

A Killer 2721

Chapter 2721: Barracks, watchtowers

"Teacher, Li Tian?"

When Yisha came over, her beautiful eyes widened and she stared blankly at Li Tian and the beautiful teacher Evelyn. .

At this moment, Li Tian and Evelyn were teaching internal strength from palm to palm.

After hearing Isha's voice, not only were they stunned at the same time.

Evelyn suddenly blushed, and she withdrew from Li Tian's palm in the palm of her hand, looking at Yisha embarrassingly, "Isha...what's the matter?"

As she said, she raised her hand and fluffed her hair to conceal her confusion.

What about Li Tian? At this moment, I also looked at Isha.

I saw Yisha, her teeth bit her cherry lip and said: "The old dean...the old dean...let us go, I'll come over to inform you."

After speaking, Yisha suddenly lowered her head and left silently.

Seeing that Yisha left silently, Li Tian suddenly felt a little uncomfortable.

Evelyn was not only slightly ugly on her pretty face.

"Hey, did this girl see the scene between herself and Li Tian just now? Would she just think about it?" Evelyn was thinking in her mind.

The more she thought about it, the more chaos she got, and finally Evelyn could only sigh silently.

But seeing that beautiful teacher Evelyn, she said to Li Tiandao: "It's time to go, let's go."

After speaking, Li Tian followed the beautiful teacher Evelyn to the old dean and them.

After walking over, the two of them took a special look at Isha.

I saw that Yisha lowered her head, did not speak, as if avoiding them deliberately.

Li Tian could only sigh at this moment.

After they walked over, they just listened to the old dean saying: "Everyone is almost resting, right?"

The people said: "Yes."

"Now that you have a good rest, it's time to set off."

"This morning, we must reach the deserted frontier." Just listen to the old Dean Hollis saying there.

After speaking, he mounted his horse and led the people to continue marching north.

Li Tian just followed behind.

...

Along the way, the north wind raged.

The more you go north, the harder the road will be!

And they saw a lot of corpses along the way. Those corpses were all wearing armor...

Looking at the corpses that were frozen along the way, the old dean Heris snatched off the horse, looked at the corpses and said: "These are the soldiers of the Empire."

At this moment, Li Tian and everyone also followed.

Looking at the frozen dead bodies, everyone felt a slight chill in their hearts.

"Hey, it looks like the battlefield ahead is cruel." Evelyn sighed there.

"Go, keep going." The old dean said.

So everyone started to move on.

At this moment, everyone is thinking about the battlefield ahead!

No one knows what exactly will happen to the barren frontier.

After hard trekking along the way, they are finally about to reach the border of the empire: the barren frontier.

"It's almost here! We're almost at the border." Old Dean Hurice said, standing in the whistling north wind.

Everyone also blinked and looked in the direction ahead.

But seeing the direction ahead, it was barren, and there was nothing but desolation in the eyes.

After walking in the howling cold wind for more than an hour, suddenly Na Anderson pointed in the direction ahead and said: "Old dean, look ahead..."

With the sound of Anderson's voice, everyone looked up in the northwest direction. After turning their eyes, they saw that there were barracks in the northwest direction! There are also many tall towers.

"Barracks? Watch tower? Is that where the empire's army is stationed?" Evelyn, the beautiful teacher next to her, said excitedly.

When the old dean saw those huge barracks and sentry towers, he couldn't help but said excitedly: "We are here! We are finally here!"

After the excited voice of the old dean uttered, he quickly said to everyone: "Go, let's go."

Immediately afterwards, under the leadership of the old dean, everyone began to ride their horses and quickly gallop towards the direction of the barracks.

However, the closer they got to the barracks, the more they found something was wrong.

Because where you can see, apart from the tall barracks and the guard towers, you can't see the shadow of the army at all!

There are no soldiers guarding even those watch towers.

Looking at such a scene, Li Tian only felt something was wrong.

But the old Dean Heris and the others hadn't noticed it yet, and everyone still rushed toward the barracks quickly with excitement.

Soon, but under the leadership of the old dean, everyone reached the gate of the army station.

The huge imperial flag is still flying in the air.

A two-foot-high fence tightly surrounds the huge military camp... I saw that the gate of the fence was made of steel and was tightly closed there.

There are no soldiers guarded outside...there are no soldiers in the watchtower.

When the old dean led everyone to the outside of the city wall where the army was stationed, everyone swept off the horses.

"Hey, old dean, why can't I see the army of the Empire?" Just listen to Anderson suddenly discovered this strange situation, not only asked there.

Others also said, "Yes, on the tower and the watchtower, you can't see the army of our empire."

"What's going on here?"

"What about people?"

Everyone said in a puzzled way.

I saw that the old Dean Hollis was also depressed.

He raised his eyes and looked at the high tower... and then looked at the empty watchtower!

"I don't know either." The old dean said depressedly at the moment.

I saw that Li Tianyin had a very bad premonition.

Then he walked towards the huge gate step by step.

After reaching the gate, Li Tian suddenly stretched out his hand to push the huge gate... Reaching out his hand, the huge gate creaked!

When everyone heard that the city gate was pushed slightly by Li Tian, they were all taken aback.

"Is the city gate open?"

The old dean came over and asked suspiciously.

Li Tian nodded and said, "It seems to be."

Immediately afterwards, Li Tian accumulated his body's internal strength and poured it on his arms, pushing the heavy city gate, and as he reached out his hand to push... the huge city gate creaked, originally tight. The closed city gate opened in an instant.

When this huge city gate was opened, a smell of rotten corpses came out from inside... and then they saw a terrifying scene that was hard to see in their entire lives! !

Chapter 2722: There is movement

bloody? terror?

Do not!

The images inside can no longer be described in words of blood and terror.

It was a totally heinous scene.

I saw piles of corpses of soldiers in heavy armors lying across the gate, like hills.

Blood flowed into rivers, devastated.

The two guard towers inside the barracks were filled with flesh and blood corpses, and their corpses were stringed like skewers...

In the middle of the place, there is a thick rope. On the thick rope are dozens of the cut-off heads of soldiers. Those cut-off heads are * and horrible.

died.

All dead.

Except for the buzzing flies and the crow holding the corpse, there was no living thing inside.

Looking at everything in front of them, Anderson and Evelyn standing beside them spit out "Wow".

It's too bloody!

It's disgusting.

Who has seen such a * and suffocating scene?

Even Li Tian, who had experienced extremely cruel scenes, couldn't help being stunned when he saw such terrible scenes at this moment.

