Chapter 3741: Rush to Guixi

"get off!"

"How can you be like this? How can you turn your face? Can you play happily together in the future?" the bounty hunter said with some dissatisfaction.

Li Tian realized that he had lost his temper because of being too impatient, and immediately said to the bounty hunter: "I'm really sorry, I must rush to Guixi now, because one of my very important and important relatives needs me. Go for help. If I go late, I'm afraid it's too late. When I come back from Guixi, I will definitely visit your army."

"This is just like a sentence! Although we are not from the Longteng Litian Legion, our Jiutian Village is the largest affiliated legion under the Longteng Litian Legion, and no one can be bullied. We feel that you are a good person, warm and hospitable. Inviting you to be a guest, you can refuse us, but you can't talk like that." The bounty hunter said with some dissatisfaction.

"Sorry! Sorry!" Li Tian apologized again.

"Sorry, I don't need to say any more. The person who wants to come should be very important to you. If I am not mistaken, it may have something to do with the kingdom of the corpse or the Dragon Legion. Since it is such an important person, then you Just hurry up and go, our Jiutian Village welcomes you as guests at any time!" said the bounty hunter.

Seeing Li Tian's car suddenly stopped, the bounty hunter also got out of the car. The car leading the way also turned around suddenly and stopped the car directly at Li Tian's car. In front, the person in the car shouted to the bounty hunter: "Hey, Lu Mingjie, what happened? Didn't these two guests go to our cottage? Why did you suddenly get out of the car!"

The bounty hunter called Lu Mingjie waved his hand to the person in the car and said: "It's okay, these two friends have important things. They have to go to Guixi first. They cannot visit our cottage for the time being. Up!"

"That's really a pity, but you can go anytime as a guest, so you should do the most important thing first! But if you are going to Guixi, maybe one of us can help you! Xiaomei, you Follow this big brother to Guixi, you are familiar with many cottages over there, maybe you can help this big brother!" said the man in the car.

"This... How embarrassed? Meet in Pingshui... Let's talk about a girl following..." Before Li Tian finished speaking, he saw a big man getting on the car, this big man with a big beard and beard. With a length of a self-winding scroll, and this length is tied into a pigtail, the whole realistic version is like a flower!

What about Xiaomei? Isn't it the beautiful beauty sitting in your co-pilot seat? How could it be like a flower? Li Tian is about to vomit blood!

This flower-like man carried a half-foot wide chopper in his hand, came to the edge of Li Tian's car bravely, and said to Lu Mingjie: "I will leave the rest to me!"

"This...this...is your name Xiaomei?" Li Tian suddenly felt a heart-stuck feeling in his heart.

"Why, can't a man call Xiaomei's name? Although I look rough on the outside, I have a girlish heart!" Xiaomei said.

Li Tian wanted to refuse, but it was too late. Then Xiaomei had opened the car door and walked in.

"Brother, drive! My time is precious!" Xiao Mei stepped the hatchet to her feet, moved her buttocks a few times, and reached over and crawled behind Li Tian's driver's seat. Li Tian took a breath and said.

"Brother rest assured, I am a very upright person, and I will never do anything to you! And our boss is right, I am quite familiar with many cottages in Guixi. If it is to find someone to do something, I'll follow you, that's right, but I don't understand why the Long Yin army commander didn't choose me to follow them to Guixi, but chose another person who is as famous as me to go to Guixi!" Xiaomei said .

This has to be said, haven't you looked in the mirror? Don't you have the courage to tell you the truth?

Li Tian had no choice but to move the car and rushed to Guixi with Xiaomei.

Watching Li Tian's car leave, Lu Mingjie came to the legion commander and said in a puzzled manner: "Boss, who is this Li Tian? It is worthy of you to treat him like this?"

"Hey, you don't understand this. Although I was not selected by the Long Yin Army Commander to participate in the Forbes power competition, I went to Kyoto City at my own expense. I witnessed Li Tian's various great powers in Kyoto City. "

"Tsk tsk, it's not a loss for the man who is the life-long opponent that Long Yin Army Commander said! Although Long Yin Army Commander has always called Li Tian his life opponent, but I can feel a strong tone in the tone of Long Yin boss Strong love, so I suspect that Commander Long Yin and Li Tian may be sympathetic and close to each other. That's why I pretended not to know him and enthusiastically greeted him to visit our cottage." said the man called the boss.

"Is it such an exaggeration? Long Yin Legion commander, that is the top 15 of the Forbes Top 100 Power Rankings! And Long Teng Li Tian Legion is one of the top ten legions, and Li Tian? Little known!" Lu Mingjie said incredulously.

"Yes! For the time being, Li Tian's Celestial Legion is not very famous in our southern Yunnan, but now that Li Tian has arrived in Southern Yunnan, the reputation of the Celestial Legion will soon spread in the southwest. I hope this time I can bet right, just bet that Li Tian and our legion commander Long Yin are in love! Once the bet is right, then we will be able to rise, and then gain more status and benefits in front of the Long Yin army commander! "The boss said.

Li Tian in the car didn't know about these conversations behind him. Li Tian understood a little bit, that the heart of harm is indispensable, and the heart of defense is indispensable. Although he doesn't understand the real intention of this Longteng cottage, Li Tian treats him Xiao Mei did not relax her guard.

However, the strength of this Xiaomei is probably the strength of a level six or seven zombie, even if it is a sneak attack, I am afraid it will not pose a threat to Li Tian and Windsor.

Xiaomei sitting in the car is also at a loss. It is true that Longteng cottage is hospitable, but it is too enthusiastic to treat the two people in front of him so warmly.

Is the boss tempted by the little girl in the passenger seat?

It shouldn't be. I've known the boss for so long, and the boss doesn't seem to have been tempted by that woman.

Did the boss actually fall in love with the man in front of him while carrying his sister-in-law?

Thinking of this, Li Tian and Xiaomei shuddered at the same time. Li Tian thought in his heart that the **** cursed me behind his back, but in Xiao Mei's heart, it seemed that he would be a bit farther away in the future!

