

A Killer 1861

Chapter 1861: Dead

The silly man's words immediately stunned the brothers in the car one by one.

Then they burst into laughter.

"Fuck me, Man'er, are you having a nightmare? What are you talking about?" Tang Xiaolong smiled and looked at the silly Man'er who was staring at the same time.

"Murderish? Murderous fart! Man'er, you should hurry to sleep... Obedient, good!"

Chen Qiaozhi and Xue Wuhen next to him didn't take Man's words to heart, and continued to rest with their heads tilted.

In the minds of the brothers, everyone knew that Man'er felt a little silly, so they didn't care about Man'er words at all.

How about stupid? After saying that sentence, there was not much explanation, but the body was tense and sat motionless, a pair of calf-like eyes burst open, as if feeling something.

Suddenly, the silly man slammed open the car door in front of him!

As the door of the car was pushed open by Silly Man'er, his huge body jumped out of the car directly.

Then he went crazy and ran towards the alley in the dark.

Seeing that Silly Man'er suddenly made such a weird behavior, the brothers were all stunned.

"Man'er, what are you doing?"

"Man'er, come back soon, where are you kid?" The brothers were all shocked, no one knew what was going on with this stupid man, why suddenly he went crazy and ran forward alone.

But what about silly men? But he didn't pay attention to them at all, just kept running towards the dark alley.

Looking at this situation, although the brothers didn't know what was going on, for the safety of the stupid man, they also quickly jumped out of the car.

"I'll rub, this silly boy, what the * is he going to do?" Tang Xiaolong cursed in his mouth while jumping out of the car.

"Who knows."

Na Xue Wuhen and Chen Qiaozhi also jumped out of the car at this moment.

Brigadier Wang Zhen and Xiao Zhang of the criminal investigation team also walked out of the car at this moment.

Xiao Zhang of the Criminal Investigation Team looked suspiciously at Brigadier Wang before him and asked, "Brigadier Wang, what's the matter with your friend?"

Wang Zhen looked a little embarrassed, and smiled slightly there, "My friend is not...not too smart...so..."

Xiao Zhang from the criminal investigation team heard this from Brigadier Wang Zhen, so he didn't speak again.

Wang Zhen glanced at the place where Silly Man'er ran in front, and said quickly: "Little Long Qiaozhi, let's chase Man'er, don't let him run away."

"Got it."

"Go, hurry up and chase that silly guy."

After speaking, I saw the brothers and the brigade commander Wang Zhen hurriedly to chase after the man.

However, they said that the place they were chasing was just the laneway. This lane was dark, and it was even darker without street lights. The brothers chased them while shouting the name of that silly man.

Fortunately, this alley is not very long. After the brothers chased out for a hundred meters, they saw the silly figure in the street in front, but saw that he was standing motionless in the front place, his expression was dull, I don't know what he was doing. .

"Man'er, what are you doing?" After seeing the silly Man'er's figure, all the brothers rushed over.

"This silly boy, finally found him."

But he said that after all the brothers ran over, that silly man suddenly turned around and looked at them.

"Dead man!" A word came out of his mouth. As he said, he pointed his finger at the place in front of him.

When the brothers heard the words "dead man" coming out of the silly man's mouth, they couldn't help being stunned, and then subconsciously raised their eyes to look at the place where the silly man was pointing with his fingers. This look was completely stunned. Up! I saw a person lying motionless in front of the silly man!

After seeing the figure, the brothers were all stunned.

"Then who?"

"I don't know." The brothers said in confusion.

"Man'er, you...you said...he is a dead person?" The brothers looked at the silly Man'er in shock and asked.

Silly Man'er nodded silently, and continued to stand there silly.

At this moment, brigade commander Wang Zhen and Xiao Zhang from the criminal investigation team also saw the figure lying in front of the silly man, and walked up to look with a puzzled and shocked mentality, only to see that the man seemed to be dead. Lying on the ground cold and motionless does indeed look like a dead person.

"Dead?" Chen Qiaozhi and his brothers were shocked.

Even Brigadier Wang Zhen and Xiao Zhang beside him were all speechless.

When I came closer, I saw that there was indeed a dead man lying on the ground, and this dead man was the wretched middle-aged man who had just been caught by Tang Xiaolong!

But I never expected that he would die now, here.

OMG, who killed it?

After the brothers saw the dead on this ground, they all opened their eyes one by one, you looked at me, I looked at you, completely stunned.

They would never have thought that this good guy who was still alive just now died suddenly! ! !

Brigadier Wang Zhen stepped forward and took a look at the corpse, but saw a deep tooth mark wound on the left side of the corpse's neck, like it was bitten by some kind of abnormal beast.

"Huh? The throat tube was bitten off again..."

"Oh my God, the perverted killer appeared! It was the perverted killer." Xiao Zhang in front of him suddenly screamed.

At this time, Wang Zhen also had an ugly face. He bent down and probed the body temperature of the deceased lightly with his hands. He was shocked to feel that the corpse was still warm. Obviously he had just been killed. He felt this situation. After that, he pulled out the gun in his hand and looked around cautiously and said: "Xiaolong, Qiaozhi, this corpse is still hot, I'm sure that the perverted murderer has not gone far, he must be nearby. Let's start now. Search...you must find that bastard."

After Wang Zhen finished speaking, the silly man suddenly said, "No, he's gone!"

After Silly Man'er suddenly said this, Wang Zhen was stunned right now, looking at Silly Man'er with a pair of unbelievable eyes, but what about the brothers? He looked at the silly man'er like a monster.

"Man'er, you, you, how do you know the murderer is gone?"

"Yes, silly Man'er, how did you know?" The brothers in front of him looked at the silly Man'er in disbelief.

But seeing Silly Man'er frowned, raised his sturdy arm and rubbed his nose and said, "I know it anyway."

This answer broke my brothers! This answer is exactly the same as no answer.

Xiao Zhang, the criminal investigation team next to him, was completely depressed at this moment. He blinked his eyes and looked at Brigadier Wang Zhen and said, "Brigadier Wang, are we chasing or not? If you don't chase, the murderer can I really ran away..."

Chapter 1862: Someone

But seeing Wang Zhen frowning and looking at the dark surroundings, then looking around again, the silly man standing there stupidly said, "No need to chase, I believe Maner's words."

After Brigadier Wang Zhen said this all at once, Xiao Zhang was taken aback, turned his head and looked at the stupid big man, and the brothers were all looking at Man'er suspiciously at this time.

What about silly men? At this moment, it seemed that nothing had happened, and he was still standing stupidly with a silly smile on his face.

"Man'er, Man'er, your grandma told me the truth, how did you know that the murderer was gone? And, how do you know that this place is dead?" Tang Xiaolong quickly grabbed the silly man. Er's arm, asked excitedly there.

All the brothers in front of him also leaned over, looking at the silly Man'er and said: "Yes, Man'er, how did you know?"

Silly Man'er looked at the brothers in front of him, frowned slightly and said, "I don't know." what?

"You * sister don't know?"

"You don't know an egg, you obviously ran here to find the corpse, you still said you didn't know? Your sister!" Tang Xiaolong cursed angrily.

But seeing the silly man'er felt very wronged and said, "I just don't know..."

"I feel, I feel it." Silly Man'er said stupidly.

Tang Xiaolong almost jumped up when he heard it.

"Fuck me, it feels... you do it by feeling?"

Silly man said: "Yes."

Hearing what the silly man said, my brothers were speechless.