"Oh my God...our army?" The old dean suddenly said with a trembling voice.

At that moment, the tall body almost fell.

Cyril and Mr. Loft beside him saw the old dean, trembling, and hurriedly helped the old dean and yelled: "Old dean, are you okay?"

The old dean shook his head painfully.

Looking at the piles of corpses, and the countless heads that were chopped off... At that moment, his old tears burst.

"Our army... the army... is this over?" he muttered painfully.

The people around him were blinking incredible eyes, looking at this extremely cruel picture.

Everyone was completely stunned there!

Li Tian was also watching there.

Everyone walked in, the barracks full of dead bodies.

The flies buzzing in it, the corpses, the smell, and the rotten smell are intertwined.

"So many people are dead."

"They were all killed by the * of the demons." Loft and the others clenched their fists tightly and said with blood red eyes.

Listening to what Loft said, Isha next to her suddenly raised her horrified eyes and asked in that question: "So...were we defeated? Could the army of our empire be defeated like this?"

"No! Impossible." Suddenly the old dean roared there.

"As far as I know, there are a total of 30,000 troops guarding the frontier...Although there are many bodies here...but there are not 30,000!"

"There are still people alive! There must be people who survive." The old dean Hris suddenly said.

Yes, he is right.

There are probably thousands of corpses here... but not tens of thousands!

Therefore, there must be a surviving army, but they can't find it yet.

"But, where are the people who survived?" Cyril raised his horrified eyes and asked.

The old dean Heris was also dull.

Because he didn't know how to answer this question.

"It seems that we must find the remaining army." Li Tian said suddenly standing on the side.

"Well, Li Tian is right." Everyone said.

Hearing Li Tian's words, Anderson on one side said: "However, we don't know where the remaining army is? How should we look for it?"

After Anderson said so, Li Tian suddenly said, "It must be in the back."

"Look, the army camps garrisoned on the frontier have been breached... Obviously, in this battle, our imperial team was defeated! If we lose, we will retreat! Therefore, in order to find the remaining troops, we must Go back along the way."

What Li Tian said is indeed very reasonable.

Those who lose will naturally retreat.

After Li Tian said so, the old dean thought for a while, and then said to everyone, "Listen to Li Tian."

"Let's go back, look for the big troops... and join them!" The old dean finally ordered.

At this moment, everyone nodded in agreement after hearing the old dean said this.

"Go! Get out of here."

Old Dean Hollis finally spoke.

As he spoke, he slid and flew on the horse. Li Tian and others behind him also flew on the horse at this time.

Then they looked back together at the devastated barracks...and those poor piles of corpses...

Finally "driving" them on the horses, and started running towards the back of the barren frontier!

The cold wind is still blowing.

The gloomy sky is like devil's claws, making the weather more and more gloomy...

With the cold whistling of the north wind, suddenly heavy snow fell from the sky.

The old Dean Heris and the others, facing the flying wind and snow, were galloping in the wild like that.

Along the way, they tried to find clues.

They saw many, many rut marks and the marks of horseshoes.

"Look, everyone, these traces left on the ground seem to be left by the army." said Evelyn over there.

The old dean nodded and said, "Yes."

"It's snowing." In the cold wind, I heard that Anderson shouted to the old dean against the wind and snow.

The old dean Heris said without turning his head, "Keep on!"

So Anderson didn't speak any more, and then continued to beat the horse that was riding down, and began to continue on the road.

As they continued to move forward, they suddenly saw a dense jungle ahead.

"Go around the jungle!" Old Dean Hollis ordered there.

Just when everyone was about to go around the jungle, suddenly Li Tian was riding a horse, hissed beside the jungle, pulled down the horse's rein, and then stopped.

"Wait!" Li Tian shouted out loudly.

Accompanied by that Li Tian's yell, the old dean and others in front of him were not only stunned.

At this moment, he straightened his horse's rein and looked at Li Tian in surprise: "Li Tian, what's wrong?"

"Why stop?"

But seeing that Li Tian didn't speak, but suddenly listened in silence with his voice.

He seemed to hear something.

The howling cold wind is still blowing, and the goose feathers are also blowing in the sky, but what about Li Tian? He closed his eyes slightly, and the whole person stood beside the deserted jungle.

Suddenly his shiny eyes lit up for an instant.

"There are people in the jungle! And they're still fighting." A word suddenly came out of Li Tian's mouth.

It turns out that Li Tian heard it! He heard movement in the jungle.

Although the cold wind roared, it did not affect Li Tian's hearing!

Chapter 2723: Jungle Fight

When the old dean and them heard Li Tian suddenly say this, they were all stunned.

One by one looked at Li Tian with unbelievable eyes.

"Li Tian, did you hear?" Anderson over there looked at Li Tian incredulously and asked.

The north wind was whistling here. Except for the cold wind, Old Dean Hollis and others couldn't hear anything at all!

However, Li Tian suddenly said that he heard a fight in the jungle! This of course made everyone very suspicious.

Li Tian turned his head and looked at them and said, "Yes."

"And there are many people in this jungle..."

Listening to Li Tian saying this again, everyone at this moment looked at Li Tian with silent eyes, and then they looked at the old dean Heris.

"Why didn't we hear it?"

"Yes, there seems to be no sound at all except the whistling of the north wind."

Obviously, no one dared to trust Li Tian easily.

Where is Li Tian? After hearing the words they didn't believe, they didn't explain too much! Just riding a horse, standing there, looking at the old dean Heris.

He was born like this and doesn't like too much nonsense explanation.

I saw the old dean raised his eyes and looked at Li Tian, then looked at the deserted jungle, and suddenly said, "Okay! Since Li Tian heard it, then we will follow Li Tian!"

"Go, let's see what's going on inside."

The old dean Heris believed Li Tian very much!

At the very least, he would never deny Li Tian since the last incident.

Therefore, after the old dean said this, the others didn't talk too much, so they nodded quickly.

"Li Tian, you lead the way, everyone will follow you." Old Dean Hollis rode over on a horse and said to Li Tian.

Li Tiandao: "En."

Immediately after reining his horse, with a "driving", he galloped towards the jungle.

The old dean behind him and others followed right after him at this moment.

The roaring cold wind is whistling there!

Under the leadership of Li Tian, they quickly got into this barren jungle.

"The fighting sound is in the southwest direction!" Li Tian led the way while turning back to the old dean and them.

The old dean nodded when they heard, and then followed Li Tian closely.

