

A Killer 2041

Chapter 2041: Decide

Although they were in a coma for nearly two months, the fairy Baihua had already told them both that Li Tian had rescued them from the gate of hell.

So at this moment, both of them not only asked Li Tian.

They don't know what happened in these two months!

I don't even know about the vampire and the Vatican Pope...

So after Duguxie in front of him asked about Li Tian, the expressions of everyone changed instantly.

The happy expression just now disappeared without a trace in this moment.

Even Cthulhu, even Baihua Fairy's face suddenly became ugly and pale.

When Duguxie and the ghost servants saw their expressions drastically change in an instant, they all got a little stunned.

"Big Brother, what's the matter? Young Master? Is Young Master..." Du Guxie asked in disbelief, his heart was scared and horrified, afraid that what he thought was true.

Where's the ghost servant? With his round eyes open, he completely looked at the Fairy Baihua and the evil  in front of him as if dumbfounded.

"Hey!"

"Something happened to Tian'er!" A word came out of the Cthulhu.

At the moment when the Cthulhu sighed, the Duguxie and the ghost servant in front of them stayed for a moment.

Something happened to Li Tian! problem occurs?

What's up with him? Is it murdered? What's wrong?

The hearts of the two of them are so disturbed that they can't wait to know the answer right away.

"Big Brother, what's wrong with Young Master..." Duguxie asked in agony.

As he asked, the fairy Baihua said, "Second brother, during the two months you were in a coma, too many terrible things happened... hey!"

After Fairy Baihua said so, the Duguxie and the ghost servant stayed for a while.

Something terrible? What terrible thing? The two asked in amazement.

Only after listening to Fairy Baihua, he told the evil  what happened to Li Tian in the past two months.

"After Tian'er saved the two of you, he was attacked by the followers of the Vatican... But this is far from the end of the matter, this is just the beginning..."

Little by little, Fairy Baihua told all the things that Li Tian had had in the past two months to the Duguxie and the ghost servant in front of him.

Not only did he tell the story of the attack by the followers of the Vatican, but also tell the story about the terrible vampire afterwards.

When Duguxie and the ghost servant heard about the vampire in shock, they suddenly were there!

"Vampire?" The ghost servant and Duguxie said in horror.

They had never heard of the evil vampire. This time they heard the fairy Baihua talking about the vampire. Of course, it was extremely shocking, and the whole person was completely stunned.

"Yes, Tian'er fights vampires..."

"But in the end I didn't expect to be bitten by the  vampire." Fairy Baihua said sadly.

When she said this, all the brothers around her frowned tightly, and they were also heartbroken.

"what?"

"Young Master was bitten by a vampire?" The Duguxie and the ghost servant in front of them were shocked when they heard that Li Tian was bitten by a vampire.

"Then, what will happen to Young Master?"

"Will the young master endanger his life?" the two asked in surprise.

Just listen to the evil spirit: "Tian'er is currently not life-threatening, but after he is bitten, the situation that will happen is more terrible than death."

When Duguxie and the ghost servant heard this, he asked in a daze, "Brother, what will happen to the young master?"

"It will change!"

"If it is not treated, Tian'er will mutate into a vampire... and will no longer be a human from now on!" Cthulhu said sadly.

The Duguxie and the ghost servants were stunned when they heard the Cthulhu said that!

what?

"Will the young master change? Become a vampire?" The two people in front of them were horrified.

They had never heard of such a deed before, so they were shocked and speechless at the moment.

"Gosh! How could this be?"

"Then what to do?"

"Big Brother, what should I do?" The ghost servant and Duguxie in front of them were worried and asked.

I saw the evil  in front of me sighed: "I don't know at the moment! But Tian'er has been taken to Italy for treatment...I hope that Miss Mary can heal Tian'er!"

The current Cthulhu also has no way, and now he can only pin his hopes on Mary.

But he didn't know that Mary and Li Tian who were in a foreign country had already had a big deal.

Having said that, the Duguxie and the ghost servant in front of them were very regretful after learning about what happened to Li Tian in these two months!

The two of them blamed themselves for not protecting Li Tian.

"Brother, how can we leave the young master alone in a foreign country?" Duguxie said suddenly there.

The ghost servant in front of him also said: "Yes, big brother, young master is alone now, if something happens, who will take care of it? Anyway, we are not at ease."

"We think it's best to go to the young master's side." Duguxiedao in front of him.

After the Cthulhu heard the two brothers say this, he smiled and nodded and said, "The two brothers can rest assured."

"The reason why I was born this time is to gather you... and then we will go to Italy together." Cthulhu said.

"How can I not worry about Tian'er?"

"After finding you this time, we will choose a day and set off for Italy... and then look for Tianer!"

"Regardless of the ends of the world, no matter the swords, mountains and fires, I must heal Tian'er." Cthulhu stood there and said.

After the brothers heard such words from the Cthulhu, their hearts finally burned again.

"Brother, let's listen to you!" The Duguxie and the ghost servant in front of them said boldly.

Here Tang Xiaolong Xue Wuhen and Chen Qiaozhi also stood up abruptly, and said there, "We are all following Senior Cthulhu and save my heavenly brother."

This time, they were not only for the evil god, but also for Li Tian.

Needless to say, brothers all know what kind of dangers Italy, a foreign country there has.

The first is the vampire who is not afraid of death... and the most important thing is that the vampire also has the terrifying big family of the thirteen clan... The thirteen clan is different. Although the same blood clan, they have different spheres of influence.

For thousands of years, the balance of the blood races has been maintained mysteriously, and it is absolutely not allowed to let humans know their existence. Now, Mary of the Toledo family actually took Li Tian and a human to break into the Toledo family...

What will happen to the consequences? At present, I am afraid no one knows.

Under Cthulhu's decision, the brothers will choose a day to rush to that foreign country, Italy, to find Li Tian and fight against the vampire of evil.

Chapter 2042: Black Rock Forest

Recently, a series of disastrous news was broadcast continuously on the official Italian TV station hbv.

The news is like this: Located near the Black Rock Forest in the Gunilla Mountains on the border of Italy, a private plane once fell there. At present, the cause of the fall is unknown. The only thing we know is that the private plane is a foreign country's plane.

Now, Italian officials have dispatched search and rescue personnel to the Black Stone Forest to carry out large-scale search and rescue work, but unfortunately, because the Black Stone Forest is an ancient virgin forest, and the entire Gunilla mountain range is extremely dangerous. In addition, there are barbarians of indigenous tribes living there, so until now, Italian officials have not found the wreckage of the plane, let alone any survivors.

The Nicola Mountains is the largest mountain range on the Italian border. It covers a huge area and is surrounded by many volcanic eruptions, so it can be said to be a restricted area for humans.

