

A Killer 2301

Chapter 2301: Li Tian is missing

Li Tian's body suddenly moved at the moment the corpse king hit by a blood wing. No one could believe that Li Tian's speed was so fast and so amazing. .

With a swish, only a * shadow crossed.

His blood shadow flashed past the corpse king at the speed of light.

No one has seen how Li Tian made the move? No one saw clearly how Li Tian's body moved.

The only thing they saw was a terrifying blood-colored figure flashing past the corpse king, and the corpse king's entire body trembled violently.

The trembling was because of pain, but the pain was because of his injury.

Then something strange happened.

Only heard a terrifying scream from the dead king's mouth suddenly, the sound was extremely ugly.

what.....

The painful roar came out from the corpse king's mouth, look carefully, my God, when the blood shadow of Li Tian slashed past the corpse king's body, the corpse king just hit the right one against Li Tian. The side wings were broken abruptly by Li Tian. The moment the blood-colored wings were broken off, I saw the exposed white bones.

One of the two wings of the corpse king was broken!

But it said that at the moment when one of the wing of the corpse king was broken by Li Tian, all the black knights of the Gangaluo family were all confused!

They did not expect that their corpse king elder would be injured? One wing could be broken by Li Tian?

It's incredible! Even the Elder Corpse King was seriously injured by Li Tian!

Look at Li Tian again? His horrible figure has reached this side, and the two trembling hands hold a huge * broken wing of the corpse king.

Looking at Li Tian's face again, his face was still extremely distorted, and his whole body was shaking with invisible energy.

The blood-red "Sha" in his chest has become more and more conspicuous.

The corpse king was broken by Li Tian alive, and roared there like crazy.

Endless zombie aura surged from his body, he was in pain, and he was angry.

But now he dare not attack Li Tian again.

And what about Li Tian?

At this moment, he didn't make another shot. His whole body was trembling with convulsions, as if some weird changes were taking place all over his body. On his distorted face, blood stripes covered his face, looking weird and terrifying. .

Mary, who was seriously injured over there, as well as the Ice Girl and the Fire Girl, not only exclaimed when they saw Li Tian suddenly become like this.

"Lee!"

Suddenly Mary crawled on the ground, and yelled Li Tian's name hard in her mouth.

But at the moment she just yelled out, the pair of hollow and ruinous eyes of Li Tian suddenly stared at Mary's body fiercely, with endless hostility in his fierce eyes.

It was a pair of pupils that were more terrifying than death. The moment she stared at Mary's body, Mary only felt an invisible fear rising from her heart.

horrible!

It's horrible!

That Li Tian's eyes had completely changed from the original Li Tian, and no longer looked like himself.

He seems to have become another thing, even more terrifying with monsters.

Could it be said that Li Tian doesn't know that Mary and the others?

No one dared to approach Li Tian now.

Because his whole body exudes infinite power, even the corpse king who roared in pain never dared to approach Li Tian in front of him.

Everyone, whether it is the black knight of the Gangelo family, or the corpse king Uris, or the Mary Fire Girl Ice Girl, all raised their shocked eyes at the "changed" Li. day.

What about Li Tian?

The strong aura exuding from all over his body seemed to break through his body, his body was trembling violently, and the word "Sha" in the middle of his chest was also getting redder and red like blood!

what! ! !

A loud scream came out from Li Tian's mouth again.

He seemed to be releasing the energy in his body. At the moment his screaming roar came out, his body suddenly flew straight out of the cave like a ball of blood.

With a swish, the blood-light figure jumped directly from the black knight of the Gangelo family.

Wherever I went, I saw the black knights of the Gangaluo family screaming horribly, and where Li Tian had passed, the ground was completely shattered. Then Li Tian's The * figure just disappeared out of thin air.

too fast! It was almost impossible to see exactly how Li Tian left.

Li Tian disappeared!

In this way, it disappeared in everyone's eyes for no reason.

What is going on with him? How could it suddenly become like that?

No one in front of them knew, whether it was the cruel Gangeuro family or the Mary here, no one knew what terrible changes had taken place in Li Tian.

I don't even understand why the word "Sha" appeared on his chest.

When Li Tian's figure disappeared, the corpse king Uris in front of him, as well as the black knights of the Gangaro family, were all shocked.

They looked at the place where Li Tian disappeared in disbelief.

The corpse king Uris was severely injured for the first time in his life. One of his wings was actually broken by Li Tian.

Pain and anger filled the heart of the corpse king Yuris.

Even the strange dark crow that fell on his shoulder couldn't help but screamed "Qua, quack, quack.

What about Mary and the Fire Girl and Ice Girl here?

They thought that Li Tianhui saved them, but when Li Tian suddenly became like another person, Mary and the others were also desperate.

Finally, the corpse king Uris endured the anger and pain in his heart, and looked at Mary and others over there with anger, and suddenly yelled: "Grab all these  for me!"

"Also, inform all the members of the Gangelo family to search for the trace of that stinky boy... My corpse king must find him, and must eat his flesh himself!"

The roar came out from the mouth of the corpse king.

Now the corpse king with one broken wing looked funny and terrifying, but no one dared to carry out the orders he issued.

In this way, the black knights of the Gangelo clan once again held Mary and the Fire Girl and the Ice Girl.

However, the Corpse King did not let the black knights of the family kill Mary and the others, but imprisoned them first.

The corpse king now hates Li Tian the most. He can't wait for Li Tian to die in front of him, but even if he hates it in his heart, what can he do?

Li Tian has disappeared!

He can't be found anymore!

Chapter 2302: Blood shadow

Li Tian has mutated!

Outside of heaven and earth, apart from the black knights of the Gangaluo family, as well as the captured Mary, the fire girl and the ice girl, no one knew how Li Tian had changed.

The Blood Fiend was born, destined to create a terrifying storm.

The sky was dark, dozens of kilometers away from the Immortal Mountains, but I saw a group of people walking forward.

"How far do you have to go to find them?" An irritable voice said from one person.

Look carefully at the person who is talking, it is Li Tian's good brother Tang Xiaolong, it turns out that this group of people is the evil  and them.

But the one who led the way in front was what the evil  and the others encountered on the road: Blood Hunt, David.

It turned out that after seeing the "signal" sent by Ron and the others, David rushed all the way to the direction of the immortal mountain, but unfortunately they have not arrived yet.

But seeing that David, after hearing Tang Xiaolong's complaint, turned his head and showed an apologetic smile and said: "Alright!"

Tang Xiaolong snorted in an unhappy mouth, stopped talking, and stepped his head to continue walking forward.

The evil  didn't speak much along the way.

He didn't know why, his expression became weird and ugly, and his expression was full of unknown worry.

