

A Killer 2441

Chapter 2441: Mentorship

The old man Wuji was injured?

Looking at the old Wuji who was about to fall to the ground, the evil **** in front of him stepped forward and quickly went to support the old Wuji.

"Master...Master...How are you?" The evil **** said with a frightened voice at the old man Wuji.

But seeing the old man Wuji's face pale and sweat dripping on his head.

After being supported by the evil god, he smiled bitterly: "Hey, the old man is really old...it's useless." The old man Wuji's voice was full of bitter feelings.

When the evil **** heard it, his eyes suddenly became red.

"Master, I'm sorry to you, it's because the internal strength of the master I harmed is so badly consumed." The evil **** in front of him said with red eyes.

Cthulhu is certainly not an idiot. He knows how much internal strength his master has lost to restore his skills this time... He has never seen his master injured in his life... never! But this time, he saw it, and it was for the evil **** himself to be injured!

Of course he knows how much damage his body has suffered...How high is the skill of that Demon Head Dragon Yin? What a cruel method he used when he used terrible power to abolish the power of Cthulhu! Not only abolished the power of the Heretic God, but also destroyed the strange tendons and eight veins of the Heretic God...

In this world, I am afraid that few people can restore his martial arts under the condition of Cthulhu's disability! !

To be honest, the old man Wuji had just used two-thirds of his power to clear the blood of the strange tendons and eight veins for the evil god! The old man Wuji is not a god, he is also a human being. Although he has hundreds of years of peerless skills, his cultivation is limited and his physical stamina is also limited...so the old man Wuji will be injured...

I saw that the old man Wuji straightened up slightly at this moment, and then muttered: "I really didn't expect that Long Yin's skill reached such a terrifying level...I thought he was just blocking your strange tendons. Eight meridians, I didn't expect that he would use his internal force to smash all your odd tendons and eight meridians..."

"Haha, but Kuafu, don't worry about it. The old man has already patched the eight veins of the odd tendons for you just now... your current eight veins of the odd tendons only need to be penetrated by the next time the old man uses internal force to restore your skills!" The old man's voice clearly revealed weakness.

It turns out that the old Wuji not only cleansed the blood from the strange veins and veins in the body for the evil god, but also repaired the evil and magic veins and veins... The reason why he didn't say it just now was just afraid that his disciples were worried for him!

At this moment, the old man Wuji couldn't tell the truth in his own situation, so he told the truth at this moment.

When the evil **** heard what his master had done for himself, tears flowed out immediately.

"Master, I'm ashamed of you... I'm sorry you are old..." The evil **** in front of him said with tears.

But seeing the old man Wuji murmured: "I have said it for my teacher, don't worry about me... I have lived for so many years, and I must end my life... Hey..."

As soon as the evil **** heard it, he said, "Master, don't say that. Your health is very good. You can definitely live for many, many years..."

The old man Wuji smiled bitterly: "Now the old man only thinks about one thing...that is to personally slaughter my evil animal that is endangering the world...After killing him, the old man must have his soul to the west."

"Master, no...you will never die..." Cthulhu said with tears.

The old man Wuji said: "People are mortal!"

"From ancient times to the present, how many heroes and heroes, how many beauties, who can escape the ruthless years?"

"Quafu, don't worry about the old man."

After speaking, the old man Wuji looked at the evil **** again, and walked to the outside of the room step by step with weak steps.

After his old figure walked out of this room, he looked so lonely...so depressed...like a wild flower on the wasteland in autumn...like the feeling that it was about to wither.

Cthulhu stood behind, looking at the back of Xiao Suo, who was slowly leaving the old man Wuji, his eyes were suddenly blurred by tears.

With a plop, the evil god's legs knelt on the ground, kneeling behind the old man Wuji!

"Master, I have owed you all my life..." a sentence came out of the evil god's mouth.

Decades ago, Cthulhu was murdered and almost died. He was rescued by the old man Wuji and returned to Tianshan. Then he was hidden under the thousand-year-old ice, and finally he lived under the restoration of the strange grass and snow lotus in the Tianshan Mountains!

Now this time, the old man Wuji did not hesitate to waste hundreds of years of his skills to restore his skills for the evil god... As an apprentice, how could the evil **** not feel heartache?

He just kept kneeling and kneeling until the figure of the old man Wuji slowly disappeared from his sight.

When Duguxie, the ghost servant and the Baihua Fairy rushed to the outside of this evil god's room, they saw the evil **** kneeling outside the room sadly.

Looking at the evil god, this Duguxie, the ghost servant and the Baihua Fairy rushed over.

"Big brother...what's wrong?"

"Big Brother, what happened?" The three people looked at the Cthulhu Dao with shocked expressions on their faces.

After the Cthulhu heard the voices of his brothers, he wiped his vague eyes slightly, and then, supported by Fairy Baihua, he slowly stood up.

"I'm fine..." A word came out of the heretic god.

After finishing speaking, but seeing Cthulhu, he walked step by step towards the room.

Duguxie behind him, Fairy Baihua, and the ghost servant were not only worried when they saw the evil spirit so sad, but they ran into the room immediately.

"Big Brother, what happened?"

"Yeah, what about Senior Wuji? Isn't he restoring martial arts for Big Brother?" the ghost servant in front of him asked in surprise.

After all the brothers asked, Cthulhu finally spoke, and he said in pain: "My father Li Kua is really useless in my life, really **** it, I'm so harassing my master and his old man."

Hearing the Cthulhu said this with grief, the brothers in front of him were not only puzzled, but one by one raised suspicious eyes and looked at the Cthulhu Dao in front of him: "Brother, why do you say that?"

The Cthulhu then said all about the old man Wuji's loss of internal strength to restore his skills.

After speaking out, my brothers were all dumbfounded!

In their impression, the old man Wuji was like a "god" existence, but they did not expect that even old man Wuji, who was a "god" old man, would be affected... and weak...

Chapter 2442: Go to the top of Tianshan

After hearing what the evil **** said, I saw Duguxie there to comfort the evil god: "Brother, you must be sad."

"Senior Wuji will be fine. His hundreds of years of skill will surely be good as long as he rests."

The fairy Baihua next to him was also calming the Heretic God and said, "Yes, brother, Senior Wuji will definitely be fine."

Hearing what the brothers said, the evil **** gave a bitter smile.

He knew that the words of the brothers were to comfort him, but he was very clear in his heart that he understood what it meant that the old man Wuji's body nearly fell down just now... Thinking of this, his heart was like a knife cut.

With the continuous encouragement from the brothers, Cthulhu's mood finally improved a lot.

In the room, but seeing that Duguxie, the ghost servant and Baihua Fairy guard the evil **** like that...

"Big Brother, since Senior Wuji has repaired the odd tendons and eight veins for you...you will try this to see if the true energy can be brought together?" Du Guxie suddenly looked at the Cthulhu Dao.

Since Cthulhu was repaired by the old man Wuji, he hasn't experimented yet!

However, Cthulhu felt that his physical condition was significantly better than before.

After hearing what Duguxie said, the evil ***** said, "Well, I'll try it."

Immediately afterwards, I saw the ghost servants and Fairy Baihua walking quickly, and then all opened their eyes wide and looked at the evil god.

They all hope that the evil god's skill will recover soon.

