

A Killer 5131

Chapter 5131: Old man is gone

Three hours later, the strong man guarding the door of the ward discovered that Mu Yunlong had disappeared.

The entire hospital was sealed up and began looking for the whereabouts of the old man.

Unsuccessful.

Then Li Bai issued an order to completely seal off Beitang City. The strong from Tianmen drove into Beitang and began to search for Mr. Mu Yunlong.

Various high-tech and various masters continue to gather in Beitang.

In a short period of half a day, the various dark forces stationed in Beitang who were rebelling against China's rule were stunned by the Tianmen, but the old man was still not found.

In desperation, Duanmu Ying could only take her 80-year-old dog nose out of the mountain.

This guy Goubi has only been with Li Tian for a few years, but his status in China is extremely lofty.

After retiring, he also enjoys China National Allowance, and is a special talent of China.

The veteran is one of the best.

Dog nose walked around the old man's ward, and then looked at Duanmuying and Li Bai behind him with a puzzled look.

"Is there anything abnormal before the old man disappeared?"

"No!"

"Outside the door and outside the window are there strong guards from the Heavenly Gate?"

"That's right, and there are surveillance outside the door and window. There are also four elephants and Wuji old people in the hospital!"

"Then I probably understand! Although I am still not sure, but if my nose is still useful, then the old man should be taken away by Li Tian!" Dog nose said.

"Li Tian?"

"My father?"

"Xiao Litian is back?"

Everyone present felt surprised.

"If it was Li Tian, why didn't he tell us, why didn't he come to see us?" Duanmuying felt aggrieved in her heart.

The dog nose shook his head slightly, then looked out the window, and said: "I think it should be the father's attention. The old man probably wants to go out and have a look, don't want other adults!"

I have to say that this guy with a dog nose has a better nose than a dog.

Li Tian stayed in this ward for no more than ten minutes, and the dog nose could be judged by the breath left by Li Tian.

"Contact Tianshan immediately and ask them!" Li Bai turned to the entourage behind him.

A few minutes later, news came back from the Tianshan Mountains. The powerhouses guarding the gate of the restricted area did see Li Tian's return, but because Li Tian did not allow them to leak the news, they did not report.

Li Bai and the others were relieved now.

Li Tian took Mr. Mu Yunlong to his former military area, to Dongying Province (formerly Dongying Island State), to North America, and to the South China Sea to fulfill his unfulfilled wish.

Li Tian took the old man Mu Yunlong teleported to the top of Mount Everest, let the old man stand on the top of the world to see the whole world.

Li Tian took the old man Mu Yunlong to the depths of the sea, and let the old man see the world deep in the sea that he had never seen before.

Li Tian also took the old man to fly out of outer space, allowing him to stand in the endless dark universe and look back at the earth world.

Li Tian is the pinnacle of a demigod. He can use his spiritual power to create a completely independent space around his body. The temperature is moderate and the air is moderate. It will not cause any impact on the old man. This kind of thing is easy for him.

"It's beautiful, the earth is really beautiful!" The old man exclaimed.

Li Tian can feel that the old man is really happy.

"Li Tian, you now have power and strength beyond human comprehension, promise me to take good care of our living homeland, I...I am really old, and I feel tired after watching the world. tired....."

Mr. Mu Yunlong's voice became lower and lower.

Li Tian stretched out his arm to support the old man.

"Master, do you want to go to other places to have a look? The moon? Mars? Or other worlds? I'll take you there!"

Father Mu Yunlong looked up at the moon that seemed to be supporting him, and shook his head slowly after a while.

"I am old, this time I really feel tired! Li Tian, take me back, they should be worried!"

Mu Yunlong leaned against Li Tian and slowly closed his eyes.

Li Tian suddenly felt that the man who used to stand upright had become so thin before he knew it.

"Okay, I'll take you back!"

Li Tian stretched out his hand and touched his tears, teleported back to Beitang with Mr. Mu Yunlong and returned to the Royal Private Hospital.

Father Mu Yunlong fulfilled his wish, and finally left quietly in Li Tian's arms.

The news that Mr. Mu Yunlong had gone was broadcasted on China TV, and the entire country fell into grief.

Many citizens organized spontaneously to offer white chrysanthemum flowers to the places where Mu Yunlong lived and fought to express their grief for Mr. Mu Yunlong.

This man is probably one of the few people in the world who doesn't have much complaints.

Not only the original Huaxia, but also people in other regions outside Huaxia also admire the old man.

Li Tian took out the tooth he got from the saber-toothed tiger demigod that he killed in the secret realm, and then carved the demigod-level tooth into a coffin with a spiritual power blade, and then Li Tian sent the old man into the coffin. Inside, he put a Dingyan Pill he got from Netherworld into the old man's mouth, and finally put nine god-level crystals into the coffin.

As for the old man's cemetery, the most powerful Fengshui master in China found a dragon's cave. It was long excavated by the strongmen of Tianmen. The tomb covers an extremely large area, which is larger than that of any emperor in history. The land must be vast.

Outside the burial mound, Li Bai encircled the land with a radius of tens of kilometers and built it into a burial mound garden and a square for future generations to pay respects. In order to protect the safety of the old man's tomb, Li Tian used his divine power again, leaving a ray of permanent divine power on the old man's tomb.

Except for the powerhouses above the super domain master realm, no one should think of hitting the old man's coffin!

The funeral of the old man is the most solemn funeral in Chinese history, even the history of the entire earth world.

All the top leaders of China, the most famous business leaders, chaebols, and elites from all walks of life from all over the world attended the funeral alone. There were tens of thousands of people attending the funeral. Father Yunlong.

During this time, Beitang Hotel was fully occupied.

The ordinary small hotels that noble merchants and chaebols are unwilling to enter are also overcrowded recently.

But no one complained, no one complained.

Being invited to attend the funeral of Mr. Mu Yunlong was originally a matter of face.

As for those who were not invited, they came to Beitang voluntarily and waited for the funeral to be over before going to the old man's grave to mourn.

Just as the whole country of China was mourning for Mr. Mu Yunlong, there was discordant news in the South China Sea.

Under the agitation of the strength behind them, the guys on those small islands jumped out to provoke China.

Chapter 5132: I saw god

China, Jinghai!

At eight o'clock in the morning, the sun had just risen.

At the beginning of a new day, early risers rushed to the company from the ground across the streets and alleys.

Near the original Jinghai Oriental Pearl TV Tower, there is a park here. Like many revolutionary martyrs' cemeteries before the end of the world, there is also a grave in this park.

Every day, the person in charge of the park in Jinghai City will send someone a bouquet of flowers.

Many times, the citizens of Jinghai City will come here spontaneously, sending flowers, and even the school will organize grave sweeping activities.

History has always been written by victors, and the one lying here has been written by Chinese history as a beautiful girl who fought against zombies and died bravely.

This beautiful girl is Don Feifei.

As for the matter of Tang Feifei being controlled by the three corpses and becoming a zombie, this taint has become a story of Tang Feifei being threatened by the three corpses, but Tang Feifei still fought unrelentingly and was eventually killed by the cruel three corpses.

After Li Tian finished the funeral of Mr. Mu Yunlong, he met with Li Bai, Duanmuying, Bai Jing, Ouyang Shiqing, Ouyang Man, Manzi, Captain, Goubi, etc., and came here on a special trip. He wanted to come here. Don Feifei is buried here.

Dog nose was the only one who accompanied Li Tian.

Although Li Tian had reason to suspect that the female soul in Hong Zhan was Tang Feifei, this did not affect Li Tian's arrival here.

Standing in front of Tang Feifei's grave, Li Tian had a lot to say, but he didn't know where to start.

"I am fine, now my cultivation level has reached the peak of a demigod!"

"The three corpses were all killed by me, and even the corpse clan was completely wiped out by Hong Zhan!"

