

A Killer 2791

Chapter 2791: movement

But they also knew that the saint Long Lao hadn't reappeared for a hundred years.

And now, Li Tian actually said that he was rescued by the legendary "Long Lao" of Lingtu Continent.

"Li Tian... Did you really meet Old Long?"

"Old Long is really born?" Old Dean Hollis said with endless excitement in his eyes.

I saw Li Tian nodded there and said, "Yes, Old Long is indeed born."

Everyone present in front of them heard it, and their hearts became extremely excited.

But seeing the old dean Hollis suddenly became excited.

"Great, great, I originally thought that Long Lao had stopped asking about world affairs... retired... I didn't expect Long Lao to be born! I believe that Long Lao must be because of this war between humans and demons. Born." Old Dean Hurston said in excitement.

Anthony on one side smiled and said, "Old He, you mean, Saint Long always comes to help us?"

The old dean Heris smiled there and said, "Of course."

"If Long Lao helps, we will definitely defeat the demons."

"Yes, the second demon war a hundred years ago was when Long Lao used his own power to defeat the Demon Clan... so that the Demon Clan did not dare to invade mankind again for a hundred years. This time Lao Long will definitely be like this. It was like a hundred years ago." Anderson here also said with great joy.

...

Everyone at the moment thinks that Long Lao was born to help mankind in this war.

But no one knows...This is not the reason why Long Lao was born this time.

What about Li Tian? After hearing what everyone said, he not only smiled bitterly there: "Old Dean, in fact...actually...Lao Long was not here to help us this time."

A word suddenly came out of Li Tian's mouth.

When Li Tian suddenly said such a sentence, the old Dean Heris who was already excited...and Anthony over there were all stunned.

"what?"

"Li Tian, what are you talking about?"

Li Tian then told the truth.

"After I was rescued by Old Long, I asked him... if he would help us defeat the demons, but Old Long's answer was, no!"

"He said, he can't break the contract...he can't help humans."

Hearing what Li Tian said, the excited old dean and others were suddenly disappointed.

One by one, the surging hearts just now fell into the bottom of the sea.

"How could this be?"

"Old Long... didn't help us?" Anderson said desperately there.

Everyone present also showed extremely disappointed expressions.

Li Tiandao: "Old Long may be unspeakable, so... I hope everyone can understand his old man."

After hearing Li Tian say this, everyone present did not say a word and remained silent.

Suddenly the old Dean Khris spoke there and said: "Li Tian is actually right. Elder Long must have other things...so he won't be able to help us for a while! But please don't worry, everyone. The old man has been born...Even if the Demon Race is rampant, they will be jealous. Even if Old Long cannot help us humans personally, his reputation is enough to make the Demon Race guys... scared and fearful."

The old Dean Hollis spoke the truth, although there were some exaggerations in his words.

Looking at the entire demons, they are indeed afraid of one person... afraid of Na Long.

After hearing what the old dean said, the faces of those present showed a trace of comfort.

"Forget it, Li Tian just came back, let him rest first." The old dean smiled at Li Tiandao.

After speaking, the old dean turned his head and looked at Li Tiandao: "Li Tian, you have a good rest first, and we won't bother you."

Li Tian was indeed very tired and sleepy when he was trapped by the demons during this period.

At this moment, hearing the old dean Hollis said so, he nodded quickly and said: "En."

In this way, everyone else left the tent.

After they left, Li Tian found a basin of clean water for a little cleaning, and fell asleep.

With this sleep, Li Tian slept soundly.

I slept from noon until late at night.

During this period, no one disturbed him.

The night is already deep.

I saw Li Tian still lying on the bed quietly resting.

At this moment, suddenly I heard a bustling shouting outside, as if something had happened in the army.

Li Tian heard the sound at this moment, and a Gulu turned directly off the bed.

"Why is it so noisy outside, has something happened?"

After Li Tianxin thought this, he quickly got off the bed and pushed the door open.

After pushing away, only torches were illuminating the barracks outside the darkness... and in the front, there was a group of soldiers in armor and hand-held weapons running towards the left...

Each of them had an extremely nervous look on their faces, as if something terrible had happened to the left.

Li Tian was taken aback, frowned, and ran forward quickly.

"Hello, may I ask, what happened before? Why are so many people running towards that side?" Li Tian asked a soldier standing guard after walking quickly.

The standing soldier took a look at Li Tian, and then replied, "There is another life in the army...so they rushed over."

"Death?" Li Tianyi frowned at the moment.

what happened? How could life be killed inexplicably?

Could it be the demons coming?

After Li Tian thought about it this way, he stretched out his figure and swept forward very quickly.

He wants to see what happened before.

When Li Tian ran to the front quickly, he could see the army in front of him from a distance. There were groups of soldiers standing there, forming a circle.

They all had weapons in their hands and burning torches in their hands.

The flames were shining swayingly...but I saw 5 dead bodies lying around the circle.

Looking closely, I saw that the old Dean Hollis, Anderson, and Dean Anthony of Locke College were all there...

They seemed to be watching the corpse there.

Li Tian ran over quickly at this moment.

The moment she ran over, the beautiful teacher Evelyn saw Li Tian suddenly.

"Li Tian, are you here?" The beauty teacher Evelyn looked at Li Tiandao.

When other people heard Li Tian's name, they all turned their heads and saw him.

Li Tian also greeted everyone at this time.

Then he asked quickly: "Old Dean, what happened here?"

The old dean squatted on the ground, looking at the dead soldiers lying on the ground with ugly eyes and said: "Come and see by yourself..."

Chapter 2792: Blood Catch

After the old dean said this, Li Tian was taken aback and walked over quickly. .

Then I looked closely, and saw five dead soldiers lying motionless on the ground.

The dead bodies of these soldiers were very strange... all of them had their pupils widened, and then died of bleeding from their seven orifices.

The eyes, nose, mouth, ears... all shed blood.

The death was terrible and extremely ugly.

The moment Li Tian saw the corpses of the five poor soldiers, he suddenly said, "Blood curse?"

After hearing what Li Tian said, Old Dean Hollis was not only startled slightly, but looked at Li Tiandao in surprise: "Li Tian, how do you know that this is a curse of blood?"

Li Tian suddenly thought of the nasty and gloomy: Blood Demon.

But seeing Li Tian say there, "Because I know that bastard, know that * Gorefiend."

"It must be him, he, who released the illusion of the curse of blood, so these soldiers will die."

Li Tian remembered that he had been nearly killed by the "Blood Curse" before, but now that he remembered it, he still had a lingering fear. After seeing the corpses at this moment, he recognized it at a glance.

After hearing Li Tian say this, everyone present couldn't help but startled slightly.

"Li Tian, have you seen that blood demon?" Anthony said aside.

Li Tiandao said: "Yes."

"No wonder..." Anthony said to himself.

The old dean sighed deeply: "This * demon... even used such a means to harm our empire soldiers... Hey, so far, more than 200 innocents have been killed on our side. Soldiers... they suddenly bleed from their orifices and fell to the ground."

Listening to what the old dean said, Li Tian not only glanced at the soldiers around him.

But seeing the soldiers standing around, all of them showed weird looks. Although they didn't say anything in their mouths, Li Tian resolutely could see what was exposed in each of their eyes. That fear...

The military's mind has been chaotic.

The shadow of death was planted in the heart of every soldier.

