

A Killer 2141

Chapter 2141: Moment of danger

After Luo Lie took the order of Lord Roger, he glanced at the beautiful black widow Katherine around him slightly.

But seeing Katherine blinking her beautiful eyes at this moment, she glanced at Luo Lie in front of her.

"Be careful!" Katherine said a caring word slightly from her mouth.

When he said it, Luo Lie in front of him only felt a burst of excitement that he had never felt before!

It turns out that Katherine has never cared about him so much. This is the first time. Lori has liked Katherine for many years. Any vampire in the entire Torrido family knows, but the charming and charming Katherine is indeed still slutty, here For a moment, that Katherine's caring words undoubtedly made Luo Lie's blood surge in front of her.

Luo Lie looked at Katherine in front of him and nodded vigorously, then turned around and ran to the outside of the Forgotten Temple quickly with big strides.

He took 20 knights from the Torrido family to the twisted forest...prepared to defend against the dark attack.

After Luo Lie left, Earl Roger in front of him continued to order: "Kathena."

"Subordinates are here!" When Black Widow Katherine heard the order of Count Roger, she quickly took a step forward, and then looked at the Count Roger.

But seeing Earl Roger said there: "I order you to take 30 knights from our family to guard the back mountain position of the family..."

After hearing Earl Roger's order, Black Widow Catharna nodded quickly and said, "Yes!"

Then he left quickly.

Although Katherine is a female classmate, she has a very high kill ability in the family!

That's why Earl Roger sent Kathleen to guard the last hill of the family.

After Count Roger personally ordered, he then knighted to the other five cronies in the hall: "You five, come with me..."

After the five trusted knights heard Count Roger's order, they said, "Yes!" Then they followed Count Roger and quickly ran outside.

"Brother, what happened? Why did the members of the Torrido family take up their weapons? Has something bad happened?" In the room, I saw the Pope Sun's Tia with a pretty face He looked at Ron and said with a face of doubt.

But what about Ron? At this moment, a pair of sword eyebrows were frowning tightly.

Suddenly he said: "Yes, according to what I heard from the members of their family just now, it seems that the evil Gangelo family and the Heiyi family have already attacked!"

"What?" Tia in front of him was stunned when he heard what Ron said in front of him.

"No, the evil Gangaluo family and Heiyi clan came so fast?" Tia said in shock.

Ron in front of him said solemnly: "Yes."

"Don't underestimate those evil vampires, their abilities are absolutely beyond our imagination."

After Ron said this, Tia said, "Brother, what should I do?"

Then Ron said, "Get back our weapons first!"

It turned out that Ron and Tia's weapons were confiscated before entering the Forgotten Temple...and they have not yet returned their weapons.

After Ron said that, Nadia quickly nodded and said, "Yes, brother, we must get our weapons back."

"Well, let's go to Elder Alchid to get our weapons back..."

As Ron said, he was already preparing to take his sister with him to find Archid, the elder of the Torrido family, and then get back their weapons.

Just when Ron arrived at the door, the room door was suddenly pushed open.

After pushing away, Na Ron and Tia were taken aback and looked up, but it was Count Roger and the knights he was carrying with him standing outside the door in amazement.

"Earl Roger?" Ron and Nadia in front of them were not only slightly startled when they saw Earl Roger, they didn't know why Earl Roger came here suddenly.

Just when the brothers and sisters cried out in surprise, they saw that Count Roger suddenly said: "Ron, Tia, now our family is facing an unprecedented disaster... I hope you humans of the Pope of the Sun can follow us Fight side by side and help our blood."

After Earl Roger said so suddenly, Ron was not only taken aback.

what?

It turns out that Earl Roger actually came to them for help! ! !

Then Ron said, "Earl Roger, in fact, to tell you, we are going to you, ready to help you!"

"But, our weapons are still in the hands of your members!" Ron said.

Count Roger smiled after hearing what he said, and said: "Don't worry, I've got your weapons back for you!"

After Earl Roger said so, Nadia and Ron in front of them were not only slightly startled.

I saw that Earl Roger waved slightly to the Torrido family knight behind him: "Bring the weapon..."

After he finished speaking, he saw a knight walked over quickly, and he was holding a rucksack in his hand, a deadly crossbow, and a silver-white pistol.

Of course the weapon in front of him belonged to Ron and Tia.

When Ron and Tia saw that Earl Roger had actually brought up their weapons, they were not only excited, but the two quickly took over their weapons, and then they were happy. Looking at Lord Roger in front of him, he said, "Earl Roger, thank you so much."

Na Roger said: "You are welcome, in fact, we should be thanked! We want to thank you for helping our family through this terrible disaster."

"As long as it is for mankind, our Pope the Sun is indispensable!" said Ron there.

"With these words from you, I am satisfied!"

The red-haired glamorous Tia interjected at this moment: "Earl Roger, may I ask, have the evil vampires of the Black Lac and the Gangelo family really approached here?"

When asked by Tia, Count Roger showed an ugly look on his face and nodded silently, "Yes, Miss Tia!"

"Now is the most dangerous moment... Our family has begun to prepare for the first level of defense, and I have sent the best warriors of our family to twist the forest, and the rear position of the Forgotten Temple has been tightly armed. ."

After Earl Roger said so, everyone knew how terrifying the situation was.

Then Ron said, "Earl Roger, please order, as long as it is useful for our brothers and sisters, just speak up."

Chapter 2142: Mary's words

Roger gratefully glanced at Ron in front of him, and then said, "Thank you!" Then he said, "Because you are our family's guests, we don't want to send you to the front line. I hope you can protect the flank of our Torrido family, and then I will tell my knights to cooperate with you!"

After Lord Roger said so, then Ron said decisively: "Okay!"

"Well, that's the decision!"

"Thank you..." Finally, Lord Roger gratefully said to Ron and Nadia.

"By the way, Lord Roger, where is Li Tian? Where is your family's savior? Will he be involved in this battle?" Suddenly Nadia asked about Li Tian.

Count Roger frowned for a moment after hearing Tia's question in front of him.

Li Tian?

Can the savior of the blood prophecy really save the Toredo family?

To be honest, Count Roger didn't believe it in his heart! And it's not just Earl Roger, it can be said that the vampires of the Torrido family do not believe it!

Because now Li Tian is still immersed in his pain as a vampire! He has no thoughts to help the so-called Zhengyi Alliance, and he has no thoughts on these vampires! He just wants to turn back into a human being, just to find his brothers, his lovers, and his father, Cthulhu!

After the Count Roger was deeply depressed, he slowly raised his eyes and looked at Tia in front of him: "Miss Tia, please believe us, our Torrido family does not need a savior, nor What predictions are needed, our Torrido family will definitely fight for justice and will never allow this world to be subverted in darkness."

After Count Roger uttered these words, he turned around and left, leaving Tia and Na Ron who were confused in front of him.

After watching Count Roger leave like this, the simple Tia said in surprise, "Brother, what happened to Count Roger?"