"I will leave the earth world soon, maybe I will never come back again!"

"They all live very well in the earth world. This fully proves that anyone can turn away from the earth!"

"I will go to the ghost mythical creature soon, if... I mean if your soul is still in the ghost mythical creature and can meet me, then I will marry you Li Tian!"

"Actually, marrying me may not necessarily be happy. Duanmuying, Ouyang Shiqing, and Bai Jing are married to me, but they can only stay in the earth world forever. Although I have left a clone, they never The clones are regarded as me, so they are actually quite pitiful, especially their cultivation base allows them to live for hundreds of years or even longer. As a result, they have to endure longer loneliness!"

"And Xue Ji..."

Speaking of this, Li Tian's expression couldn't help being a little dim.

"She fell and died in the hands of the Super God Family. After I return to the Underworld this time, I will do something against the Super God Family. I will make them pay a heavy price!"

"You haven't seen Liu Jimeng and Ye Meijing. They are the women I met on the battlefield of death, but they are also destined to be unable to follow me now, and they will stay in the Underworld in the future."

"Am I very ruthless and unrighteous? You must think so! Sometimes I also ask myself whether it is right or wrong for me to make such a search... But many times I can't find the answer, maybe There is no right or wrong in the first place!"

boom!

While talking, a loud noise suddenly came from a building more than 400 meters high in the distance. Black smoke began to rise from the building more than 400 meters high, and thick smoke continued to come out. , I am afraid it is already on fire.

Immediately afterwards, there were continuous cement blocks falling from high above the building! The towering cloud building began to falter.

"Dog nose, what happened? Could it be an accident?" Li Tiandao.

"Master Li Tian..." With a horrified expression on Dog Nose's face, he quickly approached Li Tian, "Daran, now we are too far away from the Jinghai Morgan Building, and my nose can't smell the relevant smell, so I still Can't judge. But... it doesn't matter..."

Whoosh!

Whoosh!

The dog nose's words have not yet settled, and more than a dozen figures are constantly flying from all directions of the burning Jinghai Morgan Building, flying towards this building.

"They are the disciples of the Tianmen. These disciples all have cultivation bases above the Venerable Realm. With them, even any accidents can be resolved!" Goubi said confidently.

However, this time Goubi didn't expect that the moment these Venerable-level powerhouses flew up, dozens of figures immediately flew out of the building, instantly surrounding the disciples of these heavenly gates, and proceeded to do it if they didn't agree.

These heavenly disciples tried their best to resist, but they were still strangled very quickly.

The dog nose was stunned. Those who were disciples of the heavenly disciples, but the strong in the realm of the venerable, were so easily beheaded, "Big...sir, I'm afraid... I'm afraid the explosion in the building was not an accident, but someone deliberately did it. It!"

The powerful flying out of Jinghai Skyscraper, after a successful blow, did not miss them, they landed one after another, their figures flickered, and they quickly mixed into the crowd and disappeared completely.

The building is still burning and seems to collapse at any time.

The Jinghai Morgan Building is a building with more than 100 stories high. The explosion occurred on the 60th floor. Unless it is a powerful master of Tianmen, ordinary fire fighting can't play any role at all.

The tragedy happened.

Many people can't help but recall the September 11 terrorist attacks in the United States before the end of the world.

The air of despair filled the quiet sea, and the people in the Jinghai skyscraper were extremely desperate.

The building exploded and started to burn again. The power system has been disconnected. It is almost impossible to escape from dozens of floors or even hundreds of floors.

Li Tian saw that someone was standing on the window of Jinghai Morgan Building, ready to jump in at any time.

This is completely suicidal, but when they are desperate, these people seem to have no choice at all.

Li Tian frowned slightly.

He had already decided not to intervene in the affairs of the earth world, but now somebody actually sabotaged him while talking to Tang Feifei, which affected his mood. If he was not intervening, then he would not be Li Tian.

"Want to get into the crowd? Dreaming!"

Huh!

Li Tian reached out and grabbed the dog's nose, teleported to the street two blocks away from Jinghai Morgan Building. He pointed to the back of one of the men carrying a backpack and said: "Dog nose, you stare at him, I want Let's see who is struggling with us, China. I'll go to the building to save people first.

Dog Nose, who is already more than 80 years old, looks like he is in his early forties. Hearing Li Tian's words, Dog Nose's face showed a hint of excitement, "Don't worry, Li Tian, leave this to me!"

...

On Jinghai Morgan Building.

"Mom and dad! I'm sorry for the child, I... I originally wanted to make money early and buy a house in Jinghai so that we can take you two old men into the city to enjoy the blessings, but... the child has to go one step!

At this time, someone finally despaired, hung up the phone, jumped, and jumped off the Jinghai Morgan Building!

Huh!

Li Tian's figure flashed and appeared in mid-air instantly, reaching out to lift the jumper in his hand.

"Fuck...Are you a strong man in Tianmen?"

"No... you are... you are Lord Li Tian?"

The jumper still had an impression of Li Tian, the hero of the earth world. He was very excited for a while, and instantly put aside the sorrow of committing suicide by jumping off the building, excitedly took out the phone and called his family: "Mom, I don't want to die! ...I...I saw the god! It's Li Tian! The patron saint of the earth world-Li Tian!"

Chapter 5133: Ultimatum

Li Tian is not opposed to personality cult.

But this guy was too much. Not only did he seize every opportunity to take a selfie with Li Tian, he even pulled Li Tian's arm and asked Li Tian to sign him.

signature?

Sign Nima's egg!

There are now tens of thousands of people waiting for rescue in the Jinghai Morgan Building!

Li Tianzhen wanted to throw this guy into the air again and let this thing come into a free fall motion.

Li Tian sent the excited guy to the ground, warned him viciously, and then teleported again.

This time, two people were rescued at the same time.

Li Tian found that his method could not save everyone at all. His heart moved, and a divine might instantly rounded the entire Jinghai Morgan Building. With the spiritual power released from him, those who jumped off the building were all used by Li Tian. Spiritual power controls and catches.

"Woo, I don't need to die! I don't need to die! The  saved me!"

"I... I'm going! So I also have superpowers? How the  can I fly?"

"What the  is going on? Could it be that the Great God Li Tian appeared?"

These jumpers found that they did not fall to death, but landed slowly and lightly, suddenly excited.

On the ground, someone took this picture with a mobile phone and uploaded it to the Internet immediately.

Suddenly, the Internet suddenly boiled.

"As I said, there must be gods in the earth world! Believe it now!"

"Believe your sister, maybe this is an alien invading the earth!"

"Despise your ignorance, I have a distant relative who is a senior Chinese leader. He said that the great  Li Tian has returned to the earth world. This must be a masterpiece of Li Tian!

"Li Tian? Is that the great  who saved the earth world from the end of the crisis?"

"That's right! It's him, that relative of mine has seen him from a distance at the upper level of Father Mu Yunlong's funeral. It's not like that, Li Tian is the true god!"

"..."

Li Tian didn't know the discussions that occurred on the Internet. At this time, he was rescuing the Jinghai Morgan Building.

For the demigod powerhouse, such a disaster is not a problem at all. Li Tian teleported to the floor where the explosion occurred and flew directly into the fire field. As the spiritual power on his body was released, the murderous intent was gradually released, and the fire field was gradually released. The temperature of several floors dropped sharply.

And Li Tian used the domain again, instantly controlling the fire scene in the domain, and then pulled the oxygen away from the fire scene instantly, and then the flame of the fire scene quickly extinguished.

The only thing that made Li Tian feel more troublesome was that when the explosion occurred, the staff who were working on several floors of the photographic department suffered casualties of varying degrees. Li Tian could only try his best to rescue.

Fortunately, after the flame went out, there was no second explosion in the building, and Li Tian had already kept the losses to a minimum.

