

A Killer 2061

Chapter 2061: hostel

"What a beautiful woman!"

"Yeah, what a great body!"

"If such a woman let me sleep for one night, it would be worth even if I die..." Just listen to the drunken and dim discussions of a few Italian men here.

"Yeah, I will ask that beauty later... to see if I am interested, hehe." He said, with evil eyes in his eyes.

At this moment, the black widow Katherine had already reached the bar with her plump buttocks.

The 50-year-old woman at the bar suddenly felt disgust when she saw the charming look of the black widow Katherine.

Women always hate another woman who is more beautiful than her! Although she is still jeweled, her mental effect is still indelible.

I saw an old woman in her 50s at this moment. When she saw Katherine walking by, she said coldly: "What are you doing? Passing by? Or staying in a hotel?"

The black widow Katherine heard this cold voice from the old woman in front of her, and did not get angry because of it. She just said in a delicate voice: "We want to live here."

The 50-year-old woman glanced at Katherine, then at Mary and Lorie over there and said, "You are not locals, where are you from? How come you pass by our small town?"

I saw the black widow Katherine smile slightly and said: "We are just trailblazers...too many questions, please don't ask too much."

Katherine said while escaping a few Italian banknotes from her pocket and threw them towards the bar.

After the 50-something-year-old woman saw the money left by the black widow Katherine, she hesitated, and then her tone became calmer.

"How many rooms do you want?" asked the woman in her 50s.

Black Widow Kathena said: "Look at how many of us we have, so let's open a few rooms."

After speaking, Katherine turned and left the bar in front of her.

When the black widow Katherine came to this side, several drunken Italian men here shouted at Katherine.

"Beauty, are you staying here?"

"Beauty, you look so charming...are you interested in having a drink?"

Listening to these Italian men talking to the black widow Katherine like a molestation, but seeing that the black widow Katherine was not angry at all, she smiled charmingly and gave them a winking glance, and said: " You guys, wait a moment... I'll be drinking with you later!" She said, walking towards Mary and Luo Lie with a smile.

"Okay, okay, okay!" The Italian men didn't even dream of thinking that such a charming woman would take care of them and drink with them. They almost jumped with excitement.

But this way? I saw that strong man Luo Lie almost jumped up with anger, especially when he saw several stupid humans who did not know how to live and die were molesting the black widow Katherine. Everyone knows that in the Torrido family, the Black Widow Katherine is slutty, but she has a man who loves him extremely, that is the iron hand Luo Lie... His love has reached a state of madness. Luo Lie would definitely do what Black Widow Katherine asked Luo Lie to do, even if it was to let Luo Lie die!

And Mary? It was the slutty gesture shown to the black widow Katherine, and she was very disgusted, muttering in her mouth: What a sorrowful woman!

I saw that the black widow Katherine had already walked to Mary and Luo Lie's side.

Smiling there and said: "I have arranged the room... Let's go, go and rest."

After she finished speaking, Mary didn't even pay attention to her, and walked directly past her.

What about Luo Lie? At this moment, Li Tian, who was in a coma and anesthetized, was still carrying on his shoulders, and at this moment, he could only closely follow Mary and walk forward quickly.

What about the black widow Katherine? Did not go upstairs directly,

She really walked to the three brawny Italians who were drinking, and then started talking with them with a smile.

Demeanor and frivolous.

Here, I saw that the 50-something-year-old woman was waiting for Mary and Lowe with the key to the room.

Seeing that Luo Lie was carrying a coma and anesthetized Li Tian on his shoulders, the truth was that the 50-year-old woman in front of her frowned and asked, "What's wrong with him?"

Mary hurriedly said: "He is our companion and was injured on the road...so we carried him on his back."

The woman in her 50s was dubious when she heard Mary say this.

However, she didn't ask too much, after all, the black widow Katherine gave her a lot of money...

I saw that the 50-year-old woman handed Mary and Luo Lie the key in front of her and said: "The room is on the 3rd floor. Go up by yourself... By the way, there is no hot water in the room today! If you want to take a bath, just Wait until after dawn."

Then Mary nodded and said: "Okay."

Then he was ready to go upstairs.

After walking two steps, suddenly Mary turned her head and said to the 50-something old woman: "By the way, we have to tell you something in advance. We have been walking for a few days and we are very tired, so During the day, please don't disturb us to rest. We must sleep well and keep our energy up." Mary reminded the old woman in front of her.

Mary and Katherine are vampires, and they are absolutely not allowed to come out during the day, so in order to have a normal rest, she can only say that, lest the old woman quarrels them.

I saw the woman in her 50s, after hearing Mary say this, said: "Okay, I see."

"Don't worry, my little hotel used to have no people living at all, so don't worry. During the day, there will be absolutely no one disturbing you except my old lady. Just rest assured." She Tao said.

When Mary heard the old woman say this, she said, "Thank you..."

After speaking, he quickly walked towards the third floor.

At this moment, Luo Lie carrying the anesthetized Li Tian on his shoulders also followed.

After arriving on the third floor, Mary opened the door of a room, which was fairly tidy.

After walking in, I only heard Mary say to the strong man Luo Lie standing at the door: "Luo Lie, put Li here."

The big guy Luo Lie was taken aback for a moment, and said, "Miss Mary, you want to stay in a room with this guy?" His expression was very surprised.

Mary nodded.

"Miss Mary, this guy is a beast of the Gangelo family... If he is sober... then..." Luo Lie kindly reminded Mary in front of him.

Mary smiled and looked at Luo Lie: "Don't worry."

"You put Li here."

Chapter 2062: Slutty woman

Luo Lie couldn't persuade Mary in front of him, so he snorted in that mouth, and then slowly put Li Tian's body down.

Then he said: "Then I'm leaving."

Luo Lie was about to turn around and walk out of the room in front of him.

Just when Luo Lie was about to go out, Mary suddenly stopped him: "Luo Lie..."

After hearing Mary's scream, Luo Lie's burly body froze for a while, then turned his head slightly and looked at Mary and said, "Miss Mary, is there anything else?"

Mary thought about it, and then walked over to the loft.

"Luo Lie, are you going to watch the woman you love do such slutty things below?" Suddenly a sentence came out of Mary's mouth.

After Mary said this, the big guy Luo Lie suddenly looked a little embarrassed, and hurriedly, he turned his head slightly, as if he didn't want Mary to see his embarrassed expression.

Mary and Luo Lie were standing in the attic, and they could see everything downstairs.

I saw that the black widow Katherine is really slutty. At this moment, it has become a piece of a few Italian drunks. One of them is holding the black widow Katherna's small waist with a rough big hand... While sipping wine, he shouted there.

Where's the other guy? It was a hand that touched the soft and soft thigh of Katherna with a dishonest hand...

And the black widow Katherine didn't care about the rude behavior of these guys at all, instead she giggled sluttyly, flirting with the Italian men.

At this moment, Luo Lie was full of anger when he saw this scene. His fist was tightly clenched in his heart.

Mary glanced at poor Luo Lie, and said slightly, "Luo Lie, I know you love Katherine very much. Since you love her, go and stop her."

"Although Katherine is slutty, I believe she still has feelings." Mary in front of her finally said there.

After speaking, Mary left the attic in front of her, then turned around and walked to the room with Li Tian and closed the door.