There is an ancient forest in the Nikolai Mountains, which is called a restricted area for humans.

Its name is: Black Rock Forest.

The Black Stone Forest covers half of the Nicholas mountain range, and the beasts are rampant in the ancient forest, and the towering old trees are tall and straight.

This blackstone forest is a famous and dangerous forest in the world. Many expedition teams and forest exploration teams have been lost in this blackstone forest. They disappeared in this blackstone forest as they walked. They have not been alive so far. Came out.

Some people say that the Black Rock Forest is a forbidden area for gods, where there are extremely powerful forces that humans cannot pass. Others say that there are extremely terrifying barbarians in the Black Rock Forest. Those barbarians have no civilization, no affection, and some It was just a brutal killing, so those humans who had explored in the Black Rock Forest were killed alive there... Some people said that the Black Rock Forest was full of swamps and huge dangers. They said, the Black Rock The plants of the forest can kill people instantly... They also said that there are terrible piranhas and piranha trees in the Black Rock Forest... Those plants are all human!

However, the legend can only be a legend after all.

But the only thing that can be proved is that the Blackrock Forest is really big and looks dangerous.

In this place completely covered by ancient forests, almost no one can be seen. Everywhere in your eyes are tall ancient trees and the sound of the beast roaring in the forest.

The Black Rock Forest at this moment is like a place abandoned by the world.

It lies quietly on the Gunila Mountain Range. In this tens of thousands of kilometers long forest, no one knows what terrible things are here...

At this moment, but in the middle of the Black Rock Forest, deep in the dense forest, there are towering old trees growing there.

The dense branches and leaves have completely blocked the scorching sun, as if there was only darkness in this endless forest.

However, in the Black Rock Forest that no one cares about, I suddenly saw thick smoke rising there.

When I looked up, I saw that the place where the smoke was rising was a huge wreckage of an airplane.

And in the surrounding areas? It is also all broken parts of aircraft, seats, and other damaged things.

Among them, the smoke should be the fuselage part of the plane...At this moment, thick billows of smoke rose into the sky, but it did not burn.

Where did this plane fall from? How could it fall into this ancient virgin forest?

Could it be... Could it be the plane that Mary and Li Tian were flying in?

Yes, the completely broken body of the plane in front of me is indeed the private plane that Mary and Li Tian were flying! It turned out that after losing control of their plane, it suddenly fell from the air... and where did it fall? It also happened to be the Gunilla Mountains on the border of Italy... it just happened to be left in the Black Rock Forest.

I saw nothing but some broken aircraft wreckage around!

What about Mary and Li Tian who has mutated into a vampire?

Where are they?

died? Still alive?

Suddenly there was a rustling movement on top of one of the towering ancient trees.

After the rustling movement came, I saw something that looked like a corpse hanging in the middle of the middle waist of the towering old tree with dense foliage.

Take a closer look in amazement, what is that?

It turned out to be a person!

It's just like a dead person.

From this angle in front of him, his body seems to have been completely broken, and the entire lower limbs have completely changed shape, only the upper body is still hanging on the branch.

Although her body did not fall completely, it was scratched on the branch.

Who is she?

Mary! The body hanging on the branch turned out to belong to Miss Mary, the vampire of the Torrido family.

It turns out that her body is here!

I saw Mary's whole body hung on the tree now, and her beautiful and flawless face was scratched with blood stains by the branches, and she was lying motionless like a dead body.

Is she dead? Did Mary the vampire fall alive?

Do not!

How could a vampire die like this! As long as her body is not damaged, as long as her people are not corroded by silver or grilled by the scorching sun, the vampire can't die.

But now, I saw Mary the vampire, who had been lying on the branch and didn't know how long she had been lying on. After a few minutes of silence, she suddenly opened her eyes.

It was a pair of beautiful jewel-like eyes. The moment she suddenly opened, she first saw the dense leaves and the vines hanging around.

"Where is this?" Mary murmured after she was sober.

Then she began to try to move her body, only to see that her body had been broken off because of the fall, and her entire legs had lost all feeling.

After feeling such a situation, Mary gritted her teeth, and then grasped the surrounding trees and vines with both hands, and her body suddenly straightened with force.

The two legs were originally broken, but with a click, the sound of dislocation of bones and muscles!

God, she actually stood up.

Her legs seemed to heal automatically. Vampires have an extraordinary ability to recover. In addition, pain is not a big deal for vampires with immortality, so Mary is not in pain at all.

But she said that after Mary stood up like this, her eyes looked at the surrounding towering old trees for a while, and then she flew down from the middle of the big tree with a whistle.

Chapter 2043: Wild wolves

Mary's figure is still very elegant.

At the moment she fell down, Mary saw the wreckage of the surrounding aircraft.

After seeing the wreckage of the plane, Mary dangled her golden hair, and suddenly looked around.

"Lee?" a name came out of her mouth.

Li Tian! The name she called was of course Li Tian.

"Where is Li? What about the others?" Mary was stunned when she was patrolling around and found no sign of Li Tian.

She just woke up!

After she fell in midair with Li Tian from the plane, she lost any intuition. Although she had an immortal body, it was a few thousand feet high, so she was also unconscious.

But now she woke up, but after waking up, she found that Li Tian was not here!

Where is Li Tian? Did Li Tian fall somewhere else?

Mary yelled Li Tian's name again and again...At the same time, she began to look for the traces of Li Tian in the dense jungle.

Because the vampire has her own unique breath, Mary looked for the mutant Li Tian according to the breath of the blood family, but after she sniffed it with her nose, there was no trace of Li Tian around.

Where is Li Tianren?

Where did he go?

Mary's head is depressed now.

Since there was no accident, it shows that Li Tian will definitely not have an accident, because Li Tian has now mutated into a vampire, and has an immortal body like Mary.

It's just that Mary is sober now, but what about Li Tian? Where did he fall? Why did he disappear?

Mary looked around in the jungle while checking the surrounding movement.

Suddenly in the thick bush on the left front, Mary found a rag scraped on a branch...

After seeing the scraped rag, Mary's eyes lit up for an instant.

"Lee's clothes?" Mary screamed.

It turned out that this piece of cloth that fell on the tree was left by Li Tian's skirt.

When Mary saw this piece of cloth, she almost knew in her mind that Li Tian should have fallen in this place.

So Mary hurriedly began to search for the trace of Li Tian in front of her.

"Lee..."

"Lee, where are you?" Mary yelled out loudly.

It is a pity that apart from the barren grass and the towering old trees, there is no trace of Li Tian...

"Lee, is it gone?" Mary suddenly asked in shock.

"Did he wake up before me?" Mary thought in that mind.

Yes, since there is no trace of Li Tian here at this moment, the only thing that can be explained is that Li Tian was awake one step earlier than Mary... and it is very likely that he has left this place.

