

A Killer 1851

Chapter 1851: Li Tian's practice

Time is like flowing water, fleeting!

Li Tian has been in retreat for a month. .

During this month, the North China Field Army was extremely calm, and the brothers were also hurrying to practice, and Duanmuying, Tang Feifei, Situ Ningbing, Ouyang Shiqing and other girls finally got together in harmony. They are like sisters. Look after each other the same.

Only the Duguxie and the ghost servant are still in a coma!

For a month, that Duguxie and the ghost servant were exactly like living dead, not moving, not breathing, looking terrible and terrifying, no one knew whether they were dead or alive.

What about Li Tian? So far, no one knows how well he has cultivated.

The area around the air-raid shelter in the back mountain of the North China Field Army, but there are 67 heavily armed soldiers standing outside the air-raid shelter.

They have been guarding Li Tian here for a month. Except for giving Li Tian some food and drink, they have been guarding Li Tian conscientiously every day.

"Company Commander Wang, what kind of weird martial arts is our commander-in-chief's grandson practicing?" A low but strong soldier standing aside asked the soldier called Company Commander Wang beside him.

I saw that Company Commander Wang frowned slightly and said, "This...I am not very clear."

"But I know that the grandson of our commander-in-chief is very capable!" Commander Wang said there.

"Really?" the soldier asked curiously.

"Iron Dragon, isn't it amazing?" Company Commander Wang in front of him asked suddenly.

Opteron, a well-known man in the North China Field Army, mentioning Opteron, no one knows, no one knows, the North China Field Army, the most capable man in the North China Field Army.

"Even Opteron can't beat our commander-in-chief's grandson, can you think about our commander-in-chief's grandson?" The company commander Wang said.

The soldier stood there with eyes wide open, without speaking.

"Have you heard that there is a bang every day here, I guess it is from our commander-in-chief's grandson practicing." The commander Wang said again.

At this moment, the soldiers nodded deeply, indeed!

During this period of time, the air-raid shelter that Li Tian cultivated can always hear the cold sound of strong wind, which is extremely strong, although these soldiers did not personally go in to see what kind of magic Li Tian is practicing. But they could still feel the extremely domineering infuriating qi flowing out from time to time.

How far has Li Tian practiced?

Casting his gaze into the air-raid shelter, I saw that the air-raid shelter was still dark.

The only thing that can be felt is the energetic energy contained in the air rushing around, forming a strange strong wind...hovering in the entire air-raid shelter.

Looking at the inside again, at a glance, he saw the bronze masculine skin of his body.

On his body, only a few weird golden energies surrounded his whole body, and they kept walking between the tendons and acupoints. Li Tian put his hands tightly in front of the dantian, his face surrounded by golden light. , Sitting motionless there like a Buddha.

The vigor that permeated his whole body whirled, shaking the sand and rocks on the ground up, and he could see the steaming breath all over his body, slowly rising like smoke.

Suddenly Li Tian's eyes burst open, and two sharp rays of light as sharp as a blade shot out of his eyes. The energy was compelling and extremely cold.

His hands merged into one, and he raised his head to look at the sky, and all the true energy that suddenly ran through his body burst out violently.

In the palms of his two hands, a weird light circle with the Tai Chi pattern suddenly gathered, and then Li Tian's whole body flew straight up, his palms suddenly burst out, and there was a loud bang. The Tai Chi pattern in Li Tian's hands Suddenly let go and hit the rock wall in the air-raid shelter abruptly.

The sound of a violent explosion, like a bomb exploding, was surrounded by debris flying in the sky, full of energy.

In the endless air of truth, I saw Li Tian's body slowly falling from top to bottom.

"Taiji Qi gathering method, I finally got it!" Li Tian suddenly laughed wildly, and the terrible laughter echoed for a long time throughout the air-raid shelter.

It is not quite enough that Li Tian has practiced the "Tai Chi Gathering Qi Method!" in such a short time.

At the beginning, he only cultivated to that level in a week, but how did Li Tian cultivate so fast in the next few weeks?

It turns out that since the first week passed by Li Tian, he started to practice madly.

At the beginning, Li Tian could only gather a little qi in his dantian, but after coming back, Li Tian finally realized the trick of Taiji Qi gathering method.

Tai Chi Gathering Qi is formed by the fusion of Yin and Yang. The human body has both Yin and Yang. Li Tian tried to mobilize the body's Yin and Yang meridians and then merged with his own heart formula of Tai Chi Gathering Method, and then slowly cleared the mess in his body Then, little by little, he gathered them to his dantian, so as to achieve the principle of accumulating little and making more, and gathering water into a river.

And now Li Tian can gather all the energy in his body to one place, thus achieving the most deadly blow of the attack!

Li Tian finally cultivated the Tai Chi Qi gathering method.

Looking at his hands and feeling the endless flow of true energy in his body, Li Tian only felt that his whole body was full of endless energy.

He was excited, he was excited.

Perhaps even the old man Wuji was not as fast as Li Tian when he was practicing Taiji Qi Gathering Method, and the speed was incredible.

Originally, Maha Wuliang clearly stated that it would take at least one year to practice Tai Chi to gather Qi, but he did not expect that Li Tian would only need to practice for one month, which is simply incredible.

But no matter what, Li Tian has now cultivated the first level of kung fu solo.

For the rest, he will practice the second level of self-respect: Heaven and Earth One Qi True Art.

Just as Li Tian was preparing his eyes to look at the second layer of the immeasurable Maha: Heaven and Earth Yiqi True Art, suddenly the big iron gate of the air-raid shelter opened rumblingly.

After Li Tian heard the sound, he was not only stunned, but he looked at the dark place in front of him.

Now his eyes are extremely bright, and he can clearly recognize who the opponent is in the dark, so when he opens his eyes, he can see that the soldiers stationed outside the air-raid shelter are gone. Come in.

It turns out that when Li Tian practiced the Taiji Qi Gathering Method, he used internal force to break the stone wall, and the loud noise was heard by them outside. They were worried about Li Tian and afraid of what would happen here, so they hurried in and took a look. .

"Mr. Li, are you okay?" The soldiers walked over there quickly while looking at Li Tian worriedly.

But seeing Li Tian said slightly, "I'm fine."

At this time, the soldiers had already walked over and glanced at Li Tian, who was shirtless with bronze skin. Everyone stayed for a while, and then said, "Mr. Li, what was the explosion sound just now?"

"It's okay. Just now it was the movement that occurred when I was practicing. Don't mind everyone." Li Tiandao.

Hearing what Li Tian said, the few soldiers in front of him nodded depressedly.

Then they raised their eyes and looked at the wall that Li Tian had just smashed with palm force... but saw the cracked bluestone on the ground, and there were scattered stone chips flying there...

Chapter 1852: help

After taking a look, they all looked at Li Tian in shock.

"Mr. Li, as long as you are okay, then we won't bother you...if you need anything, please feel free to greet us." The soldiers stood there and said.

Li Tian said, "Okay."

Then the soldiers who came in left the air-raid shelter one by one with surprised expressions.

After they left, Li Tian showed a slight smile at the corner of his mouth, and saw that he once again sat in the place where he had just practiced. He must now cultivate the second level of self-respect as soon as possible: Heaven and Earth Yi Qi Jue.

Time went on.

During this period of time, there were a few small things happening in Binjiang City.

The accident happened at the Bund. I heard that several night-time attendants near the Bund died recently.

Their deaths were so strange that they all died tragically as if they had been bitten by some kind of beast on their necks.

Originally, the deaths of several waiters did not cause any disturbance, but because one of them died was the boss of a foreign company on the Bund. The boss of the foreign company died in the dark alleyway because he came out of the nightclub at night and didn't know what happened. It attracted a large number of media exposures, and learned that this death was not a single incident, but that this was the seventh person who died within this month.