It turned out that just an hour ago, Cthulhu suddenly felt a deep pain in his heart. The heart-piercing pain made Cthulhu once unbearable. The pain was like what happened to the Cthulhu's closest relatives. It's the same, so Cthulhu is in pain.

Thinking of this, Cthulhu will certainly think of his son: Li Tian!

Is it possible that something major has happened to Tianer?

Although Cthulhu thought about it this way with worry, he didn't say much.

The Duguxie and the ghost servants who were closely following the Cthulhu God also saw the worried look on the Cthulhu's face at this moment, and saw Duguxie hurriedly walked to the Cthulhu's front: "Brother, what's the matter? Are you thinking what's the matter?"

After the Cthulhu heard Duguxie's question, he was slightly silent, then raised his eyes and looked into the distance: "I don't know why, I am more and more worried about Tianer..."

"In the dark, I always feel that Tian'er has encountered some disaster." The evil  suddenly murmured there.

After the Cthulhu said this, Duguxie's expression also changed. He looked at the Cthulhu said, "Big Brother, Young Master will definitely be fine."

"I believe him. I have been with him for so long. Although the young master has suffered too many disasters, but every time the danger is turned into a disaster, I believe that the young master will definitely be the same this time." Du Guxie was there to comfort that. Cthulhu.

After Duguxie said so, the evil  suddenly shook his head.

"No, this time is different!"

"Because I have a very bad premonition." Cthulhu said with a frown.

When Duguxie heard this Cthulhu said, he didn't know how to comfort his elder brother.

As the saying goes: Father and son have one heart!

Maybe Cthulhu has really sensed Li Tian's weird changes.

Just as the Cthulhu thought this way in his mind, the sky thundered, thunder and lightning flashed, and strange thunder sounds were emitted from the place in front of the immortal mountains.

The roar sounded like a bomb, immortal and deafening.

That piece of sky has been illuminated by thunder... Endless lightning smashed there. The lightning illuminated the entire sky, and the thunder made the entire immortal mountain range extremely frightening.

"what happened?"

"Why is there such a terrifying thunder in the front place?" I saw the ghost servant exclaimed at this moment.

The Cthulhu and the brothers raised a pair of extremely unbelievable eyes at this moment, looking at the Thunder Road over the distant immortal mountain range.

"Hey, such a weird weather?" Tang Xiaolong also said ugly, his eyes widened.

On the other side, Chen Qiaozhi frowned deeply, and muttered in his mouth: "Heaven, it seems to have changed."

"Sick ghost, what do you mean? What is a natural change?" Tang Xiaolong couldn't help but wonder when he heard Chen Qiaozhi's muttering.

Chen Qiaozhi was too lazy to pay attention to Tang Xiaolong in front of him, looking at the thunder of the immortal mountain range with both eyes, his face became increasingly ugly.

Where is the evil * here? Also staring at the weird sky.

The thunderbolt continued, and the sky was illuminated by thunder and lightning... and there was the place where the immortal mountain range was.

"It seems that something happened before." Cthulhu said coldly.

"What will happen?"

"do not know."

"By the way, David, what is the place ahead?" The evil * suddenly looked at the blood hunter David and asked.

After David heard the evil spirit's question, he quickly replied: "The front is the magic mountain, the immortal mountain."

"Immortal Mountain Range?" When the Cthulhu and the brothers heard it, they not only frowned slightly.

Of course none of them had heard of this place, so they didn't know about the Immortal Mountains.

"Where is the Immortal Mountain Range?" Du Guxie in front of him continued to look at David and asked.

But seeing that David returned to the Tao and said: "The Immortal Mountain is a famous and magical place in Italy. Rumors say that there are stone giants as tall as the mountains..."

"What? Stone giant?" The brothers in front of him looked at David with an incredulous expression.

But seeing that David nodded violently and said, "Yes."

"According to legend, the stone giants there are extremely tall, hidden in the mountains of the Immortal Mountains..." David continued.

Hearing what David said, my brothers were dubious.

However, at the moment, what they are most depressed is the weird sound of thunder from the top of the immortal mountain range. Why is there such a strange change in the sky there?

And just above the Immortal Mountain Range, there was no sound of thunder in other places.

Looking at this scene, the brothers became depressed.

Just as everyone was surprised, they saw that in the sky shining by thunder and lightning, a * light suddenly shot toward the west from the place of the Immortal Mountain at a peerless speed.

Fast as a meteor, almost invisible to the naked eye.

"Huh, what is that?"

"Sick ghost, did you see it just now... A blood-red light shot out from the place of the immortal mountain range and flew towards the west." Tang Xiaolong exclaimed excitedly.

Then Chen Qiaozhi and the other brothers, of course, all saw the surprise just now.

Because that blood shadow light is so weird! So the brothers in front of me were shocked there at the moment.

Chapter 2303: The vampire is coming

"I saw it! Gosh, what the * is that shot out of the Immortal Mountain Range?" Chen Qiaozhi muttered with his eyes widened.

Where is the evil * here?

Of course he also saw the meteor-like blood shadow light shot from the Immortal Mountains just now. I don't know why, when the Cthulhu saw that strange blood shadow light, his heart suddenly shook.

In my heart, as if grasping, I suddenly mentioned it.

And the Duguxie and the ghost servants beside them did not see the strange changes of the evil god, they were all in the place where the blood shadow light disappeared with blinking eyes, couldn't help but be surprised.

"The Immortal Mountain Range is too weird... We better not go to that broken place." The brothers in front of them shouted there.

The fairy Baihua next to him also murmured: "Yes, right now, it is most important for us to find the sky, and we should not go to the immortal mountains."

Since the moment when the brothers saw that * light shoot out from the Immortal Mountains as fast as a meteor, their hearts felt an invisible and strange sense of fear towards the Immortal Mountains!

In addition, the Cthulhu and the brothers now only want to find that Li Tian, so under everyone's final decision, the brothers are not willing to go to the immortal mountain to cause trouble!

So, they chose to deviate from the right side of the immortal mountain range, where they went.

Although Cthulhu felt a strange feeling in his heart, he didn't say anything to say it. He was only worrying about his son more and more in his heart.

So David led the evil gods and they deviated from the direction of the immortal mountain range, and turned to the other right side.

After walking for about half an hour, the Cthulhu's keen intuition suddenly noticed something moving in front of him.

When he felt a movement coming from him, the evil * suddenly opened his mouth and shouted, "Stop!"

After the Cthulhu Doctor screamed, the brothers were stunned for a while, and then all raised a pair of puzzled eyes and looked at the Cthulhu.

"Big brother, what's the matter?" Duguxie over there walked over and looked at the evil * and asked.

The shining eyes of the evil * suddenly stared at the darkness in the distance and said: "I heard the sound of human footsteps coming towards us."

"Footsteps?" When the Cthulhu said this, Duguxie and the ghost servants looked ugly.

