

A Killer 801

Chapter 801: Find his father

Now the brothers are all outside waiting for Li Tian to wake up.

Finally, time did not know how long it had passed, but seeing that the white vapor on Li Tian in the room gradually began to disappear, his red face began to gradually fade.

Then he let out a whiff of white air, and then his eyes opened.

The moment he opened his eyes, he could see his eyes flashing like a light gap, but it was really fleeting!

Li Tian stretched his waist, feeling his body more comfortable and smooth than ever before, and he felt more energetic.

After getting off the bed, he first looked at Tang Xiaolong's and Aqiu's sleeping berths. Hey, did they both get up early?

With that in mind, Li Tian walked towards the door.

When he reached the door, he opened the door gently. After opening the door, Li Tian was shocked.

Unexpectedly, the brothers and Situ Ningbing were all standing at the door.

And after Li Tian opened the door, the brothers and Du Guxie also saw Li Tian waking up.

"Little boss...you finally woke up?"

"Young Master, are you awake?"

"Li Tian, are you okay?"

...

Whether it was the brothers, Duguxie and the ghost servant, they were asking Li Tian worriedly.

Faced with so many people's startling questions, Li Tian felt a little weird. Why, they all looked at him with such weird eyes, and they still asked.

"I woke up!"

"What's the matter... why are you all here? Are you all waiting for me?" Li Tian frowned and asked, of course he didn't know what happened.

The brothers finally let go of their hearts when they heard Li Tian say that he was okay.

"Yes, little boss!" Tang Xiaolong said quickly.

"What kind of martial arts were you practicing just now? It felt strange?" Tang Xiaolong was surprised when he thought of Li Tian's white steam.

At this moment, the other brothers also blinked at Li Tian.

Li Tian thought to himself, it turned out that they were all worried about their own mental method mantras last night. At this moment, he smiled lightly and said: "Nothing! It's just some mental mantras I practiced before!"

"Oh! That's how it is... scared us!" The brothers said there.

"Don't worry, I'll be fine!" Li Tian also said there, and then smiled slightly.

The Duguxie and the ghost servants over there suddenly took a step forward, looking at Li Tiandao and saying, "Young Master, we want to talk to you alone about some things!"

After listening, Li Tian looked at the serious faces of Duguxie and the ghost servant in front of him, then smiled and nodded.

"Ok!"

"Then let's go in and say!"

Li Tian who was talking followed Duguxie and the ghost servant into the room, and the brothers returned to their respective rooms.

After Li Tian, Duguxie and the ghost servant arrived in the room, Li Tian couldn't help but look at them with curiosity and said, "What's the matter?"

The Duguxie and the ghost servant looked at each other, then looked at Li Tiandao with a pair of sharp eyes and said, "Young Master, what are you going to do next?"

What's next?

After hearing this question suddenly, Li Tian only felt stunned.

Yes, the trip to the Wild Wolf Valley is over! At present, the Sanshengmen Poison in my body has begun to dissipate slowly because I got the antidote. What should I do next?

"Vengeance! I want to avenge the blood sea!" Li Tian said suddenly with blood red in his eyes.

The cold breath of revenge filled him all at once.

Both Duguxie and the ghost servant felt the flame of revenge burning in Li Tian's entire body.

Yes, Li Tian has been thinking about revenge, the **** hatred that night twenty years ago.

However, the two of them looked at Li Tian slightly cautiously: "Young Master... there are a few words that I don't know should be said improperly." Duguxie said suddenly and calmly.

"Let's talk!" Li Tian said with blood red eyes.

Duguxie thought for a while, and then slowly said, "Young Master, you must have seen the current situation in the world. The Gate of Hell has now reappeared... and if I guess it's right, your Young Master's identity, They must already know!"

"To be honest, with our current strength... and human strength, it is simply not enough to contend the gate of hell." Duguxie said slowly.

Although the words are ugly, they are telling the truth in the truth.

The Gate of Hell has already gathered masters from all over the world more than 20 years ago! How many monsters are there in the gates of hell? No one is very clear, but the three masters in the gate of **** that emerged this time have already caused Li Tian and the brothers a headache!

Ouyang Longyan, the drunkard, and another terrifying man wearing a mask and martial arts.

If it were not for the mysterious experts who rescued the brothers in the Wild Wolf Valley, it is estimated that the brothers and Li Tian's beloved would all die in the Wild Wolf Valley that night.

Although Li Tian has the protection of the evil sword Duguxie and the shadow ghost servant... After all, once the two meet a real expert, they will definitely fight. Who will have the energy to protect Li Tian? Protect his brothers?

So this is also the most worrying issue for Duguxie, worrying about Li Tian's safety.

After Duguxie told the truth, a grief suddenly appeared on Li Tian's face.

He clenched his fists tightly all at once, his eyes filled with endless hatred...

"Blame me... Blame me for being a useless person..." The fierce words came out word by word from his mouth, and his clenched fists were trembling with excessive force!

The Duguxie in front of him quickly stretched out a broad palm and gently pressed it on Li Tian's shoulder, comforting him, and said with concern: "Young Master, don't blame yourself!"

"I believe your hands will definitely get better!"

"Yes, young master!" The ghost servant over there also looked at Li Tian with full attention.

Li Tian listened to the words of concern from the two, and then slowly sent his clenched fists away.

"Young Master, my ghost servant and I have already decided!" I just listened to Duguxie's sudden words.

Li Tian raised his head slightly, looked at Duguxie and the ghost servant, and asked, "What has been decided?"

"We plan to find your father first, our big brother!" A word suddenly came out of Du Guxie's mouth.

After he said it all at once, Li Tian was stunned.

"Look for... my father?"

"Ok!"

"Although the eldest brother has disappeared for twenty years, our brother will never believe that the eldest brother will die... he will not die either!"

Chapter 802: Go to Liaocheng

"And we believe that the only person in this world who can protect your safety and defeat that mysterious **** gate organization is your father, Cthulhu!" Duguxie said slowly.

Listening to Duguxie's words, Li Tian suddenly fell into deep thought.

Is his father really alive?

He who has disappeared for twenty years? Does it really exist?

How many times has Li Tian fantasized about seeing his father... and want to experience the feeling of father's love... Now he suddenly wants to find a father he has never seen before... A feeling of blood that has never been seen before suddenly surges over. Heart.

"But... but my father has disappeared for so many years... If we want to find him now, where should we find him?" Li Tian couldn't help asking.

