

A Killer 2911

Chapter 2911: Master and beast

Li Tianyi heard that this was just a try, and was depressed at the moment.

But now his whole body is wrapped in the terrifying and huge body of the Azure Dragon, and seeing that the Azure Dragon is getting more and more irritable, the helpless Li Tian can only raise his finger with difficulty at this moment, and then put it in his mouth and bite it hard. , And then blood came out of the fingers.

Immediately afterwards, Li Tian hurriedly pointed his  finger towards the huge head of the fierce beast Qinglong.

Whoosh!

After Li Tian's  fingers were spotted on the huge head of the Qinglong, the Qinglong suddenly let out a loud roar.

Then at the top of the Azure Dragon's head, a blood-red light suddenly rose and disappeared in a flash.

Immediately after that, the Qinglong suddenly became gentle all of a sudden. It was originally tightly entangled with Li Tian's body, and its tail began to slowly stretch out...It unexpectedly no longer entangled Li Tian.

Li Tian was still in shock at the moment.

At this moment, I saw the body of Qinglong slowly leaving his body, and Li Tian's eyes only let out light.

"Success? Did I succeed?"

Just as Li Tianxin thought this way, Shura on the other side already cried out excitedly.

"Acknowledge the lord! The fierce beast Qinglong has already recognized the lord."

"Li Tian, from now on, you will become the first master of this ancient fierce beast." Shura said with surprise in his eyes.

Li Tian was slightly startled, blinking his eyes to look at the fierce beast Qinglong, but saw that the Qinglong was no longer as violent as before, but entrenched his body quietly and stayed quietly, raising those huge eyes. Hitomi was also looking at Li Tian weirdly.

He found that the Qinglong had indeed become a lot more docile.

"Senior, you mean, from now on, I will become the master of this blue dragon, right?" Li Tian said in surprise.

Shura nodded silently and said, "Yes."

"If you don't believe it, you can try to manipulate it..." Shura said.

Li Tiandao: "Control?"

"En." Shura said.

Li Tian: "Can it understand people?" Li Tian was a little skeptical.

Then Shura said, "This ancient fierce beast is extremely spiritual, you might as well try it."

Li Tian then looked at the Qinglong curiously: "Okay, I will try."

After speaking, Li Tian blinked his eyes and looked at the extremely gentle Qinglong beside him, then thought for a moment, and said, "Hey, can you understand me?"

Li Tian faced the ancient beast Qinglong Dao like this.

It's a pity that Qinglong didn't react at all.

Li Tian frowned slightly, and said: Could this thing not understand human language?

The Shura around him and the curious Yin-Yang boy were all blinking their eyes and looking at the huge blue dragon entrenched there. To be honest, no one knew whether this blue dragon would really obey Li Tian's command.

After thinking about it in his mind, Li Tian then said to the Qinglong Road: "Hey, if you can understand me, you can shake your tail for me."

When Li Tian said these words, suddenly the tail of the Qinglong really lifted up, and then it trembled a few times in the air.

"Wag, it really wags its tail..." Li Tianyi saw that the fierce beast actually obeyed him, and when he was wagging its tail, he cried with extreme excitement.

The moment that Shura saw that Qinglong wagged his tail, he also laughed.

The yin and yang boys all giggled.

"so fun!"

"Big brother, you make this Qinglong shake his head..." The little * the side smiled.

Li Tian nodded, and then said to the Qinglong: "You shake your head again!"

After he finished speaking, the fierce beast Azure Dragon really swayed its huge head twice, such a huge ancient animal, now it is wagging its tail and head is really funny.

"It's shaking again... Big brother, this Qinglong really listens to you." The little girl yin girl shook her head again when she saw the beast, she not only giggled there and said.

Li Tian also found it extremely fun.

He never imagined that, by chance, he would have obtained such an ancient beast!

And this fierce beast still listened to his own words.

Just as Li Tian was thinking this way in his heart, the Qinglong's tail suddenly wrapped around Li Tian's body, and then sent it slightly, only to see that Li Tian's body suddenly fell on the vast back of the Qinglong.

Li Tian was taken aback, the whole person had reached the back of that Qinglong.

"What is this Qinglong doing?" Li Tian said secretly.

At this moment, his hands were tightly grasping the scales of the blue dragon's back, and then he was surprised in his heart.

However, he felt that this Qinglong should not harm himself.

Just after he rode on the back of the blue dragon, the blue dragon suddenly soared into the sky, and the entire long and narrow dragon body rose into the air and flew into the air.

In this way, one person and one dragon took off.

Looks extremely domineering.

Li Tian only now knew that this blue dragon was going to drag himself...fly.

Sitting on the back of this Qinglong at the moment, feeling the piercing cold wind in his ears, Li Tian had an indescribable indulgence at that moment.

Riding on the green dragon, Li Tian flew in the air, and he felt like riding the wind and waves.

The yin and yang boy below saw Li Tian sitting on the back of the Qinglong and flying in the air, and the eyes of the two of them now showed joy and envy.

What about Shura at that moment?

A face has become more and more pale and ugly.

Suddenly, Shura's whole body trembled, followed by coughing and coughing, and all of a sudden, he coughed out three mouthfuls of scarlet blood from his mouth.

His injuries are breaking out again!

When the yin and yang boy saw that Shura coughed up so much blood, he was immediately shocked.

"Master...Master..."

"What's wrong with you?" The yin and yang boy quickly ran over to support that Shura, while hurriedly asked.

But seeing that Shura's breath was weak, the whole body was trembling there.

"My body... has drained too much energy! I'm afraid... I'm afraid... I can't hold it..." Shura said in pain.

When the yin and yang boy heard what Shura said, he felt cold at the moment, and then his tears fell, and he said: "No...impossible...impossible! The master will not have an accident! Absolutely not ."

Shura shook his head bitterly, and said in a difficult-to-handle mouth: "First... first help me into the cave!"

The yin and yang boy nodded quickly when he heard Shura say this, and then supported Shura in front of him from left to right, and then slowly assisted Shura into the ghost cave.

When that Shura was helped into the cave by the boy of Yin and Yang, that Li Tian was still flying in the sky.

He was happy at the moment, riding on the blue dragon emptiness, uncomfortable.

Chapter 2912: Heart-breaking

After flying for a while, Li Tian felt that it was almost done, so he patted the scales of the blue dragon lightly with his hand, and said: "Okay, let's go down."

The Qinglong heard Li Tian's words, hissed, and then his whole body rushed directly below.

After a dive, I saw that the blue dragon had steadily swept to the ground.

At this time, Li Tian slid and flew down from the back of the Qinglong.

Looking at the extremely gentle Qinglong, Li Tian lovingly touched the huge head of the Qinglong at this time.

"Since you will follow me in the future, then I have to give you a name..."

"What shall I call you?" Li Tian thought left and right.

Looking at the cyan scale armor of the Qinglong, Li Tian finally thought about it and said, "I'll call you Xiaoqing! Hahaha, Xiaoqing, Xiaoqing, it's quite appropriate."

In this way, Li Tian gave the fierce beast Qinglong in front of him an indecent and very earthy name.

But the Qinglong seemed very happy. At this moment, after hearing Li Tian's words, his tail curled up and Li Tian's body was rolled over.

Li Tian was suddenly amused by the blue dragon.

He now felt more and more that the fierce beast Qinglong in front of him was very funny.

"Xiaoqing, you are such a big guy, why should I take you with you in the future? With your horrible look, no matter where you arrive, I am afraid you will scare people to death." Li Tian is now worried about another problem.