There was a murderous breath in the cold wind.

...

I saw the intertwined sound of fierce weapons in the most southwestern part of the barren jungle.

Others made screams of pain.

There is actually a battle happening here! There is a fight.

"Retreat! Let's retreat." The voice of a desperate man suddenly sounded in the front place.

Take a closer look. In the wind and snow, more than 20 imperial soldiers in armor retreated in panic in the wind and snow!

They turned out to be soldiers of the Empire! ! !

Their armor was covered with blood, and the heavy sword in their hands was also covered with blood... At this moment, they were running in the wind and snow, backing in fear.

Seen behind them?

It turned out to be dozens of ferocious and tall orcs chasing them.

Those tall and majestic half-orcs, as fast as wild beasts, quickly caught up to them.

With a roar, I saw a burly half-orc who directly threw down a lame soldier, followed by a scream of "Ah", which came out of the soldier's mouth.

The half-orc stretched out a huge paw, and one paw smashed the soldier's head, blood was splashed, and in a blink of an eye, the poor soldier was killed alive.

And here are the two dozen soldiers who fled in a hurry? He was quickly surrounded by those terrifying and ferocious half-orcs.

Escape, can't escape.

The soldiers were full of scars and looked exhausted.

At this moment, dozens of ferocious and tall half-orcs were all surrounded by the woods.

The wind and snow were mixed with blood, and these poor soldiers held the epee tightly in their hands, holding them in opposite directions.

"Soldier, what should I do?" He only heard a * soldier looking at the bearded man in the front and said.

That man is their leader, but the captain of the soldier.

At this moment, after hearing the voice of his subordinates, there was a trace of despair in his eyes... reached out his hand and wiped the wind and snow on his face: "Brothers, I'm sorry you!"

"Today, we may not be able to live! But I want to say, even if we die, we have to kill more of these beasts." The soldier said in the wind and snow.

After speaking, he suddenly drew out the epee in his hand and shouted there, "Everyone is ready to fight with these beasts."

After the soldiers heard the soldier's voice, there was a touch of despair in their eyes.

Immediately afterwards, they tightly clenched the heavy sword in their hands and stared at the cruel orcs in front of them.

"Asshole, I did it for you."

With a roar, these soldiers rushed up.

To die, you must die heroically!

This is the soldier.

I saw the half-orcs who were already impatient, and saw these weak soldiers rushing forward, suddenly roaring and rushing up.

In the wind and snow, scenes of terrible massacres were staged.

...

"Did you hear the screams?" Anderson, who was getting closer and closer to the southwest, suddenly said in horror.

I saw Loft and Cyril behind him. They didn't believe Li Tian's words just now!

At this moment, they all heard the fighting and screams coming from the wind and snow ahead.

At this moment, they were all shocked.

"I heard it, we heard it."

"Unexpectedly, what Li Tian said was true! There are people fighting here."

They said in shock.

"Quickly, let's go over and see what happened."

Immediately afterwards, everyone hurriedly rode their horses and galloped toward the direction that made the violent fighting sounds.

As they galloped towards this side, that Li Tian had already borne the brunt and reached the southwest direction.

At this moment, looking up, through the wind and snow, Li Tian suddenly saw dozens of tall Mozu half-orcs, roaring there! And more than twenty poor soldiers are being attacked.

Those soldiers are not the opponents of these tall orcs at all.

Soon, 56 died tragically under the hands of those cruel orcs.

At the moment he saw this situation, Li Tian was suddenly full of terrible killing intent.

With a roar, Li Tian suddenly flew up from his horse.

The body turned into a black shadow and directly entered the battlefield.

I saw a tall half-orc who was about to hack a soldier to death with the huge sword in his hand... but suddenly felt an invisible sword aura attacking behind him.

The tall half-orc froze for a moment, and then turned his distorted face around... But the moment he turned around, his neck snorted, and his neck was directly cut off by the sharp sword energy!

With a flutter, the orc's whole head grumbled and fell to the ground like a leather ball.

The remaining headless body swayed twice on the ground, and then fell directly to the ground.

Chapter 2724: Dark swamp

After cutting off the orc's head with one move, the soldier who fell on the ground was suddenly surprised.

Blinking incredible eyes, looking at Li Tian there.

However, the tall and cruel half-orc over there, at the moment when he saw a companion had his head cut off, he not only roared and turned his head.

Dozens of half-orcs all looked at Li Tian with ferocious eyes.

"Roar!"

Suddenly there was a loud howl, and the group of ferocious and cruel orcs rushed towards Li Tian directly.

The giant sword in his hand also slashed towards Li Tian at the same time.

Li Tian faced the dark crowd of half-beasts alone, suddenly soaring into the sky, and then accumulated the endless energy of his body with his palms, and suddenly grabbed his hands.

Terror palm strength fell from the sky.

With a bang, huge palm strength shook the bodies of those half-orcs.

Those half-orcs screamed, and their entire body was shaken out.

Plops, plops, and wailing and falling to the ground one by one.

The emperor who survived and wore the armor saw Li Tian's peerless martial arts. At that moment, all of them were dumbfounded.

And at the same moment, I saw that the old Dean Hollis and Anderson had already killed them.

"The half-orcs of the Demon Race?"

"Buckles, these bastards."

"Kill." A roar burst out of Anderson's mouth.

He hates half-orcs! His most beloved student once died tragically under the hand of the orc, so Anderson quickly rushed into the battlefield at this moment.

Then a thunderstorm hit the two orcs' bodies heavily.

The two orcs screamed horribly, and their bodies struck by thunder and lightning fell to the ground, then paralyzed to death.

The old dean over there used the art of underworld fire, and the fire element's attack range was the largest.

I saw a sea of fire quickly spreading up and down the whole body of those half-orcs.

Soon, those half-orcs were burned one by one...In the endless fire, those half-orcs struggled and screamed in the flames, and soon dozens of half-orcs died tragically.

The remaining half-orcs panicked when they saw Li Tian and the old dean and other reinforcements arrived.

Then they flee.

A few of them were killed by Li Tian with invisible sword energy before they could escape.

Some of the remaining escaped, and some were killed by Anderson.

Finally, when Li Tian and the old dean came over in time, the team of Emperors was rescued.

At this moment, only 78 soldiers survived.

All of their armors are blood, with heavy swords in their hands, they looked at the old Dean Hollis and others, and Li Tian...

They were all stunned and dumbfounded.

I saw the old dean Heris here, leading everyone to walk quickly.

