

A Killer 198

Chapter 198: Hapless thief

Just when she called out that her purse was missing, she suddenly woke up to the figure of the man who hit her a moment ago and ran away.

I was depressed right now.

"It's that guy!"

"Catch a thief..."

"Help me catch the thief!"

Yaya suddenly yelled.

Shiqing pulled her, and the two hurried to chase her, but the figure who had stolen her wallet just disappeared in the crowd of people, and there was still a little trace of him.

The people around couldn't help but blink their eyes at the two beautiful girls at this time.

Yaya became depressed all of a sudden, stomped and said, "God, what kind of city is this, I stole my wallet."

I couldn't help cursing and saying: "Smelly shameless, shameless, stealing my wallet. If I want to be caught, I will chop his hand."

The poetry on the side smiled faintly and said: "Ya, forget it, there is not much cash there, just a few thousand yuan, it's okay, don't I still have it?"

"You don't know, I am not distressed about the broken money, nor the wallet, I am distressed that I have the Yulong that my mother gave me, but my mother personally gave it to me." Just listen to Ya Ya Said with a sad face.

Ouyang Shiqing thought for a while and looked around: "Forget it, it's useless if you are in a hurry. If a pickpocket in such a small place sees so much money in your wallet, he must have changed hands long ago, and now I want to find it. It's too late, so let's be unlucky, let's go, and be careful later."

After Ouyang Shiqing finished speaking wisely, Yaya's face was full of unwillingness, but she was helpless, so many people in front of her, where to look for it?

The train ticket at 3 o'clock in the afternoon meant that Li Tian had to wait more than 3 hours, which was really boring.

Standing in the square of the train station, looking around in a boring daze.

Suddenly I saw not far in front, a man with thieves and eyes was secretly stuffing his fingers into another person's backpack.

"Thief?"

Li Tian reacted at once.

Li Tian hated the kind of petty theft the most, and hated that kind of stuff the most when he was in Liao Cheng.

If they don't do their jobs, and they are petty theft, this kind of person should be reduced to the bottom of the world...be trampled and insulted.

At this moment, when he saw that the thief had smoothly fumbled the wallet of the pedestrian in front of him, he turned around and quickly walked away.

And the person whose wallet was stolen didn't even know.

Li Tian quietly followed the thief and slowly followed him. What did he want to see after the thief stole the wallet?

Isn't this? After the thief in front succeeded, he quickly disappeared on the square of the train station, and then dived into the alley.

Li Tian followed quietly, without showing off.

After arriving at the entrance of the alley, he took a look, but saw that there was not only one thief here, but there was another guy who was with him.

Is it their lair?

Li Tian thought about continuing to look at the situation in front of him.

Hearing that the man over there with wicked eyebrows just took out a purse from his arms, and then looked there with a sly smile on his face and said, "Today's harvest is not bad."

After taking out the wallet, but seeing a few hundred-yuan bills inside, the remaining is the bank card. After the thief-eyed man took out the cash, he then threw the wallet and the bank card on the floor: "Damn, it turned out to be poor. There are only a few hundred dollars inside."

"Haha, it's not as good as Lao Tzu's, look at the girl I just touched."

Said another man who wore a black suit like him and had a pair of triangular eyes.

After speaking, he fetched a woman's red wallet from his pocket.

The brand of the exquisite wallet is Hermes. This Hermes alone is more than ten thousand yuan. The man with the eyebrows and squirrel eyes in front of him is envious.

"Damn, why are you so good? Get such a rich master?" the wicked man said with envy.

The triangular-eyed man chuckled, then opened the wallet in front of him, but he saw a stack of hundred-yuan bills inside. At a rough glance, it was a few thousand yuan less, and the bank card was filled with the wallet, and there was another inside. A picture of a girl, and a white jade dragon,

"I just touched it from the two chicks."

"This kind of rich and young girl, I'm sorry if I don't steal them, don't you think?" The triangular-eyed man in front of him said with a smile.

"Yes! It should be stolen."

When the two were talking, suddenly a figure flashed out from the end of the alley.

The triangular eyes that had just stolen something were taken aback, and saw him with a wicked glance.

He immediately put away the wallet he had stolen just now, and coldly looked at the man who was walking towards them step by step.

Who is the person coming from the alley? Isn't it Li Tian?

What Li Tian hates the most is this kind of sneaky villain. At this moment, seeing the two guys counting their stolen achievements, Li Tian was immediately angry.

"Who are you?" At this moment, the two thieves put away all their wallets, staring at Li Tian who came by with cold eyes, being cautious and unkind.

Li Tian strode towards them both.

"It doesn't matter who I am. What's important is that you must be unlucky today." Li Tian said with a sudden smile.

The two thieves froze for a moment, their eyes cast coldly on Li Tian.

"Why are we unlucky?" one of them asked.

"Do you want to make it clearer? Smelly thief." Li Tian scolded.

"Are you plainclothes?" The two thieves mistakenly thought that Li Tian was a plainclothes policeman at this moment.

But Li Tian shook his head.

"While I don't want to do anything yet, quickly hand over the things you stole..." Li Tiandao in front of him said.

The two thieves were taken aback.

When Li Tian suddenly said that he was not a plainclothes policeman, he burst out laughing.

"Who did I think it was? It turned out not to be plainclothes, your mother scared me to death..."

"I think he is looking for death 80%."

As they talked, suddenly everyone took out a sharp dagger from his arms.

This kind of thief usually carries a guy in his hand, just in case, but he didn't expect that he met Li Tian today. Is Li Tian bad luck? Or should these two thieves consider themselves unlucky?

"Fuck him! Let this guy dare to be nosy." With a roar, the thief-eyed man stabbed Li Tian with a dagger.

The action is extremely amateur, and it is basically a layman in fighting, isn't it? The dagger in his hand had not yet reached Li Tian's, but seeing Li Tian suddenly sneered at the corner of his mouth, a flying leg lifted up and kicked off the dagger in the thief's hand.

Then the man with the eyebrows and mouse eyes did not even sweep the corners of his eyes, and he quickly punched. The man with the eyebrows and mouse eyes hadn't seen what happened, and there was a sharp pain in his nose.

With a scream of wow, the blood in my nose suddenly poured out and fell to the ground and screamed.

The other companion saw his brother come up and fell to the ground by Li Tian. He was stunned, but he still stabbed him with a dagger.

Li Tian didn't even look at it. He directly kicked the boy with a gorgeous backspin in the face. With a bang, accompanied by a scream, the boy was kicked to the ground, his mouth was full of blood, even The teeth are probably almost kicked out.

Painfully yelled like a dead pig on the ground.
