

A Killer 1881

Chapter 1881: Injury healed

When everyone saw that the rotten skin on Jiang Dashan's back began to fall off, they couldn't help but cried out in excitement.

Because after the rotten skin fell, it undoubtedly proved that Jiang Dashan's festering back had been stopped, and the brothers were of course happy.

I saw that Chen Qiaozhi was also extremely excited. He originally used the silver powder with the attitude of fighting hard, but he didn't expect that the silver powder would actually work at this moment.

After the silver powder in the bag was coated on the back of Jiang Dashan, the dark purple rotting skin that Jiang Dashan had spread was immediately restrained, and the black necrotic skin that had fallen off in layers fell off, watching Disgusting and hideous.

But this stopped Jiang Dashan's injuries.

"Great, I didn't expect this silver powder to really work." At this moment, I only heard Tang Xiaolong shouting excitedly.

"My grandma thought this thing was useless... Sorry, sick ghost, I blamed you." Tang Xiaolong said to Chen Qiaozhi on the side.

Then Chen Qiaozhi didn't pay attention to Tang Xiaolong in front of him, but slowly applied the silver powder to Jiang Dashan in front of him, and then straightened his body.

"Let's go, go and see Brigadier Wang Zhen quickly." Chen Qiaozhi said.

Yes, they have already stopped the rotting skin on the back of that Jiang Dashan. What they have to do now is to quickly rescue Brigadier Wang Zhen.

After Chen Qiaozhi said so, only Xue Wuhen and Tang Xiaolong in front of him nodded quickly.

Then they quickly moved towards the room of Brigadier Wang Zhen.

When he arrived at the room of Brigadier Wang Zhen, he found that the door was closed. After a few knocks on the door, Tang Xiaolong had no reaction at all.

"Brigadier Wang, Brigadier Wang, open the door..."

No matter how they shouted, Brigadier Wang Zhen inside seemed to have not heard him at all, and there was no sound at all.

When he found that something was wrong, Chen Qiaozhi frowned and said, "Little Dragon, smashed into the door, and quickly went in to see Brigadier Wang."

Tang Xiaolong let out an enthusiasm, and then slammed open the door of Brigadier Wang Zhen's room.

After the brothers slammed the door open, they rushed over one by one.

I saw that Brigadier Wang Zhen was already in a semi-conscious state... and he could see that the rotten skin on his waist had also begun to spread to his chest.

"Oh my God!"

"Sick ghost, bring that silver powder over..." Tang Xiaolong cried.

Chen Qiaozhi hurried over, first slowly supported the brigade commander Wang Zhen to the side of the bed, and then quickly took out the silver powder and smeared it towards the waist of the brigade commander Wang Zhen.

After the silver powder was coated on it, there was a hissing sound.

There is a reaction!

Soon the necrotic skin on the waist of Wang Zhen brigade commander slowly began to fall off.

"Great! It's saved..." After seeing the silver powder smeared on, the brothers were extremely happy to react immediately.

So Chen Qiaozhi spread all the remaining silver powder on the waist of Brigadier Wang Zhen, and after Brigadier Wang was covered with a quilt, the brothers took a breath and left here!

Brigadier Wang and Jiang Dashan's fate were finally picked up from the ghost gate.

After returning to the room, Tang Xiaolong said excitedly, "Sick ghost, what is this silver powder? How effective is it?"

"Weird wounds that even doctors can't heal, I didn't expect to use this silver powder to apply it!"

Xue Wuhen over there also opened a pair of eyes wide, said Chen Qiaozhi who was looking at the moment.

Chen Qiaozhi frowned slightly and said, "Actually I don't know."

"Didn't I tell you... This thing was given to me by the mysterious man. He said that this thing can heal the injury of Dashan and Brigadier Wang, so I tried it with the mentality of giving it a try."

Listening to what Chen Qiaozhi said, Tang Xiaolong asked: "Sick ghost, who is that mysterious man? Why do you want to help us? And how does he know that Dashan and Brigadier Wang Zhen's wounds are involved?"

Chen Qiaozhi shook his head and said, "I don't know this."

"But I have a feeling, as if this person is protecting us in secret." Chen Qiaozhi said slightly there.

"Ah? Protect us?" After Tang Xiaolong and Xue Wuhen listened, both of them were depressed.

Just listen to Chen Qiaozhi's continued saying: "Yes."

"The man not only gave me medicine to treat Dashan and Brigadier Wang, but also warned me to let us leave here quickly and leave things alone."

After Chen Qiaozhi said so, then Tang Xiaolong and Xue Wuhen were stunned.

"He let us go?" the two asked with staring eyes.

Chen Qiaozhi nodded and said, "Yes."

"He also said that if we continue to stay here, we will undoubtedly be dying... He said that we are not the opponent of that group at all." Chen Qiao said.

After listening to Chen Qiaozhi's words, Tang Xiaolong and Xue Wuhen became depressed.

I blinked there, thinking in my heart: Who would it be? Who will help them secretly?

After thinking about it, the two looked at Chen Qiaozhi, "What else did that person say?"

"No more." Chen Qiaozhi.

"Oh, yes, there is one more thing, I forgot to say." Chen Qiaozhi suddenly remembered that things were there and added.

"He also told us that the thing we dealt with last night was not a human... it was a demon, and it was an ancient demon in the West."

When Tang Xiaolong heard Xue Wuhen, he became depressed.

"What? Not a human? A demon?"

"Isn't it?"

Listening to what Chen Qiaozhi said, Tang Xiaolong in front of him was a little unbelievable.

Xue Wuhen was also blinking his eyes depressed, at this moment, I don't know if it is better to believe or not to believe.

But seeing Chen Qiaozhi said slightly, "Actually, I think the words that the mysterious man said should help us."

"Think about it, if the thing from last night was a human, how could it have such a weird speed? And after his hand caught Dashan and Brigadier Wang, how could he have such a terrible reaction?" Chen Qiaozhi .

After listening to Chen Qiaozhi's analysis, Tang Xiaolong and Xue Wuhen in front of him felt that what Chen Qiaozhi said was reasonable.

"So, then, do you mean, we really met a devil? We met a species that is not human?" Tang Xiaolong asked depressedly.

Chen Qiaozhi glanced at the two brothers seriously, and then nodded silently.

"probably is."

After Chen Qiaozhi said so, Tang Xiaolong and Xue Wuhen in front of them fell silent.

Because they have a mess in their heads now, they don't know what to do.

Chapter 1882: Decision made

This night, the brothers had surprises and doubts in their hearts.

What was pleasantly surprised was that the injuries of Jiang Dashan and Brigadier Wang Zhen finally began to heal. The rotting skin had been completely stopped by the silver powder, and what was puzzled was the weird and mysterious person who gave Chen Qiaozhi a message in the dark night.

Who is that person? Why choose to help brothers?

And why does he know all of this, what the brothers are dealing with?

The brothers who thought this way finally spent a boring night.

Early the next morning, Tang Xiaolong, Chen Qiaozhi, and Xue Wuhen were all asleep. They were still asleep because they were resting too late yesterday.

However, Jiang Dashan's room was slowly pushed open.

After pushing away, Jiang Dashan was sober, and he walked out of the room in surprise.

The injury on his back has completely disappeared from the black rotting skin at this moment, only the remaining wound and the silver powder are applied to the body...

After waking up, Jiang Dashan felt the strangeness of his back. When he went to the bathroom to look at his back, he was immediately stunned.

The rot on his back was healed for no reason, only the remaining wounds.

This of course shocked Na Jiang Dashan.

At this moment, after seeing him come out of the room, he saw Man'er who was sitting on the ground and giggling.

Silly Man'er got up quite early today. This guy slept so soundly yesterday that he didn't fall asleep at all, so he got up early.

After seeing the silly Man'er, Da Shan asked, "Man'er, what happened yesterday? What happened to my back injury?"