"By the way, this kid...this kid... said that he was murderous when he was in the car just now... Could it be that he already felt that someone was going to kill?" But seeing the brothers suddenly remembered that the silly man was there. The weird performance on the car, right now, seeing the real situation now, they were all stunned there, all looking at the stupid man.

Regarding what is happening now, to be honest, my brothers are speechless, even Brigadier Wang Zhen is depressed!

Because they couldn't believe that the silly man found the corpse based on his feelings, and also told the dangerous situation, and most importantly, all of this has become true!

If, just now, they could directly believe what the silly man said just now, they might be able to catch the perverted murderer.

Just when the brothers and Brigadier Wang Zhen were thinking like this in their hearts, the silly man suddenly walked towards the building next to him.

After reaching the building, he suddenly raised his eyes and looked at the top of the building...don't know what he was looking at.

Tang Xiaolong, his brothers, and brigade commander Wang Zhen, after seeing the weird behavior of Silly Man'er, not only came over, looked up at the condescending building in front of him, wondering. Asked: "Man'er, what are you his sister looking at?"

But seeing that the silly man'er didn't speak immediately, instead he turned his head after thinking about it for a long time, and said with a smirk: "I feel...feel...there is someone on the top of the building!" He said while pointing his finger at the tall building in front of him. Dozens of floors of Juding Building.

When the brothers heard it, they were all stunned.

One by one raised his eyes and looked at the Juding Building in front of him. The dozens of floors of buildings resemble hideous monsters in the dark. The roof of this building is round and cannot stand anyone at all, so after the silly man said that , The brothers are not only depressed there, too lazy to talk to the foolish man.

"Brigade Commander Wang, what should I do now?" Xiao Zhang from the Criminal Investigation Team glanced at the corpse on the ground and said while looking at Brigadier Wang.

Wang Zhen looked ugly, and said there, "What else can I do? Take the body back quickly and give it to a forensic doctor for a test to see how he died."

Wang Zhen felt very strange about the wound of the deceased.

Because Wang Zhen could see that the wound on the deceased's neck must have been bitten off, but was it a monster that killed this person? Or human? To be honest, even the current Wang Zhen can't figure it out.

After Brigadier Wang Zhen said this, he sent someone to carry the dead man's body away.

And brothers? This night was finally experienced a mysterious murder.

Now they are thinking about things in their hearts one by one. What they are thinking about is not about murderers, but about stupid things. They can't figure it out. How could this stupid man feel it? The murderer is coming? And based on feelings, almost chased the murderer!

"Let's go, go back to the car first," Wang Zhen said last.

As he said, the brothers nodded one by one.

Only the silly man over there was still staring at the building in front of him, staring at that silly.

"Man'er, let's go, let's go back." The brothers said silly Man'er there.

Silly Man'er heard their calls, turned his head and glanced at them, his mouth opened as if he wanted to say something.

But seeing that Tang Xiaolong had already walked over, he took the silly man's arm and said, "My little master, we should go now... Don't look."

He said that he took Man'er away!

But what about silly men? He did look reluctant, and while looking back at the top floor of the building, he said, "There are really people...someone on it."

However, after the brothers took Man'er to leave here, four figures suddenly appeared at the top of the building where Silly Man'er had been staring at him.

They appeared there like lone souls, coming and going without a trace.

I saw Earl Spike, who was wearing a skull ring on his slender, pale fingers, watching the brothers and the group leave with swooshing eyes, and suddenly said, "Unexpectedly, someone could feel us?"

Behind him stood the pale-faced man named Thors, and said coldly: "Earl Spike, do you want me to kill that man?"

The elegant man named Spike waved his hand slightly and said, "No, no need..."

"I think that person is quite fun, and there is no need to kill them now!"

After speaking, Earl Spike suddenly looked at the dark sky and said: "The sky is about to dawn...We should go back to rest."

The four people behind him nodded silently.

Then the four black shadows flashed, only to be seen disappearing like a shadow at the top of the tall building, no longer seen.

This night, just passed.

And this night, an innocent passerby died at the same time!

The dead body was taken to the forensic doctor early in the morning to check the death report, and the brothers also took a short rest after returning.

Early in the morning, I saw a dozen members of the criminal investigation team standing at the door of the brothers, and there was a lot of discussion there, including Captain Liu and Xiao Zhang last night.

It turned out that after Xiao Zhang came back, he told Captain Liu all the things about Silly Man'er and his brothers.

After Captain Liu listened, the whole person was depressed.

At this moment, I saw Captain Liu lowered his voice and asked Xiao Zhang there, "Xiao Zhang, you tell me, that the big man who looked stupid was the first to find the dead body last night?"

Chapter 1863: doubt

Xiao Zhang said: "Yes."

"At that time, we were all sitting in the car and resting. Only the stupid big man sat up and said that something was happening. Then, he ran out all by himself, and we followed until we arrived. After that, I saw that the man had been killed."

Listening to Xiao Zhang's words, Captain Liu of the Criminal Investigation Team frowned depressed.

"So, you haven't seen the murderer commit suicide?" Team Liu asked.

Xiao Zhang was taken aback for a moment, then nodded and said, "En."

"We did go a little bit late...If we could go one step earlier, maybe we could see what the murderer looked like."

After Xiao Zhang said this, Team Liu said, "Huh, shouldn't it be a thief calling for a thief?"

Xiao Zhang felt depressed when he heard it.

"Team Liu, what do you mean?" Xiao Zhang looked at the Liu team in surprise and asked

But seeing Captain Liu said: "That stupid guy looks stupid...How could he know that the murderer appeared? Does he still have supernatural powers? Can you predict it in advance? I'm sure that the stupid guy definitely has a problem. !"

"Team Liu, do you suspect that stupid big one?" Xiao Zhang in front of him said in surprise.

But when I saw Captain Liu of the criminal investigation team, he said, "I'm just analyzing... Think about it, how did that stupid guy know in advance what happened last night? What's more, when you arrived at the scene, only Is that stupid man standing alone there?"

"Besides, didn't he finally say not to let you chase? Didn't he?" Team Liu continued to ask.

Xiao Zhang nodded faithfully.

"Huh, so I said that the stupid man has a problem." Captain Liu of the criminal investigation team said there, thinking he was smart.

"But, Team Liu, that stupid man was brought by Brigadier Wang, and they were in Binjiang City that just arrived yesterday." Xiao Zhang said.

The Liu team said: "I didn't say that the stupid man is the murderer, I just suspect him... I suspect that he may be related to the murderer."

This Xiao Zhang didn't speak either, but just stood there.

After a long time, the door of the brothers finally opened.

Because of staying up too late last night, the brothers all slept very late, and when they got up, their eyes were covered with bloodshot eyes.

When Brigadier Wang Zhen opened the door in front of him, he saw many members of the Criminal Investigation Team and Captain Liu standing outside.

After seeing Wang Zhen waking up, Captain Liu smiled and said at the door: "Brigadier Wang, can you rest well?"

Wang Zhen said: "It's OK."

"Captain Liu, what are you doing here early in the morning?" Wang Zhen said, looking at Captain Liu in front of him and the many criminal investigation team members behind him.

But seeing Captain Liu smiled slightly and said: "I heard that yesterday, one of your brothers found the dead...so I wanted to come over and ask for clues."

When Captain Wang Zhen heard Captain Liu say this, he didn't care, and said, "Oh, that's it!"

"It's true, Man'er discovered it yesterday." Wang Zhen said.

Then Captain Liu said: "Brigadier Wang, don't you know if you mind? I want to take your brother to my office to ask for clues..."