Other Tianmen powerhouses in Jinghai, the superpowers of the China Special Operations Group, soon arrived at Jinghai Skyscraper, and they began to take over the search and rescue.

The reporters of Jinghai TV station rushed to the scene of the accident as soon as possible and began to broadcast the accident live.

Then Jinghai TV station filmed Li Tian teleporting from the building to rescue the injured.

"Dear viewers, viewers, did you see the flashing scene just now? The savior just now is the hero of our earth world, Lord Li Tian, who rescued the earth world from the crisis of the end. Now Lord Li Tian has once again come to the earth world, he has once again rescued the people of Jinghai from fear!"

"According to reliable sources, when the violent attack occurred, Master Li Tian rushed here immediately, rescued more than 37 jumpers, and controlled the fire in the shortest time... Look at Master Li Tian again Teleport appeared, holding an injured child in his arms."

"Did you see? Master Li Tian didn't know what spell he used. He just poured some cyan liquid on the child's wound. As a result, the child who was still in pain, screaming and crying just now miraculously recovered."

"This is really a miracle, it's really amazing! The most important thing is that you see that there is no scar on the child's body! This is really a miracle. This station is here. The reporter must solemnly warn those violent attacks. Only Master Li Tian exists in the earth world. You can't scare us! We... Wait... Master Li Tian came towards us!"

What surprised the Jinghai TV station was that the legendary Li Tian God would take the initiative to accept the TV station's interview, which made the TV station reporters feel excited.

"Master Li Tian...you..."

Li Tian looked at the camera lens, "Is this a live broadcast?"

"Yes, my lord!"

"Is it Jinghai TV? Can this live broadcast be spread to all over the world?"

"My lord, this is Jinghai TV Station, but we can directly transmit the signal to China TV Station, which can be broadcast live all over the world!"

"Very good! Then I will take this opportunity to say a few words to those strong men who made this terrorist attack. I don't care what you want, and no matter what your dissatisfaction with China, you are targeting civilians. The attack has already angered me. I will give you six hours to take the initiative to take the responsibility, otherwise I will let you see what God's wrath is!"

Li Tian's words were very short, but when he finished speaking, through the camera lens, everyone in front of the TV saw that the air around Li Tian instantly solidified, and a thick layer of ice appeared on the ground. .

This is not superpower, but anger!

...

Far away in the South China Sea and then south of Luzon.

"Look, this is the legendary Li Tian god!"

"This guy looks hard to deal with! There will be no accidents in our attack!"

"Great God Li Tian gave us an ultimatum, what shall we do in six hours?"

The violent elements who were constantly watching the attack in the former China through live television were frightened by Li Tian's words, and suddenly appeared a little nervous.

At this moment, a cold voice sounded.

"Hey, this kind of trick can deceive ordinary people, but you are all cultivators, can you still be deceived?" As he spoke, the man with a scar on his face suddenly released a wave A strong murderous aura, as the murderous aura appeared, a thick layer of ice appeared around his body.

"How is it? I have done in-depth research on Li Tian. When he left the earth world, his cultivation level did not seem to have reached the domain master promotion, and his clone left in the earth world was also the domain master when he left the earth world. Realm only, so...Hua Xia is just alarmist! Our attack cannot be stopped. We must let China know how strong we are!"

A violent person standing next to the scarred man asked: "My lord, is the attack on the Chinese on the island still going on?"

"Of course, everything goes according to the original plan! We will drive all the Huaxia people out of the island. If they don't leave, then all the men among them will be beheaded and the women among them...hehe!"

Chapter 5134: Li Tian was beaten in the face

On the same day, several violent attacks in the original Huaxia also occurred in other cities.

Although there were strong men from Tianmen who tried their best to rescue, the number of people killed and injured on this day reached more than 700, and the strong men from Tianmen also lost more than sixty.

Li Bai is angry!

The barbarian is angry!

Duanmu Ying is angry!

All the strong in Tianmen are angry!

However, before the fire of their anger had time to vent, another news suddenly came back from Luzon.

The original Chinese nationals who lived in Luzon all the year round were driven and killed by Luzon violent. On this day, the Chinese people flowed in blood on the streets of the capital of Luzon. Many original Chinese residents were caught before they could escape from Luzon. Beheaded.

The wealth that these Chinese residents had accumulated over the years and years of hard work was looted by these violent surprises.

The shocking TV picture was transmitted back to Beitang, and Li Bai was completely enraged.

"Damn, these guys are too arrogant and arrogant, I have to bear with them again and again as if Li Bai won't get angry?" Li Bai angrily slapped the office work in front of him into pieces and said angrily.

The entire world is now under the rule of Huaxia, and Huaxia is now the Lord of the Earth.

At this time, the violent elements in Luzon even dared to go against the trend, even daring to provoke China again and again.

Is it true that the current China will be like before the end of the world, because of various reasons, it will only express protests?

"Where is the barbarian? Assemble the strongest forces in Tianmen and drive into Luzon in half an hour! I want those violent elements to die!" Li Bai said angrily.

Duanmuying did not stop Manzi from gathering people, but did not completely agree with Li Bai's decision.

"Just now, China TV Station has broadcast Li Tian's TV speech. He has given the violent the last six hours. If so, then we will wait a few more hours. If these violent still don't know what is good or bad, Li Tian will definitely not Will sit back and ignore it!" Duanmuying said.

Li Bai's brows frowned slightly.

As the supreme ruler of China, Li Bai has secretly begun to gradually eliminate Li Tian's influence on China, because he does not want to live under Li Tian's aura, and it is precisely this reason that Li Bai dared to launch a war to unify the entire earth world.

However, now that Li Tian is in the earth world, his son can't and dare not give Li Tian face.

"Okay, Barbarian, then we will wait for the last few hours!"

...

After Li Tian left Jinghai Morgan Building, he found the dog nose by phone.

"Master Li Tian, the person you want me to stare at is now in this hotel. Although the man with the backpack didn't communicate with other people, I found that there were more than a dozen other powerful masters who stayed in this hotel. This is his check-in information, as well as the information of the occupants that I think are suspicious." Dog nose passed the two pieces of information he collected to Li Tian, and pointed to the only one in Jinghai City in front of him. Said a super six-star garden hotel.

Seeing the information collected on the dog nose paper, Li Tian couldn't help being taken aback.

The man with the backpack, whose surname is Ann, is named An Yongli. He has a quarter of the Chinese ancestry. He entered Tianmen and received strict training from Tianmen when he was young, and even got rewards from Tianmen crystals.

It can be said to be a very good talent.

At the age of 27, An Yongli had already broken through to the realm of the venerable, but he rejected the job of rich revenge provided by Tianmen and chose to become a freelancer, and then gradually disappeared from the public. In sight.

When he appeared in the eyes of everyone again, Ernst & Young opened a private detective office in Jinghai, which was responsible for investigating Xiaosan and extramarital affairs.

With his cultivation as the realm, doing such a thing is naturally handy, so Tianmen once felt that he was wasting his talent and ability, and once again came forward to invite him to join the China Special Operations Group.

Ernst & Young joined the special operations team, but was removed from the team due to serious violations of the rules of the team within three months of being in the team.

Afterwards, Ernst & Young disappeared from the sight of everyone again, and when it reappeared, it was the scene of the explosion of the Jinghai Morgan Building. Moreover, according to the investigation of the dog nose in such a short period of time, the ultimate planner of the explosion is likely to be Ernst & Young Lee.

"Dog nose, thank you!"

"Hey, I should really say thank you! Without Master Li Tian, my family and I would have died in the hands of zombies in the last days. Now I am enjoying the admiration of everyone in China. My family's children are in China. Serving in different departments, although our family is not a rich family, but it also has a certain status in the whole China, especially Li Bai, who also respects me very much, which makes me very satisfied with the exceptional face!" .