But what about Luo Lie?

Watching the black widow Katherine drinking with the Italian men who had just met...Flirt, finally he couldn't help it.

At this moment, Luo Lie suddenly rushed down from the third floor full of anger.

After he rushed down, he yelled at the Katherine who was drinking and slutty: "Katherine..."

The roar sounded like an earthquake, and the sound was extremely rough.

The happy black widow Katherine who was playing here, when she heard Luo Lie suddenly run down and stared at her with angry eyes, she was not only slightly startled, but she still instantly recovered her charm. Attitude, looking at Luo Lie: "What's wrong? Is something wrong?"

After Luo Lie was questioned by the black widow Katherna, he immediately stood there in embarrassment... don't know what to do.

A few brawny Italian men with Catherine's beautiful body beside them, when they suddenly saw a bald-headed fierce man running out, they not only pointed at Luo Lie with their hands there and said, "What is this guy doing?"

"Hurry up and * Laozi!"

"Didn't you see that we were drinking with the beauties?" He said as he kissed Catherine's tender and * red lips with his drunken mouth.

Luo Lie couldn't bear it anymore.

He was really angry, especially when he heard that guy actually said that about himself.

Suddenly, Luo Lie's whole figure flashed, and he swished to the side of the three drunk men, grabbed one of them majesticly with one hand, and then threw it out forcefully.

The Italian man hadn't seen what was going on yet, and he had been thrown into the air.

With a plop, the body directly hit one of the wooden tables, and the wooden table was instantly cracked.

And what about the other two drunks? At this time, Luo Lie was also punched and kicked flying.

Ah, ah

With two screams, in a blink of an eye, all three drunks were put on the ground by Luo Lie, his whole body pained like mud, and he couldn't get up anymore.

But he said that when Luo Lie exploded and threw all the three drunks to the ground, the black widow Katherine standing there had a completely indifferent expression.

She was just smiling there with winking eyes, giggling with a very charming laugh.

Luo Lie stood there majestic, trembling angrily, facing Katherine in front of him.

Suddenly, Luo Lie suddenly picked up the black widow Katherine's beautiful body, and then carried Katherine's beautiful body on his shoulders as if carrying a sandbag, and then strode towards the stairs. Go up.

What about Katherine, the Black Widow?

Suddenly carried on his shoulders by the big Luo Lie, he began to laugh crazily and charmingly, without resisting at all.

After Luo Lie carried the black widow Katherine to the room on the third floor, he was about to put her down.

But what about the black widow Katherine?

Suddenly, two slender, thin white legs clamped Luo Lie's waist, and his two hands held Luo Lie's head warmly, and his beautiful eyes looked like silky eyes. The hunk Luo Lie said: "What's wrong? Are you jealous? Are you angry?"

Her voice was coquettish, and the two snow-white fleshy * on her chest pressed against Na Luo Lie's chest tightly.

Na Luo Lie looked at the deep white gully on his chest, panting sharply, his eyes had become feverish.

And what about Black Widow Katherine? He even brought his extremely glamorous face to the front of the fierce Luo Lie, and his red lips squirmed softly there, "Why don't you talk? Didn't you say you love me... Come on, kiss me, touch me Ah..." The slutty Katherine said, holding Luo Lie's big hand one by one, and suddenly touched her plump thigh, and then slowly moved up and up.

"Am I not beautiful...Is my figure not plump enough?" Jiao Didi's voice came out again from her mouth.

At this moment, Luo Lie couldn't bear the temptation of the black widow Katherine in front of him anyway.

Finally he couldn't help it.

He hugged the glamorous Katherine in front of him, and then, like a bear, buried his entire head in the crispy chest of Katherine, biting.

And what about Katherine?

She also hugged Luo Lie in front of her eyes, and her red lips kissed Luo Lie's bald head, frantically.

In this way, the two vampires drew fire.

They closed the door, and began to move around the room extremely quietly.

The next room was that of Mary. After hearing the slutty laughter from the next room and such a movement, not only did she frowned in depression.

"Damn slutty woman!"

As she said, she was awkwardly blocking her ears with a quilt, deliberately not listening to the damned voice.

What about Li Tian? It was lying there motionless like a dead person.

After he was anesthetized, his distorted face returned to its original appearance, but it was pale and ugly.

Chapter 2063: television news

This unbearable movement continued for nearly an hour.

During this hour, Mary was extremely depressed, but fortunately, after an hour passed, the voice disappeared and the room returned to calm.

At this moment the sky has slowly started to light up.

Mary glanced out of the window, knowing she should rest.

He walked quickly to the door of the room, locked the room, and then glanced at Li Tian who was lying on the ground.

Li Tian's face was pale, and he lay silently on the cold ground, without any movement.

After taking a look at Li Tian with affectionate eyes, Mary slowly returned to the bed, then closed the window tightly, and then tightly blocked the window with curtains, and then fell asleep.

During the day, when vampires are weakest, they are also unable to move, so no matter how strong they are, they must rest.

Time passed little by little.

The time of the day was extremely peaceful, and almost no one disturbed Mary, Katherine, and Lorie.

And that Li Tian didn't wake up either, he was still under anesthesia after being hit by the anesthesia dart of the black widow Katherine.

The whole day time passed quickly.

The night came slowly.

When the sun fell below the horizon, darkness poured up.

When the vampire Mary who was resting in the room felt the darkness coming, her eyes slowly opened.

At the same time, the whole person also looked radiant.

After getting up from the bed, she opened the curtains and glanced at the dark sky outside. Mary murmured, "It's time to go home..."

After speaking, her delicate body got up from the bed in a reel.

Then he walked quickly and took a look at Li Tian who was lying on the ground. After realizing that he was not awake, Mary opened the locked door in front of her.

After opening it, I suddenly saw two people standing at the door.

It was the black widow Katherine and the majestic hunk Luo Lie.

At this moment, the black widow is still * and enchanting, with her plump body leaning on Luo Lie's body behind her, and smilingly looking at Mary in front of her.

"Mary, can you rest during the day?" said the black widow in front of her, looking at Mary in front of her with a charming smile.

Mary knew what she meant, and snorted coldly, "Do you think I can rest?"

"What's the matter? Why didn't you rest well?" The black widow Kathena continued to look at Mary with a smile.

Mary yelled: "You...you...you are really slutty!" Mary didn't know what words to use to humiliate Katsena before her. After thinking about it, she could only say that she was slutty.

The black widow Katherine didn't get angry at all when she heard Mary say that to her, she giggled there instead.

"debauchery?"

"It's called enjoyment, do you know..."

"Hey, it seems that you still don't understand men and women. When you understand later, you will naturally understand." The black widow Katherine said as she put her arms around the strong man Luo Lie in front of him. A deep kiss.

Where is Mary in front of you? Seeing that Katherine was so frivolous and dissolute, her stomach was blown up.

But she still tried to keep her temper.

She ignored the black widow Katherine in front of her, and turned and walked downstairs.

The black widow Katherine giggled silver bells from behind.

But she said that after Mary walked quickly downstairs to the hotel, she saw that the small bar on the first floor was empty.

Only the old woman at the bar was standing there, holding a rag in her hand and wiping the table there. On the far left of the bar, there was a huge TV set with one after another. News.