Then when Wang Zhen heard Captain Liu say this, he was not only stunned: "Just ask here... Man'er is inside!"

Then Captain Liu said: "But I'm afraid of delaying your rest... You were too tired last night. I think it would be better for me to bring someone to me and ask. After the question, I will send him off immediately. come back."

After Captain Liu said so, Wang Zhen hesitated.

But in the end I thought about it and said, "Well then!"

"Then I'll call Man'er."

After Captain Liu heard Wang Zhen's promise, he said, "Then I will trouble Captain Wang."

Wang Zhen said, "You're welcome."

So he walked into the room.

After Wang Zhen arrived in the room, the brothers were almost awake, some were washing and some were getting dressed.

"Man'er, the people from the police station want you to ask something...you go over and cooperate with them." Brigadier Wang said to the silly Man'er who had just gotten up after walking in.

Silly Man'er was still rubbing his fluffy eyes, and he was slightly taken aback when he heard Brigadier Wang Zhen say this.

When the brothers next to him heard Wang Zhen say this, they were not only startled: "The policemen are looking for Man'er? Are they looking for Man'er to dry their hair?"

Wang Zhen said with a smile: "Just a routine, ask for clues..."

"Fart, they won't come here to ask, they want to take Man'er away? Mao's so many rules." Tang Xiaolong said reluctantly.

Wang Zhen smiled embarrassedly and said, "Don't worry, how could something happen to Man'er with me here? Besides, even if they give them the courage, they dare not do anything to Man'er? Xiaolong, Joe Well, listen to me, this is just the police station's rules, just ask what happened yesterday."

After Wang Zhen said this, Tang Xiaolong, who wanted to complain, closed his mouth.

"Brothers don't worry, Man'er will leave it to me, and Man'er will come back later."

After Wang Zhen swore his  to his brothers, he took the big silly man and walked outside.

After arriving outside, Wang Zhen handed the Silly Man'er to Captain Liu of the criminal investigation team alone.

So Captain Liu took the Silly Man'er away for questioning.

In the morning, the brothers got up late, so after the washing, it was almost 11 o'clock. After a simple breakfast, the brothers sat in the room to rest.

"Grass, it's been so long, why hasn't Man'er come back?" Tang Xiaolong, who was sitting in the room, suddenly muttered in that mouth.

Xue Wuhen next to him also said, "Yeah, it's been almost an hour and a half... Even if it's a question, it's almost time to ask."

Then Wang Zhen knew that the brothers were siblings and worried about being stupid, so he checked his watch and found that Man'er had been taken away for more than an hour. After thinking about it, Brigadier Wang Zhen called in a guard outside. .

"You go to the criminal investigation team to check the situation... Tell Captain Liu, if you are done with the question, you will quickly send Man'er back." Wang Zhen said to the guard.

The guard stood up and said, "Yes!"

So the guard went to the criminal investigation team.

After the guard left, he saw Jiang Dashan in the room saying, "You said that Man'er was strange yesterday? He actually felt a murderer?"

"If we were to listen to him then, maybe we could still catch the perverted murderer."

Hearing what Jiang Dashan said, the brothers also nodded in agreement.

Chapter 1864: Angry

"Dashan is right."

"I also think Man'er was very reliable yesterday... I thought Man'er was talking about it at the time? It was not quite true." Xue Wuhen also said.

Tang Xiaolong frowned and said: "Then you mean, maybe Man'er has a supernatural power?"

Chen Qiao looked at Tang Xiaolong and said, "You know what a fart!"

"In my opinion, Man'er is a little unfathomable now." Chen Qiaozhi said.

Listening to Chen Qiaozhi's saying so stupid, then Tang Xiaolong laughed.

"Fuck me, sick ghost, don't you make a joke? How can Man'er's rescue be unfathomable?" Tang Xiaolong said with a heartless smile.

Chen Qiaozhi glared at Tang Xiaolong and said, "Shut up!"

"I tell you, everyone, don't forget. Man'er has been practicing for a long time, and as far as I know, Man'er cultivates martial arts of the highest level. Although I have never seen Man'er make a shot, I can feel Come out, Man'er's martial arts is absolutely above all of us." Chen Qiaozhi.

When everyone heard Chen Qiaozhi's words, they nodded in unison.

Originally Man'er was born with supernatural power, coupled with his previous terrifying kung fu, and the superior skill he has cultivated during this period, to be honest, my brothers really don't know how strong Man'er should be!

So at this moment, after hearing Chen Qiaozhi's analysis, everyone fell silent and felt that what Chen Qiaozhi said was quite reasonable.

"I think after Man'er comes back, we should ask him carefully." Chen Qiaozhi said last.

The brothers nodded.

"Grandma's, I'm just wondering, why did the criminal investigation team call Man'er over... Damn, don't send Man'er back." Tang Xiaolong said depressed.

Time continued to walk one minute and one second, but unfortunately, Man'er has not returned so far.

Criminal investigation team over there.

I saw a separate interrogation room, where Silly Man'er was handcuffed on his hands and asked questions.

It was Captain Liu who thought he was clever in the criminal investigation team who interrogated him.

"Hey, silly big guy, if you don't tell the truth anymore, don't blame me for being polite... Tell me, how did you find the body yesterday? And how would you know that the murderer would come out?"

"Do you have anything to do with the murderer?"

Captain Liu asked the silly man coldly.

But seeing Silly Man'er being handcuffed and sitting inside, silent.

"Hey, idiot, what shall I ask you?" Captain Liu has been asking Silly Man'er for more than an hour, but so far Silly Man'er hasn't said anything from beginning to end.

Seeing the silly man'er still not speaking, Captain Liu was angry, slammed his fist on the table in front of him, and roared: "Damn! This stupid didn't say a word, I was really angry."

The member of the Criminal Investigation Team next to him had already seen the silly man's unpleasant, and said at that moment: "Team Liu, or let this idiot suffer a bit...Let's see if he can say it!"

Captain Liu of the Criminal Investigation Team didn't dare to act rashly, because after all this Man'er was from Brigadier Wang Zhen's person! Without the consent of Brigadier Wang Zhen, if he tortured the stupid man privately, things might not be so good.

But he is really annoyed now. Since the silly man'er was brought here, the silly man'er said a total of no more than five sentences, how can this not make him angry.

Finally, Captain Liu, who thought about it, turned his head, stared at the silly man, and said to the silly man: "Fool, I tell you, if you don't say anything, don't blame me for being really rude!"

But the stupid man was like a stone, and didn't speak from beginning to end.

Captain Liu couldn't help seeing that Silly Man'er was still silent.

"Damn it, Xiao Wang, you teach him severely with me! Damn, I don't believe it, he won't tell the truth if he doesn't believe it!" Captain Liu finally couldn't help lynching the stupid man.

The young man called Xiao Wang said at this moment: "Okay!"

Then he eagerly walked towards the silly man.

"Fool, you asked for this!" The little Wang sneered.

After finishing this sentence, his fierce fist hit the silly man's chest directly!

Bang, bang, bang, hit the stupid man's chest with three punches.

Silly Man'er didn't move. After three punches from Xiao Wang on his hard chest, he didn't react at all, just like itching.

And what about Xiao Wang? The entire fist became black and blue.

"I went... the body of this idiot is really * hard!" Xiao Wang looked at his blue hand there, shouting in shock.

Captain Liu saw that Xiao Wang had been teaching this stupid man, but he didn't expect Wu Qing Wu Qing who was beaten in his own hands, and said angrily: "It's really useless!"