I saw the Cthulhu raised his hands slightly at this moment, and then reached the Dantian... Then he tried to slowly accumulate the true energy in his body.

At the beginning, there was no true energy at all, and the body seemed to be very weak, and no energy could be accumulated.

"How's the big brother?" Baihua Fairy, who only listened to her eyes widened, asked eagerly.

She couldn't wait for the current Cthulhu to restore her whole body skills immediately.

But what about Cthulhu? But his face wasn't very good-looking, he shook his head slightly there and said, "I...I...I really want to not be angry."

what?

The brothers were not only surprised when they heard the evil ***** say this.

"How could this be?" The ghost servant in front of him was shocked.

That Duguxie thought for a while and said, "Big Brother, your body has just recovered... your physical strength is very weak, why don't you try again?"

Listening to Duguxie's words, Cthulhu thought for a while and said: "Okay, I will try again."

As he said, he started luck again, this time after luck, suddenly a trace of real aura slowly gathered from his dantian.

"I can accumulate zhenqi." At the moment when he felt that he could accumulate zhenqi, the evil ***** cried out excitedly.

Hearing the evil ***** in front of him suddenly said that when he could raise his true qi, the brothers immediately became happy.

"Great."

"Big Brother's skill is finally restored... it's really great."

But seeing the ghost servants, Fairy Baihua and Duguxie, they all said excitedly there.

The moment Cthulhu felt his internal strength slightly recovered, he was not only surprised!

Ever since the ***** devil's dragon Yin had abolished his entire skill, the Cthulhu has never been better than dead! He has gone from an invincible figure to a trash that is inferior to ordinary people. How can this tremendous change not make him feel heartache?

Now he is finally able to gather his anger, which is simply too happy for him.

As long as the Cthulhu's skill is restored, they will set out to go to the top of the mountain to find Li Tian.

...

Within these few days, the body of the old man Wuji recovered slightly.

In the past few days, the old man Wuji used a total of two times to open up the strange tendons and eight veins for the evil god... The evil **** originally did not want his master to consume his internal strength for himself, but facing the orders of the old man Wuji, the evil **** had to Reluctantly accept the continuous internal input from his master!

In three days, for three full days, the Cthulhu's skill was almost restored.

Although his current skill is only restored to a half degree, this is already a miracle for him.

The brothers looked at the body of the evil **** getting better and better, and were all happy when they saw that the evil **** continued to fly over the walls.

"Master, thank you for your great kindness, I really don't know how to repay your old age..." In the room, the Cthulhu thanked the old man Wuji.

The old man Wuji smiled slightly, raised his hand and said, "Don't be polite between the master and the apprentice."

"Kuafu, your current body has finally recovered...Although your skill is only half of what it used to be, it must be enough for you."

After the evil **** heard the old man Wuji say this, he nodded there.

"When are you going to accompany the old man to the top of the mountain that day?" A word asked from the old man Wuji.

When the old man Wuji suddenly asked this, the brothers in front of him blinked at the evil god!

To be honest, during the time when the evil **** is recovering his skills these days, the brothers have already prepared everything.

They have prepared oxygen equipment for climbing that mountain, and they have also prepared a lot of heat protection tools...In short, everything is ready, but the wind is not enough.

At this moment, the Cthulhu thought for a while and said to the old man Wuji: "Master, I hope the sooner the better!"

"After all, what exactly is Tian'er like now... How would the four demon guarding Tian'er treat Tian'er... I don't know at all, I'm worried about him." The Cthulhu said slightly there.

After hearing the evil **** say this, the old man Wuji nodded and said: "Since you said that, then we will set off tomorrow."

"Go to the top of the Tianshan Mountains."

After listening to the old man Wuji saying this, the evil **** in front of him and his brothers all excitedly said, "Okay!"

In this way, tomorrow, tomorrow they decided to set off to the top of the mountain.

The snowy peaks of the Tianshan Mountains...this time, the demons gathered, and I really don't know what changes will happen.

After deciding to go to the top of the mountain tomorrow, the brothers rested very early this night!

Some people are in bed, tossing and turning, awake at night, and some are thinking about their own thoughts secretly.

Only Cthulhu got up from the bed alone, and then ran into the lounge of Old Commander Na Mu.

On the side of Commander Mu, the light in the lounge was still on, and there were a few guards standing outside the door.

After the Cthulhu came here, the guards originally wanted to go in and inform the old commander, but they were stopped by the Cthulhu...

"Don't tell the old commander...I can go in by myself." Cthulhu was afraid that these soldiers would quarrel with the old commander.

The guards nodded one by one.

Chapter 2443: Helicopter

Then the evil ***** in front of him walked towards the lounge of the old commander Mu.

When he arrived at the lounge, I saw that Commander Mu was sitting in the lounge and fell asleep. What was still placed in front of his desk was some military area information.

Looking at the sleeping Commander Mu, Cthulhu couldn't help sighing slightly, then walked to Commander Mu, found a soft blanket, and placed it slightly on Commander Mu's body.

After Cthulhu gently put the soft blanket on the body of Commander Mu, Commander Mu suddenly became sober.

He raised his head and glanced at it, and he saw the soft blanket on his body and the evil ***** in front of him.

"Quafu...you are here." Commander Mu exclaimed in surprise.

But after seeing that Cthulhu saw that Commander Mu was sober, he smiled slightly and said: "Sorry, father-in-law, I woke you up."

The old commander Namu said, "It's okay."

"Sit down..." Commander Mu said to the Cthulhu Dao.

So Cthulhu sat down on one side.

"I heard that you are going to the top of the Tianshan Mountains tomorrow, right?" After sitting down, Commander Mu looked at the evil ***** and asked.

The Cthulhu slowly nodded and said, "Yes, because of this, I want to come to my father-in-law to talk to you tonight."

Commander Mu sighed slightly after hearing the evil ***** say this.

"Ok."

"This time you go, you must save my good grandson anyway... No matter what difficulties you encounter, remember to contact me... If it doesn't work, I will send an army to support you." Old Commander Mu looked at the evil spirit and said.

But after seeing the evil **** heard Commander Mu say this, he smiled slightly and said, "Father-in-law, don't worry, I will definitely save Tian'er if I go this time."

"Well, that's good." Commander Mu said.

After speaking, Commander Mu leaned back on the chair behind him and murmured: "I have been thinking of you for so many years... Hey, people? I always get old. When I get old, I miss myself easily. My dearest relatives...I really hope that one day, all of you can come back and reach me. In that case, Mu Yunlong can live ten years less." Commander Mu sighed there.

Listening to the words of Commander Mu, the evil **** felt slightly uncomfortable in his heart.

I saw him looking in front of Commander Mu and said: "Father-in-law, you can rest assured, after I rescue Tian'er this time, I will bring him back... and stay by your old man's side."

After the old Commander Mu heard it, he said with excitement, "Kuafu, is what you said is true?"

The evil **** in front of him smiled and said, "It's true! How could I deceive your old man."

After hearing this, the old Commander Namu became happy and said: "It's great, in that case, it's great."

...

That night, Cthulhu had a long chat with Old Commander Namu.

As a "father-son" relationship, they can be said to be the deepest chat in this life.

The night came quickly.

Early the next morning, I saw that Duguxie, the ghost servant, and Fairy Baihua got up early.

Behind them were Tang Xiaolong, Xue Wuhen, Chen Qiaozhi, and Na Situ Ningbing and other beauties.

