

A Killer 58

Chapter 58: Things that can't happen

What is it that makes Tang Zheng so worried?

It turned out that Tang Zhengda received a call from the vice president of the company early in the morning, saying that the Tang family's eldest lady had actually engaged a security guard? And also a fair date. Especially the eldest lady drove the car to pick up the security guard.

Suddenly, Tang Zheng laughed absurdly when he heard these rumors, but then his face became hard to look angrily and asked, "Who is it?"

The vice president over there quickly said: Now the employees of the entire Tang company are spreading it, and they have seen Miss Tang personally drive back a security guard who just came to the company.

Tang Zheng was frightened and angry when he heard the vice president over there.

Tang Zheng, who hung up with a bang, quickly found Xiao Zhou and asked about all the information.

It's a pity that Xiao Zhou also doesn't know much about Missy.

No, the current Tang Zheng is still sitting motionless with that ugly face.

"I also think it's impossible. Don't I understand my daughter? No matter how crazy she is, how can she find someone to be her boyfriend?"

"Does my Tang Zheng's daughter find a security guard to be her boyfriend? If this is spread out, where will I put my face."

Xiao Zhou stood there and said, "I think it might be because of the many people at the company."

"Well, it's very possible." Tang Zheng said slightly.

"No matter what, it's better to stop this kind of unfounded rumors, Xiao Zhou, you should go to the company now and warn everyone that no one can talk about such rumors. As long as I catch one, I will be fired immediately." Say.

He can't let such rumors spread again.

It's okay to pass it through to my company, but if it were to be passed on to another big family in Kyoto, it would be really troublesome.

You must know that the eldest lady of the Tang family was married to the eldest son of the Wang family when she was not born again. Now suddenly there is a rumor that the eldest daughter of the Tang family is engaged with the security guard. , How did this thing end?

That's why Tang Zhengcai hurriedly stopped such rumors, whether they were true or false, these would have a bad influence on him, especially on the Wang family.

After Tang Zheng ordered Xiao Zhou, Xiao Zhou immediately rushed to the company.

And Feifei? At this moment, the LotusCars, which was a little deflated in the front of the car, returned to the villa.

Feifei, who had just stopped the car in the parking lot, raised her eyes to see her father.

"Dad." Feifei yelled happily.

Tang Zheng also looked at his daughter with a smile on his face: "Feifei, come here, I have something to ask you."

Feifei followed and sat next to Tang Zheng, wrapped her dad's arm with her slender arm, and said coquettishly like a little girl: "Dad, what's the matter?"

Tang Zheng sighed softly, took his daughter's hand and asked, "Feifei, are you running to the company very often these past two days?"

"Yes." Feifei said with a smile.

Tang Zheng continued to ask, "All for the new security guard?"

"Yeah, Dad, what's the matter?"

Tang Zheng frowned slightly, and there was a hint of worry in those deep eyes: "Is it because he tried his best to help you last time, so you went to see him? Or is it because of other reasons?"

Feifei was taken aback when she heard her dad's question.

"Dad, why do you suddenly ask?"

Tang Zheng hurriedly laughed: "It's okay, I just ask about it idle."

Feifei said, "Actually, there is nothing. I just thought it was a bit of a shame last time, but that soil bun is really funny. If it weren't for him today, I might be out of luck for your daughter."

Tang Zheng's expression changed: "What happened today?"

So Feifei told all about the rogue Liao Bin that he met in Langshan today.

Hearing Feifei's words, Tang Zheng couldn't help but look ugly: "That  had better not be caught. I want to catch him. I must bury him alive."

Feifei chuckled: "Dad, don't be mad at all, there are all kinds of bad people in this society."

Tang Zheng turned his head to look at his daughter and said, "So, doesn't it mean that my daughter owes the security guard another favor?"

"Who owes that bunny favor? Shouldn't he protect me?" Feifei said cheerfully.

Tang Zheng laughed: "Feifei, listen to what my father said, it's best not to walk so close to the security guard. Because there are so many people, you also know how many employees Dad's company has, thousands of employees, if you are seen by them If my Tang Zheng's daughter mingled with a small security guard at the company, then it spread out, where would I put Tang Zheng's face, do you think so? No matter what, even if you want to do it for your father, you should try to find it as little as possible. The security guard."

Feifei heard what Tang Zheng said, how did she listen, how did she feel that what Tang Zheng said was a bit awkward.

"Dad, what do you mean?"

"Dad is not interesting, but you are a girl, and people say it is terrible. Sometimes when you are not paying attention, others will tell you bad things, not to mention that you are my Tang Zheng's daughter." Tang Zhengdao said.

Feifei raised her eyebrows: "I don't care about those who are idle and doing nothing, nonsense."

"What's the matter with the security? The security is not human too. Could it be that the security is inferior to others? I think Li Tian is pretty good." Feifei said.

Tang Zheng frowned: "Feifei, don't you even listen to me on this matter?"

Feifei hurriedly embraced her father's arm and said coquettishly: "Okay, okay, dad, if you are so busy at work all day, just leave my business alone. I'll be fine. Don't worry."

After finishing speaking, he hugged Tang Zheng on his forehead and lightly printed it with a small cherry mouth, and then ran towards his boudoir with a smile.

But Tang Zhengze who was left in front of him shook his head helplessly.

For his daughter, isn't Tang really too doting?

Maybe he didn't even know these.