"You guys, come in for me!" Captain Liu suddenly said to the criminal investigation team members outside.

After hearing the sound, several members of the criminal investigation team standing outside suddenly walked in.

"Teach me a lesson to this fool, I still don't believe it today, I don't believe it, he doesn't tell the truth." Captain Liu said angrily.

The members of the criminal investigation team said "Yes!"

So he walked towards the silly man'er step by step.

But I saw a few members of the criminal investigation team, who looked like a gangster at this moment, and looked at the stupid man with a sneer, and said: "Fool, let's see if you don't explain..."

"beat him!"

When the words fell, the fists of several people smashed their heads and covered their faces at the head, face and body of the silly man.

The silly man who was sitting there motionless, saw these people beating himself, and suddenly stood up.

After the giant body more than two meters tall stood up all of a sudden, like a giant, with a vast deterrent force, he raised the calf-like eyes, took an angry look at the few people in front of him, and suddenly stood there. Say: "You hit me?"

Listening to Silly Man'er suddenly saying this, the few criminal investigation team members who were like hooligans laughed immediately.

"Fool, you know we're hitting you?"

"Beat him, see if he says it!"

Speaking of several criminal investigation team members, they rushed towards the silly man.

This can be regarded as completely angering Silly Man'er.

But seeing them rushing over, the silly man suddenly roared and kicked one of the members of the criminal investigation team with a terrifying leg strength. When he kicked the member of the criminal investigation team, the member could almost hear it. With a scream of broken bones in his chest and a scream, the whole person was kicked out directly, and with a bang, he directly hit the table behind, and the huge table was smashed to pieces.

Chapter 1865: I want to kill him!

The man died in pain and couldn't help but scream. .

However, several members of the criminal investigation team here saw that the silly man's shot hurt their brother, and immediately became angry.

"Grass, this fool dare to fight back? Hit me, hit him hard."

When one of the guys raised his fist and was about to hit the silly man, the silly man's calf-like body slammed directly to the left, and his horrible body slammed into that guy's body. He fell to the ground with a cry of pain.

And several other criminal investigation team members suddenly came over and prepared to hold down that silly man, but can they hold down this giant-like hunk?

Sixty-seven guys just climbed onto Shaman's body, but when he heard Shaman's roar, bang, and his body moved, he directly shook all the 67 criminal investigation team members into the air, all of them screamed and fell to the ground.

But he said that the current silly man's eyes were red.

This strong man, it is best not to make him angry, because if he is angry, no one can stop him!

And now Man'er is already angry! His whole body's anger has been thoroughly aroused by the members of these criminal investigation teams.

However, after shaking off the 67 members of the criminal investigation team, the silly man suddenly strode towards Captain Liu of the criminal investigation team.

Then Captain Liu was stunned!

God, when has he seen such a majestic hunk? Such power?

At that moment, Zai's face was pale and couldn't help retreating in fear.

"Don't come...Don't come..."

As Captain Liu said, he pulled out the pistol from his arms in fear, and pointed his jet-black muzzle at the silly man.

But what about silly men? He turned a blind eye to the pistol pointed at him, and still strode angrily towards Captain Liu, and while walking, he roared, "It's you, let them beat me... it's you asshole..."

Just when the silly man walked over in anger, the pistol that Captain Liu was holding almost pulled the trigger.

However, before his hand had time to pull the trigger, that silly man's big claw-like hand suddenly grabbed Captain Liu's shoulder in surprise.

Then he lifted Captain Liu up like an eagle was picking up a chicken, and threw Captain Liu's body directly with a bang with both hands.

Captain Liu of the criminal investigation team was thrown to the ground by the silly man, his muscles and bones all seemed to be broken, and he screamed uncontrollably, and at the same time the gun in his hand fell to the ground and stopped there. Constantly wailing.

But what about silly men? Without any intention of stopping, he strode over, and kicked him on the waist side of Captain Liu of the Criminal Investigation Team. Captain Liu's body was kicked directly into the air, flying out of seven or eight meters with a bang. Terrifying distance... Scarlet blood was spit out from his mouth, and the ribs on his waist were also kicked off by Silly Man.

Falling there is like dying, unable to stop gasping.

But he said that with this silly man's action, all the policemen who were standing guard over there ran over, and blinked to see, my God, the captain of their criminal investigation team was beaten to death by this stupid man, and he was frightened. The gun was shot and aimed at that silly man.

"Stop, stop... don't hit." The policemen said to the silly man with their guns there.

But the silly Man'er didn't even look at them, and he was still going to teach Captain Liu, as if Man'er was going to kill the Liu.

A large group of policemen rushed over here too, and they were all there to stop the silly man... fearing that he would really kill Captain Liu.

Tang Xiaolong, Wang Zhen, and his brothers were all waiting there, panicking.

It has been more than an hour and a half since Man'er was called by the criminal investigation team.

While the brothers were waiting in a panic, suddenly the guard sent by Brigadier Wang Zhen to look at the foolish man quickly ran back with an ugly face.

While running, he couldn't help yelling: "Brigadier, it's not good, something has happened."

After hearing the voice of the guard, Wang Zhen subconsciously stood up from his seat, but what about the brothers? They were all stunned, all looking at the guards who ran in in surprise.

"What's wrong? What's the matter?" Brigadier Wang Zhen asked quickly after the guard ran in.

But seeing that the guard's face was extremely ugly and said: "Maner...maner...fighited there...and almost killed him."

"what?"

Suddenly hearing the guard in front of him say this, Wang Zhen screamed immediately.

And brothers? All jumped up.

"What are you talking about? What's wrong with Man'er?" The brothers came over and grabbed the guard and asked.

But seeing the guard hurriedly said: "Man'er is fighting with the criminal investigation team... Now the leader of the criminal investigation team is about to be beaten to death by Man'er. No one can stop Man'er... Long, you go over and take a look. If you don't, the police department guys will probably shoot Man'er."

"Dare he?" Wang Zhen screamed angrily when he heard the guard say so.

And brothers? After hearing this guard say that the policemen are going to shoot Man'er? The whole body was in flames right now.

"Fucking... who the * dare to move the barbarians? I'm killing someone today!"

Tang Xiaolong seemed to be crazy, and rushed out regardless of the three seven twenty one.

Jiang Dashan here also followed Xue Wuhen and Chen Qiaozhi hurriedly ran outside.

What about Brigadier Wang Zhen? With an extremely ugly face, he said to the guard at hand: "The person who informed us,, fully armed, come with me!"

The guard said: "Yes!" So he ran to the outside quickly.

But what about the Criminal Investigation Team?

Dozens of riot policemen are holding their guns at the silly man? And there are more than a dozen riot police officers holding shields to block the angry silly men.

Rao is this? Silly Man'er still rushed forward like crazy, it seemed that he had to kill the criminal investigation team leader Liu severely.

Director Zhou of the police station frowned and looked at the situation before him, not knowing what to do.

The dozen or so riot police officers were even stupid men who were unable to stop their natural supernatural powers even with shields. They were still being taken forward by the stupid man's mighty strength...

The explosion-proof police were a little uncontrollable at the scene, and said to Chief Zhou of the police station: "Director Zhou, as long as you give an order, we will shoot and kill him."

Director Zhou said angrily: "Are you crazy? He is from Brigadier Wang's person!"

After being scolded by Director Zhou, the explosion-proof police suddenly stopped talking.

"Uncle Cao, who the * dare to move Barbarians today?" With the voice, Tang Xiaolong had rushed over like the wind.

