

A NPC 701

Chapter 701: Fox-faced Witch? Fox-Faced Witch!

Gulp.

The group of players who had escorted the fourth device but had turned back halfway and chose to give up quietly swallowed their saliva.

Were they touched? He didn't dare to move.

They swore that the fox witch's claws were only 0.01 centimeters away from them. They were really just a little bit away. They were just like the Ka Ka players, turning into white light without even leaving a corpse behind.

However, from the fact that they could still swallow their saliva in shock, they knew that they had survived.

Did the fox-faced witch make a mistake?

How was this possible?

So the only explanation was that they finally found their conscience and stopped setting up the fourth device to save themselves! This prevented them from being viewed as targets of the fox-faced witch's "annihilation."

The solo players wiped the cold sweat off their foreheads.

F * ck!

Which brilliant plot designer designed this!

How sinister!

However, if he thought about it carefully, it seemed that this mission had given hints from the very beginning. Only those who chose to go down a completely dark path would face the current ending of going against the fox-faced witch.

Don't treat this place as an ordinary virtual reality game anymore.

Instead, he wanted to...As a real world!

The independent players who had escaped death seemed to understand the purpose of this plot. Unfortunately, they did not know that they thought this was the end of the plot, but in reality...

The first few were just appetizers.

Deep Sea...No, it should be said that the true plot of the entire Thousand Islands had just begun.

[Ding! The "Dark Nightmare Strangulation" from the "Mask Witch Witch" has dealt 133040 damage to you. You are dead.]

[Ding, you have received a death penalty. Your current level's maximum experience points have been reduced by 63%. If it is insufficient, you will be demoted... Your level has dropped to Level 17]

[Ding! You have received a death penalty. All attributes will be reduced by 17% for 24 hours.]

[Ding, you...]

[Ding! Congratulations on completing the achievement: You still owe me 99 lives!] – Take damage that is 100 times more than your own HP]

[Ding, congratulations on completing the achievement 'I've already carried too much...' Receiving more than 100,000 damage in one go]

TMD!

How ruthless!

Not to mention the 130,000 damage, what the hell were these two achievements! ?

Shrimp...And a pig's heart?

Hei Yu's soul floated in the air after he died. He looked at the rows of 'Death Punishment' notifications that popped up in front of him, as well as the 'Congratulations' on his new achievement. He had an extremely pained expression on his face.

Moreover, the most annoying thing was that he did not dare to revive. He could only sacrifice his experience points to maintain his soul state.

It wasn't just him. The entire Ka guild was like this.

Looking at the world after death, everyone was looking at each other. Some of them were already worn out and had started to play the "Journey Cards" in groups of two or three to waste time.

Why?

Was there a need to ask!

Can't you see the fox-faced witch who's standing outside with a murderous look on her face?

Who would dare to resurrect at this critical juncture!

Wasn't that courting death? Was it not enough to die once?

Including Hei Yu, the members of Ka, at least at this moment, did not have the slightest desire to resist the fox-faced witch. They only hoped that this plot could end as soon as possible and send the fox-faced witch away!

However, it's a pity that the players are immediately aware of the matter, and some people are still unaware.

Pa, pa, pa...

The sound of applause rang out in the silent sea.

As the mastermind behind the scenes, Sakai Yosuke's figure finally slowly walked out of the shadows. He smiled as he looked at the fox-faced witch holding a chain claw in midair.

"Amazing, amazing. In the blink of an eye, you wiped out my subordinates. As expected of you, fox-faced witch, or... Should I call you by another name?"

In addition... Another name?

Could there be something else going on?

The surviving players of the Endless Sea immediately focused their attention. The soul of the soul of the Ka players also stopped playing cards, especially the guild leader Hei Yu. His dispirited expression eased a little.

His focus was not on the 'other name', but...

Looking at the appearance of their faction NPC, Sakai Yosuke, even after witnessing the fox-faced witch's combat power, his expression did not change. He was even talking and laughing.

So, could it be...

They actually still had a chance to turn the tables! ?

Hei Yu, who was in his soul form, clenched his fists. His face, which was still filled with imagination, revealed a look of realization.

Was there a possibility, he meant a possibility...

In fact, the strength of their "Apostle" executive officer far exceeded that of the fox-faced witch. The real goal of all of this was not the snake, but...

Just to lure the fox-faced witch to the Abyss Sea! ?

I thought of the black feathers here, I suddenly got excited, started to play "Sakai Yosuke", the next operation full of anticipation, after all, they Ka was already completely defected, of course, they hope "The apostle" can lead them to defeat the fox face witch ".

"Speaking of which, I still have to thank you for helping me kill these test subjects. Otherwise, I really wouldn't have been able to think of a good reason to retrieve the Abyssal Demon Eyes from them."

The expression of anticipation froze on his face.

W-what did he mean?

The soul form of the spectating Ka Ka Ka players were all dumbfounded. The experimental subject that Sakai Yosuke was referring to was none other than the foreigners, but why did he have to thank the fox-faced witch...Kill them? And what did the last sentence, 'reclaim' the Eye of the Abyssal Demon, mean?

Chapter 702: Fox-faced Witch? Fox-Faced Witch (2)

The players didn't have to wait too long.

Yosuke Sakai...No, the executive officer "Apostle" quickly gave the answer.

Ding, due to unknown reasons, your level has dropped to level 16...Level 15...Level 13...Level 10

Ding! Due to an unknown reason, you have lost the "Abyssal Lurker" profession

Ding, for unknown reasons, you..

Hei Yu's eyes widen.

He looked in disbelief at the level that he had worked so hard to train. It was shrinking rapidly like a sponge, and finally stopped at the extremely dazzling 'Level 10'.

At the same time, he also watched as the class skills belonging to the "Abyssal Lurker" class disappeared from his skill bar. At the same time, the additional attributes brought by the class also disappeared.

Not just Hei Yu.

Instead, all the players who had obtained the reward of the "Eye of the Abyss of Demons" and had changed their class would receive the same system notification as Hei Yu as long as they were in their soul form.