After thinking about it in her mind, Mary suddenly became worried.

Her beautiful eyes looked at the vast and endless ancient forest. Wherever she entered her eyes, there were all ancient trees standing. Is it necessary to look for Li Tian in such a dense forest? It is undoubtedly not more difficult than climbing to the sky.

"Crap! If Li is already sober, then it's a big trouble..." Suddenly a strange word came out of Mary's mouth.

Her face turned ugly in an instant, as if something terrible was about to happen.

what happened? How could Mary's face change so strangely and ugly?

It turned out that Mary was worried about Li Tian! Because the newly mutated vampires are extremely cruel and have no humanity at all. Their consciousness was completely blank during the short period of time when they became a vampire. Therefore, the current Li Tian is equivalent to an extremely terrifying Beast, he is bloodthirsty, he will do everything possible to drink blood to satisfy his desire... In the vast forest, where is Li Tian now?

Mary was extremely worried at the moment, looking at the dense jungle around, she suddenly ran towards one end.

She wanted to pursue Li Tian, no matter what she tried, she must find Li Tian who is now bloodthirsty as soon as possible.

Mary kept running wildly, using her nose to sniff the surrounding air.

But with such an endless black market forest, how should Mary look for Li Tian?

I don't know how long time has passed, and Mary, who is looking for Li Tian, finally begins to appear tired.

Her face became extremely pale, her scattered hair could not be modified, and her whole body showed obvious signs of weakness.

How could Mary the vampire suddenly become weak?

It turns out that Mary hasn't drunk blood for a long time!

Since leaving Binjiang City, Mary has not drunk artificial blood again... She and Li Tian have been on the plane, thinking that one day would be enough to reach Italy and then return to her family, but she did not expect to be bitten. Li Tian's mutation speed was so fast that it caused the plane to crash.

Drinking blood is like a vampire who has to eat and drink.

Now Mary hasn't drunk blood for almost two days... Without replenishing her physical fitness, Mary now began to become weaker and weaker.

Her lips became pale, and her whole body became weaker and weaker.

Even her current steps have become weak.

After feeling this situation, Mary sighed badly.

What to do with such a primeval forest? How to do it?

Just when Mary felt her body was extremely weak, suddenly a howling wolf came from among the trees in front of her.

Then I saw a wild wolf suddenly leap out of the bushes.

The whole body of the wild wolf is gray, with two bloodthirsty eyes with aquamarine green. At this moment, it is staring at Mary in front of him unblinking, and the fangs in the wolf's mouth are also hungry. Stretched out.

When Mary saw the wolf for an instant, her heart shook.

However, this is not just the beginning, because after the first wild wolf jumped out and blocked the way of Mary, suddenly four or five wild wolves jumped out from here...

Wild wolves!

Miss Mary actually encountered the terrifying pack of wild wolves in the black market forest!

Wolves are originally social animals, and this wild wolf pack is even more of a tyrant in the Black Rock Forest. Even a brave lion can hardly beat a pack of wild wolves.

And now Mary just encountered such a situation.

I saw a few wild wolves staring * eyes on Mary's body at this moment... They seemed to have seen their prey, hissing in their mouths.

At the same time, Mary began to surround her at this moment.

But she said that Mary looked at the wild wolves around, and did not panic, but kept a calm posture, staring coldly at the wild beasts in front of her.

Chapter 2044: living hell

"Damn thing..."

"Get out!" Mary suddenly yelled from her mouth.

The several wild wolves beside them were completely indifferent to Mary's roar, and even moved closer to Mary step by step.

It seems that the pack of wild wolves in front of me is vowing to eat Mary.

Suddenly there was a terrible wolf howl.

Among them, a wild wolf behind Mary suddenly swooped, and the whole body instantly rushed towards Mary in front of her.

But what about Mary? When he felt the wolf behind him pounce at him, angry eyes suddenly appeared in the beautiful gem-like eyes.

Then he turned around, and at an astonishing speed, he immediately pushed the wild wolf that was coming over to the ground.

The wolf didn't throw that Mary down, but was thrown down by Mary!

Then a terrible scene appeared, but it was said that after Mary knocked the wolf to the ground all at once, her whole head bitten the wolf's neck fiercely.

A terrible scream came out of the wild wolf's mouth.

The wild wolf no longer uttered the harsh roar, but wailed with extreme pain.

The wild wolf, who was pushed to the ground by Mary, struggled on the ground for about ten seconds, and then stopped moving.

Looking at it in a blink of an eye, Mary looked up for an instant.

Her eyes were terrible green, and that pretty face was covered with blood... the corners of her mouth were even more bloody!

The wild wolf, who was still alive and fierce, was killed by Mary in a blink of an eye, absorbing the blood in his body.

At this moment, Mary's fangs were stretched out, and that pretty face that was originally beautiful and flawless became extremely terrifying.

She finally sucked blood.

Although it is not human blood, animal blood can still replenish her physical energy!

After Mary showed the brutal and terrifying side of the vampire, the surrounding wild wolves suddenly did not dare to pounce on again.

This group of beasts seemed to have seen the terrifying abilities of the amazing vampires... At this moment, they were roaring there one by one, and their bodies began to recede continuously!

After they retreated a few meters away, they jumped and ran toward the depths of the dense forest. In a blink of an eye, the pack of wild wolves disappeared into the endless dense forest.

But she said that after seeing the wild wolves finally retreating, Mary slowly recovered her original face.

She gently raised her arm and wiped the wolf blood from the corner of her mouth... Then she stood up slowly, took a look at the blood-sucked wolf lying on the ground, and muttered in her mouth: "Unexpectedly, your beast gave me blood to replenish my stamina..."

After Mary finished speaking, she didn't even glance at the corpse of the wild wolf, and then quickly walked towards the depths of the dense forest in front.

She will continue to search for Li Tian and find him as soon as possible!

...

The central area of the Black Market Forest is the most dangerous area in the Black Rock Forest, and it is called a restricted area for humans!

There are swamps everywhere, and there are piranhas, piranha trees, and other extremely dangerous plants and wild beasts.

In this deserted and uninhabited place, it is said that a group of barbarians lived.

The group of barbarians may not be in the records of human beings, because in this uninhabited ancient forest, no one can imagine that human beings can survive.

This group of barbarians, no one knows how many lifetimes they have survived, or what kind of race their ancestors are. The only thing they know is that an American expedition had appeared in 1823. Passing through the central area of the Blackstone Forest, the expedition team had 25 people and excellent equipment at the time. When they arrived in the central area of the Blackstone Forest, all of them suddenly disappeared mysteriously.

Of the 25-person expedition, only one person went out alive.

The name of the living person is: Charlie Notic!

