

A Killer 4841

Chapter 4841: : Leaving home

Whoosh!

The small hot pot flew out instantly!

At this time, his body is no longer a rock, but magma, crimson magma!

The black and red flame spiritual power was released on his body with the magma, and it seemed that his whole person was a little more mysterious!

Little hot pot is angry!

A majestic and powerful person who used the defenseless Yanhuo tribe to threaten the small hot pot!

At this time, Little Hotpot only wanted to kill all these lizard royal people, and only by killing all these * guys could he eliminate the anger in his heart.

"I thought you would give in, but didn't expect you to continue fighting!" The triangular-eyed lizard king said with a sneer on his face while looking at the small hot pot.

The small hot pot is a powerful emperor, it is very powerful, but what can it do?

A weak Emperor-level powerhouse, then he is not in the strongest state.

Hum!

A few coercion fell from the sky, and once again fell on the uncles of the Rockfire Clan of the fourth and fifth level of cultivators!

Click!

Click!

The sound of rock cracking continuously came from the bodies of these rock fire clan masters!

These Yanhuo tribe members let out a scream instantly and slumped on the ground.

"You... shameless!"

Huh!

The small hot pot teleported in front of the lizard emperor, the crimson magma spiritual power fist, shining this fist and thinking about the lizard emperor.

Whoosh!

The lizard king's figure flashed, and the small hot pot fist rubbed the lizard king's body scales and blasted over. The spiritual power-wrapped scales flew out in an instant, and blood flowed from the lizard king's body. !

The corner of Lizard Emperor's eyes flashed with cold light, and he stretched out his hand to grab it, and he caught a child of the Yanhuo tribe who was paralyzed on the ground.

Whoosh!

The lizard emperor directly threw the rock fire clan towards the small hot pot!

"Fuck!"

Little Hot Pot's face changed and instantly turned back to its original shape. He stretched out his hand to catch the Yanhuo child, and at this moment, the lizard Emperor teleported behind the Little Hot Pot at the same time and used his sharp claws to grab it. The back of the small hot pot!

hiss! A wound appeared on the back of the small hot pot!

The small hot pot belongs to the Yanhuo clan. Although there is no blood flowing from the wound, the wound is like a crack in the dry land, and the small hot pot, the emperor-class expert, could not help but let out a low noise. Screams.

"A small amount is not a gentleman, non-toxic, not a husband! Do you dare to fight with me? This is something shameless, if it weren't for the master who didn't allow us to slaughter at will, do you think your rock fire clan on this archipelago still has a living? ?"

"Give shameless things! Do you want to continue playing with me? Are you qualified to play with me?" A cold light flashed in the eyes of the Triangle-eyed Lizard Emperor, and said with a sneer: "Now, except for you, you On the island, all the members of the Rock Fire Race are in the hands of our Lizard Royal Family. What qualifications do you have to play with me?"

"If you are aware of the current affairs, then quickly take your tribe and get out of this island. Our lizard royal tribe will not be bothered..."

Shameless!

The lizard king is really shameless!

Just because of the overall strength of the Lizard Royal family, and just because they have captured the Yanhuo family members now, they can call the black ones white.

It's so shameless that this kind of words can be said from his mouth if he is reasonable and not forgiving!

However, Little Hotpot only hates that his own cultivation base is the realm of the emperor. If his cultivation level can break again and reach the realm of the domain master, he can protect these tribesmen and be qualified to sit on an equal footing with the lizard king's domain master. It will be restricted by people everywhere.

The little hot pot knelt.

He was to ensure the safety of his people, and he decided to give in temporarily.

The lizard king threatened the small hot pot with the lives of the Yanhuo tribe. The small hot pot was restrained everywhere for the safety of the tribe. In this case, it is difficult for the small hot pot to win when the strength is similar.

If the small hot pot can ignore the safety of the tribe, he can prevent all the lizard royals present from escaping, but he can't ignore the safety of the Yanhuo tribe. He could not watch his sister's Venerable Kingdom collapse because of his recklessness, nor could he watch the Yanhuo tribe on the islands all perish!

The small hot pot decided to retreat as the advance.

For the time being, take the tribe and evacuate safely with the injured sister to ensure the safety of the tribe, and then seek help and ask Master Li Tian to help him.

As long as Li Tian takes the shot, the lizard royal family is not a problem at all.

"I...I admit defeat, and I will take my people out of here..." Little Hot Pot said as if it was a mosquito, resisting the anger in his heart.

"Little country lord, you can't admit defeat!" (The name of the young country lord is indeed inappropriate, so I changed it to the small country lord, hope for understanding)

Hearing the words of the small hot pot, the Yanhuo tribe suddenly howled.

"Little Lord, this is the place where our island dwelling rock fire people have lived for generations? Our ancestors, our kinsmen, will be buried in the volcano after death!"

"Little Lord, we old bones can die here, but our descendants cannot lose the land we depend on for survival!"

"The little master cannot just succumb to foreigners like this!"

Little hot pot also knows that the homeland is hard to live with.

But these lizard royal family members simply did not give the little hot pot a fair chance to fight. Even if the little hot pot was strong, the final record would be both sides.

"Keep the green hills without fear of being burnt. As long as our Yanhuo clan members are still alive, and the Netherworld is so big, we can definitely find a place suitable for our survival, listen to me, follow me and leave here! I can assure you , We will definitely come back!" Little Hot Pot said.

The triangle-eyed lizard emperor said with a sneer, "He who knows the times is a great master! The rock fire royal family is right, you can come back soon, as long as we wait three to five hundred years, wait until our lizard royal family After the ore you want is mined, it will naturally be returned to you here, and you can continue to come back at that time! But... this depends on the degree of cooperation of those rock fire races who have been controlled by us..."

The lizard king not only wants to occupy the entire archipelago, he also needs those rock fire races who can withstand the high temperature of magma to mine minerals for them, so the strong young monk-level tens of thousands of rock fire races have become Slaves and miners of the lizard royal family!

The little hot pot first entered the volcanic cave and took out the injured sister who was unconscious, and then took hundreds of Yanhuo tribe members and left the Yanhuo tribe's archipelago in a small boat.

No one wants to leave their homeland. Except for the small hot pot and other Yanhuo tribes, all the Yanhuo tribes are silent in great grief, leaving their homes, like a bereaved dog. Starting today, their Yanhuo tribe will lose their lives. The land, like a stray dog, can only find a suitable place for them in the underworld.

The uncles of the Yanhuo clan were sad, the women of the Yanhuo clan were sobbing, and even the slug children of the Yanhuo clan were crying with sadness.

Looking at the islands, the lizard royal family members have begun to destroy the volcano, and they have begun to drive the Yanhuo family members into the volcanic crater with tools, digging the ore they want, the small hot pot clenched their fists, "Lizard royal family members , Wait and see, my little hot pot will come back again, and next time I come back, it will be the end of your lizard royal family!"

Chapter 4842: : Give me the shot

Li Tian is waiting for a small hot pot.

Xiao Qingwa and Tang Xiaolong went to the Venerable Kingdom controlled by the small hot pot to find the small hot pot.

Little Qingwa said that they did not find the little hot pot. The ministers in the Venerable's country told Xiao Qingwa and Tang Xiaolong that "Master Little Hotpot has returned to the territory of the Yanhuo clan to save her relatives and will be back soon." So Tang Xiaolong Let Xiaoqingwa come back and report to Li Tian.

But Tang Xiaolong went directly to the Canghai Empire to find his little lover.

It is reasonable to say that when Little Hot Pot was in the earth world, he had said that he had an elder sister.

It has been several years since Little Hotpot followed Li Tian back to the Netherworld, but he has never returned to his clansman territory. It is reasonable to have time to go back now.

Two days later, Situ Ningbing returned to the kingdom of Venerable Liu You with the stars, Xiaoyue, Yinmoyin, the Lord of the Bull, the Lord of Tiangangyan, and the Lord of the Heavenly Eagle.

There is no meeting in the old days, naturally there will be many things to say and many things to do.

"Brother Li Tian, you really can't believe it! How long has it taken to break through to the realm of the emperor, you are already a domain master-level powerhouse!" The domain master of the evil conspiracy said with envy.

The Tiangangyan raccoon domain master smiled slightly, and said: "We have known that the Li Tian brothers are outstanding in talent. It is only a matter of time before they break through to the domain master level. What really shocked us is what the Li Tian brothers did in the Colosseum. thing....."

"That's right, Brother Li Tian dared to go to war with the Donggong Super God Family and San Lu Super God Family!" The Lord of the Heavenly Buzzard Territory followed.

"A few brothers don't laugh at me anymore, because I'm already overwhelmed with this kind of thing. No, now I invite all the brothers back. I just want to tell you all that Li Tian is ready to leave. On the mainland, go to the Nether Continent to hide for a few years, practice in an instant, and improve your self-cultivation. Otherwise, if you continue to stay in the Nether Continent, I am afraid that my Li Tian army and I will be in disaster!" Li Tian half-truth Said.

"They dare..." the three ghost beast brothers said almost in unison.

However, facing the super * family, their three ghost beasts have no confidence.

"Brother Li Tian, do you really want to leave the Nether Continent? So what about these domain master nations, noble kingdoms, and empires that we have already controlled? These places are much richer than our dark forest!" Some reluctantly said.

Li Tian smiled slightly and said: "The most important thing is the kingdom of the venerable, the empire, and the landlord. If I want to continue to control these countries, I will definitely fix me and my Li Tian army in a quiet place. On the mainland, when these super * families only need to move their fingers a little, Li Tian will not be able to eat."

What Li Tian was really worried about was that he was afraid that someone would fall in the revenge of these super-god families.

"So, I have to go! As long as I and my people are safe, we will definitely be killed by then, but at that time, my goal is not the small kingdom, empire, and domain master country, but Super God Family! I want to uproot them and make them disappear in the Nether Realm!"

"Hahaha, just listen to these words and relieve your anger. Brother Li Tian, don't forget our brothers!"

"It's just affirmation. This time I invite the three brothers over and discuss important matters!" Li Tian told the three domain master brothers about how he obtained the "Inheritance of the Beast God", and then told the beast God's inheritance was handed to the Yinmoyin Bull Territory Lord, and then said: "This is the inheritance of the beast gods. It is of great benefit to the cultivation of the ghost beasts. As long as the few brothers practice hard, I believe that with your talent and hard work, The super domain master state is not that difficult!"

