

A Killer 56

Chapter 56: Can fight again

Seeing Feifei, who was overtaken by the silver-gray sports car in front of him, of course couldn't bear such a situation.

He stepped on the accelerator, and the car rushed forward again.

The bald-headed Liao Bin in the silver-gray sports car in front had an evil smile at the corner of his mouth: "See how you beat me?"

Na Liao Bin deliberately blocked the narrow lane with a car and prevented Feifei's car from passing. In this case, Feifei, who was behind others, would be depressed. The mountain road was originally very narrow, but this time it was covered by the silver-gray car in front. If all of the sports cars block the route, running like this will definitely lose 100%.

How can I lose?

The angry Feifei, at this moment, drove the car and slammed into the front.

The red LotusCars slammed behind the silver-gray sports car. After such a collision, Li Tian was shocked.

"Girl, are you crazy? So mad?"

Feifei stared her eyes and said, "Of course, would I lose to their kind of punks..."

After speaking, he increased the gas pedal again, and the car ran into the back of the silver-gray sports car again.

Liao Bin, who was sitting in the silver-gray sports car that was hit, had an extremely ugly face. At this moment, he turned the steering wheel suddenly, and the speed of the car that had been advancing at high speed suddenly slowed down.

And Feifei's LotusCars? It happened to advance side by side with him.

"Smelly girl, see if I will play with you."

As the bald Liao Bin finished speaking coldly, he slammed the steering wheel, and the whole silver-gray car slammed into Feifei's car.

With a bang.

Feifei almost couldn't hold the steering wheel, and the car was just a little bit knocked into the cliff.

This winding mountain road, if the car is really dropped, the car will not be destroyed.

Feifei's face was pale, and her feet slammed on the brakes with a hiss.

LotusCars tires rubbed on the mountain road and made a noise, and the car stopped.

After Li Tian saw the car stopped, he felt relieved.

And the bald Liao Bin over there has also jumped out of the car at this moment.

Walking over with a domineering face, Feifei also walked out of the car at this time.

"I always thought that Miss Tang was different from others and didn't like to play insidious things. I didn't expect Miss Tang to like to use this method to seduce people."

Liao Binsen, who strode over, said coldly.

Feifei knew in her heart that she was indeed a bit to blame this time. The self just now was a bit too reckless.

"Even if I violate the rules, what's the matter?" Feifei said nonchalantly.

Then Liao Bin sneered: "Ms. Tang doesn't want to admit defeat, right?"

"Why should I give up? I didn't finish this road." Feifei said unreasonably.

That Liao Bin's eyes became extremely ugly in an instant: "Miss Tang, you didn't admit it to death if you killed it today?"

"Nonsense, I didn't lose, why should I say that I lost."

"Didn't I just hit your car a few times? It's not enough if I give you money to repair it." Feifei said.

When Liao Bin heard Feifei's words, it was an insult.

"Li Tian, let's go, we don't have common knowledge with people like him."

After Feifei said this, how could Liao Bin let Feifei go so easily, and immediately strode out, and said with a vicious expression: "Miss Tang, I'm afraid it's not good for you to leave like this."

Feifei was taken aback, staring at him and said, "Then what do you want to do?"

Li Tian was also looking at this bald head there.

"What do I want? Of course it is the old rule. You go to the hotel to stay with me for one night."

Liao Bin said with a wicked smile suddenly.

"Pooh!"

"Rogue!" Feifei suddenly blushed and cursed there.

Then Liao Bin suddenly revealed his nature: "Yes, my surname Liao was originally a hooligan, but unfortunately you, Miss Tang, know now that others are afraid of your Tang family, but I Liao Bin is not afraid, they dare not move you. But I dare to move you."

"Tonight you have to accompany me for a good night. If I play well, maybe I can let you go. If it's uncomfortable, I will let my little brothers take your turn."

Feifei was trembling with anger when the despicable words came out of this guy's mouth.

When did a gangster dare to say such nasty words in front of her.

"Animals, things inferior to pigs and dogs." Feifei said angrily.

Li Tian, who had been standing next to Feifei, couldn't help but glared at the bald Liao Bin.

"Hey, am I talking about you or him? Are you still a man? Saying such infatuation?" Li Tian yelled at Liao Bin when he went up.

Liao Bin over there didn't care about the little attendant next to Feifei. He heard Li Tian's voice and turned a pair of triangular eyes.

"Boy, what are you? If you think about it, get away quickly."

As Liao Bin said, he took out a sharp dagger from his arms,

Feifei was a little frightened when he saw Liao Bin groping out the guy at once. This barren mountain was halfway up the Wolf Mountain, and there was half a person there.

If this bald head is really blacked out, the consequences would be unimaginable.

What about Li Tian? Environmental protection with both hands on his chest said lightly: "What if I don't leave?"

Since the strange changes in his body, Li Tian has always wanted to try what he has become. To tell the truth, Li Tian has always wanted to control the energy he held in his abdomen.

He still remembers controlling his qi last time when he was fighting with a dozen hooligans, but can he control it now? Li Tianzheng wanted to experiment.

Isn't this? When Liao Bin heard Li Tian not leaving, he couldn't help but said coldly: "Then I will put you down first."

After saying a word, the dagger in his hand stabbed at Li Tian fiercely.

Li Tian's instinctive body took a step back and dodged a knife.

Liao Bin raised his hand and stabbed again.

Li Tian didn't hide this time. His left foot stepped out lamely and his head was retracted. One of the right hands accumulated in his abdomen and suddenly hit that Liao Bin in an ugly posture.

Although the movements are hard to see to the extreme, the power cannot be underestimated. A full of vigorous fist hit Liao Bin. Liao Bin suddenly screamed, his eyes widened, and he looked like he could not believe it. He fell to the ground with a heavy thump, and the dagger in his hand fell to the ground with a creak.

Liao Bin, who was crying in pain, would never have thought that this guy would almost kill him with one punch.

Feifei over there jogged all the way happily, and stretched out her hand to pull the Mu Leng there, and blinked a pair of depressed eyes to look at Li Tian on her arm.

"Wow, can't you fight? Why can you fight again?" Feifei looked at Li Tian curiously.
