

A Killer 3801

Chapter 3801: Response from all parties (2)

Bounty Hunters Association.

Before the news that Li Tian had destroyed a Nanshu city arrived in Kyoto, the Bounty Hunters Association got the news first.

For most members of the Bounty Hunter Association, this is something to celebrate.

For nothing else, it is because of Li Tian's supreme king of the Bounty Hunter Association.

In the past, the Bounty Hunter Association did not have much right to speak in front of the Ten Legions. In many cases, the Bounty Hunter Association would even suffer some dark losses, but they did not even dare to put a fart.

But now, Li Tian has risen so strongly that he can even destroy Nanzhou City. In the past, these Bounty Hunters Association members had never dreamed of it.

The faces of all the members of the Bounty Hunter Association were full of excitement, and even when they saw the members of the other ten legions, they had some confidence in their hearts.

"This is absolutely false news! I don't believe that Li Tian has such strength! This is probably because someone deliberately provokes the relationship between our Bounty Hunter Association and the Rock Legion!" Su Lao said.

"Hmph, this is the news from the hunters of our Bounty Hunter Association. Is this also false? This Rock Legion is arrogant and domineering. I couldn't see it earlier. If it were not for my limited strength, I would also like to destroy the Rock Legion. A city in China!" said Elder Gu Liang.

Elder Gao said: "Hehe, if you have the strength, who doesn't want to destroy a city! This is a very show-off thing! Elder An, you have been in contact with Li Tian for the longest time, and you know Li Tian best. Tell me about it. Is it true?"

"The real can't be fake, and the fake can't be true! There must be a reason for nothing, I believe this is the real news. And this is in line with Li Tian's character!" said the old man.

Wu Lao, who had not spoken, nodded slightly, and said, "Before Mu Yunlong came to Kyoto, Li Tian did such a thing. I am afraid that Li Tian deliberately attracted everyone's attention to him. ."

"I...Should we beware of a bit of Rock Legion's revenge? After all, Li Tian is now our strongest king!" Su Lao said.

"The necessary preparations are still needed, but I feel even more that our Bounty Hunter Association should make a certain gesture to let Li Tian know that the Bounty Hunter Association will always be his most solid backing, even if he provokes a giant like Rock. Ba!"

"agree!"

"agree!"

...

At the headquarters of the Sakura Legion, Duanmu Ying showed a smile on her face when she saw the detailed report on the office desk.

Duanmu Ying walked to the large floor-to-ceiling windows, looked at the traffic on the streets of Kyoto City, and muttered: "Is Jinlin a thing in the pool? Once the wind and cloud change the dragon! This is Li Tian, this is what Li Tian I know!"

"Li Tian, are you finally going to fly? Although you are not the strongest time now, it doesn't matter. There is also Duanmuying, even if the sky falls, I will carry Duanmuying with you!"

"Rock Legion, it's stupid not to know it when you die! Now it's up to the Fire Legion and the Hall of Heroes to make a choice! And this choice is likely to directly affect the development and direction of the next situation!"

Thinking of this, Duanmuying turned to her desk, quickly picked up the phone, dialed a call, and said, "Assemble all the core cadres who are still in the headquarters. I want to hold an emergency meeting!"

Hanging up the phone, Duanmu Sakura quickly walked out of the office and went directly to the large conference room on the top floor of the Sakura Corps headquarters.

Soon, all the core cadres of the Sakura Army came to this conference room.

Half an hour later, the meeting ended, and then countless orders were sent from the headquarters of the Sakura Legion to the branches of the Sakura Legion across the country, and all the branches of the Sakura Legion across the country were in action.

...

The secret room of the Flamingo Corps headquarters.

This secret room does not look big, with an area of no more than two hundred square meters.

In the center of this secret room is a bronze stove more than one meter high. The charcoal in the fire is raging, and the whole secret room is piping hot.

And around this secret room are steel plates with a thickness of more than two meters, but the steel plates are uneven, and it seems that the workmanship is exceptionally rough.

At this time, the Captain of the Fire Corps was sitting on the ground with his legs crossed, and in front of him there were hundreds of fist-sized iron balls. These iron **** were bright and shiny, and the weight of each one was kept at about ten kilograms.

Agni reached out and grabbed an iron ball.

In the hands of Agni Huo, the iron ball was like a glass ball, and it was thrown up and down several times.

However, as the fire tossed the iron ball up and down, the iron ball gradually turned red, as if it had been burned by the flames.

"Snapped!"

The fire was thrown away, and the iron ball had turned into a ball of hot red molten iron, and was slammed on the steel plate by the fire. At first, the molten iron was still flowing down, but the flow stopped within a few seconds, and the hot molten iron solidified into steel and merged with the steel plate.

And this steel plate thickness of more than two meters turned out to be thrown out repeatedly by the fire for many years.

At this moment, there is something in the mouth of Agni, if you walk in, you will hear him saying: "Alliance! No alliance! Alliance! No alliance..."

Although Gao Gang was still full of confidence in his Mo Feng and others, the Flamingo Legion believed that the news was absolutely true. As the commander of the Flamingo Legion, Agni was thinking in his heart whether the Rock Legion, which had suffered the loss of the eight top cadres, was worthy of him to join the alliance.

At this moment, an iron gate weighing over two tons was pushed open behind the fire, and Ding Pojun, the deputy commander of the Flamingo Army, walked in.

Ding Pojun was wearing a piece of shabby clothes. If it weren't for the shabby clothes that couldn't stop his figure, showing his sturdy body, Ding Pojun looked like a beggar.

"Baojun, why did you come in! Did something happen? Could it be that Li Tian has come to Kyoto City?" Agni asked.

"No! Legion commander, Li Tian is still on the way, our people are staring at him! However, the hero of the heroes of the Hall of Heroes has come to visit! He is waiting for you outside the secret room now!" Ding Pojun said calmly.

"No! I don't want to see anyone at this time! I don't want anyone to influence my thoughts!" Li Huo said, shaking his head.

"Okay, I will reject him now!" Ding Pojun turned and left, then easily pushed open the two-ton iron gate and walked out.

Lihuo glanced at Ding Pojun's figure, then fell on the iron gate covered with molten iron, thinking in his heart: "The power of the broken army has increased a lot. The iron gate was two tons when it was built. Now, after these three years, I have deliberately or unintentionally thrown molten iron up, I am afraid that there are nearly five tons!"

Li Huo's eyes suddenly widened.

The nearly five-ton iron gate suddenly had an inclining incision.

Chapter 3802: Wei Shuwu

"There are some things that one person can't understand, or many people have a different way of thinking, and maybe they want to open it!" A somewhat hoarse voice came from the incision.

"Crack!" The upper end and the lower end of the iron door made a nasty sound. A few seconds later, there was a "boom", and the triangular iron door that weighed two tons fell off. It came down and hit the ground hard.

Through this triangular area, Lihuo saw a man wearing a common robe slowly inserting his long sword into the scabbard on his back.

This man in a long robe is Hua Yingxiong, the commander of the Hero Palace.

This Hua hero has three biggest characteristics. The first is a gray coarse cloth robe that remains unchanged for thousands of years. The second is that the length of the blade and hilt of a long sword is over 1.6 meters. The third is that he is more than a sword. A longer whip.

Fortunately, the Hua Hero was tall enough, nearly 1.9 meters, otherwise he would be about to slam on the ground with the 1.6 meters long sword, and his whip might be stepped on by someone behind.

"Hero Hua, you rushed to the headquarters of my Flamingo Legion to move your sword, you are looking for death!" Li Huo said angrily.

Although Lihuo was angry, Lihuo did not do anything. Instead, he said to Ding Pojun: "There is nothing wrong with you here, go down!"

After Ding Pojun turned and left, the Hua Hero suddenly drew out his long sword and performed several slashes against the remaining half of the iron gate.

"boom!"

"boom!"

The iron masses weighing several hundred kilograms continued to fall from the iron gate and hit the ground heavily.