Looking back at the position of Sakai Yosuke in reality.

The young man opened his arms, and countless black fog began to rush crazily into Sakai Yosuke's body from the place where the players died. If one looked carefully, the black fog was actually the class advancement item that had once " fused " with the players—the Eye of the Abyss.

"Uh... Uh, ah, ah..." The young man had a pained expression on his face as if he was moaning.

No one had expected the scene of the 'Yul-Auland' to happen.

After the black fog surged in, 'Sakai Yosuke's' body began to wither rapidly. His eyes were sunken, his lips were dry, and his cheeks were caved in. The skin on his entire body was shrinking and shrinking.

In just a few moments, he had become a living person of flesh and blood. He had become emaciated, as if he had been starved for weeks. In the end...Without any flesh or blood, it became a skeleton...Skeleton!

However...

Vivian, who was under the fox demon mask, frowned because she could feel that the other party's strength was the complete opposite of her withered appearance. Instead of regressing, it was rising steadily to the point where she could not help but give birth to it and wanted to turn around and retreat.

From the perspective of the Players, they did not have the ability to sense strength, but there was another simpler way to judge.

[Winter Executor " Middle Three Chiefs "- " Apostle "]

The NPC name did not change, but the font color changed.

Red.

The color was so deep that it made one shudder!

“Tsk tsk...Jie... Hahaha!” Suddenly, two balls of faint flames burned from the skeleton’s eye sockets, followed closely by the skeleton’s mouth, using some unknown method to emit that ear-piercing and sharp laughter.

“This form is indeed the most comfortable. Also... As expected, if we don’t let the bodies of the foreigners die, we won’t be able to retrieve the Eye of the Abyss from them...”

The Apostle seemed to be adapting to his body as he turned his skeletal head. His white joints were making cracking sounds. As he spoke, his gaze finally fell on the unaffiliated players who were still alive.

Among them, some of them had also received the reward of the “ Eye of the Abyssal Abyss ” and successfully changed their class. However, everything was still fine now, and their power was not stolen by the “ Apostle ”.

Yes, stealing.

Swoosh swoosh swoosh swoosh!

White lights flashed in the Abyss Sea one after another. They were the Ka players who had been resurrected in a hurry. Every member had an extremely angry and hateful expression on their faces.

The target of these expressions wasn’t the fox-faced witch who killed them, but... As the “ Apostle ” of their faction’s NPC.

He had been played.

At this point, Hei Yu finally reacted. They had been completely fooled.

How was this a free opportunity to obtain a super-rare class in large quantities? This was clearly a huge trap!

Now, they had nothing!

Class, level, skill...It was even as good as the reputation reputation of Thousand Islands, Fox Face Witch...
Gone, all gone!

“It seems like you guys are a little angry with me? Hehe, I think you should thank me because I’m going to use the power you lent me to help you take revenge!”

“As for your next path, you can rest assured. After this, I will send you out of the Thousand Islands. After all, you are all here...You can’t stay here anymore, right?”

Damn it!

Hei Yu and the other Ka players gritted their teeth. They wanted to vent their anger, but they felt powerless because what the “Apostle” said was the truth. Even if they knew that they were being used, there was nothing they could do because they had been forced to the point where they had no place to hide. There was only one path left, and that was to follow the “Apostle” to the end.

At this moment, Ka and the other players in the Abyss Sea suddenly realized how good the Fox-faced Witch had been to them in the past. They finally realized how good an NPC the Fox-faced Witch was.

Or rather, it was because the Fox-faced Witch protected them too well that they were born. Every NPC would be like the Fox-faced Witch and treat the players selflessly. They would not treat them as “outsiders”, let alone...Tools.

Unfortunately, it was too late.

The true evil was to use you, exploit you, and finally block all your escape routes and destroy everything you have, so that you have no other way out except to continue being used.

Bang!

A huge black claw appeared behind the "Apostle" and slapped the skeleton that was hiding in the black fog cloak from the air to the ground.

Then, the fox-faced witch's figure appeared. She had been waiting for an opportunity to take the initiative to attack while the "apostle" was talking to the stranger.

The players below who did not know what was going on cheered up, but only Vivian herself knew...

"What a rude little girl. She doesn't know that when others are talking... Should I listen to her? Amidst the smoke and dust at the bottom of the sea, the figure that had fallen from the sky slowly stood up.

The "Apostle" walked out unscathed and looked up at the fox-faced witch.

Even the Ka players who had fought the Fox-faced Witch knew how terrifying the damage of the Fox-faced Witch was. But even so, the Apostle was still unharmed?

"Actually, I've always had a question. Are these claws really your weapon? When I saw you fight with the outlanders, I had a vague feeling. Now that I've personally tasted your attack, I can say... It's completely confirmed.

The fire in the skeleton's eye sockets kept jumping, making it seem like one could see an evil face laughing maniacally.

The "Apostle" slowly extended a bone finger and pointed at the fox-faced witch.

Then, he said word by word,

"That pair of claws, you actually...You don't know how to use it at all, right?"

Silence.

The only response to the "Apostle" was the fox-faced witch's arms, which were crossed in midair. Her huge claws immediately flew out of her hands, and the hook made a whistling sound in the air. The huge claws on the left and right were about to crush the "Apostle" in the center.

Hei Yu, who was below, was extremely familiar with this scene.

That was because it was the "Dark Nightmare Strangulation" that dealt him a terrifying 130,000 damage! A terrifying move that could kill him like like a mosquito!

The giant black claw arrived in the blink of an eye. The "Apostle" who was still in the same spot did not seem to have time to dodge. Just like Hei Yu, he was hit by the giant claw with a "bang"...

No!

This was...

The claws that had already "slapped" began to open bit by bit. Through the gap, the "Apostle", whose entire body was wrapped in bone spikes, was revealed.

