

A Killer 2071

Chapter 2071: violent

The guardians of the Torrido family have no feelings!

Seeing Mary so painful, there is no trace of pity at all.

They just glanced at Mary coldly, and then said murderously: "Mary, you deserved your sins, and you blatantly brought the beasts that endangered the family into the Torrido territory. Now we represent the highest glory of the Torrido family and sentence you to death !"

"Kill him!" the guardian's ruling voice came out of his mouth.

Kill Mary!

When Mary heard these words, she was there in despair.

However, fortunately at this moment, her trembling hand grabbed the anesthetized Li Tian's hand.

And here's the black widow Katherine and Na Luolie? When they were about to see Mary being killed by this guardian, their eyes not only showed regret.

I saw one of the guardians, ready to execute!

He is going to kill Mary.

I saw that guardian, after walking to Mary coldly, took out a black moon-shaped head from his body.

This first name is: Moon Blade! It is the ancient head of the Torrido family. This head has extremely powerful power. Whether it is a human or a vampire, as long as it is stabbed by the moon blade, it will die... Even the vampire with an immortal body Will also be killed by Moon Blade.

At this moment, one of the guardians took out the most terrifying execution of the Torrido family: Moon Blade.

The black moonblade exudes terrible power under the starlight.

Then the guardian viciously raised the moon blade in his hand, and then stabbed it towards Mary's body.

He is going to kill Mary.

Seeing that Mary was about to be killed there alive by their family's sacred object, Moonblade, there was a sudden scream of hostility and burst out from Mary's side.

He woke up!

It was the man who had always been called a beast by the Torrido family who woke up.

His body has mutated.

His roaring voice was full of terrible and cruel atmosphere.

With his roar, Mary raised her eyes in disbelief, and saw the "wild beast!"

Li Tian.

He actually wakes up at this moment... Don't know if it's because Mary moved him? It was because the black widow Katherine's anesthetic dart lost its medicine, but no matter what, now the mutated Li Tian is awake.

He was so terrible, his breath was like a wild and hungry beast, roaring there.

"Lee!"

A word of shock came out of Mary's mouth. She would never have thought that Li Tian would suddenly wake up at such a critical juncture.

And the black widow Katherine over there, as well as the fierce man Luo Lie, were also stunned for an instant after seeing Li Tian's soberness.

"Oh my God, the beast of the Gangelo family actually awoke?" Luo Lie said in disbelief.

Katherine here was also speechless.

"How could he wake up? After hitting so many anaesthetic darts... there is no reason to wake up... He was sober in less than a day?" Katherine said speechlessly.

You must know that her narcotic darts are extremely powerful. Under normal circumstances, a vampire who hits a narcotic dart will have to be in a coma for at least two days!

But now? How many narcotic darts did Li Tianzhong have that black widow Katherine... and he was sober so soon? How can this not make Black Widow Katherine feel depressed!

However, after Li Tian was sober, the three guardians over there suddenly stared at the mutant Li Tian.

"Don't worry about Mary, kill this beast of the Gangelo family first!" The guardian over there said coldly.

The other two guardians who looked similar to him quickly nodded their heads after hearing his words, and then the three of them formed a triangular posture, all surrounding Li Tian.

What about the sober Li Tian? His face was twisted, his fangs stretched out, and the two hands pressed against the cold ground were already deeply sunk in the cold soil.

There was a terrifying and cruel bloodthirsty aura in his eyes... he glanced at the three guardians surrounding him terribly.

"Kill him! Kill this beast of the Gangelo family."

Accompanied by a roar, the one holding the Toredo family's supreme holy artifact: Moonblade, the guardian in his hand, rushed towards Li Tian first.

His speed was so fast that the whole person had flashed behind that Li Tian in the blink of an eye, with the vicious and terrifying Moon Blade in his hand, and then stab Li Tian's back with a knife.

It is undeniable that the guardian of the Torrido family is indeed extremely powerful.

But even if they are tougher, can they beat the now completely mutated Li Tian?

I saw that the guardian arrived at Li Tian's back in an instant, took the moon blade to Li Tian's heart, swish, but saw that Li Tian's figure disappeared instantly!

What disappears is more agile than electricity and light!

Mary didn't see clearly...Neither did the black widow Katherine and Luo Lie see clearly...They didn't even see how Li Tian disappeared!

It flashed just when he saw his figure, and then disappeared into their eyes.

They froze.

Not only were they stunned, even the Guardian who stabbed Li Tianhou's back with the moon blade viciously was completely stunned...because he didn't know that Li Tian would disappear so fast, it was incredible. To the point.

At the moment he was stunned, suddenly behind him, a terrifying beast figure suddenly rushed towards him.

Like a tiger, like a mad lion.

The other two guardians were shocked when they saw that their companions were about to encounter danger, and hurriedly shouted, "Be careful behind you..."

But it was too late.

Because Li Tian's speed is too fast.

So fast that the guardian has no chance to react...

Just heard a scream, and then in the shock of Mary, the black widow Katherine, and Luo Lie's eyes, the guardian was suddenly pressed to the ground by the cruel Li Tian.

After pressing it on the ground, Li Tian's claws were suddenly and terribly stuffed into the guardian's chest... He snorted, blood splattered, and the blood flowing out of the guardian's stomach continued to flow from Li Tian The arm began to trickle down.

Where is the guardian? Li Tian pierced his entire stomach with one hand, screaming with pain, and the moon blade in his hand fell to the ground at this moment.

A shocking scene, a very * scene!

Who can imagine that Li Tian is so ferocious...Even the powerful Guardian can't stand his fatal blow!!!

That Mary, and Black Widow Katherine, and Na Luolie had already looked dumb.

There was a look of horror in their eyes.

Chapter 2072: Fatal danger

"Oh my God, the first beast of the Gangaluo family...and...and...too powerful!" Luo Lie said in shock.

And what about Black Widow Katherine?

It was also completely stunned.

She glared at the beastly Li Tian, and suddenly said: "It's really man, really sexy...If he is not a beast of the Gangaro family, it would be great..." This black widow Kai As Senna was talking, there was a boundless spring in her eyes suddenly.

She is really coquettish and slutty!

But what about this side?

After the two guardians saw their companions being pressed to the ground by Li Tian, they all flew over and rescued their companions.

Two figures flashed to Li Tian's body, but seeing Li Tianao's body upright, avoiding the two men's fatal attack, both hands suddenly grabbed the guardian who was pressed on the ground, and then he threw him away fiercely.

The guardian was thrown out, banged, fell on a tree, and then bounced back and fell to the ground. His stomach was bleeding constantly, but he was holding one hand there. , The other hand is climbing up hard.

He is not dead!

Guardians will not die so easily, after all, they all have immortality.

But he was indeed injured, and he was breathing hard at that moment, and the whole person had already lost the fighting power he deserved.

And the two guardians here are still facing Li Tian in front of them.

They must protect the Torrido family, because this is their mission as guardians.

Even if they knew that they couldn't play against the powerful Li Tian of the Gangeuro family that they embraced for the first time, they would not shrink back.

