

A Killer 4611

Chapter 4611: : Little face slappers (3)

Night fell quietly.

The cow's nose is blue and swollen, and he is curled up in a prison in despair!

The prison is a private prison in Chu Zhangyang's mansion, where innocent people who have offended Chu Zhangyang are held.

There are both flat-headed people and Southern Chu courtiers.

The prison is underground, extremely cold.

There are some weeds on the ground, which have also become treasures in this prison.

The cow egg is very pitiful, not to mention the weeds on the ground, even the thin shirt on his body has been snatched away by other people in the prison, and he was beaten violently.

The cowdan now only has a pair of thick black shorts for shame.

There are a total of seven people in the cell where Niu Dan is located, and the highest-ranking one is an old man who appears to be 60 or 70 years old.

"Is it cold?" a man of the same age as a cow leaned over and asked.

Cow Egg looked pitiful and nodded slightly.

"It's cold! Hahaha!" The man laughed inconsiderately.

Niu Dan really wanted to slap this man to death, but he didn't have the strength and courage.

"If it's cold, move! Like me, follow my beat, move!" The unhearted man stood up, twisting his body and said.

The cow egg curled up in the corner, did not move!

The lack-eyed man didn't care, he squatted down again and asked: "How did you offend Chu's madness? Let me analyze and analyze for you, and see how likely you are to leave here!"

Thinking of this, Niu Dan tore his own hair reproachfully, slapped his chest, and said painfully: "I blame me, I blame!"

Niu Dan originally wanted to take this opportunity to come to Nanchu County to come out to see and see, so that he would have the capital to brag after he returned to Niujia Village.

What was unexpected to Niu Dan was that disaster suddenly struck him.

Niu Dan really hoped that all this was just a dream. When he woke up, he found that he was lying in the bed in his home in Niujia Village.

But Niu Dan knew that this was definitely not a dream.

This time, he had a big deal.

Knowing that the lack-minded man has nothing to be kind, but Niu Dan is now eager to find someone who can confide in his pain.

"I'm a wine buyer, today..." Niu Dan began to whisper.

In the morning, Niu Dan followed Li Tian, Situ Ningbing, and Village Chief Niu into the county town.

The head of the village Niu and others went to sell the wine, and asked the cow eggs to take the handlebars to drive the three carriages with the wine to the Dashilan where the carriage was parked outside the West Market.

Dashilan, you can also understand it as a temporary parking lot in Guoxi City, Nanchu County!

After driving the carriage into Dashilan, Niu Dan and the handlebars were bragging and chatting.

This was originally a peaceful and peaceful day.

But the cow eggs hurt when they are idle, and they have to go out to visit the county town.

Of course, this mentality is understandable.

After all, his starting point is to bring some gifts home.

When shopping, Niu Dan also went to inspect the wine market.

This man walked to the largest restaurant in the county. In order to verify whether the wine in Niujia Village was the only one, he walked into the restaurant in a ghostly manner, spent 10 dollars and ordered a bowl of wine.

After taking a sip of the wine sold in the restaurant, Niu Dan frowned involuntarily and spit out the wine.

Then Niu Dan questioned whether the wine in the hotel was mixed with water.

This is entirely an act of seeking death.

The hotel is naturally unwilling to give up, and insist on beating a cow.

Niu Dan also struggled with reason. At this time, he did not forget to advertise the wine in Niujia Village, saying that the wine sold in this restaurant tasted extremely poor, less than one percent of the wine they brewed themselves.

Or maybe it's bad luck.

Chu Zhangyang just heard Niu Dan's words, and the result....

"That's it! Hey, tell the truth, is your wine really that good?" the man with defective eyes asked.

"Of course, the method of making wine is immortal... Our ancestors handed down! One cup of wine is worth five cups, no, fifty cups!" Niu Dan firmly does not allow anyone to slander their wine.

"In that case, you should be able to get out of here soon! Think about it, your wine is favored by Chu Zhangyang. Who is Chu Zhangyang? That's the son of Nanchu County King. Maybe your wine is now It has been sent to the government, and your wine will be the royal wine in the future!" said the man with defective eyes.

"Really?" There was hope again in Niu Dan's heart.

"Did you make the wine?"

"No!"

"Have you mastered the brewing method?"

"No!"

"Fake! You have no skills, it's useless to keep you!"

"I fuck!"

In the night, Li Tian, Situ Ningbing, Li Letian and others slowly appeared in Chu Zhangyang's mansion.

The mansion is heavily guarded, which is also relative to ordinary quack.

A strong man like Li Tian wanted to enter Chu Zhangyang's mansion, it really came and went freely.

Tiancai's intelligence network was definitely not a boast. It was quickly investigated and it became clear that Niu Dan was trapped in the dungeon of Chu Zhangyang's mansion, and those fine wines had been sent into the state mansion by Chu Zhangyang, as said by the lackey man.

Li Tian is still very low-key. Although he doesn't wear night clothes, he is all covered.

Entering Chu Zhangyang's mansion, Li Tian and others went straight to the dungeon.

He easily entered the dungeon and appeared in front of Niu Dan's cell.

In Nanchu County, someone dared to break into the dungeon of Chu Zhang Kuang's mansion. Everyone in the cell was frightened, but their hearts also burned with hope.

Who are these people here to save?

Will they even be rescued together?

Li Letian slashed the chains of the dungeon cell.

Entering the cell, Li Tian watched Niu Dan even the clothes on his body were snatched away, with a pitiful appearance, Li Tian couldn't help feeling a little angry in his heart. He pointed his finger at the Niu Dan and asked angrily: "Who did it." Stand up yourself!"

It was two men who snatched Niu Dan's clothes, but at this time Niu Dan's clothes were on the old man.

The old man stood up slowly, and said with a smile: "Did you not hear what this adult said? Whoever took off his clothes, stand up!"

The two men who took off their clothes on the cowdan stood up obediently, took off their clothes, knelt down in front of the cowdan, raised their shirts with both hands over their heads, and said, "We have eyes but not the Ten Thousand Gods Mountain. Your lord does not count the villains, forgive us!"

At this time, Niu Dan finally knew that these masked people should have come to rescue him, and he was surprised and happy! Niu Dan tremblingly grabbed these two tattered clothes and was about to put them on.

"Is this your clothes?" Li Tian asked.

"Forget it! Forget it! I'm satisfied to be able to get out of here alive! It doesn't matter if you have a piece of clothing!" Niudan said fearfully.

Niu Dan was afraid of things and flinched, but the old man was rather unhappy.

The old man stood up slowly, sneered, and said, "Everyone has the ability to enter here. I admire the old man very much."

"But I advise you to be forgiving and forgiving! This is the private prison in the mansion of Chu Zhangyang. If you still want to leave here alive, it is best not to do nothing!"

Chapter 4612: : Little face slappers (4)

Li Tian really didn't understand, who on earth did it all?

You rob someone else's things, but you still don't allow others to come back?

"Old man, although respecting the old and loving the young is the traditional virtue of Southern Chu, if you rely on the old and sell the old, don't blame me for smoking you!" Li Tian said with a sneer.

"Scratch me? Hahaha! Don't think that you are the only hero in the whole world! There are not many people in Nanchu County who dare to slap me!" The old man said very bullishly.

As he said, the old man slowly took off the clothes he was wearing and laid it down on the weeds.

Taking off his shirt, the old man's upper body was bare.

The old man clenched his fists slightly and raised his arms. His shriveled body immediately swelled up like it was full of gas. In a flash, the old man became a bodybuilder.

boom!

The old man punched the wall of the dungeon, and the rock-solid wall was sunken into a big piece.

If this punch hits an ordinary person, it is absolutely choking, and it is not impossible to kill a person with a punch.

Several other men in the dungeon saw the old man showing his skills and immediately shouted excitedly: "Master Chu is mighty!"

"Master Chu is domineering!"

"Boy, grandpa, I don't want to leave this dungeon. It's not that grandpa I can't do without this dungeon. You save them. If you stay here, you will treat your grandpa as honoring grandpa! Get out!" The waist picked up the shirt and gently drew out the weeds on the shirt.

As much as you pretend, there are more pretends.

Some people pretend to be forceful because they have strength, while some people pretend to be forceless because they have no strength.

Seeing this old man show off his strength, Li Tian couldn't help but want to laugh.

From the perspective of the world, the old man's strength is not bad, and he has reached the third level of cultivation.

If the old man really wants to leave this dungeon, maybe it is really possible.

But Li Tian and others, even these members of the Skystab Reserve, the weakest are much stronger than this old man.

"Boss, someone pretends to be in front of you, can you bear it?" Li Letian, a bitch, approached Li Tian in a humble voice and said in a deep voice.

How can this be tolerated!

"Beat him!"