Because no one knows whether he will be the next cursed object...

"What should I do?" Anderson, the teacher of the Thunder and Lightning Department, murmured in his ugly mouth.

The old dean was also deeply depressed there.

This "curse of blood" has now become a nightmare in the hearts of the entire emperor team... the soldiers have been harassed by this curse of blood and cannot rest, and it has caused a huge panic...

If once the war starts again, how can these soldiers go into the battle wholeheartedly?

At this moment, Li Tian suddenly spoke.

"At this moment, you must catch the blood demon and kill him in order to completely solve this kind of thing." Li Tiandao.

Hearing what Li Tian said, everyone was not only taken aback.

"Grab the Gorefiend? How easy is it?" Anderson said on one side.

Li Tian raised his eyes and looked at the dark surroundings, and suddenly said, "Don't worry, everyone. Leave this to me. I will definitely find the blood demon."

"you?"

When Li Tian said it, everyone was looking at him with their eyes raised at the moment.

Li Tiandao said: "Yes."

"I know that  Gorefiend, and as far as I know, his blood curse can only be cast at close range, so if I guess correctly, that  must be hiding in a dark corner around... .." Li Tiandao.

Hearing what Li Tian said, the old Dean Hollis said there, "Li Tian is right."

"Well, we all listen to Li Tian."

"Li Tian, how can we help you?" Old Dean Hollis suddenly looked at Li Tiandao there.

At this time, the others were also wiping their fists, waiting for Li Tian to speak.

They have been in a passive situation for a long time, and now they are finally going to take the initiative under Li Tian's suggestion, which of course makes each of them a little excited.

So at this moment everyone is looking at Li Tian.

But what about Li Tian? After hearing what everyone said, he shook his head slightly and said, "No, you don't need to help, you just need to be as usual..."

amount?

When Li Tian actually said that no one should help, the people around were not only taken aback.

"Li Tian, don't you think we are useless?" Anderson looked at Li Tiandao depressedly.

Anthony of Rock College over there was also looking at Li Tian with a frown.

Li Tian said there: "Don't get me wrong. The reason why I don't let everyone help is not to look down on everyone's strength! It's just that I personally think that if you all come to help, the movement will be great. In this case, then The treacherous Gorefiend will surely find out something! Once he sees something wrong, he will definitely not risk staying here again... So, I ask everyone to keep the previous situation. In this case, the Gorefiend will not see it. We are catching him."

After hearing Li Tian's explanation, the people present at the moment understood Li Tian's intentions.

After thinking about it, the old Dean Hollis said: "Li Tian's words are extremely reasonable. Let us all follow Li Tian's."

After the old dean said so, everyone present also nodded silently, and then said, "Yes."

"Li Tian, then you have to pay attention yourself."

"The blood demon is extremely powerful, especially his blood curse art, it has reached a terrifying level! Once you fight with him, don't let him cast the blood curse, otherwise, you will definitely lose." The old dean Heris reminded Li Tian there.

That Li Tian had already experienced the terrible extent of that terrifying blood demon "Blood Curse", so at that moment he nodded slightly and said, "Well, I know."

"Li Tian, when will you start to act?" The old dean Heris couldn't help asking there.

Other people around were also blinking at Li Tian at this time.

But seeing Li Tian looked at the surrounding darkness and said, "From now on."

"amount?"

"Are you going to find the blood demon now?" Evelyn, the beautiful teacher on one side, looked at Li Tiandao in surprise.

But seeing Li Tian nodded there and said, "En."

"I want to find the  demon as soon as possible...Only in this way can we calm the chaotic military mind as soon as possible." Li Tiandao.

After hearing Li Tian say this, the old dean not only nodded in relief.

"Good, good."

"Since Li Tian has decided, then we will support him." Old Dean Hollis said there.

In this way, under Li Tian's decision, he left the barracks alone.

He walked into the darkness on the left.

The old Dean Hollis, Anthony and others returned to the barracks individually.

Chapter 2793: finally come

At this moment, Li Tian alone had entered the darkness in the distance.

Now he is aimless and can only search for the trace of the blood demon bit by bit.

According to his inference, the blood demon should be nearby...but he didn't know where it was.

After Li Tian came into the darkness, he blinked his eyes and looked at the direction of the barracks, but saw that there were brightly lit...a group of people stood there.

After a few glances, Li Tian began to walk slowly in the darkness, and then tried to find the blood demon.

It is a pity that such a search is impossible to find the blood demon.

After searching for a long time, no clue was found.

As the night got darker and darker, Li Tian found a place and sat down quietly to rest.

The night passed quickly.

In the ensuing night, the blood demon did not reappear, and similarly, no soldiers died in the entire army.

After a peaceful night, Li Tian went back to the barracks and ate some food, and then once again came to the dense forest about two miles away from the barracks, looking for it.

As he was walking forward, he suddenly found a strange atmosphere shrouded in the dense forest in front.

Li Tian was taken aback, and quickly slid over.

After quickly passing by, Li Tian's eyes cautiously looked around...He suddenly felt that there was a * breath here.

Then he looked around carefully, and he found that it was really secretive... and standing in this place, he could look directly at the situation of the army.

After looking at it, Li Tian suddenly muttered in his mouth: "Could it be that the  blood demon cast the curse of blood here before?"

"This place, you can observe the situation of the army at a glance... and the distance is not very far, and it is hidden enough, so if you want to cast the curse of blood, this is indeed the best place..."

After thinking about all the information, Li Tian felt that the blood demon should have cast the curse of blood here before.

"Since I have found the place where the blood demon casts the curse of blood, then I'll just sit back and wait."

Li Tian thought about it in that mind.

"Blood Demon, wait, if you dare to come again tonight, I see how you escape this time..."

Li Tian said secretly there.

After speaking, Li Tian flashed away and left here.

His figure is hidden in the dense forest in front...The dense forest is extremely lush, but you can clearly see the situation here. If the blood demon is really here to cast the curse of blood, then Li Heaven will be able to find him.

In this way, Li Tian started hunting his prey like a hidden hunter.

The night came soon.

In a blink of an eye, the sky was completely dark.

Li Tian was hiding in the dense forest like that, looking at this direction without blinking, he was waiting there, waiting for the coming of the blood demon.

But, who knows, will the blood demon really come tonight?

Time passed by every minute.

The old dean in the imperial camp and other people were also worried.

Because no one knows what will happen tonight.

"Hey, tonight, I wonder if Li Tian can catch that  Gorefiend?" Inside the tent, Anderson muttered in his mouth while looking at the darkness in the distance.

The old dean Heris said: "We have to trust Li Tian, he will be able to do it."

"Unless the demon doesn't come tonight."

Anderson not only nodded after hearing the old Dean Khris said so confidently.

...

The night is serious.

As the night approached, I saw the entire army, and fell into a peaceful state.

And here is Li Tian who has been hiding in the dark forest? But it didn't move from start to finish.

He was always there blinking his eyes and looking ahead...At the same time, his ears were listening carefully to the surrounding movement...Any wind and grass moved into Li Tian's ears.

An hour passed, nothing happened.

Two hours...

Three hours...

There was no movement here until 23:00 in the morning.

Li Tian, who had been waiting like a hunter in the dark forest with his eyes wide open, was not only slightly disappointed in his heart.

"Damn it, wouldn't that gorefiend appear tonight?"