Chapter 3742: Killing chickens and monkeys (1)

Guixi is located to the west of southern Yunnan.

This province can be said to be the worst-hit area for zombies.

In Guixi Province, the large cities before the end of the world are now completely zombies. Even the powerful bounty hunter organizations and legions in Guixi Province may not dare to enter these cities rashly.

The reason for this hard-hit area is somewhat related to Long Teng Litian's zombie policy toward Yunyun City, southern Yunnan Province.

But Long Yin, the commander of Long Teng Li Tian, didn't think so.

Long Yin neither had the ambition to contend for world hegemony, nor did he have the consciousness of suspending the pot to help the world. The big devil Long Yin did not cruelly kill. This can already be said that Long Yin is a good person.

As for Long Yin and Long Teng Litian Legion, they can manage the three-square-meter area of Caiyun City, so as to avoid the people here from being attacked by zombies, they can already sing praises to Long Yin.

As for the other places outside Caiyun City, it was entirely due to Long Yin's mood.

Long Yin has always adhered to this philosophy.

Therefore, even if Long Yin knew that the kingdom of zombies was engaged in small actions in Guixi under the jurisdiction of Longteng Litian, Long Yin would have closed one eye, and he didn't bother to care about the land of corpses that could not become a climate for the time being.

But recently, the kingdom of the corpse suddenly got worse.

The movement of the corpse kingdom in Guixi province is getting bigger and bigger, and even has reached out to those legions that have some influence in Guixi province. In less than half a month, this corpse kingdom has already Over 50 large and small army groups have been gathered in Guixi.

Don't allow others to snore on the side of the couch.

It's like a thing, you put it aside and you haven't moved it for many years, because you know that it belongs to you. As long as it belongs to you, you can move it whenever you want. But now, the kingdom of the corpse is not abiding by the rules, and if this thing is taken away by others, how can Long Yin remain indifferent.

If you can't remain indifferent, then you have to find a way to solve it!

It has been a few days since Long Yin came to Guixi.

In the past few days, Long Yin only did one thing, and that was to slaughter the zombies in Guixi City, the largest city in Guixi Province. After this slaughter, the guardian zombies in Guixi City fled with corpse insects, and those high-level zombies who had no time to escape were killed one by one by Long Yin.

And the other low- and middle-level zombies in Guixi City have become training targets for Long Ao and others to spend their boring time.

Within a few days, in the streets and alleys of Guixi City, there was almost no zombie in sight. Guixi City has completely turned into a dead city without even zombies.

This is the purpose of Long Yin.

Long Yin's idea was that since he didn't want to come to Guixi Province, he would train a legion in Guixi Province, a huge legion that could completely suppress other small legions and cottages.

What he needs to do is to take down Guixi City and hand it over to the regiment to manage the province. But Long Yin didn't say which regiment to manage the province. Instead, he sent someone to bring a dozen nearby Guixi City. The commanders and deputy commanders of the second-rate and third-rate corps invited to this Guixi city one by one.

In the beginning, when these army commanders received the invitation to Guixi City, they were still murmured in their hearts. The guardian zombies of Guixi City are senior zombies with the strength of the fourteenth level. If they enter this Guixi City rashly, I am afraid it will become food for the guardian zombies.

But when they came to Guixi City, they saw that there were no zombies on the spacious street, and the members of the Longteng Litian Corps had already cleaned up the most luxurious five-star hotel in Guixi City. Come out, open the door here to host a banquet for them.

Seeing that there were no zombies in the most prosperous city in Guixi, these legion commanders and deputy commanders started to move involuntarily in their hearts.

No good feast!

They still understand this truth, but they didn't expect that as soon as they entered the seat, Long Yin would throw out a sentence: "Now I am very dissatisfied with the status quo in Guixi. Although you are only under the management of my Longteng Litian Army in name, how do you I can be so numb and let the kingdom of the corpses do whatever they want. Therefore, I want to integrate your legions into a big legion, a legion that can treat Guixi with me!"

These corps commanders are all dumbfounded. What's the situation? Song Taizu Zhao Kuangyin played a trick to release military power by drinking a cup of wine. The army that has been built up by hard work is annexed, and there is no law of heaven!

No one speaks!

These corps commanders and deputy corps commanders all kept their heads down, their eyes fell on the floor cracks on the ground, and some looked sideways at the spider webs on the corners of the restaurant in this once five-star hotel.

No matter who it is, they pretend not to see Long Yin and pretend not to hear what Long Yin said.

Long Yin didn't speak, but smiled slightly.

At this moment, someone suddenly ran in from outside.

This person is Long Gui, the core cadre of the Intelligence Division of the Longteng Litian Legion. After Long Gui ran in, he saw Long Yin and said in a panic: "Jun... Legion commander..."

"Why panic? Have something to say!" Long Yin said with some dissatisfaction.

Long Gui adjusted his nervous tone and said: "Legislative Commander, just received news that the four cottages near Beigui City have returned to the Kingdom of the Corpses today. Two of the Legion members we sent in the past died today. Two more ran away risking their lives!"

"Asshole!" Long Yin was unusually angry.

"Crack!" With a sound, the marble dining table was broken into a pile of small rocks, and the food and drinks on the dining table fell to the ground as the dining table was shot, and the juice splashed everywhere.

Suddenly, the legion commanders who were at the table with Long Yin were silent. Those legion commanders seemed to avoid and stand up, but they saw Long Yin's gloomy expression and the buttocks that had just moved slightly. He sat back obediently.

"What does the kingdom of corpses want to do? Who can tell me what the kingdom of thinking wants to do?" Long Yin said angrily.

No one dared to speak.

After a while, Long Ao saw that Long Yin's anger had disappeared. Then he stood up, came to Long Yin's side, and said softly to Long Yin: "According to the latest information, the corpse soul in the three corpses Both the corpses and the corpses have already appeared near the former city of Kyoto. Chief of the army, do you think the three corpses are doing a ghost? Without the support of the three corpses, how can the kingdom of the corpses dare to be so blatant?"

Long Yin sneered and said: "What is the kingdom of corpses! Even if the three corpses come, I may not be afraid of them."