From the way they dress up, it can be seen that they all get up very early.

After a while, he saw the evil **** and the old man Wuji also walk out of the room.

"Big Brother."

The moment he saw the Cthulhu coming out, the brothers in front of him all leaned over.

After seeing the brothers all get up early, the evil **** in front of him glanced at the brothers with relief and said, "You are all here."

The brothers nodded and said, "En."

Just as they were talking, they saw a large group of soldiers in front lined up toward them.

Looking closely, the leader was shockedly the commander-in-chief of the North China Field Army, Commander Mu.

Today's Commander Mu has put on a green military uniform. He looks sassy and mighty. Next to him, there is a division commander of the war department and a deputy political commissar. Political commissar Zhou with a smile on his face.

It seems that this old commander Mu is here to send off the evil ***** and them.

After the army came in neatly, they heard a military order shouting: "Stand at attention!"

All the soldiers stood at attention.

When he saw Commander Mu with soldiers coming to send them off, the evil ***** and the brothers in front of them were not only taken aback, blinked at the soldiers.

"Quafu." At this moment, the old Commander Mu walked towards them with a smile.

After the Cthulhu heard the call, he walked over with his brothers.

"My father-in-law." Cthulhu called.

I saw Old Commander Namu say: "Today, I know you are going to Tianshan to save my great grandson, so the old man decided to come and see you off himself."

The evil ***** and the brothers all laughed after listening.

"Father-in-law, you are too polite." Cthulhu said.

Commander Mu waved his hands there and said, "You're welcome, you're welcome."

"I have notified the Air Force that they will send three helicopters to ***** you to the foot of Tianshan Mountain..." Commander Mu suddenly said.

After hearing what Commander Mu said, Cthulhu was taken aback.

"Helicopter?"

But seeing Commander Mu nodded and said: "Yes."

"The helicopter will send you to the foot of the top of the Tianshan Mountains, which not only saves a lot of time, but also protects you along the way... doing so is very good for you." Commander Mu said.

Originally, the Cthulhu didn't want to trouble the old commander. After all, it was too blatant to let the military area come forward. Once the news reaches the central government, the central government will definitely reprimand the old commander Mu, and it will inevitably cause a lot of unnecessary troubles to the North China Field Army. .

But at this moment, Commander Mu is very reasonable. Originally there were a large number of Cthulhus and brothers, and they also had so many oxygen, heating equipment and other equipment and they were extremely heavy, so if you arrive at the mountain by car , It must take a long, long period of time.

It's not like taking that helicopter at this moment... you will be able to reach the mountain as soon as possible.

So after thinking about it, the evil ***** said to Commander Mu, "Thank you so much, father-in-law."

Commander Mu smiled and said: "I originally wanted to send a company of troops to the Tianshan Mountains with you... Unfortunately, you said no! Hey, in this case, the old man can only send you three helicopters to ***** you. ..."

Listening to that old Commander Mu said this, the evil ***** in front of him laughed.

Chapter 2444: set off

In this way, Cthulhu and his brothers decided to take the helicopter of the North China Field Military Region.

The three helicopters that had already landed on the open area of the military area had already been launched at this moment, and the vigorous wind brought by the whirring propellers made everyone around them feel shaved.

In addition to the three helicopters, there were 67 heavily armed special forces standing nearby.

Looking at the 67 heavily armed special forces, the Cthulhu was taken aback, and asked the old commander Mu, "Father-in-law, these are...?"

But seeing Commander Mu smiled and said: "These are some excellent field special forces picked out by the old man from the military area. I will let 7 of them protect you along the way...and ***** you to the foot of the Tianshan Mountains."

Listening to Commander Mu's words, Cthulhu originally wanted to say: He still has brothers who don't need protection... But after thinking about it, he finally did not say it. After all, this was the old commander's intention. If he refused, he would be afraid. The old commander was unhappy.

The evil ***** looked at the old commander Mu and said: "Father-in-law, then we are leaving..."

Commander Mu looked at the Cthulhu Dao with reluctant eyes and said, "Okay!"

"Be careful all the way, remember, you must rescue my grandson..." Commander Mu shouted at the evil ***** in front of him.

The Cthulhu nodded there and said, "Father-in-law, don't worry, I will definitely bring Tian'er back safely."

After speaking, the evil ***** said to the brothers around him: "Go!"

After the Cthulhu spoke out, the brothers in front of him quickly ran towards the helicopter with the oxygen and warming equipment. After reaching the helicopter, they moved everything to the helicopter. Above.

Then one by one jumped into the cabin of the helicopter vigorously.

I saw Fairy Baihua took Situ Ningbing, Duanmuying, and Ouyang Shiqing on the second helicopter, while Duguxie, the ghost servant, Tang Xiaolong, Xue Wuhen, and Chen Qiaozhi were on the second helicopter. A helicopter.

After going up, the Cthulhu and the old man Wuji did not get on the helicopter at this moment.

The evil ***** glanced at his master and said, "Master, you can sit on it too."

After he finished speaking, he saw that the old man Wuji did smile and shook his head and said, "No... I don't need it anymore..."

"The old man should ride Xiaohei."

As the old man Wuji said so, a strange whistle came from his mouth...The whistling sound pierced the sky, and then in the horrified eyes of everyone, a huge giant eagle flew from the sky. Down.

This huge eagle is the mount Xiao Hei of the old man Wuji.

I saw Xiao Hei flying from the air extremely fast, and he arrived here with a dazzling eye, and then a few "quack, quack, quack" neighs came from his mouth, and its huge body flew down from the air. Then fell in front of the old man Wuji.

After seeing the giant eagle flying down, the old man Wuji said to the Cthulhu Dao: "Kuaifu, the old man is one step ahead... You take a helicopter and arrive at the foot of the Tianshan Mountains to wait for me. Then the old man will contact you."

After hearing what the old man Wuji said, the evil ***** said, "Okay, Master."

"After we reach the foot of the Tianshan Mountains, we will wait for you there."

The old man Wuji nodded slightly and said, "Okay!"

After he finished speaking the last word, his figure stretched and swished, and his body had fallen on the giant eagle.

After the old man Wuji fell on the giant eagle, he saw him say: "Get up!"

The giant vulture suddenly moved its huge wings, "Crack, quack, quack" and screamed, and the giant eagle shot into the sky...

Its speed is very fast, very fast, and it almost stuns the surrounding soldiers and Brigadier Zhou.

In this way, the old man Wuji took the lead in flying the giant eagle towards the sky... and where is the evil ***** here? After seeing his master leaving on the giant eagle, he turned his head slightly to look at the old commander Mu and said, "Father-in-law, I'm leaving."

Commander Mu looked at the evil ***** and nodded slightly and said, "I have a safe journey."

The evil ***** silently remembered the words of the old commander that Mu, and then turned and ran towards the first helicopter.

After Cthulhu quickly boarded the first helicopter, 67 field special forces standing on the third helicopter quickly got into the helicopter.

"take off!"

With a command, all three helicopters slowly flew up.

Looking at the three flying helicopters, Brigadier Wang Zhen, who was standing next to Commander Mu, suddenly said to all officers and soldiers, "Salute!"

As he roared out, the soldiers standing in front began to salute the three flying helicopters!