"Why does he say that their kinsmen don't need a savior? Don't they believe in ancient prophecies?"

Ron, who was in front of him, heard his innocent sister asking this, a bitter smile appeared at the corner of his mouth, and then he looked at Tia in front of him and said, "Silly sister, you really think that this kid can save you by himself. What is the fate of their Toledo family?"

Tia asked, "Brother, what do you mean... the so-called savior? All the so-called prophecies are false?"

Then Ron didn't answer his sister's words, just shook his head there, then showed a helpless smile, and then stepped forward.

What about Nadia? At this moment, Li Tian's decadent expression appeared in his mind, as well as his crying smile in that corner.

Suddenly murmured in that question: "Is everything fake? Isn't that Li Tian really a savior?"

...

In the most remote place of the Forgotten Temple, I saw Li Tian alone with no expression on his face.

It's been two days. During these two days, Li Tian has been in the darkness. He can't see the sun or the light. In his current eyes, there is only darkness and some are just black. Painted night.

He finally knew that he had become a real vampire and was no longer a human.

He tried to move around during the day when all the vampires of the Torrido family were resting, but when Li Tian's hands were just exposed to the sun's rays, his arms suddenly became hot like a fire. It felt painful, and his arm was almost completely damaged. Fortunately, he shrank his hand quickly at the time, otherwise Li Tian's arm might be destroyed!

From then on, Li Tian knew that he would never be able to move under the sun anymore... He really became a nightwalker in the night, a member of the blood clan, a vampire!

The current Li Tian couldn't accept this fact. He stayed there, just as motionless, without any consciousness on his expressionless face, and everything around him felt unimportant.

He can no longer stay with his brothers, can no longer be with his lovers... Tang Xiaolong, Chen Qiaozhi, Xue Wuhen, and his beloved Situ Ningbing, Duanmuying, and Ouyang Shiqing and other beauties... can't be with them anymore!

He became a monster, a monster that humans are afraid of: a vampire.

Thinking of everything, Li Tian's heart seemed to be cut by a knife, stinging, and deeply stinging.

Just when Li Tian was alone in confusion and pain, Mary walked out slowly in the room.

Mary changed her clothes, a light and simple outfit, and she also held a curved blade in her hand!

She seems to be going to fight!

After Mary walked into the room step by step, she first looked at Li Tian with her beautiful eyes, and then murmured Li Tian's name there.

"Lee..."

"are you OK?"

Following the exit of Mary's voice, Li Tian stood motionless, his expression numb, like a stone.

Seeing Li Tian not talking or moving, Mary sighed deeply.

"Li, don't be like this. I know you feel uncomfortable, and I know you can't accept your current identity, but the facts are here. What can I do?"

"Lee, think about it. If you hadn't become a vampire, you might have died. If you died, how sad is your father Cthulhu? And so many good brothers and deep The women who love you... how uncomfortable they should be, do you know?"

"Now, although you have become a member of our blood clan, I promise you that I will convince our elders to help you restore your human identity with blood sacrifice Dafa after the war, although hope is very high. Vague, but we should always have a little hope..."

"Lee, the war of our blood family has come! Now our family has reached the most dangerous moment. The cruel Gangelo family and the terrible Black Lac family are ready to carry out a devastating attack on our family... if you can Hearing what I said, I hope you can cheer up and fight with our family to resist this terrible attack..."

After Mary had spoken for such a long time, Li Tian remained motionless and did not answer Mary a word from beginning to end.

Mary was helpless, she finally took a look at Li Tianzai affectionately and said, "Li, if this time our family perishes... if I die, I hope you can live, and hope you can eventually become your hope. Human beings."

After Mary said these words, she turned and left.

Holding the curved blade in her hand, she walked out quickly, preparing to plunge into the defensive battle of the Torrido family.

Chapter 2143: Death Overture

The dark forces are here!

The horrible dark cloud has shrouded the Torrido family, singing in the cold wind of death, it seems that you can hear the singing of the dead and the cruel sound of destruction.

Horror finally came.

I saw that Li Tian slowly raised his expressionless face after Mary had left for a long time, and then slowly stood up.

Go outside step by step.

Outside the Forgotten Temple, the vampires of the Torrido family, each member has a weapon in his hand, and each member has a nervous expression on his face.

Some are praying there, some are running fast, and some are commanding.

Li Tian looked at all this, his eyes suddenly trembled.

He slowly raised his cold and pale hands, and muttered in pain in his mouth, "Is this the fate of Li Tian?"

"This is my life?"

He seemed to be asking himself, and he seemed to be asking the endless heaven!

His voice was blown away by the cold wind and disappeared into the helpless night. There was no answer, no echo, as if even Heaven had forgotten Li Tian.

...

The Torrido family has now entered the stage of strict defense!

Since the prophet Ka Suo used the Eye of Time to see the blood and fire, the war has begun.

Now the entire Torrido family has begun to completely enter a defensive posture.

Located in the most positive place of the Torrido family, and also the most difficult place for the whole family, it is bound to be the twisted forest.

This is the most important guarding place of the Torrido family, and it will be the core place of this battle. And now in the Twisted Forest, not only were the many guardians of the Torrido family guarding this twisted forest, but Earl Roger also sent Luo Lie and more than 20 brave knights from the family to guard the twisted forest.

Here, it will definitely become the first place to start the battle.

Amidst the groaning cold wind, it seemed to hear the whine of crying.

Darkness seemed to swallow the entire world. In this deadly dense and twisted forest, I saw members of the Torrido family lying prostrate.

Their eyes were open bright, the sharp blade in their hands hissed in the cold wind, they were motionless, guarding every piece of the family's land.

"Master Luo Lie, why haven't you seen any movement for so long?"

In the silent, twisted forest, a voice suddenly rang in a low voice.

It was a vampire member of the Torrido family who was speaking behind Luo Lie. He was tall and thin, lying on the ground, his strange eyes looked at the endless darkness in front of him and said slightly.

The majestic Luo Lie was also lying prone among the dense twisted forest trees at this moment. After hearing the question from his subordinates, he whispered: "Don't make a noise!"

"Earl Roger ordered us to guard this place... we must remember the words of Earl Roger."

After Luo Lie finished saying this, the subordinate frowned and said, "Master Luo Lie, I am not disobeying Lord Roger's words, but we have been here for almost one night, but we haven't I heard a little movement..."

"I wonder if it's the so-called prophet guy of the Buren family, the prediction is wrong..." the guy continued.

Hearing what he said, Luo Lie was also confused.

Because they have indeed been in this twisted forest for one night, but so far, apart from the low noise of the cold wind, there is no movement at all...

The Twisted Forest seems to have nothing but them! So after the guy said it, Luo Lie also thought in his heart that it was the guy named Ka Suo who predicted wrong?

However, Luo Lie is still a relatively honest and loyal person. He silently said: "Anyway, everyone must follow the family's arrangements!"

"Earl Roger ordered us to guard this place, we must follow Earl Roger's arrangement!"

