

A Killer 2091

Chapter 2091: Internal strength

Then Roger saw that Mary wanted to let Li Tian escape, and suddenly said angrily: "Do you want that beast to escape?"

Accompanied by the roaring voice of Roger, his figure flashed to Mary in front of him.

Mary was shocked and hurried to stop her father.

But before she had time to shoot, the right hand of Count Roger directly hit Mary's shoulder, and a cry of pain came from Mary's mouth.

Mary's whole body was knocked into the air, and she flew out a distance of 56 meters with a plop before she fell to the ground.

Count Roger's move was quite powerful. After he shot his daughter flying out, he also had some slight pain in his heart. He not only raised his eyes and looked at Mary with concern.

But what about Mary? Enduring the pain and stood up slowly.

After seeing that Mary was not seriously injured, Earl Roger felt a little relieved.

At this moment, he suddenly cast his fierce gaze on Li Tian in front of him.

He hated Li Tian because it was Li Tian that destroyed the relationship between their father and daughter, and it was because Li Tiancai caused Mary to betray the Torrido family.

So he can't wait to kill Li Tian now.

"I'm going to kill you * beast!"

After Earl Roger roared in front of him, he vented all his anger on Li Tian, and followed Earl Roger viciously towards Li Tian.

The dumb Li Tian was still standing there motionless, as if he didn't feel the danger at all.

When Mary saw that Li Tian hadn't moved at all and just stood like that, she was not only shocked: "Li, be careful!"

Accompanied by Dr. Mary's exit, it's a pity that it's already too late!

Because Earl Roger's speed was indeed too fast... With a bang, Earl Roger hit Li Tian's chest with both hands.

The force bursting from the body directly knocked Li Tian away.

With a bang, Li Tian's body slammed into a sturdy tree behind, and the entire tree was slammed to pieces.

His body fell to the ground, making it difficult to get up.

It can be seen how powerful the fatal blow of Count Roger was just now.

"Lee!"

After seeing Li Tian being knocked down by her father, Mary yelled distressedly.

But what about Lord Roger? Now I want that Li Tian's fate.

After a successful move, his body suddenly flew towards that Li Tian again.

However, I never expected that Li Tian, who fell on the ground at this moment, suddenly screamed out, and then his whole body suddenly jumped from the ground and pounced on Roger in front of him like a lion.

Roger didn't expect Li Tian to get up so quickly after suffering a heavy blow like his own, and he was taken aback.

The right hand broke through and grabbed it, and the left hand followed.

But what about Li Tian? The consciousness hasn't recovered, so he won't use tricks at all, and can only rush like a beast.

After he rushed to Count Roger's side violently, he saw Count Roger stretch out his hand, then his right leg flew up and kicked directly on Li Tian's chest.

Li Tian snorted and was kicked down from mid-air.

Then I saw Count Roger attacking Li Tian again.

The body has reached Li Tian's back in a flash, slamming...The sharp and sharp claws grabbed Li Tian's back, Li Tian's placket was scratched, and the exposed back was covered with deep blood. .

He was in pain, he roared.

But he didn't know how to resist, he just waved his hands vigorously, and the whole person screamed at Count Roger in front of him.

Count Roger is like a beast trainer, now taming the fierce beast in front of him.

Although Earl Roger was extremely powerful, he still faintly felt that the palm of the "Li Tian" in front of him moved together with extremely powerful power, but this beast still didn't know how to use it.

"Can't drag on any longer... he must be killed." Count Roger suddenly thought in his mind.

After Count Roger thought so, he began to prepare to kill him.

I saw him go to the back of Li Tian first, attacking his back while Li Tian was not paying attention.

After Li Tian received a blow, he turned his face abruptly. At this moment, Earl Roger moved quickly to the place behind Li Tian. His two cold hands grabbed Li Tian suddenly. Head!

Is he going to take off Li Tian's head?

At the moment when Li Tian's head was grabbed tightly by Count Roger's hands, Mary exclaimed, "Dad, don't..."

Because Mary understands that if Li Tian's head is really torn off by his father, Li Tian will be truly dead.

Even if he had an immortal body, he would die.

After all, the head is the most deadly weakness of vampires!

Following the exclaim of Mary, it was too late, I saw that Earl Roger turned a deaf ear to Mary's cry, and both hands decisively began to exert force!

He wanted to take off Li Tian's head alive.

The moment Li Tian was grabbed his head by Earl Roger, the whole person suddenly roared... and then his body began to struggle continuously.

What about Lord Roger? With his hands hard, he must take down Li Tian's head!

But when Count Roger thought he would succeed, Li Tian suddenly screamed, and then, to anyone's expectation, a golden and dazzling light suddenly appeared all over his body...and then the golden light It turned into a terrifying vigor, and suddenly ran into Count Roger!

It turned out that Li Tian used his body-protecting Qi in an emergency, and he used his martial arts.

As the body-protecting qi exploded, Earl Roger was directly shocked by the powerful qi and his whole person flew upside down.

With a plop, Roger's body was shaken to the ground...

What about Li Tian? At this moment, he suddenly revealed his extremely cruel temperament.

Although he is not conscious now, don't push him into a hurry, because his skill is too deep... Once he goes crazy and uses his skill, then it will not be a joke.

And now, Li Tian has become as cruel as before.

There was already a bloodthirsty expression in his eyes... The whole person was completely changed, with purple-black blood vessels lying on his face.

After Count Roger was knocked to the ground by Li Tian's inexplicable strength, he quickly stood up.

He stared at the "Beast of the Gangelo Family" in front of him with an unbelievable expression in his eyes.

In my mind, not only was he thinking secretly: "Damn thing, what happened to him just now? Where did that strength come from... how can it be so powerful? Even I can't stop that terrifying strength? "

Count Roger certainly didn't know the profoundness of Eastern martial arts, and he didn't even know the internal skills, so he was wondering now that it was normal.

Chapter 2092: Obedient Li Tian

And what about Li Tian at this moment? It was showing his violent posture.

His face was twisted, with long pointed fangs stretched out, two cold claws clasped tightly on the hard ground, and those bloodthirsty eyes stared at Count Roger before him. .

What about Mary? As soon as he saw that Li Tian was in a * violent state, he worried about his father not only!

Yelled there, "Dad, be careful..."

No one knows Li Tian's terrifying power better than Mary! Because only she knows that Li Tian just hasn't recovered his consciousness yet. Once his consciousness recovers, who can stop him? Who can stop him?

Where is Lord Roger? Although Li Tian's gang energy was shaken to the ground, he still refused to admit defeat!

He thought it might be an accident, because he didn't understand Oriental martial arts.

"Damn beast! I will send you to die today."

As Lord Roger roared again, his body flashed in front of Li Tian, and an icy hand instantly hit Li Tian's heart.

But what about Li Tian?

This time he is not stupid!

When he saw that Earl Roger grabbed a terrifying hand towards his heart, Li Tian in front of him suddenly blocked his right hand. With a bang, the two of them slammed their arms together, from Li Tian's arm. The emergence of dark energy shook the Count Roger's arm to numb and pain.