After Mary walked down, the Italian woman in her 50s saw Mary.

"Are you awake?" The 50-year-old woman asked after seeing Mary.

Mary smiled there and said, "Yes."

"You can really sleep. I slept for a whole day!" The 50-something old woman murmured in her mouth.

During the whole day, Mary, Katherine, and Nalore had not been out of the room, so the old lady in this hotel was still quite surprised.

I saw that after hearing the 50-something old woman say this, Mary said there: "We were too tired from the journey the other day... so we took a little more rest."

The 50-something-year-old woman said "Oh" and then said, "Then you should be hungry? Would you like to eat something?"

After listening to the woman in her 50s, Mary quickly said, "No, no need! Thank you..."

When the old man heard Mary said that she was not eating, he was not only taken aback: "Then you are not hungry? Don't you eat for a day?" The old woman blinked surprised eyes and looked at Mary in front of her.

Mary looked a little embarrassed instantly.

What do vampires want to eat? They never eat food, except * blood.

But seeing Mary's head quickly turned and said: "It's like this... We have our own dry food, so when we were resting in the room just now, we ate some..."

"We understand your kindness!" Mary lied there.

After hearing what Mary said, the 50-something-year-old woman came to understand, so she said, "Okay... then my old lady won't bother you."

The old woman who was talking then began to wipe the table up there.

And here? Mary walked out of the hotel door, looking at the slowly darkening night, her eyes were turning there, and no one knew what she was thinking at the moment.

Just when she stood in the dark outside in the dark, suddenly the sound of the TV in the hotel came into her ears.

I saw the Italian evening news being broadcast on the huge LCD TV hanging on the left side of the bar.

"Last night, there has been a new step forward in the violent assault on the police in the Blackstone Forest in the Nikolai Mountains. According to our understanding, the police officers were sent by officials to search and rescue private individuals who crashed in the Blackstone Forest a few days ago. The aircraft's search and rescue officers consisted of four people. Unfortunately, three of the search and rescue officers were attacked by unknown beasts after arriving in the Black Rock Forest... At present, it is understood that the three attacked search and rescue officers have already All were killed, one of the surviving members is still being treated at ncg hospital..."

When these voices suddenly reached Mary's ears outside, she was stunned for a moment.

Chapter 2064: access

Then he turned his head swiftly, and then ran in from outside, looking at the TV in front of him with his unbelievable eyes.

The TV continued to broadcast the Black Rock Forest search and rescue personnel being attacked by "wild beasts".

After seeing it, Mary was stunned.

"How could this be? How could it reach the media? And also on TV, on the news?" Mary was stunned there for a moment.

You know, the beast that attacked the police officer in the Black Rock Forest was of course Li Tian!

After a round of thought, Mary suddenly understood.

"By the way, there was one policeman who survived...there was one alive!" For a moment, Mary remembered the only policeman John she had saved that survived.

Yes, that guy.

"Could it be that he announced this to the media?" Mary in front of her thought in shock in her mind.

It should be understood that the kinship is originally hidden in the surroundings of humans, and it has never dared to show it blatantly. This is not only for the safety of human beings, but also for the survival of the kinship... For thousands of years, this has also been able to The real reason for surviving! And now, after this news is broadcast, what kind of impact will it have... Will the surviving John tell us about Li Tian's blood-sucking situation at that time? Mary was thinking about it in shock, because once that John said about Li Tian sucking blood, then this would undoubtedly be a huge disaster for the blood... and the world will know that it is in this mysterious world. Above, there are really different kinds of vampires. What will happen to the terrible consequences? Know without thinking

Mary was upset all over there now.

She was in the Black Rock Forest just to rescue the human John, but she did not expect that the follow-up would cause such a big trouble!

Once John tells Li Tian's behavior at the time, the blood family will face the biggest crisis in thousands of years.

"What to do? What to do?" Mary thought there.

The news on the TV is still playing there.

I saw that the black widow Katherine and Na Luolie had walked down the stairs at this moment.

Neither of them noticed the news on the TV, and at the moment they just walked down the stairs slowly.

Seeing that Mary was widening her eyes, and watching the TV in front of her without blinking, the black widow Katherine not only smiled and asked, "Mary, what are you looking at? You are watching so fascinating?" "

As Katherine said so, she also lifted her eyes and looked at the TV over there.

When Mary heard the voice of Black Widow Katherine, she ignored her and just continued to watch the news broadcast on it.

On the news, the attack in the Black Rock Forest continued to be broadcast.

"According to the latest information available to the police, we have learned that during the attack on the police in the Black Rock Forest, the three search and rescue police officers who died were all bitten to death by a throat tube, and the blood in their bodies seemed to be killed by the unknown. The famous beast  up..."

After hearing this suddenly, Mary was stunned for a moment.

And where is the black widow Katherine over there? After seeing the news on TV, the whole person suddenly put away the originally smiling face, that charming face instantly became serious and ugly.

"Well, doesn't this mean that Mary still has the beast of the Gangelo family?"

"On TV?" Katherine said in shock.

"Damn it, it's been spread out, and the Blackstone Forest's affairs have been exposed!" Black Widow Kathena suddenly furiously said there.

Luo Lie in front of him was also shocked.

"Mary, look at what you have done..."

"Now we are all on TV... Our blood... the blood... will be exposed to human vision soon." The black widow Kathena said in a furious moment.

The kinship is absolutely not allowed to expose their identity to human vision.

But now because of Mary's negligence, the current matter has been exposed. What should I do?

Mary stood there with a pale face... Her heart was also disturbed, because she also knew that once humans really knew that there were vampires in the world, it would be a terrible war.

So she was also confused now, facing the reprimand of the black widow Katherine, she didn't say a word.

The news above is still playing.

"...The latest news, the only living police officer who is currently rescued at the ncg hospital is ready to be interviewed by reporters. His name is John."

With the broadcast of the news supporter on the TV, the screen suddenly jumped.

Then I saw a scene where the crowd was crowded, and the surviving John was standing in a room full of reporters.

He is the John that Mary rescued.

I saw a few guarding policemen standing beside that skinny John, all fully armed.

That John's face was pale and ugly, facing numerous reporters and asking questions, he seemed only timid.

"Excuse me, Mr. John, have you seen that beast?"

"Mr. John, how did that beast kill your three companions?"

"John, why does that beast * blood? How did he * the three companions around you to death?"

On the TV screen, many cameras and microphones were facing John, and many reporters were there asking questions.

What about John? There was still horror and fear in his eyes.

He faced so many reporters and finally spoke out.

"I saw him... he is not a beast... he is a human... someone who looks exactly like us... except that he has fangs in his mouth and he has a very pale face... And there is a speed even more terrifying than a beast..." Then John finally told the facts in front of many media reporters.

When John told the facts all at once, the reporters started asking questions again.

"Mr. John, are you sure you are seeing a human? Since it is a human, how could fangs grow in the mouth? And sucking blood?"

"Mr. John, please describe how that guy killed your companion at the time?"

Faced with many questions, I saw that John, who was protected by the police, said there: "He looks like a human, but his behavior is different from that of a human."

"He threw my three companions to the ground, then broke their necks in one bite, and then absorbed their blood."

After the john in front of him said so, the reporters who interviewed were all there in a daze.

Something sucking blood?