"Looking for death!" Agni finally became angry.

I saw Agni picking up two iron **** from the ground with his left and right hands. As soon as the iron ball entered Agni's hands, it immediately turned crimson, and Agni threw the two burning red iron balls. Smashed hard at Hua Hero.

"Huh!"

"Huh!"

The Hua hero draws his sword fast, almost blinking.

In just an instant, the hero of Hua had already cut several swords in a row, and cut the two iron **** flying towards him into several halves.

Unfortunately, this iron ball had already melted into pieces of iron. After being smashed by Hero Hua, it immediately turned into a liquid and flew towards Hero Hua.

"Humph!"

Hua Yingxiong snorted coldly, and the movement on his hand was a little faster.

After a while of dazzling, Hua Yingxiong tilted the long sword in his hand and stretched it forward, and the iron ball of the iron ball slowly flowed downward along Hua Yingxiong's long sword.

If the black bear Lin Lan was here, after seeing the swordsmanship performed by Heroes Hua, I'm afraid he would have been so scared that he would never mention the name of his fast sword.

"A little Li Tian scared you like this. He hides in the secret room and dare not come out to meet people. Tsk tsk, is this still the flamingo commander of the fire? People who don't know will do it because of it. It's Agni Fire, the commander of the incompetent Legion Agni Legion in East Sea City!" Hua Yingxiong said to Agni sarcastically.

After speaking, the Hua hero slammed the long sword in his hand, and the iron pieces stuck to the long sword immediately flew into the flames like bullets.

"Humph!"

Agni snorted coldly, and slapped his hands on the ground forcefully. Seventeen or eight iron **** around his body flew automatically.

The fire was about to come out of his palm, and I saw the palm of the fire gently stroke the iron balls, and the iron **** immediately turned into a piece of molten iron, and the molten iron did not drip down, but slowly followed the palm of the fire. 地流。 Ground flow.

"Wow!"

"Wow!"

The molten iron turned into a flowing fiery red handkerchief in an instant, and Li Huo directly prodded a finger directly on the handkerchief, and suddenly began to turn in front of him.

Those iron blocks that flew into the flames were quickly melted by the fiery red handkerchief and directly merged into the handkerchief.

And Agni threw the handkerchief in the air, with two claw-shaped hands, and quickly grabbed the handkerchief a few times. The handkerchief immediately turned into a dozen pieces of molten iron, and the hand of Agni accelerated. I kept extending my hand to the molten iron, then squeezed it hard and threw it on the ground.

After a few seconds, the molten iron turned into a dozen irregular iron balls, scattered in front of the fire.

Hua Yingxiong had already inserted the long sword and subtracted it, slowly walked into the secret room, clapped his palms at the fire, and said: "Wonderful, it is wonderful. The commander of the Fire Corps is naturally not afraid of Li Tian. Now, compared to the head of the Fire Legion, what hesitates about now is the gains and losses after the alliance with the Rock Legion?"

Seeing the fire and did not answer, Hua Yingxiong smiled slightly, sat on the ground, and said: "Now the pilgrimage and the holy legion have been divided among the legions, the ten legions are dead in name, and the rock legion and the soul legion can be said to be equally divided, and the other legions are also The difference is almost the same. However, now the Army Soul Legion is seeking change. Once the Army Soul Legion is dominated by the whole family, the special background of the Army Soul Legion, the relationship between Mu Yunlong and Li Tian, and the Sakura Legion are among other things. For certain factors, I am afraid that only military souls in this world will be most qualified to compete."

"At that time, the Rock Legion must be the first goal of the Army Soul Legion. Once Rock is defeated, the so-called lips are dead and the teeth are cold, I am afraid that it will be the turn of the Flamingo and the Hall of Heroes."

"Of course, for our Hall of Heroes, whether it is a rock or an army soul, we actually have little to do. Anyway, we just want to be heroes. At most, it only affects the benefits of those of us who are heroes. But for Your Flamingo Legion, that's another concept!"

Agni didn't speak, but looked down at the strange iron ***** that he pinched out.

Hua Yingxiong said that he didn't say more here, he said that was clear enough, he believed that Agni was a wise man and would definitely make the most correct choice.

"If the alliance, I want more resources!" Agni said.

"Wei, Shu and Wu are up to you!" Hua Yingxiong nodded slightly and said.

Lihuo's eyes slowly landed on the steel wall in front of him, and the map of the country formed by the molten steel falling on the wall was faintly visible, and a trace of greed could not help being revealed in Lihuo's eyes.

"Okay! Then I will go to see Gaogang with you now. I'm afraid Gaogang already knows what it really wants, and is now furious! Then Li Tian was really reckless, just ruining Nanzhou, unexpectedly Dare to come to this city of Kyoto! You are slap Gao Gang in the face!"

"Yes, as the most powerful ally, we must be by his side at this time and work together to deal with Li Tian, otherwise this alliance will be meaningless!" Hua Yingxiong said with a smile.

Chapter 3803: His face was beaten and swollen (1)

The wise does not buy rumours!

Rumors of the destruction of Nanshu Castle have been raging in Kyoto, but most people still don't believe it.

In fact, this is easy to explain.

A city, even before the end of the world, even with the use of nuclear force, I am afraid it is not so easily destroyed, right?

What's more, now is the end of the world, and Li Tian is not a nuclear weapon either!

Also, the residents of Kyoto City still remember who Li Tian is.

That's right, Li Tian is a household name in Kyoto City, and his strength is also very strong, strong enough to become the supreme king of the Bounty Hunter Association.

But the Supreme King is just a title, even if Li Tian's strength is really awesome, reaching the level of the top 100 in Forbes strength competition, don't brag about it. You can destroy a building is already very powerful, you also destroy a city?

"Come on, you destroy the city of Kyoto and let me see!"

This is the true thought of many residents of Kyoto City.

Hype!

It must be hype!

Whether it is hype or not, no one says it.

The residents of Kyoto now believe in the truth of the show at 8:30 every night.

"Nanzhou, located in the middle of the Central Plains Province, is the largest human living base in the Central Plains since the end of the world..."

"The Rock Legion, with Central Plains Province as its base and Nanzhou City as its foundation, step by step, gradually becoming the most powerful legion in the entire Central Plains..."

The TV screen showed the introduction of the Rock Corps a year ago. The screen not only showed the aerial view of the Central Plains, but also the entire Nanzhou City. It was this TV short that let the residents of Kyoto at that time know that there is such a large living base for human beings in Central Plains Province!

As the cameras switched, two hosts, a man and a woman, appeared on the TV screen.

"Dear viewers, before we broadcast the truth today, we revisited the scenes of Central Plains Province and Nanzhou City. I must have guessed the subject of our chat today!" said the male host.

"Yes, since last night, there has been such a rumor in Kyoto City 6 that the Li Tianjun commander of the Celestial Legion destroyed the entire Nanzhou City of the Rock Legion with his own power!" The hostess, when the hostess said this, a mocking expression appeared on her face involuntarily.

"With regard to the destruction of Nanzhoucheng, this station has sent frontline reporters to Nanzhou City. This station will conduct a detailed investigation of this rumor! I believe that we will give the audience a true truth soon. And today, we Fortunately, I have invited Gao Gang, the commander of the Rock Corps." said the male host.

As soon as the TV screen was switched, a high-steel army commander sitting on the sand without anger appeared on the TV.

"The high-steel army commander, as far as we know, after the two consecutive commanders of the pilgrimage and holy legions disappeared, several major legions, including the rock army, all have jurisdictions that accept the pilgrimage and holy army. It can be said that the current rock army It was an unprecedentedly strong time, so suddenly such a rumor appeared at this time. I don't know what the Gaogang army commander thinks?" The hostess said.

"First I need to be clear. This is a rumor, an absolute rumor! As for who is behind this rumor, our Rock Corps will definitely find out!" Before returning to the female reporter's question, Gao Gang said First give the whole thing a qualitative.