Fairy Baihua over there, Situ Ningbing behind, and Ouyang Shiqing and other girls also showed caution.

But seeing the evil * listening to the voice of the cold wind, he suddenly said, "They are getting closer and closer!"

"Who is it?"

"I don't know. As for the enemy or passers-by, we don't know. The best way is to hide it first!" Cthulhu finally decided to say there.

After the Cthulhu said so, the brothers nodded quickly.

I saw barren woods standing around them, and the brothers looked at the barren woods around them, so they flew toward the tree one by one, some hiding behind huge rocks.

After all of them were hidden, they all breathed, quietly waiting for strangers in front of them.

No one knows what character is walking ahead!

The Cthulhu was hiding in the dark, and continued to listen.

Just now because the distance was too far, the Cthulhu could only distinguish the messy footsteps, and now that the footsteps were getting closer, the Cthulhu could already hear that there were definitely no fewer than twenty people coming from the other side!

And these twenty-odd footsteps seem to feel like they are walking in a hurry, just like something terrifying behind chasing them, their steps are messy and terrified, and they rush from the front.

The more Cthulhu listened, the more he felt something was wrong.

At this moment, the blood hunter David hiding beside the evil * suddenly illuminated a small green bottle in his arms.

When the strange little bottle glowed brightly, David's face suddenly changed.

"Vampire?" An exclamation whispered from his mouth.

When he yelled, the evil * was taken aback, raised his extremely cold eyes at the Blood Hunter David, who was staring in front of him, and asked coldly: "What did you say?"

"Vampires! The people in front are vampires..." David said with his eyes widened.

When the Cthulhu heard this, his eyebrows suddenly wrinkled, and he looked at David in front of him and asked, "How do you know?"

Then David took out the small bottle with weird light in his arms and said: "See if...My holy water bottle is on. This bottle is the holy thing of our Pope Sun. It has been blessed, so if there is a vampire When you get closer, the holy water bottle will automatically light up."

"Our blood hunters of the Pope the Sun, everyone will have such a holy water bottle, so that when we hunt down those vampires, we can find their whereabouts." David explained to the evil * in front of him. .

After the evil * heard what David said in front of him, he was not only taken aback, and then raised his eyes to look at the weird "Holy Water Bottle" in David's hand.

Secretly: Is this what David said is true? Was it the terrible vampire who rushed forward?

After the Cthulhu thought this way, he suddenly said to the Duguxie, the ghost servant, and the other brothers who were hiding behind him: "Everyone is ready to fight. The terrible vampire is coming ahead... I want you to be sure. Protect yourself as much as possible."

When the words "vampire" came out from the Cthulhu's mouth, the faces of the brothers changed in shock.

Then they clenched their fists tightly, and then stared at the front in the darkness with wide eyes.

The messy footsteps are getting closer!

And Cthulhu can judge that the number of vampires rushing towards them is definitely no less than twenty...

Thinking of this in his heart, he became depressed, after all, there were still a lot of vampires.

But the current Cthulhu couldn't take care of that much anymore, he could only wait and watch the situation before him.

The footsteps are getting closer!

Now not only the evil * can hear the rushing footsteps, even Tang Xiaolong and Chen Qiaozhi can hear the messy footsteps coming in front...

Getting closer, the brothers became more cautious.

Twenty meters...

Fifteen meters...

Ten meters...

When the distance got closer and closer, I suddenly saw the dark depths ahead, and the figure jumped.

They were trying hard to run wildly towards the evil god... Every guy looked flustered, and while running, he couldn't help looking back, as if something terrible was chasing them behind.

Chapter 2304: Kill without mercy

And at the moment they were getting closer, the evil  and the brothers could see their faces clearly.

Each of them had a pale paper face, and their eyes showed a hideous, bloodthirsty light. At the same time, they seemed to be captured, all naked, and some of them had extremely hideous blood marks on their bodies. The ones with iron chains are on their hands.

They are indeed vampires!

When they saw their faces clearly, the brothers recognized them all. After all, when the brothers were in Jinghai City, they had witnessed the faces of the vampires of the Gangaro family and the faces of Mary and others. When they saw these guys in front of them, they recognized them all at once.

It's just that the thing that makes them most depressed is, why are these vampires different from the vampires before?

How can they show fear one by one, and there is endless fear on everyone's face... The most depressing thing is that they are shirtless and dirty, and some of them are still holding hands. With heavy iron chains on his feet!

It's like... a prisoner!

After looking at this situation, the brothers were all depressed.

But they didn't move much, but stood still one by one, watching the movements of these vampires.

However, there are not twenty or thirty vampires in this large group of vampires, and each one is running hard, as if something terrible is chasing them behind.

Just after these vampires suddenly ran into the area hidden by the brothers, the guy in the front of them with a burly figure and loose hair suddenly felt something was wrong.

But seeing him suddenly yelled there: "Wait!"

Following his utterance, the two dozen vampires who followed him all stopped.

"Earl Simon, why should you stop?"

"Yes, Earl Simon, the black knights of the Gangelo family are about to follow... Let's run away!"
The vampires with panic faces behind looked at the guy called Earl Simon.

It turns out that these dirty-looking vampires turned out to be Count Simon of the Murkawi who escaped from the caves in the Immortal Mountains!

Just after the shocked vampire members behind that screamed, the Earl Simon suddenly looked around with cold eyes.

He seemed to have discovered something suspicious, and his pair of blood pupils suddenly became terrible and cruel.

"There are humans...I can smell human scents." A word suddenly roared out of his mouth.

It turned out that he smelled the human breath!

When Earl Simon of the Murkawi in front of him said this all of a sudden, the Murkawi and the vampire members of the nihty family were all startled in shock, and then looked around with incredible eyes. .

At the moment when Earl Simon yelled that sentence, a figure had already been swept out of the darkness like a ghost.

At the moment he quickly flew out, all the vampires were horrified there.

At the same moment, their faces became distorted and hideous in an instant, their pale fangs stretched out from their mouths, staring at the extremely fast figure fiercely.

That is indeed human!

Because at the moment he appeared, they all smelled his body.

The blood races have lived by sucking human blood for thousands of years. Therefore, when there are humans around them, they can easily smell the breath of humans.

This is their prey! It is the best item for vampires to supply.

Unfortunately, this time, they were wrong.

Because the speed of the flying figure was too fast, it was completely beyond their imagination, and the terrifying figure directly attacked the Earl Simon of the Kawi tribe.

Earl Simon of the Murkawi, never thought that humans would dare to attack them, and he was taken aback.

Then there was a roar in his mouth, and two cold hands grabbed the flying figure, and at the same time the pointed fangs also protruded from the mouth.

But at the moment when Earl Simon's two icy hands grabbed the figure flying in the sky, an extremely powerful force suddenly came from that figure.

