

A Killer 771

Chapter 771: Weird pill

Upon hearing Duguxie's words, the ghost servant and Li Tian were stunned, and then a huge sense of disappointment suddenly flooded their hearts.

"Second brother, didn't you even see his face after you fought with him for so long? Didn't even his people see clearly?" The ghost servant is really hard to believe, maybe he knows how much Duguxie is after being in the devil. Horror.

But what about Duguxie? But he nodded silently.

"Yes!"

"His skill is too high... The tall one is the same as the eldest brother back then!" He only heard Duguxie suddenly say.

A terrifying figure as powerful as Cthulhu?

Gosh!

Who the * is it?

Who is in the dark?

After Duguxie said these words, he suddenly sighed and said: "I remember clearly his moves... His moves are weird and changeable... My sword can't keep up with him... ...And I can see that he didn't use his real strength at all...He just didn't want to hurt me..."

So tough?

Such a powerful character?

Listening to Duguxie's words, the ghost servants and Li Tian and others were completely speechless.

"What happened later?" Just listen to the ghost servant continuing to ask.

"In the beginning, I killed him all the way crazy, but I couldn't get close to him. Then I saw that his whole person seemed to have changed, and he became able to use his truly terrifying strength... his skill is so powerful. I was able to swallow me...I can see his moves clearly, and I can't see his figure...I only know how to wave the sword in my hand like crazy... Then I just felt my head go black and fainted!"

After hearing Duguxie say this again, the faces of the brothers are no longer simply shocked...but a shock that has never been seen before!

They now finally know why Duguxie was in a coma here? Why does the demon nature on the body suddenly disappear... It turned out that everything was done by the mysterious expert.

Everything that happened today is so incredible... so shocking!

They all know what happened now, and they all know what Duguxie has experienced after being enchanted!

It turned out that all the people who helped them were done by the mysterious man.

Who is that mysterious man? How powerful is it? It must have already reached the point of * level.

The horrified brothers looked silently into the darkness and depths around them, all silent.

I saw Duguxie suddenly turning around weirdly looking at Li Tian who was standing on his side. The moment he saw Li Tian, he suddenly muttered, "Young Master..."

Then Li Tian raised his head and looked at Duguxie, wanting to hear what he said.

But that Duguxie did not speak directly, but looked at Li Tian with an incredible gaze there... Then he suddenly said, "There is one more thing!"

Suddenly a word came out from that Duguxie's mouth again.

When the ghost servant heard that Duguxie suddenly seemed to remember something, he was not only taken aback.

"Second brother, what do you think of again?"

The Duguxie said, "I remember that person..."

"That mysterious expert? Second brother, do you remember his face clearly?" The ghost servant's voice revealed a doguxie that excitedly looked at him.

Li Tian and his brothers over there heard that Duguxie was crazy and said that they remembered, and not only looked at him excitedly at this moment.

But seeing that Duguxie shook his head slightly.

"No! I don't remember his face... but I remember what he said to me!"

"words?"

"That mysterious expert talked to you?" Only the ghost servant looked at Duguxie with doubtful eyes.

Duguxie nodded quickly.

"Yes!"

"He told me to give something to Young Master!" Du Guxie said suddenly.

"Something for the young master?"

"Ok!"

"When I was in a coma again, I heard a voice in my ear telling me... to tell me to give one thing to our Young Master." Du Guxie said.

Hearing Duguxie's words, the ghost servants and the brothers felt more and more weird. They didn't know if this Duguxie was talking true or not?

But seeing Duguxie at this moment, after saying this, he suddenly raised his only left hand and began to touch his whole body, as if that thing was on his body.

Suddenly, when his hand touched his arms, a look of excitement appeared on his face.

Then, in the shock of all the brothers and the ghost servant, a small red box was suddenly taken out of Du Guxie's hands!

There is actually something hidden in Duguxie's body!

Ghost servants and Li Tian and others didn't believe in the words of Duguxie. After all, Duguxie at that time was in a demon state... But at this moment, I saw that Duguxie really took it out of his hands. After a weird red box, they all froze for an instant!

"Second brother, you... this... where did the little red box come from?" The ghost servant said with his eyes wide open.

Duguxie said: "I don't know, I only know that the person asked me to give this box to the young master... and told me that as long as it is given to the young master... everything will calm down."

Listening to such weird words in Duguxie's mouth, the ghost servant and Li Tian and others were all horrified except for horror.

Li Tian walked over slowly and looked at the red box with doubts.

"What is installed here?" Li Tian couldn't help asking.

"I do not know either!"

"open to take a look....."

Speaking, my brothers all raised their eyes and looked at this little red box.

Duguxie stretched out his hand and slowly uncovered the box...what's in the box? Now it is the most curious thing that brothers care about most.

With the movement of Duguxie's fingers, the box in front of him was gradually opened by him!

After opening it, something unexpected happened. There was nothing special in this little red box, but a few milky white pills!

When they saw the small white pill inside the red box, the brothers and the ghost servants around him were stunned for an instant!

"A pill?"

They all blinked at the pill.

"What pill?"

"How could it be given to the young master?" He just listened to the ghost servant in front of him suddenly.

At this time, everyone's eyes were on Li Tian's body, with incredible eyes.

And Li Tian was also stunned!

He doesn't know what these milky white pills are for? And that Duguxie also said that this mysterious expert handed over to Li Tian? What is going on?

Of course Li Tian is depressed! Even the brothers and ghost servants around him were surprised.

Chapter 772: worry

When everyone was silent and puzzled, Situ Ningbing, who had been silent for a while, suddenly raised her beautiful eyes and looked at the pills and said, "Li Tian, are these medicines your antidote?"

"The antidote?" When Situ Ningbing said such a sentence all of a sudden, Li Tian and the ghost servant were immediately shocked.

"Is this the antidote to Sanshengmen's poison?" Tang Xiaolong said with excitement.

Is it the antidote to Sanshengmen poison?

who knows?

When Li Tian also heard Situ Ningbing say that this milky white pill might be the antidote to Sanshengmen poison, he was of course excited and excited!

But is this true or not? He didn't know this.

"Second brother, what else did the mysterious man tell you? Did he say why this pill is used?" The ghost servant quickly looked at that Duguxie and asked.

Who knew that Duguxie shook his head.

"He didn't tell me, he only told me that after giving the entire box to the young master, everything will be subdued!" Duguxie said.

Listening to what Duguxie said, Situ Ningbing said cleverly: "That's right!"

"If I'm not wrong, the box that the mysterious senior gave Li Tian must be the antidote to the Duanmu family's Sanshengmen poison... Think about it, this time we came to the Duanmu family for that Is this antidote? If we can get the antidote, we will naturally leave here... Everything will calm down. Isn't it right now? The antidote is here!"

Listening to Situ Ningbing's words, the brothers nodded in agreement.

"That's right, little boss, it seems that this is really the antidote to the poison of the Sanshengmen." Tang Xiaolong said with excitement.

The Chen Qiaozhi and Old Monster Ge beside him were full of excitement at the moment, and at the same time they were a little worried in their hearts. After all, they didn't know if it was right?