"At that time, only if your brothers' cultivation base reaches the super domain master realm, can you help me Li Tian!"

Seeing "Inheritance of the Beast God", the eyes of the three Nether Beast brothers lit up.

They were a little excited and at a loss, after a while they gradually calmed down.

But even so, it can still be seen that they are very excited.

"Brother Li Tian, how can you give us such an important thing?" Tiangangyan raccoon domain master refused.

"Don't shirk your brothers. This "Inheritance of the Beast God" originally belonged to the Nether Beast, but now I just return it to you.

When Li Tian said this, the three brothers stopped * and thanked Li Tian one after another. Then they left Venerable Liu You's kingdom with "Inheritance of the Beast God" and returned to the Dark Forest. The task is to find Youanrou in the dark forest and let Youanrou always look for Li Tian.

This kind of thing should have been done by Li Tian himself. Li Tian also wanted to take the opportunity to see his son Li Mu, but in the end Li Tian suddenly changed his plan.

Li Tian was still cultivating, and after another two days, Tang Xiaolong returned with the vicissitudes of life.

Seeing Tang Xiaolong and the vicissitudes of life sweet and crooked, Li Tian thought of Stars and Xiaoyue again, but Stars and Xiaoyue were still cold towards Li Tian.

Well, our hot face won't stick to your cold ass!

After waiting for another seven or eight days, there is still no news of the small hot pot.

From the Venerable Kingdom where the Little Hot Pot is located to the Venerable Liu You Kingdom, if teleporting is used, even a small period of time will not be used, but it has been more than ten consecutive days, and there is still no news of the small hot pot, Li Tian couldn't help but feel a little worried.

Could it be an accident?

Soon Li Tian shook his head slowly.

The only thing that makes Li Tian feel fortunate is that the Sanlu Super God Family and the Donggong Super God Family don't know why. They have not acted recently, nor have they taken any actions to retaliate against Li Tian. This made Li Tian While feeling a little at ease, I still felt in my heart as if I was floating in the air and didn't find it.

Li Tian felt that it was the calm before the storm.

"No, let's not wait for the small hot pot. Let's go and find the small hot pot. If we can't find him, we will leave him a message so that he can come to the Underworld by himself!" Li Tian decided.

Everyone also agreed to Li Tian's decision.

The Donggong Super God family destroyed the mother, the Donggong Yaotong, Donggong Jiangshan, and the Sanlu Super God family. Except for General Sanlu, who escaped back with a severed arm, all the other tribesmen died in Li Tian's words, these two super gods. It is impossible for the family to remain indifferent.

It is still on the flying treasure ship, but this time the team on the flying treasure ship has grown stronger.

Just when Li Tian was about to leave the kingdom of Venerable Liu You, the small hot pot suddenly returned!

When Little Hot Pot saw Li Tian, he knelt down in front of Li Tian and cried, "Master Li Tian, you must be the master of Little Hot Pot!"

Chapter 4843: : The land grab is here

Li Tian was a little confused.

Did the little hot pot return to the territory of the Yanhuo clan and was forced to marry him?

"Get up and talk, and kneel at every turn, what does it look like! How? Whose girl forced the marriage? Let me see, if it's pleasing to the eye, marry, you are like me... ahem!"

"Woo~ Master Li Tian, it's not a forced marriage! We... Our Yanhuo clan has been exterminated, Master Li Tian must help the little hot pot!" Little hot pot cried miserably.

Genocide? Is it a super  family?

Li Tian felt that the situation was serious.

"Get up and speak, make it clear!"

The little hot pot stood up and briefly told Li Tian what happened.

After listening, Li Tian was slightly relieved.

As long as it is not for the super * family, the ancient family, or the mysterious race, there is really nothing that can make Li Tian feel tricky and fearful in the current Netherworld.

"Lizard royal family? Humph, you dare to move my Litian people, you are really impatient! Little hot pot, this matter is left to me, shit, anyway, I am leaving the quiet continent, before leaving. , Let me Li Tian do the excessive thing again!" Li Tian promised!

"Thank you Li Tian! On behalf of our Yanhuo clan, I thank Master Li Tian!"

At the sound of another fight, Tang Xiaolong and Xiao Tianyi were even more excited than Li Tian.

"Little hot pot, do you still need to trouble little boss for this kind of thing? Just leave it to us to solve it!" Tang Xiaolong said.

Tang Xiaolong is now a domain master-level powerhouse, and once bombarded Xue Tao domain master with a punch, this kid is now full of confidence.

"Yes, let this sort of thing be resolved! If we want to destroy the Rockfire Clan, let's destroy the Lizard Royal Clan first."

Xiaoqingwa and Xiaotianyi also took the initiative to invite Ying.

No way, who said the strength of the Li Tianjun regiment is now strong?

They are already thankful for Li Tian's army not to bully others. These short-sighted things dare to bully Li Tian's head. Isn't this seeking death by themselves?

"Little hot pot, after this matter is resolved for you, we will temporarily leave the Nether Continent and go to the Nether Cry Sea of the Nether Continent, and go to the secret realm of the Sea-Monster Clan to practice. Come with us!" Li Tian said.

The small hot pot knelt down and bowed to Li Tian and said, "The small hot pot can follow Master Li Tian. This is the blessing of the small hot pot. It is precisely because of Master Li Tian that the cultivation level of the small hot pot can reach the realm of the emperor. , This is the cultivation level of the little hot pot that I never dreamed of before! But this time, I saw our Yanhuo clan beings humiliated. The Yanhuo clan was bullied by foreigners but did not have the slightest ability to protect themselves, especially when I saw my sister because The Guardian Yanhuo clan was severely injured, and now I don't know the life or death, so..."

Little Hot Pot decided to stay, use his strength to protect the Yanhuo Clan, and use his strength to protect his sister!

"Master Li Tian will always be the benefactor of the little hot pot, and the benefactor of our Yanhuo clan. As long as Master Li Tian needs it, the strength of the Yanhuo clan will help Master Li Tian!"

Li Tian was not surprised by the decision of the small hot pot.

People have their own ambitions and cannot be forced, just like Long Yin. If Long Yin followed Li Tian, he could provide various resources and discuss the cultivation base with Li Tian and other strong men. Long Yin's cultivation base dare not say that he has now reached the domain master. , But it shouldn't be difficult to reach the emperor-class realm.

But Long Yin was not a long-time man, so he left Li Tian to stand on his own.

Now, the little hot pot will also leave Li Tian, but his reason is to protect, to protect his tribe and his relatives.

"Since you have decided, then I will not force it. For so many years, I still need to thank you for the companionship of the little hot pot. Today, in the future, if you need help from Li Tian, you can just speak up, as long as Li Tian can do it. Place, I will help you solve it!" Li Tian said.

In Dongying Island, Li Tian accidentally broke into the Kirishima Temple and rescued the small hot pot. It is because of the small hot pot that Li Tian has a preliminary understanding of the world of the underworld. It is precisely because of the small hot pot that Li Tian has repaired in the earth world. It will improve so fast.

In the process of beheading the three corpses later, the role of the small hot pot was also important and important.

After returning to the Netherworld, the enemies facing Li Tian's regiment became stronger and stronger, and the role of the small hot pot became less prominent and important. However, the sentiment of the small hot pot in the past with Li Tian fighting side by side was not just a few words of gratitude. of.

Little Hot Pot wanted to withdraw from the Li Tianjun regiment, which made Tang Xiaolong and the others a little embarrassed.

The more so, the more Tang Xiaolong and others want to solve this matter beautifully.

Genocide?

It's better to exterminate the lizard royal family!

Dealing with a small role like the lizard king domain master or the entire lizard royal family does not require any strategy, only the simplest and rude way to solve it.

After everyone discussed it, the matter was settled.

The flying treasure ship made its way out of Venerable Liu You's kingdom and headed towards the archipelago of the Yanhuo clan.

...

The lizard king lay on the beach, lazily basking in the sun.

In the distance, a volcano on the island has been split in half, and the strong young people of the Yanhuo clan are mining minerals under the whip of the lizard royal clan.

Baskets of crimson spars were mined from the volcano by the Yanhuo tribe, carried on their backs, and then loaded into the flying treasure ship.

"Very good. According to this progress, within three to five hundred years, these islands will be able to be mined. By then, the overall cultivation of our lizard royal family will be greatly improved!" The lizard emperor thought with a smug look.

At the beginning, the lizard royal family came to this archipelago unintentionally, and they were warmly treated by the rock fire clan. They were even invited to visit the volcano by the rock fire clan. During the visit, the lizard royal family unexpectedly discovered a certain volcano erupted from the islands. This mineral contains extremely strong spiritual fluctuations.

The spiritual power in this mineral is purer than the spiritual earth ore in the Laika Desert, and can be directly used by the lizard royal family to absorb and cultivate.

This mineral is of great help to the cultivation of the lizard royal family.

After discovering this mineral, the lizard royal clan was ecstatic, and immediately returned to the clan territory, to report the matter to the clan chief-level steward.

After a simple survey and a brief discussion, the lizard royal family decided to occupy these islands.

As for the rock fire clan on the islands?

Of course, the Yanhuo tribe must be respected, and they should not lose their homeland, especially the strong Yanhuo tribe, they are the best labor.

As for those who do not have much labor capacity, the sick, the sick and the disabled? Just drive away directly.

The lizard royal family has to be a bitch, but also set up an archway.

They are just a middle-level race. In addition to the lizard emperor domain masters, there are also several emperor-level powerhouses in the clan. They do not have exceptionally strong presences, so even if they want to occupy the archipelago of the Yanhuo clan, they Don't dare to be too arrogant and domineering, let alone destroy the clan directly, otherwise it will definitely attract the intervention of powerful forces such as the Super God Family, the Gulai Family, and the Nether Academy.

Fortunately, everything is proceeding according to plan, and some are under the control of the lizard royal family.

In a few hundred years, with a few seconds, as long as these minerals have been mined, then the islands will be returned to the Yanhuo clan. In this way, the Yanhuo clan might have to thank the lizard royal family!

The lizard king remembered the small hot pot of the Yanhuo clan again.

A trace of anxiety flashed in the eyes of the lizard royal family.

Small hot pot is definitely a formidable opponent. Among all the powerhouses in the entire nether world, the small hot pot cultivation base can also be ranked in the top 20, which also includes those who are not born in the big family. By.

"It's a pity...the strong with weaknesses are not the strong in the strict sense!"