He knew in his heart that the Duguxie and the ghost servant had never given up looking for their father in the past twenty years, and they have been searching for it, but they have not found it for twenty years My father, now suddenly wants to look for it again? Where can I find it?

After hearing Li Tian say this, the ghost servant smiled slightly.

"Young Master, let's not lie to you. Before we saw you, my second brother and I were indeed looking aimlessly...and we have been looking for more than 20 years...but now we have found you, we I finally know how to find Big Brother!" Gui Pu said.

Listening to the ghost servant's words, Li Tian didn't understand the meaning of it. He frowned and asked, "What do you mean?"

"Young Master, think about it, when my eldest brother was besieged by that **** gate master more than 20 years ago, he was still holding you in his arms... If the eldest brother was really murdered at the time, then you must have been young Killed...but now you are fine, and you are still growing up in a small remote county...so we think...

Before the ghost servant had finished speaking, Li Tian understood it all at once.

He felt a little in his heart, and said excitedly: "You mean it's probably because my father sent me that far away in order to protect me?"

"Well, that's the case!" Du Guxie and the ghost servants said together.

Listening to the words of the two people, Li Tian was deeply plunged into endless imagination, and a tall and burly man suddenly appeared in his mind, covered in blood, holding a sword in one hand and a child in the other. The heroic figure running fast in the wild...

"So Young Master, the two of us feel that everything has changed back to the place where we started... Maybe when we go back to the place where we started, we will be able to find the traces of our eldest brother! We can also know who put you in the distant Liao back then. City!" Just listen to the lonely evil doctrine in front of you.

After thinking about it, Li Tian nodded silently.

"You are right!"

"Young Master, do you remember the orphanage you lived in when you were young?" The ghost servant suddenly blinked sharp eyes and looked at the case.

Li Tian said directly without thinking: "Of course I remember!"

"It is the oldest orphanage in Liaocheng...and also the most desolate orphanage!" Li Tian said before thinking about it.

Duguxie and the ghost servant heard Li Tian say this, and then continued to ask: "Young Master, do you know who picked you up back then? Who sent you to the orphanage? What does he look like? ? What is your name?"

Suddenly hearing the ghost servant ask this, Li Tian hesitated.

Then slowly said: "Actually I don't know!"

"When I was very young, I tried to ask some people... I want to ask who left me in the orphanage... But they all shook their heads and said they didn't know!"

"But I know there is someone who knows everything about me...because she seemed to have picked me up back then! She also sent me to the orphanage."

"Who?" Ghost servant and Duguxie said with excitement.

Because if someone really picked up Li Tian, he should know who abandoned Li Tian at the door of the orphanage more than 20 years ago.

"It's an old woman sweeping the floor in our orphanage... She is very old and very old..."

"Hey, I don't know how she is now?" Li Tian said sadly.

I remember that when he was in that poor orphanage, Li Tian, because he was younger than the children of the same age, always couldn't get food when eating. Sometimes he was beaten up by a child older than him for a steamed bun... ..At that time, the only thing that was good to Li Tian was the old woman who was sweeping the floor in the orphanage...

Since Li Tian left the orphanage at the age of 13, he has to visit the old lady who sweeps the floor every year during the holidays, but since Li Tian left Liaocheng, he no longer knows the situation of the old lady.

"Then which old woman is still alive now?" Gui servant continued to ask.

Li Tian thought for a while and said, "Should be alive!"

"That's good!" Ghost servant said suddenly excited.

"Second brother, if we go back to Liaocheng with the young master now and find the old woman, we should be able to ask for clues! And we can also know who left the young master there." The ghost servant in front of him was excited. Said.

Yes, if it was the old woman who picked up the young Li Tian, she should be able to ask if she could be found.

Will the Cthulhu be dead or alive then? Who was Li Tian abandoned in Liaocheng? All of this should be known.

Duguxie also nodded on the side, then slowly turned his eyes around, looking at Li Tian at the moment.

"Young Master, what do you think?"

Since he was a child, Li Tian wanted to know who abandoned himself in the orphanage. Now that he can find clues, he is of course very happy, and he can also know whether his father is alive or dead. Of course he is also excited.

So he said, "Okay!"

"It's so decided!"

"Hey, to be honest, I haven't seen that old woman for a long time...I really want to go back to Liaocheng!"

"Then since everyone said so, let's decide to go back to the place where you started, Liao Cheng... to find the trace of the evil god."

The brothers finally made the next decision! That is to return to the place where Li Tian started to find Li Tian's life experience and the mystery of abandonment.

Within this day's time, Li Tian told his brothers all of his and Duguxie's decisions.

Although the brothers were shocked, they didn't have too many questions!

They had already regarded Li Tian as a big brother.

So as long as it is Li Tian's decision, it is their decision.

So after the brothers agreed, they chose to leave the day after tomorrow and take the train to Liaocheng.

Chapter 804: Depart by train

Two days passed quickly.

When the day finally came, the brothers had already properly prepared everything that should be prepared.

Next, they will go to the small county where Li Tian once lived to find the unknown truth.

Originally, Li Tian planned to talk to the Ouyang family in Jinghai City, but after thinking about it, he did not say it, because he felt that finding his "father" was his own business, and there was no need to tell the Ouyang family!

Although in his heart he wanted to meet Ouyang Shiqing... but he finally gave up the matter of children's love first.

In this way, I took my brothers all the way to the train station.

It would be impossible for a group of people like them to not attract attention.

First of all, in Li Tian's team, there are not only two beautiful women with national colors, but also the ghost servant wearing a grimace mask...

Isn't this? As soon as I arrived at the train station, many people's eyes were surprised.

Some good people even couldn't help but talk to Li Tian and the others in their mouths and said: "I wiped it, what do you think that guy does? With such a ghost on his face, is it sick?"

The people around you couldn't help but spit out, "I am really sick, and it seems to be very sick!"

...

Fortunately, the train station was very noisy and people came and went. Fortunately, their voices were not heard by the fierce ghost servant. If they were really heard by the ghost servant, it is estimated that the ghost servant would slap them to death.

However, after the brothers arrived at the crowded train station, Li Tian ordered Tang Xiaolong and Chen Qiaozhi in front of him to go there to buy tickets.

Buy a ticket directly to Liaocheng.

