

A Killer 1951

Chapter 1951: Zero degree limit

And now that Miss Mary's body is indeed only half corroded by silver, if the entire body is completely corroded by silver, then her body will instantly turn into a ball of acid water, and then disappear in smoke, just like the previous Karel , And that Danny, and now, the reason why Miss Mary's body can still remain here is that her body is not dead.

The best way for vampires to restore their physical strength and resurrect is blood!

Blood is the basis for the survival of vampires, and it is also the best thing for them to recuperate the body. As long as the average vampire is immortal, after drinking the blood, it will be instantly energetic, and the damage suffered before will quickly recover. This is the unique function of the blood clan, and it is also the most terrifying aspect of vampires.

At this moment, does Li Tian really want to save this Miss Mary with blood?

Can Miss Mary really live?

...

The war of mastery is still going on.

The enchanted Dragon Yin is against the invincible evil  in the world.

One of the six magic arts is extremely scary: the way of hungry ghosts.

And what about the other evil gods? It uses the Jian Qi inspired by Zhen Qi.

The terrible fishy wind accompanied by the Nether Hungry Ghost has made the evil  unable to fight back.

At this moment, the Cthulhu had used all the true energy in his body, and it was still difficult to resist the countless nether fire and the terrifying hungry ghost.

The sweat on the head of the evil  fell drop by drop.

The robe on his back has been completely wet with sweat.

Continually using internal energy to urge the zhenqi and then forming the sword qi caused the qi in the Cthulhu's body to seriously drop, and his combat effectiveness has begun to weaken.

The neighing sound of the Dragon Sword in his hand also became wailing, as if it were wailing.

Is it true that the heretical  who is overwhelming the world can hardly resist the evil dragon Yin?

Are the six magic arts really dominating the world?

"Cthulhu, I want to see how long you can support it!"

Amidst the roaring wind, the demon-headed dragon Yin roared sharply, and suddenly the overcast wind raged, and the stern ghost image moved more fiercely: "Thousands of ghosts are crying, the world will be destroyed!"

Hungry Ghost Dao's ultimate trick!

With this move, the sky changed color, and the common people seemed to have turned into a * on earth. The only thing that could be felt was the chaos of the surrounding ghosts, rushing towards the evil * with endless killing and hostility, and the ghosts with grinning teeth. , Come over and bite the evil * fiercely!

The world has become hell.

Who else in the world can resist the devil's dragon Yin?

Buddha and demons share the same path, demons are high? Buddha is weak?

There was a thunderous sound.

Over the dark sky that was originally gloomy as hell, a terrible lightning flashed the sky instantly.

At this moment, the sound of thunder continued to emerge in the air, accompanied by endless thunder, suddenly a figure flew up, like a distance of light.

That, that, is his invincible figure in the world!

It is his stalwart posture that dominates the world.

Suddenly the whole gloomy air suddenly changed, and the fierce gloomy hungry ghosts and those gloomy fires just now seemed to stop instantly.

The world seemed to stand still, and everything seemed completely suffocated.

Then, an extremely cold temperature quickly dropped from the sky, the terrible air-conditioning seemed to freeze everything in the world.

"Zero, degree, extreme, boundary!"

The four words suddenly roared out from the mouth of the invincible evil * who was flying up and down like the words of the gods.

The terrible temperature suddenly became cold, and the world seemed to be completely frozen by ice at this moment.

The endless cold air attacked the enchanted Long Yin one by one.

But seeing that the ghost fire under the cold air and the endless ghosts were all torn to pieces by the freezing, the miserable ghosts screamed...

Even the devil dragon Yin? When I saw this masterpiece, I was horrified.

He never thought that there would be such a trick in this world, a trick that could freeze the entire space, he just opened his eyes wide, looking at the terrifying chill in disbelief, constantly The rushing toward him, rushing.

The ghost fires and hungry ghosts around him have all been shattered and all disappeared.

They were all frozen and frozen! It became like ice cubes.

In the realm of ten thousand cold, heaven and earth become ice solemnly.

Destruction may not be terrible, but the terrible thing is that everything in the world is completely frozen.

And now this trick used by Cthulhu: How powerful is the Zero Degree Extreme Realm? In this world, perhaps no one knows, because all the creatures that they know may have been sealed by ice.

Long Yin doesn't know this "Zero-degree Extreme Realm" technique. I am afraid that even the old Wuji who has lived for nearly three hundred years does not know the mastery of his apprentice Cthulhu's skill, because this "Zero-degree Extreme Realm" is here The supreme mind that has been realized in the thousand-year-old ice on the top of the Tianshan Mountains for twenty years.

This trick was created by him, and he realized it by himself because he became a living dead and was sealed in the ice for more than 20 years.

Use endless cold energy, combined with exercises to stimulate physical energy, turn gas into water, turn water into ice, seal the sky, and freeze the ground!

Unprecedented!

The overbearing trick makes the entire space frozen.

Everything around was frozen, and there was a layer of hard frost hanging on the wall, and the ground and trees were all sealed by the cold ice. The endless frost is still constantly coming from the palms of the evil gods. In the decline.

Long Yin's feet were trapped in the ice, and his hands seemed to have begun to stiffen slowly.

The body and head were also covered with frozen frost... He can now be said to have turned into ice.

With stiff limbs, he still tried his best to use all his body's magic energy to resist the cold.

Unfortunately, in vain, because the terrible cold has completely sealed all acupuncture points in his body. To put it bluntly, his whole body has been frozen almost completely. Is stiff.

The only thing he can feel right now is that his whole body is dripping, inch by inch, forming ice cubes, face, hands, hair, and whole body!

No matter he has the supreme magic arts, he still has the other four terrifying powers of these six magic arts, but at this moment his body is completely frozen by the cold...

He lost!

The devil dragon Yin finally lost!

He was ultimately defeated by the invincible evil  in the world.

There was endless resentment and anger in his eyes, but everything was useless, because his person had become an ice sculpture, and he had no ability to spit out another word.

In the snow-white icy land, the figure of the evil  suddenly fell from the sky.

His hair was still scattered around his body, and the Dragon Sword in his hand was still held in his right hand.

To be alone in the world, who is it?

Chapter 1952: Bloody vampire

Under the extremely cold temperature, this space has been frozen.

The demon Dragon Yin was also frozen in the ice at this moment, and his body had been frozen and frozen.

In the ice, even though Long Yin was extremely unwilling, what could he do?

The Cthulhu stood there, and the Dragon Sword in his hand was suddenly raised, and there was a sound, the sword pointed at the frozen Long Yin in front of him.

"Buddhas and demons don't exist. Today, I am going to cross your demon!" The evil * in front of me suddenly said.

Following his voice, he saw the Dragon Sword in his hand suddenly raised.

Splitting the sky and slashing, suddenly the whole sword slashed towards the frozen Long Yin.

The devil Long Yin could only watch the evil god's domineering sword cut down. He could not move, could not say, and could only wait to die.

The invincible sword slashed vigorously, at the moment when it struck Long Yin in front of him, but saw a black shadow hitting the evil * in front of him at an extraordinary speed.

vampire!

Count Spike of the Gangelo family, he finally made a move at this moment.

Although the Cthulhu's Zero Degree Realm has frozen everything in the entire space, can it be frozen in that vampire that is not a human?

Do not!

Of course not!

You must know that vampires themselves don't have any body temperature. Their bodies are entirely ice. This zero-degree extreme is suddenly terrifying to humans, but it has no use for vampires.