He asked the silly man.

But what about silly men? It was a smirk, and then shook his head there, saying that he didn't know.

Seeing the silly Man'er look like this, Jiang Dashan thought for a while, forget it, let's not ask Man'er any more.

So he hurried to find his brothers.

When they arrived at Chen Qiaozhi's and Tang Xiaolong's room, the two had already woken up, and they were scrubbing there at the moment.

When he saw Jiang Dashan coming, Tang Xiaolong wiped his face and said excitedly: "Dashan, are you all right?"

"I seem... like I'm all right."

"Great! Damn...you are finally well." Tang Xiaolong said excitedly, holding Jiang Dashan in his arms.

Jiang Dashan asked with a depressed face, "Xiaolong, what happened yesterday? Why did the injury on my back heal for no reason? Did you save me?"

Tang Xiaolong smiled and said, "This time, the sick and ghost have worked hard."

"Someone saved you!"

When Jiang Dashan heard it, he gratefully said, "Thank you so much, thank you brothers."

"Thank you for the fart, there are so many farts between brothers, as long as you are okay, we can rest assured." Tang Xiaolong said in that careless manner.

As they were talking, Chen Qiaozhi and Xue Wuhen had already walked over.

After seeing Jiang Dashan sober, I couldn't help saying: "Dashan, how is your back?"

"Okay, much better, thank you, thank you for saving me."

"You're welcome."

Chen Qiaozhi laughed there too.

"Let's go, let's see Brigadier Wang, I guess the injury on his waist is almost healed." Chen Qiaozhi said there.

Following Chen Qiaozhi's words, the brothers hurriedly went to find Brigadier Wang Zhen together.

After arriving at Brigadier Wang Zhen's place, I saw that Brigadier Wang Zhen's injury on his waist was almost healed.

Wang Zhen was pleasantly surprised to thank the brothers, just like Jiang Dashan.

The brothers were finally relieved.

Back to the room, I saw everyone sitting here.

At present, Jiang Dashan and Brigadier Wang Zhen's weird condition are finally healed, and it is time for them to discuss the next step.

I saw that Chen Qiaozhi spoke first, and he said there: "This time, Dashan and Brigadier Wang's injuries were healed entirely because of the mysterious person last night... But as for the mysterious person. Who the  is it? And why he wants to help us, we don't know this at present, but one thing can be confirmed, this person will definitely not harm us, on the contrary, I think what he did is for our good."

"He said last night, let us all leave the case alone, and don't look for the weird murderer from the night before... He said, we are not each other's opponents at all! After going there will undoubtedly be sent to death, brothers, you guys. What do you think of this matter?"

After Chen Qiaozhi said so, all the brothers in front of him were wondering here.

Because they don't know what to do.

Both Jiang Dashan and Brigadier Wang Zhen had heard from the brothers about the mysterious person last night, and they also knew that the silver powder taken by the mysterious person had cured them.

At this moment, Brigadier Commander Wang, who had thought about it, looked at everyone and said, "That...that...we just leave here like this? No matter?"

The brothers were silent and did not speak.

"If we don't care about things here, that perverted thing will come out to kill...what should I do?" Xue Wuhen asked on one side.

"Yeah, Wuhen is right. You have also seen that the police station in Binjiang City has no way to deal with that kind of thing. If we don't care about it, wouldn't it mean that these policemen should be sent to death alive?"

"But, you have to know, we are not opponents of that monster either!" said Chen Qiaozhi here.

At the moment the brothers were all talking about it, and no one knew what to do.

tube? Or let it go? This is the most tangled problem among brothers.

Brothers are all people with conscience, and can't bear to see those innocent policemen go to death one by one!

But if you manage it, it is likely to take their own lives.

Now in a dilemma, how should I choose?

While the brothers were discussing there, the silly man sitting on the ground suddenly stood up, and then walked over step by step with strides.

When everyone saw this foolish guy coming over suddenly, they were all taken aback, blinking and staring at the guy, wondering what he was going to do.

But he said that after the silly man walked over, he said something that made the brothers speechless.

I saw him wide-eyed and said: "I'm not going! I'm going to beat that guy!"

As this guy said so, my brothers were speechless right now.

The guy he was talking about was obviously the weird thing from the night before!

Listening to the silly man's suddenly saying this, the brothers who had been tangled in the same moment burst into laughter, and the silly man's laughed when he saw his brothers laughing.

"Forget it, since the silly man said to stay and help, then let's stay!"

"Damn, isn't it just death? I haven't experienced it..." Tang Xiaolong said boldly there.

Xue Wuhen here also said: "Yes, each of us is a person who has walked back and forth from the ghost gate a few times. Are you afraid of this time?"

"Regardless of whether our opponents are humans or demons this time, we will kill them and let them know how good we are."

"Yes!"

After all the brothers said so, Chen Qiaozhi sighed slightly, and did not say anything further.

He still approves of the decision made by the brothers after all.

So just like that, the brothers didn't listen to the mystery man's advice. They were going to stay in Binjiang City and deal with the "devil".

Chapter 1883: strange

The Bund!

In the ancient and gloomy church, the divine blessing has already been lost at this moment.

There is only endless darkness. Even the holy cross in the center of the church has fallen to the ground, and * Christ on the cross has been trampled under the feet of the devil.

At this moment, I saw that in the very center of the church, the Count Spike of the Gangelo family was still standing there gracefully. He wore the black and purple cloak all over him, making him extraordinarily tall.

Standing behind him are the three vampire members of the Gangelo family he brought.

They just stood in the middle of the church, as if waiting for someone.

After a while, suddenly the door of the church was gently pushed open. After the door of the church was pushed open, I saw Father Gammarelli walking in quickly.

Father Gammarelli had a panic expression on his face. After he walked in quickly, he saluted Count Na Spike with a European salute.

Count Spike turned his extremely pale face slightly, and looked at Father Gammarelli with a sneer: "Tell me, those old immortal things in the Vatican, what information is coming this time?"

Father Gammarelli hurriedly escaped a folded letterhead from his arms, and then slowly opened it.

"Earl Spike... the bishop said that the Torrido already knew the secret of the key to fate, and it is very likely that they have sent someone to China."

When mentioning the Torrido family, the pale face of Count Spike of the Gangelo family began to show a hideous twist.

His face was originally not bloody, and after he became savage at this moment, he could see the blue veins clearly flashing on his face, looking terrible and scary.

His slender fingers turned the skull family ring on his right hand, and he was silent for a while, and suddenly sneered.

"Okay, very good! Since the Torrido family wants to intervene in the Gangeluo family's affairs, then we will make the Torrido family pay a heavier price than ever." His voice was cold and suffocated, like a cold. The blade.

"For centuries... the ancient hatred is about to kick off again!"

"Torrido, the traitors who betrayed the fate of the blood race, will be killed by us sooner or later." Count Naspik twisted his face there.

But seeing Father Gammarelli facing Count Spike, his expression was terrified. After Count Spike finished talking to himself, he cautiously asked, "Earl Spike, then we Do you want to get the key of destiny as soon as possible?"

Following the words of Father Gammarelli, Earl Spike suddenly reached the front of Father Gammarelli, his speed was almost like a ghost, staring at the extremely pale face, and staring at Father Gammarelli grimly. : "You shut up...I know what to do, you don't need to remind me."

Father Gammarelli was so scared that his heart was about to jump out, the cold sweat from his forehead dripped from his face drop by drop, and then he nodded quickly.

Count Na Spike sneered, turned his body, and said slightly: "It seems we can't wait here for a long time. We are going to force him out...If he doesn't come out, we will kill and kill."

"From now on, the three of you will listen to me...you can slaughter and drink blood presumptuously, and let these ignorant humans know what true darkness is."