Yes, this blue dragon is so huge, how should Li Tian carry it?

Do you take Qinglong with you every day?

This Nima is too public!

After all, looking at the entire Spirit Earth Continent, who can run back and forth with such an ancient beast?

Just when Li Tian was thinking like this, he suddenly saw the fierce beast Qinglong shaking his head violently, as if disagreeing.

Li Tian looked at the blue dragon swaying the huge dragon head there, and said in surprise: "What's the matter, Xiaoqing?"

That Li Tian had just finished speaking, suddenly the entire body of Qinglong slowly began to become illusory, and then Qinglong turned into a strange wisp of blue smoke, and then shot directly at Li Tian's right arm.

Before Li Tian could fully react, he saw that the Azure Dragon was completely gone.

What about Li Tian?

He just felt a sudden scorching heat in his right arm, and then saw the blue dragon pattern on that arm appear.

It turned out that Qinglong had once again entered Li Tian's right arm.

When Li Tian saw that Qinglong could enter his right arm, his shocked eyes widened.

"Oh my god, it turns out that Xiaoqing is in my arm!!!" Li Tian said in horror.

As Li Tian said this, the blue dragon pattern on his right arm suddenly showed a faint cyan color, and the whole arm began to become hot... It seemed that the blue dragon was responding to Li Tian. Discourse.

The problem that Li Tian was worried about just now disappeared instantly!

Now that the Azure Dragon can stay in his body, of course it is the best!

If you encounter any disaster in the future, let Xiaoqing come out and clean them up... If such a huge ancient beast is summoned by Li Tian, it will definitely shock people to death!

Li Tian thought happily, and suddenly turned his head to the Shura and others in front of him.

"Huh, what about seniors?"

Li Tian looked at the dead bodies of the blood illusionists of the Demon Race on the court, not only frowned and said.

At this moment, I can no longer see that Shura and the Yin-Yang boy.

At this moment, Li Tian glanced around, and then set his eyes on the ghost cave.

The last Li Tian stepped into the Nether Ghost Cave.

After Li Tian entered the ghost cave, he yelled.

"Senior Shura..."

While shouting, Li Tian walked into the cave along the stone.

When I walked to the depths, I suddenly heard a small cry of tears inside.

Li Tian was taken aback, and hurried over. After running over, Li Tian suddenly opened his eyes and saw that the yin and yang boy who was sobbing quietly turned out to be.

When Li Tian saw the yin and yang boy crying with ruddy eyes here, his heart suddenly burst, and then he quickly asked, "What's wrong with you two? Why are you crying?"

But seeing that the yang boy and the yin girl saw Li Tian walking over, they suddenly plunged into Li Tian's arms like a relative.

Then the two children started to cry.

Their voices were extremely sad, and after they fell into Li Tian's arms, Li Tian felt extremely puzzled.

"What's the matter? Tell me, what happened?" Li Tian slowly squatted down, then looked at the two crying children in front of him and asked.

But seeing the yin-yang boy with red eyes, crying at Li Tian with tears streaming down his face:
"We...our master..."

When Li Tian heard this, his brows frowned and he quickly asked, "Senior Shura, what happened to him?"

At this moment, I only heard the little girl in front of her crying and saying, "Master, he...he was seriously injured...now he is locked in a ghost cave by himself!!!"

Li Tianyi was stunned.

amount?

"Why did Senior Shura shut himself in that ghost cave?" Li Tian couldn't help asking.

Na Yangtong said with tears: "The master said that he didn't want us to see his painful appearance."

When Li Tian heard this, his heart felt cold! Dark lining: It seems that Senior Shura really suffered a very serious injury.

That Shura had been severely injured by Old Long before, and there were only three successful powers left in his body, so he repeatedly fought more than 30 blood illusionists of the Demon Race, and then exhausted his true strength to kill the Chaos Double Demon Moro. More... 5 blood disciples in the final battle! All of this has completely drained that Shura's body!

During this period, Na Shura didn't get any chance to breathe. He had been supporting him with the emptiness of his body... Now, his body was completely dry, I really don't know if Senior Shura would be in danger.

Thinking of all this, Li Tian not only became more and more worried for Na Shura.

"Big brother, please... please help us..." Suddenly the little girl in front of her knelt down on the ground in tears, crying and begging Li Tian.

The young boy in front of him knelt down in front of Li Tian with a plop at the moment, and then said with tears: "Yes, big brother, please help our master! Our master can't have an accident... "

Li Tian looked at the two children who were kneeling on the ground and quickly raised his hand to gently support the two of them.

"Fool, get up quickly!"

"I will help you! I promise you that as long as I can help Senior Asura, I will definitely help to the end." Li Tian said seriously.

After hearing what Li Tian said, the yin and yang boy stood up slowly.

"Thank you, big brother." The two children said there together.

Although they stood up, they couldn't help crying and sad.

Looking at them, Li Tiandao said: "You two promised brother, don't cry, okay? Brother now go in and help Senior Asura."

When the yin and yang boy heard Li Tian say this, he nodded there and said, "Well, brother, we listen to you."

As the two children spoke, they raised their arms there and wiped the tears from the corners of their eyes.

Chapter 2913: Hatred and the Temple

After watching the Yin-Yang boy wipe away his tears at this moment, Li Tian gently stroked the little faces of the two of them.

"Wait for me here, I will be out soon."

After speaking, Li Tian walked straight into the ghost cave.

After Li Tian thought about that ghost cave and walked away, the yin and yang boy looked at Li Tian with a clear eye.

I saw that Li Tian soon came to the door of the ghost cave.

At the moment there is a stone gate blocking the door of the ghost cave... Li Tian glanced at the stone gate, and first yelled: "Senior..."

The voice passed in through Shimen, but Shura who stayed in the ghost cave did not answer his words.

Li Tian saw that Shura didn't say a word, so he could only say at this moment: "Senior, the junior is Li Tian, I am coming in."

After speaking, Li Tian suddenly stretched out his palms and pushed slightly on the stone gate.

As Li Tianli burst out, then Li Tian shook the stone gate with both palms.

The moment the stone gate was rumblingly pushed away, Li Tian walked in.

The light inside this ghost cave was dim. After Li Tian walked in and took a look, he found that the saint Shura was sitting in the innermost position.

The moment Li Tian saw that Shura, he quickly walked towards that Shura.

"Senior!" Li Tian shouted after approaching.

What about Shura? Sitting there with his whole body cross-legged, his face was pale and ugly, and he felt extremely tired.

"Why did you come in?" Suddenly, after hearing Li Tian's voice, Shura asked with a faint voice.

At the same time, those eyes opened slowly.

After seeing Shura asking this, Li Tian said: "The junior is worried about the injury of the senior... so I want to come in and help."

"No! No need..." Suddenly said Shura with a weak sigh.

Li Tian was shocked when he heard this.

"Senior, what's the matter? What's going on? Why is it unnecessary?" Li Tian asked in shock.

But seeing a helpless smile rise from the corner of that Shura's mouth: "Because the body of the deity has dried up!"

"what?"

"Senior..." Li Tian exclaimed.

You know, a person's life is limited! If it is used excessively, it will inevitably die, but what about Shura? For the previous battle, he has been forced to use the last trace of his body's strength.

I saw that his face was full of fatigue and weakness, and he looked at Li Tiandao there: "Don't be surprised! Although the deity's body is completely dry, but if you want to die, you can't die."

"It's just..." Shura said, a look of despair suddenly appeared on his face.

