

THE STARS ARE ORIGINALLY A PAIR - GRADUATION PHOTO

Since the last English competition, An Xingyue and Night Xiu Chen did not participate in other competitions, but like ordinary students to study peacefully in school, and then every week a small test, monthly January test, but no matter what, Night Xiu Chen and she are always dominating the first and second.

The two people's grades are stable, and then the photos of the two people on the honor roll never came down, plus everyone knows they are a couple, so every time we see the photos of the honor roll, somehow there is a feeling of being shown a face, what is this divine love?

Every time two people walk hand in hand on campus there are always people secretly glance at them, it is really curious, two high value, character and very different two people how to talk about the love? And after more than a year is still together, when I do not know how many people do not see this relationship, but now always a little unreal.

An Xingyue can not think so much, she and night Xiu Chen like are trying to go on together, no matter what, now is still very good, how about later later.

The day of the senior year seems to be doing nothing but problems, especially in the next semester, after the 100-day pledge everyone is to use up all the time, before there is a little care in the atmosphere of the rendering of people also more than a few sense of urgency.

An mother is in the next semester came to the company to apply to stay in the South City, before July are not going to travel, if not, resign, in order to send meals to the two children every week, send soup.

An Xingyue and night Xiu Chen advised her not to need this look, but An's mother is unusually strong-willed, no matter how they say, do not agree, but also said on the senior year to see them thin down, she has to give them a good supplement.

An Xingyue quite speechless, she and A Chen although there is a sense of nervousness, but they two plans are very well done, so have been very calm, but I do not know why they are still thin, so no matter how and parents say they are not nervous or something, Mom and Dad they do not believe, but also said they are thin still lying.

So An Xingyue and night Xiu Chen also have no choice, who knows why they are thin ah?

Every day watching the countdown in the classroom, closer and closer to the day of the college entrance exam, we are also more and more tense, the school side thought this look can not be, in case the tense broken, how to do?

So the school decided to give a morning for everyone to take graduation photos, and then after the group photo, you can find three or five friends to shoot together, as a morning relaxation time for everyone.

So everyone was looking forward to this day with great anticipation, although it was only a morning, but it was good.

Because of the group photo, so we are required to wear the school uniform, so you can not do it again on the clothes, many girls do it on their own face, makeup makeup.

An Xingyue is a clear stream, originally she did not want to get anything, but at the request of Su Zhiqing, put on a light makeup, and other people want to compare, she is considered simple.

The location of the group photo can be chosen by each class, but it is best to have several classes in the same place, then you do not have to hire so many photographers, so class 7, class 8, and class 12 are chosen in the flower vine corridor side, can be styled, and the background also looks good.

The three classes were the last to be photographed, because they felt they needed to refer to the first two classes' looks, and then discussed them while looking at them, because first they took a group photo with a proper teacher, and then they took a nice group photo without a teacher.

So the one without the teacher, we think to take a good shot, after graduation do not know if there is still a chance to meet, because there are some people in class seven is already decided to go abroad to study.

An Xingyue leaned on the night Xiu Chen, curved the corners of his mouth to see everyone talking about the shape of the later.

"I think there should be a C position, and then highlight the face of our seventh class, after all, the face is very important."

"Hee hee, I think we are not a little more casual better, you see, the background is so nice, too rigid always feel very abrupt."

"I also agree with a little casual, this weather, this background, can not waste ah."

"Casual can be, C position is also very important, so what to do?"

"Ah ah ah, let the big brother and the god of learning to ah, the face can just, and still a couple can two people than a heart ah, no no no, couple two people together than a heart, single nobleman than a heart themselves, hahaha."

"This can have, although it is a little cheesy than the heart, but the mood is very important."

"Brother Chen, you and sister-in-law later stand C position chant, the face of our seven classes to support up." Zhao Yuan pleasingly looked at the two people standing next to the show, said with a smile, everyone is wearing school uniforms, but the big brother and sister-in-law are wearing the taste of a couple's outfit, tsk.

Night Xiu Chen nodded, is not just standing a C position? And still with the baby, no problem.

An Xingyue originally wanted not to agree, stand C position too out of the limelight, right? Who knows A Chen nodded so quickly, so openly?

"Do not you think it is good to stand C position? Modeling does not need to think for themselves, they have all decided." Night Xiu Chen kissed the side of An Xingyue's face and said with a smile.

So reasonable oh, forget it, it's just a group photo.

So class seven no teacher's group photo, everyone or stand or sit, or two people leaning against each other, the most important thing is that couples are two people together than an insight, Wang Ya saw his class a few couples, silently covered his face, I guess only his class is so many pairs of couples, and also so blatant, too much. ( __, __ )

The other two classes of some people who have not yet left to see the casual shape of the seventh class, but also in the show love a few couples a little speechless, and then the seventh class also changed the shape of a few, let the photographer take a few more, when all washed out, after all, so neat group photo is estimated this time.

After the group photo is free photo time, many students are looking for the teacher first, class seven is also, especially class seven teacher deep class seven people's hearts, because they did not give up on them, and they progress so much and the teachers can not be separated.

After shooting with the teacher, An Xingyue pulled night Xiu Chen together to play selfie, then a bunch of them play well, let others help to take a few pictures, eight people, three couples, just ask the other two single nobleman what they think?

After all, the environment of a middle school is very good, especially now that many flowers are beginning to bloom, trees green occasionally fall a few leaves can also be used as a background.

The basketball court is playing, night Xiu Chen and a few of them down the field, and then An Xingyue held up the camera to capture the movements of night Xiu Chen, playing the ball of the big man really too handsome.

Then Su Zhiqing not only captures her family's bamboo horse, but also occasionally shoots An Xingyue and Ji Yiyang, which is really too good-looking.