Gao Gang went on to say: "As everyone knows, our legion name is called "Panshi", which means as solid as a rock! As you can see through the previous TV short films, our Nanzhou City can also be called as solid as a rock. In South In the prefecture city, not only are 50,000 members of the Rock Legion stationed, this time there are also eight top cadres of our Rock Legion stationed!"

"Don't talk about a little heaven, a little Li Tian, even if the other ten legions attack with all their strength, I am afraid it is not so easy to be attacked!" Gao Gang said with a sneer.

"So the Gaogang army commander believes this is a rumor?" the male host asked.

"Of course! I have confidence in our Rock Army Corps, I have confidence in our Nanzhou City, and also have confidence in our top cadres!" Gao Gang's body leaned directly on the sand, making a relatively comfortable posture with his face. Said with such a smug expression.

"Okay, then we will continue to discuss this rumor. In this rumor, it is said that because the Rock Corps took action against the refugees who migrated in Donghai City, it caused a large number of refugees who migrated in Donghai City to defect and enter Nanzhou City. This is offensive. Li Tian's reason, I don't know what Gaogang Corps commander thinks about?" said the hostess.

"People go to high places, and water flows to low places. Even those refugees from Donghai City have the right and freedom to choose! Those refugees from Donghai City have been exhausted after hundreds of thousands of miles of migration, and they urgently need to have A legion can take them in. At this time, they automatically chose our Rock Legion and Nanzhou City. There shouldn't be any problem!"

"As the people want, if Li Tian has to intervene in this matter, then Li Tian's mind is too narrow. And if because of this matter, Li Tian rushes to act on our Rock Legion, hum, then I don't care about him Li Tian How many women are behind him, my Rock Legion will never spare him!" Gao Gang's mouth moved slightly, revealing a sneer.

At this moment, the two hosts saw the live broadcast director suddenly make a gesture. The gesture meant a sudden event, and a few advertisements were needed!

Yes, even in the end times, the main income of this Kyoto TV station is still advertising.

During the commercial break, a staff member quickly delivered a few pieces of paper to the hands of the two hosts. When they saw the words on the piece of paper, the faces of the two hosts showed surprised expressions.

But the high-steel army commander was at a loss.

After a few seconds, the picture switched back to the studio.

"Dear viewers in front of TV, viewers in front of TV, just now, our Kyoto City TV station suddenly received a videotape from an enthusiastic audience, and this videotape was the process of Nanshu being destroyed. I don't know Gao Chief Steel Corps, mind if you come to watch this videotape with us?"

"Huh! This is possible! But I believe that this is definitely a fraud!" Gao Gang said while sitting upright.

Li Tian, quicksand storms, destroyed buildings, and people from the members of the Rock Corps who were constantly escaping appeared on the TV screen of the live room one by one. At this time, the entire Kyoto city was quiet.

Chapter 3804: His face was beaten and swollen (2)

"Guru!"

The hostess looked at the screen on the screen and swallowed her saliva involuntarily. Although the saliva swallowing sound was not very loud in the quiet studio, it was heard by the host next to her.

The male host did not swallow the saliva, but the sweat on her forehead kept pouring out. He wanted to take out a handkerchief from his pocket, but he did not find the handkerchief after looking for it for a long time. The male host directly wiped the sweat from his forehead with his sleeve.

The little actions of these two hosts were clearly seen by hundreds of thousands of viewers in front of Kyoto TV Station, but at this time, their attention was more focused on the reality screen in the live broadcast room.

Li Tian, is that person really Li Tian?

When did Li Tian possess this strength?

However, the shifting direction of the quicksand storm constantly changing with the direction of Li Tian's finger can basically be certain that the quicksand storm is related to Li Tian.

From this point of view, Li Tian really pretended to be very forceful.

At this time, all the viewers in front of the TV did not know the truth. They were surprised and involuntarily began to think about the development of Li Tian.

About half a year ago, a corps called Celestial World first appeared in a certain influential newspaper in Kyoto City. At that time, the page was less than a palm, hundreds of words.

At that time, the newspaper only roughly told that the Celestial Legion unified the Northwest Region and became the most powerful legion in the Northwest Region. The sales of this newspaper are limited. Apart from the editor at the time, no more than dozens of people have seen and remembered this news.

Later, Liu Jun, grandson of Liu Lao of the Fifth Society of the Bounty Hunters Association, went to the Celestial Realm, and only then did a few bounty hunters know that the Celestial Legion exists.

Then, because of the death of Liu Jun, the Celestial Legion or Li Tian officially appeared on the three major newspapers in Kyoto City for the first time. At that time, almost all readers would think that the heavens were over, and the northwest region might have to change owners again.

A month later, Li Tian arrived in Kyoto City as scheduled. At that time, Li Tian appeared on the lace newspaper in Kyoto City. That time Li Tian appeared on the lace by the name of the man from the Sakura Army Duanki Sakura. News newspaper.

At that time, Li Tianzai had another name: Wang's man.

In the next Forbes power competition, Li Tian can be regarded as the first time that everyone officially entered the line of sight.

This is a tough man, a man who can break records in the preliminaries and reach the finals.

Even so, Li Tian is just a good Miaomiao in everyone's eyes.

But who would have thought that in just a few months, Li Tian would dare to directly attack the most powerful Rock Army in Kyoto City.

And if you don't make a move, you just destroy a city.

On the TV screen, Li Tian suddenly disappeared, followed by a few shakes on the screen, and then Li Tian appeared again.

It can be guessed that when the photographer was taking pictures of Li Tian, he was discovered by Li Tian, and then he fell and sat on the ground in terror, while Li Tian was standing, looking down at the TV camera.

"Panshi, it's not over yet! Gaogang, wait for me in Kyoto City!" Li Tian said coldly, and Li Tian made another beheading gesture.

The video is frozen in Li Tian's posture.

The audience in front of the TV was stupid. They never thought that Li Tian would directly declare war on Gaogang.

But seeing the picture of Nanzhou City being destroyed, everyone believed that Li Tian already had this strength.

In the live broadcast room, the two hosts felt that the temperature in the live broadcast room dropped a lot instantly, and Gao Gang clenched his fists and stared angrily at Li Tian on the screen of the live broadcast room.

What the **** is a slap?

Gao Gang said just now that Li Tian didn't have the ability to destroy Nanzhou City. In less than half an hour, someone sent the destroyed video tape of Nanzhou City to the TV station in Kyoto City.

Gao Gang felt the burning pain on his face.

This is more than a face slap, it's **** swollen.

Slaps are not terrible, what's terrible is that they are broadcast live across Kyoto City!

Gao Gang stood up, his face was blue and his hands were shaking slightly. This shaking was not because he was afraid of Li Tian, but because he was full of anger at Li Tian.

"Gao... High Steel Corps Commander, after watching this video, do you... still insist on your previous point of view?" the female host asked with a trembling voice.

Gao Gang really wanted to blow the hostess to death with a punch.

"It's the **** pot that doesn't open or lift which pot, can't you pretend that you can't see me?" Gao Gang thought angrily.

After a few seconds, Gao Gang gradually recovered his calm, and the anger on his face disappeared.

Gao Gang strode up to a camera, holding the camera lens with both hands, then a sneer appeared on the corners of his mouth, and said coldly into the TV camera: "Li Tian, I am waiting for you in Kyoto City! I will You overbearing kid to tear it apart!"

With that said, Gao Gang's hands pressed slightly, and the TV lens was directly shattered into dross.

The entire city of Kyoto was ignited instantly.

Li Tian to Gao Gang!

Heaven vs. Rock!

This is a frontal war!

This is even more exciting than before Pan Shi and other legions divided the food pilgrimage and the holy legion, and it makes people feel more excited.

"No, I can't watch TV alone, I have to find someone to discuss with me, this time, who has a better chance of winning!"

There are not a few people who hold this idea.