Seeing that Spike suddenly made a move at this moment, the Cthulhu was also stunned, and he did not expect that his Zero Degree Extreme Realm had not sealed this terrible vampire.

Seeing this Earl Spike rushed towards him quickly and absolutely, the Cthulhu had no choice but to turn his arm, and the long sword turned into a long rainbow, suddenly pointed at the hit Earl Spike.

Earl Spike's body suddenly disappeared, and suddenly appeared behind the evil god.

The Cthulhu knew that the speed of this vampire was as fast as the speed of light, so he turned his body quickly, and the Dragon Sword wanted to draw it back and stab it out.

But because the Heretic God just consumed too much true energy when fighting against Long Yin's way of hungry ghosts, he suddenly raised his energy and found that the true energy could not be supplemented at all. This suddenly caused the dragon sword in his hand to slow down by half a beat. .

Immediately after the Cthulhu's Dragon Sword stabs slowly, Earl Spike has appeared behind the Cthulhu.

One of his cold hands banged heavily on the Cthulhu's arm.

Cthulhu only felt a needle-like sting from his right hand, and the Dragon Sword in his hand fell off his palm and fell to the ground with a clang.

The sword fell, and the Dragon Sword was hit by Count Na Spike and dropped to the ground.

When the evil  saw his sword fall, he roared in his mouth and suddenly attacked his left palm.

But Earl Naspike disappeared with a whistling sound.

When Cthulhu turned his head, Earl Spike had already arrived in front of Cthulhu.

At this moment, there was a fierce pain in the right hand of the evil god, and he endured hard, raising a pair of eyes and staring at the vampire Earl Spike in front of him.

"Asshole!" Cthulhu scolded angrily!

But what about the vampire Count Spike? Suddenly he laughed sullenly.

He was there with a pair of bloodthirsty eyes, staring at the evil  in front of him, and said weirdly: "I finally know the reason why you could break into the Vatican Underground Inquisition... It turns out that your martial arts are really good. Great!"

The Cthulhu did not speak, and tried hard to restore his physical stamina.

He can only recover his true energy as soon as possible, because he is about to have a battle.

So he closed his mouth tightly and didn't speak.

But what about the vampire Count Spike? I have already seen that the Heretic God is recovering his stamina there, and now he smiled grimly: "Cthulhu, do you think you can really live and leave here today?"

"Do you think you really have the power to fight me?"

"You are like an ant at the moment. If I want you to die, you will die immediately." The vampire Earl Spike whispered in that dark voice.

The Cthulhu heard the vampire count in front of him say so, stared at him coldly, did not speak, and continued to regain his strength.

"Don't bother in vain, even if I let you recover for half an hour, you won't have the strength to fight me." Earl Spike suddenly laughed weirdly.

Yes, the evil  is not a  after all, he is also a mortal person!

In the battle with that Long Yin just now, the Cthulhu's true energy has already consumed nearly 80%! And now he has only 20% of his skill left. Can he use 20% of his skill to fight against this terrible vampire Earl Spike?

The answer is of course no.

I saw Count Spike staring at the evil  in front of him with an evil smile.

"You know? I'm thinking now, what method should I use to kill you!"

"Am I absorbing your blood? Or tearing your head off?" Spike just used words to stimulate the evil  in front of him.

At this moment, no matter how the vampire Earl Spike provoked him, he didn't speak, but was trying to restore his true energy there.

When the vampire Spike saw that Cthulhu didn't pay attention to him from beginning to end, a terrifying coldness suddenly appeared in the corner of his mouth.

Then with a sharp scream, the whole person suddenly appeared beside the evil god: "I want you to die!"

With a loud utterance, but seeing his pale hand, he suddenly grabbed it towards the heart of the evil god.

The Cthulhu had already made all preparations. At this moment, he saw the vampire Count Spike attacking him, his footsteps slammed back, and his right palm quickly shot out.

The vampire Count Spike didn't even evade, and his body was facing the power of the evil god.

But hearing a bang, the Cthulhu's palm hit the body of the vampire Earl Spike.

But what about the vampire Count Spike? His body just moved, but there was no injury, as if he hadn't hit him at all.

But seeing the vampire Count Spike staring at the Cthulhu's palm, sneered, one hand turned into a claw and grabbed the Cthulhu.

Cthulhu had no choice but to retreat, and his body quickly retreated.

But the moving speed of the vampire was so fast that it almost made people unable to blink their eyes.

Whoosh has reached the front of the evil god.

The two terrifying claws continued to grasp the evil god, and the evil * kept retreating, but saw that Earl Spike's terrifying hands were grasping on the frozen wall nearby.

With a click, the hard wall was snapped to pieces by his cold claws.

God, if such a claw caught the body of the evil god, would it be worth it?

I saw Cthulhu constantly dodge, and at this moment he could only avoid the tricks of the vampire Earl Spike.

The vampire Spike kept pressing on the evil god.

In this way, Cthulhu is destined to lose.

Chapter 1953: She moved

I saw one who didn't pay attention, the evil * had been grabbed to the shoulder by Earl Spike's pale and cold claw.

With a puff, flesh and blood fly.

Scarlet blood flowed out of the Cthulhu's shoulder...At the same time, there was a piercing pain on the entire shoulder, and the painful Cthulhu groaned.

He was now covering his bleeding shoulder with one hand, dodge the vampire Count Spike's attack constantly.

But dodge all the time is not the final solution after all, Cthulhu is destined to be unlucky this time!

...

Where is Li Tian?

He wanted to save Miss Mary now as if he was crazy, not because of love, nor because of anything else, but because Miss Mary knew about his father.

He didn't know what the last half sentence of Miss Mary meant, and now, he had to save Miss Mary, because only in this way could he accurately know the matter about his father.

"Blood, blood must be used to save Mary." Li Tian said in the room with blood red eyes.

After hearing Li Tian say this, the brothers all stopped him and said, "Brother Tian, use blood to save Mary? This, this, is this, I'm afraid this is wrong?"

"Yes, even if you can use blood to heal Mary in front of you, now let's go there to find blood for Miss Mary to drink?" Chen Qiaozhi was also there to persuade Li Tiandao.

Yes, in the middle of the night, where to find blood to feed Mary who is dying in front of me?

But seeing Li Tian staring at Miss Mary in front of him, he suddenly said, "Use my blood!"

what

When Li Tian suddenly said this, Situ Ningbing suddenly screamed.

"No! No!" How could Situ Ningbing watch his favorite Li Tian take risks with his own blood.

Ouyang Shiqing over there also took a hurried step and stopped Li Tian immediately: "Sister Ningbing is right... Li Tian, you are crazy, how can you use your own blood to treat these who are not humans? The vampire?"

But seeing that Li Tian didn't mean joking bit by bit in his eyes, he looked at their favorites there and said: "I'm not crazy, I'm telling the truth."

"Ning Bing, Shi Qing, do you know what is the most painful thing in my life? I have never seen my father and my mother since I was a child!"

"Now, my father is finally there, and at this moment... Do you think I don't want to know the whereabouts of my father?" Li Tian said.

Situ Ningbing said: "But, how do you know that this vampire can be cured with your blood? Besides, how can this vampire know about your father's evil god? What if what she said is false... Then, what? do?"

Li Tiandao: "No!"

"She will never lie to me! Because she has seen my father before!" Li Tianhong said with her eyes.