For such a cruel death, the police currently have no clue.

Even the forensic doctors couldn't find out anything. The only thing they could check was that the blood of these people's bodies seemed to be sucked dry... there was nothing, and all that was left was a dry corpse.

Faced with such a weird mystery, now the entire Bund of Binjiang City is covered with clouds, and I dare not come out most nights.

Even those people who used to like night tours would not dare to run out alone in the middle of the night. Everyone said that night monsters appeared on the Bund in Binjiang City...

Kill those lonely passers-by in the dark.

The police in Binjiang City have set up special teams, and those special teams also started secretly ambushing the perpetrators at night, but so far, the police have not caught anyone.

The Metropolitan Police Department above has issued important instructions, ordering the Binjiang Police Department to solve the case within one month.

But what can the police do? They really can't catch anyone! As a result, the entire Bund of Binjiang City is panic so far...

On this day, two police cars were suddenly seen from far away driving towards the camp of the North China Field Army.

As the two police cars drove to the gate of the North China Field Army military region, the cars slowly stopped.

After the car stopped, a few uniformed policemen came out of the car.

One of them was the former captain of the criminal investigation team. His name was Liu. Everyone in the bureau called him Team Liu.

After they got off the car, they walked directly towards the North China Field Army.

After arriving at the gate of the military area, Captain Liu took the lead in escaping his ID and said to the soldier at the gate: "Hello, we are from the Binjiang City Police Department. My name is Liu. Come here today. , I mainly want to meet the brigade commander of the 38th Group Army of your North China Field Army, Wang Zhen, Brigade Commander Wang... Could you please tell me about it."

After Captain Liu slowly said these words, the soldier at the gate of the military area in front of him gave the so-called Captain Liu a cold look, and said, "Okay, you are waiting here."

After speaking, he went in to report.

Then Captain Liu took his people and stood here, waiting.

"Team Liu, will brigade commander Wang Zhenwang help us?" One of the policemen in uniform behind him asked Team Liu, who was looking at the criminal investigation team.

Just listen to that Liu Team Dao frowned and said: "I don't know this... But, we helped him last time, presumably he is not so unkind, he should help us. " help?

The last time Duguxie and the ghost servant murdered, to be honest, it was the police station who released that Anan. To put it bluntly, they did help Brigadier Wang Zhen! Unexpectedly, the police station in Binjiang City also came to Brigadier Wang Zhen for help.

"Yes, the last time they took the murderer away like this, our chief didn't say a word. If his brigade commander Wang Zhen didn't help us this time, it would be too...too unjust." said the policeman. .

While talking, they just waited like this.

After a while, I saw the soldier rushing over. After he ran over, Captain Liu took his men and quickly asked, "How about? Is Brigadier Wang Zhen here?"

Just listen to the soldier's saying: "Our brigade commander Wang Zhen is in the armory. If you don't mind, please go to the brigade headquarters and wait. When Brigade Commander Wang is finished, he will come to you."

After Captain Liu heard what the soldier said, he nodded and said: "Okay, okay, please take us to the headquarters."

So the soldier quickly arrived at the brigade headquarters with Liu and several policemen behind him, waiting for Wang Zhen.

After Captain Liu and the policeman with him waited for almost half an hour, Brigadier Wang Zhen finally appeared in the command room in a military uniform.

After Captain Wang Zhen appeared, Captain Liu smiled and quickly stood up.

"Brigade Commander Wang, hello..." I saw Captain Liu smiling over there as he stretched out his hand.

Wang Zhen glanced at the captain Liu and asked, "You are?"

"I belong to the Criminal Investigation Team of the Binjiang Police Department. My name is Liu... You can call me Xiao Liu!" Captain Liu said modestly.

Hearing this Captain Liu said this, Wang Zhen in front of him gave a faint oh, and then I remembered who Captain Liu was. This person was the captain of the Criminal Investigation Team who was in charge of the Duguxie and the Ghost Servant case last time.

But why did he come here today for no reason? To be honest, Wang Zhen didn't understand.

I saw brigade commander Wang Zhen after inviting them to sit down, looking at the team leader Liu suspiciously and asking, "Excuse me, what do you want to do when you come to me?"

After Wang Zhen asked, he frowned when he saw Captain Liu's brow, and several of his colleagues looked a little ugly.

"It's true, Brigadier Wang, this time when we came to the North China Field Army, we actually came to seek help." Team Liu said helplessly.

When he heard the word help, Brigade Commander Wang Zhen was not only taken aback, looked at Captain Liu with a smile and asked, "Comrade Xiao Liu, are you kidding me... Why did your police station ask our North China Field Army to help? "

Chapter 1853: Wang Zhen agreed

I saw that Captain Liu looked ugly, and said: "Brigadier Wang, it's true. There is no joking here!"

"I don't know, has Brigadier Wang Zhen paid attention to the recent Binjiang City news?" He just listened to Captain Liu in front of him.

Wang Zhen shook his head and said, "Recently, the military area is about to conduct a major exercise, so there is no time to pay attention to current affairs."

"Tell me, what's the matter?" Brigadier Wang looked at the Liu team and asked.

Following the question of Brigadier Wang Zhen, when he saw Captain Liu, he told Wang Zhen about his recent difficult situation.

"Brigadier Wang Zhen, that's the case. Recently, there have been several terrorist killings on the Bund in Binjiang City. The impact is extremely bad, but so far our police have not had the slightest clue... so we can't, I came to your military region for help! Hope, in the face of our closeness, your military region can send someone to help us." Captain Liu pleaded awkwardly to Brigadier Wang Zhen.

Then Wang Zhen not only frowned slightly when he heard Captain Liu suddenly say this.

"Terrorist murder?"

"Is it so serious? Couldn't your criminal investigation team solve this case?" Wang Zhen asked depressedly.

Just listen to Captain Liu said: "It's really serious! Brigadier Wang, you may not know, the recent murder case has killed 7 people...their deaths are all weird, and they are all night. Cruelty, no one has ever seen a murderer before. We have been in ambush for half a month without seeing a trace of the murderer... so we suspect..."

"What do you suspect?" Wang Zhen asked, just listening to him.

Then Captain Liu said: "We suspect that... the people on the rivers and lakes did it..."

Captain Liu's suspicion is indeed beyond doubt. In a month's time, he killed seven people in a row, and he has never revealed any clues. It can be seen that the other party's killing methods are brilliant, so Captain Liu believes that the killer must be done by masters.

And if their police actually met such a character, it would be difficult to deal with.

After hearing that Captain Liu said this, Brigadier Wang Zhen frowned and thought about it.

"Who are the dead? How did they die?" Wang Zhen asked.

Then Team Liu said: "Among the dead, four were waiters in western restaurants, two were teenagers who went out to bars at night, and one of them was a foreign entrepreneur."

Hearing Team Liu said so, Wang Zhen said: "If the dead are these people, it can't be the work of the people of the rivers and lakes." He said decisively.

"How could the people of the rivers and lakes behave badly at the restaurant service? How can they attack the young people who go out at night for no reason? Haha, Captain Liu, you must have guessed wrong." Wang Zhen analyzed there.

But seeing that Team Liu said: "But the situation of the deceased is really weird! Moreover, the seven deceased had only one wound on their bodies, and there was no second one at all."

Wang Zhen frowned and said, "How did they die?"

"All were killed." Team Liu said.

Listening to Captain Liu of the Criminal Investigation Team suddenly say this, then Brigadier Wang Zhen was puzzled.

"What? Killed?" Brigadier Wang Zhen said with a suspicious expression.