A coldness gradually appeared on Long Yin's face, and the murderous aura on his body had begun to overflow.

Chapter 3744: She is my person

"Is this the reason?" Ouyang Shiqing said to the village owner of the cottage with a cold face. .

"No...no! Let's rebuild this altar now! Please don't report the construction of the hollow altar. We really don't want to lose this opportunity." The old village master said in fear.

And behind the old Zhaizhu, the people in the entire cottage knelt down, looking at Ouyang Shiqing and others with a panic look, repeating these words of pleading for mercy in their mouths.

What is this altar for? And what are the opportunities they are talking about? Although no one has said it clearly, it seems that the people in these cottages and the people in the corpse kingdom seem to know it well.

"I'll give you a week, and I will come to Wale Village in a week. If it still looks like this, then don't blame me for not giving you a chance!" Ouyang Shiqing said coldly.

Immediately, Ouyang Shiqing took the silly man's and other personnel from the corpse kingdom and left the cottage and continued to other cottages in the mountains.

Two days ago, when Li Tian drove a car on this country road, he knew that he might not be driving for long.

Sure enough, in the evening today, a large area of collapse suddenly appeared in front of the road they were walking on. A few huge rocks fell from the top of the mountain, and the entrance road was completely sunken, blocking the way.

It's no wonder that even before the end of the world, even rural roads, there were maintenance staff working from time to time to maintain the roads from time to time. This can ensure that those roads are unimpeded, but these country roads have been washed by more than three years of rain during the past three years , Many roads have been dilapidated.

The geology of the southwest is relatively loose. Once heavy rains are encountered, mudslides and mountain landslides may form. It is reasonable for this rural road to be destroyed.

"It seems that we can't continue driving!" After getting out of the car, Li Tian still wondered if he could smash the boulders to pieces, and then drove through. However, after Li Tian checked, he reluctantly did so. Make such a judgment.

The road has been smashed into a few big pits. Even if Li Tian removes the boulder, the road will definitely not be able to continue walking. Moreover, even if you pass here, you can walk less than tens of meters further, the same There was a collapse, and the stones that came down from the collapse were more broken, and it was completely impossible to clean it out for a while.

"It's okay. We will continue along this road. Soon we will abandon the car and go up the mountain and head towards the deep mountains. If we go fast, we may be able to reach the cottage before sunset. I'm very familiar with which cottage it is, and I promise that we can have a nice rest this evening." Xiao Mei, a mad man, pointed to the road ahead and said.

When Xiaomei turned her head again, it was only a moment to turn around, only to find that the car Li Tian was driving was gone.

"What's the matter? What about the car?" Xiaomei asked suspiciously, looking around and still not seeing the shadow of the car.

Of course, the car was taken into the space of Void Yasha by Li Tian.

For Li Tian's behavior, Void Yasha expressed strong dissatisfaction and indignation.

This space was originally not big, and Li Tian had done the same thing as a warehouse. Now Li Tian even put the car in, how could this make Void Yasha not angry.

"It seems that this space is not enough for Master Li Tian, and we must find a way to expand the space a bit!" Xukong Yasha thought in his heart.

Li Tian expressed his satisfaction that Void Yasha is finally getting more and more on the road.

Now that you have recognized the Lord, you can no longer hide your privates. What is your space and my space? Isn't this Li Tian's space? Now the space is not enough, just think of ways to expand it.

But Xiaomei, this guy, is very inept.

To be precise, he is very mindless. The car will definitely not disappear out of thin air. Li Tianyou is not a magician, and he will definitely not hide the car with blindfolds, but this guy keeps asking.

"Li Tian, tell me where did this car go?"

"Windsor, are you hiding? Let me see if you are hiding in your chest! You'd better teach it, otherwise I will have to search the chest, oh no, do a body search!"

"Asshole Li Tian, why are you hitting my head? I'll work hard with you if I break my haircut. Master Wang Curaguchi made my haircut for me! It's so expensive!"

After so many days of contact, Li Tian also knew that Xiao Mei was really a man with a crude appearance and a mad heart.

This person is not bad, and he doesn't have a lot of mind. Often times this person can't speak his mind.

"Well, stop making trouble, let's hurry up, it's getting dark! We don't want you to spend the night alone in the wild!" Li Tian said.

Xiao Mei immediately leaned against Li Tian, with a rough and crazy voice, and said, "Li Tian, people are afraid!"

This sentence Li Tian almost vomited out, and Windsor was getting goose bumps all over his body.

Walking along the road, about ten miles ahead, Li Tian and Windsor followed Xiaomei and began to walk into the valley.

This Guixi is a famous karst landform, which makes Li Tian accustomed to living in the Central Plains still quite interesting, but at this time Li Tian's heart is not on this landscape.

After three years of natural growth, the original trail was full of weeds and thorns, but the thorns that had reached the trail have been deliberately cut off. After analyzing with those dead branches, the trail looks like People often go.

Xiao Mei, a rough man with a hatchet in one hand, cut off the latest thorns from time to time.

Whether it is Li, Xiaomei, and Windsor, they are all stronger, but the weakest is Xiaomei, who looks the most mad. Therefore, the speed of the three people is very fast, even if the mountain road here is rugged, but there is nothing Affect the speed of three people.

"If you weren't in a hurry to go to the cottage, we could have walked along the provincial road, where there was a mountain road, which would be more flat than this mountain path." Xiaomei, Jiahui first began to pant and couldn't help but Tucaodao.

But Xiaomei had just complained a few words, but soon Xiaomei's complaints became a little excited.

"Finally, we are almost here. After passing this mountain, we will be at the cottage immediately!" Xiao Mei said excitedly at the mountain in front.

However, as soon as his voice fell, thick smoke suddenly rose up from the top of the mountain in front of him, and then he heard a rush of gunfire and even bomb explosions.

Suddenly, Xiao Mei's face became extremely ugly. She almost burst into tears and said to Li Tian: "Li Tian, then...there is the cottage of my hometown...How could Hu be...like this?"

Chapter 3745: She is my person (2)

Xiao Mei hates having two more legs, so she can rush back to the cottage quickly to know what happened to the Valle cottage.

