

THE STARS ARE ORIGINALLY A PAIR - GAMBLE (LOSE AND WEAR A SMALL SKIRT)

"Bet on it, what's the bet?" Zhou Junxing confidently accepted the bet, after all, in his opinion, night Xiu Chen with people have been improving recently, but even in the next monthly exam, he can not go to the second in the whole grade, in addition he has to prepare for the language competition, which has so much time ah?

Therefore, Zhou Junxing felt that he was sure to win this bet.

"The actual fact is that you'll be able to get a lot more than just a few of these. I remember when I went to your house a long time ago, my aunt showed me a picture of you wearing a skirt when you were a kid, so let's do it this way, I won't make it hard for you, if you get second in the class in the next monthly exam, then Jun Xing you will wear a skirt for us to see." Luo Junxian remembered that before his mother showed him a picture of Zhou Junxing wearing a small skirt, so

Hee hee, I wonder if he will still be okay in a skirt when he grows up?

Made, Zhou Junxing heard Luo Junxian's request the whole face is black, his mother is his pig teammate, as a child wear skirt this is his all black history, bias Luo Junxian this fox cunning very, coaxed his mother do not know the sky and then gave him a picture of him wearing a skirt to see, then that time he was Eddie Chen they laughed for more than a month.

"How about that? Do not dare to bet? Didn't you say that Chen definitely can't do it? Since you are so confident, then don't be a wimp." Luo Junxian looked at Zhou Junxing's hesitant face and decided to add another fire, "And if I lose, you can ask me to wear a skirt too."

The premise is that I will lose. (~▽~)

Zhou Junxing heard that if Luo Fox lost, he could also wear a skirt, his eyes lit up, if Luo Fox wore a skirt, then he would definitely take pictures with his phone.

"Okay, then it's a deal." Zhou Junxing finally made up his mind and answered this bet that bet on the man's dignity.

Luo Junxian looked at the silly child who had fallen into the pit and secretly laughed.

This fool, I'm afraid he didn't forget how great Chen's previous grades were, and now he's slowly improving just because he wants An Xingyue to help him with his tutoring.

But since he chose to forget, he is so nice that he will definitely not remind him. Hahahaha, after the next monthly exam, you can see your silly son wearing a small skirt!

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers.

Zhou Junxing turned his head and met Luo Junxian's gaze, full of teasing and curiosity, which scared Zhou Junxing and immediately turned his head back.

After calming down, Zhou Junxing found something wrong, after all, Luo Fox is also too calm, right, so sure that Brother Chen will definitely be able to test second in the whole class?

It's okay, it's okay, Luo Fox must be pretending, he must also be very upset.

The first thing you need to do is to think about it, so Zhou Junxing finally convinced himself, calmed down, and refocused on the award ceremony, which was not yet over.

After two and a half hours, this week's flag-raising ceremony plus the award ceremony was finally over.

At the time of adjournment, An Xingyue held the hand of Night Xiu Chen who walked to her side and stomped on her legs that were numb from standing, she felt that every time she stood for the award ceremony, she felt like she was back to the time when she stood in military posture for military training.

"Is it very numb?" Night Xiu Chen caressed Ping Xingyue's frowning brow and asked worriedly.

After all, he is a boy, and also went to the military camp stretching, so stand these few hours, nothing feel.

An Xingyue tilted her head and looked at him, then lowered her head and patted her calf with her other hand a few times, then said, "It's okay, just a little numb from standing for a long time, it's much better now."

After saying that, An Xingyue smiled at Night Xiu Chen, "Let's go."

"Okay." Night Xiu Chen heard An Xingyue say just a little numb, want to help her relax, but now there are still so many people around, even if he is willing, An Xingyue will not give, after all, there are still some teachers in, do the appearance or have to have.

So, the big man just let An Xingyue help him, and then together they went to the kiosk.

Zhou Junxing and Luo Junxian had just left with Eddie Chen, while Su Zhiqing was taken away by Mo Zhicheng, An Xingyue took a look at the location of the first class and found that they were the entire class taken away by the class teacher, so it is estimated that they will have to go back to the ideological conference again.

After An Xingyue entered the kiosk, she went straight to the chocolate spot, while Night Xiu Chen held her hand and carefully protected her. After all, everyone comes to buy things at this time, although there are other kiosks, but this one is closer to the school building, so if you hurry, everyone will choose here.

An Xingyue picked a few chocolates, then some delicious cookies, and finally went to the beverage section to get two bottles of yogurt, although night Xiu Chen prefers to drink cola than yogurt, but An Xingyue thinks cola is not good to drink too much, so every time he comes to buy yogurt for him.

After the checkout, night Xiu Chen smoothly carried a bag of snacks in his hand, and then held An Xingyue with the other hand. The two people attracted everyone's attention with their extremely high face value and public relationship. Although they have been together for a long time, but every time I see it is still so envious.

After all, there are not too many opportunities to see the school bully so gentle these days. (☆▽☆)

After the two returned to the classroom, An Xingyue handed a bottle of yogurt and a packet of small cookies to Night Xiu Chen, then saw Su Zhiqing and gave her a piece of chocolate, and also asked her if she wanted cookies, after all, after knowing that she was pulled away by Mo Zhicheng, An Xingyue was still a little nervous.

Since the last time she and Su Zhiqing chatted, she could find Su Zhiqing later had to avoid Mo Zhicheng, when she also said her that the two of them are childhood friends, and now still live next door, can hide to where?

Just now Mo Zhicheng should not be able to resist directly to her, just do not know whether the two people have a good talk? Anyway, from Su Zhiqing's expression, An Xingyue did not see it.

The first thing you need to do is to ask for the information.

And, An Xingyue glanced at the night Xiu Chen who was drinking yogurt, she felt it was more important to have this person in front of her, other people's affairs are other people's own affairs any more, she minded her family this is good.

After all, the big brother rarely fights lately, as for whether there is a fight in the place she can't see, then she will not pursue, anyway, she did not see it.

And the big brother really did it, it is estimated that others first provoked, yes, in An Xingyue seems to be this way.