At this moment, I saw the two guardians staring at Li Tian.

Ready to fight to the death.

What about Li Tian? Still maintaining his brutal beast breath.

"kill!"

With a burst of shout, the two guardians suddenly rushed towards Li Tian in front of him, their movements were agile and fast, and the combined force of the two was still terrifying enough.

Li Tian's figure flashed, and in a blink of an eye, he avoided the fatal blow of the two.

After seeing Li Tian avoiding, the two guardians once again rushed towards Li Tian in front of them.

After they pounced again, that Li Tian did not avoid this time, but greeted the two guardians in front of him.

Bang Bang Bang, the three quickly fought against each other in a changing body.

Then with a pop, they separated.

After the separation, I saw the guardian two guys panting sharply... and what about Li Tian? But he was still lying on the ground cruelly, like a crawling animal, with bloodthirsty eyes staring at the two guardians.

Obviously, those two guardians could not be Li Tian's opponent at all! Even if the two of them went together, it would be difficult to defeat Li Tian.

Although the current Li Tian has not recovered his consciousness at all, although he has not really recovered to his previous self, if Li Tian can recover his consciousness and return to his previous self? His martial arts plus the vampire blood of the corpse king Yuris flowing in his body...the degree of horror can be imagined!

But even now Li Tian hasn't recovered his consciousness, he is already very powerful.

The two guardians of the Torrido family in front of him could not defeat him either.

At this moment, Li Tian started.

The violent blood in his body has skyrocketed, and he can't help his hunger, thirst and bloodshed.

With a roar of anger, he rushed towards the two guardians in terror.

But seeing the two guardians of the Torrido family, and seeing Li Tian rushing forward, his body quickly dodged and then counterattacked towards Li Tian.

But they can rival Li Tian who is now violent?

One inadvertently saw one of the guardians and was instantly grasped by Li Tian with one hand. Then, after hearing a scream, Li Tian suddenly threw him away.

With a bang, the guardian's body fell heavily on the cold ground ten meters away.

The other guardian took advantage of this effort to attack Li Tian.

Suddenly an icy hand grabbed Li Tian's shoulder, and his sharp long nails penetrated deeply into Li Tian's flesh, but Li Tian didn't know the slightest pain, and suddenly turned his face away. Looking at the guardian in front of him cruelly.

The guardian was taken aback, and instantly felt a huge fear attacking him.

Then just before he could react, Li Tian kicked him and kicked him out.

After the guardian was kicked by Li Tian and fell to the ground, before he could get up, Li Tian's violent body flew over, and then immediately pressed the guardian to the ground, with long pointed fangs. , And bit at the guardian's neck at once.

Bloody and brutal.

Just when the guardian was about to be slaughtered alive in a beast-like posture by Li Tian, an exclamation suddenly came from behind.

"Lee...no!"

That is Mary's voice.

At the moment when he heard Mary's voice in amazement, Li Tian, who was originally violent, stopped for a moment.

He did not continue to bite the guardian's neck with his pointed fangs, but lay there blankly, with bloodthirsty eyes open, and a beastly and terrifying breath in his mouth...

Li Tian actually stopped.

It turned out that in Li Tian's heart, he was still a little conscious.

I saw that when Li Tian stopped, the three guardians were all stunned...

Not only were they stunned, but even the black widow Katherine and Na Luolie over there were all stunned.

"This...this...the first admirer of the Gangaluo family, how could it be so powerful? Impossible!!!"
Luo Lie stared at that.

Of course they wouldn't know that Li Tian's body had the blood of the Gangelo family...if they knew it, they would certainly understand why Li Tian became like this when he embraced him for the first time. powerful.

What about Katherine, the Black Widow? Also staring at everything in front of me blankly.

"Li, don't kill our people." At this moment, Mary climbed up from the ground with difficulty, and looked at Li Tiandao as if praying.

After Li Tian heard Mary's voice, his animal body slowly disappeared some hostility... Then slowly turned his head and saw Mary in front of him.

Mary approached him step by step to stop him!

She didn't want Li Tianzhen to become the enemy of the people! Because she also hopes that the elders of the Torrido family can heal Li Tian...heal the vampire blood on him.

But when Mary was about to stop Li Tian, who could imagine that the guardian of the Toledo family who was thrown to the ground by Li Tian suddenly reached out and picked up the previous Toledo family saint who had fallen to the ground. Object: Moon Blade.

Li Tian turned his back to the guardian at this moment, and he didn't have any consciousness, so he didn't feel any danger at all.

He just blinked and slowly changed the twisted face, staring at Mary at this moment.

Chapter 2073: Lord Roger

Just as Mary approached Li Tian step by step, the moment her hand was about to grab Li Tian's arm...

The guardian behind suddenly raised the black deadly in his hand: Moon Blade!

"Go to hell, the beast of the Gangelo family!"

Accompanied by a roar and a flutter, the guardian took the black "moon blade" and plunged deeply into the back of Li Tian in front of him.

what

A cry of pain that shook heaven and earth came out of Li Tian's mouth.

His voice is so painful, so sad...

Moon Blade was originally designed to deal with vampires, but one can imagine what kind of terrible situation will occur after this stabbing Li Tian! ! !

When the moon blade pierced Li Tian's body for an instant, Mary was stunned for an instant!

The black widow Kathena and Luo Lie were also momentarily shocked there. They didn't expect that the guardian would actually pierce the moon blade into Li Tian's body at this moment.

The scene seemed to freeze for an instant.

The only thing that can be heard is Li Tian's extremely painful cry.

After Li Tian's scream came out, he suddenly became angry.

The face that had already recovered, suddenly became savage and mad again...Suddenly he turned his head, and grabbed the guardian's head with a hand in terror.

The guardian didn't expect that after he stabbed him with the moon blade, he could still move. The whole person was completely stunned at the moment, and he even forgot to avoid it!

Click!

Li Tian's brutal hand directly smashed the head of the vampire...

In a blink of an eye, the guardian's entire head turned into a mass of plasma.

died!

Li Tian actually shattered his brain.

Although he was a vampire with an immortal body, his head was destroyed by Li Tian's violence.

A guardian of the Torrido family was killed alive by Li Tianji.

The other two guardians of the Torrido family who were still alive were still able to fight when they saw Li Tianbei's moonblade stabbed, and they were all confused!

When they had guarded the Torrido family for hundreds of years, they had never met such a terrifying "beast" and was shocked there.

Where's the black widow Katherine here, and that of Luo Lie? Also all startled.

I saw a black moon blade stuck behind Li Tian, and piercing pain came to Li Tian's whole body in bursts. Li Tian screamed as if he couldn't bear such pain.

His face was extremely distorted, his hideous fangs stretched out there, and he screamed with sorrow and screams.

Seeing Li Tian's pain in front of her, Mary felt extremely distressed.

He quickly walked over, preparing to hold Li Tian who was trembling with convulsions.

"Lee..."

But just when Mary arrived at Li Tian's side, Li Tian's violent body suddenly shook, and Mary's arm was directly hit against Mary's body.