What the * is that?

Could it be...ancient...ancient vampire? Among the reporters, one of the members suddenly brought up the vampire.

After he said this, the rest of the reporters also spread the word.

"Vampire? Is it really a legendary vampire? Mr. John, are you really sure that that thing * human blood?" The reporters were all there interviewing John on the TV.

As for John, he nodded there and said: "Although I don't know if he is a real vampire, but he * human blood for sure... and extremely cruel."

Chapter 2065: Catastrophe

When the terrible truth was suddenly spread by the reporters, Mary, who was standing in front of the TV, stayed there for an instant.

And what about Black Widow Katherine? It was the hostility all over, Luo Lie's eyes also showed shock and anxiety.

"Mary, your misfortune is serious... Now even your father, Earl Roger, I am afraid it will be difficult to keep you this time!" The black widow Kathena said in a cold voice suddenly.

Mary didn't reply, but just stood there blankly.

"Our blood will be exposed..."

"Our thousand-year hidden plan was ruined by you, Mary!" Just listen to the black widow Katherine accusing Mary in front of her loudly.

Mary didn't reply from beginning to end, because she also knew that this time she did make a very serious mistake.

No vampire would do such a thing, and certainly would not expose the entire blood clan.

But now, Mary made a big mistake for Li Tian.

Now reports about vampires have been overwhelmingly popular in major media and on the Internet. The most talked about topic now is about vampires.

The danger of the blood family is coming.

After seeing the news, Luo Lie, the macho man standing next to him, was full of anger. He looked at the black widow Katherine in front of him and said, "Well, then, what should I do now?"

"Since we have known the news, no matter whether it is our family or other blood clan, it must have known the news."

Black Widow Katherine stood there and was silent for a while, then suddenly raised her eyes and said, "A disaster is coming!"

"This time our Torrido family is facing unprecedented danger!"

Yes, it was because of Mary that the blood secrets were exposed!

Mary is a member of the Toledo family. Originally, the Toledo family is a unique entity among the other blood clan. Because they do not drink human blood and do not harm humans, there are basically few other blood clan. Deal with the Torrido family!

And now this happened again at this time... Now it can be said that it is not only the trouble of Mary alone, but the trouble of her entire family!

"Mary, it's all because of you! Because of the beast of the Gangelo family that you brought back!" Black Widow Kathena said to Mary in anger suddenly.

Nalorie said, "I'm going to slaughter the beast of the Gangelo family now!"

Luo Lie, who was furious, condemned all his anger to Li Tian.

To be honest, it was indeed because of Li Tian that caused their entire blood clan to be exposed to human vision.

After Luo Lie in front of him said this, he turned and suddenly walked upstairs in front of him, preparing to kill Li Tian.

Just when Luo Lie was about to go, Mary, who had been silent for a moment, stopped in front of Luo Lie.

"Stop me!"

"I said, you must never hurt Li, no one can." Mary's eyes were raging, and she stood in front of Luo Lie in a hostile manner.

After Luo Lie was blocked by Mary in front of him, his two fists were tightly clenched, and the anger in his whole body was exposed.

"Miss Mary, are you really going to give up the entire Torrido family for a beast of the Gangelo family?" Luo Lie said angrily.

But seeing Mary's heart ached, she stood there and said: "I didn't say to give up my family!"

"Since we don't give up our Torrido family, let me get out of the way... let me go up and kill the animal of the Gangelo family!"

"It's all because of him that our blood clan was exposed to human vision... You still want to protect him now?" Luo Lie said in front of him.

I saw Mary said: "Li is also a last resort!"

"He also did those terrible things because he had just embraced for the first time and didn't have any consciousness... If he waited for him to regain consciousness, he would never do those cruel things." Mary spoke for Li Tian.

Luo Lie said: "Miss Mary, why are you so confused..."

"He is already a vampire now... and the blood of the Gangaluo family beasts is flowing inside... Why do you have to protect him?" Luo Lie roared.

Mary said: "I promised his father... I also promised his brother... I must take care of him! Even if I die... I must protect him."

"Luo Lie, Katherine, I know I'm sorry for the family and I'm sorry for you... But my heart has decided that no one can change my will." Mary stood there and said stubbornly.

Listening to what the stubborn Mary said, Luo Lie really couldn't help it.

And what about the black widow Katherine? Taking a cold look at Mary, he finally said: "Well, since you are so stubborn, you can only go back to the clan, how do the elders deal with you!"

"Mary, I can warn you in advance... this time you made a mistake, I am afraid it will be a big mistake in a lifetime!"

"The rules of our blood family for thousands of years, you must be very clear... this disaster, I am afraid it is God, and God cannot help you."

After Katherine said these words indifferently, she turned and left.

As for Luo Lie in front of him, he glanced at Mary who was standing there dazed, sighed deeply, and could only snorted in his mouth, and followed the black widow Kathena upstairs.

The lonely Mary was standing alone downstairs at the moment, and a cold breeze blew on her tender body, her tender body trembled uncontrollably.

Disaster is about to come.

The vampires hidden around mankind for thousands of years are finally exposed to the world.

Although it is only the Internet, television, and other media information, the terrible news quickly swept across Italy.

Now whether it is a prosperous big city or a small town, everyone knows about vampires.

Although they haven't really seen a terrible vampire, at least they already know that there may be a vampire in this world.

This day is an extremely difficult day for Mary.

Her heart was very upset, she was sitting in the room alone now, not knowing what to do.

She knew in her heart that once she returned to the family, she might be punished terribly, but she couldn't take care of that much now. Now that the thing had happened, she could only keep going.

After she glanced at Li Tian lying on the ground one last time, she turned around and looked at the darkness outside the window silently.

After an hour, the door banged.

After Mary heard the sound, she walked quickly to open the door. After opening the door, she saw the black widow Katherine and Luo Lie standing at the door.

"time to go!"

Just listen to Black Widow Katherine suddenly speaking coldly to Mary in front of her.

Because they are vampires, they can only act at night.

Chapter 2066: Hunter

Mary nodded when she heard Katherine say this.

As before, Luo Lie walked into the room depressedly, and then carried the anesthetized Li Tian on his shoulders extremely reluctantly, and then strode downstairs.

They are leaving this small village.

After they arrived downstairs, the 50-something old woman not only looked at Mary and the others in surprise.

"You guys, you have to go."

"It's so late, are you leaving?" The old Italian woman in front of her said in surprise.

After hearing the old Italian woman say this, the very beautiful black widow Katherine showed a charming smile and said: "Yes."

"We like the night..."

The 50-something-year-old woman not only frowned when she heard the black widow Katherine say so.

"There is no village in this area for several tens of kilometers, so you guys just walk this big night... Don't you be afraid?" The 50-year-old Italian woman said to them very kindly.

I saw the black widow Katherine smile slightly and said: "Don't worry, we are afraid of everything, but we are not afraid of the night..."

Accompanied by the silver bells of the black widow Katherine in front of her, the woman in her 50s thought about it and said nothing more.

After leaving the house, Mary, Katherine and Lowe bid farewell to the old woman.

Then they walked out to the outside of the small hotel.

The old woman stood there, watching Mary and Black Widow Katherine and the others leave. After thinking about it, I'd better try to persuade them. After all, there are two women and a man walking in this dark night. Not very safe.