In the records of later generations, the guy named Charlie Nodeck once published an autobiography called: The Lost World, which clearly records the group of barbarians who lived in the middle of the Blackstone Forest. He said that the group of barbarians has no humanity, no reason, they are cruel and bloodthirsty, and they have no feelings. They live in a nest, like primitive creatures, living in groups. It is also recorded that in his expedition 25 of them were killed alive by those terrifying barbarians, stripped of their skin and bones...

The lost world of the autobiography was very popular in the 19th century, but no one paid attention to the Barbarians in the Blackstone Forest.

Because any brainy guy will not come to the deserted land of this world to die...

Everyone's life is extremely precious.

However, does the legend about barbarians really exist in this world?

Nobody knows.

There are too many wonderful things in this world, maybe the legend of too barbaric really exists.

In the depths of the vast dense forest, I saw terrible and life-threatening swamps here. Those swamps were full of rotten stench, deadly and dangerous.

If such a swamp were accidentally sunk in, I am afraid that even the gods would not be able to save it.

And just in front of this barren swamp, there is another kind of wonderland on earth!

It is not an exaggeration to say that it is a fairyland on earth, because the flowers here are so beautiful, so beautiful, some red, some yellow, some green, fragrant and beautiful, each showing their beauty, it is extremely beautiful.

These flowers do not have a name that can be called, because there are no such rare and beautiful plants in other parts of the world.

These plants are the unique flowers of the Black Rock Forest. They are beautiful plants that are impossible to see anywhere in the world except here.

But in the middle of such beautiful flowers, it is surprisingly quiet.

There are no flying butterflies, no dragonflies, no birds and beasts...not even an ant on the ground.

The strange situation is permeated among these beautiful flowers.

Although at first glance, this is a fairyland on earth, but what if you really came here?

hell!

This is the real hell.

Because these most beautiful flowers are the deadliest flowers in the world, they are piranhas, they can eat people!

Any creature that reaches the vicinity of these piranhas will be sucked up by these flowers. Their green leaves are as tough as steel wires. Once they have entangled the living animals, don't even want to escape...being alive all the time. The sleepy death was there.

Then their bones will be turned into "fertilizer" to nourish these beautiful piranhas.

Chapter 2045: barbarian

These beautiful flowers, who can imagine that they will be such cruel plants in the world?

They can eat people without bones... even the bones will be sucked away alive.

So this is hell, even more terrifying than hell.

No wonder, those animals, wild beasts, butterflies, dragonflies, and anything with flesh and blood dare not approach this area.

The silence here is terrible, and it makes people feel suffocated.

At this moment of extreme silence, a strange noise suddenly rang from the depths of the dense forest in front.

The weird noise was like a signal from a person.

Going through the dense jungle, and then looking over, but in the barren land ahead, a black "wild man" wrapped in leaves is bending over, and his skinny hand is holding a "horn". The weird thing is blowing there.

The weird noise came from his mouth.

What exactly is this "savage"? Is it human or some other species?

I opened my eyes in amazement, it turned out to be a human!

Yes, he is indeed a human.

Because he has very obvious physical characteristics of human beings, he has hands and feet... he has a head and a body.

It's just that his body is rickety, and he doesn't know that his whole body is deliberately painted in black color, and he doesn't know that their original skin is that black...looks like the natives of Africa.

His hair is twisted, like weeds, scattered and crushed into a ball, scattered there, messy and unpleasant, and his body is surprisingly strong, but his body is not wearing any clothes. He is just like a primitive man. Use leaves to connect into a piece, and then cover his lower body.

His eyes were brown, revealing a savage and sturdy look.

He was holding a spear cut with a bamboo pole in one hand, and the weird "horn" was blowing in the other hand.

As he blew the "horn", he saw a rumbling sound suddenly coming from the quiet surroundings.

After the voice came, I saw savages crawling out of the ground, crouching and bending!

The reason why the savages crawled out of the ground is because their nests are like potholes built in the ground. They dug the caves underground, and then covered their cave entrances with leaves. So people who didn't know took a glance and thought that they had emerged from the ground, but it was because their cave was dug below.

Those savages are exactly the same as this "horn" savage, with black skin, brown and terrible eyes, and the whole body is bent, lying on the ground, walking on the ground on all fours like a beast.

Although they are similar to humans, they are completely different from humans because they are like beasts, walking on the ground with their hands and feet.

Their lumbar spine was completely bent due to long time climbing, so these wild men looked just like the rickety old men.

Are they the legendary barbarians in the Blackrock Forest?

Yes!

According to real geography magazines, these cave-dwelling guys are like humans.

It's just that they have no civilization and no beliefs. They have been living in this endless forest for hundreds of years, and they have already lost human abilities. Therefore, they are now out-and-out savages.

However, after these barbarians emerged from the ground, their mouths were screaming, as if they were talking...

Each of them also had "weapons!"

The weapon is a sharp "spear" cut from a bamboo tube.

Although these spears look ordinary, they have deadly power. Although these barbarians look stupid and stupid, since they can survive in this evil Blackrock Forest for so many centuries, they can survive endlessly. In the swampy land, able to survive in an environment where wild beasts may die anytime and anywhere, they must have extremely terrifying abilities.

Having said that, after the barbarian with the horn in his hand blew, all those barbarians emerged from the underground cave.

The number of them seems to be more than 100, among them there are old and young, men and women.

Those children are like primitive savages, crawling on all fours.

After they got out, they saw the burly barbarian with the horn, who seemed to be their leader, and at this moment, he uttered a lot of words.

Those words should be their unique language, at least in official records, there is no such language in the world.

After the guy who seemed to be the leader uttered the grunt words, the barbarians around him suddenly screamed.

In their screams, only a few of the barbarians were seen, suddenly "climbing" quickly towards the dense forest on the right, as if the guy in the lead had told them to do so.

They crawl on all fours. It is hard to imagine that their speed is surprisingly fast, almost like a beast, or even more agile and fast than a beast.

When these guys suddenly crawled towards the dense forest, the more than a hundred barbarians here even screamed.

Why did those savages run into the dense forest over there for no reason? What are they doing?

Look carefully, as the savages quickly ran into the dense forest over there, then they pushed out a cage made of hard wood...

The cage was huge and amazing. Inside the hard wooden cage, there was a human being curled up in the cage that seemed to be eating!

His body was packed in the cage just like that, the whole person was curled up in the corner of the cage, and then he was holding something in his hands while he was trying to suck...

As his eyes slowly turned to look, who was in the cage?

I looked at it in amazement and was stunned!

Yes, yes, yes, Li Tian!

It turned out to be Li Tian who mutated into a vampire!

He was actually put in this cage by these barbarians.

How could Li Tian be held in a cage by these barbarians? What exactly is going on?

For now, no one knows.