Li Tian gave an order, and Li Letian and his entourage rushed up immediately, giving the old man a fat beating. The old man who beat him was howling ghosts, looking for teeth all over the floor, and the new clothes he had just put on him were torn to pieces.

The old man wanted to pretend to be forceful, but found that in front of these masked people, he had no power to fight back. He could only wailed: "I am an old man...Oh! You guys, you actually attacked the old man! Say good old love How about young?...Ouch!"

A few minutes later, the old man fell to the ground, curled up, he didn't even have the courage to look up at Li Tian and others.

"Boss, didn't we want to get back the clothes? Now..."

"Ahem, this is not the point!" Li Tian said.

This is really not the point, the point is Li Tianshuang!

In the main hall of Nanchu County State Palace, hundreds of candles with the thickness of infant arms were lit and hung in the main hall.

Surrounded by bronze mirrors with eighteen sides and one person tall, reflecting the light of the candles, the whole hall looks brilliant, like daylight!

A dozen dancers in the center of the main hall danced with the sound of silk and bamboo. On the left and right of the main hall were the veterans of the Southern Chu County and the members of the Zichuan Empire.

Pushing the cup and setting the cup, making the wine happy, it is really peaceful!

Liquor is naturally the daughter Hong that the Yulin Army snatched from the cow's egg.

It can be said that this daughter Hong has not yet made a reputation in the Nanchu County, but has been recognized in the Nanchu County Government. Unknowingly, this wine has become the royal wine of the Nanchu County.

If from this aspect, Li Tian should feel lucky.

The degree of daughter red wine is much higher than that of ordinary water wine and rice wine.

Just like the ancient Chinese, to describe a person's high alcohol content is described as massive.

That's because they drink rice wine, water wine, rice wine and other low-alcohol wines, and they can really be a thousand glasses without getting drunk.

Have the ability to let them drink Niulanshan Erguotou, to show everyone a mass look.

The head of the mission of the Zichuan Empire is known as a massive drunkard.

The head of the delegation drank several glasses of wine in a row, with a hint of flushing on his face, and said excitedly: "Good wine, really good wine!"

"South Chu County is indeed a natural treasure, with outstanding talents, and even winemaking skills!"

"This wine is more intoxicating than the best wine made in our empire!"

Several other members of the mission echoed.

"Hahaha!"

The Wang Chufeng of Nanchu County laughed a few times, his face showing a trace of triumph.

However, this kind of * is just a flash.

Jun Wang Chufeng really couldn't understand what was so good about this!

Brewing, this kind of work is just the most crude skill in the eyes of the noble king.

Of course, what makes Chu Feng more favorite is the cultivation technique, spiritual soil, spiritual source, such high-end goods.

But Nanchu County is a small country, and they are not qualified to enter the Laika Desert. Therefore, their spiritual soil is more dependent on a big country like the Zichuan Empire.

"Since the mission leader likes this kind of fine wine, I will send the mission leader a cart of fine wine, and after the mission leader returns to the empire, we will say a few words about our South Chu County country!" Chu Feng said.

This kind of wine was robbed by Chu Zhangyang with the Yulin Army, and a total of three great wines were robbed, which Chu Feng already knew.

And the Royal Forest Army also brought back the cow eggs that sold fine wine.

Could it be the king's soil in the whole world, and it's the king's minister who led the soil.

As long as Chu Feng issued a decree to issue a false name to Niu Dan's brewing workshop, Niu Dan and his brewing workshop would become a workshop with royal blood in Nanchu County, which is a state-owned enterprise.

Niu Dan will be a formal employee of a state-owned enterprise in the future. How can Niu Dan be unmoved?

"Then I have to thank Princess Chufeng, but I still have a ruthless request. I don't know if I should talk about it?" said the head of the mission.

The Nanchu County King felt a little flattered, and said proudly: "Although the head of the mission commanded, as long as I can, I will definitely die!"

Nor can it be blamed for the dignified Nanchu County King of Chu Feng for being so inferior to a mission leader.

The cultivation base of the mission leader of the Zichuan Empire reached the fourth level of the Venerable in the early stage, and the cultivation bases of the various missions were mostly powerful people of the Venerable second and third levels.

Where is Nanchu County?

The county king Chufeng is the highest level of the Venerable, and there is still a little gap from the beginning of the second level.

The veterans of the Central Dynasty, the military commander's cultivation is not bad, the strongest commander has reached the first-level mid-level realm of the nobleman, and the other generals are also the eighth-ninth-level cultivation realm.

As for the civil servants, almost all of them were weak scholars who had nothing to do with them.

The strongest civil servant cultivation is the leftist Liu Mingchen, a talented scholar who graduated from the lower academy of the Nether Academy, possesses the eighth level of cultivation.

"Then I won't bend and be polite."

The head of the delegation picked up the wine, drank it, and said: "I am particularly fond of this wine, and I am willing to bring this wine back to the Zichuan Empire and dedicated it to Emperor Zichuan. I don't know if the King of Chufeng County is willing to bear the pain. Transfer this method of winemaking to myself!"

The King of Chu Feng Jun hesitated a little.

"Country King Chufeng rest assured, this is definitely not my intention to seek selfishness, it is more for the sake of Chufeng County King. You think, if Emperor Zichuan likes your wine, whenever he drinks and has fun, he will definitely think of Chufeng County The good of the king, then...hahaha!" The head of the mission laughed.

"Good! Good! It was so happily decided!" Chu Fengjun Wang clapped his hands with satisfaction.

At this moment, a sneer suddenly came from the hall: "If you want to give away my things, shouldn't you ask me first?"

Chapter 4613: : Little face slappers (5)

"Presumptuous! Who is it? Dare to be so rude to the head of the mission?" Chu Fengjun Wang slowly swept across the civil and military officials who were sitting again, and said angrily.

In the main hall, the temperature dropped sharply, from this you can see the anger in the heart of the Chu Fengjun king!

The civil and military officials raised their heads slightly, they looked around, and they wanted to find out this guy who spoiled everyone's interest.

However, no one in the hall was willing to stand up!

The mission leader's face was blue. He knew that his thoughts were difficult for some strong people, but what could be done? He was the leader of the mission from the Zichuan Empire, and his cultivation strength was stronger than that of the Chufeng County King of the Southern Chu County. Much stronger.

Regardless of whether the Chu Junwang agrees or disagrees, he must bring back the Zichuan Empire with this brewing technique.

"Chufeng County King, I don't know what you mean? If you don't want to, our Zichuan Empire will definitely not force it! Why use such a trick?" the head of the mission said angrily.

"Furthermore, we, the Emperor Zichuan, are powerful masters at the dignified master level. Wouldn't it be possible to rob you of your brewing skills? As long as the Emperor Zichuan wants it, I believe those brewing technicians in your county will definitely do Flock into the Zichuan Empire!"

The Chu Fengjun king held up the wine glass and said to the head of the mission: "There is absolutely no intention, absolutely no intention! But it is strange to say that the voice clearly appeared in the hall, but my cultivation level is limited, but I don't know this voice. Who did it come from!"

The head of the mission also had some doubts. His cultivation base was much stronger than that of the Chufeng County King. If this voice was made by the Chufeng County King or everyone present, he had no reason to be unable to judge! "

Humph!

The head of the envoy snorted coldly, picked up the wine glass, and drank it all.

At this moment, Chu Zhangyang, the leader of the guardian of the state and the Prince of Chu Fengjun, walked in from outside the hall, wearing armor and holding a sword.

A dozen masked men followed Chu Zhangyang.

What does it mean?

Are these people for dancing?

For a while, everyone in the hall looked at Chu Zhangyang suspiciously.

"Presumptuous, who allowed you to take people into the hall?" Chu Feng Jun Wang threw the wine glass to the ground and roared angrily.

The voice just now made Chu Fengjun's face completely lost. Now that Chu Zhangyang makes such a noise, the Chufengjun king really doesn't know how to explain to the heads of missions from the Zichuan Empire.

Chu Zhangyang remained unmoved, staring at Chu Feng with a cold eye, and said with a sneer: "The throne will take turns and come to my house today! Chu Feng, you are old and in poor health, shouldn't you pass the position of the county king? Me?"

what?

Chu Feng could hardly believe his own ears.

Is this his most distressed son?

How dare to say such a thing!

In the main hall, the moments were extremely quiet, and the civil and military officials all looked at Chu Zhangyang suspiciously, wondering if this kid took the wrong medicine today, so he dared to say such a rebellious thing.

"Chu Feng, you heard that right, I just want to tell you tonight, this Southern Chu county's prefecture should be given to me!" Chu Zhangyang Xiaozhe said.

The head of the group felt very surprised.

He had already seen Chu Zhangyang before, and Chu Zhangyang was not the best in his cultivation, but this guy's temperament was similar to that of Chufeng County King because he was particularly appreciated by Chufeng County King.