After Earl Spike said so, the fangs of the three extremely cold men behind him suddenly became sharp, and their eyes were filled with bloodthirsty heat...

The dark killing is finally coming to Binjiang City.

Night fell once again to Binjiang City.

The brothers are still preparing to follow the police to guard the streets of the Bund tonight.

Because they had no other way except waiting for the monster thing to come out.

Just when the brothers and Brigade Commander Wang Zhen were ready to set off, suddenly the police there seemed to be talking in panic.

When the brothers who had been in the off-road vehicle saw the policemen looking uneasy and discussing something, they were not only startled, and said, "What are the policemen doing?"

"I don't know, but looking at their panic, it seems that something has happened." Xue Wuhen said.

"Xiaolong, get out of the car and ask, see what happened to them." Chen Qiaozhi said there.

Then Tang Xiaolong nodded and said, "Okay, you are waiting for me here."

With that, Tang Xiaolong jumped off the off-road vehicle in front of him and walked quickly towards the few policemen who were talking nervously.

After Tang Xiaolong walked over, the policemen saw Tang Xiaolong.

But seeing Tang Xiaolong glanced at several policemen and asked, "Hey, what's wrong with you? What are you talking about?"

The police officers hesitated for a while, and then one of the thin, tall young policemen said there, "We just received a call to the police saying that something happened at the Binjiang Airport."

"Oh, that's it..." Tang Xiaolong said.

"However, according to the airport personnel who reported to the police, what happened there were foreigners of unknown origin... Those foreigners had no passports, no identities, and no background. I don't know why. Their information is on the computer. I can't find out...I'm being detained at the customs." The thin and tall policeman of that grade continued.

When Tang Xiaolong suddenly heard the three characters foreigner, he immediately became sensitive.

Asked, "Really?"

"Are those foreigners still being detained at the customs?" Tang Xiaolong asked quickly.

The policeman in front of him said: "Yes."

Tang Xiaolong thought for a while, and then quickly ran towards the brothers.

After he ran over, Wang Zhen, Chen Qiaozhi and others in front of him still didn't know the situation here.

After seeing Tang Xiaolong running over, the brothers looked at Xiaolong and asked, "Xiaolong, what's the matter? What are the police talking about?"

"Foreigner." Tang Xiaolong spit out inexplicable three characters from his mouth.

"What? Foreigner?" Chen Qiaozhi and his brothers looked at Tang Xiaolong gloomily and asked.

But seeing Tang Xiaolong saying there: "That's the case. The police said just now that there were several foreigners of unknown origin at the Binjiang Airport, and they had no identities or passports. Anyway, they didn't have all the information... "

Jiang Dashan on one side looked at Tang Xiaolong depressed and said, "What does this have to do with us?"

"Silly you, don't forget, the thing we dealt with the day before yesterday is a foreigner!"

"And now there are a few foreigners of unknown origin suddenly appearing here at the airport. Are you strange?" Tang Xiaolong said.

Then Chen Qiaozhi thought for a while and said, "Then you mean that the group of foreigners with unknown origins at the airport is probably related to the strange thing we dealt with before?"

Chapter 1884: similar

Tang Xiaolong kept nodding his head there. .

"It wouldn't be a coincidence..." Xue Wuhen said with a smile.

Then Tang Xiaolong said, "What if it is?"

"I wondered, anyway, we are still waiting to go to the Bund. It's better to go to the airport to see the situation... If it is really those abnormal things, then we will catch them all at once." Tang Xiaolong grinned there.

The brothers on one side were thinking, wondering if they should listen to Tang Xiaolong's words.

But when he saw that Brigadier Wang Zhen who hadn't spoken all this time, he suddenly said: "I've never felt that Xiaolong's words make sense, but this time, I think what he said is like this. Do you think What?"

After Wang Zhen said so, Chen Qiaozhi also nodded silently.

"Well, then according to Xiaolong's intention, let's go to the airport and take a look. Maybe we can find any clues."

Finally, after the brothers were determined, they were going to the airport in Binjiang City to check the situation.

"Drive, go to the airport." Wang Zhenzhe ordered.

The soldier driving in front heard Brigadier Wang Zhen say this, and said: Yes! Then they started the car and drove quickly toward the airport of Binjiang City. They wanted to see what the origins of the foreigners detained at Binjiang City Airport Customs were.

It does not take a long time to reach Binjiang Airport from here. It takes less than 20 minutes to reach the airport expressway, so in general, they arrive at the airport very much.

Where is the airport in Binjiang City?

What kind of foreigners are detained by the customs?

The huge Binjiang International Airport is brightly lit! From a distance, you can see one by one airport buses going around there, and some tourists with luggage walking there.

In the interior hall of the airport, there are even more people.

The announcer's sweet and melodious voice resounded on the radio, and on the other side was announcing the flight that was about to take off or land.

At the customs detention room over there, I saw three heavily armed special policemen standing at the door, as if they were watching something there.

At this moment, a person in charge of the airport came from the other side. The person was wearing a gray suit and was slightly fat. He walked towards this side with three people with customs on their sleeves and shoulders.

After arriving at the restraint room, after a little communication with the three special police officers, they then opened the door of the restraint room.

As the door of the restrained room opened, three foreigners were seen standing in the room.

Standing on the far left side is a burly, sturdy macho, like a macho from the gym, his muscles rise, with explosive power, a pair of gem-like blue eyes radiating from inside. With a strange light, standing there motionless.

On the other side stood a 50-year-old European. The man had silver hair and was very well-dressed. His suit and matching were just right. Standing politely there, the pair was full of wisdom. His eyes blinked flickeringly there.

And between these two people stood a beautiful woman.

The woman had blond hair, undulating waves, and a plump and well-proportioned figure of a typical European. She looked attractive and beautiful.

A pair of eyes exuding endless charm, when they look at people, they are even more confused.

In short, this woman is beautiful!

Although these three people have different appearances, they all have a remarkable feature, that is, their faces are very pale, pale! As if there were no drops of blood on the face, it was almost whiter than a person with leukemia.

But he said that after the person in charge of the airport walked into this room with the customs, he saw the slightly fat middle-aged man in a gray suit first glanced at the three of them, and then sat down on the opposite chair, the three behind him. The customs officers stand on one side.

"That's them?" The man in the gray suit suddenly said.

One of the customs here nodded there.

"Hey, can you speak Chinese?" just listen to the man in gray suit looking at the three foreigners and asking.

I saw the beautiful woman standing in the middle, glanced at the man in the gray suit, and slowly said, "Yes!"

She speaks Mandarin very well, except that her voice is slightly stiff, everything else is exactly the same as standard Mandarin.

After hearing the woman in front of him suddenly speak Chinese, the man in the gray suit smiled slightly.

"well!"

"Then I ask you, what is your name? Where are you from? And, where is your passport? Are you visiting our country? Or what?" I saw the man in a gray suit asking in detail.

After the man in the gray suit asked, when he saw the beautiful European woman, he suddenly smiled and said, "We are here to find someone."

"Find someone?"

"Who are you looking for?" the man in a suit asked.

The European beauty said: "Look for our kind."

The man in the gray suit frowned slightly when he heard the European beauty say: the same word.

"Similar?" he asked, frowning at the European beauty.

But seeing that beautiful woman nodded there.

"Hehe, you Europeans are so strange that you call your friends the same kind..."

"But, do you know that you don't have passports at all? And you don't have ID cards? You don't even have any information about your address in foreign countries. Excuse me, what is the explanation for this?" the man in the suit asked. .

The European beauty did not speak.

The man in the gray suit said again: "The information shows that you have flown from Italy. If you follow the international regulations, do you know that it is illegal to enter other countries without a passport or ID card?"

"I know." said the European beauty.

"Now that I know, where's your passport? What about your identity?" asked the man in a gray suit.

At this moment, seeing that the European woman was silent again, it seemed as if the three foreigners here were reluctant to answer as long as the customs officers asked about her identity.