Chapter 1866: Brotherhood

After he arrived, he saw that the explosion-proof policemen were holding their shields against the silly man, and immediately yelled at the explosion-proof policemen.

"Fuck your mother... get out of my way!"

Tang Xiaolong rushed over like a tiger. Three of the explosion-proof policemen were directly thrown to the ground. The other 78 explosion-proof policemen saw this guy jump out so suddenly, they were also dumbfounded at the moment, and all backed up.

Tang Xiaolong broke the situation as soon as he arrived. He stood in front of Man'er and asked angrily: "I'm * your ancestor, I think you guys dare to go?"

These policemen were scolded by Tang Xiaolong and stood there silently, but they couldn't help thinking in their hearts: Where did this lunatic come from?

At this moment, I saw Jiang Dashan, Xue Wuhen and Chen Qiaozhi all running over.

Looking at the situation, brothers, all guarded in front of that Man'er.

"Man'er, how are you? Are you injured?" Chen Qiaozhi looked at Silly Man'er quickly and asked. The brothers were afraid that Man'er was injured.

But seeing the silly man'er watching the brothers come, she smiled and shook her head there.

"Silly Man'er, tell me, who the * is bullying you? Lao Tzu would not have his surname Tang if he didn't peel him three layers of skin today!" Tang Xiaolong said to Man'er like a calf.

What about the silly man? Listening to Tang Xiaolong's words, he stretched out a sturdy hand and said to Captain Liu who was beaten to death over there, "He!"

"he bullies me!"

"He even made people beat me, so I was angry!" said the silly man.

Listening to that silly man's words, Tang Xiaolong's blood-red eyes stared at the beating captain Liu of the criminal investigation team who was about to die.

"I'm * your mother, you are a dog, and you bullied Man'er with our brother... You fucking, didn't you just ask Man'er a few words? You dare to commit a black hand, I must chop you today. "

Tang Xiaolong was going crazy.

However, he was hurriedly held by Chen Qiaozhi in front of him.

"Xiaolong, calm down...you can calm down a little bit." Chen Qiao said while pulling Tang Xiaolong.

Tang Xiaolong turned his head to face Chen Qiaozhi's anger and said: "I calm down your uncle, my brothers have been beaten in the dark, I'm still calm... If I can calm down, I'm the bastard."

While talking, he was struggling to do it.

That Xue Wuhen and Jiang Dashan are pulling this impulsive barbarian at this moment.

At this moment, when the police and the brothers were holding each other like this, the brigade commander Wang Zhen had already arrived with the army.

He walked over there with a sullen face and an ugly face.

When he saw these policemen holding guns at the silly man's and brothers one by one, Brigadier Wang Zhen was furious. He immediately took out the pistol in his arms and slammed the trigger.

The loud and piercing gunfire dazzled everyone present.

"I see who would dare to point a gun at my person today?" Brigadier Wang Zhen strode out of the crowd holding the gun. The army behind was directly holding the automatic rifle, and the gun was aimed at all police stations. people.

When Director Zhou saw that the situation was not right, he quickly walked over.

"Brigade Commander Wang, Commander Wang, misunderstanding, it's a misunderstanding." Director Zhou walked over with a shy face and smiled at the commander Wang.

While talking, he hurriedly said to the policeman over there: "Put down the guns, put down all the guns..."

After hearing Director Zhou's words, the police hurriedly put away their guns one by one.

"Brigade Commander Wang, this incident is really a misunderstanding..." Director Zhou in front of him said to Wang Zhen.

Wang Zhen glanced at the situation before him and said, "Misunderstanding?"

"I heard that someone lynched my brother and held a gun at my brother's head? Director Zhou, you are telling me a misunderstanding...Do you think I can believe it?" Brigadier Wang Zhen said angrily.

Tang Xiaolong over there yelled angrily, "Brigadier Wang, if these  don't give Man'er an explanation today, I must have demolished this place."

That week, the director heard what Brigadier Wang and his brothers said, and then he cried and said: "Brigadier Wang, I'm so sorry this time!"

"It's all to blame on my criminal investigation team...it's their bad work."

When it comes to Criminal Investigation Team, Wang Zhen is even more angry.

Wang Zhen said angrily: "That dog Captain Liu, get out of here. You  said to bring Man'er to ask a few words, and then sent him back. That's why I asked you to take Man'er away. I didn't expect you to be a bastard, talk It's not a big deal, how dare you lynch the barbarian?"

"Let me ask you bastard, what crime did Man'er commit? Why should he be lynched?"

Director Zhou said, "Brigadier Wang, look at Liu... Liu... has been beaten like this..."

Wang Zhen glanced at the beaten Captain Liu who was about to vomit blood, and spit out: "If you didn't kill him, he is lucky!"

"Assholes, words don't count!"

"Director Zhou, I know you feel uncomfortable today, but I, Wang Zhen, put it first. This time I brought my brothers to Binjiang City to help you, but what about you? How dare you do this to my brother? I think Ask, what do you mean?" Wang Zhennu asked Director Zhou.

Director Zhou looked extremely embarrassed, and apologized: "Brigadier Wang, I'm sorry, I'm really sorry, our people really messed up this time!"

"I just hope you can calm down... OK?"

"Anyway, you see, brigade commander Wang, that team Liu has already been taught... if you don't remember the villain, don't be familiar with them."

Wang Zhen glanced at Captain Liu who was beaten to death, and then looked at the uninjured stupid man over there, so he said: "Okay! Today, it will be for the sake of Director Zhou. No longer be held accountable!"

"However, starting from today, if anyone dares to take the brothers for me, I will be the first to shoot him." Wang Zhen said.

All the police officers over there closed their mouths and remained silent. Director Zhou even nodded and said, "Yes, yes, yes."

"Xiaolong, Qiao Zhi, take Man'er, let's go!" Wang Zhen gave an order.

After Chen Qiaozhi and Xue Wuhen looked at the situation there, they took Man'er and Tang Xiaolong with them.

Tang Xiaolong walked reluctantly while cursing there: "Grass, it's over like this? I haven't vented yet... My  belly is full of fire!"

A farce came to an end when Captain Liu of the Criminal Investigation Team was beaten with a comminuted fracture of his left shoulder, and there were 6 broken ribs on the left side of the waist. Not only that, but even several members of the Criminal Investigation Team. A few fractured, and some were seriously injured and hospitalized, but what about Man'er? But Mao was not hurt.

Chapter 1867: Autopsy report

Wang Zhen finally returned with his angry brothers.

Although Tang Xiaolong still felt that it was not enough to relieve his hatred, he was finally pulled back one by one by his brothers.

After returning to the room, Tang Xiaolong was the first to jump up and pointed to Wang Zhen's nose and said, "Brigadier Wang, your sister, you need to take full responsibility for this matter!"

"His grandma, what did I say in the morning? Don't you believe that you won't let the * take Man'er away? Look... Did something happen? Give his grandma to let them bully my brother!"

That Wang Zhen was cursed by Tang Xiaolong pointing his nose, but he was not angry, just laughing there.

"Okay, okay, I was wrong, blame me, blame me, right?" Wang Zhen said there.

Tang Xiaolong said, "It's his mother who blames you."

Then Wang Zhen said aggrieved: "I don't know that those guys would do such a nasty thing? If I knew that I would kill them, I wouldn't let those * take away Maner..."

Chen Qiaozhi walked over from one side and said, "Little Dragon, stop talking about Brigadier Wang."

"None of us would like to see something like this happen. Brigadier Wang Zhen cannot be blamed for this incident."