However, Chu Zhangyang's cultivation was only at the third level of the cultivator. Using his current strength to seek rebellion and usurp the throne was completely self-defeating.

However, Chu Zhangyang's cultivation is not strong, but the masked people behind Chu Zhangyang's cultivation are not weak. Most of their cultivation has reached the state of venerable, and a few have even stronger cultivation than Chu Feng. .

For two of them, even the head of the mission could not judge that cultivation base.

The head of the delegation stopped speaking, and a sneer appeared at the corner of his mouth, and said: "It seems that we are not here at the right time. Should we temporarily avoid it?"

"No! Didn't the mission leader want these fine wines? These fine wines belong to me. If you are interested, you can negotiate with me later!" Chu Zhangyang said.

Now the situation is very clear, I am afraid that what I said just now was also said by Chu Zhangyang.

But why the voice appeared in the hall is not important anymore.

"Asshole thing! Get out of here, I'm assuming that I didn't hear this today!" Chu Fengjun grabbed a hip flask on the table again, slammed it at Chu Zhangyang, and said angrily.

In addition to the anger, the Chu Feng County King was also full of fear.

That's right, Chu Fengjun Wang felt terrified at the strength of the masked people behind Chu Zhangyang.

He could feel that among those masked people, at least seven or eight had a better cultivation base than him. Now Chu Fengjun Wang hopes that the head of the regiment can stand on his side, so that he can win.

But seeing that the head of the mission did not want to take this muddy water, the Chu Fengjun king could only give in.

"Chu Feng County King, you don't need to talk about this kind of bastard. Did you step down from that throne yourself? Or should I pull you off from that throne?" A masked man stood behind Chu Zhangyang. Come out and say.

This man is no one else but Li Tian.

After Li Tian rescued the cow eggs, Li Tian did not see Chu Zhangyang in Chu Zhangyang's mansion. He learned that the Chu Fengjun king in the state mansion would entertain the delegation of the Zichuan Empire tonight, and Li Tian took people directly to the state mansion.

The cow eggs are sent back to the sky thorn.

When he arrived at the national palace, Li Tian took no effort to catch Chu Zhangyang, and then controlled Chu Zhangyang with the Soul Detention Dafa.

Just as Li Tian said, the emperor will take turns to come to my house next year. Sooner or later, Nanchu County will become Li Tian's Venerable Kingdom, so let the puppet Chu Zhang Yang be the Nanchu County King first.

"Asshole!"

The leader of the Nanchu County National Congress, a strong man with a mid-level 1st grade of Venerable, slammed the table with alcohol, stood up, swayed to Li Tian, and pointed at Chu Zhangyang's nose angrily, Spittingly said: "Asshole! The princess is so kind to you, not only are you not grateful, but you dare to do such a rebellious thing! Today...today..."

Before this commander had finished speaking, he was kicked by Li Tian in his abdomen and flew out.

boom!

The General Commander's body was smashed heavily on several cases, and those cases were instantly torn apart, the bottles and jars on the several cases were smashed, and the soup poured over the Commander himself.

Then the leader just pretended to be dead and fell to the ground motionless.

The commander is a wise man. He used practical actions to tell King Chufeng that it was not that I would not help you, but that I could not help you.

Seeing the commander fell to the ground, the generals were silent, half awake from the wine, and they didn't even have the courage to stand up.

On the contrary, it was the civil servants who rolled up their sleeves angrily and rushed forward, arguing and eager to scold Chu Zhangyang and Li Tian and others.

Chu Feng saw that the commander was only an enemy of one move, and knew that the situation was over. He sat down on the ground and said in a hoarse voice: "Stop it! Let's open up my son's deep my true biography, this...this... Nanchu County I'll pass it on to Chu Zhangyang as the king of the country! You don't have to say much!"

Chapter 4614: : Li Tian's determination

Without a bloodbath, Nanchu Junguo fell into Li Tian's hands.

In order to avoid long nights and many dreams, the Chufeng County King 'hanged himself' on the night he stepped down from the throne, and he was called the first county king to hang himself in the history of Southern Chu.

The head of the mission from the Zichuan Empire was invited by Chu Zhangyang to the study to discuss major issues together!

Two masked men, Li Tian and Situ Ningbing, accompanied the whole journey.

In fact, Li Tian can use Yi Rong black mud to temporarily change his appearance, but Li Tian does not seem to be ugly, so he can only cover his face.

Of course, the members of this mission may not know Li Tian, but Li Tian didn't want to take risks.

Chu Zhangyang was now controlled by Li Tian, and Li Tianxian asked Chu Zhangyang to discuss wine matters with the head of the mission.

The head of the mission still insisted on purchasing this brewing technique, but Chu Zhangyang firmly disagreed, and only allowed the Zichuan Chamber of Commerce to act as an agent for the sales of daughter red wine in the Zichuan Empire.

Moreover, if you want the right to be an agent, you have to pay a high amount of agency fees, and this agency is also limited by years.

The head of the group was very angry, he felt that Chu Zhangyang was aggressive.

"King of Chu County, I can't see the slightest sincerity of your cooperation! Don't forget that I am the head of the Zichuan Empire. If you anger our Zichuan Empire, it won't do you little Nanchu County!" The head of the mission said with a sneer.

Ouch, this is threatening Chu to publicize.

In other words, this guy dared to threaten Li Tian.

Huh!

Li Tian, who was still standing behind Chu Zhangyang just now, teleported to the head of the mission in an instant, snap! Snapped! Two slapped the head of the mission.

"Remember for me that you are just the head of an envoy, you are not the Emperor Zichuan! According to the equivalent level, we don't need our Prince Chu to receive you personally to receive you! Don't be shameless!" Li Tian said with a sneer.

Li Tian is really a * good face slapper. He has slapped so many people in the face that day. Only by hitting the head of the mission did Li Tian feel the real refreshment!

"You...do you dare to beat me? Are you not afraid that our Zichuan Empire will be angry and send people to level down your Southern Chu county?" After a short period of astonishment, the head of the mission said with some grievances, and then said strongly.

Snapped!

It was another slap in the face.

"If you say something like this, I will smoke you once!" Li Tian said with a sneer.

The Southern Chu County feared the Zichuan Empire, but Li Tian was not necessarily afraid of the Zichuan Empire.

As long as it is not for Emperor Zichuan's visit, no matter who comes to Nanchu County, he will die!

If they waited until Li Tian had refined the spirit power of the tiger's domain master, they would deliver food, just in time to provide Li Tian with a steady stream of spiritual power.

Besides, even if the Emperor Zichuan comes in person, how can it be?

In this Southern Chu county, there is still a slap in the face of Chu. Li Tian is afraid of him?

The head of the group was angry, but he did not dare to attack randomly.

He could only curse Li Tian viciously in his heart, and then thought about how to plant and blame Nanchu County after returning to the Zichuan Empire, and let the Zichuan Empire impose sanctions on Nanchu County.

Chu Zhangyang said: "Stop it! This is our personal contradiction, don't rise to the national level to discuss. Our general direction is still the same! Mission leader, yesterday, yesterday, you discussed things with Chu Feng, now you give me Repeat it again! Our Nanchu county has promised the Zichuan Empire, no matter who is the king of this county, we will continue to cooperate!"

The head of the delegation felt slightly better psychologically.

The head of the mission told Chu Zhangyang in detail about what he knew, and where Li Tian didn't understand what he could not determine, he continued to ask questions under the guise of Chu Zhangyang.

After the mission leader poured out everything he knew in his stomach, Li Tian then released the mission leader.

Then Chu Zhangyang enthusiastically invited the mission of the Zichuan Empire out of the county overnight.

Of course, hospitality has always been the custom of Nanchu County. For this reason, Chu Zhangyang also arranged for people to have a bonfire outside the city, and invited three people to dance around it.

There was also his daughter's red wine. Li Tian was not stingy in this regard, and he really let the mission leader take the remaining two carriages away.

As for the reason, Li Tian didn't want the mission leader to return to the Zichuan Empire too quickly.

With this car and wine, it was enough to slow down the mission of the mission leader.

...

Nanchu County has changed!

That night, there was a spring rain in Nanchu County.

The spring rain lasted two days and two nights.

The rain is not heavy, but it never stops, which makes people feel a bit of chill.

What really made these people feel cold was that the Chufeng County King of Nanchu County hanged himself because of guilt.

As for why the Chufeng County King was guilty, the ghost knew it.

Anyway, this is the decree issued by the new county king Chu Zhangyang.

In a county, the sky changes overnight, and even ordinary people suspect that there is a ghost in it.

The other princes were naturally more suspicious.

It's just that the officials who entered the government for the dinner party last night were left in the residence by the new prince. They have not yet come out, and the mission of the Zichuan Empire has left last night.