Seeing these three people go silent again, the man in the gray suit was a little impatient and suddenly got up from his seat.

"Forget it, detain them first, call the Italian Embassy tomorrow and ask them to send these three people back!"

After the man in a gray suit had finished speaking, he didn't even look at the three foreigners in front of him before he walked out of the restrained room.

Chapter 1885: People run away

However, after the customs officer left, there were only three strange foreigners in front of the custodial room.

I saw the extremely strong hunk man, after watching the customs officers leave with cold eyes, he said respectfully to the woman in front of him in Italian language: "Miss Mary, why don't I let this group Kill the stupid and ignorant..."

The beautiful European woman called Miss Mary suddenly raised her beautiful eyes and stared coldly at the strong man.

Using the same Italian words to say there: "Have you forgotten the Toredo clan rules? Don't touch human beings..."

The sturdy hunk said unconvincedly: "But, this is what they provoke us first!"

"Shut up!" Miss Mary said suddenly angrily.

Although the sturdy man was burly and savage, he really respected this European woman. After hearing her roar, he quickly closed his mouth tightly and didn't dare to speak too much.

The polite European man on the other side suddenly said: "Miss Mary, you can't stay here for long... Let's find a way to get out of here as soon as possible."

Miss Mary nodded slightly and said, "I know."

"Karel, you go to the guards outside, remember, you can't hurt their lives." The woman named Miss Mary suddenly said to the Karel man who was polite and wise with eyes beside him.

Na Karel nodded, smiled and said, "Okay."

Then he walked step by step towards the door of the restraint room.

And what about the strong man? He was standing here, full of anger, but he didn't dare to say anything.

However, after the man named Karel arrived at the door of the restraint room, he gently raised his hand and knocked on the door in front of him, and then the door opened slightly.

I saw three heavily armed special police officers standing there.

Karel looked at the three special police officers with a smile, and the corners of his mouth suddenly moved: "Look at my eyes...Look at my eyes...I want you to forget all the things before...Forget, forget."

Then his jewel-like blue eyes exuded a weird light, and the three special police officers standing at the door suddenly began to slowly lose their eyes...

Then it seemed to be dumbfounded, with a completely demented expression.

"Miss Mary, we can go now." Karel suddenly turned his head and said to Miss Mary here.

After hearing what Carrell said in front of her, Miss Mary walked towards the door of the restraint room. The three special police officers stood at the door like that, but what? Their gaze was so demented, so confused, as if turning a blind eye to the three foreigners walking by.

In this way, the three foreigners left the airport in full view.

But at this moment, I saw Brigadier Wang Zhen and his brothers' cars had arrived at the airport lobby.

"That's it, get out of the car."

Just listen to what Wang Zhen said.

So I saw the brothers jumping off the car one by one.

After jumping out of the car, they quickly ran towards the airport lobby.

Tang Xiaolong ran forward quickly. Unexpectedly, his body slammed into a burly and strong man. The man who was hit didn't even look at him, and walked straight ahead, but what about Tang Xiaolong? But he was stunned there, because the body of the guy who just hit him felt cold and stiff.

Tang Xiaolong was startled, and turned to look at the person he had just hit. He saw a burly man walking towards the outside of the airport with a blond wavy beauty and a man with silver hair.

"Why is that person's body cold and stiff? Why is it exactly the same as the body of the strange thing before?" Tang Xiaolong suddenly flashed a strange thought in his mind.

But the strong man who hit him had followed the blond beauty and the silver-haired man out of the lobby of the airport.

"Xiaolong, what are you doing in a daze? Come here soon?" Xue Wuhen over there couldn't help shouting when he saw Tang Xiaolong alone in the lobby of the airport.

Tang Xiaolong glanced at the disappearing figure again, and then answered Xue Wuhen's words, and then ran over to the brothers without paying attention to the thoughts in his head.

After they arrived at the airport lobby, they hurriedly asked the front desk staff, and also stated their identity.

After seeing the identity of Brigadier Wang Zhen, the airport staff pointed to the local area and said: "The three Europeans detained are in the restraint room over there."

The brothers heard the airport staff say so, so they said: Thank you!

Then he quickly ran towards the restraint room here.

After running over, I saw that the door of the restraint room was concealed. When I saw the situation, my brothers felt something was wrong.

Then they stretched out their hands and gently pushed the door of the restraint room, but they saw three SWAT team members lying on the ground, staring at them, sitting on the ground in confusion... The appearance of the three SWAT officers seemed to be sluggish.

Looking at the restraint room, there were only three special police officers who fell on the ground and looked confused, and saw that the brothers suddenly understood what was going on.

"Oh, man ran away..."

"Damn it!" Jiang Dashan scolded there.

I saw Chen Qiaozhi looking at the three special police officers on the ground with bewildered eyes and questioning: "What happened to these three people? How could it be like this?"

"They must have been made like this by those foreigners..."

"Xiaolong, try to wake them up and see what they remember..." Chen Qiaozhi said there.

So Tang Xiaolong hurriedly grabbed one of the special police officers and shouted there, "Hey, hello, wake up, wake up, your sister."

Seeing his own voice, Tang Xiaolong couldn't wake the confused special police officer at all, so he could only use his hands, and saw that he stretched out a palm of his hand to fan the special police officer's face.

With a snap, the special police officer was directly hit in the face by Tang Xiaolong with a big mouth.

But he said that after being thrown to his face by Tang Xiaolong with a big mouth, the special police instantly awoke...and stared at the brothers in front of him: "You...who are you...?"

His expression seemed very surprised.

But the brothers didn't have the time to explain to him, and saw Tang Xiaolong grabbing his shoulder and saying, "Tell me, who made you like this? Who are they? What about the three foreigners in the restraint room? "

Following Tang Xiaolong's question, but seeing that special police officer seemed to be unable to remember anything, he grabbed his head there with his hands and said, "What are you talking about...Why don't I remember anything? What kind of restraint room? What? Foreigner?"

Listening to the special police officer saying this all at once, the brothers were depressed right now.

"How is this going?"

"Why can't this guy remember anything?" The brothers all said in shock.

After seeing this situation, Chen Qiaozhi was suddenly depressed.

"I ask you, do you really remember nothing?" Chen Qiaozhi bent over and looked at the awakened special policeman beside him.

But the special police officer said: "I just remember... the customs seems to have asked us to come over and look at someone... Behind... Behind, what did I do, I forgot all."

"How could this happen? After only a while, you don't remember anything?" Tang Xiaolong cursed to the special police officer.

The brothers really can't understand what is going on with this special police officer.

It was only a moment, but the special policeman insisted that he couldn't remember anything.

"Hey, it looks like we've made it to the air again, that  must have escaped." Xue Wuhen said depressedly over there.

Tang Xiaolong cursed his mother angrily, saying: "Fuck, I didn't expect to find some clues, and it's gone...Damn,  it."

Chapter 1886: Surveillance video

"Then what should we do now? The clues are once again interrupted." Brigadier Wang Zhen in front of me asked.

The brothers had no clue, all stood there depressed.

I saw that Chen Qiaozhi was looking at the huge airport lobby and the pedestrians around him. He couldn't help turning his eyes to the airport lobby camera on the side.

The moment he saw the camera, Chen Qiaozhi had an idea.

"I see." A sudden excitement came out from Chen Qiaozhi's mouth.

After he called out these words, the brothers were all taken aback, looking at him in wonder.

"Qiaozhi, what's the matter?" Xue Wuhen next to him looked at the excited Chen Qiaozhi and said.

"Surveillance video, surveillance video in the airport lobby..."

As Chen Qiaozhi suddenly said this, the brothers in front of him suddenly understood one by one.

Yes, the surveillance video in the airport lobby must record what happened just now! Of course, I can see what the three foreigners look like and how they left.