Before the end of the world, information is extremely developed, and many people can discuss issues with others in forums, post bars and other places.

But after the end of the world, forums and post bars have become nouns of the past.

Now, if they want to discuss these issues with others, they can only go out of the house and look for like-minded people.

Obviously, there are many people who hold this kind of thinking. In less than half an hour since the show of Truth was broadcast, the streets and alleys of Kyoto were full of people.

"Who do you support?"

"I have to say, of course it is Li Tian! Since Li Tian participated in the Forbes power competition, I have been a loyal fan of Li Tian!"

"I am also a fan of Li Tian, but this time Li Tian returned to Nanzhou City does not seem very good! It seems a bit **** and cruel!"

"Stop fart, that was asked by the Rock Legion. If it weren't for their strong bullying, Li Tian would be angry? But the Rock Legion always claimed to be a steel plate, but did not expect that they kicked on the steel plate this time."

"What you said is correct. This time, the face of the Gaogang army commander will be swollen by Li Tian!"

Chapter 3805: Crisis (1)

Gao Gang was not dazzled by anger. He also knew that the live broadcast of the Kyoto City TV station might have let everyone know about the destruction of Nanshu City. This incident may have an impact on the Panshi Corps' influence in Kyoto City. Has a very large negative impact. .

What Gao Gang is most worried about is the alliance between the Rock Legion and the Hall of Heroes and the Flamingo Legion.

Once their alliance falls apart, the Rock Legion will probably not be facing the Celestial Legion by then, and will even face the secret attacks of the Ten Legions, the Sakura Legion and the Army Soul Legion.

Now Gao Gang misses the Pilgrimage and the Holy Army a bit.

If the Pilgrimage and Holy Legion are not destroyed, then the Pilgrimage and Holy Legion is the most reliable ally of the Rock Legion.

After Gao Gang walked out of the live broadcast room of the TV station, he was immediately surrounded by reporters from other newspapers and media outside the TV station. These reporters also wanted to interview Gao Gang at the first time. If before, Gao Gang would definitely Anxiously accepted, but tonight is not the time.

Gao Gang politely declined the interview, but no matter how Gao Gang declined, the reporters were like flies nailed in the shit, entangled Gao Gang.

"Commander of the High Steel Legion, do you have anything to say about the full-scale war between the Rock Legion and the Celestial Legion?"

"I heard that after Nanzhou City was destroyed by at least 50,000 people, they not only did not remember Li Tian, but went to Beitang City with the Celestial Legion. I don't know if this is the head of the High Steel Corps. What does the Gaogang Corps commander have to say about the people's aspirations?"

"High Steel Corps Commander..."

Gao Gang was so entangled by these reporters that even the head of the Gao Gang army used superpowers, which squeezed out of those reporters.

Walking out of the Kyoto City TV Station, Gao Gang directly got into a black car waiting in front of the TV station. The car speeded up and rushed out, throwing the unwilling reporters and the good deeds of Kyoto City citizens far away. Behind the car.

Sitting in the back row of this car is a woman in her early twenties, wearing a black low-cut and deep V shirt, and two groups of women who are ready to come out. This woman just wants to cling to Gao Gang's side, but it was directly pushed away by Gaogang.

The woman was not angry, she just smiled and said: "It's just a little Li Tian. Is the legionnaire so angry? Heaven destroys our Nanzhou City. This is just an excuse for our Rock Legion to fight the Celestial Legion. As long as the army of our Rock Legion defeats Beitang City, don't we have to take revenge? Even our Rock Legion can continue to advance westward and directly take the Celestial City in its hands."

"Huh, it's easy to say, you must know that Li Tian is the supreme king of the Bounty Hunter Association. Behind him are the two ten legions, the Sakura Legion and the Legion. Don't know." Gao Gang said displeasedly.

"Yes, he is the supreme king of the Bounty Hunters Association, but this time destroying our Nanzhou City, is he destroyed as the supreme king of the Bounty Hunters Association? As for the Sakura Legion, don't forget us Both the Rock Legion and the Sakura Legion are members of the Kyoto City Coalition, including the Bounty Hunter Association, the Agricultural and Commercial Association, etc.! As long as we take the lead and declare that this is the declaration of war by the Celestial Legion against the Kyoto City Coalition Army, and then send people to lobby the legions and associations Presumably even if they are willing to help Li Tian, they dare not risk destroying the human coalition forces!"

"As for the Army Soul Legion, this is indeed a problem, but don't forget that we have an alliance formation agreement with the Flamingo Legion and the Hall of Heroes. As long as the Flamingo Legion and the Hall of Heroes hold the Army Soul Legion, then The heavens are not played to death by us?"

Gao Gang involuntarily glanced at the woman sitting beside him a few more times.

"But now there are two variables. The first is the Black Dragon Legion. The tyrant of the Black Dragon Legion, Gao Gang, has been in Kyoto for a while, but Gao Gang has been nesting in the branch of the Black Dragon Legion stationed in Kyoto. I'm afraid There is another request."

"The second variable is the Yin-Yang Gate. This Yin-Yang Gate is located near Beitang City. Although there is no alliance between the Yin-Yang Gate and the Celestial Realm, the owner of the Yin-Yang Gate and Li Tian have a certain personal relationship, and the lips are dead and the teeth are cold. When the Rock Legion enters Beitang City, it may arouse suspicion at the Yin-Yang Gate, and even push the Yin-Yang Gate to the heaven."

"So, if we want to separate the heavens, we have to take a few steps. First, communicate with the leaders of the five major legions and two associations in Kyoto. It is best to form a coalition force to attack Li Tian. But. Even if other legions and associations disagree, we can justifiably organize coalition forces with the Flamingo and the Hall of Heroes."

"Secondly, send trustworthy people to the Yin-Yang Gate and give the Yin-Yang Gate a lot of benefits. Even if the Yin-Yang Gate cannot be pulled into our righteous camp, at least let them remain neutral."

"Third, actively contact Gao Gang, the tyrant of the Black Dragon Legion, and win over the Black Dragon Legion..."

"This Yin and Yang gate may still have some opportunities for us, but this tyrant Gao Gang and our Rock Legion hardly have much intersection. The few intersections are still our direct conflicts, I am afraid there are many..."

"There are no eternal friends, only eternal interests. There will be no people in this world who can't buy or win over. If we can't win over, it only means that we don't have enough chips.

But now, we don't need to worry too much about the Black Dragonflight. As we all know, although the tyrant Gao Gang is powerful and expensive as the commander of one of the top ten legions, he has a stupid son. "

"This stupid son has always been the heart disease of the tyrant Gao Gang. If we can send some beauties to the stupid son of the tyrant Gao Gang and trap his stupid son, then the tyrant Gao Gang will naturally not be able to intervene!"

"Ten thousand steps back, if all this fails, we can still send people to stare at the Black Dragon Legion secretly, and we can even invite the underground forces in Kyoto City to entangle the Black Dragon Legion!"

At this time, a thirty-seven-year-old man with sunglasses, sitting in the passenger seat, turned his head and said to Gao Gang, "Legislative commander, the Fire Corps commander of the Flamingo Army and the Army Commander of the Hall of Heroes. Hua Yingxiong is now waiting for you in the secret room of your villa. And... and Zhou Guanjia, the new president of the Agriculture and Industry Association, he has also personally visited you! But now he is arranged by me in the study!"

Hearing that the new president of the Agricultural and Commercial Association also came to visit, Gao Gang finally showed a long-lost smile on his face.

"Hahaha, this is what people really want! There are currently five major legions and two associations in the coalition forces in Kyoto City. If we have the support of three legions and one association, the other legions can't get enough waves. Rose, just follow what you just said, and when the coalition's regular meeting is held tomorrow morning, I will have a result!"

"Yes! Lord Legion..." The body of the woman called a rose turned into a rose petal, floating out from the window of a speeding car.