The subordinates lying next to him heard Luo Lie say this, and nodded one by one: "There is no doubt about this. We swear allegiance to Lord Roger and swear to guard the twisted forest."

After they finished speaking, they continued to lie in the dark twisted forest, guarding this dangerous land.

In addition to Luo Lie and the knights around him, there are other guardians hiding in the darkness in the twisted forest.

These guardians are more familiar with this forest than Luo Lie and the knights behind him, so their position is uncertain, they are investigating the movement in the front place.

In the dark night, the murmur of the undead sang from the sorrowful twisted forest. Those sad notes seemed to propagate from the wind and suddenly lingered in the twisted forest for a long time.

Luo Lie guarding the twisted forest, as well as the guardians in the darkness, almost all heard those ancient screams!

They heard it, heard the overture of the ancient mourning! This is the final song of the blood race every time the war comes...

At night, permeating the blood-colored fields, the dim moonlight never shines, undying death, forgotten, what is left in the heart, only a dry heart is left.

Heaven, Meng Mengliang wakes up next to the tomb, and the walls of Deathstroke Town leave only mottled pain and wounds. Looking back, the battlefield of blood and fire leaves only the glory of the past.

Shell, only the slaughtered body, empty eye sockets without blood, tears and light, the glory of the distant dark city, the rotten glory

Water can't wash away the old wounds on the finger bones, and the broken armor can't conceal the soldier's old beliefs. Hold the gun and then return to the forefront. Where is the blood and the ancient hatred

The trumpet sounded again in the distance, when will you return to your hometown, and how will you return to your hometown? What about you once, whose prince is it? Whose bones?

Fire, the throbbing despair who is singing in a low voice

Said that the grief of the forgotten proved hope by battle

A sad prelude lingers throughout the twisted forest.

When this death-filled prelude lingered in the twisted forest, the vampires of the Torrido family seemed to see piles of dead bones and the corpses of their companions... They knew that the war was about to begin.

At the forefront, the guardians were guarding in the twisted forest, only two of them were hidden above a dense tree.

The luxuriant branches and leaves cover their bodies, and their eyes are like hunters, staring at the front, waiting for the darkness to come.

Suddenly a "buzzing" sound came from the deadly silent twisted forest!

Chapter 2144: The war has begun

The sound was like crying, and it came from the far east with a terrifying and desolate feeling. When the sound was heard, the faces of these guardians suddenly changed.

"coming!"

"They're coming..." They said to each other secretly in their hearts.

This is the horn of the death knell, this is the horn of fighting. Every member of the blood clan knows what the sound just means.

After the terrible death knell horn blew, suddenly there was a "boom boom" in the deadly twisted forest.

It seems that there are thousands, tens of thousands, and terrible things are coming towards here.

At this moment, the members of the Torrido family waiting in the Twisted Forest, as well as the guardians, looked cautiously, staring at those who did not dare to come out.

Their hands tightly held the weapons in their hands... their eyes stared at the front unblinkingly.

A few hundred meters away, movement has been heard.

Closer, closer.

One hundred meters.

Dozens of meters.

Ten meters.

...

Suddenly, in the twisted forest in front of it, it seemed as if a beast was crawling fast, and it rushed toward this side very fast.

I saw that the guardians at the front were ready to die.

Getting closer and closer, getting more and more dangerous.

Wailing

In the dark twisted jungle, after the roaring noises, a dark, stinking monster suddenly burst out of the dense forest. His pupils were **** and hideous, and his entire limbs were decayed and mutated like beasts, and his face was completely distorted. Only the pointed fangs and pale teeth were exactly like vampires, jumping out of the darkness.

Heiyi!

This is the terrible member of the Heiyi tribe.

Just after this member of the Heiyi tribe first appeared in the eyes of the guardian, the guardian grabbed the fine steel spear that had already been prepared in his hand, and swished it out.

The steel spear pierced deeply into the head of the Heiyi tribe... Ah, a scream of screams came from the monster's mouth, and then the stabbed head suddenly shattered, and the body thumped. Fell from a high altitude.

One hit!

But this is only the beginning of the battle.

Because when the guardian pierced the black vampire's head with a fine steel spear, a cracking sound suddenly came from the ground.

The vampires of the Heiyi tribe possess the ability to move quickly in the crypt. This is an ability that none of the thirteen blood clan clans have, so the Heiyi tribe is also called the burial crypt.

Just after the guardian killed one of the members of the Black Lap clan with a single blow, the ground below him suddenly broke up, and then two extremely terrifying members of the Black Lap clan popped out directly from the cracked ground. .

But seeing that the two members of the Heiyi tribe were also dark, with dirty stench and corrosive aura all over their bodies. After they sprang out, those **** eyes stared at the guardian, and then their bodies became Jump, like an animal, jump straight over.

The guardian saw the two members of the Heiyi tribe rushing forward, and was shocked. The fine steel spear in his hand quickly turned over and pierced one of the Heiyi tribe vampires flying in mid-air. On his body.

After the vampire of the Heiyi tribe was pierced in the chest, he let out a scream, and fell from the midair.

But the other one has already leaped on the guardian's head. His two black claws suddenly grabbed the guardian's head, and then clicked, and stupefied the Torrido family guardian's head. Twisted alive.

After twisting it off, the cruel Heiyi clan vampire hissed, as if it were triumphant laughter.

In an instant, a guardian was killed by a cruel member of the Heiyi tribe.

The battle here has already begun, and a scream of screams can be heard from the side, and it is obvious that the battle has also started over there.

In the twisted forest, there were already many guardians of the Torrido family guarding it. At this moment, it should be the guardians and the forward forces of the Black Yap tribe who launched a fierce battle.

Luo Lie, who was still holding his post in the rear, and the Torrido family knights beside him, had ugly and cautious faces when they heard the screams and fighting sounds coming from the front.

Everyone was sullen and silent, staring at the dark forest ahead.

They knew they were about to start fighting!

The guardians in front had already fought fiercely with the demon vampires of the Black Yap clan, and they still couldn't move because they were the second line of defense in this twisted forest.

"Master Luo Lie, it's already started, do we want to go over and support!" The knights of the Torrido family who could not help but were ready to go into battle.

But what about Luo Lie? But he said coldly: "No!"

"Stay here for me...no one is allowed to move!"

"Don't forget, we are here as the second line of defense. If we are here to support, once the cruel beasts copy us from our back, or if they take the opportunity to enter our family powerhouse, it will be a big trouble." Luo Lie ordered.

Listening to Luo Lie's words, the vampire knights who were impatient and wanted to go into the battle could only hold back their mentality fiercely and continued to wait.

Each of them held the weapons in their hands and watched the movement in front of them with wide eyes.

...

Forgotten Temple.

The terrible songs sung by the undead just now were all heard by the members of the Torrido family in the entire Forgotten Temple.

At this moment, I saw an unprecedented shock and fear expression on everyone's face.

Forgetting the front of the temple, but seeing Nadia and Ron holding on to the flanks, after hearing the weird chanting overture, Nadia asked in horror: "Brother, what sound is that... Why is it so harsh?"