The lizard royal family is a cold-blooded human being.

This is their racial nature. When the surrounding temperature is too low, the lizard royal people may hibernate and lose their vitality. Therefore, the lizard royal people have always lived in the warm south.

In addition, there are no such concepts as family affection, love, and friendship in the concept of the lizard royal family. Therefore, in the eyes of the lizard emperor, the behavior of protecting the tribe from the small hot pot is a weakness.

The lizard king adjusted his crawling posture, like a big lizard, letting his back basking in the sun. This warm feeling made the lizard king very relaxed, and his eyes closed slightly. , Want to continue to enjoy this wonderful life.

On the eyes that the lizard king was about to close, the shadow of a flying treasure ship appeared!

"Is it full again? The mining speed of these rock fire tribes is really fast... No!" The lizard king suddenly sat up, and the flying treasure ship that flew in the air was completely different from the flying treasure ship of their race. .

The lizard king immediately became alert.

Flying treasure ships are not something ordinary venerables can own. Behind every flying treasure ship, there must be at least a powerful presence above the emperor's level, or the power of a behemoth, but the archipelago of the Yanhuo tribe is just like a remote country. How could there suddenly be a flying treasure ship?

Is it passing by?

Whoosh!

The lizard king flew up, and in front of the flying treasure ship that flew into the air, he wanted to see who the owner of the flying treasure ship was and what purpose he had here.

"Listen to the flying treasure ship in front. The island in front is under the control of the lizard royal family of the lizard royal domain owner. You are not allowed to enter without permission. Please return immediately, otherwise the lizard royal has the right to take further measures!" Shouted at the flying treasure ship.

More than a dozen of the eighth and ninth-level venerables in the lizard royal clan also flew up, and instantly surrounded the flying treasure ship flying in midair!

The flying treasure ship stopped, the lizard emperor's mouth couldn't help showing a slight smile, and he thought to himself that the name of the lizard emperor's domain master is really useful. If there are several more domain masters in the lizard royal group, the lizard royal family It should be possible to expand a little bit more.

At this moment, a child came out of the cabin of the flying treasure ship!

That's right, it's a child, and behind the child is a golden ghost beast!

"Lord Lizard Emperor? What? I haven't heard of it!" The child shook his head and said with a look of disdain.

Chapter 4844: :Not intentional

The child is naturally Xiao Tianyi, and the ghost beast behind him is Xiao Qingwa.

However, Xiao Qingwa and Xiao Tianyi deliberately retained the spirit power aura, and the aura they showed now was around the middle of the ninth level of the Venerable.

Ouch!

The little Qingwa suddenly raised the sky and roared with a roar, his limbs were a little on the flying treasure ship, and he jumped directly from the flying treasure ship.

The lizard emperor still couldn't figure out the purpose of Xiaotianyi and Xiaoqingwa, and did not dare to stop them.

Ok?

Suddenly the lizard emperor realized that the direction the little blue tile was jumping in turned out to be their flying treasure ship. A strange thought arose in the lizard emperor's heart, "What does this ghost beast want to do?"

Soon, Xiao Qingwa used his actions to tell the lizard king what he wanted to do!

Little Qingwa's body kept falling down. When it was about to land on the flying treasure ship, Xiao Qingwa's body suddenly released a surge of spiritual power. This surge of spiritual power formed several crescent-like spirits. Libo slashed directly to the flying treasure ship!

"Beast, dare you!"

The lizard king was furious in an instant.

This flying treasure ship is only one in the entire lizard royal family, and this is the face of the lizard royal family.

It's not that the flying treasure ship is expensive, but the flying treasure ship is a special item that is difficult to buy with money.

It is the two races of skilled craftsmen in the Netherworld that work together to forge magical treasures. However, the goblin tribe has disappeared in the Netherworld for tens of thousands of years, and this flying treasure ship is basically broken. One.

Huh!

The lizard emperor teleported to the front of the little blue tile, trying to organize the crescent moon slash that the little blue tile released.

However, his speed is still too slow.

boom!

With a loud noise, the flying treasure ship that represented the face of the lizard royal clan was chopped into four knots by three spiritual force crescents, and was completely destroyed.

The little blue tile landed on the wreckage of the flying treasure ship, and once again screamed.

"I'm sorry, Xiao Qingwa didn't mean it!" Xiao Tianyi suddenly appeared in front of the lizard emperor, and threw a piece of incomplete metal coin to the lizard emperor, and then said: "This is considered to be damage to your flying treasure ship. , You don't have to look for money anymore, the rest is a tip for you!"

A hint of anger flashed in the eyes of the lizard emperor.

Are you paralyzed, are you an idiot when you are an idiot? This is just a crippled coin circulating in the Ordinary Venerable Nation. Even the energy consumed by the flying treasure ship for one second is not enough. It is said that it is compensation, and there is no need to find money for the Nima.

The lizard emperor can already see the two guys in front of them are here to find the difference!

and many more!

What did he say the name of this ghost beast?

The name seems very familiar, I really want to hear it there!

The lizard emperor, who was already angry and wanted to use his hands, resisted the anger in his heart, a flash of anger flashed in his eyes, and said: "Who are you? You didn't come here to find our lizard royal family on purpose? We lizards. The royal family has never offended either of them!"

"Haha, don't doubt it anymore, we are here to find the fault!" Xiao Tianyi suddenly smiled, huh! Xiao Tianyi teleported to the lizard emperor in an instant, and sneered at the lizard emperor's nose, "Does it need a reason to find fault? Isn't this Netherworld just the weak and the strong?"

Humph!

The lizard emperor looked at Xiao Tianyi's finger pointing to his nose, and suddenly snorted, and suddenly released a murderous aura. The scales of his body were instantly wrapped in spiritual power. The body rushed forward, and the spiritual power on his shoulders seemed to be surging. Like a giant dragon, flocking to Xiaotianyi!

"Do it? Haha, something that lives and lives!"

Xiao Tianyi just stretched out a finger, and his whole body's spiritual power seemed to be gathered on this finger, forming a sharp long thorn, and slammed it towards the shoulder of the lizard emperor.

"Huh! It's just the mid-level ninth-level realm of the Venerable. I will let you know the gap between our cultivation bases!" Lizard Emperor sneered in his heart, without any hesitation, and the body didn't pause. Up.

puff!

The sharp long thorn in Xiao Qingwa's hand pierced the spiritual power on the shoulders of the lizard emperor, and instantly pierced the scales on the lizard emperor's body. This scale, which was harder than steel, instantly pierced a thin wrist hole. , Blood flowed from this hole, and the long thorns of spiritual power did not mean to be blocked, and pierced the scales on the back of the lizard queen!

The lizard emperor let out a scream.

He felt his shoulders as if the entire body had been destroyed, and the whole body fell directly from mid-air.

boom!

The lizard king's body smashed on the wreckage of the ruined flying treasure ship, and fell to the ground motionless, not knowing whether it was alive or dead.

The other lizard royals were shocked by everything in front of them!

How can this be? The lizard king is a powerful lizard. Although the king is not born, his cultivation strength is recognized by the lizard king. It can be said that the lizard king is the most valued in the lizard royal family. , The most promising newcomer, now... he broke the defense with just one move and fell directly to the ground?

The lizard royals were horrified in their hearts, but they still rushed towards Xiaoqingwa and Xiaotianyi involuntarily.

Hum!

A huge domain instantly came down, enclosing the entire island.

"Domain...Domain master? Turned out to be the domain master?"

These venerables instantly seemed to be fighters that had lost their kinetic energy for flight. They fell down and hit the ground, on the ruins of houses, and on the wreckage of flying treasure ships. If they were lucky, they could still have half their lives. The poor one was thrown to death, and the * look was terrible.

On the flying treasure ship, the lizard king who fell to the ground was pretending to be dead.

He just handed Xiao Tianyi a hand, and instantly judged that Xiao Tianyi's strength was far above him.

In animal instinct, the lizard king decided to withstand the full blow of Xiaotianyi, fell to the ground and pretended to be dead, and then took a chance to escape.

The lizard king is a cold-blooded animal, he doesn't care about the life and death of these people.

However, when Xiao Tianyi suddenly displayed the domain, and instantly controlled the entire island, the lizard Emperor's heart suddenly became cold, and he couldn't help but start thinking wildly.

"It turned out to be a domain master-level powerhouse. Although this Netherworld has a lot of powers with domain master-level and above, it does not seem to directly conflict with our lizard royal family? Could it be...Is this the rock fire that was let go? The helper invited by the clan emperor?"

Lizard Emperor thought of this possibility instantly.

However, he quickly rejected this conjecture.

Just now on the flying treasure ship, there was no Yanhuo clan. If the domain owner is really a helper invited by the emperor-level powerhouse of the Yanhuo clan, there is no need to do it at all, they will be This island is returned to the Yanhuo clan.

The people of the Yanhuo tribe were shocked.

The emperor-level powerhouse broke the defense with one move and fell from the sky. Now he does not know his life or death.

Venerable-level powerhouses have no power to fight back, just like flies and mosquitoes, they are shot to death at will.

What are these guys and why are they so powerful!

These people of the Yanhuo tribe don't think that such powerful guys are here to rescue them. The people of the Yanhuo tribe knelt to the ground one after another, or hid in the cave of the volcano and did not dare to come out.

Xiao Tianyi and Xiao Qingwa seem to have no interest in these Yanhuo people. They are constantly teleporting to find out all the lizard royal people on the island, and then they kill them without blinking their eyes. Even the lizard royal people who fell from a high altitude and fell half dead, they did not let go.

What kind of grudges or grievances is it, it is so cruel?

But seeing these scenes, these Yanhuo tribes didn't feel any fear at all, but felt that there was still a trace of excitement in their hearts, as if they were finally getting revenge.

The lizard emperor was frightened, especially watching those dead corpses that fell to the ground were torn into pieces by the small blue tiles, to ensure that these corpses were indeed dead.

Fortunately, Xiao Qing Wa didn't know whether it was negligence, or believed in Xiao Tianyi too much, and never checked the body of Lizard Emperor.

When there was no more lizard royals on the entire island to stand up, and no one was alive outside of the lizard king, Xiao Tianyi took the domain!

The members of the Yanhuo tribe still knelt on the ground, they didn't know what the two adults wanted to do with them!

But Xiao Tianyi and Xiao Qingwa didn't even look at them, as if nothing had happened, they flew onto the flying treasure ship.