Then these sons began to make noise.

For this kind of noise, Chu Zhangyang showed his domineering.

After issuing a decree, a mysterious force appeared.

The noisy sons didn't know if they encountered ghosts, and suffered heavy losses one after another, and even some sons lost their lives!

At this time, the officials of Nanchu County knew that this Chu Zhangyang was definitely not a joke!

After several days of thanking guests behind closed doors, many ministers asked to see the new king, which is regarded as an oath of allegiance to the new king.

In less than a week, the Nanchu prefecture transitioned smoothly.

Li Tian couldn't be happy anyhow.

"Li, are you still thinking about the third son of the Netherworld?" Situ Ningbing asked.

Li Tian nodded slightly and said, "Ye Meijing hasn't done this yet. If you want Ye Meijing to know this time, how do you think I will face her in the future?"

If you don't save yourself, your concubines can't do it.

But if Li Tian was asked to die, Li Tian couldn't do it.

"I want You Anrou to return to the dark forest and pass this news to the Third Young Master Nether, let them decide what to do!" Li Tian said.

Situ Ningbing looked at Li Tian, and said after a while: "Have you thought about it? The bow hasn't been turned back, how can you now compete with the Blood Domain Lord and the others?"

Li Tian took out three wooden plaques from his skin and spread them one by one on the table, saying: "The domain master of the purple flame thunder bear and others are my brothers, and the third son of the Nether is my brother. I can't favor one another! If those three fools decide to send them to death, I must send them off."

"And if I decide to die, my four brothers will not die! Maybe it's stupid, maybe it's not worth it, but this is my Li Tian's determination!"

Chapter 4615: :action

Sending off the dark and soft, Li Tian stayed in the Skythorn Manor in Nanchu County, and was still seizing the time to refine spiritual power.

According to the obscene god, it takes at least three to five years for Li Tian to refine the spiritual power of this domain master.

This is too long for Li Tian!

If the three silly ghosts are really going to die, Li Tian must rush to fully refine this spiritual power within a month.

At that time, the purple flame thunder bear domain master, the Tiangang flame raccoon domain master, the earth evil sky vulture domain master, and the Yinmo silver bull domain master, these four domain masters plus Li Tian who can easily kill the domain master-level powerhouse, The strength should not be underestimated.

Of course, there is also a small hot pot, an emperor-level powerhouse, a vicious dog, a small blue tile, and dark soft.

The only thing that worries Li Tian is whether the Super God Family will join the battle.

If the Super God Family joins the fight, then Li Tian and others have no chance of winning!

"Ningbing, I want you to go back to Netherworld Academy! Tell the old dean and elders what I think!" Li Tian's opponent Situ Ningbing said.

"If the old dean and elder won't offend the Super God Family for you? What are you going to do then?" Situ Ningbing asked.

Li Tian looked at Situ Ningbing, and said seriously: "I don't expect the old dean and the elder to help me fight together, as long as I can let Nether Academy know that Li Tian is an indispensable talent in the academy. They know that it is worth offending the Super God Family for me, Li Tian!"

Situ Ningbing nodded slightly and said, "I will try my best to convince them!"

"Not as much as possible, but to convince them! Before you leave, I will prepare something for you to take back to the Nether Academy, and take these things to the old dean and elders. They will understand the value of these things!" Li Tian said.

After persuading Situ Ningbing, Li Tian arranged a small hot pot to accompany Situ Ningbing to the Netherworld Academy.

The small hot pot has the strength of the emperor, and protecting Situ Ningbing's safety should not be a problem.

After sending Situ Ningbing away, Li Tian found the vicissitudes of life and the stars and Xiaoyue respectively.

The vicissitudes of life is the daughter of the Great Emperor Canghai of the Canghai Empire, and the daughter of the Star Domain Lord.

These two are out-and-out second generations.

The patriarchal thought in the Netherworld is much more serious than the earth world.

According to this analysis, the Great Emperor Canghai and the Star Domain Master should send their fancy son to the Netherworld Academy.

But it was the vicissitudes of life and the stars and Xiaoyue who really entered the Nether Academy.

But don't be surprised.

As long as you know that the two vicissitudes of life and Xingchen Xiaoyue are the top powerhouses in the upper academy of the Netherworld Academy, you can understand.

The vicissitudes of life and Nether Xiaoyue's cultivation talents are absolutely outstanding, and it is precisely because of this that they will receive more attention.

What Li Tian worries about is that even if the Super God Family is blocked by Nether Academy, if the Blood Domain Lord, Zichuan Great Emperor and other domain masters assist them, Li Tian will feel very painful.

Therefore, Li Tian certainly hopes that the vicissitudes of life and the stars can convince their Lao Tzu that it is best to stand beside Li Tian, even if they can't stand beside Li Tian to support Li Tian, they definitely can't stand on the side of Snow Territory Lord.

Li Tianxian found the vicissitudes of life.

"The vicissitudes of life, do you know that Tang Xiaolong is my beloved brother!"

"know!"

"Then you know if Tang Xiaolong and I have experienced life and death together!"

"Xiaolong said it!"

"Tang Xiaolong and I are the best friends. Join me and encounter misfortune. Tang Xiaolong will never live alone! Believe it or not?"

"Hehe, Tang Xiaolong said he died once, but you are alive and well!" said the vicissitudes of life.

"This is not the point! I mean I am very important to Tang Xiaolong, just as Tang Xiaolong is important to you!" Li Tian said with an embarrassed expression.

"What do you want to say? Directly?"

"Well, I want you to take Tang Xiaolong back to the Canghai Empire!"

"What are you doing? Before my cultivation base reached the realm of the emperor, my father would not allow me to return to the empire!"

"If you can't return to the Empire, then you can write a letter to Tang Xiaolong, and let Tang Xiaolong take your letter to the Canghai Empire and meet the Great Emperor Canghai!" Li Tian said.

"Forget it, let me take Tang Xiaolong back to the empire! There is only so much I can do. As for what you want Xiaolong to say and do, I can't help! And, if nothing happens, If you do, we will be sent directly to the Nether Academy. If you have any words, please tell your good friends as soon as possible!" Said the vicissitudes of life.

Li Tian wrote a letter to Tang Xiaolong, and asked Tang Xiaolong to take some valuable gifts, which was regarded as asking Tang Xiaolong to visit the old man.

After leaving Tang Xiaolong and the vicissitudes of life away, Li Tian only saw the stars and Xiaoyue.

Xingchen Xiaoyue seems to be very prejudiced against Li Tian.

Every time I look at Li Tian, he always looks very upset. I don't know whether it is the endocrine disorder of this girl or the psychological distortion of the long-term lack of sexual partners.

Li Tian didn't know if he could make Xingchen Xiaoyue fall under his jeans.

Later, I thought that Li Tian still gave up this stupid idea.

Sure enough, as soon as Li Tian saw Xing Chen Xiaoyue, he was severely despised by Xing Chen Xiaoyue.

"Something to say! There is fart! I don't have time to ink with you!"

"I like the feeling that Xingchen Xiaoyue speaks with a taste!" Li Tian gently slapped his palm in front of his nose.

Xingchen Xiaoyue is a little angry, but she can't do anything to Li Tian.

Li Tian is definitely not the one who suffers, especially when it comes to using hands and feet.

Of course, in the past two years, the stars and Xiaoyue in the space of the Qiong Spear of the sky have gained quite a lot.

Li Tian found a lot of treasures from the dark forest, and many of these treasures are restricted in use.

Xingchen Xiaoyue takes what is useful and takes what is useful.

"Let's talk if you have anything! I've been practicing at a critical juncture recently. If it's not something important, don't bother me!"

Well, Li Tian has been completely defeated by Xing Chen Xiaoyue!

Cannibals have soft mouths and short hands.

But in Xingchen Xiaoyue, all Li Tian saw was that he owed Xingchen Xiaoyue!

"Please one thing!" Li Tian got serious and said with a serious expression.

"Say!"

"Although I don't like you, I don't want to be your enemy!"

"Thank you!"

"Of course, I don't want to be an enemy of the Star Domain Master."

"You don't have that strength!"

Li Tianchang let out a suffocating breath, ignored the poisonous tongue of Xingchen Xiaoyue, and continued: "In the next few months, there will definitely be major events in the Nether Realm. Many domain masters and emperor-level powerhouses will be involved. Of course. , The protagonist here is me!"

"So I don't want the Star Domain Master to intervene, especially standing on the opposite side of me! In this way, how you let me face you, I will be very entangled!"

Xingchen Xiaoyue rolled Li Tian's eyes and said, "I can't do anything! Now you send me out of here, I'm going to vomit for a while!"

Chapter 4616: :letter

After the stars and Xiaoyue came out of the Qiong Spear of the sky, they left Nanchu County.

