

A Killer 2421

Chapter 2421: what? Big bird?

When the brigade commander ran towards the prevention and control headquarters that week without looking back, how about the brothers here?

"Brother, what seems to have happened to the military region?" Duguxie asked in front of him.

The Cthulhu also frowned and said, "Go, let's go and see."

"Good!" said the brothers.

So it was like this, but seeing the brothers followed the evil * and quickly walked out of the room, and then followed in the footsteps of the brigade commander Zhou, quickly ran towards the air force combat headquarters of the North China Field Army.

As they ran towards the military area of the North China Field Army, they saw that all the soldiers outside were running towards the air defense area.

It seems that there is indeed something wrong with the air defense.

Soon, I saw that Cthulhu followed Brigadier Zhou and was already running towards the prevention and control headquarters.

After running over, that week the brigade commander took the lead in catching a soldier who ran out of the air defense command and asked: "What's wrong? What's wrong with your air defense?"

Just listen to the soldier's face hurriedly said: "We... we found... the UFO is approaching our military area."

"what?"

"UFO?" The brothers in front of them were all taken aback when they heard the guy say so.

"What UFO?" Brigadier Zhou asked in surprise.

The soldier replied: "We are not sure now..."

Brigadier Zhou then let go of the soldier and rushed directly into the Air Force Command.

After walking in, I saw all the soldiers in the Air Force Command who were busy there.

"Tell me, what is going on now?" Brigadier Zhou asked loudly after coming in.

After hearing the roar of Brigadier Zhou, the soldiers over there turned their heads and saw Brigadier Zhou.

"Brigadier!" they saluted.

"Report to the brigade commander, we found a UFO approaching my North China Field Army ten kilometers ahead...very fast." An officer who should be a battalion commander reported to Brigadier Zhou there.

After hearing what he said, Brigadier Zhou frowned slightly and said, "Is something detected?"

The battalion commander in front of him replied: "The distance is still a little far away, so I can't see it... However, when the UFO gets closer, we can detect it."

After listening to what he said, Brigadier Zhou said, "Okay!"

"Detect it for me as soon as possible, what exactly is flying towards our North China Field Army..."

"If it doesn't work, just prepare air defense missiles for me." Brigadier Zhou said.

The battalion commander stood up and said, "Yes!"

Then began to continue the work.

"The UFO and it's nearly 9 kilometers..." suddenly a member of the air defense command over there shouted.

"It's fast, getting closer and closer."

"Alright, almost... 8 kilometers."

While listening to them, Brigadier Zhou and Cthulhu here frowned depressed, no one knew what was going on, let alone what unidentified object in the sky was "invading the North China Field Army".

As the "unidentified flying objects" were getting closer, everyone in the air defense department of the North China Field Army had a solemn expression on their faces.

Everyone is looking at the brigade commander of that week at this time, because at the moment in this air defense command, his rank is the highest, so everyone is waiting for his decision.

Brigadier Zhou's face was heavy, and he hesitated.

"Brigadier Zhou, the UFO is already 7 kilometers away from us...what to do?" Suddenly a member of the air defense command over there said again.

Brigadier Zhou couldn't restrain himself anymore. He gritted his teeth and suddenly said, "Prepare air defense missiles for me, aim at the target, and be ready to launch at any time."

It seems that Brigadier Zhou is really going to be real.

As the brigade commander said so suddenly that week, all the members of the air defense command in front of them shouted, "Yes!"

Then the anti-aircraft missile was turned on.

The air defense missile on the base has been completely aimed at the UFO... As long as the commander of the Brigade Zhou gives an order, the air defense missile will be launched directly and destroy the UFO.

The current air defense headquarters is very quiet, and it is estimated that even a needle dropped on the ground can be heard by everyone.

Everyone is waiting with dignity.

The UFO was getting closer and closer, and on the air defense combat screen, I saw the red dot "Didi Didi" getting closer and closer to the target.

"Lock on the target, ready to launch at any time." Just listen to Brigadier Zhou said again.

As he said, the command executor over there had already touched the launch button on the air defense missile at this moment. As long as Wang Zhen gave an order, he would immediately press the launch button.

"There is still 5 kilometers away from our military zone!" Suddenly the members over there stared at the screen and said.

Brigadier Zhou raised his hand and shouted loudly: "Prepare for me..... 3..... 2....."

When his "1" has not yet been spoken.

Suddenly the members over there screamed: "Brigade commander, wait, the brigade commander wait a minute."

Following the guy's scream, Brigadier Zhou here was taken aback and closed his mouth. The anti-aircraft missile that had been ready to launch stopped at this time.

"What's wrong?" Brigadier Zhou asked angrily at this time.

But seeing the air detection personnel over there shouting: "The computer has analyzed it, and the analysis has come out. The UFO in front is a...a big bird...not an enemy missile!"

Listening to the members of the detection air over there, Brigadier Zhou almost jumped up.

"what?"

"Big Bird? You...you...have you guys made a mistake?" Brigadier Zhou said furiously.

But seeing that the soldier in the air was there with an embarrassed face, he said to Brigadier Zhou, "Brigadier Zhou, if you don't believe me, you can come and see for yourself...really...really a big bird. ."

"Nonsense! Can a big bird... have such a big body? How could it be detected by our air defense satellite?" Brigadier Zhou roared in front of him.

It turns out that the air defense system cannot detect birds, but the air defense system has made some settings, and airborne objects that are generally less than one meter in size will be automatically filtered out.

But now the air defense personnel actually said that the UFO was a big bird?

Nima, what kind of big bird can grow to a terrifying degree of more than one meter? So that week, the brigade commander suddenly cursed, his first thought was: nonsense! Pure nonsense.

At this moment, Brigadier Zhou ran to the computer monitor over there in anger. After running over, he saw that the monitor really showed a huge bird!

No, it is not a bird to be precise, but a vulture... a giant vulture, with terrifying wings, flew straight from the sky towards the North China Field Army.

"Oh my god...really...really a big bird...nima!" Brigadier Zhou suddenly exclaimed.

At this time, the combat officers and soldiers of the entire air defense command were all dumbfounded!

Big bird?

Chapter 2422: Is my master

Big bird?

When the entire prevention and control headquarters heard that Zhou's brigade commander suddenly called the word "Big Bird" in his mouth, they were suddenly depressed. .

What bird? It's so huge? And he flew straight toward the Tiemen North China Field Military Region?

"Brigade commander, don't you still launch missiles?" The combat officer over there blinked innocent eyes and looked at the Zhou brigade commander and said.

At the same time, he pressed his finger on the red button of the launcher of the air defense missile, as if he would really dare to press the launch button as long as the commander of that week gave an order.

After hearing this question from his subordinates, Brigadier Zhou suddenly roared.

"According to your mother...Are we going to destroy a big bird with anti-aircraft missiles? Stupid!" the brigade commander cursed that week.

After hearing Brigadier Zhou's scolding, the soldier felt aggrieved, but still said, "Yes!"

Then the launch procedure of the air defense missile was cancelled.

All the officers and men of the North China Field Army's Prevention and Control Command also heard the order to cancel the launch of the anti-aircraft missiles, and they all couldn't help taking a breath.

After all, once the anti-aircraft missile is launched, it will cause huge trouble to the people in the air and even the surrounding people!

At that time, the matter was passed to the central government again, saying that the North China Field Military Region used anti-aircraft missiles in order to stop a "bird" and would not be laughed at by the outside world.