That was not all. The apostle had even turned the tables. Clouds of black mist, like tentacles, began to wrap around the chain that connected the giant claw and the fox-faced witch. The worst situation for the user of the chain claw appeared. Vivian could no longer use the chain to retrieve the giant claw that had flown out.

"As expected...I'm not very familiar with it."

"I feel that perhaps your journey in the Flame Region was too smooth? Or did that stupid 'lady' from the 'Lower Three Seats' give you confidence?"

"Now, I'll show you the power of the Three Middle Chiefs. Oh right, by the way, I'm an Apostle, and I'm not the executive officer of the Three Middle Chiefs because of my barbaric combat power, but..."

“Actually, what I’m best at...It was hypnotic control! It was... Hehehe, toying with a pure and fragile soul like you who has never experienced any hardship or suffered any pain!”

Chapter 703: Fox-faced Witch? Fox-Faced Witch (Part 2)

No, it can’t be...

The battle above them belonged to the NPCs. The players who had just opened the server for less than two months could not participate. They could only be spectators below.

However, they all looked worried because the situation was not optimistic.

The Fox-faced Witch, who had always been the main storyline NPC in the hearts of the players and was even jokingly called the “ official daughter ” by many people, was the same one who had just taught the bewitched players a lesson a few minutes ago with an invincible posture...

However, at this moment, he was at an absolute disadvantage in the battle with the “ Apostle.”

“How... How did this happen?” Hei Yu clenched his fists tightly. Logically speaking, this situation should be something that they would be happy to see. However, emotionally speaking, after stealing their level and profession from the “ Apostle “, this NPC had already been blacklisted by Hei Yu.

Therefore, he was now hoping that the fox-faced witch would beat up this scheming and arrogant “ apostle ” to vent their anger.

However, the reality was the complete opposite.

“Brother Yu, the fox-faced witch’s body seems to be...Very stiff?” There were a few combat professionals in Ka who quickly noticed the clues.

In the air, the pair of ferocious giant claws in the fox-faced witch's hands no longer seemed to be full of offensive weapons. Instead, they were reduced to defensive equipment that constantly blocked.

Moreover, whether it was in the first cinematic or the battle with the players just now, the agility that had been shown was completely invisible now.

He was like a wooden stake that stayed where he was and kept getting beaten up silently.

On the other hand, the Apostle seemed to have completely given up on defense. He attacked the fox-faced witch recklessly with a flawed posture, as if he was sure that the fox-faced witch would never fight back.

What exactly was this...

“Hehehe, fox-faced witch, or Vivian? Looks like your willpower is stronger than I imagined...”

The players couldn't hear the sound of the battle between the two players.

The "Apostle" looked at the fox-faced witch who was still struggling under his attack and mocked her.

“But even if you can resist it with your willpower, your soul has already fallen. If I'm not wrong, soon, even your limbs will not listen to you, right?”

” Don't try to resist anymore. The authority of 'consciousness' that I possess is inherited from the invincible 'First Immortal' who was unrivaled in the Divine Land and the only one in the world who was me. No one can escape my control!”

The "Apostle" said proudly. He didn't realize that he was in the middle of a battle, yet he said such... The strange lines felt out of place.

Or rather...This was the setting he had been set up with.

However, Vivian didn't notice the anomaly at the moment. She didn't have the energy to think about it.

Because as the Apostle said, when the other party used the so-called "consciousness" authority, Vivian felt that her soul was being separated from her body bit by bit.

It was like a stone sinking into the sea, falling into the dark abyss.

Right now, her resistance was just like the last struggle of a drowning person, but in the end, it would only be time for her to drown...

"Humph, idiot."

Just as Vivian's consciousness was about to completely fall and her soul was enveloped by the dark tide, suddenly, from the spiritual space that was supposed to be silent, came... A voice rang out.

It was an extremely familiar voice, a voice that had not appeared for a long time.

"I just took a nap. I just woke up and saw you in such a sorry state. Humph...How embarrassing." The voice in the darkness sounded like it was mocking.

However, Vivian only tried her best to open her eyes and look at the familiar figure of the girl in the spiritual space that was getting further and further away from her.

"Also... My other self, you finally...Finally..." The little girl's voice was weak and she could not even say a word.

Even though her soul was about to be stripped from her body by the 'apostle' and lose control of her body completely, sinking into the black tide of the abyss, Vivian's soul showed a relaxed smile.

The " apostle " outside did not know what was going on inside Vivian's body. He only felt that the little girl suddenly gave up resisting him.

This made the flames in the eyes of the " apostle " skeleton jump even more violently. It thought that Vivian could not hold on any longer, so it immediately added one last bit of strength, ready to completely absorb the little girl's soul and drag her out...

" What?!"

"This, how is this possible! This power was...Where did you get it from?" The skeletal face's jaw was opened vigorously. Even without any flesh, one could see the horror on the " Apostle "'s face.

That was because...

Idiot!

You trust me too much. What if I...What if I don't catch you?

The sinking of Vivian's soul stopped. No matter how much the Blacktide below dragged and tried to drown her, it was useless because she had grabbed onto that life-saving straw.

No, to be precise, that life-saving straw had grabbed her.

In the ocean of the soul world, above the drowning girl, another girl who looked exactly like her held her tightly at the last moment.

One white and one black, their fingers intertwined.

"You will also...You will also be followed..."

Chapter 704: Fox-faced Witch? Fox-Faced Witch (Part 2)

Looking at the little girl's silly look, the black girl's shadow sighed.

“Idiot! Don't tell me you've forgotten your Little Black's authority? Anyone can be afraid of the attack of the soul, but only you... Because if someone used their soul to attack you, it was not an attack, it was called... The sheep entered the wolf.

“But, but why, before I...” Vivian still looked confused. The feeling of powerlessness and soul being taken away was real.

“Otherwise, do you think...How did I wake up?”

The second personality seemed to think that no matter how much she explained it, it was better to explain it with actions. So she swung her arm hard, and the next moment, Vivian's soul was pulled out by her.

But in response, under the interaction, her own figure began to fall into the black tide.

However, the second personality did not struggle at all because she knew that in the next second...

