Chapter – 201 Little Royal Pups

Neither one of them ventured out of the room for the rest of the day, both of them enjoying the pleasure of each other's company in every way that they could think of.

Lexi had lost count of the number of times that she had found herself begging Allen for more, and he happily indulged her every whim.

The omega's had been generous in providing for their needs while they had been holed up in the bedroom, knocking briefly on the door once before leaving them to it, letting them know that there was a meal left outside of the door for them once they came up for air.

Lexi was quietly impressed at how the pack seemed to run as a well-oiled machine, with the lower ranking members excited to see their leaders happy, without even the barest hint of jealousy from anyone... at least in Lexi's case anyway.

She was almost disappointed in a way. She hadn't been able to stick up for Ann

Chapter 202 Pregnancy

When Lexi finally woke the next morning and ventured downstairs the staff were in chaos as they ran backward and forward chattering excitedly about their Alpha's fortune and the pack's now vastly elevated status.

Adam had gone from Alpha, to the Alpha Queen's Consort and now it seemed certain that he would soon be the father of the heirs to the Kingdom.

Lexi was a little bewildered at the furor that this small snippet of information had caused and as soon as she saw the nonchalant figure of her father sitting and sipping his coffee quietly at the table, she made her way over. He smiled as their eyes met and he quickly folded the paper that he had been reading and set it down in front of him, chuckling at the perturbed expression that Lexi had on her face as she sat opposite him and reached for the cafetiere of coffee that sat unobtrusively in the middle of the table. “What is wrong with the “Shall we go then?” Allen asked as he blocked out the images of Lexi’s belly swollen with their pups as she waddled around the kitchen stuffing her face with cakes that Orvar insisted on sharing with him.

He tried his best to school his face into an expression that resembled something like eagerness in the hopes that they would just assume that he was eager to get on with the schedule for today.

The same delirious look of happiness that was plastered all over the omega’s faces, shone from Allen’s own expression, and Lexi couldn’t help but laugh, completely oblivious as to the real reason for his almost inane grin.

“This pack mentality is really something.” She said shaking her head as Allen frowned at her in confusion.

“What do you mean?” He asked carefully, hesitant to ruin the connection that he had thought they made last night with any clumsily spoken words today.

Chapter 204 Welcome Back

Bartholomew waited patiently at the front steps for the car to arrive that contained the latest visitors to the Enclave, with two omega’s waiting patiently behind him with their heads lowered respectfully and their hands clasped together in front of them.

The cool air wrapped itself around his robes he inhaled deeply and savored the fresh, chill air that flooded his lungs. As much as he loved the Enclave, he had to admit that he missed being outside as much as he used to.

His duties at the Enclave kept him busy enough and forays into the outside world were few and far between. The most that he could manage nowadays tended to be a walk around the gated gardens or one of the many secret courtyards and private arboretums that were hidden away in the maze of tunnels and corridors.

Quite frankly Ann's ascension to the throne had changed a lot of things within the Enclave and Bartholomew

Chapter 205 She's Flirting

"I would ask how the horny couple are, but I don't think I want to know the details really." Lexi grimaced as she linked her arm through Bartholomew's and they made their way inside.

Bartholomew chuckled and patted her hand.

"They're holed up in the Royal Quarters so I doubt you'll see too much of them over the next few days. Whilst Ann is in heat, the doors to their wing are sealed and their guards are posted outside the entrance to the wing rather than their bedroom, for reasons that I'm sure you'll understand"

Lexi smirked as she snorted.

"Well, I suppose listening to a free s*x show to get the juices flowing isn't everyone's idea of a good time..

"Lexi!" the sound of two voices shouting out at the same time echoed in the corridor around them. She laughed at both the low warning in her father's tone, and the slightly panicked disapproval from Allen as they both loo

Chapter 206 Not His Sins

By the time Lexi, Allen, and Lord Brarthroroz arrived at Bartholomew's office, Adam was already there. "Alpha." Allen greeted him seriously with a nod of his head as they filed in, Lexi and her father taking seats at Bartholomew's sweeping gesture, indicating for them to take their pick of any of the chairs that sat before him.