The only thing that can be seen is that Li Tian, who has mutated into a vampire at this moment, has completely lost his original humanity, his face is pale and ugly, and his whole person is squatting there.

His hands were covered with scarlet blood... What he held on his hands was a corpse, a corpse among these barbarians.

Chapter 2046: Horror killing

The corpse was dead, and the neck had been bitten off, and Li Tian's blood was sucked up.

Seeing this, I understood why these savages had to imprison Li Tian. It turned out that Li Tian had sucked up the blood of those among them.

But he said that after the barbarians pushed out the huge wooden cage at this moment, the barbarians screamed one by one, their voices were harsh and unpleasant...

While they were screaming frantically, they were jumping around the cage that held Li Tian, as if they were crazy.

And what about Li Tian who mutated into a vampire?

He didn't move from start to finish. He seemed to have eaten and sucked blood. At this moment, there was a sense of satisfaction in his bloodthirsty pupils. It was as if he was resting in the cage and indifferent after he was full. .

Facing the frantic roar of these savages, he never revealed his terrible and brutal vampire temperament from beginning to end.

He just stayed there quietly, holding up those horrible vampire eyes, and staring at the barbarians in front of them.

However, in the midst of the roar of these savages, the leading savage suddenly screamed.

After his screaming, the barbarians who were screaming crazily suddenly stopped one by one.

"Jili Guru Garduxi..." his incomprehensible native words came out of his mouth.

As he said so, only a few of the barbarians crawled and quickly reached his side, and then grumbled a bunch of unintelligible words.

Then after they finished speaking, they quickly found wood and dry wood from all around.

After they barbarians found the dry wood and wood, they all piled up in a pile, and then piled it around the wooden cage that Li Tian was holding.

What are these guys doing?

After they piled up all the dry wood around the cage that Li Tian was wearing, the leader swiftly crawled over, and then took out two flints from his arms.

He wants to ignite... This barbarian actually wants to ignite these woods, and then he wants to bake Li Tian in the cage?

OMG, he was going to burn Li Tian!

Besides, after this guy escaped from the Flint, the group of barbarians around began to scream one by one. They seemed to be excited and screaming.

A loud scream screamed in their mouths.

And from start to finish? Li Tian, who mutated into a vampire, didn't respond to them, but just stayed silently, as if he didn't want to respond to these barbarians.

The lead barbarian was bent, and there was flint.

Bang bang

With a bang, the flint burned the dry wood.

As the dry wood suddenly burned, Li Tian, who had been still in the wooden cage, suddenly jumped up, his bloodthirsty and brutal eyes, looking at the raging fire.

He seemed to know that these barbarians were going to burn themselves with fire.

Besides, all the dry wood piled around Li Tian's cage had already started to burn...The raging flames kept jumping into Li Tian's cage.

And those savages? Also began to sing, jump, and roar around the fire.

They seemed to be cheering and celebrating.

But what about Li Tian?

His originally static body had already begun to violent at this moment.

His eyes have become bloodthirsty and cruel, and the long fangs in his mouth have slowly stretched out...

The two claws clutching tightly inside the wooden cage also began to become powerful!

He was angry.

Roar

A terrible cry that shook heaven and earth came out from Li Tian's mouth.

He was angry.

What a vampire is most afraid of is the fire and the sun. Now the burning fire is around Li Tian, how can he not be angry?

When he called out with his terrifying cry all at once, the barbarians were startled.

I saw one of the barbarians. After hearing Li Tian's terrible cry, he suddenly held the wooden spear tightly in his hand, and suddenly threw it at Li Tian fiercely.

With a swish... the sharp spear suddenly pierced Li Tian's head.

Just when the spear was about to pierce Li Tian's head, one of Li Tian's hands grabbed the spear at an unparalleled speed.

The spear stopped in front of Li Tian's face.

When the barbarians here saw that the spear was caught by Li Tian, they suddenly roared, holding sharp spears in their hands, and projecting them towards Li Tian.

The sharp spear, like raindrops, shot at Li Tian who was in the cage.

Li Tianshen is in a cage, although he has the ability to reach the sky, but he has no consciousness, so he doesn't know how to use his power to block.

Puffed out.

I saw one of them pierced Li Tian's shoulder with a spear...

The thick yellow liquid ran down from Li Tian's arm.

That is blood, that is the blood of a vampire.

At the moment when Li Tian's body was stabbed by the barbarian's spear for an instant, suddenly, he was really violent.

The sharp fangs showed up in an instant, and those terrifying eyes turned hideous like wild beasts, and one hand slammed the wooden cage in front of him...

With a click, the thick wood of the cage was smashed by Li Tian's palm.

Then, seeing a whoosh, Li Tian's body turned into a phantom, and like an evil ghost, he pounced on the front barbarian.

A sorrowful cry came out of the barbarian's mouth.

Then he took a closer look. The barbarian's entire neck was snapped alive by Li Tian, and the blood was instantly sucked up by Li Tian.

died.

In an instant, a barbarian was killed by Li Tian like this.

The rest of the barbarians, the moment they saw their kind being killed by Li Tian, all wailed strangely, while holding a spear in his hand, projecting it towards Li Tian.

But how could they hurt Li Tian, who is now immortal?

I saw that Li Tian didn't even evade, after the spear pierced his body, the wound instantly recovered.

He just threw down a barbarian, bit his throat, sucked his blood, and instantly killed the second one!

In a blink of an eye, all the more than one hundred barbarians were shocked by this  and brutal Li Tian.

Because they have killed more than a dozen people under Li Tian's long pointed fangs.

The leading barbarian didn't look right, he quickly screamed, then lay on his limbs on the ground and began to run desperately.

He wants to run!

When the barbarians around heard their leader screaming to escape, they all screamed and started to flee...

These savages walked on all fours, and the speed at which they rushed up was indeed amazing. In a blink of an eye, these savages screamed and fled toward the deep forest.

In the * scene, only the * Li Tian was screaming ferociously.

His face, hands, and mouth were covered with blood.

Li Tian, who had sucked so much blood, was already a slaughter at this moment...Any human that dared to appear in front of him would probably be sucked up by him alive.

Chapter 2047: Find Li Tian

There is a terrible blood and gore here at this moment.

Li Tian was already approaching madness, his whole body was stained with the blood of those savages, and the corpses of those savages remained around him.

The bloodthirsty madness has completely revealed the brutal temperament of the vampire in his body.

With a loud howl, Li Tian rushed directly toward the depths of the Blackstone Forest.

No one knows what extremely terrible things Li Tian, who has now become a vampire, will do.

...

"Lee."

"Lee, where are you?"

In the depths of the ancient black stone forest, only the anxious voice of Mary came.

She is still looking for Li Tian persistently.

Now Mary didn't know how far she had gone, let alone where she was at the moment, she just kept looking for Li Tian's traces bit by bit.