Li Tian stared at the milky white pill, thought about it, and suddenly smiled bitterly at the corner of his mouth.

"At present, it seems that I have no other way. Regardless of whether this pill is the antidote to Sanshengmen poison or not, I will try it..." Li Tiandao said.

Yes, Li Tian really has no other way at the moment.

To be ugly, if Li Tian didn't take the milky white pill in front of him, he would sooner or later die under the poison of the three lives.

Although I don't know if the pill in front of me is really the antidote to the Sanshengmen poison... But at least there is still a chance to survive... So Li Tian plans to try!

At this moment, after he reached out and slowly took over the little red box, he did not reach out and took out a milky white pill from inside, and looked at...

Then he raised his eyes and looked at the endless darkness, and said loudly: "It doesn't matter who the expert is? It doesn't matter whether you are in the woods or not...I hope thank you! Thank you for helping me along the way...help my brother!"

The heroic voice echoed in the silent Wolf Valley.

Then Li Tian grabbed the milky white pill in the little red box, raised his mouth and swallowed it into his stomach.

After Li Tian graciously ate the milky white pill into his stomach, the brothers looked at him with worried eyes.

No one knew if what Li Tian had just eaten was the antidote to Sanshengmen's poison, so this Council couldn't help looking at him.

"Little boss, how do you feel?" Tang Xiaolong couldn't help but asked while looking at Li Tian.

A Qiu, Chen Qiaozhi and others around him also stared at Li Tian.

Li Tian paused and said with a smile: "No feeling..."

Yes! Of course I didn't feel it!

How can the antidote cure the poison in the body as soon as it is in the mouth? At least there must be a process.

After Li Tian took a milky white pill, he continued to put away the small red box.

Duguxie is finally well...

Although too many unbelievable things happened during the time he was enchanted, everything is calm now!

Just when the brothers stayed in the dark wolf valley one by one, but saw a black figure facing them far away!

Who is he?

Could it be that mysterious expert?

Yes! it's him!

The black night enveloped him, and he could only vaguely see the outline of his body.

It was a tall and burly body, but it looked like a dragon jiggling... As for his face, he couldn't see it at all.

The place where he stands is far from where Li Tian and the others are...

After watching Li Tian take the pill just now, his body suddenly moved... and then he was barely visible even with his eyes, and his person had completely disappeared!

Disappeared in the entire darkness, without a trace.

After the black mysterious figure disappeared, Li Tian over there was finally reunited with his brothers again!

Originally worried about the Duguxie, now it seems that they no longer need to worry too much.

Although Duguxie felt a bit regretful about the crazy killing when he was engulfed after he was sober, but fortunately those people he killed were members of the Duanmu family, not some innocent people! But despite this, Duguxie still feels a little sad.

Now he was sitting quietly on the side, holding the bronze sword that was bloodthirsty in the dark in his hand... he looked lonely and sluggishly.

"Second brother, what are you thinking about?" The Ghost Servant said as he walked towards Duguxie here.

But seeing Duguxie sighed, then slowly raised his eyes, looking at the black night road, and said: "I originally thought that the two of us would be enough to protect the young master's safety...to prevent him from being a little dangerous...but It seems I was wrong now!"

"Unexpectedly, we disappeared with our eldest brother for so many years...There are so many powerful people in the rivers and lakes." I only heard Duguxie suddenly sigh.

There was a feeling of heroic twilight in the voice.

"Second brother, the powerful person you are referring to is the mysterious expert who secretly helped us in the dark night, right?" said the ghost servant.

Duguxie nodded thoughtfully.

"Yes!"

"At present, it seems that although the other party has always been in a state of helping us...but there is no doubt that his level of power has already exceeded our imagination...!"

"Ghost servant, think about it, the world is so big, who can have the strength of a big brother... I have been with my big brother for so many years, and I have never heard of such a master... But now suddenly it suddenly appeared. The character so decided...To be honest, I am getting more and more worried about the future!" Lonely evil frowned and sighed as he looked at the black night.

Chapter 773: Black blood

How could Duguxie not worry?

If the storm is surging today, not only the Hell Gate organization that was more than 20 years ago reappears, but also secretly there are super masters born...not only in front of this, you must know that when the evil * was alive, those who were defeated by the evil god, As well as the devil who was seriously injured, it is estimated that he will be born now.

Although Li Tian's identity has not yet been fully disclosed, the Hell Sect organization already knows Li Tian's identity...I believe it will not be long before the news that he is the son of the evil * will soon be known to the world!

What will the whole world be like? Who can know?

And now these masters have come out, for what? And the mysterious senior in the dark?

Why did these masters come back one by one?

Why are they coming back?

Now Duguxie sat there quietly with a face silent, and his eyes were full of worries and hesitation about the road ahead.

In fact, speaking of the past, he was most worried about Li Tian.

Worried about his safety, because Li Tian is the weakest among everyone!

Since his two arms were abolished, he couldn't work hard anymore. If Li Tian was in danger, it would be a worry for his life, so he was worried.

And of course the ghost servant understood his second brother's intentions and sighed softly, then sat there silently looking at the dark night.

Li Tian over there was also sitting quietly after experiencing what happened tonight.

He still has his favorite person, Situ Ningbing, guarding him tightly.

The two were sitting there cuddling, in front of which was a roaring bonfire...The place behind was still the flames of the Duanmu family, and the entire Duanmu family was still burning there.

Looking at the darkness in front of him, Li Tian sat there silently, his face calm, and no one knew what he was thinking.

"Li Tian, why do you think that stranger in the dark should help us along the way?" Situ Ningbing suddenly blinked her beautiful eyes and stared at Li Tiandao.

Li Tian looked into the darkness and shook his head slightly!

He really didn't know why that mysterious expert had to help him like this along the way, and he also inexplicably taught his own high mentality.

"I think that mysterious expert should have something to do with your father!" A sentence came out of Situ Ningbing's mouth again.

Hearing his lover suddenly say this, Li Tian was taken aback for a moment, turned his head and looked at the lover in front of him and said, "Ningbing, why do you say that?"

"Because I feel that everything that the mysterious man has done seems to be for you!"

"Think about it, from the beginning he inexplicably taught you the mysterious martial arts mentality, to the present on this road...helped us find the enchanted solitary predecessors, and guide us...I feel that he is doing everything For you!"

"Although I don't know exactly why he did this, let alone what it has to do with you, but I'm sure he must know you and have a great connection with you!"

Listening to Situ Ningbing's words, Li Tian raised his head for a moment.

In fact, he had thought of this question before, and he also guessed the identity of the mysterious expert in his heart...Even Li Tian at the time wondered if the mysterious expert would be his missing father for twenty years?

But when Duguxie said that he could not recognize the mysterious person, Li Tian knew he had guessed wrong!

Because with the feeling of Duguxie, if he really is the Cthulhu, if he is really the big brother of Duguxie, then how could he not recognize it?

So Li Tian knew from that time that the mysterious expert who guided him and helped him along the way was not his father at all, but someone else!

But Li Tian didn't know who that person was!

"Although I don't know who he is, but his martial arts is still powerful enough to reach a shocking level... hey!"

Li Tian sighed suddenly, then raised a pair of sad eyes and looked at his two hands!