Li Tian stretched out his hand and patted Dog Nose's shoulder, and told Dog Nose to go back and wait for the news. Then Li Tian walked into the hotel alone.

Six hours countdown.

This is Li Tian's deadline for the violent.

But obviously, the violent elements did not take Li Tian's words to heart.

The continuous explosions and violent attacks have made Li Tian feel the burning pain of his face being drawn.

The TV broadcast of the Luzon Island rejection of China incident in the hotel lobby made Li Tian feel that he was still too naive.

Li Tian's patience has been exhausted.

When dealing with violent elements, Li Tian felt that all his benevolence and morality were completely useless.

Li Tian took out his cell phone.

This is the cell phone Li Bai accompanied him after he returned to the earth world. It was a cell phone that could directly call Li Bai.

After the phone rang twice, it was connected by Li Bai.

"Li Bai, I have intervened in this matter! These violent elements are left to me to solve, you let the barbarians lead people into Luzon Island, try to rescue us Chinese people! Faster..."

After saying this, Li Tian hung up the phone.

Li Tian felt the anger in his heart burning, and it seemed that he might run away at any time.

Li Tian picked up the piece of paper in his hand that was filled with information collected by the dog's nose, and used his spiritual power slightly. The piece of paper was instantly shattered by Li Tian and disappeared completely.

"Ernst and Young Lee? Take you as the breakthrough point. I want to find out all the behind the scenes of this incident! This is the last thing Li Tian did to the earth world before leaving the earth world!" Li Tian coldly Said.

Hotel, EY room.

Ernst & Young took a bath, shaved his beard, and completely destroyed the clothes he had worn before, and then lay on the sofa and watched the live broadcast on TV.

The explosion of Jinghai Morgan Building did not achieve the expected effect, which made Ernst & Young a little unhappy.

So he is ready to plan an even greater violent attack on the world.

"Last wanted? It's disgusting that an old and undead person who has passed away uses this method to brush his sense of existence! Still calling himself a god? How shameless there is even a man who calls himself a god, really moron!"

"Aren't you a god? There are so many violent attacks in China now, why don't you stop it?" At this moment, Ernst & Young suddenly felt that the temperature in the room was a little bit low, and he felt it as a Venerable Power It's a bit of chill!

Chapter 5135: God punishment

An Yongli looked back vigilantly, but saw a strange man appear in his room.

"who are you?"

When asked this sentence, Ernst & Young suddenly realized that the man in front of him was the Li Tian who had just appeared on TV.

"It's you?"

Li Tian has teleported to the side of the sofa and sat down on the sofa.

"It's me! As a member from the Tianmen, you shouldn't know me!"

Ernst & Young discovered that the appearance of Li Tian in front of him was somewhat similar to the towering boulder statue standing outside Tianmen, the top of Tianshan Mountain.

It's just that in Tianmen, except for the master and a few elders, the other disciples are not allowed to fly within the Tianshan Mountains. In addition, the giant stone statues are inherently distorted, so when Li Tian appeared on TV, he actually Did not recognize Li Tian at a glance.

Ernst & Young's eyes flickered slightly, his brain was running fast, wanting to know the purpose of Li Tian's presence here.

But Ernst & Young, as a violent, his psychological quality is not so strong. He firmly believes that his whereabouts should be absolutely safe. The reason why Li Tian appeared here is probably because he was a disciple of Tianshan and wanted to invite him back. .

"What? Are you inviting me to go back? Since I have left Tianmen, I will not return to Tianmen again!" An Yongli said.

There was a hint of sarcasm in the corner of Li Tian's mouth.

"Do you think you still have the right to return to Tianmen? Do you still want to deny the Jinghai Morgan Building matter?"

Ernst & Young was shocked, but there was no change in his expression on his face.

"You can't talk nonsense, even if you are the founder of Tianmen, if you wrong me in this way, I will still be rude to you!"

When Ernst & Young said this, he quietly grabbed a small signal transmitter placed on the coffee table. He had pressed the launch button and wanted to send the information here so that others could Know the trouble he has encountered.

Li Tian turned a blind eye and continued to smile and said: "Don't play rogues in front of me, you know, since ancient times, people who have made great things have always been innocent, even at all costs... Your parents should still be in China now, right? Your wife and children are in North America on the other side of the ocean now? Even if I don't know their specific location for the time being, I believe that their specific location will be clear within a few minutes."

"As for the little thing in your hand? I'm sorry, when I walked into your room, it was already my world. As a cultivator, you wouldn't even have heard of the domain, right?" Li Tian sneered.

An anger flashed involuntarily in Ernest's eyes, "Li Tian, you are the * who protects the earth and the world, and the hero who has received the hearts of hundreds of millions of people. How can you threaten me with my family? Is this... .."

An Yongli hadn't finished speaking yet, his eyes flashed, and his cheeks swelled instantly.

It was Li Tiandong's hand.

But Li Tian's speed was so fast that Ernest-level powerhouse, Ernst & Young, did not respond.

"Don't treat all heroes as our mother. The hero has never fiddled with your mother. He has no obligation to protect a scum like you! Because of a scum like you, how many people in China today have lost their parents and children. , And Luzon's case against Chinese residents, how many people don't even have a chance to return to the roots of fallen leaves!"

"I, Li Tian, don't like to bully the weak, but my favorite way to deal with scumbags like you is to treat others as they are. Do not do to others what you don't want, since you have chosen this. In this way, then don't blame people for revenge on you in this way!" Li Tian sneered.

Ernst & Young wanted to quibble a few more words, but he couldn't speak anymore.

"Have you seen my speech on TV? I only give you scumbags six hours. Within six hours, if you scumbags can take the initiative to take the wrong and actively cooperate with Huaxia, then I promise Huaxia will not will afflict your whole family, if you don't cooperate? Hey, I will let you know what is called divine punishment!" Li Tiandao.

Ernst & Young did not speak, he sat on the sofa and still watched TV.

"Is this going to be stubborn to the end? It seems that you will not grasp the opportunity I gave you! Very good, then you wait a moment here, I believe there will be others willing to cooperate with me!"

After speaking, Li Tian didn't give Ernst and Young Lee any chance to speak, and Teleport disappeared.

Ernst & Young immediately jumped up from the sofa. He wanted to rush out of this suite, but before he reached the door, he was bounced back by an invisible force.

"Domain, it really is a domain! Paralyzed, this guy actually trapped me in his domain!"

Ernst & Young finally felt panic in his heart, he shouted loudly, and even used his whole body strength to attack the invisible domain at this level, but everything was in vain.

At this time, Li Tian separately controlled all other suspected powerhouses in this hotel.

For the demigod powerhouse, he already has the basic ability to independently create space, so it is not difficult to create dozens of domains at the same time.

After Li Tian appeared in the room of the other suspects, he only showed his face, then controlled them with the domain, telling them to watch TV, and then disappeared instantly.

At this time, the dozen or so suspects in this hotel were going crazy.

Those guys who couldn't escape and couldn't communicate with the outside world sat on the ground decadently.

Some people want to smash the TV, but they find that they can't do even the most basic things.

The only thing these people can do is suicide.

It was just the last sentence Li Tian said before he left, "If you dare to commit suicide, I will kill your whole family, and even your nine tribes." But they were completely shocked.

TV, watching TV?

What exactly does Li Tian want to do?

Ernst & Young, these suspects can only watch the broadcast on TV.

Half an hour later, the TV station that was broadcasting violent attacks in various places in the original Huaxia suddenly interrupted the latest piece of information.

Due to the crustal movement of the Eurasian continental plate and the Pacific plate, a violent earthquake occurred in Luzon Island, and the entire Luzon Island completely sank into the Pacific Ocean during the earthquake.

Only a few Chinese on Luzon Island escaped the catastrophe with the help of Tianmen.