After Li Tian said this, Situ Ningbing didn't know how to dissuade her, she just blinked at Li Tian with extremely worried eyes.

"That, that, is it that only blood can save this, this vampire?" Ouyang Shiqing said.

Li Tian nodded and said, "Yes, this is the only way to try."

After hearing Li Tian finally say this, everyone fell silent.

"Since you want to use blood to treat Miss Mary, then use my blood... Brother Tian, use my blood!" Suddenly Xue Wuhen stepped forward and rolled up his sleeves there.

Jiang Dashan and Tang Xiaolong also stepped forward suddenly.

"Little boss, use my blood...I am the strongest, I am fine, I have a lot of blood..."

"Master, use mine." Jiang Dashan also said with his arm in arm.

Looking at a bunch of good brothers, Li Tian gave them a grateful look.

"Brothers, my Li Tianxin took your thoughts!"

"But this time, I ask you to listen to me..."

Following Li Tian's words, Xue Wuhen and his brothers were just about to speak, but Li Tian's left hand did not know when he had already taken a sharp head, and then suddenly turned towards his own. Cross your arm!

With a snort, scarlet blood ran down his arm.

"My God."

"Little boss."

"My son...you..."

Everyone's eyes were watching Li Tian actually drew blood out of his arm first, and they were all startled there. Situ Ningbing and Ouyang Shiqing next to him were even more worried. Looking at his favorite Li Tian.

But seeing Li Tian's arm constantly showing scarlet blood, he raised his head there, looking at the horrified brothers, and said slightly, "Don't worry, brothers, I promise you that I will never get into trouble. ."

While talking, Li Tian then raised his bleeding arm step by step towards the corpse-like Miss Mary.

The brothers all looked at Li Tian and looked at the blood on his arm with distress.

When Li Tian walked to the death-like Miss Mary, he began to slowly send his arm to Miss Mary's lips.

Little by little, the bright red blood began to flow toward Miss Mary's lips.

Drop by drop.

The brothers were all watching the reaction of Miss Mary.

As the drops of blood flowed into the mouth of Miss Mary, the dead Miss Mary did not make any timely response, and she was still lying on the bed cold and motionless.

Not only did the brothers feel desperate when they saw this situation, everyone couldn't help thinking in their minds at this moment: Could it be that Miss Mary the vampire is dead? Even using blood can't save her at all?

Not only did my brothers think so, but even Li Tian at this moment not only thought so.

Seeing that the blood on his arm was flowing towards Miss Mary's lips bit by bit, it was a pity that Miss Mary did not react at all. The whole person seemed to have been dead for a long time. This made Li Tian more and more. Anxious, more and more flustered.

Li Tian, who was afraid that he would not be able to save Miss Mary, could only hold his arm tightly, and then tighten his arm, and the blood flowed from his wound even more lump.

Situ Ningbing and Ouyang Shiqing watched Li Tian use their own blood to feed Miss Mary like this. They looked so distressed that they turned their heads and couldn't bear to watch.

Suddenly when everyone felt desperate, Miss Mary's body suddenly moved.

Although it only moved slightly, Li Tian was still able to see it in his eyes.

"Mary moved... She moved..." Li Tian screamed suddenly.

Chapter 1954: resurrection

Following his scream, the brothers in front of him were all staring at the white vampire Mary with closed eyes at this moment, and even Situ Ningbing and Ouyang Shi who turned their heads over there. The love is also all turned around, blinking curiously and looking at the situation here.

I saw that Miss Mary's body really moved.

Moreover, the corroded wound on her shoulder suddenly stopped spreading after drinking Li Tian's blood.

The weird situation stunned the brothers.

Could blood really bring Miss Mary the vampire back to life?

Just when the brothers were all puzzled, Miss Mary suddenly tilted her head up, and then her whole mouth was sucked on Li Tian's bleeding arm.

She started to * Li Tian's blood like crazy.

Seeing the vampire Mary grabbing Li Tian's wrist like this, and then sucking blood with her mouth, the brothers were shocked.

"Brother Tian...?" Xue Wuhen exclaimed.

Tang Xiaolong here has raised a hand, as if pushing away Miss Mary, looking at Li Tian in horror.

But Li Tian stretched out his hand to stop him.

"Xiaolong, Qiaozhi...Don't move her, let her suck! I believe she will come alive soon." Li Tian said.

Listening to what Li Tian said, the brothers were all looking at Li Tian, who was sucking blood at this moment, very worried.

They are all afraid that Miss Mary will absorb Li Tian's blood, and then Li Tian may be in danger of his own life.

What about Li Tian?

As the vampire Miss Mary kept sucking his blood, his face slowly turned pale, and sweat began to appear on his head... But he tried hard to endure it! Because he must save Mary in front of him.

In this way, in the eyes of brothers, Situ Ningbing and Ouyang Shiqing, Li Tian was sucked by Miss Mary's blood bit by bit.

One minute passed.

Ten minutes passed.

Fifteen minutes passed.

...

As time went by, Li Tian's face became more and more ugly. At the same time, his eyes began to become blurred, and the sweat on his head soaked his hair.

"Can't suck..."

"Can't let her * the blood of Brother Tian anymore." Seeing Li Tian's situation has become more and more ugly, the brothers are saying that at the moment.

Tang Xiaolong didn't care so much. Seeing that Li Tian's face was as pale and terrifying as paper, suddenly his whole body stepped forward, then stretched out his hand and pushed away Miss Mary's head.

"His grandmother, if he * it, it will kill people... The little boss absolutely can't have such an accident!"

Following Tang Xiaolong's roar, but seeing that Mary was pushed away all at once, she fell onto the bed with a splash.

What about Li Tian?

Because his blood was sucked too much, he was hit by the dragon at this moment, his body suddenly became unstable, and then he staggered, and the whole person almost fell to the ground.

Fortunately, Situ Ningbing next to Li Tian was beside Li Tian, and when she saw Li Tian tilted and wanted to fall down, she quickly hugged Li Tian in her arms.

She shouted with great concern: "Li Tian, Li Tian...how are you? How are you?"

But seeing Li Tian at this moment, his eyes were a little confused, his sanity was a little unclear, and his face was as pale and ugly as a ghost.

All the brothers here rushed over and looked at Brother Tian in front of him worriedly.

I saw Li Tian's misty eyes finally opened, and said with difficulty with his lips: "Help me...get up..."

"Li Tian, you are too weak, you need to rest..." Situ Ningbing persuaded Li Tiandao.

"Yes, my brother, you take a break first." The brothers here also said.

But Li Tian's temper was like a donkey, no matter who said it, he couldn't persuade him.

I saw that he shook his head hard and insisted to stand up.

The brothers had no choice but to slowly support Li Tian, who was extremely weak in front of him. After the brothers helped Li Tian in front of them, they saw Li Tian glance at the vampire Mary lying on the bed.

Weak asked, "She... how is she...? Come alive...have you come alive?"

The brothers felt extremely angry at the vampire Mary at this moment because Li Tian suffered such a serious crime for that Miss Mary.

Just listen to Tang Xiaolong saying: "Why don't you care about her...you're like this for the little boss who killed this * woman."

"Yes, I shouldn't save him." Jiang Dashan also angrily said.

After hearing them say this, Li Tian's pale mouth showed a bitter smile.

Then she didn't speak, looking at Mary the vampire lying on the bed at the moment.