Although Liaocheng is very small, but fortunately there is a small railway station. If there is no mistake and the train is not late, it will take 2 days and 2 nights from Jinghai City to Liaocheng.

Duanmuying, who had just heard Li Tian say that it would take two days and two nights to reach Liaocheng from here, suddenly wrinkled her pretty faces.

"Huh? Two days and two nights on this broken train?" Duanmuying said suddenly unbearable.

I have lived in the Duanmu family since I was a child, and I have no worries about food and clothing. How can the young lady's Duanmu Ying endure the torment of two days and two nights by train?

"Why not take a plane? You want to take this **** train?"

"This broken train is not only dirty, but also messy... The most important thing is that it's tough... I can't stand it... I don't want to sit on this broken thing!" Duanmu Ying said suddenly.

When Duanmuying said so suddenly, the surrounding brothers were slightly depressed, looking at Li Tian.

Li Tian thought about it for a while and smiled awkwardly: "Actually, I also want to take a plane... It's a pity that the place I'm going is really a humble county... There is no airport there... So I can only take a train!"

After Li Tian said this, Duanmuying was suddenly depressed!

Gosh! Two days and two nights are about to be spent on this broken train... It is more uncomfortable than killing Duanmu Ying!

"Ah...how could this happen? To death!" Duanmuying pouted and stamped her feet with hatred.

The little **** one side blinked her round eyes and said to the lady next to her: "Miss... Actually, it's pretty good to take a train. You can also see the scenery along the way..."

"Not bad..." Duanmuying burst into foul language!

Suddenly found that he had said swearing in front of Li Tian, and quickly became a little embarrassed, and his pretty face turned red in an instant.

Although she really didn't want to take this broken train, it seemed that she really had no choice but to take the train!

Then Tang Xiaolong and Chen Qiaozhi were squeezing to buy tickets at the ticket office.

After the two of them "fought" for more than half an hour, they finally bought train tickets.

"Little boss, **** it!" Tang Xiaolong, who was holding the ticket in his hand, said with a gloomy expression.

When Li Tian heard the other brothers, he was slightly taken aback, and looked at Tang Xiaolong there and asked, "What's wrong?"

"Grandma's Bear... Just now I went to buy a ticket with the sick ghost, and the conductor said that the platform of Liaocheng Railway Station was out of service! Now there is no train..."

what?

After Tang Xiaolong said this, the brothers were suddenly depressed.

As for Li Tian, it hurts.

He knew in his heart that remote Liaocheng was an extremely poor small county town, and occasionally it was easy to get trains...but he didn't expect that he would catch up with him this time, and he was really depressed.

"No train? What should I do?" Old Monster Ge on one side frowned slightly.

"I bought a train ticket with Tang Xiaolong for a nearby city... the name is Beitang City. The conductor told us that it takes only a few hours to reach Liao City from Beitang City!" Chen Qiaozhi on the side was suddenly there. Tao said.

Listening to what Chen Qiaozhi said, Li Tian suddenly laughed.

"Yes! If we take a car to Beitang City, we are indeed very close to Liaocheng!"

He knew Beitang when he was in Liaocheng... Beitang was a relatively good city in the north. When in Liaocheng, as far as Li Tian knew, there were supermarkets and places to buy clothes. Basically, they were purchased in Beitang City.

So as long as they arrived in Beitang City by train, they were almost close to the city of Liao.

"Then it's so decided. Let's take the train to Beitang City, and then transfer to Liaocheng." Li Tian said at last.

So the brothers took their train tickets and waited there for the train to Beitang City.

Originally, Duan Muying had just heard Tang Xiaolong say that there was no train ticket to that Liaocheng, and she felt excited for a while... But she didn't expect that the two of them still bought train tickets, and her pretty face hesitated again... Has been complaining in a low voice.

The departure time of the train to Beitang City is just over an hour!

The brothers followed the crowd into the waiting room, and then all were there waiting for the train to arrive.

After more than an hour, there was a crisp train sound in the waiting hall... So Li Tian and his brothers passed the security gate one by one, and then they all got on the train.

It takes at least two days and one night to get from Jinghai City to Beitang City, and Li Tian is afraid that Duanmu Ying, Situ Ningbing, and the girl Xiaohuan are affected... so they bought them all. It is a sleeper ticket.

After getting on the bus, one by one looked for their sleeper ticket position.

Na Situ Ningbing, Duanmuying and Xiaohuan and the three girls happened to live in the same room, while Li Tian was assigned to one room with Ghost servant and Aqiu, and the other brothers were also assigned to the other two rooms. In the room...

In this way, although it was a bit rugged, they ended up sitting on the train.

Chapter 805: Practice

Wailing

With the sound of the sound, the train started to move.

Patter, the sound of patter began to echo in the ears of the brothers.

To be honest, it is a tedious thing to take a train. Apart from facing the surrounding iron walls, all that is left is the glorious scenery along the way. No wonder that Miss Duanmu Ying hates taking trains, isn't it? As soon as she got on the train, she was sitting on the bed unhappy with her **** red lips.

The girl next to Xiaohuan looked very excited, as if it was the first time she took a train, a pair of round eyes looked over and looked over.

On the other side, Situ Ningbing looked extremely quiet, as if it was difficult to move her from outside.

Originally, the girl Xiaohuan wanted to chat with Situ Ningbing for a while and talk, but when she saw Situ Ningbing's glamorous face, she held it back, she didn't dare to say, she could only sit quietly with her own lady Around.

This side of Mu Ying seems to be separated from Situ Ningbing. You don't speak or I don't speak between the two women on the way, just like this, they are deadlocked.

The three women here are silent, but the brothers do look different.

In the sleeping carriages of Tang Xiaolong and Chen Qiaozhi, Tang Xiaolong was talking haha with a cigarette in his mouth.

The conductor had come to tell Tang Xiaolong several times, saying: Smoking is not allowed in the carriage, but this guy agreed. When the conductor turned around, he would continue to take out the cigarette and continue smoking.

In the other carriage, Li Tian also had ghost servants, and Du Guxie sat there quietly.

Duguxie seldom speaks. At this moment, he is sitting cross-legged quietly on his small iron bed, his eyes closed.

The ghost servant didn't seem to have too much words, and at this moment, he also quietly leaned aside.

Li Tian felt a little boring... Besides, there were still a few hours before dark, and he couldn't sleep, so he slowly took out an ancient book from his personal luggage!

Heavenly Book Pill Volume!