Useless! Useless!

These two words came to mind again... he hates, hates himself for turning into a complete waste! why? Why is this happening?

Why would my hands be broken alive?

A strong hatred came out of Li Tian's heart.

Situ Ningbing, who cared about him by his side, saw Li Tian's weird changes, and knew that Li Tian had remembered his sadness again. At this moment, he quickly reached out and grabbed Li Tian's cold arm and said with concern; Li Tian, don't think about it!"

"You will be fine...I believe you...you will be better someday."

Li Tian was held by his beloved woman, and he smiled bitterly, then raised his confused eyes and looked into the darkness...

The flames flickered in the darkness, and only a few brothers sat quietly in the quiet Wolf Valley.

I don't know how long it has been!

When Li Tian, who had been tired for so many days, was ready to take a good rest, suddenly he felt a strange nausea in his chest.

With that feeling coming, Li Tian only felt that he was nauseous!

What's going on?

Is there a problem with your stomach?

Li Tian originally wanted to endure the nausea, but at this moment he couldn't hold it back. He suddenly wowed, and a black thing spurted out of his mouth.

As something spouted from his mouth, Situ Ningbing beside him was not only taken aback.

"Li Tian, what's the matter with you?" Situ Ningbing quickly looked at Li Tian with concern.

Look carefully, there is black blood on the corner of Li Tian's mouth... Oh my God! It turned out that what Li Tian vomited just now was a mouthful of black blood.

what?

When Situ Ningbing suddenly saw Li Tian spit out black blood from her mouth, she not only screamed in surprise.

is blood!

"Li Tian, what's the matter with you?" Situ Ningbing was helping Li Tian who was spitting out black blood in a clean panic.

The Duguxie and the ghost servants who heard the movement over there, and the brothers rushed over.

"Young Master, what's wrong?"

"Little boss, what happened?"

With the brothers, the ghost servants and Duguxie quickly rushing over, but seeing Li Tian waving his hands slightly...bending down there with an uncomfortable face.

"He vomited blood in his mouth...it was black blood." Situ Ningbing said worriedly.

The ghost servant who heard Situ Ningbing say this and the Duguxie in front of him were all taken aback.

Black blood?

Chapter 774: Antidote

"Young Master, are you okay?" Ghost servant hurried forward and said worriedly.

Suddenly, Chen Qiaozhi, a sick scholar, said there, "It seems that Li Tian is taking medicine, and the medicine's power has occurred."

"What do you mean?" Everyone who suddenly heard the sick scholar say so suddenly couldn't help but stared at him in surprise.

"Sick ghost, what do you mean?" Tang Xiaolong also blinked at Chen Qiaozhi.

Chen Qiaozhi said: "If I guess right, Li Tian should be a good thing."

"Good girl! The little boss vomits blood in his mouth, is it a good thing?" Tang Xiaolong scolded depressedly.

Chen Qiaozhi glanced at him contemptuously: "You know what a fart!"

"In the past, if people were injured, they would vomit red blood... But if they vomit black blood, it means that there must be toxins in his body that have been eliminated." Chen Qiaozhi said.

Listening to what Chen Qiaozhi said, the brothers were all taken aback at this moment.

"Then you mean that the black blood that our little boss vomited at this moment is poison?" Tang Xiaolong blinked his eyes and said.

Chen Qiaozhi nodded.

"of course!"

"I think the medicine Li Tian took has worked!"

medicine? What medicine? Could it be the milky white pill Duguxie gave Li Tian?

Yes, but seeing Li Tian at this moment vomiting three mouthfuls of black blood, his body obviously feels better than before!

In the past, Li Tian, who had been poisoned by Sanshengmen, said he was a chronic poison, but he could still feel that his chest sometimes had a slight pain, but he endured it all the time, but since he took the milky white pill, he has Feel much better.

Although he is a little nauseous in his heart, and he also vomited black blood, this feeling is much better than before!

Could it be that the milky white pill that I took really worked?

Could it be said that the milky white pill is really the antidote to Sanshengmen poison?

Not bad!

In fact, the pills in the little red box are the antidote to Sanshengmen poison!

It's just that Li Tian and his brothers don't know.

"Young Master, how do you feel?"

"Boss, how are you? Are you better?"

The brothers and the ghost servants were all looking at Li Tian worriedly at this moment.

What about Li Tian? After spitting out black blood in his mouth just now, he slowly straightened up, and then slightly wiped the black blood on the corner of his mouth with his sleeve.

At this moment, everyone's eyes were looking at Li Tian with surprise, and their eyes were full of care for him, and they all wanted to know how he was going.

After Li Tian straightened up, he slowly turned around, and then faced his brothers.

Under the dubious gazes of the brothers, Li Tian suddenly said, "I seem to be fine..."

All right?

When Li Tian said this, the brothers were suddenly depressed, and then they became excited one by one.

"Little boss, are you okay?"

"What's wrong with the Sanshengmen poison on you?"

"Young Master, what's the matter?"

All I heard before my eyes were the caring voices of my brothers.

But seeing Li Tian smiled and said: "I do feel better than before!"

"I don't know what's going on. It seems that the pill really works when taken." Li Tian said with a smile.

Listening to what Li Tian said, the brothers in front of him were of course extremely happy.

Originally, they came to the Duanmu family to find an antidote to the Sanshengmen poison for Li Tian... Now that Li Tian finally said that he was better, of course they were happy.

"Great!"

"Little boss is okay finally." Tang Xiaolong in front of him almost yelled excitedly and said.

The ghost servant and Duguxie also showed excitement on their faces.

Yes, as long as their young master is safe, this is their greatest joy.

"It seems that the things in the red pill box are really the antidote to the poison of the Sanshengmen!" Du Guxie suddenly muttered.

"So it seems that all this is the mysterious expert who helped us." The ghost servant also said there.

Thinking of the mysterious expert, Li Tian carried an endless gratitude in his heart.

"Hey, what is the origin of that mysterious senior? He helped us in this way and helped the little boss. What is even more strange is that he wants to know everything about us! It's amazing!" Tang Xiaolong said Jinghai.

Listening to Tang Xiaolong's words, the brothers were all stunned!

Yes, it's amazing! No one thought that all of this would be carefully arranged by the mysterious expert, carefully helping Li Tian and others.

And now and that mysterious expert actually helped him get the antidote for Sanshengmen poison? Of course he was even more grateful.

No one thought that the milky white pill would really cure the Sanshengmen Poison in Li Tian's body. This was really a gratifying thing.

Li Tian, who was still worried about the toxicity in his body, now became violent in his heart.

And Situ Ningbing, who saw his lover finally saved, seemed even happier.

After such a thing, everyone's uneasy heart was finally at ease.

The Sanshengmen poison in Li Tian's body was finally saved.

The black bloodstain that Li Tian vomited just now was exactly the toxin of the Sanshengmen, and now the milky white pills he had eaten were removing the toxins bit by bit.

If once the treatment is finished, Li Tian will undoubtedly be completely relieved of the Sanshengmen poison in his body.

Too much happened this night, too many incredible things happened.

But in the final analysis, Li Tian is lucky!

