

Chapter 831: Making Things Clear

Yin Yang stomped his feet in anger, looking like a cat whose tail had been stepped on. He pointed at Cheng Ying and bellowed, "Nonsense! You're talking nonsense!"

Cheng Yi sneered. "Is that so? Which part of what I said is nonsense? Is that part about that b*tch you call mother occupying a position that isn't hers or that you're not Yin De's biological son? Or is that part about you and Yin Bin's son waiting in Yi Garden for Cheng Che to save their lives?"

Yin Yang's hand trembled as he pointed at Cheng Ying. He was so angry that he could not speak.

At this moment, Old Madam Yin walked over slowly and called out calmly, "Sister."

Cheng Ying sized Old Madam Yin up from the top to the bottom. She smiled scornfully as she said, "Oh, you're not going to hide anymore? Did you discover that he can't shelter you from the wind and rain and that you can only face the problem alone? Qin Shuang, do you feel like your life is a failure?"

It had been many years since Old Madam Yin was addressed by her name. She took a deep breath before she calmly said, "Sister, it's been so many years since we last met, but you still have a hot temper like before. Why don't we talk about our family affairs at home later? Today is a big day for Cheng Che and the Yin family, after all. Don't you want Cheng Che to worship his ancestors and return to the family?"

After a short moment of loss, Qin Shuang, Old Madam Yin, had regained her composure. She looked at Cheng Ying quietly, neither servile nor overbearing. She had already steadied her mind. Cheng Ying was not her match 30 years ago, and 30 years later, she was confident nothing had changed.

Cheng Ying smiled faintly and said bluntly, "That's right. I don't want him to do that."

Qin Shuang could not help but feel suffocated upon hearing Cheng Ying's reply.

Cheng Yin said, "Cheng Che has been Cheng Che for nearly 30 years. It doesn't make a difference to him whether he returns to the Yin family or not. What benefits will he get from returning to the family? Are all of you going to let him inherit the Yin family business in the future?" Then, she did not give Qin Shuang a chance to speak before she said, "Don't be in a hurry to nod your head and promise. After all, it'll only be an empty promise. No one will believe it at all. Qin Shuang, you spent so much effort just to enter the Yin family. Isn't it so that your son and grandson can inherit the Yin family business?"

Cheng Ying's tone grew more and more disdainful as she said, "The greatest blessing in your life is that you met a brainless man like Yin De, who loses all his common sense because of a woman. There's no need for you to feel anxious; you just have to wait quietly. After all, that old man is much older than you; he'll definitely die earlier than you. When he dies, you'll naturally be able to help your son to rise to the top."

"However, it seems like heaven is quite fair. It allowed this old man to live such a long and healthy life. With this, you have no choice but to swallow your anger and tolerate Yin Bin and his family to the greatest extent. Aren't you so tolerant just so you can pave the way for your son and grandson?"

Cheng Ying smiled mockingly, looking as though she had completely seen through Qin Shuang's thoughts. She glanced at the people in the surroundings, who were listening with great interest, before she said with a smile, "All of you are unaware of the number of people on the board of directors of Yin Group who are secretly Mr. Yin Yang's supporters. Even Yin De is unaware of this, let alone Yin Bin who's just a fool. Yin Bin thinks that his status as the eldest son guarantees that he'll be the successor. He doesn't take his half-brother seriously at all. In terms of scheming, I have to say my foolish son takes after his father as well. They both only know how to employ underhanded schemes and petty tricks."

Cheng Ying's words were harsh and merciless. Even with her son, she was still merciless with her words.

Yin Bin could not control his expression at all, and his face alternated between red and white.

Cheng Ying did not care about Yin Bin's feelings at all. She was very happy when she saw the unsightly expressions of the members of the Yin family. She continued to expose the Yin family for everyone to see. She said, "Qin Shuang, you've already done so much. Tell me, what's the purpose of you bringing my grandson back to the family? You've done it with such great fanfare, it's really unbelievable. Even if I don't want to be suspicious, all of you made it impossible for me not to suspect your motive. I've been wondering why you were currying favor with my grandson..."