They glanced at the surviving soldiers here, and then at the corpses around. At this moment, they not only asked, "Are you the army of the Empire stationed on the border?"

The old dean asked while blinking.

But after listening to those soldiers in armor, they nodded silently and said: "Yes."

"Why are you left? What about the rest of the troops?" The old dean looked suspiciously at the soldiers and asked.

After hearing the old dean's questioning, the soldiers hesitated slightly, and then said, "The big army has returned to the dark swamp!"

"Dark swamp?" After hearing this, the old dean was slightly startled.

After hearing the dark swamp, the others had strange expressions on their faces.

It turns out that everyone knows the Dark Swamp!

The Dark Swamp is the last frontier of the humans on the Spirit Earth Continent!

If the Dark Swamp is breached, the demon army will go straight to the capital city of the Spirit Earth Continent. At that time, humans will suffer brutal and inhuman killing.

At the same time, the Dark Swamp was almost captured during the Second Demon War!

Back then, it was relying on the sage to grow old to save that terrible war in the Dark Swamp.

"Then why are you still here?" The old courtyard chief looked at the surviving soldiers in front of him with a puzzled look.

The soldiers looked ugly.

Just listen to the soldier with a beard and say there: "It's true that we are the members who stayed behind! It's a pity that our troops have been massacred... We are left on the way."

After hearing what the soldier chief said, the old chief and Li Tian in front of them finally understood what was going on.

No wonder, so many people will die in the barracks!

Moreover, they will see so many dead bodies along the way!

It turned out that the large forces had really withdrawn.

"You...really?" The captain looked at the old dean and Li Tian with a few surprised eyes.

The old dean then replied: "We are the illusionists of Bander College! Your general asked us to support."

"The illusionist?"

When the old dean said this, the soldiers' eyes suddenly lit up.

"No wonder you are so strong! Turned out to be the great illusionist of the Empire!"

"Thank you for saving the lives of our team." The captain looked at Li Tian and the old dean with excitement.

The old dean smiled slightly.

"How are you?" The old dean looked at the soldier in front of him and the other soldiers covered in blood.

But the soldier said: "We are all right."

In this way, Li Tian and the old dean saved the lives of these poor soldiers.

The soldiers also thanked them very much for their rescue, and at the moment they simply bandaged their wounds in the woods.

"Are you going to the Dark Swamp?" The soldier with a beard suddenly looked at them and asked.

But when they saw the old dean, they said, "Yes."

"Let's lead the way with you," the soldier said long.

Hearing what the soldier commander in front of him said, the old dean said in a convenient way: "Of course it is good."

The old dean and Li Tian were originally going to find the empire's large army. At this moment, they heard these soldiers lead the way.

In this way, the 78 soldiers who survived were ready to take the old chief and them to the dark swamp.

It's about a day's journey from here to the Dark Swamp.

After a brief rest in the deserted woods, the old dean decided to start.

So when I saw the old dean and they led these soldiers, they began to march towards the dark swamp.

Chapter 2725: Saint

"How long will it take to reach the Dark Swamp from here?" Li Tian looked at the bearded soldier and asked. .

The beard-faced soldier captain replied: "A day's schedule."

"Oh." Li Tian said after listening.

"However, there are many demon half-orcs on the road... They are chasing down soldiers like us." The bearded sergeant chief suddenly said with a look of depression.

After hearing this, Li Tian said: "Don't worry, we will protect you."

After the soldiers heard the commander say this, they said, "Thank you."

Just as they were talking, I saw that the old Dean Hollis came over at this time.

He looked at the soldiers and asked, "Is the scale of this demonic invasion large?"

"Big, big!" The soldiers showed fearful eyes on their faces.

It seemed that they felt endless fear when they mentioned the Demon Race.

"The demons dispatched a hundred thousand troops this time... and there are terrible blood illusions... our army can't resist it! On the third day of the war, our army lost almost half of its army! We can't hold it. Barren frontier, therefore, the general ordered that he can only retreat." The soldiers said.

When the soldiers said that there was an army of one hundred thousand demons, everyone in front of them was not only shocked.

The old dean and Li Tian were also surprised.

A hundred thousand demons army?

It's really scary.

Just listen to the old dean's eyes widening and muttering in that: "Unexpectedly, after so many years, the demon race's rise this time has sent so many troops!!!"

Li Tian frowned and remained silent.

"In fact, we are not very worried about the demon army. What we fear most is their blood illusionist." The soldiers said.

The old dean said: "Those blood illusionists have also joined the battlefield?"

"Yes."

"Those terrible blood illusions created many blood sacrifice illusions... We can't resist it at all on the battlefield! So there are many casualties of the army." The soldiers said.

When Li Tianyi heard the "Blood Sacrifice Illusion", he didn't quite understand, he asked, "Old Dean, what is the Blood Sacrifice Illusion?"

But seeing that the old dean explained to Li Tian there, "The illusion of blood sacrifice is a very strange illusion among the blood illusions! He has a large range of casts. Once cast, people in the area will become unconscious. ...The state of vertigo...this is the famous blood sacrifice illusion in the blood illusion."

After hearing the old dean's explanation, Li Tian in front of him instantly understood.

"It turned out to be like this!!!"

If on the battlefield, the soldiers have illusions, dizziness, and other sensations in their minds, they will definitely die!

No wonder the army of the Empire killed so many people on the battlefield!

"Damn demon!" the old dean cursed angrily.

After cursing, he suddenly looked at the soldiers and asked: "You know, who is the leader of the demon army? Is it still the former king of the demon clan? Immortal lord, Sardin?"

In the Mozu, everyone knows a name, that is the undead lord Sadin.

This legendary Demon King, even humans know his affairs very well.

Sadin, the strongest blood illusionist of the demons! It is said that it has reached the stage of the blood illusion, the saint! At that time, Sadin launched the second demon war, and that war almost destroyed the empire... So in the minds of human beings, mentioning the name of the undead lord Sadin is equivalent to mentioning a terrible nightmare!

But at this moment, only the old dean couldn't help asking.

But after hearing the question from the old dean Heris, the soldiers over there suddenly said, "No! This time it is not Sardin commanding the demon army."

"Huh, who is that?" The old dean was surprised.

He couldn't understand, who else had such a great ability to command the 100,000 army of the Demon Race.

"It's a woman! People of the demons call her a saint." The soldiers suddenly said.

what?

When the old Dean Hollis and Anderson around them heard a "woman" commanding the demons, they all couldn't help being stunned.