But he said that just when everyone was relieved, the evil * here suddenly ran towards the brigade commander Zhou.

"Brigade Commander Zhou, let me see..." Cthulhu said to Brigadier Zhou while running toward this side.

After hearing the voice of the evil god, Brigadier Zhou said, "En."

I saw Cthulhu hurriedly ran to the air defense detection computer, raised his eyes to see, he was stunned at the sight.

"Oh my god...my master..." a word suddenly screamed from his mouth.

When he suddenly said such a sentence, Brigadier Zhou next to him was taken aback, and even the brothers behind were all at a loss.

"Brother, what's the situation?"

"Senior Cthulhu, what did you just say? Master?" Brigadier Zhou was also looking at the Cthulhu Dao with doubts.

But seeing the Cthulhu with a look of surprise pointed at the computer screen and said, "That...that...that is my master's mount, Xiao Hei!"

Brigadier Zhou on the side of "Xiao Hei" was completely depressed.

The brothers were also puzzled at the same time.

"Senior Cthulhu, what do you say, I can't understand a word..." Brigadier Zhou continued to ask.

But seeing the evil spirit saying there: "That's not a bird, that's my master's giant eagle... my master is here... my master came to the North China field army on the giant eagle." A word came out of the evil god's mouth. .

Promise old man?

When Cthulhu said this, all officers and soldiers of the prevention and control headquarters were stunned one by one!

Du Nima was dumbfounded.

The brigade commander of that week was even more bitter.

"Huh? That...that...the big bird...oh, no...is the giant eagle...the giant eagle is your master's mount?" Brigadier Zhou in front of him asked as if stuttering.

The evil  in front of him nodded and said, "Yes! It's my master and his old man."

"Oh my god, I really didn't expect my master and his old man to come to the North China field army." The evil  in front of him said in shock.

Where are the brothers here? Hearing this Cthulhu said, everyone was dumbfounded. "

"Wuji old man?"

"Is it the old man Wuji?" Xue Wuhen exclaimed.

What about Tang Xiaolong? He opened his eyes wide and said, "I've got a lot of grass, you mean, the North China Field Army almost shot our old Wuji with an air defense missile?"

"I wiped it, if it really shoots out, then it's not bad?" Tang Xiaolong almost spouted there and said.

This guy's voice was so loud that when he said it, all the officers and soldiers of the air defense command had their faces extremely embarrassed, and they all kept their heads down.

After all, this is the first time that Nima has hit the "bird" with air defense missiles! ! !

Tang Xiaolong was shamelessly holding his stomach in the air defense headquarters and laughed, as if he was about to laugh.

This Chen Qiaozhi glanced at the awkward North China Field Army officers and soldiers over there, and kicked Tang Xiaolong fiercely: "You fool, as for you to laugh so hard? I don't know where to converge?"

That Tang Xiaolong was kicked by Chen Qiaozhi for no reason, feeling very aggrieved. He covered his mouth with his hand, and suffocated his laughter.

But what about this side?

At the moment when the evil * recognized that the "UFO" was his master flying over on the giant eagle, an inexplicable excitement rose in his heart.

Then I saw him running outside the air defense headquarters, and while running, he said there, "I'll meet the old man, the master."

After speaking, he has already ran out of the prevention and control headquarters.

The brothers here also ran out, after they ran out, the brigade commander Zhou also followed out in an embarrassing manner.

Cthulhu and his brothers were standing in the open space at the gate of the North China Field Army, waiting for the arrival of the old man Wuji.

They all raised their heads one by one, then blinked at the distant sky...

Above the clear sky, a black dot got closer and closer... As the distance got closer, the more clearly the figure could be seen.

It really was a flying giant eagle...It flew towards the North China Field Army with its terrifying wings.

"Qua, quack, quack" neighed from the sky.

When the voice of the giant eagle from the old man Wuji came from the sky, all the officers and soldiers of the North China Field Army were looking at the giant eagle that flew down from the sky with unbelievable eyes.

My God, how could there be such a huge giant vulture under the sky?

Is this not a dream?

These weird things were huge birds that only appeared in American science fiction blockbusters in the past, but they didn't think they actually appeared in their eyes now. At this moment, everyone looked at the flying down with shocking eyes. Giant eagle.

But seeing the giant eagle getting closer...It was already possible to see its huge figure.

"Hey, brother, do you think there are still two people dragging on the giant eagle?" Duguxie here suddenly exclaimed.

Cthulhu looked intently, and was also stunned there.

Yes! It really is two people!

It's not right. According to the truth, the giant eagle will only support its own master. How can there be an extra person? That... that... who is that other guy? Cthulhu thought there depressed.

"Yeah, it's weird, how come there are two people? Besides the old Wuji, is there anyone else who can't make it?" Tang Xiaolong here also muttered in his mouth.

Chapter 2423: Old commander

When they looked at the giant vultures flying down from the sky one by one with surprised eyes, they saw that the giant eagle was about to fall down. .

call!

I saw that the body of the giant eagle had flew down from the sky.

A terrifying body the size of a fighter jet, when it flew down from the sky, a terrible gust of wind was rolled up.

The giant eagle fluttered and fell to the ground.

"Xiao Hei..." The Cthulhu couldn't help screaming when he saw the giant eagle.

While shouting, he threw at the giant eagle.

He had a deep relationship with the giant eagle, so when he saw the giant eagle, he couldn't help his inner feelings.

What about the giant vulture? At the moment when the two bright eyes saw the evil god, they were taken aback for a moment, and then yelled "quack, quack, quack", and then a wing stretched out, as if they were "cuddling" towards the evil god. The body rolled over.

"Xiao Hei, I really didn't expect you to come here."

"Where is the master? Where is the master?" The evil  in front of him asked quickly.

But seeing the giant vulture screaming "quack quack quack", then its huge head pointed towards the body behind.

The Cthulhu looked up, but saw the old man Wuji standing on the back of the giant eagle like a "fairy man".

"Master!"

The moment he saw the old man Wuji, the evil  in front of him knelt on the ground, and at the same time, his eyes were slightly moist.

What about the old man Wuji standing on the back of the giant eagle? At this moment, when he saw his disciple kneeling in front of him, he was slightly stunned.

"Quafu?" There was a shock in his voice with surprise.

It turns out that the Cthulhu has become extremely haggard since he had his head in the Immortal Mountains of Italy overnight. At this moment, the old man Wuji looked at his apprentice's white hair and almost didn't recognize it. If he hadn't heard the Cthulhu kneeling on the ground. Calling his own master, I guess the old man Wuji couldn't tell that it was his apprentice! ! !

"My good disciple...your hair...why...why is it all white?" The old man Wuji looked at the Cthulhu Dao incredibly.

But what about that evil god?

Kneeling in front of the old man Wuji, he said, "Master, the hair matter of Disciple is a long story... After Rong later, Disciple slowly tells the teacher."

"Master, I really didn't expect that you would bring Xiao Hei to this North China Field Army!" Only listen to Cthulhu Dao.

The old man Wuji slightly touched his gray beard and said, "Because I am here to send you a relative."

"What? Family?" After hearing this, the Cthulhu was taken aback.

He didn't understand what his master meant.

But after seeing Cthulhu's questioning, the old Wuji suddenly moved his body slightly to one side. The moment he moved, he saw an old, dirty old man's figure appearing in his eyes. in.