I don't know if this lady has gone back to the Nether Academy, or has gone to the Venerable Kingdom of the Star Domain Master.

Xingchen Xiaoyue did not say, nor did Li Tian ask.

Looking at the distant back of the stars and Xiaoyue, Li Tian felt a little worried for this girl.

After all, the girl Xingchen Xiaoyue, any normal man will have all the desires when she sees it, after all, this girl has such a big chest, such a good body, and such a handsome appearance.

...

After thinking about it, Li Tiansi wanted to confirm what he hadn't thought of.

Sure enough, there was someone Li Tian hadn't thought of!

Female domain owner!

"Some mistakes! The female domain master should let Situ Ningbing to communicate, and the effect may be better! But the Nether Academy can only be communicated by Situ Ningbing! Hey, it seems that the female domain master can only be me. I personally communicated!" Li Tian thought with a sigh in his heart.

Regarding the female domain master, Li Tian's heart is actually somewhat resistant!

From the outside, the female domain lord and Situ Ningbing are like twins, but the attitudes of the two people towards Li Tian are completely different.

Last time in the Lycra Desert, the female domain lord was rather indifferent to Li Tian!

When he thought of this, Li Tian felt a little unhappy, as if he was using his hot face to paste the female domain master's cold ass.

"Just post it, who told me to ask her!" Li Tian sighed.

Before leaving Nanchu County, Li Tian arranged some things for Li Letian and Meng Guang.

Chu Zhangkuang is Li Tian's puppet, but after Li Tian leaves Southern Chu County, Chu Zhangkuang will have self-awareness, but he doesn't have to worry too much. Chu Zhangkuang will never betray Li Tian.

Li Tian asked Li Letian, the supreme emperor of the Nanchu County, to do his job well, and urged the efforts to build Nanchu into a happy, safe and prosperous South Chu.

After all, if nothing happens, the future of Nan Chu will be the home of hundreds of thousands of people in Li Tiantian's Qiong Spear.

Li Tian's request for Meng Guang is to vigorously develop the business of the newly built city.

When he was in the earth world, Li Tian had seen many ghost cities, but Li Tian didn't want the cities he spent so much time to build into ghost cities.

Fortunately, the Nanchu Chamber of Commerce and several other chambers of commerce have arrived in Niujia Village and decided to establish their chamber of commerce in the newly built inner city, which has made a certain contribution to the prosperity of the new county.

All things were resolved, Li Tian really couldn't think of any reason to continue to delay, and then he left Nanchu County and moved towards the Venerable Kingdom of the female domain master.

Nanchu County has undergone tremendous changes, and the most entangled in the county is Chukolian, the vice chairman of the Nanchu Chamber of Commerce.

In the eyes of ordinary people, Chu Kolian has quite a cultivation base, holds an important position, and controls the economic lifeline of half of the South Chu county. If you stomped your feet, an earthquake will occur throughout the chamber of commerce in the South Chu county.

But Chukolian knew that he was as pitiful as his name.

Let me talk about the cultivation base first, Chukolian has not entered the realm of apprenticeship.

This kind of cultivation is considered a master in the eyes of ordinary people, and in the eyes of real masters, Chukolian's cultivation has not yet started.

Let's talk about the Chamber of Commerce.

Chukolian is the vice president of the Southern Chu Chamber of Commerce, but this is also a good name.

In fact, Chukolian is at best a big shopkeeper.

The iron-clad chamber of commerce, the treasurer of flowing water.

The vice chairman of Chukolian is the treasurer of the Chamber of Commerce.

His term of office is thirty years.

At the end of thirty years, no matter how much Chukoleng is, he will quit the vice president of the Chamber of Commerce and hand over the position of the Chamber of Commerce.

When leaving the Chamber of Commerce, Chukolian can get a generous sum of money.

This money is enough for Chukolian to provide for the elderly and live a worry-free life.

However, the rich family background of the Southern Chu Chamber of Commerce has nothing to do with him.

The poorest thing is the name.

Chukolian has been Chukolian for ten years, but this name does not belong to him. When the thirty-year term is over, his name will be passed on to the next great treasurer.

When Chukolian took over as the vice president of the Chamber of Commerce, the predecessor left Chukolian with a name, a practice book, and an oral statement.

The name and exercises have already been said, now let's talk about this dictum.

The oral instruction was left by the president of the Southern Chu Chamber of Commerce and passed on from generation to generation.

The oral statement said that if there is a change of rights in Nanchu County, it is necessary to write a letter to notify the chairman of the Nanchu Chamber of Commerce.

As for the address, I didn't say, the recipient of the letter, I didn't say.

Many times Chukolian feels that this oral statement is a joke. It is for this reason that when the Nanchu county really changes drastically, Chukolian began to struggle whether or not to write this letter!

On the second day of the Southern Chu Change, Chukolian did his business as usual, and sent people to return to Niujia Village with the head of Niu Village and Niu Dan, and arranged for someone to go to Niujia Village to organize the establishment of the Chamber of Commerce branch.

On the third day, Chukolian was still busy with his affairs in the Chamber of Commerce, and did not take this verbal statement too seriously, and even Chukolian began to dream about if he swallowed the Southern Chu Chamber of Commerce.

On the fourth day, Chukolian began to feel a little uneasy. He decided to go to Niujia Village and relax. Maybe everything was really as he thought. When Chuko Lianba had everything arranged and was about to leave Nanchu County, someone suddenly came to him.

Chukolian didn't know the person who came to Chukolian, but Chukolian knew about the Yunlian Chamber of Commerce behind him.

Yunlian Chamber of Commerce does not produce any products, do not sell any products, they only provide services!

Transportation services, such as: precious items, such as letters, or even humans, animals, etc., are just like express companies in the earth world.

Don't underestimate this chamber of commerce called Yunlian. This chamber of commerce is one of the few chambers of commerce that can use flying containers to travel freely over all the kingdoms and empires of the Nether Realm.

"Is there anything you want to do with me? If it's about the Chamber of Commerce, you can go to the Chamber of Commerce to talk to my assistant. I have something to deal with now!" Chuklian looked at this person in doubt.

The visitor smiled and said straightforwardly: "Vice President Chu, I'm afraid you can't leave here now, I'm here to collect the letters! You write to the president of your chamber of commerce!"

Chukolian stared at this man's face as if he had been in a ghost, and said in surprise: "You...how do you know? I never told you I want to send a letter!"

"Yes, you didn't tell me that there is a letter to send, but I am very sorry. Our Yunlian Chamber of Commerce also has an oral statement. If there is a sudden change in Nanchu County, you must go to the Nanchu Chamber of Commerce to find Vice President Chu for you Letter!" The man said with a smile.

Chukolian only felt a cold breath escaping from his spine and reaching his head. His scalp was numb, as if a small needle kept irritating his head.

After a while, Chukolian came over, walked to the desk tremblingly, and said tremblingly: "Write...I...I will write now!"

Chapter 4617: : I'm old if I don't be crazy

Nether Academy.

In the study of the old dean's residence, the old dean's brows frowned.

The events of Yecheng Huangzun and the other three emperors happened so suddenly that Nether Academy was a little caught off guard.

What made the old dean even more unprepared was the follow-up series of actions by the blood domain master and others.

According to reliable information, the Blood Domain Lord and Zichuan the Great have contacted the other four Domain Lords to help them. What made the old dean angry is that the previous material elders were also involved with the Blood Domain Lord. It seems to be Determined to deal with Li Tian.

These domain master-level powerhouses are nothing to any elder-level powerhouse!

Only the Super God Family was the only one that made the Netherworld Academy a little jealous.

However, soon a worse news was confirmed. The Donggong Supershen family and Sanlu Supershen's family where the old woman is located have reached a certain consensus. Now the Donggong Supershen family is actively contacting the other two supershen families. .

If the four super  families unite, then Nether Academy definitely cannot go to such muddy water.

Wang Changqing returned with more than a hundred students from the lower academy, but the information that Wang Changqing brought back was outdated. For the Nether Academy, Li Tian's whereabouts are still unknown.

The only thing that comforts the old dean is that the old dean who watched Li Tian's "Man Jiang Hong" was full of enthusiasm!

After the blood boiled over, the old dean calmed down again.

Taking advantage of the development of the matter has not been developed in the uncontrollable direction of Nether Academy, Nether Academy must do something.

Then the great elder was sent out by the old dean.

What the Great Elder wants to do is to break the relationship between the four super  families, especially not to allow the East Palace super  family to reach a consensus with the other two super  families.

A few days later, Fifth Shuiyue and other elders returned to Nether Academy one after another. None of the news that these guys brought back to the old dean was good news!

The old dean frowned, and asked the Fifth Shuiyue and other elders who had just rushed back with an unhappy expression: "Besides these bad news, do you have any news about Li Tian?"

The Fifth Shuiyue and other elders shook their heads slightly.

