

A Killer 38

Chapter 38: Was beaten

"Xiao Zhao, I'm sorry, I didn't mean it."

After going to work, Li Tian wearing a blue security uniform said to other Xiao Zhao Dao.

Xiao Zhao and him are in the same class, and they both guard the parking lot. Hearing Li Tian say this, Xiao Zhao turned his head and glared at Li Tian: "Grandma's, why are you so powerful, you kid? Look at my wrist, it's still red now."

Xiao Zhao said as he lifted his right wrist to show Li Tian.

After Li Tian looked at it, he found that Xiao Zhao's right arm was still slightly red.

Li Tian was a little embarrassed.

"I didn't mean it."

"Forget it, forget it, I won't care about you anymore." Xiao Zhao said.

Li Tian, who heard that Xiao Zhao didn't care about him, was of course happy. As a security guard here, he had only been able to talk to Xiao Zhao apart from the sea. Of course, he didn't want to have conflicts with Xiao Zhao.

"But to be honest, have you practiced?" Xiao Zhao took out a pack of 5 yuan from Zhongnanhai from his arms, took out one from it and handed it to Li Tian, and then put another one in his mouth. Say.

Li Tian reached out and took the Zhongnanhai, put it in his mouth, lit it, and took a deep breath.

"I do not have it."

"Mao...I don't believe it." Xiao Zhao said.

"I've never practiced. Whoever lied to you was crawling on the ground." Li Tian said with a cigarette and smiled.

Xiao Zhao was a little puzzled: "It's impossible, you haven't practiced, why are you so powerful?"

Li Tian actually felt puzzled, but he almost knew that it might be because of reading his broken book. After thinking about it, he said, "Maybe it's because of my work since I was a kid."

Xiao Zhao was dubious and didn't ask any more.

The two people were sitting in the security room of the parking lot smoking cigarettes and drinking tea. When they came to the car, they quickly squeezed out the cigarette butts in their hands and ran out to direct the passing vehicles, some of which were not owned by the Tang Group. The work of collecting parking fees, anyway, can be regarded as a leisurely job.

When the two of them were sitting chatting, suddenly two powerful vehicles came from outside.

One of them is a beautiful dark blue Bentley Motors Limited GTC, followed by a black Mercedes Benz driving towards the parking lot.

Xiao Zhao, who was smoking, quickly threw the cigarette **** on the ground and stamped it out with his foot: "Li Tian, get up quickly."

Li Tian, who was sitting on the stool, was still smoking. Hearing Xiao Zhao's words, he quickly threw his cigarette **** on the ground, and then quickly stood up.

That Xiao Zhao had already left, with a respectful smile on his face, and walked towards the two cars in front of him that were slowly approaching.

But Li Tian followed in wonder.

After the car stopped with a hiss, a middle-aged man in his 40s got out of the car, with a Chinese face, thick eyebrows, a gray suit, and a woman in a black professional skirt with a holding in his hand. A file bag followed behind the man, looking like a secretary.

"Mr Tang early!"

That Xiao Zhao bowed respectfully and said, and Li Tian also bent over with Xiao Zhao.

Isn't the man called President Tang Tang Zheng?

He nodded slightly, and walked straight towards the building of Tang's enterprise. The secretary Qianli, who was 170 cm tall, followed closely behind her.

Seeing Tang Zheng far away, Xiao Zhao raised his head, with envy in his eyes.

"Who is that?" Li Tian asked, blinking at Tang Zheng, who was walking away.

Xiao Zhaobai gave him a glance: "The boss of the Tang company is the same person just now."

After Xiao Zhao said this, Li Tian suddenly widened his eyes: "Isn't it?"

"Don't you think! Seeing that, the building in front of you belongs to that person, and it's not just this place in Kyoto City..." Xiao Zhao exclaimed in his voice.

After Li Tian heard this, his eyes also showed envy, looking at the man's back, he couldn't help but said in his heart: "When can I have this ability?"

"Our boss is not easy." Xiao Zhao walked into the security room and said.

Li Tian also sat down next to him and asked, "Talk about it."

"Our boss, his name is Tang Zheng. I heard that he is a fierce man who started from scratch. If I was like you and me, I also mixed from the bottom. Hey, the difference between people and people is different." Xiao Zhao said. Praised.

"In the past, Tang Zheng was just an unnamed junior, but now? His name is in Kyoto. Who doesn't know, no one knows? Tang's enterprise is even more impressive. It has been listed in the United States, which is really awesome."

Listening to Xiao Zhao's words, Li Tian couldn't help but praise. It seems that the character named Tang Zheng is really not easy.

"When can we mix up like that?" the two of them said wishfully.

This morning passed quickly. After lunch, there was an hour's lunch break. Because Li Tian and his dormitory were in the basement of the company, it was not very far from where they worked to where they lived.

Isn't this? After lunch, Li Tian returned to the dormitory, lying on the hard bed, and continued to watch with his broken book.

And what about Xiao Zhao? He didn't know where he went, and Yu Dahai was not in the bedroom either.

Li Tian, who was on the bed looking at the "Book of Heaven Pill Volume" intently, suddenly heard a shout coming from the corridor.

"Li Tian, it's not good..."

There was a hint of anxiety in his voice, as if something really happened. ,

Hearing the scream, Li Tian turned over from the small iron bed.

At the moment, I saw Xiao Zhao who was dying of breath and panting, and his face flushed.

"What's the matter?" Li Tian asked quickly.

The little Zhao panted heavily, bent his body, his face flushed, and said, "Brother Yu, Brother Yu was beaten."

Yu Dahai was beaten by someone?

Li Tian suddenly stunned when he heard that Yu Dahai was beaten by someone.

"There?" Li Tian asked sharply.

During the time when Yu Dahai was a security guard in Li Tian, he was indeed good to Li Tian, and although the 40-year-old Yu was the captain of the security, he has always been commensurate with Li Tian and Xiao Zhao as brothers, and he also gave this from time to time The two young men brought some special products from their hometown. To be honest, although Li Tian spent a very short time with Yu Dahai and Xiao Zhao, just a few days, their relationship was already deep.

After all, in this city full of strangers and strangers, how lucky it is for a few of them to get together, talk and chat.