Mu Yunlong?

Commander Mu?

Cthulhu's father-in-law.

When the Cthulhu saw the dirty Commander Mu Lao, he was stunned for an instant.

"Father-in-law...father-in-law...sir?" The evil  in front of him exclaimed in disbelief.

But what about the old commander Mu? He walked down from the giant eagle with moist eyes, looked at the evil  with white hair, and muttered, "Child..."

Suddenly the Cthulhu couldn't help his emotions, and suddenly ran over and hugged Old Commander Mu.

He and Commander Mu had a misunderstanding 20 years ago!

But everything is slowly offset in the face of the years... They only have family affection now... Commander Mu has no sons in his life, only two daughters, and now Cthulhu is equivalent to saying that it is him and the "born son", so When he saw the evil  running towards him, he not only embraced the evil  all at once.

Twenty years of grievances and grievances are gone.

Now there is only the closest affection between them.

"Oh my god, what's going on with everything? Father-in-law, why are you with my master and his old man?" Cthulhu asked with excited eyes.

"Could it be that my master and his old man saved you at the gate of hell?" The evil  in front of him is not a fool. When he saw that Commander Mu was sloppy and was brought here by the old man Wuji, of course he guessed what was going on. .

But seeing the old Commander Mu nodded there and said: "You guessed it right, I was indeed rescued by your master and his old man."

"Great."

"Originally, we thought about sending troops to rescue you... Unexpectedly, father-in-law, you came out early, it is really great." Cthulhu said happily.

When they were talking, the Brigade Commander Zhou and the officers and soldiers of the North China Field Army standing behind him were all dumbfounded.

Because they all saw the old commander Namu.

"commander?"

"Oh my God, is that our commander-in-chief?" The soldier from the North China Field Military Region here exclaimed in surprise.

Where's Brigadier Zhou? Already stayed.

Looking at the old commander Mu, this guy ran over quickly.

"Commander-in-Chief?" he called out.

When he called out, Commander Nammu slowly turned his head, and then glanced at the brigade commander Zhou.

"Zhou Ming." Commander Mu called out the name of Brigadier Zhou.

But what about the brigade commander that week? The moment he recognized that this was really Commander Mu, he almost jumped with excitement.

"Commander-in-chief, really you? You're back, you're finally back...Oh my God, during your absence, all the officers and soldiers of our North China Field Army are almost worried about you."

"Commander-in-chief, how are you? Are you injured? Do you feel uncomfortable? Brigadier Zhou looked at the dirty look of the old Commander Mu and asked quickly.

But seeing Commander Mu shook his head slightly and said, "Don't worry, I can hold on to this old bone."

Hearing what the commander-in-chief said, Brigadier Zhou suddenly laughed happily.

"All officers and soldiers, go to the commander-in-chief!" A loud shout came from the brigade commander's mouth that week.

At the moment when Brigadier Zhou called out, all the officers and soldiers of the North China Field Army were there to salute Commander Mu neatly!

Commander Mu looked at his troops, with a slight sorrow in his eyes. He slowly raised his veteran hand, and then responded with a military salute.

"All the officers and soldiers of the North China Field Army welcome the return of the commander-in-chief." Brigade Commander Zhou shouted there.

Then, all the officers and soldiers behind him also shouted out in unison at the same time, and the mighty voice filled the entire North China Field Army.

"Commander-in-chief, you have suffered too much during this time... Please go back to the barracks and take a good rest." Brigadier Zhou in front of him said to Commander Mu.

Chapter 2424: Everything

Commander Mu is really tired.

During this period of time, he was locked in the deep prison of that * gate. He did suffer a lot. In addition, Commander Mu was over sixty years old, and he was really tired now.

After hearing what Brigadier Zhou said, Commander Mu nodded slightly in front of him.

After nodding, he turned his head around and looked at the old Wuji and said, "Master...Thank you again for saving my old bone."

After hearing what Old Commander Mu said, the old man Wuji not only smiled slightly and said: "Old Commander is polite."

The old Commander Mu didn't say too much polite words, turned his head and said to the Cthulhu Road beside him: "Kuafu, since this is your master, then I'm not polite..."

"You take your master to stay in our military area for a while, okay?" Commander Mu said while looking at the evil god.

After the Cthulhu heard Commander Mu say this, he smiled and said, "Father-in-law, you can rest assured."

"You go to rest first, and my master can leave it to me."

After hearing what Cthulhu said, Commander Mu nodded slightly in front of him.

Then he politely said to everyone: "Then the old man will not accompany you..."

Commander Mu, who said that, was supported by the brigade commander of that week, and walked hard step by step towards the North China Field Army Military District.

Looking at the curved back of Commander Mu and his difficult steps, the evil  not only had some moist eyes.

"Hey, my father-in-law is indeed getting old..."

He murmured and sighed.

After the evil  finished speaking, he turned his head to look at his master.

"Master, please enter the military area soon." The evil  said politely.

The old man Wuji didn't expect that his apprentice would meet his most beloved apprentice in the North China Field Army, so he nodded and followed the evil  toward the military area.

The Duguxie and the ghost servants hurriedly followed the footsteps of the evil  and the old man Wuji, and quickly walked inside.

"This...this...what about the giant eagle?" Tang Xiaolong took a few steps and said, suddenly looking at the giant eagle behind him.

Then Chen Qiaozhi glared at him and said, "You are really  up to you."

Tang Xiaolong, who was insulted by Chen Qiaozhi, buttoned his nose depressedly, and then stopped talking.

Seeing that the evil  returned to the room with the old man Wuji, he asked the old man Wuji to sit down.

"Master, what the  is going on? How can you meet my father-in-law and his old man?" After sitting down, the evil  blinked surprised eyes at the old man Wuji and asked.

After the evil  in front of him asked, he saw the old man Wuji said, "That's because I went to the gate of hell."

"What? Master, your old man went to the gate of hell?" A shocking word screamed from the evil god's mouth.

He couldn't believe that his master had gone to the gate of hell.

But seeing the old man Wuji touched his gray beard and said, "Yes."

After hearing the old man Wuji admit it all at once, all the brothers who were sitting were not only dumbfounded.

Oh my god, the old man Wuji broke through the door of * single-handedly?

But seeing the evil * with his eyes wide open, he looked at the old man Wuji and asked, "Master, why did you go to the gate of hell?"

The old man Wuji said, "Because I am going to kill my wicked son."

As the old man Wuji said this, the evil * suddenly widened his eyes.

Evil?

Of course the Cthulhu knew who the evil in the mouth of the old man Wuji was, wasn't he the master of the gate of hell?

For a long time, the evil * knew that the gate of * was the son of the old man Wuji, but he never expected that his master was really cruel, and he really decided to eradicate the big demon that harmed the world.

"Master, you...you...you..." Cthulhu said a few words, but he just didn't know what to say, his head was in a mess.

But seeing the old man Wuji spoke up.

"Do you want to ask as a teacher, why did you choose to kill that rebellious son?" Wuji said.

Cthulhu said: "Master guessed right..."

"Well, since you want to ask, I will tell you as a teacher." The old man Wuji suddenly said.

"Do you remember that the teacher told you a long, long time ago... there is a senior for the teacher? He is the leader of the devil?" The old man Wuji suddenly said.

After the evil * heard what the old man Wuji said, he not only recalled, "Master did mention this matter... It's just that you didn't allow the disciples to question too much."