The kind old Italian woman walked out of the room quickly, when she was about to talk to Mary and the others, but when she got outside, she opened her eyes and saw that there were Mary and Catherine there.

There was no single figure on this empty avenue. Mary, who had just walked out, as well as Katsena, and Luo Lie, disappeared in such a moment.

The old Italian woman rubbed her eyes with a somewhat disbelieving gesture, glanced at the wide and lonely road in front of her, and was suddenly surprised there.

"How did you go so fast...the person disappeared in the blink of an eye?" The 50-something-year-old woman underestimated.

"These people are too strange..." After finally sighing, the old woman returned to the small hotel.

However, in the dark night, three swift figures are galloping fast.

They are that Mary, Black Widow Katherine, and Luo Lie.

Now they are far away from the small village just now, and they have flew out of the Nicholas Mountains at this moment, and they have been flying west there along the way.

Because the most western place is the territory of the Torrido family.

The westernmost point is the western region of Italy. Half of this western region is a continuous mountain range, there are deserts, and the other half is a barren virgin forest.

This is an area off the beaten track in Italy.

Because the area is upward and the altitude is extremely high, the air here is very thin, whether it is for human habitation or beasts, it is extremely difficult to survive, so there is almost no human smoke in the west.

But there are also very few people living here, but very few.

Mary, Katherine, and Lori are about to reach the Nabra Mountains. Once they enter the Bla Mountains, it indicates that they will enter the Torrido family territory.

The lair of the Torrido family is located in the mountains of the Nabla Mountains. One of them is called the Temple of Forgotten Temple, where they live.

According to their current speed, if no accidents happen, they should enter the Bra Mountains before dawn.

The three of them basically didn't say a word on the road now, and they flew very fast.

On a deserted road leading from the Nicolas Mountains to western Italy, I saw an old-fashioned Ford sedan from the 90s driving fast there.

This old Ford car is driving westward from the place in the Black Rock Forest.

The direction it was traveling was the same as the direction the vampire Mary and Katherine were going to reach.

How could this car come from the inaccessible Black Rock Forest?

The old Ford cars in the 90s are still very fast. Although the noise is not small, it does not affect its speed.

I saw a man and a woman sitting in this old Ford car.

The man is about 30 years old, handsome, with thick black hair and sharp eyes, driving a car there.

His dress is slightly offbeat, because he is wearing a black leather jacket with a crossbow on his back!

A crossbow used by soldiers in the 18th century.

Both hands are steady and strong, holding the steering wheel tightly, and staring at the front with sharp eyes.

If you look closely, there is a black tattoo on his right hand. The tattoo is something that looks like a sun symbol. It is round and engraved on his steady and powerful right hand.

Look at the woman sitting next to him. She is about 20 years old. She looks sweet, with red hair dangling there, her smart eyes blinking flickering and flickering, her nose is upright, and her small mouth is soft and sexy. .

This woman is petite, but she looks cute and sexy.

In particular, a western attire that suits her dressing up is more of her exceptional beauty.

She sat there quietly, holding a small white gold gun in each hand, playing there.

Those two platinum guns are very special. They are not only small but also beautiful. They look like precious works of art. But are these two platinum guns really works of art? No one knows.

Her  little mouth is still humming an unknown Italian country song, cute and sweet.

It's just that, on the right hand of this little beauty, there is also a weird symbol that resembles the sun, which is exactly the same as the handsome man driving a car. The patterns on their hands look like a certain religion.

At this moment, they are driving such an old Ford car from the 90s fast there.

Speeding all the way, the two barely spoke.

"Brother, do you think this attack in the Black Rock Forest was really done by the vampires of the Torrido family?" At this moment, the beautiful and attractive woman who was playing with platinum pistols in those two hands suddenly blinked with agile eyes. The handsome driving man who looked at him as the brother asked him.

The handsome man called the elder brother said, "This...I am not very clear at the moment!"

"However, I believe the answer will be known soon."

The glamorous girl continued to ask, "But, don't the Torrido family be enemies of humans? Don't they never take human blood?"

After the little beauty asked, the man called the elder brother frowned slightly and said, "According to the theory, this should be the case!"

"The Torrido family can be regarded as the kinder among the blood races, and they are also vampires who have never been enemies of our humans!"

"It's just that this time things are too strange, so brother must come here to have a look."

The little beauty blinked her eyes and thought for a while: "Then what if the Black Rock Forest attacked humans caused by the vampires of the Torrido family, then what should we do?"

The handsome man called the elder brother said directly and decisively: "Then we must fulfill the will of the hunters and kill them."

Vicious words came out of the handsome brother in front of him.

There was no hesitation in his mouth, decisive and direct.

It turns out that these men and women are humans and hunters!

In ancient legends, there have always been special sects. They have competed evenly with vampires for thousands of years. The name of this sect has been forgotten by the ancestors, but in the legend, this sect has always existed because of them. The spread of the blood must be restrained, otherwise once the blood is strong, humans will be in great danger. This legendary sect is called the hunter by the blood

Chapter 2067: track

And now, this handsome man in an old Ford sedan claims to be a hunter. Are they really the natural enemies of the blood race, the sect in that ancient legend?

I saw that the crossbow on his back had extremely strange power.

Although the crossbow hadn't been unsheathed yet, it could still feel an unknown force floating in the entire body.

What about that beautiful and smart girl?

After hearing the handsome man say this, he closed his mouth slightly at this moment, and continued to be silent there.

The old Ford sedan began to fly, and they chased quickly in the direction where Mary and Katherine flew.

Soon, I saw that this old Ford sedan had driven into the small village where Mary and Katherine lived.

After seeing the small village, I saw the handsome man, saying: "Tia, there is a small town in front of you. Shall we go there and take a rest..."

The beautiful girl named Tia nodded in approval and said, "Okay."

The handsome man drove the car around, and then drove quickly towards the small village.

After arriving in the small village, I saw the old Ford sedan with the iron gate open for a circle, and then decisively stopped in front of the small hotel in front.

Because this is the only place where this town can live.

After the handsome man in front of him stopped, he turned his head and said to Tia Dao behind him: "Tia, let's take a rest here."

The beautiful girl named Tia smiled and nodded, and then jumped out of the car with great agility.

Unexpectedly, this little beauty with a beautiful face would have such a quick skill.

The handsome man also got out of the car now.

At this moment, he glanced at the girl named Tia, the sign of the hotel was illuminated in front of him, and then stepped in.

The moment he walked in, a strange expression suddenly appeared on the handsome man's face, and the whole person stopped there for an instant.

Tia in front of her felt the abnormal change of her brother, not only was she taken aback, she looked at him and said, "Brother, what's wrong?"

The handsome man called the brother did not speak, but his sharp eyes suddenly scanned the entire hotel in front of him.

After watching it for a full minute, he suddenly muttered in his mouth: "Tia, do you feel that this place is full of peculiar smell?"

The girl named Tia suddenly frowned when she heard her brother say so, and then started to sniff with her nose.

After taking a deep breath, she shook her head depressed.

"Brother, I didn't feel anything."

The handsome man not only sighed slightly after hearing Tia's words.

"It seems that you still need more practice, the professor is right...you are not enough to be born to deal with those vampires!" the handsome man in front of him said.