I saw that the corner of the vampire Mary's mouth was covered with Li Tian's blood, but her eyes were still tightly closed there.

Just when the brothers thought that this vampire Mary would not wake up like this, suddenly the vampire Mary, who had fainted for a long time, suddenly opened his eyes at this moment.

She is alive.

Mary the vampire really came alive.

After Miss Mary opened her jewel-like blue eyes all of a sudden, the brothers were stunned for a moment, looking at her in disbelief.

"Lee?"

Suddenly a word came out from the corner of the vampire Mary's mouth.

But seeing her also looked at Li Tian with a pair of unbelievable eyes, especially when she saw the blood on Li Tian's arm, she was even more astonished.

Then her pupils widened for an instant, and a hand suddenly touched the corner of her mouth.

In the blink of an eye, it was blood... it was scarlet human blood...

At this moment, Miss Mary understood it instantly, and she finally understood how she came alive.

"Lee...this...this...this is your blood? You used your blood...save...save me...?" Mary the vampire, her eyes widened unbelievably as she looked in front of her face. Li Tiandao, pale, extremely weak.

After seeing Miss Mary sober, Li Tian didn't mention how happy she was.

The brothers were also completely shocked there.

They never expected that Mary, the vampire who was like a dead body just now, would wake up so quickly in less than half an hour, and from her tone of voice and power to speak, her body seemed to have recovered. It seems like more than 70%.

Oh my God, the recovery speed of vampires is so fast, especially when they drink human blood.

What about Li Tian? But he didn't care about the greetings. After Mary was sober, Li Tian stepped forward. His body was already extremely weak at the moment. When he took this step, his whole person almost fell down. Got there.

"Mary, tell me... Tell me, what happened to my father? What did you mean by the last sentence before you passed out?" Li Tian asked quickly.

Chapter 1955: rescue

The brothers are all blinking at the moment, looking at Mary in front of them, waiting for her words.

I saw an apologetic look in Mary's eyes, looking at Li Tiandao there: "Li, I'm sorry..."

"We are sorry for your father!"

When Li Tian heard what Mary said in front of him, his heart suddenly shook.

But seeing him grabbing the arms of the vampire Mary, he quickly asked, "What's the matter? What happened?"

Seeing that Mary, she said, "We were attacked by a vampire from the Gangelo family, and there is also a terrible human being... Karel and Danny were killed, and I was left behind. When he died, he was saved by your father."

"My father?" Li Tianyi was stunned when he heard that.

Li Tian asked immediately: "What about my father? Where is he now?"

Miss Mary said in pain: "I don't know if he escaped... I only know that when I escaped, the evil * was already surrounded by the vampires of the Gangaro family."

what! ! !

After Li Tianyi heard such a situation, his heart felt like a knife cut.

How could this be?

"Is my father safe? Is he still fighting there? Can he deal with the vampires of the Gangelo family?"

All the questions suddenly flooded into Li Tian's mind at this moment.

He is now worried about the evil * and his biological father.

"I'm going to save him, I'm going to help my father!" Suddenly weak Li Tian roared like crazy.

"Mary, tell me, where is my father? Where is he surrounded?" Li Tianxue asked with red eyes holding Mary at the moment.

But seeing that Mary quickly told Li Tian the address in front of her.

As soon as Li Tian heard this, he suddenly ran outside without saying anything.

"Brother Heaven..."

"Little boss, your body is too weak?" When the brothers at this moment saw Li Tian desperately trying to save the evil god, they were there to stop him.

"Yeah, Li Tian, you should rest, let Xiaolong and Qiaozhi rush over." Situ Ningbing in front of him also said to persuade him.

After all, Li Tian was already very weak at this moment because he saved that Mary. If he insists on doing his own right now, I am afraid that even if he does go, he will not be of much help.

But how could Li Tian not go?

He has never seen his father. He has lived for so many years, not even once. Now he finally has news of his father, and at this moment his father is likely to be in great danger. How can he stay? ?

I saw him push away the brothers in front of him with blood red eyes and said, "Get out...I must go...I must save my father!"

"Brother Tian..." The brothers were there to persuade him.

But it is of no use!

Under these circumstances, no one could stop Li Tian in front of him.

Looking at such a stubborn Li Tian, the brothers had no choice but to compromise.

"Well, since Brother Tian insists on going, then we will accompany you." Xue Wuhen said over there.

The brigade commander Wang Zhen here also quickly told his men: "You go and drive, wait outside the police station... we will set off now."

After hearing the voice of Brigadier Wang Zhen, the soldiers stood up and said: Yes!

Then he went out to drive quickly.

Three military off-road vehicles were quickly ready to go outside the police station.

And here? Xue Wuhen and Chen Qiaozhi supported the weak Li Tian and ran out quickly.

Soon they all arrived on the military off-road vehicle outside.

After the brothers quickly got into the car in front of them one by one, with the sound of departure, the car made a roar and drove quickly toward the destination.

They are going to rescue the evil  now!

No one knows that the evil  that was invincible over twenty years ago is now a curse? Still killed?

Everyone is sitting in the car.

What about Li Tian? Since getting in the car, he has closed his eyes and sat motionless cross-legged, his hands are placed on his pubic area, his pale mouth is tightly stretched, not speaking, not speaking, just like that. In that movement.

When the brothers saw Li Tian's condition, they all knew that Li Tian was too weak and was adjusting his body at this moment, so they didn't dare to bother.

I saw three military off-road vehicles swiftly driving forward.

"The legendary evil  has really been born?" Sitting in the car at the moment, only listening to Xue Wuhen on the other side whispered.

He did not dare to speak too loudly because he was afraid of affecting Li Tian.

Chen Qiaozhi in front of him glanced at Li Tian with his eyes closed, then silently nodded, and said in a low voice, "It seems to be!"

"Cthulhu is the father of our little boss, I hope Senior Cthulhu will be safe this time." Tang Xiaolong muttered.

"Nonsense, Senior Cthulhu will be fine, I swear."

In the conversation between the brothers and a group of people, the car had already passed through the night at a high speed and drove forward.

After the car had been in the car for more than ten minutes, Li Tian, who was sitting cross-legged, suddenly opened his eyes.

Although his face was still very weak, it was much better than just now. Obviously, the interest adjustment just now has restored Li Tian a lot.

But after all his blood had been absorbed by Mary so much, no matter how Li Tian used his true energy to recuperate, at this moment he looked sluggish.

I saw that after Li Tian opened his eyes, the brothers hurried to his side.

"My God, how are you doing?"

"Little boss, are you okay?" Tang Xiaolong and Xue Wuhen were looking at Li Tian with concern and asked.

After the brothers asked, Li Tian slowly shook his head and pale face, and said weakly, "I'm fine..."

"Where is it?"

Li Tian asked.

The brothers said: "I'll be there soon."

Li Tian glanced at the dark sky, and then said: "Help me up..."

After he finished speaking, the brothers around him hurriedly helped the weak Li Tian up.

After helping Li Tian up, Li Tian's eyes looked at the night in the dark and muttered, "I hope my father can be safe!"

The night is getting heavier.

I don't know why, as the car goes forward, the more you can feel the stench in the air, and even the temperature becomes extremely cold.

When the brothers felt that the temperature in front was getting lower and lower, they not only tightened their clothes a bit, but looked at the dark place in front and said, "Damn it, why the temperature in the front place drops suddenly!"

Chapter 1956: All gone

"do not know....."