He never expected that the expert hiding around them would give him the antidote to the poison of the Sanshengmen.

Isn't this? After experiencing what Li Tian could call a miracle, the brothers all smiled.

They also looked very happy sitting by the fire.

The fire on the site of the Duanmu family is still blazing... the whole family is indeed finished.

The night is getting deeper and deeper.

After a busy night, the brothers who were worried about the whole night gradually fell asleep one by one.

Even Situ Ningbing next to Li Tian began to fall asleep faintly next to Li Tian.

At this moment, only Li Tian still remained excited.

He felt an unprecedented excitement in his heart. Looking at the delicate face of his lover who was sleeping next to him, Li Tianduo wanted to kiss her red lips gently.

But he still held back, he raised his eyes and looked at the endless starry sky silently thinking about his thoughts.

But he said that while Li Tian was silently thinking about his thoughts, suddenly a strange cold wind blew towards him, and the bonfire in front of him was also blew.

When Li Tian was afraid of the coldness of Situ Ning next to her, he wanted to entrust her with her coat and cover her body.

Chapter 775: Anonymous formula

When Li Tian was afraid of the coldness of Situ Ning next to him, he wanted to entrust her with her coat and cover her body.

Suddenly a strange sound came into his ears.

"Come...follow me..."

At the moment when he suddenly heard this mysterious voice, Li Tian seemed to be given a dose of stimulant.

Feeling unprecedented excitement.

Because he knew this voice, it was the expert who was talking to him with the sound transmission secret skill of thousands of miles.

Obviously, the expert from outside the world, the expert who has been secretly helping them, is near Li Tian.

After Li Tian heard this sound all of a sudden, his whole body suddenly stood up.

There was still a clear echo in my ears: Come...follow me...

Is Li Tian going there? Do you want to follow the voice that guided him?

But after seeing Li Tian standing up, he glanced at the sleeping brothers next to him, and he frowned slightly. Because the opponent's expert used a secret skill like Thousand Miles Sound Transmission, only Li Tian could do it. I can hear you.

After Li Tian thought for a while, he finally made a decision, but saw that he slowly took off his coat, and then gently put it on his lover Situ Ningbing.

Then he glanced at the brothers who were all asleep, and then slowly and gently followed the sound step by step towards the front with his own small steps.

That voice is still guiding Li Tian: Come...follow me...

The voice reverberated in his ears, and Li Tian walked forward step by step as if his mind was attracted.

In front is a dense and dark jungle...

Li Tian was not afraid, listening to the guidance of the voice, and just walked forward step by step.

I don't know how long I have been walking like this, and suddenly the voice that was whispering in Li Tian's ear disappeared.

At the moment Li Tian was stunned, he raised his head and suddenly saw a black figure standing not far in front with his back facing him.

Back view?

Black back!

Is it him?

Is it the mysterious expert?

When Li Tian suddenly saw the black figure in front of him, he was stunned for a moment.

At the same time, he jumped wildly in his heart. He had been looking forward to seeing the mysterious expert who helped him all the way in the dark...Unexpectedly, he finally saw it now.

"You... you... are the... master who has been helping me secretly?"

Li Tian said with excitement in his mouth suddenly.

A pair of eyes couldn't help staring at the black figure in front of him.

The black figure suddenly moved, then slowly turned around.

But because of the distance and the dim light, Li Tian couldn't see the opponent's face clearly, let alone know what the opponent looked like.

No words, no words, just standing there motionless.

"Senior... why don't you speak?"

Because Li Tian was too excited and wanted to see the mysterious expert in front of him too much in his mind, no, he stepped out to see him and see who he was?

Just as Li Tian stepped forward, the figure standing in the dark on the opposite side suddenly said, "Don't come here..."

The voice was vicissitudes and long-distance, as if the dust had suddenly appeared after thousands of years.

Listening to the ancient and desolate voice, Li Tian stopped his steps suddenly, as if the voice had invisible magic power, and he had to stop.

After Li Tian stopped for a while, he couldn't help being surprised and excited and asked, "Senior...you saved the Duguxie, right? Is it the antidote to the Sanshengmen you gave me? Are you secretly helping me with all this?"

Li Tian's words sounded word by word in the darkness.

But the mysterious shadow in front of him did not directly answer his words.

But stood there slightly...

A gloomy and cool breeze suddenly blew over, and the black shadow a few meters in front suddenly said with the ancient voice: "In the dark, there is God!"

"Child, you have to know that everything you encounter today is predestined in the world!"

"I'm just being an indifferent passerby during your sinister life..."

Weird and vicissitudes of words came out of the mysterious man's mouth.

Listening to the mysterious expert in front of him suddenly say this, Li Tian was stunned.

He didn't understand the meaning of the mysterious person in front of him... let alone what he said, what happened.

"Senior, what do you mean?"

"Senior, I want to know who you are? Why have you been helping me like this?" Li Tian couldn't help but asked curiously.

But just after Li Tian suddenly asked, the mysterious expert snorted softly.

Then he said with the old voice: "Don't ask who I am, and you don't need to know who I am..."

"Why? Why didn't the senior tell me?" Li Tian continued to ask.

But seeing that the mysterious expert did not speak directly, but suddenly raised his head and looked up at the endless black sky... murmured to himself: "Because even I can't remember my name..."

what?

Can't even remember his name himself?

What's going on?

When suddenly heard that the mysterious senior in front said these words in such ancient and desolate words, Li Tian was shocked.

Is what the mysterious senior in front of me said true? Still fake?

"Senior, is your old man kidding me?" Li Tian asked in surprise.

But seeing the mysterious senior in front suddenly turned his head to look at Li Tiandao and said, "Do you think I am joking with you?"

When the old and cold words came out of his mouth, he felt cold and suffocating.

Li Tian suddenly came!

Could it be that this old man really doesn't even remember his name?

Li Tian was embarrassed there and didn't know how to talk.

After a long time, when he saw the mysterious old man still not speaking, he tentatively asked, "Senior, there is something I want to ask?"

"Say!" The black figure in front uttered a word.

"I want to know that in the earliest days, it was your predecessor on the street that you taught me the nameless mantra?"

After Li Tian said this, the strange figure in front suddenly laughed wildly.

The heroic and desolate voice seemed to shake the leaves around him.

Li Tian's heart was shocked when he heard his heroic laughter.

What a powerful inner strength...

What a terrifying power.

A mad laugh can make people feel turbulent, behaved, if he shot, how terrifying and scary would he be?

"You actually said that I taught you an unnamed formula? Haha, what an unnamed formula!" The heroic and sonorous words laughed out of the expert's mouth.

Li Tian not only looked a little embarrassed.

He really didn't know what he was cultivating at that time, let alone the name of the mental formula, so he immediately said: the nameless mental formula,

Chapter 776: Something in the belly

Mantra of Anonymous Mind!

For Li Tian, he really didn't know the name of the mantra taught to him by the mysterious expert in front of him.

So he couldn't help looking at the mysterious expert and asked in surprise: "Then...senior...what is the name of the mental formula you taught me?"

Listening to Li Tian's question, the mysterious expert standing in the dark in front paused slightly and said: "Since you have named him an anonymous formula... then you can call him an anonymous formula! Haha."