Simon froze for a moment, and still didn't understand what was going on. He was hit by the extremely powerful force on his chest.

With a bang, Simon only felt as if he had been hit by a sledgehammer in his chest. With a scream, his body flew back as he was hit.

Then just before that Simon's body had not landed, the figure had flew over again.

One hand directly pinched Simon's neck, while the other hand grabbed Simon's two arms. With one blow, the Earl of Simon of the Kawi was completely restrained!

At the moment when Earl Simon was restrained by the terrifying figure, all the vampires behind Simon roared.

Then one by one raised his ferocious gazes, staring at him fiercely...their eyes were full of hatred.

"Who dares to come forward? I will kill him!" The figure in front of him suddenly let out an angry roar.

The figure was holding Count Simon's head. As long as he tried hard, Simon's head would definitely be taken off alive. Once the head was taken off, the vampire would definitely die!

So when the figure yelled, none of the vampire members of the Murkawi tribe and the vampire members of the nohity family dared to step forward.

After all, Simon is their leader!

But who is the one holding Simon? In addition to the world's invincible evil god, who else can there be?

After the Cthulhu suddenly restrained that Simon, the Earl Simon was stunned. He would never have thought that he had just escaped from the terrifying Gangaluo family's sphere of influence, and now he was captured by a human! How can this not make him depressed?

"Ignorant humans, let me go quickly, otherwise, you will definitely die!" Even though Earl Simon was restrained, he still roared there.

The Cthulhu snorted coldly, and the hand holding the Earl Simon suddenly used force.

Simon just felt that his neck was about to be squeezed off, and his whole body trembled.

"I didn't want to cause trouble, but helplessly, you  vampires discovered us... It seems that I can only kill all of you  vampires." The evil  said coldly, and the killing intent on his body increased sharply.

When Simon heard what the evil  said like this, he said, "You are a human being and want to kill so many of our members? Are you crazy?"

As Simon said so, the evil  suddenly laughed.

"Who said I was the only one?"

Chapter 2305: David's words

Following the words of the Heretic God, suddenly from the woods over there, one by one extremely fast figures flew over.

"Big Brother!"

"Senior Cthulhu..."

I saw that Duguxie, the ghost servant, and Tang Xiaolong and other brothers came from flying.

They are all out! After they all appeared, one by one looked at the group of vampires around him as if they were facing enemies.

At the moment when all the brothers appeared, the vampires of the Murkawi tribe and the vampire members of the nohity clan were shocked, and one by one backed up there.

As if they were all scared.

According to the truth, humans should be afraid of these dark creatures and vampires, but the current situation is just the opposite. Those dark vampires are actually afraid of evil spirits and brothers!

All of this is due to the moment when the evil god's domineering and unparalleled figure just appeared, he only used one move to stop the most powerful Earl Simon among them, so those weak Moka The Uyghur vampires and the vampire members of the nohity family are all scared. They never thought that humans would be so powerful.

What about Earl Simon? When he saw all the brothers show up, he was suddenly depressed.

Those eyes that were originally angry and fierce, at this moment, turned into a helpless and tragic look.

"Damn, damn, damn!" Count Simon yelled three times, damned, and then closed his eyes in despair.

"Since ancient times, our blood family has been incompatible with your humans. Today, I, Simon, fell on your human hands. I am unlucky and capable. Kill me!" The Simon in front of him suddenly closed his eyes in despair and looked for death there. Tao.

His faith has completely collapsed!

Originally in the stone cave of the Immortal Mountains, that Simon predicted that he would die, but did not expect the result, they escaped with Li Tian's help, but just after they escaped, they encountered such a powerful one. Human master!

Then Simon could only say that he was unlucky and deserved to die, so at this moment, he said helplessly.

The evil  has a natural anger towards vampires. After hearing Simon say so, he said coldly: "Do you think I dare?"

"Go to hell!" When a roar came from the evil god's mouth, he was ready to do it.

When the vampire members of the Murkawi tribe and the nohity family saw that Earl Simon was about to be killed by humans, they couldn't help it anymore. They shouted and said, "Fight with them. It's..."

"Fight with these humans! Kill them."

With a roar, these guys suddenly rushed over.

It seems that these vampires are ready to fight the trapped beast.

Seeing them rushing forward, the evil  was full of murderous intent, and he was already preparing to kill the Earl Simon under his hand.

Just when Cthulhu was about to squeeze the head of this Count Simon, suddenly the blood hunter David started screaming.

"Senior Cthulhu... wait... everyone wait a minute!" The Blood Hunter David suddenly called out.

When he suddenly called out, the Duguxie and the brothers not only focused their eyes on David, even the vampire members of the Murkawi tribe who were ready to fight to the death and the vampire members of the nohity family. They all fixed their eyes on David's body.

After this David suddenly called out, the evil  glared at him coldly and asked angrily: "David, what do you want to do?"

But seeing that David hurried over, facing the Cthulhu Road there: "Senior Cthulhu, wait a moment..."

After speaking, David suddenly turned around and looked at the vampire members of the nohity family over there, but saw those vampire members shirtless and dirty.

And what about David's eyes? It was staring at a logo with an "eagle" pattern tattooed on their backs.

"Are you... the vampire members of the nohity family?" A word came out of David's mouth. As he asked, he looked at the vampire members of the nohity family over there.

The vampire members of the nohity family were stunned when they saw this guy recognize their kinship identity at a glance.

All of them were horrified, staring at David with cautious eyes: "How do you know our identity?"

Then David screamed in excitement after hearing them confess their identity.

"You have your family's totem! That eagle totem!" David in front of him pointed to the "eagle" tattooed on the vampire members of the nohity family.

When the vampire members of the nohity family heard David say this, they all looked at him like a big enemy.

"Oh my god, can't you think you are really vampire members of the nohity family?"

"The rumors don't say that you were all wiped out by the vampires of the Black Yap clan two months ago? How could there be survivors?" David in front of him asked excitedly.

When David suddenly said this, all the vampire members of the nohity family were shocked.

"How does this guy know these things?"

"Who is he?" The vampire members of the nohity family looked at David in shock.

In the end, I saw those vampire members of the nohity family thinking for a while and said: "What you said is really good... Our family was indeed attacked by the  Black Lac family two months ago, and our family was indeed destroyed. Now, we survivors are captured by the Gangelo family!"

After hearing the vampire members of the nohity family in front of him say so, David was taken aback.

"captive?"

David thought about it in his mind, and then looked at what they were wearing and the iron chains on their wrists, and instantly understood what was going on.

"Oh my God, everything turned out to be like this." David shouted there.

Just as David was talking with these vampire members of the nohity family, the evil * was already unable to contain his killing intent!

He hated vampires so hard that he wanted to kill all the vampires in front of him.

So the evil * at this moment suddenly shouted: "David, what the * are you doing?"