Then the flying treasure ship... just flew away!

It really flew away!

"Paralled, these  are really here to find fault! Could it be that the lizard emperor domain master has angered some powerful force?" The lizard emperor was still crawling on the wreckage of the flying treasure ship, motionless, he was wondering this in his heart What is going on.

After a long time, the flying treasure ship had flew far, and could not feel the spiritual fluctuations on the flying treasure ship, the lizard emperor slowly climbed up from the wreckage of the flying treasure ship.

Xiao Tianyi's attack was very domineering, it was only a blow, but the lizard king was greatly hit.

The right half of the body seemed to have completely lost the sense of seeing, and because of pretending to be dead, the lizard emperor could only allow spiritual power to overflow from his wound, so the lizard emperor's cultivation strength was also greatly affected. At this moment, he has not fallen below the realm of the emperor, which is already his great fortune.

"Damn it, whether this is the helper invited by the Emperor Rockfire Clan, this time our lizard clan has suffered a heavy loss. I must kill all the Rockfire Clan on the island, otherwise it will be difficult to eliminate the anger in my heart at this time. And hate!" A cold light flashed in the eyes of the lizard emperor, and he suddenly turned his head to look at the rock fire clan who was still kneeling on the ground, and said with a grim expression.

Huh!

At this moment, a figure suddenly appeared on this island, it was the emperor-level powerhouse of the Yanhuo clan, Little Hotpot.

"This...what exactly happened?"

There was an expression of disbelief on the face of the little hot pot. Suddenly, the little hot pot suddenly turned around, his eyes locked on the lizard emperor who had just stood up, "It's you? The lizard royal family is really cold-blooded. Mine, even your people killed?"

Chapter 4845: : Why is this happening?

The lizard king really wants to spit out the small hot pot!

Your Yanhuo clan is cold-blooded, and your whole family is cold-blooded.

However, at this time, the lizard emperor was seriously injured, and he did not dare to make trouble in front of the emperor-level powerhouse in the small hot pot. When his figure flashed, he teleported to escape.

Huh!

The lizard emperor instantly appeared dozens of nautical miles away. Before he could catch a breath, he heard the voice of a small hot pot suddenly coming from behind him, "Dog thief, where to go!"

I went, the Emperor Yanhuo Clan actually caught up!

The lizard emperor did not dare to neglect, he used teleport again, and he used it seven or eight times in a row.

Huh!

The lizard king has appeared on the land hundreds of thousands of miles away. Looking back at the wire mesh, there is no small hot pot.

call!

The lizard emperor finally took a breath.

Teleportation is not invincible. As long as the opponent's strength is close to you or stronger than you, the slightest fluctuation in your spiritual power will be grasped by your opponent when you teleport, and then your opponent can follow your spiritual power fluctuations. .

Fortunately...

Lizard Emperor took a breath just now, but saw that the small hot pot had appeared next to him.

The whole body of the little hot pot was crimson lava, and the surging spiritual power on the fist of the arm rushed towards the lizard emperor.

Tarsus maggot, now the lizard emperor finally knows what the tarsal maggot means.

Huh!

Huh!

Huh~

The lizard king once again cast teleport continuously.

Paralyzed, if you have the ability, follow me and follow me to the territory of the lizard royal family. Hey, I promise to let you come and go!

The lizard emperor was on the run, but instead of fleeing aimlessly, he fled towards the lizard royal territory.

In the territory of the lizard royal family, in addition to the lizard emperor, there are three powerful people who have just broken through to the realm of the emperor. Moreover, the lizard emperor domain master who received this news has also returned to the territory and is crowning these three emperor-level powerful people Huang Zunli, he believes that as long as the little hot pot chases her to the lizard royal territory, then the little hot pot will be ugly to die!

In terms of distance, the lizard royal territory and the rock fire clan's islands are far apart, but if they are moved away by teleporting according to the power of the venerable level, the distance between the two is only an hour's distance.

Immediately after arriving in the territory of the lizard royal family, the lizard king began to deliberately provoke the small hot pot.

"Hey, if there is a kind, continue to follow me!" Lizard Emperor thought in his heart.

Huh!

Finally, the lizard king teleported to the territory of the lizard royal family.

The lizard king couldn't help letting out a breath.

This is a tropical jungle, and between the valleys is the residence of the lizard royal family.

Although it is in the valley, the territory of the lizard royal family is not lonely, especially in front of the lizard royal domain master's palace. Even at night, there will be many lizard royal people coming to worship, people coming and going, very lively, but this Time.....

The lizard emperor looked in front of him dumbfounded, and he even wondered if he was dazzled.

All the buildings in the lizard royal territory will be destroyed. The lizard king's palace, the magnificent building, has been razed to the ground at this time, and the powerful lizard royal family fell to the ground, either with broken arms or broken arms. The legs, screaming again and again, were terrible.

"This...what is going on?"

"Exactly... what happened?"

The lizard emperor began to wonder if the lizard emperor domain master really provokes a powerful enemy, and this will cause the entire lizard emperor family to suffer a disaster.

Huh!

The figure of the small hot pot appeared instantly.

Seeing the scene in front of him, the little hot pot didn't seem to be surprised, and there was an imperceptible smile on his mouth.

"Escape, why didn't you escape?" Little Hot Pot said with a sneer.

The lizard emperor turned his head abruptly, his eyes flashed cold, and said angrily: "It's you? Is it all your means?"

"Don't lift me up like this, I'm just a small emperor, and have this kind of sky-reaching method? If I have such a method, our Rockfire clan will still be enslaved by your lizard royal clan? Hahaha, I can only say that this is karma!"

Little Hot Pot's face was cold, his figure flashed, and his whole body had turned into hot lava, constantly attacking the lizard emperor.

The place where he is now is the territory of the lizard royal family, the small hot pot is unscrupulous, the magma on his body not only sprays out, and falls on the ground.

call!

call!

The scorching lava fell on the trees and collapsed houses, and instantly caught fire.

Smoke billows, raging fire!

The lizard royals who fell to the ground kept screaming, hot lava and raging fire scorched their skins. Their scales soon cracked, the skin opened and the flesh was blurred, and the blood instantly turned black in the flames. .

The lizard royals are cold-blooded animals, and the lizard royals will not be distracted by the screams of his fellow clan members. This has strengthened his desire to escape.

However, the small hot pot will not give him such an opportunity.

The Emperor Lizard was not originally an opponent of the small hot pot, but when he was on the island of the Yanhuo tribe, the Emperor Lizard threatened the life of the Yanhuo tribe to injure the small hot pot. Now the situation is reversed. Even if the lizard king does not consider the safety of his tribe, he is stabbed by Xiao Tianyi with a single move, and at this time he is not an angry little hot pot opponent.

boom!

boom!

The lizard king tried his best to avoid it, but with every punch of the small hot pot, a piece of scales on the lizard king would be blown away or shattered.

In just a few minutes, the scales in front of the Lizard Emperor's abdominal cavity had all disappeared, revealing the  skin inside!

However, all of this is under the control of the small hot pot, and the lizard emperor has no way to avoid it!

"This... this is just a misunderstanding! Actually... Actually, your Yanhuo clan didn't get any injuries. Your clan, I... I have already sent a meeting to your island. It's better for the enemy to settle and not settle, so let's sit down. Talk!"

"By the way, the Emperor Li Tianzun you said... Emperor Li and our lizard king domain lord have another resource. For the face of our lizard king domain lord, you forgive me this time, from now on , Our lizard royal clan guarantees that the Yanhuo clan is the river water and not the well water, I...I promise!"

The lizard emperor held back the pain, kept avoiding the deadly attack of the little hot pot, and kept explaining to the little hot pot.

He hoped that the small hot pot would be soft-hearted and let him make a living.

But... this time, the little hot pot didn't seem to listen, and the attack did not slow down at all!

boom!

boom!

boom!

The magma fist of the little hot pot still kept sweeping the body of the lizard emperor.

Whoosh!

Another scaly flew out from the body of the lizard emperor with blood, and a heart-piercing pain came over, and the lizard emperor couldn't help shaking his whole body.

This shudder doesn't matter. He could have avoided the attack, but he didn't avoid it.

boom!

The surging magma fist blasted from the injured shoulder of the lizard emperor.

Hey!

The hot magma instantly melted half of the lizard king's body. The lizard king couldn't help but let out a heart-piercing scream. He felt the red hot magma as if it had flowed into his body. The whole body couldn't help shaking.

It is as if his heart is burning, his body veins are burning, and his spiritual power is burning.

Then, Little Hotpot did not stop attacking because of the lizard Emperor's screams. Not only did his magma fist not stop, but instead accelerated towards the lizard Emperor.

boom!

Punch!

boom!

Two punches!

boom!

Three punches!

The fist of the small hot pot kept hitting the body of the lizard emperor.

At the beginning, there were spiritual power fluctuations on the lizard emperor's body, and a spiritual power layer was formed to resist, but this spiritual power layer was quickly smashed by the fist of the small hot pot.

As the fists continued to fall on the body of the lizard king, none of the scales on the lizard king's body was intact!

No, to be more precise, none of the lizard king's body is intact without an inch of skin!

When the small hot pot stopped, the body of the lizard emperor had been blasted into rotten meat... already charred rotten meat!

call!

Only then did the little hot pot feel a breath of malice in his chest let out triumphantly.

call!

call!

The raging flames burned, and the territory of the lizard royal family had been reduced to a sea of fire. Even if the lizard royal family members were not dead, they had already become fuel in the fire at this time. As the fire burned, they continued to make crackling noises.

The little hot pot flew in mid-air, looking at the sea of fire below her feet, without the slightest expression on her face.

This is because the lizard royal family takes the blame and cannot blame others.

The little hot pot had given them a chance, but for the lizard royal family who had more powerful strength and completely mastered the words, they would never have the opportunity to open the little hot pot.

The red sun is sinking, and the sky is booming in the distance.

In the sunset, a flying treasure ship flew farther and farther, Xiao Hotpot knew that his boss Li Tian, and those friends he added to fight together, were on the flying treasure ship at this time.

Before the little hot pot came, Li Tian had already taken the water ghost tribe and sea monster tribe to raid the lizard royal territory.

This kind of black pot is naturally the best for the Sea-Monster Clan to carry it back!