Count Roger was shocked and quickly retreated with his right hand. At the same time, both feet flew up and kicked towards Li Tian.

Li Tian didn't avoid it. After being hit by the feet of Count Roger, he just stepped back a few steps, nothing happened.

But the Earl Roger was depressed and shocked, and he couldn't help but secretly lined up: Why does this * beast's body seem to have some gas protecting it? Attacking him was completely defensive?

Count Roger would of course not know that Li Tian had already used the qi in his body invisibly... that layer of qi was rotating around his whole body, and this qi was exactly Li Tian's inner strength aura. .

But it was said that Earl Roger couldn't help being stunned when he realized that his attack was not harmful to Li Tian.

"What's going on? Why is this beast so strong in defense?"

"Even if the real vampire of the Gangelo family is here, it is impossible for the body to have such a strong defense!!!" Count Roger thought in his heart.

But that crazy Li Tian would never give Count Roger a chance to think.

I saw that just as Count Roger's mind was turning, Li Tian in front of him suddenly screamed, and the whole person suddenly rushed towards the Count Roger.

Earl Roger saw Li Tian rushing, and his body suddenly dodged, avoiding Li Tian's blow.

However, he didn't expect that after Li Tian made a move, he twisted his body at a very fast speed and then rushed towards that Roger again.

Although Earl Roger quickly dodges Li Tian's blow, he did not expect that Li Tian's reaction was so fast, and immediately rushed towards him. At this time, Earl Roger did not dodge, but screamed in his mouth. With a sound, then a hand grabbed suddenly towards Li Tian.

The other hand took Li Tian's head straight.

Li Tian had already rushed over, and when he saw Count Roger grabbing a hand, he shook his body slightly, and then slammed directly over the body of Count Roger in front of him from an incredible angle. on.

Count Roger never expected Li Tian to be so fast, and suddenly he was thrown over by Li Tian.

"Dad..." Mary cried out in horror after seeing the cruel Li Tian throw Count Roger down.

But what about Li Tian?

The bloodthirsty flame in his heart was already burning. At this moment, after Count Roger was thrown to the ground, his pointed fangs bite towards Count Roger's neck.

Count Roger felt a breath of suffocating death instantly.

He seemed to feel death.

Li Tian is too cruel.

When his bloodthirsty and cold fangs bite towards the Count Roger's neck, suddenly Mary endured the pain and rushed over.

How could she watch her father be killed alive by Li Tian?

But seeing Marie's beautiful body suddenly hit Li Tian's body at this moment.

Li Tian was knocked away by Mary like this, and his body rolled on the ground.

"Dad... are you okay?" After Mary knocked the Li Tian away all at once, she hurried to help Count Roger on the ground.

Count Roger's face was extremely ugly, and he strained his mouth tightly, saying nothing.

And what about Li Tian?

At this moment, Mary was knocked away, extremely angry, and suddenly there was a terrible roar in his mouth, and then his body suddenly jumped up, ready to attack Count Roger and Mary again.

"Lee... don't!"

"Don't hurt my dad!"

With an exclamation of Mary in front of her, she saw Mary block the body in front of the Count Roger with her body, and then stretched out her two hands as if to protect her father.

And that bloodthirsty and cruel Li Tian?

The entire terrifying body had reached Earl Roger and Mary's side at this time... The pointed fangs were already close enough to Mary's face!

As long as Li Tian moved an inch forward, Mary would be in danger.

But when Li Tian arrived at Mary's side, he didn't move.

He just raised those bloodthirsty and cruel eyes, staring fiercely at Roger in front of him, while still gasping in his mouth.

As if he only hated Count Roger in front of him.

Count Roger saw his daughter guarding him at the moment, and when Li Tian really stopped attacking, he was also slightly startled.

"Lee... don't do it... don't hurt my dad..."

"Li, you step back... step back!" Mary shouted at Li Tian there.

But after seeing Li Tian heard Mary's voice, his bloodthirsty eyes glanced at Mary... Then, as expected, his body began to take a step back continuously.

Mary was very happy when she saw Li Tianguo really listen to her own words.

"Li, you take another step..." Mary continued after telling Li Tian to step back 23 steps.

Then Li Tian did listen to Mary's words at this moment, Mary told him to retire, and he quit.

When he saw that Li Tian really obeyed Mary's order to retreat, Earl Roger was also a little stunned.

"How could this be? How could this beast listen to Mary's words?" Roger couldn't help turning in his mind.

At this moment, Mary turned her head with excitement and said to the Count Roger: "Dad, look... Lee, it's not that cruel!"

"Although he is very violent, in general, as long as he doesn't provoke him, he won't do anything."

"Dad, please, don't kill him again."

Chapter 2093: Betrayal of the family

Just as Mary in front of her had just finished saying this, a rustling voice suddenly came from the dense forest next to her. .

Then I heard the voice of someone coming from here.

"Here....."

"Earl Cliff... we found the trail of the Gangelo family beast... right here."

With the sound coming, but seeing the dense woods ahead, several vampire members of the Torrido family suddenly appeared.

It turned out that Earl Cliffe took the knight and the vampires had already chased him.

Besides, at the moment when the vampires of the Torrido family suddenly appeared, Li Tian, who was already quiet in front of him, suddenly fell into a violent posture... He roared out a voice, and his eyes instantly restored their previous terrifying gaze.

"Li! Don't be afraid...Don't be afraid..." Mary immediately comforted him after seeing Li Tian suddenly become violent.

But what about Li Tian? Still roaring there, while watching more and more vampires from the Torrido family with fierce eyes open.

Where is Lord Roger at this moment?

When he raised his eyes and saw the numerous torches in the front rushing towards them, Earl Roger suddenly said in a calm voice to Mary beside him: "Mary, listen to me, hurry up and let that... that... ...The beast is here..."

"You stand behind me... don't act rashly! I'll talk to Cliff." Count Roger said.

Unexpectedly, at the last moment, Earl Roger would finally stand on the same front with his daughter and Li Tian.

When Mary heard her father say so all of a sudden, her heart suddenly became excited.

She didn't expect that her father would say that, and she was stunned at that moment.

Count Roger saw that Mary was stunned, and couldn't help saying, "Why are you still stunned...Hurry up?"

Only then did Mary wake up and quickly said, "Okay, Dad."

"Li, come here... come here."

Mary said and waved at that Li Tian.

The roaring Li Tian looked slightly dazed when he heard Mary say this to him.

But he finally listened to Mary's words and walked towards Mary slowly there.

But even though Li Tian came over, his fierce eyes were staring carefully at Count Roger... as if he and Count Roger were not right.

Seeing Li Tian walking by her side, Mary happily grabbed Li Tian's cold palm.

"Li, come here!"

With that said, Mary pulled Li Tian in front of her and reached behind Earl Roger.

At this moment, I saw that more than 30 vampires of the Toledo family had arrived, and there were successive vampire members coming over.