With a bang, Mary was directly shocked by Li Tian's violent breath, and with a plop, her body fell heavily to the ground, making it difficult to get up.

Li Tian is completely crazy now.

Coupled with the physical tingling, Li Tian at the moment was really unbearable. He knelt on the ground in pain, his body trembling violently, and the blood vessels on his pale face were swelling.

Just as Li Tian was crazy about it at this moment, the bell of "Dang, Dang, Dang" suddenly came from the depths of the twisted forest.

The bell was so strange that when it rang, it gave people a sense of death.

"The bell is ringing!" Suddenly a word came out from the black widow Katherine's mouth in shock. Following her voice, Na Luo Lie not only twisted his head, but quickly looked back.

At this moment, the rustling sound suddenly passed through the dense forest in front.

Judging from the rustling movement, there are definitely no less than 5 people coming, and they are very fast, coming from the depths of the dark dense forest in front of them towards Li Tian and the black widow Katherine. .

what?

Is it still the vampire guardian of the Torrido family?

Do not!

I watched it carefully, but as the rustling sound of movement got closer and closer, I suddenly saw only a few blood shadows reaching the scene in front of me at an extremely fast speed.

Then, their figures suddenly appeared in front of the black widow Katherine, Lowe, and Mary.

Here are six mysterious guys.

"Earl Roger..." Suddenly the horrified words came from the black widow Katherine's mouth. After speaking, she suddenly knelt on one knee, and her whole body kowtow.

And what about Luo Lie? Almost the same as Black Widow Katherine, she knelt down at the same time and yelled in the same way: Count Roger!

Obviously, the identity of the person who came is extremely high in the Torrido family!

I saw who was the man called Earl Roger?

Look carefully, but in the middle of the six Jiao Fitness Shadows, standing is a cold-looking Italian man with thick black eyebrows and a beard. When he looks at the person with brown eyes, it gives a good impression. Kind of cold and chilly air.

His person is burly and tall, coupled with the silver cloak he wears, it is even more heroic and burly.

He is Lord Roger!

In addition to the two elders of the Torrido family, the remaining earl with the highest authority.

Behind Count Roger stood five vampire knights, all of whom were members of Count Roger's direct line and his subordinates.

Having said that, after Earl Roger arrived on the court, there was a cry of excitement and surprise...

"Dad..." With this sound, Mary who fell on the ground had no idea when she stood up.

With surprise on her pretty face, she was excited, looking at her father, Count Roger, unbelievably.

It turns out he is Mary's father, the Earl Roger!

But he said that just after Mary kindly called out "Dad", what about Earl Roger? Slowly turned that indifferent face, looking at his daughter there.

"father....."

Mary in front of her screamed her father while enduring her body injury and ran over quickly.

She hopes to hug her father!

Because she hasn't been with her father for a long time!

Just when Mary wanted to run past and give her father a warm hug, she didn't expect Earl Roger in front of her to suddenly stretch out a hand.

Snapped

A crisp slap in the face hit that Mary's face.

Mary never thought that when her most beloved father met her for the first time, she would throw herself an ear scraper first. At the moment, she collapsed to the ground after being beaten...the whole person covered her face and stayed there. .

Chapter 2074: Five knights

After a crisp slap hit Mary's pretty face with a "pop", Mary stayed there.

She never thought that her most beloved father would slap herself like this when he saw her first time.

why?

what is this?

What about Lord Roger? After slapped his most beloved daughter, he saw his cold hand trembling slightly.

But he was still trying to maintain his composure, staring at the extremely indifferent eyes, covering his face in front of Mary, staying there.

"father....."

"Why...why did you want to beat me?" Mary said unwillingly, her eyes were tearful, and her voice was full of grievances.

But what about Lord Roger? After hearing Mary say this, she roared: "Is the disaster you caused still small?"

"The whole family will be...by...you ruined!"

"You...you...you... let me down too much, Mary." Count Roger suddenly roared there.

Where is Mary in front of you? After hearing that Count Roger said, he felt a little stunned.

It seems that my father already knows! Know your mistake!

"Dad, I'm sorry!" Mary confessed, limply on the ground.

Where is Lord Roger?

Roared: "I'm sorry, what's the use?"

"The two elders are ready to punish you...!" Count Roger in front of him said angrily.

"You...you...grow up so much...I have never indulged you...but I never thought...you would make such a silly mistake!"

Mary in front of her listened to the father's scolding and bowed her head in pain.

She knew the seriousness of the mistake she made, so she could only lower her head there and admit her mistake at the moment.

When Mary and Count Roger were talking here, suddenly Li Tian, who was stabbed by the moon blade, let out a painful roar.

Wailing

An extremely painful scream came out from Li Tian's mouth in pain.

His body was lying on the ground, and there was a trace of purple-black blood flowing in the place where the black "moon blade" stabbed behind him.

He was in pain, he yelled twistedly.

His roar was so terrifying, even the Torrido family in front of them became nervous when they heard Li Tian hiss.

What about here? When Earl Roger heard the roar of Li Tian in front of him, he suddenly turned his terrifying and cold face coldly and stared at Li Tian in front of him.

"Beast of the Gangelo family? No wonder, when I was in the temple, I smelled the aura of this beast." Earl Roger in front of him suddenly stared at Li Tiandao in front of him.

Count Roger's body was full of terrible murderous intent, and an unprecedented murderous intent emerged from his whole body.

What about Li Tian who is hissing in pain? At this time, he didn't have the time to pay attention to Lord Roger and the vampires of the Torrido family. He just screamed in pain.

The five knight vampires of the Torrido family standing behind Earl Roger, when they saw the blood of the Gangelo family vampires flowing in Li Tian's body, they couldn't help but sing in unison to Earl Roger. Said: "Earl Roger, what should I do with this beast?"

"Kill him!" The vicious words came directly from Count Roger's mouth.

His words were firm, without any hesitation.

Following the vicious words of Lord Roger in front of him, the five vampire knights under him suddenly said in unison: "Yes!"

Then the five vampire knights screamed at the painful Li Tianwei together.

Just when the five knights of the blood race brought by Earl Roger were preparing to kill the seriously injured Li Tianxia, suddenly, she only heard Mary kneeling in front of Earl Roger and shouting: "Dad, don't kill him... Kill Lee..."

"Li is a good man, he is a human... he was bitten by a vampire from the Gangelo family because of his daughter!"

"Dad, I beg you, please let Li... don't kill him!"

Mary knelt on the ground in pain and begged her father.

And what about Lord Roger? When he heard his daughter's words, a strange look flashed in his brown eyes, but then he became cold.

"Any vampire with the blood of the Gangelo family beasts flowing in his body is the enemy of our Torrido family!"

"It must be killed!" Count Roger said coldly.

His words seemed to have pronounced Li Tian's death sentence.

"Dad, don't! Please, don't kill Li!" Mary knelt on the ground, praying with two hands holding Count Roger in front of her.