Chapter 3806: Crisis (2)

Duanmu Sakura did not expect that within an hour after the TV station finished broadcasting the results, the Sakura Legion would receive the notification letter from the Rock Legion.

The letter stated that the Rock Army is an important part of the Kyoto City Coalition. When the Rock Army Corps is attacked, the Kyoto City Coalition Army is attacked. Everyone is prosperous, and everything is damaged. The Kyoto City Coalition will absolutely not tolerate such things that disrupt the great unity of mankind. occur!

Duanmuying frowned involuntarily looking at the notice.

"Li Tian, this is a huge crime for undermining the great unity of mankind. I will try my best to overthrow this crime for you at the conference tomorrow, but when the conflict between the heavens and the rock legion, our Sakura Legion will not be able to intervene!" Duanmuying said.

At the same time, the Bounty Hunters Association also received this announcement.

And upon receiving this announcement, the Bounty Hunters Association immediately convened an emergency meeting of the Five Elders.

"I'm afraid this is a bit bad. If Li Tian is in Kyoto, we go to meet Li Tian, then maybe our Bounty Hunter Association will also be sad for the crime of undermining the unity of mankind!" Su Lao said.

Gu Liang'an nodded and said, "This time I agree with Su Lao. After the end of the world, we humans have finally established a living and living base, but Li Tian directly destroyed Nanzhou City and is now crowned by the Rock Army. It's not too much to be accused of undermining the unity of mankind!"

"Huh, don't forget, it was the appearance of Li Tian, the supreme king, that our Bounty Hunter Association has the current status." An old man continued with some dissatisfaction: "Now if Li Tian is charged with undermining the great unity of mankind. At that time, it is our Bounty Hunters Association who will be the first to be hit. So tomorrow we must clear Li Tian's charge!"

"Even if Li Tian's charges are cleared, I'm afraid our Bounty Hunters Association will need to draw a clear line with Li Tian by then!" Gao said with a bit of disappointment on his face.

The entire conference room of the Bounty Hunters Association plunged directly into silence.

At the same time, the opposite here is in the private villa of the Rock Corps Gaogang.

"I don't know if President Zhou is visiting late at night. Let President Zhou wait for a long time. Please bear with me! But I don't know what is going on when President Zhou visits late at night?" After getting down, Gao Gang asked.

Butler Zhou showed a slight smile on his face and said, "Now in Kyoto City, no, it should be said that the most powerful army in the country is of course the Rock Army..."

Gao Gang's face involuntarily showed a trace of pride.

"However, Nanzhou City was destroyed and the Rock Corps suffered heavy losses. If this is the case, someone can choose to support the Rock Corps to rebuild Nanzhou City, and even cooperate with the Rock Corps at a high level. Compared with the high steel army commander, he will not refuse. ?" Steward Zhou said with a smile.

"What are you talking about? Rebuilding Nanzhou? Is this really possible?" Gao Gang asked with an expression of excitement on his face involuntarily.

Nanzhou City is the face of Gaogang. If Nanzhou City can be rebuilt, it is equivalent to helping Gaogang's swollen face feel comfortable by the Association of Agriculture and Industry.

"What's wrong with this? The Agricultural and Commercial Association still has this ability!" Zhou Guanjia said with a slight smile.

"Then what do you want?" Gao Gang gradually calmed down from the excitement, adjusted his body, and then asked.

"It's very simple. We require that in the future, the Rock Legion...very allied legions must establish agro-industrial associations in the areas under their jurisdiction, and the agro-industrial associations can freely preach in these jurisdictions!" said Guanjia Zhou.

"Preaching?" Gao Gang did not expect that Steward Zhou would make such a request.

"Yes, our country is a country without faith. This is the greatest punishment from God in the last days. Therefore, our Agribusiness Association has decided to create our own faith and preach in this country." Zhou Guanjia said calmly. .

A trace of doubt appeared on Gao Gang's face.

Steward Zhou continued: "Cooperation is best for a win-win situation. Our Agribusiness Association is absolutely sincere. If we achieve cooperation, our Agribusiness Association is willing to take out 30% of all grain income across the country!"

"Three...30%?" Gao Gang was a little excited.

30%, and 30% of the whole country, this is definitely not a small number.

It is important to know that the agricultural, industrial and commercial food harvested by the Rock Army Corps in Central Plains in a year is enough for the operation of their entire army.

"Yes, 30%! It's up to now to see if the Rock Legion has the sincerity of this cooperation!" Steward Zhou said with a triumphant smile on his face.

The Association of Agriculture, Industry and Commerce is indeed somewhat lacking in overall strength, and they can come up with 30% of the grain, which is indeed full of sincerity.

"Okay! I promised you!" Gao Gang nodded heavily and said.

"Happy cooperation, I know what to do for tomorrow's regular meeting of the coalition forces!" said Steward Zhou.

After sending away steward Zhou, Gao Gang immediately went into the secret room to meet the heroes of Agni and Hua.

After some conspiracy, the three finally reached a consensus agreement, and this verbal agreement also announced that the alliance between the Fire Legion, the Rock Legion and the Hall of Heroes was formed.

...

Li Tian didn't know what happened in Kyoto.

Situ Ningbing drove the car slowly towards the direction of Kyoto City, while Li Tian in the passenger seat looked outside the car.

It was completely dark, and Li Tian could see through the rearview mirror of the car that there were several cars following his car from a distance on the highway.

The people sitting in these cars are not only the intelligence personnel of the Rock Legion, but also the intelligence personnel of the other major legions.

For these people, except for a few intelligence personnel who had followed Li Tian too close and had made Li Tian a little tired, Li Tian did not rush to kill the others.

After Li Tian destroyed Nanzhou City, he was not in a hurry to go to Kyoto City.

Most of the reasons for this turned out to come from Mr. Mu Yunlong in the space of Void Yasha.

A few days ago, Mr. Mu Yunlong seemed to have something to say with Li Tian several times, but in the end he stopped talking.

Li Tian didn't force his father.

Since the old man is unwilling to say it, then it must have not yet come.

From Nanshu to Kyoto, it took less than two days to drive at full speed, and Li Tian actually walked for nearly a week.

In the past few days, Li Tian would enter the space of Void Yasha from time to time to chat with Mu Yunlong.

Or deliberately throw off the tails behind the car, let the three small Yashas sit on guard, and then Li Tian and Situ Ningbing took the old man and Huangfu Kunpeng into the nearby famous mountains and rivers, as if traveling by car. .

Now, Kyoto City is finally here! Li Tian could already see the dark red light under the distant sky.

"Rock! Li Tian is here!" Li Tian whispered to himself.

Chapter 3807: Withdraw from the association (1)

After a night of rest.

The next day, when the first rays of morning light shone on the tall city wall of Kyoto City, Li Tian's car had reached the outermost layer of Kyoto City, and it had been a week since Li Tian destroyed Nanshu City.

Last night, the intelligence personnel of the various legions that followed Li Tian returned to Kyoto City one after another, passing the news that Li Tian was about to enter Kyoto City.

Therefore, when the soldiers of the coalition army saw Li Tian's car, they were not surprised. After a simple inspection, these coalition soldiers let Li Tian go. But from the eyes of these soldiers, Li Tian could see how they hate themselves.

Situ Ningbing, who was sitting in the passenger seat, also saw it, and said in a puzzled manner: "We have not left Kyoto City for two months, but these soldiers have completely different attitudes towards you. I am afraid there is a Rock Army in it. The result of operation!"

"Yes, it seems that the destruction of Nanzhou City has been fully brewed and fermented in this Kyoto City. But that's good, we can win a better chance for the old man!" Li Tian said slightly. Said with a smile.

It was cleared. Li Tian's car was about to start, but he saw a coalition soldier walking towards his car with a notebook and a pen in his hand.