Then Ron frowned deeply and looked at the place of the twisted forest, and said: "That's the singing voice of the undead..."

"This is the most terrifying and cruel singing of the blood race in thousands of years!"

"Once the singing of the undead begins, it means that war has broken out." Ron said.

Listening to Ron in front of him saying so, Nadia stayed there all at once.

"Brother, you mean, war has already started in the Twisted Forest!" Tia asked in astonishment.

Ron nodded, and his eyes suddenly nodded silently in the direction looking at the twisted forest.

"Yes, the war has begun."

Chapter 2145: Fierce battle

"Report to Earl Roger, the guardians of our family in the Twisted Forest have fought fiercely with the members of the Black Lap Clan." Only a knight came back from the direction of the Twisted Forest, reporting the battle to Earl Roger.

Count Roger, dressed in a uniform, stood there cold, looking at the knight who came back to report and asked, "How is the battle?"

"It's still unclear, but according to our observations, there are many members of the Heiyi Clan dispatched this time! It is estimated that our guardians in front cannot resist..."

After speaking with the knight, Earl Roger's face suddenly became extremely ugly.

"Earl Roger, what should we do now?" the knight in front of him asked in a panic.

Count Roger saw his panic and said angrily: "What is the panic?"

"Luo Lie and the others?"

"Report to the Earl, Lord Luo Lie is currently at the second defensive post, and has not formally confronted the enemy yet." The knight replied.

Count Roger said: "Okay! Send the order to Luo Lie, even if you die, you must hold fast to the twisted forest!"

After hearing the order of Lord Roger, the knight said, "Yes!"

Then quickly retreated to the twisted forest.

I saw five knights standing next to Earl Roger. Each of these five knights reached out and they were the five most powerful men of Earl Roger.

At this moment, I only listened to one of them, the tall and resolute knight said: "Earl Roger, do you want me to take someone to support Luo Lie and the others?"

Count Roger Shen followed his eyes and shook his head there.

"Do not!"

"I believe Luo Lie should be able to hold it!"

"You and I have another task assigned to you... Don't mess around now!" Count Roger said there.

Listening to Earl Roger's words, the five knights in front of them also nodded silently.

...

The fierce battle in the twisted forest continued, and in the dark twisted forest at the forefront, screams came from the dense forest.

Among those pitiful and painful voices, some were members of the Black Yap clan, and some were guardians of the Torrido clan!

The cold wind of death blows over the entire twisted forest.

Luo Lie who guarded the second line of defense tightly here, although they were worried about the safety of the front comrades in their hearts, they could not go up to help, because this second line of defense was far more sacrificed than the front comrades. More important.

So no matter what Luo Lie and the others want to save the guardians, it is impossible.

"Master Luo Lie, will all of our people... die?" The knights in front of them already had a bad feeling.

There were screams from the dark twisted forest in front of them from time to time. Obviously, the battle in front was too intense.

In the forefront, there are only more than 20 guardians of the Torrido family, but there are countless members of the Heiyi clan. Such a cruel fierce battle definitely cannot force the opponent.

Just after the knight in front of him asked, Luo Lie's complexion became extremely ugly, and he shouted at his hands: "What nonsense are you talking about?"

"Our Torrido family can definitely stop this attack!"

"You all give me concentration, no one is allowed to care about the situation in front, give me all honestly to guard the second defense line." Luo Lie roared.

Accompanied by his roar, the vampire knights around him closed their mouths one by one, and no one dared to talk too much.

At this moment, the sound of killing and cutting in front was getting more and more violent, and only a scream of screams could be heard in the darkness, and the **** aura from the wind was heard.

...

In this way, the previous fight lasted for nearly twenty minutes, and suddenly all movement in the dark twisted forest in front of him stopped at this moment.

There was no more screams, no more fighting sounds.

Everything was restored to the way it was before, without any movement!

Whether it was the terrible and cruel Black Yap tribe or the guardians of the Torrido family, there was no sound.

what happened?

Looking at the twisted forest full of deathly silence in front, Luo Lie, who was the second line of defense, and dozens of Torrido knights ambushing here, all had expressions of horror on their faces. No one knew what was ahead. What exactly happened.

"What's the matter? Why hasn't there been any movement before?" One of the knights couldn't help the doubts in his heart, and finally asked.

As his words fell, another knight whispered there, "Could it be that the **** member of the Black Lap clan stopped attacking?"

No one in the room answered his words! Because everyone knows that his words are just nonsense!

The fierce battle just now, as well as the horror of the Heiyi tribe, was enough to catch the guardians of the first line of defense by surprise, and could not beat them at all.

Therefore, it is absolutely impossible for the Heiyi clan to stop the attack.

Unless, unless there is a situation, that is, the guardians of the first line of defense of the Torrido family are all dead...so there is no fighting.

At this moment, but seeing Luo Lie on the second line of defense and the knights around him, when they heard no sound in front of them, their hearts became more and more panic.

Is it dead? Still alive?

What happened to the guardian in front? No one knows at present.

Everyone was watching there with fear, staring at the darkness ahead unblinking.

But in the dead space, is there any movement there?

At this moment, Luo Lie finally couldn't help feeling upset. He said to a knight next to him, "You, let me go ahead and see the situation..."

"Remember, you must be careful! Don't be careless, once you see the situation, come back immediately, don't take the liberty to join the war!"

Following Luo Lie's words, the knight under his hand nodded quickly, and then said: "Yes, Lord Luo Lie!"

After he finished speaking, Shenfa quickly jumped up from the ground, and then walked swiftly towards the dark dense forest in front.

This twisted forest is dense with dense trees, and now with the gloomy darkness, it looks terrifying and strange.

Although the knight who was investigating the situation was quite courageous, he was not only a little flustered when he encountered the situation today.

Leaning forward at this moment, step by step fast forward.

The darkness in front is dead and quiet, and there can only be smells of rancidity and blood in the air...

As the knight stepped forward to inquire about the situation, the rancid and ***** atmosphere around him became heavier and heavier!

Just as he was about to pass through the thick grass, something suddenly stepped on him.

He was taken aback for a moment and looked down. This look almost scared him to death, but he saw 56 ***** corpses lying on the ground.

The heads of these corpses were all scratched, the brains flowed out, and the limbs were thrown on the ground coldly. Vampires, among the blood clan, in addition to the corrosion of silverware, the baking of the sun, and the burning of fire can kill the vampire, there is another way to kill the vampire, that is to cut off his head, or cut his The head is smashed...In this way, the vampire can be completely killed! This is the real reason why many vampires die tragically. Although his body is immortal, his head is not.

Chapter 2146: Second line of defense

Looking at the dead bodies of the guardians of the Torrido family in front of them, the knight of the Torrido family who was looking at them was completely stunned.

"Mygod! All dead?" The knight in front of him looked at the corpses of his companions on the ground in horror.

His body began to tremble uncontrollably, the trembling was because he was afraid.

