

A Killer 55

Chapter 55: Gambler

Then Liao Binyin smiled and said: "Everyone present knows that the most important thing in the Tang family is money. If we gamble on money, it would be a bit tacky. If we want to play, we will play a little bit bigger. Let's gamble on people."

Hearing what Liao Bin said, everyone present was taken aback.

They often played this drag racing game, but the "gambler" situation like this is the first time they have met, and the other party is still the eldest lady of the Tang family.

Li Tian, who had been standing there quietly, couldn't help but frown slightly at this moment, staring at the bald man, looking at the appearance of the 5--6 little brothers behind him, this guy knew at a glance that it was not a good thing. .

Now playing with that silly girl in a car? And also said to bet on people. Li Tian couldn't help but fear that Feifei would suffer.

Who knows that Feifei, who has been spoiled since she was a child, has always been the eldest, and has agreed to it now.

"Okay, I will gamble with you."

"How do you gamble?" Feifei said angrily at Liao Bin.

Then Liao Bin smiled wickedly at the moment and said: "Langshan, run a lap, if I lose, I will be at the disposal of Missy, but if Missy you lose, you will have to stay with me all night tonight."

"You bastard."

Suddenly hearing the filthy words from Liao Bin's mouth, Feifei suddenly flushed with anger and cursed there.

Feifei's friends around were also talking there.

"Miss, my condition is simple enough. If you dare, we will run a lap. If you dare not, then I have nothing to say, Liao Bin, just as if what I said just now is like farting. ?" He said and laughed.

Listening to this guy's rampant words, Feifei suddenly became angry.

"Okay, let me compare you!"

"If you lose, I will chop your hand, and personally chop your hand."

Feifei said fiercely.

"it is good!"

"Everyone present can testify. If I lose today, my arm will be given to Miss Tang, but if Miss Tang loses, she will have to accompany me tonight."

As this sound rang, the people on the mountainside began to boil.

The Tang family's eldest is going to compete with the underground desperadoes!

Of course this is worth seeing.

Su Ke originally wanted to persuade Feifei, but now Tang Feifei couldn't listen to her words.

Where is Li Tian over there? Can not help but blinked at Tang Feifei.

"Feifei, do you really want to compare with these people?" Su Ke said to Tang Feifei.

Feifei said stubbornly: "Well, I won't be able to vent my breath today, or my lungs will explode."

"but....."

"Su Ke, rest assured, trust my technique." Feifei, who was sitting in the car, said with a smile at Su Ke.

And what about Li Tian at this moment? He walked slowly toward Feifei's car. After getting to the side, he opened the door with a slam and then sat in the passenger seat.

Feifei was taken aback, looking at Li Tian: "Why are you sitting here?"

Li Tian stretched his waist and said, "Protect you."

"You protect me?" Feifei wanted to laugh.

Li Tian didn't talk too much, but slowly said, "These guys seem to be bad people. You must pay attention when you can drive."

Feifei nodded: "You don't need to say, I also know."

"That's good."

The bald Liao Bin over there drove a silver-gray modified sports car and parked alongside Feifei's LotusCars.

"The game has one minute left."

There was a * woman's voice talking halfway up the mountain.

Everyone's eyes in this club are on their two cars, one is the extremely beautiful red LotusCars, and the other is the silver-gray sports car of the underground racing race.

"Ms. Tang, do you have a small attendant by your side?" Liao Bin said, looking at Li Tian with a mouthful of his teeth that had been yellowed due to excessive smoking.

"This lady is willing, why?"

An angry glance at that bald Liao Bin, Feifei waited for the game.

Feifei, who likes to play cars since high school, has been counting for a few years.

And in this area of Wolf Mountain, Feifei doesn't know how many times he ran, so Feife is still a little sure about today's game.

Now she can't wait to rush to finish this lap, and then chop off one of the * bald man's hands, how dare he say those rascal things to himself? It's just looking for death.

As Feifei and the bald man's car were ready to start, the charming girl standing in the middle counted the numbers.

"5, 4, 3, 2, 1!"

Start.

The sound fell, and Na Feifei's LotusCars drove forward like a sharp arrow.

The other gray sports car followed closely and drove wildly.

On the winding crawling mountain road of Langshan, two cars galloped there like angry tigers.

Feifei is really a good driver. Li Tian hadn't noticed it before. This time he really took it. Feifei stepped on the accelerator, shifted gears, and brakes. A series of actions were almost done in one go.

And that LotusCars also ran wildly as if it understood the owner's intention to win.

The silver-gray sports car behind has been trailing behind Feifei's buttocks. Liao Bin, who was sitting in the car, showed a treacherous smile, wondering what he was thinking.

Sitting in the fast-moving car, Li Tian felt the excitement that he had never experienced before. One hand tightly grasped the car body, and the other hand was firmly holding the seat's deputy, sitting in the car thrillingly. .

The bright red LotusCars ran ahead all the way, and the bald-headed silver-gray sports car behind it kept following it not far nor near.

This made Feifei who was driving a car wondering, what the dead bald head was doing?

He stepped on the accelerator hard, and the car drove forward quickly. Because it was a mountain road, it tested the technical content even more.

Feifei's posture and skills can indeed be described as stunning. Li Tian was shocked when she saw it, and she couldn't think that this girl was really alive while driving.

Just when Feifei was driving fast, the silver-gray sports car behind grunted, and a puff of black smoke rose from the rear of the car, and the whole body suddenly seemed to be lifted up in an instant, fierce. The front of the car rushed forward hurriedly.

Feifei, who was leading all the way, turned the steering wheel quickly and stepped on the accelerator when he saw the silver-gray sports car coming by.

However, he couldn't stop the steel beast behind him, and he surpassed Feifei's LotusCars in a straight line.