I saw that Captain Liu said: "Yes, all of the seven dead were bitten apart from their necks... just like the teeth of a wild beast bit them, and the blood in their whole body was also sucked alive. dry."

After hearing what Captain Liu said, Wang Zhen, who didn't believe it very much, was immediately puzzled.

"Who would bite people to death with their teeth?"

"impossible!"

"Could it be a beast? The beast ran out? But how could the beast enter the bustling metropolis? It is even more impossible." Wang Zhen said secretly.

"Comrade Xiao Liu, are you sure everything you said is true? Didn't you say anything exaggerated?" Wang Zhen asked.

Then Team Liu said, "I swear, I'm telling the truth! If you don't believe me, Brigadier Wang, you can go back to Binjiang City with me, and you can see the bodies of the dead with your own eyes... All are throat pipes. Bite it open, dead."

Seeing the serious look of Captain Liu, Wang Zhen thought for a while, could it be that what this guy said is still true?

If it is true, then there is a big situation!

What the * is killing those people in the Bund?

"Brigadier Wang, we are forced to trouble your North China Field Army... I really hope that your North China Field Army can send troops to help us this time, help us through the difficulties, and catch the perverted murderer as soon as possible."

After hearing what Captain Liu said, Wang Zhen thought for a while and said: "Comrade Xiao Liu, let's do this, you guys wait here first. I'll tell our commander-in-chief about this. After all, even if I want to help You, but also have the consent of our commander-in-chief, do you think so?"

After listening to Wang Zhen's agreement, Captain Liu didn't mention how happy he was, and he said in gratitude, "Thank you, Brigadier Wang, thank you, Brigadier Wang."

"You're welcome!"

"The army originally existed to protect the people. Now that Binjiang City is in trouble, our North China Field Army stationed near Binjiang City will certainly try our best to help." Wang Zhendao.

Captain Liu and his companions all thanked Wang Zhen excitedly.

What about Brigadier Wang Zhen? Hurry up to the commander-in-chief headquarters alone, and then prepare to report the situation to Commander Mu.

After Brigade Commander Wang Zhen quickly told Commander Mu about this matter, Commander Mu immediately felt that Wang Zhen should resolve the matter!

After Wang Zhen left the commander-in-chief, he went straight to his command room.

After arriving at the command room, Captain Liu of the police station and a few others were waiting there.

Seeing that Brigadier Wang Zhen finally came back, he hurriedly asked one by one, "Brigadier Wang, how is it? Did the commander-in-chief agree?"

But seeing Wang Zhen smiled slightly and said: "Don't worry, I agree!"

When Wang Zhen said this, Captain Liu and the policemen around him became excited.

"Great, great... Thank you so much, Brigadier Wang."

Wang Zhen waved his hand slightly: "You are welcome!"

"Let's go back to Binjiang City first. In the afternoon, if there is no accident, I will immediately send someone to Binjiang City to join you. I want to see what kind of perverted character is so cruel in Binjiang City. thing."

"Okay, Brigadier Wang."

"Then we won't bother you... Let's go back to Binjiang City and wait for you there." Team Liu said.

Wang Zhen smiled and said, "Okay."

Chapter 1854: ready to go

So he personally sent Captain Liu and several other policemen to leave here.

After sending away Captain Liu and others, Brigadier Wang Zhen began to prepare to go to Binjiang City.

He currently doesn't know who the murderer was who did these cruel things on the Bund of Binjiang City. The only thing he has to do now is to take someone to Binjiang City in the afternoon.

At noon, the brothers happened to see Brigadier Wang Zhen in the canteen of the military district.

"Brigade Commander Wang." Called Wang Zhen's name, but saw Tang Xiaolong, Xue Wuhen, and Chen Qiaozhi and Na Jiang Dashan walking towards this side.

After seeing them, Wang Zhen smiled and said, "It's you."

"I haven't seen you much during this period of time, Brigadier Wang, what are you doing?" Tang Xiaolong said and smiled while sitting down.

Wang Zhen said: "It's nothing too busy, but the military area is about to conduct a major exercise, so I'm a little busy."

The brothers did not say much when they heard Brigadier Wang Zhen say this.

"Oh, by the way, is there any news from Li Tian? Has he practiced well?" Wang Zhen asked concerned.

I saw the brothers shook their heads depressedly and said: "Brother Tian, it may take a while!"

"Yeah, it's impossible for the little boss to come out so quickly."

Hearing what the brothers said, Wang Zhen let out an "Oh" casually.

"Hey, if Li Tian has cultivated well now, that would be great, then he can accompany me to Binjiang City this time." Brigadier Wang Zhen said while sighing.

Listening to Brigadier Wang Zhen suddenly saying this, the brothers were not only taken aback, but blinked at Wang Zhen and said, "Brigadier Wang, what did you mean? Go to Binjiang City? Why did the little boss go to Binjiang City with you?"

Then Wang Zhen smiled embarrassingly: "In fact, it's nothing. It's just that there have been a few small and large homicides in Binjiang City these days, and the police can't solve them. So they came here this morning and asked us to the military area. Send someone to solve the problem, hoping to catch the murderer."

"Oh, that's how it is." said the brothers on one side.

"Wa, since the little boss is still cultivating, then we can go with you..." Tang Xiaolong, who had a big mouth, suddenly said there.

Listening to Tang Xiaolong suddenly saying this, Wang Zhen was suddenly depressed.

what?

"You are going?"

I saw that Tang Xiaolong grinned and said, "Hey, don't tell me, I have been here all this time, my * is about to get sores, I really want to go out, Brigadier Wang, anyway, recently It's okay, so let's take us to Binjiang City with you... and catch the murderer. In this case, we not only helped you, but also killed the people. What a good thing, Haha, are you right?"

Hearing what this guy said, Brigadier Wang Zhen frowned slightly.

"Li Tian said, let you all stay in the North China Field Army, and you are not allowed to run around... Besides, you have to wait for Li Tian." Brigadier Wang Zhen said in front of him.

Hearing what Brigadier Wang said, he only listened to Tang Xiaolong in front of him: "It's okay, the little boss will definitely not be able to cultivate well so soon...So please don't worry, Brigadier Wang!"

Xue Wuhen over there was boring enough to stay in the North China Field Army during this period, so he said at this moment: "Yes, we are not far from Binjiang City. It will be half an hour. If Brother Tian really cultivates well, We can also rush back as soon as possible, it's fine anyway."

Hearing what the brothers said, Wang Zhen frowned and looked at the brothers and said, "Then, then you really want to go to Binjiang City with me? Catch the murderer?"

I saw the brothers saying, "Go! Anyway, I can stay there and have nothing to do. It's fun to catch the murderer with you!"

"Yeah, maybe we will go, and we can help you!"

After the brothers said so, then Brigadier Wang Zhen thought for a while, so he said: "Well, since everyone wants to go to Binjiang City with me, let's go together."

"Good!" the brothers said happily there.

"Brigadier Wang, when will we leave?" the brothers asked.

Just listen to Wang Zhen said: "We will leave in the afternoon."

"Huh? So fast?" the brothers said.

"So, go back and clean up quickly, follow me in the afternoon, and let's go straight to Binjiang City." Wang Zhen said.

"Good, good, good."

After the brothers said this, they decided to go to Binjiang City with Wang Zhen to catch the murderer.

After the brothers came back, they first told the fairy Baihua of their thoughts.

Because Li Tian said before, no matter what they want to do, they must first get the consent of the fairy Baihua.

After they told the Baihua Fairy what they thought, but saw Baihua Fairy Liu frowned slightly looking at the brothers and said, "Ah, are you going to follow Brigadier Wang to Binjiang City to catch the murderer?"

But seeing Tang Xiaolong cheeky there he laughed and said, "Yes."