Chapter 2306: Their identity

When the evil * yelled out in anger, David rushed over.

"Senior Cthulhu, misunderstood, everything is misunderstood..." David quickly explained there.

The Cthulhu heard this and said angrily: "What's the misunderstanding? These * vampires slaughter humans and * human blood. Is there any misunderstanding?"

Then David hurriedly said: "Senior Cthulhu, it is really a misunderstanding! These vampires are not the same as the dark vampires before, they are members of the Justice League...They are not the evil and terrible group of vampires."

After hearing David actually say that these vampires are members of the "Justice League", the evil * and the brothers over there were not only slightly startled.

I heard this David talk about the "Justice League" of the blood family before. He told the evil gods that the "Justice League" was specifically against the Gangro family and the dark vampires of the Heyx clan. He didn't expect to see him. David actually said that these guys are all vampire members of the Justice League?

"David, are you sure they are members of the Blood Justice League?" the evil * asked coldly.

But seeing that David pointed to the vampire of the nohity family over there and said: "Yes, 100% sure!"

"I am a blood hunter. I have seen the totems on these vampire members of the nohity family, so when I first saw the family totems on them, I recognized them." David shouted there.

Listening to David calling himself "Blood Hunt", the vampires of the nohity family, and the vampires of the Murkawi clan, all backed in shock.

After all, the blood hunt is specifically for assassinating vampires.

After hearing David say this, the evil * hesitated slightly.

He was half-believing what David said before him. After all, vampires are terrifying creatures, and the evil * must not be taken lightly.

But seeing Cthulhu for a while, he said to David, "Whether they are vampires from the Justice League or not, I can't easily let them go..."

"Who let them provoke us first!" Cthulhu finally added another sentence.

After the Cthulhu said so, the Simon who was controlled by the Cthulhu said there, "I didn't... deliberately provoke you... I just smelled your human breath."

Cthulhu listened, and carefully recalled that it was indeed the case. It was indeed this guy who smelled the human aura from his body just now.

After thinking about it, the evil  asked coldly: "Then I ask you, how did you get here?"

"Do you feel that we are here, so you want to come and  our blood?" the evil  said angrily.

Then Simon shook his head quickly and said, "No... it's not."

"Although we are vampires, we seldom  human blood. Members of the Mokawi have always sucked the blood of animals and wild beasts... We rarely kill humans." Count Simon defended there.

In fact, Simon was right. Among the blood races, only the Murkawi blood race was the strangest. They seldom sucked human blood. The blood they sucked was the blood of beasts and animals, so what Simon said was the truth.

When the evil  heard this, of course he didn't believe his words very much, and said angrily: "Why should I believe you?"

"Senior Cthulhu, what he said is true. Murkawi vampires have been sucking beast blood since ancient times." The blood hunter David suddenly interrupted there.

The evil  took a cold look at that David and said, "Are you sure?"

David nodded vigorously and said: "Yes, yes, I am 100% sure of this."

The Cthulhu was silent for a while, and suddenly said coldly: "Okay, then I will believe you once, but I remind you, if you say something is false, don't blame me for turning my face and not acknowledging others, I will take you with you Killed."

Listening to the murderous words of the evil god, David only felt a panic of fear surge from his heart.

Then after the Cthulhu finished speaking, he stretched out his hand and flew the Simon directly away.

Simon's body fell to the ground with a heavy thump, then rolled twice before getting up with difficulty.

After seeing that Cthulhu finally released that Simon, David showed a happy expression.

What about Simon?

After being released by the Cthulhu, his eyes were blood-red and looked at the Cthulhu...

In the end, he muttered to the evil god: "Thank you for not killing me..."

Cthulhu ignored him.

The vampires of the Murkawi tribe and the vampires of the nohity family over there, after seeing that the Cthulhu finally released that Simon, they all sighed.

At this time, David asked. He looked at Simon and the vampire members behind him and asked: "Hey, I asked you. You just said that you were captured?"

Then Simon and the other vampires heard David's question, so they nodded silently: "Yes."

"Then you... are you escaping now?" David in front of him couldn't help questioning as he looked at them one by one.

Simon returned and said, "You guessed it right, we really just escaped from the shadow of death."

After the evil * heard what they said, he suddenly understood in his heart.

No wonder these vampires look so flustered, no wonder they heard their steps so hurriedly just now, it turns out that they escaped.

"Are you captured by the dark vampires of the Gangelo family?" David continued to ask.

Then Simon replied, "Yes."

"Where is the dark vampire of the Gangelo family?" David asked.

Then Simon looked back at the immortal mountain range that exudes endless gloom, and suddenly pointed out his finger and said, "That's it, the immortal mountain range."

what?

David not only screamed when he heard it.

The Cthulhu in front of him and the brothers not only looked at the immortal mountain range over there in shock.

"Unexpectedly, the vampires of the Gangelo family were in the Immortal Mountains." David muttered in that mouth.

David thought for a while, and then asked, "Did you all escape? Are you the only Justice League? Can you see the vampire members of the Torrido family?"

After David in front of him asked, a look of shame suddenly appeared on Simon's face.

Even though the expression disappeared in a flash, the Cthulhu and his brothers were still watching this guy with blinking eyes at this moment.

Then Simon finally replied with an ugly expression: "No..."

"There are still many Justice League members who have not escaped, including those brave fighters from the Torrido family." Simon said.

Chapter 2307: Decide

When he heard Simon in front of him talking about the Torrido family, the evil god's eyes lit up instantly.

The Torrido family?

Isn't it the family of the girl named Mary?

At the beginning, Mary brought Li Tian back to the Toledo family. Now that there is finally news of the Toledo family, Cthulhu wants to know the whereabouts of his son immediately.

So at this moment, the evil * suddenly asked.

"You just said the Toledo family?" Cthulhu asked that Simon suddenly.

Then Simon looked at the evil * with a look of fear in his eyes, but he nodded there anyway.

"Do you know a girl from the Torrido family, her name is Mary?" Cthulhu asked again.

After the Cthulhu asked, Duguxie and the brothers all raised anxious eyes and looked at Simon.

What about Simon? After hearing the evil  suddenly say this, he was taken aback: "Mary? Miss Mary? Are you talking about the daughter of Earl Roger, Miss Mary?"

After Simon in front of him suddenly said Mary's name, Cthulhu became excited immediately.

"I don't know who Earl Roger you are talking about, but I know her name is Mary... Mary of the Torrido family." Cthulhu said there.

When Simon heard, "That should be the daughter of Count Roger, Miss Mary."

"Where is she? Do you know?" The Cthulhu asked quickly.

He wanted to know the whereabouts of that Mary right away, and then quickly got the whereabouts of that Li Tian.

But seeing that after the evil  asked, the Count Simon of the Kawi tribe showed a strange look on his face, not only sighed in sadness.

