

A Killer 77

Chapter 77: He did it

"Dad, you are too unreasonable." Feifei's angry eyes were red, and she tremblingly said.

But Tang Zheng said with a cold face in that gloomy voice: "You will never see that security guard again from today."

The voice echoed in Feifei's ears, causing her heart to vibrate.

"Moreover, even if you go to the company now, it is impossible to see him." Tang Zheng continued.

Feifei was slightly taken aback when he heard what he said.

"What do you mean?" Feifei asked quickly.

Tang Zhengdao said: "Because that kid has been resigned by me, he must have left the company now."

Feifei was completely stunned when she heard Tang Zheng say that.

"Dad, you..." She was clumsy there, as if stupid.

How could he do such a thing? How could Li Tian resign? They didn't make any mistakes, they just worked there? Are you about to resign someone?

"Why? Why do you want to quit him?" Feifei roared there like crazy, her eyes red, and tears filled her eyes as if she was about to fall down at any time.

Tang Zheng turned his head and couldn't bear to look at his daughter.

"You will know in the future, I do this for your own good." Tang Zhengdao said.

"For me? Is it really for me? I think Dad, you are all for yourself, for your own face, for the credibility that you have established with others for 20 years, you have never considered my feelings... I, I hate you." Feifei said frantically.

Hearing the first time that his daughter dared to say that she was in front of her, Tang Zheng was furious. Suddenly, he sat up on the stool and glared at his daughter.

Seeing their atmosphere became more and more explosive.

At this moment, suddenly Xiao Zhou rushed in from outside.

When he walked in and saw the look of their father and daughter, he was slightly taken aback. In the past, Xiao Zhou would never approach the father and daughter again, but today Xiao Zhou is unexpectedly big. Stepped in.

"Mr. Tang, something happened to the company." When a word came out of Xiao Zhou's mouth, Tang Zheng and Feifei were all taken aback.

Tang Zheng's expression changed suddenly, and he immediately asked, "What's the matter?"

Xiao Zhou said: "Someone has acted on someone in our company, and someone in our company has been injured."

After Xiao Zhou said this, Tang Zheng was shocked in his heart.

"Who is injured?" he asked immediately.

Xiao Zhou's expression hesitated, but he quickly replied, "Li Tian."

When Li Tian said the words, Feifei was the first to yell, and Tang Zheng was also stunned.

"he?"

"What's wrong with Li Tian?" Feifei asked in a panic.

Xiao Zhou hurriedly replied: "Today is the time for Li Tian to leave, but he did not expect that someone was ambushing him outside, and he was slashed with knives in a small alley of our company..."

"Oh my God, how could this be?" Feifei was taken aback for a moment, and she felt a little bit inside.

And Tang Zheng's entire face changed color.

"Ambush him? Who did it?" Tang Zheng asked angrily.

Although he had a bad impression of Li Tian, after all, Li Tian was an employee of his company, and he was cut off as soon as he left the company's door.

"I don't know yet." Xiao Zhou said.

"Where is Li Tian now?" Feifei suddenly roared and asked.

"In the hospital." Xiao Zhou replied.

When Feifei finished listening, she ran towards the parking lot without any consideration.

"Feifei..." Tang Zheng called out his daughter, but his daughter didn't even bother him.

Looking at his daughter who was going away, Tang Zheng sighed deeply, and then slowly turned his head and condensed his brows to look at Xiao Zhou next to him: "How could someone ambush him? He is a poor boy who just came to Kyoto, why? Offend people?"

After Tang Zheng said this, Xiao Zhou slowly said, "Ms. Tang, Missy was here just now, and there are some things that I can't say easily."

"The person who attacked Li Tian is actually easy to find." Xiao Zhou said suddenly.

Tang Zhengyi was taken aback: "What do you mean?"

"Two days ago, I heard that Wang Feng, the eldest son of the Wang family, specifically went to Li Tian once, and he almost did it in front of our company, but was stopped by the security guard." Xiao Zhou said slowly.

When he heard Wang Feng's name, Tang Zheng was shocked.

"You mean Li Tian who Wang Feng asked someone to kill?" his voice asked in astonishment.

Xiao Zhou nodded slowly: "It's very possible, Mr. Tang, to say something that shouldn't be said. The eldest son of the royal family is not well-known in Kyoto. To be more ruthless, it is simply notorious. It may be because the eldest lady was engaged to him, so he found someone to avenge Li Tian."

Hearing what Xiao Zhou said, Tang Zheng's face became as ugly as pig liver. How could Tang Zheng not know the rumors about Wang Feng in society? It's just that he has always had a very good relationship with the Wang family, so he didn't pay much attention to this matter from beginning to end.

Thinking of men? When he was young, it was inevitable to be a little more romantic, but he didn't expect that Wang Feng would actually attack Li Tian this time.

Tang Zheng was extremely annoyed and walked up and down the entire hall with his hands on his back without saying a word.

"Xiao Zhou, how do you go to the hospital to see how that kid is injured? Remember, don't tell Feifei what Wang Feng did. If you tell her, then their marriage will be completely useless."

Xiao Zhou nodded silently when Tang Zheng said this, then turned and left.

Inside the hospital in Kyoto City.

When Li Tian slowly opened his eyes, he smelled a strong smell of medicine in his nose.

"Xiao Li, Xiao Li..." Then he heard a shout in his ears.

Li Tian opened his eyes slowly, and at first glance he saw Yu Dahai by his side, and was stunned.

How could Yu Dahai be here?

"Brother Yu." Li Tian shouted hard.

Then he moved his body a bit, but did not move, because he suddenly saw the bandages tied to his body.

But he was lying on a hospital bed.

Looking around again, Li Tian was shocked to find that he had actually entered the hospital.