Even Li Tian over there was not only curious.

"A woman? A saint?" Old Dean Heris suddenly asked, frowning tightly.

When Li Tian heard the word "saint", he was not only surprised, he was listening carefully at the moment.

"Yes, it's a woman."

"That woman is said to be terrible and cruel... She leads an army of 100,000 demons and blood illusions." The soldiers said.

Li Tian suddenly questioned: "Have you seen that woman on the battlefield?"

The soldiers shook their heads and said, "No, no."

"However, we have received a message from the captured demon captive." The soldiers said.

Li Tian quickly asked: "What news?"

"It is said that the terrible woman called the saint... came from another world! She also said that she was a messenger sent by God." The soldiers in front of her said.

When Li Tian heard the word "other world", he shook his heart suddenly.

Freezing?

For some reason, Li Tian's lover's name popped up in his mind.

"No! Impossible! Absolutely impossible!"

Li Tian suddenly denied it again.

"How could she, my favorite, do such a cruel thing... and... how could she be with the demons?" Li Tian judged.

"But, how could she come from another world? What else is the messenger sent by God?"

Li Tian was thinking about those issues complicatedly in his mind.

At the same time, he remembered in his mind, the scene where he saw the familiar back and the blood illusions of the demons when he was in the imperial capital last time... When all this was in his mind, Li Tian suddenly thought It's messed up.

He believes now! Don't believe it again! It was all messed up in my mind.

The old dean Khris beside him saw the weird expression on Li Tian's face at this moment, and couldn't help asking, "Li Tian, what's wrong with you?"

Li Tian was slightly startled when he heard the voice, and then said: "I...I'm fine."

When the old dean heard Li Tian say this, he not only glanced at him more, then he didn't ask anything.

Since Li Tian heard the news of this demon saint, he has been thinking about this in a complicated way along the way.

And those soldiers? He continued to lead the old Dean Hollis and other people from the Bender Academy... continue to march toward the Dark Swamp.

Chapter 2726: Shadow Blood Needle

The wind and snow were raging.

Their team faced the cold wind and snow little by little toward the dark swamp.

On the way, they saw quite a few corpses along the way.

Some are the corpses of the emperor team... some are those of half-orcs.

At the beginning, Li Tian and the old dean would stop and examine the poor corpses, but later, there were more and more corpses...They didn't bother to look again.

War is always so cruel.

In the harsh snowstorm, they walked all morning.

At this moment, I saw a river in the forefront...but that river was completely frozen.

Looking at the covered glacier, the old dean in front of him said slightly: "It seems that we are going to cross this glacier."

"En." The others around him said.

"Everyone prepares, we cross this glacier." Old Dean Hurice said in the blizzard.

After the old dean Heris said so, everyone swept off the horses, and then, holding the horses in their hands, began to walk on the glacier step by step.

The river is very wide, extending to the very front.

However, the ice layer was very thick and thick, and Li Tian and the others walked on it without any problems.

In this way, the group walked towards the opposite side of the glacier under the leadership of the old dean.

Just when their team reached the center of the glacier, they suddenly saw a terrible situation.

what?

"Look ahead..." Evelyn suddenly opened her beautiful eyes, screaming and pointed at the center of the glacier in front of her.

Li Tian and the old dean beside him not only looked up.

When they saw the scene on the middle glacier, they all got cold.

horrible!

Looking closely, I saw that there were more than 20 human heads in the most central part of the glacier... Those heads were * and fleshy, but they had all been frozen to a layer of ice! However, it can still be seen through the ice cube. According to more than twenty heads, it is a soldier of the empire.

When everyone saw the heads of more than twenty * imperial soldiers, they were shocked there first! Then everyone was filled with endless anger.

"Asshole!"

"Who is so cruel... even put the heads of these poor soldiers here?" Anderson yelled at him behind him.

The soldiers who followed, when they saw the heads of their companions, were completely stunned at that moment.

Everyone paused at the center of the glacier at this moment, and then stared at the heads in a row without blinking.

Only Li Tian looked around suddenly!

The howling wind and snow were blowing on everyone. At this moment, Li Tian suddenly shouted: "There is a murderous spirit! Everyone, be careful."

When Li Tian suddenly uttered these three words in shock, the old dean and other people around him were all stunned.

They did not doubt Li Tian's words! But one by one was ready to fight and looked around vigilantly.

Even the soldiers who followed, at this moment not only pulled out the giant swords one by one, and stood cautiously there.

Li Tian's spiritual power has already filled his whole body at this moment, and he has to make 10,000 preparations.

He could already feel the murderous aura getting closer...If nothing else, it would be near them!

But on this endless glacier, where is someone shadow? Not even a ghost! Could it be that Li Tian felt wrong?

Just when everyone was suspicious in their minds, a weird laugh suddenly came from nearby.

Hey Hey!

The gloomy laughter was full of endless gloomy feeling, and accompanied by the howling cold wind, it blew into the ears of everyone present.

The old Dean Heris couldn't help being shocked when they heard the weird laughter.

Then I saw the old dean roared: "Who is it? Who is nearby?"

The old dean Hollis called out, and the strange laughter disappeared around him.

"Get out." Anderson shouted behind him.

But there are no ghosts around.

Just when everyone was very surprised, a sudden explosion sounded from the ice in front.

I saw that a black shadow suddenly exploded in the glacier... When the black shadow was soaring into the sky, a red blood light suddenly flashed... The blood light suddenly swish toward Li Tian and The others shot over.

I looked closely, but saw the * light, it turned out to be dense * air... It's just that the * air was as terrifying as the tip of a needle, and it rained toward Li Tian and all of them.

"Shadow Blood Needle!" An exclamation exclaimed from the mouth of the old Dean Hollis.

"Everyone, be careful... step back... go back quickly..."

The old dean screamed with a pale face.

Shadow Blood Needle, a high-level blood illusion in the blood illusion! Has incredible lethality

When he yelled out, everyone around him quickly backed away, and at the same time, they quickly used Fire Dun, Thunder Dun, Wind Dun, etc. to block the terrible shadow blood needle.

What about the soldiers?

No illusion skills at all. Seeing the dense blood needles of shadows shooting towards them, they immediately screamed out one by one.

At this critical moment, but seeing Li Tian shouted, he suddenly performed "Slavery Technique".