There was no movement in the dark and dense twisted forest in front of it... But on the ground were the corpses of their own family guardians.

His footsteps suddenly took a step back! Because he subconsciously felt the danger approaching.

When he felt a huge danger suddenly rushing towards his face, his feet quickly withdrew!

But can he escape?

Just as one of his feet suddenly took a step back, a **** and terrifying claw suddenly shot out from the unreasonable ground, and then it caught his ankle all at once.

what

A scream came out of his mouth, and then looked down, but saw a "ghost claw"-like icy claw coming out of the ground, firmly grasping his ankle.

It was obviously a member of the Heiyi tribe who had drilled into the ground!

The moment the knight was caught by his ankle, he was shocked first, then quickly raised the sharp blade in his hand, and then slashed fiercely towards the rotten black claw that was holding on to his ankle.

With a flutter, that black hideous terrifying claw was instantly cut off, but the hand was still on the knight's ankle.

The knight of the Torrido family can't take care of that much at this moment. He just wants to escape now... and leave here alive.

But just as he ran out for two steps, two swishes from below the ground made two extremely terrifying members of the Heiyi tribe.

The two members of the Heiyi clan that jumped out had a hideous blood-red color in their eyes, and the long fangs in their mouths were stained with layers of disgusting mucus.

When the two monsters of the Heiyi clan burst out in an instant, the knight couldn't react at all, his eyes widened, and he watched the two "beasts" suddenly throw him to the ground.

what.....

The **** scream came out from his mouth.

But seeing the two members of the Heiyi clan rushed to the knight's head, and the other one rushed to the knight's body.

Blood, fishy meat!

The cruel scene appeared in his eyes, and in less than a few seconds, the knight's stomach and head had been torn alive... the intestines flowed all over the floor and died there.

Luo Lie and other Torrido family knights in ambush were all stunned after hearing the scream of the knight just now.

"what happened?"

"Have our members been killed?"

As they asked in surprise, they saw an expression of terror on every knight's face.

But seeing that Luo Lie's expression had become extremely ugly, after taking a look at the dark twisted forest in front of him, he whispered to the knights around him, "Everyone, get ready! They are about to attack. It's..."

Following Luo Lie's words, the vampire knights lying on the ground in front of them suddenly looked panicked, and at the same time raised their desperate eyes to watch the movement ahead.

The gloomy breath of killing came from the front place.

A gloomy cold wind suddenly came here.

At this moment, after hearing a scream in front of him, a dozen or so terrifying Heiyi tribe vampires came out directly from the thick bushes.

The vampires of the Heiyi tribe were completely like beasts, and they threw their lives toward this side.

When Luo Lie saw the members of the Heiyi tribe all at once, he shouted, "Kill me!"

Accompanied by his howling voice, this macho jumped out of the hiding place for the first time.

The figure is flying, holding a steel spear in one hand, and wearing a pair of heavy copper armor gloves in the other hand! Iron Fist!

Facing one of the members of the Heiyi clan who jumped over, it was a fierce blow to go up!

With a flutter, the hard steel spear directly pierced the chest of one of the Heiyi clan members...The Heiyi clan member screamed and his body was thrown out.

Another member of the Heiyi clan attacked Luo Lie from the side, but saw Luo Lie's figure dodge, avoiding the brutal pounce of the guy who used to be, quickly turned around, and hit the steel fist with his left hand!

With a bang, it hit the distorted face of the Heiyi tribe member, directly causing his head to shatter and fall to the ground.

However, it was said that Luo Lie here was the first to fight the members of the Heiyi clan like a violent battle, and the knights of the Torredo family behind him also began to fight.

They cooperated with Luo Lie in front of them, fighting with the members of the Heiyi tribe with their weapons and blades.

Round fighting skills, it is obvious that the members of the Black Yap clan are no better than the Torrido clan.

But when it comes to assassinations, assaults, and ambushes, these despicable and gloomy techniques, the Torrido family seems a little embarrassed.

After all, the members of the Heiyi tribe who have long lived in dark corners, or in sewers and grave caves, are born with extremely terrifying raids.

Now those members of the Heiyi clan are confronting head-on, as if they are not the opponents of the knights of the Lolie and Torredo family!

But their number is extremely large, one after another!

One by one, no, no, a knight of the Torrido family was not paying attention to the back, and a member of the Heiyi clan suddenly jumped on top of him, and then screamed his neck with sharp fangs. Ripped apart... Then the whole head was ripped off by the cruelty.

died!

A member of the Torrido family was killed alive.

"Asshole!"

The knights were already like brothers. After seeing the death of their partners, their eyes were red, and their faces turned into a vampire's brutal state, and they fought fiercely with the members of the Heiyi tribe.

However, no matter how Luo Lie in front of him and the more than twenty knights behind him fought, piles of Heiyi clan members still came to support him.

The ***** wind filled the twisted forest.

All wars are on here!

Fighting sounds filled this dark forest. This is the most important line of defense of the Toledo family. If this second line of defense is defeated, then the Toledo family is really dangerous!

After all, after passing here, we arrived at the lair of the Torrido family, and there was the shrine of forgotten Torrido family!

Now, all eyes are on the fight in the twisted forest. Can this second line of defense be held? No one knows at present.

Chapter 2147: sucker Punch

"Earl Roger, the Twisted Forest has started a full-scale war!"

"According to our previous inquiries, the guardians of our first line of defense have...had been sacrificed!" The Torrido family knight who came back to report the battle said with grief and indignation towards the Count Roger. .

After the Count Roger heard the knights say so, Count Roger was suddenly there.

"what?"

"The first line of defense has completely collapsed?" Count Roger exclaimed.

He never expected that the Guardians of the Torrido family on the first line of defense would be defeated so quickly!

As he screamed, the surrounding Torrido family vampires heard all of them, and their faces showed extreme panic expressions, and at the same time they were all talking about it.

"My God, our first line of defense is over so soon?"

"What should I do then? What about the second line of defense now?"

"Will our second line of defense soon collapse? By that time, will our family be completely exposed to the enemy?"

"Are we finished?" The vampires around were all talking in panic.

As they said that, the Earl Roger's eyes were red and shouted angrily: "Shut up all of you!"

After Count Roger's roar, but seeing the vampires who were just talking about them all shut their mouths tightly, no one dared to talk too much.

At this moment, Lord Roger raised his ugly face and looked at the direction of the twisted forest. Suddenly he looked at the subordinate who came back to report and said, "How are Luo Lie and the others now? Can they hold it?"

The knight hurriedly replied: "Master Luo Lie is currently fighting fiercely with the beasts of the Heiyi clan... But... the members of the Heiyi clan have increased dramatically, and more and more, I am afraid that the second line of defense..."

After this actually said so, I saw that Count Roger's face became more and more ugly.

The second line of defense is also dangerous! This indicates that the entire Torrido family is currently in danger.

How to do?

Should we continue to send more manpower to guard the second line of defense?