The old man Wuji murmured: "Yes, I didn't allow you to ask more, just because, I always thought that my senior was living in seclusion... It's just that I never thought that in the first ten days, my senior It turned out that our unique signal of the Longevity Gate was sent...After seeing the signal for the teacher, I realized that my senior brother who had not seen each other for hundreds of years is really still in the world and alive."

"So as a teacher, I followed the signal and reached Juetianya." The old man said.

When Cthulhu and his brothers heard the three words "Jue Tianya", they were all taken aback.

"Jue Tianya?" They all knew that Jue Tianya was the top cliff in the world.

The old man Wuji nodded slightly and said, "Yes, my brother is indeed in Jue Tianya."

"It's just that when I went, my senior brother had already had his hands and feet cut off... and the whole body had reached the point where he could quickly destroy him. He lived only because he used the last trace of truth in his body. The qi protects my heart...I can sustain my life, just to see me, to tell me all the secrets." When the old Wuji in front of him said this, there was not only a little in his voice. Sad.

After the old man Wuji suddenly said that the "Kui" hands and feet were cut off, the evil  and the brothers in front of him not only screamed.

what?

"Master, my master...how could...how could someone cut off his hands and feet?"

"Master, I remember that your old man once told me that my master's uncle's skill is the highest, and even your old man may not be able to fight him. How can he be harmed like that with such a high magical skill?" Asked in shock there.

But seeing the old man Wuji heard this question from the evil god, he suddenly sighed deeply.

"Hey, Kuafu... you don't know something." The old man Wuji said sadly.

"My wicked man did all of this! It was he who harmed my brother, yes it was you, and it was he who harmed the whole world upside-down." When the old man Wuji said this sentence, his body was full of difficulties. The hideous murderous aura.

Chapter 2425: Whole body skills are abolished

"Master, what is going on with all this? Is it all he did?" the evil  asked in shock.

But seeing the old man Wuji sighed deeply: "Yes, that animal did it all."

Then the old Wuji in front of him said how the master of the gate of  was practicing magic, how to poison "Kui", and how to harm "Kui" into such a thing.

"... My brother would never have thought that the evil man would be so cruel. He actually used poison on him. The poison numb my brother, and then the evil man took the opportunity to cut off my brother's hands and feet. That's why he was killed." The old man Wuji said painfully about the evil done by his own son.

After hearing what the old man Wuji had said, the evil  was completely stunned.

Not only he was stunned, but the surrounding Du Guxie and his brothers were all stunned.

To be honest, they have seen wicked people in the world, but they have never seen a villain as cruel as the master of the gate of hell!

Even the "Kui" who "taught" him martial arts was even harmed!

It was too cruel, the cruel degree was even more outrageous than that big devil Long Yin.

"My senior brother finally explained everything to me, he blew his body... His generation of masters of magic, unexpectedly ended up like this in the end."

"As the father of that wicked son, in this life, if I didn't personally slaughter the beast, I would have lived for hundreds of years."

"So the old man decided to hunt down that evil man."

"I arrived at the gate of hell, bloodbathed the gate of hell... I killed all the characters up and down the gate of hell... Unfortunately, I did not find the beast. If I can find him, I will definitely kill him in my palm. Next, let this evil animal go to  soon." When the old man Wuji said this, his voice was full of endless anger.

After the old man Wuji finished saying that, the brothers in front of him were shocked.

"Old Wuji...you...you are alone...bloodwashed the gates of hell?"

"So many masters at the gate of hell... unexpectedly... were all killed by your old man?" Tang Xiaolong and his brothers in front of him looked at the Wuji old man with horrified eyes widening. Tao said.

But seeing the old man Wuji sighed slightly and said, "Not bad."

"The old man made an oath three hundred years ago that he will never take care of mundane affairs in this life... It's a pity that the old man broke the ring of killing for the sake of my wicked son!" The old man Wuji muttered.

Listening to the old Wuji speaking such words, the brothers only felt that they were going to be stunned.

My God, a man has washed the door of * with blood.

Hell Gate is known as a terrorist organization that is a master of the Internet, but in the hands of the old man Wuji, it was destroyed in an instant!

"The old man only saw Commander Mu after killing all the members of the Hell Gate...so he rescued him." The old man Wuji added.

After the Cthulhu and the brothers heard the old man Wuji say this, now they finally understand what happened, and they now finally know why the old man Wuji can be with Commander Mu.

"Master, I didn't expect everything to be like this." Cthulhu said there.

The old man Wuji nodded silently.

"Now, the old man just wants to find out my wicked son, and then kill him personally." The old man Wuji said angrily.

After hearing the old man Wuji say this, the evil * suddenly said: "Master, you may not know something, he...he...he...has appeared in the North China Field Army a day ago."

"what?"

"The beast came to the North China Field Army?" Only listen to the old man Wuji not only surprised when he heard that his wicked son had come to the North China Field Army.

I saw the evil * nodded truthfully and said, "Yes."

"Why did that evil man come here? Is it to find you?" the old man Wuji asked.

The Cthulhu replied: "The master guessed well. The reason why he came here is because of me."

"Because he wants Tian'er's Tianshu Danju." The Cthulhu Road in front of him.

"Heavenly Book Pill Scroll", the old man Wuji yelled immediately.

"This wicked man acted on the rivers and lakes twenty years ago because of the three treasures left over from the ancient times. Unexpectedly, more than twenty years later, this animal is still looking for the whereabouts of the Heavenly Book Pill scroll." The old man Wuji said angrily.

But listening to the evil * said: "Yes."

"He also said: If you don't hand over the Tianshu Pill scroll within a week, you will definitely kill everyone around me." Cthulhu Dao.

When the old man Wuji heard this, he shouted, "Dare he?"

"This beast! It really makes the old man angry." Wuji's old face paled.

After speaking, the old Wuji suddenly looked at the evil  and said, "Kuafu, why didn't you kill him by yourself? Could it be that you couldn't beat that evil man?"

The master of the gate of  has not been an opponent of Cthulhu!

Twenty years ago, the reason why the master of the gate of the  gate gathered the world's masters to deal with the evil  was because he was not an opponent of the evil god.

But how could the old man Wuji know that the whole body of the evil  was abolished?

Hearing what the old man Wuji said, the evil  suddenly smiled bitterly.

"Master... you don't know something... apprentice... apprentice... I can't help you for so many years of nurturing and teaching..." the evil  said suddenly in pain.

The old man Wuji asked, "What's wrong?"

But seeing the Cthulhu raised his ugly face, he muttered in pain, "Master...I...my whole body skills have been abolished."

"what?"

When the Cthulhu suddenly said this, the old man Wuji in front of him was shocked.

Then, seeing the old man Wuji grabbing the Cthulhu's arm, and using his true energy to probe the body meridians of the Cthulhu slightly, at this moment, the old man Wuji's face changed drastically.

"Kuafu...you...you...your skills...all have been abolished?" The old man Wuji said in disbelief in shock.

He would never have imagined that his most proud apprentice Cthulhu's skills would be abolished at this moment!

There is no trace of true energy in the Cthulhu's body!

He is completely a waste now! A guy who may be worse than ordinary people.

After the old man Wuji asked in surprise, he nodded in pain when seeing the evil god, and then knelt down with his legs.

"Master, I'm sorry!"