After the little beauty Tia heard what her brother said, her tender face suddenly showed a very unwilling expression.

"Brother, what's wrong with me?"

Just listen to the handsome man staring at the surroundings with sharp eyes and saying: "This place is full of blood...If I guess correctly, in a very short time, there has definitely been a vampire here."

After the handsome man in front of her suddenly said this, the girl called Tia was stunned there for an instant.

"what?"

"Brother, did you say that there are vampires here?" Tia said, while a slender hand suddenly touched his waist.

In her waist were the two small platinum pistols.

I saw that handsome man smiled slightly and said, "Tia, don't be so nervous! Currently, those vampires have already left... However, I'm sure these vampires definitely left a few hours ago."

After the handsome man said this, Tia was slightly relieved.

"Brother, you scared me..."

The handsome man smiled, and stroked his sister's beautiful red hair with his hand and said, "Don't worry, Tia, as long as I am here, no vampire will dare to hurt you."

Tia chuckled, showing two shallow dimples on her beautiful face.

But he said that while the brother and sister were talking, suddenly the voice of an old woman over there came.

"Hey, what do you do? Live in a store or drink?" The older woman who came by was asking the brother and sister in front of her.

That old woman is just the old woman at the bar in her 50s.

After the old woman's voice was uttered, the handsome man and Tia not only turned their faces and saw her.

"Hello, we are here to rest." The handsome man in front of him said in his uneasy Italian language.

The old woman blinked her eyes and glanced at Tia, who was wearing a different style, and the handsome man, not only frowned and said, "It's a stranger again..."

"Why in the past few days, strangers always pass by our backcountry town!"

The old woman said that as she walked over and glanced at Tia and the handsome man in front of her.

She saw that the two were dressed strangely and behaved like Italians, so she asked, "Are you not Italians?"

I saw that handsome man smiled and said, "Your vision is really good... We are indeed not Italians, we are Americans!"

"Oh! It turned out to be an American!" said the old Italian woman.

"Hey, how did you two Americans come to our small town? It's really strange?" The old woman in front of me suddenly asked suspiciously.

I saw that handsome man smiled awkwardly after hearing the old woman say this, thought for a while and said: "We passed by here..."

When the old woman heard the handsome man saying this when passing by, she was not only stunned: "Passing by again? It's weird...There are no villages in the western region, so why do you all pass by our small town? It's weird."

After the handsome man heard the old woman say this, he was not only taken aback.

"Old man, what did you just say? Did you say that someone had a hard time passing here before?" The handsome man asked suddenly.

While walking towards the bar, the old woman said in her mouth: "Yes, a few hours ago, there were two women and a man resting in our shop. When it was dark, they just Suddenly left..."

"You are now in the second wave... My small hotel has been open for almost ten years. It is the first time for a good business like today." The old woman in front of me said there. .

Listening to the old woman in front of him say this, the handsome man suddenly frowned.

"Old man, could you please tell me carefully about the situation of those few people?"

"And when did they leave?" the handsome man in front of him asked suddenly.

The woman in her 50s was not only taken aback, she asked, "What are you asking people for?"

The handsome man thought for a while and said, "In fact, it's nothing...just curiosity...please tell me something."

The old woman thought for a while, in fact, it didn't matter if she talked about it. Anyway, she herself was bored, so she just said, "Okay, then I'll talk to you..."

"In fact, the group of people who left before feels quite strange." The old woman muttered there.

Tia immediately said: "What a strange method?"

The old woman said: "Of those four people, one of them was in a coma, and two women with good-looking faces came to my small hotel early yesterday morning. After they checked in, they slept all day. For a whole day, they barely came down to my little hotel... They came out just when it was dark! After they came out, they said they wanted to leave... They disappeared in no time."

After listening to this old woman, the handsome man in front of him frowned, his mouth underestimated and said, "It looks like a vampire has come here..."

Tia looked at her brother and asked there, "Brother, what shall we do now?"

Just listen to the handsome man and say: "Go, let's go after them."

Tia said, "Okay!"

So the two of them ran out of the small hotel in front of them without saying a word.

When the old woman saw the man and woman running out like this, she was not only taken aback.

"Hey, don't you stay in the store anymore? Don't you take a rest?" The old woman asked quickly.

But seeing Nadia running out, she turned around and said, "Old lady, we are no longer staying in the store, thank you..."

As they were talking, they jumped into the old Ford sedan in front of them vigorously, and then the car hummed and drove to the front under the start of the handsome man.

Chapter 2068: came back

The handsome man in Tia just drove the old Ford car in front of him quickly toward the west.

After the old woman chased him out, she saw Nadia and the handsome man driving away, she couldn't help muttering in her heart: "Why are these people going to the west?"

"This place to the west is uninhabited and extremely desolate...it is weird, weird."

While muttering in her mouth, the old woman was stunned while looking at the direction of the car.

Of course she didn't know what was going on.

...

"Tia, remember my words, after seeing the vampires of the Torrido family, don't do it rashly!" On the wide and deserted road, I saw the old Ford car from the 90s driving fast. With.

Two headlights of the car shone brightly in the distance.

The beautiful girl named Tia blinked her eyes and looked at her brother in front of her and said, "Brother, why?"

"Because the professor said that the Torrido family is by no means evil vampires, they are human friends..." the handsome man told Diado in front of him.

Tia thought for a while and said: "But since the vampires of the Torrido family are good, how could this cruel incident of attacking humans in the Blackstone Forest happen?"

The handsome man frowned slightly and said, "I am not very clear about this now... But I believe we will investigate it clearly."

Tia remained silent.

After a while, but Nadia asked, "Brother, can we still catch up with those vampires now?"

The handsome man in front of him said: "I don't know!"

"If we can't, we can only go to the old nest of the Torrido family."

Tia asked, "Where is the nest of the Torrido family?"

"In the Forgotten Temple in the Bla Mountains." The handsome man finally said.

The Bula mountain range is one of the ten most famous mountain ranges in the world.

Among them, the Middle East in the Bua Mountains are all extinct volcanoes. Some of those volcanoes do not erupt all year round, and some will erupt after three to five years. The violent magma that erupts completely removes the central and western parts of Bua Mountains Damaged.

Everything there was damaged, trees were burned, and even the color of the earth was burned to the color of red carbon by magma.

So here is no man's land.

At this moment, in the western region of the Bula Mountain Range, three swiftly flying figures were flying quickly.

They were shocked that it was Mary, the black widow Katherine who hurried back to the family, and the strong man Luo Lie.

The three people's body skills are fast, passing through the endless forest sea, like wind.

Soon, they passed through the dense forest. The farther they went, the more they could feel the scarcity of trees and the scorching heat from the soil.

The dense barren forest gradually disappeared, and the rising mountains gradually came into view.

Those mountains are the extremely famous volcanoes in the Bla Mountains.

I saw these volcanic groups undulating, extending more than 100,000 kilometers, and traversing the entire central and western regions of Italy...

The volcanoes are different, some are tall and some are small, but around these volcanoes, they are not born early.

Standing in the endless volcanoes, the black widow Katherine blinked her beautiful eyes and said: "I'm going home finally."

It turned out that the old nest of the Torrido family was built behind the volcanoes. After passing through this endless volcanoes, you can reach the legendary Temple of Forgotten.