"Why do you come back without news of Li Tian? Continue to go out and find Li Tian for me. Once you find Li Tian, you must bring Li Tian back. Don't let Elder Li Tian come into contact with the Super God family!" said the old dean .

Elders such as Fifth Shuiyue could only leave Nether Academy again.

That afternoon, the old dean's assistant knocked on the door of the old dean's study.

"Old dean, there is a student outside asking to see you!" the assistant said.

"Student? Let him go to the teacher at the academy!" said the old dean.

The assistant hesitated for a moment, and then said: "The student said that she was called Situ Ningbing, a student from our upper academy..."

"Situ Ningbing... Situ Ningbing, I seem to have heard the name somewhere, could it be... Elder Li Tian... Hurry, get her in!" The old dean suddenly thought of Situ Ningbing's identity. , Stood up a little excited and said.

The assistant hadn't seen a smile on the old dean's face for a long time, so he invited Situ Ningbing in.

The old dean saw Situ Ningbing coming in and looked behind Situ Ningbing. Of course, the old dean hoped that Elder Li Tian could return to the Nether Academy with Situ Ningbing, but his hope was lost!

"Old Dean, hello, I am Situ Ningbing, a student from the upper academy. When the meteorite fell into the sky, I escaped by luck. Now I return to the academy smoothly!" Situ Ningbing said.

The old dean waved his hand and said, "I just want to know the news of Elder Li Tian. I know he is still alive. Where is he now? Hurry up and tell me!"

Situ Ningbing was not in a hurry to answer the old dean's question, and said: "Elder Li Tian is very safe. He asked me to bring some gifts to the old dean when he came back. He said that after seeing these gifts, the old dean will definitely do it. Very happy!"

"Gift? What kind of * gift was you telling me at this time! Do you know that Elder Li Tian is in danger now? I must send Elder Li Tian back to Nether Academy. Only Nether Academy can provide Elder Li Tian with safe protection!" The dean said dissatisfiedly.

If it hadn't been for the old dean to know that Situ Ningbing was Li Tian's wife, the old dean would have jumped up and scolded Situ Ningbing.

Seeing that the old dean cared about Li Tian so much, Situ Ningbing let go of his hanging heart.

However, Li Tian's character, Situ Ningbing, is too clear. If the Third Young Master really wants to go to Yecheng Huangzun's Venerable Kingdom to die, even if the old dean goes personally, I'm afraid he will not be able to convince Li Tian to follow him back to Netherworld. Academy.

And if for Li Tian's safety, let Li Tian follow the old academy to the Netherworld Academy, Li Tian would probably not agree.

"Old dean, first look at the gift that Elder Li Tian asked me to bring you!" Situ Ningbing said as he took out the gift he was carrying from his skin.

There is nothing special about the gift, just two boxes and a book of poems.

Seeing these two boxes, the old dean's eyes opened to look straight.

"It's the key box, it turned out to be the key box of the underground library!"

The old dean turned it over, and an almost identical key box appeared in his hand. Then he placed the three key boxes neatly on the table, and stroked the key box with a trembling arm.

"Where is the key inside? How did he get this key box? Did you see the villain from Chu Jiangnan?" The old dean said excitedly.

Situ Ningbing poured a glass of water for the old dean and placed it in front of the old dean. Then he said slowly: "The key is in the hands of Elder Li Tian. This key box is the key box where Elder Li Tian killed a domain master. Get it from the bit domain master!"

"That's good, that's good, now Elder Li Tian already has three keys in his hands...Wait, what did you just say that Elder Li Tian did? Killed a domain master-level powerhouse? Could it be that Elder Li Tian is now Has his cultivation level reached the realm of the domain master? This is impossible! Absolutely impossible!" The old dean was a little confused.

"Elder Li Tian's cultivation level is still at the early stage of Venerable Sixth level, but it is a fact to kill the domain master-level powerhouse! Elder Li Tian wants me to bring this box and this collection of poems back to the old principal , I just want the old dean to know the role of Li Tian in the Nether Academy!" Situ Ningbing said.

Situ Ningbing originally wanted to say that it was important, but finally changed his words temporarily and said it was useful.

A smile appeared on the old dean's face and said, "This bastard, don't I know his role? If he has no effect on the Netherworld Academy, I would not send so many elders out to find him, nor because He, the trainee elder, abolished the material elder!"

The old dean looked at these three key boxes, looked at the collection of poems, frowned slightly, couldn't help sighing and said, "Has Elder Li Tian decided?"

Situ Ningbing briefly explained Li Tian's thoughts and plans to the old dean, and finally said: "Elder Li Tian asked me to tell the old dean a word."

"What are you talking about?"

Situ Ningbing said solemnly: "If you don't be crazy, you will be old!"

"If you don't be crazy, you will be old!"

The old dean repeated this sentence seven or eight times, but his frowning brows slowly unfolded. Gradually, the old dean's face became more and more smiling.

"Yes! If you don't be crazy, you will be old. Since Li Tian boy wants to be crazy once, then the old man, I bet on my life and go crazy with this kid once! Hahaha! This kid understands me!"

Chapter 4618: : Brothers against each other

Youanrou returned to the dark forest.

"You dark soft? Why are you back? Where's my good brother Li Tian? We haven't seen Li Tian for more than two years! Did he stay on the top of the holy peak?" Ye Liangchen saw the sudden appearance of dark Rou asked in surprise.

At the beginning, Li Tian was taken away from the dark forest by the elder in charge directly from the top of the holy peak, so the third son of the ghost did not know that Li Tian had left the dark forest.

"Where are Zhao Ritian and Long Aotian? I have something to tell you three brothers!" You Anrou said.

Ye Liangchen laughed and said: "What happened? Or did our Li Tian brothers miss us? Don't tell me that Brother Li Tian's cultivation has broken through to the realm of the emperor. If it's the news, don't say anything. So as not to hit us!"

"No!" You Anrou said.

Ye Liangchen had some doubts in his heart, but he still went to find Zhao Ritian and Long Aotian.

The Tree Sovereign Elf flew over and said to You Dark Rou, "Dear Elf Rou, I haven't seen you and Elf Sky for several days. I really want to see Elf Sky more and more!"

The Tree Emperor Elf didn't think of Li Tian, but more of Li Tian's wine.

Although the tavern in the dark forest was opened in the territory of the tree king elf, these wines were not for him to drink for free, and he could only exchange the tree green for those wines.

It's just that the green tree also plays an important role for the tree elves, and the tree king elves can't change wine endlessly.

Seeing the dark and soft, the tree emperor thought of Li Tian.

If Li Tian is here, maybe there will be another wine tasting conference.

"Elf Tree Sovereign, are you missing Elf Sky or the wine of Elf Sky! If you miss Elf Sky, you may not see him for the time being!" said You Anrou.

The tree king elf flashed its wings, and asked with some disappointment: "Is it possible that the elf sky has already ascended the holy peak and has started to practice on the holy peak? That would be a shame!"

"No, Tree Sovereign Elf, Elf Sky is not in the dark forest now, he is in the human society of the Nether Realm, and now he has a little trouble!" said You Anrou.

You dark and soft hoped that the Tree Sovereign Elf said that there is no need to worry about troubles, there is our Tree Elf clan.

It's a pity that the Tree King Elf heard the words trouble, and immediately said, "It's really a good weather today..."

...

About half an hour later, Ye Liangchen retrieved both Zhao Ritian and Long Aotian.

In the past two years, the three nether brothers have not wasted their time.

The three Nether Brothers used fine wine in exchange for treasures that enhance spiritual power, and the three brothers have achieved breakthroughs in varying degrees of cultivation.

The cultivation base of Ye Liangchen and Zhao Ritian had reached the middle and early stages of the fourth level of Venerable, and the cultivation base of Long Aotian had also reached the peak level of Venerable three.

Such a short time, such a quick breakthrough, this kind of thing was something that their brothers couldn't even think about before.

"You dark and soft, please tell me the current cultivation base of Brother Li Tian, I feel that I am about to catch up with Brother Li Tian's cultivation base!" Zhao Ritian said with some pride.

"Brother Li Tian, even if the cultivation base is lower than you, you are not his opponent! Oh, yes, what is the current cultivation level of Brother Li Tian? I am also quite curious!" Ye Liangchen said.

Youanrou told them Li Tian's cultivation level.

When these three Nether Brothers heard that Li Tian's cultivation level was not too far away from them, they all expressed that they would hurry up to cultivate and catch up with Li Tian as quickly as possible.

You Yinrou waited until they gradually calmed down, then sat down and motioned to the Third Young Master to also sit down, and said: "Ye Liangchen, Zhao Ritian, Long Aotian, sit down, I have something to say to you!"

"What is it?" Ye Liangchen said.