However, there are only a few hundred members of the Torrido family. Now all parts of the Forgotten Temple, including the two wings, and the rear, need to be guarded by members... Once the personnel stationed pass, then other places will definitely collapse, what should be done? What to do

Just when Count Roger didn't know what to do, suddenly from the side of the Forgotten Temple, a fiery red shadow and a white shadow shot towards here at extremely fast speeds.

"Earl Roger, let's support the second line of defense!"

Suddenly, a beautiful and pleasant voice came from the mouths of those two shadows.

With a nice voice coming, I saw that the people who spoke were the flame daughter of the Bren family who possessed powers, and the two sisters of the Frost Daughter.

Just after the Fire Girl and the Ice Girl of the Buren family arrived, all the vampires of the Torrido family were stunned.

Count Roger also looked at the two sisters in surprise at this moment.

"You? Are you going to support the second line of defense?" Roger looked at the two sisters in front of him and asked.

But seeing the beautiful fire girl and the ice girl nodded silently.

"Earl Roger, if we don't support it anymore, I'm afraid your family's second line of defense is about to collapse!" The Fire Girl said.

Earl Roger didn't want to trouble other members of the Buren family so much, after all, the Buren family is a guest of honor in the Torrido family!

But now the situation is critical. After thinking about it, Earl Roger can only look at the Fire Girl and the Ice Girl and say, "That, that, thank you!"

"Earl Roger, you are so polite..."

"Our sisters are going to support the second line of defense! Don't worry!"

After the Fire Girl said this, she didn't even look at the Count Roger in front of her and the knights behind him. Following the Ice Girl, her figure flashed quickly and swiftly towards the twisted forest.

After the Fire Girl and the Ice Girl went to support Luo Lie and the others, the vampires of the Torrido family in front of them were finally relieved.

After all, the ice twin sisters who have abilities are quite capable.

When Earl Roger saw the two sisters leave, he was a little relieved, and turned to the vampires behind him and said: "Everyone sticks to their posts. The second line of defense should not There will be a problem! All you have to do now is to keep your respective positions!"

After Lord Roger gave the order, the vampires of the Torrido family said, "Yes!" Then they quickly returned to their positions!

Count Roger raised his deep eyes and glanced at the direction of the twisted forest. Then he slowly turned around and quickly ran to the other side.

...

What about twisted forest?

The fierce battle is still going on.

I saw that Luo Lie's blood was still fighting fiercely there!

His majestic body was grabbed by the members of the Heiyi clan at this moment, and the ribs on his left side were broken, but he still did not fall. He was clutching his chest, and a steel hand was facing the Heiyi who was rushing over. The members of the clan smashed it hard!

Every vampire member of the Heiyi clan that was smashed would make a miserable cry.

Even so, a group of Heiyi tribe members still rushed towards him.

Where is this place? However, seeing that the more than 20 knights carried by Luo Lie had already lost more than half, each corpse died incompletely on the ground, and the remaining 56 knights were dying at this moment, like the end of a crossbow.

Their bodies have reached their limits. Who can survive the continuous battles of members of the Heiyi clan?

I saw one here not paying attention, but seeing one of the knights of the Tored family being thrown to the ground by the vampire of the Blackyc clan!

He didn't even have time to react, the 34 members of the Heiyi tribe behind him had already split his body...

The screams kept coming from the dark twisted forest.

The ***** and windy dark forest is filled with the breath of death.

The Knights of the Torrido family, who were the only ones left behind, slowly gathered together,... They panted, holding blood-stained weapons in their hands, doing their last dying struggle.

But seeing the numerous members of the Heiyi tribe around them tightly surrounding them... They opened their cruel and **** eyes and stared at the members of the Torrido family who were waiting to die in front of them, their fierce gazes revealed. The light of destruction.

Chapter 2148: Flanking

"Master Luo Lie, we...we may not be able to escape!" One of the knights who was still alive next to him asked Luo Lie who was looking in front of him with his eyes open.

Luo Lie was hurt all over, he endured it there!

He just clenched his fist tightly, glaring at all the members of the Heiyi tribe in front of him with his eyes open.

"Even if we die, we can't let these monsters pass our family!" Luo Lie roared.

After his majestic voice was uttered, the knights around him who had completely lost their combat effectiveness were also aroused blood.

Only four knights were there and said together: "Yes! Even if we die, we have to defend the second line of defense..."

"Come on, you beasts...have the ability to kill us!"

At this moment, Luo Lie and the knights around him are no longer afraid of death. They already know the ending, so now the only goal is to kill more of these evil Black Vampires.

A group of members of the Heiyi tribe surrounding Luo Lie and them roared in their mouths.

Their limbs were lying on the ground, with their **** eyes open and staring at the Torrido family members twisted in front of them.

Suddenly... a terrible whistling sound came out, and suddenly the vampires of the Heiyi tribe began to prepare to attack!

One or two hundred members of the Heiyi clan crowded around Luo Lie and the others, and Luo Lie and the others? As for now, there are 5 people!

Such a **** battle is definitely a dead end!

"kill!"

Following Luo Lie's last rage, he rushed towards the members of the Heiyi tribe as if seeing him crazy.

A steel fist hit the head of a Heiyi vampire who had no time to guard, and slammed it out with a bang. The vampire member of the Heiyi family suddenly screamed, and then the whole head was shattered alive!

And as Luo Lie regarded his death as home, the knights of the Torrido family around him also rushed towards the dense black vampire vampires.

One fell down!

Two are down!

Three fell...

In the end only Na Luo Lie was still fighting desperately there!

The knights who were still fighting with him just now have all fallen to the ground in broken limbs and died.

Luo Lie slashed and slayed like a lunatic among the vampires of the Heiyi clan...

But after all, he was outnumbered, and his back was smeared by the members of the Heiyi clan!

Seeing that Luo Lie was about to die alive in this twisted jungle, at this moment, the dark twisted jungle that was originally full of blood suddenly felt an extremely enthusiastic feeling!

It felt like someone was baking them in front of a fire.

Accompanied by this hot roasting sensation, a fiery red figure suddenly flashed out of the dense forest.

"Damn Heiyi! You all go to hell..."

Accompanied by a sigh of relief, I saw a group of thick fire snakes sweeping like a dragon to the vampires of the Heiyi clan in front of me!

Vampires are afraid of fire!

At this moment, after seeing such a huge fire snake suddenly swept toward them, they suddenly screamed and ran for their lives.

But even so, there is still a large part of the members of the Heiyi clan that were burned by the fire.

The raging flames are burning their ugly and dirty bodies...The burning members of the Heiyi clan let out a miserable howl in the fire...

Their bodies were burned alive, and the air was full of unpleasant smells of burnt meat.

Astonished, the one who used fire turned out to be the glamorous fire girl of the Buren family.

It turned out that the fire girl came to support!

Luo Lie, who thought he was about to die, couldn't help being stunned when he saw that it was the Fire Girl of the Buren family who came to support him.

"Miss Firewoman?"

The fire girl glanced at Luo Lie, her beautiful eyes not only showed a little match for Luo Lie, she said: "Luo Lie, are you okay?"