But when Xiaomei rushed to a mountain beam, everything in the Wale cottage in the opposite mountain col was already in sight.

The inside and outside of the cottage called Wale is already blazing. These wooden buildings and houses are burning, and even many houses cannot withstand the flames and have begun to collapse.

Xiaomei saw the panicked people just running out of the burning house, and was immediately chopped down to the ground by the people who were blocking it.

Inside and outside the cottage, there were corpses everywhere. Inside and outside the cottage, hundreds of members wearing various legion costumes were slaughtering them with various weapons.

"Go, let's go!"

Li Tian saw the impatient expression on Xiaomei's face, and directly sent Windsor into the space of Void Yasha. He stretched out his hand and picked up Xiaomei's sturdy body. The figure quickly walked through the mountains and sprinted towards the cottage. .

...

About half an hour ago, just less than a few minutes after Situ Ningbing left, this Valle cottage was suddenly surrounded by the extremely large legion group near Guixi City.

Although the old village owner of Valle Village is not a person in Guixi, he still knows the three symbols of Guixi Army, No.

When he was young, the master of the old village had worked on a construction site with the commander of the Gui army, which is considered an old acquaintance.

Therefore, the old village master saw that there were members of the Gui army who were besieging the stockade, and he was quite angry.

But before he walked to the commander of the Gui army, he saw that his old acquaintance suddenly raised the bow and arrow in his hand, and a feather arrow shot out of the bow and arrow in his old acquaintance's hand and directly hit his forehead. Heart.

The old village master didn't even have time to say a word to curse this guy, so he fell straight to the ground and died in front of the cottage.

Immediately afterwards, several rockets shot out from the crowd of the coalition army. Some fell on the gates of the cottage, some fell on the trees, and some hit the houses. These rockets ignited Signal of offense.

Immediately afterwards, there were intensive machine guns from the coalition forces. Hundreds of strong coalition forces rushed into the cottage with various weapons like a tide.

Before the few shotguns in the cottage were fired, the man with the gun was beaten into a sieve.

When Li Tian took Xiaomei from Houshan to the Wale Village, the cottage was already a sea of flames, a slaughterhouse, and a ***** on earth.

There are sounds of fighting everywhere.

The members of the coalition army who besieged the cottage have been red-eyed, and killed people at sight, regardless of whether the people in the cottage were old people or children.

There were screams everywhere.

Those unarmed elders and children without the power to bind chickens were hit by bullets, wounded by swords, covered in blood, and crawling on the ground with painful screams, but they did not climb a few steps, they were taken from behind The legion member who caught up stabbed his heart with a knife from behind.

At this time, the three commanders of the coalition army sat casually on the stone steps at the entrance of the cottage to face this **** scene, quite a bit of a hint of the country.

"Captain Liu Gui, the owner of the Valle cottage is your old friend. I didn't expect that you would even be willing to kill your old friend!" Zhang Debao, commander of the World First Army Corps, said to Liu Gui with a smile.

Liu Gui sneered and said: "Non-toxic and not a husband, if a manly man doesn't even have this courage, he might as well go back and have milk!"

"Although this old acquaintance of Valle is my old acquaintance, but he betrayed the Longteng Litian Legion first. If he hadn't walked too close to the kingdom of the corpse, I would not be so unfeeling, so it is his You can't blame others if you find a dead end."

"That's the case, but you guys are old acquaintances after all? I really doubt that one day you will aim your bow and arrow at me and the Commander of Stormwind." Zhang Debao said.

"What do you mean?" Liu Gui asked angrily.

At this time, the commander of the Storm Legion, who had not spoken much at this time, stood up abruptly and said: "Don't say a few words, since our three major Legions in Guixi have decided to join hands to complete the task assigned to us by the commander of Dragon Yin, then Both of you will say a few words less. If you fail to complete the task assigned by the commander of the Dragon Yin army, you also know the consequences. In addition to leaving two living mouths, to torture the head of the corpse kingdom Ouyang Shiqing, the rest of the people Hurry up and kill them all!"

"The words of the Long Yin army commander, kill the chickens and the monkeys, if you don't kill these cottages that betrayed Longteng Litian, how can you deter other cottages? As for those two livelihoods, once the two livelihoods are spent The whereabouts of Ouyang Shiqing, immediately beheaded!"

Speaking of Long Yin, Liu Gui and Zhang Debao immediately shivered involuntarily, and what Long Yin said in Guixi City the other day echoed in their ears.

That's right, if this task is not completed, then Long Yin, the big demon, will not know what will happen to these legions in Guixi.

The two also stood up, one holding a bow and arrow, and the other holding a steel knife and walked into the cottage. As soon as Liu Gui and Zhang Debao got up, a red light flew out of the cottage.

"Chang!" With a sound, Zhang Debao's eyes were quick and he used the pure steel sword in his hand to resist it, blocking the red light. The red light flashed and fell like a bolt of lightning back to the hands of a young man who had just walked out of the cottage.

But Zhang Debao only felt his arm numb, and as soon as he flicked, the pure steel sword in his hand made a crisp sound, and the steel knife broke into seven or eight pieces.

"Wow!"

Liu Gui bent his bow abruptly to shoot arrows, and several feather arrows flew towards the man faster than bullets.

"Huh!"

"Huh!"

"Huh!"

The weapon in the man's hand actually flew by itself, and he slashed these feather arrows to the ground neatly.

Zhang Debao also held a half-handled steel knife, looked at the man holding a weird long knife in front of him with some horror, and asked, "Who are you?"

This man is Li Tian. Li Tian walked forward slowly and sneered, "It doesn't matter who I am, the important thing is that you just mentioned Ouyang Shiqing, right?"

"Yes, Ouyang Shiqing is the person in charge of the land of the corpse in the southwest region. She is now the person our Longteng Litian legion commander is looking for!" The storm legion commander has arrived in front of Zhang Debao and Liu Gui, vigilantly Said.

Chapter 3746: She is my person (3)

"No matter who she wants, what I want to tell you now is that she is my person and my Li Tian's woman!" Li Tian said with a slight smile.