"Tu'er is incompetent...Tu'er is sorry for the master's hard work in cultivation." Cthulhu said on his knees.

The Wuji old man in front of him looked at the evil  who was kneeling on the ground with white hair, and suddenly muttered, "Get up..."

"Tell me...you tell me everything...what happened? Your...your...gong...what is...is it...who gave it away?" The old man Wuji looked in front of him. With his favorite apprentice way.

Chapter 2426: The third calamity: escape into the void

After hearing the old man Wuji's questioning exit, he saw the Cthulhu slowly standing up from the ground.

So he began to talk about things in Italy.

He turned Li Tian into a vampire, and then explained everything about the vampire battle in Italy.

In the end, he also talked about the ancient demons of the Gangeluo family, and talked about the fact that his skill was abolished by that Long Yin.

...

The old man Wuji listened bit by bit to what happened to Li Tian that the Cthulhu had said, and even the one-hundred-year old man was completely stunned at that moment.

"Oh my God, that Xiao Li Tian... unexpectedly... has suffered such a disaster?" The old man Wuji in front of him was completely confused after hearing about everything.

The Cthulhu said with great grief: "Yes! The most sorry person in my life, Li Kuafu, is my son!"

"Not only did I fail to protect him, but I also caused him so much disaster in his life."

Listening to the evil * saying this, the old man Wuji waved his hand slightly and said, "Kuafu, you are not to blame!"

"Hey, that Xiao Litian's fate is already destined by God."

"His life of the blood evil demon star, no one can stop it."

"His life is destined to experience three great calamities, because this is his fate! The Three Tribulations of the Blood Fiend is destined by heaven, and no one can escape." The old man Wuji sighed.

After listening to the old man Wuji saying this, the evil * in front of him said in shock: "Master, what is the Three Tribulations of Blood Fiend?"

But seeing the old Wuji saying in front of him: "The so-called blood evil three calamities are the three great calamities!"

"One tribulation, death, two tribulations, physical death, three tribulations: escape into the void!" said the old man Wuji.

Upon hearing this, the evil * said, "Master, I don't understand."

The brothers on one side were also blinking surprised eyes at the old man Wuji asking. Obviously, they didn't know what the "Three Tribulations of Blood Fiend" meant.

Just listen to the old man Wuji explaining: "This first kalpa is the death of the body! Kuafu, do you remember that Xiao Litian was trapped in the dark room of the Ouyang family?"

After the old Wuji suddenly said this, the evil * was taken aback.

Although he hadn't experienced what happened to Li Tian at that time, he heard Duguxie and Ghost Servant tell about it later.

At that time, Li Tian "died" in the dark room of the Ouyang family.

I remember that he was buried in the Ouyang family together with the "yin and yang man" at the time, so Duguxie and his brothers thought that Li Tian was dead at that time.

"Master, I know this story of Tian'er." Cthulhu said.

But seeing the old man Wuji saying in that faint way: "This is the first calamity of Xiao Litian, it's death!"

When the evil * in front of him heard it, he wondered: "The second calamity of that day...could it be...could it be...the battle against the vampire demon in Italy...this catastrophe?"

Hearing the evil * said this, the old man Wuji said: "Although I have not experienced this incident with Xiao Litian, but listening to you say this, it must be the second major disaster of Xiao Litian."

Cthulhu was stunned when he heard it.

"The first calamity, the death of the body, the second calamity, the death of the flesh, the third calamity? And the third calamity...Master, what was the third calamity that day?" The evil * asked in shock.

Now according to reasoning, that Li Tianzhi has experienced two catastrophes.

But what about the third calamity? Now that Li Tian has not experienced the third calamity.

The old man Wuji murmured, "The third calamity hasn't appeared yet!"

"Hey, this little Li Tian must go through these three tribulations... His life is already fixed in the sky, even the old man can't help him resolve it." The old man Wuji sighed.

The Cthulhu said: "Oh my God, Master, do you mean that Tian'er will experience another catastrophe?"

The old man Wuji smiled wryly and shook his head.

"Yes."

"Destiny calls that our human resources cannot compete."

As the old man Wuji said this, the evil * in front of him was completely staying there.

Li Tian still has a catastrophe? The so-called third calamity is: escape into the void! ! !

Cthulhu thought of this, his heart felt like a knife cut.

Li Tian doesn't even know the life and death of this second calamity now... there is still another calamity? The third robbery!

As far as Cthulhu is concerned, how can he bear it!

As a father, he would rather bear all the pain than let Li Tian suffer a little bit of pain... But can he replace Li Tian now?

No, obviously he can't replace it!

"My poor child." Cthulhu cried out sadly.

The Wuji old man looked at the evil  and shook his head helplessly: "Khafu father, don't be sad, legend, blood demon evil star, after the Three Tribulations, there will be a sign of great blessing! If you can experience the Three Tribulations, you will definitely be able to be a human people."

The words of the old man Wuji seemed to comfort the evil god.

How clever the evil  is, how can he not know?

He looked at the Wuji old man and said, "Master, you don't need to comfort me... Hey... The second calamity of Tian'er may not be able to live and die now, let alone the third calamity!"

"Why does God treat our Li family like this? Why?"

A loud drink roared out of the evil god's mouth!

His eyes seemed to be bleeding, he was angry, he was really unwilling! He hated the heavens, hated the injustices the heavens treated their father and son!

But what is the use even if he hates it again?

Human fate is doomed! No one can stop it.

Looking at the evil  who was kneeling on the ground and cursing at the sky, the brothers here quickly ran towards the evil god.

"Big Brother, don't be like this..."

"Senior Cthulhu...Get up quickly."

As the brothers said, they helped the evil god.

But seeing the blood and tears in the eyes of the evil god, the whole body was trembling slightly, he hated, he was angry!

Looking at the painful appearance of his apprentice, the old man Wuji could only sigh slightly, and could do nothing.

After the brothers helped the evil  up, the evil  wiped the blood and tears from the corner of his eyes.

Then he looked at the old Wuji in front of him and said, "Master...please, please, the old man must help my son, help Tianer!"

"This child has been abandoned by me for a lifetime... Now he has encountered so many hardships when he grows up... Master, I am sorry for him... I am sorry for their mother and son... Please Master, please Master, your old man must help my poor child. "The evil  knelt on the ground and said to the old man Wuji.

The old man Wuji helped the evil  said: "Kraft your father, don't worry, as long as the old man lives, he will do his best to protect that little Li Tian."

"It's just that I don't know what Xiao Li will encounter in the great calamity of the world now." The old man Wuji sighed suddenly.

The third calamity: escape into the void?

What does it mean?

Chapter 2427: The only person alive

Dragon Tiger Mountain, the gate of hell.

The gates of hell, which used to be gloomy and dared not to invade, are now a mess.

I saw inside the * gate, except for the dead bodies of the * gate masters, all that was left was left with broken walls.

A few crows still fell on the standing gate of Hell's Gate.

The horrible cries of quack, quack, quack, and crows cried out from time to time.

These crows are here to find the corpse.

Just when these crows were "ghosting" at that croak, croak, and croak, a violent gust of wind came from a distant place.

Before people arrive, anger comes first.

As soon as the stern wind passed, I suddenly saw a black figure wearing a black robe, who suddenly reached the side of the * gate.

At the moment when his terrifying figure was about to reach the gate of hell, the crows that fell on the gate of * also seemed to feel terrible hostility, and then croaked strangely and flew away.