"Thanks for coming so quickly," Adam said gratefully as he and Allen clasped their forearms and took their respective seats opposite one another. "Well, seeing as how you seem intent on getting my bestie knocked up so quickly, someone has to help you handle things," Lexi smirked as she lazily examined her nails.

Adam smiled wearily in her direction as he laughed lightly.

"It's not like I have a choice in it. You try ignoring the primal urges of the souls inside of us and let me know how well you do." Lexi snorted loudly and fixed him with a no-nonsense stare

Chapter 207 Hidden Talent

Moments after the door closed behind Adam, Bartholomew shared a look with Lord Brarthroroz and they both stood and made their way to the door.

"You can stay here as long as you need to," Bartholomew said pointedly as he glanced at Allen, although Allen never lifted his eyes. "I'll escort Lord Brarthroroz to the holding cells downstairs and get him acquainted with the specimen we have down there... although I'm not sure how much will be left of it. It does seem to be decaying at rather an alarming speed." He continued with a troubled expression.

"That happens when the magic dissipates from the necrotic flesh," Lord Brarthroroz shrugged casually, "Nothing to hold it all together anymore. That sort of magic can only imitate life for so long."

"Indeed." Bartholomew grimaced before tearing his gaze from the emotionless face of Allen and smiling softly at Lexi, "If you need anything at al

Chapter 208 The Start of The Horror Show

The lounge Lexi had taken Allen to was pretty much deserted at this time of day. There weren't too many people who enjoyed a liquid brunch at the enclave clearly, but that served Lexi's goals just fine.

"So, are you going to tell me or not?" Lexi asked impatiently as soon as the omega that was acting as waitress deposited their order and disappeared off into the recess behind the bar.

Allen sighed and picked at the edge of the table absent-mindedly as he debated how best to answer her. She was right of course, and Orvar agreed with everything that she said. Not that it surprised him. When it came to Lexi, Orvar was clearly biased.

'It's not biased, it's being intelligent enough to realize when you're wrong, and let's face it Allen, you've been wrong a lot so far.'

'I didn't ask for your commentary on my choices that I clearly regret, Orvar.' Allen snapped as h

Chapter 209 The Dubois

Lexi's stomach sank at his words and she could practically feel the pain radiating from him as he spoke. "I didn't even know you had a sister.." She murmured quietly as Felix's head shot up and he glared at her with an anger that quite frankly chilled her to the bone.

"I don't Lexi, not anymore." He growled furiously before downing what was left of his whisky and slamming the glass down on the table in anger.

Lexi's heart sank as her heart broke for him She had always regarded Ann as a sister and a lump began to form in her throat as she pictured the possibility of losing her.

"Allen... I'm sorry... I didn't know..." Lexi stammered quietly, suddenly at a loss for words.

“Yeah... well... there’s nothing to be sorry about. It won’t change anything. It is what it is.” He snapped gruffly as he raised an arm to signal the omega for a refill.

Lexi fully understood now why he hadn’t wante

Chapter 210 Scared? About What?

Ann had been confined to her room for four days before her heat finally broke and she awoke feeling more normal than she had done for days.

She sat up in bed and winced as her sore muscles protested against the small movements she made as she turned to gaze down at her beloved husband, sleeping peacefully beside her.

She couldn’t help the mild pang of irritation that rippled through her at the sight of him so unbothered and unaffected by her condition after her body had demanded attention relentlessly at the expense of her sanity. Impregnation or excruciating pain that made you wish you could tear your flesh from your bones if your mate wasn’t skewering you with his over-eager c**k?

It was hardly a fair deal in her opinion.

The male got to enjoy himself immensely whilst the female mewled and begged like a pathetic little w*h*e to be filled with his seed, all because of