"What murderer did you catch?" Baihua Fairy asked and asked again.

At this time, the brothers were depressed. In fact, they didn't know what murderer was arrested. They only heard Wang Zhen said that he was going to Binjiang City to arrest the murderer, but they actually didn't know what kind of murderer was arrested.

So every one of them said, "We don't know..."

Fairy Baihua looked at the brothers there and couldn't help but sighed and said, "Are you tired of staying here?"

"No, no..." Tang Xiaolong said quickly.

The Baihua Fairy pursed his lips and said softly: "I know that Tian'er is not here this time, you are all bored... Well, since you are going to Binjiang City, then I promise you, but there is one thing, you must Assure me, that is to pay attention to safety! Don't have an accident, if something happens to you, Tian'er comes out, how should I explain to him? You must also know how much Tian'er cares about you brothers. "

Listening to Fairy Baihua saying this, the brothers all said, "Auntie Hua, don't worry, we promise that there will be no accidents.

Looking at the brothers, Fairy Baihua finally said: "Okay, then you go, remember to finish your work and come back early."

"we know!"

After obtaining the consent of Fairy Baihua, the brothers happily prepared to go to Binjiang City.

As for what kind of murderer to catch in Binjiang City this time? And what will they encounter? They don't even know.

The afternoon is here soon.

The brigade commander Wang Zhen prepared 3 military jeeps and followed him with 78 capable team members selected from the brigade headquarters.

Chapter 1855: Silly man in the way

Brothers all ran over at this time.

There were Tang Xiaolong, Xue Wuhen, Chen Qiaozhi, Jiang Dashan, and others.

"Get in the car, let's set off now." Brigadier Wang Zhen stood in the military jeep and waved to the brothers one by one.

"Come, here." The brothers trot over one by one.

After running over, the brothers got on the military jeep in front of them one by one.

Wang Zhen also got into the car and said to the soldier in front of him: "Let's go."

So the soldier started the car, ready to go.

When the car was just started and was about to drive away, a giant hand suddenly patted the front window glass.

For the sudden change, the soldier who drove was taken aback.

Even the brothers were shocked!

"Who? How did you block the way?"

Brigadier Wang Zhen in the car said angrily after seeing some inexplicable people blocking the way.

The brothers also looked outside in wonder, and followed their eyes, but saw a burly and majestic giant-like hunk standing motionless outside, staring at them with those big eyes flickering.

Stupid?

"Hey, isn't this a silly man? Why did he come here?" The brothers said depressed all of a sudden.

It turned out that the macho who stretched out a huge palm to block this military off-road vehicle was the silly man.

This guy suddenly stopped them, what does he want?

After the brothers all saw that it was the silly man who was blocking the way, they were taken aback first, then quickly opened the door and jumped out of the car.

"Man'er, why are you here?" Seeing Xue Wuhen gloomily looking at the big man'er and asked.

Tang Xiaolong in front of him also gazed at this huge and incomparably gloomy guy and asked, "Hey, silly big guy, why are you blocking our way?"

After they all asked, Silly Man'er stretched out a sturdy arm and wiped his nose suddenly, and said in a naive way: "I'm going..."

Suddenly hearing this stupid man said he was going, the brothers were depressed right now.

what?

"Man'er, are you going there?"

"Yeah, where are you going?" The brothers looked at the foolish man and asked.

But seeing the silly man'er suddenly grinned and smiled.

"You go there, I will go there!"

Listening to this guy suddenly say this, my brothers suddenly hurt!

Looking at the silly man in front of him, Tang Xiaolong smiled and said: "Man'er, obedient, we are going to do business, you stay in the North China Field Army."

"No, I'm going." Silly Man'er said stubbornly, staring.

"Man'er, why are you not obedient? Can your sister let you come out and follow us out? Really." Tang Xiaolong continued.

But seeing that stupid man said stupidly: "My sister, I don't know."

"Ah? Your sister doesn't know?" The brothers almost squirted out.

But seeing the silly man's nodding honestly there.

"I rub, you didn't even tell your sister, so you can't go with us, Man'er, think about it, if you want to leave inexplicably alone, how worried is your sister, right? So, You'd better go back quickly and be obedient." The brothers in front of him were all there to persuade the hunk.

Listening to the brothers being there to persuade him, Silly Man's suddenly became angry.

"Aren't you taking me?" Silly Man'er asked, suddenly staring.

The brothers saw that this silly guy suddenly lost his temper and was shocked. They knew that this hunk had terrifying strength. His punch would definitely make Tang Xiaolong lying on the bed for half a month and he wouldn't be able to get it down, so brothers All are a little afraid of him.

But the brothers still said: "Can't..." After all, Man'er is a symbol of "stupidness" in their hearts, and they are all afraid of taking this horrible guy out.

But after they uttered the words to reject that silly man, the silly man was really angry!

I saw him suddenly roar, and the whole person suddenly ran towards the front of the off-road vehicle.

The brothers saw that this silly guy was mad, and was shocked. I didn't know what he was going to do. He stared at him with wide-eyed eyes, but when he saw the silly man's roar, he had already reached the military off-road. Go to the front of the car.

Then he suddenly stretched out two extremely strong arms, grabbed the front chassis of the military off-road vehicle, and suddenly used force, the terrifying and domineering force directly lifted the military off-road vehicle one foot from the ground...

The soldier sitting in the car almost peed in fright!

Nima, when did he ever see a person lifting an off-road vehicle empty-handed?

Abnormal, not human!

"Nima, what is Man'er doing?"

"He, he, he, Nima, doesn't he want to overturn our car..."

"Oh, with this strength, this is the first time I've seen it in my mother's life!!! Too fierce...too mighty." The brothers were all stunned there, looking at the stupid man with eyesight. The off-road vehicle is being lifted higher and higher.

After seeing this scene, Chen Qiaozhi quickly reached out and hit Tang Xiaolong next to him and said, "Why are you still stunned? Don't let Man'er stop quickly... Don't forget, there are still people in the car! "

When Tang Xiaolong heard this, he suddenly woke up, trot over quickly, and said to the silly man with brute strength: "Man, stop...stop..."

Silly Man'er raised the off-road vehicle in his hand bravely, and turned his head to look at Tang Xiaolong and said, "I want to go!!!"

Tang Xiaolong saw this stupid guy still wanting to follow them. In desperation, he nodded and said, "Okay, okay, okay, Man'er, let's listen to you, okay? You quickly put the car down... ...Slow down slowly, okay?"

Upon hearing that Tang Xiaolong had actually agreed to himself, Silly Man'er grinned suddenly.

With a loosening of his hands and a bang, the off-road vehicle that was raised more than a foot high suddenly landed in front of the vehicle. The soldier who was sitting in the vehicle was pale with fright, and was completely stunned...

However, the brothers finally let out a sigh of relief after Silly Man'er put the car down.

I saw that the silly man suddenly ran over, and said to Tang Xiaolong with a smile on her silly face: "You just promised me...you must not lie to me, if you want to lie to me, I I will beat you!"

Listening to that silly man's words, Tang Xiaolong almost cried out of tears.

He was really afraid of this stupid man. The natural power of this stupid man really made him painful, so he could only nod his head repeatedly and said, "Okay, okay, okay, I promise to take you there."

After speaking, he turned his head to look at the other brothers.

The brothers looked at him suspiciously.

"Fuck me, what can I do? Bring Man'er... I'm afraid he will beat me!" Tang Xiaolong said silently.

The brothers can only sigh one by one.

"Brigadier Wang, there is no way. Let's take Man'er. If you don't take him today, I guess he will tear down all three of your cars alive later." Chen Qiaozhi walked over and faced him. Brigadier Wang Zhen said.