Seeing this news, Ernst & Young was frightened and peed his pants.

devil!

demon!

grim Reaper!

This guy Li Tian is not the patron saint of the earth world at all. If this guy wants, he can completely destroy the earth world.

"Did other members of the violent group on Luzon escape?"

This is also what Ernst & Young is most concerned about.

But then another news completely destroyed Ernst & Young's confidence.

"The head of the Tianmen Special Operations Team, Barbarian, led Tianmen to rescue Luzon. It was discovered that more than 500 wanted members of the violent group were unfortunately pierced by wood in the earthquake and took refuge in Luzon. The violent group was completely wiped out by the gods of nature!"

Chapter 5136: Scared to pee

God's punishment of nature?

This is completely foolish rhetoric!

Ernst & Young knows very well that this must be a good thing Li Tian did!

Ernst & Young felt fear. For a guy who doesn't talk about any rules, no, to be precise, no rules can restrain him, such a person is definitely the last person Ernst & Young wants to encounter.

This guy can ignore the lives of millions of people in Luzon, how could he care about the lives of his Ernst & Young family?

Ernst & Young was really scared to pee this time.

Even if it is a violent person, even if it is to pursue what he has done, but Ernst & Young is not approaching a person without emotions and desires. He has not yet approached completely ignoring the existence and safety of his family.

What Ernst & Young was thinking of at this time was not his own life safety, but how to protect his family.

With the same attitude as Ernst & Young, there are other violent elements who are now trapped by Li Tian in this super six-star hotel in Jinghai.

These guys are also the masters of killing people without seeing blood, but when they saw Li Tian killing people, these guys were really scared to pee.

One will become famous, but what about Li Tian?

Tens of thousands, hundreds of thousands, and millions of people have been killed by the power of 'nature' in just a few gestures.

This guy is more terrifying than any murderous * in the history of the earth world.

As for the natural disasters reported by TV stations to cover up the truth about the sinking of Luzon Island, these violent elements knew that the purpose was to avoid the report really wanted to cause panic among ordinary people.

...

The next thing is much easier.

When Li Tian reappeared in the rooms of the trapped violent elements, those violent elements had already been silent about Li Tian. Li Tian had not used their family members to threaten these violent elements. Everything I knew was poured clean.

Li Tianke did not have time to listen to the confession of these violent elements who wanted to be a 'stained witness'. Naturally, the strong men of the heavens are responsible for these things.

At this time, Li Tian had appeared again in Ernst & Young's room.

Li Tian sat on the sofa with Erlang's legs tilted, and watched the TV broadcast live with satisfaction.

Anyone who violates China will be punished even though it is far away.

This is a slogan that Huaxia has been chanting since ancient times, but only Li Tian can do this kind of thing most thoroughly.

Ernst & Young Lee sat on the ground as if all his strength had been drained.

At this moment, he was holding a mobile phone in his hand, which was playing a short video.

The content of the short video is very brief. Li Tian appeared at the home of Ernst & Young's wife and children as the patron saint of the earth. Ernst's wife and children were very excited and treated Li Tian enthusiastically, especially Ernst & Young's youngest son who was only more than three years old. The whole time, he looked at Li Tian with worshipping eyes.

This is definitely true and effective.

When Li Tian destroyed Luzon Island, Goubi had arranged for someone to check the information of all relatives in the Ernst & Young family, and then sent the information to Li Tian, and then Li Tian stopped by Ernst & Young's wife and children's home. Closed a door.

"I... what can I do?"

Ernst & Young felt his voice was so unpleasant, as if he had a calcaneal bone stuck in his throat.

He didn't dare to look up at Li Tian, but he couldn't help but want to see the change of expression on Li Tian's face.

However, there was no change in Li Tian's face, he was still watching TV, as if he didn't even want to pay attention to him.

The content that is being broadcast on TV is not important, what is important is that Li Tian is enjoying the process.

In the past few decades, Li Tian has been practicing almost every day. His biggest entertainment is having * with women happily. Now returning to the earth world, Li Tian feels that he has returned to the past life. .

"I know that my other accomplices must already be in your control, and those guys must have already said everything they can say. But... they are just small characters, and at best they know the people in Luzon. Members. And they certainly don't know the real operator behind the Luzon violence group! As long as you can let me go... No, as long as you can let go of my family, I am willing to tell you the information of the operator behind the scenes!" Lidao.

Li Tian glanced at Ernst & Young, his eyes disdainful.

Ernst & Young's heart shook slightly.

Only then did he realize that the guy in front of him was a man who claimed to be a god. How could he not know the information he knew with the strength of China and the strength of Li Tian!

"I also know a member of North America. That guy is the CEO of a listed company. A few days ago, he was invited to the funeral of Mr. Mu Yunlong. It is because of this that I had the opportunity to meet him..."

There was a smile at the corner of Li Tian's mouth.

"This is the first useful clue you have provided. In a little more detail, you can successfully rescue one of your family members. You can choose whether it is your wife or children, or any of your parents. one person!"

Ernst & Young's brows frowned slightly, and then they stretched out again.

"I have other useful information from the former German-French Alliance in Western Europe..."

...

The other side of the ocean, North America.

Marcus landed on the company's private airport by special plane, and an extended Lincoln was waiting for him at the airport.

In the eyes of ordinary people, Marcus is the CEO of the largest listed technology company in North America. He is a guest of senior executives in China North America. In terms of financial resources and rights, Marcus is definitely standing at the top of North America. A handful of people.

It's just that Marcus's face is not pretty at this time.

While on the plane, he received news of the sinking of Luzon Island.

To be honest, Marcuston was shocked.

"This... this is absolutely impossible, the movement of the continental plate? This kind of news is completely deceiving!"

"Could it be that Huaxia's consecrating powerhouses did it?"

"If this is the case, Huaxia's actions would be too intense!"

Marcus asked the boss behind the scenes for instructions to suspend the action against China.

And whether his technology company's secret financial support to the violent group can also be suspended, and then continue until the situation is calm.

Unfortunately, the big boss behind him did not agree with his request.

The boss behind the scenes believes that Huaxia now has the most powerful force in the earth world, and it will inevitably pay some painful prices to fight against China.

Although the price this time is a bit big, but for the big boss, these costs are still affordable.

After all, what they paid was only a portion of the money, and a vague promise.

Marcus really wanted to jump out and scold his mother.

But he has no way to control the boss behind the scenes.

For the sake of safety, Marcus still took the phone card he bought through a special channel and used it to contact Luzon to completely destroy it, and then completely smashed his phone into slag, which was a little relieved. .

At this moment, Marcus's personal cell phone rang and the call was connected. However, the highest person in charge of China North America summoned him, claiming to be summoned together with the chairman of other large companies, in order to give Lu Song Dao fundraising.

"Go to Washington, (White) Palace!"

Chapter 5137: Hongmen Banquet

Washington, (White) House.

When Marcus arrived here, he saw several familiar faces.

Without exception, these familiar faces are leaders in the commercial field in North America. The worth of everyone present is conservatively estimated to be more than tens of billions of Chinese currency, and some are even worth more than 100 billion.

It was Bai Jing, the chief executive of China North America, who came forward to receive everyone present.

Marcus is very familiar with Bai Jing.

He knew that this young woman who seemed less than 30 years old was already around 80. In addition, Marcus also knew that Bai Jing was the mother of Li Bai, the supreme ruler of China. It can be said that Bai Jing was in China. Among the high-levels, it is definitely the core existence.

But Marcus has long been used to this kind of scene.

"Beautiful Ms. Bai Jing, we meet again, you are really more and more charming!" Marcus gently shook Bai Jing's hand, and then said flatly.

Bai Jing chuckled and said straight to the point: "Thank you, Marcus, you just came back from China? Then I don't know if you have heard of what happened in Luzon?"

Marcus turned his head and looked at the others, a slight smile appeared at the corner of his mouth.