After hearing this, Li Tian quickly asked: "It's just what?"

There was a weird flicker in that Shura's eyes, and then he murmured: "It's just... this deity will never be able to recover the previous skill in this life!"

"How could this happen?" Li Tianyi was stunned at the moment.

Shura said that he could no longer restore his previous strength!

You know, on the Spirit Earth Continent, this is a world respected by the strong! If a strong person's strength suddenly drops, it is even more uncomfortable for some people than killing him! And Shura is undoubtedly such a person!

So after hearing what Shura said at this moment, Li Tian realized he was so surprised.

"Senior, I, Li Tianlai, will treat your injury and see if I can help you recover your skills." Li Tianzai said kindly.

But that Shura suddenly shook his head and said, "No...no need to be in vain! No one knows my body better than the deity...I said, my body is completely dead!"

Shura spoke, gasping coughly.

Li Tian looked at the desperate face of Shura at this moment, and he didn't know what to say to comfort him.

I saw that Shura blinked in despair, and then suddenly muttered in his mouth: "Boy, do you know what the deity's greatest wish is in this life?"

Hearing that Shura suddenly said so strangely, Li Tian was taken aback, shook his head there and said, "I don't know."

"I tell you, the deity's biggest wish in this life is to kill the temple and avenge my teacher that day." Shura said, breathing violently.

Especially when it comes to the word temple, his eyes are full of weird excitement.

Li Tian had already heard that Shura had told about the temple, and now he heard that Shura talked about it again. Not only did he stay silent there, he didn't say anything, but then continued to listen to Shura quietly.

I saw that Shura continued to preach there and said: "It's a pity...My only wish is now not fulfilled." When Shura said so, suddenly he laughed bitterly.

The sound was harsh, worse than crying.

"Senior, when is the injustice reported?" Li Tian wanted to console Shura.

But seeing that Shura suddenly red eyes and angrily said: "Nonsense!"

"If your father is killed, can you not avenge this blood?" Shura glared at Li Tiandao.

Li Tianyi did not speak any more!

indeed!

Li Tian has been living for revenge all his life. When he was on earth, he had been pursuing and killing his father and his enemies until he found the evil god! ! !

Therefore, Li Tian understands the power of hatred, and also understands that some hatreds must be reported!

Therefore, Li Tian was silent at this moment.

"The teacher treated me like my own son that day. Now that he has been dead for so many years, it is really hateful and sad that I have not been able to avenge him." Shura said, smiling sadly there.

Li Tian thought for a while and wanted to ask, "Senior, where is the temple?"

Suddenly, Shura showed despair in his eyes, shook his head vigorously and said, "I don't know the deity."

"Huh?" Li Tian was depressed when he heard that Shura said that he didn't know.

Just listen to that Shura then said: "No human being on the Spirit Earth Continent knows the true location of the temple... and no one has ever seen a person in the temple!"

Li Tianyi was speechless when he heard this.

Since no one knows the true location of the temple... and no one has seen the characters in the temple, is the legend of the temple true or false?

Just when Li Tian was puzzled, Shura suddenly said, "Are you wondering whether the temple really exists?"

Li Tian nodded without comment and said, "Yes, I'm very strange."

"Don't be surprised, the temple really exists!"

"Because as long as there is a real and upright No. 1 powerhouse in the world, there will be a divine envoy to pick him up!" Shura said.

Listening to what Shura said, Li Tian became even more depressed.

How could this be?

Why would only the strongest in the world be picked up by the people of the temple? What is the so-called  in the temple?

Chapter 2914: Almighty

"For hundreds of years, there has been no such thing as the No. 1 powerhouse in the world!"

"Since my teacher died that day, the only thing left is the old immortal Rong... It's a pity that this old thing has been reluctant to fight me! Therefore, No. 1 in the world has yet to tell the winner! But this time , The old guy Long finally fought with me! Hehe, it's a pity that I ended up in a disastrous defeat!" Shura sighed in disappointment, while saying in that mouth.

When Li Tian heard it, his doubts were there.

At the moment, he said: "Senior, according to what you said, Mr. Long is now number one in the world!"

"En! I admit...I am not Na Long's opponent." Shura said sullenly there.

Li Tian said again: "Senior, if Long Lao is the number one in the world, then... Then... will the people in the temple find Long Lao?"

After Na Shura was suddenly reminded by that Li Tian, his eyes stared at the road and said: "Yes... Yes!"

"They will find Long! They will find Long soon!!!"

Shura suddenly said.

Then Li Tianyi heard that the people in the temple were looking for Lao Long, and suddenly shouted: "No, Lao Long may be dangerous!"

"Senior, the people in the temple you said are so powerful. If you are looking for Long Lao now, isn't Long Lao extremely dangerous?" Li Tian said worriedly there.

Na Long has always been good to Li Tian! And five times to rescue and Li Tian.

Moreover, if it weren't for Long Lao, then Li Tian wouldn't be able to practice Qi Illusion to such a level! So at this moment when he suddenly heard that Long Lao was in trouble, Li Tian in front of him suddenly became worried.

I saw that Shura was dull, and did not speak directly, but after thinking about it for a long time, he said slightly: "Don't worry, Long's strength is very strong, very strong! Especially his Qi Fantasy Heavenly Art, once Casting it will freeze everything...I believe that even if the guys in the temple find Elder Long, they can't do anything to Elder Long." Shura comforted Li Tiandao there.

After listening, Li Tian said: "However, no one knows how many people will come in the temple...If they bully the few with more, then the old man will still be in danger."

Shura did not speak again this time.

Because he is really not very clear about the temple.

And what about Li Tian?

It is more and more worried about Long Lao.

He was a little afraid that the strong in the temple would look for Na Long.

Just when Li Tian was so worried about the old man, Shura suddenly coughed and coughed violently again, and this time he vomited scarlet blood in his mouth.

His body has become weaker and weaker, and his speech has begun to intermittently.

Li Tian saw that Shura had reached such an appearance, and said in horror: "Senior, let me heal your injuries first... Your injury is really too serious. If you don't treat it in time, I am afraid the consequences will really be true. Unthinkable."

After Li Tian said this, I saw that Shura was shaking his head in pain, "No..."

"The deity is no longer good!"

"The deity only hopes that at the end, you promise me one thing, can you?" Shura suddenly looked at Li Tiandao with those eyes that were extremely painful.

When Li Tian heard this, he was stunned for a moment, and then said, "Senior, you can tell me, as long as it is something I can do, Li Tian will definitely help you!"

"Okay, okay, okay!" That Shura said three "good" words in a row!

After speaking, he became even weaker.

"I just hope... I hope... If something happens to me, you can help me take care of the two children!" Shura suddenly said.

Two kids?

There is no doubt that what Shura said was the yin and yang boy!

When Li Tian heard it, he was surprised and said: "Senior, you won't have an accident! You definitely won't!"

When that Shura heard Li Tian's words so kindly, a helpless, bitter smile appeared on the corner of his mouth.

Then he shook his head painfully and said, "No one knows myself better than me..."

"I just ask you, do you agree? Do you agree to do me this favor?"

Suddenly, Shura's eyes became sharp, as he stared at Li Tian and said.

"Senior..." Li Tian was still hesitating!

Suddenly, Shura furiously said, "Yes or not? I will ask one more last word!!!"

Hearing Shura's roar, the helpless Li Tian nodded and said: "Okay...I promise!!!"

As Li Tian finished saying this, Shura suddenly felt relieved and took a deep breath and said, "Okay! Great!"