Suddenly when Mary was looking for the depths of the dense forest in front, there was a scream of screams from the black rock forest in front.

The voice came from deep in the dense forest in front of it with fear.

When Mary heard the miserable voice calling out, she was stunned.

"Lee?"

"Is it Li over there?"

This Black Rock Forest is uninhabited, but how come the screams of human beings can be heard in front? After Mary thought this in her mind for a moment, then Mary began to run wildly towards the place where the sound was emitting.

She wanted to see what happened in the front place and why human screams could be heard.

I saw that Mary was faster than unparalleled, and she was indeed a vampire.

After quickly passing the dense jungle, Mary suddenly found a dead swamp in front of her.

This swamp is extremely barren, there are no weeds, even the soil is black, and there are black traces of water in the dead swamp that exude a stench.

On the side of the dead swamp, I saw a few ferocious and disgusting crocodiles crawling by the water...the ripples rising from these beasts shook the water surface of the dead swamp into circles.

After seeing the dead swamp, Mary took a cold-eyed look, then flashed her body like a ghost, and suddenly flashed through her body.

Although this dead swamp was extremely dangerous, it was nothing in the eyes of the vampire Mary.

It was said that Mary, relying on the agility of the vampire, quickly jumped over this dead swamp and reached the quiet area in front.

This area is where the ancient piranhas and piranha trees exist.

The beautiful and immaculate flowers all around are in full bloom, with luxuriant branches and leaves.

Mary didn't care about these piranhas, because she didn't know that these beautiful flowers in front of her had extremely terrifying power.

Just as she was about to walk through this quiet and beautiful place, suddenly a green tree vine on the ground suddenly entangled Mary's ankle.

At the moment when Mary was suddenly entangled with the tree and vine, Mary was taken aback, and then she quickly backed...While backing back, she broke free from the tree and vine.

As she stepped back, a strange and huge flower suddenly bloomed in the back.

The branches and leaves of its whole body are like chains, which directly entangled the backing Mary tightly, and two huge green leaves directly bound Mary's body tightly.

At the moment when she was bound by these two leaves, Mary was instantly depressed.

"Damn it!"

"What the * are these flowers? How can they attack people?" Mary yelled there as she struggled.

However, as Mary struggled hard, the two extremely resilient green leaves wrapped around her tender body began to become tighter and tighter.

If it weren't for Mary to be a vampire, I'm afraid the ribs of her tender body would have been cut off by the green leaf.

However, this is the case, Mary is still tightly bound by those two extremely resilient green leaves.

These piranhas seemed to strangle Mary alive here, tightening them tighter.

When Mary felt that these hateful flowers actually attacked people, she was immediately angry.

"Damn, even plants are here to bully me? It's really looking for death." With Mary's roar, her charming face instantly became distorted and angry.

The pointed fangs were suddenly highlighted, and her vampire nature was fully revealed at this moment.

As she regained the brutal face of a vampire, and then began to exert her strength, the two green leaves of piranha flowers that were as tough as steel wires wanted to entangle Mary in front of her, but it was impossible.

Just listen to bang

With a sound, the tough green leaves of the piranha were shaken off by Mary.

After Mary broke the green leaves of the piranha with strength, the piranha seemed to be "painful", and suddenly the two broken green leaves quickly retracted.

After getting rid of the restraint, Mary was extremely annoyed, stretched out her hand, directly grabbed the beautiful piranha flower in front of her, and picked it down fiercely, and then threw it on the ground, banging with her feet. It was crushed directly.

The piranha instantly curled into a single flower, as if withered and withered, no longer dared to use that branch to wrap around the vampire Mary in front of her.

It seems that these piranhas also know what is easy to deal with and what is difficult to deal with.

Under Mary's behavior, the surrounding piranhas curled up one by one, and the originally beautiful and flawless flowers all quickly shrank and shrank under the green leaves, just like the surrounding cannibals. Hua was also afraid of Mary.

Mary didn't care about the hateful piranhas in front of her, she was only worried about Li Tian in her heart.

So she didn't even look at these nasty piranhas, spread out her figure, and swept forward very quickly.

She is looking for Li Tian.

After Mary quickly reached the place in front, she found that there seemed to be traces of something moving around, because she saw the thick trees around, some were cut off, and a lot of weeds were dug out.

"Could it be that in such a deserted and uninhabited place, there are still people living here?" Mary was thinking there.

The area where she was standing was now close to the barbarian's tribe.

However, Mary didn't know that there were still savages alive in this deserted Blackrock Forest.

She just looked around carefully.

Suddenly as she got closer and closer to the barbarian tribe, her nose suddenly smelled of blood.

The smell of blood!

As a vampire, Mary has a unique ability to perceive blood, so when she approached here, she immediately smelled the thick blood.

"There is blood in front..."

"There is the blood of living people!"

After Mary knew the truth in shock, she swished her body quickly and flew over to the place in front of her. She had to go and see what happened in front of her, and how could there be such a smell of blood. come out.

Who shed the blood?

I saw that after Mary flew over quickly, the  smell rushed towards her face.

Mary glanced at the scene before her, and she was stunned.

"Oh my God, why is this happening here?" Mary stared at the  scene in front of her with horrifying eyes widened.

However, a dozen  bodies were thrown on the court.

Chapter 2048: Frightened

Those corpses were all fragmented and all killed, and what was puzzled was that these corpses looked different from humans. They were like primitive people... They were wearing "clothes" made of leaves.

And these people have strange looks, rough and dark skin, as if they were savages.

Seeing such a scene, Mary was stunned.

"Who killed it?"

"Who killed these guys who looked like savages?" Mary stared blankly there.

I saw Mary carefully observe these  corpses, and suddenly saw that the necks of these corpses were all bitten off... and their blood was all sucked up.

Mary, who looked at it this way, was astonished for an instant.

what?

"Lee?"

"Are these all killed by Li?" Mary said in shock.

She clearly knew that these savages had been drained of blood. In the Black Stone Forest, apart from the vampire in front of her, only Li Tian was left, and it must be Li Tiangan right now!

Mary looked at this extremely cruel and  scene, and she was shocked.

She couldn't imagine Li Tian doing such a cruel thing...

But she also understands Li Tian. She knows the disposition of Li Tian, the first-time vampire, and knows his hunger and thirst even more.

Seeing such a cruel scene, Mary sighed deeply: "Hey, it seems I have to find Li quickly, otherwise, the consequences will be disastrous!"

You know, after all, Li Tian is still in this black stone forest. Fortunately, it is off the beaten track here. If Li Tian leaves this black market forest, escapes to the outside world, and escapes into human beings, what terrible consequences will there be?