Li Tian opened the car window. The soldier came to Li Tian's car window and whispered to Li Tian, "Lee... Li Tian, I'm a staff member sent by the Bounty Hunters Association to the coalition army. At the same time, I am also a big fan of you! I heard that at the coalition parade a few days ago, the Rock Legion proposed sanctions against the Celestial Legion, and since then, many newspapers and media in Kyoto City have begun to criticize the Celestial Legion. With Master Li Tian."

"Now the undercurrent in Kyoto City is surging. For Master Li Tian, it is Longtan Tiger Den. I am afraid that the Rock Legion has already figured out a way to deal with Master Li Tian, so Master Li Tian must be careful!"

"Thank you!" Li Tian nodded and said politely to the soldier.

There was a look of embarrassment on the soldier's face and said: "My son is also a loyal fan of Master Li Tian, can Master Li Tian sign my child!"

Li Tian immediately met the soldier's request.

And around this level, there are already many reporters and good people waiting for Li Tian here.

Seeing Li Tian's car passed the barrier, these reporters flocked to him and began interviewing Li Tian.

"Leader Li Tianjun, I'm a reporter from Kyoto City TV Station. Can I interrupt you for a few minutes and accept our Kyoto City TV station's interview!"

"Leader Li Tianjun, I am a reporter from the Kyoto News, can you answer some of our questions?"

"Head of Li Tianjun..."

Situ Ningbing frowned involuntarily, and said to Li Tian: "Li, I don't know if you have noticed that when we came to Kyoto this time, the attitudes of these reporters are completely different. Now they call you uniformly. He is the head of Li Tianjun."

Li Tian nodded and said: "Yes, it seems that we really underestimated the Rock Legion before! But it is precisely because of this that I am more determined to eradicate the Rock Legion."

Li Tian did not accept interviews from these reporters, but accelerated the speed of the car and drove away.

From beginning to end, Li Tian's car was followed by other cars. Li Tian knew that there were people from other corps, unwilling media reporters, and even residents who wanted to see the lively city of Kyoto.

After entering the city of Kyoto, Li Tian drove directly to the General Assembly of the Bounty Hunters Association.

Entering the lobby of the Bounty Hunter Association, Li Tian immediately felt the change in the attitude of the staff of the Bounty Hunter Association towards Li Tian.

Before, every time Li Tian came here, he would be noticed by the eyes and gazes of those bounty hunters. But now, most bounty hunters ignore the existence of Li Tian, and some bounty hunters even see Li Tian's. At that time, there was a trace of disgust on their faces.

In this regard, Li Tian was not angry.

When Li Tian is glorious, he will not be proud of the worship of these people, and when Li Tian is in crisis, he will not be angry because of the disgust of these people.

In the meeting room on the top floor of the Bounty Hunters Association, Li Tian met the five elders of the Five Olds Association who had been waiting for a long time.

In the huge meeting room, in addition to the members of the Five Old Associations, there are also several top ten experts from the Bounty Hunter Association in Kyoto, among them, Gu Lianghongtu who Li Tian knew.

After seeing Li Tian, Gu Lianghongtu made a face to Li Tian.

Li Tian walked into the meeting room, and without greeting, the five elders directly entered the subject.

Elder Gu Liang said to Li Tian: "Li Tian, thank you for your contribution to the development of the Bounty Hunter Association over the past six months. Without you, our Bounty Hunter Association would not have the current reputation."

"However, you are the supreme king of our Bounty Hunter Association. When dealing with anything, you need to consider whether it will affect the Bounty Hunter Association. This time, you destroyed Nanzhou City with one person. It can be said to fully demonstrate your personal strength and fully demonstrate the power of the Supreme King of our Bounty Hunter Association."

"But... the destruction of Nanzhou City puts the Bounty Hunters Association on the cusp of a split, all because you are the supreme king of the Bounty Hunters Association. You not only represent you, but also It represents the entire Bounty Hunter Association. Now the Rock Legion and the coalition forces in Kyoto City have begun to pressure our Bounty Hunter Association. Therefore, we will not announce to the public that it is your personal act to destroy Nanshu City!"

"Yes! This is my personal behavior and has nothing to do with the Bounty Hunters Association!" Li Tian said.

"Also, because of the negative impact of your reckless behavior on the Bounty Hunters Association, you are no longer suitable to be the Supreme King of the Bounty Hunters Association, so we will make this announcement today. Don't worry!" Elder Gu Liang continued.

Li Tian's palm couldn't help turning into a clenched fist, but Li Tian released his palm soon.

Li Tian's gaze slowly swept around. When the little dwarf Ande was in contact with Li Tian, he involuntarily lowered his head, as if he was ashamed of Li Tian, while Wu Lao was calm and calm. The slightest expression fluctuation.

Li Tian already knew all about it. I am afraid that the Bounty Hunters Association had to make such a decision under pressure, and the little dwarf Ande was unable to resist and could only accept such a result.

As for the elderly Wu Lao Wuji, it seems that he did not deliberately prevent this from happening.

Li Tian nodded slightly and said, "Okay! I voluntarily quit the Bounty Hunter Association!"

Chapter 3808: Withdraw from the association (2)

Elder Gu Liang did not expect that Li Tian would accept such an arrangement so easily. He couldn't help but feel a little puzzled on his face, but he felt more guilty. ,

Old Su stood up and said to Li Tian: "In fact, we also have difficulties. This Rock Legion is a member of the Allied Forces in Kyoto, and our Bounty Hunter Association is also a member of the Allied Forces in Kyoto. Although we had conflicts and contradictions before, that They are all small actions in private and will not affect the cooperation of the coalition forces."

"And this time, Nanzhou City was destroyed by you, and the Rock Legion immediately united the Flamingo Legion, the Heroes' Palace Legion, and the Agricultural and Commercial Association to crusade against the Bounty Hunter Association. They insisted that your behavior was instructed by the Bounty Hunter Association. . They even want to call you Li Tianyou and the Bounty Hunter Association a charge of undermining the great unity of mankind, so we have to do this!

Old Man Gao said angrily: "Damn, I only knew that the Rock Legion was doing small actions with the Pilgrimage and the Holy Legion, but I didn't expect that Rock would be involved with the Flamingo and the Hall of Heroes. Now even the Agricultural and Commercial Association is also standing. On the side of the Rock Legion. As a result, there are only the Bounty Hunter Association, the Sakura Legion, and the Feng Yu Tong Cheng Legion in the Kyoto City Allied Forces. The waste legion commander of the Feng Yu Tong Cheng Legion can't beat one of the three sticks. Coming in boredom, there is no hope at all. This time, we gave in and let Li Tian quit the bounty hunter, but what about next time?"

"Yes, although we did not allow the Rock Legion to convict Li Tian and our Bounty Hunter Association for conspiracy to undermine the unity of mankind this time, we must know that in the past few days, the Rock Legion and several other legions have given Kyoto City's TV stations and newspaper media put pressure on them, and these newspapers and media all leaned to the Rock Legion. These newspapers and media still unscrupulously speak for the Rock Legion, blindly discrediting the Bounty Hunter Association, and you Li Tian!" Elder Su also said angrily.

At this time, the five elders of the five elders directly did not have a gap with each other, and they all faced the Rock Legion with the same enemy.

"The ten strong people here, although I, Li Tian and you don't have much overlap, we have all worked hard for the Bounty Hunter Association after all. Now I have something to report to the five elders of the Five Olds Association. But please avoid it," Li Tian said.

The top ten strong men who were doing it all looked at each other, and saw the other elders nodding secretly, all stood up and walked away.

Li Tian hurriedly said to Gu Liang Hongtu: "Hongtu, please go out and announce now that Li Tian has been deprived of the title of Supreme King by the Bounty Hunters Association, and I have been expelled from the Bounty Hunters Association. This message must be delivered as soon as possible!"

Although Gu Lianghongtu was reluctant to give up, he nodded obediently.

For the top ten strong people such as Gu Liang Hongtu, Li Tian withdrew from the Bounty Hunter Association, so the momentum that the Bounty Hunter Association has finally developed is choked to death. The Bounty Hunter Association will probably not be in the future Kyoto City. How much right to speak.

