of the North China Field Army.

There is usually a training base for special forces of the North China Field Army, so few people come in. The entire empty North District is probably just a girl from Tang Feifei.

It is self-evident that a lonely girl lives here alone for love!

At this moment, I saw this silly girl in Tang Feifei's room obviously thinner...

She curled up on the soft bed, her dark hair was a little fluffy, and she was wearing a pale white pajamas there, staring blankly at the computer in front of her.

During this time, she was almost alone, and the only one who accompanied her was a virtual computer.

And her? She has never complained or wronged. Everything she does is because she loves Li Tian!

But in the past few days, when she learned from the mouths of these soldiers that Li Tian had returned to the North China Field Army, her heart couldn't help it!

Because after Li Tian came back, he didn't come to see her at all... she seemed to have been forgotten!

Actually, how could Li Tian forget her? It's just that Li Tian has been too busy during this time... There is no time to be alone with the women he loves, including Situ Ningbing, Duanmuying, etc. Li Tian has never been alone with them.

But Don Feifei didn't know!

She only knows that she seems to be superfluous, stay here!

I don't have a good friend around me... and I'm not very familiar with Li Tian's brothers... so the more she thinks, the more wronged, the more she thinks, the more she can't stand it!

Sitting there curled up alone, tears fell like pearls!

Anyway, she also died Miss Tang from Kyoto City!

Has she suffered there for so many years? It was looked upon with cold eyes. In Kyoto City, the Tang family aloft was like covering the sky with one hand... But now? Tang Feifei turned out to be alone, and a pitiful person stayed here!

Tang Feifei thought so in her heart that tears flowed more intensely... Drops of cold tears dripped from her beautiful eyes, wet on the quilt in front of her.

Just when Tang Feifei was so wronged and crying alone in the room, her door banged!

After hearing her door rang for an instant, Tang Feifei was stunned!

Under normal circumstances, no one would come to her room door. Of course, those who were in the army did not dare to come here suddenly, but now why is it suddenly knocked?

Who is coming? Don Feifei thought inwardly.

While quickly wiping the teardrops from his face, he quickly walked off the bed, grabbed a thin coat on the bed and quickly put it on his body, and walked towards the door.

As he walked, he asked, "Who?" There was a slight cry in his voice.

"It's me!" Situ Ningbing's voice came from outside the door.

After hearing the voice of a woman, Tang Feifei was startled, walked to the door, and then gently opened the door!

After opening it, she saw Situ Ningbing and the two beauties of Duan Muying standing motionless outside the room.

When Situ Ningbing and Duanmuying were looking for him, Tang Feifei was stunned, staring at the two with a pair of beautiful red eyes...

"Hello! Let's come and see you!" Situ Ningbing just listened to Tang Feifei who was looking at him with a smile.

Tang Feifei stood there dumbfounded, completely startled.

During this period of time, Tang Feifei hardly interacted with anyone, let alone the two beauties in front of him, but today, why did the two of them suddenly come to find themselves?

Of course, Tang Feifei knows in her heart that these two beauties are women who love Li Tian so much. If they came here today, shouldn't they be... are they trying to embarrass themselves?

Just as Tang Feifei was thinking about it, Duanmuying who was standing behind not only muttered in her mouth: "Standing for so long...Don't invite us in..."

After Tang Feifei subconsciously heard Duanmuying say this, she immediately realized that she was not only a little rude, so she quickly said with embarrassment on her face: "Hello, hello... please come in!"

When he said that, he opened the door, Situ Ningbing and Duanmuying were not welcome, so they walked in.

After walking in, Duanmuying and Situ Ningbing glanced at the room where Tang Feifei lived!

This room used to be the dormitory of the special forces of the North China Field Military Command...So it looks quite simple, only the boudoir bed over there is neat and tidy, and there is a big white rabbit on the pillow, which looks quite cute.

Looking at the somewhat shabby Tang Feifei's residence, Duan Muying and Situ Ningbing couldn't help feeling a little.

But seeing that Tang Feifei was busy pouring water there after the two came in.

After pouring water for the two of them, Situ Ningbing looked at Tang Feifei and said, "Thank you..."

"You're welcome!" Tang Feifei said.

Situ Ningbing took a sip of clear water, looked at the humble residence in front of him, looked at Tang Feifei distressedly and asked, "Miss Tang, are you okay here?"

After being asked this sentence, Tang Feifei felt sore, but she forcibly resisted the feelings deep in her heart, nodded there and said: "It's...not bad!"