"Li Tian?"

Although the three army commanders hadn't met Li Tian, they had obviously heard Li Tian's name. The moment they heard Li Tian's name, they were completely stunned.

"Li Tian, what evidence do you have to prove that you are Li Tian?" Zhang Debao said.

"Yes, Li Tianyuan is in the heavens, why do you make us believe that you are Li Tian!" Liu Gui said.

"Proof? The 'Red Slash' in my hand is the proof, and my swordsmanship with Qi is the proof!" When Li Tian said, he already controlled the "Red Slash" to fly around his body a few times.

Seeing Li Tian control the weapons to fly around lightly, Zhang Debao and Liu Gui had basically confirmed that the person in front of them was Li Tian.

Although the Gui Army and the First Army Corps are not in the country at all, they are on the same level as the previous sunset fortresses, and they are located in the most closed Guixi Province in the southwest region, but the information of their army commanders is It's not necessarily too closed, and I still have some understanding of Li Tianhui's unique skills of using Qi Yujian and teleporting.

"Huh!"

The storm drew out a nine-section steel whip tied around his waist, and said with a sneer: "Li Tian? Hahaha, what about you Li Tian? Ouyang Shiqing is a person from the kingdom of corpses."

"Now in Guixi, she represents the cottage in the kingdom of corpses. She said to Xiaoli that she is now the enemy of the Longteng Litian Legion, and is the person Long Yin requires to be caught alive. To Dali, she is us. The enemy of mankind as a whole is a demon that everyone can kill."

"Even if you are Li Tian, you should get rid of her. What qualifications do you have to say that she is your woman? If you let us stop now, can we suspect that you have some connection with the kingdom of corpses? ?"

Storm's words are sonorous and powerful, neither humble nor overbearing, but rather domineering. These words immediately gave Zhang Debao and Liu Gui, who had already flinched in their hearts, some strength, making them both start to flinch and move forward slightly. Take a step.

That's right, even if the person in front of you is Li Tianyou, what can you do?

"Yes, do you still have some connection with the corpse kingdom? If this is the case, then we are even less likely to back down!" Zhang Debao and Liu Gui said.

Li Tian shook his head slightly, and said, "No one is a sage or a sage. Even a great sage in ancient times may make mistakes, let alone ordinary people?"

"Before the end of the world, Ouyang Shiqing was my Li Tian's woman. We were separated for various reasons. I have always felt guilty in my heart. After the end of the world, she became a zombie and became a three-corpse. The tool of the kingdom of the kingdom, I feel even more guilty. She is the real victim. As his man, I can't just watch her continue to be attacked by the Three Corpses. I have the responsibility and obligation to remove her from Rescue from this abyss in the kingdom of corpses!"

"Now, I'm here, I just want to save her! So, you can go back and tell Long Yin, Ouyang Shiqing, I must take Li Tian with me! If you have any questions, you can ask Long Yin to find him in Beitang City. Me!" Li Tian said.

"Hahaha, it's crazy! It's so crazy to be able to say so lightly about the kingdom of the corpse, what if we don't agree? Don't you dare to do it to us? Don't forget that although we are not the core cadres of the Dragon Litan Army, we You are also the leader of Long Yin's army, and you, Li Tian, are just a newcomer!" Baofeng said with a sneer.

This sentence is very owing.

It seems to be saying that we are Long Yin's people, Long Yin is the commander of the Ten Legion, and you Li Tian is just a newcomer, do you dare to move us? For a woman who has become a zombie, do you dare to move our Longteng Litan Legion?

Li Tian sneered, and then suddenly started.

Not to mention the dogs of Long Yin, even if it is Long Yin, I am not beaten by Li Tian!

"Huh!"

"Hong Zhan" flew out abruptly and slashed towards Zhang Debao.

Zhang Debao had been prepared for a long time, and suddenly blocked half of the steel knife in his hand in front of him, blocking the direction where "Red Cut" had been cut.

"Crack!"

Half of the steel knives in Zhang Debao's hand were directly chopped into a pile. After the "red cut" smashed Zhang Debao's steel knives, it flashed a red light and chopped on Zhang Debao's chest.

The blood flew straight, and a wound over half a meter appeared on Zhang Debao's body, and Zhang Debao's body was cut and flew out, and then Zhang Debao fell heavily to the ground, motionless.

Liu Gui was shocked and raised the bow and arrow in his hand, but before he could draw his bow hurriedly, he saw several gas bullets flying toward him faster than bullets.

"Wow!"

Liu Gui finally released an arrow. This was the first and last arrow he officially released against Li Tian. Several gas bombs directly penetrated Liu Gui's body and flew out from behind Liu Gui.

The arrow that had been shot at Li Tian was easily evaded by Li Tian with a teleport.

"how is this possible?"

Liu Gui knelt on the ground with a puff, and slammed his head on the ground, thinking about it in disbelief.

This time, in less than two seconds, Zhang Debao and Liu Gui, the two army commanders, were beaten to the ground by Li Tian. Even if the storm that had already estimated Li Tian's strength in his heart was completely stunned. Ground.

"He actually did it! Isn't he afraid of Long Yin? This is the southwest, and this is where the Longteng Litan Legion is located!" Baofeng thought in his heart.

And at this time, a man covered in blood suddenly ran out of the cottage. The moment this man saw Li Tian, he was scared and shivered and fell to the ground as though he saw a ghost.

"Army...Legislative commander, this is the person who killed all the brothers who rushed into the cottage. If I didn't pretend to be dead, I'm afraid I would have died in it too! Army...Leader, you want Revenge for my brothers!" The man said in horror.

"Wh...what?" Storm was completely frightened.

This time, the storm, the world number one, and the Gui army brought out not many people, only less than 500 people, but they are all elites in their respective legions. Most of these people are already capable of dealing with five or six. Level zombies, and a few have reached the strength to deal with level seven or eight zombies.

But so many people have been killed by Li Tian.

And it was only half an hour before these people rushed into the cottage.

Storm wanted to escape, but before he could turn around, Li Tian had already appeared behind him.