"It's weird... It was fine just now, how come the temperature in this place suddenly drops like this?"
The brothers said in confusion.

At this moment, the more the car is driving, the more cold air can be felt on the face.

This is the weather in September, but the brothers feel that the temperature is as low as the cold temperature in December.

Faced with such a weird situation, even Li Tian was puzzled. He didn't know what happened in front of him and why the temperature suddenly dropped so low.

"Everyone, be careful, I think something must happen ahead." Li Tian told the brothers while looking at the dark night ahead.

The brothers in front of them nodded in the car one by one, and then stared carefully at the night ahead.

The temperature is getting colder!

The brothers only felt that their hands seemed to be freezing.

It seems that the front is almost icy.

"It's almost here, the place Miss Mary said is right in front." Tang Xiaolong in front of him said with his fingers coldly in his mouth.

Of course Li Tian also noticed.

It's just that his heart is now extremely chaotic.

Because he was afraid that his father had really been killed, if that were the case, Li Tian probably would not want to live.

"Ice, ice cube...Tian brother, look there, there is an ice cube in front of this place!" Suddenly, an exclamation screamed from Xue Wuhen's mouth.

Following his roar, Li Tian not only looked down at the ground in front of him.

At this look, I was really stunned!

My God, it's really cracked ice!

I saw a layer of ice on the frosty ground.

"How can there be frost? How can this be?"

You know that the weather is only in September. How can there be frozen ice on the ground?

"Here, there are ice * on this wall too!" Suddenly Tang Xiaolong over there also yelled.

Li Tian looked up and saw that the wall in front was also covered with ice.

After seeing this situation, everyone was stunned.

"Oh my God, what happened here? Why is it all frozen?" The brothers said in surprise one by one.

But seeing Li Tian looking at the dark place in front of him, he suddenly said, "No, this is definitely not what the weather says, it's human work!"

what?

"Is it a human?"

"How can people make the temperature so low?" As Li Tian said, the brothers were all there in shock.

But seeing that Li Tian didn't give too much explanation, he straightened his body and jumped out of the car.

The brothers saw Li Tian jump out of the car at once, and hurriedly followed them one by one.

I saw Li Tian bent down and touched the cold ice with his hand after he jumped down. A piece of ice * in his hand quickly melted away. Li Tian looked at the melted ice in his hand, his eyes Shocked light appeared inside.

"What a strong internal force!"

"What a great skill!"

Li Tian suddenly couldn't help but exclaimed.

When the brothers heard Li Tian's admiration so much, they were not only puzzled, but also wondered: "Brother Tian, what's wrong? What's wrong with this ice ball?"

But seeing Li Tian explained: "Turning gas into water, and turning water into ice, such a supreme skill is truly unprecedented!"

After Li Tian said to himself, he suddenly ran towards the front place.

As soon as the brothers saw Li Tian ran to the front quickly, they hurriedly followed at this moment.

I saw that the place in front had reached the place where the evil * was trapped by Miss Mary.

After Li Tian ran over quickly, his heart throbbed.

Because he found that the entire space seemed to be sealed by ice.

The frost and snow are vast, and the ice is frozen!

The ground, the walls, and the trees were almost frozen to death.

There is a thick layer of ice in the front place.

"Here, what is going on here?" The brothers looked at the extremely cold environment like a severe winter in shock.

But what about Li Tian? But his eyes were looking for the trace of his father.

"Where is my father?"

"Where is father?" Li Tian suddenly shouted.

But in the dark environment like ice and snow, there was the figure of the evil god... there was nothing around, only the frozen ice and the cold wall.

Cthulhu cannot be found.

To be precise, no one was seen at all! There are no vampires from the Gangaro family, and no other human beings...not to mention corpses, only the ice and snow remaining on the ground, and that smelly smell.

Li Tian stood in this freezing place, staring at the darkness in a daze.

Where is the evil god?

Has the evil * been killed?

He didn't know at all, the only thing he could see was the extremely tragic battle that took place here.

Because of the deep sword marks on the wall, and the remaining potholes on the ground that were hit by the palm technique, it is enough to show that there have been earth-shaking battles here.

The brothers also saw the remaining fighting situation around them, and their eyes widened.

Where did Cthulhu go? Was it killed? Or escaped?

How did everything around become like this

I saw Li Tian. I didn't expect that after finding out the news of his father after all the hard work, when he arrived here, he was still a step late.

Cthulhu is gone!

His eyes were full of pain, and he looked at everything around him silently.

Suddenly his eyes saw something like a bursting stone sculpture over there.

I took a closer look, but inside the thick and cracked ice sculpture, it seemed that there was a person before it, because the ice sculpture looked like a human, but the ice sculpture in front of me was completely broken, and the person inside was too early. I don't know where to go.

Li Tian looked at this weird ice sculpture, and couldn't help but lining up in his heart: Who will this frozen person be? Is it the vampire of the Gangaro family? Or his father?

Who will the ending be? Open the ice sculpture and rescue the frozen person?

There is no answer to everything around.

Some are just the afterimages of the dying battle.

Suddenly Tang Xiaolong over there pointed to a pool of blood on the ground and said: "Little boss, come and see, there is blood... there is blood..."

Following Tang Xiaolong's voice, Li Tian quickly ran over.

Then I lowered my head to look, but I saw a pool of blood under the ice, but the blood was frozen.

At the moment when he saw the blood stains in horror, Li Tian's heart suddenly hurt, and his whole weak body trembled suddenly at this moment.

The brothers saw Li Tian's body trembling suddenly, and hurried up to support him.

"Little boss, what's the matter with you? Are you okay?" They asked caringly, everyone didn't know why Li Tian suddenly looked so sad.

Chapter 1957: Heart of Vengeance

But what about Li Tian?

He stared at the blood stains on the ground under the ice, with an expression of pain and embarrassment, standing there silently.

No one knew why Li Tian was so, let alone why he became so heartache.

Perhaps only Li Tian knew that this blood was probably left by his father Cthulhu, because it is absolutely impossible for a vampire to shed scarlet blood, so it is most likely his father left.

Standing here silently, the brothers did not dare to disturb Li Tian.

I don't know how long it took, but I saw Li Tian suddenly looking at the darkness and said: "Let's go, let's go back."

The brothers glanced at Li Tian, who was full of disappointment. After thinking about it, they didn't ask too much, so the group got in the car and returned.

They did not catch up to rescue the evil  after all.

No one knows whether the evil  is dead or alive? Was it killed or something?

On the way back, Li Tian was silent from beginning to end, without saying a word.

The brothers knew that Li Tian felt extremely uncomfortable, but they didn't know what to say to comfort him, so they could only stay by his side.

"Back, Li Tian and the others are back."

After their three off-road military vehicles came back from driving, the glamorous Situ Ningbing, Ouyang Shiqing and Duanmuying were already waiting outside for them.

Seeing the brothers come back unharmed one by one, their worries finally let go.

At this time, I saw Li Tian and his brothers quickly walked out of the car one by one. Everyone was calm and thoughtful.

Situ Ningbing and the other beauties looked at the brothers' solemn expressions and Li Tian's disappointed and ugly face, and they knew that their rescue this time had obviously failed.

Situ Ningbing walked over quickly, reached Li Tian's side, looked at Li Tiandao distressedly and said, "Li Tian, are you okay?"

Li Tian shook his head, his face pale and said, "I'm fine."

"Where is Mary?" Li Tian asked suddenly.