Tang Xiaolong snorted, and finally stopped mentioning it.

"However, fortunately, Man'er is fine." Xue Wuhen said over there, while patting Silly Man'er's chest.

The silly man smiled.

Then Tang Xiaolong turned his head at this moment, looking at the silly Man'er and said, "Man'er, if anyone dares to move you in the future, you just remember it to me and fight to death. Do you understand?"

The silly man nodded there and said, "Oh, I see."

"Wa, Xiaolong, don't teach Man'er anymore. To be honest, Man'er has made a heavy shot. Have you seen it? Captain Liu of the criminal investigation team was almost beaten to death by Man'er!" Jiang Dashan over there smiled. .

Tang Xiaolong spit out and said, "Deserve it! That product is scumbag!"

"Fuck, I can't catch the murderer by myself, just look for our brother, I think he is tired of life!"

"Yes, fortunately, Man'er still provided them with so many clues...Mother, don't say thank you at all, and even took Man'er to interrogate him. That kind of person should be severely taught and beaten to death. ." The brothers next to each other said.

"Forget it, it's better not to mention that matter, let's quickly talk about the perverted murderer." Chen Qiaozhi said that at the moment, taking care of the overall situation.

When Tang Xiaolong heard Chen Qiaozhi say this, he was depressed at the moment: "Sick ghosts, people in this police station are doing this to us, do we * help them? I see, let's go to his sister, don't help them... .."

Following Tang Xiaolong's words, Chen Qiaozhi said, "This thing belongs to the same thing!"

"Furthermore, we did not catch the murderer to help the police, but to protect the safety of the citizens of Binjiang City."

Hearing what Chen Qiaozhi said, Tang Xiaolong groaned without speaking.

Wang Zhen smiled and said: "Qiao Zhi is right, but the meaning of our stay here is just as Qiao Zhi said."

"At present, everyone has seen the extreme cruelty of that perverted murderer...If we don't catch it, you can say, can they catch it with the police?" Wang Zhen said again.

"They grab a hammer!" Tang Xiaolong said.

Wang Zhen said: "That's right...so we must stay here, and we must deal with this murder."

Listening to what Wang Zhen said, of course the brothers didn't have too much opinion, and nodded one by one.

"By the way, did the test results of the deceased yesterday come out?" Just listen to Chen Qiaozhi asking there.

Wang Zhen shook his head and said, "I don't know yet."

"Well, I'll send someone to the police to ask..."

So Wang Zhen hurriedly sent someone to inquire about the inspection report of the deceased last night.

After this incident, everyone in the police station also had a fear of their brothers.

After they went back, they couldn't help discussing: What is the origin of the group of people led by Brigadier Wang Zhen? How is it like a savage?

"Yeah! Especially that stupid big guy... Oh my god, it's really tough. A dozen people in the criminal investigation team can't control him, and even Captain Liu was beaten to death?"

"Anyway, we'd better not mess with those people."

"Yes Yes."

"However, it is true that the big silly man is not to blame for that thing in the morning, but the people of the criminal investigation team are too extreme...After all, they brought people over and beat the big silly man."

"Hey, the criminal investigation team has always done that. I hope they can change their attitude in handling cases after experiencing this incident."

In the voice of these police officers, the Chief Zhou walked in from outside.

Director Zhou's complexion was a little green, and he was obviously in a bad mood.

After walking in, he took the lead in taking a look at everyone, and then said, "Forget it, the criminal investigation team will not be responsible for this case from today. Old Yu, this case will be handed over to you from today."

After the Chief Commissioner finished speaking that week, the old policeman named Lao Yu was slightly startled, and then nodded quickly and said, "Okay, Chief Chief."

"Well, there is nothing more to do. Let's all leave." Director Zhou finally said.

So the group of police officers dispersed slowly.

I saw the old man approaching Director Zhou at this moment and asked in a low voice: "Zhou Ju, is Team Liu seriously injured?"

Director Zhou sighed helplessly and said: "Fortunately, we stopped early, otherwise Xiao Liu's life would probably be beaten to death by that stupid man."

Hearing Director Zhou said that, the old man couldn't help but swallowed.

"Lao Yu, when you work with the people on Brigadier Wang Zhen's side in the future, you have to be smart and remember, don't mess with the people under Brigadier Wang." Zhou Bureau reminded the old policeman there. .

The old policeman nodded and said, "Don't worry, Zhou Ju! I'm old enough to handle this."

"Well, that's good." Director Zhou finally said.

In this way, the criminal investigation team never dealt with the case anymore. In the end, the case was handed over to the old policeman, Lao Yu. From today on, Lao Yu will cooperate with Brigadier Wang Zhen and the others. Catch the perverted murderer together.

At noon, the autopsy report of the deceased last night finally came out.

After coming out, Wang Zhen took the brothers and hurried to ask about the situation.

After arriving, I saw that the old policeman was always talking to the forensic doctor and saw Brigadier Wang Zhen walking with his brothers, smiling and saying, "Brigadier Wang is here."

Chapter 1868: Are Man's words credible?

Then Wang Zhen didn't know this old Yu, so he asked, "You are?"

The old policeman then introduced himself with a smile: "My surname is Yu, and my name is Yu Dahai. It's fine for Brigadier Wang to call me old!"

After Lao Yu had introduced himself, he then spoke to Brigadier Wang in front of him, that he will be responsible for this case in the future.

Hearing what Lao Yu said, Wang Zhen said slightly.

"How is it, did the autopsy come out?" Wang Zhen looked at Lao Yu and asked.

Old Yu said: "It's already out, I'm about to inform Brigadier Wang about you."

"Oh, yes, this is Doctor Li... he is responsible for the deplaning of the corpse." Old Yu introduced to the brigade commander Wang Zhen and his brothers.

The man named Dr. Li is in his 40s, and he is a forensic doctor who deconstructs the body.

After a simple greeting, Brigadier Wang Zhen asked about the situation of the deceased yesterday.

"Doctor Li, how did the deceased die yesterday? Please tell us." Wang Zhen asked.

The forensic doctor surnamed Li then said: "The deceased yesterday was precisely sucked to death!"

what?

"Didn't he get killed? Why did he become sucked to death?" Wang Zhen asked depressedly.

The brothers next to him also said, "Yes, Dr. Li, we saw the deceased's neck alive bitten off yesterday."

But seeing the forensic doctor shook his head slightly and said: "Although the wound on the neck was indeed bitten, the real reason for the dead is that all the blood in the body was sucked up."

"what?"

"The blood in the body is sucked up?" After hearing that Doctor Li said so, the brothers and Brigadier Wang Zhen were completely taken aback.

The forensic doctor Li nodded there and said, "This is the analysis report of the deceased!" As he said, he handed over a document.

The brothers took them in their hands and took a look, only to see some medical terms on them.

But seeing Tang Xiaolong said: "Doctor Li, just tell us the situation directly, we don't need to read these reports."

When Dr. Li heard the brothers say that, he smiled and nodded and said, "Okay!"

"Let's put it this way, from the first corpse I checked to the eighth corpse now... it can be seen that all the blood in the body of the dead has been sucked up. Of course, this is what they really died the reason!"

"As for, what exactly sucked these people's blood, to be honest, I don't know yet!"

"But I have a feeling. I suspect that it was not human who killed these victims..."

"It may be a beast." Dr. Li repeated afterwards.

After the brothers listened, they were depressed.

"What? Doctor Li, did you mean that people killed these victims? It was a beast?" They stared at the Doctor Li in disbelief.