After everyone else had gone out, the entire conference room fell into silence.

"Li Tian, just say what you want to say!"

Li Tian said: "The current Rock Legion is the heart of Sima Zhao. Everyone knows this. I don't need to say this. You must know it."

"Just like Elder Gao said, this time, your Bounty Hunter Association threw me Li Tian out for self-protection. It doesn't matter if Li Tian quit the Bounty Hunter Association. But next time? Like the Agricultural and Commercial Association, become a vassal of the Rock Army?"

"Huh! Go ahead and dream of his Spring and Autumn! As long as I'm there, the Rock Legion won't even want to get involved with the Bounty Hunters Association." Wu Lao who had not spoken sneered and said disdainfully.

"That's right, our Bounty Hunter Association will not be as spineless as the Agricultural and Commercial Association! Elder Gu Liang also said.

"Very good, I do have the backbone, but according to the information I got, the Rock Legion has formed an alliance with the Flamingo Legion and the Hall of Heroes Legion. I think it is impossible for the Bounty Hunter Association to collect such a powerful intelligence system. Intelligence?" Li Tian said.

Elder Gu Liang nodded slightly and said, "Yes, we only collected this kind of intelligence recently, but this intelligence is only intelligence. These corps were originally the coalition forces of Kyoto City, and the corps directly had a certain cooperative relationship. As long as they don't announce to the public, we don't have direct evidence, and we are helpless to them."

"There is no direct evidence. Should our Bounty Hunters Association sit still?"

"What do you mean?" Elder Gu Liang asked.

"Someone on my side wants to meet several elders of the Bounty Hunter Association, you can talk to him again!" Li Tian said lightly.

"Who?" Except for Mr. Wu, several elders asked in unison.

"Huh!"

"Huh!"

Li Tian performed several teleports in a row, appeared beside several elders, and then stretched out his hand and sent them directly into the space of Void Yasha. Only Li Tian and Wu Lao were left in the entire conference room. .

A smile appeared on Old Wu's face and said, "Xiao Litian, after you destroyed Nanzhou City, you have been holding back from coming to Kyoto City, just to see the current situation. Now your goal has been achieved. , The tail of the fox of the Rock Legion has been exposed, so that Mr. Mu Yunlong can easily convince everyone!"

Li Tian wanted to say something, but Elder Wu directly waved his hand and said, "Don't say anything, get out of here, Miss Duanmuying is still waiting for you! Let me handle everything here!"

Li Tian nodded slightly and bowed deeply to Old Wu before he retreated.

After Li Tian just walked out, Wu Lao followed and said to the people guarding outside the meeting room: "The Five Elders will hold an emergency meeting to deal with what happened after Li Tian quit the Bounty Hunter Association. From now on, The entire top floor was immediately sealed off. Without my consent, anyone who enters this floor will be killed!"

"Yes!" the person guarding outside replied immediately.

After Li Tian left the Bounty Hunter Association, he didn't go to Duanki Ying first, but went directly to the office of the Black Dragon Corps in Kyoto. News of Li Tian's withdrawal from the Bounty Hunter Association has spread in Kyoto.

Two hours later, the Kyoto City TV station also broadcast the news, and the entire Kyoto city immediately became a sensation again.

After seeing this news, the commander of the Rock Legion Gao Gang showed a triumphant smile on his face: "Li Tian, you are a betrayer now, and now it depends on the attitude of the Black Dragon Legion. Since the last time Gao Gang accepted me After sending someone to the beauties, there has been no news. No news is good news. It seems that the Black Dragon Legion has already chosen to be neutral. In this case, Li Tian, even if Duanmu Ying help you, your death date It's already here!"

At this moment, four people came in carrying a few large wooden boxes and said to Gao Gang: "High Steel Corps Commander, this is a gift from the Black Dragon Corps Commander Gao Gang! You must check it yourself!"

Chapter 3809: Return gift

"Hey, I didn't expect that the dignified tyrant Gao Gang would even give me gifts!" Gao Gang's face involuntarily showed a trace of pride.

Several core cadres next to Gaogang immediately moved to the side.

A tall, thin man said with a flattering look: "This tyrant never returned a gift when the legion commander's adult sent him and her son beautiful. Now this Kyoto TV station has just broadcast that Li Tian was expelled by the Bounty Hunter Association. , That attitude immediately changed, and even returned a salute to the Legion Commander, hehe, it seems that the so-called tyrant is nothing more than that!"

"Yes, that's right, he knows the current affairs of the Black Dragon Legion, and now he knows how to return gifts, otherwise, after we have annexed the other Legions of Kyoto City one by one, the next step is to take action against his Black Dragon Legion!" another man said.

Hearing this sweet flattering sound, Gao Gang's mood was exceptionally happy.

Once upon a time, this tyrant Gao Gang was completely indifferent to him, the commander of the Rock Legion. Even if he met him in Kyoto City, if the tyrant Gao Gang nodded to him, it would be regarded as polite to him.

But now?

There was a return!

Gao Gang has begun to fantasize about what is in the box.

"Hey, these big boxes are really heavy, it seems that there are a lot of things in them. Master Chief, let the young ones open this box for you!" A little fat man said with a flattering expression.

"Okay, just look at what this gift is. As long as it's not a corpse crystal over level twelve, I can give you a few!" Gao Gang said with an unconcealed smile on his face.

"Okay, Commander Xie is a great reward!" The short fat man immediately tore off the rope on one of the large wooden boxes, and then forcefully opened the lid of the wooden box.

A cold air came on his face, and the cold air made the short fat man shiver involuntarily.

"Ice cubes? Did the Gaogang Army Commander just send back a few ice cubes? Although the post-apocalyptic summer, ice cubes are indeed rare for ordinary people, but it would be too rude to return gifts with ice cubes!" The short fat man said dissatisfiedly.

Gao Gang, who was sitting on the sofa not far away, also felt the coolness, but he didn't care at all, and said: "You don't understand this. It is said that some precious things must be kept at a certain temperature. , You look at the ice cube carefully, there should be other things frozen in it..."

"Really, but what's in this ice cube?" The short fat man crawled on the ice cube and looked inwardly, but the short fat man's pupils gradually enlarged, and there was a panic expression in his eyes, even directly Fell off the ice.

"Haha, what did you see that surprised you so much!" Gao Gang said with a big smile.

"Corps...corpse, army...legal commander...corpse!" The short fat man crawled on the ground and said tremblingly.

"Asshole! What is the Corpse Commander's corpse..." Someone beside him angrily kicked the short fat man, then kicked the box directly with one foot, and kicked the huge ice cube to pieces.

With a crash, the ice cubes were kicked to pieces and scattered all over the floor. The temperature in the whole room dropped a lot in an instant.

And with the ice cubes scattered on the ground, everyone saw clearly that there were some frozen broken corpses in the ice cube.

"Crack!"

"Crack!"

Others cut open the remaining boxes with a few knives, kicked the ice cubes into pieces with a few kicks. These boxes were filled with frozen broken corpses just like the box just now.

Frozen corpses, all frozen corpses.

All of these core cadres were dumbfounded, and looked at the commander of the Gaogang Corps with a blue face.

Rose, who was pinching the shoulders of the Gaogang Corps Commander, slowly walked out from behind Gao Gang, reached out and took a frozen head in her hand. Her gaze only glanced at it and she could see that these corpses were exactly She personally delivered to the beauties of the Black Dragon Legion the other day.

"Jun... Legion commander, these corpses are the women I sent to the Black Dragon Legion to make playthings for his stupid son. I didn't expect that Gao Gang would dared to freeze the shredded corpse into ice and send it back."

"Legion commander, this... here is another letter!" a core cadre said tremblingly.

"Read!"

Gao Gang was already angry at this time, and the solid wood armrests on both sides of the sofa had been crushed into powder by Gao Gang.