"I...I'm fine..." Luo Lie endured the pain in his body.

Just as Luo Lie had just finished speaking, two cruel Heiyi clan vampires suddenly appeared from the ground behind the fire girl!

It turned out that the members of the Heiyi tribe hiding in the ground were about to attack the fire girl!

At this moment, seeing the two extremely cruel members of the Heiyi clan jump out from behind the fire girl, Na Luo Lie was shocked.

"Miss Firewoman, be careful behind..."

As he exclaimed, the fire girl already felt the danger behind.

She turned around very quickly, her pair suddenly turned red and red like flames, and then after passing through her body quickly, her two hands crossed left and right, and then quickly turned towards the two Heiyi tribes. 'S members attacked!

Bang Bang, Huo Nu's two red arms hit the bodies of the two members of the Hei Ya Clan! Then I saw a deadly blaze flame suddenly burned in the heart of the woman's hand, and then suddenly burned blazingly on the two members of the Heiyi tribe.

Ah, ah... The screams suddenly screamed from the mouths of the two members of the Heiyi tribe!

Seeing that the two members of the Heiyi tribe were burned to death by the Fire Girl like this, the numerous members of the Heiyi tribe were all roaring loudly... They raised their extremely cruel gazes before that fierce stare. The fire girl, as if vowing to tear the fire girl to eat.

The roar, roar, roar, roar came from the mouth of the vampire of the Heiyi clan.

The vampires of the Heiyi tribe seemed to be communicating with each other, and they used the Yi language.

After they roared in that low voice, then they saw the piles of Heiyi tribe vampires suddenly all scattered, and then surrounded the fire girl from all directions!

It turns out that these beasts are not only ugly and ugly, but they also have wisdom... They even choose tactics to deal with the flames that the fire girl is extremely good at.

After Huo Nu was suddenly surrounded from all sides, Huo Nu's mouth was secretly lined: No! Her willow brows not only wrinkled slightly...

Then at this moment, there was a beast-like howl. From the far left, two extremely cruel and ugly Heiyi tribe vampires suddenly rushed towards the fire girl, and the flames accumulated by the fire girl suddenly came from their mouths. Erupted.

The fire is raging, burning everything!

The two vampires of the Black Yap tribe were swallowed by fire in a blink of an eye, and all that remained could only hear the miserable cry... and the painful wailing.

But in a blink of an eye, when the fire girl dealt with the ugly vampire of the Heiyi tribe on the far left, all the vampires on the right side, and the Heiyi tribe behind, all spotted the opportunity, hissed, and then all turned towards the woman Pounce.

Even if the fire girl has great abilities, she can't dodge the attack from all sides!

Chapter 2149: Sisters of Ice and Fire

Seeing the attack from all sides, those cruel vampire members of the Heiyi tribe pounced on the flame girl in front of them like beasts!

Although the fire girl was powerful, she was a little overwhelmed in the face of such a fast and unparalleled attack from all sides. At this moment, seeing that fire girl's face had become extremely ugly.

And Luo Lie, who was seriously injured on the other side, couldn't help at all. At this moment, he could only watch the fire girl in deep trouble!

When Huo Nu was in danger, the aura in the entire space suddenly became cold.

As the surrounding temperature began to get colder, there was a faint breath of ice in the air.

At this moment, I saw a snow-white figure swept over here.

"Ice Fury!"

A cold voice came out of her mouth.

Along with the words, she saw endless extremely cold air suddenly bursting out of her body, and those cold air quickly rushed towards the vampires of the Heiyi tribe beside the fire girl.

The extremely low icy temperature suddenly rushed to the vampires of the Heiyi tribe. Suddenly, the bodies of the vampires of the Heiyi tribe were slowly frozen and stiff... They were never going to kill the fire girl. Thinking of how terrifying this cold air current is, it could freeze them all alive in a flash!

Dozens of Heiyi tribe vampires were frozen alive by the ice just like that...The surrounding trees and bushes were all covered with a thick layer of ice.

Ice girl!

It turned out to be Huo Nu's sister, the Ice Girl is here!

After the dozens of Vampires of the Heiyi tribe were all sealed by the ice girl with the icy cold, all the vampires of the Heiyi tribe around were stunned... No one dare to step into the frozen land at this moment!

One by one, they opened those brutal and **** eyes, roaring there, angering at the Fire Girl and the Ice Girl in front of them, but they never dared to step forward.

After the Fire Girl was rescued by the Ice Girl, her body suddenly flashed to the Ice Girl's side.

The two big beauties stared coldly at the numerous members of the Heiyi tribe in front of them, facing them without fear or fear.

But what about the vampires of the Black Yap? Their ugly and hideous faces stubbornly stared at the Fire Girl and the Ice Girl, but no one dared to go up.

At this moment, a strange sound suddenly rang behind the dark twisted forest.

The voice sounded like a roar, resounding behind the twisted forest. After the sound, the vampires of the Heiyi clan, suddenly began to recede...

It turned out that the voice was the retreat signal of the Heiyi tribe!

As the voice sounded, the members of the Heiyi clan began to slowly retreat. After they had all retreated more than a dozen meters, they suddenly turned and fled toward the thick and twisted forest behind!

They are gone, retreated!

Seeing all the members of the Heiyi tribe in front of them retreat, the fire girl and the ice girl in front of them breathed a sigh of relief.

But seeing Huo Nu turned her head, she looked at Luo Lie, who was covered in scars, and asked: "Luo Lie, how are you?"

Luo Lie clenched his fist tightly and said, "I...I'm fine!"

Fire Girl smiled lightly, and then took out a bottle of "artificial blood" from her arms.

"Here, you can add your strength." He threw it to Na Luolie.

Luo Lie reached out and took it in his hand, then opened the lid, raised his neck and drank the artificial blood.

After drinking the artificial blood into his body, Luo Lie obviously recovered some physical energy.

"Fortunately, the second line of defense did not collapse... If it collapsed, then it would be really troublesome." Fire Girl muttered while looking at the corpses of the vampires on the ground.

Suddenly the ice girl said coldly: "Go back!"

Huo Nv glanced at the situation and said to Luo Lie: "Luo Lie, go back with us, treat your injury first..."

Na Luo Lie was seriously injured at the moment. Although he drank artificial blood to replenish his stamina, he obviously could no longer fight! After hearing the words of the fire girl, Luo Lie finally nodded there, "Okay, thank you both for saving my life!"

The fire girl said lightly: "You're polite..."

"Let's go, let's go back soon."

As the fire girl finished speaking, she made it easy for the ice girl to show off together, and then quickly flew in the direction of the Forgotten Temple.

And Luo Lie behind him also hurriedly followed the two beauties and flew towards the direction of the family.

...

"Earl Roger, our second line of defense is guarded! The cruel members of the Heiyi tribe have all retreated."

Exciting good news came from the direction of the Forgotten Temple!

When this good news came all of a sudden, the vampires of the entire Torrido family were very excited about it. Everyone was happy and excited.