Listening to Tang Feifei's words, Situ Ningbing certainly knew that she was talking about it!

After thinking about it for a while, Situ Ningbing looked at the cautious Tang Feifei and said, "Miss Tang, are the two of us here actually here? I hope you can move to our place... just right, we all live. Over there, in this case, if something happens, everyone can take care of each other, and everyone can chat and talk happily together."

Tang Feifei, who heard Situ Ningbing suddenly say this, was instantly shocked.

"Move to your place?" Tang Feifei couldn't believe her ears, she couldn't believe that Situ Ningbing in front of her would say such things.

But seeing Situ Ningbing smiled there and said, "Yes."

"You are very lonely here. If you move there, everyone can talk together often, Miss Tang, what do you think?" Situ Ningbing looked at Tang Feifei.

But seeing Tang Feifei bit her teeth, whispered there, "I...I...I'm fine here alone."

Situ Ningbing heard Tang Feifei say this, and knew she had a lot of worries in her heart. After thinking about it for a while, Situ Ningbing said: "Miss Tang, I know you may be unfamiliar with us and strange to all of us, but After all, you are a big family of ours. Besides, everyone over there is very friendly, as well as Li Tian's brother. I think you should know each other too!"

Chapter 1848: Horror

"You are here all day alone, and you are lonely and boring. Why not live there and live happily together?"

Situ Ningbing once again encouraged Tang Feifei. .

To be honest, Tang Feifei didn't expect Situ Ningbing and Duan Muying to come here to let them live in the past. To be honest, she felt a little flattered in her heart.

At this moment, she was sitting awkwardly, not knowing what to do.

But what's inside of her? In fact, I really want to be with Situ Ningbing and Duanmuying, and I want to communicate more with Li Tian's brothers...

"Yeah, Miss Tang, both of us have come to invite you in person...you can save your face and move over!" Duanmuying, who had not spoken, suddenly said with a red mouth.

This side of Muying had a little conflict with Tang Feifei before, so the relationship between the two was a bit awkward, but Tang Feifei did not expect that even she came here today to invite herself to live in, and she was really a little worried.

"Yes, let's go..." Na Situ Ningbing reached Tang Feifei's side, stretched out a hand and held her slender arm.

Tang Feifei's eye circles suddenly turned red! She was so moved for the first time, so excited for the first time!

Looking at the sincere Situ Ningbing and the Duan Muying, Tang Feifei finally nodded deeply in the red eyes!

"Thank you...thank you!" The silly Tang Feifei thanked with tears there.

When Muying Duan and Situ Ningbing saw this stupid girl was moved and cried, their hearts were not only sour!

After all, they are all girls!

In this way, Tang Feifei decided to move to a place with Duan Muying, Situ Ningbing, and Ouyang Shiqing.

When packing things up, Situ Ningbing and Duanmuying both cleaned up for Tang Feifei!

Tang Feifei was touched and said: "Thank you, please trouble you..."

Soon, Tang Feifei's things were finished. With the help of Situ Ningbing and Duanmuying, Tang Feifei finally lived with the big guy!

This is a recognition for Tang Feifei, but also a mutual acceptance psychology.

Tang Feifei was moved in her heart, and was also impressed by Situ Ningbing's generosity!

In the future, no matter what, Tang Feifei will live together with Situ Ningbing and Ouyang Shiqing. I believe that if Li Tian knew about it, he would also be very happy.

One week soon passed!

Li Tianzu has been cultivating in the air-raid shelter on the back mountain for almost ten days, and he does not know how Li Tian has entered the country in these ten days.

In the dark air-raid shelter, nothing can be seen, the only thing that can be felt is the sound of strong wind.

I approached the place where the strong wind was coming from and looked at it, but I saw that it was Li Tian who was cultivating shirtless and upper body sitting there.

His bronze skin was exposed to the darkness, and the muscle lines on his body were prominent.

The scar on his back looked like a weird totem, with an indescribable breath.

He is still cultivating: Taiji Qi Gathering Method. It only took ten days. Although Li Tian practiced frantically day and night, as of now, the amount of qi he can accumulate is very small.

This makes Li Tian very depressed.

Why can't the many true qi in my body gather together? Is this Taiji Qi Gathering Method really so difficult to practice?

Although he was very suspicious in his heart, Li Tian never gave up!

For nearly ten days, Li Tian was cultivating like crazy. He forgot to eat and drink, and he kept thinking about cultivation in his mind!