Earl Nacliffe and more than 20 family knights have also rushed to the court at this moment, and beside him is the only veteran of the Torrido family, that is Hess. Earl Cliff's father

At this moment, the vampires and knights of the Torrido family had surrounded Earl Roger, Mary, and Li Tianguai, and they were shining with torches in their hands.

"Roger, I never thought that you would dare to collude with your daughter and the beasts of the Gangelo family, betraying our family together!!!" Suddenly a word came from the mouth of the Earl Cliff that came over. come out.

As he said, he smirked at Count Roger who was looking at him.

But after seeing Earl Roger heard what Cliff said, he suddenly roared: "Cliff, what are you talking about?"

"How can I, Roger, betray the family?"

Cliff snorted coldly, "Now that there are all evidence, Roger, do you still want to deny it?"

"In the Dark Prison, your daughter Mary, stealing the black widow Katsena's narcotics darts, then attacking our family members, and then robbing the * Gangelo family beast... Do you dare to deny these facts?" Cliff said there.

Count Roger roared in a low voice: "How can it be?"

"Hey, if yes, it would betray our family." Cliff said.

"Nonsense!" Roger roared in front of him.

"Although Mary did something wrong, and indeed did something against the wishes of the family... But it is not your turn to be disciplined by Cliff!"

After Nacliff heard Roger say this, he was furious and was about to speak when Elder Hess by his side suddenly stopped him.

But saw Elder Na Hess walking towards Roger with a smile.

"Earl Roger... what happened tonight, I want you to give me a reasonable explanation!"

"What the * is going on? And the family members who were injured in the Dark Prison, what is going on?" Elder Hess looked at Lord Roger.

Roger is not as high as the Hess veteran. At this moment, he can only answer: "Return to Hess veteran... Tonight my daughter did make a serious mistake and indeed let go of the Gangaluo family beasts. She has been caught, and the beast of the Gangelo Family."

"I hope that I can take my daughter to confess my mistake in person to Elder Alchid... As for punishment, as long as Elder Alchid speaks, Roger will never show my daughter a little!" said Earl Roger in front of him. .

"Dad, don't listen to Roger nonsense!"

"He is clearly a quibble... and justifies himself!"

"We all saw that Roger clearly colluded with his daughter.. It is obvious that the person behind this plan was also planned by Roger himself."

"Now he wants to shirk the relationship, how is it possible?" Cliff in front of him suddenly pointed the finger at Count Roger.

When Mary heard that Cliff was slandering her father in this way, she said angrily: "Cliff, you villain, what are you talking about?"

"Don't slander my father..."

"I did everything today, and it has nothing to do with my father." Mary tried to tell the truth there.

When the Cliff heard Mary say this, he sneered immediately: "I'm nonsense?"

"Are all of us blind?"

"Is it necessary to talk about the current situation?" Cliff suddenly roared.

When he said that, the vampires of the Torrido family all focused their attention on Earl Roger, Mary and Li Tian.

They did see that Earl Roger seemed to be protecting Mary and Li Tian in front of him.

As a result, the vampires of the Torrido family who had always respected Earl Roger suddenly began to talk.

They all felt that Earl Roger might really betray their family.

Chapter 2094: Useless things

"Did Count Roger really betrayed our family?"

"Anything else? Look at the situation... Now Earl Roger is standing with his daughter and the beast of the Gangelo family! All this is enough to show that Earl Roger has betrayed the family."

"Hey... I didn't expect Count Roger to become like this?"

"Yeah, it's really chilling."

...

The vampires of the Torrido family who were surrounding them were there one by one, saying each other.

Mary was mad at hearing these absurd remarks.

She didn't want to hurt her father, so she prepared to speak for her father.

But Earl Roger slightly stopped Mary in front of him.

After stopping Mary, he saw Count Roger suddenly looking at Elder Hess on the other side.

"Elder Hess, I know what happened today, I may be a little unclear...but I still hope that I can take my daughter and the beast of the Gangelo family, and meet Elder Archid!"

"If Elder Alchid thinks Roger is guilty, or if Mary deserves to die, then I, Roger, will not say anything... and will no longer defend himself." Roger stood there and said.

In the Torrido family, the only elder is Elder Alchid, and at the same time, Alchid is indeed a virtuous elder.

Elder Hess, who heard Roger say so, suddenly sighed slightly and said: "Earl Roger, I'm afraid your request, I can't satisfy you!"

"You said you want to see Elder Alchid... This is okay, but it's definitely not tonight. At the latest, you have to wait until tomorrow night." Elder Hess said there.

Roger nodded silently after hearing the words of Elder Hess in front of him.

"Well, Elder Hess, I believe you."

Elder Nahes said: "However, tonight, I have to detain you... and your daughter, and the * Gangelo family beast. As for whether you are guilty or not, I think that after tomorrow, Elder Archid Naturally, you will be judged fairly."

"Roger, I don't think you would object to it?" Elder Hess said while looking at that Roger.

He wants to seize Roger in front of him!

After hearing Elder Na Hess say this, Mary suddenly said: "Dad, can't believe them..."

"Their plan is to beat you father, don't believe them." Mary said.

Mary clearly knew what little abacus this Elder Hess had reached in her heart... Elder Hess, like his son Earl Cliff, had always been jealous of Roger's prestige in the Torrido family.

So now can be said to be their best chance of revenge. As long as Earl Roger trips in the Torrido family, then the entire Torrido family will soon be completely controlled by their father and son.

What about Roger? Is he a fool? Doesn't he know this?

No, he knows.

He knew Hess and Cliff as a man many years ago!

But Roger's integrity made him stubborn.

Even though he knew that what his current daughter Mary said was true, he still yelled at Mary in front of him, "Mary, you shut up..."

"We listen to Elder Hess."

Count Roger finally compromised.

After hearing what Roger said, Mary not only shook her heart, but she also fell into despair.

"father....."

She cried out in despair.

Unfortunately, it was too late.

After the Earl Roger compromised, the Earl Cliff here immediately said to the knight behind him: "Go over and tie Roger to me..."

After hearing Cliff's order, the knight under him suddenly said, "Yes!"

Then I saw the knights of the Torrido family really walking towards Earl Roger step by step.

Roger did not resist, and stretched out his hands slightly there. This upright guy really wanted to let the family members tie him up.

"Don't move my father." Mary suddenly rushed over and roared.

The few Earl Roger, who were going to lock their eyes with chains, were stunned when they saw Mary rushing over.

"Mary, what do you want?"

"Rebellion?" Cliff over there roared.

But what about Roger? Looking at his daughter, persuaded her: "Mary, listen to me, get back." Roger at the moment said to Mary.

Looking at her troubled father, Mary not only regretted: "Dad, I'm sorry for you."

Roger smiled slightly and said, "Don't worry, boy, I will be fine."

In this way, Earl Roger was * with iron chains on his hands and feet by the knights of the family.

After trapping the Count Roger in front of him, he saw a grinning grin on Cliff's mouth, and Mary staring in front of him said: "Mary, it's your turn now..."

Talking about the knights over there, they walked towards Mary, preparing to tie Mary in front of them with iron chains.