The three super domain masters of the Sea-Monster tribe and the water bird super domain master of the water ghost tribe didn't need Li Tian to take action at all. They easily eradicated all the super masters of the lizard royal family and deliberately wounded and severely injured the lizard king, It seemed that the lizard emperor domain master had escaped from the super domain masters of these sea monster tribe and water ghost tribe by luck.

But even if he escaped, his cultivation realm would plummet. Whether he can continue to stay in the realm of the nobles depends on luck.

The reason why the Sea-Monster Clan let the lizard king territories escaped was to know that the land of the Sea-Monster clan was attacked by the Sea-Monster clan and had nothing to do with anyone.

At the same time, the little hot pot returned to the Rockfire clan island, and then chased all the way, let the lizard king escape back to the territory, and then beheaded by the little hot pot in despair.

Simply neat!

This way of revenge is no problem!

"Boss Li Tian!"

Little hot pot's heart couldn't help but feel a trace of reluctance. The scenes of the past kept flashing before his eyes. Little hot pot even really wanted to abandon the tribe and follow Li Tian.

But in the end, he still didn't make up his mind.

"After my sister recovers, I will definitely follow Boss Li Tian's steps again and fight side by side with Boss Li Tian." Little Hot Pot thought in his heart.

Chapter 4846: : Rebuild Qingyun

What Little Hotpot didn't know was that his decision this time made him completely miss the domain master level.

Although later the cultivation base of Little Hot Pot became the strongest existence of the Emperor-class, and even his cultivation strength could be comparable to the primary powerhouse of the domain master, but... it was only the strongest of the Emperor.

The little hot pot lost the opportunity to fight alongside Li Tian...

...

The flying treasure ship flies over the endless ocean, with long white clouds in the sky and blooming flowers on the sea.

This flying treasure ship has been flying for almost a month, but the Underworld still looks like a distant future.

The distance between the two continents is too far apart, precisely because of this, many ordinary experts in the Nether Realm only know the Nether Realm but do not know that there are two continents.

Of course, this is also because their cultivating teacher died early and did not teach them geographical knowledge.

After the initial excitement and boredom, now on the flying treasure ship, everyone can deal with this long 'journey' with peace of mind.

Waterfowl wants to have various parties every day!

The reason is that there are many strange things, such as congratulating Tang Xiaolong for breaking into the realm of the domain master, shouldn't it be a three-day feast? For example, if the Yanhuo clan's great enmity is avenged, shouldn't it be a three-day feast? For example, if the two beauties, the stars, the moon and the vicissitudes of life, return, shouldn't they have a three-day banquet?

The purpose and simplicity of waterfowl is fine wine!

Tang Xiaolong, the three Sea-Monster tribe, expressed their agreement with the water bird's naked and shameless idea of wanting to drink.

As a result, these goods began to be drunk.

"Cheers!"

"Come on, there are three more after this one!"

"Where is the little boss? It has been a long time since I saw the little boss, could it be...hehe, could it be with the stars and Xiaoyue..."

"Master Li Tian is practicing in retreat, otherwise he would not allow Xiao Yasha to take out so much and let us spoil it!"

"What are you talking about? What do you mean by spoiling? So much wine is left in the space of Xiaoyasha. This is called a violent thing!"

...

Since getting on the flying treasure ship, Li Tian has been practicing.

The power of the Underworld King is much stronger than before, but it is far from reaching Li Tian's psychological expectations.

Li Tian knew that the Dark Pluto had a lot of room for improvement, at least it should be that the giant skeleton of Xiaotianyi should be of the same grade, or even stronger than the giant skeleton of Xiaotianyi.

After all, the spiritual power that makes up the Dark Pluto is the black fire in the blood source, and the purple lightning cultivated by Li Tian's "Blue Cloud".

If you use blood to describe it, the blood of the Underworld is obviously noble!

Naturally, the corresponding strength should be very powerful and powerful!

Speaking of Qingyun, Li Tian finally remembered the volume of Qingyun that Li Mu had brought to him from the earth world after helping the little hot pot revenge.

It has been several years since Li Tian came to the Netherworld, and there are still many chances, but in the Netherworld, Li Tian has not yet obtained any volume of "Blue Cloud".

On the contrary, Li Tian, the clone of the earth world, found a volume of "Blue Clouds" instead.

Does this mean that "Blue Clouds" only exists in the earth world, and the Nether World does not exist?

If this is the case, then Li Tian can only count on the clone of the earth world to continue searching for "Qingyun" for him.

Prior to this, Li Tian had three volumes of "Blue Clouds", and now with the addition of "Blue Cloud Change" brought by Li Mu from the earth world, Li Tian still collected four of the nine volumes.

"The first volume focuses on tempering the body, the second volume focuses on the cultivation of spiritual power, and the fourth volume is a martial art equivalent to the release of spiritual power. The cultivation becomes a small fish and releases the purple electric dragon. This seventh volume "Blue Cloud Change" can also give What kind of surprise do I bring?" Li Tian carefully placed "Blue Cloud Change" on the table and spread it out slowly.

Situ Ningbing sat beside Li Tian, her face was very solemn.

Situ Ningbing couldn't help getting excited as Li Tian unfolded the "Blue Clouds" scroll.

There are nine layers of Qingyun, one layer and one layer. Although each layer of Qingyun seems to have a certain connection, fortunately, it does not affect Qingyun's practice of separating each volume.

The first three levels are the basic exercises for tempering the body and cultivating spiritual power. The fourth to sixth levels are martial arts exercises. The first layer is stronger than the first. The last three layers are advanced exercises, which are like step by step. The change of Qingyun that can already be felt from the seventh floor.

Situ Ningbing's tone was steady and slowly explained the blue cloud to Li Tian, and following Situ Ningbing's explanation, Li Tian also began to practice.

All cultivation can't be accomplished overnight.

Li Tian could feel the spiritual power in his body veins running along with his cultivation, but he could not feel the slightest change.

Maybe it was moisturizing things silently, maybe Li Tian hadn't mastered the know-how.

"wrong!"

"wrong!"

"Still wrong!"

Li Tian was a little impatient at first.

It has been a month, but Li Tian hasn't made the slightest progress in practicing "Blue Cloud Change". This will not make Li Tian feel discouraged, but it does affect his mood.

If you only know that Li Tian is a genius, well, at least Li Tian thinks so.

For a month, I didn't even touch the threshold of "Qingyunbian", which is still very uncomfortable.

"Li, "Qingyun" is a very profound exercise. From the first volume to the last volume, there should be a gradual process, but because what we get is only the scraps, this is inherent in the process of cultivation. This is a certain degree of difficulty, you must not be in such an impatient mood, otherwise I suspect that it may cause confusion, and then it will be more than worth the loss!" Situ Ningbing advised.

Li Tian nodded slightly, adjusted his emotions, adjusted his breathing, and started practicing from the first volume of "Blue Clouds".

"Step by step! Step by step..."

Li Tian soon fell silent again in his practice.

Spiritual power is like trickling water, flowing slowly in Li Tian's veins, and on the upper part of the veins, like the sky, covered by a black flame wheel, water and fire are incompatible. The spiritual power in Li Tian's veins is the rhythm of water and fire. .

In the atrium, the area of that spiritual power lake has been expanded three or four times as much as before because Li Tian broke through to the realm of the domain master. The lake water is spiritual power, and the spiritual power condensed into something is rippling, and the sky in the distance is black. The flame was burning in the sky.

At this time, on a small island in the atrium, the * of obscenity had gradually refined the spiritual power of all the tribesmen of the Sanlu Super God family.

For a former god-level powerhouse, it is not that difficult to absorb and refine the spiritual power of others. The obscene  can already condense a human form like a water column, but this is just a little similar in appearance, which is not at all. Are people.

Fortunately, Li Tian handed the demigod beast crystal of the old dog, the old white light, to the  of obscenity. The  of obscenity does not need to be worried without spiritual refining.

"Hey, after I have completely refined the beast crystals in this demigod state, my cultivation level can almost reach the eighth level of the superdomain master, and I will soon be able to touch the gods in one shot. The threshold is now! Xiao Litian, I will remember your kindness to me! If there is a chance to continue to devour and absorb the spiritual power of other strong people, I will help you refine it by my obscene god!"

This thought flashed through the mind of the  of obscenity, and the  of obscenity was completely immersed in this pleasant refining spiritual power.

At this moment, the  of obscenity suddenly felt this kind of change in the spiritual power in his heart.

Although this change is not visible at a glance, it can be clearly felt by the indecent god.

"Could it be that Li Tian, a kid who has mastered the cultivation techniques of "Qingyunbian"?"

"Should this kind of cultivation technique be a technique that can only be practiced by a semi-god powerhouse?"

"Unfortunately, my kind of clan cannot practice "Qingyun", otherwise I must cultivate this "Qingyun" to the realm of Dzogchen. At that time, demigods, quasi-gods, gods... even more advanced gods will not be absent. May shock!"

"It's a pity...it's a pity..., but Li Tian's luck is really against the sky, maybe after entering the gods, he can really become a big help for my revenge!" the  of obscenity thought.

The changes in the atrium came quickly and went faster. The obscene  hadn't found out what the changes were, and the lake in the atrium was calm again.

"Unfortunately, it should be a coincidence..."

Li Tian didn't know the idea of obscene gods lodged in his body, nor did he know that the obscene  had such a high evaluation of Qingyun. At this time, Li Tian was still practicing the first level of the most basic "Qingyun".

This feeling is like playing basketball. The most basic thing is definitely the understanding of dribbling to the ball. Only when you know the ball well, at that time, when you are in the game, you will feel the touch. Make all kinds of difficult moves, otherwise you won't even be able to catch the ball, do difficult moves with wool!

Of course this is just an example.

Li Tian already knew the first level of "Blue Clouds" well, but when he went back to practice again, he had some different feelings.

The most intuitive feeling is that the wound on Li Tianhou's back that was split by General Sanlu with an axe, after Shuqing treatment, and two months of recovery, it has already returned to normal, but at this time, he practiced "Blue Cloud" again, Li Tian actually felt that the wound was like an ant swallowing the scar of the wound. It was numb and itchy, but there was a very comfortable and refreshing feeling.

Not only that, even the other wounds that Li Tian had suffered before, gradually developed this feeling.

Li Tian couldn't help feeling a little surprised.

This is the first time he has felt this way after practicing "Blue Clouds" for so long. Li Tian quickly used his inner look to see his wounds.