Shua!

The figure of a black wolf leaped out of nowhere. Before the second personality's soul touched the black tide, it was firmly caught on its back.

Immediately after, the black wolf, which symbolized the power of an "Apostle" and had a great corrosive effect on the soul, ran on the tide as if it was flat ground.

In the end, the black wolf jumped steadily and returned to Vivian's spiritual space.

“That’s great! Little Black, and, and...Another.

Vivian’s heart was finally at ease, but it was like a taut string suddenly relaxed. Vivian’s main consciousness fainted before she could finish her sentence.

The second personality waved his hand in the mental space and created a white feather bed. The black wolf beside him carefully picked up the little girl and placed her on the bed.

If Liao Zixuan’s deduction was correct, there was definitely a connection between Ann and the second personality. After Ann disappeared, the second personality, who had not appeared since they met Ann, should have returned.

However, why did the second personality not reappear? Liao Zixuan felt that there might be one less anchor point, one less point for the second personality to return.

Therefore, Liao Zixuan did not stop him during the battle with the “Apostle”, especially after he absorbed the experience of the players and his strength soared. He also began to attack Vivian’s soul.

He wanted to use the ‘Apostle’ to put Vivian’s soul into a desperate situation, so that the ‘desperate situation’ could become the anchor point that could facilitate the return of the ‘second personality’.

The facts proved that he had succeeded.

So, if you play with the soul, you’ll be proud of yourself, the Apostle, and there’s no need to continue staying.

However...

The second personality and Hei Lang looked at each other. Unlike the pure little girl, Liao Zixuan felt that he was more in line with the second personality in some ways.

Just like now.

“If we let this fellow leave just like that, it would really be a pity. Why don’t we...Come and play a game!”

“The name of the game is...”

“Guess Who I Am”

The second personality disappeared from the spiritual space and took over Vivian’s body.

No matter what, as long as it was someone who hurt the little girl, their attitude was the same. Death? It was too cheap. They were going to...Before bestowing death, he had to return the previous one several times over!

Shua!

Vivian, who was in the middle of the ocean, opened her eyes.

The players who were further away might not have sensed it.

However, the “Apostle” who was his opponent was so shocked that he took the initiative to pull away and took a few steps back.

Because that eye...That kind of gaze...

Red eyes replaced the original black eyes, and killing and madness replaced the purity that the Apostle despised.

What the apostle saw in his eyes was pain and despair. He was the one who had finally turned into a human being and stepped on the pile of corpses after experiencing countless hardships and tortures.

She was...What had she experienced?

Wasn't she just a village girl in the Flame Domain? ?

But why did he see the Flame Domain, the Thousand Islands, Gui Li, Qing Feng, and even...He saw Lin Dong's...That apocalyptic scene!

It was as if the other party had come from the future, a daughter of disaster who had experienced and witnessed the destruction of the five nations...

“You... No! You're not Vivian. Who are you? ?”

The Apostle panicked and was afraid.

It was hard to imagine how a skeleton could express such emotions, but it did happen.

The reply to the Apostle was laughter.

“As expected, I knew that you would definitely want to play this game with us.”

“Wha... What game!” The apostle was stunned for a moment and asked subconsciously.

The girl under the fox demon mask licked her lips and smiled as she raised a finger.”Of course, guess who I am. The rules of the game are that if you guess wrong, I have to kill you.”

“And if you guess correctly, then the other way around... Let me kill you.”

Her slender fingers slid across her bright red lips, and a wicked smile appeared on her face.

The "Apostle" did not hesitate to turn around and run.

There was a change of plans. This masked fox maiden...This Vivian was completely different from the information he had received! It was not just different, the difference was huge!

A kind, pure, and flawless little girl would never have that kind of gaze, that expression, and that kind of words.

Chapter 705: Fox-faced Witch? Fox Face Witch (3)

There was only one type of person in the mind of the apostle who could do this.

Witch!

He had been deceived!

It turned out that Sanxing of the Thousand-island Sect, the foreigners who followed him, and even himself had been deceived!

Actually, the fox-faced witch was the one who had hidden the deepest.

No.

How was this still a fox-faced witch?

This was clearly...

Fox-faced Witch

“You...” Why did he run? The last person who played this game with me was not as timid as you.”The girl’s voice that suddenly rang in the Apostle’s ears startled him.

He turned his head and saw the girl’s devilish face so close to him that he was almost scared out of his wits.

The Apostle was shocked.

How was this possible?

Why did her speed suddenly become so fast?

No, not only the speed, but the coordination of the entire body, the technique of exerting force, and the movement technique had all instantly improved by many levels. If the original fox-faced witch gave the “Apostle” the feeling of a beginner who wanted to run before she could crawl.

However, the feeling that the fox-faced witch gave him now was like a veteran who had fought her way out of a sea of blood, a master who could fly.

Bang!

The body of the “Apostle” was like a high-speed cannonball, falling to the ground.

However, this time, he could not get up unharmed like last time.

That was because...

Kaboom!

A few bones appeared on the fox-faced witch's huge claws. She broke them in half and threw them away casually as if they were trash.

After the smoke and dust dissipated, the skeleton body of the "Apostle" in the pit had been hollowed out in several important joints.

"Hmph, that idiot actually only knows how to use the heart of his claw to slap others. The true use of his claw is, of course... I caught him!"

"You can't move now, right? Then next... Hmm, compared to a body of flesh and blood that would shatter at the slightest touch, your skeleton bones should be used as a wolf's claw! Giggle, Giggle, Giggle.

Everything happened too quickly.

The players in the sea below felt that they were still worried about the fox-faced witch a second ago. In the next second, for some unknown reason, the "apostle" in midair seemed to be frightened and began to flee in panic. Then, he was knocked down by the fox-faced witch who caught up with him at lightning speed.

After that was the scene in front of him.

In the players' field of vision, the fox-faced witch with two claws stepped on the "Apostle"'s skull with one foot and then bent down and used her bloody claws on the "Apostle"'s skeleton...