You Yinrou began to talk about Li Tian's experience in general. When talking about the meteorite falling from the sky, the third sons of You Ming were quickly filling in such a dangerous picture, but their faces showed a somewhat eager expression.

In my heart, I felt a little regretful. If it were not for their safety, maybe they would be able to go through such an adventure with Brother Li Tian.

"After the meteorite descended from the sky, the death battlefield secret realm was suddenly opened for unknown reasons, and everyone in the secret realm was vomited out by the secret realm!" said You Yinrou.

"The secret realm is opened? But we are already the powerhouses of the venerable level, and the secret realm opening does not matter to us!" Long Aotian said.

Ye Liangchen realized what was wrong, thought about it for a moment, and suddenly said: "You said that the secret realm is open, and everyone in the secret realm has been vomited out by the secret realm? Has anyone told us bad news?"

You dark soft nodded slightly, adjusted her mentality, and continued: "Yes, you and Li Tian's opponents who were not dead in the battlefield of death at the time are back. They told the blood domain lord, the Wuji Emperor and others about death. What happened on the battlefield!"

"Brother Li Tian is in danger now?" Ye Liangchen said worriedly.

"Li Tian is not in danger for the time being, but...but..." You Anrou hesitated, not knowing what to say about what happened to the third son of the Nether Master.

An ominous premonition has flowed in Ye Liangchen's heart, and he said, "But what? You can say it boldly, our psychological endurance is very strong!"

Youanrou gritted her teeth and said, "Venerable Yecheng, the Kingdom of Zhao Family, and the Kingdom of Dragon Race were attacked by the blood domain master, the Zichuan Empire, the Wuji Emperor and others! These three kingdoms have been destroyed! " a bolt from the blue.

Ye Liangchen, Zhao Ritian, and Long Aotian felt that the sky was falling, their bodies were almost petrified, and they didn't react for a while.

"How could this be? Our father is a strong man at the emperor level. How could our country be destroyed so easily?"

"Impossible, I don't believe it, You Anrou, you must be joking, you must be kidding us!"

"Yes, it must be teasing us! Twenty domain masters and eighteen emperors of the Nether Realm. This is a balanced relationship. Without absolute interests, no one will actively break this balance!"

The three brothers didn't believe what You Anrou said, shook their heads and tried to deny it.

"I'm not kidding. The fathers of your three sons have been captured by the Lord of the Blood Territory and others. They are now tied to the Imperial Palace of the Venerable Yecheng Kingdom. The Lord of the Blood Territory will be publicly cut three months later. The emperor! Li Tian sent me back just to tell you this situation! Ask the three of you plans!" You Anrou said.

Seeing that You Yinrou did not seem to be fake, the expression on his face was a little dignified. Finally, he cried bitterly. They wanted to vent the anger in their chests, crying bitterly, crying bitterly.

Zhao Ritian screamed on his back, then screamed frantically at Ye Liangchen and Long Aotian: "It's Li Tian! It's Li Tian!"

"Xue Zhengxin was killed by Li Tian, and the  person is him!"

"Where is Li Tian? Where is Li Tian now? Our Venerable Kingdom has been destroyed, and his family members have been killed. Where is Li Tian, the most  thing, now?"

"If Li Tian is still our brother, he should roll to the blood domain master now and explain everything clearly! Instead of pretending to ask you to come back and tell us about our plans! Brother? Let him go to death!"

Chapter 4619: : Xuanhan Nine Changes

"Lao Tzu's name is Zhao Ritian! And your name is Li Tian, hahaha~"

"Damn dog stuff! If... I said if, if you dare to show up in front of me in the future, dare to say before me that we are your brothers, I..." Zhao Ritian roared, like Li Tian is standing in front of him now.

Youanrou looked at Zhao Ritian outfit 13 quietly.

You Anrou didn't know how the Third Young Master Nether and Li Tian met or how they became worshipped, but as far as You Anrou knew about Li Tian, Li Tian was definitely not the kind of person who betrayed his brother.

Besides, Li Tian still sent Situ Ningbing back to Nether Academy before You Anrou returned.

Moreover, Li Tian had already guessed that the Third Young Master would definitely not turn a blind eye to his father's experience. Li Tian was already actively preparing to accompany the Third Young Master to die.

Long Aotian was very tangled.

He knew that Xue Zhengxin was killed by Li Tian, but it seemed that it was more because of the grievances between the Third Young Master and Xue Zhengxin.

However, Long Aotian felt that what Zhao Ritian said seemed reasonable.

Especially the resentment released from Zhao Ritian, of course, in the prevailing words, that is negative energy, deeply infected Long Aotian.

Gradually, Long Aotian felt that this was really the case.

Gradually, Long Aotian's mouth did not become clean, and he kept complaining.

Gradually, Long Aotian echoed Zhao Ritian and began to curse Li Tian.

Youanrou was very disappointed. She shook her head involuntarily and said with a sigh: "I only know one thing. The three of you are now at the core of the Dark Forest. Even if the outside world has been turned upside down, the safety of the three of you is absolutely guaranteed, and, In the past two years, because you opened this tavern, you can get a lot of treasures that you hadn't been able to touch before. Therefore, your cultivation base keeps breaking through."

"But, all of this is not because of the three of you, but Li Tian! Without Li Tian, can you three enter the dark forest? Without Li Tian, the three of you can reach the current realm.?"

Zhao Ritian stared at You Yinrou coldly, and said with a sneer: "Safety? Cultivation? These are not what we want the most! Our family was slaughtered by the Lord of the Blood Domain, our kingdom of the Lord was attacked by the Lord of the Blood Domain, we Father, imprisoned by the Lord of the Blood Domain! We..."

"To shut up!"

"What?" Zhao Ritian had actually heard the two words Ye Liangchen said, but he was a little unsure that he would hear these two words.

"Shut up! I said shut up!"

Ye Liangchen lowered his head, stood up slowly, wiped away the tears from the corners of his eyes, raised his head again, and said to Zhao Ritian: "I said, you two shut up for me!"

Zhao Ritian and Long Aotian looked at Ye Liangchen in confusion.

"Good morning, you...what's wrong with you?"

Ye Liangchen calmed down gradually, with a self-deprecating expression on his face. He walked a few steps forward, staring at Zhao Ritian and Long Aotian, and said coldly: "Have you said enough? shut up!"

"Others don't know, don't we know it ourselves? Third Young Master! This is just our self-deception. Other people call us the three fools. You two don't know it!"

Zhao Ritian and Long Aotian stopped talking, and dropped their heads slightly, with a trace of embarrassment on their faces.

Ye Liangchen continued: "Before we met Li Tian, the three of us had a cultivation base of less than ninth level as a cultivator. They were real junk fighters. But what about after we met Li Tian? The three of us broke through in ten years. It took another two years to reach the current cultivation level when he reached the state of the venerable!"

"You just said that the cultivation base is not important. If the cultivation base is not important, why should we risk our death to enter the Netherworld? If the father knows about us, I believe that the father will continue to support us and brother Li Tian!" Ye Liangchen pointed out Zhao Ritian continued.

"The sudden opening of the death mystery is not something that Li Tian brothers can control. This is just an accident! If this accident does not happen, give us five hundred years. The three of us, no, what can our four brothers achieve? Realm, and ninth level? Emperor? Is it possible for the domain owner?"

"Furthermore, the blood domain mainly deals with our father and our kingdom. Can this be completely blamed on Brother Li Tian? If it weren't for the blood domain master's long-term attempts on us, we would not believe in the blood. Conflict! Also, please remember one sentence, if there were no Li Tian brothers, perhaps we would have died on the battlefield of death!"

Long Aotian felt that what Ye Liangchen said was reasonable, with an awkward expression on his face, he nodded involuntarily, and said, "Yes, Brother Liangchen makes sense!"

"but....."

Zhao Ritian wanted to say something but was interrupted by You Yinrou.

"I said, what are your three plans? If you want to stay in the dark forest, then shut up and continue practicing now. If you go back to die, then Li Tian has a word for me to tell you!" Rou said.

"What is it?"

"Brother Li Tian, what do you want to tell?"

"Knocking your head is a brother! Brothers should live and die together! If you are going to die, he has no reason not to follow!" You Anrou said.

The sentence that Youanrou conveyed was very simple, but even if Youanrou said it, Ye Liangchen could feel the kind of life and death that Li Tian wanted to express.

Ye Liangchen's mouth turned up slightly, and he smiled and said, "Live and die together! Good! Then live and die together!"

"Good morning, I will go back with you! People are dead, if you have to die, there are good brothers like you and Li Tian on the road, I will not be lonely!" Long Aotian said.

Zhao Ritian bit his lip with his teeth in shame, not knowing what to say.

"I'm afraid I will break through to the realm of the domain master again soon! Li Tian, for you, I will forcibly break into the realm of the domain master again!" Yinrou thought in her heart.