Under the mighty military salute, the three helicopters that Cthulhu and the others took began to slowly rise into the blue sky, and gradually disappeared.

The top of Tianshan!

Cthulhu and the others have finally come, but don't know, are they blessed this time? Or is it a curse? Is it fierce? Still lucky! !

In the clear blue sky, three helicopters flew in the sky in a line.

This helicopter is very huge, in the cabin, at least it can seat dozens of people... However, at this moment, there are only Cthulhu and Duguxie and a group of men.

As for Fairy Baihua, and the beauties such as Situ Ningbing, they were on the second helicopter.

I saw in the cabin of the second helicopter, Cthulhu and his brothers were sitting there peacefully at this moment.

Tang Xiaolong and Xue Wuhen blinked and looked at the blue sky outside the cabin.

To be honest, it was the first time they took this kind of military helicopter. This military helicopter was completely different from the previous passenger helicopters, and its safety performance far exceeded that of civilian helicopters.

At this moment, Tang Xiaolong, who was sitting in the cabin, looked at the sky outside the cabin, and then turned his head and asked the Cthulhu God, "Senior Cthulhu...

After listening to Tang Xiaolong's question, the evil ***** also said that he didn't know, and shook his head and said, "I don't know this either."

"It is estimated that only the driver in front knows."

After listening to what Cthulhu said, Tang Xiaolong in front of him slowly got up from his seat and said, "Well, let me go ahead and ask the driver's brother."

As he said, he arched his body, and ran towards the cockpit in front.

I saw that the front cockpit cabin door was closed. After Tang Xiaolong arrived here, he stretched out his hand and knocked on the cabin door gently.

After knocking, the cabin door of the cockpit opened, and a young driver with a clean face of about 2425 was exposed.

Chapter 2445: Tianshan low temperature

"Hello, do you have any instructions?" The driver looked at Tang Xiaolong and asked.

These soldiers know that the brothers who are escorting in front of them are "relatives" and friends of the commander-in-chief, so they dare not neglect at all.

After seeing this driver, Tang Xiaolong asked with a smile, "Excuse me, how long will it take to reach the foot of Tianshan Mountain?"

After hearing Tang Xiaolong's words in front of him, the driver politely replied: "If nothing else, in five hours, we will land at the foot of Tianshan Mountain."

When Tang Xiaolong heard this, he was stunned. He didn't expect it to be so fast.

At the moment, he said in surprise: "So fast?"

The driver smiled and said, "Yes."

"Thank you." Tang Xiaolong in front of him said politely.

The pilot also smiled, and then closed the cockpit door.

At this moment, Tang Xiaolong shrank his neck and retreated.

After retreating, he grinned at the evil gods in front of him and said: "The speed of the helicopter is fast, don't you? It only takes 5 hours from here to the foot of the Tianshan Mountains in North China... ." He said and laughed.

After hearing the Duguxie in front of them, they were all surprised. To be honest, they didn't expect it to be so fast.

"So fast?" The ghost servant in front of him said.

But seeing that Tang Xiaolong smiled and said, "Yes."

The brothers then said in embarrassment, "Hey, it seems that I should take the helicopter faster..."

"Well, if it's a car, let's not say that it will take two or three days. After all, it takes thousands of kilometers."

After Tang Xiaolong asked about the time, everyone knew the approximate time in their hearts.

Now they were sitting on the plane quietly, and then waiting to arrive at the foot of the mountain that day. At this time, the brothers didn't speak much, everyone was silent there.

Cthulhu's body leaned on a seat on one side, his eyes closed slightly, and then he didn't speak but was silent.

Time passed by every minute.

It took five hours to say whether it was fast or not, and it was not too slow to say slow... They sat on the helicopter and waited to arrive.

In the front cabin, there is a main pilot and a co-pilot.

The main driver was a middle-aged man in his 30s with thick eyes. At this moment, he was driving the helicopter intently, while the co-pilot was a little younger and sitting quietly there.

"Xiao Gao, look at the sailing route... We are about to approach Tianshan Mountain..." said the main driver in front of him.

The little Gao, who was called the co-pilot, nodded and said, "Okay."

Then he turned on the control instrument next to him, glanced at it and said: "We are walking from the northwest route...In this way, we can save about 15 minutes."

After listening, the main driver said, "Okay."

So he began to set up the sailing route of the helicopter, and then the helicopter turned slightly to the right and began to fly quickly toward the northwest route.

After the course was changed, the main pilot suddenly said: "Use the radio to notify the two helicopters behind and tell them that we will adjust the course." The main pilot in front of him said.

After the pilot Xiao Gao finished listening, he nodded, then quickly picked up the radio at his hand, and then began to inform them of the change of course.

The two helicopters behind, one is carrying Baihua Fairy, Situ Ningbing, Duanmuying and other beauties...the other is carrying 7 field special forces of the North China Field Army...

After hearing the instructions, the two helicopters that followed closely began to change course at this time, following the foremost helicopter in turn and flying in the sky.

The three helicopters continued to fly in the sky.

As the plane flew towards Tianshan Mountain steadily, the temperature indicator in the cockpit suddenly screamed.

The main driver and the co-pilot Xiao Gao, who was sitting in the cockpit, frowned slightly at the moment when they saw the temperature indicator light suddenly yelling, and then looked down at the temperature indicator light.

After taking a look, they were taken aback, because the outdoor temperature displayed on the temperature indicator... actually reached minus degrees Celsius!

It's only November. According to the truth, it's just the beginning of winter, and it's not too cold at all, but I didn't expect the temperature near Tianshan Mountain to be so low!

When the thermometer showed that the outdoor temperature had reached minus degrees Celsius, the main driver in front of him frowned slightly and said, "It seems that the temperature in the Tianshan Mountains is really low."

Xiao Gao, the co-pilot in front of him, nodded quickly and said, "Yes!"

"The outdoor temperature has reached minus degrees Celsius..."

"Fortunately, the relatives and friends of Commander Mu brought a lot of heating equipment this time, otherwise it would be a big trouble." Xiao Gao said there.

The main driver in front of him smiled faintly and nodded silently.

The top of the Tianshan Mountain belongs to no man's land!

Not for anything else, just because the altitude here is much higher than other plains, and because the air here is thin and the temperature is suddenly cold...Sometimes the low temperature here can reach the terrifying level of freezing to death!

The terrifying coldness of dripping water into ice in this Tianshan Mountain is definitely not a rumor, but the real truth!

However, the three helicopters are still braving the low temperature at this moment, and start to fly forward...

The farther you fly, the more you can see the terrible low temperature shown on the thermometer.

Outdoor temperature: minus 11 degrees Celsius!

Look at it after a while, the outdoor temperature has dropped to minus 15 degrees Celsius.

...

Looking at the declining text temperature, Xiao Gao above the co-pilot suddenly had an ominous premonition in his heart.

"Master, the outdoor temperature is getting lower and lower... Is our plane okay?" His voice asked with a slight question.

The main pilot was an old pilot of the North China Field Army. During his driving experience, he did not know how many thrilling things he encountered. At this moment, he looked at the low temperature displayed on the thermometer, but he said slightly: " Don't worry, our aircraft can withstand flying at a low temperature of minus 100 degrees Celsius... this temperature will not cause any trouble right now.

After listening to the main driver's words, Xiao Gao above the co-pilot relaxed.