Besides, who is this terrifying figure in a black robe?

Take a closer look, this guy is the master of the gate of * who rushed back! Unexpectedly, he returned.

At the moment his figure fell to the ground, his vicious eyes suddenly became extremely fierce, looking at the * gate he created.

"Damn, what's going on here?" A word suddenly roared out of the * gate master's mouth.

He looked at the open door of * and everything around him, and suddenly a very bad premonition surged from his heart.

After he finished speaking, his figure flashed suddenly, and then he entered the gate of * with a "swish".

After entering, he was stunned.

All I saw was the corpses under his * gate... The blood was completely dried up, and there were chaotic sharp weapons left on the ground.

"How could this be?" The moment the master of the gate of * saw the body of his gatekeeper, he burst out angrily.

The endless anger that came out of his body seemed to be destroyed.

I saw the dead bodies everywhere in the gate of hell, and their bodies were lying in this cave.

Looking at the shocking corpse in front of him, the master of the gate of * suddenly roared out.
what.....

With a scream, the boulders around him were shattered by his scream.

"who is it,?"

"Who would dare to kill me the gatekeeper of hell?" a crazy roar came from the gatekeeper of hell.

He really couldn't believe that so many masters at the gate of * were all dead, and the whole gate of * was bloody.

Who? Who has such great ability to dare to bloodbath the gates of hell?

After yelling, the master of the gate of * quickly walked towards the front, he wanted to see if there were any people alive inside his gate.

But after searching for a circle, I found that there was no one alive.

Suddenly, the gate of * thought of the "Commander-in-Chief of the North China Field Army, Commander Mu Lao" who had been hijacked by him.

After thinking of Commander Mu, this guy hurried to the black jail. After running past, he saw that the stone gate of the black jail had been crushed with palm force... and the commander Mu in the black jail was also Has long since disappeared!

Looking at the rescued Commander Mu, the master of the gate of * in front of him suddenly yelled out in anger.

There was a bang, but seeing the anger in his heart that he couldn't help but slammed his palm against the stone wall in front of him.

When the huge stone wall was hit by his terrifying palm, a deep palm print was hit directly on the stone wall with a bang.

Angry, resentful.

At this moment, it was all flooded with the * gate master in front of him.

He is now like a mad lion, and all his eyes are terrible murderous intent.

He didn't know who had washed the * gate he created by himself... and he didn't even know that it was the character who was able to slaughter his dozens of * gate masters! !

Just when he was puzzled, a weak gasp came from the cave on the left.

The moment he heard the extremely weak gasp, the * gate master in front of him suddenly stretched his figure and flew past.

After flying past, he looked up, and at a glance he saw a disciple of * who was heavily wounded and covered in blood, snuggling in the corner and panting violently.

His face was as gray as death, as if lying in the corner as if dying, but he was still struggling to live.

The sect master saw him at the gate of hell, so he walked over quickly.

After hearing the sound of footsteps, the disciple of Hell, who was seriously injured and alive, was suddenly frightened and backed away.

"Don't kill me...Don't kill me..." he exclaimed in fear.

I saw the figure of the master of the gate of  slowly appearing in his sight.

After seeing the figure of the master of the gate of hell, the extremely injured guy was not only stunned.

"The master?" He exclaimed weakly.

"The sect master...you are finally back..." The weak guy said in the most pleasantly surprised way the moment he saw the savior of the  gate.

But seeing the master of the gate of  lifted his cold and angry eyes and gave him a cold look.

"Tell me, what the  is going on? Who killed me so many masters at the gate of hell?" The master of the gate of  in front of me couldn't tolerate the anger in his heart, and said angrily at that moment.

After following the  gate master's questioning exit, but seeing the  disciple who was heavily wounded and covered in blood, he gasped and said: "Return... the gate master... we... we were attacked. "

"Who is it?" The master of the gate of  roared out again.

But seeing the dying disciple of  gasped: "I...I...we...don't know him..."

"I just know... his skill is very high... very high..."

Upon hearing this, the master of the gate of  continued to ask: "Then you should always know what the other person looks like?"

When the dying disciple of  recalled the scene of the cruel killing of the old man Wuji, there was not only a sense of fear in his heart.

At this moment, he tremblingly said: "I remember... remember... what he looked like..."

"He's an... old man... an old man with very white and white hair... with a long and long beard on his chin, wearing a gray robe... and... and... riding a black Giant eagle!"

"It's this cruel old thing... who killed so many people in our  gate, and he washed our  gate with blood." The extremely wounded disciple of the  gate said with resentment the face of the old man Wuji.

Chapter 2428: Fire Phoenix Illustration

When the  gate master in front of him heard the seriously injured disciple of  gate, he was stunned.

"Giant eagle? Xiaohei?" The master of the gate of  in front of him murmured in shock.

"My God, could it be mine..." The master of the gate of  didn't finish the following words, but the whole person blinked with unbelievable eyes.

Suddenly the master of the gate of  laughed wildly, his laughter filled with weirdness.

The badly wounded disciple of the  disciple was stunned when they saw their master laugh suddenly.

"The master..." he yelled weakly.

The master of the gate of * suddenly turned his gloomy face, and glanced at the seriously injured disciple with a vicious look.

The disciple of * rushed up from the bottom of his heart, but he still looked at the master of the door of * and said: "Door, please be sure to take revenge for us...revenge...for the dead brothers ..."

After listening to this badly injured guy, the * gate master suddenly showed a strange smile.

"Don't worry, I will avenge this grudge for you."

After the words were finished, the master of the * gate suddenly pinched the wounded disciple's neck with an invisible arm.

The disciple of Hell, who was already extremely injured, was stunned at the moment when he was pinched. At this moment, even breathing was extremely difficult.

He wants to kill him! ! !

"The door... the master... why... why... want to kill me?" Suddenly the heavily wounded disciple of Hell said hoarsely in his mouth.

His eyes have begun to roll up, as if he was about to die.

But seeing the * gate master sneer there, looking at his dying subordinates, he said insidiously: "They are all dead, what's the use of keeping your rubbish?"

After the words were finished, a terrible force suddenly came from his invisible arm!

Then with a "click", he directly pinched the disciple of * to death.

After killing the only surviving disciple of the * gate, he saw the * gate master walking towards the innermost part of the * gate step by step with icy steps.

"Father... I really didn't expect that the * gate that I worked so hard to create... was actually ruined by you, hehehehe." The unpleasant voice of crying or laughing could not be heard from the * gate master's mouth. Came out.

He got it.

The master of the gate of * already knew that the old man Wuji had destroyed his gate of hell.

The master of the gate of * smiled weirdly, while walking towards the innermost part of the gate of hell.

I saw him walking to the last stone wall of the * gate, and suddenly stretched out a hand into the most recessed place in the middle of the stone wall. After reaching in, his arm turned slightly!

Then a loud rumbling sound came from the stone wall.

Secret door!

Unexpectedly, there was a secret door at the end of the gate of hell.

In fact, this hidden door is the dark room closed by the master of the * door when he is practicing Kungfu. Only he knows this mechanism, but he doesn't know what the current * door master meant to open this dark room.

However, after the rumbling and heavy stone gate was opened, all the scenes inside appeared in front of the * gate master.

But the place inside was empty and huge, and several standing stone pillars were erected inside.

After the * gate master opened the dark room, he walked in step by step.