Li Tian also scratched his head with his hands and smiled.

"Let me ask you...how are you practicing with the formula I taught you?" Suddenly the mysterious expert in front said to Li Tiandao with that ancient voice.

And the voice was quite solemn, as if he was extremely serious about this matter.

Li Tian was stunned for a moment when he heard that, so he said: "I really don't want to hide from the seniors, I don't know how I am doing?"

"But I know that after practicing the nameless formula you taught me, I feel my whole body feels comfortable and transparent... and the blood in my heart seems to be burning all day, there is a kind of boiling. a feeling of."

Hearing Li Tian's words, the mysterious expert in front of him suddenly hummed.

Because the night is too dark, I can't see the mysterious expert's face clearly, and I don't know if his "um" is comforting? Still disappointed.

"Your body's messy real qi has been dredged out?" Suddenly a word came out of the mysterious expert's mouth.

When the mysterious expert in front of him suddenly said this sentence, it not only made Li Tian amazed.

Huh?

How could the mysterious expert in front of him know that the true energy in his body was messy before?

How would he know? How did he know his affairs so carefully? This is not right!

Isn't this? Li Tian suddenly felt a little depressed.

At this moment, the mysterious expert who was looking at him with his doubtful eyes asked: "How does the senior know that my body was messy before?"

"Of course I know! If I don't know why I teach you the method, let you dredge the meridians." The mysterious expert in front said.

Li Tian frowned slightly, thinking to himself, why does this mysterious expert know him so clearly?

"Oh, it turned out to be like this." Li Tiandao.

"I ask you, can you feel a chill in the big dantian since you cultivated that mental formula?" The mysterious expert suddenly looked at Li Tian and asked.

Li Tian was slightly stunned when he heard the mysterious expert's question, and then shook his head depressed.

"No!"

When Li Tian said no, the mysterious expert standing in front suddenly seemed to be disappointed.

"No? How can you not feel it... Is it that you are not suitable?" The mysterious expert suddenly looked up at the boundless sky and muttered to himself.

"It's not right! You can even understand that book of heaven. There is no reason why your body will not react at all!" He just listened to the mysterious expert who continued to say silently.

Although Li Tian didn't know what the mysterious expert in front of him was saying by himself...but he really did not have the chill in his body!

He didn't know why, it seemed as if something was pressed down in his dantian... Once he got lucky, his dantian gave birth to a weird attraction... whatever it was, whatever it was. Such power, as long as it is touched by it, it will all be sucked in.

While Li Tian was thinking about it, the mysterious expert in front suddenly said, "Close your eyes!"

Just after hearing the mysterious expert suddenly say this, Li Tian hadn't reacted yet, and the dark shadow of the mysterious expert suddenly came to him.

Then the mysterious expert stretched out his hand to quickly connect the two acupoints of Jianjing on Li Tian's body, Li Tian suddenly seemed stiff, and he couldn't move even when he moved.

Acupuncture point? Fixed point?

Yes, once a person's acupuncture points are tapped, the blood in the body is instantly blocked... so it is impossible to move.

But how easy is it to learn how to tap acupuncture points? In addition to real acupuncture masters accurately identifying acupoints, others may be able to click, but what about the mysterious master in front of them? He was able to connect Li Tian's shoulders and Jing points between his gestures. It can be seen that his power is...

At this moment Li Tian can't move at all, let alone he wants to see the mysterious expert, who can't even turn his head, how to look?

"Senior...you...what are you going to do?" Li Tian said in panic suddenly.

At the same time, he rolled his eyes vigorously to look at the mysterious expert in front of him.

After all, he didn't know what it meant that the mysterious expert in front of him suddenly restrained his body.

But no matter how his eyes turned, the mysterious expert always turned his back to him.

Li Tian only saw this mysterious expert wearing an extremely simple navy blue shirt, the navy blue color is like the color of an ancient sword that has been sealed for many years, and he also noticed that the mysterious expert's waist is slightly hunched...

From these details, Li Tian could feel that the mysterious expert in front of him should be quite old.

Just as he was thinking about it, the mysterious expert suddenly stretched out his hand and pressed it on his abdomen...

Li Tian was suddenly embarrassed when the mysterious expert suddenly held down the pubic area of his abdomen.

"Senior... Senior... What are you doing?" Li Tian couldn't help yelling.

Just listen to the mysterious expert snorted coldly: "Don't call, don't talk!"

Li Tian quickly stopped his mouth when he was so loudly drunk by the mysterious senior senior!

It's just that his abdomen was touched by such a person, always looking strange.

Isn't this? Now Li Tian can only stay depressed, even more so that his body cannot move.

He said that after the mysterious expert's hand gently pressed Li Tian's abdomen dantian, he stayed quietly for ten seconds.

"No, something is wrong." The weird words suddenly came out of his mouth.

"What's in your dantian, why is it so weird? It feels like it's sucking me?" The mysterious expert suddenly muttered with curiosity.

His words meant as if there was something extremely weird in Li Tian's stomach.

Li Tian rolled his eyes and said, "Senior...No, there is nothing in my stomach."

"You kid lied to me! There is definitely something in your stomach!" After the mysterious expert said so, suddenly his hand rested on Li Tian's abdomen again.

Chapter 777: Vampire spar at work

With the mysterious expert's hand resting on Li Tian's abdomen for the second time, he just listened to the mysterious expert's mouth coldly saying: "I want to see what weird thing is in your belly?"

The words fell, and a strange and extremely hot current suddenly spread from the palm of the mysterious expert, and rushed into Li Tian's dantian.

Just after this huge heat flow entered Li Tian's dantian, Li Tian only felt that his abdomen dantian seemed to be burning...

He was uncomfortable burning.

But he still gritted his teeth, resisted, did not speak, he wanted to see what the mysterious expert in front of him was doing? Why do you do this?

But he said that after the mysterious heat power of that weird expert entered Li Tian's abdomen dantian for an instant, and then at Li Tian's dantian, a powerful force seemed to be touched in an instant, and then like a python, Suddenly swallowed the heat of that mysterious expert... and it was extremely terrifying.

And the engulfed mysterious power flow, with the inexplicable power in Li Tian's stomach, began to become more and more mad, and more and more wild...The vastness of the heat is surging again. Enter Li Tian's Dantian...

Li Tian only felt that his stomach was violently colliding with two qi in his stomach, confronting him as if he were fighting, which made him feel more and more incredible, and that with the influx of the mysterious and powerful heat At this moment, Li Tian only felt the heat all over his body, and even sweat began to flow out of his forehead.

Suddenly, Li Tian seemed to feel his Dantian like an explosion.

A weird sensation followed, hot and cold at the other.

And just when these two weird true angers wanted to have a relationship, only a shocked voice suddenly came out of the mysterious expert's mouth.

"What's the weird thing in your kid's stomach?" When the mysterious expert said this, suddenly his hand withdrew.

When his palm was withdrawn all of a sudden, at the same time the billowing heat accumulated in Li Tian's stomach also instantly disappeared, and Li Tian's dantian at the moment felt a strange coldness.