After seeing the weird expression on Simon's face, Cthulhu and the other brothers were not only shocked: "What's wrong? What happened?"

The Earl Simon looked ashamed, and said: "Mary...Miss Mary is still in the immortal mountains."

"Presumably...presumably now it's not good enough."

Hearing that Simon suddenly said this, the Cthulhu's aura changed drastically.

"What are you talking about?" The image of the evil  deceived the Earl Simon in front of him like a ghost.

The extremely strong suffocating aura on his body not only frightened the Earl Simon.

Earl Simon couldn't help taking a step back, and then said: "I...what I said...is the truth!"

Then the Earl Simon in front of him told them all about how they escaped from the cave of the Immortal Mountain, and also said that Mary finally returned to the Immortal Mountain Rock for her father. Things in the hole.

When the evil  in front of him heard this, his heart suddenly shook.

Suddenly his eyes were filled with an unknown painful color, and he muttered in that painful whisper: "How can this be? How can this be...?"

Then Simon continued to say with a guilty face: "I wanted Mary to escape with us, but helpless, she insisted on going back to save her father...I can't help it."

Hearing what Simon said, the Cthulhu was there all of a sudden.

The little clue just got stopped like this!

Only by seeing that Mary can we know the whereabouts of Li Tian.

"Tell me, then according to your meaning, then Mary is in the cave of the Immortal Mountain?" Cthulhu suddenly asked.

Simon nodded and said, "Yes."

"Mary must be in the cave of the Immortal Mountains, but, most likely, they have all sacrificed...because I have seen that the Gangelo family's troops have reached the cave of the Immortal Mountains. , And even Uris, the most cruel corpse king of the Gangaro family, has also arrived." Simon said there.

Hearing what Simon said, the evil * did not ask any more.

Just suddenly said to the brothers behind him: "Turn around, we rushed to the immortal mountain."

With the Cthulhu suddenly saying this, the Earl Simon of the Murkawi in front of him was suddenly taken aback.

"What? You are going to the Immortal Mountains... No! No, you must not go... There are now all the dark vampires of the Gangelo family... You can't go to that place." Earl Simon was comforting the evil * before him. Wait for humanity.

But seeing the Cthulhu suddenly turned his painful eyes, Simon who was looking in front of him coldly said: "Even if it is * on earth, I will go too."

After speaking, the Cthulhu led the brothers around without looking back, and they walked towards the immortal mountain range.

The Immortal Mountain Range, that Mary is there, although the Cthulhu and the brothers don't know whether Mary is alive or dead, but the Mary is the only clue to the whereabouts of Li Tian. For Li Tian, the Cthulhu and the brothers, even if they are a sea of fire, They will also break.

In this way, Cthulhu led the brothers towards the direction of the Immortal Mountains.

They absolutely did not even look back!

And what about David the Blood Hunt? When he saw Cthulhu leading his brothers straight towards the immortal mountain range, David in front of him finally sighed, then glanced at the Count Simon and said: "Since you have escaped, then Get out of here quickly..."

After finishing speaking, David suddenly ran towards the evil * and chased them.

Looking at the Cthulhu and others who were leaving, Earl Simon of the Kawi clan, and the vampires of the nohity clan behind him, all stared blankly there.

Suddenly Earl Simon murmured: "These human beings...how...how can they be exactly like that Asian boy?"

"And what they use... is all a kind of kung fu?"

"Could it be...what's the connection between this group of human beings and the Asian boy that Count Roger took?"

Earl Simon in front of him murmured in his mouth.

But his words, the evil * and brothers could no longer hear.

At this moment, the Cthulhu and his brothers are just unswervingly advancing towards the place of the immortal mountain range.

They went to find Li Tian.

"Brother, do you think the words of those vampires are credible?" In the darkness, only the voice of Duguxie resounded.

The Cthulhu walked in the forefront, and when he heard Duguxie's question, his expression changed slightly and said, "Whether it is true or not, for the sake of heaven, I will go to the immortal mountain range."

After the evil * said so, Duguxie nodded silently.

So all the brothers didn't speak anymore, and everyone followed the evil * in front of them and walked step by step towards the place of the immortal mountain.

Chapter 2308: The dead king is injured

Immortal mountains, that huge cave.

At this moment, I saw a large group of the Black Knight Legion of the Gangaluo Family walking toward the huge stone cave with great strength, followed by many members of the Heiyi Clan vampires.

The leader is naturally another earl of the Nagangro family: Berwick.

Next to him were the big snake girl and the death breath Antonio.

It turned out that they came with a large force.

But they said that when they rushed to the cave in this immortal mountain range, they smelled the blood rushing over their faces and saw the mountain of corpses.

The corpse included the corpse of the Ganguro family black knight, the corpse of the Kawi captive, and the corpse of the nihtoy family member.

"What's going on here?" the big snake girl asked in her green eyes blinking in astonishment.

That Breath of Death Antonio didn't understand what was going on here.

But seeing that pale face Count Berwick looked at everything around him coldly.

He murmured: "It seems that something is really happening here..."

After speaking, he suddenly raised Sen Leng's eyes and looked at the Gangeuro family members who were guarding the cave.

"Where is Elder Corpse King?"

After Berwick asked about the exit, the faces of the black knights of the Gangelo family standing at the door showed a strange look of fear.

Naberik looked at their expressions, and now his face became ugly.

"What's the matter?" Berwick asked sharply.

After Berwick roared out, the black knights of the Gangaro family hurriedly replied: "Elder Corpse King...Elder is injured... is resting in the cave."

"What?" When the horrified Gangelo family members around him suddenly said so, Berwick in front of him suddenly screamed in shock.

And the big snake girl beside him, and Antonio also showed a strangely surprised expression, they all raised a pair of unbelievable eyes and looked at the members of the Gangelo family over there.

But what about Earl Berwick? With a roar, the body flew directly off the riding death horse, and then an icy hand suddenly grabbed the black knight of the Gangelo family who had just answered, and then gave him his whole body. Mentioned it.

"What nonsense you bastard? You dare to say that Elder Corpse King was injured?" Berwick roared in front of him.

Obviously, he couldn't believe the injury of the corpse king Uris.

Because in their impression, the corpse king Uris is a symbol of invincibility! And now the fellows dare to say that Elder Corpse King was injured?

How can this be?

How could he not let Count Naberik feel shocked and angry.

The subordinate of the Gangelo family in front of him, who was firmly grasped by Berwick, looked horrified at this moment, and replied at that moment: "Earl Berwick...I'm talking about... facts... Elder Corpse King...really...really injured."

After he said so, the other guys who followed the Gangelo family member also showed horror at the moment and muttered one by one: "Yes, yes, what he said is fact."

After Naberik heard all his subordinates say this, he suddenly felt a little bit in his heart.