When he walked in, he saw a sword on the far left!

A domineering exposed "sword".

A flying dragon is engraved on the sword body, and the golden sword body gives people an aura that shocks the world.

If you know what a treasure this sword is, you will surely know why this sword exudes such an aura that shocks the world.

Because it is among the three ancient relics: Xuanyuan Sword!

No one thought that this "Xuanyuan Sword" would actually appear here.

The master of the gate of * looked at the "Xuanyuan Sword" that exuded the breath of shocking the world, and suddenly a grin appeared at the corner of his mouth.

Then his right hand stretched out, and an invisible suction came out from his palm.

After that invisible energy suddenly spread from the palm of his hand, he was directly "sucked" by the * gate master with a whistling "Xuanyuan Sword".

Xuanyuan Sword fell into the hands of the master of the * gate.

Looking at Xuanyuan Jian, a breath of shocking heaven and earth hissed from the sword.

The master of * gate suddenly stretched out his hand and pulled out Xuanyuan sword.
warehouse!

With a sound of a dragon chant, Xuanyuan sword's cold light came out of its sheath, and a mighty and domineering Ssangyong on the sharp sword body climbed left and right on the sword.

The sword!

The strongest sword in ancient times.

Sensen cold air radiated from the sword body, and the moment the Xuanyuan sword pulled out its sheath, the sword air suddenly reverberated in the entire space.

"Xuanyuan Sword, it is really a peerless sword!" The master of Hell Gate in front of him smiled up to the sky with Xuanyuan Sword in his hand.

Gently waved the sword body, and the domineering sword aura radiated from the sword body.

"The three ancient relics, I only get the Xuanyuan sword...but the burning phoenix map, I can get it right away." The * gate master in front of me suddenly said with a grimly grin.

Fiery Phoenix Figure!

Everyone knows that the Fiery Phoenix Picture is: the second most treasure among the three ancient relics!

Legend has it that the picture of the blazing phoenix was taken away by the red noses of the Vatican a long time ago... But the current master of the gate of * actually said that he was about to get the "picture of the blazing phoenix"?

Did he find the picture of the Fiery Phoenix?

"Now the last treasure is the legendary pill scroll of the heavenly book..." the * gate master in front of him said with a gloomy face.

"Damn evil god, * Li Tian... dare to * my heavenly book pill scroll, huh, I, Long Xiaotian, will kill you all one day... and then seize these three ancient artifacts."

"At that time, at the top of the Tianshan Forbidden Zone, I will be able to break in alone. I want to uncover the thousand-year-old Tianshan mystery, hahahaha." The endless laughter came from the * gate master in front of him with a grim smile Up.

After he finished laughing, he saw his figure flash and leave the gloomy cave with the "Xuanyuan Sword".

"It's time to find a picture of the Fierce Phoenix, presumably those * foreigners should be in the country..."

After the * gate master suddenly said a few weird words, he suddenly stretched out and left the * gate.

The gate of * has since been destroyed!

Above the rivers and lakes, only the master of the gate of * is still alive.

Chapter 2429: Flying fairy

North China Field Army Military Region.

Since the Wuji old man rescued the old commander Nammu from the gate of hell, the entire North China Field Military Command has finally stabilized.

Now that the commander-in-chief is back, their worry has disappeared.

But what about Cthulhu? But not so happy.

Because when the Cthulhu heard that Wuji old man said: Blood Fiend Three Tribulations, after that, he was deeply depressed.

He didn't know what the third calamity his son would endure next? If he could, he was really willing to use his life to protect that Li Tian.

However, a person's life cannot be replaced by others, even father and son, so the evil * in front of him can do nothing but worry deeply in his heart.

Inside the room, but seeing the evil * sitting there dull.

He didn't have a good rest all day and night.

The brothers looked at the grief of the evil god, and didn't know how to comfort him. Everyone put their thoughts on the old man Wuji, because at this moment only the words of the old man Wuji could persuade the evil god.

"Father Kua..." In the room, the faint voice of the old man Wuji rang out.

After hearing the master's voice, the evil  in front of him slowly raised his head, and then looked at the old man Wuji there.

"Master." The evil  in front of him shouted.

The old man Wuji looked at the evil  and said, "Kuafu, tell me, where is Xiao Litian now?"

After listening to the old man Wuji asking this, the evil  was suddenly sad.

"Master, I really don't want to hide it. Actually, I don't even know where Tian'er is." A word came out of the Cthulhu's mouth.

The old man Wuji not only frowned when he heard the Cthulhu suddenly say this.

"Since Tian'er died with the demon in the Immortal Mountains... he was... rescued by... two mysterious people." The evil  in front of him said slowly.

"Two mysterious people?" The old man Wuji was surprised.

But seeing the evil  suddenly raised his eyes and looked at the Wuji old man and said: "Yes, master, have you ever known that apart from you and the dead master in our country, what kind of peerlessness is there under the world? Supreme?"

The old man Wuji in front of him was not only taken aback when he heard the Cthulhu question.

"Peerless master?"

"This old man really doesn't know." The old Wuji in front of him thought.

After the old man Wuji finished speaking, he looked at the evil  and said, "Kuafu, why do you ask?"

But seeing the evil  was silent for a while, he said: "Master, I will not hide from you... In fact, Tian'er fought the devil that day, and finally died together and was buried under the mountains... The mountains collapsed, the boulders were destroyed, endless The rocks fell one after another. When I rushed, the mountain had already collapsed... To be honest, even if my skills were not used at that time, I couldn't rescue Tian'er from the mountain and the rocks..."

"But what I didn't expect was that after we left, two mysterious figures suddenly appeared on the sky... Those two mysterious figures were able to open the mountain and cleave the rocks, and then take Tian'er's body away." The Cthulhu Way.

The old man Wuji frowned deeply after hearing the evil  in front of him say so.

"Kuafu, are you sure that the other party can really open the mountain and break the rocks?" The old man Wuji asked.

The evil  thought for a while and said, "Actually, I didn't see it at the time... it was a few girls who saw it..."

"Master, how about I find them, can you ask clearly?" said the Cthulhu Dao in front of him.

After all, the skills that are difficult to appear in the world like opening mountains and splitting stones... are rare! The Cthulhu certainly didn't dare to talk nonsense about things that the old man Wuji couldn't possibly do, so he wanted to call out the girls like Situ Ningbing and Duanmuying.

Because only they saw this scene with their own eyes that day! Only they know the truth of the matter.

After the evil * in front of him said this, he nodded slightly and said, "Well, that's fine."

"I hope I can ask in person."

The evil * said, "Okay."

Then he asked Duguxie to call that Situ Ningbing quickly.

After a while, she saw that Situ Ningbing walked into the room. After she walked into the room, she blinked her beautiful eyes and glanced at the old man Wuji and the evil god, and shouted: "Old Wuji..."

The old man Wuji smiled slightly and nodded after hearing Situ Ningbing's call.

"Please sit down!" said the old man Wuji.

Situ Ningbing said: "Thank you." So he sat down.

"I heard from Kuafu that you saw Xiao Litian being rescued that day... and you also saw two peerless experts appear... Could you tell me about the scene at that time?" The old man Wuji smiled in front of him. Looking at Situ Ningbing and asked.

After Situ Ningbing heard what Old Man Wuji said, he nodded there and said, "Okay."

Then Situ Ningbing started talking.

