

A Killer 96

Chapter 96: Epee Without Edge

"Today's boxing match is a special boxing match. One of the participants is a Thai boxer from another province. He has beaten a boxer to death in a professional match, and he cannot be a professional boxer. Therefore, we will fight the black market boxing match. Please this Thai boxer, Alai."

After the guy's words were spoken, Allais under the stage was able to climb onto the ring vigorously.

There was a warm call from the audience.

"Invite another boxer from us. He is Feng Shen who has won 6 matches in the black market boxing match."

When Shen Feng's name was spoken, there was also a calling voice in the audience.

While Li Tian looked at the naked Shen Feng, wearing only a pair of big blue shorts, walking towards the ring with a pair of gloves.

The naked Shen Feng looked domineering and mighty, and jumped onto the ring vigorously.

Li Tian was surprised. It turned out that Shen Feng had won 6 games here.

After entering the ring, Shen Feng also glanced at Li Tian with a smile, pointed at himself, shook his head, and said that he would not worry Li Tian, Li Tian smiled slightly.

After the two fighters took the stage, the host said: "Now the game will start right away! Bosses, ladies, take the banknotes in your hand and start betting."

Those rich spectators come here to watch * matches on the one hand, and to gamble on the other hand.

It is said that the funds flowing underground in the black market boxing match every night exceed 10 million. One can imagine how rich these people should be!

After entering the ring, Shen Feng stared coldly at the Muay Thai fighter in front of him, and the Muay Thai fighter stared at Shen Feng with his wolf-like eyes.

The two are about to freak out. The Muay Thai boxer has a dark complexion and looks like a strong wolf.

And Shen Feng is not so scared.

"Everyone, the boxing match will begin soon... let's count down five words!"

"5, 4, 3, 2, 1, start!"

As the voice sounded, the crazy spectators in the audience began to scream.

I saw Shen Feng on the stage, a pair of fists clenched tightly, facing the Thai boxer.

And the Muay Thai boxer Allai stared at Shen Feng with cold eyes.

Feng Wuye, who was sitting in the highest stand, was smoking a cigar while looking at the top of the ring, squinting his eyes as if watching a good show.

The fat guy over there looked worriedly at Shen Feng: He bet a lot of money tonight, and the odds are quite big, if he loses then it will be troublesome, so he is now Still more worried.

A crisp sound came out with Dang Cang.

Then the two people in the ring began to confront each other.

Shen Feng's standard boxer posture, one hand was raised to protect his head, and the other fist was swaying from side to side in exchange for an attack opportunity.

At the same time, the footsteps moved quickly.

The Muay Thai fighter Alai uses standard Muay Thai styles, with one strong fist moving forward and the other knee raised.

With a bang.

The Muay Thai boxer took the lead.

A fierce and domineering whirlwind leg slashed towards Shen Feng.

Shen Feng didn't dare to be careless, and quickly dodged his body. Alai quickly retracted his legs and returned to defense without hitting Shen Feng with a whirlwind leg.

There were enthusiastic cheers from the audience.

Li Tian also blinked his eyes and looked at Shen Feng. To be honest, he really didn't know how powerful Shen Feng was. Now he was both worried about Shen Feng and slightly curious in his heart. He wanted to know whether Shen Feng was able to fight today. Can't that guy?

After the Muay Thai fighter's first whirlwind kick, Shen Feng began the offensive.

He called a straight fist, with a sharp fist wind heading towards Alai.

In boxing, such heavy punches are generally rarely received directly because of the waste of energy.

But unexpectedly, the Muay Thai boxer couldn't avoid it, and hit the boxer's arm with a bang, and the Muay Thai boxer slammed an elbow towards Shen Feng's head.

The identity stepped back quickly, his right foot was lifted, and a side whip was thrown out.

Although the Thai boxer was brave, he had to retreat.

After a round, the two dared not care about each other.

Shen Feng was even more shocked in his heart, this Thai guy is really strong.

Muay Thai has always been known in the world for its acrimony and viciousness. It has iron hands, steel legs, elbows, and rams. It is called an eight-legged animal.

Moreover, real Muay Thai fighters have been exercising like steel since they were young, and their limbs can directly collide with wooden stakes, so that the body created in this way can of course withstand huge strength.

With a bang, the Muay Thai fighter began to attack.

Na Alai's fists were deadly and vicious, and every move seemed to want Shen Feng's life.

Huhuhu held 5--6 punches and smashed towards Shen Feng's head.

Shen Feng was attacked by a round of fierce attacks and forced him to retreat continuously, but he was not afraid. He saw the opportunity and suddenly raised his knees and hit Na Alai's abdomen. Alai retreated and Shen Feng immediately kicked Na Alai with a flying leg. Chest.

With a bang, Allai was kicked by Shen Feng and fell directly to the ground.

The audience suddenly cheered.

And Li Tian's tight heart gradually became relaxed, and he couldn't help but secretly line up: Shen Feng is really amazing!

But it said that after the Muay Thai boxer Allai was kicked to the ground, a very beautiful carp was turned directly from the ground.

He patted the dust on his chest lightly with his hand and sneered, as if nothing had happened.

From the high stand, I saw Feng Wuye sitting above narrowing his eyes and suddenly asking, "Meng Chong, who do you think will win?"

The person called Mengchong is the unmoving man standing beside Feng Wuye, standing like a soldier, watching two people on the field with cold eyes, and slowly shook his head: "Not so much now. It's easy to say."

"Oh? Can't even you see it?" Feng Wuye seemed very surprised.

Meng Chong looked at the court and said in a low voice: "The boxer named Shen Feng has sharp punches and flexible steps. He is a good boxer, but the other Thai boxer is better than Shen Feng. The boxing technique is more fierce. Although the tricks are not more flexible than Shen Feng's, his punch is enough to match Shen Feng's two punches! So in this fight, I think that Muay Thai fighter will win."

What kind of awesome character is Meng Chong, who can see the weakness of the two boxers at a glance?

Meng Chong, this indifferent man who has always stood by Feng Wuye, shows no sharp edge, like a hidden sword.

As the saying goes, the epee has no edge, maybe this is the truth!