Listening to Li Tianwen, Situ Ningbing pointed to the place inside and said, "The vampire named Mary has basically recovered and is in the room."

Hearing Situ Ningbing's words, Li Tian walked directly towards the room.

Situ Ningbing watched Li Tian walk straight towards the room, thought for a while, turned his head and looked at Tang Xiaolong and Xue Wuhen. They asked, "Xiaolong, Wuhen, you went there just now, what happened? Did you see Li Tian's father Cthulhu?"

After Situ Ningbing asked, Xue Wuhen and Tang Xiaolong in front of him not only sighed there, but then said: "We haven't had time to catch up..."

"When we arrived, there hadn't been any figure there... let alone the legendary evil god."

Listening to the brothers saying this, Situ Ningbing in front of him finally understood why Li Tian's face was so ugly.

It turns out that Li Tian didn't find his father on the trip just now!

After thinking about it, Situ Ningbing didn't ask any more, so he followed the brothers into the room.

In the room, I saw that Li Tian had found the vampire Mary of the Toledo family.

Mary's face is still as pale as before, but her body has completely recovered. Even the silver-corroded area on the shoulders, unexpectedly, after sucking Li Tian's blood, it quickly recovered. Up.

Mary is now alive as before.

It's just that Mary's eyes are now looking at Li Tian who is sitting in front of him with a deep guilt look.

"Li, I'm sorry...I made your father tired." Mary looked at Li Tian in front of her with guilt.

But what about Li Tian? He shook his head slightly.

His face is still very weak, after all, his blood has flowed so much.

"Mary, don't say sorry, I believe my father, he must have his reason for doing this."

"You just need to tell me now, how can I find the vampires of the Gangeuro family?" Li Tianhong asked with her eyes in front of Mary.

Mary thought for a while and said: "I am not very clear now."

"Now that the Spike * of the Gangelo family have snatched the key of fate, if nothing happens, they will definitely get back to their nest soon." Mary said.

Listening to Mary's words, Li Tian asked: "Their lair?"

"Yes." Mary said.

"The headquarter of the Gangelo family is in San Francisco, USA."

"There are hundreds of vampires from the Gangelo family." Mary said.

When Li Tian heard it, his scalp became numb.

Originally, an earl of vampire was enough for him to have a headache, but now, Mary even said that there are tens of thousands of vampires of the Gangelo family in San Francisco, USA.

Li Tian clenched his fists tightly, and was silent there, his mind was turning quickly thinking of a way.

"I must save my father, I must save him." Li Tian suddenly looked at Mary.

Knowing Li Tian's mind, Mary thought about it for a long time and suddenly said, "If you are looking for a vampire from the Gangaro family now, there is only one way."

"What way?" Li Tian asked anxiously.

He is now anxious to save his father immediately, to save the evil god, because judging from his psychological reaction, his father must have encountered a lot of trouble, otherwise his heart would not be throbbing like this.

Just listen to Miss Mary in front of her: "That is to find Spike through the followers of the Vatican."

Li Tian was taken aback when she heard what Mary said.

Then Miss Mary explained to Li Tian there: "Li, you may not know, a large part of the Vatican is sheltered by vampires for the sake of religion. They are evil together with the Gangaro family. There is also a priest from the Vatican in Binjiang City. That priest is also the Binjiang where he led Count Spike before them. So I think if you find the  priest, you will definitely know where Spike's vampires are hiding."

After hearing what Miss Mary said, Li Tian suddenly realized.

He knew that the previous group of Christians in the Vatican also hunted down themselves in order to find the key to fate. Now, after the appearance of the vampires of the Gangaro family, although the Christian group of Christians is rarely seen, it is heard from Miss Mary. Once she said, maybe she was right, and the whereabouts of Spike the vampire might be known from the believer.

"Mary, what do you mean is that as long as you find the  priest, you can find the vampires of the Gangaro family?" Li Tian asked again.

But seeing Mary nodded there.

"should be."

After hearing what Mary said, Li Tian said in his mouth: "Okay! Then I will do as you said!"

"I will find the  priest as soon as possible."

Chapter 1958: Gods and demons

Everyone's heart is not peaceful this night.

Especially Li Tian.

The key of destiny was lost this evening, and was completely snatched by the vampires of the Gangelo family, and even Miss Mary had lost Karel and Danny.

What about Cthulhu? Cthulhu also didn't know where he was going.

Li Tian heard that Miss Mary said that at present he only knew that his father saved Mary, and he also blocked the vampires such as Earl Naspik... But what turned out to be? Has his father escaped safely? Or killed all the vampires of the Gangaro family? Li Tian didn't know these.

Li Tian is just lying on the bed now, his heart is extremely disturbed, there is no way, father and son are deeply affectionate, he is still worried about his father after all.

Although Li Tian was extremely weak at the moment, he could not fall asleep.

He tossed on the bed.

This lasted for half an hour, and Li Tian couldn't sleep well, so he sat up straight out of the bed.

Sleep how to do? His heart is really messed up.

No, you have to meditate, you have to calm down.

After thinking about it this way, Li Tian suddenly touched the pocket inside his placket with his hand. As he reached out and touched it, he touched his secret book of martial arts: Maha Wuliang.

Li Tian's heart throbbed as he touched this Boundless Maha.

"Since I can't sleep, I'll look at the last layer of this Maha Boundless." Li Tian thought to himself.

Li Tian has learned the first eight levels of this Maha Wuliang, especially the eighth layer of the Maha Wuliang: I am the only one!

Since Li Tian learned the eighth level of the immeasurable Maha: the ego, to be honest, so far he has not used this ego power once.

He only knew that his skill had undergone a qualitative change...but Li Tian always felt that he still had some shortcomings...

Is it the ninth layer that is missing, the realm of all difficulties: gods and demons?

I heard the old Wuji once said: He said that this ninth level of gods and demons is extremely difficult to cultivate, and Buddha and demons are in an instant! If you don't pay attention at all, people may get confused...

Moreover, the gods and demons of the ninth level are not the kung fu of the old man Wuji, but the old man Wuji was defeated by the four immortal old demons on the top of the mountain when he was in the forbidden area of the top of the mountain...the four immortal old people The demon is said to be the four demon guarding the gate of the restricted area on the top of the Tianshan Mountains. The four great demon skills have entered the state of transformation. Even the old man Wuji almost died in the demon formation... and now this is the ninth level of the immeasurable Maha. The martial arts of gods and demons record the kung fu that the old man Wuji fought against the four great demons.

When Li Tian thought of this in his heart, he stared blankly at the Maha Boundless Cheats in his hand.

Practice or not?

He is contradictory now! Because if he doesn't practice well, he will go crazy, and even the Immortal Daluo might not be able to save him.

Finally, after Li Tian went through a fierce ideological struggle, Li Tian finally decided to cultivate the last level of this immeasurable Maha: gods and demons!

He slowly opened the secret book in his hand, and his eyes saw the last layer of the immeasurable Maha: Gods and Demons.

After seeing the ninth layer of gods and demons, Li Tian was startled.

Because this was the first time he saw the secret book of Gods and Demons on the ninth level of that Maha Boundless.

However, what is recorded on this last layer is not the inner strength of gods and demons, but some words of the old man Wuji.

Li Tian blinked, but saw the words written by the old man Wuji himself on it: If you practice the last level, you will have the same state of mind, and you will succeed in all things. You must know that human nature is good, don't be evil! If it is evil, heaven and earth punish...