Mary knew that she really couldn't escape this time, so she didn't refute, but slowly stretched out her hands.

Just when the knights were about to hold the iron chain to buckle Mary, Li Tian who was still here suddenly roared...At the same time, the terrifying body suddenly turned towards the two knights holding the iron chain beside Mary. Jumped, terrifying.

The two knights who were going to trap Mary in front of them were frightened.

At this critical moment, Mary shouted: "Lee, don't hurt them..."

With Mary's utterance, the violent Li Tian who was already ready to take action suddenly stopped there.

The vampires and the knights of the Torrido family looked at Li Tian in front of them cautiously and fearfully, for fear that he would attack these members.

But Li Tianguo really didn't move anymore.

He listened very much to what Mary said, and he really stood there blankly, and then stopped attacking the members of the Torrido family in front of him.

Then, when seeing the knights of the Torrido family, she trapped the hands and feet of Mary in front of her with chains.

After the detention of Mary and Earl Roger, the only one left on the court is Li Tian.

The vampires of the Torrido family and the knights all knew that Li Tiannai was not easy to mess with, so they didn't dare to be careless, staring at him cautiously.

"The beast of the Gangelo family trapped and locked." Earl Cliff here said suddenly.

As he said, the knights over there slowly and cautiously walked towards Li Tian in front of them, they still had fine steel chains in their hands, and there was fear in their eyes.

When they just arrived at Li Tian's side, Li Tian suddenly screamed.

The terrible sound made the knights not only retreated in fear.

"Useless things!" Cliff couldn't help yelling when he saw the knights being so scared.

Chapter 2095: Tormented Li Tian

At this moment, Li Tian roared there, angry at the knights of the Torrido family.

The vampires of the Torrido family here tightly surrounded Li Tian. They all knew that Li Tiannai belonged to the Gangelo family, so they were not only a little scared.

Earl Nacliffe saw that the knights did not dare to approach Li Tian at the moment, and said angrily: "Use the grid... to hit him!"

The so-called power grid is a unique weapon of the Torrido family.

The power grid was invented by hunting beasts that are more difficult to hunt. The power grid is about 23 meters long and has a hard wooden stick with thick arms on one end, and a wire mesh through which electricity flows on the other end.

After Earl Cliff said it, the knights took out the power grid and began to move closer to Li Tian.

Li Tian kept roaring and glared at the Torrido family knight in front of him. He didn't know that the other party used something special to deal with him.

But Mary was extremely worried about Li Tian.

But even if Mary is worried now, there is no way, because her hands and feet have been bound by iron chains.

Now she can only watch Li Tian be surrounded by those knights using the power grid.

Li Tian roared there, and suddenly the knights stabbed him with the long power grid in their hands.

After Zizizi's high-voltage current touched Li Tian's body, he immediately slammed his whole body into convulsions.

what

The roar of pain came from Li Tian's mouth.

His whole body was still trembling when he was hit by the high-voltage current just now, his whole body was filled with endless anger, and his bloodthirsty eyes were filled with anger.

"Continue to shock this beast!" Earl Cliff said cruelly.

Following his exit, the knights began to hit Li Tian with high voltage current.

Although Li Tian is extremely powerful, he is now tightly surrounded by the knights in the center. As long as he moves, the knights use the power grid to hit him, so now Li Tian has become a turtle in the urn.

Just like that was hit by those high-voltage currents.

A scream of pain came out of Li Tian's mouth, crying bitterly and painfully...

Mary was so distressed that she yelled there, "Stop your hands...Stop your hands..."

"Lee..."

The trapped Earl Roger couldn't help sighing slightly when he saw Li Tian being shocked like that.

Only Earl Cliffe and Elder Na Hess with a grinning smile on his mouth were watching the tortured Li Tian.

Li Tian kept screaming.

Having been knocked down to the ground by the high-voltage current, his body was convulsing and twitching... his whole body was shaking.

In the end, Li Tian was attacked by a high-voltage current for more than 20 minutes, and he was stunned to death.

His body can no longer move... He can only lie on the ground and gasp slightly... His body is still shaking, and the shaking is because of his pain.

After Li Tian lost all resistance, Earl Cliff waved his hand slightly at the knights.

"Stop it!"

After he finished speaking, the knights stopped one by one.

"Grab this beast...take it away!" Finally Earl Cliffe said.

After speaking, the knights in front of him took the iron chain and fainted Li Tian, who was dying on the ground, and clasped his hands and feet.

Then he dragged him to the ground like a dead person, pulling him toward the place of the Forgotten Temple.

Here Mary and Earl Roger were also taken back to the Forgotten Temple.

Looking at the Earl Roger and Mary who was being taken away, Earl Cliff gave a vicious smile, then slowed down and followed the Elder Hess next to him.

"Dad, this time we are determined not to allow Roger to get up again...We must trip him and let him have no place in the family." Cliff said while looking at the veteran Hess in front of him.

The white-haired elder Hess smiled and said, "Don't worry, Roger is dead this time."

"But I'm worried that Elder Alchid will be kidding Roger... Dad, you know, in the family, Elder Alchid has always been kind to Roger." Cliff said there.

Elder Hess in front of him said: "Don't worry about this..."

"This time, even if it is God, God can't save Roger."

"Let's go, we just wait for a good show."

"Don't worry, when Roger is finished, the whole family will be under our control." Elder Hess finally gave a grimace in the dark, and then walked towards the Forgotten Temple with slight steps. go with.

...

In the darkness, the place of the Forgotten Temple is blazing.

After the uproar this evening, the entire Torrido family basically knew about Mary's betrayal of the family to save the "Gangelo family beast Li Tian".

At the same time they also learned that even Count Roger had been arrested and put in the dark prison.

The entire Torrido family was talking about Roger's affairs.

They couldn't understand how they would betray the family, Count Roger, whom they respected and loved in the past...They were full of questions.

However, even if they had doubts in their hearts, there was nothing to do. Now the Earl Roger, Mary and Li Tian were all taken back to the Dark Prison.

...

After experiencing Mary's uproar in the Dark Prison, a lot of knight guards were specially added this time to guard the Dark Prison.

There were more than a dozen knights from the Torrido family guarding the exit alone... Obviously these knights were sent by Earl Nacliffe.

Many guard members of the Torrido family have been added to the place inside.

At this moment Roger, Mary, and Li Tian were all taken into the Dark Prison.

Mary and Earl Roger were better, at least neither of them suffered any harm or punishment.

But Li Tian was unlucky. He is now exhausted, and his whole body fainted there. He was dragged on the cold ground by a few Torrido guys...like a dead dog. He pulled in from the outside, and was thrown into the iron prison in the Dark Prison.

Mary and Earl Roger were each held in separate iron prisons.

After being locked in, but seeing Mary looking at the tortured inhuman Li Tian lying on the ground, she cried out with heartache, "Li, Li..."

But seeing Li Tian lying there did not react at all, and the whole body was still shaking uncontrollably. There was no way, Li Tian was tortured too hard.