After Chen Qiaozhi said this, the brothers immediately said: "Yes, the surveillance video should have captured the whereabouts of the three people."

"Go, let's go over there and ask quickly."

As they said this, the group hurried to the waiter in the lobby. After asking, they knew that the monitoring room was on the left side of the lobby.

After knowing the direction of the monitoring room, the brothers hurried to the monitoring room.

After arriving at the monitoring room, I saw a fat man who was watching the surveillance video. The fat man was sleeping in that snoring snoring...

Hearing a voice, the fat man suddenly woke up.

"Hey, who are you?" The fat man looked at the brothers one by one with his red fluffy eyes in horror.

Wang Zhen glared at the fat man, and then stuffed his ID in front of the fat man. The fat man was stunned. After seeing the ID of Brigadier Wang Zhen, he was depressed for a moment.

"You...what are you doing?" The fat man asked with a puzzled expression looking at Brigadier Wang Zhen and the brothers in front of him.

As he asked, but Wang Zhendao said: "I want you to immediately bring up the surveillance video of the airport lobby fifteen minutes before."

After Wang Zhen said this, the fat man froze there with blinking eyes. He obviously didn't know what Brigadier Wang Zhen and the brothers were doing.

"Hurry up...Fatty." Tang Xiaolong, who was anxious over there, shouted to the fatty.

The fat man hurriedly tuned up all the airport surveillance videos from the first fifteen minutes from the computer.

"That's it." After calling out, the fat man pointed to one of the computer screens and said.

I saw that the position displayed on the computer screen happened to be able to see the direction of the restraint room there, and the three special police officers could clearly be seen standing still outside the restraint room on the screen.

"Here." Wang Zhen said excitedly after seeing it, pointing his hand there.

The brothers all turned their gazes at this time, looking at the computer monitoring screen in front of them.

The video on the computer showed the three special police officers standing outside the restraint room. After about a few minutes, suddenly a man in a gray suit and several customs officers came towards the restraint room.

Then I entered the restraint room...

After seeing the situation, the brothers all stared at the surveillance screen in front of them with wide-open eyes, for fear of missing a little detail.

The computer video showed that the customs officers quickly walked out of the restraint room again. After they walked out, the situation appeared.

In less than a few seconds, suddenly the door of the restrained room opened.

A tall and thin European man with silver hair came out from inside.

"This person is the foreigner?" Tang Xiaolong said in astonishment.

"Little dragon, don't talk first." Chen Qiaozhi reminded there.

At the moment, everyone was staring at the video monitor in front of them.

However, after the foreigner with silver hair opened the door, he suddenly said something to the three special police officers standing outside the door.

The monitor could only take pictures of talking, but could not know what the man with silver hair was talking about.

"What is the foreigner talking to the special police at the door?"

"do not know."

The only thing I can see is that after the man with the silver hair suddenly spoke to the three special police officers, the three special police officers stood there stupidly... and then looked towards each other blankly. Walking to the inside of the restraint room, after reaching the inside, he sat limply on the ground with a plop.

"How could this be?"

"Why did the three special police suddenly fall to the ground? I didn't see those foreigners taking action at all?" Xue Wuhen said in shock from the side.

The brothers were also completely stunned, because they did not see how the three special police officers fell to the ground. They only saw the man with silver hair and simply said a few words to the three special police officers. words.

At this moment, brothers and Brigadier Wang Zhen were all wondering there.

As I continued to look at the surveillance video, I saw three figures coming out of the surveillance room after the three special police officers fainted to the ground unknowingly.

The one at the front was a burly and muscular hunk, and behind him was the man with silver hair, following there, and the last one appeared was a beauty with wavy blond hair.

With the continuous enlargement of surveillance video, the faces of the three finally appeared clearly in the eyes of Wang Zhen and the brothers.

"That's them?" Wang Zhen in front of him was shocked.

The brothers also froze there one by one.

"So it's these three people."

Just as they were talking, Tang Xiaolong suddenly slapped his thigh and jumped up, and at the same time yelled in his mouth, "I'm fucking... when I came in from the airport lobby, the person I hit is it them?"

As Tang Xiaolong said this suddenly, the brothers turned their heads and looked at Tang Xiaolong suspiciously.

"Xiaolong, what are you talking about?"

Tang Xiaolong looked as though his regretful intestines were about to break, and shouted there, "I saw them."

"What? Did you see it?" The brothers asked Weiwei in wonder.

Tang Xiaolong looked regretful about dying, and shouted there, "I really saw them, they just walked past my eyes..."

"When we came in from the airport, it happened to be when they left the airport. At that time, my sister hit one of them... that person was this big guy." Tang Xiaolong said while pointing to the frozen surveillance video. Pointing to the strong man above, he regretted it.

The brothers not only frowned when they heard this guy say so.

"What's wrong, don't you believe what I said?"

"Really, I really bumped into this guy... Lie to you, I'm a bastard." Tang Xiaolong swore anxiously.

The brothers ignored him.

Because even if Tang Xiaolong saw the truth at the time, it would have no other effect. Now that people have already left, what use is there to say this?

"It seems that we are getting more and more troublesome. It is really weird that three foreigners like this suddenly appear again." Wang Zhen said slightly in front of him.

Na Xue Wuhen said on one side: "I just don't know if these three foreigners have any contact with the monster from the day before yesterday!"

"It shouldn't be!" Just listen to Chen Qiao's way.

Just after Chen Qiaozhi said no, Tang Xiaolong in front of him immediately shouted from one side: "Yes! There is definitely a connection."

When this guy said this sentence, he held an extremely positive attitude! As if he knew it was similar.

Listening to Tang Xiaolong's words, Chen Qiaozhi turned his head and frowned at Tang Xiaolong and said, "How do you know? How are you sure?"

"I bumped into his body!" Tang Xiaolong said.

"What?" the brothers asked silently.

Chapter 1887: Darkness is coming

Tang Xiaolong then quickly explained: "I tell you, the guy I ran into when I came in, his whole body was as cold as ice cubes... the whole body didn't seem to have the slightest temperature, which was the same as when I was the day before yesterday. The body temperature on the monster is exactly the same, and the body is as dry as it is, extremely stiff." Tang Xiaolong said there.

"You should remember that I told you the day before yesterday that the whole body of that monster is cold and stiff?" Tang Xiaolong was afraid that his brothers would not believe it, and he said that right now.

Brothers of course remember that Tang Xiaolong said this feeling before, and now listening to Tang Xiaolong suddenly say this, everyone is silent there now.

"In that case, Xiaolong's analysis is good...Could it be that these three foreigners are also that kind of perverted stuff?" Xue Wuhen said in panic.

To be honest, that perverted "thing" the night before yesterday made the three of them in a hurry, so if three more appear, they must not be depressed to death!

"But, why do they look exactly like ordinary people? I can't see that there is a problem at all..." Jiang Dashan said on one side.

Tang Xiaolong said immediately: "Dashan, you are stupid, you forgot, the abnormal thing the day before yesterday also looks like a normal person, but what about his ability? His ability is not like a human at all!"

Listening to what Tang Xiaolong said, Jiang Dashan in front of him suddenly realized.

What Xiaolong said this time was really good, and his analysis was also very reasonable. It can be seen that Tang Xiaolong's analysis these few times is still very reliable.

"Xiaolong is right! It seems that Binjiang City will be in greater trouble." Chen Qiaozhi said worriedly there.

After the brothers left the airport, they looked at the black night sky outside. A gloomy darkness filled the sky above Binjiang City, and the dark evil flooded towards Binjiang City like a black fog in the sky.

Police news: There was another tragic death on the Bund of Binjiang. The deceased were two male bank employees. They were killed by criminals on the way after leaving the bank at 23:00 last night. Both of the deceased were bitten on the spot by some kind of beast on the neck At the same time, the body seemed to have been sucked up and died. The families of the two deceased have already arrived. They are currently preparing to discuss with the police how to dispose of the corpse. For further clues, please lock the Binjiang Legal Television Station.