But at the moment he just let go of a hanging heart, a terrible scene appeared, because his eyes saw a strange purple-black dark cloud in the distance, which shrouded the clouds in front. in.

Chapter 2446: storm

When he saw the weird purple cloud, the first officer Xiao Gao cried out all of a sudden.

"Lord driver, look... Then why are there such weird clouds in front of him?" Xiao Gao in front of him pointed to the front of the cockpit.

After the main driver heard Xiao Gao's voice, he slightly raised his head to look at it. At this look, his brows were also deeply wrinkled at this moment.

"Storm cloud?" After seeing the purple-black clouds in front, the clouds like huge waves, the main driver in front of him not only screamed in surprise.

Storm cloud?

As the name suggests, it is the ominous clouds that the storm is about to come! Its arrival generally indicates that a big storm will occur in the front place.

When the first officer Xiao Gao heard the words "Storm Cloud", his face instantly turned pale!

Because everyone knows that when a plane is flying in the sky, the most fear is to encounter storms...three terrible natural disasters such as squally wind and thunder and lightning.

Unexpectedly, now they have encountered the terrible thing ahead: storm clouds.

The moment the main driver saw the "Storm Cloud", his face suddenly became extremely ugly.

"Xiao Gao, let's see where we are now? See if we can change course and avoid the storm cloud!" The main driver in front of him said quickly.

The co-pilot Xiao Gao heard it and said quickly there, "Yes!"

Then he opened the route instrument in front of him, and after opening it, he saw his face turned pale and ugly.

"Master, we have already arrived within the range of Tianshan Mountain... If we need to change the course, we will deviate from the range of Tianshan Mountain..." Xiao Gao said.

After listening to the co-pilot Xiao Gao's words, the main driver in front of him was not only depressed.

"Damn it!"

"It seems that we have to pass through this storm cloud..." the main driver in front of us said slightly.

The little Gaoyi heard the main driver say this, and asked with a sad face: "The main driver, if there is a storm, we will be in big trouble..."

The main driver said: "Don't worry, I think this storm cloud has formed not long ago, and it shouldn't be so fast. As long as we pass through this cloud before the storm, it will be safe."

Hearing what the main driver said, Xiao Gaoye didn't say anything again.

"Speed up, we have to cross this storm cloud as soon as possible." Just listen to the main driver.

So I saw them start to speed up... After their helicopter was speeding up, the two helicopters behind it also increased speed, and then followed in turn toward the huge storm cloud.

At this moment, all three helicopters rushed into the storm clouds.

The line of sight in the storm cloud was not very good, so the main driver turned on the infrared detector... They just shuttled through the storm cloud.

Hope to pass through this terrible storm cloud soon.

Five minutes passed.

Ten minutes passed.

Twenty minutes passed.

...

But they still couldn't penetrate the clouds of this storm cloud.

After the time was consuming every minute, the face of Xiao Gao sitting on the co-pilot became increasingly ugly.

What about the main driver? A pale face appeared on his face, and even sweat came out of his forehead...

"Damn it, why is this storm cloud so huge?"

"Why can't we wear it?" The main pilot was driving the helicopter in front of him while wiping the sweat left on his face.

Just when the main driver had just finished saying these words, a thunder slammed and rang... Then he saw a few lightning bolts that brightened the sky.

"No, the storm is coming." The main driver in front of him couldn't help screaming when he heard the terrible thunder.

Where is the co-pilot in front of him? There was also a panic expression on his face, and his two hands held his seat tightly, staring at the scene with wide eyes.

Click!

Another terrible thunder explosion!

After the thunder, I saw a dark tornado sweeping over here above the sky.

"storm?"

At the moment when he saw the dark tornado blowing from the air, the main driver suddenly exclaimed.

Then he shouted: "Xiao Gao, hurry up... the storm is coming!"

Listening to his yelling, the co-pilot, Xiao Gao, quickly grasped the protective equipment beside him with both hands, then closed his eyes and greeted the terrible storm.

The moment the dark tornado blows from the front, the world shakes!

The entire helicopter was quickly surrounded by the tornado.

Huhuhu!

The whole helicopter suddenly began to shake violently.

What about the evil **** and the brothers sitting in the cabin? They were all resting quietly, and no one thought that the helicopter would suddenly shake violently.

Now everyone opened their eyes.

"What's the matter?" But the moment he saw Cthulhu opened his eyes, he asked with horror on his face.

But seeing the Duguxie and the ghost servants around them, both holding the protective fence next to them with both hands, then blinking strange eyes and looking at the entire cabin.

"Is there something wrong with the plane?" Tang Xiaolong over there asked with a look of horror.

After he asked the exit, he saw Cthulhu staring at the outside of the cabin window, but outside the cabin window, black tornadoes were blowing raging... and the helicopter they were sitting on was also in the whole Trembling violently.

"It seems that we are in trouble." A cold snort called out from the evil god's mouth.

After he said it, the brothers hurriedly looked towards the window...

They saw the storm! Saw thunder and lightning! I saw a natural disaster I had never seen...

"Oh my God, we have encountered a big storm!" Chen Qiaozhi in front of him cried out in horror.

"Big storm?"

"That...that...that...would there be an accident with the plane?" Tang Xiaolong's face suddenly turned pale in front of him, and asked there.

Then Chen Qiaozhi turned his face ugly and said: "Not only the plane will have an accident... I'm afraid... even us... we..." He didn't finish his words.

Although he hadn't finished speaking, the brothers all understood what he meant. At this moment, one by one looked out the window of the cabin with extremely terrifying eyes.

The plane continued to move forward in the dark storm... but the entire fuselage was already shaken violently by the storm, as if the entire fuselage might be "torn apart" by the storm at any time.

Chapter 2447: Terror fall

In the cockpit, only the harsh "Dididi" sound was ringing there!

"Lord pilot, it's not good, our console is malfunctioning!" Xiao Gao yelled in panic in the cockpit.

I saw that the display on the console had all turned black...Nothing was displayed on it, only a red English letter waing! caveat

After the main driver saw that the console was malfunctioning, he hurriedly said: "Start manual driving..."

That Xiao Gao hurriedly turned on the manual driving instrument. After turning it on, the main pilot personally began to grasp the elevator with both hands, controlling the helicopter in front of him.

"The wing position seems to be malfunctioning, too." The co-pilot's voice resounded again in the chaos.

Dididi!

Along with the raging storm of the huge storm, the entire fuselage suddenly tilted violently.

The position of the wing began to be torn apart by the strong wind... the propeller was still spinning in the sky.

Looking at the malfunctioning of the various machines in the cockpit in front of him, the main driver suddenly said with a tragic face: "It seems that we cannot escape this disaster today."

After he finished speaking, the co-pilot Xiao Gao suddenly looked dead.

"Notify them in the cabin...Tell us...We are going to make an emergency landing...If possible, I hope we can survive here." The main driver in front of him suddenly said with a desperate expression.

After hearing the main driver say this, the co-pilot in front of him, Xiao Gao, said blankly: "Main driver, can we still make an emergency landing? Right now, our landing equipment has been completely unable to start... , Only for destruction!"

The main driver smiled bitterly, and said to Xiao Gaodao: "Crash landing is the only hope...Although there is only one ten thousandth hope, we still have to try it, because stay in the air and wait for death."