But seeing Dr. Li said: "I can't arbitrarily draw conclusions on this point, but I personally think that no one will * other people's blood, even people with abnormal heads will not do such cruel things... And it * people to death. Everyone agrees with this, right?"

The brothers not only nodded in approval.

Yes.

There is absolutely no one who will * human blood...and thus kill others, except for cruel beasts.

After Dr. Li finished saying this, the brothers were puzzled and said, "Hey, is it really the beast that did it?"

"The beast sucked up the blood of these victims and then killed them?"

"But even a beast... what kind of beast can * human blood?"

The brothers couldn't help thinking in their hearts one by one, no one could find any clues at this moment.

Huge doubts are now in the hearts of the brothers, especially after the forensic report came out.

When the brothers returned to the room, they couldn't help but feel depressed.

"Do you think that what Dr. Li said is reliable? Are the dead people who were killed really sucked up the blood in their bodies?" Tang Xiaolong frowned depressed and asked.

The brothers were silent, no one spoke.

"Like it's true." Wang Zhen suddenly said.

"Do you remember the corpse from yesterday? When we found the corpse yesterday, it was pale and dry... as if there was no trace of blood on the body."

Hearing what Wang Zhen said, everyone was even more depressed.

"Could it really be a beast?"

"Did the beast run into the city?" they frowned and said.

When everyone was wondering, suddenly the silly man stood up and said in a silly way: "You are wrong."

Seeing that silly man'er suddenly said such a sentence, everyone couldn't help turning their heads to look at the silly man'er.

"Man'er, what are you talking about?"

"Yeah, what did we do wrong?" The brothers all looked at the silly man in surprise and asked.

But after seeing that silly man'er suddenly said such a sentence, he was silent again.

"Fuck, Man'er, are you talking? Don't take everyone's appetite." Tang Xiaolong was originally an extremely impatient person. He was of course anxious when he saw Man'er humming and not speaking for a long time here.

But seeing that Chen Qiaozhi was in front of him, Tang Xiaolong said: "Xiaolong, don't talk, Man'er seems to be thinking about things... let him think slowly and speak slowly."

Yes, the current stupid man really seems to be thinking about things there. He stands there stupidly, holding his head with one hand there, looking simple and funny.

The brothers were staring at the foolish man without blinking, hoping that he could say something. Finally, after 34 minutes of silly man's thinking, he suddenly raised his head to face the brothers in front of him. Where are the brothers? They all looked at him nervously.

After holding back for a few seconds, the silly man suddenly said: "I...I'm hungry."

As soon as this sentence was uttered, Tang Xiaolong suddenly cursed.

"Your sister!"

"I wipe you..."

"Your uncle's Man'er, you fool us." I saw the brothers scolding his mother one by one at that silly man'er.

Where's the silly man? Indeed, he smiled and said, "I am playing with you!"

Unexpectedly, this guy was actually joking with the brothers, it turned out that the silly man would also be joking.

Just when the brothers were disappointed, that silly man's expression suddenly became serious, and he suddenly said, "I know who killed...I saw him."

After Silly Man'er said such a sentence, the brothers were stunned.

"Man'er, what are you talking about?"

"Aren't you kidding his mother again?" After hearing the silly man's words, the brothers turned their heads and looked at him unbelievably.

But seeing Man'er's serious face didn't mean the slightest joking, he just stood motionless there with a solemn expression.

"Man'er, you continue to say, what did you see last night?" Chen Qiaozhi asked quickly.

But seeing the silly man'er silently said: "I saw a dark figure... soon, soon..."

"Speed like lightning!"

"I can only see his shadow, I can't catch him." Silly Man'er said silently there.

After Silly Man'er said this suddenly, the eyes of the brothers began to widen.

They look at me at the moment, I look at you, everyone's face is a shocked expression.

"Man'er, are you sure you see the shadow of a person?" Brigadier Wang Zhen frowned and said while looking at the silly Man'er.

Silly Man'er nodded silently, and then sat down on the ground, then stretched out a hand and began to buckle his nostrils.

Brigadier Wang saw Man'er doing this, and his egg broke suddenly.

"You said, is Man'er saying true or not?"

"Can we believe it?" asked the brothers in confusion.

Everyone looked at the silly man picking his nose, then turned his head, and shook their heads depressed.

"To be honest, I am very skeptical of Man'er's words..."

Chapter 1869: Toledo

They suspect stupid?

To be honest, the silly man sitting on the ground and picking his nostrils in the scene at the moment, whoever believes his words would be silly!

So the brothers decisively ignored what the silly man said just now.

I saw that Wang Zhendao said, "It seems that we have to keep there for the night and wait..."

"That perverted murderer wouldn't be so stupid... dare to come out?" Tang Xiaolong said depressedly.

But Wang Zhen, who was on the sidelines, said, "This is not necessarily true. Maybe he can't hold back and will come out."

The brothers currently don't have any clues, so the only way is to continue to wait for it to get dark, and then go to stay on the Bund street again.

In the afternoon, the Bund of Binjiang City.

In the secret tunnel of that old church, I saw a dark figure walking step by step.

His steps are so cautious, as if afraid of something.

The faint light was visible. He was wearing a black robe and turned to look at his face. This person turned out to be Father Gammarelli.

But how could Father Gammarelli come to the secret tunnel of this ancient church again?

I saw Father Gammarelli walking slowly step by step, holding the cross tightly between his hands, his face pale and ugly.

As he walked forward step by step, he suddenly saw four coffins lying motionless in the dark corner of the dark road in front.

The four coffins were very big and weird, and they were placed in the darkest corners.

And this coffin seemed to be afraid of the sun, and there was a black cloth on it to cover it.

If you look closely, these four coffins are very Western, and are completely different from the Chinese coffins.

After the priest Gammarelli walked to the four coffins step by step, he blinked his scared eyes and glanced at the three coffins in front of him, then muttered silently in his mouth: "Amen..."

As he had just uttered these two words, the coffin door above the largest coffin in the middle creaked suddenly.

After the terrible coffin even made a sound, Father Gammarelli turned pale in fright, and quickly backed away, while his eyes were wide and incredibly staring at the coffin in front of him.

With the creaking sound, the coffin door opened automatically.

Just when Father Gammarelli was terribly scared, a black shadow suddenly jumped out of the coffin.

All of a sudden, it hung on the top of the cold wall like a bat.

His face was extremely pale and ugly, those bizarre gem-like eyes stared at Father Gammarelli in front of him, looking at him condescendingly!

Earl Spike!

The weird character hanging upside down on the top of the wall was Count Na Spike.

My God, is he a human or a ghost? How could it hang on the top of that wall like this?

But the moment Father Gammarelli saw Earl Spike, the whole person couldn't help shaking violently because of fear.

"Earl Spike!" Father Gammarelli shook his voice respectfully.

I saw the Earl Spike, who hung upside down on the top of the wall, suddenly flashed, and then he had reached the front of Father Gammarelli.

A ghastly breath suddenly emerged in front of Father Gammarelli's snort.

"Why are you here? Why are you here?"

Count Naspik suddenly said with a hoarse voice, looking at Father Gammarelli there.

His elegant face became distorted at this moment, and terrible, a face distorted!

At the same time, his body hides in a dark and humid place as much as possible, and is afraid to reach the bright place here, as if he is afraid of the daylight.

Father Gammarelli said with a frightened face and quickly said, "I came because... because the bishop sent a message."

As Father Gammarelli said so, the Earl Spike in front of him blinked suddenly in his blue eyes like jewels.