"In this life of the deity, the only thing I care about is the two children! Now that I entrust those two children with you, I feel at ease in my heart!"

After speaking, Shura suddenly supported his body with his hands, and then raised his head to look at Li Tiandao: "You...you...come here, I will tell you one last thing!"

Then Li Tian was startled when Shura said so.

What is the last thing this senior will tell himself?

Although Li Tian was extremely curious, he slowly leaned towards that Shura.

"Senior, what's the matter?" Li Tian asked curiously after arriving at Shura's side.

That Shura's voice was weak, and at this moment, he slowly turned his mouth to the side of Li Tian's ear, and suddenly said, "The deity... Finally...give you something."

As soon as the last word was uttered, Shura suddenly changed his whole person. The dying body became full of spiritual power at this moment, and then his hands suddenly grabbed Li Tian's hands, and then A powerful spiritual force suddenly poured into Li Tian's body!

teach! Teach water illusion!

Who could have imagined that Shura would pass on all the water system illusions of his life to Li Tian in front of him at the last moment of his life.

But what about Li Tian?

The whole person hadn't fully reacted yet, at this moment, both palms were suddenly grasped by that Shura, and then a powerful spiritual force poured into his body, Li Tian was shocked immediately.

"Senior...what are you doing?" Li Tian said in shock.

But seeing that Shura's eyes widened with anger, and then the spiritual power of his body, as well as the cultivation base of the water system illusion, all passed into the body of Li Tian.

The breath of the surging water flowed into that Li Tian's body.

Li Tian only felt that there was a breath of water in his body suddenly starting to wander around in his body!

All the water system illusions were passed to Li Tian.

If this water system illusion is really learned by Li Tian last, then Li Tian will be the last miracle in the Spirit Earth Continent for thousands of years, and he will become an almighty powerhouse!

Wind, fire, thunder and lightning, air, water!

The five illusions have all been mastered by Li Tian alone!

Chapter 2915: Fallen!

That Li Tian never expected that Shura would pass on the water system illusion in his body to himself!

I was shocked right now. .

"Senior... you do this... you will hurt yourself!" Li Tian exclaimed in shock.

But that Shura suddenly said: "The body of the deity has dried up, what's the use of keeping it? It's better to give you all of your life skills."

After speaking, Na Shura began to transfer all the spiritual power in the body to Li Tian.

That Li Tian only felt that his body was continuously absorbing the spiritual power from that Shura's body!

The whole abdomen is getting more and more hot...

The breath of this foreign water and Li Tian's own spiritual power suddenly began to collide, and then slowly merged! ! !

Li Tian only felt the blood in his whole body boiling, and what about Shura? The body is losing the spiritual power within the body bit by bit.

So, after a long time.

Suddenly, there was a loud bang, and Li Tian was input with vast spiritual power, and his whole person suddenly flew like a metamorphosis!

And what about Shura? It was shocked by the powerful shock to fly back, and then hit the extremely hard rock wall with a bang.

What about Li Tian who was flying up? A weird light suddenly filled his body.

There are five in total.

Wind, fire, thunder and lightning, water, gas!

All of these five illusions began to wander within Li Tian's body. Li Tian only felt that his body's blood was boiling violently, and the power of heaven and earth that filled his whole body had completely made him seem unable to bear it.

what!

With a scream, Li Tian burst out loudly.

The rolling sound shook the sky...Even the stone walls in the ghost cave were shaken to the ground, and huge stones fell.

Li Tian's strength has now been qualitatively improved! No one can guess how strong Li Tian should be after receiving the five illusions! The only thing I know is that Li Tian has changed, whether it is from the eyes or the breath of the whole body can clearly feel it.

he's changed! Has been completely transformed.

And what about Shura?

The whole person fell on the stone wall, his body panting violently, and a pair of fading eyes showed endless weakness at this moment.

Then for some reason, at this moment, Shura's head full of hair all began to turn white, and wrinkles suddenly appeared on the face that was originally like a Buddha...It seems that at this moment, the saint Jun Xiuluo suddenly seemed to be several hundred years old.

He fell there, his weak eyes open... a very weak breath was breathing in his mouth.

But that Li Tian, after a long time, suddenly fell to the ground.

He then hurriedly went to see Shura, so that Shura's entire hair became gray, and wrinkles suddenly appeared on his face. At that moment, Li Tian was shocked.

"Senior...your face?" Li Tian exclaimed suddenly there.

Then ran to that Shura.

But I saw that Shura seemed to have no strength, and he gasped there and said: "The deity is exhausted and dried up..."

When Li Tian heard this, there was a sudden pain in his heart!

"Senior, why are you doing this? Why do you treat me like this, Li Tian, you taught me your lifelong skills, yourself...what do you do?" Li Tian said in pain.

Li Tian knew that once that Shura's skill dissipated, his own body would begin to age, and his whole person would be like a withered tree, and then slowly began to wither.

After Li Tian finished speaking, he saw that Shura raised the wrinkled and skinny hand with difficulty and swayed gently there.

"The deity... the deity... has already said... I have nothing to ask for!"

"The only thing is that I want you to take good care of those two children for me!" Shura said weakly with arrogance.

Li Tian heard what Shura said, and nodded there: "Senior, don't worry, Li Tian will definitely take care of them both in my lifetime."

"Well, that's good...that's good..." Shura smiled weakly there.

"Now you have learned the five illusions on the Spirit Earth Continent, and you have reached the realm of the integration of the five ways! If you can practice these five illusions and combine them into one, then you will become the No. 1!" That Shuro silently faced Li Tiandao.

Li Tian nodded silently.

"The deity is dying... the last thing... please call in those two children!!! The deity wants to take a look at them one last time."

Suddenly, Shura said in that painful way.

When Li Tian heard that Shura said that, his heart was cut like a knife at that moment, and his eyes became slightly ruddy.

Although Li Tian was reluctant to bear the Asura Sage in front of him, but now there is no other way. He can only look at that Asura with a heartache, and said: "Okay! I will call them now."

After speaking, Li Tian then turned around in pain, and then went to call that Yin Yang boy.

Outside the ghost cave, the yin and yang boy was waiting there with red eyes.

At this moment, seeing Li Tian suddenly come out, the two children ran over quickly.

They all hurriedly asked Li Tian in front of them: "Big brother, how is the master? Have you cured our master?"

Listening to the immature voice of the yin and yang boy, Li Tian's heart suddenly choked up!

He didn't know how to answer the two children in front of him.

Looking at their beautiful eyes, Li Tian said in pain, "I'm sorry..."

When the yin and yang boy heard it, tears suddenly fell.

Suddenly, endless sadness appeared on the two small faces.

"How could this be? How could this be?"

The little girl yin girl cried out, and the yang boy burst into tears.

Li Tian looked at the two of them with a heartbroken look, and then said, "Senior Shura... let you... go in and see him at last." Li Tian endured the heartache and said to the Yin-Yang boy.

After the yin and yang boy heard Li Tian say this, he nodded silently, and then the two of them held hands and walked into the ghost cave step by step with tears.

Li Tian looked at their backs. At that moment, his heart was cut, but he didn't know what to do.

He just stood there blankly...

The yin and yang boy had already walked into the ghost cave at this moment.

There was a strong sadness from the quiet ghost cave. Li Tian did not enter the ghost cave again, but waited outside.

Time went by every minute, and every second made Li Tian feel that it had never been so long...

Suddenly, a heart-piercing cry came from the ghost cave.

"the host....."

The voice came from the mouth of the yin and yang boy.

