

A Killer 50

Chapter 50: contradiction

When Yu Dahai and Xiao Zhao saw Li Tian's appearance, they couldn't help but wonder: This kid went out to meet the daughter of the Tang company, why did he look so hard? As if not very happy?

"Hey, Lizi, do you still treat my brother Yu as a brother?"

Li Tian, who had just walked in, heard Xiao Zhao say this, he was taken aback for a while, and smiled and said, "What's the matter?"

Xiao Zhao said angrily: "You tell me the truth and Brother Yu, how did you know the eldest lady of our company?"

Li Tian was always upset about Tang Feifei's affairs, but I would hear Xiao Zhao asking this again. Of course, he didn't want to say more. He turned his head and said, "I don't know her, she is looking for the wrong person."

"Brother Yu, look at Li Zi and lie to us..."

Xiao Zhao said to Yu Dahai, but Yu Dahai did not speak.

"Plum, you're with us, and we don't want to grab you or something. As for the hidden and tucked ones?"

After Xiao Zhao said this again, Li Tian suddenly became angry.

"I said, I don't know her!" The voice roared out of his mouth, scaring Xiao Zhao.

Xiao Zhao suddenly didn't dare to say another word.

Then Yu Dahai hurriedly said: "Xiao Zhao, hurry up and rest, don't bother Xiao Li..."

Xiao Zhao didn't dare to speak much, but he was a little afraid of Li Tian, so he quickly crawled to the upper bunk to go to sleep, but Li Tian didn't pay attention to him anymore, lying on the bed quietly thinking about his thoughts. .

To be honest, he originally had a very good impression of Tang Feifei. Although the first time she saw the truth of that girl, she was a bit savage, a bit headstrong, and "lied" to herself twice, but Li Tian felt that those things should be seen from now on. If you do, I really don't blame others, but because I am too stupid, there is no way, who made me just come to this big city?

But later, she couldn't bear it. She looked at people in their family and beat herself, and she was stupidly pretending to be a hero and desperately rescued her... Thinking of this Li Tian felt like she was being tricked. I went up from the bottom of my heart.

He would think about it, Feifei always thought he was a master at the time?

It's a pity that this master is really not that high, and she didn't protect her, but she was abused as soon as Xiao Zhou came up.

So Li Tian has been unhappy with this knot.

If it weren't for this, Li Tianzhen thought Feifei was pretty good, and the girl looked like her daughter-in-law who hadn't passed the door: a slender figure, a well-developed posture, just use the word "stunner" to describe it. Not bad.

Moreover, since childhood, an aristocratic temperament has been nurtured in a family like the Tang family, which can indeed make a gangster like Li Tian fall under the pomegranate skirt. Unfortunately, a misunderstanding caused the present situation.

Thinking back to when he said that Feifei had no money, Li Tian felt that he was really **** simple and stupid at that time.

He had been thinking this way in his mind, and fell asleep on the small iron bed snoring.

---

As for Feifei, after driving back, her stomach was ablaze.

In the villa, Tang Zheng saw his daughter come back angrily, and couldn't help wondering what happened to his daughter again?

"Feifei...what's wrong?"

Tang Zheng yelled twice, but Feifei didn't speak, and ran straight into the room and slammed the door shut.

Feifei, who was alone in the room, was furious, and threw everything on the ground when he caught it.

There was a creak in the bedroom.

The servants and bodyguards in the villa were puzzled and did not dare to speak.

"Feifei, what's the matter?" Tang Zheng went upstairs depressed, and was about to open the door of his daughter's room to ask what was going on. Unfortunately, the girl locked the door inside and Tang Zheng couldn't get in.

"Don't bother me, I'm so angry." Feifei yelled from the room.

Tang Zheng heard his daughter's roar and couldn't help but shook his head helplessly, and stepped back.

For his daughter, Tang is exactly one hundred dotes.

No way, Feifei's mother died of illness since she was a child, so the remaining Feifei Tang is caring for herself, especially because Feifei looks so much like her mother.

Since childhood, no matter what Feifei did, Tang Zheng tried his best to maintain, and he never said too much.

But this time because of Feifei's baby kiss 20 years ago, Tang Zheng was a little depressed.

This incident was the marriage that the Tang family had made with the Wang family 20 years ago. To tell the truth at that time, the Wang family was the savior of their Tang family, and that's why today's marriage date was in place.

Now, Feifei has grown up. Although she is still in college, Tang Zheng feels that she must keep her word. Therefore, he decides to make a marriage with the Wang family first, and discuss the marriage later.

But I didn't expect that my daughter was so stubborn that she wouldn't be willing to make an appointment with the king's kid.

And so much so that this kind of situation happened now, and it happened to meet Li Tian who had just come to Kyoto City.

Is it sin? It is fate, which seems to be known only later.

To tell the truth, the royal family in Kyoto is even more powerful than the Tang family.

I heard that there was an old guy on the Wang family who was notoriously short-handed, and that old guy was an old general in the headquarters of a certain military region, and he had a concurrent post.

Last year, I heard that when the Wang's grandfather was 60 years old, there were no fewer than 10 Hummers from the Southern Military Region. The momentum was extremely impressive. At that time, the entire city of Kyoto was a sensation. One street was blocked by Hummers, and the city government also People also came, and the momentum was unprecedentedly great, and the Wang family's business was spread all over the city of Kyoto, with huge assets.

Unfortunately, the Wang family has a famous playboy, who is very charming and romantic.

Relying on the powerful posture, and the short-term old lady is upset in Kyoto City, no one dares to provoke.

Don Feifei is going to be engaged to that playboy? If this happens, Feifei will not be unlucky afterwards.

Tang Zheng actually regretted thinking of these things, but what can he do now? One is the honor of his own family and the credit of a man, and the other is the happiness of his daughter? The two are now coming together, making Tang Zheng extremely distressed.

With a sigh, Tang Zheng silently returned to his study, reading the book... and meditating.