Looking at Li Tian who was tortured like this at this moment, Mary's heart was about to break.

Chapter 2096: Treacherous villain

At this moment, suddenly the sound of footsteps came from the long and narrow corridor.

After a while, it turned out that Earl Cliffe and several knights came over here.

When she saw Cliff walk in, Mary's beautiful eyes were full of anger. She hated Cliff, because if it hadn't been for him, Li Tian wouldn't be hurt like that. At this moment, she saw this treacherous Ke Reeve Mary wanted to tear him up.

"Asshole." Mary roared and cursed the Earl Cliff.

Cliff pretended not to hear, smiled coldly at the corner of his mouth, and then turned his eyes to Li Tian and Mary in front of him, and finally he fixed his gaze on Count Roger.

"Roger, I didn't expect you to have such a day." Earl Cliff in front of him suddenly said with a smile.

Roger endured the anger in his heart, and said there, "I want to see Elder Archid."

"Want to meet Elder Alchid? I'm afraid it's not that easy..."

"Roger, don't forget, what status are you now? You are now a prisoner, understand? Do you think you are still that high earl? Do you think you can still see the elder if you want to see it?" Cliff in front of me Said with irony at that Roger.

When Roger heard Cliff say this, he trembled with anger and said, "You..."

"Cliff, what do you want?"

Earl Cliff laughed wickedly.

"What do I want? No... I don't want to do anything!"

"I just follow the rules of our family!"

"You, and your daughter colluded with the beast of the Gangelo family and betrayed the family...I don't think I need to tell you about this crime, you should know what punishment you will receive, right?" Cliff smirked. Say.

In the Torrido family, any member of the betrayal family will be put to death alive! no matter who!

Now that Cliff put the charge on the head of Lord Roger so much, what can Roger do?

When Mary heard the villain Earl Cliff say so, she immediately roared: "Cliff, you despicable villain... Don't wrong my dad!"

"Something is coming to me alone!" Mary roared with red eyes.

Na Cliff listened to Mary's scolding, turned his head and glanced at her coldly, and then said:

"Mary, don't call, you will die soon! Go to  with your father..."

"Asshole, treacherous villain..." Mary couldn't help the anger in her heart when she heard Cliff say this.

But what about Earl Cliff? But he turned a deaf ear, he just laughed wildly there hahaha.

Finally, he took a cold look at Roger, Mary and the fainted Li Tian, and said, "Wait... this time tomorrow, when your death period arrives, I will Sent you to hell."

After Cliff finished speaking, he was laughing wildly and walking towards the outside of the Dark Prison.

Roger and Mary in front of them could only watch the treacherous villain leave... but they could do nothing.

The helpless Mary was finally there in despair.

She looked at the Count Roger next to him and said regretfully: "Dad, I'm sorry, I'm hurting you."

The Earl Roger in front of him turned his head slightly, then glanced at his most beloved daughter, and smiled slightly.

"Silly boy, how could you bother me?"

"Hey, it's all bad father, but I didn't protect you." Count Roger sighed there.

Mary in front of her couldn't help her emotions anymore, and she burst into tears.

"father....."

...

Inside the sacred hall of the Forgotten Temple.

I saw the only elder of the Torrido family sitting right in the middle: Archid.

His hair was pale, and his wise and hostile eyes gleamed slightly in the hall.

Beside Elder Alchid, standing by the elder of the Torrido family, Hess, and Cliff next to him.

I saw that Elder Na Hess and Cliff were slightly arched at the moment, and they were reporting Roger's betrayal of the family in front of Archid.

"Elder, at present Roger, his daughter Mary, and the beast of the Gangelo family have been controlled by us...As for how to punish, please elder you to express." Hess in front of him said while looking over. Said to Archid in front of him.

But seeing Elder Alchid frowned slightly after hearing Hess's words.

"Hess, are you sure you really have the evidence of Roger's betrayal of the family?" Elder Alchid suddenly looked at Hess and asked.

Heston gave a moment, and then quickly replied: "Report to the elders, Roger's betrayal of the family is absolutely true!"

"He was personally caught by my son and I... and many members of our family were on the scene at the time, and they all saw Roger's betrayal."

"Moreover, Roger intentionally helped the beast of the Gangaro family."

"So judging from these things, Roger's betrayal of the family is indeed confirmed." Hess said slightly there.

After hearing Hess's words, Elder Alchid suddenly said, "But, do you know that the beast of the Gangelo family was captured by Roger himself?"

"Is he stupid? He caught people himself, and then took the risk to release the beast of the Gangelo family?" Elder Archid said suddenly.

After Elder Alchid suddenly said this, Na Hess was suddenly embarrassed, and he couldn't figure out what to say.

Earl Cliff on the other side suddenly said, "Elder, I guess it's because of Roger's daughter!"

"Everyone knows that Roger spoils his daughter Mary very much. This time, Mary broke into such a big disaster, and also hijacked the Dark Prison, and colluded with the beasts of the Ganggro family... Her sin was already mortal. Serious sin, so I guess that Roger decided not to let his daughter be executed by us, so he decided to take the risk and betray the family."

Listening to what Cliff said, Elder Archid suddenly laughed.

"It's ridiculous!"

"Is Roger really such a person? He has been with me for so many years, and I still don't know what he did in the family?"

Listening to Elder Alchid's words, Hess and Earl Cliff were depressed.

Just listen to Elder Alchid continuing: "Hess, Cliff, I think you may be mistaken! Roger will not betray the Torrido family."

After hearing that Elder Alchid really spoke for Na Roger, I saw Na Hes saying: "But elder, now there are all human evidence... and so many of our family members have seen it. Roger's betrayal... can this be false?"

Elder Alchide suddenly sneered: "What the eyes see is often not necessarily the most real! Sometimes on the contrary, what the eyes see is fake."

Chapter 2097: Weird comer

After Elder Archid in front of him said so, Na Hess and Cliff in front of him were suddenly depressed.

They originally wanted to trip that Roger, but judging from the current position of Elder Alcid, their plans were all in vain.

I saw Elder Na Hess looking at Elder Alchid and said: "Elder... Then do you mean to release Roger?"

"Elder, there is something that shouldn't be said by your subordinates. If you really want to release Roger, it may cause commotion among family members!"

"Presumably the elder, you also know that this is a very time... A few days ago, Mary exposed the whereabouts of the blood clan in the Black Rock Forest... and she told humans about the weakness of our blood clan in China. This has put our family in a period of extreme crisis. I believe that other blood races have also noticed..."

"If the elders release Roger and the unforgivable Mary at this time, I believe that our family will surely cause chaos." Hess suddenly said there.

He was threatening Elder Alchid in front of him.

How wise is Elder Alcid, how can he not hear the meaning of his words?

But from another perspective, what Nahes said is indeed very reasonable.

Because Mary's previous mistakes were too serious... Especially in the Black Rock Forest, she exposed the blood family's whereabouts, leaving their hidden blood family for thousands of years completely exposed to human eyes.

Such a catastrophe is not only related to Mary herself, but is likely to involve the entire Torrido family.