The Torrido family site, one of the thirteen blood clan.

Mary also glanced at the volcanoes, and she also knew that she was about to enter her family.

At this moment, after taking a glance at the volcanoes in front, she not only looked back at Li Tian on Luo Lie's back with worry.

Because this is about to reach the territory of the Torrido family, and the blood flowing on Li Tian's body is the blood of the Gangelo family! His blood, as long as members of the Torrido family look at it, they can feel it.

The Torrido family and the Gangaluo family are deadly enemies. If Li Tiannai is found to be a vampire from the Gangaluo family, what will be the consequences?

This is what Mary is most worried about now.

The black widow Katherine, who was standing in front, glanced at the endless extinct volcanoes in front of her, and suddenly turned her head and said: "Let's go, go back to the family soon."

Luo Lie dully replied "Okay!"

Then the two stretched out and flew over the red soil burned by the magma in front of them.

Mary here also rushed over very quickly, although she is deeply worried about Li Tian in her heart, but what can she do? She can only do her best.

The three quickly passed through a deserted place in front of them, and then their figures reached the bottom of the extinct volcano group.

Looking at the rolling extinct volcanoes in front of them, how should they travel through?

I glanced sharply, but saw that the black widow Katherine was the first to fly to the highest volcano in front of her.

And Luo Lie and Mary quickly followed.

When they all reached the tallest extinct volcano, they suddenly discovered that there was a dark cave in the middle of this tall extinct volcano.

The cave entrance is more than two meters wide and extremely deep, and it is impossible to see the bottom at a glance.

I really don't know if such a weird cave was formed naturally or caused by man.

But saying that after the three of them arrived in front of the cave, the black widow Katherine turned her charming face and glanced at Mary behind her.

"Mary, are you coming first or me first?" she said with a full smile.

Mary snorted: "I'm first!"

Black Widow Katherine smiled when Mary said that, "Okay."

Then, seeing Mary walked over first, without even looking, her body flashed directly into the black volcanic cave.

And the Black Widow Katherine and Luo Lie followed one after another.

After entering this cave, I found that layers of hot air are constantly pouring up from the ground, and the surrounding rocks are hot, and the fingers will be hot when they touch them.

It really is a volcano!

At this moment, only Mary was swiftly shuttled through the black cave, they seemed to be very familiar with the cave.

After less than half an hour, the three of them had successfully passed through the dead volcanic cave in front of them.

The exit is just ahead, and the stars can already be seen faintly.

Out!

They really got out, and at the moment they got out, the dark sky reappeared in their eyes.

On the sky, the stars are shining shiningly.

Look carefully at the outside world, there is no heaven!

Who can imagine the barren burnt scorched earth and ruins on the side of the extinct volcanoes, and the back side? But it was shaded by green trees, and a dense and huge forest appeared in their eyes.

Arrived! They passed through the extinct volcanoes!

Arrived in the territory of the Torrido family!

Chapter 2069: protector

In front of them, starting from this area, they have already entered the scope of the Torrido family, because this ancient forest is occupied by the vampires of the Torrido family.

"Let's go, back to the temple!" The black widow Katherine in front of her suddenly smiled, and then walked forward step by step with light steps.

Luo Lie followed closely, and Mary stood there blankly for a few seconds, and then she slowly followed.

After passing a small intestine path, he was about to enter the dense forest in front of him.

I saw an old wooden sign hanging outside the dense forest. The wooden sign had a skull painted with blood, meaning: This is the meaning of a restricted area for humans!

Katherine walked in the front and hummed a song while Luo Lie followed him closely.

And Mary? When she returned to the family turf, her face had never smiled, gloomy and ugly.

The dense forest in front of you was called by the vampires of the Torrido family: Twisted Forest.

In this twisted forest grows one by one ancient and strange ancient trees. It is not known how many years those ancient trees have grown here, with luxuriant branches and vines clinging to the ground and branches one by one.

The sturdy branches can not be held by a person with arms!

The dense and luxuriant vines covered this forest... and even the scorching sun could not shine on this mysterious ancient forest.

There are almost no animals in this twisted forest except for the unusually lush vegetation, even wild rabbits and flying birds...

The entire twisted forest was deadly silent, terrifying, and scary.

And the Temple of Forgotten Lair of the Torrido family was built in this twisted forest.

The black widow Katherine walked gently in front of her, with a pleasant smile on her face.

Where is Luo Lie behind him? He was following there like a follower, except that Mary looked sad.

As they reached the middle of the twisted forest, they suddenly heard the sound of extremely fast wind coming from deep in the dense forest.

And there is definitely more than one. Judging from the sound, there should be 34 extremely fast things flying towards them.

Suddenly, when 34 fast objects were flying towards them, the black widow Kathena who was walking suddenly showed a weird smile.

"Here... they are here!"

Following her words, Luo Lie in front of him suddenly threw the anesthetized Li Tian on his shoulders to the ground with a bang, and then looked at the place ahead with his eyes wide open.

And Mary? He quickly stood in front of Li Tian who was thrown on the ground, with a nervous and cautious expression on his face, looking at the depths of the rusty woods ahead.

She seemed to be protecting Li Tian there.

At this moment, all of a sudden, I just heard the sound getting closer.

Whoosh, whoosh, whoosh.

In a blink of an eye, three extremely fast figures suddenly appeared in front of Mary, the black widow Kathena, and Na Luolie.

It is three men.

No, they are three male vampires! Three vampires of the Torrido family!

Look closely at the three vampires of the Torrido family. They are wearing weird clothes. Their clothes seem to be made of a series of branches and leaves of a big tree. They have dark skin and indifferent appearance.

A face is grim, and his eyes are brown weird.

The three guys were all about the same height and body shape, standing coldly in front of Mary, Katherine, and Luo Lie.

Who are these three guys?

It turns out that they are the guardians of this twisted forest...Although they are also vampires of the Toledo family, they have been stationed outside here. In this twisted forest, their task is to protect the Toledo family in front of them. Security, guarding this twisted forest that only the vampires of the Torrido family can enter "Guardian, you are here..." When the glamorous black widow Katherine saw the three cold men coming out, she looked at them with a smile on her charming face and said.

The three guardians of the Torrido family said in unison at this moment: "Yes, Miss Katsena."

The voices of the three of them were almost identical, and they spoke very neatly.

I saw that Katherine smiled, and said: "Check it soon...After the check, this lady will go back to the temple and take a hot bath!"

Katherine said with a charming smile.

It turns out that every vampire who enters the Toledo family has to be checked by the guardian. No matter who it is, even the vampire of the Toledo family has to be checked by the guardian.

This is the duty of the guardian!

I saw one of the guardians walked slightly to the black widow Katherine's side, used his nose to sniff around her body, and suddenly nodded silently there.

"Miss Katherine, you can go in!" The guardian said after examining the black widow Katherine in front of him.

The black widow Katherine smiled at the corner of her mouth, then walked forward step by step with her plump buttocks twisted.

The guardian then began to check the tall and strong bald Luo Lie.

Luo Lie stood motionless like a door god, letting the guardian in front of him check, and the guardian quickly finished checking Luo Lie.

Luo Lie then also strode forward surgingly.

At this moment, only Mary is left, and Li Tian, the narcotic vampire hiding behind him.