Vampires have existed in concealment for thousands of years, and they don't want to be known by humans! Therefore, he has never committed murder among humans, sucking blood, but now Li Tian has completely lost his rationality. If he really escaped to the outside world, wouldn't he want to kill? The identity of the vampire will be exposed to every corner of the world... If that is the case... what will be the consequences?

While thinking about it in such a mess in her mind, she hurriedly followed the * corpse and began to follow the trail of Li Tian.

There were pools of blood stains in this dense forest... So Mary started searching along these blood stains.

Passing through the thick bushes, there is a tall waterfall in front of which there is rushing water.

Mary glanced at the waterfall in front of her, and when she saw that there was no way, her eyebrows wrinkled uncontrollably.

"Hey, where should I find Li?"

"The boundless sea of forests is vast and boundless. How easy is it to find Li Tian?"

Just when Mary was lost, she suddenly heard movement in the bush on the left.

How keen is the vampire's hearing, when she heard movement from the bush on the left, Mary turned her head for an instant.

"Who?" The cold voice came out directly from Mary's mouth.

She stared at her beautiful eyes, staring at the leading place in the bush without blinking, her face cautious.

This Black Rock Forest is dangerous everywhere, so even Mary, who is a vampire, doesn't dare to take it lightly.

When Mary roared out, there was no answer from the bushes in front.

So Mary walked forward step by step, she wanted to see what was moving in the bush.

As Mary walked over step by step, suddenly a few sharp wooden spears were projected out of the bushes on the left...

Shoo!

His sharp spear stabbed fatally at Mary's body.

Mary suddenly saw these deadly spears stabbing at her. She reacted very quickly. She turned around and avoided the two spears flying from the front. Then she took it with her right hand and caught the one flying from the side. A spear.

The three spears that flew out all failed.

Just as Mary avoided the terrible blow, something in the bush suddenly screamed, and then raised his eyes to see that a group of savages with dark skin and rough, ancient savages appeared from the bush. All jumped out.

They held spears in their hands, as well as wood, stones, and other "weapons", and they all stared at Mary in front of them.

There was a panic in their eyes... the panic seemed to be that they were afraid of something.

At this moment, after jumping out, take a closer look, there are not as many as dozens.

barbarian!

These guys are the barbarians in the legend of the Black Rock Forest.

But she said that when Mary saw these guys suddenly jump out of the bushes, she couldn't help but stunned... She didn't expect that there were so many weird guys hidden in the thick bushes.

Looking closely at these barbarians, Mary instantly discovered that they were the group of barbarians killed by Li Tian.

Why are they here?

Mary couldn't help thinking about it at the moment.

After this group of barbarians jumped out, they all lay on the ground, with cold eyes, looking at Mary in front of them hostilely. The sharp spears in their hands were also held there, as if they were about to attack Mary in front of them at any time.

After seeing this situation, Mary instantly understood.

Because she saw their panic in the eyes of these savages...their panic was caused by Li Tian's bloodthirsty killings, and the reason why these savages were nesting in the bushes just now must be Because they are to avoid Li Tian's chase.

After Mary knew the truth for an instant, she glanced at the group of barbarians in front of her, and then slightly lowered the sharp spear in her hand.

"Calm... Calm... I'm not your enemy... I won't kill you..." Mary said as she started to back away.

The savages seemed to understand what Mary meant. After seeing Mary start to back up continuously, they didn't catch up with them. Instead, they all looked at Mary backing step by step with their cold eyes.

In this way, after Mary stepped back a dozen steps, she turned and left.

The group of barbarians with endless horror in their eyes saw Mary leave for a moment, and they all went back to the bushes just now one by one...Hidden...It seems that they were really caught Tian's bloodthirsty and brutality was terrified.

After Mary left the barbarians, she not only had some thoughts in her mind.

"It seems that Li Tian did appear here... the savages just now were probably frightened by Li Tian's brutality..."

Chapter 2049: Search and rescue team

But where did Li Tian go?

Mary didn't know. Now she can only search randomly based on her feelings. It is not easy to find someone in such a large ancient forest.

In the endless dark forest, Mary walked forward alone, looking for Li Tian.

At this moment, two Italian helicopters marked "augu" were hovering above the Blackstone Forest.

The whirring propeller was spinning in the sky.

These two Italian planes looked like Italian police helicopters, because I looked inside the helicopter carefully, but I saw several men in police uniforms sitting on the helicopter.

They have white faces, brown eyes and curly yellow hair.

A police uniform, coupled with the shotgun in his hand, it can be seen that they came to the Black Rock Forest for a purpose.

I saw the burly man sitting directly in front of him, with a blessed figure and a pair of black sunglasses on his face, making slight gestures there.

At the same time, his mouth yelled: "lasciatecheelicotteroandaregiu."

Translated into Chinese meaning: let the helicopter go down

After he said so, the pilot sitting in the pilot's seat gestured an ok gesture, and then the helicopter began to slowly fly towards the bottom of the Black Rock Forest.

After another helicopter saw this helicopter slowly fall, it also began to slowly descend.

"Autunnoli" the burly man wearing sunglasses yelled again now.

Translation: Fall down, let the helicopter fall below

After his voice exited, the helicopter began to slowly fall towards the middle of the Black Rock Forest.

The huge propeller was spinning there fast, and as it landed little by little, the strong hurricane shook the surrounding trees.

The helicopter found an empty area, and then slowly landed.

After the helicopter landed, I saw the Italian policeman with yellow curly hair who jumped out of the cabin first. His body was a little blessed, his belly was pouted, and the belt tied tightly around his waist was his uniform. Stick in it.

He also had a black shiny pistol on his waist.

After coming out, he put his hands on his hips, raised his brown eyes, and then glanced at the dense forest of black rock, where he suddenly frowned, and said, "bastardo, maledettovivere." Translation: bastard, Damn it..."

After the blessed policeman came out, three other policemen similarly jumped out from the cabin.

Two of the policemen were tall and lanky, with the skin that was typical of Italian men, and they came out of the cabin. They both had guns in their hands, and they were shotguns.

The other policeman was thin, with a pair of glasses on his face, and looked gentle.

Although he didn't hold a gun in his hand, he was holding a detection instrument. At this moment, he trot all the way off the plane quickly.

After they all walked out, I saw that the blessed policeman seemed to be their captain. Pointing to the thin body, the policeman wearing glasses said: "hainiziatoalavorare, econilvostroaereocecestrumentochesieschiantatove" Translation: We are about to start working. , Now start the investigation with the detector in your hand, and measure where the * crashed plane is?

As he gave orders, the thin policeman nodded quickly.

He turned on the radio detector, and then began to search for the surrounding radio signals.

What are these Italian policemen doing? Are they looking for the crashed plane? Is it looking for Li Tian and the others that crashed plane?