Looking at the words of these old men of Wuji, Li Tian not only wondered, this ninth level of Gods and Demons secrets is not just some words of old men of Wuji?

When Li Tian was puzzled, he continued to look down.

But as he looked down, he saw that the place below was not a secret text, nor was it the inner strength of the gods and demons, but a few weird patterns.

After seeing these strange patterns, Li Tian frowned and began to stare at these patterns.

In the first picture, there are four human figures, left and right, up and down, each sitting on one side, then sitting cross-legged, hands slightly bent, and then each upwards. The graphics look funny and unnatural.

When Li Tian saw this weird graphic, he was not only shocked.

"This, what is this painting?"

For a while, Li Tian didn't understand the meaning of the four facial figures above.

But when Li Tian felt that the figure was boring, suddenly the four figure figures suddenly began to rotate in his mind, and then the four figure figures suddenly moved.

Seeing the human figure moving in his eyes, Li Tian's heart suddenly jumped, and then he began to concentrate and look at it carefully.

I saw that the four human figures were in Li Tian's eyes, one by one turned out to be Kung Fu! Shocking kung fu!

One of them uses a palm, which Li Tian has never seen before! Although Li Tian already possesses the highest level of kung fu, Li Tian has to admire and admire the manipulation on the graphics. It is hard for him to believe that there is such a powerful hand between heaven and earth.

As thick as a mountain, moving, breaking the mountain and river! Quiet, everything is empty!

How powerful?

That palm is completely natural, impervious to water, offensive and defensive, such a series of peerless serial palms make Li Tian ecstatic.

Looking at the invincible palms in this world, Li Tian's hands began to move uncontrollably, and began to move his palms slowly, just like the human figure. He was learning.

As his palms danced, the energy of his whole body began to slowly gather in his whole body.

The surging palm power gradually filled the room.

The palm of his hand suddenly rose up following the figure of the human figure, and suddenly a powerful qi came out of his palm. With a bang, a wooden big round table on Li Tian's left could not help this powerful qi, and suddenly he clicked. , The whole shattered, and when he lifted his right hand, a deep crack suddenly broke on the right wall...

Although the huge round table and the hard walls shattered, Li Tian seemed to be unaware, still practicing this peerless palm technique there.

This palm is fast, like lightning, mad, like thunder!

Li Tian practiced like that with joy and madness.

This set of seven or seventy-nine strokes of the Falun Gong exercises, the tricks are unique and surprising, and the tricks are so amazing.

It took Li Tianzu an hour and a half to dance with this shocking and horrifying technique.

Just when Li Tian thought he had finished cultivating this set of peerless palm strength, suddenly the little figure above the figure suddenly raised his hands and opened his legs, and the whole person put out a heavenly character!

Chapter 1959: Blood red left fist

Li Tian couldn't help being startled when he saw the character put on by the human figure.

"What's the matter? Why does this villain want to put up a heavenly character?"

Li Tian was puzzled.

He condensed his brows and thought for a while: "Does this villain mean that the name of this palm technique is Tian?"

Li Tian thought about it for a while, and laughed at the corner of his mouth, and said to himself: Whatever he meant, anyway, I would practice it first.

Then his eyes began to look down.

But seeing that the second figure is sitting in the bottom position, the shape of his hands is completely different from the one just now.

His hands are facing down, and his legs are also very weird, crossing left and right.

The villain on the pattern clenched his fists, his eyes widened, like an arhat.

Is he using punches?

Look carefully, the figure of the human figure moved again, and the punch was really used.

It's just that this fist is indeed the only strong fist in the world, and every fist is heavier than a thousand jin, extremely strong.

Li Tianqing couldn't help but look fascinated, his hands were again the same as before and started to practice according to the fist on the graphic...

The whirring fist wind caused the furniture around Li Tian to shatter one after another...Even the entire bed was cracked to pieces, but what about Li Tian? Without feeling, the whole person seems to have been fascinated.

When the fierce and strong fist wind came out of his fist.

This sturdy boxing technique is even more violent at the end of the training, like a mountain falling into a sea.

But what about Li Tian? He closed his eyes, clenched his hands, and used this fist.

There was a loud bang...

My God, that punch was so strong that when Li Tian slammed his punch out, the front of the room he was staying in was blasted open by him, like an explosion.

But he said that with the loud noise just now, the brothers who had already rested here suddenly got up from the bed.

"What sound?" Xue Wuhen slid and bounced off the bed.

Tang Xiaolong and Jiang Dashan also climbed up very quickly.

"It seems that something has happened on Brother Tian..." Tang Xiaolong said cautiously.

Xue Wuhen said: "Go, go over and see what happened."

Following Xue Wuhen's words, he saw Tang Xiaolong and Na Jiang Dashan in front of him, so he ran to the outside quickly. They didn't even wear clothes, so they wore big pants.

After all of them ran out, they saw that the room where Li Tian was staying was trampled down by a wall.

When the brothers saw it, they suddenly yelled badly.

"Brother Tian..." Xue Wuhen flew past with an exclamation.

They all thought that Li Tian had encountered a strong enemy and was in danger.

Who knew that when Xue Wuhen flew over quickly, he found that Li Tian was sitting quietly with his eyes closed, a weird golden light appeared all over his body, and his fists were tightly clenched...

When Xue Wuhen got close to Li Tian, a powerful fist wind came towards him. Xue Wuhen was shocked, and his body quickly backed away.

After stepping back a few steps, he was stunned.

"Oh my God, what the * is going on..."

At that moment, Tang Xiaolong and Jiang Dashan also rushed over quickly.

The two of them also yelled Li Tian's name in that mouth, and they were afraid that Li Tian was in danger.

Just when the two were about to rush over, Xue Wuhen stopped them both at once.

"Don't go over..." Xue Wuhen stopped them.

Tang Xiaolong was startled: "Why?"

Xue Wuhen said with solemn brows: "This, this, this movement seems to be made by Brother Tian himself... he, he, he seems to be practicing some peculiar skill."

"What? Brother Tian demolished his own house? He is practicing martial arts?" Tang Xiaolong yelled depressedly, with a look of disbelief.

However, Xue Wuhen nodded cautiously.

"Yes!"

"I think this noise should have been made by Brother Tian. Look at the whole body of Brother Tian..." Xue Wuhen pointed to Li Tiandao, whose eyes were tightly closed.

But seeing Li Tian's golden light surrounding his entire body, his fists were stretched and stretched, and every fist threw out a terrifying fist style.

That Tang Xiaolong looked at the fierce fist wind that filled Li Tian's body and the golden light radiating from his body, not only was he stunned, his eyes widened and he said in shock: " Good deed, what kind of weird boxing is this... unexpectedly... it can be like this?"

When Xue Wuhen, Tang Xiaolong and Jiang Dashan were all horrified here, Chen Qiaozhi, Xue Wuhen, and Situ Ningbing and other beauties also heard the movement just now, and all ran out at this moment.

As he ran out, he shouted in horror, "Li Tian..."

"What happened to Li Tian?"

After they ran over, they saw Li Tian who had entered the country.

They were all stunned.

So Na Xue Wuhen hurriedly explained to them, after they listened, they looked at Li Tian who was entering the country in shock.

"Miss Ningbing, Miss Ouyang, don't worry, Brother Tian is okay, he is just practicing Kung Fu, you should go back and rest first, here we are watching...We are watching Brother Tian!" Xue Wuhenwang on one side The worried Situ Ningbing and other beautiful women said.