Li Tian now knows that this book, which he has always regarded as a "broken book", is actually one of the most precious of the three ancient relics uploaded!

To be honest, I think that when the old Feng told him, he couldn't believe it was true.

I didn't expect that Feng Lao left to him back then is such a precious thing.

Isn't this? Now, when he gently took out the yellowing Heavenly Book Pill Scroll, he looked more cautious than ever, and his face was serious.

At the same time, I couldn't help but wondered in my heart: This is the heavenly book pill scroll that the world hopes to get, this is the treasure of the three ancient relics!

Good deed, who would believe that such a treasure is actually in the hands of Li Tian at the moment? And always there?

He was inexplicably excited when he thought of this, as if the blood all over his body started to boil.

Since Li Tian's hands were abolished, he seldom read this strange book...because he felt that even if he read this book of heaven, it would be useless!

After all, his hands have already been used up, and he doesn't need a little effort at this moment... Now he is really idle and bored on the train, so that's why he took out the Heavenly Book Pill.

Isn't this? After Li Tian took out the heavenly book pill scroll, he slowly opened the heavenly book pill scroll!

As mentioned earlier, the Tianshu Danju is divided into three volumes.

The first book is all tadpoles...

The second book is an illustration!

The third volume is a blank paper.

No one knows why this heavenly book pill scroll is so weird, even Kunlun Fengqingzi, who once got the heavenly book pill scroll, may not know the mystery. Of course Li Tian didn't even know.

But now, after Li Tian slowly opened the celestial scroll, when his eyes were once again on the tadpoles on the first book, something strange suddenly happened.

In the past, as long as Li Tian put a pair of eyes on the tadpole characters, those tadpole characters would suddenly form in his mind one by one, and they would walk around in his body as if they were alive...but now Li Tian didn't know why, when he saw those tadpoles, the tadpoles didn't move! And there are no tadpoles swimming in their bodies anymore...

Suddenly discovering this weird situation, Li Tian was stunned for an instant.

Huh, why? Why is this happening?

Why are those tadpoles not moving?

Li Tian knew that his current body had been completely changed... and he didn't know that the first layer of tadpoles in the Heavenly Book Pill scroll had been completely absorbed by him!

To put it bluntly, Li Tian has now absorbed all the Tadpoles from the first layer of the Heavenly Book Pill Roll!

It's just that Li Tian still can't notice it...that's because he hasn't used his kung fu for a long time... To be honest, even he himself doesn't know how powerful his strength is now.

The only thing he can feel is that the blood in his body sometimes boils inexplicably!

And he found that his observation ability and memory ability have become better than before...As long as he has carefully watched other people's moves, he can quickly retain it in his mind...

If the current Li Tian's hands can recover, I believe he will definitely do many miraculous things.

Having said that, after Li Tian felt that the tadpoles in the first volume of the book pill scroll did not swim in his body that day, he was just depressed, but he didn't think too much about it, and then gave the book pill scroll to Gradually turned to the second volume.

As he turned to the second book of illustrations, he suddenly became excited after seeing the gesture of the villain painted on it.

At the same time, the figure of the little man dancing gradually began to form in his mind...one by one, very slow and slow...

In the past, Li Tian would watch the villain make the same posture, and then slowly realize it, but now it's different! As long as he put his eyes on the villain, he felt that the villain on the painting would move for no reason... and would pose one by one in weird poses like martial arts.

In this way, Li Tian began to repeat those movements in his mind...At the same time, his hands also slowly gestured...

With every move, Li Tian felt that the vitality in his body would surge with the tricks he had attacked... That powerful feeling made Li Tian feel more comfortable and unobstructed than ever.

Chapter 806: Ancient Unique Learning: Xuantian Finger

In this way, Li Tian sat there again and began to continuously absorb the martial arts on the heavenly book pill scroll!

If Li Tian could discover these martial arts, he would definitely know that these were ancient martial arts that were lost.

Moreover, the changes in the tricks accumulated in every move and style were unprecedentedly discovered by Li Tian, and he was deeply shocked by it.

The first three moves are palm, punch and step!

These three kinds of kung fu are the eight-eight sixty-four yin and yang five elements that Li Tian learned: gossip! Tricks.

This ancient martial arts gossip technique, Li Tian has already been fully used in the original practice. Although he only used the ancient martial arts technique of the introduction in the second volume of the Tianshu Danjuan, this is for Li Tianlai to recognize the Tianshu Dan. The strength of the volume can be regarded as a considerable breakthrough!

Li Tian is now practicing the second ancient martial arts technique.

There are a few huge seal characters engraved on it, dragons and phoenixes: Xuan Yan!

If Li Tian knew the meaning of this seal character, he would definitely know what kind of skill Xuan Yuxuan was!

According to legend, in the early days of ancient times, there was an ancient expert from outside the world, Xuan Yu who lived in the outside world. Later generations will respectfully call him: Old Man Xuan Yu.

Legend has it that the land outside Tian Xuan Yu has the unique kung fu left by the old man Xuan Yu... the name is: Xuan Yu!

Chinese word interpretation: Xuantian means!

And now Li Tian is practicing this vast ancient martial arts: Xuantian Zhi!

Having said that, let's just say that Li Tian looked at the strange posture of the villain on the book pill scroll that day. His two middle fingers were aligned with the index finger, and his left hand was in the same posture, converging on his chest, and the villain was painted with a bizarre meridian diagram. .

Li Tian frowned and looked at it, but saw that the meridian diagram sketched the tendons and qi acupuncture points in each body... and then gathered energy and fingers, sending out huge attack power from both fingers.

After Li Tian looked at it, his heart shook. It turned out to be such a meeting.

So he hurriedly posed the same weird pose as the villain in the posture of the villain on the book that day.

He also stretched out his **** and index finger, then sat quietly, and began to slowly accumulate the energy of the body from the dantian, then slowly accumulate at the Jianjing point, and then to the Fuquan point...

But when Li Tian slowly gathered these energies, he found that it was not a simple thing... because those energies were difficult to concentrate, once Li Tian began to want to put all his energies in his fingers At that time, those energies couldn't keep up as if they were unable to keep up...

This situation made Li Tian a little depressed. He doubted whether he had practiced wrong, but after looking at the pose of the villain on the pattern, he found that he had not practiced wrong!

Maybe it's because I just started practicing! Li Tian comforted himself like this, so he began to accumulate energy again...