"Can you breathe the old man's pure Yang Zhenqi?" The mysterious expert said in that suddenly unbelievable.

Absorb his pure yang qi?

When Li Tian suddenly heard this expert talking like this, he was first stunned.

Then the rumbling in his mind suddenly came to his senses.

He remembered it, he remembered it in an instant.

Vampire spar,!

Yes, it is the vampire spar that Li Tian hadn't swallowed before.

If it weren't for the mystery senior's absorbing skills, I guess Li Tian would have almost forgotten the vampire spar in his body. He knew that after he ate the vampire spar by accident, the vampire spar It has been hidden in his body.

And sometimes it will absorb energy from the outside world for no reason.

Isn't this? After Li Tian knew the truth all of a sudden, he quickly said: "Senior... I remembered, I remembered... It's the blood-sucking spar in my body that is the cause...it must be the cause!"

"Also, seniors, don't input energy into your body anymore, otherwise your energy will be completely sucked away by the strange stone...you will be in danger!" Li Tian worried about the mysterious expert. Safety is there and quickly said.

Before that, Li Tian confronted the fourth elder of the Duanmu family, but he clearly knew the terrifying power of the blood-sucking spar... it could  a person to death.

So Li Tian not only kindly reminded the mysterious expert in front of him.

"Vampire spar?"

"It turned out to be this weird thing...no wonder...no wonder...you kid can absorb my pure yang qi!" The mysterious expert suddenly seemed to know, muttering there.

"Hey, your kid is good-hearted! But you can rest assured... the person under the world who can  my skills hasn't been born yet! Although the vampire spar in your body is weird and terrible, but it's for me It's not worth mentioning."

"I just tried to find out what kind of strange thing is pressing in your dantian." The mysterious expert said.

After listening to what the mysterious expert said, Li Tian finally let out a sigh of relief.

Knowing that the mysterious expert is okay, he is more relieved, after all, the mysterious expert in front of him is so good to him.

"Now I understand. I know why you can't produce any cold air in your dantian after cultivating my mental formula... It turns out that it was swallowed by the blood-sucking spar..." the mysterious expert said.

After the mysterious expert said so, Li Tian not only froze for a moment, and quickly said: "Senior, do I practice the mental formulas that are of no use at all?"

The mysterious expert groaned for a moment, and said: "You are right, if you can't absorb my cold air...you can't cultivate into a deeper secret of the mind."

Suddenly hearing the mysterious expert say this, Li Tian couldn't help being disappointed. At this moment, he hated the blood-sucking spar in his body, and all blamed the  broken stone. If it weren't for it, he couldn't help it. Practiced?

Li Tian is not only disappointed now.

After seeing the somewhat disappointed Li Tian, the mysterious expert suddenly said: "Don't be disappointed... I will find a way!"

Think of ways to?

Could it be said that the mysterious master has another way?

Hearing him say this, Li Tiantian suddenly felt hope in his heart, and said excitedly, "Is there any other way for me to practice?"

The mysterious expert was silent for a while, thought about it, and slowly said: "Yes, there are, but I'm afraid you can't stand it."

"Senior, don't worry... No matter what kind of pain, I can bear it!" Li Tian said firmly.

In order to make himself stronger, Li Tian estimated that he could bear everything in his heart.

Isn't this? After hearing Li Tian say this, the mysterious expert smiled weirdly.

"Are you really afraid?"

"Not afraid!" Li Tian said firmly.

"Well, this is what you said, don't regret it then!" The mysterious expert suddenly laughed weirdly.

Just after he finished speaking, he suddenly raised his foot and gently kicked Li Tian's stiff body with his legs bent, and then Li Tian fell to his knees with a thump.

After Li Tian knelt down all of a sudden, the mysterious expert suddenly reached his back with his hands. Just after these palms reached the back of Li Tian's heart in an instant, two waves of heat suddenly went overboard. It hit Li Tian's chest.

"Remember for me, no matter how much pain you encounter, you have to endure it... even if you die of pain, you have to endure it...!"

Chapter 778: Profound Gate of Life and Death

After the mysterious expert finished speaking like this, Li Tian said in his mouth, then closed his eyes tightly, enduring the powerful heat wave from his back.

After the overwhelming heat wave rushed into Li Tian's body suddenly, Li Tian suddenly felt that his back seemed to be burning like a fire... and it was painful!

But he endured, endured the pain.

Such a powerful infuriating spirit!

What a terrible heat wave.

Sure enough, it is pure Yang Qi.

"Listen, I have only used a tenth of my strength now... if you can't stand it, tell me then!"

"I want to use pure Yang Zhenqi to penetrate your whole body now, forcing the blood-sucking spar in your dantian to move, because only then can you develop a cold air when you practice my formula...Only then can you break through your body. The gate of life and death!"

The gate of life and death?

What do you mean?

If you know the mystery of the three ancient relics, you must know what this gate of life and death means!

According to legend, the human body is divided into eight disciplines, and metaphysics is collectively referred to as the Eight Doors Dunjia.

These eight doors are the maximum limit of the human body. Legend has it that if a person can open any one of the eight doors, he can obtain a kind of magical power... Among them, the dead door and the life door are among the human body. The most extreme, if the door of life and death is opened, the energy of the human body can be completely released, and it can generate a steady flow of mighty power... and it can also be reborn.

The gate of life and death stems from this ancient legend of the mysterious gate.

At this moment, did not expect this mysterious expert to help Li Tian open the door to life and death?

Gosh!

But after the mysterious expert said these words, the original strong pure Yang Zhenqi became more violent and poured into Li Tian's body... Li Tian only felt that his internal organs seemed to be burning... Pain is absolutely unbearable for one person.

But he still endured, gritted his teeth and endured the unforgettable pain.

The whole face has become red like a fire... the sweat beads left on his forehead are falling down like rain.

The mysterious expert who saw Li Tian still enduring, suddenly increased the palm strength in his palms again.

The billowing pure Yang Zhenqi continuously rushed towards the middle of Li Tian's chest... Li Tian felt like he was going to boil, his body was like a huge steelmaking furnace, how much he wanted to shout, how much he wanted to tell himself that he had already Unable to bear it... but he still endured it, thinking of the * night his father had more than 20 years ago, and remembering that so many people wanted to harm him... hatred! The endless hatred burned all at once in the depths of his heart...

The body was already trembling violently, and the whole body was already steaming like steam. At this moment, when Li Tian remembered his hatred, he suddenly calmed down.

He bit his teeth and bleeds...The blue veins all over his body swelled up from the excessive pain, as if he was about to burst all the blood vessels.

The mysterious expert behind that has already used seven points of pure Yang Zhenqi at this moment. Seeing Li Tian shivering and his red body, he not only secretly said: This son can really endure this pain. It's not easy.

You know how many people in the world can withstand 50% of the strength based on the pure Yang Zhenqi of the mysterious expert behind that? But I didn't expect Li Tian to endure Qicheng Zhenqi... and he hasn't fallen down yet? How can this not shock the mysterious expert behind!

But to move the weird blood-sucking spar in Li Tian's body, one must use powerful pure Yang Zhenqi... so this mysterious expert has to increase his palm strength.