Li Tian suddenly felt a pain in his heart when he heard the heart-piercing sound, and ran in quickly.

Chapter 2916: Military

But he said that after Li Tianfei rushed into the ghost cave, he saw the yin and yang boy holding the motionless Shura and crying.

Look carefully at that holy monarch Shura, it turns out that Shura at that moment has passed away.

His body was sitting cross-legged motionless like a Buddha, his eyes closed tightly, and his whole body had become cold and numb at this moment.

At the moment when Li Tian saw that life Shura passed away like this, he suddenly felt a pain in his heart, and a feeling of grief emerged spontaneously.

"Master...Master...Don't leave us!"

"the host!"

Inside the ghost cave, the yin and yang boy cried pitifully.

It is a pity that people cannot come back to life after death.

Shura has left this world.

After a long time, I saw Li Tian sitting side by side with the Yin-Yang boy in the Nether Ghost Cave.

There was endless sadness and pain on their faces.

After experiencing that Shura's death, each of them felt bad, sitting there at the moment.

"Big brother, the master has passed away, we will follow you from now on, right?" Suddenly at this moment, the yin girl suddenly blinked her beautiful eyes with tears and said pitifully at that Li Tiandao.

Li Tian looked at the yin girl's little rainy face, walked over gently, then put her petite body in his arms, and comforted: "Yes! You will follow my brother from now on."

"Big brother, where are you going to take the two of us?" The Yang Tong on the other side suddenly blinked and looked at Li Tiandao with his kind eyes.

Li Tian was suddenly shocked when asked by that young boy.

Yes?

Where do you go next?

Situ Ningbing's memory has not been completely restored. Now even if she finds Ningbing, she won't follow her, what should I do?

Li Tian thought about it for a long, long time, raised the contradictory eyes, looked at the distant place, and muttered: "Actually, I don't even know it."

After speaking, the yin and yang boy was not only slightly startled.

I saw that Li Tian suddenly turned his face, and smiled at the Yin-Yang boy in front of him and said: "However, don't worry! My brother will always take you two with you, and then show you all the mountains and rivers in the world."

After the yin and yang boy heard Li Tian say this, a rare smile appeared on his face.

Then the two children, like relatives, hugged Li Tian's arms tightly on the left and right.

The setting sun shot through the hole in the Nether Ghost Cave, shone on the three of them, forming a long and beautiful picture.

at last.

Li Tian was about to leave with the yin and yang boy.

Shura is dead, so they have nothing else to do in this ghost cave.

Li Tian led the yin-yang boy out of the ghost cave in front of him.

The yin and yang boy stood in front of the gate of the ghost cave, and at that moment, their eyes became red again.

Then the yin girl took the weak yang boy next to him and said: "Brother, let's say goodbye to the master."

The yangtong nodded, and at this moment, the yin girl and yangtong gently knelt on the ground!

The two children had ruddy eyes, and then they banged their heads at the place of the ghost cave together before they stood up.

Li Tian on the other side, watching them kowtow on the ground, felt a sense of sorrow and sorrow in his heart.

After the yin and yang boy kowtowed his head, they slowly stood up, and then reluctantly looked at the ghost cave...

"Let's go!"

"If there is a chance in the future, we will come back to see Senior Shura." Li Tian said to the yin and yang boy.

The yin and yang boy nodded reluctantly, and then they pulled Li Tian's arm from left to right, and then followed Li Tian forward.

As the sun sets, Li Tian leads the Yin-Yang boy step by step towards the north.

...

Demon, imperial city.

The Demon Sovereign who had experienced a battle with that Shura, this time was obviously also greatly injured.

After all, the more than 30 powerful blood illusionists he brought, as well as masters of the demon level like Morodo, were all ruined in the Nether Ghost Cave.

All in one battle!

And also damaged a terrible blood man!

"Asshole, asshole, how could this be? Who can tell me, what kind of weird thing is the blue dragon summoned by that * human boy?"

In the hall of the imperial city, I saw the extremely angry Demon Emperor roaring in the hall.

In the hall of the Demon Race, there are all the pillars of the Demon Race. There are also a few black-robed elders who are similar to offering sacrifices to the Great Master. Say.

"This time, we lost 32 masters and one blood disciple!!! But we didn't even kill the * Shura... and the human boy, what do you think the emperor should do?"

The Demon Emperor continued to growl.

In that hall, everyone bowed their heads, as if they couldn't take any good attention.

"Speak, you trash...If you don't pay attention, I will let you all die." The Demon Sovereign shouted violently.

In the entire hall, an invisible breath of terror suddenly appeared.

I saw a pale-faced black-robed old man hurriedly walked out and said: "Return to the Demon Emperor, his subordinates thought... they should send an army to encircle and suppress!"

"Although the human kid's illusion technique is powerful, he has only one power after all. With the 100,000 army of our demons, he can't be killed if he doesn't believe it." The old man said in there.

Upon hearing this, the Demon King said angrily: "You fart!"

"In order to deal with a human kid, does the emperor really use a hundred thousand army? Do you * think that there is something wrong with the emperor?" the devil yelled angrily.

After the demon emperor's roar, the old man in black robed hurriedly in the cold sweat, and then knelt to the ground with a plop.

"The subordinate... is wrong... the subordinate is wrong..."

The Demon Sovereign didn't bother to pay attention to him, turned his head, and continued to ask: "Who, who still pays attention?"

After the Demon Sovereign asked again, everyone in the hall didn't dare to say anything anymore, all of them lowered their heads and necked their necks, not even daring to let out one of them.

"Trash, all * trash!" When the Demon Sovereign saw that no one could pay attention, not only angrily howled.

At this moment, a voice suddenly came from outside the hall.

"Report..." A loud voice came in from outside.

Under normal circumstances, this kind of voice is only in the event of an emergency military situation, will someone dare to trespass into the Demon Race Conference Hall!

However, after hearing this voice, the Demon King suddenly frowned, and said inwardly: "Could there be a major military situation?"

Everyone present not only slightly raised their heads at this moment.

Chapter 2917: Sea of death

After the voice came in, the Demon Sovereign said with a cold face, "Come in!"

After the Demon Sovereign's voice uttered, a Demon soldier in full armor quickly walked in.

This man is a burly figure and armor, looking vigorous and brave.

After entering the discussion hall, he knelt down with a plop.

"Enlighten the Demon King, suspicious military affairs have occurred in the Sea of Death!" The burly soldier immediately reported there after kneeling.

The sea of death?

When the Demon King heard it, his brows frowned.

The Sea of Death, in the northern hill of the demon race, is known as the terrifying ghost realm on the Spirit Earth Continent! Wherever there are thousands of miles away, a piece of dryness, no one has really reached the place farther north of the sea of death...Whether it is a human or a demon, everyone knows that the sea of death is an endless sea of dryness! Where is the most mysterious wasteland on the Spirit Earth Continent... and also the most famous fierce land. No one who enters can survive and return, because the sea of death has no end.

But he said that when the Demon Emperor suddenly heard that the "Sea of Death" had a suspicious military situation, the whole person was stunned.

"What? The Sea of Death?" The Demon Emperor asked in disbelief.

But the soldier in armor said, "Yes!"

"What's wrong there?" The Demon Emperor asked quickly.

The soldier of the Demon Race then replied: "While his subordinates were taking people to patrol the Sea of Death, they suddenly saw a mysterious black ship docked in the middle of the Sea of Death! Extremely, the subordinates have never seen it before."

