

THE STARS ARE ORIGINALLY A PAIR - OUTING

"Guoting, it's already night, you should send Xiu Chen home." Guan Yaxin looked at the time and looked at An Guo Ting and said, the child is dangerous to go home alone at night, it is better to let dad send him back.

"In fact, the brat can stay at our house, anyway, he will come home alone." An Guo Ting glanced at the two children who were whispering and said with a smile.

Guan Yaxin seriously looked at the two children, in fact, it is also right, Xiu Chen back is also a person might as well just pack up and live in their home, although she and Dad sometimes very busy, may not be able to take care of the two of them, but two people can also be companion, better than a person at home.

"Ask Xiu Chen, if you are willing, go home tonight first, pack up tomorrow and just stay at our house directly."

"Xiu Chen, are you willing to come and stay at our house? If uncle and aunt are not available, you and Yue Yue can still be a companion." Guan Yaxin greeted night Xiu Chen over, then seriously and seriously asked to.

Night Xiu Chen was shocked for a moment, he thought the occasional overnight stay was already a benefit given by father An, now he actually asked if he was willing to come and stay here, was this true?

"Auntie, will it be not good for me to live here?" Night Xiu Chen asked back with apprehension but expectation.

"What's wrong with that? You and Yueyue are lovers, sometimes when your Uncle An and I are not available, you can still keep Yueyue company, and in the future after school or something you don't have to send Yueyue home first and then go home by yourself." Guan Yaxin looked at the night Xiu Chen who had a tense face in front of her, but his eyes lit up, and smiled, his mouth is his heart na, obviously in his heart, but on the surface he still cared about the etiquette.

"In that case, then do as you say, auntie." Hahahahahahaha, it's good to live under the same roof with Yue Yue baby in the future.

"Mm-hmm, later on uncle will send you home, then you pack your things tomorrow, auntie will go over and pick you up, after that you will live in our house." Guan Yaxin clapped her hands and went over the process.

"OK." The corners of Night Xiu Chen's mouth curved and he replied solemnly.

And An Xingyue was a little confused, why would dad agree to mom's suggestion, you know dad is looking at Ah Chen all kinds of displeasure, occasionally staying one night is okay, directly staying in, dad actually agreed?

But this is good, otherwise when parents are busy, and she is the only one at home, Achen moved in, at least a companion, and Achen does not have to be alone at home.

The next day night Xiu Chen packed up his things and moved into the An family home, and An's mother even gave him an extra key to take with him.

Because An Dad had to squeeze in a family gathering on Sunday, so on Saturday, An Dad worked overtime, and then Guan Yaxin took the two kids out for dinner and gave some things to Night Xiu Chen by the way.

An Xingyue held her mother, night Xiu Chen followed them to carry things, and then originally only wanted to buy a little essential, who knew that the more you buy more and more, Guan Yaxin more shopping more and more high, An Xingyue and night Xiu Chen a face of life.

It's true that mom usually works and has less time to shop, so once she has time to shop, she can't stop a bit.

On Sunday morning, An Guo Ting prepared breakfast and waited for everyone to get up and use it and bring all their things, then they set off.

When they arrived at the nongjiajia, the three of them followed An Dad skillfully in, if not know An Dad had not been here, An Xingyue thought this was An Dad's territory, so skilled.

Because the farmhouse has mountains and water, so you can go fishing in the creek, and some water projects, and it is in the suburbs, so the weather is not so hot, and occasionally there are a few wisps of breeze blowing through.

An Xingyue wanted to play in the creek, so she encouraged Night Xiu Chen to go with her, and then said something to An's father, and the two of them left hand in hand.

Why not talk to Guan Yaxin? Because mom always worries too much, and An Xingyue thinks An Guo Ting also wants to spend time alone with mom, so she wants to create opportunities for them, after all, usually both of them are busy, not many opportunities to go to the world of two people.

When An Xingyue and Night Xiu Chen arrived at the creek, they found that not many people were here, probably all went to play other things, after all, fishing is really quite a waste of time, and not necessarily caught.

The creek is very shallow, and the water is crystal clear, a fish wandering freely and leisurely, because the thought of coming out to play, so An Xingyue wore a small shorts, so now only need to change into water shoes can be.

The two long white legs of the girlfriend standing by the creek, eyes darkened, tsk, girlfriend this is testing his self-control ah.

An Xingyue did not know what was in the mind of night Xiu Chen, after all, people who have not caught a fish to the work of fishing with twelve percent enthusiasm.

Half an hour later, a fish did not catch An Xingyue silently walked back to the shore, the fish in the paper stream and she had a grudge.

As soon as she arrived on the bank, night Xiu Chen went over and touched her head, holding back a smile and said, "Moon still want to continue to catch fish? Or do you want to watch me catch?"

An Xingyue deflated her mouth, "I don't want to go down, not a single fish was caught, it's too much."

"Then you wait for me here, I will change my shoes and go down to catch fish for you, okay?" Night Xiu Chen inquired to.

"Then Ah Chen you go down, I'll watch you here, but it doesn't matter if you can't catch, it's hard to catch after all." An Xingyue patted night Xiu Chen's hand, seriously admonished to, she was afraid that the big brother will not catch fish will feel humiliated, so she had to take a precautionary shot first.

Then night Xiu Chen went down fifteen minutes to catch four fish, back on shore, An Xingyue is full of how possible? This is not scientific, I did not catch one in half an hour, why did Ah Chen catch four in fifteen minutes?

An Xingyue, who had been badly hit, decided to play somewhere else, so after Night Xiu Chen changed back into his shoes, they took the four fish in the basket and went ahead to pay for them.

After An Xingyue asked An's father and mother where they were, the two decided to continue playing on their own and not to be a light bulb.

It wasn't until lunchtime when An Dad called that An Xingyue and Night Xiu Chen went back to the eating place. Because they caught the fish, they gave them directly to the chef to help cook, and then there were many special dishes.

One by one, the dishes were served, and An's mother took pictures with interest, and then sent these pictures and some pictures she took with An's father in the morning to the new group the four of them had pulled together, before they started eating.

When they finished eating, the two of them, according to Xing Yue and Night Xiu Chen, came together to look at the photos sent by An Mama, and were a little surprised that compared to the nature of the two of them playing, An Mama and them should have strolled through the whole farmhouse, because many of the pictures in the photos were ones that she and Ah Chen had not seen.

Especially that sea of flowers, An Xingyue decided to ask her mother later where that sea of flowers was, and then dragged Ah Chen along to take pictures.