"Or is there a mistake in my judgment? The blood demon didn't cast the curse of blood here at all?"
Li Tian quickly turned in his mind there.

In the deadly night, there was no news from the army.

Although Li Tian began to wonder in his heart, he did not give up.

He must insist, and continue to wait for the appearance of the blood demon here, because he understands that if he does not personally catch the bastard, that guy will definitely hurt the soldiers in the army again.

In this way, Li Tian began to continue to wait here.

As time passed by, it was 3:23 in the morning.

At this moment, even Li Tian is slightly sleepy, his two pairs of eyelids only feel heavier...

Just when Li Tian's whole body fell into a sleepy situation, suddenly a black shadow rushed over from the darkness in front of him.

Although Li Tian is really tired at the moment, this does not mean that Li Tian is defenseless.

At this moment, when the black shadow flew by, Li Tian's ears stood up for an instant.

"Strong wind?"

"Here... the ones that should have come are finally here." At the moment when Li Tian heard the sound of the strong wind, his eyes lit up.

He, who was extremely tired just now, suddenly became energetic at this moment.

At the same time, he looked at the dark place in front of him with his eyes wide open.

After a while, I saw a thin and tall figure really quickly swept over from the darkness.

Through the faint moonlight, Li Tian could slightly tell that the man was wearing a black robe... and there was a "blood color" pattern tattooed on the back.

"Blood Demon?"

"This * finally appeared." In an instant, Li Tian was excited when he saw the weird "blood-colored" tattoo behind the blood demon.

But the person mentioned is the blood demon of the demon race.

I saw that after the Gorefiend came here, a smile suddenly appeared on his venomous face.

Then I saw the blood demon taking the first look at the brightly lit army place in the distance, and then said gloomily: "Damn human beings, let you try my curse of blood again tonight... "

Chapter 2794: Afterimage

He finally appeared, Gorefiend.

Li Tian held his breath in the dark corner, then quietly looked at the blood demon.

I saw the Gorefiend staring at the brightly-lit human military camp below with those vicious eyes in the dark, and then a vicious smile appeared at the corner of his mouth.

"Weak humans, wait to die."

After the blood demon said cruelly in his mouth, then he saw that his hands quickly formed a "curse of blood" mark on his chest, and then he began to mutter the curse silently.

He is about to start casting the "Curse of Blood".

At the moment when the blood demon had begun to cast the "curse of blood", suddenly, Li Tian, who was hiding behind in a dark corner, suddenly jumped out of the dense forest.

"Blood Demon, you bastard, I have been waiting for you for a long time."

Immediately after a loud shout, Li Tian's figure suddenly appeared in front of the blood demon.

The blood demon was casting the "Curse of Blood", but suddenly he heard a voice behind him, which shocked him.

But seeing the blood demon opened his eyes instantly, then turned his head in amazement, and then saw Li Tian standing in front of him.

"It's you? It's you * kid?" The blood demon said in shock when he saw Li Tian.

But seeing that Li Tian looked at the blood demon and said: "What? You didn't expect it?"

The blood demon suddenly smiled sullenly and said: "Damn boy, you should have died last time, but unfortunately you were saved by the old immortal Long. This time, I didn't expect you to come here to find death by yourself?"

Li Tiandao said: "Blood Demon, I am afraid who will live and who will die today, not necessarily?"

The blood demon suddenly laughed wildly and said: "What a big tone, * kid, did you find a helper? Come out? Let everyone out if you have the ability, do you think I'm afraid?"

It turned out that the blood demon thought Li Tian would find a helper.

But Li Tian did not find any help at all today.

So Li Tian said coldly: "Blood Demon, don't worry, I am alone here today."

"Only you?"

"Hey, * kid, are you impatient? You dare to provoke Laozi alone?" When the blood demon heard that Li Tian said this, the corner of his mouth suddenly showed a venomous smile.

Because in his mind, this Li Tian was simply vulnerable and could not be his opponent.

Li Tian suddenly smiled.

Said: "Maybe."

"Stop talking nonsense and do it."

The Gorefiend could not contain his killing intent.

After all, this is the place of the human being, if it is consumed like Li Tian, it will definitely be extremely detrimental to him.

So at this moment the blood demons shouted and started to do it.

He must solve Li Tian as soon as possible, and then leave this place of right and wrong.

With the blood demon shouting out loudly, his two pale hands suddenly lifted up, one hand appeared bloody, the other hand turned into the shape of a ghost claw, and then he turned towards Li Tian at an extraordinary speed. Grabbed the top of his head.

The trick is cruel and vicious enough, it seems like a trick to want Li Tian's life.

Seeing the blood demon attack, Li Tian took a step back, then his left palm was cut, and his right hand quickly shot out.

The gorefiend's blow didn't work, he took a half step back, then volleyed up, and then a whirlwind kick.

Li Tian quickly dodges to block... avoiding the cruel tricks of the blood demon in the past.

"Damn boy, I didn't expect to have some ability."

The Blood Demon only fought Li Tian once... and the last time the Blood Demon directly cast the "Blood Curse" and then controlled Li Tian. During the entire battle, Li Tian did not show any strength at all.

Therefore, the blood demon thought that Li Tian's skill was low and could not withstand a single blow, so he wanted to quickly solve that Li Tian.

But after he made a few moves in succession, and was evaded by Li Tian, he became curious.

"It turns out that this human kid is still a little capable." But seeing the blood demon secretly said in his heart.

At this moment, the blood demon suddenly cast an illusion.

"Ghost Blood Hand."

After the blood demon performed this blood illusion technique, suddenly 4 afterimages exactly like him appeared all over his body.

But said that the 4 afterimages are exactly the same as the blood demons, it is impossible to tell which one is true? Which one is fake?

When Li Tian watched the blood demon suddenly imaginary four identical afterimages, he not only frowned slightly.

Immediately afterwards, all of the 4 gorefiend ghosts suddenly laughed, and none of them quickly settled in their hands.

The four afterimages are exactly the same, the movements are all the same, it is impossible to tell that one is true and that is false.

This means that Li Tian now has to deal with 4 blood demons together...

"Hematology."

Suddenly the blood demon burst into mouth, and then released terrible * from the 4 identical afterimages. The * orb was released from the 4 afterimages of the blood demon. Li Tian surrounded him.

But he said, seeing these deadly blood cells shoot towards him, Li Tian frowned slightly, and then suddenly stretched his right hand, and then quickly accumulated the body's huge spiritual power.

After all those spiritual powers condensed, Li Tian suddenly shouted.

"Pollyfire."

Suddenly two golden flames appeared in the palms of both hands, and then Li Tian slammed his hands forward.

The relentless flames... rushed towards the blood * that were flying over.

Puff puff,

The blood * hit the extremely hot flames, making a huge noise, and then exploded one by one.

Seeing that his blood cell technique was blocked, the blood demon immediately shouted coldly: "Blood sand bursts."

Immediately afterwards, the blood illusion technique was displayed from the four afterimages, the "Blood Sand Burial Burial" with a huge range.

When Li Tian fought against the blood illusionist of the Demon Race, he had seen the power of this "Blood Sand Burial"... he was indeed able to deal with one.

However, what is different now is that he has to face 4 at once! And it was exactly the same "Blood Sand Burial", which caused Li Tian a slight headache.