On the other side, Duguxie had already opened his sharp, knife-like eyes, staring at Li Tian in front of him unblinkingly.

The ghost servant had already stared at Li Tian intently, with a surprised look in his eyes.

Obviously, both of them saw the weird posture that Li Tian made, and they could also vaguely see that once Li Tian accumulated energy, his whole body was braving slightly white energy... so powerful. gas.

When the two of them saw the heavenly book pill scroll in front of Li Tian, Duguxie's eyes emitted a dazzling light for an instant.

The ghost servant opened his mouth, as if he wanted to say something, but was suddenly stopped by Duguxie in front of him.

Then Duguxie pointed his finger outside.

The ghost servant nodded suggestively, then gently walked off the bed and walked out, and soon the Duguxie quickly walked out from the outside.

"Second brother, did you see? Our young master was practicing the book pill scroll again on the day of cultivation?" The excited words came out from the ghost servant's mouth in shock.

Duguxie also showed an extremely relieved expression on his face, and slowly nodded.

"Yes, I can see it!"

"Second brother, eldest brother always said that no one in the world can understand the Heavenly Book Pill Scroll... I didn't expect our young master to understand... It's incredible! It's shocking!" The ghost servant said excitedly.

My God, it turns out that even the Cthulhu back then said: Few people in the world can understand the Heavenly Book Pill Scroll.

"Well! Maybe this is the will of God in the dark!"

Duguxie said suddenly in thought.

"Second brother, what kind of martial arts do you think the young master is practicing? How strange? Why have I never seen it before?" The ghost servant recalled the weird posture of Li Tian's hands just now in his mind, and couldn't help asking in surprise.

Duguxie also frowned slightly.

"It seems to be fingering!"

"But it doesn't seem to be..." Duguxie said in a deep voice.

Normally, the **** method is to practice external power first, and then internal power, but how does Li Tian's **** work from the inside out? If Duguxie is right, he can see that Li Tian is transformed into strength through Qi, and then changes To become the supreme fingering!

So Duguxie has some doubts!

But they didn't know that Li Tian was practicing ancient martial arts... and it was Xuan Yu, which was handed down from ancient times, and the natural cultivation process was very different from the past.

But no matter what, Duguxie and Ghost Servant can see that Li Tian is indeed changing now!

And they became stronger and stronger. Sometimes they looked at the terrifying vigor emanating from Li Tian's whole body, and even they themselves doubted...How did the young master's strength increase so much invisibly?

If his hands can be restored, once the moment he shot it, he would definitely make the ghost servant and Duguxie deeply shocked.

"As long as the young master can maintain this situation...I believe that the restoration of his hands is just around the corner!" said Duguxie.

"Yes! I also think there is a weird power in Young Master!"

"No matter what, let's not disturb the young master's cultivation now!" the two said outside.

So Duguxie and the ghost servants just stood on the aisle like this... The two did not go in and disturb Li Tian who was cultivating Xuan Yu.

And Li Tian was also exhausting all his energy to gather in his fingers.

At first, a little bit of energy was injected into his fingers. After a lot of effort, Li Tian was able to accumulate a little energy into his fingers, and once it accumulated, he could feel it. , His entire arm seemed to be filled with powerful force...not to mention two fingers.

Now his **** are like iron bars, full of hard and powerful force.

Chapter 807: I want revenge

Outside the carriage, Duguxie and ghost servants were waiting there.

And Li Tian inside was practicing crazy...When he was able to fully accumulate the energy of his body into his fingers, he could feel that the energy in his fingers began to fill up gradually.

If a finger that accumulates all energy in this way, if it is really applied to a person, what terrible consequences will it have? Now even Li Tian dare not imagine.

He just felt that the **** was extremely weird, and gradually formed a variety of **** moves in his mind.

The first trick: One finger to break the sky.

There are nine incredible **** moves in this Po Tian's finger alone. After Li Tian suddenly appeared these weird moves in his mind, he began to practice crazy, his eyes closed slightly, using his own Thought repeats the moves in the mind over and over again.

...

In this way, I don't know how long time has passed. When Li Tian finally thought of Xuan Yu's first move: Po Tian Yi pointed out to the cultivation, he slowly exhaled a white gas from his mouth... .. Now he discovered the incredible thing about Xuan Yu, the tricks turned out to be so weird! If this were to fight against the enemy in the future, how much horror would it be?

He couldn't imagine it.

He said that Li Tian was slowly opening his eyes, and at the moment he opened his eyes, he found that the sky was already dark.

Unexpectedly, he had practiced for a while, and he had practiced for such a long time, Li Tian said with emotion there.

At the same time, he looked at the endless darkness outside the train, took a look, and then slowly got up from the bed.

He glanced at the bed of Duguxie and the ghost servant, hey, why are they two? Where did they go?

So Li Tian hurriedly got out of the bed, and when he opened the door of the carriage, he noticed that Duguxie and the ghost servant were standing there like a guard.

Li Tianyi was taken aback: "Why do you stand here? Why don't you go to rest inside?"

Duguxie and the ghost servant also saw Li Tian at this moment, and smiled slightly: "The young master was practicing martial arts just now...We are afraid to disturb you, so we are outside."

After Li Tian listened, he was not only moved in his heart.

He knew that his cultivation time was at least three or four hours, but he didn't expect these two famous seniors to stand outside and wait for three or four hours.

"Hey! It's me who made you tired!" Li Tian said in reproach.

The Duguxie and the ghost servant shook their heads quickly.

"The words of the young master made us flattered! Our brothers can give their lives to the young master in this life, and our elder brother...not to mention the suffering!"

Listening to their words, Li Tian was deeply moved there!

If there are such affectionate brothers for a lifetime, even death is worth it!

After Li Tian practiced for three or four hours, he didn't know why, his appetite suddenly became hungry.

So I took my brothers and ate something in the canteen on the train.

Then he returned to his car again. He wanted to see the three girls in the car of Situ Ningbing and Duanmuying, but after thinking about it, he stopped again.

When he returned to his bed seat after eating and drinking enough, Li Tian felt a little embarrassed, so he gently closed his eyes and started to rest slowly.

Duguxie and the ghost servant on one side also lay quietly on the bed to rest.

The train was still rattling, rattling.

The stations passing by in the middle stopped along the way, people got off and got on...then they drove again.

The night has finally come slowly!

Unconsciously, Li Tian and Duguxie also gradually fell asleep...