The phone call he received before coming to the White House had already made it clear.

"I am very shocked by what happened in Luzon, and I also express regret. One party has difficulties and all parties support. Our company, as the most well-known company in North America, has an obligation to help Huaxia share its problems. I have prepared a check. !" Marcus said.

Bai Jing responded with a smile and thanked him.

"Everyone, please be quiet!"

The leaders of the various companies present gradually stopped talking to each other and looked at Bai Jing.

"First of all, thank you all for taking the time to come here from your busy schedule, and thank you for your generous donation after learning about the Luzon Island incident. As the supreme ruler of China in North America, I thank you again!"

Happiness!

There was applause at the scene.

Bai Jing nodded slightly, and then continued: "In the past few decades, your company has provided a lot of support to Huaxia, and I also want to thank you for your contribution."

"Today, I call you here to thank you. Therefore, today I will introduce you to the most important man in the world. I hope you can talk to him and make friends!"

Hearing this, Marcus and the others couldn't help showing a trace of excitement on their faces.

The most important man in this world, isn't that Li Bai, the supreme ruler of China?

Who among these merchants does not know Li Bai?

It is a pity that Li Bai may not know them.

The earth world is now unified. It is an honor for them to get acquainted with Bai Jing, the supreme ruler of North America. If they can get to know Li Bai, it is absolutely vital to the future development of the company behind them. Of help.

"Next, let us invite him out with the warmest applause!"

Happiness!

There was a warm applause in this reception room.

Then, Li Tian made his debut to the applause of everyone.

Seeing Li Tian, except Bai Jing, everyone present was stunned.

"This... isn't this guy the Li Tian who spoke on TV?"

"It's not Li Bai, but Li Tian! This guy is indeed the most important man on earth! But...why did Li Tian appear here? Does he already know that our company is supporting violent groups behind the scenes?"

"Hongmen Banquet, * Bai Jing, even invited us to this Hongmen Banquet. Could it be... Are all the companies here having some kind of connection with violent groups? Or are I scaring myself?"

The applause has stopped, and Li Tian's mouth with a signature smile, waved to everyone who was stunned, "From the sudden pause of applause, you can see the surprise in your hearts. I can understand your excitement, but I hope You can be more relaxed."

Ha ha!

There was an awkward smile in the living room.

Without knowing how much information Li Tian has mastered, everyone present was fairly calm.

"Ms. Bai Jing, you really gave us a great surprise. This opportunity to meet the savior of the earth world and the patron saint of the earth world is a once in a lifetime. I decided that our company would add additional relief to Luzon. 50 million donations."

"Our company is willing to donate another 50 million..."

"Our company is willing to donate 30 million yuan and provide materials worth 50 million yuan..."

These business leaders present have expressed their opinions.

However, this is just a way for them to divert attention.

For these bigwigs, money is nothing but tens of millions, even if it is hundreds of millions, they will take it out without hesitation.

It is a pity that their statement did not cause much reaction from Li Tian.

Marcus and others looked at Bai Jing again.

With a sweet smile on Bai Jing's face, he nestled beside Li Tian and asked: "Why, are you still not satisfied?"

"Too little!" Li Tiandao.

The hearts of the few present were relieved.

As long as Li Tian wants money, then they have a way.

"Our donation is indeed too small, so my company will add another 50 million yuan, totaling 120 million, and I will donate another 30 million in my own name!"

"Our company also added..."

"As long as everyone gives a piece of love, the world will become... ahem, and our company will also add..."

In this way, the few donations present alone have reached nearly one billion yuan. If China continues to raise funds in North America, this number can at least double dozens of times. Such a large amount of money has helped a few who have escaped from Luzon. Refugees are enough to make them millionaires.

But Li Tian still said those two words, "Too little!"

Marcus and others knew that Li Tian had a big appetite, but they didn't expect this guy's appetite to be even bigger than this.

Marcus and others looked at each other.

Li Tian stood up straight, raised his head, his gaze swept across the crowd slowly, with a smile still hanging on the corner of his mouth.

"It's hard for me to see your sincerity now?"

"Master Li Tian, although we are all tens of billions of billionaires, our assets are more stocks and fixed assets. It is not impossible to donate more, but this is not in the interests of our company's shareholders! So..." Marcus said.

Before he finished speaking, Li Tian interrupted him.

Li Tian pointed his finger at Marcus's nose with a sneer and said, "You're right. If you are a serious listed company, so forcibly raising donations like this, it's really Li Tian's fault. Unfortunately, you are?"

Li Tian flipped it casually, and there was an extra stack of paper in his hand.

Snapped!

Li Tian threw the stack of paper directly on Marcus's face, and directly smashed Marcus's face to blossom, and the blood flowed continuously.

"You paralyzed, can you explain to me what is going on with these accounts secretly taken by your company and these organizations?"

Chapter 5138: Chance to survive

A murderous aura was released from Li Tian.

The temperature in the entire meeting room dropped to freezing point instantly.

Marcus fell to the ground, the blood on his face was constantly flowing down, bar! Click! The paper dripping in front of him was so scarlet and so dazzling, but no one dared to help him up, even Marcus himself did not dare to stop the bleeding.

Li Tian stared at the others coldly again.

These people who were stared at by Li Tian trembled in their hearts, with a look of fear on their faces, and they involuntarily stepped back two steps at the same time. There were even timid people who trembled their legs and fell to the ground.

"Now, I will give you a chance. Did you say it yourself? Or should I knock out all your teeth and talk about it later?" Li Tian said coldly.

No one speaks, or everyone is waiting for someone to speak first.

"10..."

"9....."

I rub? How did the countdown start?

What do you mean?

What does it mean to count down dozens?

The big men present still don't know the situation, but they are all aware of the danger.

"8....."

Li Tian suddenly stretched out a finger, and as a fierce spiritual power flew out of Li Tian's fingers, the right leg of a fat man with a big belly next to Marcus exploded instantly!

The big fat man suddenly let out a scream, fell down and sat on the ground, holding * short legs in both hands, his face full of panic.

Why is this fat man?

This is because everyone present is full of doubts, but more fear.

It's just that everyone present knows that the things they have done, even if they die a hundred times, it is difficult to offset the sins they committed.

Therefore, fear belongs to fear, but still no one speaks out.

Li Tian didn't seem to be anxious, still counting down calmly.

"7..."

"6..."

"5..."

When Li Tian counted 5, he stretched out a finger again. It was still the big fat man, but this time it was not his right leg, but his left arm!

Whoosh!

Just like a laser, as a strong light flashed, the fat man's left arm exploded instantly!

Blood, broken meat, and broken bones splashed out of his body, fell on the ground, on Marcus's face, and at the same time fell on everyone's hearts.

Li Tian saw that everyone involuntarily stepped back two steps, even Marcus, who had fallen on the ground, moved back slightly.

In the living room, only this fat man was screaming.

The cry is so miserable, so permeating.

Those who were present were all big business men in North America. The one who was not pampered and had suffered such fears on weekdays, but they knew that even if they confessed to their big men behind the scenes, they would certainly not escape death. Even their deaths will be worse.

Li Tian's face remained as usual, sitting on the sofa, and continuing the countdown!

"4..."

"3..."

Whoosh!

There was another aura and another scream.

This time it was the fat man's left leg that exploded, and even the little Ding Ding under his crotch was completely exploded.

Perhaps because of fear, when the big fat little Dingding exploded, there was still a faint smell of urine in his blood.

This fat man is desperate!

For a man, his lower body is completely finished. At this time, he is better than death. He just wants to end his life as soon as possible, and just want to get out of it as soon as possible.

Li Tian is cruel.

But the kindness to the enemy is cruel to oneself.

"The last three seconds, what are your last words?" Li Tiandao.

As soon as Li Tian's words fell, he began to count down.