Then I saw an air barrier being controlled by Li Tian. After that, I saw that air barrier was blocking in front of the bodies of the soldiers in front of me, but I saw the terrible shadow blood needle hit. On the barrier of Li Tian's qi illusion technique, there was a muffled sound of puff, puff, and puff.

Then it disappeared.

Li Tian blocked the terrible shadow blood needle, and he actually saved the lives of those imperial soldiers.

After watching the shadow blood needles were blocked, the old dean looked at the black shadow ten meters away and said: "Devil, blood illusionist,"

The people around him were watching the black robe figure ten meters in front of him vigilantly.

The man, covered in black robes, was very short, very short, only about 1.5 meters! But the whole body is full of terrifying aura.

At this moment, just as the old Dean Khris called out, the black robe figure in front of him suddenly turned his head.

It was a weird face, like a baby, white face, no eyebrows, and a pair of round, sullen eyes gurgling around!

Chapter 2727: Chaos Twins

When his face turned around, the old dean was suddenly surprised...

"You...you...you are... a hundred years ago, one of the two chaotic demons of the Demon Race Megatron Illusion World, Morodo?" the old dean called out aloud.

He blinked a pair of extremely ugly eyes widening there, looking at the weird little Demon Blood Illusionist in front of him.

Anderson beside him, as well as the other illusion teachers, heard the name of the Chaos Twins, at that moment, not only were they stunned.

More than a hundred years ago, the Demon Race produced two terrifying twin blood illusionists. They are twins, nicknamed "Chaos Twin Demon". They once infiltrated the human capital and used the terrible blood illusion technique to kill two blood. A city! In the two cities, all the hot illusionists...and the guards, all died tragically under the hands of the "Chaos Twin Demon"! Later, the empire sent one of the three sages, Tian, to deal with the chaos twins. It is said that the sages and the chaos twins fought one day and one night... and finally killed these two terrifying blood illusions, but Never imagined that today, the old dean actually saw one of the "Chaos Twins"

The short stature of the Demon Blood Illusionist with a weird baby face in front of him, is it true that, as the old principal said, he is one of the two chaos demons, how much is Moro?

After hearing an exclamation from the old dean, but seeing the weird blood illusionist who was short and standing more than ten meters away, he suddenly smiled strangely.

Suddenly a strange smile appeared on the pale baby's face, and a baby's voice was used to line the faintly darkly: "Hey, I didn't expect that after so many years, there are still people who know me? , Strange!"

Gosh!

He admitted it!

He turned out to be one of the two chaos demons: Morodo.

When the old dean and Anderson from Bander College behind them heard that this guy was really one of the two chaos demons, they not only screamed.

Everyone looked at this cruel guy who was famous a hundred years ago with incredible eyes.

"You...you...you demon...how could you not die?"

"Aren't you...you...have been killed by...sage heaven?" The old dean looked at the chaotic double magic road and said unbelievably.

Hearing what the old dean said, but seeing that Morodo suddenly smiled strangely.

Then sneered with the harsh baby voice: "Dead?"

"Just relying on one of your three holy sages, you want to kill our Chaos Twin Demons?" Morodo said with a weird grin.

When the old dean Heris heard this, he felt a little bit in his heart!

Could it be that the rumors back then were all false!

Shengzhetian didn't kill the two big demon heads of this demons at all? Chaos twins?

"How could this be?"

"Why is this terrible demon not dead?" the old dean said while shocked.

But seeing Li Tian in front of him was observing the situation.

His eyes have been on the little Morodo from beginning to end!

He found that the spiritual power of this demon had reached an extremely terrifying point... and his illusion skills were absolutely beyond his imagination!

Li Tian felt that the * aura radiating from his body was that this guy might be the supreme-level powerhouse that Li Tian had really seen after he came to the land of Lingtu!

This dwarf demon master is definitely more terrifying than the strength of the old dean Horis! Li Tian was thinking there.

At this moment, Morodo suddenly smiled grimly.

"Hey, you are unlucky today, but you met me? Come on, how do you want to die?"

Morodo suddenly showed the extremely cold killing intent.

The old Dean Hollis and Anderson couldn't help taking a step back after hearing this demon say so.

"Old Dean, what can I do? This demon is a terrible demon from a hundred years ago... Today's cultivation is even more unfathomable... We... We... Even if we go together, there is no chance of winning. !" Hearing Anderson whispering in front of him, he said to the old Dean Hollis with a pale face.

The old dean Heris not only frowned, looking at Morodo in front of him, he didn't know how to hide today's disaster!

Yes, with the strength of all of them, they may not be able to defeat the supreme-level demons in front of them!

"What's more, only one of the current Chaos Twins has appeared...I haven't seen the second one... It is said that the Chaos Twins have been together since the day they were born. The two twins have been born together and died together. , I will never separate! Now I see Morodo, one of the two chaos demons, what about the other guy?" Cyril on the other side suddenly said in fear.

Hearing what people around him said, the old Dean Hollis not only felt despair in his heart.

Is God really going to destroy us here?

Suddenly when the people around him were so desperate, the old dean suddenly became wise and said: "Hehe, devil, maybe it's not always the one who is dead and who is alive?"

Anderson and other teachers around him were not only stunned when they heard that the old dean was so bold.

They all think the old dean is crazy! How dare to speak to the Chaos Twin Demon like this?

Morodo of the Chaos Twins suddenly laughed gloomily after hearing the old Dean Heris said so boldly.

"What a big tone! In a hundred years, you are the first person who dared to say this in front of my Chaos Twin Demon." Morodo's sharp voice sounded.

The old dean Heris deliberately pretended not to be afraid and said, "Of course I dare!"

"Why do you? Just rely on your illusion skills cultivation base, hehe, I can guarantee that I will not make twenty moves, I will let all of you die, and it will be very painful and painful to die."

Suddenly said with a gloomy weird smile.

The old Dean Khris said calmly and said: "What you said is really good! Those of us are indeed not your opponents! But if Old Long wants to deal with your Chaos Twins, I am afraid it will be much simpler? Haha, let's see who will die then."

The old dean unexpectedly said the saint: Long!

When Morodo of the Chaos Twins heard the old dean's mouth speaking about Saint Long, his strange baby face suddenly changed.

"Long?"

"The old one?" Morodo said suddenly.

The old dean Khris said: "Why, are you scared?"

When Moro of the Chaos Dual Demon heard it, he said sharply: "I'm afraid of that old immortal? Huh... funny."

Chapter 2728: Fierce battle

Anderson leaped up, his hands were condensed together, and a huge purple ball of thunder was accumulated, and then with an unstoppable force, he directly fought towards the Morodo.