"Ouyang Shiqing, I'll take it away, do you have any comments?" Li Tian's cold voice came from behind.

Chapter 3747: Storm Sound (1)

Under the reputation, since Li Tian can be a blockbuster in the Forbes power competition, he naturally has his own advantages. With the Qi Yujian, Teleport, and Xuantian fingering, this series of attacks was dazzling, which surprised Baofeng's heart, but also felt his eyes shine.

"Without losing to the top 500 players in the Forbes Competition, the shot is extraordinary!" Baofeng thought in his heart.

However, facing Li Tianjiang's "Red Slash" on his neck, almost overwhelmed by Li Tian's move, Storm's face was not panicked, but a meaningful smile appeared on the corners of his mouth. But the surprise in Storm's heart has gradually turned into a strong will to fight.

"Your strength really surprised me, and it's no wonder that your Celestial Legion can achieve such a big achievement in this time."

"Tsk tsk, what a lucky guy, if my Storm Legion can listen to the northwest region, without the suppression of the Longteng Litian Legion, I am afraid that our Storm Legion has now become the first-rate legion in the country."

In the eyes of the storm, Li Tian's heavenly realm can have its current achievements, and it has nothing to do with Li Tian's heavenly realm being located in the northwest, but this is indeed true. If under the ten major legions, how can the ten major legions tolerate themselves? Within its jurisdiction, there are legions that can compete with itself.

"Now, I finally waited for Long Yin's words, our Storm Legion ushered in the best golden age, but with your words, you want to wipe out all the hopes of our Storm Legion, how is this possible!"

"So, I chose to refuse!" The last word of the storm hadn't been spoken yet, and the nine-section steel whip in his hand was like a snake with open eyes, violently bypassing his body and attacking Li Tian.

"Qiang!" With a sound, Li Tian blocked it with "Red Cut" and beat the steel whip back.

At the same time, Li Tian's "Red Zhan" also slashed heavily towards Storm's neck, but "Hong Zhan" cut a blank. The storm's head lowered, his body curled up, and he leaped forward. , Escaped "Red Zhan"'s slash, and the nine-section steel whip hit Li Tian's wrist with a flick of his arm.

But Li Tian slid backwards, "Hong Zhan" let go, and controlled "Hong Zhan" to cut towards the nine-section steel whip with his mind.

The storm seemed to know the power of Li Tian's weapons, but he was unwilling to use the nine-section steel whip and "Red Slash" to fight hard.

When "Red Zhan" cut towards the nine-section steel whip, Storm's hand shook, and the steel whip fell back into Storm's hand, and then the nine-section steel whip was in Storm's hand.

"Li Tian, don't underestimate the heroes of the world. This world has many masters who can be tolerated. They just don't have the appropriate opportunity and stage. Once they have enough stage, the light they can release will probably not be lost. You!" Storm fled from Li Tian's hands, and the confidence in his heart greatly increased, and said with a preaching smile to Li Tian.

Li Tian frowned and said with a sneer: "Then let me see how much light your hero can release!"

Regarding these three legions, whether it is Gui Army, No. 1 in the World, or Storm Corps, Li Tian has no good impressions.

How dare you call yourself a hero in a regiment that doesn't let go of women, children, old or weak, and a regiment that doesn't even have any kindness.

Such a hero, nothing in this world.

Therefore, after Li Tian took Xiaomei and Windsor into the cottage from the back mountain of the cottage, Li Tian did not hesitate, and immediately began to attack these legion members.

At that time, the angry Li Tian's firepower opened up, and Xuantian fingering, Qi Yujian, and teleportation were all displayed. Even Li Tian secretly called Dixing Yasha and Void Yasha to assist Li Tian in the fight. , So Li Tian was able to kill almost all the hundreds of people who rushed into the cottage in just half an hour.

Now, this stinking shameless tempest is even calling himself a hero. Since he is the hero Li Tian, he can no longer be polite.

But at this moment, the storm took out a nine-section steel whip from his body, and stormed each hand with one hand, and then began to quickly cast a set of whip techniques.

With the continuous actual combat of this set of whip techniques, small whirlwinds with a high yield of less than fifty years appeared around the body of the storm. These small whirlwinds were getting bigger as the storm continued to fight the whip technique.

"Hahaha, Li Tian, let you taste the power of my storm whip method!" Storm whip smirked wildly, shaking his hands forward, two nine-section steel whips pointed straight at Li Tian.

As for the small whirlwinds around Storm Feng's body, they had become as tall as one person at this time. The two small whirlwinds rushed towards Li Tian with the whip of the storm, and there were still around the storm's body. Seven or eight whirlwinds convolved the remaining leaves and dust on the ground and quickly revolved around the storm.

"Huh!"

"Red Zhan" drew a red light, and under Li Tian's control, it slashed into the storm, but when the "Red Zhan" passed through the whirlwind, he involuntarily moved forward with the whirlwind. Li Tian once again He controlled "Red Zhan" and cut the past, but the result was the same as before.

"Haha, the biggest advantage of my storm whip technique is that it can cause different temperature differences in the air around my body through the actual combat whip technique, and finally form a storm. This storm is just what I want, so it can not only be used for attack, but also can be used. Come to defend, let alone flying swords, don't even think of bullets to penetrate my storm defense layer!" Storm Kuangxi said.

"Really?" Li Tian controlled "Red Zhan" with his mind and continued to slash, while at the same time, Li Tian's left and right hands began to show Xuantian **** at the same time.

"Wow!"

"Wow!"

Following Li Tian's actual fingering, a powerful gas bomb flew out of Li Tian's hand, bombarding the whirlpool that flew towards Li Tian.

"boom!"

With two loud noises, the two small whirlwinds that were the first to approach Li Tian were smashed by Li Tian's broken soul palm, and Li Tian had already ejected seven or eight gas bombs, and these gas bombs had been directed into the storm. The last two whirlwinds around left.

"Snapped!"

"Snapped!"

Two dull noises came out in the whirl, Li Tian's Xuantian **** did not break the whirlwind defense of the storm, but the whirlwind swayed violently like a flame in the violent wind.

