

THE STARS ARE ORIGINALLY A PAIR - SHOW

After returning home from dinner with Night Xiu Chen, An Xingyue received a message from An's mother who was far away across the ocean.

[Yueyue, mommy just got off the plane, did you have a good day back at school? It's evening there, have you had dinner yet? Did you have dinner? And mommy sent money to your card, did you receive it?

Before An Xingyue could reply to her, An Dad's message came in, glanced at it, almost the same meaning, but An Xingyue was curious why An Dad sent her a message only at this time, mother because she just got off the plane, what about him? Just got out of the research institute?

An Xingyue returned their messages, and then looked at her bank card balance, very good, she is a rich person now.

After taking a shower, An Xingyue went back to the study and took out today's newly issued language book, intending to go through it first, after all, it was a long time ago that I borrowed someone else's and read it again, looking for a feeling, and by the way, to see if there was anything different.

And night Xiu Chen at this time also happened to open the math book, ready to prep, after all, he previously in order to make up for not learning has wasted a lot of time, now to keep up based on the advance prep, this way even if the class sleep can also keep up with the progress.

Then the two study people opened the video, we learn together, although the subjects are different, but mainly depends on the person.

That said, after leaving from school, Zhou Junxing consulted Ji Yiyang's wishes after taking her to the snack street to eat, and Ji Yiyang also called back to tell her parents that she and her classmates were eating out and not going back.

The air was filled with pink bubbles after the relationship was established and alone together.

Do not dare to watch the school bully in love, but you can watch Zhou Gongzi's ah, so Eddie Chen shamelessly pulled Luo Junxian followed behind Zhou Junxing to see the new hands, the name said to accumulate experience.

In fact is that Eddie Chen really can not believe that Zhou Junxing the boy is really in love, so must see with their own eyes the two of them get along, and then estimated to believe, estimated to die, Zhou Gongzi is really off the list.

Ji Yiyang found following the two people after a little embarrassed, then pulled Zhou Junxing, let him look at his brother is not something to find him, has been following them.

Zhou Junxing quickly glared at the two of them, then took out his cell phone and spat out the two childish people in the group as hard as he could, finally warning them to stop following him and disturbing his two-person world.

Given the seriousness of Zhou Junzi, Eddie Chen and Luo Junxian left after receiving the message, after all, they saw it on the line, and then continued Zhou Junzi would really get mad.

But the next day the two people were still extorted a big meal by Zhou Junxing, but in the way of the opening exams, so the gathering was postponed to Saturday night, and then everyone started to improvise.

After all, the school has just started, living expenses and so on are only given, if not yet warmed up to be taken back how poor ah, and some people even the New Year's red envelope are threatened, so the opening exam absolutely can not be smashed.

After all, into the pocket of the money how can easily take it out?

The first day of the test is the language, mathematics and physics, because the last final exam, An Xingyue and night Xiu Chen is the first and second, so this test two people are in the same examination room, can be said to be very lucky. Zhou Junxing, on the other hand, is a bit miserable, after all, Ji Yiyan is in the second examination room, and he went to the fifteenth examination room, the distance between the first and third floor.

At the entrance of the examination room, night Xiu Chen carried milk to An Xingyue and, then An Xingyue also held a cup of warm milk tea in her hand, because night Xiu Chen felt a little cold in the morning, and then An Xingyue's hand temperature is relatively low, so deliberately bought a cup of hot milk tea to warm her hands.

"Is Ah Chen sure about this exam?" An Xingyue tilted her head and asked, after all, his ability is not worse than hers, so will the school bully compete with her for the first place in this exam? Besides, he was only a few points lower in the last final exam.

"It must be, so what does Yueyang'er plan to eat for lunch after the language exam?" Night Xiu Chen said overbearingly, and then asked her what she wanted to eat at noon, before the test is already won, I have to say, night Xiu Chen's former style began to show again.

"Well, actually I want to eat hot pot, now the weather is cold, eat hot pot warm, but noon is only such a period of time, eat hot pot then a little rushed, I still want to nap." An Xingyue said lostly, she and night Xiu Chen had eaten hot pot several times, so she still wanted to eat, but between hot pot and nap, she chose nap.

"Well, it's a little bit rushed, so let's not eat hot pot first, eat something else, for hot pot, after we finish all the subjects on Friday, and we don't have to study at night, we can go eat again." Night Xiu Chen touched An Xingyue's head and slowly said.

Look at An Xingyue and milk get to the corner of the mouth with a white edge, night Xiu Chen leaned over and directly kissed the white edge away, until the school bully up, An Xingyue only put back the wide eyes, this person is really too shameless, and also to get an inch, before saying well can not be in public this way, can every time use her soft heart to bully her.

Night Xiu Chen pressed his voice and laughed lightly, the magnetic voice sounded: "The same table does not think this is very good? And no need to waste tissues." And also can swear sovereignty, after all, now there are still some people when he does not exist, actually just the beginning of the school year and someone sent love letters.

An Xingyue glared at him in annoyance, then looked around embarrassed, fortunately the teacher had not come yet, otherwise her persona of a good student would have collapsed even more.

But aware of the envy and jealousy or other eyes around, An Xingyue still reached out and twisted on the waist of night Xiu Chen, and in order to have a better effect, An Xingyue's hand is directly into the clothes, otherwise there are clothes in the way even if the twist is not felt.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers. Do not always twist here ah."

"Oh, why should we change it? I think it's fine, you don't feel the pain anyway, otherwise how would you keep committing it? Hm." An Xingyue said expressionlessly, aren't these pains just tickles to him? What pity to play.

The people around looked at the two people as if no one was spreading dog food, a little breakdown, the examination is current, the big brother why beauty can not be put aside first, and also let so people do lemon essence.

But can be in the first examination, the results are great, psychological quality is also okay, and just not long, the invigilator came, for the first time feel to see the invigilator, can enter the examination room is a very wonderful thing, or have been staying outside, big brother still do not know how long to show love it?