Moreover, this "Blood Sand Burial" was originally very large. At this moment, the four were displayed together, and the entire surroundings of Li Tian were all surrounded by * sand...The endless blood suddenly began to diffuse into the air, gradually connecting the entire space They were all blocked by the terrifying * light.

And those whirring blood sands attacked Li Tian.

Li Tian watched the "Blood Sand Burial" rushing towards his face, and suddenly his body quickly backed away...He didn't dare to take this move...

Chapter 2795: Fierce battle

Li Tian didn't dare to insist on this move at this moment, and quickly displayed the "Mystery Wind Step", and then prepared to escape.

Just when Li Tianshi displayed the "Mysterious Wind Step" and was about to escape from the horrible blood sand explosion, the blood demon suddenly noticed Li Tian's movement.

"Smelly boy, do you want to take out Lao Tzu's blood sand and bury it?"

"Huh, looking for death."

With a loud roar, suddenly the four afterimages of the blood demon flew over.

The turbulent "Blood Sand Burial" also completely wrapped Li Tian's figure all at once.

Li Tian could not escape at all...Even if he possessed the "Mysterious Wind Step", he could not escape.

No way, the scope of this "Blood Sand Burial" is really too big.

In a blink of an eye, I saw that Li Tian's entire figure was completely buried in the endlessly rotating blood sand.

"Hahaha, go to hell, kid."

The blood demon was smiling cruelly while manipulating the blood sand around him.

The main damage of the blood sand blasting burial is related. Once the blood sand is used to trap the opponent, the blood sand will wrap around the opponent's body... and then after a rapid rotation, raging on the opponent, the general low-powered illusionist will be completely The body is destroyed... the bones are even crushed by blood sand...

What about Li Tian now?

He has been surrounded by 4 "Blood Sand Burials"... the whole person seems to be completely trapped.

It seemed that he was not the opponent of that "Blood Demon" at all.

Seeing that the surrounding blood sand began to rotate violently, surrounded by the blood sand, it seemed as if everything had been destroyed.

Such scenes continued for about a few minutes, and the entire space was destroyed by blood sand.

Suddenly, the blood demon began to stop.

Because he felt that Li Tian might have been killed by him.

"Boy, are you still alive?"

In the blood demon's cruel laughter, he slowly began to stop.

As he slowly stopped, the "blood sand" that had originally rotated like a tornado began to pause slightly.

Then carefully look at the situation in the space... as you look at it, suddenly in the middle of the front, a human-shaped object is tightly wrapped in blood sand.

His whole body was covered with blood sand... he couldn't see his appearance at all, his skin.

Is that Li Tian?

But he said that after seeing Li Tian's whole person being completely buried by blood sand, the blood demon burst into laughter instantly.

"Hahahaha, brat, this is asking for a dead end."

The blood demon thought that Li Tian had been killed by him.

But just as the blood demon was laughing wildly, suddenly the body of Li Tian, which was completely covered by blood sand, heard a "boom, boom" sound.

"what sound?"

The Gorefiend was taken aback, and turned his head frowning.

Then he looked back carefully and saw that Li Tian's body, which was originally completely covered by "blood sand", suddenly cracked the surrounding outer layer of "blood sand" at that moment.

Click, with a crack.

A fire light suddenly appeared, and then a huge explosion sounded.

The "blood sand" that was tightly wrapped around Li Tian's body suddenly burst open.

As the blood sand exploded, the blood demon was shocked.

At first glance, he suddenly saw Li Tian, who was originally surrounded by blood sand, suddenly appeared... and the most shocking thing was that his whole body was burning with golden flames.

"You kid...didn't die?" The Blood Demon couldn't help exclaiming after seeing Li Tian who was full of flames.

He couldn't believe that Li Tian could still survive under his own blood sand burst?

This, this is totally incredible.

Just after the gorefiend screamed, Li Tian, who was burning this "golden flame" all over, suddenly moved.

Suddenly, he attacked the blood demon extremely quickly.

The Gorefiend saw that Li Tian was attacking him terribly, and the four afterimages displayed "Blood Escape."

Suddenly the bodies of the 4 afterimages were covered by a layer of "blood gas".

However, when the blood demon thought that using "Blood Escape" could stop Li Tian, he was wrong.

Because he never thought that Li Tian was using the strangest "fire unicorn technique," among the fire illusions.

This "flaming unicorn" is immune to all illusions...Of course, it is also immune to blood illusions.

So when the blood demon was performing bleeding escape, Li Tian's body full of flames still shot at an afterimage here.

With a bang.

But seeing the afterimage, after being hit by Li Tian's body, there was a sudden explosion, and the afterimage was suddenly destroyed.

But when the blood demon saw that his afterimage was destroyed by Li Tian, the blood demon was stunned for an instant.

"Ah? How could it be... I have clearly displayed a blood escape block... how could I be destroyed?" The blood demon said in shock.

Just when he was surprised inside, Li Tian had already hit his second afterimage.

There was a boom.

There was another blasting sound, and the second afterimage of the Gorefiend was also destroyed.

When the blood demon saw that his second afterimage was also destroyed, he was shocked at that moment.

He quickly wanted to dodge... Unfortunately it was too late.

Because Li Tian's speed is too fast.

boom!

The third afterimage of the Gorefiend was also destroyed.

In an instant, there was only one remaining four afterimages of the blood demon... and the current one was the real body of the blood demon.

Li Tian finally broke through the four afterimages of the blood demon.

Finally, Li Tian looked at the only remnant of the Gorefiend and exclaimed angrily in the fire-breathing eyes: "Goddevil, even if it is a  today, God cannot save you."

The Gorefiend looked at the flame-covered body, and at that moment, a shadow flashed across his heart.

"Smelly boy, do you think I'm afraid of you?"

"Hmph, let you taste Lao Tzu's blood curse."

The Gorefiend was finally about to cast his most vicious and vicious blood curse.

As he screamed out, he saw a blood mark on his hands suddenly, and then his right  suddenly stretched out in his mouth and took a bite. The fingers bleed instantly, and then the blood demon came out. His blood suddenly drew a weird symbol in the palm of his hand.

"Blood curse, super life..."

The blood demon suddenly started thinking, and as the corner of his mouth was muttering, a stench of blood suddenly blew around, and then a strange and extremely aura suddenly surged toward Li Tian from all directions.

Li Tian's whole body was burning with golden flames, and when the extremely strange blood wind was blowing towards him... the flames on his body were beating, but it could not be extinguished.

"Blood Demon, your blood curse seems useless to me, right?"

Li Tian stood there cold and suddenly said with a smile.

The blood demon raised his eyes and saw that Li Tian, who was in flames, had nothing to do...At this moment, he was suddenly puzzled.

"How is it possible? You, you, you kid... how come it's okay to be hit by my blood curse?" The blood demon suddenly surprised.

The Gorefiend certainly didn't know that Li Tian was using the "Fire Qilin" at the moment, and he was also immune to all illusions. If he knew it, he would definitely be shocked.

Chapter 2796:

Just when the "Blood Demon" was shocked, Li Tian suddenly rushed over.

"Purple Thunder Seal."

Suddenly, Li Tian shouted, and suddenly two purple lightning rays appeared from the sky.

When the blood demon saw a few thunders suddenly appeared in the air, he was taken aback:

"Thunder and lightning illusion? You...boy... how can you still use thunder and lightning illusion?"