Although all aspects have not heard the movement of other blood races... but will other blood races really tolerate it like this? Especially the Gangelo family, who has always held a deep hostility to the Torrido family!

So after Elder Alchid listened to Nahes' words, he hesitated slightly.

What should I do?

Although Elder Alchid clearly knew that Hess and Nacliffe wanted to defeat that Roger and then take over the power of the Torrido family, what can Elder Alchid do?

Hey, who made Mary and Roger have such a thing at this moment! ! !

The silent Elder Alchid said nothing.

Na Hess and Cliff were at Archid who had been looking in front of him.

"Elder, the subordinates who should be talking about have already finished...what to do with Roger, Mary and others... Please make your own decision!" Hess said at last.

But after seeing Elder Alchid in silence for 56 minutes, he said slightly: "Okay, I get it!"

"Well, let me think about it. Tomorrow, I will announce the verdict..."

"Hess, Cliff, rest assured, I will definitely give the family a fair answer, and I will also give Roger and Mary the most fair ruling." Elder Alcid said at last.

After hearing the elder say this, Na Hess and Cliff nodded slightly.

"Okay, elder!"

"Then we won't disturb you..."

After talking, Hess and Na Cliff quickly stepped back.

After they retreated, only Elder Archid was sitting there alone in the empty Forgotten Temple.

His brows were deeply locked, and his mind was thinking about his thoughts.

After Alchid thought about it for about 56 minutes, he sighed heavily after seeing him:

"Hey...Roger, it seems that I can't save you this time!!!"

After speaking, Elder Alchid slowly stood up from his seat, and then walked slowly towards the back of the Forgotten Temple.

...

The old nest of the Torrido family is here in the Forgotten Temple in the Twisted Forest.

Leading to the twisted forest is the Nikolai Volcano Group and the uninhabited wilderness.

At this moment, I saw that there were three shadows coming to this side at an astonishing speed at the place leading to the Nicholas Mountain Range. The speed was surprisingly fast.

Look carefully at these three shadows, it is clear that they don't look like humans, because their speed is so fast!

At this moment, seeing that the three shadows had almost reached the Nicola Mountains, they suddenly stopped in the wilderness.

Look carefully at the three figures. Who are they?

I looked at it with amazement, and first saw a foreign woman standing motionless on the left.

The woman is slim, wearing a blood-red tight robe, wrapping her seductive body, her hair is thick and black, and a delicate face is covered with a black veil...

The veil is very thin, and the outline of her appearance can be vaguely seen. It is not difficult to see that she is an extremely beautiful woman!

She wore a pair of red high heels on her slender ankles... it matched her clothes.

It looks as if the whole person is a fire.

Standing beside this "fire" woman is also a tall beauty.

It's just that this beauty is completely different from the one just now. It seems to be two extremes...because her whole body looks so cold, you can feel a chill rushing from her whole body when she walks in front of her.

She also has a seductive body, wearing a pale white tight-fitting cheongsam, and also standing motionless there.

Her face is very delicate, with the unique charm of the West, but she looks extremely cold and gorgeous, with blue eyes, standing there like a goddess, without speaking or moving.

These two weird and beautiful women, one is like fire and the other is like ice... What is the origin?

I saw a 40-year-old man between the two weird women.

The man looked gentle, but he was standing there with a pair of heavy sunglasses. He had a high nose, like a Russian, and his face was as pale and bloodless as white paper. He stood there.

This man looks a little ordinary, but if you look carefully, you will see that the man's eyes are very strange.

He, he seems to be blind!

Because his hand is being held by the beautiful woman wearing a "flaming red" dress!

Is he really blind?

His eyes were deeply covered by those heavy sunglasses, no one knew what was going on with his eyes!

"Fire Lady, the old lair of the Torrido family is in front, right?" Suddenly a word came out of the man with strange eyes.

The man was wearing a gray suit and asked slightly while holding the sunglasses on the bridge of his nose.

The words he said are words from the Russian side...

The beautiful woman known as the "Fire Girl" is the woman with a layer of veil on her face and wearing a * red cheongsam. After hearing his question, she nodded slightly and said, "Yes. of."

"Passing through this mountain range, and then crossing a group of extinct volcanoes, you basically reach their territory." Fire Girl's voice is very nice, just like hers, it sounds like a hot feeling.

Chapter 2098: Bad things

"For hundreds of years, I haven't seen the Torrido family again for hundreds of years... I didn't expect them to live in seclusion here." The weird man wearing sunglasses suddenly said.

The "Fire Girl" next to her in a hot red dress said slightly, "Yes."

"It's been almost 700 years since the last kinship war... Hehe, so many years of calm... I didn't expect to be broken again." The fire girl smiled.

"This is destiny!"

"No way, no one can escape." The man wearing sunglasses in front of him suddenly said.

The fire girl slowly turned her beautiful face and looked at the man wearing heavy sunglasses in front of him and said: "Don't your eyes be able to see the future of time? Tell me, what did you see this time?"

"If the blood war really breaks out, what will the outcome be this time?" said the fire girl in front of her, looking at the man wearing sunglasses in front of her.

Can you see the future?

real or fake?

What is the origin of these people? What are they talking about? Who can know?

But seeing the man wearing sunglasses showed a bitter smile.

Then slowly raised his hand and took off his sunglasses. The moment he took it off, he saw his weird eyes!

OMG, he is really blind!

It's just that the pupils of his eyes contain weird apertures... Inside the pupils, there are circles of weird patterns growing in his eyes.

What's the matter with his eyes? How could it be like this?

At the moment he took off the sunglasses, he gently raised his hand and rubbed his eyes, and then put on the heavy sunglasses again.

After wearing it, he heard him say slightly there, "Don't be kidding, Fire Girl!"

"My pupil of time can only predict the future, but cannot see the future..." said the blind man wearing sunglasses.

The fire girl in front of her smiled, as if she knew it.

"However, he must be the protagonist in this war!" The blind man wearing heavy sunglasses in front of him suddenly said an extremely strange word.

he?

Who is he?

As the weird blind man said so, the fire girl in front of him suddenly smiled and said, "Could it be that he was the prophecy?"

The blind man wearing heavy sunglasses nodded slightly and said, "Yes, it's him."

"Hehe, isn't it?"

"I hope that your pupil of time will not be mistaken this time... If there is really a human being who can stop the catastrophe of the blood race this time, I would like to see how capable this person is! It is actually able to fight against Gangaro. The crazy bloodthirsty group of the family." A slight expectation appeared in the beautiful eyes of the fire girl.

The blind man wearing sunglasses said: "I will never read it wrong!"

"Because he will end this blood disaster, because only he has this power." The blind man wearing sunglasses in front of him said seriously.

The fire girl smiled and said: "Really?"

"Caso, since your pupil of time can predict the future, can you predict his appearance, is that guy handsome?" The woman in front of her suddenly flashed a colored light in her beautiful eyes.

As Huo Nu said this, the cold woman in pale white clothes standing beside her, suddenly spit out two words coldly: "boring..."