Reporter: In the early morning of this evening, near Heping Street on the Bund, three victims were killed again. All three victims were high school students from Binjiang No. 1 Middle School. These three classmates held a party on the Bund to celebrate their friends' birthdays. Coming back late, on the way home at one o'clock in the morning, he was viciously killed in Heping Street. Three high school students were still bitten in their necks and died suddenly.

The above news appeared continuously in one day.

This situation caused the citizens of Binjiang City to panic!

The people at the police station are also crazy.

My God, the terrible murderer who had been slaughtered before, has now become more bloodthirsty and even more bloodthirsty, killing five innocent passers-by in one night!

Why do they want to kill?

What kind of pervert did it? This is the most troublesome problem for the police.

As Chief Zhou of Binjiang City's police station, he was already fidgeting. This morning, the municipal party committee had made five consecutive phone calls, and they were all scolding him. The mayor of Binjiang City spoke in person, asking Chief Zhou to be within 5 days. , This unprecedented terrorist murder must be solved.

Now the entire Binjiang City is panicking, so that people are afraid to go out at night.

But Wang Zhen from the police station has brothers.

They also knew about these terrifying news, and after hearing it, they were completely stunned.

"Oh my god, those demons are starting to kill frantically..."

"Before, they killed people only once every few days, but now? They killed five people in one night..." the brothers said in shock.

"Are those * perverts crazy?"

"What are they doing? Why are they killing so many innocent people?" Tang Xiaolong roared, and asked angrily with his fists tightly clenched there.

Brothers at this moment, everyone is immersed in endless anger, how can they never think that the perverted demon is so cruel!

They are simply inhumane.

As they were talking, the Chief Zhou and several policemen were walking quickly towards the brothers.

As soon as I entered the room, I saw Chief Zhou of the police station beggingly and said to Brigadier Wang Zhen: "Brigadier Wang, I beg you... Please help me."

"The municipal party committee has already issued a death order to me, so that I must solve the case within five days. If I can't solve it, the consequences will be disastrous!"

"Brigadier Wang, I beg you, this time we must help us catch the murderer, not only for me, but also for the social stability of the entire Binjiang City."

I saw that Director Zhou really had no choice.

The only people he can count on now are Wang Zhen and his brothers.

Seeing that the policemen under his hands could not fight the so-called murderers at all, the Chief Zhou could only pin his last hope on Brigadier Wang Zhen.

But what about Brigadier Wang Zhen? After hearing Director Zhou say this, he quickly said there: "Zhou Ju, you are polite."

"I will definitely do everything possible to help you, help you catch that cruel villain!"

"It's just that, I can't assure you that I can do it in five days."

Listening to Brigade Commander Wang Zhen saying this, but seeing Director Zhou of the police station in front of you say there: "I am very satisfied with these words from Brigadier Wang!"

"As long as Brigadier Wang can help me, I will try my best to communicate with the municipal party committee...let them give us some time." Zhou Ju said helplessly.

Wang Zhen said there, "Okay!"

While Wang Zhen was talking to Director Zhou, suddenly a policeman ran in from the outside with an ugly face.

After running in, he yelled: "Zhou Ju, it's not good, there is another life case!"

When Director Zhou heard this, he almost jumped up.

"what??"

"Again...and...someone was killed again?" Director Zhou's face suddenly turned pale as paper.

And brothers? When I heard that another innocent person died, I was shocked right now!

I saw the policeman who ran over there panting and saying, "Yes, Zhou Ju. On the Gulf Road on the Bund, a group of lovers were found dead in the lane... There."

When Director Zhou heard this, he suddenly swayed twice, as if he was about to fall down.

The policeman saw Chief Zhou almost collapsed, so he hurried to help him, and while he was supporting him, he cried out with concern, "Zhou Ju, Zhou Ju..."

"Are you OK?"

Director Zhou was supported, his face pale and bloodless, and he shook his head in pain.

"Let me be quiet, let me be alone." Director Zhou seemed to be in a daze and suddenly shouted there alone.

Then he staggered and never talked to his brothers again. One person seemed to be lost, and one person walked outside.

Brigadier Wang Zhen and his brothers saw Director Zhou leaving desperate, and they were completely confused at the moment.

"Dead again?"

"That * monster thing came out to kill again?"

I saw my brothers roaring at the moment.

"Hey, let me ask you, where are the two deceased you just mentioned now?" Chen Qiaozhi asked quickly.

Chapter 1888: Do not kill me

The policeman in front of him hurriedly told Chen Qiaozhi and his brothers where the couple was killed!

After the brothers listened, Chen Qiaozhi was the first to say: "Go, let's go and see the scene."

"Damn bastard, killing so many people in one day... It's damned." The brothers said with endless anger in their hearts.

They would never have thought that such a horrible and evil thing would happen tonight, that so many people would die overnight!

Is that thing that extinct humanity really so cruel? Has really started to kill wildly?

In this way, the brothers hurried to the place of the last dead man in the car overnight.

Because it is understood that the couple was killed half an hour ago...

So the brothers in front of me hope to find some small clues after arriving at the scene of the incident.

The location of the incident was on the Gulf Avenue in the Bund City, which was not very far from here. After getting on the bus quickly, the brothers hurried to the Gulf Avenue.

But see the Bund, the scene of the accident at Gulf Avenue.

A police car was parked there guarding the scene of the accident, and there were three policemen guarding there.

And the place in front of them was the place where the dead person was. The corpse there had been covered with a white cloth, but the corpse hadn't moved yet.

The three policemen were chatting, talking, and guarding the body of the accident.

The streets near and far have been blocked at the moment, and no pedestrians pass by.

The dim street lamp exudes a flickering light, shining on this side, making the road here look weird.

Suddenly, I saw it on the quiet road, and suddenly I saw three figures appearing there.

A closer look revealed that it was the three foreigners at the airport.

The one walking in the front was the burly hunk, the other was the man with silver hair, and the middle one was still the European beauty with wavy blond hair.

How could the three of them come to this accident site for no reason? What are they doing here?

However, they said that they did not approach the police directly, but stood far away.

When the dim light was shining on them, I don't know why, there is indeed no shadow on their bodies.

"I can smell the breath...Miss Mary, this breath is indeed a member of the Gangelo family." A word suddenly came out of the man with silver hair, his cunning eyes exuding A strange light looked around.

The European woman with a beautiful face like an angel suddenly said: "It seems that the Gangaluo family has broken the contract, and they are really starting to kill humans."

"Unexpectedly, the thousand-year contract of the blood family has broken the Gangelo family! This time, I see how their family faces the dogma of the blood family!" Miss Mary said there.

"Miss Mary, shall we go and see the corpse? I might be able to find someone from the Gangelo family." Only the man with the silver hair said slightly.

Miss Mary's icy eyes glanced at the front and said, "Okay."

"Go, go ahead and have a look."

With that said, the three people in front of them walked towards the corpse in front of them step by step.

However, when the policemen standing guarding the scene of the accident suddenly saw a figure coming over here, they were not only taken aback, but also turned their heads.

Then they saw three foreigners walking towards them step by step.

When they saw the three of them walking towards this side, one of the policemen shouted and said, "Hey, don't you see the warning sign? It is now forbidden to pass here. Get out of here quickly."

But he said that as the policeman said so, Miss Mary who came by and two other people seemed to have never heard her, and they were still walking towards this side step by step.

"Hey, I asked you to stop, do you hear?"

When the police here saw his words and the three people didn't listen at all, they said angrily.

But no matter how he roared, the three people in front seemed to have not heard them at all, still walking towards them.

When he saw this, the policeman was startled.

