

THE STARS ARE ORIGINALLY A PAIR - WHY ARE WE STILL TOGETHER? (FROM THE HEART OF THE FATHER)

The day of New Year's Eve, An Xingyue woke up in the morning and walked out of the living room to see her mother fiddling with the New Year's Eve goods, and then her father was already making tea and watching.

An Xingyue really did not expect that they were really on vacation this time, instead of changing to another place to continue working, and they were not shouted back in the middle, which is really rare.

Guan Yaxin was making something, when she saw An Xingyue come out, she immediately took out the breakfast, "Yueyue, your father and I have already eaten breakfast, this is what your father made, try it."

An Xingyue looked at the breakfast on the table, obscurely glanced at An Guoting who was drinking tea but his eyes kept glancing this way, so she obediently sat down and started eating breakfast.

As an honest child, I have to say that An's father's breakfast making standards are still online.

After enjoying the hot breakfast, An Xingyue sat on the other side of the sofa and took her cell phone to start replying, after all, she woke up in the morning and saw a lot of New Year wishes, although not very familiar, but courtesy.

The company's main goal is to provide the best possible service to its customers.

An Guo Ting will take a look at what An Xingyue is doing in a few seconds, and his mouth will open and close, but he won't make any sound. The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers.

Although An Xingyue is looking at the phone, but it does not mean she did not notice An Guo Ting's gaze, but the young lady said the enemy is not moving I do not move, who moves first who is in the passive.

And An Xingyue felt that it was not her intention to socialize, since this is the case, then she did not open her mouth, anyway, she did not know what to say.

An Guoting waited for a while and did not wait for An Xingyue to open her mouth, but he wanted to chat with An Xingyue himself, so An Guoting opened his mouth. "Yue Yue, Daddy wants to know how you and that Night Xiu Chen are doing now?"

At the beginning An Xingyue and night Xiu Chen together, An Guoting just did not agree, at first it was because he did not want his daughter and him to create a bigger gap, so he had to accept that fact, now after a few months, I guess the feelings are not that good, right?

After all, in An's father's opinion, An Xingyue and their so-called like how will last? But it's just curiosity.

I have to say that An Dad does not understand An Xingyue's character at all, if it is not serious, how would they get together in the first place? The little sister has always been serious about her feelings.

"It's good, he and I are fine now." An Xingyue replied seriously, she and night Xiu Chen two are very good, especially the big brother picked up the books again for her, which made her very touched.

And after so long she also knows that night Xiu Chen, like her, treat this relationship are very cherished and serious, after all, they are in love with the idea of spending the rest of their lives together.

That is to say no surprise, this relationship of theirs is for the purpose of marriage.

"..... Ohhhh, that's good." An Guo Ting froze for a moment, why would this look like this? The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the market.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers.

In fact, even if the big brother is a very good person, but in An dad's opinion there are still a lot of bad, after all, you do not expect a father will have a good feeling about a person who wants to steal his daughter.