The beard on his chin is obviously thicker than before... The muscles all over his body are getting stronger and stronger. Cultivation, crazy cultivation, he must practice: I am the only one!

The Death Saint Jace and the Night Fox: Rowling and Destruction Tank: Long, in this operation can be described by the word "disastrous defeat".

Not only did they not catch Li Tian, but they were also seriously injured by a mysterious person. The most important thing is that the three of them didn't even have the Duguxie and the ghost servants who had been used to threaten them. For them, This is undoubtedly a fiasco.

Binjiang City, The Bund.

Inside the old church that exuded years of decadence, I saw the dead saint Jace, Na Rowling and Long standing motionless.

Their complexion is extremely ugly.

In front of them was Father Gammarelli before that.

Father Gammarelli still dressed as usual, staring at the three of them motionlessly.

"The bishop has sent a message. He told me that you don't need to stay here anymore." A word suddenly came out of Father Gammarelli's mouth.

After Father Gammarelli suddenly said this, the complexions of Jace, Rowling and Long suddenly changed!

I saw that Jace hurriedly said there, "Father Gammarelli, did the bishop really tell us to go back?" His words were filled with unknown panic and fear, just like death.

Father Gammarelli smiled coldly: "Do you think there is a fake?"

"You have been here for so long, and there is no clue about the key of fate... the bishop has already lost confidence! So you have lost use of staying here!" Father Gammarelli said.

His voice was cold without any emotion.

As he said this, Na Jess, Rowling and Long beside him, their complexions turned into a dead gray.

"Then who are you going to let you seize the key of fate?" Jess asked at last.

Father Gammarelli smiled weirdly, then said slightly, "You want to know who is here?"

Jess said: "Of course!"

"Well, since you want to know, then I will show you..."

"Come out!"

As Father Gammarelli suddenly said such a sentence, a few weird figures wearing black robes and covering their heads suddenly came out from the side room.

As they walked slowly, the whole church was suddenly filled with a gloomy  atmosphere.

The  breath seems to be innate.

And Na Jace, as well as the night fox Rowling, and Long, when they saw these people walking out weirdly, their eyes suddenly widened, because they seemed to have smelled the  breath... A different kind of breath!

Then their faces appeared in the eyes of Jace and Rowling.

Chapter 1849: Gangelo Family

Typical European!

High nose, blue eyes like jewels.

It's just that their faces are as pale as paper, even paler than paper...

Under the pale complexion, I don't know what kind of cold blood is flowing!

The one standing in the front looks elegant and gentleman. His hair is very long and slightly curly. His blue eyes are full of weird charm and sink into the sockets. His two hands are slightly closed. At the same time, placed on his chest, he wore a very strange ring on his pale fingers. The ring was carved with a "skeleton head" that was born and worn on his slender fingers.

He just stood there noble, like a noble earl of the 18th century, standing with a smile.

And what about the three people behind him? Obviously his subordinates!

The three of them all had extremely pale faces, there was no trace of blood on their faces, and a pair of cold eyes were looking at Jess, Rowling, and Long!

"Oh my God! It's them... it's them monsters!!!" After suddenly seeing these pale-skinned men wearing black robes covering their entire bodies, Na Jess, Rowling, and Long not only Shouted in horror!

As if they saw the devil, they couldn't see the non-human species, their eyes widened there, and at the same time they couldn't help retreating.

Fear, fear deeply appeared in their eyes.

What about the four weird foreigners? I stood there motionless throughout.

"No, no, no..."

"How could the bishop let them... these demons intermingle in this matter?" Jace said in surprise suddenly in disbelief.

After listening to Jace, the priest Gammarelli suddenly smiled and said: "Jace, you have to understand one thing, the bishop does not need you anymore!"

"Moreover, the bishop has reached a contract with the blood clan, this is the Gangaluo clan, Earl Spike! And the three subordinates of the Gangaluo clan, the four of them are responsible for the key of fate this time!"

As Father Gammarelli said so suddenly, Jace was completely taken aback!

The bishop actually reached a contract with the blood family?

"The Lord actually reached a contract with the devil?"

"No, it's impossible... absolutely impossible... Father Gammarelli, you are lying... you are lying..."

With the horrified cry of Na Jace, but what about Father Gammarelli? But he didn't even look at him. He just turned his head slightly to look at the four elegant gentlemen men claiming to be the Gangaluo clan and said: "Earl Spike, you have been tired all the way, presumably you haven't had lunch yet?"

The elegant man called Earl Spike suddenly showed a weird smile, and he could see that his teeth were very white and white, and then he shook his head slightly!