Brigadier Wang Zhen had witnessed the terrifying power of that stupid man with his own eyes just now, this would be completely speechless.

I can only nodded and said: "Okay, okay, okay, take him."

In this way, the brothers have no choice but to bring a silly man!

Who would dare to say not to bring Silly Man'er today, I guess who would definitely be violently beaten by Silly Man'er!

It is definitely not a joke to be beaten by this guy.

They had no choice but to take the silly man.

After getting in the car, the silly man's huge body sat in the back position alone. This hunk man's body was worth two, so he sat in the back position alone.

Chapter 1856: To Binjiang

In this way, after the group finally got in the car, they started to set off.

Three military off-road vehicles slowly drove away from the North China Field Army.

On the way, everyone was silent. They all blinked and looked at the silly man sitting behind, all surprised and suspicious that the big guy was following them.

What about the silly man behind? Ever since I got into the car, I haven't spoken, stared out of the window, without blinking, no one knows what the guy is looking at, no one knows what's inside his head. What are you thinking about.

The car drove fast all the way.

Finally Xue Wuhen broke the silence in the car. He looked at Chen Qiaozhi beside him and asked, "Qiaozhi, Man'er is here with us. What if his sister becomes worried?"

Chen Qiaozhi stroked the gold-wire glasses on the bridge of his nose, looked at the silly man sitting motionless behind him, and thought for a while and said: "I suggest that Brigadier Wang make a phone call and tell the North China Military Region Ouyang Shiqing. Now, otherwise she must be worried."

"En, too!" Xue Wuhen said.

"But I think Man'er is just fine with us, even though Man'er's head is not so good...but with him, how do I feel the fuck, how safe, hehe." Tang Xiaolong suddenly interjected.

Hearing Tang Xiaolong's words, the brothers nodded their heads without saying anything.

Yes, they have this giant to follow, who dares to move them? Who dares to mess with them?

So Xue Wuhen approached Wang Zhen and told Wang Zhen about the situation. Wang Zhen didn't hesitate, and immediately dialed the phone and told Ouyang Shiqing from the North China Field Army Command, and said that Man'er would follow. After briefly talking about their affairs, Brigadier Wang Zhen hung up the phone.

After seeing Brigadier Wang Zhen hang up, Xue Wuhen looked at him and asked, "How is it?"

Wang Zhen smiled slightly and said, "Don't worry, I have already told that side, I believe Miss Ouyang Shiqing will know soon."

"Oh, all right."

After a pause, Xue Wuhen suddenly asked again, "By the way, Brigadier Wang, you haven't told us what murderer you caught?"

After hearing Xue Wuhen's question, the brothers beside him couldn't help saying at this moment: "Yes, Brigadier Wang, what murderer is so exciting?"

Wang Zhen turned his head and said to the brothers: "Actually, I don't know very well. I only know that the murderer was extremely cruel, like a beast... The people who were killed were all bitten off by their necks. ."

Listening to Brigadier Wang Zhen's words, the brothers not only frowned.

"Break the throat tube?" Tang Xiaolong asked depressed.

Wang Zhen nodded.

"Furthermore, the seven dead were killed alive at night. In one month, the police have not had any clues." Wang Zhendao.

The brothers thought for a while and said, "It seems this perverted murderer likes to commit crimes at night."

"Yes."

"I hope we can catch the perverted murderer as soon as possible this time," Wang Zhendao said.

The car sprinted all the way quickly, and soon, he had already seen the bustling Binjiang city ahead.

After arriving in Binjiang City, that silly man could not help looking at the colorful crowd outside with a pair of big flickering eyes, as if everything was fresh in his eyes.

Where are the brothers here? Not so much interest, sitting in the car one by one.

"Brigadier Wang, shall we go there now? Don't we find a place to rest first?" Chen Qiaozhi asked Wang Zhen in the car.

But when Wang Zhendao said, "Don't worry, we have a place to live, and others have already arranged it for us."

"Where?" Chen Qiaozhi asked casually.

"Police station!" Brigadier Wang Zhen said in front of him.

what?

Hearing what Wang Zhen said, the brothers were taken aback, this brigade commander Wang Zhen brought the brothers into the police station?

"Live at the police station?" Tang Xiaolong over there felt a little depressed when he heard it.

Yes, brothers have lived anywhere, but they have never lived in the police station. No, in a sense, it is really awkward.

But I heard that brigade commander Wang Zhen said with a smile: "Don't worry, this time the police station specially asked us to help. Don't you even arrange a place to live? If you live in the police station, you live in the police station... Are you still afraid of it?"

"Fear of birds! Those who are afraid of hairy, just live!" Tang Xiaolong said with a grin.

In fact, the brothers just felt awkward to live in the police station for the first time. As for whether they were afraid or not, this is really nonsense.

In this way, the brigade commander Wang Zhen led his brothers toward the police station in Binjiang City.

Soon, after three military off-road vehicles drove through the crowded and prosperous streets of Binjiang City, they took a few turns and arrived at the police station in Binjiang City.

After arriving at the gate of the Binjiang City Police Station, I saw that someone was already there to receive them at the gate of the police station.

The chief of the police station, Chief Zhou, and Captain Liu of the criminal investigation team who had invited Brigadier Wang Zhen before that stood at the forefront, followed by a few civilian policemen.

After the three military off-road vehicles arrived, they stopped at the gate with a hiss.

"Here, let's get off the car."

Following Wang Zhen's words, he opened the door and jumped out of the car.

After jumping off, Director Zhou and Captain Liu of the Criminal Investigation Team hurried over to greet them.

"Welcome, welcome, Brigadier Wang..." Director Zhou came over and shook hands with Brigadier Wang Zhen affectionately.

"Thank you so much, thank you for coming to help this time..." Director Zhou said, holding the hand of Brigadier Wang Zhen tightly forehead.

Wang Zhen laughed and said: "The Zhou Bureau is polite, this is not a trivial matter."

The two talked and laughed.

At this time, the armed police officers and soldiers on the two cars behind also got out of the car neatly.

And Tang Xiaolong and his brothers also got out of the car one by one.

"Damn, it's finally here." Tang Xiaolong said in his mouth while jumping out of the car.

Hearing the voice of the servant, Chief Zhou and Captain Liu of the police station over there blinked suspiciously to look at Tang Xiaolong, and the brothers who came down...

In the end, they saw the majestic man with the size of a giant, stupid!

But when he got out of the car, the silly man's body was too tall, and the silly guy forgot to lower his head, and banged his head on the roof of the car. After being hit, the silly man's head hurt and frowned. His stout arms rubbed his head, and then walked out of the car with his head down.

Chapter 1857: Dispatch

Then Tang Xiaolong and Xue Wuhen watched the silly man's head hit the roof of the car all of a sudden, and couldn't help laughing. Even the civilian policemen at the police station over there laughed out loud. .

They all couldn't help thinking: how silly this stuff should be! ! !

"I'm silly, Man'er, what if you laugh at me to death?" Tang Xiaolong said there with a heartless laugh.

The brothers beside him also laughed.

But seeing the silly man'er didn't pay attention to them at all, as if ignoring them, he walked out of the car while rubbing his head.

And what about the people at the police station here?

Director Zhou and Captain Liu of the Criminal Investigation Squad suddenly frowned when they saw Silly Man'er and Tang Xiaolong, and wondered what such a group of people did? Why are you with Brigadier Wang Zhen?

At this moment Director Zhou looked at the Brigadier Wang Zhen and asked, "Brigadier Wang, may I ask, who are these?"

Wang Zhen introduced, "These are my good brothers. I came here this time and I specially invited them to help you."

