

A Killer 91

Chapter 91: Awkward moment

At this critical moment, a roar came out from Li Tian's mouth.

"Asshole, stop."

Accompanied by the sound of his roar, his footsteps almost jumped towards the fleece at an unexpected speed.

The strange pace, even Li Tian himself could not believe it.

In a hurry, he used the weird pace that he had practiced from the broken book this morning in his mind, and at the same time he quickly grabbed it.

Of course, the catch is also the trick in the broken book, and he grabbed it tightly on that clenched wrist.

That clenched hair suddenly stopped at the two places beside Xia Xueqiao's face, and then only felt a fierce force coming from the other's fierce arm, and the sting of a broken bone came from Li Tian's hand. Come.

A fist suddenly screamed in pain, and the other fist instinctively slammed towards Li Tian.

Li Tian saw his fist hit, and the other free left hand also groped out strangely, clutching the veins of the curled hair alive, and the huge force from his body followed the curling hair. The arms came all over.

With a bang, Li Tian sent his hands away, and his hair was shaken by unreasonable force and flew out directly.

With a click, the body directly hit a wooden table, and the hard wooden table was smashed to pieces.

Look at the squeaking hair, the screams of the whole person, and look at his two arms that were tightly grasped by Li Tian just now. Oh my God, the black claw prints on both arms, if not Someone saw it with their own eyes, and they must have thought they were caught by the evil spirits of Abi Hell.

At the same time, his two arms seemed to be abolished, and he couldn't lift them up at all.

And after Li Tian on the side flew off that scratch after two catches, he couldn't even believe that his hands had become so fierce, and the power of the catch made him feel astonished.

With both eyes staring at his own hands, Li Tianxin was shocked and excited that he couldn't tell.

On the contrary, Xia Xue next to him also blinked a pair of beautiful eyes and looked at Li Tian in disbelief.

To be honest, Xia Xue has seen many fights in places like District Nine, and Shen Feng once punched people, but she has never seen Li Tian's sturdy power.

Xia Xue was almost dumbfounded by the weird and fast pace just now, and the two catches Li Tian just made.

Looking at Li Tian with a pair of beautiful eyes wide open.

The little brother over there was stunned when he saw a flick of hair flying out.

"Big brother." Two of the younger brothers quickly ran over to help the fist in front of them.

The screams from the squeeze: "Don't move, don't **** move me, it's broken, the arm is broken."
The squeak in front of you screamed.

The younger brother, who saw his eldest brother being beaten, picked up the stool on the ground and threw it at Li Tian.

"**of."

Li Tian was still in a daze. To tell the truth, Li Tian, who hadn't fully reacted to his own claws, saw that he was about to be slammed by a stool.

"Be careful."

Xia Xue, who was standing next to Li Tian, quickly exclaimed.

At the same time, he stretched out his hand to catch Li Tian, but he didn't expect that after Li Tian suddenly woke up, his footsteps would suddenly move, and he would move quickly and strangely.

With a click, the stool slammed on the cold floor and didn't hit Li Tian's body, but Li Tian couldn't let go of the bastard.

The clenched fist slammed out.

This punch is fast enough, hard enough, and awkward enough.

Because his punching angle is completely different from ordinary people's punching routine.

Li Tian, who used his fist for the first time, matched the vigor accumulated in his body when he went out, the little brother was directly blown away.

Wow, a mouthful of blood spurted out of his mouth, and he fell to the ground with a plop, and immediately passed out.

The two young people who wanted to rush up were completely frightened.

The stool and beer bottle in my hand were completely afraid to go on.

"Go, go quickly."

"You wait, you or the other wait, our knife will be with you forever."

The two yelling little brothers didn't have the confidence to speak, and helped a screaming boss, and another fainted brother hurriedly escaped from Xia Xue's small restaurant.

When they left again, Xia Xue finally let out a sigh of relief.

"You, you, are you okay?"

Xia Xue blinked and stared at Li Tian who was stupefied in front of her.

Li Tian stared at his tightly clenched fists, and his heart was still boiling. Hearing Xia Xue's sweet voice, he quickly loosened his fists, turned his head, and said, "No, it's okay."

"How can you fight like this? Didn't you just say you can't martial arts?" Xia Xue asked Li Tian incredulously. You know that Li Tian just now said that he can't punch, but what about now? One move every second, can Nima tell lies like this?

Li Tian smiled bitterly and watched how hard his expressions on his hands were.

Giggle.

Suddenly Xia Xue laughed coquettishly, this smile was almost all kinds of style, flattery, and full.

"Thank you." Xia Xue said to Li Tian, covering her cherry red lips.

The breath of Ruolan's voice softly passed into Li Tian's ears and almost made his whole body crisp.

Xia Xue walked to the side with a smile, but she didn't expect to step on the leg of the stool that had been smashed just now, and she was about to fall.

Li Tian suddenly jumped over, stretched out a hand instinctively, and put his arm around the waist of Xia Xue Xiaoman who was about to fall to the ground.

Xia Xue, who was half lying in Li Tian's arms, suddenly turned red. Her slender waist was supported by Li Tian with one hand. In addition, due to excessive excitement, the mature woman panted violently.

Li Tian glanced unintentionally, it was so big and white.

Quickly glanced away.

"No, didn't you fall?" Li Tian said with Xia Xue in his arms.

Xia Xue's face was flushed, and the whole face was about to squeeze out like a peach, and said: "I'm not, I'm all right."

And Li Tian was also stupid and hugged the beauty in his arms and paused for one second, two seconds, three seconds...There have been more than ten seconds, just like this gesture of hugging others.

"Let go." Xia Xue said with a blush and shy face seeing Li Tian who was stunned.

Where is the hot **** when I first met Xia Xue? It was like a little woman.

Li Tian also blushed in embarrassment, hugged Xia Xue's waistline and helped her up.

At the same time, both hands were shocked as if they were electrocuted, and they swiftly retracted back, and there was a thump in my heart. At this moment, the palms of the hands that touched Xia Xue Xiaoman's waist were sweaty.
