

THE STARS ARE ORIGINALLY A PAIR - SEMI-FINALS

An Xingyue slowly opened her eyes and looked at the environment she was in confusedly, after a few seconds, An Xingyue remembered that she slept with Meow Meow last night, and the two of them chatted until after 2:00 am.

An Xingyue looked at Ji Yiyang, who was lying beside her and still awake, and looked at the time, 7:10 am.

An Xingyue rubbed her eyebrows helplessly and nudged Ji Yiyang with her hand, the written part of the semi-finals was held at Beida this morning at nine o'clock, so she had to go over and find a good examination room in advance, and now she had to get up.

Ji Yiyang opened her eyes wide and looked at An Xingyue, "Why is Yueyue awake so early? Can you sleep a little longer?"

"It's after seven o'clock now, didn't the teachers say yesterday that they should all appear in the hotel lobby by eight twenty and then go to Peking University early to find an examination room? If we don't get up again, we won't have enough time." An Xingyue actually didn't even wake up herself and said with a sleepy feeling.

"Ahhhhh, why did we both talk so late last night before going to bed? I'm still sleepy na." Ji Yiyang pulled the quilt over her head and said dejectedly.

"I'm sleepy too, but I still have to get up." An Xingyue saw Ji Yiyang's movement and hung her head, she didn't want to get up either.

The first time I saw the game, I didn't want to participate in the game. > <

The two people who did not sleep enough to clean up after themselves, walked to the hotel dining restaurant, after enjoying breakfast, An Xingyue looked at the time, it is now eight o'clock can still sleep twenty minutes.

So the two people appeared in the hotel lobby, did not see other people, so others should still be eating breakfast, and then the two people look at each other after sitting on the sofa, leaning against each other, together to make up for the big sleep.

And at the time when they will be week, the remaining people of the first middle school and the people of Jiangcheng Foreign Language School just met, so they appeared in the lobby together.

The first teacher was a bit speechless when he saw the two of them and thought they were not still in the room to study, but he knew they were not worried at all and were sleeping directly.

Su Chon clenched his fist on the side of his mouth to cover the corners of his mouth smile, and then looked at the first middle school side, and then looked at the two people sleeping, but really unexpected.

And after hearing the sound of tiny footsteps and talking that was getting closer and closer, An Xingyue had started to wake up, just when the teacher was about to call them up, An Xingyue opened her eyes and also woke up Ji Yiyao, after lazily greeting several teachers, An Xingyue rubbed her eyes, took a sip of water, and then got a lot of spirit.

Ji Yiyao was startled for a moment when she opened her eyes and saw the group of people who appeared in her sight, but quickly came back to her senses and greeted them calmly.

After watching the two people quickly adjust themselves, those who saw them were a little surprised, if they hadn't seen them with their own eyes, who would have thought that these two people had just woken up?

Ms. Lai wanted to say a few words about them, but the exam was about to take place later, and she felt that she couldn't say anything about them before the exam, in case it affected their emotions, and then what if they failed the exam?

After the two schools had a little business boasting with each other, they went towards their respective prepared cars and set off for Peking University.

And An Xingyue in the car after talking to night Xiu Chen, because today's are written exams, so are a test room for the examination, into the examination room of the strict degree comparable to the college entrance examination.

That's why yesterday night Xiu Chen said to go with her to Peking University, she refused him, otherwise she was inside the test, he was waiting outside?

The weather is so cold now, how cold is it to wait outside? So An Xingyue and night Xiu Chen said to wait until she got into the finals to see, anyway, there is nothing to see now.

And the final has live quiz, live essay, etc., is provided with audience seats.

After arriving at Peking University, the teacher of the first middle school took the five of them to the examination room, because it was a nationwide event, so even if only five people came from each school, there were quite a lot of people.

The teacher of the first school told them that there were 350 people in total to participate in the semi-finals, but only 100 people entered the finals, after which ten people entered the finals, and among these ten people the top three had to be decided.

After all, the top three have ten extra points in the entrance exam. (* ^ ^ ^ *)

In the semi-finals, the top 100 people with the highest scores were selected to enter the finals by the total score of the morning paper and the 2,000-word extended essay in the afternoon.

I entered the examination room at 8:50, and the test started at 9:00 and lasted until 12:00, a full three hours. There are no essays on the test paper, it is all multiple choice and short answer questions, and forty percent of the language content from elementary to high school, and then fifty percent are selected from the "National Language", "Analects", "Poetry", etc. The remaining ten percent of the test is a famous foreign literature.

It can be said to include the East and West and the ancient and modern.

When An Xingyue saw the test paper, she first browsed through it and then had a number in her heart, and as soon as the bell rang, she immediately started doing the questions.

Three hours passed in the blink of an eye, An Xingyue came out of the examination room, found the organization, found that she was the first to arrive, others in different examination rooms have not yet come out.

The teachers of the first middle school saw An Xingyue come out and wanted to ask her how she did, but they didn't think they should give pressure to her, so the three teachers looked at each other.

An Xingyue saw their expressions and body movements, hooked the corners of her mouth, "Teacher, don't worry, the test paper is quite easy, no accidents in the afternoon, that top 100 I can definitely enter."

"Good good." Vice Principal Guan heard An Xingyue's words and responded.

One after another other people also came out, after An Xingyue saw Ji Yiyuan, her face was not the least bit frustrated and other emotions indicating that Meow Meow was still sure.

"Since everyone is here, let's go together to eat in the cafeteria of Peking University, then the examination will start at two o'clock in the afternoon, two hours for you to stroll around Peking University or find a place to have a good rest."

Vice President Guan looked at the five of them and said, originally intended to go out to eat, but the Peking University side said that for the sake of their afternoon exams, so it is best to eat in the cafeteria of Peking University, at least there will be no problems.

"Today, we will eat in the canteen at noon, and after the examination in the afternoon, I will personally pay for you to go out to eat hot pot." Vice President Guan saw their heads drooping when they heard they were going to eat in the cafeteria, then he said generously.

"You guys don't underestimate the canteen of Peking University, you should know that the university canteen meals are very good, especially these of Peking University." Another teacher accompanying the team, Mr. Cao, said.

Ji Yiyuan pulled An Xingyue to follow the teacher towards the canteen, where to eat is the same, while eating at school there is more time to rest.

Although this morning's paper is quite sure, but after three hours of continuous examination, the whole person is a little tired, Ji Yiyuan now just want to quickly eat lunch, and then find a place to rest.