Gosh? Could it be that Elder Corpse King was really injured? Naberik was horrified in that heart.

The big snake girl standing behind him and Antonio Breath of Death were all stunned for a moment after hearing this horrible news, and no one could believe this fact.

It was shocking! What a surprise...

"How is it possible? Under heaven and earth, who can hurt the elder of the corpse king?" Berwick roared.

After Naberik said so, the members of the Gangelo family in front of them all lowered their heads and became silent one by one, and they dared not speak any more.

"Tell me, who hurt Elder Corpse King? Who is it?" Berwick asked in surprise.

The vampire member under his head bowed his head and hesitated and said, "Yes...yes...that Asian kid..."

"What? Is it him?" Berwick almost jumped up after hearing the news.

And the big snake girl behind, and Antonio? At the same moment, I was confused.

"Is that kid?"

"How could this be?"

The big snake girl was also shocked there, but she personally fought against that Li Tian... But in her impression, the strength of that Li Tian would not be enough to defeat the corpse king Yuris?

After all, the corpse king Uriss is a monster that has survived for nearly two thousand years.

But in front of me, looking at the expressions of the Gangelo family's men, they didn't seem to be lying. Could it be that the corpse king Yuris was really badly hit by the Asian boy?

Thinking of this in his heart, Naberik looked very ugly.

He angrily asked, "Where is Elder Corpse King now?"

The subordinate replied, "Return to Earl Berwick, Elder Corpse King is resting in the innermost cave..."

After hearing what the subordinate said, Berwick in front of him suddenly didn't even look at that man again. He flew up and down and flew very fast towards the cave.

And the big snake girl who followed and Antonio, Breath of Death, all followed quickly.

Soon, Naberik flew to the innermost place.

After they arrived in the cave, they saw that many of the black knights of the Gangaluo family had heavy faces, standing there with their heads down.

In the dull and * cave, no one dared to speak loudly.

Naberik quickly found the cave where the corpse king Uris was resting according to the place the members told him.

After reaching the entrance of the cave, Berwick took a deep breath, and then walked towards the cave step by step.

When he was about to reach the stone cave, there was a roar and roar from the deep cave.

"Who?"

The moment the cold explosion sounded as the exit, it was filled with endless anger and murderous intent.

That voice is undoubtedly that of the corpse king Uris.

After hearing the voice of the corpse king Uris, the Earl Berwick in front of him hurriedly said: "Elder corpse king, it is Berwick's subordinate!"

After hearing Berwick's voice, the corpse king there suddenly said with a hoarse voice, "Come in!"

After the voice of the corpse king uttered, Berwick in front of him replied, "Yes!"

Then walked in step by step.

Chapter 2309: Two coffins

When Berwick in front of him walked into the cave, he found the corpse king Uris. .

God, but seeing the face of the corpse king Uris is so ugly, the endless hatred on his rotten face, the * wings on his back, at this moment only one is left, and the other wing It is broken! Exposed extremely white bones.

At the moment, the corpse king Uris was sitting motionless, and the smell of the corpse filled the whole stone cave.

Naberik was shocked when he saw the * wings of the corpse king broken off.

"Elder Corpse King...your wings..." he whispered.

But seeing the corpse king slowly raised his angry and hated eyes, looking at Beirik.

"Broken!" A hoarse roar came from the corpse king's mouth.

"Elder, could it really be that * Asian boy... hurt you?" Berwick asked in shock.

He didn't want to believe the news that the corpse king Uris was injured before, but now he witnessed the moment when the blood-colored wing of the corpse king elder broke off, he was suddenly stunned.

Even if he didn't believe it anymore, it was of no avail, after all, his eyes saw a real scene.

When the corpse king heard Li Tian, his whole body trembled angrily.

"Yes, that * kid!" The roar came from the mouth of the corpse king Uris.

When Naberik heard this, he was stunned: "Elder Corpse King...that kid...really...really so powerful?" Berwick exclaimed.

But seeing the corpse king twisted his face, his rotten face showed endless anger and said: "No!"

"He is definitely not my opponent!"

"But, I don't know what's going on with him, a weird change happened suddenly..." The Corpse King said angrily.

He felt horrified that Li Tian finally became a "Blood Fiend". To be honest, the collapse of the Corpse King hadn't even thought of him himself.

After Naberik heard the Elder Corpse King say this, he was silent there, and he didn't know what to say.

"Where's Raymond? What about that fellow Raymond?" Berwick suddenly asked Raymond the blood axe.

After asking, the corpse king roared: "That stupid guy is dead."

"Raymond is dead?" Berwick couldn't help but said in shock when he heard the death of Blood Axe.

The corpse king replied: "Yes, that stupid guy, must have been slaughtered by that kid too..."

After hearing the corpse king say so, Naberik suddenly felt a chill in his heart! Because he suddenly felt that Li Tian was really terrifying.

Just as Naberik was thinking like this in his mind, the corpse king Uris in front of him suddenly spoke.

"Are all here? Have all the members of our family arrived?" The Corpse King suddenly asked.

Along with the icy voice of the Corpse King, Naberik hurriedly replied, "Report to Elder Corpse King, it's all here!"

When the corpse king in front of him heard Berwick say so, he snarled, "Very good."

"Notify all members of the Gangelo family to open the altar. The blood moon is coming soon. We must first meet our master." Corpse King Uris said slowly.

When Naberik heard this, he nodded quickly, then looked at the corpse king Uris in front of him and asked, "Elder corpse king, what  Asian boy, what should we do? We don't care?"

After hearing Berwick say this, the King of Corpse roared, and a strange light flashed in his eyes.

"About that  kid, I'll let a guy deal with him!"

After saying this from the dead king's mouth, the corners of his mouth suddenly laughed strangely.

The corpse king wants another guy to deal with Li Tian?

Who?

Who can resist the current transformation of Li Tianxue?

After Naberik heard the corpse king say this, he was startled, and suddenly remembered a terrible thing in his mind, and suddenly muttered, "Is it him?"

...

Now all of the Gangelo family's troops have been stationed in the cave of this immortal mountain.

There are more than two hundred black knights in the Gangelo family alone, and if the terrifying members of the Black Lap clan are added, their number has almost reached about 500.

The mighty army is now all guarded in the stone caves of the Immortal Mountains, and they are for the coming of the "Blood Moon".

Now that the altar has been initially constructed, only the "Blood Moon" is waiting to come, and then they will take out the "Key of Destiny" to open the legendary immortal coffin.

And the real vampire demon of the ancients will come to this world!

At that time, the scorching sun will be blocked by darkness, and the earth will be burned...

I saw that dozens of black knights from the Gangaluo family were now leaning toward the cave with the golden sedan chair that was holding the corpse king.

The golden sedan chair is huge, and it should be said that it is empty according to the truth, but from the dignified expressions of the Gangelo family members, it seems that there is something in the golden sedan chair.