Just when he was terribly shocked, Li Tian's purple thunder seal had fallen from the sky.

Suddenly, there was a thunder.

But saw a terrifying light of thunder and lightning hit the completely defenseless Gorefiend.

what

A scream came out from the blood demon's mouth.

But seeing that terrifying light of thunder and lightning, it hit the blood demon all at once, and the whole body of the blood demon flew up, and then fell heavily to the ground.

After the Gorefiend was hit, he fell to the ground at the moment, vomiting two mouthfuls of blood...

Then he got up with difficulty... and then wanted to escape.

Seeing him jump, he was ready to escape.

Then Li Tian saw that the blood demon wanted to escape, and snorted coldly, "Devil, can you escape?"

As Li Tian spoke in his mouth, suddenly a hand stretched out, and the "Slavery Technique" suddenly came out of the palm of his hand.

Immediately after that, the Gorefiend who had already flew several meters away... Suddenly he stopped in the air...

"What happened?"

"Why can't my body move anymore?" The blood demon said in shock while bleeding in his mouth.

While the blood demon was terribly shocked, a cold hand suddenly pinched the blood demon's neck.

"Devil, are you still running away?"

Suddenly Li Tian's suffocating voice came from the blood demon's ears.

The blood demon turned around in horror and took a closer look, but saw that Li Tian had already reached the blood demon's side...

The Gorefiend screamed and waved one hand with all his strength, but before the grasping hand touched that Li Tian, Li Tian suddenly grabbed his arm with one hand and twisted it hard.

With a click.

what!

The sound of broken bones came from the blood demon's entire arm.

Broke, one arm was broken by Li Tian.

The Gorefiend was so painful that he held his abandoned arm and screamed... heartbreaking, extremely unsound.

But Li Tian didn't mean any pity, and kicked the blood demon to the ground.

"You demon has done so many bad things... and killed so many innocent human soldiers... You really deserve to die." Li Tian roared.

The blood demon rolled on the ground in pain, screaming.

"Damn boy, have the ability to kill Lao Tzu?" The Gorefiend yelled, cursing there.

"Asshole humans, you will be destroyed by our demons sooner or later."

Then Li Tian sneered after hearing this: "Do you want to die?"

"No, no, I won't kill you so quickly!"

"Because I want the old dean to dispose of you, the * devil... Let the soldiers of the empire, see the final fate of your demon." Li Tian said last.

When the blood demon heard it, his whole person was completely paralyzed there.

In this way, the blood demon was caught by Li Tian.

After Li Tian abolished one of the blood demon's arms, he walked down the dark hillside while holding the blood demon.

The blood demon walked in front in pain, and the acupuncture points all over his body were spotted by Li Tian...now the blood demon could only walk around with his legs...the rest of his body could not exert any power at all.

"Devil, go faster."

Li Tian followed the blood demon and kicked the blood demon's ass.

The Gorefiend was kicked and rolled twice on the ground, and then he got up with difficulty...Although he had a 10,000 hatred for Li Tian in his heart, he had nothing to do, and he dared not leave.

Because if he doesn't leave, Li Tian will use vicious methods to torture him.

When Li Tian finally returned to the barracks with the blood demon, the soldiers standing there saw Li Tian from a distance... and they also saw the blood demon walking by.

"Li Tian is back."

"Illusor Li Tian is back."

...

The soldiers in armor couldn't help crying excitedly when they saw Li Tian's return.

The soldiers around, turned their heads at this moment and looked at Li Tian.

Thousands of pairs of eyes, all of them were cast on Li Tian at the moment.

Everyone saw Li Tian and Li Tian came back with a blood illusionist from the demon race.

...

Just when the soldiers of these army called out, inside the tent over there, I saw Teacher Anderson suddenly got out of the tent.

"Li Tian is back?"

"Has Li Tian caught the blood demon?"

After Na Anderson got out of the tent, I saw the beautiful teacher Evelyn and the old Dean Hollis... They all got out of the tent.

The moment they got out of the tent, Dean Anthony and the others also came out.

After they all came out, they then looked towards the place with a sharp eye, this look...

Immediately afterwards, they saw Li Tian at a glance.

what?

"It's Li Tian, Li Tianzhen is back."

I saw that beautiful teacher Evelyn said in surprise.

On the other side, Teacher Anderson saw a demon blood illusionist wearing a black robe and embarrassed in front of Li Tian.

"Old dean, look at it soon... Li Tian is back with a blood illusionist from the demon race." All of a sudden, Anderson shouted excitedly.

As he yelled out, the old Dean Hollis in front of him and all the others hurriedly looked up.

From this look, they really saw the blood demon with a broken arm being escorted.

"Blood Demon?"

"Is the demon guy that Li Tian is holding a blood demon?"

The old dean and they thought so excitedly, and ran over quickly.

At this moment, Li Tian also saw the old dean who ran over and Anthony from a distance.

"Li Tian, Li Tian, you are back." Just listen to the old dean and they yelled at Li Tian while walking over happily.

But when Li Tianwang saw the old dean and others, he couldn't help but smile slightly.

"Old Dean, Dean Anthony..."

"Li Tian, who is this guy?" The old dean only knew the name of the blood demon, but no one really knew the blood demon. At this moment, after seeing the blood demon, they not only hurriedly asked about it.

At this time, the others were all blinking at that Li Tian.

Even the soldiers around were looking at the Gorefiend in front of them with eyes wide open.

Li Tian glanced at the blood demon with his head down and said, "He is the blood demon who released the curse of blood...the * who killed our soldiers, the blood demon."

Chapter 2797: cut

When Li Tian suddenly said the identity of the blood demon, the surrounding soldiers all stared at the blood demon. .

"He killed so many of our brothers?"

"This bastard, the blood curse released?"

The soldiers immediately stared at the blood demon with endless hatred and anger in their eyes.

"hit."

"Kill that bastard."

There was a roar, I don't know who roared in the crowd, and then I saw the soldiers grabbing the stones and objects on the ground and smashing them towards the gorefiend.

The Gorefiend lowered his head and was hit by a pounding stone.

Some angry soldiers suddenly pulled out the giant sword in their hands, and then rushed over, as if they wanted to hack to death the Gorefiend.

They all hate Gorefiend, hate this bastard.

It was the blood demon that caused the entire human army to panic... and also killed so many innocent soldiers. Now that these soldiers saw that the blood demon was finally captured, of course they had to vent their anger and kill him personally. .

Seeing the soldiers who rushed over, angrily raised their weapons in their hands, preparing to kill the Gorefiend, at this moment, the old Dean Heris quickly stopped the soldiers.

"Calm down everyone... calm down."

The old dean and Anderson and other illusionists around him stopped the impulsive soldiers.

"Calm down, everyone. I know you are very angry and hate this bastard... But he can't die now, because we need to understand the movement of the demons from his mouth..."

"General Torre has given an order to catch this  alive... so I hope you all calm down first." Just listen to the old dean stopping the impulsive soldiers there, and then speak to them.

After the soldiers heard the old dean and them say so, one by one glared at the gorefiend.

"We listen to the great illusionist."

After the soldiers calmed down, the old dean turned his head with a smile.

"Li Tian, let's take this  to General Torre first." Just listen to the old dean facing Li Tiandao.

Li Tian nodded silently at this moment and said, "Okay."

In this way, under the decision of the old dean, they took the gorefiend and started walking towards the tent of General Torre.