After the main driver said so, the co-pilot Xiao Gao suddenly stopped saying anything and nodded.

Then walked towards the cabin.

With a "boom", he opened the door of the cabin and saw the brothers with ugly faces in the cabin.

The moment they saw the first officer open the cabin door, all the brothers turned their eyes to him.

"Brother, ask, what happened to the plane?"

"Yeah, are we in any danger?" Tang Xiaolong and Xue Wuhen hurriedly asked the co-pilot Xiao Gao.

However, seeing the co-pilot Xiao Gao, expressionless, he said to the brothers there: "I'm sorry, the plane encountered a huge storm, and now our main pilot has started an emergency landing!"

what?

"Emergency landing?" The Cthulhu and the brothers were not only stunned when they heard the co-pilot say this.

But seeing that the co-pilot Xiao Gao said, "Yes."

"Please pay attention to the protective measures around you... because the emergency landing will cause a huge impact, I hope you can be safe." After the co-pilot said that with a grim expression, he then prepared to close the cabin door. .

"Hey, hey, wait a moment...Excuse me, where are we now? Can we make a forced landing to reach Tianshan?" The ghost servant here suddenly asked.

Now the brothers don't know that they are already at a critical juncture of life and death. It can be said that one of their feet has stepped into the ghost gate! It's just that Xiao Gao, the co-pilot, didn't tell the real truth. So the ghost servant was still asking innocently at this moment... Brothers thought, the emergency landing of the helicopter does not matter. The most important thing is to reach the Tianshan Mountains... Of course they would not know that the helicopter's emergency landing equipment It was already damaged in the storm.

Now once the crash landed, the entire fuselage could only collide below... Ninety-nine percent of the aircraft would directly explode! ! !

However, the co-pilot Xiao Gao suddenly smiled bitterly after hearing the funny question of the "Ghost Servant" and said, "We are in Tianshan now..."

After saying this, he closed the cockpit with a "bang" with a gray face.

The brothers who stayed behind were blank.

"Ghost servant, Dugu, Xiaolong...you all grasp! The plane is about to make an emergency landing...We must protect ourselves." Cthulhu said while looking at the storm road outside the cabin.

There was a very bad premonition faintly in him.

Not only did he see the gray face of the co-pilot just now... but also from his words, the Cthulhu had heard something wrong, so he said to the brothers.

Although the brothers didn't know what happened, they listened to the evil god's words very much. After the evil ***** asked them to do this, they nodded there one by one, and then everyone stretched out their hands and grasped tightly. Stayed next to the protective measures! Waiting for the plane's emergency landing.

The main driver and the co-pilot Xiao Gao in the cockpit have long been a dead end.

At this moment, watching the plane's facilities all fail, suddenly the main driver wiped the sweat on his face and said, "Crash landing!"

The moment the words came out of his mouth, I saw the main driver grasping the emergency landing control panel tightly with both hands, and then pressing down desperately!

As he desperately pressed down, the entire fuselage began to drop directly at a vertical height of 90 degrees!

Didididi!

There was a harsh urging sound in the cabin...Because the descent was too vertical, and the descent speed was too high, all the control facilities of the entire helicopter became waste.

Where is Cthulhu?

As the helicopter descended vertically, the bodies of the brothers were all vertical with the fuselage, and their bodies were suspended in the air.

At this moment, Tang Xiaolong, Xue Wuhen, and others dared not make jokes anymore...Because they all felt something was wrong, at this moment everyone firmly grasped the protective measures around them, and then opened their eyes wide and greeted them there. The coming of death.

2000 meters...

1000 meters...

500 meters...

As the helicopter descended faster and faster, the suspended brothers in the cabin had already seen the vast snow-capped mountains outside the cabin.

The place where they fell was indeed in Tianshan!

100 metres.....

50 meters.....

boom! ! !

As the entire helicopter fell terribly from the sky, the fuselage suddenly hit the huge snowdrift in front of you... Fortunately, it didn't hit the rock, but it said that after hitting the huge snowdrift, The terrifying inertia of the plane, coupled with the rotating propeller, continued to taxi forward...

Bang bang bang!

The huge propeller scraped the ice layer...At the same time, the hard ice layer also broke the propeller.

The entire helicopter finally hit a terrifying distance of about 400,500 meters on the ground before it stopped.

The helicopter was completely ruined, the fuselage seemed to be shriveled in half, and the nose shattered into two halves...It was deeply stuck in the snowdrifts of Tianshan Mountain.

Chapter 2448: Survive

The north wind was whistling.

The icy snow flew down from the sky, and they were blown towards the falling helicopter.

Among the vast mountains, at a glance, there is no discomfort with white snow...One peak is connected to another mountain. Although the mountains are different in size, they have one common feature, that is, they are all snow mountains.

And what about the helicopter?

Is the person in it dead? Is it alive?

How about Cthulhu? Who knows!

The north wind continued to blow... the raging snow and wind fluttered in the air.

Suddenly, there was a moaning cry from the falling helicopter... Then I heard the sound of "hit" the cabin door.

Bang, bang, bang!

Suddenly, the cabin door on the left side was knocked open. At the moment of knocking, a figure rolled out of the shriveled cabin.

He has white hair and blood on his forehead...

Cthulhu.

It turns out that Cthulhu is still alive.

At the moment Cthulhu crawled out, he was completely stunned.

Looking at the surrounding snow-capped mountains with shocking eyes, he was taken aback.

The surrounding wind and snow blew on him, causing him not only to fight a cold war.

Then, seeing Cthulhu, he couldn't be shocked, so he hurried to find the brothers where he had drilled out of the cabin.

"Dugu, ghost servant...Xiaolong..." The evil **** yelled in surprise while running over.

The whirring wind and snow blew away the voice of the evil god, wondering whether the brothers in the shriveled cabin were alive or dead.

"Big Brother... I'm here..." A voice came from the cabin.

Then he saw a figure lying on his stomach, slowly crawling out of the cabin.

Duguxie.

Seeing that Duguxie was okay, the evil **** suddenly became happy.

"Senior Cthulhu..."

"master....."

Then I heard the voices of the brothers coming from inside.

Look carefully, but see that the brothers are not in danger of life! Because when the helicopter fell, the nose fell first, so for the fuselage, they did not cause much damage, but when it fell over, they encountered a collision with the fuselage inside.

I saw that as the brothers crawled out one by one, none of them encountered too much danger. Most of them were skin injuries...

Only Na Xue Wuhen suffered more serious injuries.

His leg seemed to be hit by something at the moment the plane fell... At this moment, a right leg was completely unable to move, and the ankle was still bleeding.

Seeing that Xue Wuhen's leg was seriously injured, the Cthulhu hurried over to check the situation.

"Wuhen, how are your legs?" Just listen to the Cthulhu asking in that concern.

Na Xue Wuhen sat in the snow and said with an ugly expression: "My leg seems to be broken... I can't move..."

Listening to Xue Wuhen's words, the Cthulhu and the brothers in front of him frowned deeply.

"Let me see." The Cthulhu bent down to check Xue Wuhen's leg injury.

After he bent down, he slowly opened the Xue Wuhen's pants, and saw that Xue Wuhen's ankle was dripping with blood, and a large piece of flesh was rolled up, looking scary and disgusting.

After seeing Xue Wuhen's injury, the brothers not only frowned secretly, then he tried to touch the bones of Xue Wuhen's ankle.