But I saw that Count Roger, with a flick of his arm, he shook Mary aside in front of him, and then without turning his head, he directly said to the five knights of the blood race: "Hurry up and kill this Gang. The beast of the Gro family!!!"

With the roar of Count Roger, the knights of the five blood races woke up instantly.

Then, seeing a loud noise from them, they drew out the knight's sword that was carrying in their waist.

This knight's long sword is almost the same as the blade of the Spanish cowboy. It is slender and slightly curved. The blade is thin and sharp. It looks particularly dazzling under the bright moonlight.

As their deadly weapons were drawn out, Mary over there was stunned for a moment.

She cried and begged her father!

But the voice was so weak, as if Count Roger would never spare Li Tian in front of him.

The Black Widow Kathena and Luo Lie stayed there after seeing all the five knights of the blood family pull out the knight sword.

They know the power of the five knights of the Toredo family, and they know the power of the long sword in their hands.

The five knights of this blood race were personally trained by Count Roger. They are all brave and good at fighting, and they are extremely powerful. In the Torrido family, who knows the name of these five knights?

And now, these five knights have to deal with Li Tian all alone!

The most important thing is that Li Tianhou now has a deadly "moon blade" stuck in his back.

I have to say that the power of the "Moonblade" is too strong... Li Tian died of pain, his face twisted to the extreme.

Following the order from Count Roger, the five blood knights in front of him suddenly raised the knight's sword in their hands and stabbed at Li Tian at this moment.

Swordsmanship is fast and vicious, and he really deserves to be the extremely powerful five knights of the Torrido family.

I saw that when the long swords of the five knights stabbed at Li Tian fiercely, Li Tian, who was screaming in pain, suddenly turned around his cruel face.

Chapter 2075: Terrible Li Tian

Five long swords pierced Li Tian's body from different strange angles. .

Their swordsmanship is weird, it is Western swordsmanship, so the lethality is relatively strong.

This Western swordsmanship focuses on one move to control the enemy, each sword is extremely powerful, and their swordsmanship has too many tricks, and some are just the skills to kill and injure the enemy.

So at this moment the swordsmanship of the five knights is still very powerful.

At this moment, when he saw five sharp blades stabbing viciously towards the injured Li Tian, Li Tian suddenly stretched his body, avoiding the past with a swift and unparalleled posture.

After Li Tian escaped the combined blow of the five knights, one of the knights suddenly pierced with a sword in his hand.

This move is an extremely powerful cut in the Western swordsmanship.

Sen Han's sword hissed at Li Tian at the moment, vicious and spicy.

But what about Li Tian? He did not hide.

He just lay down, lying on the cold ground with both hands and feet, and then stared at the bloodthirsty pupils and stared at the sword's edge that was piercing him.

Just when the long sword in the knight's hand pierced his chest, Li Tian suddenly screamed, and then his whole body rushed towards the knight, clearly facing the knight's long sword.

The knight was taken aback: Is he looking for death? Dare to pounce on your own sword?

The sharp sword in his hand shook at the moment, and it stabbed at Li Tian's body that was rushing over.

Here Mary, the black widow Katherine, and Luo Lie were all stunned. They didn't expect that Li Tian would go to death like this?

It's a moment of jeopardy.

I saw that Li Tian swooped at the knight's sword like a "fool".

Is he really looking for death? Are you so stupid that you hit the opponent's sword with your body?

Just when the knight of the Torrido family thought that his long sword could pierce Li Tian's chest, he suddenly realized that he was wrong.

Because of Li Tian, who leaped over, just when his body was about to be stabbed by the sword, his right hand suddenly stretched out.

Immediately afterwards, an extremely powerful energy was suddenly accumulated in his right hand... Is this his instinctive reaction? Or did he suddenly realize that he would use his martial arts? No one knows so far

The only thing he knows is that Angel Li, who has mutated into a vampire, has developed his own unique skills.

In everyone's horrified eyes, there was a sudden but heard a bang, full of strength and powerful Li Tian's right palm, directly hitting the knight's long sword blade.

The knight never expected that Li Tian's palm power was so powerful, and the long sword that was tightly held in his hand was so shocked, but after hearing a click, the long sword was directly given by Li Tian's terrifying and strong palm strength. Shattered into two halves, with a squeak, the broken blade fell to the ground.

At this moment, the knight was completely taken aback.

Not only was he stunned, but even Mary, Black Widow Katherine and Earl Roger who were standing there watching the battle were also completely stunned.

"Lee..." Mary called out in shock.

Count Roger, who was standing there, suddenly roared, and a cold hand suddenly clenched tightly.

But what about this side? After the long sword in the knight's hand was suddenly broken by Li Tian, he was immediately stunned.

Before he had time to react, he saw Li Tian's entire furious body suddenly threw him to the ground.
what

A scream of scream came from the knight's mouth, but Li Tian stretched out his mouth to bite the knight's shoulder, biting off the * flesh on the knight's shoulder.

Bloody and brutal.

Just as Li Tian was gnawing frantically at the knight in front of him, the four knights here hurried up to rescue their companions.

Swish swish swish, four sharp-edged long swords, all stabbed towards Li Tian.

Li Tian only cared about biting the knight who had dealt with him just now, and didn't bother to take care of the four knights' swords here.

In this way, the long swords in the hands of the four knights all pierced into Li Tian's body.

Li Tian's body was penetrated by four long swords!

After being stabbed into Li Tian's body by four deadly long swords, his voice was extremely painful and painful...

The whole person also knelt to the ground.

The four knights, after seeing their long swords pierce this guy's body, Li Tian was not only stunned there before he died.

With a flutter, they drew the long sword in their hands, and Li Tian fell down suddenly.

His body was constantly undulating, and the deep sword marks left on his body were constantly bleeding blood. The blood was purple-black, disgusting and ugly.

And where is Mary here? Seeing Li Tian's painful experience, he felt distressed and limp there, looking at him helplessly.

No way, Mary can't help Li Tian.

And where is Lord Roger here?

When seeing the strange purple-black blood flowing out of Li Tian's body, a ray of surprise suddenly flashed in his eyes.

"The Corpse King Uris..."

"Damn, this guy was actually bitten by Uris, the second elder corpse king of the Gangelo family..."

"No wonder, he was so strong when he first embraced."

Count Roger in front of him, unexpectedly took a look at the blood flowing out of Li Tian's body, and suddenly guessed the corpse king Uris.

Just after Count Roger recognized the blood flowing in Li Tian's body, he saw him swish, and his body flashed to the side of Li Tian who was limp and panting on the ground.

After arriving, he said to the four knights holding long swords behind him: "Retreat."

After hearing the order, the four knights said: "Yes." Then they all stepped aside decisively.

And what about Lord Roger? Cold eyes stared at Li Tian who had fallen to the ground at this moment and was seriously injured.

Everyone on the scene did not speak. Everyone walked there looking at Count Roger, and Li Tian at this moment, everyone held their breath and did not dare to speak.

"This beast is Asian!"

"Unexpectedly, even the corpse king Yuris rushed to Asia. Is it because of the * key?... Hey! A catastrophe is about to happen to the blood."