When the Demon King heard this, he suddenly screamed angrily: "Nonsense! The sea of death is so dry, there can be no living people there...how can there be a huge black ship?"

The soldier who was kneeling on the ground saw the Demon Emperor's face full of disbelief, and said quickly: "What the subordinates said is true! And we still have someone watching that weird and mysterious black ship."

When the Demon King heard this, his entire face became extremely weird.

He murmured there and said: "How is it possible? How could a weird black ship suddenly appear in the Sea of Death? This is not realistic!"

You must know that the demons themselves are in this northern region. For thousands of years, they have never seen a ship appearing in the sea of death...a living person...not even a living bird or beast. ...And now, the people under this subordinate actually said that they saw a black mysterious ship docked on the sea of death.

Is this true?

The Demon Emperor stared at the soldier who was kneeling in the hall while staring at that dark lining.

"Are you sure you read it right?"

"If you lied about your military situation, be careful of your own emperor destroying your nine clans." The Demon Emperor said angrily.

The soldier in armor shivered all over, and then quickly said: "Your subordinates are true... never dare to lie!

When the Demon King saw that the soldier dared to use the life of the Nine Clan to guarantee his words, he was slightly startled: Could it be that strange things really happened in the Sea of Death?

The demon emperor who thought about it said there, "Okay! This emperor will trust you once."

"Starting, the emperor will personally go to the Sea of Death to see the situation!"

After the Demon Sovereign said so, the people hurriedly said, "Yes!"

Then the Demon King was going to personally go to the Sea of Death to check the situation.

He wanted to see if what the subordinate said was true?

For thousands of years, there has never been a sea of death for living creatures. Could it be that this time there really is a black ship of unknown origin and extremely strange?

In the end, under the order of the Demon Emperor, he was going to take people to the sea of death to see the situation.

As soon as the Demon King came out, the team followed up.

The mighty army, along the barren sand dunes in the north, began to march towards the sea of death.

The Sea of Death is in the northernmost part of the North, where the temperature is extremely cold... It is said that the cold temperature can be as low as minus tens of degrees Celsius. After night, the sudden drop in temperature is even more unimaginable... Horrible records, there are also horses and living people being frozen to death along the way.

Therefore, the army led by the Demon Sovereign was all wearing animal skins to keep warm.

Even the horses that were ridden had cold-proof equipment on their hoofs.

"The army is marching! To the Sea of Death." Under the orders of the Demon Emperor, the mighty army began to set off.

From here to the edge of the sea of death, it is estimated that it will take one morning.

Rao is non-stop, and it takes half a day.

At this moment, I saw the mighty army, just like that began to pull toward the sea of death.

The north wind is whistling!

The cold temperature made the soldiers in armor... all shiver... Some soldiers had their legs numb... but they had to go.

The only better ones are those half-orcs with a Kong Wu figure!

Half-orcs are naturally more capable of resisting severe cold, so they just wrapped a thick furry animal skin, and then quickly moved forward.

The farther you go, the colder the temperature.

Many Demon soldiers are too cold to walk!

"Kill all the waste that can't be moved!" The Demon Emperor saw that many soldiers were unable to follow up because of the severe cold, so he could only give this vicious order!

So many of the soldiers who could not walk were killed alive on the road, leaving behind a poor body.

go!

Continue to march towards the sea of death.

Along the way, at least a quarter of the soldiers were frozen to death.

Even the horses froze to death.

In the endless sky of haze, the Demon Emperor finally came to the Sea of Death with difficulty with his team.

The roaring north wind blew like a knife on the faces of the demon soldiers... it made their faces fierce and painful.

"Here, here, there is the Sea of Death ahead." The leader yelled in front.

The Demon Sovereign looked through the huge sedan curtains, and then glanced at the scenery outside, and saw the cold wind roaring outside the window, and the haze was so extreme that it was so cold that neither humans nor animals could approach the cruel environment. Here!

"Damn it, are there really mysterious ships in these ghost places?" The Devil Emperor became less and less convinced.

The army continued to approach the sea of death.

Finally, they arrived.

A few hundred meters in front, the vast black river is the sea of death, without borders, without eyesight, only a black sea area connecting the sky and the earth.

The Sea of Death, the most heretical place of existence on the Spirit Earth Continent, where the sea water is black, and it is said that there are poisons in the sea water... You cannot drink it! There are no creatures in the Dead Sea...

Chapter 2918: Go to sea

"Where is the * mysterious ship?"

Suddenly the Demon Emperor in front of him furiously said in the sedan chair.

He now doesn't believe the soldier's words less and less, because it is impossible for a living person to exist in this sea of death.

No matter who it is, who can stay in the cold temperature of this sea of death will be frozen alive and freeze to death.

At this moment, the soldier hurriedly replied in the cold wind outside the sedan chair, "Return to the Demon Emperor, just ahead...just ahead...our people have guarded the weird black ship in front from beginning to end. "

After the demon emperor heard this, he snorted and said dubiously: "Okay, take this emperor! The emperor wants to see the mysterious ship in your mouth!"

After speaking, he immediately continued to lead the people to the front.

The brigade horses continued to advance in the cold wind, and soon they really reached the place in front.

"We are in front of you!"

The soldier was wrapped in a mink coat and spoke in a trembling voice in the cold wind.

After the brigade soldiers heard him say this, they all walked forward at this moment. When they got to the front, suddenly the people in front of them screamed.

As soon as the people in front screamed out, the Demon Emperor sitting in the sedan chair over there was taken aback, opened the sedan curtain, and then asked in a cold voice, "What's wrong?"

Just listen to the people in front rushing over, and replied there, "Return to the Demon King, we found our frozen people in front!"

"What? Frozen person?" The Demon Emperor said in shock.

The soldiers outside said, "Yes, those who are frozen are the soldiers guarding the mysterious ship."

Upon hearing this, the Demon Sovereign opened the sedan curtain directly, and then walked out of the sedan chair.

The endless cold wind was blowing there.

The Demon Sovereign couldn't open his eyes because of the piercing cold wind. At this moment, he held the piercing wind slightly with his hand, and then said, "Take me to see!"

Following the demon emperor's order, the men and horses in front hurried to clear the way, and soon they took the demon emperor to the front place.

I saw in a recessed corner where 67 Demon soldiers wearing armors were frozen to death alive.

Their whole bodies were frozen stiffly, and a thick layer of ice formed on everyone's face. At this moment, they were curled up there, where they were poorly frozen to death.

The Demon Sovereign frowned deeply at the moment when he saw his soldiers freezing to death here.

"Could it be true?"

"In this extremely low cold temperature, is there really a mysterious black ship?" The Demon Sovereign thought there.

Just when the Demon Emperor was surprised, a cry of exclamation came from the icy cold wind.

"what!!!"

Then there was another exclamation: "Then...what is that?"

At this moment, I saw a demon blood illusionist wearing a black robe, with unbelievable eyes widening there, looking at the distant sea level at this moment.

There is the sea of death!

The most vicious place in the legendary Spirit Earth Continent is also the strangest place.

At this moment, the Demon Sovereign heard an exclamation, and quickly turned around. Through the howling cold wind, he suddenly saw a huge black ship docked on the foggy sea of death. .

That ship is unique on the Spirit Earth Continent, and its size can be said to surpass any warship of the Demon Race.

Moreover, the ship is completely dark, because the distance is too far, and the sea of death is surrounded by mist, no one can see the true appearance of the mysterious ship.

ghost!

Like a ghost ship.