One claw, two claws...Five claws...Ten claws...

He alternated between left and right, waving his bloody claws crazily. Every swipe of his claws brought with it a scarlet afterimage, tearing the body of the "Apostle" apart like a mincing of meat... Bone Grinder.

This process lasted for half a minute.

The fox-faced witch stood up from the position of "Apostle". To be precise, she stood up from the ground full of broken bones.

"Ah, a toy. Is it broken?"

Since it was no longer a battle in the air and they had returned to the ground, the players finally heard the fox-faced witch's words clearly.

However, to them, especially the members of Ka, they would rather not hear it.

That was because...

"Eh? So all of you have been resurrected."

"Then do you guys want to come and play with me? My...New toys?"

As he spoke.

Under Hei Yu's horrified gaze, the fox-faced witch was like a rubber ball. After kicking away the skull of the 'Apostle' branch, she brought her blood-red claws that were eager to try and attack them...

He walked over step by step.

Chapter 706: Hei Yu's Decision (1)

"Alright, don't scare them." Vivian, who was in the mental space, had already woken up.

The second personality who controlled the body heard the helpless voice of the little girl in his mind. He first snorted, then without looking back, he suddenly threw the chain claw on his right hand behind him.

“Ah!”

A scream sounded. It was not a real sound, but from the soul level.

From the sky above the corpse of the “Apostle” that had just been smashed to the ground, a faint shadow of a soul suddenly appeared. After all, as the executive officer who controlled the “soul”, the body was naturally not the key. The soul was the main body.

He has been patiently lurking, waiting, waiting, waiting, waiting, waiting, waiting, waiting, waiting, waiting, waiting, waiting, waiting.

Unfortunately, the Apostle didn’t know about something called the “Kill Notification.”

Therefore, when the second personality pretended to focus his attention on the players, the “apostle” who saw the situation was fooled. He wanted to take advantage of the second personality to attack the players and escape. In the end, he did not know that his every move had been seen through.

The reason why it was like this was just like how sometimes a predator would not be in a hurry to kill its prey after catching it. Instead, it would play for a while before ending it.

Bloody Claw easily crushed the last bit of the “Apostle”’s remnant soul. Accompanied by this, the system’s kill notification sounded.

Ding! Congratulations on successfully killing “Apostle”, the executive officer of the “Middle Three Chiefs”. Obtained 489723 experience points.

Ding, you have leveled up to level 45.

Ding,[??] Favorability towards you has decreased by 500. Current relationship with [??] ? ?] Faction, relationship, update, status, status Hostile

Ding, you have obtained the achievement " Apostle Killer "

Ding! You have obtained a special item," Fragment of the Demonic Abyss "

A slightly dirty and filthy piece of the " Apostle "'s soul, which was the residue of the dead soul, appeared in Blood Claw's palm.

After taking it in and looking at it, the item panel immediately appeared.Demonic Abyss Fragmen

Rarity: Special Item

Effect: Choose one of the two. After using it on yourself, there is a small chance of obtaining the Abyssal Energy absorbed by the "Apostle" from the subordinates in the crystal (converted into EXP) and a random passive effect of "Abyssal"

" Effect 2: Choose one of the two. If used on the original host, 70% of the experience, profession, skills, and other basic attributes will be returned."

Note: 4:39 left before the crystal's energy dissipates...

Although the second personality and Vivian could not see the panel, they could roughly sense the use of the fragment.

Similar to the wolf cub, the second personality was about to crush the crystal without hesitation and use it on himself when Vivian stopped him.

Although the little girl did not say much, it was obvious from her expression that Vivian hoped to return the power in the crystal to the stranger.

“You!” The second personality was naturally angry and felt that he was not up to expectations.

As both parties shared memories, although the second personality had just woken up, he was still clear about what had happened before, such as the people in the Abyssal Sea who had brought it upon themselves, and Vivian’s proactive “blackening” behavior.

When the second personality saw the memory fragments of Vivian killing the foreigners, he thought that the other her had finally been enlightened, but now it seemed that she was wrong.

Even after experiencing so much, this little girl’s “stupidity” had not changed.

No.

There were still some changes.

“Xiao Hei, my other self, look, we’re not sure if we can absorb the power inside, and even if we do, it might not be able to adapt to our bodies. In that case, why don’t we return the power that originally belonged to others to the original owner and return it to the foreigners?”

“In this case, we will definitely be able to gain their gratitude. At that time, after we guide them a little, I believe they will definitely return to our side. We didn’t have time to deal with the three devices. Didn’t they take the initiative to destroy them? This is the best evidence that the outlanders aren’t bad by nature!”

Vivian’s analysis was very logical. She even gave an example. Now that the quake in the Abyssal Sea had disappeared, the snake in the Water God Palace was no longer crazy. The reason was that after the appearance of the fox-faced witch, the remaining players were so scared that they took the initiative to destroy the device, afraid that they would be the next Ka.

Although the little girl said that it was a manifestation of the players “not bad nature”, the little wolf cub pursed his lips. After all, after seeing the fox-faced witch like that, it was likely that no matter how bad the nature was, it was not “bad.”

However...

At least Vivian could find excuses now. She knew how to use gains and losses to convince others and use pros and cons to support her kindness. This was what Liao Zixuan was happy to see.

Well, although it seemed like it was still very forced to him.

With Vivian's luck value, as long as the probability was not zero, it was estimated that everything could be regarded as 100%. It was inevitable that she would successfully get the experience points inside. However, Liao Zixuan finally changed his mind after hesitating. He was inclined to agree with the little girl's suggestion or the subsequent one. It was not known whether it was good or bad, but it was forced to randomly use the passive skill "Magic Abyss".

According to the information he had gathered, this so-called "Demonic Abyss" was a new power system that Lin Dong had modified based on the "Fallen Abyss." Liao Zixuan firmly believed that as long as there was anything related to the "Fallen Abyss," there was nothing good about it. No matter how much experience points he gained, it was not worth it.