When he saw that Li Tian's **** had broken his two small whirlpools, Baofeng's heart was about to mention his throat, and when he saw that the **** had not broken the whirlwind around his body, the storm's His face finally calmed down a lot.

"Not enough! This little whirlwind is not enough to defeat Li Tian, I have to create a bigger whirlwind, a bigger storm!" When Baofeng thought in his heart, the outer sides of his two arms seemed to have become flutes. A row of small holes appeared.

Chapter 3749: Behead the Storm (1)

At this time, the sword spirit of "Red Zhan" seemed to feel the war intent in Li Tian's heart, and let out a roar. This roar came from the inside of "Red Zhan", which was the real sword sound!

"Om!"

"Red Zhan" easily cut into this three-foot-high tornado, which was divided into two by "Red Zhan".

For an instant, time seemed to have stopped.

Between the two tornadoes, a space gap of more than one meter wide appeared. This was because when the "Red Slash" slashed over, the new air brought by the fierce slashing force caused the tornado to be directly divided into two.

The upper part lost the lower rotating support. Although it still continued to rotate in a clockwise direction, it did not have enough stamina. It did not rotate for more than ten seconds, drifted upward for less than ten meters, and disappeared.

After the tornado below was suppressed for a while, it immediately spun upwards. The powerful rotating force of this tornado was like countless blades, slashing on Li Tian's gray-white armor, making an ear-piercing noise.

And although this huge rotating force did not destroy Li Tian's armor, the rotating force threw Li Tian directly like a small stone.

Li Tian performed several teleports in midair, and after landing, he took another seven or eight steps to stop.

"Huh!"

Li Tian let out a long breath.

"Once the power of this tornado is formed, its power is so powerful!" Li Tian's heart was surprised.

"Haha! Idiot! My tornado can be crushed even if it is a boulder!" Storm said with a wild smile.

At this time, the two nine-section steel whips in Storm's hands have been completely broken into several sections, of course he no longer needs the nine-section steel whips now.

The storm quickly threw away the two broken steel whips in his hands, and then a dozen white gas sprayed from his arms.

At this time, the small holes on the storm's arms have begun to emit hot air continuously, as if there is boiling water in his arms.

Baofeng laughed wildly, and slowly took a step towards Li Tian, only one step, but this step seemed to be over ten meters in an instant.

Yes, the storm created the tornado. At this moment, he is the tornado, and his step is also the step of the tornado.

This step didn't even take one second, but it came directly in front of Li Tian. This speed was almost not much slower than Li Tian's teleport.

"Huh!"

"Huh!"

Li Tian avoided the tornado's attack by teleporting, and a few thick-mouthed trees behind Li Tian were immediately swept up by the tornado.

At this time, on the tornado, the basin-sized rocks, the trees with the thick bowl mouth and the previous dust, leaves and other debris were mixed together. Even the member of the Storm Corps was not in a hurry to escape and was swept up by the tornado. He was hit directly by a boulder, and he couldn't survive.

The woods, houses, walls, as long as the storm hits, no matter what it is, it will be destroyed by the tornado immediately.

Li Tian kept teleporting to avoid the storm's attack.

"Haha, Li Tian, now you know how good I am! Now you know that your own cowhide is blown up! You are not even an opponent of me. I see how you face Long Ao, Long Kuang, and Long Yin, and I see again How do you take Ouyang Shiqing away from the hands of the Longteng Litan Legion!" Baofeng said with a sneer.

The storm attacked again, but Li Tian easily used teleportation to avoid it.

"Li Tian, if according to the level of the tornado, I am only a junior tornado. I have not yet exerted my strongest strength, but that's it. Don't you dare to fight me head-on? Lang is just a name." Storm said with a mockery.

Although the storm seems to have the advantage now, the storm's heart is full of panic.

Although his ability is powerful, he still can't use it proficiently, and as the level of the tornado gradually increases, the damage to the body of the tornado is increasing.

In the beginning, Storm just used the nine-section steel whip to create a small whirlwind. This is the normal ability of Storm, and it is enough to deal with ordinary bounty hunters and zombies.

When a row of small holes appeared on each of the two arms of the storm, this was already an extraordinary performance that the storm rarely used. The tornado formed by this storm was more than enough to deal with the ninth-level zombies.

And now, the storm is using his body to maintain the tornado. The stronger the destructive power of the tornado, the more damage to the storm's body in the tornado.

The storm has already begun to feel that his arms are already hot.

"Li Tian, is it possible that the commander of the Celestial Legion is swift like a headless fly? You have the courage to fight a violent storm with me, even if you die, it won't be a waste of your identity as the commander of the army" The storm shouted at Li Tian.

Li Tian let out a sneer in his heart. After such a while of fighting, Li Tian had already seen the true strength of Storm.

This tornado seems to be powerful, but this storm is a cage, which binds the storm itself tightly in this tornado. If it encounters an ordinary opponent, the storm may have already won by now, but his opponent is Li Tian.

is Li Tian who is best at rogue play.

The tornado could not attack Li Tian, but the storm had to stop using his body to drive the tornado. In the end, the tornado was the tornado of the storm.

The reason why the storm continues to irritate Li Tian is the sign that he has reached the end of the storm!

"It's just a little-known legion commander, since you want to die so much, then I will fulfill you!" Li Tian sneered and said.

Before Li Tian's words fell, Li Tian suddenly teleported, and his body had already appeared in the tornado and appeared in front of the storm.

An ear-piercing sound appeared around Li Tian's body. This is exactly how the strong wind of the tornado kept beating Li Tian's armor like a sharp blade.

If Li Tian hadn't had armor on his body, Li Tian would be torn to pieces quickly when he appeared in the tornado.

"You...you can actually enter this tornado?" The storm opened his mouth and looked at Li Tian in surprise.

"Have I said I can't come in?" Li Tian said with a sneer.

And at this moment, the small holes that appeared on the two arms of the storm suddenly sprayed out more than a dozen white gas, and then, there was a lot of blood oozing out of the small holes.

The tornado collapsed instantly.

"Huh!"