Count Roger suddenly muttered in that mouth.

When he finished speaking, Li Tian, who was limp on the ground and seriously injured, screamed in pain.

He was in pain, so he called.

Listening to his call, Count Roger suddenly became disgusted, stretched out a hand, and suddenly hit Li Tian on the head fiercely.

"Dad, don't kill Li..." Seeing Earl Roger's murderous attack on Li Tianxia, Mary ran and prayed there while looking around.

But Earl Roger's palm was still hit.

With a bang, Li Tian's head was hit by the hands of the Count Roger, and there was a plop. Li Tian, who was still screaming, suddenly fell to the ground as if dead, and suddenly there was no sound.

Chapter 2076: Temple of Forgotten

Is it dead?

Is Li Tian really beaten to death by Count Roger?

Everyone was stunned at the moment, looking at Li Tian who was lying motionless on the ground at this moment.

Mary was stunned, and the black widow Katherine was stunned. Even Luo Lie over there was also stunned.

All of them stared at the scene at the moment with their eyes wide open, looking at Li Tian with dark and purple blood flowing out of his body.

Is Li Tian really dead?

At this moment, Lord Roger was hit hard, he didn't even look at Li Tian, but suddenly turned to the knights behind him and said, "Bring me this beast back to the temple."

Following Earl Roger's words, the knights under his stunned slightly, and then they reacted and quickly said, "Yes!"

Then they hurriedly walked to the side of Li Tian who fell on the ground motionless, and then tied Li Tian's hands and feet tightly with iron chains, and then two people dragged his  corpse there. Walked toward the front extremely fast.

After seeing her father's behavior, Mary immediately knew what was going on.

His father didn't kill Li Tian! He didn't really kill Li Tian...

Because if Earl Roger had really killed Li Tian, how could he let his subordinates take Li Tian away?

At this moment, after knowing the truth, Mary suddenly knelt down at the feet of Count Roger.

"Dad, thank you...Thank you for not killing Li." She couldn't help but said with excitement while she was crying.

Count Roger turned his icy face and glanced at his daughter.

"Mary, don't you know how much trouble you have caused this time?"

"Do you know that you have revealed the secret of our blood family for thousands of years?"

"Furthermore, it has even exposed our kinsmen to the eyes of human beings!!!" Earl Roger suddenly looked at his daughter there in pain.

What about Mary? When Count Roger said that, she bowed her head regretfully.

She knew in her heart that she had indeed made a very serious mistake.

This time, I am afraid that even Earl Roger could not protect his daughter.

"Mary, I can't even help you in your trouble this time... Hey!" Count Roger suddenly sighed there.

Mary knelt on the ground and said with tears: "Dad, I'm sorry..."

"Kathena, Luo Lie!" Count Roger suddenly shouted.

When the black widow Katherine and the iron hand Luo Lie heard the Count Roger calling them, they bent forward and said, "Yes!"

"Bundle Mary... and bring it back to the temple!" Just like this, the words came out of Count Roger's mouth.

After Earl Roger said this, the black widow Catharna and Luo Lie were slightly startled. Neither of them thought that Earl Roger would tie up his daughter. They were not only embarrassed.

What about Mary? Stayed there too, looking at his father in disbelief.

I saw Earl Roger seeing Catena and Luo Lie standing motionless, and suddenly said angrily: "You two are stupid? Didn't you hear me?"

Following the roar of Count Roger, the black widow Katherine and Naruolie in front of him quickly responded, "Yes, yes, yes!"

Then the two quickly walked to Mary's side, and really took out the steel chain to tie all of Mary's hands and feet.

And what about Lord Roger?

I didn't even look at my daughter again, and just spit out a few words coldly: "Bring back to the temple!"

Following the exit of his words, his figure flashed and disappeared into the dense jungle.

The few knights behind him who didn't know whether they were dead or alive Li Tian rushed out at this moment, and then followed the Count Roger and flew towards the westernmost place.

What about Katherine and Lorie? She could only bring Mary with the chain on her body, and then followed.

They are going back!

Back to the real territory of the Torrido family.

...

Forgotten Temple!

It is located at the back of the twisted forest.

Across the dense twisted forest, I saw that the further I walked forward, the more I could feel the miasma floating in the air.

Those miasma, like clouds and mist, filled the back of the entire twisted forest, and looked like clouds and mist.

And the Temple of Forgotten is located here.

Standing in the center of the twisted forest, you can see from a distance the buildings in the front that resemble a 1617th century castle.

The top of the building is pointed, straight into the sky, and below is a veritable castle.

Who can imagine that there is such an unknown castle in this mysterious and twisted forest in the westernmost region of Italy.

The name of this castle is called: The Forgotten Temple!

The surrounding walls of the Forgotten Temple can be said to be copper and iron walls. The surrounding walls are made of solid cyan marble, which is more than one foot high. It is hard to believe how such a magnificent ancient building was built.

And the Temple of Forgotten is behind this huge wall.

At this moment, Earl Roger had already led the knights to * his daughter Mary and Li Tian to the place below the wall.

The ancient wall, the gate is made of bronze, thick and tall, and it is tightly closed at that moment.

At the top of the wall stood cold knights of the Torrido family. Those knights stood guard... all guarding the top of the wall, just like ancient soldiers.

After Earl Roger and Katherine reached under the wall, the vampire knight of the Torrido family above had already seen Earl Roger.

After seeing it, I saw one of the knights above the tower, hurriedly waving his hand inside.

As he waved his hand, the huge bronze gate began to creak.

The door of the Forgotten Temple finally opened.

As the bronze door slowly opened, the Earl Roger in front of him took his daughter and Li Tian and walked step by step inside.

Forgotten Temple! The old nest of the Torrido family finally appeared in everyone's eyes.

I saw that after passing through the heavy bronze gate, I saw a huge suspension bridge about two hundred meters long. The two ends of the suspension bridge are made of fine steel chains with thick arms, and the bottom is covered with hard wood. Made!

This suspension bridge, with its two ends, is a bottomless cliff below.

It is impossible to imagine how such a magnificent spectacle was built.

The only thing that can be seen is that under the huge suspension bridge are layers of clouds and mist... permeating the air, it is almost impossible to imagine what lies at the bottom of this vast abyss... and if it falls down What are the consequences if you do!

At the other end of this huge suspension bridge is the tall temple of oblivion.

"Let's go!"

At this moment, Earl Roger spit out the two words coldly, and then took the lead on the giant suspension bridge in front of him.

As he was the first to walk towards the front, Katherine and Luo Lie behind him followed closely, and then the five knights behind.

Chapter 2077: Alcide

Forgotten the temple, they finally returned.

Walking on this giant suspension bridge, it feels like flying, especially the suspension bridge is still swaying constantly.

But Count Roger and the others are not shy at all. After all, they have lived in this Forgotten Temple for hundreds of years...even thousands of years.

As they walked, they saw that Mary's face was sad and ugly, and her beautiful eyes were staring at the dead Li Tian from beginning to end.