...

When You Anrou returned to the dark forest, the vicissitudes of life and Tang Xiaolong had already arrived in the Canghai Empire.

The Canghai Empire, the palace hall.

The hall of thousands of square meters was empty, and a thick layer of ice had formed on the pillars, ground, beams, and roof of the hall. The temperature in the hall was extremely cold!

On the dragon-shaped seat of the hall, the Great Emperor Canghai sat alone, staring at Tang Xiaolong and the vicissitudes of life who were kneeling under the hall like a sharp blade!

A faint layer of hoarfrost has formed on Canghai Tiansang's clothes, her skin and lips are all snow white, and the heat that erupts with her breath has turned into snow mist the moment she leaves her body!

But Tang Xiaolong's appearance was much more difficult than the vicissitudes of life. Tang Xiaolong was no longer hoarfrost, but a layer of ice. Tang Xiaolong knelt down in front of Emperor Canghai like an ice sculpture.

"Father, Xiaolong, he..."

"To shut up!"

The Great Emperor Canghai gave a cold snort, and another two groups of spiritual mist sprayed out of his nostrils. The mist flew over and fell on Tang Xiaolong, wrapping Tang Xiaolong's body in a thick layer!

"I won't intervene in this matter!"

"But you just said, as long as Xiaolong can hold it..."

"Shut up! How could he withstand my "Xuanhan Nine Changes"!"

Chapter 4620: : Life is suffering

When a person's body temperature drops to a certain level, the person's various bodily functions will also decrease, and the corresponding person's nerve response will also become sluggish.

Even the super strong Tang Xiaolong, Tang Xiaolong who has the realm of the cultivation of the venerable, feels like this at this time.

The voice of the Great Emperor Canghai and the movements he made were like slow motion played in Tang Xiaolong's senses, giving Tang Xiaolong an unreal feeling.

Fortunately, Tang Xiaolong possesses the realm of Venerable cultivation. In the past two years, after obtaining the domain master-level beast crystal, Tang Xiaolong's cultivation has changed drastically from before. Otherwise, the current Tang Xiaolong has really become an ice sculpture.

Immortal.

"Xiaolong... how do you feel?"

"If you can't make it, just give up!"

Tang Xiaolong saw the vicissitudes of life shouting to him, and her voice also seemed to slow down ten times. It took a long time for Tang Xiaolong to realize what the vicissitudes of life was calling.

"Give up? How is this possible! I came to the Canghai Empire with the mission of the little boss!" Tang Xiaolong thought in his heart.

Tang Xiaolong wanted to give the vicissitudes of life a smile, so that the vicissitudes of life didn't have to worry about him, but Tang Xiaolong worked hard for a long time, but found that his nerves could not mobilize the skin on his face.

Tang Xiaolong's body was frozen, and his head was a bit numb. Some things he had never thought of before appeared in Tang Xiaolong's mind.

"Father..." The vicissitudes of life walked forward on her knees for two steps, begging for mercy with a pained expression on her face: "Father, Xiaolong came to see your father with great sincerity, why didn't your father speak to him? The opportunity for him to endure the "Xuanhan Nine Changes"? Could it be that only Xiaolong who lived in the "Xuanhan Nine Changes" would you give him the opportunity to speak? This... this is not fair!"

The corner of Emperor Canghai's mouth showed a sneer that was imperceptible, and said: "Fairness? Emperor Yecheng, Emperor Dragon, and Emperor Zhao should be more eager for fairness than you, but the Lord of Blood, Emperor Zichuan, and Super God Family give them Have you talked about fair opportunities?"

After a pause, the Great Emperor Canghai asked and answered, "No! Because they are just the emperor, and they are not qualified to sit on an equal footing with the domain master and the super * family. They are not even qualified to speak of fairness! You are my daughter, right. It is for this reason that I have given you such a fair chance to me!"

"As long as he, this kid in front of him, can withstand my "Nine Changes in the Profound Cold", then even if I recognize his strength, he is qualified to speak on an equal footing with me and be fair! If he does not have this strength, If he doesn't have this endurance, if he doesn't have this courage, then why should I give him a chance?"

The Great Emperor Canghai is a powerhouse at the domain master level. He is even the emperor of the Canghai Empire. He can clearly feel the intricacies of the current situation in the Underworld. At this time, it is the best choice to protect himself.

This is what he thought, and he did the same.

But what caught him off guard was that his daughter, who had been missing for two years, returned to the empire with Tang Xiaolong.

When the vicissitudes of life and Tang Xiaolong first entered the Canghai Empire, Tang Xiaolong's identity investigation data had already been placed in front of the Canghai Emperor.

The information is not exhaustive, but when all the information is put together, Tang Xiaolong's identity is already sensitive enough.

Because this Tang Xiaolong unexpectedly appeared at the Nether Academy at the same time as Elder Li Tian from that Nether Academy, and Tang Xiaolong and Li Tian were closely related.

If this was more than two years ago, and if Tang Xiaolong was a friend of Elder Li Tian, Emperor Canghai would treat Tang Xiaolong as a guest of honor. If Tang Xiaolong wanted to marry the vicissitudes of life, Emperor Canghai would only Full of joy.

After all, being able to catch the line of the elders of the Nether Academy was nothing to the Great Emperor Canghai.

Unfortunately, it is not what it used to be. Although the Blood Domain Lord, Zichuan Great Emperor, and the Super God Family are working on Ye Cheng Huangzun and others, their ultimate goal is Li Tian.

It is not a wise choice for Li Tian to get involved at this time.

Of course, as a powerhouse at the master level, the emperor of the Canghai Empire, the Great Emperor Canghai did not do anything to stop the road.

The opportunity he gave Tang Xiaolong was to live in "The Nine Changes of the Profound Cold". As long as Tang Xiaolong could afford to live and be free from the "Nine Changes of the Profound Cold" he played, the Great Emperor Canghai would even take Tang's adventures. Xiaolong saved it.

Of course, this is also an opportunity given to himself by the Great Emperor Canghai.

...

"Xuanhan Nine Changes" is not the strongest ultimate move of the Great Emperor Canghai.

In the "Xuanhan Nine Changes", the body suffers from the destruction of the body by the cold, ranging from frostbite to death.

However, few people who reach the state of the venerable can be frozen to death.

But don't underestimate this "Xuanhan Nine Changes", because this exercise focuses more on mental attacks.

At the same time, this exercise has another important function: to test the character of the attacked.

The more tenacious a person, the less harm he will suffer, and the more fragile a person, the greater the harm he will suffer.

The Great Emperor Canghai could also judge the future achievements of the recruiters in the realm of cultivation.

The foundation of "Xuanhan Nine Changes" is the suffering of life.

They are: life suffering, old suffering, sickness, death suffering, resentment and resentment will suffer, love separates suffering, ask not to suffer, five yin is full of suffering.

To get free from "Xuanhan Nine Changes", you have to endure all the hardships in life.

To endure eight sufferings is to experience eight life and death calamities!

Only after experiencing eight life and death calamities can the nine changes be finally achieved.

Just like phoenix nirvana, when the nine changes are reached, the potential of the whole person will be fully revealed.

These eight kinds of suffering are relatively independent and superimposed on each other.

There are many ways to choose to experience the eight life and death catastrophes.

It was as if there were eight boulders in front of Tang Xiaolong, he could choose to move them one by one, two at the same time, or eight at the same time.

However, this suffering is like the weight of a boulder, it will be superimposed on each other, but it will become an increase!

"Boy, let me see your choice!"

The Great Emperor Canghai looked at Tang Xiaolong, who had been frozen by the cold ice spiritual power and was enduring these eight kinds of suffering in a daze, thinking in his heart: "As a cultivator of "Xuanhan Nine Changes", I used to occupy the sky. The location is good, but it still took nearly a month to break free."

"Even if the vicissitudes of life approve of you, I will test you in the end!"

"If you can't bear the eight sufferings and can't get rid of it, then don't blame me for being ruthless to you."

"Unless your talent and your choices are the same as when I practiced "Xuanhan Nine Changes", when you are free, the matter of the Nether Realm will be settled. Then you will still follow the vicissitudes of life and go to Nether Academy. , I give you opportunity and freedom..."

However, at this moment, the ice layer wrapped around Tang Xiaolong suddenly made a crisp ice breaking sound, and immediately afterwards, the ice on Tang Xiaolong's body fell to the ground.

boom!

boom!

boom!

A wave of powerful energy was released from Tang Xiaolong's body, and the frost in the hall was melting at an extremely fast speed.

"No... this..."

Great Emperor Canghai showed a look of shock on his face, he stood up abruptly, and looked at Tang Xiaolong, who had slowly stood up, his voice trembled in a gaffe.

"No... this... this is impossible..."