"That day, the three of us were at the place where Li Tian had an accident... Suddenly we saw two black shadows flying from the eastern sky... The two silhouettes were like gods, coming and going without a trace at a very fast speed. They arrived here at such a speed...they were suspended in the air."

After Situ Ningbing said this, the old man Wuji frowned deeply.

"Floating in the air? How long have they been floating?" The old man Wuji asked curiously.

Situ Ningbing thought for a while and said, "It's like stepping on a cloud for a long, long time."

The old man Wuji was silent for a moment.

Suddenly he said, "Is it really flying fairy?"

Flying fairy is a martial arts, not a real fairy! A person who can practice flying fairy art is either a thousand-year hero or a peerless demon! This kind of skill requires extremely deep internal strength to control one's own body, and make one's own body become like smoke, paper-like frivolous...and then suspended in the air.

To tell the truth, even the current Promise old man can't reach the flying fairy technique, but listening to this Situ Ningbing said that, the other party clearly uses the flying fairy technique!

The old man Wuji, who had been silent for a long time, looked at the Situ Ningbing and said, "Okay, you can continue to talk..."

Situ Ningbing then continued to talk.

"The two mysterious old men are very weird... One of them arrived in front of us with a swish after we found out... After he arrived in front of us, he said that he would take us out of here... He said wait here It's dangerous." Situ Ningbing said.

The old man Wuji asked, "Can you tell me more about the faces of the two old men?"

Chapter 2430: Top of Tianshan Mountain

Situ Ningbing in front of him then said, "The old man was red, with a round face, white hair and a black robe."

"Oh, by the way, I remember, there is a weird totem behind his black robe... that totem is like the basalt among the four elephant totems recorded in ancient books."

When Situ Ningbing suddenly said the Xuanwu Totem, the old man Wuji stood up from his seat in shock.

"what?"

"Xuanwu?" The old man Wuji exclaimed.

His surprised behavior shocked the Cthulhu, Situ Ningbing and the surrounding brothers.

No one knows what secret the old man Wuji discovered, how could he make such a big move?

what is the problem?

The evil * looked at the shocked old Wuji and quickly asked, "Master, what's wrong?"

But seeing the old man Wuji did not answer the words of the evil god, instead Long Ju blinked at the Situ Ningbing in front of him and said, "Little girl, please tell me, what else do you see?"

To be honest, Situ Ningbing didn't know why the old man Wuji was so excited, so he drove the two weird old people into the mountains and broke the rocks to rescue Li Tian.

"...Finally, the two mysterious old men flew away...there are no more traces." Situ Ningbing Yiwuyishi told all the things he saw in his eyes.

After Situ Ningbing said this all at once, the old man Wuji was in a daze.

"My God, could it be that the four...four...the old monsters guarding the Tianshan Mountain...are also born?" A word suddenly came out of the old man Wuji's mouth.

The four old monsters guarding Tianshan?

When the evil  heard the old man Wuji say this all of a sudden, he was not only slightly startled, but he looked at the old man Wuji and asked, "Master, what's the matter?"

"Who was the expert saved Tian'er?" Cthulhu asked.

But what about the old man Wuji? After a long silence, he slowly turned his face.

"That Xiao Li Tian was saved by... by... the four great demons guarding the Tianshan restricted area!" The old man Wuji said suddenly.

When the words of the old man Wuji were suddenly uttered, everyone in front of him was not only stunned.

"what?"

"Four big demons guarding the Tianshan restricted area?" The Cthulhu said in disbelief.

When the old Wuji spoke out, everyone was stunned.

Except that Cthulhu had some knowledge of the four great demons guarding the top of the Tianshan Forbidden Area... the other brothers present could say that they knew nothing.

They don't even know what the four big demons are, what is the mystery of the restricted area on the top of the Tianshan Mountains.

But seeing the old man Wuji blinked his eyes: "I really didn't expect that even the four old monsters were born..."

"No wonder you said that they could use flying fairy art, no wonder you could say that they opened mountains and cleaved rocks! It turned out that it was them... it turned out that it was they who saved that Xiao Li Tian!" The old Wuji in front of him said in horror. Say.

After the evil * heard what the old man Wuji said, he hurriedly asked: "Master, who are the four great demons?"

After he asked, the old man Wuji muttered, "Who are they?" After saying this, the old man Wuji suddenly laughed bitterly.

"Even the old man doesn't know who they are!" The old man Wuji suddenly sighed there.

My God, even the old man Wuji who has lived for hundreds of years doesn't know what the identity of the four great demons guarding the top of the Tianshan Mountains are!

Listening to the old man Wuji sighing to say this, the brothers and the evil * were also completely depressed there.

But seeing the old Wuji in front of him suddenly said, "The four great demons on the top of the mountain forbidden area have already existed in a very early age..."

"Their existence has far surpassed me and my brother Kui, even in my master's time, they have been waiting on the top of the Tianshan Mountains."

When everyone heard what Old Man Wuji said, they were all stunned.

"Oh my God, Senior Wuji... Then you mean, they lived... lived... hundreds of years? Or even longer?" The brothers here asked in surprise.

The corner of the old man's mouth smiled slightly and said, "More than a hundred years? Maybe it's been a thousand years..."

"Then they...they... are they human? Or... or... are they monsters?" Tang Xiaolong opened his eyes wide and couldn't believe it.

The old man Wuji smiled faintly: "The old man doesn't know whether they are humans or monsters."

When the old man Wuji said that he didn't know, the brothers were depressed.

Be good!

"Brother Tian, I was rescued by a few old monsters...what can I do?" Tang Xiaolong cried out depressed.

Chen Qiaozhi next to Tang Xiaolong said to Tang Xiaolong: "Don't talk nonsense, things haven't been clarified yet..."

After hearing what Chen Qiaozhi said, Tang Xiaolong closed his mouth tightly.

Everyone present at the moment looked ugly, because they were all worried about that Li Tian.

What kind of "monster" was Li Tian rescued? None of them knew the identity of the four great old men, and right now even the old man Wuji didn't know, let alone the evil  and his brothers.

"Master, what should I do then? How can I save Tian'er?" The evil  in front of him suddenly looked at the old man Wuji in pain and asked.

The old man Wuji frowned slightly and said, "There are causes, results, origins, and ends in world affairs."

"Since now that Xiao Li Tian was rescued by the four demon guarding Tianshan... there must be a special reason for this..." the old man said in front of him.

The Cthulhu said: "Reason? How could Tian'er have a connection with the four old monsters?"

The old man Wuji shook his head and said, "I don't know these things."

"The only thing the old man knows is that Xiao Li Tian might be saved by those four old immortal monsters this time... It must not be a curse, maybe it's a happy event!"

"You have to know that the four great demon guards guarding the top of the Tianshan Mountains... but have not been born for hundreds of years... or even thousands of years..."

The words of the old man Wuji murmured into the ears of everyone present.

Listening to what the old man Wuji said, the Cthulhu's heart can be said to be more than half sad!

The old man Wuji is indeed right. Although the mystery of the four great demons is a mystery, their skill is rare in the world. If the four great demons really want to save Li Tian, his son might be able to live. !

But at the same time, it also worries the Cthulhu. If the four great demons are not good people... but evil people, wouldn't Li Tian never live anymore?

The peerless pinnacle of the Four Great Demon's high skill, even his master can't deal with it...Who can save his son?