As soon as the old dean looked at Anderson, he acted like this and exclaimed: "Anderson!"

It was a pity that it was too late, and I saw that Anderson had already rushed towards the Morodo.

But he said that when Anderson used the thunderstorm illusion and hit the Morodo, the short Morodo suddenly smiled strangely.

"With your ability, still want to get ahead? Looking for something to die."

Following the grim words of Narodoro, his right hand raised, and a web of blood suddenly turned out.

I saw the huge thunder and lightning ball accumulated by Anderson, which originally hit the Morodo, but at this moment, it was suddenly blocked by the scarlet net.

When the huge lightning ball touched the blood web, it swished and disappeared.

It was easily resolved by that Morodo.

Anderson was shocked there for a moment.

After Na Morodo easily dissolved the Anderson thunderbolt illusion, his fingers quickly became imprinted, and the * air condensed several small sharp swords all over his body, and then swished and shot towards Anderson's body.

Anderson was shocked, and dodged quickly.

Whoosh whoosh!

Several air-breaking sounds rubbed Anderson's skin and shot into the air...

Fortunately, Anderson dodged in time, otherwise, he would definitely die under Morodo.

Chapter 2729: The Art of the Quartet Blood Prison

Although that Anderson escaped Morodo's terrifying blow!

But at this moment, the whole person was stunned. .

He didn't expect that the strength of this demon had reached such a terrifying level.

His "Thunderstorm" illusion just now was a powerful illusion of intermediate level three. Once it was cast, it was extremely lethal, but facing Morodo, he became like a naive child.

The illusion cast is completely useless to Morodo!

This also shocked everyone present there!

Even Li Tian, who was standing on his side, was not only stunned!

"Oh my God, what is the strength of this monster? How easy is it to dissolve Teacher Anderson's lightning illusion?" Li Tian said in shock.

I saw that at this moment, an endless killing intent emerged from that Morodo.

"Take it to death, you ignorant and weak human beings."

Then Morodo screamed, and suddenly he saw his hands folded against his chest, murmured strange words in his mouth.

"God, evil, blood, gang,"

The four weird words suddenly came out from the sharp voice of Morodo.

When he uttered these four words, four blood shadows suddenly turned out of his body.

These four blood shadows are illusory and misty, like human bodies, but without human entities, they seem to be just shadows.

After Morodo turned out four illusory blood shadows at once, the four blood shadows suddenly surrounded Li Tian, the old dean and all of them in different directions.

I saw the four blood shadows sub-station on the four sides, forming a "square" formation!

Just at the moment when these four blood shadows surrounded the old dean in front of them, a huge * air suddenly diffused from the four blood shadows.

Gradually, those blood colors resembled a wall of blood, surrounding everyone.

Li Tian, as well as everyone present, looked at this weird "blood illusion technique", not only was shocked there.

"What kind of illusion is this?" Cyril on one side exclaimed there.

I saw a fire illusion student next to him, reaching out to touch the blood-colored wall in front of him, his finger just touched the blood-colored wall, and suddenly a weird force swept back at him.

The fire illusion student hadn't noticed what was going on.

With a sudden "ah" cry, his arm was directly shaken by the huge backlash, and a clear bone fracture sound could be heard inside.

Ah... Ah...

He covered his arm in pain and screamed.

"What's the matter?" Na Loft exclaimed immediately when he saw that his student was shaken and broke his arm.

The others around him hurriedly helped up the painful and distorted student.

"This blood-colored wall is weird...Don't touch it, everyone." Li Tian, who only listened to one side, suddenly reminded everyone.

After hearing Li Tian's exclamation, everyone quickly moved away from the blood-colored wall.

The old dean here is staring at the blood-colored wall.

Suddenly he muttered in horror and said, "Could it be...could it be...this is the Sifang Blood Prison Technique?"

According to legend, this four-party blood prison technique is a high-level 3 blood illusion technique!

Few people learn this terrible supreme level blood illusion technique, even the masters of the demon race, it is difficult to learn.

Unexpectedly, now, they finally saw it!

"Hey, take it to death." Suddenly, Morodo, the two chaotic demons, smiled slyly there.

Everyone is trapped in this four-sided blood prison technique at this moment, unable to get out...because the blood wall has a huge backlash force, as long as any body touches it, it will directly bite itself back! So everyone is trapped here.

"We are trapped."

"What should I do?" Anderson shouted over there.

Evelyn, the beautiful teacher on one side, said with a pale face: "Although you can't touch these walls of blood with your body, we can use illusions...Let's use illusions to break through this confinement together."

After hearing that Evelyn said so, everyone nodded quickly.

"Okay! We all use illusion together to break through this * confinement."

As everyone said so, they started to perform illusions one by one.

"The technique of water shock." Evelyn began to use her water system illusion.

She tried to concentrate all her spiritual power to activate the powerful water shock technique, but when she was accumulating spiritual power, she suddenly found that the spiritual power in her whole body... it seemed to be inexplicably emptied!

"I...I...my spiritual power...how did it disappear?" Beautiful teacher Evelyn suddenly asked in surprise.

When she suddenly felt that her whole body had no spiritual power, the beauty teacher Evelyn suddenly screamed.

Then I tried to accumulate spiritual power again... But after trying, my body still didn't have any spiritual power.

"My God, how could this be?"

"My spiritual power... is all gone?" Beautiful teacher Evelyn suddenly exclaimed.

Li Tian and others here turned their heads in surprise.

But Anderson, who was on the sidelines, also screamed at this moment.

"Neither is mine... the spiritual power of my body has also disappeared..." he exclaimed with an extremely ugly face.

The fire teacher Loft and the wind teacher Cyril hurriedly performed illusions after hearing the two of them say this... But the result was just like them, the spiritual power of the body was all taken out! Can't use any spiritual power at all!

"We all have no spiritual power! Damn, what is going on? Our spiritual power... how did it disappear?"

Everyone shouted there.

They were all shocked.

At this moment, only that Li Tian didn't perform illusion... and that old Dean Hollis.

Suddenly the old dean Khri spoke up.

"Hey, we are trapped in this four-party blood prison technique, and we can't perform illusion skills at all." The old dean suddenly sighed.

what?

When the old dean uttered such a sentence, everyone not only screamed there.

"Old Dean, why?"

"Why is this?" Anderson and Evelyn asked in surprise.