Count Roger did not only show a slight smile on his face when he heard the knights say so.

"Good!" Roger said.

"However, Lord Roger, in order to defend the second line of defense, our members have lost a lot..." The knight suddenly said in a low voice in frustration.

"How much did you lose? How many members of us are still alive?" Count Roger asked quickly.

But seeing the ugly face of the hand, he whispered and replied: "All...all...dead...except Lord Luo Lie! The rest of the knights all died."

After the knight in front of him said so all of a sudden, Earl Roger was stunned.

what?

After Roger heard the news, his heart felt like a knife cut!

The knights of the second line of defense were elite knights of the Torrido family, but they all died so soon...

If the Heiyi tribe makes a comeback and makes a second attack, what should be done? Count Roger thought of this in his heart, and the joy just now disappeared instantly.

His face showed an extremely worried look, and stayed there for a long time without saying a word.

"Where's Luo Lie? How's he doing?" Just listen to Count Roger looking at the knight below him and asking.

The knight under him said there, "Report to Lord Roger that Lord Luo Lie was only seriously injured, but he did not die... He was saved by the twin sisters of the Ice and Fire of the Buren family."

When he heard that Luo Lie was not dead, Roger finally breathed a sigh of relief.

"It's good if you don't die, it's good if you don't die..."

"Notify the family members and continue to send more people to guard the second line of defense! Remember, even a fly is not allowed to cross the second line of defense by half a step!" Count Roger ordered there.

The knight in front of you quickly replied, "Yes!"

Then he quickly retreated.

Count Roger looked at the knight who was retreating quickly, staying there with an ugly face.

Chapter 2150: Extremely cold

"Earl Roger, this is no way to go on like this after all. The cruel members of the Black Yap clan are at least three or four times more expensive than the members of our family. I am afraid that our family can't afford it..." Beside, a tall, thin, burly knight said worriedly.

Of course Lord Roger felt this terrible situation!

But at this moment, what can be done?

"At present, our family is only facing the hateful Heiyi tribe. If the Gangaluo family's army also arrives here, Lord Roger, then our family will be in great danger!" Just listen to the knight in front of you. Said worried.

Count Roger snorted angrily: "Of course I know these things!"

"But, can you tell me, what else can we do now?" Count Roger roared.

Of course he understands the current situation, but what can he do if he does?

With a loud shout from Count Roger, the knight standing beside him fell silent.

However, after he was silent for a few seconds, the knight suddenly raised his head, and saw him looking at Lord Roger in front of him and said: "Earl, didn't the prophets of the Buren family say that we have a savior?"

"What about that guy? Isn't he the savior of our blood? Why doesn't he come to help us fight evil?" The knight suddenly mentioned Li Tian in his mouth.

At the moment Li Tian was mentioned, Earl Roger's complexion became even more ugly.

"Don't mention that guy to me..."

"Hmph, he is useless!" Count Roger furiously said in front of him.

Yes, the current Li Tian is really useless at all!

Li Tian refuses to help the Toledo family now. He is still immersed in his pain. How could he help the vampires of the Toledo family?

When Earl Roger said this, the knights under his command said: "Since he is not the savior of our family... Your Royal Highness, please order me to kill that fellow! Lest we all report unreported hopes to him Body."

Following this, the Lord Roger said, "Making a fool!"

"At this moment, how can there be time for him?"

After being scolded by Count Roger, the knight in front of him immediately closed his mouth tightly, but he hated Li Tian in his heart! Because it was Li Tian who gave them hope that they shouldn't have... and now that hope is completely shattered, so he hates it!

"At present, you are doing your own business for me, don't care about other things!" After Count Roger left a cold last sentence, he turned and left here.

The knight and the vampires of the Toledo family around him were left behind!

...

"The **** guy dare to lie to us? It turns out that the guy with the Gangelo family blood flowing in his body is not the savior of our family!"

"He is a cover, he is a fake! He can't save our blood at all!"

"Ah? Is it fake? That guy is not the savior of our family?"

"That's right! Earl Roger said just now, that guy is useless at all!"

"Damn bastard, kill him! Kill him!"

"He deceived our family, deceived us..."

When Earl Roger said that Li Tian was not the savior of the blood clan at all, the vampires of the Torrido family had a strong hatred for Li Tian!

They all hate Li Tian!

Every member of the entire Torrido family is currently talking about Li Tian.

But what about Li Tian? But he still didn't know anything, he still didn't come out to help the Torrido family, he just stayed in that corner alone, without speaking or speaking.

At this moment, a noisy sound rang from the front.

"Quick, quickly... bring Master Luo Lie in!"

"Master Luo Lie's injury is too serious..."

With the sound coming, but seeing 56 vampires of the Torrido family running in panic carrying a **** guy from outside.

Li Tian was really unwilling to take care of these nostalgia, but because it was too noisy there, he leaned out and took a look.

At a glance, he suddenly saw that the injured was Luo Lie.

And at this time, the vampires of the Torrido family also saw Li Tian leaning out.

"It's him?"

"This waste..."

"Just because he is the savior of our blood family? Bastard... he is a waste of nothing!"

"Damn, why didn't he burn him to death in Penal Plaza that day? Let him live until now!"

I saw that the vampires of the Torrido family were full of anger and hatred when they saw Li Tian! They all hate Li Tian and hate him for doing nothing.

What about Li Tian? Hearing their curses, he didn't say a word, but kept standing there with cold faces.

While these Torrido families cursed Li Tian, the Fire Girl and the Ice Girl suddenly came over from there.

After they heard the voice, they not only turned their heads slightly, and saw Li Tian standing there indifferently.

Huo Nu not only frowned slightly when she saw Li Tian.

Then I saw Huo Nui step by step towards Li Tian.

Li Tian didn't look at the Huo Girl with his eyes, he could hear Huo Girl approaching him only by listening to the sound with his ears.

"Hey... your name is Li, isn't it?" After the fire girl approached Li Tian, her sweet voice came into Li Tian's ears.

But what about Li Tian? But he didn't even look at her, turned around, and walked directly to the lonely place.

"Hey, stop!" The fire girl in front of her was not only slightly angry when she saw Li Tian didn't even look at herself, and went straight away!

For a beautiful woman like her, never has a man dared not to look at her like this!

Whether it's a vampire or a human! But Li Tian in front of him didn't even glance at her from the corner of his eye. How could this not make Huo Nu depressed? angry?

After the fire girl called out again, Li Tian really stopped.

But seeing him suddenly turned the pale face indifferently, looking at the fire girl in front of him: "What's the matter?" His words were the same as his people, extremely cold, without any emotion.

Hearing his cold voice, the fire girl felt a hundred uncomfortable in her heart. She glanced at Li Tian and said, "I heard about you... and also knew that you were a human before! About you, I do sympathize with you. But, you must know that you have changed now. You are a vampire, just like us. You can't walk under the sun, you can only hide in the dark night... You need blood just like us. Come to replenish your stamina, or you will wither and die."
