

A Killer 57

Chapter 57: Missy likes security?

She still remembered that Li Tian was not Xiao Zhou's opponent in every move when she started with Xiao Zhou last time.

After staying three times, I was beaten to the ground by Xiao Zhou, but now he suddenly became able to beat him. Isn't this strange?

Li Tian was also shocked there. For the first time controlling the vigor in his abdomen, Li Tian felt so comfortable, especially when the violent vigor burst out from his fist. It made Li Tian feel cool.

Li Tian and Feifei, who were shocked in their hearts, got into the car, and then ignored the wailing Liao Bin who fell on the ground and drove down Langshan quickly.

On the way, Feifei made a phone call with Su Ke who was in Wolf Mountain and told her that she had descended from Wolf Mountain.

Su Ke, who was still a little worried about Feifei, was relieved when he heard Feifei and the others had already descended from the Wolf Mountain, but the group of underground drag racers was completely depressed. Their brother Liao was racing with others. But come?

When he returned, Li Tian hardly said anything, and kept thinking about his thoughts.

He smiled inexplicably on his face.

Looking at Li Tian's silly and happy appearance, Feifei was depressed.

"Is there something wrong with this guy giggling all the way?"

She knew how much influence Li Tian would have on him in the future when he was able to completely control his abdomen.

Li Tian suddenly understood how amazing the book (broken book) lying under his head in the dormitory would be.

You should know that Li Tian has only read three pages in the past half month, and it is still three pages of the first volume.

To be honest, Li Tian couldn't understand the writing on it. Whenever he touched the broken book with his eyes, the weird tadpole writing on it began to wander in his body, as if he couldn't help it.

Why does Li Tian feel that the first three pages have been read? Because when the content of each page is read by Li Tian, when Li Tian looks back again, the tadpoles on it will not swim in his body, but become dead and become One by one is the same tadpole character as before.

The current Li Tian has read only three pages after reading the first three pages for more than half a month. Although Li Tian has accumulated a little energy in his abdomen, he is still wondering: why there is tadpole text on the first volume of that broken book, and second There are also volumes. How could the third volume be blank? If the first volume is for qi training, then what are the second and third volumes for? Li Tian still doesn't understand it, and of course he can't understand it himself.

In this way, Li Tian, who was sitting in the car, soon went outside the door of the Tang company with Feifei.

It just so happens that this will coincide with the time when the employees of the Down company are off work.

When Feifei drove the beautiful LotusCars, whose front was hit and deflated, and brought Li Tian to the downstairs of the company, it caused an uproar.

The employees of those Down companies were all stunned.

Who could have imagined that the eldest lady of the Tang Group actually drove her own sports car to send back a small security guard from the company.

How many people envy? How many people are jealous?

How many people are watching there with the idea of watching the excitement.

But Feifei doesn't mind what the employees of these Down companies think of her. After Li Tian got off the car, Feifei smiled and said, "Then you work hard, I'm leaving."

After speaking, he sat in the LotusCars, stepped on the accelerator, and drove into the distance with a grunt.

But Li Tian, who was jealous and envied by everyone, was left here, facing these people alone.

"Hey, the security guard didn't even notice that he was still a golden phoenix."

"Do you think that we are not so fateful? We even caught the company's eldest lady."

"Too great Nima..." the men in suits and ties said angrily.

And those women not only ridiculed and ridiculed them: "I thought the eldest lady was so different, I actually liked the role of security guard."

"Yeah, it's really weird, hey, the idea of Missy is always something ordinary people like us can't figure out."

Listening to these people's words, Li Tian shook his head helplessly, and walked towards the dormitory alone.

He doesn't care what these people say, let alone what others think of him, as long as he has a clear conscience.

After all, I have agreed to that girl pretending to be her boyfriend, so just endure it, but Li Tian can't understand why this girl is so nervous, why should she pretend to be her boyfriend?

Is it sick? Or is there another secret?

When he returned to the dormitory, Xiao Zhao in the room looked at Li Tian's eyes with a strange change. Although Yu Dahai did not show too much, but when he looked at Li Tian between verbal expressions, let Li Tian There is also a strange feeling.

Li Tian, who had spent two hours in the dormitory, couldn't stand the dull atmosphere, so he sat up on the small iron bed.

"Brother Yu, what's wrong with you Xiao Zhao? What can you tell me?"

Yu Dahai smiled awkwardly and shook his head.

Without turning his head back, Xiao Zhao turned over on the small iron bed and said, "Is there anything to say."

"You are now a celebrity in the company. Even the eldest lady personally picks up the car and sends it away. It's awesome. We are just a small security guard, which is incomparable to you."

Listening to Xiao Zhao's words, Li Tian smiled helplessly.

He knew that these people were jealous of him, but he couldn't help it. He sat back on the bed slowly, trying not to let himself think too much, and then slowly took out the (broken book) under the pillow. Looked carefully.

---

The Tang family's mansion is located in the most prosperous area in the commercial center of Kyoto.

There is a villa area called: Celebrity Mansion.

The Tang family's mansion was built there.

In the villa at this moment, Tang Zheng's face became solemn and full of anxiety, as if something major happened.

Standing next to him was his personal bodyguard, Xiao Zhou.

Xiao Zhou An, wearing a pair of gold-wire glasses, stood quietly beside Tang Zheng but didn't talk much.

"How is it possible? Are those people spreading it blindly?" Tang Zheng said suddenly.

There were a lot of questions in the voice, and Xiao Zhou blinked while looking at one side.

Xiao Zhou paused, did not answer immediately, but thought about it in his heart, and then said slowly: "Mr Tang, I don't think it is possible!"

"Although the eldest lady is sometimes more noisy, capricious, and rebellious, she still doesn't want to do this kind of thing, let alone blindly like a security guard. Besides, as far as I know, the time the stranger spends with the eldest lady In a day or two, I think this kind of thing is impossible."