After he shook his head, Father Gammarelli pointed his finger at Jace and Rowling in front of him, and said magnificently, "Then please..."

When he suddenly said this, that Jess, Rowling, and Long were all shocked there!

What is he doing? lunch? What lunch?

Can anyone know?

The only thing that can be seen is Jace, Rowling, and the panic and fear on Long's complexion...

Jace and the others kept stepping back, their eyes widened in disbelief as they looked at the four Gangelu tribe in front of them: "no, no, no..."

And what about the three subordinates of the Gangaro? Suddenly, step by step, he walked towards them with cold suffocation.

Father Gammarelli looked at the scene in front of him with a gloomy grin!

what

A scream of hysterical screams suddenly came out from the ancient church!

Then I heard the heart-piercing scream.

Following the screaming sound, three corpses were suddenly thrown to the ground with a bang.

Look closely, the bodies of these three are the Jace, Rowling, and Long who were still alive just now!

Only now they have become dead!

Their death is extremely ugly, their eyes widened, and even when they died, they died with horror!

The causes of their deaths were almost exactly the same. They were all around their necks. The three of their necks seemed to be bitten by wild beasts. The blood seemed to be sucked up and died there!

And what about the three Gangelu men who killed them? I saw their figures flashed back like a shadow and suddenly returned to the back of Count Spike. The corners of their mouths were stained with scarlet blood, and their pale faces were filled with evil feelings, and they wiped the blood from the corners of their mouths. ... They kept their previous appearance, standing coldly behind Count Spike.

And what about Father Gammarelli? When he saw the scene just now, his face also became weird and ugly!

Although these Gangelu people are currently on the same front with him, he can still vaguely see his fear and fear!

The Earl Spike, who is called the Gangaro family, gracefully walked over to Father Gammarelli step by step, looked at him with a smile, and then bowed slightly to Father Gammarelli with Western manners: "Thank you Your kind hospitality!"

His voice was as gentle as his, but with an unspeakable weird breath.

Father Gammarelli took a step back instinctively, his face became extremely ugly, and he smiled and said quickly: "No...you're welcome..."

Count Naspik smiled when he heard Father Gammarelli say this, and then walked slightly around the church, his eyes looked at everything in the church, I don't know why, when his eyes looked at the church Inside, the entire church seemed to lose its original color and turned into a dark color.

Finally, when Earl Spike put his eyes on the front cross, he suddenly smiled and said: "Father Gammarelli, do you think the Lord of your faith will really bless you?"

When he said this, his voice was strange and terrifying.

When Father Gammarelli heard him say this, he didn't know how to answer for a while, and stood awkwardly.

"Hey, some people say that we are evil creatures of darkness. In fact, sometimes you humans are 10,000 times more evil than us... Hey!" His weird laughter echoed for a long time throughout the church.

What about Father Gammarelli? Standing there, his face looked ugly as if he had seen a ghost, and he didn't even dare to breathe out loudly from beginning to end.

"Father Gammarelli, the key of destiny is a holy artifact that our Gangauro family must take back. I hope you will give us clues as soon as possible! The blood moon is about to come...we want to welcome him!"

As Earl Spike finished his last sentence, his figure suddenly disappeared in the entire church! And what about the three pale-faced people behind him? It also disappeared in an instant...without a trace.

Chapter 1850: Blood Legend

In European legends, there is a unique evil race that has always survived in the world!

They are called blood-sucking creatures.

The origin of the legend of blood-sucking creatures can be traced back to thousands of years ago. In the earliest myths and legends of Mesopotamian civilization, ancient Hebrew civilization, ancient Roman civilization, etc., there are such demons who * human blood. Biology exists.

And there are extremely detailed records in the ancient bible!

Legend: The ancestor of the blood-sucking creature is Cain, Adam and his wife Eve, who gave birth to Cain and Abel. Abel is a shepherd, Cain is a farmer. On the day of offering to God, Cain contributed land products, and Abel offered some selected suckling sheep. God fancied Abel's tribute, not Cain's tribute. Cain was very angry. He invited his younger brother Abel to the field. When they got there, Cain killed Abel. Later, when God learned about this, he was very angry. God punishes him for wandering all his life and can only live by sucking blood. Cain worried that because he had sinned too badly, others would kill him when he saw him, so God gave him a mark so that people would not put him when they saw him. To death. The descendants of Cain became the blood-sucking creatures of today!