"There really is a ship!!!" The demons masters around them not only exclaimed one by one when they opened their eyes and saw the weird ghost ship.

The Demon Sovereign's eyes widened at the moment, staring at the ghost ship on the sea of death unblinkingly.

For some reason, when the Demon Sovereign saw the ghost ship, a slight fear appeared all over his body! It seemed that the ghost ship had the meaning of inviolability.

"how is this possible?"

"There really is such a strange ghost ship appearing on the Sea of Death? My God, it's beyond my expectation." The Demon Sovereign said in shock.

The bitter cold wind is still blowing there! The temperature is getting lower and lower.

The brigade of army horses stood on the shore of the sea of death, and everyone was trembling.

Even those high-powered demonic blood illusionists could not withstand such severe cold, and at this moment everyone was trembling in the icy temperature that fell sharply.

"Devil Emperor, what should we do?" Just listen to a black-robed old man wearing purple and black animal skins asking.

His beard was covered with ice crystals, and the gas he vomited quickly turned into white frost.

The demon emperor raised his cold eyes, looking at the weird ghost ship docked on the sea of death, and suddenly muttered: "This emperor doesn't believe in strange things all his life! I was lucky to see it today, so this emperor Be prepared to see it clearly."

"Come here, prepare the ship, let's go see the ghost ship!" The Demon Emperor suddenly issued an order in the cold wind.

After the Demon Sovereign's utterance, the men around him were all astonished.

what?

Are you really going to see that ghost ship?

But the sea of death is a restricted area! Who will die!

At this moment, the demons all showed horrified expressions on their faces.

The demon emperor saw that his men did not move, and immediately said angrily: "Asshole, haven't you heard what the emperor said? Go to the sea!"

At the moment when the Demon Sovereign spoke, all the soldiers nodded quickly.

"Prepare the ship, let's go to sea!"

As the order was issued, the poor soldiers in the cold wind began to pull the small combat ships that were prepared in advance, and then one by one toward the sea of death.

The waves of the sea were undulating and surging.

The dead black water made people feel shuddering.

After the small combat ships were dragged down the black waters of the Dead Sea one by one, the magician of the demons and soldiers were all boarded on the ships.

There are 6 ships in total, and each ship can only carry about 10 people.

The Demon Sovereign picked all the masters of the Demon Race. Most of them were powerful blood illusionists who landed on the ship. After all, the Demon Emperor was still a little afraid of the ghost ship anchored in the middle of the Dead Sea!

"Devil Emperor, do you want to bring these?"

Suddenly, only the Demon soldiers over there yelled in the cold wind.

I saw four black coffins beside them. There is no doubt that inside these four coffins is the most terrifying: blood man.

Chapter 2919: Lone Boat, White Shirt Man

After the surrounding demon soldiers reminded the demon emperor, the demon emperor turned his head slightly, then first looked at the four black coffins with "blood men", and then looked at the park that was parked in the middle of the sea of death. The ghost ship that is moving.

The Demon Sovereign made a secret, and finally decided to say: "Open the coffin and bring blood!"

The Demon Sovereign really wants to bring the blood disciples!

After all, with this terrifying blood disciple by the Demon Emperor's side, the Demon Emperor was not afraid at all.

After the Demon Emperor gave the order, the soldiers of the Demon Race began to open the black coffins one by one.

After the four black coffins were all opened, all four blood disciples appeared in everyone's eyes.

The evil blood suddenly filled the air, and the four weird blood disciples stepped out of the coffin step by step. With each step, the sand on the ground turned into scorched dust, as if it had been burned.

4!

Now there are only 4 blood disciples left.

Because there was another blood disciple who had been swallowed alive by the ancient beast "Blue Dragon" summoned by Li Tian.

After the four blood disciples came out, the Demon King said: "Take them all on board."

Immediately after that, the four blood disciples were like machines, walking towards one of the empty ships step by step.

Others, no one dared to go with these bloodies.

After all the masters of the demons and the 4 blood disciples got on the ship, and then under the command of the Demon Emperor, the 6 battle ships began to sail towards the "ghost ship" in the mist .

The rough sea of death is surging!

The cold wind was raging and howling, and the demon boat was slowly moving forward against the wind and waves.

Fortunately, the bitter cold wind was blowing right to the north. In this case, their ship would be more downwind... Riding the wind and waves, they began to drive towards the "ghost ship".

The ghost ship was moored in the middle of the sea of death, foggy... I don't know why, the demon ship has been traveling for a long time, but it is still impossible to see the true appearance of the "ghost ship".

Only through the faint thick fog can see where the ship is anchored.

"Devil Emperor, the subordinate feels something is wrong!" Suddenly the black robe old man standing next to the Demon Emperor suddenly said there.

The black-robed old man looked at the misty ghost ship in the distance and quickly said.

When the Demon King heard it, he asked, "What's wrong?"

"Look at the devil king, that ghost ship seems to be moving. Our ship has been walking for so long... but it still looks exactly like it is on the shore, isn't it strange?" The black robe old man said in the cold wind.

It turned out that the Demon Sovereign and their ships had been traveling for a long time, but the ghost ship still couldn't be seen clearly, as if no matter how they walked, they couldn't reach the ghost ship.

At this moment, the Demon Sovereign was stunned when he saw this strange situation.

"Yes, you are right!"

"We have been driving for so long, but still can't see the ghost ship clearly. It's really weird." The Demon Sovereign in front of him can feel it now.

The Demon Sovereign frowned while pondering, while looking at the ghost ship on the sea of death.

Suddenly he shouted to the Demon Blood Illusionist on a ship over there, "Shoot the signal flare! The emperor wants to see the true appearance of that weird ship with his own eyes."

After the demon emperor gave the order, the blood illusionist of the demon clan began to release flare.

puff!

There was a crisp sound, and suddenly a bunch of flares similar to fireworks flew directly towards the ghost ship. The moment it rose into the air, the flares spread out all of a sudden.

The entire foggy surface of the Dead Sea was suddenly illuminated by light.

Immediately after the Devil Emperor, they saw a huge ship anchored in the middle of the sea of death, with a huge sail waving in the wind, the flag was black, and there seemed to be this white lettering on it. As for What word can't be seen clearly.

All you can see is that the ship is very strange, with four edges and corners, which are different from the previous ships, and all of them are carved from black iron plates and bricks and woods, magnificent and huge.

Looking at the entire Lingtu Continent, I am afraid that neither humans nor the demon race can find such a huge ship.

"That...that...what kind of ship is that?"

"So huge... so weird?" All the magicians of the Demon Race saw the ghost ship at this moment, and not only everyone exclaimed there.

Even the Demon Sovereign at this moment was slightly shocked, to be honest, he didn't know.

"No matter where it came from, today we have to go and see the truth!"

"Set sail, go forward with all your strength." The Demon Emperor said with a cold face at the moment.

After the Demon Sovereign gave the order, the 6 ships continued to ride the wind and waves, and began to sail towards the weird ghost ship.

Get closer!

The dense fog on the surface of the Sea of Death became more and more clear.

As all the ships of the Demon Race approached the ghost ship little by little, a deafening voice suddenly came from the foggy sea.

That voice is so powerful, unprecedented!

The strength of the penetration is even more terrifying, coming from the deep thick fog.

"Strangers, please stop your boat!"

A cold voice suddenly came from the thick fog in front.

When this voice reached the ears of the Demon Emperor and other blood illusionists, it suddenly made their hearts feel for a while, and the blood in their whole body shook.

What a strong energy!

What a terrible voice!