After listening to Brigadier Wang Zhen say this, Director Zhou was depressed at the moment, and couldn't help thinking to himself: How many people still come to help? Also invited here specially? Are you kidding me?

And the plainclothes policemen on the other side of the police station not only whispered about them one by one, it was obvious that they all looked down on Tang Xiaolong's stupidity.

But he said that Brigadier Wang Zhen had already seen the contempt of Director Zhou, and he didn't care much. After all, Tang Xiaolong and the others had always been like this.

Although Director Zhou thought so in his heart, since it was the person brought by Brigadier Wang Zhen, he couldn't talk too much, so he smiled and said, "Thank you very much, Brigadier Wang."

Wang Zhen smiled slightly and said, "You're welcome."

"Little Liu, you can quickly arrange the accommodation for Brigadier Wang Zhen and his friends..." Director Zhou said to Team Liu from the criminal investigation team behind him.

When Liu team heard it, he said: "Okay, okay."

"Brigade Commander Wang, you are struggling all the way. We have arranged a place to rest for you. We also ask you to go and rest first." Captain Liu said while looking at Wang Zhendao in front of him.

Wang Zhen said, "Okay, I will trouble you."

Team Liu said, "No trouble, no trouble, it should be."

Director Zhou over there also said to Brigadier Wang Zhen at this moment: "Brigadier Wang, I still have work issues that have not been dealt with, so I will not accompany you for now... If you have any needs, just Tell Xiao Liu and the others, ha ha."

Wang Zhen said: "Okay."

After speaking, the Secretary left here that week.

And here, Brigadier Wang Zhen followed Captain Liu of the Criminal Investigation Team and a few civilian policemen, walking towards the inside.

The brothers followed one by one.

"Sick ghost, it's the first time I live in the police station. It's really awkward." Tang Xiaolong muttered from behind as he walked.

Then Chen Qiaozhi also smiled slightly: "Everyone may be."

"After all, only the police and criminals can live here."

The brothers said as they walked, but what about the silly man behind? Then they followed them silently.

The moment his burly and majestic body got off the car, it attracted everyone's attention, especially the two lumps of mucus left on the nose of this man, sucking at that person who could not see it. This product is two hundred and five!

But no matter what, the brothers were arranged to live in the police station in front of them.

The arranged place was a nice room. After the brothers settled down a little bit, they all sat in the room.

After a few words between Captain Liu of the Criminal Investigation Team and Wang Zhen, he left.

Soon, only the brothers and Wang Zhen were left here.

"Brigadier Wang, when do you start to act?" Tang Xiaolong, who was sitting there, asked.

After Tang Xiaolong asked, Brigadier Wang Zhen in front of him said: "If there is no accident, we will act tonight."

"Oh" Tang Xiaolong said, "Anyway, the sooner the better, the province will be boring."

In this way, they waited for it to get dark, because it is said that the "perverted" murderer would only go out to kill at night.

So the brothers waited.

After Brigadier Wang Zhen brought his brothers and a dozen soldiers to the Binjiang Police Station, to be honest, those policemen had some opinions on the brothers.

Especially silly.

They all felt that the silly man was like a big idiot, and they all felt that Brigadier Wang Zhen was just playing around when he came to help.

Inside the criminal investigation team's office, the room door was tightly closed there.

I only heard the voice coming from inside: "Team Liu, why did the brigade commander Wang bring such a group of people here? Why do I feel that those people are useless at all... It's like a gangster on the street!"

"Yeah, Team Liu, you don't think that group of people take it seriously, and how come you look at the biggest guy, the more you look like a fool!" Just listen to the criminal investigation team's office, where the criminal investigation team members are there. Deeply discussing Tang Xiaolong and Silly Man'er.

To be honest, Captain Liu was also depressed, and he didn't know how Brigadier Wang Zhen would bring such a few people here!

Why doesn't he bring more troops here? But brought that group of people?

After thinking about it, Captain Liu said to the players who were all talking: "Okay, okay, let's stop now..."

"It's already pretty good when people come to help. Besides, how do you know that the people led by Brigadier Wang Zhen are not good?" Team Liu said coldly to a group of men.

But I saw one of the men wearing jackets said: "Team Liu, did you just see it? When the big silly guy got out of the car, his head slammed into the roof of the car and almost laughed at me... What can this silly fellow do?"

"Yes."

Hearing these people say this, Captain Liu of the Criminal Investigation Team groaned and was not talking.

His mind was spinning there, and he thought to himself that although Brigadier Wang Zhen brought people to help them, it might not be of much use... It seems that they have to catch the perverted murderer themselves!

Time passed by every minute.

Soon night came.

After the night came, Wang Zhen first took the brothers to a simple dinner, and then he was ready to wait for his departure.

The police station has all the personnel ready. Captain Liu of the Criminal Investigation Team personally leads them. There are a dozen people in total. When they set out, they notified Brigadier Wang Zhen and the brothers.

So Wang Zhen took all his brothers and started out.

Chapter 1858: ambush

When I was leaving, I saw that the brothers wanted to prevent the silly man from going because they were afraid of bad things. But after they said it, the silly man got angry, his eyes widened and staring. Each one of them said angrily: "Who won't let me go? I'll beat one of you!"

After listening to the silly man's words, the brothers shut up quickly, no one dared to say not to let him go anymore, even the big-mouthed Tang Xiaolong didn't dare to say it.

In this way, they can only go with the silly man.

"At present, this street, this street, and this street to the west are frequently frequented by murderers... and the previous seven dead were killed on these three streets, so we suspect , The murderer must be here."

On the map, I saw the experienced criminal investigation team leader Liu Team holding the map and explaining to Wang Zhen and the brothers.

But seeing the brothers glanced at the map, Chen Qiaozhi, with bright eyes, was the first to find a clue.

"Hey, isn't the place surrounded by these three blocks the Bund?" Chen Qiaozhi said suddenly.

At this moment, Team Liu heard Chen Qiaozhi say so, not only glanced at him slightly, and said: "This gentleman is right...We suspect that the murderer is currently on the Bund, but we don't know who it is, so we go down. The one-step deployment policy must be carried out around the Bund."

The Bund!

When Wang Zhen, Tang Xiaolong, and Chen Qiaozhi heard the words The Bund, they all felt strange in their hearts!

The gringy attack a month ago is still vivid in their minds!

Now, is this cruel murder happening again on the Bund? What kind of person will do it?

While the brothers were thinking about it, Team Liu looked at Brigadier Wang Zhen and said, "Brigadier Wang, do you have any questions?"

After hearing Captain Liu's question, Wang Zhen shook his head slightly: "No!"

"Okay, let's go now."

"Brigadier Wang, there are other people in our criminal investigation team who are lying in ambush on these two streets, and the street to the west is ambushed by your people, what do you think?" Captain Liu was there and said to Wang Zhen.

Wang Zhendao said: "Okay."

"Well, then arrange it like this." Captain Liu said.

After speaking, he turned his head and said to a young guy who looked 2526 years old and said: "Xiao Zhang, you are responsible for assisting Brigadier Wang Zhen and them tonight."

The young man named Xiao Zhang smiled and walked over and said, "Okay."

"Brigade Commander Wang, if you have any questions about the case, or if you need any help, you can ask Xiao Zhang." Captain Liu said to Wang Zhen.

Wang Zhen smiled and said, "Don't worry."

"Well, that's it, let's go."

After Captain Liu gave an order, five police vehicles and three military off-road vehicles drove quickly towards the Bund.

They are going to ambush in that neighborhood tonight, waiting for the perverted murderer to come out.

Along the way, the car was racing there, the brothers were sitting in the car, and there was Xiao Zhang from the criminal investigation team beside it.