"2....."

"1....."

Whoosh!

There was still an aura, but there was no scream.

This spiritual light flashed, and the fat man had become a stick!

All limbs and Ding Ding were blown up, and the whole body was covered with blood.

The big fat man really wants to say a last word. For Westerners, leaving a last word is very important.

But he didn't even have a chance to speak, and another light had already shot in from his forehead.

Then, his head burst instantly.

The brain exploded, and the blood type in the meeting room was abnormal.

There was a smile on the corner of Li Tian's mouth, and he didn't take this guy's death to heart.

"Bai Jing, send someone to take over this big fat man's company. All the senior executives of this company are handled in accordance with China's laws. As for the big fat man's family? Let them reunite with this big fat man!" Li Tiandao.

There were tens of thousands of grass-and-mud horses galloping past in the hearts of all the business leaders present.

The paralyzed Li Tian is so cruel?

Isn't it a disaster to your family?

Could it be said that this big fat man just died in vain?

I rub!

Looking at the big fat man who had fallen into a pool of blood and had become scum, these business leaders only felt their stomachs turned over.

But they didn't dare to vomit, lest their tiny movements caught Li Tian's attention, and then they followed the big fat man's footsteps.

"Marcus, you can go!" Li Tiandao.

Everyone in the living room was taken aback. They didn't know what medicine was sold in Li Tian's gourd.

Even Marcus thought he had heard it wrong.

It stands to reason that China has already mastered the Marcus company, and Marcus is the most deserving talent!

Li Tian ignored these business leaders and continued: "Bai Jing, arrange the master of Tianmen to start protecting Marcus, protecting his family, and then sending someone into his company to protect his company's safety!"

These bigwigs understood Li Tian's thoughts in an instant.

This * is no longer a conspiracy, but a conspiracy.

I just want to tell Marcus, I want to play with you.

You don't cooperate?

Very well, I won't bother you. The people behind you will definitely suspect that you have betrayed the organization, and they will definitely kill you. Then I will come to follow the vine and pull out the people behind you.

Marcus is not stupid. After he wanted to understand this, he shuddered in fright, "No...no..., I won't go, if I leave here like this, my family and I..."

"Shut up, there is no place for you to speak here! Come, throw this guy out for me!"

The two men in black walked in, stretched out their hands to lift Marcus, and left. Before leaving the living room, Marcus had completely collapsed.

"I... I am willing to cooperate, I am willing to cooperate, my company can be handed over to China, all my money can be handed over to China, as long as... as long as you can let my family go!" Marcus held the door frame with both hands, I just didn't want to let go, crying with tears in his eyes.

In an instant, all the bigwigs in the meeting room were instantly withered.

"I...I am willing to cooperate..."

"I am also willing to cooperate, I just ask you to let my family go..."

Li Tian's mouth showed a sneer, "I'm sorry, your performance disappointed me, I don't need so many people!"

Chapter 5139: Round the world

The reason is actually very simple.

Now Huaxia is the ruler of the world, as long as Huaxia can grasp a clue, even if they hide behind the scenes no matter how deep they are, they will be found out.

But it just needs to waste a little more time.

It's like talking about the most famous terrorists on the earth before the end of the world. Even if they hide no matter how deep they are, the American emperor at that time can find them and then kill them.

Li Tian doesn't have time, he will leave the earth world soon, so he will adopt this method.

Of course, these practices of Li Tian may be cruel, and for some virgin bitches, they may not be acceptable.

But how can this be?

Li Tian is a demigod, the most powerful man in the earth world, a man above all laws and power, he naturally has the right to play with these people between applause.

"what?"

These business leaders are a little desperate.

Death may not be terrible.

But if their death is meaningless, even because of their death, it will affect their company and their family members will also follow them to die, then the death is not a question of value, but a death. very!

"Except for Marcus, there are a total of six people present. I give you three chances to survive. As long as you can seize these opportunities, then I can not only guarantee your safety, but even let you live your life without worry. ." Li Tiandao.

With three chances to survive, these business tycoons suddenly felt that the business tycoons who had been sick with them just now had become enemies.

"Bai Jing, arrange different rooms for them, interrogate them separately, and then rank them according to the number and value of the news. In addition to guaranteeing survival, the top three will receive different rewards. Only the last three will be awarded. I can say sorry!" Li Tiandao.

...

Li Tian didn't intervene in the next thing.

When Li Bai, Manzi and others took over, Huaxia showed great strength.

Within three days, the world's largest violent group against China was exposed one by one, and then China used absolute power to kill these violent elements one by one.

The major forces in North America, Western Europe, and South Asia have reshuffled.

The forces opposed to China are temporarily unable to rise.

However, two domain owners who were opposed to China managed to escape the investigation by the barbarian and others and hid them.

In this regard, Li Tian still did not intervene.

Li Tian felt that playing with these people was actually very boring, because they were simply not qualified to play with Li Tian.

In the entire earth world, there are only three people qualified to play with Li Tian: Duanmuying, Ouyang Shiqing, and Bai Jing.

Li Tian is about to leave the earth world soon. The three women knew that they could not keep Li Tian, and they also knew that they could not keep Li Tian, so they wanted to talk to Li as much as possible before Li Tian left. Happy days to play.

They are Li Tian's wives, and Li Tian will definitely not refuse this request.

Li Tian took Duanmuying, Ouyang Shiqing, and Bai Jing to travel around the world.

Well, to be precise, it's all over the world every day.

This is a dream Li Tian once had.

The three ladies did not object to Li Tian's  dream.

They will take the initiative to cater to Li Tian, and even wherever they go, the three wives will use local managers to find the best and most beautiful women to serve Li Tian.

result.....

Li Tian's trip around the world with the three wives has turned into an XXOO trip with endless fire.

In Los Angeles, in Miami, in the enthusiastic South America, in the African grasslands, in the British Peninsula, on the Rhine, in the Alps, in the Ganges River, on the islands in the South Pacific, in the Korean Peninsula, in Dongying, in Dongying, in Dongying, In Dongying, in Dongying...

Li Tian didn't know how many women he had changed under his crotch.

Anyway, there are beauties of all skin tones and looks.

Li Tian will teleport without any strain on the road.

All he needs to do is to teleport from one bed to another.

I don't know how many beds were broken.

In just a dozen days, Li Tian seemed to be a stallion, going deep into the group, understanding the group, explaining the simple things in a simple way, and working silently.

Then, the whole earth world, Li Tian's little tadpoles were left everywhere.

According to the memories of the three women, during this period of time, the number of women whom Li Tian favored even reached four to five hundred.

In other words, Li Tian favors nearly twenty women almost every day.

This is definitely a miracle, and only Li Tian, who is like a demigod, has this powerful ability.

What makes people feel surprised is that Li Tian, a demigod, is stronger than a stallion.

All the little tadpoles he left in the belly of those women took root and sprouted. Every woman was conceived successfully. Ten months later, a large number of children with Li Tian bloodline fell to the ground.

Then, these children were taken to Huaxia by the three wives, entered Tianmen, and began to receive secret training.

And this team of You Li Tian's seeds became China's strongest combat power after more than a decade.

Li Tian did not know about this.

It might be said that Li Tian knew what the three women thought, but he did not expose them.

If he cannot stay in the earth world, then it is not bad to leave the seeds in the earth world.

...

On the last day of the month when he returned to Earth, Li Tian once again came to the top of the Tianshan Mountains.

Li Bai, Duanmuying, Bai Jing, Ouyang Shiqing, Ouyang Man, Sixiang Old Man, Wuji Old Man, Barbarian, Captain, Dog Nose, etc. all came to see Li Tian off.

Because they knew that after Li Tian left this time, it was very likely that he would never return to the earth world again.

Even if Li Tian returned to the earth world again, he wouldn't be able to wait for Li Tian with their cultivation level.