He wants to see if Xue Wuhen's ankle is really broken!

When he reached out and touched it gently, he found that Xue Wuhen's ankle bones had not been broken, but had been broken!

"Wuhen, your foot hasn't been broken, it's wrong bones..." The evil ***** in front of him sighed lightly and said to Xue Wuhen.

Xue Wuhen not only let out a sigh of relief when he heard that his ankle hadn't broken.

After all, in such inaccessible places of ice and snow, if he really broke his right foot, it would be a big trouble.

At this moment, the brothers not only breathed a sigh of relief after seeing that Xue Wuhen's ankle was sprained.

"Thank God, fortunately Wuhen's foot did not break." Tang Xiaolong said silently in that mouth.

What about Cthulhu? At this moment, one hand was gently dragging the lower part of Xue Wuhen's ankle, and the other hand was placed on the top of his ankle, and suddenly said: "Wuhen, you hold back the pain, I will help you align your bones first... "

Xue Wuhen nodded vigorously after hearing the evil ***** say this, "Okay!"

The Cthulhu then pressed the bones of Xue Wuhen's ankle with both hands, and then slammed his hands, but when a crisp "bone sound" came out, it snapped, and the bones of Xue Wuhen's ankle were completely connected.

"Okay, I've matched your bones... After a while, I should be fine." The Cthulhu in front of him slowly let go of Xue Wuhen's ankle and said.

Xue Wuhen quickly looked at Cthulhu Dao and said, "Thank you Senior Cthulhu!"

Xue Wuhen's foot injury is basically nothing serious now. Although the place where he was hit is still bleeding, the little pain can still be tolerated by Xue Wuhen.

After receiving the Xue Wuhen's ankle bone, the brothers couldn't help sighing.

Suddenly, Chen Qiaozhi blinked, looking at the falling helicopter, and suddenly shouted: "Damn, we forgot the pilot..."

Accompanied by Chen Qiaozhi's scream, the brothers all woke up.

Yes, after they climbed out of the cabin just now, they ignored the two poor pilots of the helicopter for the safety of their brothers...

At this moment, upon hearing Chen Qiaozhi's scream, the evil ***** in front of him hurriedly led his brothers towards the cockpit position.

"Quick, quick, take a look, how is the driver..."

While talking, they ran towards this side.

After running over, I saw that the entire cockpit crashed deeply into the ice, and the heavy glass in the front cockpit had all been shattered...there was still blood stains of unknown origin...

"Open this cabin door!" said the brothers.

I saw that Tang Xiaolong kicked the cabin door fiercely with his foot. The cabin door that had been damaged was kicked open by Tang Xiaolong. After kicking it open, the first thing he saw was the body of the main driver... ..

His whole person fell in a pool of blood, his body was squeezed and twisted into shape, his head smashed the glass of the cabin in front of him, and he died there tragically.

When the brothers saw the main driver's death, their hearts felt a sense of speechless sadness.

"He...he...dead." A word came out of Tang Xiaolong's mouth.

The whirring north wind was blowing there, and the feather-like blizzard floated on the main driver's body, tragic and desolate.

Chapter 2449: Survive in the wind and snow

The main driver is dead.

Looking at the body of the Lord's driver, all the brothers were silent there.

Suddenly at this moment, there was a weak gasp from the side of the main driver's corpse, and then a voice calling for help came from inside.

"Help...help me..."

With the voice of "help", the brothers in front of them were taken aback.

"There are living people, and there are living people." That Du Guxie exclaimed suddenly.

After he finished speaking, Chen Qiaozhi and Tang Xiaolong hurriedly pulled the main driver's corpse from inside. After pulling it out, they saw the co-pilot Xiaogao with blood on his face.

I saw that one of Xiao Gao's arms was hit by the machine above... the blood flow continued, and the other leg was still stuck in the crack of the door.

His head was bleeding, and he cried out in that weak gasp, "Help...Help..."

After seeing the co-pilot Xiao Gao for an instant, the evil ***** in front of him hurriedly shouted, "Help him."

At the order of the evil god, Tang Xiaolong and Chen Qiaozhi hurriedly bowed into the cockpit, and then slowly lifted the injured body of the co-pilot Xiaogao...

As he lifted it up, he listened to Chen Qiaozhi's words: "Xiaolong, slow down, his leg is stuck in the crack of the door. You must get his leg out first."

Then Tang Xiaolong said, "I know."

As he said, he slowly lifted the cockpit door. The cockpit door was extremely heavy. Tang Xiaolong buckled the cockpit door tightly with both hands, exerted all his strength, and then tried hard...

With a creak, the cabin door was finally pushed open with all his strength!

At the moment of pushing away, Chen Qiaozhi hurriedly pulled the co-pilot Xiaogao's body out of the cabin.

The co-pilot Xiao Gao, who was dragged out, could not stop gasping while lying in the snowdrift outside... An arm had been crushed alive... The bones of the arm were exposed, looking at Shenren!

The other leg was smashed too badly, and it is estimated that he could not move even when he moved.

Looking at the co-pilot Xiao Gao's appearance, the Cthulhu quickly "hissed" off a piece of cloth from his body, and then went to wrap the co-pilot Xiao Gao's entire arm...

"Endure the pain!" While helping the co-pilot Xiao Gao bandage his broken arm, Cthulhu was facing the Xiao Gao Dao.

The co-pilot, Xiao Gao, endured the pain, clutching the deep accumulation of blood in one hand... He just groaned in pain...

After the Cthulhu quickly bandaged the first officer Xiao Gao's arm, he then helped him bandage the extremely injured leg.

Soon, Xiao Gao, the co-pilot, had his life back.

Finally, after everything was done, Xiao Gao lay in a pool of blood and gasped uncontrollably...

"Thank you... Thank you... for saving me..." He gasped violently while speaking to the evil **** and brothers in front of him.

After the evil **** heard what he said, he said lightly: "You're welcome."

"What about the main driver... how is he?" Xiao Gao said, shaking in the wind and snow.

The co-pilot Xiao Gao still didn't know that the main pilot had died, and they asked the Cthulhu who couldn't help but looked in front of him.

After he asked weakly, the brothers' faces became heavy.

Just listen to that Duguxie looking at the co-pilot Xiao Gao in front of him and saying: "Your main driver... is dead..."

what?

After hearing the news of the death of the main driver, Na Xiaogao was stunned.

Then he couldn't stop the tears streaming down his face.

It turns out that the main driver has always been like brothers to Xiao Gao. At this moment, after hearing the news of the main driver's death, Xiao Gao in front of him is naturally extremely sad.

At this moment, the co-pilot Xiao Gao, who was weeping, looked at the main driver's body over there...and couldn't help howling and crying.

His cry was blown away by the whining cold wind...

The brothers looked at the co-pilot Xiaogao with heavy hearts.

The icy north wind is still whistling... the feathery snow on the sky continues to fall!

Soon, the snow covered the body of the main driver in front of him.

"Brother, the wind and snow are too big, I don't think I can stay here for a long time." Suddenly, a sound came from Duguxie's mouth.

After he said it, the brothers all woke up from their grief. At this moment, one by one raised their horrified eyes, looking at the goose feathers flying down from the sky...

The flying snow is floating there, and the whirring north wind is blowing...