"Huh? It turns out that the first layer of "Qingyun" still has such a function? So I underestimated "Qingyun"!" Li Tian said with emotion.

It turns out that even after the body is injured, even if the tree green is used for timely treatment, the wound can heal, and the main veins of the body can be linked and healed, but those small veins are often blocked. However, Li Tian is now practicing the first layer of "Qing Yun" again, but unexpectedly discovered that the first layer of "Qing Yun" actually has the ability to clean up the clogged veins.

Unknowingly, Li Tian felt that the small veins from his whole body wounds regained function, his whole body was as comfortable as a hot bath, but some black material was flowing out of his body wound.

"Haha, so cool!"

Chapter 4847: : Yushuizhihuan

In addition to the main one, the human body's veins are densely covered with densely small veins, and ordinary cultivators only stay in the main vein when practicing, and Li Tian does the same.

Even if there is spiritual power in those small veins, it is more of a 'diversion', not active cultivation.

But now, for the first time, Li Tian began to pay attention to these small veins. When Li Tian cultivated "Qingyun" and controlled his spiritual power when these spiritual powers began to impact these small veins, Li Tian suddenly seemed to have discovered a new world. .

The trickle of spiritual power is flowing in the body, and the dirty things in these veins are constantly excreted from the pores through the washing of spiritual power.

boom!

A spiritual force suddenly descended from the sky, passed through the cabin, and entered Li Tian's body.

Li Tian only felt his skin beating all over his body, and a comfortable feeling almost made Li Tian groan.

Unexpected joy, who would have thought that Li Tian would break through again when he re-trained the first level of "Qing Yun".

At this time, Li Tian's cultivation level is the first-level peak of the domain master, and possesses the strength close to that of the super-domain master. Now, Li Tian's cultivation level has reached the second-level peak of the domain master. Li Tian feels that his true strength is probably already Reached the early stage of the super domain master level.

Although the cultivation realm has only improved a small step, after all, Li Tian's true strength has reached the realm master realm.

In the face of the most difficult domain owner, Li Tian finally had the power to fight back!

Situ Ningbing shook his head slowly with a wry smile.

People are really worthy of death than people, and they are also practicing "Qingyun". Situ Ningbing's understanding of "Qingyun" may be deeper than Li Tian, but Situ Ningbing did not have such unexpected joy. Situ Ningbing's cultivation has remained in the realm of the emperor, and her strength also remains in the realm of the emperor.

Li Tian was absorbing the spiritual power that fell from the sky, and when he had absorbed more than half of the spiritual power and could no longer absorb it, Li Tian gave up, and the spiritual power that fell from the sky gradually dissipated.

Li Tian suddenly jumped up from the ground, shaking a few times. The dirty things excreted from his body and veins had already been roasted by the whole body, just like roasted mud, as Li Tian's shaking slowly Falling, but there is still a little attached to Li Tian's skin and clothes!

Li Tian was already in a good mood at this time, entered the space of the Qiong Lance of the sky, teleported to a clear water waterfall, and let the waterfall wash away the dirty things on his body.

Rumble!

The Qingshui Waterfall fell like a giant dragon from the mountainside and landed on Li Tian.

"So cool! Hahaha!"

People are refreshed at happy events, and this breakthrough is a complete surprise.

In the past, Li Tian's cultivation was limited, and his understanding of "Qingyun" also had certain limitations.

Now, with the improvement of cultivation level, the understanding of "Qingyun" has become more and more quintessential, but the more you have gained!

"Next, before I reach the Netherworld Cry Sea, I will continue to "Cultivation" Qingyun second layer, continue to practice "Qingyun Secret Art", if all goes well, maybe before entering the sea-monster clan secret realm, I will There will be a preliminary understanding!"

When Li Tian was practicing "Blue Cloud Change", although there was no change, he could feel the power of this technique. It seemed that this "Blue Cloud Change" had touched some mysterious power. Li Tian was concerned about this mysterious power. The understanding is the power of God!

After washing his whole body, Li Tian teleported out of the waterfall and landed on a huge boulder hundreds of meters away.

With the fragrance of birds and flowers, the gurgling water, and the rumbling of the waterfall in the distance, this is a great place.

Li Tian took off all the soaked clothes and spread them on a boulder, allowing the sun to dry the clothes.

In fact, Li Tian could also use his spiritual power to allow his body temperature to dry the clothes, but Li Tian did not do so.

Then this guy lay naked on the boulder and put on the word 'too' to let his little monk enjoy sunbathing.

After practicing "Blue Clouds" this time, all the scars left on Li Tian's body have disappeared, and the naked body no longer has the traces of the previous horror.

Being exposed to the sun, Li Tian relaxed again, and then Li Tian began to practice the second layer of "Blue Clouds" again.

Everything is familiar with the road. Li Tian only feels the whole body is warm and comfortable after practicing.

But Li Tian's eyes were slightly squinted, unexpectedly a little sleepy.

Originally, Li Tian wanted to wait for the clothes to dry before going out and instructing Situ Ningbing to practice "Blue Clouds", but now the sleepiness strikes, Li Tian is a bit lazy, and let the sleepiness attack, and fell asleep unconsciously.

Li Tian didn't know how long he slept, and suddenly heard a woman's play.

Li Tian woke up suddenly.

Only then did he remember that Stars and Xiaoyue, Liu Jimeng, Ye Meijing, and the vicissitudes of life, these beauties with slightly lower levels of cultivation were all in the space of Qiong Lance of Heaven.

"I wiped it! I forgot about this thing. Fortunately, I didn't see the picture of the monk, especially the vicissitudes of life, otherwise I would have the face to see Xiaolong in the future!" Li Tian quickly got up! , Put the clothes on.

Listening carefully again, Li Tian heard the sounds of Liu Jimeng and Ye Meijing in the play, as if the two women were playing in the water, but did not hear the sounds of the vicissitudes of life and the stars.

"Damn, I was scared to death, it turned out that it was my two little wives in the stream!"

"Hey, this is a coincidence. The space of the Heavenly Jade Spear is so large. There are only a few of us in total. How could we just meet here? It seems that the heaven is guiding me Li Tian to do it. Something meaningful!"

When Li Tian raised his eyebrows, he had a bad idea in his heart: field battle!

Love with your own wife and men, this is always the past!

As for such a sentimental thing in the field, only Li Tian possesses the Qiong Spear of the sky, and he can do it unobstructed.

And the wonderful curse, haha, can only be unspeakable!

Thinking of this, the little monk who has been exposed for a long time has awakened his 'bell striking' skill and wants to do his job!

Huh!

Li Tian teleported in front of the pool.

Sure enough, I saw the beauty of Little Lady Ye and Liu Jimeng soaking in the shallow pool of clear water.

What's even more exaggerated is that these two little ladies are actually wearing bikinis, the kind of bikinis that can barely block important parts. Their clothes were placed on the rocks by the pool and pressed with small rocks to avoid being blown away by the wind, and the two of them were like mermaids, soaking in the water, their bodies looming in the waves, more There is a bit of temptation.

Seeing Li Tian, a trace of panic flashed across the faces of Liu Jimeng and Ye Meijing, and a touch of red clouds flew onto their cheeks.

"Hey, two great beauties!"

Li Tian gave a smirk. Before Liu Jimeng and Ye Meijing came out of the water, he had teleported into the pool. Li Tian hugged the two beauties from behind, and his palms had already grasped the plumpness of these two beauties. White Rabbit.

This feels...great!

Li Tian only felt that his little monk was about to break his pants!

"Li Tian! No..."

"Here....."

Can't it?

Hey, the arrow is on the string and I have to send it. You tell me now that it is not possible, how can this be possible?

The movements in Li Tian's hands were proficient, and the little monk directly stabbed out like a brave swordsman.

Rippling water...

"Li... Li Tian... No... No... Uh... OK"

"Two little beauties, don't be shy. There are only three of us, the husband and wife. There is nothing wrong with doing what our husband and wife were supposed to do! Don't be shy, you can just call it as much as you like..."

What Li Tian didn't know was that at the other end of the pool, behind a huge rock, Xing Chen Xiaoyue was also soaking in the water in this shy bikini.

Xingchen Xiaoyue's cheeks were red, angry and annoyed, and she felt that Li Tian was really shameless.

But on another thought, Li Tian didn't know that she was here, nor did she do anything to her. Why was she so angry?

It turned out that the four sisters had agreed to enter and play in the water, but her aunt came to see her, so she could only socialize with her aunt and stay in the city to practice while Liu Jimeng, Ye Meijing, and Xingchen Xiaoyue came here. , Enjoy the water.

Liu Jimeng and Ye Meijing are already married women, and after many baptisms by Li Tian, they will not be shy when they enter the water, and they will enter the pool naked, while Xingchen Xiaoyue is still a virgin, and she is cold and frosty, even if she is Liu Jimeng and Ye Meijing were also a little embarrassed in front of them, so she hid behind the stone and splashed in the water.

As a result... there was a scene where three beauties and Li Tian were playing with mandarin ducks in the water.

Li Tian sprinted, and the water in the pool was rippling more severely, and Ye Meijing below him had lost the ability to resist and kept making breathless sounds. Li Tian's hands were not free, and Liu Jimeng also gasped under Li Tian's movements.

One, two, three, four, two, three, four, another woman, one more time!

Li Tian let go of Ye Meijing, her face flushed, she was paralyzed in the pool, her white body was floating on the water, her body was trembling slightly, but Li Tian, the beast, was not satisfied, and reached out to hold Liu Jimeng. In his arms, Liu Jimeng began his 'beast behavior'.

Xingchen Xiaoyue really wants to use teleport now and escape back to the city.

However, she was worried that once she teleported, she would be instantly discovered by Li Tian, a domain master-level powerhouse, and she would be really ashamed and thrown to her grandma's house when she posted it.

Shy, excited, excited, and afraid, these emotions are infected with Xing Chen Xiaoyue, Xing Chen Xiaoyue feels her breathing becomes quicker.

"Impossible, why do I look like this?" Xingchen Xiaoyue felt that her face was about to catch fire, and she thought with shame in her heart.

At this moment, the movement behind the stone has subsided. Only Ye Meijing and Liu Jimeng's gasping sounds are heard, and the rippling spring water gradually calms down.

"Where's Li Tian? Is he already gone? Beasts, last night, he didn't even say a thoughtful word about this kind of thing. He just lifted his pants and left. It's really a beast!" Said the voice.

However, at this moment, Xingchen Xiaoyue felt the water waves behind her rippling...