Looking at the dark night outside through the thick window glass of the train, people feel an endless sense of sadness.

Li Tian in front of him was asleep quietly, his face calm.

The Duguxie and the ghost servants over there seemed to be sleepy, and fell asleep gently there.

Time just passed by minute by minute... lived...

Just when Li Tian was sleeping quietly, his face suddenly became tense... and his mouth was trying to open, as if he wanted to scream... At the same time, both hands were suddenly clenched tightly...

What's up with him?

He looked like... as if he had had a terrible nightmare?

In fact, it is not bad, Li Tian did have that terrible dream again in his mind!

In his dream, he saw the raging fire again... saw the majestic figure covered in blood in the raging fire, with a sword in one hand... saw the posture of his king over the world.

The man turned his back to him, and the flames gradually engulfed his whole body... Li Tian wanted to scream, wanted to go up and help... It's a pity that he couldn't scream, and he couldn't even move the bullet...

Suddenly the gentle voice rang in Li Tian's ear again.

"God... take good care of yourself!"

"God... remember to take revenge later..."

"Have you seen... Have you seen the touch of these people... Remember, remember their faces... They, they are our enemies... the **** enemies..."

That gentle and beautiful voice whispered bit by bit in Li Tian's ear.

Li Tian didn't know why. After hearing this voice, tears were suddenly left in his eyes... He followed the beautiful voice and saw everyone wearing black suits and masks on their faces. Those people... They are holding all kinds of weird weapons, fighting there.

they? They are enemies!

Is my enemy!

"The enemy...I want revenge...I want revenge..."

The horrible words suddenly screamed from his mouth.

"Little Lord....."

"Young Master...you wake up...what's wrong with you?"

Suddenly when Li Tianzheng was having a nightmare, the voices of Duguxie and ghost servants came from his ears.

With a loud cry, Li Tian suddenly sat up on the bed!

He seemed to be very tired, panting there, holding his hands tightly...cold sweat...even on his forehead!

And when it was more important, his eyes turned **** red...as if he wanted to kill.

"Young Master, are you having a nightmare?" The Duguxie in front of him couldn't help but ask with his worried forehead when he saw Li Tian's cold sweat and his nervous look.

Only then did Li Tian realize that it was the dream again!

It's another weird dream I've had since childhood!

why? Why do I often have this nightmare now? And it's more clear every time?

Chapter 808: The truth about dreams

After Li Tian sat quietly for a while, it was only then that he slowly eased his mind.

His whole body was wet with cold sweat, and his fists were clenched tightly, looking scary, and the fierce gaze in his eyes gave people an extremely cold feeling.

Duguxie and the ghost servant on one side were looking at Li Tian worriedly. They didn't know what terrible dream Li Tian had in the end? Why are you so scared?

"Young Master, how is it? Are you okay? Are you having nightmares again?"

Hearing the worried question from the ghost servant in his ear, Li Tian finally slowly woke up from his nightmare.

He stretched out his fists slowly, and found that his palms were already covered with cold sweat.

"I... it's okay!" Li Tian said slowly there, as if tired.

Looking at Li Tian's appearance, of course Duguxie and the ghost servant were extremely worried.

"Hey! I didn't expect that I had more and more nightmares in recent days... and they were all the previous dreams!" Li Tian suddenly said, looking at the dark place outside the heavy train glass window.

"Dream? The previous dream?"

Hearing Li Tian's words, the Duguxie and the ghost servants in front of them were all startled.

"Young Master, can you tell me what terrible dream you have?" The ghost servant blinked his eyes and looked at Li Tian and asked, and Du Guxie on one side was also looking at Li Tian at this moment.

The two of them really couldn't understand what dream made their young master so scared? And it feels a little weird for the young master to change.

Li Tian thought for a while and said, "Actually I don't even know what dream it is!"

"I only know that I have been doing that dream since I was very young!" Li Tian said suddenly.

When the Duguxie and the ghost servants in front of them suddenly heard that such a weird thing had happened to Li Tian, they both were slightly startled.

"What dream is it? Being able to grow up since childhood? It's incredible!" The ghost servant beside him couldn't help but question.

Li Tian said, "I don't know... Ever since I was young, I would dream of a man standing in the middle of a fire... His back is facing me, and he is holding a sword in one hand... facing the fire. Hai... and I can hear the sound of fighting... I can see a lot of people want to kill him!"

what?

After Li Tian said so, the Duguxie and the ghost servants were stunned.

The two of them looked at each other with weird eyes, and then only listened to Duguxie hurriedly asking: "Did the young master see the man's face clearly in his dream? The outline? And the sword in his hand?" After speaking, they cared. Looking at Li Tian.

I saw Li Tian shook his head in confusion.

"I can't see clearly...I can only see his back clearly..."

"I can see him standing with a sword... kill those who rushed to him... I can see his blood... but he didn't fall down!"

When Li Tian said these words slightly, the expressions of Duguxie and the ghost servant did not know why they became so weird.

There seems to be something between the two of them.

"Young Master, what else did you dream of?"

Li Tian went on to say: "Then I can hear a nice voice that I have never heard before... That voice is like my relatives... Calling me over and over again: God... and telling I, let me take revenge... let me take revenge on the blood sea!"

Suddenly, Li Tian said in the eyes of the fiery light of killing.

"Oh my God! I know!" The ghost servant in front of me suddenly said there.

Du Guxie was also completely shocked when he heard Li Tian say this.

Both of them seemed to have discovered something at this moment... said.

Li Tian was taken aback for a moment, and raised his eyes to look at Duguxie and the ghost servant:
"What do you know?"

"We know why you had that dream! And we also know who the man in your dream is, and who that nice woman's voice is!"

Just when the ghost servant was about to blurt out, Li Tian took the lead to say...

"Could it be...could it be that they are really my father? Is there a mother?"

In fact, Li Tian could have guessed that the two people in the dream are probably his relatives... but he has not dared to admit it! He was afraid... he was afraid that the dream was real! If it is true, it means that his parents are suffering now... and life and death are still unknown.

After Li Tian said those words all at once, the Duguxie and the ghost servant in front of them nodded solemnly.

"Young Master, I didn't expect you to dream of our elder brother and sister-in-law?"

"Young Master, do you know? When you were just born, your eldest brother and sister-in-law always called you Tianer..." The ghost servant suddenly said in a sad voice.