Isn't this? After making up his mind, the mysterious master's palms immediately used the true pure Yang Zhenqi.

The moment he used it, his palms had turned red, like a raging fire... The extreme heat wave rushed into Li Tian's body again.

Just when the heat wave entered Li Tian's body vigorously, Li Tian originally wanted to endure it... but how could he endure it? His body has indeed reached the limit, the limit that the body can bear... boom!

Li Tian who only felt that all the fire came in his mind, fell all of a sudden!

He really couldn't stand the pure Yang Zhenqi of ten percent, his body fell down in an instant, and he fainted.

At the moment he fell, the hands of the mysterious expert behind still did not leave Li Tian's back, still sending energy in the body that was continuously looking at Li Tian...

Finally, after almost 5 minutes, Li Tian's abdomen suddenly twitched, and at the moment of twitching, the mysterious expert behind suddenly took a long breath, and then the red palm of his hand moved away from Li Tian's back.

Did he succeed?

Yes!

He has indeed succeeded. The sudden violent twitch in Li Tian's abdomen just now was the blood-sucking spar that was forced by Chun Yang Zhenqi.

Unexpectedly, the mysterious expert behind actually succeeded.

After success, the mysterious expert slowly stood up and glanced at Li Tian who fell on the ground.

"I have dredged your whole body muscles and cavities... I also helped you move the position of the blood-sucking spar... It will depend on your good fortune in the future!"

After speaking these words silently, the mysterious expert suddenly raised his head and looked up at the endless sky.

"The heavenly book pill scroll has been left in the world. It is a blessing or a curse. It seems that you have to solve it yourself..."

"I hope you can open your own profound door of life and death, and rebirth with your arms...see the mystery of the heavenly book pill scroll! Because only then can you stop him... stop him..."

The yoyo's words carry an endless vicissitudes of life... as if this mysterious master had some sad past.

When he heard his last words, his people suddenly drifted into the distance like the wind.

People are like ghosts, and the weird and mysterious masters who are like shadows disappear.

It just disappeared into the endless darkness.

But what does he mean by staying?

He hoped that Li Tian could open the profound door of life and death and get a new life with both arms?

And also said to stop him?

Who is he?

Could it be said that there is a more terrifying character in this world?

And why did that mysterious expert say that he can only be defeated after he has broken through the pill scrolls?

What is the reason for all this? Why do you say that?

puzzle! The mystery of the death party may not be known until the end.

Maybe at the end Li Tian knew how many evils are hidden in this unknown world... how many terrifying characters still exist, and all of these have to be solved and completed by him.

He just fainted in the darkness now, the pitch black darkness enveloped him like a demon... But what about Li Tian? But with a serene expression on his face, lying there quietly...not moving.

Chapter 779: Discover Li Tian

I don't know how long this time has passed, the sky finally started to light up slowly.

You can still see the faint mist in the wild wolf valley filling the entire mountain forest.

The brothers are still sleeping soundly. The bonfire in front of them burned all night, and it was almost extinguished at the moment, as for the occasional white smoke coming out of it.

A gentle mountain breeze blew on people, making people feel that the temperature in the Wild Wolf Valley is still quite low.

Situ Ningbing, who was gently blown by the cool breeze, felt a chill at this moment and wanted to move her body, but when her body moved, she suddenly felt something wrong.

Suddenly opened the pair of beautiful eyes, and then saw the jacket on his body.

That coat was the coat that Li Tian put on her yesterday. At this moment, when Situ Ningbing saw it, he was not only taken aback.

Then turned his head to look at Li Tian, but in this misty Wild Wolf Valley early in the morning, where is the shadow of Li Tian?

When Situ Ningbing suddenly realized that Li Tian had disappeared, he was stunned.

"Li Tian?"

"Where is Li Tian?" an exclamation came out of her mouth.

Just as Situ Ningbing exclaimed, the ghost servants and Du Guxie over there also stood up directly from the ground in an instant.

Then came over quickly.

"what happened?"

Situ Ningbing looked around and said in panic, "Li Tian is gone!"

"What? The Young Master is missing?"

The ghost servants and Duguxie rushed to the front, looking for the trace of Li Tian.

The brothers over there also heard the movement, and they all woke up from their sleep, rubbed their eyes and ran over.

"What's wrong? What happened?" Tang Xiaolong and his brothers all ran over there quickly and couldn't help asking.

"Young Master is gone!" Duguxie said in a calm voice, with a large number of eyeballs all around.

Hearing that Li Tian was gone, the brothers were all depressed there.

"Why is the little boss missing? He was obviously with us last night..."

"Yes, we didn't hear anything in the middle of the night."

The brothers were all wondering.

"Oh my God! Could it be that a strong enemy is coming, and we have taken our little boss away?" Tang Xiaolong said awkwardly.

"Fart! Who can take Li Tian away in full view of our eyes?" Chen Qiaozhi cursed at Tang Xiaolong's nonsense.

Tang Xiaolong was dissatisfied and said, "Then why did you say that the little boss suddenly disappeared?"

Chen Qiaozhi didn't bother to pay attention to this stubborn guy. He looked around with his eyes and murmured in his mouth: "I think, maybe something is wrong with him..."

"And I'm sure, he definitely left here on his own initiative."

One of the clever Chen Qiao immediately saw the clue.

If someone really took Li Tian away, it would be unrealistic. With the famous Duguxie and the shadow ghost servant in front of him, how could he not hear the slightest movement? Moreover, it is impossible for Li Tian to resist at all, so this series of things only shows one thing, that is, Li Tian must have gone by himself? As for Li Tian? No one knows this.

"Chen Qiaozhi is right! I think he must have found something and left by himself." Situ Ningbing over there also said suddenly.

"Look, this is the clothes Li Tian wore on me last night... I think this clothes must have been put on me when he left yesterday." Situ Ningbing held Li Tian's coat in his hand. That said.

"Hey, that's weird...Where is the little boss? Why don't you even say hello to the brothers?"

Just as the brothers were wondering where Li Tian was going, the ghost servant's voice suddenly came over there.

"Come here, everyone... I found the footprints."

After hearing the ghost servant say so all of a sudden, the brothers and Duguxie rushed over.

After running over, he saw the ghost servant pointing his finger at the footprints on the ground in front of him, and the traces of the grass on the ground being stepped on and said: "Look here!"

The brothers were all taken aback after blinking their eyes.

"It does have footprints."

"It seems that the little boss should have left for this place," Tang Xiaolong muttered.

"Go, let's follow the footsteps to find Young Master...I believe he will be found soon."

The ghost servant said there.

After finishing speaking, Bento first followed the footsteps in front of him and quickly walked forward, and the brothers behind him followed one by one.

The sky is getting brighter!

Even the sun gradually rises from the ground level... The faint thick fog that was originally shrouded in the dense forest of the Wolf Valley began to slowly disperse...

The ghost servants and the brothers followed the footsteps of the trees and the footprints on the ground, slowly searching for the lost Li Tian.

I don't know how long it has been.

Suddenly, the ghost servant in front saw a figure lying in a relatively wide area in front.

After turning his eyes all of a sudden, he saw clearly that the person lying in front of him in the grass turned out to be Li Tian.