Chapter 4848: : Super God Union

Xingchen Xiaoyue suddenly turned back...

The surface of the water behind him was empty, without any figure.

but.....

Xingchen Xiaoyue always felt that she had been seen thoroughly by a disciple.

"Is it my illusion?"

Stars and Xiaoyue sounded the pops in the pool just now, her cheeks couldn't help becoming redder, her heart was like a deer bumping, she was shy, and she had a beautiful feeling, and her body couldn't help but feel a little hot. Sensitive parts have been...

Li Tian left the space of Qiong Lance of the sky with satisfaction and returned to the cabin of the flying treasure ship!

"The body of the little lady of the star and the moon...tsk..."

Li Tian is a domain master-level powerhouse, how can he know that there is a Venerable-level powerhouse hiding behind the stone?

But this * deliberately pretended not to know..., look, is Xingchen Xiaoyue starting to itch?

"Wait when you get to the Underworld, reunite with the dark and soft..."

In the cabin, Situ Ningbing was still practicing.

Li Tian solemnly began to instruct Situ Ningbing to practice "Qing Yun", hoping that Situ Ningbing could gain something like him when he practiced the first layer of "Qing Yun".

...

Underworld, Xiuyu is a lonely super  family, chamber of affairs.

The patriarchs of the four super  families gathered together.

This can be said to be the first official gathering of the patriarchs of the four super  families in nearly seven thousand years.

The Colosseum incident has come to an end, but the impact of the Colosseum incident is still fermenting.

The Donggong super  family, the Donggong demon pupil, the Donggong country is unknown but not white.

Before the day of the water ghost Guzi soared, he killed the old white light and Donggong Mudan in seconds.

This incident shocked all the major families and forces in the entire Netherworld, but it slapped the East Palace Super God Family in the face.

The news passed back to the Donggong Super God family, and the family was furious.

Although the Shuigui Guzi has soared, but there are people who have been wronged. The Shuigui Guzi is for Li Tian's emergence, and this account must be counted on Li Tian.

The same is true for the Sanlu Super God Family.

The team they sent to participate in the Colosseum event, only General Sanlu managed to escape with a severed arm.

Although no one announced this matter, the Sanlu Super God Family also felt a burning pain on their face.

The Sanlu Super God family naturally counted this account on Li Tian.

As for why Li Tian had to * up all the members of the Sanlu Super God family, and why he had to cut off one of the arms of General San Lu, this was simply not a question that the San Lu Super God family should consider.

Therefore, Sanlu and the Donggong Super God Family knew that Li Tian was in collusion with the Sea-Monster Clan, and Li Tian was about to come to the Underworld to go to the Sea-Monster Clan. The two super-god families had a heart and soul, and the patriarch directly led the clan. The master rushed to the underworld.

Their purpose is very simple, they must unite with the other two super * families, and it is bound to kill Li Tian in the Nether Sea of Weeping.

Of course, with the strength of the Sanlu Super God Family and the Donggong Super God Family, they can completely do it in You Continent.

However, Li Tian still bears the name of the elder of the Nether Academy. If there is no suitable reason to kill Li Tian, then the anger of the Nether Academy is not something that these two big families are willing to bear.

Moreover, the Donggong Super God Family has received news that the Ten Thousand God Mountain has already emerged, and Donggong Buchan died in the hands of this powerful being.

If the one from Wanshen Mountain also intervenes in this matter, then unless Donggong and Sanlu Super God Family are willing to fight to death, they probably have no chance of winning.

It is precisely because of this that the Donggong and Sanlu Super God Clan proposed that the four Super God Clan once again join forces, which is bound to kill the rising seedling of Li Tian in the bud.

It's just that... things didn't develop as smoothly as they thought.

First of all, it is the Super God Family of Xiuyu. They are willing to take action against the Sea-Monster Clan, and are willing to eradicate Li Tian's current Winged Sea-Monster Clan and Water Ghost Clan, but they are not willing to directly conflict with Li Tian. Solitude is still thinking about the love of Chu Jiangnan.

As for the relationship between Chu Jiangnan and Li Tian, this is not a question that the Super God Xiuyu family should consider.

Secondly, it is the White Horse Super God Family, this Super God family really loses the face of the Super God Family. The White Horse King Kong is playing with the mud, haha. The meaning of the White Horse King Kong is very simple. Even if the four super * families are combined, the chance of winning is only five to five points. It is not worthwhile. It is better not to provoke Li Tian and let Li Heaven rises peacefully.

Peaceful rise?

Peace, your sister!

Since Li Tian came to the Netherworld, this guy hasn't had peace, right!

Now Li Tian is already stroking the tiger's whiskers of the Super God family. If he is allowed to rise again, he still has to step on the Super God family?

"Patriarch of the White Horse, I am afraid that the White Horse family will not be able to stay out of this matter. Don't forget that Li Tian comes from the world behind the gate of the restricted area. The strong men in that world seem to have the ambition to conquer the Netherworld. If we don't want to repeat the 7000+ In the case of the mistakes of a year ago, it is best for our four super * families to jointly deal with Li Tian!" Donggong Zhentian endured the anger in his heart and said as politely as possible.

White Horse King Kong put his hands together, he just smiled without talking.

Li Tian's ambition is not undiscovered by King Kong White Horse, but what can be done?

The four super * families have been mostly teenagers in the Netherworld, and the entire Netherworld is like a pool of stagnant water, and someone should be able to stir this pool of stagnant water.

Besides, if you want to stop Li Tian, you also need to be able to do it.

Xiao Tianli, knowing the destiny, White Horse King Kong knows that even if the four super * families unite to deal with Li Tian, they may not really be able to stop Li Tian.

The fate of this guy is not so simple.

It's just... the general trend, if Donggong, Sanlu, and Xiuyu want to deal with Li Tian face-to-face, and White Horse King Kong can't stop him, then all he can do is try to avoid getting the White Horse Super God Family also involved in this battle.

"What the Eastern Palace chief said is very reasonable, and I deeply agree. It's just that our White Horse Super God Family is the weakest of the four Super God Families, and the real fighting power is poor. If we have to participate in the White Horse Super God Family, we will not Will shirk, but probably all we can do is to wave the flag and cheer! The main force of Zhengzhen is definitely the two most powerful families of Donggong and Sanlu!"

"After all, what our White Horse Super God family is best at is to look at the aura..."

The shamelessness of the White Horse King Kong made Donggong Zhentian feel sick.

Wave the flag and shout? Cheer up?

Why not say to support us spiritually?

But in general, at least the White Horse King Kong agreed to join forces. After more than 7,000 years, the four major families united again because they had to deal with the Li Tianjun regiment.

"Then now we discuss how to deal with the Li Tianjun regiment and the Sea-Monster Clan..."

Chapter 4849: : A woman as a pass

Underworld!

Dark and soft appeared on the shore of the Nether Weeping Sea

Standing on the edge of the cliff on the coast of the Nether Weeping Sea, looking at the vastness of the sea, the sea is rippling, and the sea breeze is blowing, whizzing through the caves on the cliffs on the coast, making a burst of 'oooo' sound, as if someone is there Like crying.

Nether Cry Sea got its name from this.

After receiving the message from Yin Mo Yin Niu Yuyu and others, You Dark Rou set out from the dark forest, continuously teleporting without stopping, and came to the Underworld in advance.

Although the Nether Cry Sea is vast, but the dark and soft Li Tian does not need to make a special appointment to meet.

At this moment, the location of You Dark Rou was the area where Nether Cry Sea was closest to the ocean.

Standing in front of the cliff, You Dark Rou, facing the stone, watching the sea, a sweet smell spread in his heart.

Before getting to know Li Tian, You Anrou was accustomed to life in the dark forest. The most important thing for her every day was cultivation, cultivation, and cultivation. You Yinrou didn't feel how beautiful the world outside the dark forest was, and she was unwilling to go to the dangerous world outside the dark forest. She was dedicated to cultivation, only thinking about cultivating to the realm of the domain master as soon as possible.

In the gloomy forest, even if there are adventurous nether beast bounty hunters, Gloom and soft will not care, and will not think about things between men and women.

However, since meeting Li Tian, this little man, Li Tian, this little man, has made You Dark and soft in his heart.

Li Tian, this little bitch, is like a match, igniting the flames in Gloom Soft's heart, and Gloom Soft's heart is rippling.

However, Li Tian, a bitch, seems to have deliberately teased You Dark Rou's heart, teasing the eager desire in You Yin Rou's heart, but did not take the action.

What's even more exaggerated is that after the battle of Yecheng finished using Youanrou, Li Tian, a slut, kicked the little girl into the dark forest with a single kick. The good name is to let Youanrou continue to practice, but that's Li Tian. Sao men are happy outside.

The dark and soft dark forest is not a 'closed door to lock the country', and Li Tian's actions in the Colosseum can at least understand the dark and soft.

"Li Tian...huh!" You Dark snorted coldly, but there was a sweet expression on his face.

The girl's mentality is clear at a glance.

When You Anrou appeared in the Nether Cry Sea, Haiqin, a girl of the Sea-Monster tribe, was also there.

In order to avoid the punishment, Hai Qin fled from the Colosseum and returned to the Nether Cry Sea when the water ghost millet was soaring in the daytime. After that, the sea-monster girl Hai Qin was waiting for Li Tian to come to the sea-monster clan, and the dark soft appeared here. At the time, Haiqin had been here for a long time.

The Sea-Monster Clan has lived in the deep sea for a long time, but the Sea-Monster Clan is like a fairy hidden in the mountains. It will always send mountain-monitoring little monsters to patrol the mountains. Therefore, the Sea-Monster Clan's true strength against the major families and forces in the Underworld is known well, including Li Tian and Li Tianjun regiment.

Naturally, Hai Qin also knew some of the relationship between Dim and Li Tian.

It's just that Hai Qin is already a strong man in the semi-god realm. If Hai Qin wants to hide, even if she is less than a hundred meters away from You An Rou, You An Rou still cannot discover her existence.

Haiqin raised his head and looked in the direction of the Super God Xiuyu Family. According to the information of the Sea-Monster Clan, the four Super God families have now gathered in the territory of the Super God Xiuyu Family.

"The four super * families and the four patriarchs gathered together. It seems that this is trying to kill our Sea-Monster Clan!" A sneer flashed across the sea-mon girl's face, and continued: "However, Donggong and Sanlu The two strongest old monsters of the super * family did not show up, I am afraid this time it will not be as you like..."