"Miss Mary, it's your turn!" Just listen to the guardian approaching her step by step, and then said indifferently.

As the guardian walked towards Mary step by step, Mary's pale face became increasingly ugly. Standing motionless there, frowning tightly.

What should she do now? These guardians are known for their ruthlessness in the Torrido family, and they are extremely powerful.

Anything threatening the family... they will eradicate it! Including Li Tian.

And Mary is now in a dilemma here.

Just as the guardian approached Mary step by step, suddenly the guardian's face was distorted, and his nose suddenly sucked deeply, as if he was smelling something that shouldn't be smelled.

"Damn it! A beast from the Gangelo family broke in!" A roar came out first from the guardian's mouth.

Then he saw that his whole body became hideous, his sharp fangs, and violent body were instantly filled with killing intent, behind the Mary who was staring at him.

He smelled it!

Smell the blood of the Gangelo Family on Li Tian!

But said that the other two guardians, after hearing what he said, suddenly entered a violent posture, with their fangs stretched out, and a pair of eyes instantly turned into terrible bloodthirsty rays. Mary in front of her was surrounded tightly.

"Mary, you made a big mistake!"

"You brought back something you shouldn't have brought back..."

"Mary, while there is still a choice, let us quickly kill the beast behind you...otherwise, don't blame our ruthless men." The three guardians in front of them suddenly faced their eyes with grim faces. Mary said angrily.

They saw the threat! Li Tian threatened the safety of the Torrido family.

Now, these vampires, who are called the guardians of the twisted forest, must kill Li Tian.

Chapter 2070: Kill them

But what about Mary at this moment?

She already knew that the Gangeluo blood aura on Li Tian must be smelled by the guardian.

So she didn't explain too much now, she just stood in front of Li Tian, and then looked at the three guardians in front of her and said: "Can't kill him...he is a good man!"

"Mary, do you know what you are talking about? The beast behind you belongs to the Gangelo family... don't you know?" The guardian said angrily to Mary.

But seeing Mary said: "I know."

"But it was because of me that he was bitten by a beast of the Gangelo family... and I brought him back to the family this time to beg the elders to use the blood sacrifice method to rescue him! He will naturally return to adulthood at that time Kin... Never become a vampire again." Mary said.

"silly!"

"Sad Mary, Torrido has been at odds with the beasts of the Gangelo family for thousands of years. Now you dare to openly bring a new beast from the Gangelo family into the territory of our Torrido family..."

"Mary, I would advise you again, let us kill him as soon as possible, otherwise, we will kill him together." The guardian in front of you said in a cold voice, there was no feeling in their words, just like that Mary. Once they refused, they would really kill Mary in front of them.

Mary opened her hands and protected Li Tian in front of her.

She swears to death and will not give up Li Tian.

After Mary refused, she saw the three guardians in front of her, and her killing intent rose instantly.

"Well, since you have done something against the safety of your family, then we can only kill you!"

As one of the guardians said so, he suddenly roared, and his whole body flashed in front of Mary. A terrifying cold hand grabbed Mary's neck instantly.

As if she was really going to kill Mary.

Mary knew in her heart that the words spoken by these guardians were definitely not joking.

Because their birth duty is to protect the safety of the Toledo family, and they have the elder's personal instructions, no matter who it is, as long as the safety of the Toledo family is threatened, they will be killed!

And now, Mary and Li Tian, who had the blood of the Gangelo family, were thought to have affected the safety of the Torrido family, so the guardian could only kill him!

With the fatal blow of the guardian in front of her, Mary hurriedly reached out to block.

She must protect Li Tian, even if she kills herself!

As she reached out to block, with a bang, her arm collided with one of the guardian's arms.

A tingling pain suddenly passed from that Mary's arm, and at the same time her delicate body couldn't help backing... It was obvious that Mary was not the opponent of these twisted jungle guards.

As Mary was repelled, another guardian suddenly rushed towards Li Tian who was lying on the ground.

It was clear that he wanted to kill the anesthetized Li Tian.

Just as he lunged, Mary yelled: "Don't..."

Then the whole body whizzing, flashed over, blocking in front of Li Tian.

With a bang, the guardian hit Mary's body with a scream, and Dr. Mary screamed, and her body was blown up... with a plop, it hit a tree vine with a thick wrist, and it clicked, hard. The vine was broken alive by Mary's delicate body.

The guardians of these twisted jungles are really not weak!

But she said that Mary, who was hit hard by the guardian to the ground at once, endured the piercing pain in her body at this moment, and slowly got up.

She swore to the death to protect Li Tian.

When she got up again, the black widow Katherine and Na Luo Lie who had already walked over here not only gave birth to a pair of sympathetic eyes looking at Mary there.

"Mary this idiot...!!!" The black widow Katherine in front of her suddenly contemptuously said to Mary who was swearing to protect Li Tian.

Luo Lie, who was next to him, frowned tightly and said: "Why does Miss Mary insist on saving a beast that has nothing to do with her? And not even afraid of death?"

"Because of love!" Suddenly the three words came out of the black widow Katherine's mouth. As she said, she sneered there.

The bald Luo Lie was immediately depressed after hearing the words of Black Widow Katherine. He stretched out a hand to hold the naked head there, and looked at Black Widow Katherine depressedly and said: "What ?Because of love? What is love?"

Listening to this guy's words, the black widow Katherine suddenly stared at the strong man Luo Lie in front of her.

"You fool, you can't understand! Humph, I still don't bother to explain to you!"

After Black Widow Katherine coldly humiliated Luo Lie before her, she never paid attention to him again.

When they were talking, the three guardians attacked again.

Now they felt that Mary was also threatening the safety of the Torrido family, so these guardians, one by one, were killer moves, leaving no room for Mary at all. They clearly wanted to kill that Mary.

Mary fought hard, but how could she be the opponent of these guardians?

Without a few moves, Mary was hit by the three guardians again and fell to the ground.

This time, Mary was hurt so badly that her body could no longer stand up, her eyes flashed with desperate light, while panting, she stared at Li Tian who was lying on the ground with red eyes.

"Miss Mary, I'm dying... I'm about to be killed by the guardian!!!" Luo Lie in front of her couldn't help but feel depressed and shocked when he saw the upcoming result.

The black widow Katherine in front of her was also hesitant, looking there.

"Hey... we have no way, we can't help Mary!"

"This is her choice." The black widow Katherine sighed weakly, and Luo Lie's eyes also showed regret.

Yes, the black widow had persuaded Mary before, but Mary insisted on saving Li Tian.

Now something terrible is coming...Even Black Widow Katherine can't help that Mary anymore.

I saw that Mary fell to the ground and couldn't help gasping. Although her delicate body could no longer move, she still tried hard to crawl towards the Li Tian not far from her.

She crawled so hard, so painful.

There are crystal tears in her beautiful eyes.

According to the truth, vampires should not have tears, but they did not expect Mary to shed tears...

The tragic scene appeared in everyone's eyes. Mary crawled hard, while calling Li Tian's name in her mouth.

"Lee..."

"I'm sorry... I'm sorry... I can't save you..." There was despair and regret in her voice.

What about Li Tian? At the moment, the anesthesia is still there and motionless, I don't know if I heard Mary's last voice.