"Li Tian, goodbye this time, I don't know if we still have a chance to meet again..."

"Master Li Tian, you have to take care!"

"I... I really want to continue fighting with Master Li Tian!"

"Little Li Tian, your cultivation level has improved very quickly, but the Nether Realm is extremely dangerous, so take care!"

"It's a pity that some of our old guys who have lived for thousands of years can't help you much. We will only add to the chaos when we go to the underworld! But our earth world will always be Xiao Litian's backing, if..."

Everyone's eyes are reluctant.

There is no permanent banquet in the world.

As a strong light flashed, Li Tian's figure appeared again on the land of the Netherworld.

Li Tian turned around and looked at the door of the restricted area behind him, with a trace of dismay on his face.

But he still shot resolutely.

boom!

With a loud noise, the gate to the restricted area of the earth world was completely destroyed by Li Tian.

"Unknowingly indulging in the earth world for a month, Situ Ningbing, the old dean, and Chu Jiangnan should be about to come out of the secret territory! Super God Family, our grievances should also be completely resolved!"

Chapter 5140: Blast valley

Blast Valley is located in the northwest region of the Uland.

Unlike the Great Northwest of China in the earth world, here is a map of Pingchuan, with few mountains to see.

However, this land of more than tens of millions of square kilometers in Mapingchuan is uninhabited and there are few large creatures.

The Valley of the Wind is the only oasis in this wasteland.

There are mountains, water, trees, flowers, and grasses here, but even the most ferocious creatures in this wasteland dare not enter here rashly.

At this time, the figure of a man appeared above the valley.

Judging from the white hair and white beard of the man, he seems to be almost 70 or 80 years old from his appearance.

"What a beautiful view!"

Seeing this scenery, the fatigue on the man's face suddenly disappeared.

"I have been cultivating for thousands of years, but I didn't expect the Netherworld to have such a scenery. If the Donggong Super God family builds a holiday home here, it would be great if I want to come!" said here, the man's eyes Flashed across his face again, revealing a touch of intoxication.

Donggong Dongfang, the demigod mid-level elder of the Donggong Super God family.

Even if Donggong Dongfang's cultivation level did not reach the demigod, deep down in his heart, he still despised the blood wolf tribe, a low-level race. When dealing with blood wolf tribes and other mysterious races, Donggong east was the main battle.

Only this time, Donggong Dongfang was not here to deal with the blood wolf clan, but to recruit security.

A month ago, when Li Tian left the secret realm of Nether Academy, that guy's cultivation level reached the peak of a demigod. This made Donggong Zhentian of the Donggong Super God family feel a trace of panic. Donggong Zhentian was worried about the Li Tian army. And the strength of other powerful men in the Netherworld Academy will greatly increase after coming out of the secret realm.

Therefore, after discussing with the other three super * families, Donggong Zhentian decided to use the method of Zhaoan to draw the mysterious race of the Netherworld to his side, and jointly deal with the Nether Academy and the Li Tianjun regiment, and then Donggong Dongfang came here.

"I didn't expect that the most ferocious blood wolf tribe lived in such a beautiful area! It now appears that the blood wolf tribe was driven here, and they are nourished alive! Therefore, this blood wolf tribe will live comfortably. , This time I am ordered to come here, if the blood wolf clan is willing to submit to the super * family, if not, hehe, I am afraid that life will be overwhelmed in a few days here!" Donggong Dongfang said.

Huh!

The eastern figure of the East Palace flashed, and instantly fell into the valley.

The valley that was calm just now, because of his appearance, did not calm down in an instant.

Countless strong winds gushing out from the gust of wind, these winds are like sharp blades, at the same time slashing towards the east of the East Palace.

"Hey, the legendary Stormwind Valley is nothing more than that!"

The corner of Donggong Dongfang's mouth showed a sneer, and the figure flickered several times in a row, easily avoiding the slashes of these wind blades.

But what made Donggong Dongfang feel surprised was that these wind blades were not wind, even if he avoided it easily, but soon, the wind blade would blow in the opposite direction again and cut at him again.

The corner of Donggong Dongfang's mouth showed a hint of sarcasm, and his aura suddenly rose.

Hum!

As the aura of Donggong Dongfang climbed, a powerful divine might descended from the sky. When those wind blades were about to slash him, it was directly shattered by this divine might, and then turned into several small tornadoes, flying towards the interior of the gust of wind. , Rolled up a burst of wild sand.

"Who is presumptuous again, don't you know that this is the blood wolf clan territory blast valley?"

Huh!

Huh!

Huh!

At this moment, several figures appeared in the valley of Stormwind Valley. These figures landed in different places in Stormwind Valley, surrounding the east of the East Palace. The head was a giant blood wolf that was as high as one foot and more than two to three feet long. .

The blood wolf tribe, the fur all over the body is blood-colored, in the sun, the blood-red fur is so dazzling.

The cultivation level of these blood wolf tribes is not weak, and they have generally reached the initial state of the super domain master, especially the wolf, whose cultivation level has reached the peak of the fifth level of the super domain master, even in the super * family. The strong man has also been on the stage and can serve as an elder.

However, in the eyes of Donggong Dongfang, who possessed the mid-level demigod realm, these super domain masters were simply not enough for him.

What Donggong Dongfang really cares about is the patriarch of the blood wolf clan, who claims to have a semi-god state.

"Go and call the patriarch of your blood wolf clan, just say that the Donggong Dongfang of my Donggong Super God Family is here, let him come to visit me quickly!" Donggong Dongfang sneered.

Ooh!

Donggong Dongfang's words were too weak, and several blood wolf clan powerhouses couldn't help showing anger on their faces, grinning at Donggong Dongfang, screaming with anger.

"Don't be rude!" The wolf stopped the pack in time.

Although the head wolf cannot judge the specific cultivation strength of Donggong Dongfang, he can easily break water from Donggong Donggong. The power of Guiguzi left in the blast valley knows that Donggong Dongfang is powerful. Although this guy is rude, if the blood wolf tribe rushes It will inevitably suffer a big loss.

The head of the werewolf turned into a giant and strong man who was more than three meters tall.

After being humanized, the wolf tribe is almost indistinguishable from humans, except for its huge size and more body hair.

"I don't know why the strong of the Eastern Palace Super God Family appeared in the Storm Valley? Our blood wolf clan and the East Palace Super God Family have no intersection!" said the wolf.

Donggong Dongfang raised his eyebrows slightly, and his face showed a trace of disdain, sweeping the wolf, and said coldly, "What are you? It's just the * of the fifth-level peak of Transcendent Master. I need to explain to you, old man? Your patriarch came to see me!"

The other blood wolf races are even more angry.

Once the blood wolf tribe is angry, the color of the fluff on their body will become deeper.

It was difficult for the wolf to conceal the anger in his heart, but the wolf remembered the teachings of the elder and forcibly endured it.

"The patriarch is in a meeting with the elders of the clan at this time. If you want to see our patriarch, please come with me. If your Eastern Palace Super God family wants to fight the blood wolf clan, then our blood wolf clan is not insignificant. Huogu, fight if you say war, even if the blood wolf territory does not grow, the blood wolf clan will fight to the end!" said the wolf.

Donggong Dongfang snorted and thought to himself, if it weren't for the patriarch of Donggong Zhentian to reassure you, I would kill you in the gust of wind now. I really want to see how many proud bones your blood wolf clan has.

"Lead the way ahead!"

A few blood wolves still surround the east of the East Palace, the big head of the wolf, leading the east of the East Palace into the gust of wind.

In an oasis where you can't see your head, several white wooden buildings that are completely different from the Nether Continent stand in it.

The head wolf led the East Palace to the side hall, and let the other head wolves present various fruits and fruit wine rich in the gust of wind.

"Please wait here for a while, my family chief will come to see you soon after the meeting!"