After Li Tian heard the truth in a daze, he suddenly froze!

It's really them, it's really their own parents!

No wonder, every time Li Tian heard that gentle voice, his tears couldn't help streaming down...

Yes, he missed his mother... longing to see her in this life...

"My father...my mother..." Li Tian muttered to himself like a silly person.

"No wonder... No wonder I had this dream since I was a kid!!!"

Family affection, this is eternal affection!

It will exist in the deepest part of a person's memory like a parasite, even if it is the earliest thing, it will truly exist in a person's mind.

Now Li Tian finally knew who the two people he met in his dream were.

The Duguxie and the ghost servants over there stared at Li Tian with horrified eyes. They really didn't expect Li Tian to dream of his parents.

You know what Li Tian just described, isn't it the tragic scene of the **** night more than 20 years ago?

It turned out that Li Tian was still young at that time and was still in his infancy, but his eyes saw everything in his eyes.

This is also the real reason why he has long been dreaming in his heart.

Li Tian knew that everything he had dreamed of since he was a child was real... all existed.

Now he just carries endless hatred, his eyes are red with blood, his fists are tightly clenched, and the only thing echoing in his mind is: I want revenge...I want revenge...

I want to kill all the enemies that night twenty years ago!

A vicious and cruel idea grew in his heart little by little... His hatred, his anger, along with the improvement of his strength, began to gradually emerge!

If his current hands are restored, then Li Tian will definitely kill in blood, in return for the **** vengeance of the **** gate.

Chapter 809: Arrived in Beitang City

After Li Tian's nightmare that night, neither Duguxie nor the ghost servant slept properly. They both watched Li Tian there, fearing that something might happen to him.

What about Li Tian? With his eyes full of endless hatred, he kept casting his eyes to the dark night outside the heavy train window, watching and watching...No one knew what he was thinking about.

Time goes by every minute!

Finally the next day arrived. Li Tian didn't speak much on that day, and stayed in the carriage by himself.

Duguxie and the ghost servants saw Li Tian's appearance and did not bother him.

Although the train ride for two days and one night was long, they still passed through their boredom.

These two days and one night, for Li Tian, it was like a dream. Everything he didn't understand before, now he understands everything.

He knows everything he should know, he knows his parents, he knows his hatred, and he knows where he should go to get revenge next... all of this finally begins! Now he is just holding back all his hatred... he is waiting, waiting for an opportunity! Then start your own **** revenge journey!

But to the eldest lady Duanmuying, she seemed to have walked in hell.

In the past two days, she often lost her temper, saying that the food was not good...and then that the smell on the train was unpleasant!

But no matter what, two days and one night finally got through.

Isn't this? Now they have only one hour left to reach their destination, Beitang City!

Duanmuying had walked down from her small iron bed early, pouting her red mouth, her face full of displeasure.

The little girl behind her was greeted by another completely strange city with an excited attitude.

The brothers also walked out of the carriage one by one at this time.

The only ones missing are Li Tian and Du Guxie.

"Hey, why hasn't the little boss come out yet? This will be in Beitang City right away?" Tang Xiaolong said while looking at the train aisle in front of him.

"Go and take a look!" said Chen Qiaozhi next to him.

Tang Xiaolong nodded, and walked quickly towards Li Tian's carriage.

When Tang Xiaolong just walked to the door of Li Tian and their carriage, Li Tian, Duguxie and Gui servants just came out from inside.

"Master, little boss, senior Dugu...I also said I was going to call you... I didn't think you just came out." Tang Xiaolong squinted and said with a smile.

Li Tian in front of him also smiled slightly and said, "How about Qiaozhi and the others?"

"We are already waiting in front!"

"Oh, let's go, let's go there too."

Li Tian walked over with Duguxie and the ghost servant.

After reaching the brothers and Situ Ningbing, they all sat quietly on the train seats outside, waiting to arrive at the station.

The conductor on the train said in clear words in the loudspeaker: Dear passengers, the terminal Beitang is about to arrive, I hope my dear passengers and friends will take your salute...

"It's almost here!" said the brothers on one side.

"Li Tian, Beitang City should not be far from the Liao City you said?" Old Monster Ge over there blinked a pair of eyes and looked at Li Tiandao.

Li Tiandao: "Well, it's not far!"

"After arriving in Beitang City, it should take no more than 6 hours to reach Liaocheng by car."

"Ah? You have to take another 6 hours in the car?" Duanmuying was speechless all of a sudden, her red mouth pursed with an extremely uncomfortable touch.

The girl next to Xiaohuan comforted Duanmu Ying and said, "Miss, it's okay, we have survived the two days on the train...not bad for those 6 hours!"

Duanmuying sat there with staring eyes and stomped her feet fiercely, but she couldn't help it.

Finally, the train screamed and it was about to arrive.

Looking at Beitang City outside through the bright glass window...

not bad! There are also high-rise buildings, but they are not as prosperous as Jinghai City.

This Beitang city is a similar city in the north, so overall it is pretty good.

There were also many tourists and migrant workers in the carriage. They all took down their big bags from the shelf above the train, and then squeezed and walked towards the door of the train.

Beitang City is here!

As the conductor rang the sound inside the horn, the train slowly began to stop.

At this time, the brothers also began to slowly walk towards the door of the train.

Following the crowd slowly getting off the train, they finally reached the Beitang Railway Station.

Looking at the many people coming and going, Li Tian and them all seemed comfortable inside.

"Let's go!"

Li Tian, who was talking, should walk in front first, and then walked towards the exit with the brothers in the back.

After smoothly exiting the Beitang train station, I reached the square outside, where many people pulling carts and women staying in hotels were taking business there.

"Sir, do you live in a store?"

"Miss, do you need a taxi?"

...

Looking at these people, Li Tian and his brothers walked aside first.

"Little boss, are we leaving for Liaocheng today? Or are we staying here?" Tang Xiaolong asked suddenly.

Yes, it's already 6 o'clock in the afternoon...The sky has slowly started to dim...

If you are going to Liaocheng now, it must be midnight to arrive at Liaocheng!

Moreover, at this time, there are trees and cars leading to that remote town of Liaocheng, which is still unknown.

After thinking about it, Li Tian said, "Well, let's live in Beitang City for one night today!"

"In the evening, I will find Liao Cheng's car... Tomorrow morning, let's go again!" Li Tian looked at the brothers and said.

The brothers didn't have too many objections, so they all nodded and agreed.