"Young Master!" The ghost servant cried out and hurried over.

When the brothers behind heard the ghost servant's exclamation, they were all completely stunned, and hurried to the front place.

But seeing that Li Tian was indeed lying quietly in the bushes, but his face was peaceful, and he seemed to be asleep.

When the brothers suddenly saw that it was Li Tian, they were all stunned.

"What happened to Little Boss?"

"Yeah, what happened to Li Tian?"

"Young Master... Young Master?"

The ghost servant who was shouting hurriedly reached out to help Li Tian, but when his hands suddenly touched Li Tian's body, his whole body was shocked, and then the two losers to Europe suddenly retracted back like they were shocked. .

"How could this be?" the ghost servant said in surprise.

The Duguxie next to him saw something was wrong, and asked with a calm face, "What's the matter? Ghost servant?"

The brothers around him also looked at the extremely ugly ghost servant with surprised eyes.

But listening to the ghost servant's unbelievable eyes looking at Li Tian who was sleeping there, he said with an ugly expression: "Young Master's body... so hot... so hot!"

"What? Hot? Hot?"

"Isn't it a fever?" said the brothers over there.

"Do not!"

"It's definitely not a fever!"

The ghost servant said decisively.

"What's that?" Duguxie asked in a muffled voice, suddenly opening his eyes.

The ghost servant in front of him squatted down and looked at Li Tian's entire back carefully, then pointed and said, "Second brother, look here..."

Chapter 780: Weird power

Following Duguxie's eyes, he saw that Li Tian's back was clearly printed with two palm prints. The hot palm prints had turned Li Tian's back clothes into yellow as if they were baked...

When Duguxie saw this place, he not only looked shocked,

Then he stretched out a hand and slightly touched Li Tian's body. This touch made his whole body stunned, but his hand did not evacuate Li Tian's body as quickly as a ghost servant, but suddenly frowned. The head murmured in horror, "What a powerful palm, such a powerful pure Yang palm!"

Pure sun palm technique?

Yes, the world is big, but there are only two palms that can make Li Tian's body appear so hot, so hot!

One is the flame palm, and the other is the pure sun palm that has long been lost.

Once these two palms enter the human body, they will be as uncomfortable as burning fire and extremely domineering.

Now when I heard Duguxie's mouth suddenly say this: When the Pure Yang Palm Technique, the brothers were all worried.

Situ Ningbing looked at his lover with concern and said, "Will Li Tian be in danger?"

"Yeah, how is the little boss now?"

Listening to their worrying words, Duguxie quietly observed Li Tian who was in a coma, and then slightly pressed Li Tian's body with his hand, and then moved slowly, as his palm moved, his His complexion also became extremely weird, as if he felt something extremely incredible.

"Weird... really weird!" Du Guxie suddenly muttered.

"Second brother, what's the matter?" The ghost servant looked at Duguxie and asked in surprise. At this moment, the brothers were all looking at that Duguxie's face.

But seeing Duguxie thought for a while, then raised his eyes slightly and said, "I just touched the young master's body with the palm of my hand... I want to see what happened to his body, but I touched it with the palm of my hand. After touching it, I found that Young Master's body seemed to have a weird force floating incessantly... that force was very strange... it seemed to come out of a cocoon."

Energy coming out of the cocoon?

Hearing what Duguxie said, the brothers were slightly puzzled.

"Senior Dugu, do you mean our little boss is okay?" Tang Xiaolong doesn't care about anything else, he only cares about Li Tian's safety, so he couldn't help but ask.

I saw Duguxie nodded slowly.

"Well, according to reason, Young Master should be fine!"

"It's just that I don't understand, who is using this long-lost Pure Yang palm technique to give Young Master weird power!"

Duguxie said as he raised his eyes and looked around in horror.

The brothers were also looking around in surprise at this time. They didn't know what Li Tian experienced last night...not to mention the two scorching palm prints on Li Tianhou's back.

"Forget it, take Young Master back first!" Just listen to the ghost servant saying there.

The brothers nodded there.

Then the brothers in front of him hurriedly lifted the sleepy Li Tian gently, and walked quickly towards the way he came.

After the brothers carried Li Tian to leave, but seeing that Duguxie was still standing here, those sharp eyes stared at the surroundings.

"Second brother, have you noticed it?" The ghost servant suddenly came out from behind and said.

Duguxie groaned for a while, then looked around in front of him, and said slightly, "Yes!"

"There is a lingering breath here...a breath that seems to have been similar." Du Guxie said suddenly.

The ghost servant also observed the surroundings for a while, and said slightly, "Second brother, so it seems that our young master should have met a stranger...but I don't understand what the stranger's intention is. "

"A person who can make use of the long-lost Pure Yang palm technique is definitely an expert in a high school!"

"Then... or the mysterious expert from yesterday?" the ghost servant said in horror.

Duguxie didn't speak any more, because he didn't dare to draw conclusions arbitrarily now.

"After the young master wakes up, let's ask again."

After talking about Duguxie, he turned around and walked towards the way he came. The ghost servant blinked a sharp gaze to look at the jungle behind, and then followed.

The gloomy Wolf Valley was illuminated by the sun, and it appeared to be gradually restored to life.

Under the lush trees, I saw my brothers sitting quietly in one place.

Lying next to him was Li Tian who was in a coma, while Situ Ningbing was holding a white handkerchief that had just been dipped in water and gently wiping Li Tian's face, and at the same time the pair was as beautiful as Qingshui His eyes exuded endless love for Li Tian.

The ghost servant also sat there quietly with Duguxie.

Li Tian is still in a coma now, but the heat in his body is slowly dissipating.

Time passed by every minute, everyone was there waiting for Li Tian to wake up, waiting for him to wake up, tell everyone what happened last night.

Just when Situ Ningbing wiped the Li Tian in front of him with the wet water handkerchief in his hand little by little.

Li Tian suddenly shook his body, and then, in the shock of Situ Ningbing, Li Tian's body that had been lying in a coma suddenly straightened...

"Senior... Senior..."

After Li Tian woke up for an instant, the weird words screamed out of his mouth.

"Li Tian, Li Tian, you woke up, you finally woke up..." Situ Ningbing looked at his lover and sat up from the ground for an instant, and couldn't help but hugged Li Tian with excitement.

The ghost servants and Duguxie who heard Li Tian's voice over there, as well as the brothers rushed over, looking at Li Tian in front of them with excitement on their faces.

"Young Master, you are awake..."

"Little boss, you are finally awake!"

Whether it was the brothers, the Duguxie and the ghost servant, they all looked at Li Tian, who had sat upright, with a slightly confused expression on his face with excitement.

What about Li Tian? When he saw his lover and brothers around him, he was taken aback.

"You... why are you all here?" Li Tian looked at the brothers around him with some doubts.

"Where is Senior? Where did he go?" Li Tian, who was talking weirdly, couldn't help standing up, turning his eyes to look around.

The brothers around him were completely stunned, and no one knew what Li Tian was talking about.

senior?

What senior?

The Duguxie and the ghost servants over there took a relative glance, and couldn't help thinking in secret: It seems that Li Tian met an expert last night...