I saw these more than a dozen members of the Gangelo family slowly carrying the golden sedan chair into one of the huge stone caves, and then carefully putting it down.

"Be careful." A leading Gangelo family member roared there.

The twenty or thirty Gangelo family members who were carrying them slowly put down the golden sedan chair.

After putting it down, the leading Gangelo family member walked to the front of the sedan chair, and then reached out and lifted the curtain of the sedan chair.

At the moment it was opened, I saw that inside the golden sedan chair was not only the car of the corpse king, but also two weird coffins.

One of the coffins is the color of ancient bronze, the other is ordinary black.

The ancient bronze coffin seems to have been a long time ago. There are still rusty iron traces on the ancient bronze color, and the coffin cover is also engraved with a twisted pattern.

But seeing the patterns above are carved with ancient charms. These charms seem to be suppressing monsters. Above and below the coffin, all are those weird charms.

In the middle of the coffin, there is an ancient cast iron lock in the Middle Ages.

Although the iron lock is stained with iron, it exudes an invisible and strange power, and if you look at it with the subtle eyes, you can see that there is still ancient blood on the iron lock.

This ancient bronze coffin was huge and very tightly protected. After being slowly carried down by the black knights of the Gangelo family, every member of the Gangelo family faced a look of fear and awe.

No one knows what exactly is in this bronze coffin that has gone through hundreds or even thousands of years.

Chapter 2310: Resurrect the Demon

After this ancient bronze coffin was carefully put down, another black coffin was also lifted down.

This coffin was an ordinary coffin. The black paint was sprayed on the lid of the coffin, and it was not locked. It was simply lifted down and placed in the dark stone cave.

At this moment, after placing the two coffins, the black knights of the Gangelo family slowly walked out one by one.

Inside the empty stone cave, only the two extremely conspicuous coffins were placed there at this moment.

What is inside this coffin?

...

After about an hour passed, a figure slowly walked into the cave.

He is Uris, the dead king of the Gangelo family.

One of his * wings was broken, and there was only one wing on his back at the moment, looking strange and terrifying.

His face was extremely ugly, with endless anger and hatred.

At this moment, when he walked into the cave where the two coffins were placed step by step, his eyes instantly brightened.

The corpse king Uris first cast his eyes respectfully on the largest ancient bronze coffin.

I don't know why that ancient bronze coffin was born with a weird magical aura...Even a perverted figure like the corpse king Uris, when he saw the bronze coffin, he was not only eye-catching. Awe was born in the eyes.

At this moment, the corpse king slowly approached the ancient bronze coffin, and then stopped in front of the coffin.

"Master, the blood moon once every five hundred years is coming soon. My corpse king and many of the Gangelo family heirs will personally welcome the birth of your old man!" The corpse king Yuris suddenly faced the ancient Murmured in that bronze coffin.

My God, this coffin turned out to be the ancient demon from the Gangelo family?

In the legend, the ancestors with the second generation of vampires?

Yes, this coffin was first stored in the underground Inquisition in the Vatican and was blessed by God.

It's a pity that after darkness has swallowed people's hearts, even gods can no longer protect these demons.

The vampires of the Gangaro family threatened one of the cardinals of the Vatican and used the rights of that cardinal to open the taboo room of the Vatican's underground Inquisition. As a result, this immortal coffin containing ancient demons was carried. Came out.

It is said that when the immortal coffin left the Inquisition, the largest statue in St. Peter's Square in the Vatican collapsed for no reason. There were tens of thousands of visitors who witnessed the collapse of the largest statue.

All of this seems to be unimportant now. The most important thing is that the ancestor with the most powerful blood clan sealed in the bronze coffin that has been placed for thousands of years is about to be resurrected.

How much disaster will his resurrection bring to the world?

No one knows at present.

"Master, the thirteen blood clan, most of them have been destroyed by my Gangelo family... As for the remaining strength of a small part, my corpse king will also completely eliminate them in the shortest time..."

"Master, when you were born, I will use the blood of other members of the Twelve Clan to welcome you."

The corpse king Uris said cruelly there.

And the ancient bronze coffin didn't respond at all from start to finish, but even so, you can still feel the extremely strange power emanating from the bronze coffin.

As if telling something.

...

The corpse king said silently for a while, and after speaking, his eyes slowly settled on another extremely ordinary black coffin.

Who is in this coffin?

After the corpse king's eyes were placed on the coffin, the expression in his eyes changed slightly, no longer like the awe before, but a strange look at the coffin.

After the corpse king looked at this black coffin for a few minutes, one of his skinny hands suddenly grabbed towards the coffin lid.

The entire huge coffin cover was grabbed by the corpse king with one hand, and the coffin cover was suddenly caught.

Then I saw a terrible body lying motionless in the coffin.

Look carefully, the corpse is terrifying, because the corpse has not known how long it has been dead, but what is strange is that his body has not rotted, and his skin is dark gray and blue, looking terrifying.

And the most shocking thing is that the skin of the corpse was sewn with steel wire one by one. His face was already rotten, but now, it was stitched with steel wire. The body and limbs are also made of steel wire. The rotten skin was sewn together.

Gosh, a corpse pieced together with steel wires?

What is he?

After the corpse king opened the coffin and saw the corpse, a strange grin suddenly rose from the corner of his mouth.

"Fortunately, it can be resurrected!" A word came out strangely from the mouth of the corpse king.

After speaking, he suddenly stretched out his skinny arm. After that weird arm was stretched out, the king of corpse raised his other hand to grab it, and then grabbed it slightly on his outstretched arm. With a stroke, a  mouth appeared instantly, and then purple-black blood flowed out of the arm of the corpse king.

As the purple-black blood in the corpse king's arm slowly flowed out of his arm, he moved his arm to the mouth of the terrifying corpse.

"Repay your life with my blood!"

Purple-black blood followed the arm of the corpse king and poured into the mouth of the terrifying corpse.

At the moment it flowed in, the blood flowed through the corpse's mouth and into the hard-working death's body, and then his body changed strangely.

The blood quickly spread to the body meridians of the corpse as if with a resuscitation effect.

Then something strange happened. The corpses that had already dried up suddenly changed at this moment. The dark blue skin slowly revealed a layer of hideous blood vessels...

Then you can see that the cortex of the corpse began to turn pale...

The corpse king was like that, slowly using his own blood to resurrect the terrible corpse.

"It's time to live!"

A word came out of the corpse king's mouth.

Then the corpse king slowly put away his  arm.

The moment the corpse king slowly put away his arms, the corpse lying in the coffin had already recovered its vitality.

His original dead face became pale, pale, and the two pointed fangs that came out of his mouth looked amazing. Obviously, this dead corpse changed under the resurrection of the blood of the corpse king. Become a real vampire.