"Comrade Xiao Zhang, may I ask, how long has the recent homicides been?" Brigadier Wang Zhen, who was sitting in the car, looked at Xiao Zhang and asked.

Na Xiao Zhang replied: "It has been a month."

Wang Zhen frowned slightly: "Seven people have died in a month, right?"

"Yes."

"Then have you squatted like this before? Ambush the murderer?" Wang Zhen continued to ask.

But seeing that Xiao Zhang replied: "We have started to deploy back and forth in those three blocks half a month ago, but we still found nothing, and we didn't see any trace of the perverted murderer at all!"

After Wang Zhen heard this, he was not only depressed, but he said to himself: Could it be that the perverted murderer already knew what was going on, and he had stopped doing it? If this is the case, it would be troublesome, because if the murderer does not come out, all the deployment of the police and Wang Zhen will be in vain.

After thinking about it, Wang Zhen didn't speak any more.

When their motorcade was about to reach the Bund, they all separated from the police car. Because Wang Zhen and his brothers wanted to guard the street on the west side, they were at the crossroads in front, and the car turned towards The west block drove away.

The Bund, they are here again!

After the car drove to West Street, I saw that this street was very prosperous and crowded. Because it was already in the Bund area, it was very lively.

After they arrived, they just listened to Xiao Zhang said: "Brigadier Wang, let's lie in wait and watch in this block."

Sitting in the car, Wang Zhen looked at the surrounding environment and said, "It's really nice here, with a wide view and unobstructed view. Let's be here tonight..."

"Company Captain Yu, you take the others to the other side to guard, remember not to stun the snake, and prepare me closely for cover." Brigadier Wang Zhen ordered there.

The man called Company Commander Yu was a burly soldier. After hearing the order from Brigadier Wang Zhen, he stood up and saluted: "Yes!"

Then he took the other two cars to the other end of this West Street!

Brothers and Wang Zhen are on this end of the block. If the perverted murderer dared to come out tonight, he would definitely not be able to get out. There are people on both ends of the block. I am afraid that he can't run even if he wants to.

In this way, after the commander Wang Zhen ordered, they drove the car into a hidden corner, and then began to wait quietly, waiting for the appearance of the murderer.

It depends on luck.

And what Brigadier Wang Zhen and his brothers did tonight is undoubtedly to wait and see, and what they need is the same luck.

They don't know whether the so-called murderer will come out, let alone whether the murderer will kill people today. They can only hope that the perverted murderer will come out tonight, and then let them catch him.

But how can there be so many good things in the world?

Wait, the boring wait is long.

The brothers just sat in the car and waited boringly.

One hour passed.

Two or two hours passed.

Four hours passed.

It's already more than one o'clock in the morning, and people are gradually becoming scarce in the originally prosperous neighborhood. Occasionally, one or two pedestrians can be seen hurriedly passing by, and they are walking away in a blink of an eye, even the storefront that was still lit. It's all closed!

The whole block became desolate and dark.

After waiting for a few hours, the brothers were a little sleepy and their eyes were so fluffy that they could hardly open them.

And the silly man sitting behind snored and fell asleep early. After waiting for half an hour, the boy fell asleep... The snoring sound was like thunder, and it was deadly.

Chapter 1859: Caught

The brothers were not only depressed when they heard the snoring sound of that stupid man.

But no one dared to move the foolish man, because they were all beaten.

"It's so fragrant to sleep together." Tang Xiaolong rubbed his eyes and said to the foolish man who was sitting behind his fingers with snoring water.

The brothers next to him smiled when he heard him say this.

Xue Wuhen said: "Stupid people have their own stupid blessings, hey, I am willing to be a man like a man, so I don't have to think about things frequently in my head.

"Yes, blessed."

After talking for a while, the brothers began to wait here.

After waiting for more than half an hour, I saw Tang Xiaolong looking at the street where there was no human figure and said, "Fuck, I guess the murderer can't come out today, right?"

"We've all waited till this hour... we haven't seen it."

Chen Qiaozhi beside that said: "This murderer comes out as hard as the Super Six Lottery, so go ahead slowly."

Turning over while talking, then kept waiting.

Wang Zhen looked at Xiao Zhang who was sitting beside him and asked, "Comrade Xiao Zhang, do you think the murderer has left here?"

After hearing the words of Brigadier Wang Zhen, Xiao Zhang of the Criminal Investigation Team was slightly startled and said: "Actually, we have actually had this idea... But, but, there is no way. The above forces us to arrest. We got to the murderer, but we have no clues now, except for the wound on the neck where the deceased was bitten off, there is no clue at all, so we can only die like this."

"Oh, that means you don't guarantee that the murderer will definitely appear here, do you?" Wang Zhendao asked.

That Xiao Zhang nodded and said, "Yes."

Brigadier Wang Zhen did not ask any more.

Time passed by, and suddenly the walkie-talkie in Zhang's hand rang at this time.

I saw the voice of Team Liu from the Criminal Investigation Team on the walkie-talkie. He only heard him ask: "Xiao Zhang, Xiao Zhang, is there any movement on your side?"

But Xiao Zhang said to the intercom: "No!"

"Oh, I see." Captain Liu said.

Then the intercom hung up.

Since Captain Liu asked so, it is estimated that there is no movement on their side.

Could it be said that tonight is really a futile night?

When the time arrived almost 3 o'clock in the morning, a dark shadow suddenly appeared on the block where Wang Zhen and his brothers were waiting.

The black shadow was walking slowly. Because the street light was too dim, it was impossible to see who the black shadow was, but it was definitely a person!

"Something happened...someone showed up!" Jiang Dashan, who was the first to spot the figure in front of him, suddenly shouted in the car.

Then the brothers who heard his voice hurriedly got up one by one, all of them opened their eyes and looked forward!

"There really are people!" Brigadier Wang Zhen said there.

At the moment, Xiao Zhang next to him was staring cautiously at the mysterious figure that appeared on the block in front.

I saw the figure in front walking slowly there, no one knew what the figure came from.

"Could that person be a perverted murderer?" Tang Xiaolong blinked and said as he looked at the shadow in front of him.

The brothers in front of him shook their heads, of course they didn't know.

"Brigadier Wang, the man seems to be about to turn around and turn right away..." Chen Qiaozhi suddenly said to Wang Zhen there.

Wang Zhen could also see that the figure in front was walking towards the alley of West Street step by step.

"What should I do now?" Tang Xiaolong next to him suddenly looked at the brigade commander Wang Zhen and asked.

"Do you want to go out and arrest people?"

"If you don't do anything, that person will leave."

Seeing the black shadow man walking step by step towards the dark alley in the middle block, the brothers asked anxiously.

Wang Zhen said, "But the other party didn't kill at all...and didn't reveal any clues...How do we arrest people?"

"If the other party is not the murderer, we can release him again, but if he is, we can have this opportunity now. If we miss it, we won't know if this * murderer will come out next time. Up."

Listening to the analysis by the brothers, Wang Zhen stared at him, staring at the figure of the black figure in front of him, and said suddenly, "Okay, then catch him!"

With Wang Zhen's order, the soldier sitting in the driver's seat in front was already ready.

With a hum, the car hidden in the dark started directly, and the two headlights of the car turned on in an instant... With the foot on the gas pedal, the car was as fierce as a tiger toward the dark shadow in front of it. Drive away.

The car lights shone on the black shadow in front of him, and the black shadow man also seemed to be taken aback and startled. Seeing that the car was driving straight towards him, the black shadow man saw that the situation was not good, and immediately began to run away. Ran to the alley.

After Wang Zhen and their car came after it, they stopped with a hiss.

"Damn, don't let him run away!"

Then Tang Xiaolong roared, opened the car door with a slam, and jumped out directly, and then chased the black shadow man like the wind.