Chapter 707: Hei Yu's Decision (2)

Seeing that even Little Black agreed, the second personality had nothing to say.

"Hmph, do whatever you want!" The young girl turned her head and returned the control of her body to the little girl in a fit of pique. She then returned to her spiritual space.

These exchanges happened on the level of consciousness. In reality, it might only take a few breaths.

Therefore, in the eyes of Hei Yu and the other Ka players who were trembling in fear, the fox-faced witch paused for a few seconds after she completely wiped out the soul of the "Apostle ". Then, she shot the black crystal floating on her huge claw at them and crushed it with her chain claw.

All the players thought that this was some kind of skill of the Fox-faced Witch and that she was going to send them away again...

[Ding, you have recovered your lost strength by absorbing the " Fragment of the Abyssal Abyss "]

[Ding, you have leveled up to level 11... Level 14...Level 15...]

[Ding! Your Profession," Abyssal Lurker ", has been unlocked.]

[Ding, your skill...]

"Wha... What?"

The sweet voice of the system echoed in their minds, causing the players of Ka to be in disbelief.

Guild Leader Black Feather immediately opened his character interface. When he saw the level, attributes, skills, and classes, he suddenly felt like crying.

Although it was still quite lacking compared to the beginning, Hei Yu's heart had long since completely lost the slightest bit of complaint. There was only endless joy and...Gratitude.

There was nothing more touching than "getting back what was lost".

If he had to.

That might be the good person who helped you "recover what you lost", or the person you previously regarded as an enemy.

"Fox...Fox Sect!"

As the president, Hei Yu still had some image baggage. However, the vast majority of the ordinary members of Ka had already imitated “Amen” and started to shout “Foxgate”.

In fact, the people from the Ka Guild were not Sakuragi Island players to begin with, so they did not have much contact with the Fox-faced Witch. Most of their impression of this NPC came from the descriptions of other Thousand Islands players on the forum.

I believe that many people have this kind of situation. When a certain thing is constantly praised, there will always be a rebellious mentality in their hearts. This is the case for people like Ka. Is the fox-faced witch really that good? Or perhaps, a silly and sweet Virgin Mary NPC was so boring, but a dark and domineering NPC was more handsome!

However, reality proved it.

For the Fox-faced Witch to be so popular among the players of Sakuragi Island, she definitely deserved it. There was no doubt about it.

And...

They thought that the dark, domineering, and scheming NPCs would only use and deceive them. They had truly helped them, but in the end, they did not forget about them, the “traitors”...

It was still the “Holy Mother” NPC that they had looked down on at the beginning.

No.

In the current environment of the forum, the word ‘Holy Mother’ had already been twisted into a kind of derogatory term. Therefore, Hei Yu would not allow the fox-faced witch to suffer such grievances. He felt that perhaps it would be better to use ‘angel’ instead of ‘Holy Mother’!

After all.

Whether it was in reality or in the game, everyone actually hoped that an "angel" from next door would descend to their side, right?

[President, I'm sorry! But I decided to quit this game that I don't even know the name of. ? ?] Faction! If this goes against the development purpose of our KO, then, then there's no need for the guild leader to tank. I'll take the initiative to leave.]

[I... That's true.]

[I'm really grateful to the president and the Ka family, but after experiencing this Abyssal Sea storyline, I think I want to go to Sakuragi Island even more...]

[President, I'm sorry...]

In the Ka guild channel, messages popped up one after another. Some of them might be genuine, but there was no denying that some of them were aware of the situation and wanted to transfer because of Black Feather's series of wrong decisions.

Due to the death of the faction NPC "Apostle", the faction mission that players were forced to do and the restriction of not being able to leave the faction were canceled.

"Yu, Brother Yu...What do we do now?" A female player with the ID "White Feather" looked worriedly at Black Feather, who had a gloomy expression on his face.

From her ID, one could tell the relationship between the two of them. As a veteran of Ka and Hei Yu's childhood sweetheart, she had watched Hei Yu pull the small Ka operation all the way to the current super large guild.

However, if this storm was not handled well, it was very likely that...

[First of all, I want to make it clear that our Ka guild's policy will not change. ? ?] Faction, as long as you're still a Ka Ka member, you're not allowed to leave.]

A very eye-catching paragraph appeared in the Ka guild channel. It was obvious that this was a privilege only the guild leader had.

White Feather sighed.

As expected...

In her impression, Hei Yu was a person who cared a lot about his face. If the other members did not say anything, it would be fine. However, if they did, Hei Yu might insist and prove that he was not wrong for the sake of his face.

As expected.

[However, before you decide to quit or change factions, I hope you will listen to what I have to say.]

[First of all, it can be used in the game?] [It means that they are far more powerful than our current version, or even the next version, and will only appear in the next version. Therefore, the question mark camp that we have joined with the help of the Apostle is definitely a very powerful force in this game. Once we quit now, it is unknown whether we will have the opportunity to join again in the future. The faction Favorability that we have exchanged for with the Thousand Islands will be lost.]

[Secondly, I admit my mistake. Because of my many mistakes in decision-making, you, myself, and the entire Ka Guild have suffered huge losses. If you want to leave Ka because you are disappointed in me, I can't stop you, nor do I have the face to stop you. However, if you want to leave Ka because of the game plot, because you like the Fox-faced Witch, and because you want to repay the Fox-faced Witch, then I think you should stay.]

“Yu...Brother Yu?” White Feather looked at Black Feather’s message in the guild channel and revealed a shocked and confused expression.

What shocked her was that Hei Yu, who was so concerned about his reputation, actually took the initiative to admit his mistake.

What puzzled him was that Hei Yu's words were a little contradictory.

He had just mentioned that the members of the Ka Guild were not allowed to leave Winter's mysterious camp, but now he was saying that he actually wanted to stand on the Fox-faced Witch's side?

Isn't this contradictory?

From the battle between the fox-faced witch and the "Apostle", even a fool could tell that the fox-faced witch was definitely fighting with this "?? ?" Their factions were completely hostile. They were sworn enemies, right?

