

THE STARS ARE ORIGINALLY A PAIR - SURPRISE

An Xingyue looked at Night Xiu Chen who was reading the original English text of "The Little Prince" and poked him with her pen secretly to get his attention.

Night Xiu Chen looked at An Xingyue in confusion, knowing that she used to forbid him to mess with her during class, so why did she come to disturb him first this time?

"Didn't Luna say that you can't be disturbed when a teacher is around? This time, you're the one who disturbed me first." Night Xiu Chen said in a low voice.

"I'm just asking if you're sure about it. Everyone is waiting for the old class to say the results, how come you are not worried at all." An Xingyue asked with slight confusion, "Or is it that Ah Chen is very confident in himself this time?"

Night Xiu Chen closed the book in his hand, with a smile and said, "Of course it is very confident na, Yueyaer to trust your boyfriend, when he promised something will not do, eh?"

"And I'm not the only one who's not worried about it, obviously Yueya'er herself isn't worried either." Night Xiu Chen pointed to the extracurricular books that were placed on the table by An Xingyue and laughed.

"Well, because I also have confidence ah, and I think this test is actually not that difficult." An Xingyue said lightly, and could be said to be very confident. = ω =

But it's not surprising, after all, Miss has never tried to lose in an exam before, and for her, studying is a very easy thing, and she probably knows everything she's studying now.

When the two of them chatted, Wang Ya has begun to announce the results, read the name to get the report card, but he will not read out the results on the spot, unless the progress is relatively large, or ranked in the grade will read out the results and ranking, and Wang Ya read the name is not good or bad to read, but according to the pinyin order of the last name to read, so there is no who's name in front, who's There is no such thing as whose name is in front, whose grade is good or bad.

The first thing you need to do is to get a good understanding of the people in class 7, and the people in class 7 often come to ask her questions during this period of time, so An Xingyue is also a little concerned about their grades.

When she heard Su Zhiqing's results, An Xingyue smiled, the test was not bad, so that her previous worries were unnecessary.

Well, maybe she can also let Zhiqing please eat it, after all, she also progressed this time than before, although only a few points, but is also progress ah, have to celebrate the celebration. (●?~●)

"Everyone's results are already in hand, because the first monthly exam when the parents meeting, so this midterm exam school did not intend to hold a parents meeting, but your results, the school has told parents by way of SMS, and I as the class teacher also in the SMS and your parents said some of your recent performance." Wang Ya said paused for a moment, then looked at the students below who were all terrified and laughed out loud.

"Don't worry, teacher me, I didn't say anything bad about you guys, on the contrary, I also said a lot of good things about you guys, so if your pocket money is raised afterwards, remember to come and thank the teacher, after all, it's all because of me." Wang Ya said jokingly.

"But well, here we still have to praise a certain student, that is the night Xiu Chen students, this time he ranked 23rd in the grade, a lot of progress than last time, and night Xiu Chen students are full marks in mathematics, we should learn more like him ah, but ... "Do not learn his bad, such as Love. (ノ□ノ)

Wang Ya looked at Night Xiu Chen and An Xingyue, and then said quietly in his heart, but although he did not say it, he felt that the children of class 7 were so smart that they would definitely understand what he did not say.

Class 7 students: No, we don't understand. Buzz (¯ω¯o)

"I know some students may wonder why the praise is not An Xingyue students, that is because I think every time An Xingyue students are the first, then there is no need to praise, after all, all the talk is those, I think we are tired of hearing, but still want to say a word to An Xingyue students, that is, continue to work hard, in the case of maintaining the existing results continue to charge forward, and Go for it." After saying that, Wang Ya also made a cheering action.

The exciting announcement of the results was over, and Wang Ya went back to the office after giving some explanation to Zhao Yuan, explaining that the people of Class 7 would correct the test papers of each subject first, and the class teacher would evaluate the test papers once the class started.

And after Wang Ya left, the people of class 7 immediately began to chatter and discuss the moment, after all, just Wang Ya said that their class again this time than some classes test better, and a lot of people in class 1 test poorly, even some people in the general class can not compare, let alone with An Xingyue such a god of learning than.

"Oh ooh, I've improved this time, I'll go home and get a reward from my dad."

"Hee hee, at this rate. I think I'm one step closer to that sports car I've been eyeing."

"Me too me too, my dad promised me that he would buy me a sports car, hahahaha."

"That game console I've had my eye on is already swinging at me."

. . . . .

Zhou Junxing looked at his own grades and then looked at the big guy's grades, he felt a little unbelievable, obviously during the second half of the second semester of high school and when the second year of high school just started, everyone was not learning, why did the big guy learn all this back within three months and was so good????

Why????

If he didn't know that Night Xiu Chen had followed them to class before and played games together, skipped class together, went to internet cafes together, and got into fights together, he would have suspected that Big Brother was secretly taking classes behind their backs.

Then Zhou Junxing took a look at An Xingyue's grades, and then put the grades of Night Xiu Chen and An Xingyue together, and looked at Luo Junxian dumbly and said: "Is this the power of love? Fox you said before so many teachers to persuade brother Chen to change his ways were unsuccessful, now and miss a relationship, brother Chen automatically consciously study well, why do I feel so unreal?"

"Little Zhouzi ah, you have to know that love is the same amazing thing, there is always someone you want to work for, now Brother Chen is working for his future with Xing Yue." Luo Junxian silently looked at his grades and said in a pretentious manner, but in fact he also wanted to know how exactly Chen did it. ><

"So fox you say if I find a girlfriend with good grades, will I also be like Brother Chen?" The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the public.

"The first thing you have to have a very good from the girlfriend, followed by you have to like your girlfriend very much, after all, so you will go in order to match her and go hard. But if you are just playing around, then I advise you not to look like this." Luo Junxian said bluntly.

"Ugh, I guess it's impossible for me to like a girl that much like Brother Chen." Zhou Junxing knew that with such a casual personality, it would be hard to like a girl all the time, but if it was really like, then it would really be serious.