"Asshole, I see you running there!" Tang Xiaolong, who was chasing wildly, roared there.

Brigadier Wang Zhen behind him and his brothers all jumped out of the car and quickly chased them.

But he said that the shadow man in front was scared and screamed, running like hell.

But this Tang Xiaolong is running fast there?

So after the black shadow man ran out more than ten meters, Tang Xiaolong had already caught up from behind.

A hungry wolf pounced on his body, and directly threw the dark shadow man to the ground.

"Your mother, I see you running there!"

Tang Xiaolong held down the black shadow man, and then directly hit the man's face with a fist.

The black shadow man who was held by Tang Xiaolong screamed in pain... while struggling there, he shouted, "Don't hit me, don't hit me, please don't hit me..."

The brothers behind him all ran over at this time, and Xiao Zhang from the criminal investigation team even took out a gun, and nervously pointed the gun at the man's head on the ground.

"Nima, do you want to run away from me?" Tang Xiaolong said as he grabbed the shadow man.

After lifting the black shadow man, he saw that the black shadow man was in his 30s, skinny, bloodshot in his eyes, and his face looked haggard at the same time.

After seeing the appearance of this dark shadow man, the brothers were thinking: Is this guy a murderer? It's really not like it!

Chapter 1860: The Awakening of Silly Maner

"Haha, Brigadier Wang, I'm the best, I'll catch the murderer for you as soon as I shoot!" Tang Xiaolong boasted and said with a laugh while patting his chest. .

Wang Zhen ignored him, turned his head and coldly looked at the black shadow man whose nose was bleeding.

But seeing that the dark shadow man looked terrified, he curled up there, clutching his bleeding nose, and shouting there, "Don't hit me, don't hit me... I will pay back... I I will definitely pay you back..."

Listening to this guy saying so, the brothers and the brigade commander Wang Zhen by his side were stunned.

"Hey, what are you talking about? What are you going to pay?" Wang Zhen asked coldly.

The shrunken-looking middle-aged man glanced at Brigadier Wang Zhen and his brothers, and said in fear, "You...you...are not here to urge me to ask for money?"

The brothers suddenly broke the egg, especially Tang Xiaolong.

"Your sister, what money do I urge you to ask for? Isn't your grandma's perverted murderer?" Tang Xiaolong asked angrily while holding the shrunken middle-aged man in one hand.

When the middle-aged man heard Tang Xiaolong say this, he was immediately stunned!

"murderer?"

"I don't... I'm not... I just... I just came out of the casino... I don't know what murderer you are talking about." The man said bitterly.

It turns out that this man just came out of the casino, because he owed a lot of money in loan sharks, so he didn't even dare to return home. No, after he came out of the casino, he wandered on the street alone. He didn't expect to be taken by the unexpected Tang Xiaolong on the spot. Hold it down, and beat it hard, the guy thought it was a loan shark who forced him to pay back the money, so he was afraid

Hearing what this guy said, the brothers were immediately depressed, even Brigadier Wang Zhen was depressed.

Everyone looked at Tang Xiaolong at this time.

What about Tang Xiaolong? At this moment, it seems embarrassing to find a seam to get in. The brave state just now, all disappeared at this moment.

With a bitter expression on his face, he glanced viciously at the middle-aged wretched man, and exclaimed: "Your sister is not a murderer? What about you?"

The middle-aged man was so frightened by Tang Xiaolong's question, "I thought... I thought... you are lending usury!"

"Besides, you chase me like this behind, I'm afraid..."

Tang Xiaolong almost jumped up when he heard this.

"Your mother!" he scolded fiercely.

The brothers beside him gave Tang Xiaolong a blank look at this moment, and then ignored him and walked forward.

Tang Xiaolong watched them all go, and the egg broke immediately.

"Hey, hello, hello... what do you mean? Fuck, I don't know who he is, I see him running...so I just hold him down? Did I do something wrong? Am I wrong?" Tang Xiaolong shouted like the wronged little wife.

The brothers didn't even look at him, and said directly in unison: "Yes, you are wrong."

"Nima, you guys are really unjust!"

"Brigade Commander Wang, what do you do now? How do you deal with this guy?" Tang Xiaolong asked the Brigadier Commander Wang who was walking toward the front, facing the middle-aged wretched man alone.

But seeing Wang Zhen waved his hand and said, "What else can I do? Let them go..."

When Tang Xiaolong heard this, he didn't bother to take care of the middle-aged man anymore, and ran over quickly.

And that wretched middle-aged man? At this moment, I was beaten inexplicably and chased wildly all the way. I was so scared that my soul was about to fall. But it was a misunderstanding? This is worse than stepping on shit!

But he really couldn't help it. After slowly getting up from the ground, he wiped the blood on his nose, and then he walked slowly towards the dark alley. As he walked, he yelled: "Caoyou xx," I was so unlucky today...

As the brothers returned to the car, they closed their eyes one by one, as if sleeping.

Only Tang Xiaolong was depressed... I didn't expect that he had finally been brave once, but Nima caught the wrong person. It was too embarrassing, too embarrassing, and was thrown to grandma's house.

Therefore, he can only shut his mouth and stop talking.

However, when the brothers experienced the scene just now, they did not see that on the high-rise building on the left, four ghost-like figures in black cloaks stood motionlessly, watching what happened just now. Everything.

The place where they are standing is the tallest one-story building on West Street. The name of that building is: Juding Building!

This building has 60 floors and is the tallest huge building on the Bund in Binjiang City.

And now these four ghost-like figures stood motionless at the top in the dark night.

My God, the topmost layer is round, I really don't know how the four of them got up! Such a dark night, such a figure? What are they doing?

The cold wind blew on them like a knife, and they didn't seem to feel cold at all.

Dark night accompanies them, and all four of them are foreigners.

He had pale paper skin, and his face didn't seem to have any bloodshot eyes. He stood motionless there.

The man in front of him was elegantly dressed, with a weird ring on his slender and pale fingers. The ring exuded the breath of immortality, like the vitality of an ancient family, shining in the dark night.

He stared coldly at what was happening below, and suddenly a very evil and weird smile appeared on the corner of his mouth.

"Unexpectedly, there are still people against us?" A word came out of his mouth.

"Since they want to play, then I will play with them ignorant humans..."

"Soles, it's time for you to taste the blood of Chinese people today..." The elegant man suddenly said this sentence in the cold night.

The man called Sauls was a burly man behind him. The man had a shaved head and his eyes were filled with blue weird light. His face was not a little bloody, and he was behaving gracefully. After the man said that, he nodded slightly, and then said coldly: "Yes, Earl Spike!"

After he said so, suddenly his body jumped straight from the top of the Juding Building!

OMG, his body just flew down like this!

A tall building of sixty floors! ! Isn't he afraid of falling alive?

Just as his body was falling down suddenly, his body suddenly turned around, and he swished like a ghost, he had reached another low-rise building, and then his figure flashed again before disappearing, disappearing into endless In the darkness!

And what about the other three people who originally stood on the Juding Building? But it also disappeared instantly!

But they said that with their disappearance, and brothers and Wang Zhen? They were barely aware of it, and still sat bored in the car.

Sleep one by one, rest and rest.

Just when they were unaware of it, the silly man who was sitting behind and snoring asleep suddenly sat up suddenly!

He was already huge, but after sitting up all of a sudden, the movement was huge, awakening all the resting brothers and Wang Zhen.

But how could a silly man sit up all at once for no reason?

I looked at him carefully, but I saw that Silly Man's eyes widened, with an extremely weird look in his eyes, and a few weird words were suddenly spit out from his mouth: "There is murderous intent...something is nearby!"

The weird words came out of the stupid man's mouth like this!