Most of the Ka members. They all had doubts about the current White Feather.

As for Black Feather...

Heh.

A confident smile appeared on his face.

Hei Yu felt that he was a little like the villain character in the novel, who was defeated everywhere, but...Don't underestimate him! He was the president of the industry's top Ka!

Therefore...

Hei Yu finally typed these words in the guild channel.

[Finally, it's true that you can leave the question mark faction and join the fox-faced shrine faction, but I want to say that this is the stupidest way. Why should we give up? It's not easy to get the favorability from the mysterious faction of Winter. Why can't we beat them at their own game and infiltrate the enemy's inner circle! ?]

“Beat...Infiltrating the enemy?” White Feather stared at the chat channel with his eyes wide open.

[That’s right. Think about it carefully. Since this mysterious faction is so powerful and has such a huge background, and the fox-faced witch is an NPC who appeared in the early stages of the game, she has been targeted by this faction. One can imagine what kind of revenge she will face in the future. Therefore, instead of giving up everything now and starting from zero, no, starting from negative 1000 favorable impression points with the fox-faced witch, why...]

[We won’t continue to lurk in this mysterious camp to dig up information about the enemy and figure out the movements of the villains. Then! The most critical moment of the game, defection, become a hero, can help fox face witch desperate turn of the hero!]

[You guys... What do you think?]

Chapter 708: End or New Disaster?_1

After dealing with the “ apostle “, the players were almost done cleaning up the mess. The most important thing was that they had obtained the important item [Water God’s Chain] from the Abyssal Sea.

Of course, there were still many unknown mysteries.

For example, this mysterious item from the cold winter? ? ? J Faction, what was the purpose of doing all this, such as the connection between Ann and the second personality, and such as...

“Eh? What is this?” The second personality, who had returned to the mental space, suddenly asked.

Vivian and the wolf cub also appeared. They looked at the second personality’s left hand.

There was a pattern of a small green snake there. The second personality had not noticed it because he was focused on the battle with the “ apostle.”

This snake pattern!

Vivian and the second personality were confused, but the wolf cub recognized it immediately because the pattern was not unfamiliar to him. It was the snake who had helped him in the " cycle of death " and called himself " Meow."

The appearance of the snake was exactly the same as the one on the second personality's palm!

"Ah!" The second personality suddenly cried out in shock.

Because when she used her other hand to touch the green snake pattern on her left hand, a green light flashed from the pattern and covered the entire spiritual space.

This was not enough to make the second personality exclaim.

The girl really exclaimed, the reason is that the green light faded, unexpectedly there was a milky white egg, appeared in front of her in the light.

Most importantly, she still had the guts to...It was a very intimate feeling.

What the hell!

Even if it was a child, it shouldn't be an egg! Although she was a second personality, she was still a human!

What made her even more embarrassed was...

Vivian and her little wolf cub were constantly changing their expressions.

The little girl's eyes widened at first, and her gaze kept moving between the egg and the second personality. Then, she covered her mouth in disbelief. However, in the end, she seemed to finally realize how she could be like this, so she quickly put on a comforting and understanding expression.

“The other me, it's, it's okay...”

There was no relationship!

The second personality angrily chopped off Vivian's feet and then looked at the side with a murderous look. Although he looked like a harmless wolf cub, he was actually very dirty.

As for this egg, it was just short of a “Although a person...” But I can't...” These words were written all over his face.

“I told you, it's not what you think! I, I don't know what this is at all, and I don't even know where this egg came from!”

It was not bad to occasionally admire the second personality's blushing and angry appearance.

Before the second personality was born, the wolf cub would smash the egg or cook it to eat. The wolf cub no longer teased the girl.

The little wolf cub asked the girl to put the egg down, then walked to the side of the egg that was about a little bigger than him and placed his little paw on it.

[Devour Realm Egg]

[Rarity: Orange (Legendary)]

[Introduction: Inside is the descendant of the forbidden monster, Orochi, who was corrupted by the Fallen Abyss-the World Devouring Snake. It should have been a young life of a dead egg, but under special circumstances, it miraculously gained new life.]

[Current Maturity: 100%]

[Hatchable: No]

(Hint: Not all incubation conditions have been met.)

A row of game interface prompts appeared. It was as the wolf cub had guessed, and it finally explained the mystery of the identity of the mysterious Mayo who had appeared to help him.

Orochi's heir...A descendant corrupted by the Fallen Abyss...

Liao Zixuan carefully recalled the plot of the past life. There was indeed no news related to this egg. In other words, the appearance of this egg was influenced by Vivian's butterfly wings?

From the introduction of the egg, it was originally a "dead egg".

Although the system could not provide detailed information on the special reason for turning this "dead egg" into a "living egg," Liao Zixuan believed that there was a 90% chance that this "special reason" was... Ann!

It was very likely that before Ann left, she had made some kind of deal or agreement with the snake, which made the snake willingly entrust its "dead egg" to Ann.

Now that the egg had appeared here, it proved that the snake had made the right bet. Ann had indeed revived the egg.

According to what Meow had told him before, her forbidden authority as the World Devouring Snake was the power of 'infinity' and 'devour'. She had the ability to devour even time and space, and thus travel through infinite world lines.

Then everything seemed to have a vague explanation.

Liao Zixuan had always been puzzled as to how this second personality, which was like a "main account," appeared in an ordinary village girl.

Now, the answer to this question was finally revealed, because the second personality was Vivian's "main account", but it came from another world line.

With the ability of "Meow," Ann really did what she said in her parting letter, crossing the world line to "visit."

However, it seemed like there was something wrong with the time coordinates? And even his memories were in disorder? Which led to the appearance of a second personality?

Chapter 709: End or New Disaster?_2

Hiss, from the looks of it, it seemed that it was not appropriate to describe it as a casual visit.

In Liao Zixuan's impression of Ann, she was definitely not such a reckless person, and she would not take such a big risk just to visit.