But seeing the old dean sighed and replied: "This demon uses the Sifang Blood Prison Technique, which has the most powerful spiritual forbidden effect... Any illusionist trapped in this Sifang Blood Prison technique, the body His spiritual power will be imprisoned! So..." The old dean finally told the actual situation.

Forbidden spirit?

It turned out that they were banned from all the spiritual power of the body! No wonder, each of them couldn't perform illusion.

Chapter 2730: save

"Old Dean, aren't we dead?" Anderson, who only listened to one side, suddenly shouted. .

Now they are trapped under the terrifying illusion of the four-party blood prison technique, and they can't use the illusion at all. This is undoubtedly equivalent to waiting for death.

So at this moment, everyone's eyes showed endless fear.

The old dean looked desperate at the moment...because he couldn't solve this square blood prison technique.

This blood illusion is hard to crack!

Unless a saint-level character!

At this moment, there was endless despair in everyone's mind.

I saw Morodo, the two chaos demons, walking over in a gloomy way.

His whole body was filled with murderous hostility, watching the trapped old dean and other people there.

"Do you still want to run? Do you want to fight against me?"

"There is only one way to stay in front of you now, and that is to kneel down and beg me... Otherwise, all of you will have to die, hehehehe." I saw the sharp voice of Morodo sounded there.

Anderson yelled, "You bastard, dwarf! You must die."

When Morodo heard Anderson scolded him, he sneered.

"dead?"

"Let me see who will die first."

After speaking, Na Morodo suddenly accumulated blood in his hands, and then the blood turned into sharp arrows, blood-red arrows.

"Shadow Blood Arrow!"

"go to hell."

Na Morodo was ready to kill, he wanted to kill all the people in Bender Academy, as well as that Li Tian.

I saw that the old dean couldn't help being stunned one by one after seeing that Morodo displayed the Shadow Blood Arrow.

Then a shadow of death appeared in everyone's heart.

Whoosh whoosh!

Morodo finally released the shadow blood arrows condensed in the palm of his hand, only to see sharp arrows shooting at the old dean and Anderson and each of them with terrifying sound.

This terrible shadow blood arrow, no matter who it is, is sure to die if it is shot!

At this moment, everyone trapped in the Foursquare Blood Prison Art cannot use any spiritual power... Cannot perform illusion, how to hide?

Can you just wait and die?

The terrifying shadow blood arrow is getting closer! Everyone is backing away in fear...

Horrified! despair!

At the moment that the shadow blood arrow shot at everyone, they all saw the shadow of death.

But at the same moment, a figure suddenly stood in front of everyone.

Li Tian.

No one thought that Li Tian would stand in front of everyone at this moment.

"Li Tian?"

Amid the shock of the old dean and theirs, Li Tian suddenly yelled, and an invisible vigor erupted from his body...then a violent Qi Qi spread to both palms.

"Broken Soul Palm!"

With a roar, a terrifying palm power directly erupted from both palms.

Those Shadow Blood Arrows that were flying over came into contact with Li Tian's extremely powerful internal force... Suddenly, when they shot over, poof, poof, poof... all were shattered.

Li Tian used his own inner strength to block this terrifying shadow blood arrow.

All the shadow blood arrows were shattered by Li Tian's palm!

Of course, none of the old dean and others behind him were injured.

At this moment, I saw the old dean Heris, Anderson, and Evelyn and others all there in amazement, looking at Li Tian in disbelief.

Even Morodo, the two chaotic demons, suddenly raised his gloomy eyes and looked at Li Tian's body.

"Good boy! How can I stop my shadow blood arrows with my Four-square Blood Prison Technique?"

"Ability! Really capable." That Morodo suddenly gloomy eyes flashed, looking at Li Tiandao.

I saw that the old dean and others behind Li Tian were all dumbfounded.

"Li Tian, you can still perform illusion skills?" Anderson in front of him could hardly imagine looking at Li Tian and asking.

Li Tian didn't look back, and said there, "I don't use illusion at all."

Of course Li Tian did not use illusion.

In fact, his spiritual power is exactly the same as the old Dean Heris and the others, and they are all imprisoned... However, Li Tian still has his own powerful internal power! So just now at this most critical juncture, that Li Tian suddenly displayed his internal strength cultivation.

As Li Tian finished speaking, the Anderson in front of them was stunned.

"That...that...what did you use?" Anderson asked puzzled.

The old dean Heris suddenly said: "Anderson, don't talk so much nonsense! Now is not the time to ask this..."

After being told by the old dean, Anderson quickly closed his mouth.

But seeing the old dean quickly turned his head and said to Li Tiandao beside him: "My child, I don't care what martial arts you use...I hope you can break us through this four-way blood trap, as long as you can Breaking through this imprisonment, we can use illusions to deal with this * demon together."

The old dean now put all his hopes on Li Tian!

At this moment, it is not just the old dean. In fact, everyone's hope of survival lies in Li Tian.

After listening, Li Tian glanced at the blood wall around him, and said: "I will try my best."

"En." Hearing Li Tian's words, the old dean nodded excitedly.

But what about Morodo? Suddenly he looked at Li Tian with a sneer: "Hey, kid, who are you? You are the first person in a century who can break through my blood cell art... Hehehehe, tell me, your identity, maybe The old man will show mercy to make you feel more comfortable."

Hearing that Morodo said so, Li Tian didn't bother to talk to him.

Instead, he suddenly accumulated his body's internal strength, and then displayed Xuantian fingering.

Suddenly, bursts of piercing fingers were shot from Li Tian's fingers... and flew towards Na Morodo.

Then Morodo smiled sullenly.

"interesting!"

After speaking, he suddenly waved his right hand, and a blood-colored barrier appeared from the front. Li Tian's Xuantian's strength was then completely blocked.

Li Tian saw that his Xuantian * was blocked, and he did not attack again.

But suddenly the right hand gathered the palm strength, and suddenly hit the blood wall of the square blood prison technique on the left.

With a bang, I saw that the wall of blood trembled suddenly after being hit by Li Tian's palm, and the weird blood shadow in the south trembled violently.

"Li Tian, come on!"

"Yes, Li Tian, we must help us open this wall of blood!"

The old dean and Anderson all looked at Li Tiandao.

However, when the two chaotic demons were in decline, seeing Li Tianyong's huge palm power hit the wall of blood, his eyes suddenly showed a fierce light.

"Boy, this is your own death!"

When he spoke, suddenly he saw that Morodo turned into a * handprint on his right hand, and then he screamed, and a blood beam shot directly at Li Tian.