So they now plan to find a place to live first.

Three taxis were greeted on the side of the road, and after they got into the car, Li Tian said to the driver in front: "Find me a similar hotel!"

"Be clean...comfortable!"

The driver in front glanced at Li Tian and the brothers who followed, smiled and nodded: "Okay!"

When he said that, he drove the car towards the distant street and drove quickly!

This Beitang City is really good...Although it is not as prosperous as Jinghai City, it is still busy, especially at this time, looking at the bright lights of the city center from a distance, it is also quite urban.

Chapter 810: dirty stuff

After the brothers simply found a similar hotel, they settled down temporarily.

After they had some dinner in the hotel, it was getting dark.

Outside, the colorful lights deep in the streets of Beitang City are extremely lively with the crowds coming and going.

However, they had no time to go shopping after being tired on the train for two days, so they went back to the hotel one by one to rest.

Only Li Tian remained excited, and said to the brothers in front of him, "Who is going to find a car with me?"

"We will leave for Liaocheng tomorrow morning! Now let's find a car from there."

After Li Tian finished speaking, Tang Xiaolong took the lead and stood up: "Little boss, let me go with you!"

When this guy was on the train, he slept all the way like a pig. Of course he was extremely excited at the moment, so after hearing Li Tian say this, he suddenly changed to smile and ran over and said.

Originally, the ghost servants and Duguxie were a little worried about Li Tian and wanted to follow, but Li Tian politely refused!

He knew that these two people didn't sleep much along the way. They were humans and not gods. How could they not be tired? So Li Tian was worried about their bodies and decided to let them rest first.

Tang Xiaolong also smiled and said, "Master, Senior Dugu, give me the little boss, you can rest assured! Hehe."

Listening to what Li Tian and Tang Xiaolong said, the Duguxie and the ghost servant thought for a while and then slowly nodded: "Well, then all right!"

In the end they both agreed.

So Li Tian and Tang Xiaolong in front of them walked out of the hotel, looking for the bus station to reach Liaocheng.

After getting outside, looking at the crowded streets, Tang Xiaolong took out two cigarettes from his pocket and handed them to Li Tian.

Li Tian also reached out and took it. The lighter slammed on, and a blue flame came out... Then the two of them lit up and took a deep breath... A mouthful of white smoke came out of Li Tian's mouth. .

With a cigarette in his mouth, Tang Xiaolong looked at the crowded streets and asked, "Boss, where is this bus standing?"

Li Tian shook his head depressed: "I don't know either!"

Although he used to live in Liaocheng, to be honest, he has never been to Beitang... The reason why he knows Beitang is because it is the best city with a radius of several hundred kilometers.

"I'm going, what should I do?"

"Ask for directions?" Tang Xiaolong muttered.

Li Tian smiled and said, "Don't worry!"

Li Tian, who was talking, then moved towards a car on the side of the road to rent a car and beckoned slightly: "Take a taxi, ask the driver, don't you know?"

Tang Xiaolong came over quickly with smoke from his mouth.

After they got into the taxi in front of them, they found that the driver who was driving was a middle-aged man in his 30s, with a flat head shaved and a little dull and honest.

After Li Tian and Tang Xiaolong got into the car, the driver turned his honest face and asked, "Where are the two bosses going?"

"Master, do you know where the bus stop to Liaocheng is?" Li Tian asked immediately.

After listening to Li Tian's words, the honest driver paused, and then said, "You two are going to Liaocheng?"

"Yeah! We are going to go tomorrow! So now I want to find a car there..."

After listening to Li Tian say this, the master suddenly hesitated.

"That's not easy!" the honest driver said suddenly.

When Li Tian and Tang Xiaolong heard this, he was slightly puzzled.

"What do you mean?" Li Tian asked with a frown.

Just listen to the driver in front of you saying: "You don't seem to be locals, right?"

"Yeah!" Li Tian and Tang Xiaolong nodded truthfully.

"Oh, that's right! You may not know... The car to Liaocheng City was completely out of service a few months ago!" said the honest driver.

Listening to the driver's words, Li Tian and Tang Xiaolong broke their eggs in an instant!

what?

"No way!" Tang Xiaolong said depressedly.

"How can it be suspended? If it stops, what can people do when they go to Liaocheng?" Li Tianzhe said silently.

The honest driver blinked a pair of eyes and turned his head and said, "Who dares to go to Liaocheng now?"

Suddenly hearing the honest driver say such a sentence, Li Tian and Tang Xiaolong were taken aback.

"What do you mean? Who would dare to go to Liaocheng?" The two felt that the honest driver seemed to have something to say, and at the moment they couldn't help blinking at the driver in front of him.

The driver in front then slowly said, "Hey...well, I'll tell you!"

"Do you know why the car to Liaocheng is stopped?" The driver suddenly looked at Li Tian and the others suspiciously.

"Nonsense, how would we know it!" Tang Xiaolong said in pain, he felt that the driver was a bit idiot.

The driver ignored Tang Xiaolong's words of collision and continued to say to Li Tiandao: "I tell you, the reason why all the cars to Liaocheng were stopped... That was because of a strange incident on the Liaotang Expressway!"

Liaotang Expressway? Of course Li Tian knows! That is the only highway leading to the small county town of Liaocheng!

Because Liaocheng is a remote place in the countryside, surrounded by mountains and the roads are rugged, so the government built a winding mountain road more than ten years ago, and then Liaocheng was opened by car.

To put it bluntly now, there is only one way to reach Liaocheng.

Isn't this? Now Li Tian and Tang Xiaolong suddenly heard the driver say: When a strange incident happened on the Liaotang Expressway, both of them were depressed.

"Master, what are you talking about?" Li Tian couldn't help asking.

Just listen to the driver's master slowly saying: "I'm telling you...that Liaotang Expressway...some evil things have happened recently!"

"Evil thing?"

"Yeah! Do you know? There was a rumors of dirt on that highway!" The driver said with a shocked face.

After he said this, Tang Xiaolong and Li Tian suddenly frowned.

Nima? The two of them thought this driver would say something, but they actually said something so unreasonable...

All of a sudden, Tang Xiaolong poked his nose!

"I said this big brother... are you making up a story? Are there any dirty things?" Tang Xiaolong said in disbelief.

Li Tian also felt that the driver was a little unreliable! Looking at his honest adopted son, he didn't expect such gibberish in his mouth.