His pale face seemed very tired, and then he moved closer to the dark place behind him, staring at Father Gammarelli with those eyes: "Damn it, don't you know this is our rest time?"

"Do you want to die?"

As Count Naspik suddenly said this, his hand suddenly grabbed the neck of Father Gammarelli, and Father Gammarelli's body was easily grabbed like a piece of paper, and then the whole body was constantly there. struggle.

With fear and horror on his face, he hurriedly said there while struggling: "Torido Clan...appeared!"

Suddenly a strange word came out of Father Gammarelli's mouth, and after he said it, he began to gasp violently.

But what about Earl Spike? When I heard Father Gammarelli suddenly say: The Toledo tribe, he was suddenly startled. He was holding the throat of Father Gammarelli tightly, and slowly let go of his hand, with the gem-like eyes. Exudes endless evil and a sense of destruction.

"What are you talking about? The Torrido?" Count Spike of the Gangelo family in front of him asked suddenly angrily.

Torrigo?

But I heard that Father Gammarelli hurriedly coughed and gasped, while bending over there, saying: "Yes... the bishop has already found the Toledo people have appeared..."

Torrigo? A family of vampires as ancient as the Gangelo family!

It's just that the Toledo people advocate peace! The Toledo tribe is recorded in the ancient vampire records. Most of the members of the Toledo tribe evolved from the blood of the second generation of vampires, among the ancestors of the Toledo tribe. , There have been several great vampires who have helped mankind in wars...In short, in the Toledo tribe, those vampires are very friendly to mankind. Although they are like vampires, they also rely on blood to maintain a long life. But the vampires of the Toledo clan * self-made blood...They don't * human blood.

The Toledo tribe is the old enemy of the Gangelo tribe. In the blood family chronicle, it has been recorded that when the 13th family of vampire clan broke out, the Toledo tribe fought against the militant Gangelo clan. The scale of the war.

The Gangaro family belongs to the strongest existence among the blood clan, not only because their blood line is the purest in the blood clan, but also because the Gangaro family members admire darkness and evil, they are warlike and cold, Like ruthless killing...

Chapter 1870: Situation

And now the Torrido family has appeared.

How could Earl Spike of the Gangelo Family not be shocked?

He raised those evil eyes and looked at Father Gammarelli in front of him and suddenly said, "Do they know the secret of the key of fate?"

Father Gammarelli was silent there for a while, and then slowly bent over there and said: "I don't understand this at the moment... The bishop only said that the Torrido family has appeared in the Italian Holy Church, and The Vatican also felt the atmosphere of the Torrido family."

The Torrido family has always lived in the lower reaches of the Mediterranean, which is to the north of Europe.

Since the War of the Blood Chronicles appeared, the Torrido family has rarely appeared in the public eye of the Blood Race, because they opposed the vampires of other families to * human blood, so they began to wander arduously for centuries.

But now the Torrido family has suddenly appeared, and it has already arrived in Italy, and seems to have also appeared in the Vatican, can it be said that they also know the secret of the key of fate?

What connection will this key of fate have with the ancient family of vampires in front of you?

At this moment, Count Spike of the Gangaro family heard this from Father Gammarelli, his pale paper face became even more distorted.

"Go away!" Count Spike suddenly said coldly at the Father Gammarelli.

When Father Gammarelli heard that Earl Spike said this coldly, he hurriedly left here like a dog.

After he left, the Duke of Spike slowly turned his head, then slid and flew directly into the coffin, and then the coffin lid automatically flew from the ground, and then slammed it. The coffin is tightly covered!

The whole secret tunnel returned to a deadly silence again.

Night came slowly.

For Tang Xiaolong and Brigadier Wang Zhen in Binjiang City, so far, catching the perverted murderer is of vital importance.

So tonight, they are still going to the Bund to wait.

Old Yu at the police station over there brought a group of policemen.

In this way, they set off again.

The brothers still drove to the place where they were guarded yesterday, then turned off the lights, drove the car into a hidden corner, and sat in the car quietly waiting.

And Lao Yu also had a group of policemen who were waiting on the other two roads on the Bund.

The night is getting deeper and deeper.

Because of the dark night murders during this period, fewer and fewer people travel at night.

At 22:30, I saw that there were basically no people on the deserted streets, only occasionally a few cars roared by from the road, street lights swaying light on the cold streets, and the surrounding western-style cafes. , And supermarkets have begun to close one by one.

Inside the car, I saw that stupid man fell asleep early again.

This guy is a pig if he uses inappropriate words to describe it!

Just came here and fell asleep.

My brothers thought that Man'er might discover something again today, but unfortunately, after the arrival of this product, he said he wanted to sleep, isn't it? Now he can only hear his snoring in the whole car.

Looking at the silly man who slept so soundly, Tang Xiaolong said depressedly: "His sister, this idiot sleeps as soon as he comes, I wiped it..."

Chen Qiaozhi smiled and said: "Don't worry about Man'er, let him sleep well, let's keep our eyes open...If the perverted murderer appears today, we must do everything possible to catch him."

The brothers heard Chen Qiaozhi say so, so they nodded one by one.

So they sat quietly in that car and waited.

There is a walkie-talkie in the car. This walkie-talkie is used to keep in touch with the police.

The brothers are guarding here... and the policeman who is leading Yu is guarding the street over there.

The night is getting deeper and deeper.

Deep sleepiness enveloped the hearts of the brothers, but none of them slept. Of course, except for the silly man, everyone else was trying hard to look at the deserted street with blood-red glasses.

But what about the old man? These police officers also sat in the car one by one, looking at the silent surroundings with their eyes open.

They are all waiting for the perverted murderer to come out.

There was no sign of anyone in the dark night.

"Brother Yu, it seems that the perverted murderer will not come out today, right." One of the young policemen sitting in the car looked at the old Yu and asked.

Na Lao Yu looked around the silence, moved his body slightly and said, "Wait...I hope that  guy can come out."

Then everyone continued to be silent, and then continued to wait there.

When they waited until about 12 o'clock, suddenly a figure appeared in the dark place in front of them.

The figure appeared too fast, it seemed to appear there in an instant, so that the policemen in front of them did not react at all.

"Brother Yu, look quickly... there are people there!" A sudden word came out from the mouth of a policeman next to him.

After he said it, Na Lao Yu suddenly raised his eyes and looked forward.

Through the darkness, I really saw a figure who did not know when it appeared ten meters in front of these policemen.

The figure was tall, about 180 centimeters high, standing there just like that, motionless, extremely strange.

The moment Na Lao Yu saw this figure, he suddenly became energetic, and quickly picked up the walkie-talkie in his hand and informed the other policemen, "Attention everyone, attention everyone, a suspicious trail was found at Dongjiekou..."

As he took the walkie-talkie and spoke to everyone, the voice of other policemen's answers came from the walkie-talkie.

Brigadier Wang Zhen, who was on West Street over there, also heard the voice of Lao Yu on the walkie-talkie.

Wang Zhen and the brothers in the car, after hearing Lao Yu say this, they were a little bit sleepy, all of them refreshed.

"A suspicious person appeared?"

"There?" the brothers quickly asked.

Wang Zhen replied: "I'm over there."

"Shall we go to support?" Tang Xiaolong asked excitedly there.

But seeing Wang Zhen in front of him frowned slightly, and said, "It's not certain now."

"In this way, let me ask first."

After saying that, Wang Zhen hurriedly grabbed the walkie-talkie at his hand and asked quickly, "Officer Yu, may I ask, do you need support there?"
