Chapter 3: Mystery visitor

She, she is not like an ordinary person, how can an ordinary woman have so much strength? She looked like she was only in her 20s, and she was slender, how could she have so much strength, except for one thing, unless she had practiced.

"Am I still saving? What if she won't pinch herself to death if she wakes up again?"

Li Tian thought tangledly.

"But if you don't save yourself, this woman seems to have suffered such a serious injury. If the wound is not cleaned, she will soon be infected, and then it will be very troublesome."

Finally, Li Tian finally made a decision: Forget it, save it, who makes us a kind person?

Thinking of this, Li Tian finally walked over slowly. He tried to poke the woman in front of him lightly with his hand. After finding that there was no response, he slowly pulled away the woman's leather jacket. He didn't care to look at the woman's body, because the wound on the woman's chest and underneath made Li Tian not bother to look.

There is a purple black at the bottom of her chest, and there is also a very deep scar. Judging from the shape of the wound, it doesn't look like a knife wound or a gunshot wound. It's more like being bitten by something. of.

Looking at the scar, Li Tian in front of him was secretly surprised, no wonder this woman was in a coma because she had suffered such a serious injury.

He quickly brought clean water to clean the woman's wound slightly, and then used alcohol to help disinfect it. During this time, the woman lay there all the time, without any movement, even alcohol spilled on her wound. She didn't even react at all when she went up.

In the end, Li Tian, who had been busy until more than 1 o'clock, finally helped the woman's wound to be treated almost. Although the wound was still purple and black, at least it would not be infected anymore.

Sitting on the ground, Li Tian wiped the sweat from his forehead, took out a pack of dry and crumpled cigarettes from his jeans pocket, took out a lit one from the inside, and took a deep breath.

"What is the origin of this woman?" Li Tian thought.

When he was cleaning the wound of a woman just now, he unexpectedly found a weird pattern on the woman's wrist, a pattern in the shape of a "swastika".

What does this pattern mean? Li Tian didn't know, now it seemed that he could only find out after this weird and mysterious woman became sober.

Looking at the strange and mysterious woman in front of him, Li Tian had no time to think about it. Li Tian finally couldn't help lying on a small sofa next to him and fell asleep snoring.

In the dark night sky, two cars were driving fast like sharp arrows on a highway leading to Liaocheng.

The front car is LandRover Freelander 2, the domineering car head is the head of a whale, extremely powerful, and the rear is an Audi A4 fast following.

Sitting in that LandRover Freelander 2, there were three men in total.

The man driving is a flat-headed man, masculine and vigorous, with cold eyes like a wild beast driving the car quietly.

Occasionally, the weird "swastika" tattoo on the wrist can not help but feel extremely weird.

Isn't the pattern on his wrist the same as the woman Li Tian picked up?

The two men behind looked even more chilling. One of them was tall and burly, with red hair and two big eyes that looked like an arhat, sitting majestically behind.

The other man beside him was thin, but his eyes were as fierce as a viper, and he was even more terrifying than the red-haired burly man beside him.

A pair of skinny and calloused hands also wore a strange ring.

A ferocious poisonous snake is carved on the ring, which looks extremely dazzling.

"It's really remote here. I didn't think she could escape to this place." A grim voice suddenly faded from the figure, but a pair of snake-like triangular-eyed men said coldly, his Look at the green mountain road outside the car.

The red-haired man next to him suddenly turned his head with a pair of Arhat eyes open and said: "From Las Vegas to the present, this lady has killed 11 of us. Damn, it's really hateful."

The corner of the triangle-eyed man's mouth smiled coldly: "Of course, don't forget that she is an ace killer."

"Haha, but no matter how powerful she is, she is not as powerful as you."

The guy called the gangster squinted his triangular eyes and smiled slightly: "She is still very powerful. She can escape so far after hitting me (the black snake). She is the first one in the world."

"What is it to run away? The result is not a death!" The red-haired man said rampantly there.

"To be honest, if she wasn't prepared to be attacked by my (Black Snake), it is still unknown who will live or die in this battle." Xiao Dux thought about the scene at the time, and to be honest, even he himself had some scruples. .

The red-haired man next to her said: "No matter how good she is, she will betray the organization after all. Betrayal is dead. Since she chose to die, let's send her off."

The gangster looked at Liaocheng, a small county town with faintly shining lights, and said silently: "It can be solved here (shadow) is not bad for her..."

The sound drifted in the dark night, and the two cars drove towards Liao Cheng quickly.

After these mysterious people come to Liaocheng, what huge changes will happen to Liaocheng?

What kind of character is (shadow) in their mouth?

Wait and see.