Then, there seemed to be only one possibility left.

This was a type of Ann...Forced to choose?

Speaking of which, back then, Meow had also been inexplicably 'angry' with him and had said something that he could not understand.

[If you still leave without saying goodbye in the future...]

It seemed that he had cleared the fog, but in fact, Liao Zixuan realized that after clearing the fog, he only wanted to walk into a bigger secret room.

The wolf cub shook its head.

It was useless for him to let his imagination run wild.

Moreover, he had made a breakthrough. Compared to the previous time when he could only feel the fog, this time he had a key to unlock the secret chamber.

This key was the egg in front of him.

Therefore, what Liao Zixuan wanted to do most now was to hatch the egg as soon as possible and let the World Devouring Snake come out. He hoped that the real Meiu of their world would give him and them an answer.

After briefly explaining the relationship between the egg and Orochi to Vivian and the second personality, the second personality finally heaved a sigh of relief and cleared up the misunderstanding.

As for Ann, the future, more Meiwu, and all the suspicions he had before, Liao Zixuan did not say them out loud. He hid them in his heart.

Back in front of him.

Why was it that the egg, which had a 100% hatching rate, was still unable to hatch? The prompt indicated that all the conditions for hatching had not been met. What else were they lacking?

Obviously, Liao Zixuan couldn't think of any of this, so he could only ask Orochi.

Therefore, they immediately set off and continued to head deeper into the Water God Palace to search for Orochi.

“You guys...As expected.”

“I’m sorry, Lord Yamata. We’re too late. Are...are you okay?”

Faced with Vivian’s concern, the Hakone Serpent shook its head and did not answer. Instead, it suddenly asked,”

“Can I see my child?”

Vivian was a little surprised at first, but she soon understood. The perception of forbidden monsters was very powerful, not to mention their own bloodline. Orochi must have discovered the egg on their bodies long ago.

The dark green light flashed.

The egg, which was a forbidden monster and would probably be fought over by countless forces in the Nine Nations, was carefully held in Vivian’s arms and then raised to the snake.

“As expected... As expected...” The Yamata-no-Orochi’s tongue was constantly sticking out of its mouth. Its muttering echoed in the depths of the silent Water God Palace.

This state lasted for a few minutes before Orochi finally calmed down. It was as if a huge stone had finally been put down in its heart. It was as if...

He had accepted something.

“I hope that you can help me...”Take good care of my child and let her follow you all. Don’t be like me and stay on the Thousand Islands. I can feel that her bloodline potential far surpasses mine. Her stage should be even bigger. Therefore, I can’t let her bear the fate of our Eight Limbed Clan. For this, I’m willing to give up everything.”

It could be heard that Orochi's "you" was not referring to Vivian and the wolf cub, but the little girl and her other self. The Yamata no Orochi had also noticed the existence of the second personality, or rather, had expected it.

"Alright, we promise Lord Yamata that we will definitely nurture this child well. So, you don't have to be like this. Saying that we're willing to give up everything is really too..."

Vivian quickly assured Orochi and even shook her head, feeling that Orochi had gone too far.

Only the little wolf cub next to him began to notice that the atmosphere was not right and frowned.

Chapter 710: End or New Disaster?_3

"Lord Ba Qi, but the current situation is that we do not know how to hatch the egg..." Vivian asked the key question

"Because, there has always been a key factor that has been restricting her."

"What's that? How can we be satisfied?" This time, it was not Vivian but the second personality who could not help but ask.

However, what she received was another shake of the snake's head.

"No, you can't do it."

"Let's do...Can't do it?"

"Judging from the expression of your companion, he should already understand what the key factor limiting the birth of a new forbidden monster is."

Orochi finally looked at the wolf cub beside the fox-faced witch with its orange eyes. It was different from the way Orochi looked at Vivian. Liao Zixuan could feel another emotion from Orochi's eyes.

He entrusted the child to him.

When Vivian's eyes, which were eager for answers, immediately shifted to the wolf cub...

“Baqi, you mean...Uniqueness, right?”

The wolf cub sighed.

Before the little girl could react, magic fluctuations began to appear from the Yamata no Orochi's body, and a teleportation array appeared under the feet of the fox-faced witch and the wolf cub.

If one looked away from the depths of the Water God Palace and looked at the players outside, they would find that the same teleportation array was also flashing under their feet.

“I will send all of you out of the Abyssal Sea and back to Cherry Tree Island. Please spread this news and ask Qian Dao to...Prepare the defense. Please help me to tell the people of the Thousand Islands who trust me. If there are any more, please help me to tell them... Apologize, they once had a god who made them...I'm disappointed.”

“W-what are you talking about...” Before Vivian could finish her sentence, the teleportation portal under her feet flashed with white light.

In the next moment, not only the Witch and the wolf cubs, but all the players in the Abyssal Sea were teleported away by Orochi.

Because next...

The snake head that was the last one to talk to Vivian had returned to the bottom of the pool in the depths of the temple. If anyone could see the scene here, they would definitely be shocked.

Because at the bottom of the deep pool, there were seven remaining snake heads lying on the ground.

As for the remaining head...

It began to use all of its power as a forbidden demon to hit the bottom of the divine pool.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

Once, twice, ten times...

No one knew how many times they had crashed into the bottom of the pool. Finally, cracks began to appear. Even the smallest crack was enough to suppress the evil sealed under the pool.

“Is this what you mean by... It’s decided at dawn.”

“Even so, I still...Trust him, trust them...”

Recalling what the blue-haired witch had said to it when time stopped, the Hakone Serpent recited the name it would remember for the rest of its life.

“Deep Waters...Flor...”

Boom!

A black tide surged out of the crack like ink, dyeing everything black, including Orochi’s head.

However, this was far from satisfying the Black Tide's wish. They were like a group of cockroaches that had been released and began to spread in the Abyssal Sea that had lost its guardian. In the end...

It broke out of the cocoon and the limitation of the Abyssal Sea, spreading its evil tentacles to the entire Thousand-island Sea Area!