Her voice is the same as hers, cold and decisive!

As if she didn't like to talk at all, her whole person was like a goddess on an iceberg, she didn't dare to let anyone come close. Anyone who came close to her would be chilled.

The fire girl heard the Bingshan woman say so, Liu Mei picked up slightly, and then ignored her, just looking at the blind man named Caso in front of her.

But seeing the blind man named Casso suddenly laughed.

"Huo Nu, you are really boring... even if he is handsome, what can you do?"

"Don't forget, he is human after all!"

"After all, he is not the same with us!" Caso said slightly.

When Caso said that, the glamorous fire girl was not only disappointed, and said, "What happened to human beings..."

"Poor human beings always suffer from birth, old age, sickness, and death. If he wants to, I will mutate him into a member of our blood clan. Not only can he live forever, but he can also stay young forever. That's great!" Huo Nu said with a smile.

Na Ka Suo heard Huo Nu say this, said: "Huo Nu, you think too much..."

"That guy has been bitten now... and the blood of the Gangaluo family beasts flowing in his body." Caso said suddenly.

When the fire girl heard Caso say so, she was not only taken aback.

what?

"How do you know?" The fire girl in front of her suddenly asked in surprise.

But seeing Caso in front of him said slightly: "I have seen..."

"And I also saw that the guy who bit him was the most cruel perverted elder in the Gangelo family... Corpse King Uris." Caso said slightly in front of him.

When Ka Suo uttered the name of the corpse king Uris, the fire girl in front of him and the glamorous ice girl next to him were not only a little stunned.

It seemed that the two of them were also deeply afraid of the corpse king Uris of the Gangelo family.

"Caso, what do you mean, that guy inherited the blood of the corpse king Uris?" the fire girl in front of her suddenly asked.

Ka Suo nodded slowly and said, "Yes."

After Caso said it, the fire woman said: "Since he inherited the blood of the Gangelo family... Then will he be violent? Bloodthirsty?"

Caso shook his head and said, "No, he won't!"

"Although the blood of the Gangelo family is flowing in his body, if his consciousness recovers, he will know what he should do... He is completely different from other first-time fans... He has With a kind-hearted humanity and a pure heart...So I believe that even if the blood of the Gangaluo family beasts flows in his body, he will not become a member of the Gangaluo family."

After Caso said so, the fire girl in front of her was slightly relieved.

"I'm relieved if I listen to you like this... Otherwise, we'll be running for nothing this time." Huo Nu said.

Caso smiled slightly in front of him.

Just as the fire girl just uttered this sentence, Ka Suo suddenly shook his body violently, and then screamed out a few words from his mouth: "No...he has an accident."

As he suddenly uttered a weird word, the fire girl in front of him and the ice girl next to her couldn't help being taken aback.

Quickly looked at him and said, "Caso, what's wrong?"

But seeing that Caso quickly took off his heavy sunglasses, and then lifted up those weird pupils...but saw that the aperture in his pupils suddenly began to spread round and round...and then he Seeing some weird images, those images appeared in his mind as if they were movie clips.

He saw a guy who screamed like a wild beast, was dragged by a group of people, his hands and feet were chained, and then escorted to a place! Then he saw blood and fire again... He saw the "beast" whose hands and feet were chained was thrown into the fire... and then began to burn him...

what.....

A cry of pain came from Na Ka Suo's mouth.

Suddenly he covered his weird eyes in pain.

Message to readers:

New month, new year, bless my book fans and brothers, be happy and happy forever!

Chapter 2099: strong force

When the fire girl and the ice girl next to him saw Ka Suo's face suddenly pained, they hurried over to support him.

"Caso, what's the matter?"

"What happened?"

"Caso, you, what did you see?" The fire girl in front of her and another cold woman looked at Caso and asked.

But seeing Caso took a slight breath, and then quickly said there: "Quick...Quick...Go and save him!"

"What?" The fire girl and the ice girl in front of them were stunned when they heard this Caso say.

"Save who?"

But seeing Ka Suodao: "It's him... the only one who can help our blood clan stop the disaster..."

"He is in trouble now... he is about to be killed!" Caso shouted in front of him!

He did see with his pupil of time, and saw the terrible things that were about to happen!

The fire girl in a fiery red dress and the frosty girl next to him were completely depressed after hearing what Caso said.

"Who the * are you talking about?" The woman in front of her couldn't help asking again.

I saw Ka Suo clutching his aching pupils, and said anxiously: "It's him... the only human being who can stop this blood war!"

"What?" The fire girl in front of her was not only stunned when she heard Caso say so.

"It's him!!!" Huo Nu said in surprise.

The frosty woman on the other side not only wrinkled her eyebrows slightly, but then moved her mind.

"The members of the Torrido family have already caught him! We have time to go and save him." Caso suddenly said in front of him.

After hearing what Caso said in front of him, the fire girl and the frosty girl next to him nodded together.

Then I saw the beautiful fire girl grabbing a hand of the blind man Caso in front of her, and then her body flashed quickly towards the Nikolai Mountain Range ahead.

The frosty girl behind her also quickly followed.

God, they are also vampires!

Their speed and faces are exactly the same as vampires!

It's a pity that the true identities of these three people are still unknown, and no one knows that they are the vampires of that clan.

The huge blood family, after experiencing the blood family chronicle, they have divided into thirteen big families!

And what kind of clan vampires are these three weird guys from? Which family are they from? I don't know so far.

But the only thing that is certain is that they are definitely not the vampires of the Toledo family, and similarly, they will not be the vampires of the Gangaro family.

...

In the dark temple of oblivion, every member of the Torrido family was talking about the betrayal of the family by Lord Roger and Mary.

This incident caused a sensation in the entire family. After all, Earl Roger had an extremely high status in the family, and he was also very much loved by those members of the Torrido family.

Some of the members suspected Roger's betrayal of the family. They said that Earl Roger had been making contributions to the family all his life. How could he betray the family?

Some members said that Roger should be put to death for betraying the family, and this time he was in the same relationship with the beasts of the Gangaluo family.

The controversy has always been immortal.

But the only thing they can hold a common position is: Li Tian must die!

Because the blood flowing in Li Tian's body is the blood of the Gangaluo family vampires... The Gangaluo family is the old enemy of the Torredo family, so Li Tian must be killed.

Inside the gloomy Dark Prison, but seeing many members of the Torrido family guarding.

They were all sent by Earl Cliffe himself, except for the members who guarded the prisons of the Dark Prison, a knight was arranged to guard the narrow passage every few meters.

With such a guarded guard, it seems that it is absolutely impossible to escape this dark prison.

I saw Roger sitting motionless in the iron prison on the left, his eyes closed slightly...He didn't have any resistance to his hands and feet tied with chains.

Where's Mary next to him? From the beginning to the end, Meisou never left Li Tian who had fainted on the ground.

She was worried about Li Tian, and she was afraid that something happened to Li Tian...

But what about Li Tian? After being tortured by Cliff with a cruel high-voltage electric current, he was lying there dying at this moment...