Along the way, the blood demon was cursed by thousands of people.

Every soldier stared angrily at the blood demon... and some others applauded at Li Tian and the old dean.

"The illusions are so powerful, they finally helped us solve the most terrifying blood curse."

"Yes, especially the illusionist named Li Tian."

"We all have to thank him."

...

The grateful voices of the surrounding soldiers came into Li Tian's ears. Li Tian only smiled when he heard these voices.

Soon, they saw that Li Tian and the old dean had brought the blood demon to the outside of General Torre's tent.

When the soldiers standing guard outside saw that the old dean came over, they all looked at them respectfully.

Then they directly entered the command camp of General Torre.

"General Torre."

After walking in, I saw General Torre in the bronze armor, sitting on a chair in front of it.

General Torre heard the sound and immediately raised his head. At this moment, he saw the old dean Hollis, Li Tian and the others.

"President Heris, Dean Anthony..." General Torre looked at them and smiled.

At this moment, the old dean Hollis said: "Tell General Torre, I have already caught the blood illusionist of the Demon Race who released the blood curse."

Hearing the old Dean Khris suddenly said this, General Torre in front of him suddenly widened his eyes and said: "Grab?"

"where?"

General Torre was also having a headache for the "Curse of Blood" this time. Now he suddenly heard that the old principal said that he had caught the blood illusionist of the * Demon Race. He was very happy and quickly asked. .

After General Torre asked, the old dean in front of him pointed to the last blood demon and said, "It's him."

After speaking, I saw that Anderson and Loft came over with the Gorefiend.

After seeing this gorefiend, General Torre smiled happily.

"Great, great."

"President Heris, you finally solved a big problem for this general..."

The old dean Hollis said there: "The general is polite. Our illusionist was originally to help the general."

"What's more, this time the capture of this blood demon is due to Li Tian in our college. He stayed in the darkness for two days and two nights alone, waiting for the appearance of the blood demon, and then caught Kill him." The old dean said to General Torre.

When General Torre heard this, he smiled and said, "Is that Li Tian? This general will give him a special reward."

The old dean Heris smiled there and said, "He is."

Talking about this, everyone's eyes were smiling and betting on Li Tian's body.

Li Tian said to General Torre: "Under Li Tian, see General."

After seeing Li Tian, General Torre suddenly showed his eyes with relief, and then strode over, patted Li Tian's shoulder with one hand and said: "Is very young, really a young talent. "

"The reward, the reward."

After General Torre said so, the old deans around and Anderson all laughed.

"Come on, reward Li Tian with 30,000 gold coins and 2 brocades..." General Torre said there.

The soldiers said, "Yes."

Then he was ready to receive the reward for that Li Tian.

But at this moment, Li Tian suddenly walked out and looked at General Torre with a smile: "General Torre, in fact, there is no need for those rewards... It is my duty to catch the blood demons."

When General Torre heard what Li Tian said, he laughed and said, "No, no, no."

"This time, it must be rewarded."

General Torre insisted.

Li Tian saw that he said it was useless, and he could only receive the reward at this moment, so he said to General Torre, "Thank you for the reward, General."

General Torre laughed.

Then, I saw that General Torre cast a pair of eyes on the Gorefiend at this moment.

"President Heris, what do you say to this bastard?" General Torre said suddenly.

The old dean Heris answered there and said, "Everything is subject to the general's arrangements."

"it is good."

General Torre said something, then took a cold look at the gorefiend and said, "This  killed a total of 216 lives in our imperial soldiers, and these thieves must be executed."

"The general has ordered that tomorrow is time, cut."

Chapter 2798: Demons situation

After General Torre said so, the old Dean Khris here did not say much.

This gorefiend is indeed cruel and vicious.

Killing him is indeed a good thing for humans.

What about the blood demon?

Although he was trapped at the moment, when he heard that he was going to be "beheaded" tomorrow, he suddenly laughed horribly.

The sound is weird and unpleasant...

When General Torre saw that the Gorefiend was not afraid, he laughed strangely, and shouted angrily: "You bastard, dare to laugh."

But seeing the blood monster smiled: "Why don't I dare to laugh?"

"What are you laughing at?" Torrey asked angrily.

Just listen to the blood demon said: "You ignorant and stupid human beings are dying... Are you ridiculous?"

When the general Torrey heard it, he kicked the blood demon's chest. The blood demon was unable to fight back because of the acupuncture points all over his body by Li Tian, and he was kicked to the ground by the general Torrey with a bang.

"Damn bastard, do you believe this general cut your tongue first?" General Torre roared.

But seeing the blood demon being kicked to the ground, he was snuggling on the ground at the moment, looking at General Torre with his cold and vicious eyes.

"Cut my tongue? Even if you cut my tongue, you still cannot escape the catastrophe of destruction... Hey, you weak humans, wait for this time to be destroyed. Even if my blood demon is dead, the demon king and his elders I will definitely take revenge for me and kill me. When that happens, you will have ten, one hundred, and one thousand lives to pay for me, hahahaha."

A weird sound of sorrowful laughter came out of the blood demon's mouth.

When General Torre heard it, he was so angry that he almost exploded.

With a "brush", he directly drew his saber, and then shouted angrily: "I killed you bastard."

After speaking, he was ready to kill the blood demon with a single knife.

But at this moment, the old Dean Hris quickly grabbed General Torre.

"General, please calm down your anger, don't be like a prisoner of this rank..." The old dean in front of him hurriedly persuaded General Torre said.

Dean Anthony on the other side also said hurriedly: "Yes, General, now this demon is about to die, I can only say it is quick to speak, once it arrives tomorrow, he will behead his head. Then I won't be able to say it again."

After the persuasion of the two deans, General Torre groaned in his mouth, then raised angrily eyes and glared at the blood demon and said: "Well, I will not kill this * today, I will be tomorrow, In front of thousands of soldiers, personally cut off your head."

After speaking, General Torre said to the soldiers next to him: "Come here, pull that * off me, remember, you must take care of it."

The soldiers in armor nodded quickly and said, "Yes!"

Then they quickly escorted the "Blood Demon" down.

After the Gorefiend was escorted down, the old Dean Heris and the others also left.

After returning to the tent where they rested, they exchanged simple greetings for a while, and then went to sleep separately.

Li Tian lay in bed all night, and finally got a good night's sleep.

...

The sky was slightly brighter.

Demon Barracks.

Early in the morning, I saw a dozen blood illusionists wearing black robes all standing outside the tent of Situ Ningbing. Everyone's face showed a strange ugly color, and everyone stood motionless. Outside the tent, they seemed to be waiting for their saint.

I saw a blood illusionist headed by the Chaos Twins: Morodo.

"Holy woman, the subordinates have an urgent matter to see you." Suddenly a word came out of the short stature of Morodo.

After that voice was uttered, Situ Ningbing's pleasant and cold voice came from inside.

"What is it that bother me early in the morning?" Situ Ningbing's voice was slightly impatient.

I saw Morodo outside saying: "The saint, it's a matter of the blood demon..."

When Situ Ningbing inside heard the words "Blood Demon", he was silent for a while, and then said, "Come in."

"Yes."

Morodo and a dozen blood illusionists in black robes around him quickly walked into the tent one by one after hearing that Situ Ningbing let them in.