It's cold, freezing, and snowing all over the sky.

This interweaves a bleak and weird scene.

The Cthulhu and his brothers are lost in the endless Tianshan Mountains, they don't know where this is... let alone where it is...

Everything around is snow-capped mountains, large and small, high and low, and there is no bird in the sky.

This place is like the realm of death, and like the edge of hell.

"We are leaving here...find a place to hide from this **** wind and snow first." The evil **** in front of him looked at the flying snow that was getting bigger and bigger on the sky and called to the brothers.

The brothers all looked at the growing blood accumulation at this moment, and couldn't help but nodded quickly.

"Xiaolong, Qiaozhi, Ghost servant, Dugu, you come with me... Let's find the heating equipment and oxygen supply equipment in the cabin... Then we will leave here as soon as possible." Shouted in the snow.

The Cthulhu knew that although they had not encountered the disaster of the plane crash at this moment, it did not mean that they were out of danger.

Right now, there is endless ice and snow everywhere. They have no transportation at the moment, so they must bring all the facilities and supplies on foot. Otherwise, they may not be able to stay in Tianshan for a day...

"Remember, bring all the things that can be used in the cabin!!!" The evil **** in front of him reminded Tang Xiaolong and his brothers.

Knowing that the situation is critical, the brothers hurried to the shriveled cabin, and then found out the oxygen equipment... and the heating equipment that they had prepared when they came.

After finding out the equipment, the brothers moved them out of the cabin one by one.

There are a dozen sets of oxygen equipment and a dozen sets of warming equipment.

There are also some food and drink supplies.

Seeing the Heretic God and the brothers moving things in the cabin, the co-pilot Xiao Gao, lying in the wind and snow, suddenly shouted weakly, "The cabin...the cabin...there are also many. Things... there are compasses... there are maps... bring... these too."

Chapter 2450: What about Fairy Baihua?

After the co-pilot's voice came, the Cthulhu immediately heard it.

Yes, there are a lot of things in the main driver's cabin, especially the compass, map, these main tools!

In such snow and ice, there are no signposts and no directions. If there is no tool to guide the way, they will be trapped here alive...

So after hearing the weak voice of the co-pilot Xiaogao, Cthulhu quickly arrived in the main driving cabin, and then began to look for things.

In the main driving cabin, Cthulhu found the compass and the map...not only that, he also found two flashlights and some food supplies.

After all the searches were completed, Cthulhu slowly withdrew from the cockpit.

The whistling north wind is getting stronger and stronger, and the whistling wind sounds like a ghost crying, blowing in the ice and snow.

I saw that little Gao, the co-pilot lying in the snow, almost half of his body was covered by snow.

"Xiaolong, go and help him up..."

"We need to leave here as soon as possible... Find a place to avoid this **** wind and snow first." Seeing such a scene, the evil **** yelled quickly.

After hearing the Cthulhu's instructions, Tang Xiaolong ran over quickly, and then slowly helped Xiao Gao, the co-pilot who had broken an arm and limped a leg.

And what about Xue Wuhen here? He was sprained because of a leg, and he was also supported by Chen Qiaozhi...

Duguxie, Cthulhu, and Ghost Servant, the three of them are holding all the salutes, ready to start looking for a place to escape the wind and snow.

"Go, let's leave here." Cthulhu shouted in the wind and snow.

The brothers nodded silently, and then stepped forward step by step in the deep snow, facing the howling north wind.

The wind and snow continued to blow.

In the endless white snow, I saw several black figures like ants walking in the wind on the pale snow-capped mountains.

They are the evil **** and brothers.

Because the north wind was whistling and the snow was extremely deep, they all didn't walk very fast. They all walked in the deep snow one by one.

The flying snow hit them... Their faces, eyebrows, and clothes were all white...

In this way, they walked step by step, looking for a place to escape the wind and snow.

Finally, after walking for about an hour, the Cthulhu suddenly saw a snow-capped mountain about 2 kilometers ahead, and there was a place under the snow-capped mountain that could escape the wind and snow.

"I found... I found... the place in front can escape the wind and snow." The evil ***** in front of him exclaimed excitedly.

When he said this, the brothers all raised their heads and blinked their eyes to look ahead, and they really saw the snow-capped mountain.

So I heard the evil ***** shouting there and saying: "Brothers, hurry up... Let's go there to escape the wind and snow."

The Cthulhu who was talking, was holding the equipment full of his body... and then quickly ran to the place to hide from the wind and snow, but what about the brothers? They followed one by one, and quickly followed.

Soon, after seeing hope, the brothers speeded up.

After a while, I saw the Heretic God come to the foot of the mountain quickly, but I saw that there was a foot under the mountain that was not too deep, but it was enough to block the snow.

After the Cthulhu arrived here, he quickly put all the luggage and equipment down from his body, and after putting it down, he quickly went to help the brothers.

Finally, after working hard for a long time, the brothers finally reached the foot of the mountain.

The foot of this mountain can be sheltered from the wind and snow, so it can be said to be a good place for the brothers.

"Finally, I can avoid the wind and snow." After the brothers arrived, they slapped their bodies one by one and said with a deep layer of snow.

That Tang Xiaolong slowly put the badly injured co-pilot Xiaogao on the ground, but also patted the snow on his body.

"Brother, this place is good, we can escape the wind and snow temporarily." Duguxie said.

Cthulhu nodded.

The wind and snow outside are still blowing ragingly, the boundless Daxue Mountain... Can't see the front at a glance...

"Damn, how could we be so unlucky when we encountered a big storm!" Tang Xiaolong said in front of him.

Yes, if it were not for this storm, the brothers would not be embarrassed like this.

"Hey, in this kind of place, you can't see the side at a glance... and we don't have a specific location... It's really unlucky." The brothers complained there.

The Cthulhu did not listen to their words, but stood alone at the foot of the mountain with an extremely worried expression looking at the flying snow in the sky.

Suddenly he turned around quickly, staring at the trembling co-pilot Xiao Gao, who was lying on the ground, and asked: "Yes, comrade pilot, where are my third sisters and the helicopters? How about the three helicopters? How are they? Have they encountered a blizzard?"

The evil ***** in front of him suddenly remembered the vernacular now.

The Cthulhu in the plane didn't know what happened to the second helicopter that Baihua Fairy was riding in... let alone whether they had encountered the strong storm just like themselves... So the Cthulhu in this society asked quickly Tao.

What about brothers? After hearing what Cthulhu said, they all suddenly understood.

Yes, what about Fairy Baihua and the others? How are they? And what about the helicopter that is full of field special forces in the North China Field Military Command?

After the Cthulhu in front of him inquired, he saw the extremely weak co-pilot Xiaogao lying on the ground and gasped and said, "This...I...I...I don't know..."

"I only know that since we changed the course, the two helicopters behind have been following us... After we crashed, the information about the two following planes disappeared." The co-pilot said with a face. After ugly speaking this sentence, the brothers were suddenly stunned.

That Cthulhu was even more stunned in his heart!

Gosh, the two helicopters behind have been following them...

Doesn't this mean that the two helicopters, like theirs, also encountered storms? Did the plane crash?

After Xiao Gao, the co-pilot in front of him, said weakly, the evil ***** in front of him suddenly asked in shock: "Tell me, how likely is it that they will crash? Will they temporarily leave the storm circle?"