His body was trembling all the time, and he crawled on the ground, breathing uncontrollably.

"Li Li....."

Mary looked at the aching Li, and couldn't help calling Li Tian's name with concern.

But Li Tian didn't react at all.

Earl Roger heard Mary calling Li Tian in front of him, he couldn't help but raised his head and glanced at Li Tian beside him, then muttered, "Mary, don't worry about this beast. He will not die of."

"There is an inexplicable powerful force in his body, I can see it."

"Now he has only been tortured by Cliff... Besides, he has not been supplemented with blood... So he appears weak, but once this beast finishes supplementing the blood, he will immediately recover.

"Earl Roger said to Mary.

After hearing her father say this, Mary relaxed a little, and looked at Li Tiandao distressedly: "No matter what, I killed him."

"Mary, tell me, what the * is this guy?"

"What did he do when he was in China?" Roger suddenly became interested in Li Tian in front of him. He said in his mouth, while looking at the fainted man lying on the ground. Li Tian.

Mary in front of her heard her father ask this all at once: "Dad, you...you...ask...what does he...do?"

Count Roger took a look at Li Tiandao: "It's nothing, it just feels that this guy is very weird, especially the powerful force in him!"

"You also know that I have fought against the beasts of the Gangelo family more than once... Whether it is their earl, or the knights of their Gangelo family... But, I have never found that power in them. "

"And this time, what makes me feel strange is that this guy from China has that extremely powerful force in his body... That force is very powerful. I guess that he hasn't recovered his consciousness because he hasn't recovered yet. Use the true ability of that powerful force... Once his first embrace passes, his consciousness is completely restored, I'm sure, this guy is absolutely terrifying." Count Roger said as his eyes flickered. Li Tiandao in front of him.

Chapter 2100: Threat

"Mary, tell me, what is the origin of this guy?" Count Roger asked again, looking at Mary in front of him. .

It can be seen that the current Earl Roger is very interested in Li Tian in front of him.

After hearing Roger say this, Mary knew that her father was ready to try to understand Li Tian!

So he said quickly there, "Dad, do you want to know Li's past?"

Count Roger nodded slowly.

"Ok, then I will tell Dad everything." Mary said excitedly.

She knew that after she told Li Tian's past, she would be able to let her father know more about Li Tian... In that case, her father's hatred of Li Tian could be resolved.

After thinking this way in her mind, Mary spoke to Earl Roger in front of her.

"When Li was in China, he had many good brothers. His brothers were very loyal and kind. When I was there, he and his brothers helped me together! And Li also There is a father, his father is a legendary character, his name is Cthulhu!"

When Mary said the name of the "Cthulhu" again, Roger was not only startled.

Surprised: "What? Cthulhu?"

When Mary heard her father so surprised, she not only asked in confusion, "Dad, what's the matter?"

"Could that evil * be the Asian who created the Vatican more than 20 years ago?" Count Roger said suddenly.

After speaking out with Count Roger in front of him, Mary was horrified for an instant.

She never thought that her father would know the evil god.

At this moment, he asked in surprise: "Dad, how do you know the evil god? Do you know him?"

Count Roger said: "No, I don't know!"

"But I know a lot about him!" Count Roger suddenly said.

"This character called Cthulhu fought against the followers of the Vatican, and later entered the Inquisition underground in St. Petersburg, Vatican by mistake... But since then, he stole St.

Petersburg's thousand-year relic: the key of fate! As a result, our kinsmen began to commotion." Count Roger said slowly.

Of course Mary knows all this!

It was precisely because the evil * stole the key of fate more than 20 years ago, the blood race that had been silent for a thousand years rioted.

Thousands of years ago, the key was sealed in the Inquisition of St. Petersburg in the Vatican, where the Vatican is a restricted area for vampires... It is a sacred place, so no one of the blood dared to approach it, including the most murderous ones. Gangaluo family vampires... but by chance, the evil * stole the key of fate... and brought the key back to China, so it happened that Gangluo family set out to find the key of fate Things

So when Mary was talking about the evil god, Earl Roger would have such a big reaction.

"Dad, no matter how the evil * and Li are good people! They don't know that such a big secret is hidden behind the key of fate." Mary said for the evil * and Li Tiandao.

Count Roger nodded and said, "I understand this!"

"However, it is also because of them that the disaster of our blood race is about to come soon..." Count Roger said while looking into the distance.

"Dad, I believe that this time we will be able to tide over the difficulties." Mary said.

Count Roger gave a bitter smile at the corner of his mouth.

"The key of destiny has now fallen into the hands of the Gangelo family of beasts... Once the blood moon opens, the old thing that has been sleeping for thousands of years will wake up... Hey... he is the only one still alive The Lord of the Century, once he awakens, the consequences will be unimaginable." Roger said worriedly.

Then Mary also knew the terrible seriousness of this matter, so she closed her mouth tightly at this moment, she didn't dare to speak any more.

Time just passed by minute by minute.

The tortured inhuman Li Tian continued to be in a coma.

Here Mary and Earl Roger are also silent, they are all waiting for this change, waiting for the result of the family trial.

...

The night is quiet.

Suddenly, I saw a slender figure quickly walking towards the dark prison at this moment.

Looking up, it turned out to be the black widow Katherine.

I saw that at this moment, Katherine actually came to this dark prison where Mary and Count Roger were being held.

What is she doing here?

Katherine is still so charming and beautiful, twisting her plump body and walking step by step.

"Who?"

Waiting at the gate of the Dark Prison were the numerous knights of Earl Cliff, who noticed the movement and immediately shouted.

As the voices of these knights came out, but Katherine's charming figure slowly flashed out.

"It's me." After the black widow Katherine showed her figure, she looked at the gang of Count Cliff knights with a charming smile.

When the knights saw the black widow who turned out to be the most coquettish in the family, they were all taken aback.

"It's you, Black Widow..."

"Why are you here in the middle of the night?" The knights in front of them asked with dishonest eyes on the white gully on the chest of the black widow.

But seeing the black widow Katherine didn't care about these people's rude eyes, she smiled and said, "I'm here to see Count Roger."

"Look at Roger?" When the knights in front of them heard this, their faces suddenly changed.

"Kathena, we, Earl Cliff, have ordered...no one can enter here...let alone want to see Roger." The knights in front of them said.

But seeing that Katherine smiled charmingly: "Really?"

"But I just want to go in and see him, can't it?" Katsona said.

The knights said, "No! No one can enter!"

"Hmph, I want to go in today, what else do I want to see if you guys?"

"If anyone dares to touch me, I'll tell you Earl Cliff, and I'll say you * want to indecent assault on me... Then I will see how Cliff will treat you!" Kay in front of him Senna was threatening the group of knights in front of her.

The knights were immediately depressed when they heard Katherine say this all at once.

They all know that the relationship between Katherine and Cliff is simply that of an adulterer.

Cliff's favorite sleeping woman in the family is Katherine in front of her... If this Katherine really tells Cliff that they indecent her, then these knights will be out of luck.