After walking into the tent, they saw that Situ Ningbing was sitting noble and glamorous in the middle chair, beside him were two maids in black costumes.

"Subordinates, see the saint."

Headed by Morodo, the dozen or so demonic blood illusions wearing black robes all knelt before Situ Ningbing.

Situ Ningbing glanced at them coldly, then slightly raised his hand and said, "Get up."

"Thanks to the saint." The people said. Then stood up one by one.

Situ Ningbing asked, "Go ahead, what's wrong with the blood demon?"

Then Morodo hurriedly stepped forward and replied: "The blood demon went to the human barracks alone last night to cast the curse of blood... but he did not come back overnight... so the subordinates felt that the blood demon might be problem occurs."

Situ Ningbing knew that the blood demon was going to cast the curse of blood. At this moment, after hearing that the blood demon had not returned to the base camp of the demon clan last night, not only his eyebrows frowned slightly.

"He didn't come back last night?" Situ Ningbing asked in surprise.

But seeing that Morodo replied, "Yes."

Situ Ningbing was depressed at this moment.

After all, the blood demon is one of the two generals around her, and the blood curse of the blood demon has a deterrent effect on humans.

right now?

The blood demon did not come back suddenly? Did he really have an accident?

Situ Ningbing thought for a while and said: "With the strength of the blood demon, he shouldn't have an accident! Even if he was discovered by humans, if he wanted to escape, it would be easy... how could he not come back overnight?"

That Morodo said there: "The saint is saying so."

"With the current strength of human beings, it is absolutely impossible for them to stop the blood demons... but they are afraid, that old immortal thing: Long Lao,"

"I'm worried, did the blood demon come across the saint long among the humans...that's why something happened."

Morodo thought it was Sage Long who did it!

They never thought that the blood demon was arrested this time because of Li Tian.

After Morodo said this, Situ Ningbing said: "You are so afraid of the old saint Long... I ask you, is the human saint Long really that powerful?"

Situ Ningbing didn't know anything about the saint Long Lao. These days, I've heard about how powerful the saint Long Lao is... At this moment, he not only asked depressedly.

Chapter 2799: contract

Hearing what Situ Ningbing said, Morodo in front of him not only frowned slightly.

The dozen blood illusionists of the demons who were kneeling over there also showed a helpless look one by one.

It was only when Morodo spoke at the end, he coughed and coughed, and then said: "Holy Maiden, it is true... that Long, it is indeed very powerful."

"Really?" Situ Ningbing looked disbelief.

Morodo said, "Holy woman, I will tell you one thing, and you should know how powerful that Long should be."

"What's the matter?" Situ Ningbing asked with a look of fox.

He only heard that Moroduo said, "Presumably the saint had also heard the Demon Emperor and his old man talk about the Second World War of the Demon Clan a hundred years ago, right?"

When Situ Ningbing heard this, he nodded.

Yes, when she was in the Demon Race, she heard people talk about the terrible Demon Race a hundred years ago!

It's just that she didn't hear it from the Demon Emperor, but from outsiders.

"Know a little." Situ Ningbing replied.

Then Morodo continued and said: "The second demon war a hundred years ago, in fact, our demon should be victorious! Back then, our demon army was about to contribute to the imperial capital of mankind... But at this time, that Saint Long, relying on the power of one person, used the illusion of heaven and dominance: Eternal return to vitality, that breath can condense on the river and block the airflow... Back then, our demon army was used by that Saint Long That terrible Qi illusion technique, all frozen!"

After hearing that Moroduo said, Situ Ningbing's eyes widened.

what?

"With one person, he blocked the huge army of our demons?" Situ Ningbing's expression was astonished.

Morodo sighed deeply: "Yes."

"Holy woman, do you still remember the * human kid being saved two days ago...that is the saint Long saved!" Morodo reminded Situ Ningbing.

Situ Ningbing thought about it that day, under the one hundred thousand demon army, but the dark shadow entered and left the demon army at will like no man's land, and all the one hundred thousand demon army did not move... as if frozen. At this moment, Situ Ningbing thought about it, and suddenly a chill came from his heart.

"Oh my God, I didn't expect that there are such powerful experts under the sky and the earth." Situ Ningbing sighed there.

That Morodo said there: "Yes, a hundred years ago, we were defeated because of that long."

"It's just that, because of the great loss of the spiritual power of Long after the display of Eternal Return Qi, he also suffered a certain injury... and he once made a contract with our Demon Emperor.

Within a hundred years, the Demon Race is not allowed to step into humans Half a step into the capital! And Longye will never intervene in human affairs again..."

When Situ Ningbing heard this, he was surprised: "A hundred years have passed. So, that Long broke the contract? He interfered with human affairs?"

Namorodo said: "Yes."

"That old immortal thing broke the contract by himself! He personally promised the demon king old man, saying that if our demon race does not invade the human capital for a hundred years, then he will no longer ask about human things! But this time, we demon race abide by Had signed the contract, but the old immortal Long did not abide by the contract..." Morodo angrily said.

Situ Ningbing was silent after listening.

Morodo said: "That's why we sent someone to notify the Devil Emperor of his old man."

After listening to Situ Ningbing, he thought about it and said, "Morodo, then according to your speculation, the blood demon should have been caught by the dragon?"

Morodo said: "It should be, but I am not too sure."

"Saint, I want to bring a few blood illusionists into the human barracks... We are looking for a blood demon... to see what happened to him." Just listen to that Morodo said.

After all, the blood demon is the powerful blood illusionist of the demon clan.

So after hearing that Morodo said this, Situ Ningbing nodded slightly and said, "Well, that's fine."

"I order you to take the illusionist to the human barracks... If you can find the blood demon, you must bring him back." Situ Ning Bing said.

Morodo said: "Yes!"

"As long as you don't see the human Ryu, the old man will not look at anyone." Moroduo's mouth showed a cruel smile.

Situ Ningbing said in front of him: "By the way, Morodo, where is your brother Otis? Why hasn't he returned to the demon army camp?"

Situ Ningbing asked about another of the Chaos Twins: Otis.

When Morodo heard Situ Ningbing's question, he frowned and replied: "This... saint, my subordinates don't know it!"

"However, please don't worry, saint, I will send a signal immediately, and then tell my brother, so that he can come back and join us as soon as possible."

Situ Ningbing said: "As soon as possible."

"If it delays our schedule, hum, I will also find him to settle the account." Situ Ning said coldly.

So Narada hurriedly said, "Yes, yes."

None of them knew that Otis had already been buried in the valley of life and death.

He was slaughtered by Li Tian early.

If the current Morodo knew that all of this was done by Li Tian...including the death of his brother, including the blood demon, he would be shocked if he was harmed by Li Tian by himself. .

However, he is still not sure.

After saying everything, Namorodo left the barracks with the blood illusionists around him.

They are going to invade the human barracks, looking for the blood demon.

...

Human barracks here.

Li Tian, who had a good night's sleep, got up early the next day.

After getting up, he left the room by himself, and then walked straight to the army in front.

After reaching the front, he was seen facing a place on the far left where he was detained for a recidivist.

But in that place, it was a cave dwelling. Around the cave dwelling were full of imperial soldiers wearing armor...

After Li Tian walked over, he saw the neatly organized soldiers at the door.

"The Illusionist..."

"That is the great illusionist who caught the blood demons last night!"

"Wow, so young and amazing."

"Yes....."