Legend has it that vampires are actually human incarnations, but they have long, sharp fangs that can pierce human necks to * human blood. This vampire slowly evolved into a species called: Vampire!

Also known as bloodline in European countries.

To become a member of the blood clan, a mortal must first go through the process of "first embrace" the embrace. In other words, he must first be drained of blood by a member of the blood family, and then immediately accept the blood from the blood family. It is not just that the other party can become a vampire after sucking blood, but can become a vampire after exchanging blood. Newborn blood. The first embrace often brings very strong feelings, mixed with emotions of fear and ecstasy, which will make the blood family unforgettable forever.

Once you become a member of the bloodline bloodline, you will get permanent immortality, but this immortal can only act at night.

Kinship is a creature different from humans, and its body tissues undergo complete changes.

The teeth of the blood family can be drawn at will, although most of the time they will be hidden to cover up their identity. When the blood clan * blood, it will use its own methods to heal the wound to cover up the traces. The blood in the body flows in a diffuse manner. Because the capillaries are no longer full of blood, the blood of the blood group is particularly pale. Sometimes, I even shed tears when crying. The kin can use the blood in the body to heal themselves. When injured, the blood in the body will concentrate on the wound, and the wound will be purple-red, and it will be healed quickly.

The blood race does not need to eat, but needs to continuously draw blood. When the night falls, there will be a strong desire for blood. The intensity of this desire is even more uncomfortable than human hunger. The throat is painful like a tear, forcing one to have to * human blood.

Generally speaking, this blood-sucking creature in ancient times has gradually evolved into a more terrifying creature, they are called: vampire!

There is no way to study the ancestors of vampires. The only record is the history in the ancient bible. Adam and Eve's eldest son Cain Cain was cursed by God due to the crime of killing his brother and became an immortal forced to * blood. Lilith, who had abandoned the Garden of Eden, met after Lilith was guided by Lilith and learned how to extract powerful power from the blood. The blood clan marked the day when the ancestor Cain was enlightened as the first year of Xueqi. Cain is the source of vampires, the starting point of this sinful bloodline.

After the creation of the vampire, driven by loneliness, Cain used the internal organs of animals and his own blood to create a second generation of vampires. The second generation is believed to have 5 people. Later, they pursued the descendants of Adam and Eve together, but they were regarded as monsters and were driven away by these "brothers". In grief and anger, the second generation of vampires began to try to establish a "dark Garden of Eden." They gave birth to 13 descendants of their own, the third most powerful of vampires. After God launched the Flood of Noah, the third generation of vampires who were survivors united to kill their parents. Among them, Enoch, Sheila Zillah, and Elad Irad were confirmed to be killed. The two underneath remain anonymous, and their whereabouts have been unknown. This story and the later prophecy about the doomsday after the betrayal of the third generation of vampires is a history of taboos within the vampire family, coupled with the extremely remote history, so there are very few descriptions of the second generation of vampires.

The descendants of the second generation of vampires, the most powerful generation of vampires, they claim to have the ability to stand shoulder to shoulder with God, so they became the main leaders of the next generations of vampires and later called the third generation "blood lodging". The third generation established an independent family, which was later the "13-style family". Every third-generation vampire is the ancestor of this family! Due to historical origins, younger generations of vampires can only recognize the existence of their ancient ancestors in legends.

The thirteen blood lodgings fought bravely and slaughtered creatures in order to improve the strength of themselves and their family. They discovered that the blood of the kinship can make mortals live forever and make the kinship ascend to the holy, thus unveiling the prelude to the vampire's sinful bloodline. These thirteen blood lodgings finally turned against each other, fighting endlessly for years, and spreading their own blood. The blood family called this war a thousand-year holy war jihad. The victims of the war are mostly mortals. Although the flood caused by God did not take blood and fatal life, it caused severe damage and had to go to sleep. In order to continue the jihad, the thirteen blood lodgings each have a family of the fourth to sixth generations, and each clan inherits the characteristics of the creator, so they are different. Unexpectedly, the clans were obsessed with ease and allied with each other, leaving their ancestors behind.

The thirteen blood-stay qi from the serious wounds were unhealed, and the most powerful of them dropped the doomsday prophecy: "When I awaken, there will be no night in the world, the scorching sun will be high, mortals will be turned into steam, and blood will be turned into powder God will take back only a piece of scorched earth"

And this blood lodging that is still dormant is the founder of the Gangaro family!

Now that these ancient histories are once again sealed, the Gangaluo family really has descendants... Then what kind of human catastrophe will remain?