Hai Qin suddenly raised her head and looked at a small island in the sea of Nether Cry. Hai Qin could feel the breathing of a super power on this island. If Hai Qin's cultivation base is not strong enough, I'm afraid she too Will not find the existence of this semi-god realm powerhouse.

"Who is it? Why does it appear here? Could it be Old Demon Chu Jiangnan?"

A few months ago, Hai Qin and Chu Jiangnan had a confrontation on the Nether Cry Sea, and that time Hai Qin was defeated.

After that, Haiqin set out to investigate Chu Jiangnan. Through the information collected by the Sea-Monster clan powerhouse sent out, Haiqin learned that Chu Jiangnan had helped Li Tian. He and Li Tian had something inexplicable. Contact, and the reason why Chu Jiangnan was willing to help Xiuyu Lonely deal with the Sea-Monster Clan was just a deal.

"It shouldn't be Chu Jiangnan! Chu Jiangnan has already been enchanted, and now I am still trapped in the Nether Academy, I am afraid there will be no time to take care of others in a short time!"

To be precise, Chu Jiangnan has not yet been completely enchanted, Chu Jiangnan's heart demon has been released, and Chu Jiangnan is now experiencing an invisible battle.

If Chu Jiangnan can defeat the inner demon, then his cultivation level should be improved again, but if Chu Jiangnan is defeated by the inner demon, then he will completely lose his mind and become a puppet of the inner demon.

This is what Haiqin got some information from Chu Jiangnan.

The Nether Academy blocked Chu Jiangnan's information, and Hai Qin could only get so much information.

"If it's not Chu Jiangnan, then who can it be?"

Hai Qin still excluded the powerhouses in the semi-god state of the Netherworld that she knew one by one.

Several ancient families and mysterious races also had early powerhouses in the Demi-God Realm. However, these powerhouses in the Demi-God Realm did not seem to have much contact with Li Tian except for the water ghost Guzi that had soared by day.

"Could it be...could it be..."

Haiqin suddenly thought of another god-level powerhouse-the * at the top of Wanshen Mountain!

Hai Qin has no way of knowing how strong this god-level expert's cultivation base is. All she knows is that ten thousand years ago, this mysterious woman suffered heavy injuries and her cultivation base plummeted, but her strength is still strong and can Let the gods of the underworld fall.

Ten thousand years later, the mysterious woman's injuries should have already recovered, and she does not know how much she has recovered.

However, these are not important. The important thing is that if this woman appears, if she does it, how many powerhouses in the half-god realm of the Underworld now can have the strength and this woman without causing talent. Wrists off?

"I hope I didn't guess wrong..."

Hai Qin closed his gaze back, and once again looked at Zheng Dongfang where Nether was crying.

Here is an endless wasteland, passing through this wasteland, further east is the criss-crossing paddy fields, and passing through the vast paddy fields is the vast ocean.

Hai Qin's consciousness was released, and she could already feel that Li Tian's flying treasure ship had landed on the vast ocean, boarding and flying in the direction of the Nether Weeping Sea in mid-air.

At this moment, Hai Qin suddenly felt that a timely and powerful aura was flying from the domain of the Xiuyu family.

"coming!"

Chapter 4850: : Zhu Qiang gathers

Huh!

Huh!

Huh!

People constantly appeared on the cliff of Nether Cry Sea instantly.

Donggong shakes the sky, the realm of demigods, a god-level powerhouse, and the current patriarch of the Donggong Super God family.

Sanlu Shangqing, the ninth-level peak powerhouse of the Super Domain Lord, and the current patriarch of the Sanlu Super God Family.

Xiuyu is lonely and half-god, a god-level powerhouse, and the current patriarch of the super-god family.

White Horse King Kong, Super Domain Lord ninth-level peak powerhouse, the current patriarch of the White Horse Super God family.

The four super * families, the four patriarchs, and the four super powers who stomped the entire Nether Realm were all present.

In addition, each of the four super * families sent several super domain master-level powerhouses.

Donggong Super God Family, the top ten Donggong Tigers, Donggong Longteng, and Donggong Zang, who are ranked in the top five in overall strength, etc., if it were not for Donggong Peony and Donggong Demon Hitomi to die, Donggong Super God's family can send to participate in strangling Li Tian There may be more masters.

The Sanlv Super God family, the top five Sanlv Generals, Sanlv Taibao, and the new generation powers of the Sanlv Super God family Sanlv Yuanren, Sanlv Shuai, etc., and Sanlv Shangqing, the youngest, but the cultivation level The little girl who is not weak is Sanlu Shulan.

The Fish Cultivation Super God family suffered heavy losses due to the last battle with the Sea-Monster Clan. The strongest combat power they can entangle with is the eight super masters of the fourth and fifth levels. These eight super masters are strong. The master is called the Bazi Xiuyu Bazi, but this Bazi Xiuyu Bazi is not a small difference compared to the super domain master-level powerhouses of the two super * families Sanlu and Donggong.

And the White Horse Super God family, well, they are here to make soy sauce. Except for the White Horse King Kong, there are only a few super masters of the first level. Moreover, the White Horse Super God family is tightly surrounded White Horse King Kong.

Even so, a total of more than thirty powerhouses above the super domain master realm, this lineup is absolutely worthy of an All-Star lineup, and it can definitely make any family and powerful force in the Nether Realm feel scared.

Waiting for Li Tian's gloomy softness on the cliff, I suddenly felt the slight fluctuation of spiritual power in the air, and then a majestic and terrifying spiritual power instantly spread around her body.

"So powerful spiritual power fluctuation..."

Without any hesitation, You Yinrou subconsciously used a teleport, teleporting to the surface of the sea thousands of meters away, with a look on her face looking at these super powers who suddenly appeared.

"The four super * families, I didn't expect the four super * families to have united!"

You Yinrou only felt fear in her heart.

"No, you must leave here, you must let Li Tian escape immediately, otherwise..."

Before You Anrou could use her teleport to escape, she was locked by a strand of divine consciousness.

Donggong Zhentian had a smile on his face, and said, "Hey, I didn't expect the Dark Domain Lord of the Dark Forest to come to the Underworld. This is really strange. I don't know if the Underworld Lord came to the Underworld. Experience or sightseeing, I wonder if my Donggong Zhentian is lucky enough to walk with the Lord of the Dark Domain?"

The divine sense that locks the dark and soft is the East Palace shaking the sky. It was locked by a strong man in the semi-god realm with divine sense. Now even if dark and soft wants to leave, she may not be able to escape, she has missed the best chance to escape.

However, Youanrou is the master of the dark forest after all, without the slightest panic on her face, neither overbearing nor overbearing, "Donggong Patriarch, I just came here to test, so I won't bother the Donggong tribe!"

"Hey, since the Lord of the Dark Territory is here to test, then this Nether Cry Sea will stage a big drama in a while, you must not miss it!" Donggong Zhentian said.

Donggong Zhentian knows the relationship between Yougong and Li Tian, but he did not directly deal with Yougong. One is because he is the patriarch of the Donggong Super God family, and there is no reason to take the initiative in a small domain. The second is Although Youyanrou is only a domain master-level powerhouse, it has been rooted for many years in the dark forest. Many ghost beasts in the core layer of the dark forest only recognize the dark softness, and Donggong Zhentian does not want to lose the human society and the dark forest. The domain master of matchmaking.

You Yinrou hadn't had time to return, and at this moment, Xiuyu's lonely body suddenly soared.

All the domain owners on the scene looked at Xiuyu's loneliness at the same time, but saw Xiuyu's lonely figure flashing, and there was already a long sword with spiritual power in his palms directly slashing towards the cliff in the northeast direction.

boom!

The spiritual power released from the spiritual power sword exploded on this cliff, and the huge boulders on this cliff were constantly being blown up and flying.

Whoosh!

A figure flew out of a cave on a cliff a few hundred meters away. It was Haiqin, a girl of the Sea-Monster tribe.

Huh!

Haiqin, a girl of the Sea-Monster tribe, also teleported to the surface of the sea. At this time, she was only a dozen meters away from You Yinrou.

"The demon girl of the Sea-Monster tribe, dare to hide here, what does it want?"

Xiuyu's loneliness is quite jealous for Haiqin.

Hai Qin's complexion was frosty, and he said with a sneer: "This Nether Cry Sea, and the coast along the Cry Sea has always been the territory of my Sea-Monster tribe. Now you have rushed into the territory of my Sea-Monster tribe. Why? Patriarch of fish repair, where is your face?"

A hint of anger flashed across Xiuyu's lonely face.

The expression on Donggong Zhentian's face was worse than Xiuyu's loneliness.

The Donggong Super God Family has always claimed to be the head of the four super * families, and his Donggong Zhentian strength is slightly higher than that of Xiuyu Lonely.

However, Xiuyu was lonely just now, but he could find Haiqin of the Sea-Monster Clan earlier than Donggong Zhentian. This made Donggong Zhentian feel very hurt. At this time, Donggong Zhentian must not let Xiuyu be lonely. Stealing the limelight.

Donggong Zhentian gave a sneer, but the corners of his mouth twitched slightly, "The Sea-Monster tribe has already been driven into the deep sea, and there is such a saying that there are territories! Until you Sea-Monster tribe do not repent, you still think To invade the human race realm, the crime should be punishable."

From a human standpoint, what Donggong Zhentian said is no problem.

However, the Sea-Monster tribe once thought that they were part of the human race, and Donggong Zhentian made Haiqin very dissatisfied.

"According to the theory of the patriarch of the East Palace, if one day our Sea-Monster clan rises, can our Sea-Monster clan also drive the East Palace Super God Family from the homeland, so that you can also enter the barren land, and then live a non-human life? ?"

Donggong Zhentian felt as if he was listening to a joke, and said with a sneer, "Then it depends on whether your Sea-Monster clan has this ability. If so, I have nothing to say about Donggong Zhentian! If not, hehe, then you Siren The clan just stay in the sea of crying, don't think about Liansheng Li Tian doing something to seek destruction!"

Sanlu Shangqing looked at the east of the mainland, and in the distance, the shadow of a flying treasure ship appeared on the sky.

Sanlu Shangqing seemed to say to herself: "This Sea-Monster girl will be handed over to you two demigods to deal with it. As for the Li Tianjun regiment, let's be solved by our Sanlu Super God Family!"