After walking through a huge suspension bridge of more than two hundred meters, I saw the Forgotten Temple.

The Forgotten Temple was located there like an old castle, surrounded by knights of the Toledo family wearing bronze armor.

Those vampire knights were tall and mighty, with sharp spears in their hands, standing motionless there.

These vampire knights still remain, their ancient battles!

After Earl Roger walked past them, the knights who were guarding the gate of the Forgotten Temple respectfully saluted there.

It can be seen that Earl Roger has a high status in the Torrido family.

After Earl Roger took the people around him into the Temple of Forgotten Temple, Earl Roger suddenly stopped.

"You bring this beast of the Gangelo family to the Dark Prison!" Count Roger said suddenly.

The knights behind him nodded quickly after hearing Earl Roger's words, and then walked towards the so-called "Dark Prison" with Li Tian who didn't know whether he was dead or alive.

When Mary watched Li Tian being taken away, the corners of her mouth moved, as if she wanted to say something, but in the end she still held back.

She just looked at Li Tian with a reluctant eye that was taken away by the knights of the Toledo family.

After Earl Roger had asked the knights to take Li Tianji into the Dark Prison, they continued to take Mary, who was bound with chains by hands and feet behind him, towards the tall building in the center.

This is the temple of the Torrido family! It is also the place where the Torrido family usually holds major events.

In front of the temple are a few sturdy stone pillars, those stone pillars are more than ten meters in height, and they are also carved with extremely exquisite pictures and texts.

After crossing this stone pillar, I saw the inside of the temple.

The knights of the Torrido family on the left and right of the temple stood guarding.

At this moment, I saw Earl Roger and Katherine in front of them when they were walking towards the temple inside. From the inside of the temple, an old man in his 60s came out at this moment.

The old man's skin was white and wrinkled, and he was wearing a black robe. It was obvious that he was also a vampire of the Torrido family.

But who is he?

This old man is the deacon veteran of the Torrido family! The equivalent of a family: Deputy elder status.

Basically all the daily affairs of the Torrido family are in charge of him at this moment.

His name is: Hess!

When Hess walked out of the temple in front of him, he happened to meet Lord Roger, Mary, and Katherine in front of him.

"Elder Hess..." Earl Roger couldn't help but salute slightly when he saw Hess walking towards him.

It turned out that the status of Elder Hess was slightly higher than that of Earl Roger.

And what about Hess? After seeing Earl Roger, he walked over quickly with a smile on his face.

"Earl Roger, you are back." He said with a smile on his face.

Count Roger nodded.

"I brought back my unfilial daughter," Count Roger said, and took a look at Mary who was there with her head down.

After hearing Earl Roger's words, Nahes looked at Mary in front of him, and couldn't help sighing deeply at this moment.

"Hey... Mary!"

"You...you...you girl...how can you make such a serious mistake?"

"This time, Grandpa Hess can't help you either." Hess just looked at Mary there.

Mary lowered her head and said nothing.

When Na Hess saw Mary saying nothing, he didn't say much to Mary.

"Elder Hess, are the elders in there?" Count Roger suddenly looked at the Elder Hess and asked.

Na Hess nodded slightly and said, "The elder is inside."

Count Roger then said, "Well, Elder Hess, I won't accompany you for now, I will go first to visit the elders."

Hess said there, "Good, good, good."

So at this moment, Earl Roger walked towards the inside of the temple step by step with Katsena and Lowie in front of him, as well as the bound Mary.

After they walked inside, the veteran named Hess suddenly glanced at Roger and Mary with a pair of weird eyes, and a strange smile appeared on the corner of his mouth... Then he paced forward. Go.

This weird veteran behaved strangely, as if he had some evil thoughts.

But he said that Earl Roger at this moment had already taken Katherine and the others towards the temple.

The light inside this temple is dim, but it is extremely magnificent. At first glance, it looks like an ancient palace.

In the center of the spacious and huge temple, there was a person with pale hair and the same pale face sitting.

His body is wearing a black-purple cloak windbreaker, the windbreaker is also decorated with exquisite gold thread patterns, his eyes are extremely sharp, like a blade, although he looks very old and very old, but his whole body An innate sense of oppression.

He is the current elder of the Torrido family: Archid!

Archid is the descendant of the fourth generation of vampires. He has lived in this world for almost 1,500 years... His age is almost as old and old as the elders of other clans. This Archid's ancestor was an Englishman. More than a thousand years ago, Archid was a slave in a colony of the British Empire. He was tortured and persecuted. For some reason, he was bitten by a vampire. He has transformed from a human to a vampire...but Archid has retained the human nature. Although he has become a cruel blood-sucking creature, he does not like to * human blood...because his experience is enough for him to understand Because of human suffering and suffering, Archid chose the Torrido family, which did not * human blood at that time. Later time changed slowly. As the years passed, Archid became the elder of the Torrido family...now He has been in charge of the Torrido family for almost 600 years

This Archid is a respected elder in the Torrido family.

The vampires of the Torrido family loved him and respected him.

Chapter 2078: Roger's words

Now the entire Archid sat motionless in the most central position of the temple, waiting for Count Roger and them.

After Count Roger and the others walked in quickly, they saw Archid, so they quickly saluted.

"Elder!" Earl Roger and Kathena called Archid respectfully.

After seeing Count Roger and them, Archid raised his hand slightly: "Get up, Roger!"

Roger and Katherine slowly stood up from their knees.

"Elder, Roger is guilty. Roger can't help the Torrido family. Roger hasn't raised my daughter well!" Count Roger suddenly confessed to Archid there.

Archid glanced at Count Roger, and suddenly a slight smile appeared at the corner of his mouth.

"Roger, don't take responsibility on yourself anymore!"

"The contribution you have made in the Torrido family, no matter which earl is can't compare to yours..." Archid said slightly there.

Count Roger said: "Elder, Roger only wants one thing!"

"I hope that the elders can spare Mary this time and let me bear all the punishment for her. Roger is willing to accept it regardless of life or death." Roger suddenly said there.

When Roger said so, Mary was stunned for an instant.

"Dad... don't..."

"Dad, it's me who was wrong, I'm sorry to you, sorry to our family! Father, I am willing to accept all punishments..." How could Mary in front of her make her father bear the mistakes she made?

After hearing Mary say this, Roger turned his head and stared at Mary: "You shut up...Don't talk."

Mary endured the tears, bit her lip tightly there, staying there in pain.

Her father wanted to help him bear all the punishment, how could she not feel hurt?

I saw Elder Alchid, glanced at Mary, and then at Roger in front of him.

"Roger, regarding the punishment of Mary, I am not alone in the final say!"

"She needs all the earls and elders of the Torrido family to vote notarized!"

"Although, I know you love your daughter very much...but in this matter, I am afraid I really can't help you much."

"The whereabouts of the blood family is exposed, which violates our blood family's thousand-year rules!"

"What's more, this time, the other blood clans must have known the news... I believe that soon, other clans will hear ominous news." Elder Alcid said slightly.