The Demon Sovereign and all of them stared at the depths of the illusory thick fog with wide eyes.

"Who?"

"Who is talking here?" The Demon Sovereign was shocked in the cold wind.

Just as he yelled out, suddenly only a leaf of the boat appeared out of the fog.

I saw a young man in white shirt standing motionless on the lone boat, facing the cold wind.

That lonely boat seemed to float over from the direction of the ghost ship!

Could it be that someone came on the ghost ship?

Look carefully at the young man in the white shirt on the lone boat. The young man in the white shirt has dark and thick hair, unparalleled light in his eyes, and his whole face is handsome and pale, standing there slightly.

A white robe, clean as paper!

At this moment, with his hands on his back, standing on the lone boat slightly, lifting the pair of brilliant pupils, looking at the Demon Emperor and their boat team in front of them with cold faces!

Someone!

There are people!

Who can imagine that in such a dry sea, there really are human beings.

When the Demon Sovereign saw such a weird person and floated towards them on such a lonely boat, the whole person was suddenly shocked!

The demon masters around him were all stunned, staring at the young man in white shirt on the lonely boat.

Chapter 2920: One word "kill"

Lone boat, white shirt, youth.

A weird picture was formed.

Such a weird person appeared from the misty sea of death, making the Demon Sovereign and the others all shocked.

The Demon Sovereign and other masters of the Demon Race, all staring at the white shirt youth on the lonely boat, suddenly the Demon Sovereign said: "Who are you?"

"How can you be on this sea of death?"

The white-shirted youth had a cold face and smiled unswervingly, and suddenly said coldly, "Something's wrong!"

"What's the matter?" The Demon Emperor continued to ask.

The white mountain youth said: "You shouldn't ask, don't ask."

The moment the cold words were uttered from the white shirt youth's mouth, the Demon Emperor's face trembled slightly. This was the first time someone dared to speak in front of him and contradict him in this way.

Just when the Demon King was extremely annoyed, suddenly the Baishan youth continued to say coldly: "The dry sea is very dangerous, you and the strangers should retreat quickly!"

The moment the cold and frosty words came out of the white shirt youth's mouth, the Devil Emperor was furious for an instant.

"Asshole, who are you, dare to talk to the emperor like this?" the Demon Emperor roared.

The white mountain youth suddenly turned his head, and two dazzling beams of light suddenly shot out from the white shirt youth's eyes, as if two knives had pierced deeply into the heart of the demon king.

Then the white-shirted man seemed unwilling to argue with the Demon Sovereign too much, suddenly turned around and said in the cold wind: "Listen to me, it's better to go back quickly!"

After speaking, suddenly the white-shirted man was riding on the lone boat, and suddenly prepared to leave.

At this moment, the Demon Sovereign could not tolerate it.

"You damned person, dare to speak like this? Are you afraid that I will kill you?"

The Demon King was extremely angry, but what about the mysterious white-shirted man?

But it seemed that I didn't even hear it, but the whole person continued to ride the lone boat slowly towards the thick fog in front.

At this moment, the Demon Emperor couldn't help it.

His royal authority has been challenged? How can he not be angry?

Seeing that he was about to get angry, the black-robed old man beside him hurriedly reminded the Demon Sovereign: "Devil Sovereign, this person is extremely weird, and the subordinates think that we should not provoke him."

"Why?" the Demon Emperor roared.

The black-robed old man looked at the mysterious white-shirted man who was about to leave with weird eyes, and said: "Please look at the devil, this man is wearing a thin shirt in this extremely cold place. It is obvious that he has Powerful skill protection! Moreover, this person is surrounded by terrible infuriating energy. If his subordinates don't guess wrong, his strength should not be underestimated!"

The black-robed old man has undoubtedly seen that the mysterious young man in white shirt is definitely not a simple one!

Because in this extremely cold polar region, the white-shirted man really wears a thin gown, and there is no coldness in his whole body!

You know, all the high-strength illusionists on the Demon Sovereign's side, everyone is wrapped in thick animal skins at this moment, but everyone is still shaking by the biting cold...

The Demon Sovereign heard the black-robed old man under him say so, the corner of his eyes twitched slightly.

In fact, he had already noticed it, and he had also noticed that the man in white shirt was definitely not waiting for a while!

But he is the emperor of the demons after all!

Could it be that today, will he really be scared by the words of the white shirt man and lead his army to retreat?

If this matter spreads to the people of the Demon Race, where is the majesty of the Demon Emperor?

The Demon Sovereign thought so, and suddenly he started to feel a little confused.

He stared at his fierce pupils and looked at the mysterious white-shirted man who was gradually going away on a lonely boat. Suddenly at that moment, he showed a vicious look.

"No! Today, the emperor must take this person! If not, how can the emperor lead the world in the future?"

After the Devil Sovereign said such a sentence, he suddenly shouted angrily: "Don't run away, you must die today!"

"Come on, kill this person!"

Under the demon emperor's order, the demon illusionists on the ship could only take their orders.

At this moment, the blood illusionists of the Demon Race on the ship on both sides of the forefront suddenly stretched their bodies, and then their silhouettes rose into the air from the ship, and then flew directly towards the lone ship that was drifting away.

They want to catch the mysterious man in white shirt!

What about the man in white shirt who is gradually walking away in a lonely boat? At the moment when he heard the sound of the strong wind behind him, a chill suddenly appeared on his cold and icy face, and then he suddenly murmured a few words: "It's no wonder that God wants you to die here. I!"

After speaking, the white-shirted youth did not even turn his head back. At the moment when the 45 highly skilled demons changed their hands, they all rushed forward. Suddenly, the white-shirted youth gently lifted his hands and then surrounded himself. A light curtain-shaped energy circle suddenly formed, and then his hands shook slightly, and the light curtain suddenly exploded in all directions.

boom!

The world is thundering!

The terrible energy exploded. The 45 poor demon blood illusionists hadn't seen what the situation was. Then they were shocked by the terrible light curtain to bleed seven holes, and then their bodies plopped. Into the rough sea.

The body was completely swallowed by the black water.

No dead body!

The terrible energy not only shook all those Demon Blood Illusionists who rushed over! And it shook the sea turbulent...

Suddenly a huge wave rose, swallowing turbulently towards the small boats of the Demon Race!

With a bang, two unsuspecting demon boats were directly overturned by the huge wave...The demon masters on board all fell into the billowing black water.

Ahhhhh!

"Save me...Save me..."

There was a terrible scream, screaming from the poor illusionists.

They were swallowed in the sea, and the icy water quickly numbed them all. In a flash, everyone was swallowed into the endless sea of death.

In this instant, the Demon Sovereign had already lost two warships and dozens of masters of the Demon Race.

Such a terrible situation completely exceeded the imagination of the Demon Emperor.

"How could this happen? How could this happen?" The Demon Sovereign was surprised at that moment.

The warship under his feet was constantly undulating with the turbulent waves, and even the Demon Emperor himself almost fell into the sea at this moment.

"Kill him! Kill him for me!"

The Demon Sovereign has lost his nature, he has completely lost his mind.

The roar of anger came from his mouth.

Although the demon illusionists who led the orders were all scared, they could only bite the bullet at this moment.

Seeing that the waves are overwhelming and the ship is about to be swallowed by the sea, they can only make a desperate move now.

kill!

More than a dozen masters of the demons all flew up, and then used the blood illusion in an instant.

The entire sky suddenly became bloody...

Blood arrows, blood sand burials, and different blood marks, all flew towards the white shirt man standing on the lone boat.