The core cadre showed a bitter face. He had guessed that there was no good thing written in the letter. If he puts out this belief, once the army commander is offended, then it will be him who will be unlucky.

"Army... corps commander, I dropped out of school before graduating from elementary school, and the quality of teaching in our mountain village was extremely poor, and the Chinese were all taught by physical education teachers. I... I don't recognize this writing! He graduated from Kyoto City University The top student of, or let him read it!" The core cadre directly stuffed the letter into the short fat man's hand and said.

The short fat guy is really bitter now, so he can only bite the bullet and say: "Pan... Commander of the Rock Legion, I received the woman you sent. My son and I had fun playing, but The quality of these women is so bad that they were accidentally torn apart by my son. You also know that my son's head is not very bright, and it is inevitable to have no importance when he starts his hands. My son saw these torn apart After the toy, I was very sad and angry, so I could only send you all this woman back!"

"I... I heard that your assistant Mei... The quality of the rose is good, it can't be broken no matter how to tear it, I don't know if the Rock Army Commander is interested in reluctantly cutting love, let the rose play with our father and son for a few days..."

"Snapped!"

Gao Gang's arm slapped heavily on the armrest of the sofa, smashing the pair of hands directly, and Gao Gang flew directly in front of the short fat man with a hideous expression, reached out and grabbed the short fat man.

"Army... Legion commander, I... I only read letters!"

The short fat man was almost choked to death by Gao Gang, and Gao Gang slammed the short fat man to the ground.

"Asshole, I took you with sincerity. You treated me like this. I really think that the Rock Legion is afraid of you. The Black Dragon Legion is not successful?" Gao Gang angrily stretched out his hand and held the frozen woman in Rose's hand. Grasping his head in his hands, one hand makes a strong effort.

"Boom!" With a sound, the head was directly squeezed by Gao Gang.

Gao Gang said angrily: "Rose! Just wrong you, you go and serve the Black Dragon Army Commander and his stupid son for a few days, wait for a chance, and screw off the heads of that fat pig and his stupid son. I want Frozen and watch as an ice sculpture!"

Chapter 3810: Wind and rain

When Li Tian came out of the Black Dragon Legion's Kyoto City Office, there was another person beside him. This person was the young man of the Black Dragon Legion, the idiot Gao Shuai, who is now Gao Bi.

Many people find it difficult to understand why Gao Shuai changed his name.

Are you a fool? No matter what name you change, it cannot be separated from the fact that you are a fool.

What's more, it's hard to understand why it is called Gobi. If you ***** call it a fuck, others will feel it a little more intuitive.

Gao Bi lowered his head with such an expression of excitement on his face, and followed Li Tian behind him without speaking, just like a docile puppy. And Kobi's hand was pulling a wrist-thin iron chain, which was at least seven or eight meters long, and the iron chain hit the ground with a series of crisp sounds.

Kobi seemed to have thought of something, smiled slightly, and it seemed that he seemed to enjoy the sound of this crisp impact, and deliberately pulled the iron column back and forth a few times to make the crisp sound. More pleasing.

Until he got into the car and sat in the back seat of Li Tian's car, Gao Bi did not speak.

Situ Ningbing asked Li Tian, "Where are we going now? Are we going to meet Duanmuying?"

"Don't worry, I want to see Liu Feng! I will see Duanmuying after seeing Liu Feng!" said.

"You mean Liu Feng? I heard that although he is very powerful, he is a standard useless person. He belongs to the kind of person who can't beat a sullen fart with three sticks, and his army of wind and rain is under his leadership. In the past three years, there hasn't been the slightest progress and development, and has even begun to gradually decline. In the Kyoto City Coalition Army, this person is also the same waste, almost never expressing his views and opinions, and many times the coalition forces will directly ignore him. The existence of such a person, what is the use of you looking for him?" Situ Ningbing said in a puzzled manner.

There was an unpredictable smile on Li Tian's face, and he said, "The secret is not to be revealed! But you will know soon!"

Liu Feng is the commander of the Fengyutongcheng Corps. He is one of the top 100 powerhouses in the Forbes competition, and he ranks among the top ten in China. But such a strong man is expensive as the commander of the top ten legions, but his low-key is almost ignored. Such a person, many times others cannot remember his existence.

Even during the last coalition parade, this Liu Feng directly abstained.

And Li Tian and Liu Feng almost didn't have much overlap. The few times they met were during the last Forbes Power Contest finals. Now Li Tian suddenly went to Liu Feng, which naturally made Situ Ningbing puzzled.

After watching Li Tian's car start and leaving the office of the Black Dragon Corps in Kyoto, a few people walked out of the dark shadows in the corner.

"It takes only five or six minutes before and after Li Tian enters here to leave. The tyrant of the Black Dragon Legion Gao Gang and this Li Tian will definitely not talk about the outcome. But what is surprising is the Black Dragon Legion. That idiot Gobi actually followed Li Tian's car, which is really hard to understand!" This person said.

"Stop thinking about these issues. I will follow Li Tian now. You should report to the commander of the legion. Really reflect the situation here to the commander of the legion, especially the Rose General Staff. I believe that with the analysis ability of the Rose General Staff, he can definitely analyze it. There is a result. Now, Li Tian's car is heading southwest of Kyoto City. If nothing happens, then Li Tian must be going to the Fengyutongcheng Army Corps." One of the figures said.

"Yes, adults, please be careful when following Li Tian." One person whispered.

In a corner under the city wall in the southwest corner of Kyoto, there are very few bustling high-rise buildings in Kyoto. Almost visible places are full of abandoned factories. Pipes more than one meter thick are running everywhere. It looks like this is The suburbs of Kyoto City are the same.

The headquarters of Fengyu Tongcheng is located here.

This place may be an art area before the end of the world. The walls are covered with scribbles, some very abstract paintings, or some sculptures that are difficult to understand from ordinary people's eyes. And in this factory, a dark red red brick three-story building is the headquarters of Fengyu Tongcheng.

But since entering the factory, Li Tian discovered the difference in this factory.

There are many old people and many children in this factory, as well as men who lack arms and legs.

Li Tian's car appeared here and immediately attracted everyone's attention.

Although the children were scared, they couldn't restrain their curiosity, and slowly followed Li Tian's car.

At this time, a limping man leaned on a cane made of a hose and blocked Li Tian's car. After Li Tian stopped the car, the man came to Li Tian's car door. , Tapped the window glass lightly with his hand, and said to Li Tian who had opened the window: "This factory is full of old people and children. If you don't mind, stop the car. It's not good for them!"

After speaking, this person said in surprise: "You...you are Li Tian!"

Li Tian's name has already resounded through Kyoto City, and now it's not an exaggeration to get everyone out. Li Tian nodded slightly and said, "Exactly!"

Speaking of Li Tian, Situ Ningbing, and Gao Bi had all got out of the car.

"Since you are here, you must be here to see Captain Liu Feng, so let me take you there!" said the cripple.

Li Tian didn't doubt it and said thank you very much.

"Monkey kids, come and play. This is Master Li Tian's car. It doesn't matter if it breaks!" The lame man waved to the children hiding in the distance.

After the children heard the lame words, they immediately ran over with a huff, but instead of moving the car, the children looked at the car curiously, and none of them even touched the car with their hands.

"You follow me, but I'm a quick temper, and I might go a little faster!" The lame man said and strode forward.

To Li Tian's surprise, although this **** lacked a calf, his actions were not slow at all, and even walked a bit faster than most normal people.

Situ Ningbing couldn't help but glanced at Li Tian, Li Tian nodded slightly, and signaled Situ Ningbing not to say more.

"Li Tian, is the health of Commander Mu okay? Tsk tsk, I haven't seen Commander Mu for more than three years! I really miss the old Commander!" said the **** while doing.

"What? You... do you know Li's grandfather?" Situ Ningbing asked.

"Hehe, ask Li Tian, if he doesn't know where this is, how would he come here?" said the cripple.