There was a worry in his voice.

Because this time, Mary was really in trouble!

After hearing what the elder said, Roger frowned deeply and said: "Elder, then Mary...isn't she...dead?"

Elder Alcid shook his head slightly.

"Do not!"

"This will only be known after everyone has voted!"

"Roger, don't worry about it! Don't worry, I will definitely give Mary a fair sentence." Elder Alchide said in front of her.

After Roger heard it, he said, "Thank you Elder!"

"Roger, did you bring back the beasts of the Gangaluo family..." Elder Archid in front of him suddenly stared at Roger in front of him.

Of course what he said was Li Tian!

Unexpectedly, this Archid had already smelled the blood of the Gangaluo family from Li Tian.

After hearing Elder Alchid's question, Roger suddenly said, "Yes, Elder!"

"We caught a beast of the Gangaluo family... and this guy is the first embracer bitten by the corpse king of the Gangaluo family, Uris." Roger said there.

After hearing Roger say so, Alchide nodded slightly.

"I have already smelled his breath... but I didn't expect that the cruel thing from the corpse king would pass his blood into the body of the Asian..." Archid said in front of him.

Roger said, "Yes, that's why I am very strange."

"The beasts of the Gangaluo family are all cruel and fierce, and they are quite severe when they spread down the line. Under normal circumstances, people with low ability will never be embraced by the vampires of the Gangaluo family. That...Only those who are extremely capable will be selected by the Gangelo family!"

"It seems that the Asian you brought back this time should have different general abilities." Elder Alcid said there.

Count Roger nodded.

"No matter what, the beasts of the Gangelo family must be put to death! Leave this to you, Roger." Elder Archid said at last.

When Elder Alcid said so, Mary's heart suddenly shook...

I saw Elder Alcid continue to say: "As for Mary's mistakes, you should take her back first...We will have a fair trial the day after tomorrow."

After Elder Alcid said this last, Lord Roger in front of him said: "Yes!"

Then let Katsona and Lorie take Mary to prepare.

...

In the Temple of Forgotten, in a very dark room, Mary sat there blankly.

She looked worried and anguished, just sitting there.

The fine steel chain originally tied to her has been completely removed, and now she is sitting freely in that room.

Suddenly, at this moment, a slight footstep came over.

Upon closer inspection, it turned out to be Lord Roger.

It turns out that this is where Mary lived since she was a child, and this is the home of Count Roger.

After Roger walked in, he first gave his daughter a loving look, then sat down slightly to the side, raising his eyes to stare at Mary.

"Dad! I'm sorry!" Mary in front of her finally couldn't help but said after seeing her father.

Now there were only their father and daughter, Count Roger, after hearing his daughter say this, he sighed helplessly.

He slowly stretched out a hand, then lovingly stroked Mary's golden hair, and said slightly in that mouth: "Mary, this lie down, this trip to Asia, you have suffered..."

Mary in front of her heard Roger say so, her eyes turned red, and she hugged Roger in that hand: "Dad!"

"Mary... I know your heart and why you sneaked out of your family to go to Asia this time... But you don't know how big a mistake you made!" Roger said regretfully.

"Dad, I just want to avenge my mother, I just want to stop the group of beasts of the Gangelo family..." Mary in front of her said, hugging Roger tightly.

Roger said: "Silly boy, how can I not know your mind?"

Roger hugged his daughter tightly, and suddenly remembered his human wife in his mind!

When thinking of his former human wife, Roger was full of hatred!

It was them, the * Gangelo family vampires who forced his wife to death and Mary's mother...The blood feud and anger and hatred all flooded Roger's heart.

Chapter 2079: He must die

"Mary, why do you want to tell the humans about the weakness of our blood? Why? Don't you know that this is the most sacred secret of our blood for thousands of years?" Earl Roger asked while looking at Mary there.

"Also, you not only told the humans about the weaknesses of our blood family, but you also exposed the blood family's whereabouts when you were in the Black Rock Forest!!! Let the humans know our existence!"

"Mary, do you know that any of the above two errors will result in your execution!"

"Moreover, this is not only about you...but also about the fate of the entire family!"

"The whole family is now under great threat from other clans! Once they are held accountable, war will be ignited... The peace of blood for thousands of years was ruined by your mistakes... Mary, don't you know that you committed it? What a mistake?" Count Roger asked Mary there.

Mary lowered her head regretfully, of course she knew the mistake she had made!

It's a pity that the mistake has been made, what should I do now?

"Dad, I am willing to accept all punishments!" Mary said there.

"Punishment? Do you think it's just punishment this time... they will execute you! You will be sentenced to death!" Count Roger roared and stood up excitedly.

Mary was heartbroken, but she couldn't help it. Someone must take care of her mistakes!

And now is the time for Mary to bear all the mistakes!

"Dad, it's okay... Even if I'm executed, I won't complain." Mary said.

What about Roger? He didn't speak any more, just walked uneasy in the room alone.

How should he protect his daughter?

The day after tomorrow, the Torrido family will hold a ruling meeting. At that time, they will announce the life and death of Mary! Once the vote is passed, Mary will undoubtedly die!

"No matter what, I won't let my daughter be executed in front of my eyes!"

"I will do everything possible to save you." Roger finally said there.

Mary is Roger's only relative! He is also his closest daughter, of course he has to do everything possible to save Mary in front of him.

When Mary heard her father say this, she smiled with relief!

She laughed not because she was about to be saved, but because her father still loved her deeply, so she laughed.

"Mary, Danny and Carell?" Earl Roger asked suddenly.

When mentioning that Danny and Carell, Mary's heart suddenly felt like a knife cut.

"Dad, Danny and Carell were all sacrificed, and they were all killed by the Spike * of the Gangelo family..." Mary in front of her said regretfully.

When Mary said this, Roger couldn't help sighing deeply.

"Hey, it's a pity that those two children died." Roger sighed there.

Mary said: "Dad, I am sorry for them, but I have caused them both."

Roger said, "No, you are not to blame... If you are to blame, you can only blame me. I sent them to protect you along the way... I didn't expect to kill them."

Yes, Carell and Danny were indeed sent by Earl Roger to protect Mary.

When Mary ran away from the Torrido family that night, Count Roger had already known.

He knew that he could not persuade his daughter, so he could only send his two powerful men to protect Mary, but he did not expect that Carell and Danny would both die.

"But, Dad, I have avenged Carell and Danny!"

"And my mother..."

"That * Spike is dead..." Mary said there.

Count Roger in front of him heard that when Spike was dead, an expression of disbelief appeared in his eyes.

"Mary, what are you talking about? You said the * Spike is dead?" Roger said in front of him.

But seeing Mary say there, "Yes, Dad."

"I saw him die with my own eyes...watching him turn to ashes." Mary said.

Roger was shocked: "Did you kill that * Spike?"

"No, it's not me!" Mary said in front of her.

Roger questioned: "Who is that?"

"It's Li! It's the Li I brought back!" said Mary in front of her.