But seeing Situ Ningbing shook his head and said, "No, we will stay and accompany him."

"Miss Ningbing, you don't need it. If our brothers are here to guard Brother Tian, you can rest assured." Xue Wuhen said there.

"Although I don't know what Kungfu Tian is practicing, I feel that now that Brother Tian has already entered the state of transformation, he must not be disturbed. So we had better not bother Tian Brother. The more people there are, the more you come to It's not good..." Xue Wuhen continued to persuade Situ Ningbing.

Tang Xiaolong here also kept nodding his head and said: "Yes, yes, you must not disturb the little boss."

Situ Ningbing heard Xue Wuhen and his brothers say so, and felt that what they said was not bad.

The most taboo thing about practicing is to disturb the mind!

Moreover, Li Tian is still practicing the highest martial arts!

So Situ Ningbing, who thought about it at last, said, "Well, all right, please take care of Li Tian!"

The brothers smiled slightly and said, "Miss Ningbing is polite..."

In this way, beautiful women like Situ Ningbing and Ouyang Shiqing left here reluctantly.

As for Li Tian, he was still practising his peerless boxing skills.

Li Tian seemed to be in the air, his whole person was like no one, and he continued to practice there alone.

The fist gang breaks strength, and everything is destroyed.

Suddenly when Li Tian was practicing, his left hand suddenly turned blood red!

The brothers were all staring at Li Tian intently at this moment. When they saw Li Tian's left fist suddenly turned blood red, they couldn't help being stunned.

"Wuhen, look quickly, Brother Tian's left hand... how did his left hand become like that?" Tang Xiaolong opened his eyes wide and looked at Li Tian's entire blood-red left fist in unbelievable way.

The whole fist of his left hand seemed to be full of blood, and it turned into a terrible red, scary red.

Chapter 1960: Blood man

At this moment, Tang Xiaolong and Chen Qiaozhi next to him not only turned their heads to look at them, they were suddenly confused after seeing Li Tian's blood-red fist.

"Oh my god, what's going on? The little boss's hand...what, why did it become like that?" Tang Xiaolong said with a speechless horror.

I saw that Li Tian's left hand became more and more red, and the blood-red color continued to spread towards Li Tian's arm, * and terrifying, extremely terrifying.

In a short while, Li Tian's entire left arm turned blood red, scary and dazzling.

What about Li Tian himself? But still closing his eyes, practicing the supreme punch.

"It's not right, it's too wrong, sick ghost, is the little boss in danger, look at his arm?" Tang Xiaolong exclaimed at the moment.

Seeing that Li Tian's arm had turned into a scarlet color that looked like pouring blood, Tang Xiaolong looked at Chen Qiaozhi in front of him worriedly.

To be honest, Chen Qiaozhi is also extremely worried now.

But he didn't know what to do.

Just listen to him saying: "I don't know..."

"I only know that we can't interrupt Li Tian now...because he is cultivating. If he interrupts by any chance, the consequences will be disastrous."

What Chen Qiaozhi said is not bad. The current plan must not disturb Li Tian. If he is careless, Li Tian will be very dangerous.

"But, we can't just watch the little boss in danger?" Tang Xiaolong said.

Listening to Tang Xiaolong's words, it actually makes sense.

But what should they do now?

I saw that everyone of my brothers was looking at Li Tian with a pair of extremely worried eyes.

What about Li Tian?

Didn't he feel the blood red light in his left hand?

No, he felt it.

From the beginning of his practice of this supreme fist, he felt the pain of the "blood mole" on the palm of his left hand.

The "blood mole" was because Li Tian was eager to practice the eighth level of Maha Wuliang before, and because of his eagerness, he left a "blood mole" on his left hand.

But what Li Tian didn't expect was that this "blood mole" would suddenly appear when he was practicing fist moves.

At first, the "blood mole" was just unbearable pain, so Li Tian endured the tingling pain, but later, the blood mole began to spread violently, especially when Li Tian was practicing the supreme fist. The breath was used to the whole body, so the pain of the blood mole spread all over his body.

Li Tian can't stop now!

Because his eyes could no longer leave the figure on the Maha Boundless, he saw that the most powerful punching moves just like that echoed in his eyes.

He can only bite the bullet and continue to practice.

But the "blood mole" started to spread all over...It gradually started to spread from his arm to his arm, and then from the arm to half of Li Tian's body.

At present, no one knows what terrible consequences such proliferation will cause.

The only thing the brothers saw was that half of Li Tian's body was already dripping with blood, looking terrifying.

But what about Li Tian?

After the blood mole spread to half of his body, half of his body suddenly felt a feeling of enthusiasm that he had never experienced before... The zealous feeling was like a volcano about to burst out with endless energy.

Li Tian tried hard to hold back the frenetic burst, and tried hard to suppress his true energy.

But as he continued to oppress, the blood mole spread even more severely.

Gradually, the blood mole began to spread to Li Tian's face and to the other half of his body.

The brothers looked at Li Tian with a pair of horrified eyes one by one. No one knew what happened, and no one knew how to organize the * skyrocket.

Li Tian's face turned blood-red, even his hair turned bloody...eyes, nose...whole body...

Just after the blood mole spread all over Li Tian's body, Li Tian suddenly floated upward.

Strangely suspended in the air.

Such a * body suspended in the air is really terrifying.

The brothers were shocked.

I saw that Li Tian's face was already showing pain and distortion, and he seemed extremely uncomfortable.

Yes, he is really uncomfortable.

Because Li Tian's body has now inexplicably increased a lot of weird enthusiasm, that terrible energy seems to make him crazy...uncomfortable.

He just hovered in the air and wrestled with the enthusiasm in his body.

But that fanatical vigor quickly swallowed all his consciousness, and then Li Tian, who was suspended in the air, opened his eyes violently.

What kind of horrible pair of eyes!

No, it's definitely not human.

It was a pair of scary eyes full of flames, like ghosts and demons in the Netherworld!

With a sense of destruction that swallows heaven and earth.

What about his whole body at the same time? Has become bloody.

As soon as his terrifying eyes opened, he suddenly looked up to the sky and screamed, ah, with a loud scream.

The violent energy exploded from his whole body all of a sudden... With a bang, the whole area burst out at a distance of ten meters from his body.

The brothers standing nearby were also unlucky. They never expected that Li Tian's body would suddenly exude such a terrifying vigor. At the moment, when one of them did not pay attention, the brothers were all slammed down 45 meters away.

Chen Qiaozhi vomited bleeding from his mouth!

Tang Xiaolong and Xue Wuhen are a little better, but they are also pale, with blood surging in his chest, as if vomiting and bleeding at any time.

The sky was full of vigor, and the surrounding sands, rocks and dust were all flying up.

In the air, I suddenly saw Li Tian fall down suddenly.

His whole person has changed! Become a bloodthirsty beast.

Those pupils also became extremely scary.

The brothers slowly raised their heads, looking at the * Li Tian, they were completely shocked and speechless.

The changed Li Tian didn't even look at his brothers again. Suddenly, with his flame-like eyes, looking at the endless darkness, he suddenly flew into the endless darkness with a scream.

Above the sky, he could only see his * figure flashing away, and then there was no sign of him.

"Brother Heaven..."

"Little boss..."

The brothers in front of him watched Li Tian leave like that, and yelled there for an instant.

But now Li Tian can still hear their voices?