Yes! After the plane that Li Tian and Mary were travelling on got into trouble here, the Italian officials knew about the news, so they sent out a search and rescue team. The so-called search and rescue team was just a face, after all, the crashed plane. It belongs to China, because of international face, so the Italian official will do this...

But it said that the thin policeman, holding a detector in his hand, is constantly detecting everywhere. The policeman who is blessed here and two other thin policemen with shotguns in their hands are standing Here, their faces are laid back, as if they are not here to save people... but to travel.

This search and rescue work should have come a day in advance, but they are only coming now, the reason is nothing more than that no one wants to take this * job! After all, the Black Stone Forest is an extremely dangerous forest in Italy, and no one wants to come here.

"Boss, questopostomaledettoprimadiblackstoneequellaforesta" Translation: Boss, is this * place really so dangerous in the legend?

But seeing one of the policemen with a lanky figure and a hook nose holding a shotgun in his hand, and a cigarette in the other hand, he handed it to the fat policeman named "the boss" in front of him. While asking there.

The blessed policeman took the cigarette, put it in his mouth, took out the lighter, lit it, and took a deep breath and said: "efaioasaperloquestomaledettopostocosiario, chivuolevenireah" Translation: How do I know, but the outside world says so... and this Black Rock Forest is indeed Our country's more dangerous evil forest.

After the thin policeman said so, he nodded silently and started smoking by himself.

And this fat policeman? I found a cleaner place, sat down, and stayed there leisurely.

Time passed by, and only the thin Italian policeman was holding a detection instrument and searching for radio signals there. He was alone looking for Li Tian and the plane that Mary had crashed.

After a while, the policeman over there walked up to the fat policeman and asked in Italian language: "boss, abbiomodavverovogliadiscoverechelaereoeprecipitatohuaxiaguoperchetantounadannataforesta, etroviamoah"" Translation: Boss, are we really looking for the crash of the China country The plane? This * forest is so vast, can we find it?"

I saw the fat policeman with a blessed posture and smoked a smoke there: "matto, realmentevediamo, ah, noisiamoquisoloperandareunaformalitacredidavverovogliamoinquestavastadistesadidifficiletrovare hforestafool!"

Translation: Stupid, just looking for a fool! We are here just to go through a cutscene...Who would look for foreigners in such a vast forest, fools would do it!

The lanky policeman showed a wretched smile after hearing the "boss" in front of him say so, and then stopped talking.

Chapter 2050: Discovery signal

Time passed continuously.

The young policeman over there with the detection equipment in his hand is still there, searching for the plane's signal.

What about the three policemen here? On the other hand, they were full of ridicule and contempt. They were sitting here leisurely, not caring about Li Tian and Mary and the plane that had an accident.

"John, trovatocheisignalidiaeromobiliincidenteaereoche?" Translation: John, how? Did your detector find the signal of the crashed aircraft?

At this time, the fat policeman asked with a disdainful smile on his face and asked the thin policeman with a detection device.

The policeman named John turned around and said, "no, nonancora." Translation: No, not yet!

Listening to this John saying this, the fat policeman laughed haha.

The honest and thin John saw them laughing, and now he also smiled shyly.

After laughing, John turned his head slowly, looking at the fat policeman here, and said seriously: "Boss, credo chlanostrapositionepotrebbe essere sbagliato, quindi non riesco a trovare un segnale che laereo precipitato, quindi penso che di fronte al uoghilsegere, fore, viaorgere, I guess we may search for elder eo. The position was wrong, so I couldn't find the signal of the crashed plane. Therefore, I want to go to the front place and see if I can find the signal of the crashed plane there. Boss, can you?"

The honest John asked the fat Italian policeman there.

I saw the fat Italian policeman suddenly laughed when he heard him say this.

"Beh, selo vuoi, tu andrai, ma posso dirti in anticipo che questo è estremamente pericoloso foresta bla, sequello che suesso, allora non puoi biasimare non ha avvisare in anticipo." Of course, if you want to go, then you can go, but I will warn you in advance that we are in the dangerous place, the place where you stay is extremely dark. If you are not afraid of danger, then go.

Listening to the fat policeman saying this, John chuckled and said: "non ho paura, vabene."
Translation: I'm not afraid.

The fat man smiled and said: "beh, ebene, poiswa." Translation: Well, that's good, then you go.

John nodded quickly, and then really picked up the detector in his hand, and then ran towards the dense forest deep in the Black Rock Forest alone.

As for the Italian policemen behind, they all laughed at the sight of John looking for the signal of the crashed plane.

"Chestupido, chevolevaandare." Translation: He is such a fool

But he said that after the John came to the dense jungle alone, there were deep and dense weeds and towering trees everywhere.

Covered by greenery, there was a strange dark feeling all around.

After this John came here alone, not only did he feel a little hairy.

However, he calmed his mind for a while, then raised his eyes and looked around cautiously. There were thick weeds and some tree vines all around. After taking a look, he let out a long sigh. Then he started to detect with the detector in his hand.

Above the detector is a luminous screen. Because it is a radio, it can reflect signals such as dynamic living creatures in a radius of a few miles and electronic interference.

While holding the detector in his hand, John watched the movement of the luminous screen.

Suddenly, when he was detecting the movement, the bushes behind suddenly made a rustling movement.

The moment John heard the movement in the bushes behind, he was taken aback, and quickly looked back, and saw that the dense weeds more than one meter high behind was shaking violently... as if there was something inside. It's lurking there.

John saw it, but he was shocked, and then he hugged the detector in his arms tightly with both hands, and shouted loudly: "chichiequello" Translation: Who, who is there?

But there was no sound from the weeds more than one meter high.

John felt guilty at the moment. He also knew that the Black Rock Forest was the most dangerous forest in Italy, so he couldn't help frowning, and his heart was beating even more.

Just as he stared at the dense bushes with his eyes widened and unblinked, suddenly a yellowish wild rabbit jumped out of the bushes. The wild rabbit seemed to be frightened in some way. He saw John Suddenly, he suddenly jumped and ran toward the deep forest.

When John saw that among the trees, it turned out to be just an ordinary wild rabbit, he couldn't help laughing at himself.

"Ehi, erasoloconigli selvatici." Translation: Hey, it turned out to be a wild rabbit, which surprised me. He muttered in Italian in that mouth.

After feeling that there was no danger around him, John stubbornly picked up the detector again and started searching.

The time passed by, and in a blink of an eye, this John had unknowingly spent nearly half an hour in the dense blackstone forest.

While John was still holding the detector while searching, there was a sudden "drip" noise inside the detector.

That is the signal, that is the signal that the trace was found.

As the detector sent out the "Didi Didi" signal, John suddenly became excited, and then looked down at the luminous screen on the detector.

I looked at it in amazement, but saw a small red dot on the luminous screen, which was coming toward him at an alarming speed.