When Count Roger heard the name "Lee", he couldn't help but stunned, "Mary, are you talking about the Ganglo family beast that was captured today? Did he kill Spike?"

"Yes, Dad." Mary said.

"Dad, Li is a good man... He is really not as cruel as you think. Now he is just bitten by the corpse king Uris... That's why he became like this!"

"He wasn't supposed to be like this... it was me... it was all because of me... that he became like this."

"Dad, please, please, please elders, don't kill Li! Li is a good person!" Mary in front of her begged Roger in front of her.

Roger was stunned after hearing his daughter's words.

"Mary, you said that the guy named Li was originally a human?" Count Roger questioned.

"Yes." Mary nodded quickly.

"And when I was in Asia, Li had always helped me and saved me. If it weren't for him, I would have been killed by the vampire of the Gangelo family."

Listening to what Mary said, Roger hesitated there.

"But, even if he saves you, it won't save him from death! Because he has mutated after all... He has now become the vampire of the Gangelo family, and the vampire of the Gangelo family must die!" Roger The earl said.

After Roger said this, Mary hurriedly said: "Dad, don't our blood family have a blood sacrifice method? Can't the blood sacrifice method save Li? It can make him a human!"

"The method of blood sacrifice?" Count Roger looked at her coldly when he heard his daughter say this.

"Stupid boy, do you think the blood sacrifice method is really that easy?"

"Even if they could do it, would the elders be willing to do it for a beast of the Gangelo family?" Count Roger said to Mary there.

Mary said, "But Li really can't die!"

"I promised his father that I must save him!" Mary said there.

Count Roger said coldly: "Are you making a deal with humans?"

"Hmph, that Gangelo family beast can't save him! Mary, give up your heart." The Count Roger in front of him spit out these words so coldly, he suddenly left.

And what about Mary? All at once stayed there!

What should she do? How to save Li Tian?

Chapter 2080: blood

"Is this guy a beast of the Gangelo family?"

"Is he dead or alive? Why doesn't he have a breath?" In a dark and humid space, a curious and loud voice asked.

His voice contained a strong Gypsy language breath. Looking closely at the man, he was tall and burly, standing bravely with his back bare.

There is also a terrible totem tattooed on his right arm, bloodthirsty eyes like a wolf, and he is staring at the prison ahead without blinking.

Standing across from him was another hunk who was about the same height as him, who was equally majestic and mighty, with a bare furry chest.

"He is alive"

"He is a beast of the Gangelo family that Count Roger personally captured." He only heard the hunky man holding a fine steel chain in one hand while looking at the iron prisoner in his eyes.

"It turns out that the beasts of the Gangelo family look like this!" Hearing that hunk man blinked his eyes.

As if he had never seen a vampire from the Gangelo family.

Yes, the two vampires guarding the iron prison are just ordinary vampires. They have survived in the Toledo family for nearly 200 years. The last war between the Toledo family and the Gangelo family is also 600 years ago, so, for these new vampires, they had no chance to meet the vampire of the Gangelo family!

Now the two vampires of the Torrido family were not only a little curious when they saw the beasts of the Gangelo family that were locked in the iron jail.

"I heard that the vampires of the Gangelo family are very good at fighting and are extremely cruel, but looking at this guy, how does it seem that it is not as powerful as the legend!" The guy in front of him looked at the iron prison in front.

The strong man here said, "What are you talking about?"

"Do you know that when this guy was in the twisted forest just now, one of the guardians of the twisted forest was killed by this cruel beast!" the guy said.

"Huh? Really?"

"One of the guardians of the Twisted Forest was killed?" His expression was surprised, and he looked at the opposite companion with disbelief.

"Yes." The burly guy beside him said.

After speaking, he took a look at the iron prison in front of him and said: "If not, then Earl Roger had arrived in time to subdue this cruel beast, I am afraid, the other guardians of the twisted forest, All will be killed by this beast."

After hearing his companion say this all of a sudden, the guy here quickly closed his mouth and stopped talking nonsense.

They just stared at the locked iron prison not far ahead.

The iron prison was inlaid on the thick and icy stone wall, and the fences were all polished with fine steel chains as thick as arms, and they were indestructible.

And in such a weird and dark prison, I saw a person lying there!

The guy lying in the prison has his hands and feet locked with extremely hard heavy chains, unable to break free.

And he seemed to have suffered extremely fatal injuries, and he was lying there like death at the moment.

There are still many wounds all over his body. Most of those wounds are sword marks and knife wounds. The most vicious wound is on his back.

He is Li Tian.

Being imprisoned in the Torrido family, the family felon: The Dark Prison.

He doesn't know whether he is dead or alive now, he just lay there, motionless.

Surrounded by two vampires from the Torrido family guarding the Dark Prison.

There is only one passage in this dark prison, and the passage is extremely long and narrow, extending to the outermost position, and there will be a bright torch shining every ten meters away.

At this moment, when the two Torrido family vampires guarding Li Tian were chatting there, footsteps suddenly came from the narrow passage.

As the voice got closer, it was Mary's father, Count Roger, who walked in.

Why did he come here suddenly?

I saw that after Earl Roger arrived in this dark prison, the two guards rushed over and bent over to salute the respected: "Earl Roger!"

"Where is the beast of the Gangelo family?" Count Roger glanced at the two guards in front of him, and asked coldly.

After Count Roger asked this, one of the guys quickly replied, "It's...closed inside!"

"Take me there!" Count Roger spit out two words coldly.

After Count Roger finished speaking, the two majestic men quickly nodded and said, "Yes!"

Then quickly led the Count Roger in front of him to the iron prison inside.

When the two brawny men walked into the Dark Prison with the Count Roger in front of them, one of them pointed to the front place and said: "Earl Roger, the beast of the Gangelo family, just Where is it."

Count Roger stared at him, but saw Li Tian lying there motionless like death.

After taking a look, Earl Roger suddenly walked towards Li Tian step by step.

Li Tian seemed to be dead, and there was no movement at all.

After Earl Roger saw Li Tian lying motionless there, his thick black eyebrows wrinkled slightly.

"This beast... really saved Mary before?" There was an unbelievable look in the voice of Count Roger before him.

He felt that Li Tian didn't look like the kind of guy who would save people, because Li Tian who mutated into a vampire was indeed a bit cruel.

After thinking for a while, Earl Roger suddenly turned around and asked the two guys guarding the Dark Prison behind him: "I ask you, this beast of the Gangaro family, hasn't it been awakened? Huh?"

The two men nodded and said, "Yes, Lord Roger!"

"After this guy was brought in, he didn't have any breath... and he had never been sober, he seemed to be dead." The men in front of him said there.

Count Roger frowned slightly after hearing the words of his men, and then stood outside the iron prison, blinking his eyes and looking at Li Tian over there.

After Earl Roger looked at Li Tian in front of him, he suddenly heard him say to the two subordinates next to him: "Go and find some blood!" Just like this one sentence came from Count Roger's mouth. come out.

After Count Roger suddenly said this, the two men were suddenly dumbfounded, looking at Count Roger in front of them dumbfounded.

"blood,?"