A policeman next to him looked at the three weird foreigners in front of him and said in a low voice to his companion: "I think something is wrong."

"Then what to do?"

"Don't let them come."

As they said so, the policemen suddenly pulled out their guns.

"Hey, stop, if you go further, we will shoot." Only listen to the police, who already felt that something was wrong, and immediately took out the pistol he carried with him and pointed it at that with a black muzzle. Said Miss Mary who came by and two other weird foreigners.

But even if the police drew their pistols, the three foreigners in front of them were still walking towards them step by step, as if turning a blind eye.

Seeing that the distance is getting closer and closer, the policemen are suddenly a little scared.

"Stop, don't move forward..."

"stop....."

"I shot... I really want to shoot..."

One of the guys, because he didn't hold back his finger, pulled his finger on the trigger, and with a bang, the bullets were shot at the three strange foreigners who came quickly.

As the bullets roared in, but seeing the fierce man walking in the front, he didn't even evade.

boom

With a sound, the howling bullet hit his body.

After the hunk was shot, he didn't even move, as if the bullet hit him with no response at all.

But his face did explode with endless anger, and there was a roar in his mouth, and all of a sudden, the extremely long fangs on both sides were exposed from his mouth! Horrible and scary.

He is angry!

He was alive and irritated.

As his anger rose, I saw the bullet shot in his body. I don't know why, it suddenly fell out of the hole in his body with a clatter and automatically fell out, and then fell on the cold ground. On, and his chest hit by the bullet was slowly and automatically recovered at this moment, and the rotten flesh of his face was also automatically healed at this moment!

"Things looking for death!" Suddenly, a roar of rage came out from the fangs of the hunk.

Then his figure flashed, rushing towards the policemen like the speed of light.

The speed is so fast, so scary, and there is no reaction from the police at all.

With a bang, one of the policemen did not see what was in front of him, and then the whole chest was hit with a fatal blow. With a scream, the whole person's chest was hit by the opponent's weird energy. Suddenly, the person flew upside down, flying a distance of more than ten meters... With a plop and hit the wall over there, his head suddenly shattered, and the whole person suddenly died on the ground.

What about the two policemen here? After seeing his companion suddenly knocked into the air, I was stunned... Before I had time to scream, another policeman was also knocked out with a bang.

After flying more than ten meters away, he hit the police car over there. Even the front engine cover of the police car was completely flattened. The whole person fell on the abandoned police car as if he was killed. at every turn.

And the last policeman remaining? Seeing that two of his companions died in a blink of an eye, they were stunned at the moment, their legs were directly frightened to the ground, and the guns in his hands couldn't even be held tightly.

"Don't kill me...Don't kill me..."

The policeman slumped to the ground and begged.

Just when the strong man was ready to attack the last innocent policeman, a figure suddenly came to the strong man and grabbed his arm.

Chapter 1889: Come

"Danny, you're crazy!" a squeaky shout furiously came from her mouth.

I saw that the person who grabbed the arm of the hunky man called Danny was the European woman with a peerless appearance, Miss Mary.

She was angry at Danny's strong man in front of her.

Then Danny said with a face of dissatisfaction: "These ignorant humans provoke us first... I'm here to teach them a lesson!"

"Bastard!" Miss Mary suddenly got angry, stretched out her right hand, and slapped Danny's face with a slap.

Five purple and black finger prints appeared on Danny's entire face.

Na Danny was slapped in the face by Miss Mary, and he didn't dare to speak at once, covering his face, lowered his head angrily.

"I warn you, if you dare to attack humans, I will kill you!"

"I don't care if your father is the elder of the Toledo clan, and no matter who you are, I will kill you according to the rules of the Toledo clan. You must know that the thousand-year clan rules can never be changed by you." Mary The young lady roared there.

Toledo!

It is absolutely not allowed to kill humans!

This is the only blood-sucking race among the blood-sucking race that is friendly to humans.

After being slapped by Miss Mary, Danny was standing there with an ugly face. He lowered his head and said nothing.

I saw that after Miss Mary dealt with her men, she suddenly raised her beautiful eyes and glanced at the police officer who was limp and pale in fright on the ground.

What about the police? The moment I saw my two companions die tragically, I was already shocked. At this moment, he kept begging and begging: "Don't kill me... please... don't kill me..."

But she said that Miss Mary glanced at the limp policeman on the ground, and suddenly turned her head and said to Karel: "Karel, clean his memory!"

After hearing what Miss Mary said, Carell, who had silver hair, nodded silently, and walked to the front of the policeman who was limp on the ground.

The policeman just wanted to speak, when Karel said a few words to the policeman with weird eyes, a strange blue light emanated from his eyes, and all the blue light entered the policeman.

When he was in sight, the policeman suddenly lost his eyes, and at the same time, his face seemed completely sluggish.

Then Carrell stood up and nodded at that Miss Mary.

The beautiful Miss Mary didn't speak, turned and walked step by step towards the two corpses covered with white cloth in front.

Carrell and Na Danny also followed at the same time.

After arriving here, Miss Mary squatted down, and then stretched out a hand to uncover the white canvas on which the corpse was covered. After opening it, she saw two corpses lying on the ground, a man and a woman, and they were both side by side. Lying to death on the ground, there were bitten wounds on the neck.

After seeing the corpse, Miss Mary didn't speak, and slowly straightened up.

"Sure enough, the Gangelo family did it..." A word came out of Miss Mary's mouth.

After she said it, Nakarel and Danny also stepped forward and took a look at the corpse.

Just as they were looking at the corpse, a car suddenly drove over here.

As the car approached, the lights in front of the car shone on Miss Mary, Carrell, and Danny.

But who is the driver?

Upon closer inspection, this vehicle turned out to be a military off-road vehicle of the North China Field Army, and the people sitting in the vehicle were obviously Tang Xiaolong and Brigadier Wang Zhen.

But they said that after they arrived, as the car lights shone, of course they all saw Miss Mary, Carrell, and Danny in front of them.

The moment they saw these three foreigners, the brothers were stunned.

"It's them....."

"It's the three foreigners at the airport." A word suddenly screamed from Tang Xiaolong's mouth.

The brothers took a closer look and really recognized the faces of these three people.

"Quick, stop them." As the brothers said so, the soldier in front of the car, stepped on the accelerator, and the car quickly moved forward. When it reached the three foreigners, a beautiful sharp turn directly blocked. In front of the three.

Then I saw them jump out of the car one by one.

The brigade commander Wang Zhen directly drew his gun from his arms and aimed it at the three men including Miss Mary in front of him... The brothers also surrounded them all.

But she said Miss Mary over there, Danny, and Carrell. After seeing strangers surrounding them, Miss Mary took a look at the situation and said in Italian: "I think we should leave. Here it is."

Carrell and Danny nodded together.

But what about the brothers at this moment? They don't understand the Italian language and don't know what they are talking about.

I saw the brothers surrounding the three people while looking around. In this look, they saw two police corpses who died tragically on the ground, as well as a coma and a sluggish policeman... I was stunned.

Tang Xiaolong ran over there quickly and touched the snorts of the two policemen who had died tragically on the ground, and said furiously, "All dead..."

"All killed!"

When Wang Zhen heard it, his eyes were red.

"Asshole, you did it! You did it!" Wang Zhen said, holding a gun at the heads of the three people in front of him.

But Miss Mary, Carrell and Danny in front of them were not afraid of his gun at all, but looked at him coldly.

Wang Zhen only felt a gloomy light hitting his whole body. He subconsciously squeezed the gun in his hand and pointed at the Miss Mary there.

"Don't move..."

"Tell me, who are you? Why are you so cruel and kill so many innocent people?" Wang Zhen angrily asked at the Miss Mary, Carrell and Na Danny.

After Brigadier Wang Zhen asked, Miss Mary, Carrell and Danny didn't speak at all.