But seeing those soldiers since Li Tian personally caught the Gorefiend last night, his name had already spread throughout the barracks, and it began to spread to every corner of the army like a plague.

Now the entire army of tens of thousands is up and down, everyone knows Li Tian's name! And everyone knows how powerful his strength is.

After seeing Li Tian himself at this moment, their faces showed great respect and worship, looking at Li Tian there.

But what about Li Tian? Hearing the voices of these soldiers, he not only smiled slightly, then walked over.

"Hello." Li Tian came over and greeted the soldiers guarding the cave dwelling.

All of a sudden, the soldiers got up in ecstasy and looked at Li Tianzai and said quickly: "Hello, great illusionist."

"Our army is up and down, but we can worship you... If it weren't for you, we don't know how many brothers we have to die... Thank you so much, thank you for helping us catch that * Gorefiend."

But seeing those soldiers grateful to Li Tianzai.

Li Tian smiled and said, "That's what I should have done."

"Anyway, no matter what, we have to thank you very much." Just listen to those soldiers smiling at Li Tian there.

Chapter 2800: Tortured

Listening to the words of these soldiers, Li Tian felt beautiful in his heart.

"Great illusionist, what are you doing here?" The soldiers suddenly looked at Li Tian curiously and asked.

But seeing Li Tian speak.

"I'm here to see that demon." Li Tiandao.

It turned out that Li Tian was here to find that  Gorefiend.

After the soldiers heard Li Tian say this, they said, "Okay."

Then they let Li Tian go in.

So Li Tian stepped into the dark cave dwelling step by step.

It was the blood demon that was imprisoned in this cave. At this moment, Li Tian suddenly came to this and that blood demon.

I saw Li Tian walk in step by step along the cave.

The cave dwelling was very dark and damp inside, and there was a ticking and ticking sound on the rock wall when water seeped from above and dripped on the ground.

When I walked in along the wet ground, I saw 6 warriors in heavy armor standing on the left and right inside.

In front of them, but seeing was the blood demon who was imprisoned.

At this moment, the Gorefiend's hands and feet are tied to an extremely thick wooden stake, and his hands and feet are bound by fine steel chains. At this moment, the Gorefiend is bowing his head, and a dejected person is staying there.

After Li Tian came in, he saw the blood demon at a glance.

Then Li Tian slightly waved his hands at the guard soldiers over there: "You guys go out first, I want to ask this demon alone about something."

Those soldiers all knew Li Tian. After hearing Li Tian say this, they nodded quickly and said: "Yes!"

Then they all went out.

After the soldiers in armor walked out of the cave one by one, Li Tian in front of him walked towards the gorefiend.

After Li Tian walked over, the blood demon suddenly heard a voice, and then raised those gloomy and venomous eyes.

"It's you? You  kid..." the blood demon said after seeing Li Tian.

Li Tian ignored him, but walked in front of the blood demon.

"Smelly boy, are you here to humiliate Lao Tzu?" The Gorefiend roared.

"Do you think that I was arrested by you... you are very proud? I tell you, this is the beginning of the demise of your stupid human beings..." the blood demon cried.

Then Li Tian walked in front of the blood demon, suddenly raised his cold eyes, and looked at the blood demon.

"Are you finished?"

"If the call is over, I will start questioning, Gorefiend, listen to me, I will ask you one sentence, and you will answer me one sentence, if you dare not answer? I will break your finger! If you dare not obey, I will break your two fingers. From now on, your life is my Li Tian's." Li Tian said decisively.

When the blood demon heard it, his pupils seemed to burst out in anger.

He looked at Li Tian at that moment and suddenly yelled: "Asshole boy, do you scare Lao Tzu? Do you think my blood demon is afraid of you? There is a kind, come on Lao Tzu, do you see if Lao Tzu is afraid of you?"

Li Tian ignored him and suddenly moved to the side.

I saw an iron table on one side, and the iron table was full of various cold punishment tools.

There are poisonous whips, knives, iron tongs, etc.

After Li Tian walked over, he suddenly found a rusty knife from above.

Li Tian held this knife, then held it in his hand, sneered, and then walked towards the blood demon step by step.

When the Gorefiend saw that Li Tian turned out to be real, his expression instantly changed.

"Asshole boy, what do you want?"

"I tell you, if you dare to move me... Our demons will definitely not let you go. Even if you reach the ends of the world, someone will chase you down." The blood demon yelled hard.

But Li Tian in front of him didn't pay attention to the blood demon at all, only step by step to reach the blood demon, and then slightly stretched out the rusty knife in his hand.

Then he frowned slightly and said, "This knife looks so dull... But I heard that the dull the knife, the more pain you will cut your finger... I don't know if this is true or not, I believe that after I will test it on you, I will know."

Li Tian said to himself.

When the blood demon heard it, he yelled angrily at that moment, cursing Li Tian there.

"Asshole, you bastard... you will definitely die."

However, Li Tian ignored the curse of the blood demon. He just turned his head and looked at the blood demon coldly and said, "Blood demon, now I start to ask you something, you'd better be honest with me. Listen, if not, you will know what happens next."

As Li Tian said so, suddenly he began to question.

"I ask you, who is your saint? What is her name?" Li Tian asked.

It turned out that Li Tian was asking about Situ Ningbing's news.

No wonder he wanted to find this gorefiend alone.

The blood demon was extremely angry and stared at Li Tiandao: "Asshole boy, even if I know, I won't tell you, how about it?"

Li Tianyi heard the blood demon saying this, suddenly angrily said: "You don't say so, are you?"

The words said, the hand holding the rusty blunt knife suddenly grabbed the little finger of the blood demon's right hand...

The blunt blade was placed on the blood demon's finger.

"Say or not? I will ask one last time."

Li Tian's voice was extremely cold and didn't mean to be joking.

There was a slight cold sweat on the Gorefiend's face, but he still gritted his teeth there and roared, "I don't say anything."

Following the gorefiend's exit, Li Tian's hand holding a blunt knife directly cut it down.

what

A miserable cry suddenly came out of the blood demon's mouth.

This blunt knife is extremely rusty, and it is difficult to cut off the blood demon's fingers. Li Tian just cut the blood demon's flesh and bones bit by bit... the blood demon can clearly see himself His skin and flesh were cut open with a knife, and he saw that the bones of his fingers were severed.

pain!

This kind of heart-piercing pain was unbearable even for a big demon like Blood Demon.

Kacha, finally Li Tianzhen cut off the little finger of the blood demon.

A * finger was cut off by Li Tian.

The blood demon was so painful that the whole person was in cold sweat...The whole body was shaking uncontrollably.

The blood flowed out little by little along the broken finger of the blood demon.

"You forced me." Li Tian threw away the blood demon's fingers, and said coldly.

As he finished speaking, Li Tian suddenly placed the rusty blunt knife in his hand on the other finger of the Gorefiend, and then used the other hand to hold down the hand of the Gorefiend.

"Blood Demon, did you answer my question just now?"

The blood demon was so painful that the whole person was trembling. Hearing Li Tian's question, he cursed immediately.

"You bastard, bastard, don't tell me, even if I die, I won't tell you this * kid..." the blood demon cried angrily.

When Li Tian heard this, the blunt knife in his hand cut directly again.

For Situ Ningbing, to get news of his lover, Li Tian now does all cruel things.
So, he cut it again.