A red light flashed, and "Red Zhan" slashed directly at Storm's head.

Chapter 3750: Behead the Storm (2)

Death is close at hand.

In this form, Li Tian's speed has far surpassed the storm. The storm wanted to avoid it, but Li Tian's "Red Slash" was like a tarsal maggot. No matter how the storm moved, the "Red Slash" was always on him. In front of him, and the weapon was getting closer and closer to his head, the storm felt the chill released from the "Red Slash".

There is only one head, and it will never be as simple as a big bowl scar.

Suddenly, the storm raised his right arm before his head.

"Puff!"

Blood was splattered everywhere, an arm covered with various small holes and a lot of blood on it was easily chopped off by "Red Chop".

The storm uttered a miserable cry, and he took this opportunity to slam backwards, rolling on the spot, and then rolling out more than ten meters.

"Li Tian...killing but nodding his head, I know I was wrong, I won't intervene in Ouyang Shiqing's affairs anymore!" Baofeng held one of his broken arms, resisting the pain, and faced Li Tian fearfully. Said.

"Li Tian, can't let him go! The lives of hundreds of people in our Valle cottage cannot be made up for with just one arm!"

At this time, Xiao Mei's voice suddenly came from behind Li Tian. Xiao Mei's eyes were red, and she couldn't wait to kill the storm.

Behind Xiaomei, Windsor walked out immediately. Windsor's eyes were slightly red, as if she had just cried.

After seeing Li Tian, Windsor showed a trace of sadness on his face, shook his head slightly to Li Tian, and said, "Sorry, my brother, I tried my best, but I still didn't save it!"

Li Tian couldn't help showing a sad expression on his face.

When Li Tian and others rushed into the cottage, Li Tian rescued a little boy from the hands of a coalition army. The little boy had sword wounds throughout his body. After Li Tian beheaded the coalition army, he immediately Brought Windsor out of the space and asked Windsor to treat the little boy, while Xiao Mei was responsible for protecting Windsor, and Li Tian began to kill.

However, no matter how awesome Windsor's ability is, it can't bring the boy back from the brink of death. After more than half an hour of treatment, the boy is still dead.

"Li Tian, there are more than 700 people in our Wale cottage. Except for me, who has been here all the year round, none of them survived. They were all killed." She said that Xiaomei was already crying bitterly.

"Li Tian, take revenge for our cottage!"

Li Tian made a gloomy face, nodded slightly, walked toward the storm step by step, let out a breath, and said coldly: "If you want me to believe you will not interfere? Unless you leave the other arm too!"

"Li Tian, don't deceive people too much. I have already admitted my mistake, and I have broken an arm. What do you want? Don't forget that I came here by the order of Long Teng Litian Legion Commander Long Yin. If you have the ability, go to our army commander Long Yin to reason. What's the point of bullying me such a defeated general!" The storm took a step back, staring at "Red Zhan" on the ground, and said to Li Tian.

"Too much deception? Even if our cottage has many mistakes, you can just kill the person in charge in the cottage. Why don't the children who eat milk in the cottage are spared, even the pigs, dogs, cattle and sheep in the cottage? Let it go, what's wrong with them!" Xiao Mei roared.

Li Tian looked at the storm in the eyes, knowing that this person can definitely tolerate it. If he is released today, he will not be given a chance. If he improves in strength one day, I am afraid that he will take revenge on Li Tian.

"Why? Can't bear your arm? If that's the case, then leave your head behind!" Li Tian said coldly.

"Good... good! It seems that Long Yin's name has no deterrent effect on you anymore, very good. It seems that you won't let me go if I don't leave my arm today!" An expression of unwillingness appeared on Feng Feng's face, but he stretched out his remaining arm, and continued to say to Li Tian: "A gentleman, let's take a whip! I believe your Celestial Legion commander will not fail to say anything. Yes, come on, do it!"

"That's natural!" Li Tian said with a sneer.

"Li Tian! You..."

Xiaomei had something else to say, but Li Tian interrupted her.

"You should avenge your vengeance in the Valle cottage. What a man to call me an outsider to avenge!" Li Tian said.

"But... but..." Xiao Mei's heart seemed to hold a balloon about to explode, but Li Tian was speechless.

Revenge is easier said than done.

Even if the two arms of the storm are broken, the strength of the storm will not be worse than him, and the back of the storm is the same as him, but they are all Dragon Yin of the Longteng Litian Legion, once the storm leaves here, so small How does beauty find the storm!

Li Tian shouted: Solution!

With this explanation, "Red Slash" immediately changed back to its original shape, and then this "Red Slash" flew into the storm like a red lightning.

"Huh!"

A red light flashed, the storm screamed, and Li Tian also cut off his other arm.

"Li...er...Li Tian, can I go now?" Bao Fengqiang endured the pain of losing his arm and said to Li Tian.

"Go? Where to go?"

"Li Tian, do you want to fail to speak?" An expression of horror and anger immediately appeared on Baofeng's face.

"Fault? How come there is such a saying?"

"From the beginning to the end, what I said was your two arms left behind, which can prove that you are not involved in the matter of Ouyang Shiqing, the country of corpses!"

"Now I have nothing to do with you, but you have to listen to what Xiaomei said about this cottage." Li Tian said with a sneer.

After hearing Li Tian's words, Baofeng's face changed drastically. He no longer believed in Li Tian, a shameless person.

"Li Tian, you shameless person, you have no faith!"

"For a person like you, you don't need to be convinced!" Xiao Mei held the large hatchet in his hand, walked slowly towards the storm, and said coldly.

"Want to kill me? Just rely on you?"

Stormwind grinned, and suddenly pointed his two broken arms at the ground.

"Puff!"

Two blood-bearing gas ejected from his broken arms, and Storm's body was like a jet rocket, leaning and flying down the mountain.

"Hahaha~"

A series of triumphant laughter came from Storm's mouth, but his laughter suddenly stopped halfway through.

"Huh!"

"Red Slash" was faster than his speed. It had already flown in the air, and slashed into the storm. The storm was broken into several pieces by "Red Slash" in midair.