"Hey, are you dumb? Talk, bastard." Wang Zhen roared angrily.

He thought that the deceased tonight were all done by the three foreigners in front of him, so he held the gun at the three men fiercely.

But no matter what Wang Zhen said, the three of them remained motionless.

"Brigade Commander Wang, don't talk to these inhumane people. They are so cruel and killed so many people. They must be killed... shoot, shoot them to death." Tang Xiaolong said over there.

Brigadier Wang Zhen didn't shoot immediately, he just hesitated there.

But what about the three people here? He didn't explain or speak, just stood there indifferently.

"Do they not understand what we are saying?" Xue Wuhen asked curiously over there.

Chapter 1890: I haven't hit enough

Wang Zhen thought, yes, after all, the three of them are all Europeans, and it is reasonable that they cannot understand Chinese.

But just after Xue Wuhen said this, Karel with silver hair suddenly said: "These people weren't killed by us, please let us go."

"Damn it, these foreigners can understand Chinese... they can speak Chinese." Jiang Dashan over there cried.

Then Chen Qiaozhi took a step forward and looked at the silver-haired foreign man and said, "You said you didn't kill these people? Who killed that?"

"How is it possible? Sick ghost, do you have to believe these  foreigners... Just now we saw them killing people with our own eyes, can there be fakes?" Tang Xiaolong said.

Chen Qiaozhi said: "Don't forget, after we got here, they just appeared here, and didn't see them actually killing people with their own eyes."

"Grass, what do you mean by believing these foreigners?" Tang Xiaolong said angrily.

Chen Qiaozhi glared at Tang Xiaolong and said, "I don't believe them, I just want to know more truth."

When Chen Qiaozhi said this, Karel, who was because of the hair, said again: "I have already said that people are not killed by us, let us get out of here...otherwise..."

After the silver-haired Karel suddenly said this, the brothers in front of him were stunned.

Now these three foreigners are surrounded by brothers. At the same time, several brigade commanders Wang Zhen and a soldier pointed their guns at their heads. They even said something like this...Are they going to leave here? ?

The brothers looked at the three of them cautiously at this moment, because they already felt something was wrong.

"Otherwise, what do you want? Do you want to escape?"

Wang Zhen said angrily. At this moment, his fingers squeeze the trigger, ready to shoot at any time.

But seeing that Karel, who had silver hair, heard Brigadier Wang Zhen say this, he suddenly smiled weirdly, and then turned to look at the Miss Mary beside him.

But seeing Miss Mary nodded slightly at this moment... she nodded as if she had given an order.

As she nodded for a moment, the figure of Karel and the figure of Danny suddenly moved.

"This is your choice."

It's so fast that the naked eye can't see it!

Quickly let the brigade commander Wang Zhen and the soldier next to him have no time to pull the trigger in their hands.

Then I saw Brigadier Wang Zhen, his arm hurt suddenly, a muffled scream came from his mouth, and the gun in his hand fell directly to the ground.

The other soldier was just like Brigadier Wang Zhen, and Danny directly knocked out the gun in his hand.

Seeing that silver-haired Carrell and Danny's sudden move made the brothers completely dumbfounded, too fast, too fast.

After the brothers were stunned for about a second, then they rushed to Carrel and Danny in front of them.

But seeing Tang Xiaolong roaring in his mouth, a fist struck Karel.

Karel didn't even look at it, his body was slightly wrong, and with a swish, he went directly behind Tang Xiaolong, and then he lifted his left hand, and struck Tang Xiaolong's back with a seemingly light blow.

Tang Xiaolong only felt a icy pain in his back. He couldn't hold his footsteps at once, and he was shot forward, but his body didn't have much injury, as if the opponent's strength was extremely accurate. Yes, I don't want to hurt him at all.

But what about Danny over there? He also handed over with Xue Wuhen and Jiang Dashan. Xue Wuhen did not hit the burly Danny in two consecutive strokes, but was kicked to the ground by Danny, and was kicked upside down. Not to mention Jiang Dashan, before he reached Danny's side, he was thrown into the air by Danny.

Seeing that these brothers could not be the opponents of these three abnormal things at all, Chen Qiaozhi's eyes widened.

Because he discovered that the three foreigners this time are exactly the same as the monster they saw that night, all possessing terrifying speed... possessing power beyond the imagination of normal people!

God, what kind of species are these people? He thought in that horrified heart.

At this moment, that silly man suddenly jumped out of the car. The moment his burly body jumped out of the car, he saw that there was a fight here, and he suddenly rushed over like a bear.

What this guy likes most is fighting.

Looking at the fierce fighting here, of course he is happy to spend it.

After rushing to this side, Jiang Dashan's beaten body suddenly fell under Silly Man's feet.

Jiang Dashan fell to the ground in pain and grinned.

What about the silly man? When he saw that Jiang Dashan was beaten to the ground, he screamed and grinned.

"Da Shan, you were beaten...you stupid..."

Jiang Dashan saw that this idiot was still laughing at himself, and could not help cursing his mother: "Man'er, your uncle, don't you hurry up to help?"

Silly Man's eyes raised up when he heard this, and stared at the burly Danny in front of him.

Then Danny also saw Silly Man'er at this moment, but there was indeed a cold and angry light in his eyes, and at the same time there was a wave of disdain.

Silly Man'er stepped over without saying a word, and slammed directly at Danny with a violent punch without warning.

When Na Danny saw the silly man's powerful punch hit him, his body suddenly disappeared, and then suddenly appeared behind the silly man, and struck him with a move.

But he didn't expect that the silly man would react extremely quickly, and suddenly leaned forward, avoiding Danny's move.

After being evaded by this stupid big man, Danny was taken aback for a moment. It was obvious that he had never expected that among humans, he could avoid him at such a speed.

And at this moment, the one who evaded his tricks turned out to be a big guy who looked naive.

At this time, Danny was angry, and a hideous murderous intent appeared in those jewel-like blue eyes. He raised his hands and attacked the silly man.

Silly Man'er couldn't avoid it, with enough luck in his hands, he slammed out.

With a boom, they collided with Danny.

I saw Danny's fist hit the silly man's chest, and what about the silly man's angry fist? It also hit Danny's body entirely.

The silly man was beaten by the mighty power of the vampire Danny, and his majestic body suddenly kicked the continuous casting back several steps...At the same time, the silly man's face became extremely ugly, and he looked ugly there. His face, while covering the place where he was hit, said slyly, "It hurts, it hurts..."

And look at that Danny of the Toledo tribe?

Although he has the immortal body of a vampire, the body that was beaten by the supreme fist of the silly man can't help but retreat violently. At the same time, the immortal body in his body seems to be when he was shocked and injured... that one was originally pale. The face became more ugly, especially the eyes.

Miss Mary over there watched this scene. It was obvious that she was also shocked. Didn't expect that among the human beings, they could hurt their blood members?

"Danny, don't fight him, we should go!"

As Miss Mary said so, Danny, who was glaring at strange eyes, glared viciously at Silly.

Then followed Mary and Karel, the three of them screamed, and suddenly they reached a dark place more than ten meters ahead.

I didn't see how they moved or how they flew by, so it reached a distance of more than ten meters.

Looking at the three foreigners who were leaving so quickly, the brothers were all speechless.

"Don't run, I haven't played enough yet..." The silly man behind saw that Danny had run away, and shouted immediately there.

But what about Mary and Danny and Na Carrell? Their bodies flashed again, and their figures disappeared into the endless darkness like this, and their shadows were no longer found.

The brothers were stunned as they watched the three disappear.

"Oh my god, that... that... that... what are the three guys?"

"How... how can... so fast?" Xue Wuhen said in shock.

The brothers were also confused, because they didn't know what the three people were just now.

The clue was once again interrupted.

Looking at the police corpse on the ground and the tragic death of a young couple, the brothers and Brigadier Wang Zhen were silent.
